1st day 24th of 6 M / Our meetings were both well attended In the forenoon D Buffum & in the Afternoon Father Rodman, were engaged in short testimonies - Took tea at Father Rodmans, & in the eveng called to see Mary

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Williams. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 25, Monday: Konzertstück J.282 for piano and orchestra by Carl Maria von Weber was performed for the initial time, in Berlin. During this program Weber accompanied the renowned French violinist Alexandre Boucher in his Variations on a Norwegian Air but, after beginning, Boucher motioned Weber to stop playing and went on a lengthy bizarre riff. When he found himself unable to segue back from this he covered by dropping his violin, embracing Weber and shouting “Ah grand maitre! que j’aime, que j’admire!” — one of the high moments of low comedy.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 25th of 6th M / We have frequent warnings of the uncertainty of time, Some of them very sudden & Awful This Afternoon our neighbour Henry Moores daughter Harriet was brought south from Providence a corpse whither she went in usual health & was taken in a fit & died [in?] a few days Aged about 14 Years. —

Some days ago a man from beyond Providence came down with his wife & took quarters at the Widow Billings in the Wanton House, a few nights After his Wife was taken in a fit & lays very low. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 28, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 28th of 6th M 1821 / Rode this mornng to Portsmouth to attend the Moy [Monthly] Meeting — Stpoed at Uncle Peter Lawtons - At meeting Anne Dennis - Jonathon Dennis - Hannah Dennis & D Buffum all delivered testimonies — & I dont know but on the whole it was a pretty good Meeting, tho’ in my mind the stream of life did not rise as it sometimes does.—

The buisness in the last meeting went on to good satisfaction - the brethren Harmonising together -

My H being with me we Dined at Uncle Thurstons took tea at Uncle Stantons & on our way home we Stoped at Uncle R Mitchells, so in the course of the day having visited four Uncles, by marriage - got home about Dark. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 1, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 1st of 7th M 1821 / In the forenoon Hannah Dennis & father Rodman were engaged in short testimonys - In the Afternoon Abigail Robinson was concerned in a short communication being the language of encouragement, & was very Sweet to my feelings - Tho’ I did not think what she said was immediately applicable to me yet it met me on such ground, that her language was intelligable to my feelings

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Our national birthday, the 4th of July: Nathaniel Hawthorne's, or Hathorne's, 17th birthday.

Since President James Monroe was ill, the Executive Mansion was closed to the public. At a ceremony held at the Capitol, Secretary of State John Quincy Adams read aloud from an original copy of the Declaration of Independence. In Philadelphia, 90-year-old Timothy Matlack, the man who "wrote the first commission" for General George Washington, was chosen to be the one to read aloud that Declaration.

CELEBRATING OUR B-DAY

Silvestre Pinheiro Ferreira became Secretary of State (prime minister) of Portugal.

News of the demise of Napoléon reached London. After the report of the panel of 15 peers, the government introduced a bill in the House of Lords, "Pains and Penalties 1820," that would deprive Lady Caroline Amelia of Brunswick-Wolfenbüttel, Princess of Wales of the title of Queen Consort and dissolve her marriage with King George IV on account of her alleged adultery. Caroline would joke, with friends, that indeed she had once committed adultery, with the husband of a Mrs. Fitzherbert.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 4th of 7 M / This has as usual been a day of noise in Town, but with all I have not learned any accident has taken place. - We have had our Cousins John Mary & Edwin Casey with us for a day or two from Greenwich

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 5, Thursday: John Thoreau, Jr.'s 7th birthday.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 5th of 7M / Our Meeting was nearly silent, & to me it was a very dull hard time, but dull as it was, I did indeavour to maintain the warfare & at times over come the enemy - This Afternoon attended the funeral of Betsy Buffum

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 7, Saturday: Emma, ou La promesse imprudente, an opera comique by Daniel Francois Esprit Auber to words of Planard, was performed for the initial time, in the Theatre Feydeau, Paris.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 7th of 7 M / This Afternoon Rode with Aunt M Stanton to her house in Portsmouth & lodged -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

July 8, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day Rode to Portsmouth Meeting with Aunt Stanton It was a season of close conflict in my mind & some help was witnessed - Mary Hicks & Anne Dennis appeared in short testimonials - Returned to Dine at Uncle Stanton's, spent the Afternoon & finding my stay necessary, till too late to come home, Staid all night & on @nd day Morning came home -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 12, Thursday: After Lima had been abandoned by the Spanish, Don José Francisco de San Martín paraded his army into the city to the cheers of its populace. He would soon lay claim to the title "Protector del Perú" and sponsor a declaration of independence from Spain.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 12th of 7th M 1821 / Our first meeting was a season of favor tho' the number was small yet life did freely flow & Hannah Dennis was engaged in a lively testimony at two different standings - After the close of it the SELECT MEETING met, the buisness was conducted with weight, tho' life was rather row [low] we had the company of Abigail Robinson which is the first time She has ever met in Select meeting Since I have been a member of it, it was pleasant that her health would admit of her being with us today. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 15, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 15th of 7th M / Both meetings were silent, & I am inclined to think the precious life was generally low. - In the Afternoon Hannah Dennis went to Coasters Harbour & had a meeting with the Poor at the Assylum. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 19, Thursday: The delayed coronation banquet for King George IV, "George the Fourth, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland King, Defender of the Faith," was finally staged in Westminster Hall. Although the coronation of King George III had cost only about £10,000, this one would sum up to about £243,000. His squat official wife, Lady Caroline Amelia of Brunswick-Wolfenbützel, Princess of Wales, had returned to England for the occasion but was not welcome at his coronation. She would be turned away at 6AM dressed to the nines at the doors to the East Cloister of Westminster Abbey, then at the doors to the West Cloister, and then at the main entrance to Westminster Hall itself. The king had hired a bunch of bodybuilders and attired them in page costumes, and this group under the command of the champion pugilist Gentleman Jackson was charged to stand sturdily in blockage of her path. Bayonets were held under her chin and the Deputy Lord Chamberlain had the doors closed in her face. She then proceeded to a door near Poet's Corner, where she was persuaded to desist and rode away in her carriage to the jeers of onlookers: "Back to Pergami!" She went home and after a dinner party which she spoiled by copious weeping, took a dose of milk of magnesia and some drops of laudanum and went off to bed. The monarch would refuse to recognize her as his Queen and would oblige the British ambassadors to ensure that monarchs in foreign courts did the same. By royal command Caroline's name would be omitted from the Book of Common Prayer, the liturgy of the Church of England.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

When the monarch would seek a divorce, however, he would be warned that any divorce proceedings might well involve the publication of sordid details relating not only to the Queen's extensive series of adulteries, but also to the King's. The monarch would spend most of his later reign in seclusion at Windsor Castle. Numerous statues of him would be erected during his reign (a bronze on horseback by Sir Francis Chantrey in Trafalgar Square, for instance, and another outside the Royal Pavilion in Brighton), and such statues would hold still and remain silent and represent considerable improvements on the presence of the actual royal personage.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 19th of 7 M / Our Meeting was a silent comfortable time In the last (preparative) we had no buisness but what [was] usual. — This Afternoon rode to Portsmouth to Uncle Saml Thurstons — I was under appointment to visit Hannah Brown (late

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Lawton) for marrying out of the order of society - Jethro Mitchell & I went together & before we got thro' it was too late to come home so I lodged at Jethro's & 6th day Mornng walked home before breakfast. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 22, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 22nd of 7 M 1821 / Yesterday towards night with my wife crossed the ferry to Connanicut to take our turn in the committee to attend the Meeting lodged at Cousin J Greenes & was very unwell in the night, but this morning felt better & went to Meeting which was a season of some favor, but most of the time it was under suffering that I came at any thing that I desired. -Dined at J ? Greenes & after dinner he kindly brought us across in his little boat.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 24, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 24 of 7 M / have had much lowness & discouragement of mind for several days. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 26, Thursday: Russia severed relations with the Ottoman Empire due to the latter's refusal to guarantee the safety of its Christian subjects.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 26 of 7 M / Our Moy [Monthly] Meeting this day was in a good degree comfortable, in the first Father Rodman was engaged in a short testimony - In the last our buisness went on pretty well-
A request was sent forward by Portsmouth Preparative meeting from ADam Anthony to be admitted to membership -
Jos Greene, P Lawton Saml & Anne Dennis dined with us -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 29, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 29th of 7 M / Our Meetings were both Silent & hardly as large as usual & both were poor & weak as respected myself - Between Meetings was called to the house of Patience Tucker who had just deceased - no other of the Funeral committee being handy I had to make arrangements for the funeral - & as the house was so very small where she lived thought with the advice of several friends that it was best to meet at the Meeting house tomorrow at ? Oclock - [obsured -]

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

August 1, Wednesday: Samuel Kneeland, Jr. was born in Boston, Massachusetts, the 1st son of the merchant Samuel Kneeland (May 8, 1794-) and Nancy Burt Johnson Kneeland. The infant was cross-eyed. He would be educated at Boston Latin School.

Friends and members of the Protestant Episcopal Church met at 5PM in a Raleigh, North Carolina home and agreed to form a congregation to be known by the name of "Congregation of Christs [sic] Church." They elected a 5-member Vestry that included John Haywood, State Treasurer of North Carolina, as Senior Warden, John Louis Taylor, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of North Carolina, as Junior Warden, and William Henry Haywood, Jr., later a United States Senator, as Clerk.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 1st of 8 M 1821 / Rode in the Stage this mornig to Portsmouth & -?[obscured] the Select Quarterly Meeting - Dined at Uncle R Mitchells came home with Uncle Stantons Waggon & returned with H & John & lodged at Uncle Stantons. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 2, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 2nd of 8th M 1821 / Our First Meeting was large & in a degree favourd, but the Service was hurt by injudicious appearances of those who were real well wishers to the cause. - In the last the buisness went on well & I hope Truth lost no ground - Returned at Uncle Stantons Dined & lodged - & on 6th day Morning came home. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 5, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 5th of 8 M / Morning Meeting silent, to me a season of leanness, but was favoured to labor - In the Afternoon Ruth Meely a friend from Vermont formerly Ruth Fish of this Moy [Monthly] Meeting was engaged in a very lively & pertinent testimony.- Siste Ruth took tea & set the evening & gave us a pleasant account of her journey to Providence to attend the School committee

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

August 7, Tuesday: At 10:25PM Lady Caroline Amelia of Brunswick-Wolfenbüttel, Princess of Wales, inconvenient wife of King George IV of England who had been ailing ever since being barred in the previous November from his coronation in Westminster Abbey, finally died at Brandenburg House of an intestinal obstruction which may have been cancer. She had reached the age of 53. Right up to the end she had been being spied upon and reported upon by agents of the king. The king was aboard his yacht when he received the news, and retired to his cabin for the remainder of the day. The people, who would not be required by the government to officially mourn, again rallied to her. "she's dead, great Caroline is dead.... The Rose of England is no more." Crowds assembled to witness her funeral procession and insist upon a proper route for it, so the English monarch had his Life Guards fire into the crowds — despite two deaths the public refused to disperse.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 7 of 8 M / Rode to Portsmouth this Afternoon with Zacheus Chase, lodged at Uncle Stantons - 4th day morning Walked to Meeting, went across the Land & stoped at Richd Sissons & on my way our to the rode passed by the old Sisson House which I believe is the only one on the Island that has leaden windows Sashes & dimond glass - was caught in a shower of Rain & stoped at ? Sissons & saw his mother aged 86 Years, a sociable, pleasant & intelligent old woman. - At Meeting which was a solid[?] time, Ruth Meely engaged in testimony, to the consolation of many minds present. - Dined at Uncle Thurstons & in the Afternoon had an opportunity with Adam Anthony in consequence of his request to be admitted to membership - Took tea with Adam & in the eveng he brought me home in his Chaise

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 9, Thursday: The first building of Amherst Academy was dedicated by an address by Noah Webster.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 9th of 8 M 1821 / Our Meeting was pretty well attended & a very comfortable season it was, for my share of which I desire to be thankful - Hannah Dennis was very lively & large in testimony - father Rodman was also engaged in a short & pretty lively testimony. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 12, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 12th of 8 M 1821 / Our meetings were both solid - D Buffum in the forenoon & father Rodman in the Afternoon deliver'd short testimonials - After meeting in the Afternoon by request of Geo [?] Hazard set out with his son Alfred to go to Plainfield in Connecticut to place him at Rowland Greenes school The first night we lodged at Uncle Stantons. 2nd day [Monday] morning rose early & reached Benj Pearces at the Toll gate in Portsmouth & took breakfast then crossed Bristol ferry & rode to Warren where we fed our horse, then went on to Providence & reached Moses Brown's

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

& lodged - 3rd day Morning proceeded on our journey stoped at several places to rest, & reached Sterling to dinner then went on & reached Rowlands House by the middle of the Afternoon - found it a pleasant situation, & the people also very pleasant within doors

Lodged there & on 4th day Morning, left my charge - & proceeded homewards, suffering much with the heat - dined at Fishes tavern in Scituate - then came -[obscured] & got into town in season to take a dish of tea at Obadiah Browns, walked round Providence to transact a little buisness & then rode out to Moses Browns & lodged, spending the evening in his very interesting company - 5th day Morning went up to the Yearly Meeting School & spent a little time very satisfactorily with the Superintendent & teachers, then came on to Warren and Dined & in the Afternoon reached home

This little journey has been in a good degree proffitable to me - my views have been extended, I have seen a greater extent of inland country than I ever did before, - it was the first time, & may be the only time I ever shall be in the State of Connecticut. - The Scenerey of the country has afforded an abundant theme for reflection & much beyond my theme of contemplation. - but according to my measure, I endeavour'd to proffit by it - In & about Providence I met with some of my friends that I love, & whose company is proffitable, so that altho' there has been no pecuniary benefit, yet is has been no loss. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 17, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 17th of 8 m 1821 / This morning visited my Uncle Benjamin Gould who is in the 87th Year of his Age & so very low as to be apparantly near the close of life, hourly his dissolution may be expected. In consequence of an old family difficulity I have not been in the habit of visiting him since I was a boy & was afraid visiting him at this late period when he is so low as to speak but in a whisper, would disturb him. - but on going into the room, I found he looked quiet appeared to know me & on my inquiring of him how he did he answered in a whisper in his usual reply, that he was "meagre" - on sitting with him I felt a degree of quietude (tho not wholly free from exercise) yet a hope was raised in my heart that his peace was made. - on parting with he he squeezed my hand. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 19, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 19th of 8 M / Mary Morton was engaged in testimony in the forenoon & father Rodman in the Afternoon --After meeting in the Afternoon with Job Sherman visited J-[obscured] Mason

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

aged 84 Years. he is a seventh day Baptist, & very Sweet & lively in spirit. I dont know when I have visited any old man that seemed more quiet in spirit & being with him, did raise in my mind strong desires that my last days might be as tranquil as his. –

In a thunder gust last evening two men were drowned near Rose Island, a boat went off this Afternoon to look for them but found only their boat. One was Elisha Billington of this town & the other Simmons of Connanicut. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 20, Monday: A meeting was held at Canandaigua's Mill's Hotel to discuss the building of a canal linking Canandaigua Lake with the Erie Canal. John C. Spencer, James D. Bemis, Asa Stanley, Dudley Marvin, William H. Adams were appointed to study a route.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 20th of 8 M 1821 / Between 11 & 12 OClock at night Uncle BENJAMIN GOULD departed this life In the 87th Year of his Age, he was the oldest child of my Grandfather James Gould & Martha his wife - he is all the own Uncle I ever knew, there was another brother by the name of Joseph but he died before I was born. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 22, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 22 of 8 M / Attended the funeral of Uncle Benjamin Gould, it was a solid sitting of Friends - silent & concluded to satisfaction. - his remains were decently interred in the Burying ground near friends Meeting House, where his last wife several of his children his Father & Mother & his grandfather Stanton are all buried. - After the funeral we returned home with cousin Henry & took tea in company with David Buffum & wife, Jonathon Dennis & wife & severl others. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 23, Thursday: Three songs by Franz Schubert were published by Cappi and Diabelli, Vienna as his op.6: "Memnon" and "Antigone und Oedip" to words of Mayrhofer, and "Am Grabe Anselmos" to words of Claudius.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 23rd of 8 M / Silent but comfortable Meeting – in the Preparative meeting we had no buisness. – - In the Afternoon the committee met & Adam Anthony at our House, on the subject of his request which was[?] solid & satisfactory, & we agreed on a report to the Moy [Monthly] Meeting
My mind in the investigation of Adams application has been concerned to[?] feel after true judgement where by we may be

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

satisfied both with [obscured] his[?] and our own Conduct – Whoever is engaged rightly in the concerns in society will find frequent need of deep dipping –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 26, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 26th of 8 M 1821 / In the forenoon Meeting Father Rodman delivered a short but impressive testimony on the subject of death. – Silent in the Afternoon. – After meeting took a walk with John over to the Point & called in a few moments to see A Robinson & Mary Morton. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 30, Thursday: The New York state constitutional convention began in Albany.

Franz Schubert's female chorus Der 23. Psalm, translated by Moses Mendelssohn, was performed for the initial time, in the Gundelhof, Vienna.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 30 of 8 M / Rose early & with my H rode to Portsmouth to attend our Moy [Monthly] Meeting on the way went down to Uncle Stantons of which circumstance I was glad as Aunt would not have been able to get to meeting without our assistance as Uncle was lame & The boy not at home
At the first meeting Anne Dennis appeared in a few words follow'd by Mary Morton Hannah Dennis & Ruth Mealy all well adapted & pertinent & I thought it a pretty good meeting – In the last Adam Anthony was received into Membership – & Several other subjects of weight & importance came before us, some of them occasioned close exercise, but on the whole I considerd truth gained the Victory & the meeting closed pretty well – We returned with Aunt Patty & dined, & then rode home*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 2, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1 day 2nd of 9th M 1821 / In the forenoon Father Rodman & in the Afternoon Mary Morton & Hannah Dennis were engaged in short testimonys. – Poverty in both Meetings were my portion. – In the evening called at D Williams to see Wm R Thurston & his wife from NYork, but finding they were not at home, went down to Sally Eastons where we found them, & his wife to be appeared an amiable intersting & religious woman. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

September 6, Thursday: After his retirement and after the deaths of his wife, a son, and a daughter, the Reverend Vicesimus Knox II had resided upon the Adelphi Terrace in London.

At this point he died of an obstruction of the bowels in the 69th year of his age, while paying a visit to one of his two surviving sons, the Reverend Thomas Knox, in Tonbridge in Kent where this son had succeeded him as headmaster at the Tonbridge School. His remains would be deposited in the chancel of the parish church on the 13th and eventually a memorial would be positioned there:

TO THE MEMORY OF VICESIMUS KNOX, D.D.
MASTER OF TUNBRIDGE SCHOOL, AND RECTOR OF RUNWELL AND RAMSDEN CRAYS IN ESSEX.
BORN DEC. 8, 1752. — DIED, SEPT. 6, 1821.

A SOUND DIVINE,
AN ELEGANT AND PROFOUND SCHOLAR,
A POLISHED AND POWERFUL WRITER,
AN ELOQUENT, ZEALOUS, AND PERSUASIVE PREACHER OF THE GOSPEL,
HE EMPLOYED HIS HIGH ENDOWMENTS
TO THE GLORY OF GOD,
AND THE MORAL AND INTELLECTUAL IMPROVEMENT OF MAN.
ANXIOUS EVER TO ADVANCE THE HAPPINESS OF HIS FELLOW-CREATURES, UPON THE PUREST PRINCIPLES OF CHRISTIAN PHILANTHROPY, WITH A LOFTY SPIRIT OF INDEPENDENCE,

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

AND A RARE DISINTERESTEDNESS IN CONDUCT, HE DISREGARDED THE ORDINARY OBJECTS OF WORLDLY AMBITION, AND SHEWED HIMSELF ON ALL OCCASIONS
THE ENEMY OF PUBLIC ABUSES,
THE FRIEND OF CIVIL AND RELIGIOUS LIBERTY,
THE OPPONENT OF OFFENSIVE WAR,
THE PROMOTER OF PEACE, AND THE ADVOCATE OF ALL THE CLAIMS OF HUMANITY.

“HE BEING DEAD YET SPEAKETH.”

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 6 of 9 M / Our Meeting was larger than usual a number of Strangers were present some that were & some that were not Members. – Jonathon & Hannah Dennis both delivered short testimonies – & I thought it was a pretty good meeting. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

September 9, Sunday: There was a hurricane at the islands of Antigua and St.Barths in the Caribbean. Warner,

HURRICANES

New Hampshire experienced a severe tornado which is said to have commenced near Lake Champlain. This phenomenon passed over Lake Sunapee and through a portion of New London and Sutton, and entered that part of Warner called the Gore not far from the base of Kearsarge Mountain. The barn of William Harwood was carried away, and the homes of M.F. Goodwin, J. Ferrin, and Abner Watkins were damaged. Ferrin's barn was ripped to pieces and Watkins's barn lost its roof. A stone weighing six hundred pounds moved several feet. At the home of Daniel Savory, his 72-year-old father Samuel and the women who were present were upstairs attempting to secure an open window when the tornado lifted the building and whirled it. The bodies of six of the family would be recovered from the wreckage. Samuel Savory's brains had been dashed out. His wife Elizabeth was badly injured by the debris. Daniel Savory's wife Mary had severe bruises, and her infant in arms did not survive. The nearby house of Robert Savory was also lost, and all eight members of the family were hurt to one degree or another. John Palmer, half a mile away, saw the cloud coming, too late, and would relate that it looked like an inverted funnel. The buildings of Peter Flanders were torn apart, and the Flanders infant was very severely injured. A Miss Anna Richardson was killed. The buildings of Deacon Joseph True, in the corner of Salisbury, New Hampshire, were demolished and the entire family buried in chimney bricks. The deacon's life was saved when a huge timber stuck endways into the ground within two feet of the place in which he was standing, because then the wreckage falling upon that upright piece protected him from being crushed. He was able to dig his family out from under more than a foot of crushed bricks. The oven had just been heated and the brick wreckage he removed was so hot that his fingers burned to the bone. At the end, the tornado passed again into Warner, tearing down another barn and passing over a pond in such manner as to draw its waters noticeably up at its center. The tornado then played itself out in a quarter of the woods bordering on what would become Webster, New Hampshire.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

William C. Redfield of Connecticut would follow a portion of the path of this hurricane on foot, and would notice that in some places where trees had been knocked over, they had been knocked over toward the southeast, whereas elsewhere some fruit trees and some corn plants had been knocked down toward the northwest. He correctly inferred therefore, in the Ben-Franklin manner, that these hurricanes must be of the nature of whirlwinds. (Other meteorologists of the time, however, would disagree, insisting that because hurricanes were driven by convection forces, the general movement of air in a hurricane must be upward rather than at a horizontal angle.)

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 9th of 9th M 1821 / In the forenoon Meeting Father Rodman & in the Afternoon D Buffum had short but lively testimonies & to me the Afternoon (particularly) was a season of some favor, for which I desire to be thankful Oh the leanness of my spirit of late. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 12, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 12th of 9 M / Attended the funeral of John Goddards Child about 14 Months old - it was to me a season of favor, it seemed a little like the removal of the Vale, or a change from a state of leanness to a state of sweet tenderness, for which I desire to be thankful. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 13, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 13 of 9 M / Our Meeting was to me rather an unsettled season but a degree of favor was experienced - A few words by J Dennis - At 2 O'clock the committee in care of the Request of John A Wardsworth met at our house, which was a solid interesting opportunity - After which I rode to Portsmouth with Benjamin & Niobe Marshall who arrived just before Meeting time on a visit to their father & Mother, we got there in season to return before dark. - Aunt Patty had gone to take a ride with Ellen, but Uncle was at home & highly pleased to see his children & grandchild -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 16, Sunday: Tsar Alyeksandr of Russia claimed the west coast of North America from the Bering Sea to latitude 51° north. He further banned foreign ships from coming within 185 kilometers of the coast.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 16th of 9th M / Our Morning Meeting was large & favord
- Mary Morton was first engaged in a lively testimony, her*

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*opening was [obscure] ist the Devil & he will flee from us & was favord to shew the -ration of the divine principle, the way to escape temptation & finally land safe in the kingdom of heaven -The Hannah Dennis was large in testimony & much favord on the general subjects of religion - Then David Buffum pointed out the operations of truth & endeavoured to turn our minds to the principle, from the outward to the inward Stating that we [-] ed must talk about religion, must bubbly [?] theory we [-] no more about religion than we did about a country [-]rewing a map, but the way to have a correct understanding was to go & see the country, so with religion, doctrine & theory would answer no better purpose but we must come to the experimental part, to feel it in our selves & obey its leadings & directions & concluded with saying what an Awful thing it would be should the language be applicable to any "The summers is past & the harvest is ended & we are not gathered "Then Hannah Dennis rose & very feelingly addressed the Aged particularly & concluded with a few words to the Middle aged & the Youth. -
In the Afternoon we had a short but lively testimony from father Rodman. -
In the evening I visited my cousins, Peggy & Hannah Gould. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 20, Thursday: Captain Hezekiah Weatherbee [Wetherbee] got married with Grace E. Baker [Billings].

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 20th of 9 M 1821 / Silent Meeting. - & in The last there was some buisness - Jm Wilbour reported as having married out of the order of Society. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 23, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 23rd of 9 M / Silent meeting in the forenoon - in the Afternoon a few words from father Rodman. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 27, Thursday: Augustin de Iturbide entered Mexico City in triumph after his Mexican forces defeated Spanish troops.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 27th of 9 M / Our Moy [Monthly] Meeting was this day held in town. The first was a season of some favor, Anne Dennis was concerned in a few words - Anne Greene followed in a communication of some length & father Rodman closed in a short testimony - in the last Meeting we had but little buisness & The Meeting closed at a little past on OClock Uncle Saml Thurston &

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Aunt Stanton Dined with us, after which My H & John went out with Aunt Stanton intending to Spend a few days on a visit to them -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 29, Saturday: The Boston Handel and Haydn Society Collection of Church Music, compiled by Lowell Mason, was announced in the leading American music journal, The Euterpeiad.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 29th of 9 M 1821 / Towards night Cousin Henry Gould took me to Portsmouth in his Chaise as far as black Sam's Corner & I walked from thence down to Uncle Stanton's, & staid all night

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 30, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

Next Morning took Aunt Patty my H & John in the Waggon & went to meeting - Abigail Sherman & Anne Dennis said a little & I thought it was a pretty good meeting - returned & dined at Uncle Stanton's & in the Afternoon returned home, rode part of the way & walked a part of the way, leaving Hannah & John to complete their visit.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 5, Friday: The publication of twelve Monferrinas for piano op.49 by Muzio Clementi was entered at Stationer's Hall, London.

Greek rebels captured Tripolitza in the Morea and massacred the Turks living there.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 5th of 10th M 1821 / On buisness of the Estate of the late Mary Tillinghast, I went this Morning to the Island of Prudence. We took Quarters at Saml Pearces[?], & on 7th day evening about a 1 / 2 past 7 OC after we had finished our buisness & got our supper we got on board the boat & by Moon light had a pleasant Sail down the river & got home before bed time. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 7, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 7th of 10th M / Both our Meetings were Silent, but pretty well attended - to me they were seasons of great poverty & need, Oh! that it was a season of more life, but I hope not to be in a State I am now in for any great length of time. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

October 11, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 11th of 10th M / Our Meeting was a season of some favor to me Father Rodman & Anned Dennis delivered short testimonies- The Select Meeting was a season of depression as to life

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 13, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 13th of 10 M / This Afternoon to Connanicut to take my turn as one of the committee to attend the Meeting there. lodged at cousin Greenes - Next Morning went to Meeting, the tide was so high that I had to wade across the bridge & this reminded me of the primitive going [-] meeting - The Meeting was a favord time to me & after Dining at Joseph Greenes crossed the ferry & came home -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 18, Thursday: John Wedderburn Halkett was in Montréal as an executor of the estate of Thomas Douglas, 5th Earl of Selkirk, when he was confronted in front of his hotel by a couple of former North West Company employees. Angry at what he had written about their activities in Canada, they threatened him with a horsewhip, whereupon he had them arrested. As a precaution he then armed himself with a brace of pistols. That evening he was attacked with a whip by Jasper Vandersluys and struck twice, whereupon he shot Vandersluys. Wounded, Vandersluys would get him charged with “assault with the intent to kill” — but that charge would then be dropped.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 18th of 10 M 1821 / Our meeting was a season of no small suffering as we sat in the Middle part & The weather was very cold & raw A few words were spoken by Father Rodman, after which the opportunity soon closed

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 21, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 21 of 10th M / Our Mornng Meeting seemed to be a remarkably solid season, soon after we were settled, life rose in my mind, & I thought spread - Mary Morton was engaged in a very lively solid & pertinent testimony
In the Afternoon we were favoured with a good degree of the Mornings Solidity & some reverences & the Meeting closed in Silence. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Waldo Emerson to his journal:

In England they are hardened by long unquestioned custom to survey with indifference this odious spectacle [of political corruption]. Indeed I know not what of malignant crime, of dark enormity, or wide-spread wickedness would startle the public mind there. I am proud and thankful when I contrast this with the uncontaminated innocence of my own country and it is this comparative purity joined to the energy of a youthful people still free from the complicated difficulties of an old government which constitutes the distinction and promise of this nation [the USA].

 October 25, Thursday: The Kyrie and Gloria from the Missa Solemnis by Ludwig van Beethoven were performed for the initial time, in the Landstandischer Saal, Vienna.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 25 of 10th M / Last evening Uncle Stanton sent his Waggon in & with My H & John went to Portsmouth & lodged at his House - This forenoon we went to Meeting - In the first, father Rodman spoke a little which to me was Savory, & it was a pretty good meeting - In the last which was our Moy [Monthly] Meeting we had considerable buisness, attended with exercise, but Truth rose over all & had dominion over all wrong things - John A Wadsworth was recd into membeership, & Holder C Weeden & Abby Anthony proposed their intentions of Marriage - After Meeting which held pretty late in consequence of considerable buisness -we Rode back to Uncle Stantons & again lodged, as there was not time for the Carriage to come to Town & return -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 October 26, Friday: Hector Berlioz received a passport for domestic travel at the Grenoble Town Hall. Before the month was out, he would use it to travel to Paris to study the art of medicine.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

This 6 day Uncle Brot us home.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 October 28, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day, 28th of 10th M / Our Meetings were well attended Solid & good, in the forenoon father Rodman was concerned in testimony

HDTWHAT?INDEX

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Perhaps thy lot in life is higher Than the fates assign to me
While they fulfil thy large desire
And bid my hopes as visions flee
But grant me still in joy or sorrow
In grief or hope to claim thy heart
And I will then defy the morrow
Whilst I fulfil a loyal part.

MEMORY SKETCH OF MARTIN GAY, BY EMERSON

In his Journal for 1821

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

- in the Afternoon J Dennis & Mary Morton were concerned - We set the evening at father Rodmans, Mary Morton was also there -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 1, Thursday: George Gordon, Lord Byron arrived in Pisa. (The Gambas had preceded him during August.)

When the Lake Erie Steamboat Company's Great Lakes steamer Walk-in-the-Water, 1st steamship to have plied the Great Lakes waterways on a regular schedule, ran aground during a storm in Lake Erie off Buffalo, there were no injuries. Judge Samuel Wilkinson made a deal with a representative of the steamboat company: he would see to it that the boat was freed by May 1st of the following year or forfeit $150 for each day that deadline was missed, whereas if that deadline was met, the company would commission the building of a new boat in Buffalo.

TIMELINE OF ACCIDENTS

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 11th M 1st 1821 / Our meeting was very small owing to its being a Stormy day & the Quarterly Meeting that is now Sitting at Swansey. - to me it was a season of wading but by keeping under the exercise & a pretty close watch (for me) I thought the meeting was favord in closing solidly. - It would have been greatful to have been able to go to the Quarterly meeting & from thence to Providence to meet with the School committee, but So is my way hedged about, in such away that much travelling is not proper for me - may, I however cultivate in my mind a spirit of gratitude for favors vouchsafed & humbly hope for more.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 4, Sunday: In Weimar, Felix Mendelssohn met Johann Wolfgang von Goethe for the initial time. In spite of the vast difference in their ages, over the following couple of weeks the two would forge a strong friendship. Felix had brought several songs by his sister Fanny on Goethe texts — the poet was delighted and would in gratitude compose a poem for Fanny. Also present was the Weimar Kapellmeister, Johann Nepomuk Hummel.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 4th of 11th M / Our Meetings were both Silent & small, the day being rainy. - to me seasons of wading, but some help experienced, for which I desire to be thankful. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

November 8, Thursday, evening: Captain Jackson's brig Cobbesecontee had sailed that morning from Havana for Boston. He had only proceeded about four miles from Moro Castle when brought to by a vessel with about 30 pirates. Captain Jackson had noticed their sloop at Regla the day before. These Cubans took the personal items of the captain and his mate, stripping them nearly naked. They broke a large broadsword across the captain's back and stabbed him through his thigh so that he almost bled to death. After they beat the mate, he was hanged under the maintop. From the cargo were obtained three bales of cochineal and six boxes of cigars. Captain Jackson would confirm a report brought by other American sailors who had been brought to grief in Havana, that some of the local whites were openly countenancing these acts of piracy against US citizens — as a gesture of retaliation against US interference with the Cuban slave trade.

INTERNATIONAL SLAVE TRADE

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day of 11 M / Our Meeting was small - a considerable portion of those who generally attend were absent at David Buffums where Sarah Sherman has lain very ill for some weeks & while the Meeting was sitting today She expired - She was a [-]lid [solid?, words obscured by binding crease] young woman & tho' all the forepart of her illness she was deprived of her mental powers, but a few days previous to her death she came to her understanding & expressed her reconciliation to the Solemn Change -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

THE WEST INDIA PIRATES

CONTAINING ACCOUNTS OF THEIR ATROCITIES, MANNERS OF LIVING, &C., WITH PROCEEDINGS OF THE SQUADRON UNDER COMMODORE PORTER IN THOSE SEAS, THE VICTORY AND DEATH OF LIEUTENANT ALLEN, THE INTERESTING NARRATIVE OF CAPTAIN LINCOLN, &C.²⁷⁴

Those innumerable groups of islands, keys and sandbanks, known as the West-Indies, are peculiarly adapted from their locality and formation, to be a favorite resort for pirates; many of them are composed of coral rocks, on which a few cocoa trees raise their lofty heads; where there is sufficient earth for vegetation between the interstices of the rocks, stunted brushwood grows. But a chief peculiarity of some of the islands,

274. THE PIRATES OWN BOOK, OR AUTHENTIC NARRATIVES OF THE LIVES, EXPLOITS, AND EXECUTIONS OF THE MOST CELEBRATED SEA ROBBERS, by Charles Ellms (Portland: Published by Sanborn & Carter; Philadelphia: Thomas, Comperthwait, & Co., 1837. This would be republished in 1842 by A. and C.B. Edwards of New-York & Philadelphia, and in 1844 in Portland by Sanborn & Carter, and in 1855 by A. and C.B. Edwards of New-York, and in 1924 by Marine res. of Massachusetts, and in 1996 by Random House of New York.)

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

and which renders them suitable to those who frequent them as pirates, are the numerous caves with which the rocks are perforated; some of them are above high-water mark, but the majority with the sea water flowing in and out of them, in some cases merely rushing in at high-water filling deep pools, which are detached from each other when the tide recedes, in others with a sufficient depth of water to allow a large boat to float in. It is hardly necessary to observe how convenient the higher and dry caves are as receptacles for articles which are intended to be concealed, until an opportunity occurs to dispose of them. The Bahamas, themselves are a singular group of isles, reefs and quays; consisting of several hundred in number, and were the chief resort of pirates in old times, but now they are all rooted from them; they are low and not elevated, and are more than 600 miles in extent, cut up into numerous intricate passages and channels, full of sunken rocks and coral reefs. They afforded a sure retreat to desperadoes. Other islands are full of mountain fastnesses, where all pursuit can be eluded. Many of the low shores are skirted, and the islands covered by the mangrove, a singular tree, shooting fresh roots as it grows, which, when the tree is at its full age, may be found six or eight feet from the ground, to which the shoots gradually tend in regular succession; the leaf is very thick and stiff and about eight inches long and nine wide, the interval between the roots offer secure hiding places for those who are suddenly pursued. Another circumstance assists the pirate when pursued. – As the islands belong to several different nations, when pursued from one island he can pass to that under the jurisdiction of another power. And as permission must be got by those in pursuit of him, from the authorities of the island to land and take him, he thus gains time to secrete himself. A tropical climate is suited to a roving life, and liquor as well as dissolute women being in great abundance, to gratify him during his hours of relaxation, makes this a congenial region for the lawless.

The crews of pirate vessels in these seas are chiefly composed of Spaniards, Portuguese, French, Mulattoes, Negroes, and a few natives of other countries. The island of Cuba is the great nest of pirates at the present day, and at the Havana, piracy is as much tolerated as any other profession. As the piracies committed in these seas, during a single year, have amounted to more than fifty, we shall give only a few accounts of the most interesting.

In November 1821, the brig Cobbessecontee, Captain Jackson, sailed from Havana, on the morning of the 8th for Boston, and on the evening of the same day, about four miles from the Moro, was brought to by a piratical sloop containing about 30 men. A boat from her, with 10 men, came alongside, and soon after they got on board commenced plundering. They took nearly all the clothing from the captain and mate – all the cooking utensils and spare rigging – unrove part of the running rigging – cut the small cable – broke the compasses – cut the mast's coats to pieces – took from the captain his watch and four boxes cigars

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

– and from the cargo three bales cochineal and six boxes cigars. They beat the mate unmercifully, and hung him up by the neck under the maintop. They also beat the captain severely – broke a large broad sword across his back, and ran a long knife through his thigh, so that he almost bled to death. Captain Jackson saw the sloop at Regla the day before.

Captain Jackson informs us, and we have also been informed by other persons from the Havana, that this system of piracy is openly countenanced by some of the inhabitants of that place – who say that it is a retaliation on the Americans for interfering against the Slave Trade.

About this time the ship Liverpool Packet, Ricker, of Portsmouth, N.H., was boarded off Cape St. Antonio, Cuba, by two piratical schooners; two barges containing thirty or forty men, robbed the vessel of every thing movable, even of her flags, rigging, and a boat which happened to be afloat, having a boy in it, which belonged to the ship. They held a consultation whether they should murder the crew, as they had done before, or not – in the mean time taking the ship into anchoring ground. On bringing her to anchor, the crew saw a brig close alongside, burnt to the water's edge, and three dead bodies floating near her. The pirates said they had burnt the brig the day before, and murdered all the crew! – and intended doing the same with them. They said "look at the turtles (meaning the dead bodies) you will soon be the same." They said the vessel was a Baltimore brig, which they had robbed and burnt, and murdered the crew as before stated, of which they had little doubt. Captain Ricker was most shockingly bruised by them. The mate was hung till he was supposed to be dead, but came to, and is now alive. They told the captain that they belonged in Regla, and should kill them all to prevent discovery.

In 1822, the United States had several cruisers among the West-India islands, to keep the pirates in check. Much good was done but still many vessels were robbed and destroyed, together with their crews. This year the brave Lieutenant Allen fell by the hand of pirates; he was in the United States schooner Alligator, and receiving intelligence at Matanzas, that several vessels which had sailed from that port, had been taken by the pirates, and were then in the bay of Lejuapo. He hastened to their assistance. He arrived just in time to save five sail of vessels which he found in possession of a gang of pirates, 300 strong, established in the bay of Lejuapo, about 15 leagues east of this. He fell, pierced by two musket balls, in the van of a division of boats, attacking their principal vessel, a fine schooner of about eighty tons, with a long eighteen pounder on a pivot, and four smaller guns, with the bloody flag nailed to the mast. Himself, Captain Freeman of Marines, and twelve men, were in the boat, much in advance of his other boats, and even took possession of the schooner, after a desperate resistance, which nothing but a bravery almost too daring could have overcome. The pirates, all but one, escaped by taking to their boats and jumping overboard, before the Alligator's boat reached them. Two other schooners escaped by the use of their oars, the wind being light.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Captain Allen survived about four hours, during which his conversation evinced a composure and firmness of mind, and correctness of feeling, as honorable to his character, and more consoling to his friends, than even the dauntless bravery he before exhibited.

The surgeon of the Alligator in a letter to a friend, says, "He continued giving orders and conversing with Mr. Dale and the rest of us, until a few minutes before his death, with a degree of cheerfulness that was little to be expected from a man in his condition. He said he wished his relatives and his country to know that he had fought well, and added that he died in peace and good will towards all the world, and hoped for his reward in the next."

Lieutenant Allen had but few equals in the service. He was ardently devoted to the interest of his country, was brave, intelligent, and accomplished in his profession. He displayed, living and dying, a magnanimity that sheds lustre on his relatives, his friends, and his country.

About this time Captain Lincoln fell into the hands of the pirates, and as his treatment shows the peculiar habits and practices of these wretches, we insert the very interesting narrative of the captain.

The schooner Exertion, Captain Lincoln, sailed from Boston, bound for Trinidad de Cuba, Nov. 13th, 1821, with the following crew; Joshua Bracket, mate; David Warren, cook; and Thomas Young, Francis De Suze, and George Reed, seamen.

The cargo consisted of flour, beef, pork, lard, butter, fish, beans, onions, potatoes, apples, hams, furniture, sugar box shooks, &c., invoiced at about eight thousand dollars. Nothing remarkable occurred during the passage, except much bad weather, until my capture, which was as follows: -

Monday, December 17th, 1821, commenced with fine breezes from the eastward. At daybreak saw some of the islands northward of Cape Cruz, called Keys - stood along northwest; every thing now seemed favorable for a happy termination of our voyage. At 3 o'clock, P.M., saw a sail coming round one of the Keys, into a channel called Boca de Cavolone by the chart, nearly in latitude 20° 55' north, longitude 79° 55' west, she made directly for us with all sails set, sweeps on both sides (the wind being light) and was soon near enough for us to discover about forty men on her deck, armed with muskets, blunderbusses, cutlasses, long knives, dirks, &c., two carronades, one a twelve, the other a six pounder; she was a schooner, wearing the Patriot flag (blue, white and blue) of the Republic of Mexico. I thought it not prudent to resist them, should they be pirates, with a crew of seven men, and only five muskets; accordingly ordered the arms and ammunition to be immediately stowed away in as secret a place as possible, and suffer her to speak us, hoping and believing that a republican flag indicated both honor and friendship from those who wore it, and which we might expect even from Spaniards.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

But how great was my astonishment, when the schooner having approached very near us, hailed in English, and ordered me to heave my boat out immediately and come on board of her with my papers. – Accordingly my boat was hove out, but filled before I could get into her. – I was then ordered to tack ship and lay by for the pirates' boat to board me; which was done by Bolidar, their first lieutenant, with six or eight Spaniards armed with as many of the before mentioned weapons as they could well sling about their bodies. They drove me into the boat, and two of them rowed me to their privateer (as they called their vessel), where I shook hands with their commander, Captain Jonnia, a Spaniard, who before looking at my papers, ordered Bolidar, his lieutenant, to follow the Mexican in, back of the Key they had left, which was done. At 6 o'clock, P.M., the Exertion was anchored in eleven feet water, near this vessel, and an island, which they called Twelve League Key (called by the chart Key Largo), about thirty or thirty-five leagues from Trinidad. After this strange conduct they began examining my papers by a Scotchman who went by the name of Nickola, their sailing master. – He spoke good English, had a countenance rather pleasing, although his beard and mustachios had a frightful appearance – his face, apparently full of anxiety, indicated something in my favor; he gave me my papers, saying "take good care of them, for I am afraid you have fallen into bad hands." The pirates' boat was then sent to the Exertion with more men and arms; a part of them left on board her; the rest returning with three of my crew to their vessel; viz., Thomas Young, Thomas Goodall, and George Reed – they treated them with something to drink, and offered them equal shares with themselves, and some money, if they would enlist, but they could not prevail on them. I then requested permission to go on board my vessel which was granted, and further requested Nickola should go with me, but was refused by the captain, who vociferated in a harsh manner, "No, No, No." accompanied with a heavy stamp upon the deck. When I got on board, I was invited below by Bolidar, where I found they had emptied the case of liquors, and broken a cheese to pieces and crumbled it on the table and cabin floor; the pirates, elated with their prize (as they called it), had drank so much as to make them desperately abusive. I was permitted to lie down in my berth; but, reader, if you have ever been awakened by a gang of armed, desperadoes, who have taken possession of your habitation in the midnight hour, you can imagine my feelings. – Sleep was a stranger to me, and anxiety was my guest. Bolidar, however, pretended friendship, and flattered me with the prospect of being soon set at liberty. But I found him, as I suspected, a consummate hypocrite; indeed, his very looks indicated it. He was a stout and well built man, of a dark, swarthy complexion, with keen, ferocious eyes, huge whiskers, and beard under his chin and on his lips, four or five inches long; he was a Portuguese by birth, but had become a naturalized Frenchman – had a wife, if not children (as I was told) in France, and was well known there as commander of a first rate

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

privateer. His appearance was truly terrific; he could talk some English, and had a most lion-like voice.

Tuesday, 18th. — Early this morning the captain of the pirates came on board the Exertion; took a look at the cabin stores, and cargo in the state rooms, and then ordered me back with him to his vessel, where he, with his crew, held a consultation for some time respecting the cargo. After which, the interpreter, Nickola, told me that "the captain had, or pretended to have, a commission under General Traspelascus, commander-in-chief of the republic of Mexico, authorizing him to take all cargoes whatever of provisions, bound to any royalist Spanish port — that my cargo being bound to an enemy's port, must be condemned; but that the vessel should be given up and be put into a fair channel for Trinidad, where I was bound." I requested him to examine the papers thoroughly, and perhaps he would be convinced to the contrary, and told him my cargo was all American property taken in at Boston, and consigned to an American gentleman, agent at Trinidad. But the captain would not take the trouble, but ordered both vessels under way immediately, and commenced beating up amongst the Keys through most of the day, the wind being very light. They now sent their boats on board the Exertion for stores, and commenced plundering her of bread, butter, lard, onions, potatoes, fish, beans, &c., took up some sugar box shocks that were on deck, and found the barrels of apples; selected the best of them and threw the rest overboard. They inquired for spirits, wine, cider, &c. and were told "they had already taken all that was on board." But not satisfied they proceeded to search the state rooms and forcastle, ripped up the floor of the later and found some boxes of bottled cider, which they carried to their vessel, gave three cheers, in an exulting manner to me, and then began drinking it with such freedom, that a violent quarrel arose between officers and men, which came very near ending in bloodshed. I was accused of falsehood, for saying they had got all the liquors that were on board, and I thought they had; the truth was, I never had any bill of lading of the cider, and consequently had no recollection of its being on board; yet it served them as an excuse for being insolent. In the evening peace was restored and they sung songs. I was suffered to go below for the night, and they placed a guard over me, stationed at the companion way.

Wednesday, 19th, commenced with moderate easterly winds, beating towards the northeast, the pirate's boats frequently going on board the Exertion for potatoes, fish, beans, butter, &c. which were used with great waste and extravagance. They gave me food and drink, but of bad quality, more particularly the victuals, which was wretchedly cooked. The place assigned me to eat was covered with dirt and vermin. It appeared that their great object was to hurt my feelings with threats and observations, and to make my situation as unpleasant as circumstances would admit. We came to anchor near a Key, called by them Brigantine, where myself and mate were permitted to go on shore, but were guarded by several armed pirates. I soon returned to the Mexican and my mate to the Exertion, with George Reed, one of my crew; the other two being kept on board the Mexican. In the course of this day I had considerable conversation with Nickola, who appeared well disposed towards me. He lamented most deeply his own situation, for he was one of those men, whose early good impressions were not entirely effaced, although confederated with guilt. He told me "those who had taken me were no better than pirates, and their end would be the halter; but," he added, with peculiar emotion, "I will never be hung as a pirate," showing me a bottle of laudanum which he had found in my medicine chest, saying, "If we are taken, that shall cheat the hangman, before we are condemned." I endeavored to get it from him, but did not succeed. I then asked him how he came to be in such company, as he appeared to be dissatisfied. He stated, that he was at New Orleans last summer, out of employment, and became acquainted with one Captain August Orgamar, a Frenchman, who had bought a small schooner of about fifteen tons, and was going down to the bay of Mexico to get a commission under General Traspelascus, in order to go a privateering under the patriot flag. Capt. Orgamar made him liberal offers respecting shares, and promised him a sailing master's berth, which he accepted and embarked on board the schooner, without sufficiently reflecting on the danger of such an undertaking. Soon after she sailed from Mexico, where they got a commission, and the vessel was called Mexican. They made up a complement of twenty men, and after rendering the General some little service, in transporting his troops to a place called ----- proceeded on a cruise; took some small prizes off Campeachy; afterwards came on the south coast of Cuba, where they took other small prizes, and the one which we were now on board of. By this time the crew were increased to about forty, nearly one half Spaniards, the others Frenchmen and Portuguese. Several of them had sailed out of ports in the United States with American protections; but, I confidently believe, none are natives, especially of the northern states. I was careful in examining the men, being desirous of knowing if any of my countrymen were among this wretched crew; but am satisfied there were none, and my Scotch friend concurred in the opinion. And now, with a new vessel, which was the prize of these plunderers, they sailed up Manganeil bay; previously, however, they fell in with an American schooner, from which they bought four barrels of beef, and paid in tobacco. At the Bay was an English brig belonging to Jamaica, owned by Mr. John Louden of that place. On board of this vessel the Spanish part of the crew commenced their depredations as pirates, although Captain Orgamar and Nickola protested against it, and refused any participation; but they persisted, and like so many ferocious bloodhounds, boarded the brig, plundered the cabin, stores, furniture, captain's trunk, &c., took a hogshead of rum, one twelve pound carronade, some rigging and sails. One of them plundered the chest of a sailor, who made some resistance, so that the Spaniard took his cutlass, and beat and wounded him without mercy. Nickola asked him "why he did it?" the fellow answered, "I will let you know," and took up the cook's axe and gave him a cut on the head, which nearly deprived him of life. Then they ordered Captain Orgamar to leave his vessel, allowing him his trunk and turned him ashore, to seek for himself. Nickola begged them to dismiss him with his captain, but no, no, was the answer; for they had no complete navigator but him. After Captain Orgamar was gone, they put in his stead the present brave (or as I should call him cowardly) Captain Jonnia, who headed them in plundering the before mentioned brig, and made Bolidar their first lieutenant, and then proceeded down among those Keys or Islands, where I was captured. This is the amount of what my friend Nickola told me of their history.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Saturday, 22d. — Both vessels under way standing to the eastward, they ran the Exertion aground on a bar, but after throwing overboard most of her deck load of shocks, she floated off; a pilot was sent to her, and she was run into a narrow creek between two keys, where they moored her head and stern along side of the mangrove trees, set down her yards and topmasts, and covered her mast heads and shrouds with bushes to prevent her being seen by vessels which might pass that way. I was then suffered to go on board my own vessel, and found her in a very filthy condition; sails torn, rigging cut to pieces, and every thing in the cabin in waste and confusion. The swarms of moschetoës and sandflies made it impossible to get any sleep or rest. The pirate's large boat was armed and manned under Bolidar, and sent off with letters to a merchant (as they called him) by the name of Dominico, residing in a town called Principe, on the main island of Cuba. I was told by one of them, who could speak English, that Principe was a very large and populous town, situated at the head of

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

St. Maria, which was about twenty miles northeast from where we lay, and the Keys lying around us were called Cotton Keys. – The captain pressed into his service Francis de Suze, one of my crew, saying that he was one of his countrymen. Francis was very reluctant in going, and said to me, with tears in his eyes, "I shall do nothing but what I am obliged to do, and will not aid in the least to hurt you or the vessel; I am very sorry to leave you." He was immediately put on duty and Thomas Goodall sent back to the Exertion.

Sunday, 23d. – Early this morning a large number of the pirates came on board of the Exertion, threw out the long boat, broke open the hatches, and took out considerable of the cargo, in search of rum, gin, &c., still telling me "I had some and they would find it," uttering the most awful profaneness. In the afternoon their boat returned with a perough, having on board the captain, his first lieutenant and seven men of a patriot or piratical vessel that was chased ashore at Cape Cruz by a Spanish armed brig. These seven men made their escape in said boat, and after four days, found our pirates and joined them; the remainder of the crew being killed or taken prisoners.

Monday, 24th. – Their boat was manned and sent to the before-mentioned town. – I was informed by a line from Nickola, that the pirates had a man on board, a native of Principe, who, in the garb of a sailor, was a partner with Dominico, but I could not get sight of him. This lets us a little into the plans by which this atrocious system of piracy has been carried on. Merchants having partners on board of these pirates! thus pirates at sea and robbers on land are associated to destroy the peaceful trader. The willingness exhibited by the seven above-mentioned men, to join our gang of pirates, seems to look like a general understanding among them; and from there being merchants on shore so base as to encourage the plunder and vend the goods, I am persuaded there has been a systematic confederacy on the part of these unprincipled desperadoes, under cover of the patriot flag; and those on land are no better than those on the sea. If the governments to whom they belong know of the atrocities committed (and I have but little doubt they do) they deserve the execration of all mankind.

Thursday, 27th. – A gang of the pirates came and stripped our masts of the green bushes, saying, "she appeared more like a sail than trees" – took one barrel of bread and one of potatoes, using about one of each every day. I understood they were waiting for boats to take the cargo; for the principal merchant had gone to

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Trinidad.

Sunday, 30th. – The beginning of trouble! This day, which peculiarly reminds Christians of the high duties of compassion and benevolence, was never observed by these pirates. This, of course, we might expect, as they did not often know when the day came, and if they knew it, it was spent in gambling. The old saying among seamen, “no Sunday off soundings,” was not thought of; and even this poor plea was not theirs, for they were on soundings and often at anchor. – Early this morning, the merchant, as they called him, came with a large boat for the cargo. I was immediately ordered into the boat with my crew, not allowed any breakfast, and carried about three miles to a small island out of sight of the Exertion, and left there by the side of a little pond of thick, muddy water, which proved to be very brackish, with nothing to eat but a few biscuits. One of the boat’s men told us the merchant was afraid of being recognized, and when he had gone the boat would return for us; but we had great reason to apprehend they would deceive us, and therefore passed the day in the utmost anxiety. At night, however, the boats came and took us again on board the Exertion; when, to our surprise and astonishment, we found they had broken open the trunks and chests, and taken all our wearing apparel, not even leaving a shirt or pair of pantaloons, nor sparing a small miniature of my wife which was in my trunk. The little money I and my mate had, with some belonging to the owners, my mate had previously distributed about the cabin in three or four parcels, while I was on board the pirate, for we dare not keep it about us; one parcel in a butter pot they did not discover. – Amidst the hurry with which I was obliged to go to the before-mentioned island, I fortunately snatched by vessel’s papers, and hid them in my bosom, which the reader will find was a happy circumstance for me. My writing desk, with papers, accounts, &c., all Mr. Lord’s letters (the gentlemen to whom my cargo was consigned) and several others were taken and maliciously destroyed. My medicine chest, which I so much wanted, was kept for their own use. What their motive could be to take my papers I could not imagine, except they had hopes of finding bills of lading for some Spaniards, to clear them from piracy. Mr. Bracket had some notes and papers of consequence to him, which shared the same fate. My quadrant, charts, books and bedding were not yet taken, but I found it impossible to hide them, and they were soon gone from my sight.

Tuesday, January 1st, 1822 – A sad new-year’s day to me. Before breakfast orders came for me to cut down the Exertion’s railing and bulwarks on one side, for their

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

vessel to heave out by, and clean her bottom. On my hesitating a little they observed with anger, "very well, captain, suppose you no do it quick, we do it for you." Directly afterwards another boat full of armed men came along side; they jumped on deck with swords drawn, and ordered all of us into her immediately; I stepped below, in hopes of getting something which would be of service to us; but the captain hallooed, "Go into the boat directly or I will fire upon you." Thus compelled to obey, we were carried, together with four Spanish prisoners, to a small, low island or key of sand in the shape of a half moon, and partly covered with mangrove trees; which was about one mile from and in sight of my vessel. There they left nine of us, with a little bread, flour, fish, lard, a little coffee and molasses; two or three kegs of water, which was brackish; an old sail for a covering, and a pot and some other articles no way fit to cook in. Leaving us these, which were much less than they appear in the enumeration, they pushed off, saying, "we will come to see you in a day or two." Selecting the best place, we spread the old sail for an awning; but no place was free from flies, moschetoës, snakes, the venomous skinned scorpion, and the more venomous santipee. Sometimes they were found crawling inside of our pantaloons, but fortunately no injury was received. This afternoon the pirates hove their vessel out by the Exertion and cleaned one side, using her paints, oil, &c. for that purpose. To see my vessel in that situation and to think of our prospects was a source of the deepest distress. At night we retired to our tent; but having nothing but the cold damp ground for a bed, and the heavy dew of night penetrating the old canvass – the situation of the island being fifty miles from the usual track of friendly vessels, and one hundred and thirty-five from Trinidad – seeing my owner's property so unjustly and wantonly destroyed – considering my condition, the hands at whose mercy I was, and deprived of all hopes, rendered sleep or rest a stranger to me.

Friday, 4th. – Commenced with light winds and hot sun, saw a boat coming from the Exertion, apparently loaded; she passed between two small Keys to northward, supposed to be bound for Cuba. At sunset a boat came and inquired if we wanted anything, but instead of adding to our provisions, took away our molasses, and pushed off. We found one of the Exertion's water casks, and several pieces of plank, which we carefully laid up, in hopes of getting enough to make a raft.

Saturday, 5th. – Pirates again in sight, coming from the eastward; they beat up along side their prize, and commenced loading. In the afternoon Nickola came to us, bringing with him two more prisoners, which they had taken in a small sail boat coming from Trinidad to Manganeil, one a Frenchman, the other a Scotchman, with two Spaniards, who remained on board the pirate, and who afterwards joined them. The back of one of these poor fellows was extremely sore, having just suffered a cruel beating from Bolidar, with the broad side of a cutlass. It appeared, that when the officer asked him "where their money was, and how much," he answered, "he was not certain but believed they had only two ounces of gold" – Bolidar furiously swore he said "ten," and not finding any more, gave him the beating. Nickola now related to me a singular fact; which was, that the Spanish part of the crew were determined to shoot him; that they tied him to the mast, and a man was appointed for the purpose; but Lion, a Frenchman, his particular friend, stepped up and told them, if they shot him they must shoot several more; some of the Spaniards sided with him, and he was released. Nickola told me, the reason for such treatment was, that he continually objected to their conduct towards me, and their opinion if he should escape, they would be discovered, as he declared he would take no prize money. While with us he gave me a letter written in great haste, which contains some particulars respecting the cargo; – as follows: –

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

January 4th, 1822.

Sir, – We arrived here this morning, and before we came to anchor, had five canoes alongside ready to take your cargo, part of which we had in; and as I heard you express a wish to know what they took out of her, to this moment, you may depend upon this account of Jamieson for quality and quantity; if I have the same opportunity you will have an account of the whole. The villain who bought your cargo is from the town of Principe, his name is Dominico, as to that it is all that I can learn; they have taken your charts aboard the schooner Mexican, and I suppose mean to keep them, as the other captain has agreed to act the same infamous part in the tragedy of his life. Your clothes are here on board, but do not let me flatter you that you will get them back; it may be so, and it may not. Perhaps in your old age, when you recline with ease in a corner of your cottage, you will have the goodness to drop a tear of pleasure to the memory of him, whose highest ambition should have been to subscribe himself, though devoted to the gallows, your friend,
Excuse haste. NICKOLA MONACRE.

Sunday, 6th. – The pirates were under way at sunrise, with a full load of the Exertion's cargo, going to Principe again to sell a second freight, which was done readily for cash. I afterwards heard that the flour only fetched five dollars per barrel, when it was worth at

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Trinidad thirteen; so that the villain who bought my cargo at Principe, made very large profits by it.

Tuesday, 8th. – Early this morning the pirates in sight again, with fore top sail and top gallant sail set; beat up along side of the Exertion and commenced loading; having, as I supposed, sold and discharged her last freight among some of the inhabitants of Cuba. They appeared to load in great haste; and the song, "O he oh," which echoed from one vessel to the other, was distinctly heard by us. How wounding was this to me! How different was this sound from what it would have been, had I been permitted to pass unmolested by these lawless plunderers, and been favored with a safe arrival at the port of my destination, where my cargo would have found an excellent sale. Then would the "O he oh," on its discharging, have been a delightful sound to me. In the afternoon she sailed with the perough in tow, both with a full load, having chairs, which was part of the cargo, slung at her quarters.

Monday, 14th. – They again hove in sight, and beat up as usual, along-side their prize. While passing our solitary island, they laughed at our misery, which was almost insupportable – looking upon us as though we had committed some heinous crime, and they had not sufficiently punished us; they hallooed to us, crying out "Captain, Captain," accompanied with obscene motions and words, with which I shall not blacken these pages – yet I heard no check upon such conduct, nor could I expect it among such a gang, who have no idea of subordination on board, except when in chase of vessels, and even then but very little. My resentment was excited at such a malicious outrage, and I felt a disposition to revenge myself, should fortune ever favor me with an opportunity. It was beyond human nature not to feel and express some indignation at such treatment. – Soon after, Bolidar, with five men, well armed, came to us; he having a blunderbuss, cutlass, a long knife and pair of pistols – but for what purpose did he come? He took me by the hand, saying, "Captain, me speak with you, walk this way." I obeyed, and when at some distance from my fellow prisoners, (his men following) he said, "the captain send me for your wash" I pretended not to understand what he meant, and replied, "I have no clothes, nor any soap to wash with – you have taken them all," for I had kept my watch about me, hoping they would not discover it. He demanded it again as before; and was answered, "I have nothing to wash;" this raised his anger, and lifting his blunderbuss, he roared out, "what the d – l you call him that make clock? give it me." I considered it imprudent to contend any longer, and submitted to his unlawful demand. As he was going off, he gave me a small bundle, in which was a pair of linen drawers, sent to me by Nickola, and also the Rev. Mr. Brooks' "Family Prayer Book." This gave me great satisfaction. Soon after, he returned with his captain, who had one arm slung up, yet with as many implements of war, as his diminutive wicked self could conveniently carry; he told me (through an interpreter who was his prisoner.) "that on his cruize he had fallen in with two Spanish privateers, and beat them off; but had three of his men killed, and himself wounded in the arm" – Bolidar turned to me and said, "it is a d – n lie" – which words proved to be correct, for his arm was not wounded, and when I saw him again, which was soon afterwards, he had forgotten to sling it up. He further told me, "after tomorrow you shall go with your vessel, and we will accompany you towards Trinidad." This gave me some new hopes, and why I could not tell. They then left us without rendering any assistance. – This night we got some rest.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Tuesday, 15th. The words "go after tomorrow," were used among our Spanish fellow prisoners, as though that happy tomorrow would never come – in what manner it came will soon be noticed.

Friday, 18th commenced with brighter prospects of liberty than ever. The pirates were employed in setting up our devoted schooner's shrouds, stays, &c. My condition now reminded me of the hungry man, chained in one corner of a room, while at another part was a table loaded with delicious food and fruits, the smell and sight of which he was continually to experience, but alas! his chains were never to be loosed that he might go and partake – at almost the same moment they were thus employed, the axe was applied with the greatest dexterity to both her masts and I saw them fall over the side! Here fell my hopes – I looked at my condition, and then thought of home. – Our Spanish fellow prisoners were so disappointed and alarmed that they recommended hiding ourselves, if possible, among the mangrove trees, believing, as they said, we should now certainly be put to death; or, what was worse, compelled to serve on board the Mexican as pirates. Little else it is true, seemed left for us; however, we kept a bright look out for them during the day, and at night "an anchor watch" as we called it, determined if we discovered their boats coming towards us, to adopt the plan of hiding, although starvation stared us in the face – yet preferred that to instant death. This night was passed in sufficient anxiety – I took the first watch.

Saturday, 19th. – The pirate's largest boat came for us – it being day-light, and supposing they could see us, determined to stand our ground and wait the result. They

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

ordered us all into the boat, but left every thing else; they rowed towards the Exertion – I noticed a dejection of spirits in one of the pirates, and inquired of him where they were going to carry us? He shook his head and replied, "I do not know." I now had some hopes of visiting my vessel again – but the pirates made sail, ran down, took us in tow and stood out of the harbor. Bolidar afterwards took me, my mate and two of my men on board and gave us some coffee. On examination I found they had several additional light sails, made of the Exertion's. Almost every man, a pair of canvas trousers; and my colors cut up and made into belts to carry their money about them. My jolly boat was on deck, and I was informed, all my rigging was disposed of. Several of the pirates had on some of my clothes, and the captain one of my best shirts, a cleaner one, than I had ever seen him have on before. – He kept at a good distance from me, and forbid my friend Nickola's speaking to me. – I saw from the companion way in the captain's cabin my quadrant, spy glass and other things which belonged to us, and observed by the compass, that the course steered was about west by south, – distance nearly twenty miles, which brought them up with a cluster of islands called by some "Cayman Keys." Here they anchored and caught some fish, (one of which was named guard fish) of which we had a taste. I observed that my friend Mr. Bracket was somewhat dejected, and asked him in a low voice, what his opinion was with respects to our fate? He answered, "I cannot tell you, but it appears to me the worst is to come." I told him that I hoped not, but thought they would give us our small boat and liberate the prisoners. But mercy even in this shape was not left-for us. Soon after, saw the captain and officers whispering for some time in private conference. When over, their boat was manned under the command of Bolidar, and went to one of those Islands or Keys before mentioned. On their return, another conference took place – whether it was a jury upon our lives we could not tell. I did not think conscience could be entirely extinguished in the human breast, or that men could become fiends. In the afternoon, while we knew not the doom which had been fixed for us, the captain was engaged with several of his men in gambling, in hopes to get back some of the five hundred dollars, they said, he lost but a few nights before; which had made him unusually fractious. A little before sunset he ordered all the prisoners into the large boat, with a supply of provisions and water, and to be put on shore. While we were getting into her, one of my fellow prisoners, a Spaniard, attempted with tears in his eyes to speak to the captain, but was refused with the answer. "I'll have nothing to say to any prisoner, go into the boat." In the mean time Nickola said to me, "My friend, I will give you your book," (being Mr. Colman's Sermons,) "it is the only thing of yours that is in my possession; I dare not attempt any thing more." But the captain forbid his giving it to me, and I stepped into the boat – at that moment Nickola said in a low voice, "never mind, I may see you again before I die." The small boat was well armed and manned, and both set off together for the island, where they had agreed to leave us to perish! The scene to us was a funereal scene. There were no arms in the prisoners boat, and, of course, all attempts to relieve ourselves would have been throwing our lives away, as Bolidar was near us, well armed. We were rowed about two miles north-easterly from the pirates, to a small low island, lonely and desolate. We arrived about sunset; and for the support of us eleven prisoners, they only left a ten gallon keg of water, and perhaps a few quarts, in another small vessel, which was very poor; part of a barrel of flour, a small keg of lard, one ham and some salt fish; a small kettle and an old broken pot; an old sail for a covering, and a small mattress and blanket, which was thrown out as the boats hastened away. One of the prisoners happened to have a little coffee in his pocket, and these comprehended all our means of sustaining life, and for what length of time we knew not. We now felt the need of water, and our supply was comparatively nothing. A man may live nearly twice as long without food, as without water. Look at us now, my friends, left benighted on a little spot of sand in the midst of the ocean, far from the usual track of vessels, and every appearance of a violent thunder tempest, and a boisterous night. Judge of my feelings, and the circumstances which our band of sufferers now witnessed. Perhaps you can and have pitied us. I assure you, we were very wretched; and to paint the scene, is not within my power. When the boats were moving from the shore, on recovering myself a little, I asked Bolidar, "If he was going to leave us so?" – he answered, "no, only two days – we go for water and wood, then come back, take you." I requested him to give us bread and other stores, for they had plenty in the boat, and at least one hundred barrels of flour in the Mexican. "No, no, suppose to-morrow morning me come, me give you bread," and hurried off to the vessel. This was the last time I saw him. We then turned our attention upon finding a spot most convenient for our comfort, and soon discovered a little roof supported by stakes driven into the sand; it was thatched with leaves of the cocoa-nut tree, considerable part of which was torn or blown off. After spreading the old sail over this roof, we placed our little stock of provisions under it. Soon after came on a heavy shower of rain which penetrated the canvas,

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

and made it nearly as uncomfortable inside, as it would have been out. We were not prepared to catch water, having nothing to put it in. Our next object was to get fire, and after gathering some of the driest fuel to be found, and having a small piece of cotton wick-yarn, with flint and steel, we kindled a fire, which was never afterwards suffered to be extinguished. The night was very dark, but we found a piece of old rope, which when well lighted served for a candle. On examining the ground under the roof, we found perhaps thousands of creeping insects, scorpions, lizards, crickets, &c. After scraping them out as well as we could, the most of us having nothing but the damp earth for a bed, laid ourselves down in hopes of some rest; but it being so wet, gave many of us severe colds, and one of the Spaniards was quite sick for several days.

Sunday, 20th. — As soon as day-light came on, we proceeded to take a view of our little island, and found it to measure only one acre, of coarse, white sand; about two feet, and in some spots perhaps three feet above the surface of the ocean. On the highest part were growing some bushes and small mangroves, (the dry part of which was our fuel) and the wild castor oil beans. We were greatly disappointed in not finding the latter suitable food; likewise some of the prickly pear bushes, which gave us only a few pears about the size of our small button pear; the outside has thorns, which if applied to the fingers or lips, will remain there, and cause a severe smarting similar to the nettle; the inside a spongy substance, full of juice and seeds, which are red and a little tartish — had they been there in abundance, we should not have suffered so much for water — but alas! even this substitute was not for us. On the northerly side of the island was a hollow, where the tide penetrated the sand, leaving stagnant water. We presumed, in hurricanes the island was nearly overflowed. According to the best calculations I could make, we were about thirty-five miles from any part of Cuba, one hundred from Trinidad and forty from the usual track of American vessels, or others which might pass that way. No vessel of any considerable size, can safely pass among these Keys (or "Queen's Gardens," as the Spaniards call them) being a large number extending from Cape Cruz to Trinidad, one hundred and fifty miles distance; and many more than the charts have laid down, most of them very low and some covered at high water, which makes it very dangerous for navigators without a skilful pilot. After taking this view of our condition, which was very gloomy, we began to suspect we were left on this desolate island by those merciless plunderers to perish. Of this I am now fully convinced; still we looked anxiously for the pirate's boat to come according to promise with more water and provisions, but looked in vain. We saw them soon after get under way with all sail set and run directly from us until out of our sight, and we never saw them again! One may partially imagine our feelings, but they cannot be put into words. Before they were entirely out of sight of us, we raised the white blanket upon a pole, waving it in the air, in hopes, that at two miles distance they would see it and be moved to pity. But pity in such monsters was not to be found. It was not their interest to save us from the lingering death, which we now saw before us. We tried to compose ourselves, trusting to God, who had witnessed our sufferings, would yet make use of some one, as the instrument of his mercy towards us. Our next care, now, was to try for water. We dug several holes in the sand and found it, but quite too salt for use. The tide penetrates probably through the island. We now came on short allowances for water. Having no means of securing what we had by lock and key, some one in the night would slyly drink, and it was soon gone. The next was to bake some bread, which we did by mixing flour with salt water and frying it in lard, allowing ourselves eight quite small pancakes to begin with. The ham was reserved for some more important occasion, and the salt fish was lost for want of fresh water. The remainder of this day was passed in the most serious conversation and reflection. At night, I read prayers from the "Prayer Book," before mentioned, which I most carefully concealed while last on board the pirates. This plan was pursued morning and evening, during our stay there. Then retired for rest and sleep, but realized little of either.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Monday, 21st. — In the morning we walked round the beach, in expectation of finding something useful. On our way picked up a paddle about three feet long, very similar to the Indian canoe paddle, except the handle, which was like that of a shovel, the top part being split off; we laid it by for the present. We likewise found some konchs and roasted them; they were pretty good shell fish, though rather tough. We discovered at low water, a bar or spit of sand extending north-easterly from us, about three miles distant, to a cluster of Keys, which were covered with mangrove trees, perhaps as high as our quince tree. My friend Mr. Bracket and George attempted to wade across, being at that time of tide only up to their armpits; but were pursued by a shark, and returned without success. The tide rises about four feet.

Tuesday, 22d. — We found several pieces of the palmetto or cabbage tree, and some pieces of boards, put them together in the form of a raft, and endeavored to cross, but that proved ineffectual. Being disappointed, we set down to reflect upon other means of relief, intending to do all in our power for safety while our strength continued. While setting here, the sun was so powerful and oppressive, reflecting its rays upon the sea, which was then calm, and the white sand which dazzled the eye, was so painful, that we retired under the awning; there the moschetoos and flies were so numerous, that good rest could not be found. We were, however, a little cheered, when, in scraping out the top of the ground to clear out, I may say, thousands of crickets and bugs, we found a hatchet, which was to us peculiarly serviceable. At night the strong north-easterly wind, which prevails there at all seasons, was so cold as to make it equally uncomfortable with the day. Thus day after day, our sufferings and apprehensions multiplying, we were very generally alarmed.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Thursday, 24th. – This morning, after taking a little coffee, made of the water which we thought least salt, and two or three of the little cakes, we felt somewhat refreshed, and concluded to make another visit to those Keys, in hopes of finding something more, which might make a raft for us to escape the pirates, and avoid perishing by thirst. Accordingly seven of us set off, waded across the bar and searched all the Keys thereabouts. On one we found a number of sugar-box shooks, two lashing plank and some pieces of old spars, which were a part of the Exertion's deck load, that was thrown overboard when she grounded on the bar, spoken of in the first part of the narrative. It seems they had drifted fifteen miles, and had accidentally lodged on these very Keys within our reach. Had the pirates known this, they would undoubtedly have placed us in another direction. They no doubt thought that they could not place us on a worse place. The wind at this time was blowing so strong on shore, as to prevent rafting our stuff round to our island, and we were obliged to haul it upon the beach for the present; then dug for water in the highest place, but found it as salt as ever, and then returned to our habitation. But hunger and thirst began to prey upon us, and our comforts were as few as our hopes.

Friday, 25th. – Again passed over to those Keys to windward in order to raft our stuff to our island, it being most convenient for building. But the surf on the beach was so very rough, that we were again compelled to postpone it. Our courage, however, did not fail where there was the slightest hopes of life. Returning without it, we found on our way an old top timber of some vessel; it had several spikes on it, which we afterwards found very serviceable. In the hollow of an old tree, we found two guarnas of small size, one male, the other female.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Only one was caught. After taking off the skin, we judged it weighed a pound and a half. With some flour and lard, (the only things we had except salt water,) it made us a fine little mess. We thought it a rare dish, though a small one for eleven half starved persons. At the same time a small vessel hove in sight; we made a signal to her with the blanket tied to a pole and placed it on the highest tree – some took off their white clothes and waved them in the air, hoping they would come to us; should they be pirates, they could do no more than kill us, and perhaps would give us some water, for which we began to suffer most excessively; but, notwithstanding all our efforts, she took no notice of us.

Saturday, 26th. – This day commenced with moderate weather and smooth sea; at low tide found some cockles; boiled and eat them, but they were very painful to the stomach. David Warren had a fit of strangling, with swelling of the bowels; but soon recovered, and said, "something like salt rose in his throat and choked him." Most of us then set off for the Keys, where the plank and shooks were put together in a raft, which we with pieces of boards paddled over to our island; when we consulted the best plan, either to build a raft large enough for us all to go on, or a boat; but the shooks having three or four nails in each, and having a piece of large reed or bamboo, previously found, of which we made pins, we concluded to make a boat.

Sunday, 27 – Commenced our labor, for which I know we need offer no apology. We took the two planks, which were about fourteen feet long, and two and a half wide, and fixed them together for the bottom of the boat; then with moulds made of palmetto bark, cut timber and knees from mangrove trees which spread so much as to make the boat four feet wide at the top, placed them exactly the distance apart of an Havana sugar box. – Her stern was square and the bows tapered to a peak, making her form resemble a flat-iron. We proceeded thus far and returned to rest for the night – but Mr. Bracket was too unwell to get much sleep.

Monday, 28 – Went on with the work as fast as possible. Some of the Spaniards had long knives about them, which proved very useful in fitting timbers, and a gimblet of mine, accidentally found on board the pirate, enabled us to use the wooden pins. And now our spirits began to revive, though water, water, was continually in our minds. We now feared the pirates might possibly come, find out our plan and put us to death, (although before we had wished to see them, being so much in want of water.) Our labor was extremely burdensome, and the Spaniards considerably peevish – but they would often say to me "never mind captain, by and by, Americana or Spanyola catch them, me go and see 'um hung." We quitted work for the day, cooked some cakes but found it necessary to reduce the quantity again, however small before. We found some herbs on a windward Key, which the Spaniards called Spanish tea. – This when well boiled we found somewhat palatable, although the water was very salt. This herb resembles pennyroyal in look and taste, though not so pungent. In the evening when we were setting round the fire to keep of the moschetoës, I observed David Warren's eyes shone like glass. The mate said to him – "David I think you will die before morning – I think you are struck with death now." I thought so too, and told him, "I thought it most likely we should all die here soon; but as some one of us might survive to carry the tidings to our friends, if you have any thing to say respecting your family, now is the time." – He then said, "I have a mother in Saco where I belong – she is a second time a widow – to-morrow if you can spare a scrap of paper and pencil I will write something." But no tomorrow came to him. – In the course of the night he had another spell of strangling, and soon after expired, without much pain and without a groan. He was about twenty-six years old. – How solemn was this scene to us! Here we beheld the ravages of death commenced upon us. More than one of us considered death a happy release. For myself I thought of my wife and children; and wished to live if God should so order it, though extreme thirst, hunger and exhaustion had well nigh prostrated my fondest hopes.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Tuesday, 29th. – Part of us recommenced labor on the boat, while myself and Mr. Bracket went and selected the highest clear spot of sand on the northern side of the island, where we dug Warren's grave, and boxed it up with shooks, thinking it would be the most suitable spot for the rest of us – whose turn would come next, we knew not. At about ten o'clock, A.M. conveyed the corpse to the grave, followed by us survivors – a scene, whose awful solemnity can never be painted. We stood around the grave, and there I read the funeral prayer from the Rev. Mr. Brooks's Family Prayer Book; and committed the body to the earth; covered it with some pieces of board and sand, and returned to our labor. One of the Spaniards, an old man, named Manuel, who was partial to me, and I to him, made a cross and placed it at the head of the grave saying, "Jesus Christ hath him now." Although I did not believe in any mysterious influence of this cross, yet I was perfectly willing it should stand there. The middle part of the day being very warm, our mouths parched with thirst, and our spirits so depressed, that we made but little progress during the remainder of this day, but in the evening were employed in picking oakum out of the bolt rope taken from the old sail.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Wednesday, 30th. – Returned to labor on the boat with as much vigor as our weak and debilitated state would admit, but it was a day of trial to us all; for the Spaniards and we Americans could not well understand each other's plans, and they being naturally petulant, would not work, nor listen with any patience for Joseph, our English fellow prisoner, to explain our views – they would sometimes undo what they had done, and in a few minutes replace it again; however before night we began to caulk her seams, by means of pieces of hard mangrove, made in form of a caulking-iron, and had the satisfaction of seeing her in a form something like a boat.

Thursday, 31st. – Went on with the work, some at caulking, others at battening the seams with strips of canvas, and pieces of pine nailed over, to keep the oakum in. Having found a suitable pole for a mast, the rest went about making a sail from the one we had used for a covering, also fitting oars of short pieces of boards, in form of a paddle, tied on a pole, we having a piece of fishing line brought by one of the prisoners. Thus, at three P.M. the boat was completed and put afloat. – We had all this time confidently hoped, that she would be sufficiently large and strong to carry us all – we made a trial and were disappointed! This was indeed a severe trial, and the emotions it called up were not easy to be suppressed. She proved leaky, for we had no carpenter's yard, or smith's shop to go to. – And now the question was, "who should go, and how many?" I found it necessary for six; four to row, one to steer and one to bale. Three of the Spaniards and the Frenchman claimed the right, as being best acquainted with the nearest inhabitants; likewise, they had when taken, two boats left at St. Maria, (about forty miles distant,) which they were confident of finding. They promised to return within two or three days for the rest of us – I thought it best to consent – Mr. Bracket it was agreed should go in my stead, because my papers must accompany me as a necessary protection, and my men apprehended danger if they were lost. Joseph Baxter (I think was his name) they wished should go, because he could speak both languages – leaving Manuel, George, Thomas and myself, to wait their return. Having thus made all arrangements, and putting up a keg of the least salt water, with a few pancakes of salt fish, they set off a little before sunset with our best wishes and prayers for their safety and return to our relief. – To launch off into the wide ocean, with strength almost exhausted, and in such a frail boat as this, you will say was very hazardous, and in truth it was; but what else was left to us? – Their intention was to touch at the Key where the Exertion was and if no boat was to be found there, to proceed to St. Maria, and if none there, to go to Trinidad and send us relief. – But alas! it was the last time I ever saw them! – Our suffering this day was most acute.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Tuesday, 5th. – About ten o'clock, A.M. discovered a boat drifting by on the southeastern side of the island about a mile distant. I deemed it a providential thing to us, and urged Thomas and George trying the raft for her. They reluctantly consented and set off, but it was nearly three P.M. when they came up with her – it was the same boat we had built! Where then was my friend Bracket and those who went with him? Every appearance was unfavorable. – I hoped that a good Providence had yet preserved him. – The two men who went for the boat, found it full of water, without oars, paddle, or sail; being in this condition, and about three miles to the leeward, the men found it impossible to tow her up, so left her, and were until eleven o'clock at night getting back with the raft. They were so exhausted, that had it not been nearly calm, they could never have returned.

Wednesday, 6th. – This morning was indeed the most gloomy I had ever experienced. – There appeared hardly a ray of hope that my friend Bracket could return, seeing the boat was lost. Our provisions nearly gone; our mouths parched extremely with thirst; our strength wasted; our spirits broken, and our hopes imprisoned within the circumference of this desolate island in the midst of an unfrequented ocean; all these things gave to the scene around us the hue of death. In the midst of this dreadful despondence, a sail hove in sight bearing the white flag! Our hopes were raised, of course – but no sooner raised than darkened, by hearing a gun fired. Here then was another gang of pirates. She soon, however, came near enough to anchor, and her boat pushed off towards us with three men in her. – Thinking it now no worse to die by sword than famine, I walked down immediately to meet them. I knew them not. – A moment before the boat touched the ground, a man leaped from her bows and caught me in his arms! It was Nickola! – saying, "Do you now believe Nickola is your friend? yes, said he, Jamieson will yet prove himself so." – No words can express my emotions at this moment. This was a friend indeed. The reason of my not recognizing them before, was that they had cut their beards and whiskers. Turning to my fellow-sufferers, Nickola asked – "Are these all that are left of you? where are the others?" – At this moment seeing David's grave – "are they dead then? Ah! I suspected it, I know what you were put here for." As soon as I could recover myself, I gave him an account of Mr. Bracket and the others. — "How unfortunate," he said, "they must be lost, or some pirates have taken them." — "But," he continued, "we have no time to lose; you had better embark immediately with us, and go where you please, we are at your service." The other two in the boat were Frenchmen, one named Lyon, the other Parrikete. They affectionately embraced each of us; then holding to my mouth the nose of a teakettle, filled with wine, said "Drink plenty, no hurt you." I drank as much as I judged prudent. They then gave it to my fellow sufferers — I experienced almost immediate relief, not feeling it in my head; they had also brought in the boat for us, a dish of salt beef and potatoes, of which we took a little. Then sent the boat on board for the other two men, being five in all; who came ashore, and rejoiced enough was I to see among them Thomas Young, one of my crew, who was detained on board the Mexican, but had escaped through Nickola's means; the other a Frenchman, named John Cadett. I now thought again and again, with troubled emotion, of my dear friend Bracket's fate. I took the last piece of paper I had, and wrote with pencil a few words, informing him (should he come there) that "I and the rest were safe; that I was not mistaken in the friend in whom I had placed so much confidence, that he had accomplished my highest expectations; and that I should go immediately to Trinidad, and requested him to go there also, and apply to Mr. Isaac W. Lord, my consignee, for assistance." I put the paper into a junk bottle, previously found on the beach, put in a stopper, and left it, together with what little flour remained, a keg of water brought from Nickola's vessel, and a few other things which I thought might be of service to him. We then repaired with our friends on board, where we were kindly treated. She was a sloop from Jamaica, of about twelve tons, with a cargo of rum and wine, bound to Trinidad. I asked "which way they intended to go?" They said "to Jamaica if agreeable to me." As I preferred Trinidad, I told them, "if they would give me the Exertion's boat which was along-side (beside their own) some water and provisions, we would take chance in her." — "For perhaps," said I, "you will fare better at Jamaica, than at Trinidad." After a few minutes consultation, they said "you are too much exhausted to row the distance of one hundred miles, therefore we will go and carry you — we consider ourselves at your service." I expressed a wish to take a look at the Exertion, possibly we might hear something of Mr. Bracket. Nickola said "very well," so got under way, and run for her, having a light westerly wind. He then related to me the manner of their desertion from the

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

pirates; as nearly as I can recollect his own words, he said, "A few days since, the pirates took four small vessels, I believe Spaniards; they having but two officers for the two first, the third fell to me as prize master, and having an understanding with the three Frenchmen and Thomas, selected them for my crew, and went on board with orders to follow the Mexican; which I obeyed. The fourth, the pirates took out all but one man and bade him also follow their vessel. Now our schooner leaked so bad, that we left her and in her stead agreed to take this little sloop (which we are now in) together with the one man. The night being very dark we all agreed to desert the pirates – altered our course and touched at St. Maria, where we landed the one man – saw no boats there, could hear nothing from you, and agreed one and all at the risk of our lives to come and liberate you if you were alive; knowing, as we did, that you were put on this Key to perish. On our way we boarded the Exertion, thinking possibly you might have been there. On board her we found a sail and paddle. We took one of the pirate's boats which they had left along-side of her, which proves how we came by two boats. My friend, the circumstance I am now about to relate, will somewhat astonish you. When the pirate's boat with Bolidar was sent to the before mentioned Key, on the 19th of January, it was their intention to leave you prisoners there, where was nothing but salt water and mangroves, and no possibility of escape. This was the plan of Baltizar, their abandoned pilot; but Bolidar's heart failed him, and he objected to it; then, after a conference, Captain Jonnia ordered you to be put on the little island from whence we have now taken you. But after this was done, that night the French and Portuguese part of the Mexican's crew protested against it; so that Captain Jonnia to satisfy them, sent his large boat to take you and your fellow prisoners back again, taking care to select his confidential Spaniards for this errand. And you will believe me they set off from the Mexican, and after spending about as much time as would really have taken them to come to you, they returned, and reported they had been to your island, and landed, and that none of you were there, somebody having taken you off! This, all my companions here know to be true. – I knew it was impossible you could have been liberated, and therefore we determined among ourselves, that should an opportunity occur we would come and save your lives, as we now have." He then expressed, as he hitherto had done (and I believe with sincerity), his disgust with the bad company which he had been in, and looked forward with anxiety to the day when he might return to his native country. I advised him to get on board an American vessel, whenever an opportunity offered, and come to the United States; and on his arrival direct a letter to me; repeating my earnest desire to make some return for the disinterested friendship which he had shown toward me. With the Frenchman I had but little conversation, being unacquainted with the language.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Here ended Nickola's account. "And now" said the Frenchman, "our hearts be easy." Nickola observed he had left all and found us. I gave them my warmest tribute of gratitude, saying I looked upon them under God as the preservers of our lives, and promised them all the assistance which my situation might enable me to afford. — This brings me to,

Thursday evening, 7th, when, at eleven o'clock, we anchored at the creek's mouth, near the Exertion. I was anxious to board her; accordingly took with me Nickola, Thomas, George and two others, well armed, each with a musket and cutlass. I jumped on her deck, saw a fire in the camboose, but no person there: I called aloud Mr. Bracket's name several times, saying "it is Captain Lincoln, don't be afraid, but show yourself," but no answer was given. She had no masts, spars, rigging, furniture, provisions or any thing left, except her bowsprit, and a few barrels of salt provisions of her cargo. Her ceiling had holes cut in it, no doubt in their foolish search for money. I left her with peculiar emotions, such as I hope never again to experience; and returned to the little sloop where we remained till —

Friday, 8th — When I had disposition to visit the island on which we were first imprisoned. — Found nothing there — saw a boat among the mangroves, near the Exertion. Returned, and got under way immediately for Trinidad. In the night while under full sail, run aground on a sunken Key, having rocks above the water, resembling old stumps of trees; we, however, soon got off and anchored. Most of those Keys have similar rocks about them, which navigators must carefully guard against.

Monday, 11th — Got under way — saw a brig at anchor about five miles below the mouth of the harbor; we hoped to avoid her speaking us; but when we opened in sight of her, discovered a boat making towards us, with a number of armed men in her. This alarmed my friends, and as we did not see the brig's ensign hoisted, they declared the boat was a pirate, and looking through the spy-glass, they knew some of them to be the Mexican's men! This state of things was quite alarming. They said, "we will not be taken alive by them." Immediately the boat fired a musket; the ball passed through our mainsail. My friends insisted on beating them off: I endeavored to dissuade them, believing, as I did, that the brig was a Spanish man-of-war, who had sent her boat to ascertain

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

who we were. I thought we had better heave to. Immediately another shot came. Then they insisted on fighting, and said "if I would not help them, I was no friend." I reluctantly acquiesced, and handed up the guns – commenced firing upon them and they upon us. We received several shot through the sails, but no one was hurt on either side. Our boats had been cast adrift to make us go the faster, and we gained upon them – continued firing until they turned from us, and went for our boats, which they took in tow for the brig. Soon after this, it became calm: then I saw that the brig had us in her power. – She manned and armed two more boats for us. We now concluded, since we had scarcely any ammunition, to surrender; and were towed down alongside the brig on board, and were asked by the captain, who could speak English, "what for you fire on the boat?" I told him "we thought her a pirate, and did not like to be taken by them again, having already suffered too much;" showing my papers. He said, "Captain Americana, never mind, go and take some dinner – which are your men?" I pointed them out to him, and he ordered them the liberty of the decks; but my friend Nickola and his three associates were immediately put in irons. They were, however, afterwards taken out of irons and examined; and I understood the Frenchmen agreed to enlist, as they judged it the surest way to better their condition. Whether Nickola enlisted, I do not know, but think that he did, as I understood that offer was made to him: I however endeavored to explain more distinctly to the captain, the benevolent efforts of these four men by whom my life had been saved, and used every argument in my power to procure their discharge. I also applied to the governor, and exerted myself with peculiar interest, dictated as I trust with heartfelt gratitude – and I ardently hope ere this, that Nickola is on his way to this country, where I may have an opportunity of convincing him that such an act of benevolence will not go unrewarded. Previous to my leaving Trinidad, I made all the arrangements in my power with my influential friends, and doubt not, that their laudable efforts will be accomplished. – The sloop's cargo was then taken on board the brig; after which the captain requested a certificate that I was politely treated by him, saying that his name was Captain Candama, of the privateer brig Prudentee of eighteen guns. This request I complied with. His first lieutenant told me he had sailed out of Boston, as commander for T.C. Amory, Esq. during the last war. In the course of the evening my friends were taken out of irons and examined separately, then put back again. The captain invited me to supper in his cabin, and a berth for the night, which was truly acceptable. The next morning after breakfast, I with my people were set on shore with the few things we had, with the promise of the Exertion's small boat in a day or two, – but it was never sent me – the reason, let the reader imagine. On landing at the wharf Casildar, we were immediately taken by soldiers to the guard house, which was a very filthy place; thinking I suppose, and even calling us, pirates. Soon some friends came to see me. Mr. Cotton, who resides there brought us in some soup. Mr. Isaac W. Lord, of Boston, my merchant, came with Captain Tate, who sent immediately to the governor; for I would not show my papers to any one else. He came about sunset, and after examining Manuel my Spanish fellow prisoner, and my papers, said to be, giving me the papers, "Captain, you are at liberty." I was kindly invited by Captain Matthew Rice, of schooner Galaxy, of Boston, to go on board his vessel, and live with him during my stay there. This generous offer I accepted, and was treated by him with the greatest hospitality; for I was hungered and he gave me meat, I was athirst and he gave me drink, I was naked and he clothed me, a stranger and he took me in. He likewise took Manuel and my three men for that night. Next day Mr. Lord rendered me all necessary assistance in making my protest. He had heard nothing from me until my arrival. I was greatly disappointed in not finding Mr. Bracket, and requested Mr. Lord to give him all needful aid if he should come there. To Captain Carnes, of the schooner Hannah, of Boston, I would tender my sincere thanks, for his kindness in giving me a passage to Boston, which I gladly accepted. To those gentlemen of Trinidad, and many captains of American vessels, who gave me sea clothing, &c., I offer my cordial gratitude.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

I am fully of the opinion that these ferocious pirates are linked in with many inhabitants of Cuba; and the government in many respects appears covertly to encourage them.

It is with heartfelt delight, that, since the above narrative was written, I have learned that Mr. Bracket and his companions are safe; he arrived at Port d'Esprit, about forty leagues east of Trinidad. A letter has been received from him, stating that he should proceed to Trinidad the first opportunity. – It appears that after reaching the wreck, they found a boat from the shore, taking on board some of the Exertion's cargo, in which they proceeded to the above place. Why it was not in his power to come to our relief will no doubt be satisfactorily disclosed when he may be so fortunate as once more to return to his native country and friends.

I felt great anxiety to learn what became of Jamieson, who, my readers will recollect, was detained on board the Spanish brig Prudentee near Trinidad. I heard nothing from him, until I believe eighteen months after I reached home, when I received a letter from him, from Montego Bay, Jamaica, informing me that he was then residing in that island. I immediately wrote to him,

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

and invited him to come on to the United States. He accordingly came on passenger with Captain Wilson of Cohasset, and arrived in Boston, in August, 1824. Our meeting was very affecting. Trying scenes were brought up before us; scenes gone forever, through which we had passed together, where our acquaintance was formed, and since which time, we had never met. I beheld once more the preserver of my life; the instrument, under Providence, of restoring me to my home, my family, and my friends, and I regarded him with no ordinary emotion. My family were delighted to see him, and cordially united in giving him a warm reception. He told me that after we separated in Trinidad, he remained on board the Spanish brig. The commander asked him and his companions if they would enlist; the Frenchmen replied that they would, but he said nothing, being determined to make his escape, the very first opportunity which should present. The Spanish brig afterwards fell in with a Columbian Patriot, an armed brig of eighteen guns. Being of about equal force, they gave battle, and fought between three and four hours. Both parties were very much injured; and, without any considerable advantage on either side, both drew off to make repairs. The Spanish brig Prudentee, put into St. Jago de Cuba. Jamieson was wounded in the action, by a musket ball, through his arm, and was taken on shore, with the other wounded, and placed in the hospital of St. Jago. Here he remained for a considerable time, until he had nearly recovered, when he found an opportunity of escaping, and embarking for Jamaica. He arrived in safety at Kingston, and from there, travelled barefoot over the mountains, until very much exhausted, he reached Montego Bay, where he had friends, and where one of his brothers possessed some property. From this place, he afterwards wrote to me. He told me that before he came to Massachusetts, he saw the villainous pilot of the Mexican, the infamous Baltizar, with several other pirates, brought into Montego Bay, from whence they were to be conveyed to Kingston to be executed. Whether the others were part of the Mexican's crew, or not, I do not know. Baltizar was an old man, and as Jamieson said, it was a melancholy and heart-rending sight, to see him borne to execution with those gray hairs, which might have been venerable in virtuous old age, now a shame and reproach to this hoary villain, for he was full of years, and old in iniquity. When Jamieson received the letter which I wrote him, he immediately embarked with Captain Wilson, and came to Boston, as I have before observed.

According to his own account he was of a very respectable family in Greenock, Scotland. His father when living was a rich cloth merchant, but both his father and mother had been dead many years. He was the youngest of thirteen children, and being, as he said, of a roving disposition, had always followed the seas. He had received a polite education, and was of a very gentlemanly deportment. He spoke several living languages, and was skilled in drawing and painting. He had travelled extensively in different countries, and acquired in consequence an excellent knowledge of their manners and customs. His varied information (for hardly any subject escaped him) rendered him a very entertaining companion. His observations on the character of different nations were very liberal; marking their various traits, their virtues and vices, with playful humorousness, quite free from bigotry, or narrow prejudice.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

I was in trade, between Boston and Philadelphia, at the time he came to Massachusetts, and he sailed with me several trips as my mate. He afterwards went to Cuba, and was subsequently engaged in the mackerel fishery, out of the port of Hingham, during the warm season, and in the winter frequently employed himself in teaching navigation to young men, for which he was eminently qualified. He remained with us, until his death, which took place in 1829. At this time he had been out at sea two or three days, when he was taken sick, and was carried into Cape Cod, where he died, on the first day of May, 1829, and there his remains lie buried. Peace be to his ashes! They rest in a strange land, far from his kindred and his native country.

Since his death I have met with Mr. Stewart, of Philadelphia, who was Commercial Agent in Trinidad at the time of my capture. He informed me that the piratical schooner Mexican, was afterwards chased by an English government vessel, from Jamaica, which was cruising in search of it. Being hotly pursued, the pirates deserted their vessel, and fled to the mangrove bushes, on an island similar to that on which they had placed me and my crew to die. The English surrounded them, and thus they were cut off from all hopes of escape. They remained there, I think fourteen days, when being almost entirely subdued by famine, eleven surrendered themselves, and were taken. The others probably perished among the mangroves. The few who were taken were carried by the government vessel into Trinidad. Mr. Stewart said that he saw them himself, and such miserable objects, that had life, he never before beheld. They were in a state of starvation; their beards had grown to a frightful length, their bodies, were covered with filth and vermin, and their countenances were hideous. From Trinidad they were taken to Kingston, Jamaica, and there hung on Friday, the 7th of February, 1823.

About a quarter of an hour before day dawn, the wretched culprits were taken from the jail, under a guard of soldiers from the 50th regiment, and the City Guard. On their arrival at the wherry wharf, the military retired, and the prisoners, with the Town Guard were put on board two wherries, in which they proceeded to Port Royal Point, the usual place of execution in similar cases. They were there met by a strong party of military, consisting of 50 men, under command of an officer. They formed themselves into a square round the place of execution, with the sheriff and his officers with the prisoners in the centre. The gallows was of considerable length, and contrived with a drop so as to prevent the unpleasant circumstances which frequently occur.

The unfortunate men had been in continual prayer from the time they were awakened out of a deep sleep till they arrived at that place, where they were to close their existence.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

They all expressed their gratitude for the attention they had met with from the sheriff and the inferior officers. Many pressed the hands of the turnkey to their lips, others to their hearts and on their knees, prayed that God, Jesus Christ, and the Virgin Mary would bless him and the other jailors for their goodness. They all then fervently joined in prayer. To the astonishment of all, no clerical character, of any persuasion, was present. They repeatedly called out "Adonde esta el padre," (Where is the holy father).

Juan Hernandez called on all persons present to hear him – he was innocent; what they had said about his confessing himself guilty was untrue. He had admitted himself guilty, because he hoped for pardon; but that now he was to die, he called God, Jesus Christ, the Holy Ghost, the Virgin Mary, and the Saints, to witness that he spoke the truth – that he was no pirate, no murderer – he had been forced. The Lieutenant of the pirates was a wretch, who did not fear God, and had compelled him to act. Juan Gutierrez and Francisco de Sayas were loud in their protestations of innocence.

Manuel Lima said, for himself, he did not care; he felt for the old man (Miguel Jose). How could he be a pirate who could not help himself? If it were a Christian country, they would have pardoned him for his gray hairs. He was innocent – they had both been forced. Let none of his friends or relations ever venture to sea – he hoped his death would be a warning to them, that the innocent might suffer for the guilty. The language of this young man marked him a superior to the generality of his companions in misfortune. The seamen of the Whim stated that he was very kind to them when prisoners on board the piratical vessel. Just before he was turned off, he addressed the old man – "Adios viejo, para siempre adios." – (Farewell, old man, forever farewell.)

Several of the prisoners cried out for mercy, pardon, pardon. Domingo Eucalla, the black man, then addressed them. "Do not look for mercy here, but pray to God; we are all brought here to die. This is not built for nothing; here we must end our lives. You know I am innocent, but I must die the same as you all. There is not any body here who can do us any good, so let us think only of God Almighty. We are not children but men, you know that all must die; and in a few years those who kill us must die too. When I was born, God set the way of my death; I do not blame any body. I was taken by the pirates and they made me help them; they would not let me be idle. I could not show that this was the truth, and therefore they have judged me by the people they have found me with. I am put to death unjustly, but I blame nobody. It was my misfortune. Come, let us pray. If we are innocent, so much the less we have to repent. I do not come here to accuse any one. Death must come one day or other; better to the innocent than guilty." He then joined in prayer with the others. He seemed to be much revered by his fellow prisoners. He chose those prayers he thought most adapted to the occasion. Hundreds were witnesses to the manly firmness of this negro. Observing a bystander listening attentively to the complaints of one of his fellow wretches, he translated what had been said into English. With a steady pace, and a resolute and resigned countenance, he ascended the fatal scaffold. Observing the executioner unable to untie a knot on the collar of one of the prisoners, he with his teeth untied it. He then prayed most fervently till the drop fell.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Miguel Jose protested his innocence. – “No he robado, no he matado ninguno, muero inocente.” – (I have robbed no one, I have killed no one, I die innocent. I am an old man, but my family will feel my disgraceful death.)

Francisco Migul prayed devoutly, but inaudibly. – His soul seemed to have quitted the body before he was executed.

Breti Gullimillit called on all to witness his innocence; it was of no use for him to say an untruth, for he was going before the face of God.

Augustus Hernandez repeatedly declared his innocence, requested that no one would say he had made a confession; he had none to make.

Juan Hernandez was rather obstinate when the execution pulled the cap over his eyes. He said, rather passionately – “Quita is de mis ojos.” – (Remove it from my eyes.) He then rubbed it up against one of the posts of the gallows.

Miguel Jose made the same complaint, and drew the covering from his eyes by rubbing his head against a fellow sufferer.

Pedro Nondre was loud in his ejaculations for mercy. He wept bitterly. He was covered with marks of deep wounds.

The whole of the ten included in the death warrant, having been placed on the scaffold, and the ropes suspended, the drop was let down. Nondre being an immense heavy man, broke the rope, and fell to the ground alive. Juan Hernandez struggled long. Lima was much convulsed. The old man Gullimillit, and Migul, were apparently dead before the drop fell. Eucalla (the black man) gave one convulsion, and all was over.

When Nondre recovered from the fall and saw his nine lifeless companions stretched in death, he gave an agonizing shriek; he wrung his hands, screamed “Favor, favor, me matan sin causa. O! buenos Christianos, me amparen, ampara me, ampara me, no hay Christiano en asta, tiara?” (Mercy, mercy, they kill me without cause. – Oh, good Christians, protect me. Oh, protect me. Is there no Christian in this land?)

He then lifted his eyes to Heaven, and prayed long and loud. Upon being again suspended, he was for a long period convulsed. He was an immense powerful man, and died hard.

A piratical station was taken in the Island of Cuba by the U.S. schooners of war, Greyhound and Beagle. They left Thompson’s Island June 7, 1823, under the command of Lieuts. Kearney and Newton, and cruised within the Key’s on the south side of Cuba, as far as Cape Cruz, touching at all the intermediate ports on the island, to intercept pirates. On the 21st of July, they came to anchor off Cape Cruz, and Lieut. Kearney went in his boat to reconnoitre the shore, when he was fired on by a party of pirates who were concealed among the bushes. A fire was also opened from several pieces of cannon erected on a hill a short distance off. The boat returned, and five or six others were manned from the vessels, and pushed off for the shore, but a very heavy cannonade being kept up by the pirates on the heights, as well as from the boats, were compelled to retreat. The two schooners were then warped in, when they discharged several broadsides, and covered the landing of the boats. After a short time the pirates retreated to a hill that was well fortified. A small hamlet, in which the pirates resided, was set fire to and destroyed. Three guns, one a four pounder, and two large swivels, with several pistols, cutlasses, and eight large boats, were captured. A cave, about 150 feet deep, was discovered, near where the houses were, and after considerable difficulty, a party of seamen got to the bottom, where was found an immense quantity of plunder, consisting of broadcloths, dry goods, female dresses, saddlery, &c. Many human bones were also in the cave, supposed to have been unfortunate persons who were taken and put to death. A great many of the articles were brought away, and the rest destroyed. About forty pirates escaped to the heights, but many were supposed to have been killed from the fire of the schooners, as well as from the men who landed. The bushes were so thick that it was impossible to go after them. Several other caves are in the neighborhood, in which it was conjectured they occasionally take shelter.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

In 1823, Commodore Porter commanded the United States squadron in these seas; much good was done in preventing new acts of piracy; but these wretches kept aloof and did not venture to sea as formerly, but some were taken.

Almost every day furnished accounts evincing the activity of Commodore Porter, and the officers and men under his command; but for a long time their industry and zeal was rather shown in the suppression of piracy than the punishment of it. At length, however, an opportunity offered for inflicting the latter, as detailed in the following letter, dated Matanzas, July 10, 1823. "I have the pleasure of informing you of a brilliant achievement obtained against the pirates on the 5th inst. by two barges attached to Commodore Porter's squadron, the Gallinipper, Lieut. Watson, 18 men, and the Moscheto, Lieut. Inman, 10 men. The barges were returning from a cruise to windward; when they were near Jiguapa Bay, 13 leagues to windward of Matanzas, they entered it - it being a rendezvous for pirates. They immediately discovered a large schooner under way, which they supposed to be a Patriot privateer; and as their stores were nearly exhausted, they hoped to obtain some supplies from her. They therefore made sail in pursuit. When they were within cannon shot distance, she rounded to and fired her long gun, at the same time run up the bloody flag, directing her course towards the shore, and continuing to fire without effect. When she had got within a short distance of the shore, she came to, with springs on her cable, continuing to fire; and when the barges were within 30 yards, they fired their muskets without touching boat or man; our men gave three cheers, and prepared to board; the pirates, discovering their intention, jumped into the water, when the bargemen, calling on the name of 'Allen,' commenced a destructive slaughter, killing them in the water and as they landed. So exasperated were our men, that it was impossible for their officers to restrain them, and many were killed after orders were given to grant quarter. Twenty-seven dead were counted, some sunk, five taken prisoners by the bargemen, and eight taken by a party of Spaniards on shore. The officers calculated that from 30 to 35 were killed. The schooner mounted a long nine pounder on a pivot, and 4 four pounders, with every other necessary armament, and a crew of 50 to 60 men, and ought to have blown the barges to atoms. She was commanded by the notorious Diablero or Little Devil. This statement I have from Lieut. Watson himself, and it is certainly the most decisive operation that has been effected against those murderers, either by the English or American force."

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

"This affair occurred on the same spot where the brave Allen fell about one year since. The prize was sent to Thompson's Island."

A British sloop of war, about the same time, captured a pirate schooner off St. Domingo, with a crew of 60 men. She had 200,000 dollars in specie, and other valuable articles on board. The brig Vestal sent another pirate schooner to New-Providence.

November 11, Sunday (October 30th Old Style²⁷⁵): Fyodor Mikhailovich Dostoevski was born at Moscow's hospital for the poor.

At a musical gathering in Johann Wolfgang von Goethe's home in Weimar, visiting musicians played through Felix Mendelssohn's Piano Quartet in D, led by his teacher Carl Friedrich Zelter. Goethe, who had heard the 7-year-old Mozart, stated that Mendelssohn's accomplishment at such a young age bordered "on the miraculous."

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 11th of 11th M / Our morning meeting was a solemn favord season - Hannah Dennis first appeared in Supplication -then father Rodman in a lively testimony - then Hannah followed in a communication lively & pertinent & Solemn. & I thought the meeting closed with rather uncommon weight - In the Afternoon we were Silent but it appeared to me there was a good degree Of favor vouchsafed. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

275. Although Russia had moved the start of its year to January 1st as of 1700, it would not switch over from the Julian to the Gregorian calendar until February 14, 1918 (New Style). Hence they refer to the Revolution of 1917 as their October Revolution despite the fact that it did not break out until November 7th New Style (October 25th Old Style).

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

November 15, Thursday: Billy Williams died of the beating he had received with an iron bar at the hands of fellow convict Samuel Green on November 8th.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 15 of 11 M 1821 / Silent meeting, but a season of Some favor to me - for which I desire to be thankful

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 18, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 18 of 11 M / Last evening rode out to Uncle Stantons & Lodged - This morning rode to Meeting with Aunt Patty, which to me was a Season of uncommon favor to me - soon After I took my seat my mind became centered in solid reflection & life rose in which I was made sensible that, the same power which did in the days of Israel of old, exalt itself in the mountains, could also be exalted in the valleys, now as in those days, & much encouragement rose in my mind for which I desire to be thankful Anne Dennis & Abigail Sherman bore short testimonies & Hannah Dennis was much favored in testimony - After Meeting I went to see my cousin Elizabeth Chase which is the first time I have seen her since Her mother died - After tea I walked home. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Franz Schubert's song "Der Wanderer" to words of Georg Philipp Schmidt von Lübeck was performed for the initial time, in the Gasthof "zum Römischen Kaiser" of Vienna.

Ich komme vom Gebirge her,
Es dampft das Tal, es braust das Meer,
Ich wandle still, bin wenig froh,
Und immer fragt der Seufzer, wo?

Die Sonne dünkt mich hier so kalt,
Die Blüte welk, das Leben alt,
Und was sie reden, leerer Schall,
Ich bin ein Fremdling überall.

Wo bist du, mein geliebtes Land,
Gesucht, geahnt, und nie gekannt?
Das Land, das Land so hoffnungsgrün,
Das Land, wo meine Rosen blühn;

Wo meine Freunde wandelnd gehen,
Wo meine Toten auferstehen,
Das Land, das meine Sprache spricht,
Das teure Land — hier ist es nicht. —

Ich wandle still, bin wenig froh,
Und immer fragt der Seufzer, wo?
Im Geisterhauch tö'nt's mir zurück,
"Dort, wo du nicht bist, ist das Glück."

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

November 27, Tuesday: Three songs of Franz Schubert were published by Cappi and Diabelli, Vienna as his op.7: "Die abgebluhte Linde" and "Der Flug der Zeit" to words of Szechenyi, and "Der Tod und das Madchen" to words of Claudius.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 27th of 11 M / Yesterday I recd from my friend Thos Thompson a Packet containing a number of printed pamphlets & Manuscripts which were very acceptable. he also inclosed a small engraved likeness of George Fox with two lines of his hand writing pasted on the bottom of it - Also a view of Swarthmore hall the residence of Judge Fell & after his Marriage with his widow the residence of George Fox. - These views occasioned much serious reflection & feeling - For tho' we know "the Spirit of a man is not in the Picture of a man" nor is the picture of his house when he is Dead, - yet so striking a likeness of so great a man, in the best sense of the word great - can but call to our recollection his great services in his masters cause while on earth, & excite in our hearts fervant desires that we may so live as to be invested with the same spirit, with which he was - bound to the Same great & holy cause, in all humility & fear - in looking on the view of his residence as it stood in the year 1818 at which time it was deliniated in the presence of Thos Thompson My mind could but go back & trace some of the deep trials & sufferings that he with perhaps many of his brethren passed thro' at that place, also the many prescious & heavenly seasons of Divine favor & power which they enjoyed

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 29, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 29th of 11th M 1821 / Our Monthly Meeting this day held in Town was pretty large. There was a considerable Shew of young friends whose company is always pleasant & I have no doubt adds to the weight of the meeting - In the first, to [two] females young in the ministry offered a few words - In the last we had considerable buisness, which I thought was conducted with good order, & some encouragement, tho' in my own particular in neither Meeting, life rose to that height, that I have sometimes experienced. - B Freeborn Sarah Fowler Anne Anthony Wait Lawton & Adam Anthony Dined with us After Meeting recd a letter from my Venerable friend Moses Brown

-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 2, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 2nd of 12 M 1821 / Our Meeting was Silent & favour'd this Morning - Father Rodman & Abigail Sherman were concerned

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

in short but suitable testimonys – As to my own particular [I was?] favoured to desire good & a little was vouchsafed, but Oh [of la-?]te how have I been in the barren desert, with little more [priv] iledge than to see the goodly land – May I yet live [to] pass over Jordan & partake of the promise – this I find is the State of many & may I not give out by the Way

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 6, Thursday: The South Orkney Islands were claimed for Great Britain.

Incidental music to von Kleist's play Prinz Friedrich von Homburg by Heinrich August Marschner was performed for the initial time, in Dresden.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 6th of 12th M 1821 / A short communication from H Dennis, & to me a Season of some favor at Meeting –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 9, Sunday: William Brisbane, who owned a rice and cotton plantation called Milton Lodge on the Ashley River near Charleston, South Carolina, having no son who might inherit, had adopted William Henry Brisbane, a son of his alcoholic brother Adam Fowler Brisbane (the family was calling William Henry by his middle name, Henry, to distinguish him from an elder brother also adopted and also named William). On this day when William Brisbane died, his adopted son William Henry Brisbane inherited a large number of slaves.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 9 of 12 M / Morning Meeting full & favord with solid quick & lively testimony from D Buffum & the London Epistle was read – Afternoon, Solid & quiet & tho' I labord was unable to feel the circulating of that life in my own mind, which crowns our Assemblies –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 12, Thursday: Gustave Flaubert was born.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 12 of 12 M / A pretty good meeting & pretty well attended tho' a stormy Day A few words from J Dennis–

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 16, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 16th of 12 M / Our Meeting was a very solid good one, soon after taking my seat on centering the mind inward, I found life to spring up to no small degree of Consolation – Hannah Dennis was engaged in a lively & good testimony – After the

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

meeting broke, spoke to a young man to relieve my mind of an exercise which I felt towards him - my message appeared to be received with tenderness & apparant conviction of the justness of my remarks - which afforded hope to my mind that he may yet be rightly restored to society. - In the Afternoon the Meeting was silent & to me a good one - Took John & went out to D Buffums & took tea & set the evening. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 December 20, Thursday: Michael Martin, who had robbed Major John Bray in Medford, was hanged at Boston's and Cambridge's Lechmere Point. (An accomplice known as "Captain Lightfoot" had been able to escape, and would reside for many years incognito in Brattleboro, Vermont, not dying until 1835.)

H. Heine (the "H" at this point still stood for "Harry" rather than "Heinrich") made his debut as a poet with GEDICHTE VON H. HEINE (Berlin: in der Maurerfchen Buchhandlung, 1822; this included one of his most famous poems "Zwei Grenadiere" which reflected his admiration for Napoléon Bonaparte).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 20th of 12th M / Our Meeting was a pretty solid one & silent - life seemed rather low in my own particular, but being favor'd with an evidence that favour was not withheld I desire to be thankful. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 December 23, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 23rd of 12 M / Our Morning Meeting was large & I dont know but it may be called a favor'd time - D Buffum & Father Rodman were engaged in testimony & Hannah Dennis in Supplication - In the Afternoon, Father had a few words to communicate. & the Meeting was pretty well attended -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 December 27, Thursday: At a benefit for Gioachino Rossini in the Teatro San Carlo, Naples, attended by the king, royal family, ministers, and many members of the nobility, the composer's cantata La riconoscenza to words of Genoino was performed for the initial time.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 27 of 12 M 1821 / Last evening rode to Portsmouth with Uncle Stanton, lodged at his House & found my Mother in pretty good health - This morning walked to meeting - the first was Silent & tho' I believe generally a pretty dull time yet my mind was in some good degree favour'd, at least with some feelings of a right kind - In the last (Monthly) our buisness went on pretty well. - among the concerns that came before us was the pleasant & encouraging circumstance of a request for membership

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

from Eliza P Burrington wife of John Burrington of Portsmouth.
– Dined at Uncle Saml Thurstons & Walked home –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 30, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 12th M 30th 1821 / I am this day forty Years of Age -It has been to me a rather hard day - when I first awoke in the morning I endeavoured to center my mind & get it fixed on good but turn which way I would it seemed hard & the tempter near - Was favoured to labor in the Meeting which was silent yet unable to deale the predominance of that which I desired - In the Afternoon Hannah Dennis was engaged in a lively & favourd testimony which suited my State & in the evening the clouds seemed da little to break away Times & seasons are not at our command, indeed I find by experience They are not at mine, but may I labor more ardently -my life is fast spending, & my desire is to be prepared for the great Change –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Secretary of State John Quincy Adams proposed to Canning of Great Britain that the fleets of the two powers might usefully co-operate off the coast of Africa in the suppression of the international slave trade. The government of Great Britain would promptly accept.

W.E. Burghardt Du Bois: Whatever England's motives were, it is certain that only a limited international Right of Visit on the high seas could suppress or greatly limit the slave-trade. Her diplomacy was therefore henceforth directed to this end. On the other hand, the maritime supremacy of England, so successfully asserted during the Napoleonic wars, would, in case a Right of Search were granted, virtually make England the policeman of the seas; and if nations like the United States had already, under present conditions, had just cause to complain of violations by England of their rights on the seas, might not any extension of rights by international agreement be dangerous? It was such considerations that for many years brought the powers to a deadlock in their efforts to suppress the slave-trade.

At first it looked as if England might attempt, by judicial decisions in her own courts, to seize even foreign slavers.²⁷⁶ After the war, however, her courts disavowed such action,²⁷⁷ and the right was sought for by treaty stipulation. Castlereagh took early opportunity to approach the United States on the matter, suggesting to Minister Rush, June 20, 1818, a mutual but strictly limited Right of Search.²⁷⁸ Rush was ordered to give him assurances of the solicitude of the United States to suppress the traffic, but to state that the concessions asked for appeared of a character not adaptable to our institutions.

Negotiations were then transferred to Washington; and the new 276. For cases, see 1 Acton, 240, the "Amedie," and 1 Dodson, 81, the "Fortuna;" quoted in U.S. Reports, 10 Wheaton, 66.

277. Cf. the case of the French ship "Le Louis": 2 Dodson, 238; and also the case of the "San Juan Nepomuceno": 1 Haggard, 267.

278. BRITISH AND FOREIGN STATE PAPERS, 1819-20, pages 375-9; also pages 220-2.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

British minister, Mr. Stratford Canning, approached Adams with full instructions in December 1820.²⁷⁹

Meantime, it had become clear to many in the United States that the individual efforts of States could never suppress or even limit the trade without systematic co-operation. In 1817 a committee of the House had urged the opening of negotiations looking toward such international co-operation,²⁸⁰ and a Senate motion to the same effect had caused long debate.²⁸¹ In 1820 and 1821 two House committee reports, one of which recommended the granting of a Right of Search, were adopted by the House, but failed in the Senate.²⁸² Adams, notwithstanding this, saw constitutional objections to the plan proposed by Canning, and wrote to him, December 30: "A Compact, giving the power to the Naval Officers of one Nation to search the Merchant Vessels of another for Offenders and offences against the Laws of the latter, backed by a further power to seize and carry into a Foreign Port, and there subject to the decision of a Tribunal composed of at least one half Foreigners, irresponsible to the Supreme Corrective tribunal of this Union, and not amendable to the controul of impeachment for official misdemeanors, was an investment of power, over the persons, property and reputation of the Citizens of this Country, not only unwarranted by any delegation of Sovereign Power to the National Government, but so adverse to the elementary principles and indispensable securities of individual rights, ... that not even the most unqualified approbation of the ends ... could justify the transgression." He then suggested co-operation of the fleets on the coast of Africa, a proposal which was promptly accepted.²⁸³ The slave-trade was again a subject of international consideration at the Congress of Verona in 1822. Austria, France, Great Britain, Russia, and Prussia were represented. The English delegates declared that, although only Portugal and Brazil allowed the trade, yet the traffic was at that moment carried on to a greater extent than ever before. They said that in seven months of the year 1821 no less than 21,000 slaves were abducted, and three hundred and fifty-two vessels entered African ports north of the equator. "It is obvious," said they, "that this crime is committed in contravention of the Laws of every Country of Europe, and of America, excepting only of one, and that it requires something more than the ordinary operation of Law to prevent it." England therefore recommended: -

1. That each country denounce the trade as piracy, with a view of founding upon the aggregate of such separate declarations a general law to be incorporated in the Law of Nations.

279. BRITISH AND FOREIGN STATE PAPERS, 1820-21, pages 395-6.

280. HOUSE DOCUMENT, 14th Congress 2d session, II. No. 77.

281. 15th Congress 1st session, pages 71, 73-78, 94-109. The motion was opposed largely by Southern members, and passed by a vote of 17 to 16.

282. One was reported, May 9, 1820, by Mercer's committee, and passed May 12: HOUSE JOURNAL, 16th Congress 1st session, pages 497, 518, 520, 526; 16th Congress 1st session, pages 697-9. A similar resolution passed the House next session, and a committee reported in favor of the Right of Search: HOUSE JOURNAL, 16th Congress 2d session, pages 1064-71. Cf. HOUSE JOURNAL, 16th Congress 2d session, pages 476, 743, 865, 1469.

283. BRITISH AND FOREIGN STATE PAPERS, 1820-21, pages 397-400.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

2. A withdrawing of the flags of the Powers from persons not natives of these States, who engage in the traffic under the flags of these States.

3. A refusal to admit to their domains the produce of the colonies of States allowing the trade, a measure which would apply to Portugal and Brazil alone.

These proposals were not accepted. Austria would agree to the first two only; France refused to denounce the trade as piracy; and Prussia was non-committal. The utmost that could be gained was another denunciation of the trade couched in general terms.²⁸⁴

December 31, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 12 M 31 / The Old Year runs out & with it many [you]th [?] come to a conclusion of my particular acquaintance May it be a warning. May it be a fresh incitement to greater dedication

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

“NARRATIVE HISTORY” IS FABULATION, HISTORY IS CHRONOLOGY

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould

“Stack of the Artist of Kouroo” Project

284. BRITISH AND FOREIGN STATE PAPERS, 1822-23, pages 94-110.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1822

January 1, Tuesday: At Piada, near the ancient city of Epidaurus, the National Assembly of Greece adopted a constitution. Corinth was named the provisional capital of Greece and Alexandros Mavrokordatos became nominal president.

Furthering the work of the African Institution, publication of Friend Luke Howard's A WORD TO THE SONS OF AFRICA (London: Printed and sold by W. Phillips).

HOWARD PUBLICATIONS

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 1st of 1 M 1822 / I enter the New Year with rather better feelings than I closed the old one, — but I am yet poor & weak & under various discouragements²⁸⁵

*4th day 2nd of 1 M / This day recd a letter from Benj Dix which closes a concern between us of four years standing Namely - The settlement of the Estate of Asa Brooks on which I Administerd & he being Attorney to Matthew Brooks the buisness was transacted thro' him, & while I have to acknowledge his gentleman like treatment in all [crossed out] respects, it was truly cordial to my feelings to find I have enjoyed his entire confidence & Approbation in a protracted settlement of four Years & now closed in harmony & good feelings on both Sides the question. —
- "his concluding clause in his letter dated 26 ult is this - As this letter will probably close our buisness respecting this estate, I cannot close without giving you, & your family my*

285. Stephen Wanton Gould Diary, 1815-1823: The Gould family papers are stored under control number 2033 at the Division of Rare and Manuscript Collections of Cornell University Library, Box 7 Folder 12 for August 24, 1815-September 25, 1823; also on microfilm, see Series 7

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

respect & esteem, & that your Son may be a Comfort to the Family & a blessing to society."

January 6, Sunday: William Jackman was baptized in Dittisham, Dartmouth, Devonshire.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 6th of 1 M / In the morning meeting David Buffum was engaged in a lively pertinent & good Testimony, to the efficacy of the divine principle in Man, his opening was "Know ye not that Jesus Christ is in You except you are reprobates", & I have no doubt the truth was renewedly established in many minds present. – In the Afternoon Father Rodman was concerned in a short tesatimony which I believe had its weight, but life was lower in my mind in the Afternoon than in the Morning. –

January 7, Monday: 1st printing in the Hawaiian Islands.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 7t of 1 M 1822 / John has appeared to be very sick ever since last 6th day, we know not whither it one of his old turns of fever or whither it is the Measles 2nd day 7th of 1 M / It seems confirmed that John has the Measles as today there seems to be a considerable eruption on the skin but does not come out Kindly. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 8, Tuesday: Still convinced that Portugal had not properly proved its claim, Richard Wyly Habersham, US District Attorney for Georgia, appealed the negrero Antelope case again, this time to the US Supreme Court.

INTERNATIONAL SLAVE TRADE

Ramon Lopez Pelegrin replaced Francisco de Paula Escudero as Spain's First Secretary of State.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 8 of 1 M / John Measles seems to be out this morning pretty generally

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 10, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 10 of 1 M / Johns Measles has turned & he seems to be getting along pretty well tho' still quite Sick –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 12, Saturday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

7th day 12th of 1 M / This Afternoon Aunt Stanton came to Town & being under an appointment to be at Portsmouth I went with her & stayed at her house & found my Mother well she has been there Sometime & expects to Stay all Winter

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 13, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day Morning - Walked to Meeting - when I got to the road it snowed so fast & looked so much like a fixed Storm that my mind was thrown into much indecision & was almost inclined to come home, but finally [-]reed to go to meeting. - Abigail Sherman said a few words & to me it was a good meeting. - After meeting went to Jos Fishes & Dined then met the other members of the committee at John Burringtons whose Wife [—] requested to become a member with Friends. The oppotunity was a satisfactory one & a season of some encouragement to my mind - After which I returned to Freeborns on foot & got into the Chaise with Aunt E Thurston & carried her home, then went down to Uncle Stantons & lodged & this (2nd day [Monday]) Morning walked home & weather was very cold but as there was not much Snow on the ground came tolerably comfortably [--] John & his Mother as well as when I left them

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 17, Thursday: Elizabeth Hallett Prichard was born, daughter of Moses Prichard and Jane Tompson Hallet Prichard of Concord.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 17th of 1 M 1822 / Our first meeting was pretty well attended considering it was a very cold Day. Father Rodman was concerned in a short but sound & I thought appropriate testimony -

In the Select Meeting which followed, My Mind was in rather a dry State, but was glad to find it was not so with all - D Buffum was engaged to make a few seasonable remarks. - My H was prevented attending in consequence of a hevvy cough & sore throat -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 20, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 20th of 1 M / Our morning Meeting was a good one & I thought generally favourd - Hannah Dennis was three times engaged in lively testimony - In the Afternoon we were Silent & a good degree of Solemnity was experienced to cover the Meeting. The walking was bad & the Old Womens quarter entirely empty, but the young womens afforded a comfortable appearance

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Sister Mary took tea & spent the evening with us

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 24, Thursday: Jose Gabriel de Silva y Bazan, marques de Santa Cruz replaced Ramon Lopez Pelegrin as Spain's First Secretary of State.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 24 of 1 M / Silent Meeting - Some remarks made in the Preparative Meeting from several on some of the Answers to the Queries —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 27, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 27 of 1 M / In the forenoon D Buffum was uncommonly lively in testimony, on the uncertainty of time, Hannah Dennis was also engaged twice in a few words. - & the meeting was a Solemn one. - In the Afternoon it was Stormy & the walking wet & but one Woman attended & She not a Member. - This I think was no encouragement to her & may afford matter for reflection to some who are members. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 30, Wednesday: Ramon Lopez Pelegrin replaced Jose Gabriel de Silva y Bazan, marques de Santa Cruz as Spain's First Secretary of State.

Brister Freeman, former slave, died of "fever and age" at the age of 78. In his final months he had been loaned "a pair of sheets, and woolen bed quilt" by Concord's Female Charitable Society, which noted in its records that he was "sick." Freeman's burial place is listed as Concord but of course it would have cost money to mark the spot with a stone.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal that his wife, Friend Hannah Rodman Gould, had offered him an adequate explanation for Quaker quietism, to wit, this world with its web of alluring interests is the abode of Satan, and a place of temptation:

4th day 30th of 1 M / A Difficulty about a Worldly concern between Several individuals having been in agitation, in which my mind has been exercised, & that pretty much since yesterday - It called fourth this remark from my wife - She observed that "the time had been, when she did not see why the World Should stand first in the Trio of our potent enemies, as the 'World the Flesh & the Devil', but the longer she lived the more she was confirmed, that it would be out of place anywhere else" - It is indeed the most promonent forerunner, & sets the devil at work in some, in whom it would seem as if more of an overcoming had been experienced but alas some object is turned up, which touches the interest, & Satan steps in & agravates the case, by stirring up evil surmisings, then to detraction, till the breach

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

is sufficiently widened for him to effect his purposes, by laying waste & destroying love & harmony, & introducing that in which his dominion consists, Hatred Strife & every evil thing – May his power be averted

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 31, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st M (5th day) 1822 / Our first Meeting was a season of some conflicts but when past the Middle I felt the oppression to go off & Truth arise & go over "wrong things, & a solid weighty frame ensued which continued in good measure thro' the last Meeting - towards the close of the first A Sherman was concerned in a short & respectable testimony & I thought was the best evidence of Authority I had ever heard from her. – In the last Meeting there was considerable buisness, & it seemed to to take an active part in it - & on reflection feel pretty well satisfied, & I dont know but I may say, relieved, by my service. – Dr.Ja Wadsworth dined with us –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 February 1, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 1 of 2 M 1822 / Have been employed most of today in [sett]ling an unpleasant difference between a Beloved friend & several others, & had the satisfaction to see receipts in full [of?] all accounts given. – for a Small concern, (that is) not [to] exceed $20 – it seemed pregnant with as much mischief as any case I have known in some time, – but the bone of contention being removed, I hope the unpleasant effects may cease.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

February 3, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 3rd of 2 M 1822 / This Morning our friend David Buffum was engaged in a very living testimony wherein he particularly addressed the young & rising generation & it was a precious & favoured meeting – Silent & a pretty good time to me in the Afternoon –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 4, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 4th of 2 m / This morning took passage in the Stage & rode to Providence – Dined at Hortons tavern in Bristol & reached Moses Browns about 4 OC PM, it was a Snow Storm most of the Day Spent the evening with MB in very interesting conversation & lodged there. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 5, Tuesday: The brutal and rebellious Albanian ruler Ali Pasha of Janina (Ioannina, Greece) was murdered by agents of Ottoman Sultan Mahmud II. His head was sent to the Sultan in Constantinople

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day Rode with Moses Brown to the Yearly Meeting School House & spent the Day there it being the day of the Meeting of the subcommittee – We visited the schools & found the Girls particularly in good order & in a state of improvement. – the boys tho' doing pretty well would admit of improvement. Dined at the Boys table & returned to M Browns to tea & Lodge. – in the evening arrived most of our R Island friends & found a welcome assylum under the roof of our Ancient friend abovementioned. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 6, Wednesday: The seagoing 3-masted Chinese junk Tek Sing sank on a reef of the Belvidere Shoals in the South China Sea, in the Gaspar Strait between the islands of Bangka and Belitung, with approximately 1,600 passengers and 200 crewmembers.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day Morning rode to town with Moses in the sleigh & attended Select Meeting – We had not long been quietly Seated, before Benj. Shaw a young man of a Ranting spirit came in & took his Seat & tho' previously Kindly & affectionatley invited to retire, but he refused & we were obliged to carry him out by main Strength, letting his limbs hang as nerveless as a dead man, he was placed on the Step of the door, but afterwards he made an attempt to come in, when the doors were fastened --

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

This circumstance so unsettled my mind that I scarcely had any enjoyment of the Meeting tho' quiet was generally restored & we were favoured to transact the Affairs of our department of the Church, with a good degree of solemnity - the meeting sat longer than usual. - Dined at O Browns - then called on a woman by the name of Anna Power & her Sister Ruth Marsh on buisness for the Marsh family in this town - then went out to Moses Browns & lodged. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 7, Thursday: An English East Indiaman vessel, captain James Pearl, was able to take aboard about 190 of the numerous floaters from the Tek Sing (another smaller vessel was able to take aboard 18 of the floaters, but the balance of the Chinese victims would of necessity be left to drown).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day - After Breakfast Walked to Town when I got into the Yard, was informed that Benj Shaw who has been disowned by Lynn Moy [Monthly] Meeting for his disorder, had taken his seat at the head of our Meeting - I went in & found it so, several [-spoke?] to him & invited him to take a low seat & I among the rest - but all to no effect, he obstinately insisted in keeping his seat - most of the friends [-]note were consulted & all agreed that it would have a very pernicious effect to allow him to sit so by encouraging him to disturb his friends - Obadiah Brown stood up & spoke to that effect, when it was concluded to take him by the Arm & carry down, which it fell to my lot to do, assisted by Adam Comstock, a friend well qualified to manage him - while we were doing this Alanson Potter a friend of his own spirit, said he had no unity with what was doing, but we quietly & as Silently as Possible persisted, after he had, been removed, under pretence of being uncomfortable from the heat of the Stove he wanted to remove his seat & Adam followed him & again took his seat by his side - After the meeting was settled & the people quiet, James S tt stood up & reflected on friends, at having given way to a Spirit of War - & Grasa Haniford a friend also of the Ranting Spirit from Cape Elizabeth in one of the lower Quarterly Meetings, stood up twice & cast reflections on friends - After which, quiet seemed to be restored & Micajah Collins was engaged in a living & powerful testimony which had a great reach on the Audience - Then Obadiah Davis had considerable to say & was measurable favoured, after which - G Haniford said a little in the same temper as at first & B Shaw attempted to rise but was prevented by Adam Comstock - When the Meeting broke - After the shutters were Let down B Shaw kept his seat, The Meeting was informed that an individual was present who was not a member & he was requested to with draw by a friend appointed to the oversight of Meetings from the Select Meeting, but he kept his seat & after considerable entreaty from several friends it appeared that he was determined not to go out thereupon Adam

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*Comstock & Wm Jenkins took him & carried him gently out & the Meeting proceeded on the buisness with its usual Dignity & firmness. -notwithstanding, several interruptions from G Haniford & J Scott - but the Meeting ended in the Authority, & I believe Truth was exalted. -
I dined at O Browns - spent the forepart of the eveng & took tea at Wm Jenkins - then with [-] Rodman walked out to Moses Browns & lodged.-*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 8, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*6th day - Feeling my mind released from attending the [-] School committee, I went into town & took passage in the Carriage with Isaac Mitchell & came home, [-] to find my family & friends Well.
-*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 9, Saturday: Panama was incorporated into New Granada as the Department of the Isthmus.

Invaders under General Jean Pierre Boyer arrived in Santo Domingo to overthrow the newly founded Republic and unite the island of Haiti.²⁸⁶

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 9 of 2 M 1822 / This Afternoon Nathaniel Watson of Salem Arrived from Providence where he had been attending the Quarterly Meeting - on a visit to [some?] frineds in this Town. he is an agreeable well engaged friend, & very intelligent in his manners. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

286. According to AN OFFICIAL REPORT OF THE TRIALS OF SUNDRY NEGROES, CHARGED WITH AN ATTEMPT TO RAISE AN INSURRECTION IN THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA..., prepared in this year by Lionel H. Kennedy and Thomas Parker and printed in Charleston NC by James R. Schenck: confirming one of the worst fears of the white citizenry of Charlestown, a black captured at the collapse of the Denmark Vesey revolt had confessed before execution that Vesey had read to him newspaper reports relating to Haiti.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

February 10, First Day: Chief among the “New Lights” of New England was Friend Mary Newhall, who had accused the Quaker elders of a “dead formality” and had been informed by these elders that she was no longer welcome to speak in her New Bedford meeting. This group included a young cordwainer, Benjamin Shaw, who averred their intention to be to “pull the old order down, for they were a stiff, arbitrary set.” A committee of elders had met with him, he had rebuffed them, and he had been disowned. On this First Day, Benjamin Shaw sought to seat himself in the raised seats at the front of the Lynn, Massachusetts meetinghouse in which traditionally the ministers and elders of the meeting positioned themselves. After an unseemly scuffle he was ejected, and then the elders held him at the town’s poorhouse until late in the evening.

Read about this “New Light” controversy:

THE “NEW LIGHTS”

Read about the impact this controversy would have on Waldo Emerson (according to his own evaluation):

FREDERICK B. TOLLES

When Carl Maria von Weber left Dresden for Vienna, he was sufficiently worried about his health to leave a farewell note for his wife in a sealed envelope — in case he did not return.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 10th of 2 M / In our Mornng Meeting D Buffum was engaged in short but uncommonly lively pertinent & pithy testimony the Afflictions of this life which reached Several present
In the Afternoon we were Silent - In the eveng [—sin] Henry Gould & his Wife visited us -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 11, Monday: Am Geburtstag des Kaisers for solo voices, chorus and orchestra by Franz Schubert to words of Deinhardstein, was performed for the initial time, in Vienna’s Theresianum.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 11th of 2 M 1822 / We had the company of Nath Watson to Dinner - he improves on acquaintance

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 12, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*3rd day 12 of 2 M / This Mornng N Watson set out for home he leaves us in good fellowship & I believe his visit has been strengthening & comforting to him & to us -
We had the company of Wm Robinson of New York to tea & to set the evening with us. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

February 16, Saturday: Zelmira, a drama by Gioachino Rossini to words of Tottola after Dormont de Belloy, was performed for the initial time, in the Teatro San Carlo of Naples.

Francis Galton was born in Birmingham, England. The youngest of seven children born to Frances Anne Violetta Galton, the eldest daughter of Erasmus Darwin by a 2d marriage, and Samuel Tertius Galton, a banker, through his maternal grandfather he was half-cousin to Charles Darwin.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 16th of 2 M / Rode the Afternoon to Portsmouth with Cousin Henry Gould & Attended the funeral of Rebecca Sisson in the 42 Year of her Age She was the daughter of James Sisson & a neighbour & intimate friend of Aunt Stanton The Sitting at the funeral was attended with uncommon solemnity. Death in the House, her Brother Peleg in the same House very low & not expected to live, & a Sister buried on 5th day last the Day that Rebecca Died. The Measles was the foundation of all their sickness which left them in declines -Hannah Dennis was engaged in Solemn testimony & Jonathon spoke to Satisfaction. - Poor old James Sisson the father seemed greatly bowed in affliction, having followed two children to the grave in a week & another in a state of doubtful recovery - After taking tea at Uncle Stantons, where I found mother well & comfortable, we rode home before dark -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 17, 1st Day morning: Friend John Alley, Jr. appeared at the Quaker meetinghouse in Lynn still wearing his sword, and moved to seat himself in one of the high seats traditionally reserved for recognized ministers and elders. Friend Isaac Basset grabbed him about the waist pinning his arms to his side while several others cut the belt of the sword and pulled it away. He, Friend Jonathan Buffum, Friend Benjamin Shaw, and several other “New Lights” then managed to seat themselves in the high seats, some of them by clambering over the main benches in the meetinghouse. The elders of the meeting quickly brought that morning meeting for worship to a close.

At the afternoon meeting for worship, these “New Light” Quakers again seated themselves in the ministers’ section. Friend Isaac Basset invited them to come down and when they accused him of being disorderly, accused them of being the ones who were being disorderly. He gave a signal and three Friends seized Friend Benjamin Shaw, and carried him struggling from the building. Then Friend Jonathan Buffum was removed, and then Friend John Alley, Jr. The three were confined in a nearby house under guard and Friend Preserved Sprague, who had on other occasions behaved in a disruptive manner, was added to their number. There were shouts of “Mob! Mob!” and a deputy sheriff of the town appeared and read the riot act.

That evening a Salem sheriff would take custody of the four detained Quakers of Lynn.

Meanwhile on this day, in Concord, Massachusetts, it was 18 days subsequent to the death of Brister Freeman, and his grandson John Freeman for whom he had been providing, an 8-year-old whose father was long gone and whose mother had died a year and a half earlier, also succumbed — apparently of neglect.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1st day 17th of 2nd M 1822 / In the forenoon Father Rodman was engaged in a short lively testimony. - Afternoon Silent - both meetings were rather small in consequence of the walking - both to me were seasons of but little life -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 21, Thursday: There was an annular/total eclipse of the sun (#7219) from Hudson Bay to Seattle.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 21 of 2nd M 1822 / A Violent Stormy day & hevly rain, which raised the brooks so high that only four women could get to meeting they rode. - The Meeting was silent - The preparative meeting I thought was remarkably well conducted & it was a season of quiet & some favor. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 22, Friday: The Legislature of Massachusetts instituted a Fire Society for the settlement at Boston and proposed a vote in regard to whether it ought to incorporate itself as a city.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 22 of 2 M / Mind much affected with Solemn accounts in Lynn & Salem - the Spirit of Ranterism appears to have [-]en to great height & the hearts of the faithful are almost ready to sink.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

February 24, Sunday: On this day a man colloquially known as “Bluebeard” was hanged for having burned ten of his wives. His last words were not “Hey, if you have to ask, you wouldn’t understand.”

Early in this year (and I suppose I might as well place this record here as elsewhere, since I do not have a precise date), Adin Ballou got married with Abigail Sayles. Abigail’s mother, a Universalist, lent him a copy of Elhanan Winchester’s DIALOGUES ON THE UNIVERSAL RESTORATION. This reading and debates with some Universalist neighbors challenged his assumptions about salvation. At a Universalist meeting in nearby Wrentham, Massachusetts that year, Adin, attending as a spectator, was introduced to his distant cousin Hosea Ballou 2d, the Universalist minister from Roxbury, Massachusetts, who encouraged him to seek fellowship with the Universalists. After a period of study and prayer, Adin would post a letter to his distant cousin announcing his conversion to Universalism. The Christian Connexion would excommunicate him and his father would disinherit him.

(Adin would not marry multiple times and would not be burning any wives, so his name would never become quite so much a household word as Bluebeard’s has become.)

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 24th of 2 M / Our morning Meeting was pretty full, a solid [-]oured season - D Buffum was very lively in a short testimony Invitation "Come Brother come Sister let us go up to the mountain of the Lord to the House of the God of Jacob." - Silent & pretty well attended in the Afternoon - This [-]ning finished & put a letter in the Office To Stephen Oliver of [-]em [?] requesting information respecting the difficulties that [-] it there

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 28, Thursday: Francisco Martinez de la Rosa replaced Ramon Lopez Pelegrin as Spain’s First Secretary of State.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 28th of 2nd M / Yesterday Afternoon; We went to

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Portsmouth with [-] t Stanton who came on purpose to fetch us & lodged there

Our Moy [Monthly] Meeting this day was a quiet, large & favoured season - In the public Meeting H Dennis & Anne Dennis were engaged in public testimony - & The buisness went on with regularity & order - staid all night at Uncle Stantons & 6th day Morning rode home -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 3, Sunday: Rammohan Roy of India and the Reverend Jared Sparks of the First Independent Church of Baltimore began communication by letter. The Reverend Sparks's cut on what was going down was that "many lovers of truth are zealously engaged in rendering the religion of Jesus clear from corruptions."

Franz Schubert's song Geist der liebe D.747 to words of Mattheson was performed for the initial time, in the Redoutensaal of Vienna.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 3rd of 3rd M 1822 / Both our Meetings were Silent & Seasons to some of mental suffering, in reflecting on the situation of some poor individuals who are under great delusion in several parts of this Yearly Meeting, but as a comforter, the language was underneath - "The Foundation remains sure, having this seal the Lord knows them that are his" -

RHODE ISLAND

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 7, Thursday: Gilbert Close and Samuel Clisby, who had robbed Ezra Haynes in Cambridge Street, were taken to Boston Neck near the new city burying grounds and hanged.²⁸⁷

Gioachino Rossini departed from Naples heading for Vienna, accompanied by Isabella Colbran and three male singers.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 7th of 3 M 1822 / Our Meeting was Silent but a Solid good one, & favoured with the springing up of life, & for this privilege I feel thankful, while friends in some places are suffering under the disturbances of a ranterous & disorganising Spirit. - We had the company of Considerable portion of young people some of whose coutenances bespoke Solidity & reverance & were a Strength to their older brethren & sisters -

RHODE ISLAND

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

287. Presumably the duly constituted authorities in Boston would have experienced no difficulty whatever in seeking out and retaining and remunerating the services of one or another Protestant reverend who was not so embarrassed by the death penalty as to be unwilling to mount the scaffold with the victim, and administer last rites.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 10, Sunday: Ellen Devereux Sewall was born in Barnstable, Massachusetts. In a reminiscence by Ellen's daughter Louise Osgood,²⁸⁸ we learn that Caroline Ward met and married Edmund Quincy Sewall while he was "studying divinity with Dr. Ripley at the Old Manse in Concord.... After several years my [Louise Osgood's] grandfather [Edmund Quincy Sewall] was installed as the Unitarian minister in Scituate, where my mother [Ellen Devereux Sewall] grew up." Later, Ellen's grandmother Prudence Bird Ward (Mrs. Colonel Joseph Ward) would be a long-term boarder with the Thoreaus in Concord, and that at first she would be boarding there with both her daughters, Miss Prudence Ward and Caroline Ward (Ellen's mother).²⁸⁹

EZRA RIPLEY

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 10th of 3rd M / In our Morning Meeting Hannah Dennis appeared in testimony & in the Afternoon father Rodman was engaged in the Same way - Meetings were to me seasons of Some Barraness as to life but an exercise was maintained. -

RHODE ISLAND

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 12, Tuesday: L'esule di Granata, a melodramma semiserio by Giacomo Meyerbeer to words of Romani, was performed for the initial time, in Teatro alla Scala, Milan.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 12th of 3rd M / Last week the Superior Court set in this town & was most of the time occupied in trying two Awful case of Rape. - One Man was cleared & the other (James Cook) was this morning Sentenced to be hanged. - This is an Awful crisis indeed & tho' I am far from wanting him hanged - Yet I am also far from wanting Him again let loose on Society & am willing to exert my small influence to get his punishment commuted

RHODE ISLAND

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 13, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 13th of 3rd M 1822 / Saw this evening in the Salem Gazette the Notice of the decease of LYDIA DEAN wife of Wm Dean and daughter of Wm Rotch of New Bedford - This is affecting News - She died last first day 10th inst -

RHODE ISLAND

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 14, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 14th of 3rd M / Our Meeting was a comfortable Season, -

288. Louise Osgood Koopman, "The Thoreau Romance," The Massachusetts Review, Autumn 1962 (IV:1), page 60.

289. There is therefore at least a possibility, if not a likelihood, that the young lady to whom Henry Thoreau would propose marriage, Ellen, had been conceived as the result of a seduction occurring right there in the Thoreau home.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

We had the company of our Fr Wm Almy of Providence who was engaged in a Doctrinal & truly Orthodox testimony & Hannah Dennis closed in short pertinent communication much to satisfaction - we also had some precious young women present several others who were not members, who I hope were strengthened by the opportunity.

RHODE ISLAND

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 17, Sunday: The French government forbade sale of newspapers not approved in advance by official press censors.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 17th of 3rd M / Morning meeting to me was a dull time, tho' I trust others faired better than myself In the afternoon a little more bright - tho' a havy cold upon me - Silent Meetings Have several times called to see Jacob Lopez who is very low of a Perisnumony & not expected to continue the night thro' when I left him at 9 OClock this evening -

RHODE ISLAND

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 18, Monday: The Preparative Meeting recommended to the New Bedford Monthly Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends that Friend Mary Newhall be disowned (eventually the bodies of the local New Lights would be allowed to be buried in the meeting's cemetery, although surrounded by a fence to distinguish these ones as disowned).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould commented about the lonely state of the sole remaining Jew of Newport, Rhode Island, Moses Lopez:

2nd day 18 of 3 M / Last night at half past 11 OClock JACOB LOPEZ died - he & his Brother Moses were the only Jews to have lived in Newport for a number of Years & no men have stood fairer as Moral honest men - They are old acquaintances of mine, they have often visited me in my shop & passed many hours in pleasant converstaion, & poor MOSES will now feel himself as he really is quite alone, & destitute of associates of his own religious views - I visited him this morning & found him in affliction

March 21, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 21st of 3rd M / A Meeting of but little life to me, but not altogether so destitute as at some other times. - Silent meeting In the evening visited David Williams who has been [xxxx] Days confined to the house by indisposition. -

1st day [Sunday] 31st of 3rd M 1822 / Our Meetings were both Silent except a short offering towards the close of the Morning sitting

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*Mind occupied on various subjects, & relieved in some good degree from an exercise which has been prevalent in consequence of difficulties among friends at Lynn & Salem. – The case depending having been tried in a Court – Friends were Succesful in establishing our order, & the Truth was put in dominion over a ranterous & undisciplined & unsound Spirit which had got into some individuals
We set the evening with our cousins Anne & Mary Gould. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 April 4, Thursday: Maria Szymanowska offered her 2d concert in St. Petersburg, at Philharmonic Hall.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 4th of 4th M 1822 / Silen Meeting & to me a season of some favour

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 April 7, Easter Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 7th of 4 M / This morning being sent for by a man in Middletown who is very sick, to write a Will for him concluded it was best to leave Meeting & go. – which I accordingly did, & finished it by dinner time, & then went to Portsmouth & set the remainder of the day at Uncle Stantons. – Staid all night and 2nd day [Monday] morning rode home in his Waggon. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 April 11, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 11th of 4th M / Our Meeting was a season of favor a short testimony by Father Rodman. – At the close of it our Select Meeting was held which was to me a remarkably Solemn time, but I have to regret or at least I am inclined to fear that I did not do all the I ought to have done in it –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 April 14, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 14th of 4th M 1822 / [day's designation obscured by binding through 29th of 4th M] Watched last night with Old Benj Reynolds took a nap this morning & attended Meeting all day with less inconvenience than I ever recollect after sitting up – felt a little heft[?] in my system but not sleepy & was favord beyond my expectations. – both meetings silent except a few words toward the close in the Afternoon

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

April 18, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 18th of 4th M / At Meeting a few words from Anne Dennis, & to me it was a season of favor – In the Preparative Meeting the Queries were all answered. – felt my mind engaged to make up a few remarks on the subject of detraction, & also on the subject of plainness, which afforded me Satisfaction

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 21, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 21st of 4 M / Our Meetings were both Silent, & to me Seasons of poverty & Stripedness, tho' in the Afternoon I thought a little favor was experienced –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 April 25, Thursday: For having killed Billy Williams in the yard of the Massachusetts State Prison, Samuel Green was hanged on the Boston Neck gallows tree.²⁹⁰

(no gallows now, just a traffic light)

The survivors of the initial settlement on swampy Sherbro Island arrived at Cape Mesurado and began to build a new American Colonization Society settlement. A white representative of the Society was governing the colony, although eventually there would arise objections to the authoritarianism of a white Methodist missionary, the Reverend Jehudi Ashmun, who would replace Dr. Ayres as the ACS governing representative.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 25th of 4th M / With my H rode to Portsmouth to attend our Moy [Monthly] Meeting, stoped at Uncle Thurstons. – In the first Meeting was favored a little – two female appearances in the Ministry

In the last Meeting tho' I laboured to get into the life & center down to the gift, yet it lay so low & my efforts was so paralised that I could not attain to what I desired & took but little share in the buisness Dined at Uncle Stantons – then rode Home –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 April 28, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

28th of 4 M / Our Meetings very small in consequence of hevvy rain [?] silent & as respects myself, I must acknowledge that I

290. Presumably the duly constituted authorities in Boston would have experienced no difficulty whatever in seeking out and retaining and remunerating the services of one or another Protestant reverend who was not so embarrassed by the death penalty as to be unwilling to mount the scaffold with the victim, and administer last rites.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

[-] miserably poor. - this was no small affliction to me as thee [-] ting fell to my care, those to whome the care usually falls were absent.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 29, Monday: Johann Nepomuk Hummel gave a concert in Konigsberg.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

29th of 4 M / This Afternoon Attended the funeral of CHARLES FEKE [-] ted last 5th day Afternoon. I was one of the bearers to this very benevolent man who was buried in Friends Ground, having [-] in the general a very exemplary man thro' life & when he [- to any Meeting attended our, but the latter part of his [—] he was constantly engaged in buisness as an Apothecary his means were not very abundant yet Many times & oft' has [— ] benevolent hand made the heart of the widow & orhpan Sing for joy -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 30, Tuesday: Percy Bysshe Shelley and Mary Godwin Wollstonecraft Shelley, and Edward and Jane Williams, moved to San Terenzo on the Bay of Lerici.

Johann Nepomuk Hummel gave another concert in Konigsberg, improvising on the organ of the Burgkirche (thus ended his only tour of Russia).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 30th of 4th M 1822 / This Morning sent John out to Uncle Stantons to stay during Election Week - And at 9 OClock with my wife & other Friends, went on board the Greenwich Packet to attend the Quarterly Meeting - we arrived in Greenwich a little past Noon & went up to Updikes Tavern & dined. - Then called a little while at cousin Wanton Caseys where we left our things & walked out to Daniel Howlands & took tea where we met several of our friends, soon after we got there David Buffum & several others came, which made them too full of lodgers, & D Buffum & my H & myself with John Greene went over to Thos Howlands, & lodged

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

May 1, Wednesday: Waldo Emerson to his journal:

The peace of Europe of right belongs to the perfection of its police. There is no such mixture of disagreeable truth, in the quiet of our own nation. The entire internal repose of this country owes nothing to vigorous restriction or armed law. The spirit of the people is peace, & the sword at its side is for ornament rather than use.

John Phillips became Boston's 1st Mayor.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day This morning Walked again to Greenwich - took quarters with cousin Wanton - & went to Select Meeting which was a season of quiet, but I believe no great flow of life tho' a sense of thankfulness was felt undebr a sense of unity among the brethren.-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 2, Thursday: Maria Szymanowska performed before the Russian royal family at the Noblemen's Club in Moscow.

In a duel between the Duke of Buckingham and the Duke of Bedford on account of some disparaging remarks that had been made by the Duke of Bedford, the Duke of Buckingham fired and missed, whereupon the Duke of Bedford discharged his pistol into the air. The antagonists then shook hands.

ENGLISH EVENTS OF 1822

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day - came on the Quarterly Meeting at large - In the first Meeting Thos Anthony & Wm Almy appeared in good solid testimonys, then Thos in Solemn reverend supplication, in which I thought life & power rose into dominion, & certainly my feelings were in a better state than they had been for sometime, having been much in poverty & leanness for some weeks - After a short testimony from Betsy Purinton the Meeting closed & we proceded to the Usual buisness, which was transacted in harmony & good order, & I believe many minds were thankful they were present. - At early candle light John Wilbour appointed a Meeting for the inhabitants of Greenwich, which was attended pretty largely & friends who were there from other Meetings also attended - John was much favored to open the Truths of the Gospel to the people -D Buffum said a few words, lively & powerful & Ruth Meely concluded in Solemn supplication -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

May 3, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day Morning at 7 OClock we got on board the Packet & in two hours were at home & found all well

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 5, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 5th of 5 M 1822 / What a poor bleak barran thing I have been for a long time – poor Meetings today – a small appearance from a woman fr in the Morning –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 8, Wednesday: What would soon become the most popular song in America, “Home Sweet Home,” was first performed on the stage of the Covent Garden Theatre in London. It was part of a play CLARI, OR, THE MAID OF MILAN, by John Howard Payne.

An ice ship, The Spring, arrived in the Thames with some 300 tons of ice for the London market, in blocks of 20 hundredweight which had been cut from a fjord about a hundred miles north of Trondhjem on the Norwegian coast. (This was in fact the second such delivery but the first is not as well documented.)

Publication of the Quintet for Piano and Strings op.87 by Johann Nepomuk Hummel was announced in the Wiener Zeitung.

The Liszt family departs Raiding to move to Vienna where Franz may pursue serious musical study. They were being funded by several Hungarian noblemen from Pressburg (Bratislava).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

[obscured] 8th of 5th M / A small spring of life this morning

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 9, Thursday: Four songs by Franz Schubert were published by Cappi and Diabelli, Vienna as his op.8: Der Jungling auf dem Hugel to words of Huttenbrenner, and Sehnsucht, Erlafsee and Am Strome, all to words of Mayrhofer.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

[obscured] 9th of 5 M / To me a good Silent Meeting tho' when I went [obscured] my great leanness & weakness were my companions.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

May 12, Sunday: “My manner was not such as to satisfy myself.” The Reverend Convers Francis of Watertown, Massachusetts exchanged pulpits for the day with the Reverend Ezra Ripley of Concord. His prooftext for the Concord morning service was John 14:6 and his topic was “The Way, the truth, and the Life.” His prooftext for the afternoon service was Romans 14:12 and his topic was “On the Accountability of God.”

Waldo Emerson to his journal (a crossed out entry):

I have a nasty appetite which I will not gratify.

(We may wonder for how many minutes he was able to hold out.)

Percy Bysshe Shelley’s boat, the Don Juan, arrived.

Gaetano Donizetti’s drama La zingara to words of Tottola was performed for the initial time, in the Teatro Nuovo, Naples. The composer would remark “the public was certainly not stingy with compliments.”

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

[obscured] day 12 of 5 M / A favoured Meeting this morning H Dennis was [obscured] afed in a lively testimony – In the Afternoon rather lean to m

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 16, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

[obscured] 16th of 5 M / Our Meeting was rather small. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 19, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

[obscured] day 19th of 5 M / This morning rose early & with father Rodman went to Connanicut to attend the Meeting which commenced there this day to be continued thro’ the summer. – we set out by [-] OClock & had a good wind till we passed Rose Island when we had nearly flat Calm the tide running strong swept us down

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

to the dumplings, there were a number of passengers on board & among them Wm B Rotch, son of Benjamin Rotch, most of us went on shore in a litt [- & by that means for to meeting in good Season which to me was a time of favour & some trial, we dined at Jos Greenes, & returned in the Afternoon -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 21, Tuesday: At some point subsequent to the 20th, Percy Bysshe Shelley authored "The Triumph of Life."

Johann Wolfgang von Goethe received, courtesy of the composer, a copy of Ludwig van Beethoven's Meeresstille un gluckliche Fahrt, a cantata composed to Goethe's words.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day [sic] 21st of 5 M 1822 / Our Meetings were both Silent & to me pretty good seasons in comparrison with some meeting that I have sat in of late. - & my heart was in measure thankful for the favour. -
After tea walked with Sister Ruth out to David Buffum Jr to see their little son Benjamin who is very ill with the Quincy or Putrid sore throat -
Sister Ruth staid to Watch - with John & his cousin Richard I walked to Tomany Hill & then returned*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 23, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

[obscured] ay 23rd of 5 M / Meeting was pretty well attended, the weather being [obscured] rd several aged friends were present who cannot get otr [obscured] common. - we Sat in Silence, to me it was a season of labour & some reward was experienced, but alas I have but little to say for myself - it is & has been for [obscured] long time but a low time with me. - Cousin Hannah Gardiner dined with us & took tea after which she & my H went over to Abigail Shermans to set the evening. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 27, Monday: Nurmahal, oder Das Rosenfest von Kaschmir, a lyrisches Drama mit Ballet by Gaspare Spontini to words of Herklots after Moore, was performed for the initial time at the Royal Opera House, Berlin.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 27th of 5th M / Early this morning Benjamin, son of D Buffum Jr departed this life aged 3 years 7 Months & about 15 day [Thursday]s. - It is an afflicting event particularly as it was a very fine child. - The removal was Sudden & till within a few hours unexpected. - May it teach Survivers the uncertainty of time -

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

I sympathize with them, remembering the loss of our little Caleb

—

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 29, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 29th of 5th M / Attended the funeral of the abovementioned Child which was large, & a Solid favoured Season to some minds - J Dennis in Short testimony & Hannah in supplication

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 30, Thursday: Peter Prioleau, a mulatto house slave, betrayed the Denmark Vesey conspiracy, allegedly one of the most elaborate slave plots on record, involving thousands of blacks in Charleston, South Carolina and vicinity. During the ensuing two months, authorities would be arresting 131 persons of color, of whom 37 would hang and 32 be condemned to exile, plus 4 whites, who would be fined and imprisoned.

On May 30th, 1822, a "faithful and confidential slave" disclosed to the Intendant of Charleston, S. C., that, on Sunday evening, June 16th, the slaves had determined to rise in rebellion against the whites, "set fire to the Governor's house, seize the Guard-house and Arsenal, and sweep the town with fire and sword, not permitting a white soul to escape." Of the supposed conspirators, one hundred and thirty-one were committed to prison, thirty-five executed, and thirty-seven banished. Of the six ringleaders, Ned Bennet, Peter Poyas, Rolla, Batteau, Jesse, and Denmark Vesey, all were slaves, except Vesey, who had been a slave thirty-eight years, a free man twenty-two years, having in 1800 purchased his freedom.

SERVILE INSURRECTION

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 30th of 5 M / Our first meeting was Silent - In the last there was considerable buisness which went on pretty well, in good Harmony. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 2, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 2nd of 6th M 1822 / In the morning Father Rodman had a few words to offer - in the Afternoon Anne Dennis was engaged in a short offering, & both to me were good Meetings. — particularly the Afternoon, which was a season of favor, to me, for which I desire to be thankful - After tea visited David Williams, [grandfather of the above child and S G's clock-repair-maker-mentor] who is in a poor state of health but may outlive many who appear more robust.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

June 6, Thursday: At the fur-trading post on Michilimackinac Island in the strait between Lake Michigan and Lake Huron, Alexis St. Martin was accidentally shot in the stomach (which would lead to Dr. William Beaumont's studies on digestion).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 6th of 6th M 1822 / A Meeting of some favour for which I desire to be thankful for my measure. - J Dennis expressed a few words. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 9, Sunday: Waldo Emerson to his journal:

Upon a mountain-solitude a man instantly feels a sensible exaltation and a better claim to his rights in the universe. He who wanders in the woods percieves [sic] how natural it was to pagan imagination to find gods in every deep grove & by each fountain head. Nature seems to him not to be silent but to be eager & striving to break out into music. Each tree, flower, and stone, he invests with life & character; and it is impossible that the wind which breathes so expressive a sound amid the leaves - should mean nothing.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 9 of 6 M / Having been very unwell for some days, was bled this morning in my right Arm, which prevented my attending the morning Meeting - In the Afternoon Father Rodman & D Buffum were engaged in lively & pertinent testimony -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 12, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 12th of 6 M / We have been several days very buisy in preparing for the Approaching Yearly Meeting, it looks as if there will be a larger proportion of friends from other Yearly Meetings than common, & the weight falls heavily on the few friends in Newport. - May our hands & hearts be strengthened, may we conduct wisely & skillfully, both in providing for our friends & in our movements in the concerns of the Church. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 13, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

5th day 13th of 6 M / Our Meeting was pretty well attended, Silent [&] solid. We had the company of our friends John Morton [&] Wife of Philadelphia who have come to pass the summer in this Town – In the Preparative meeting we processed the appointment of overseers & Henry Gould a new [-] was brought forward

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 14, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 14th of 6 M / Friends have begun to come to attend the Yearly Meeting [a] number came last night from Nantucket

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 15, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 15th of 6 M / With my H rode to Portsmouth to attend our Select [-]lry Meeting Stopped at Uncle Sam; Thurstons where I saw [&] became acquainted with our fr George Withey from England [our} Meeting was the largest Select Meeting I ever sat in & D Buffum thought it was the largest he had seen in that [--se] it was a solid time, tho' the seed was low under [-]ssion – Hannah Smith of Burlington opened the Service [in a] short but Solid testimony, & after a short but weighty [-] from G Withey. it [at] the proposal of D Buffum the Meeting proceeded to buisness, which was conducted with weight – We dined with Saml Thurston where we again had the Company of G Withey & found he improved on acquaintance – After dinner rode home & found some company

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 16, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day / Our Meeting this morning was very large & tho' life was rather low, yet it was remarkably Solemn -the first appearance was Mary Slocum of NYork solemn & sweet -next Benj Rodman in a very unsound & unacceptable manner - next was Hannah Smith from Burlington in solemn & acceptable supplication. – Then Manassa Robins & tho' his communication was apparantly sound yet was not calculated for usefulness in a Meeting like that - after a pretty long silence the Meeting closed, after two hours sitting pretty satisfactorily. – In the afternoon there was as usual a very great crowd -after a little space a young Man spoke who I did not see hear or Know - & then after the Meeting had set an hour our fr George Withey from England was engaged in a truly Apostolic testimony of more than an hour, much to satisfaction & the meeting closed well.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

June 17, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day / A solid covering was witnessed in the opening of the Meeting, lively & acceptable testimonys were [?] first by David Howland then David Buffum then Clarke Rodman [teacher who ran a school & father of SG's wife Hannah] & on motion of Sylvester Weeks the Meeting proceeded to buisness, which proceeded in usual course & many of the epistles & particularly the one from London was very pertinent to the State of the times - a little interruption was experienced by some untimely & impertinent remarks by BR & M Ruggles, but Truth was set over them & [?] that time no notice taken of them. -

2nd day Afternoon / The state of society was entered upon that excited much feeling, & some remarks, particularly of accounts from Sandwich & Salem, - which contained accounts of disunity sorrowful to hear which occasioned the appointment of a committee for general services [both meetings had been disrupted by the emergence of Ranters among them, ed] - The committee appointed last year on account of the Penobscot Indians reported, which excited many remarks, particularly from Rowland Greene [Archives has some of his transcribed papers, ed.]

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 18, Tuesday: The state of Mississippi at this point consolidated its laws in regard to slaves, free negroes, and mulattoes.

§ 2. Slaves born and resident in the United States, and not criminals, may be imported.

§ 3. No slave born or resident outside the United States shall be brought in, under penalty of $1,000 per slave. Travellers are excepted. REVISED CODE OF THE LAWS OF MISSISSIPPI (Natchez, 1824), page 369.

INTERNATIONAL SLAVE TRADE

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day / our Select Meeting this morning at 8 OClock held four hours & an half & was a season of much exercise, the State of society as respects that branch of society was pretty fully gone into & many pertinent & living testimonys were delivered, particularly from George Withey, Christo[pher] Healy & others. -also some appearance of a wrong spirit in an individual or two -but Truth the everlasting truth stood its ground, & will stand its ground tho' [some?] men leave it - it is plainly to be discovered however effectively [?] its opposite may be dressed up, even tho' it may be painted like Zion & built like Zion, yet that the true stamp may be discovered from all false coins The Meeting at large met today at 4 OClock in the Afternoon & a short silence proceeded to buisness - the buisness transacted was attended with considerable debate & some trying circumstances, one of which was that of a friends requesting to

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

[be] dismissed from the School committee & meeting for [?] Sufferings who had stood long on both & been very servicable now apparently from a disafection to Society withdrew [-] service -
- This circumstance was affecting - "as when a standard bearer fainteth" -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 19, Wednesday: The republic of Columbia organized by General Simón Bolívar out of the territories now known as Columbia, Venezuela, Ecuador, and Panama was recognized by the US government.

AMANAPLANACANALPANAMA

The United States recognized the Republic of Colombia.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day / The Select Meeting met this morning at 8 O'clock after a short solemn sitting concluded, - Alice Rathbone was engaged in reverend Supplication - There is no meeting at [-] this morning to give time for the committee on general service to digest concerns, before them -

4th day Afternoon / The opening of our Meeting this Afternoon was singularly Solemn - An Aged man who made a grievous misstep in an unguarded speech which wounded himself & his friends very deeply - while the meeting was quiet & before any thing was said, he rose & in a solemn manner made an affecting acknowledgement. - which was very cordially received, with many expressions from different friends of their kind feelings towards him & again received him into fellowship - This was the most satisfactory circumstance of the Kind I ever Knew of, & I have no doubt will have great weight on many minds. -
But little buisness was presented as the committee on epistles were not ready to submit their essays to the consideration of the meeting. - So it was adjourned to the 8th hour tomorrow morning, & our Public Meeting put off till the 3rd hour in the Afternoon. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 20, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day / Our Meeting this morning was long & some bitter herbs were eaten, & on the whole I did not think it was crowned with that life which was felt in some of the former sittings. - burdens which some friends thought they had in some measure been relieved from, seemed to return, but I cannot think but Truth gained the victory - Many remarks & criticisms were made on the essays of epistles which I thought were unprofitable. -
In the public Meeting we had a very dull time indeed it might be said death reigned the meeting & but little was said - Mary Newhall was present, took the high seat by the side of Elizabeth Rodman & preached - which was an afflicting circumstance after

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

all the trouble friends have had with her in Lynn. – [ranterism (Ed.)]

After dinner all our company left us, our family this year has consisted of Thos Anthony & his daughter Lydia, John Warren & his wife – Sarah & Catharine Collins – Mirriam Newhall, Martha Cobb – Stephen Oliver, Daniel Howland & Micajah [?] Pratt, who were all acceptable guests. –

I must not omit that we had the company of Our Venerable friend Moses Brown to dinner –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 22, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day / Our friends being all gone we feel lonesome tho' relieved from considerable bodily & mental exercise – Adna Heaton, Tristram Russel & John T Hallack took breakfast with us – & in the early part of the forenoon we had a pleasant call from our friend George Withey & his companion [?] Morris.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 23, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day / Our frd George Withey attended our Morning Meeting then the Afternoon was at Portsmouth – the Meeting in town was large & he preached a truly orthodox Sermon In The Afternoon Tristram Russell & Ruth Spencer were with us & exercised their gifts... – This seems to be the last of Yearly Meeting, & I hardly know what to say About it. – Trial awaits us, but I believe [?there?] is no trial so great, but to use a common expression – a plaster is made as great as the Sore. – We understand George was favoured at Portsmouth [tho'?] not so open in the ministry as in Newport Took tea at Father [Clarke] Rodmans after Meeting. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

At approximately this point Denmark Vesey was captured.

June 27, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 27th of 6 M 1822 / This morning rode to Portsmouth with Sister Mary to attend The Monthly Meeting – Stopped at Uncle Thurstons – Meeting was silent – The buisness was transacted pretty well, & with a degree of satisfactory weight Dined at Uncle Stantons. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 30, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1st day 30th of 6 M / Silent meetings & both rather smaller than usual. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Our national birthday, Thursday the 4th of July: Hezekiah Prince Jr. lived in the small port town (for the coasting trade) of Thomaston, Maine, and in his journal of 1822-1828 (published by the Maine Historical Society in 1965) he described the July 4th celebrations there. A modest celebration this year was:²⁹¹ ushered in by the discharge of cannon ... the ringing of bells, and the halloos of the true Sons of Liberty.... The spirit and patriotism of '76 seamed still to flame in the breast of every citizen, especially the young who appeared very much animated. The few surviving veterans around us ... appeared to renew their age and glow with the same spirit which filled their breast in those ever to be remembered days.

CELEBRATING OUR B-DAY

Judge Bushrod Washington announced that since Mount Vernon was his private property, he was no longer going to tolerate the celebrants who were in the habit of coming up the river to indulge themselves at annual "Steam-boat parties" and "eating, drinking, and dancing parties."

In Saratoga County, New York, 5,000 citizens and 52 authentic soldiers of the Revolution assembled at the field upon which General Burgoyne had surrendered on October 17, 1777.

In Nashville, Tennessee, after Governor William Carroll presented a sword to General Andrew Jackson, both these dignitaries made speeches.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 4th of 7 M / In the forenoon meeting Hannah Dennis appeared in supplication, then D Buffum in solemn impressive testimony. - Then Hannah Dennis & then Jonathon Dennis in testimony. - it was a solemn favoured testimony. - In the Afternoon the meeting was Silent & good -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 11, Thursday: Nicolas Maria Garelli Battifira replaced Santiago Usoz Mozi as Spanish First Secretary of State.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 11th of 7th / Select Meeting - In the first father Rodman spoke a little - both meetings were exercising to me a subject

291. This was Nathaniel Hawthorne's, or Hathorne's, 18th birthday.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

before it that I could not be clear about so said nothing about it -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 14, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 14th of 7 M / Silent in the forenoon, & the Meeting small on the womens side in consequence of a hevy Rain
In the Afternoon larger, a short testimony from Father Rodman - both meetings were seasons of much reflection on the state of society - several young men in Portsmouth have departed from our principles in going to the Theatre, one in delivering an Oration & turning out under Military escort to go to the Meeting for that purpose. - This is cause for Mourning & sorrow. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 18, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 18 of 7 M 1822 / Mary Morton [-]ve a short but sweet & encouraging testimony to [-] few assembled. - No Buisness in the Preparative Meeting but Answering the Queries -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 21, Sunday: Augustin de Iturbide was crowned Emperor of Mexico.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 21 of 7 M / In the forenoon Mary Morton Hannah Dennis Father Rodman & Jonathon Dennis were all concerend in testimony. - it was a good meeting & Truth was raised [-] to dominion in many Minds. - Silent in the Afternoon. - After Meeting went with my Wife & Sister Ruth to D Buffums & took tea.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 25, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 25th of 7 M / In our first Meeting David Buffum was very lively in testimony, on the Journey of the children of Israel [-]aiving the inferance that as they did it was necessary to get out right & persevere in the right way, least as they did, we get lost in the Wilderness & as nearly all [-] that generation did come short of the promised land... In the last meeting we had an exercising time no less than three young men reported from Portsmouth Preparative Meeting for joining in the celebration of Independence - one of them delivered an Oration, another read the Declaration of Independence, the other assisted on the occasions & all of them has attended The Theatre - this is a sad [con]dition which calls for the prompt labour of

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

society

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 28, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 28th of 7 M / Our Meeting this Morning was rather small in consequence of the Rain - Father Rodman was engaged in lively & I believe good testimony, & to me it was a season of favour for which I desire to be thankful - In the Afternoon we were Silent & solid.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 30, Tuesday: Der Wachtelschlag, a song by Franz Schubert to words of Sauter, was published in the Zeitschrift fur Kunst, Vienna.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 30th of 7 M 1822 / Friends from S Kingston & Greenwich have passed through Town on their way to the Quarterly Meeting in Portsmouth - We had the company of Thos Howland & [/?] Anthony to Tea. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 31, Wednesday: The provinces of Quito, Guyaquil and Cuenca became part of Gran Colombia.

A final public whipping was carried out in Edinburgh, Scotland.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 31st of 7 M 1822 / This morning rode with my H to Portsmouth to attend The Select Quarterly Meeting went the west road & stoped at Uncle P Lawtons & after Meeting we returned there & dined - Took tea at Uncle Thurstons then went down to Uncle Stantons & lodged

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

A broadside had proclaimed the arrival of the talented 12-year-old Betty, The Learned Elephant in Rhode Island. Little Bett appears to have been the 3d elephant to walk on the North American continent, the 1st having been the elephant brought to Salem from Mauritius in 1795 who would drink port and pick your pocket for pieces of bread, but would not allow herself to be ridden, and the 2d having been Big Bett. The 6,000 pound Betty made her appearance in Chepachet on this day, after having been walked in of course under cover of darkness. The admission fee to the tent was 12½ cents, with children under 12 at half price.

Stone-Ender in Chepachet

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

August 1, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 1st of 8th M 1822 / Our Public Quarterly Meeting was a season of favour there was not a great deal of Preaching, but what there was appeared to be of a good quality - First Thos Anthony, then David Buffum & then Jabez Greene, & the Meeting closed after a short sitting - In the last Meeting buisness was conducted in a solid manner & among the concerns that came before us was the appointment of Obadiah Brown to the Station of an Elder by Providence Moy [Monthly] Meeting, which was united with by the Quarterly Meeting. -

After Meeting we dined at Shadrack Chases & came home -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

HDTWHAT?INDEXSTEPHEN WANTON GOULD*FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

August 8, Thursday: In a renovation of the Quaker meetinghouse in Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Moses Brown reported, “what was called the Negros Gallery” had been removed.

The questions of course arises, why specifically was it that this “Negros Gallery” was constructed in the first place — and why lately had it come to be disused, so that it might at this point be demolished?

The answer, I speculate, is going to be (after adequate research has been done — research which has not yet been begun), that the Quakers had had segregated seating in their meetinghouses, with their servants of color seated away from the white people in such a “Negros Gallery,” but that by the turn of the century these slaves had all been granted manumission documents, and were therefore no longer obligated to accompany their Quaker masters and mistresses to worship. When they made use of the meetinghouse, they made use of it in off hours when the white Quakers were not present, and so of course they no longer went up to the dilapidated “pigeon loft” but sat anywhere they pleased. My speculation would be that with freedom had come a decision to affiliate, not with these Quakers who as white racists were never ever going to accept anyone else as a whole and genuine human being (to my knowledge not one single person of color would ever be accepted as a convinced Friend during this period, despite numerous applications for such consideration), instead along color lines with one another in the African Methodist Episcopal denomination that had been set up in 1816.²⁹²

AME

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 8th of 8 M / Our Meeting today was a pretty good one Two appearances in the Ministry Vizt Father Rodman & Anne

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Dennis. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 13, Tuesday: Tsar Aleksandr of Russia forbade all secret societies including the Masons.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 13th of 8 M / Jabez Greene from Cornwall in NYork State had spent the Afternoon & took tea with us - he is a friend in the ministry on a visit chiefly to his relations, & sailed this morning for home - he attends the particluar Meeting to which our late frd David Sands belonged - he appears to be sound in the faith & a tender spirited friend with which I felt good unity. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 15, Thursday: After the two drownings on July 8th when the yacht had sunk during a squall off Livorno, the body of Edward Williams had been cremated on the 13th where it had come to the shore near Via Reggio, and the body of Percy Bysshe Shelley had been cremated on the shore at Lericcio near Leghorn. On this day Edward John Trelawny described the occasion:

Three white wands had been stuck in the sand to mark the Poet's grave, but as they were at some distance from each other, we had to cut a trench thirty yards in length, in the line of the sticks, to ascertain the exact spot, and it was nearly an hour before we came upon the grave. Byron could not face this scene, he withdrew to the beach and swam off to the Bolivar. Leigh Hunt remained in the carriage. The fire was so fierce as to produce a white heat on the iron, and to reduce its contents to grey ashes. The only portions that were not consumed were some fragments of bones, the jaw, and the skull, but what surprised us all, was that the heart remained entire. In snatching this relic from the fiery furnace, my hand was severely burnt; and had anyone seen me do the act I should have been put into quarantine.

292. Subsequent to my writing the above, my suspicions have been confirmed by reading, in the autobiography of William J. Brown, a grandson of one of the men manumitted by Friend Moses Brown, that:

PAGE 25: Some attended the Congregational church, Rev. James Wilson, pastor; some attended the Methodist church; some attended the Episcopal church, Dr. Crocker, pastor; a few attended the Unitarian church, Rev. Mr. Cady, pastor; and a large number attended the First Baptist church, Dr. Gano, pastor. Some were members of each of the above named churches; the largest number, however, were Baptists, and belonged to the First Baptist Church, but many attended no church at all, because they said they were opposed to going to churches and sitting in pigeon holes, as all the churches at that time had some obscure place for the colored people to sit in.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Mary Godwin Wollstonecraft Shelley would return to London, where she would reside briefly with her father William Godwin before taking her own lodgings nearby.

The English vessel Orion, Captain William A. Richardson, came to anchor at Yerba Buena in San Francisco Bay.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 15 of 8 M / Our Meeting was a good one & pretty well [-tended]

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 16, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 16th of 8 M / Much fatigued in body & unfit for almost any thing - [-] morning about 2 OClock we were awoke by Fire on the Long Wharf 2 Houses & a Stable burned, & for a time the Town in great [danger] but were mercifully & miraculously preserved.
-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 18, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 18th of 8th M 1822 / Our Meeting this forenoon was very full of solid countenances - Anne Dennis appeared in a short testimony, then Father Rodman, then Mary Morton in a communication attended with uncommon Gospel Power, & I have no doubt reached the witness of many hearts especially of the Youth whom she addressed particularly, feelingly & Affectionately - Then David Buffum appeared in a solemn impressive testimony & the meeting concluded under a precious covering
In the Afternoon the Meeting was small, a few words were delivered by Father Rodman -
At half past 2 OClock David Buffum, Hannah Dennis & Mary Morton went with a number of other friends to Coasters Harbour & had a Meeting at the Assylum with the Poor of the Town & the inmates of the House in general - Several of the Commissioners also attended, it proved (as I am informed) a season of great favour. Truth was exalted & our Society met with no loss but rose in the estimation of all who were there*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

HDTWHAT?INDEXFRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

August 20, Tuesday: At York Factory in Manitoba, John Wedderburn Halkett presided over a meeting of the Hudson Bay Company Northern Department council.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 20 of 8 M / Rode this Afternoon with Hannah Dennis to Portsmouth on a committee to visit a young man who had departed from the rules & principles of Society - It proved a hard labouring time, all the consolation we had was a consciousness of having discharged our duty faithfully towards him

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 22, Thursday: King George IV began a visit to Scotland.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 22 of 8 M / Life with me was low at Meeting yet I trust it was not so with all - a short testimony from father Rodman -

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

No buisness in the Preparative Meeting

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

By this point a new conception of what it meant to be an author was seizing the American mind, and this new conception, the conception of sole authorship and inspiration, was exposing Thomas Jefferson, as the alleged perpetrator of our Declaration of Independence, whose claims had always been regarded in some quarters as exaggerated and selfserving, to suspicions of plagiarism.²⁹³ John Adams therefore wrote to Timothy

Pickering²⁹⁴ pointing out that “there is not an idea” in that document that had not “been hackneyed in Congress for two years before.”

You inquire why so young a man as Mr. Jefferson was placed at the head of the committee for preparing a Declaration of Independence? I answer: It was the Frankfort advice, to place Virginia at the head of everything. Mr. Richard Henry Lee might be gone to Virginia, to his sick family, for aught I know, but that was not the reason of Mr. Jefferson's appointment. There were three committees appointed at the same time, one for the Declaration of Independence, another for preparing articles of confederation, and another for preparing a treaty to be proposed to France. Mr. Lee was chosen for the Committee of Confederation, and it was not thought convenient that the same person should be upon both. Mr. Jefferson came into Congress in June, 1775, and brought with him a reputation for literature, 293. Imagine a slavemaster being guilty of plagiarizing — this goes against the very Latin etymology of the word!

294. Charles Francis Adams ed. The Works of John Adams, Volume II, The Diary (1850).

HDT

WHAT?

INDEX

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

science, and a happy talent of composition. Writings of his were handed about, remarkable for the peculiar felicity of expression. Though a silent member in Congress, he was so prompt, frank, explicit, and decisive upon committees and in conversation - not even Samuel Adams was more so - that he soon seized upon my heart; and upon this occasion I gave him my vote, and did all in my power to procure the votes of others. I think he had one more vote than any other, and that placed him at the head of the committee. I had the next highest number, and that placed me the second. The committee met, discussed the subject, and then appointed Mr. Jefferson and me to make the draft, I suppose because we were the two first on the list. The subcommittee met. Jefferson proposed to me to make the draft. I said, "I will not," "You should do it." "Oh! no." "Why will you not? You ought to do it." "I will not." "Why?" "Reasons enough." "What can be your reasons?" "Reason first, you are a Virginian, and a Virginian ought to appear at the head of this business. Reason second, I am obnoxious, suspected, and unpopular. You are very much otherwise. Reason third, you can write ten times better than I can." "Well," said Jefferson, "if you are decided, I will do as well as I can." "Very well. When you have drawn it up, we will have a meeting." A meeting we accordingly had, and conned the paper over. I was delighted with its high tone and the flights of oratory with which it abounded, especially that concerning Negro slavery, which, though I knew his Southern brethren would never suffer to pass in Congress, I certainly never would oppose. There were other expressions which I would not have inserted if I had drawn it up, particularly that which called the King tyrant. I thought this too personal, for I never believed George to be a tyrant in disposition and in nature; I always believed him to be deceived by his courtiers on both sides of the Atlantic, and in his official capacity, only, cruel. I thought the expression too passionate, and too much like scolding, for so grave and solemn a document; but as Franklin and Sherman were to inspect it afterwards, I thought it would not become me to strike it out. I consented to report it, and do not now remember that I made or suggested a single alteration. We reported it to the committee of five. It was read, and I do not remember that Franklin or Sherman criticized anything. We were all in haste. Congress was impatient, and the instrument was reported, as I believe, in Jefferson's handwriting, as he first drew it. Congress cut off about a quarter of it, as I expected they would; but they obliterated some of the best of it, and left all that was exceptionable, if anything in it was. I have long wondered that the original draft had not been published. I suppose the reason is the vehement philippic against Negro slavery. As you justly observe, there is not an idea in it but what had been hackneyed in Congress for two years before. The substance of it is contained in the declaration of rights and the violation of those rights in the Journals of Congress in 1774. Indeed, the essence of it is contained in a pamphlet, voted and printed by the town of Boston, before the

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

first Congress met, composed by James Otis, as I suppose, in one of his lucid intervals, and pruned and polished by Samuel Adams."

August 25, Sunday: William Herschel died.

Antonio Salieri wrote to Prince Esterhazy asking him to support his young composition student Franz Liszt.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 25th of 8 M 1822 / Our Meeting this Morning was unusually full several were present who do not commonly attend Our friend Mary Morton rose with the Text "All flesh is as grass. The grass withereth & the flower fadeth, but the Word of the Lord endureth forever" her testimony was a truly solemn one, impressing on all the necessity of obtaining that precious word which endureth forever. She addressed the Aged in particular very impressively - after which father Rodman had a short acceptable testimony & the Meeting closed after a very solmen Season -In the Afternoon Father had a short testimony The Meeting I think was a season of some favour. - After Meeting - My H - Sister Ruth, John Wm Sherman & myself went out to Jon Dennis, took tea & set the evening quite interstingly, & I believe proffitably. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 29, Thursday: The final day of King George IV's visit to Scotland.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 29th of 8 M / Last evening with my H rode to Portsmouth [to] attend the Moy [Monthly] Meeting held there today - We lodged at Uncle Stantons - This morning took Aunt & went to meeting in the Waggon. - It was a Solid good meeting to me & my mind does rejoice in a degree of humility at being able to record as such. I know not the time when the precious life was more the companion of my mind throughout Meeting - In the first Anne Dennis, Father Rodman, Hannah Dennis & A Sherman in succession bore testimonies & I thought all of them were fitting the states of some present - - In the last Meeting we had a larger portion of buisness than common & among it was the passing of a Young couple for Marriage vizt John A Wadsworth & Eliza [?] - We dined at Uncle Stantons, where we again had the company of Benjamin & Niobe Marshall, who expect to return to NYork in a few days - returned home towards Night & in the evening my Wife was very sick & faint- -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 30, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

6th day 30th of 8th M 1822 / We have had the company of our cousin Louisa Casey to lodge & spend this day with us also of Benja & Niobe Marshall at tea. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 31, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 31st of 8 M / With this day we end the Summer which to me has been a Summer of great incumbrance, as well as to my dear H who many days has been so unwell as not to be able to do the ordinary buisness of the day, but has yet kept about & gone on so currently as scarce any one would suppose any thing was the matter with her. It has also been a season of serious exercise & some enlargement in religious views. - I have suffered much inward leanness & Poverty & have known some aboundings in the life & spirit of religion, & may thankfully acknowledge, it is now my lot to feel the precious flowings of love & life in my heart in some good degree. - We have this forenoon parted with our friends Benjamin & Niobe who took passage in the Steam Boat for NYork - intending not to go into the City on account of the Fever now prevelent there, but to take lodgings at Harlem

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 1, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 1st of 9th M 1822 / Our forenoon Meeting was large & solemn Hannah Dennis was first engaged in testimony then D Buffum & then Mary Morton, all in a lively & solemn manner, & H Dennis concluded in short but fervant supplication.- In the Afternoon Father Rodman H Dennis & J Dennis spoke a few words & the Meeting closed after a short but good sitting. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 5, Thursday: An earthquake in Aleppo (Halab) in the Ottoman Empire kills 22,000 people.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 5 of 9 M / Meeting rather small but a season of some favour, tho' much incommoded by the noise of moving a small House in Tanner Street - a short testimony by Father Rodman

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 8, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 8th of 9 M 1822 / Our forenoon meeting was again large & a solemn Season - Mary Morton was largely favoured in testimony. - Father Rodman said a little & D Buffum a little & the Meeting closed under a covering of weight

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*Silent but good Meeting in the Afternoon. –
We took tea at Father Rodmans in company with John Morton & his wife. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 12, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 12 of 9 M / To me our meeting was rather a poor time but I trust others faired better. – Father Rodman & Hannah Dennis were lively in testimony. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 15, Sunday: William Henry Ashley and Andrew Henry needed to establish a permanent fur trade in the upper Missouri River. They placed a notice in the St. Louis paper for 100 men, to be employed for one, two, or three years. Among those they hired would be the “mountain men” Mike Fink, Jed Smith, Jim Bridger, Will Sublette and one of his brothers, and Joe Walker (their Rocky Mountain Fur Company would dominate the industry until 1834, when control would be wrested from them by John Jacob Astor’s American Fur Company).

The Friends silent worship in Newport, Rhode Island was visited by a “Jewes & her daughter,” who in the estimation of Friend Stephen Wanton Gould was in need of the religious counsel and advice which Quakerism does offer:

*1st day 15th of 9th M / Our Meeting was not quite as full as common but several was present who do not usually attend with us & among them were a Jewes & her daughter by the name of Minis from — who probably never attended a Meeting of Friends before.
-- It was a season of unusual favour, the solemnity before any thing was said, was remarkable. – Anne Dennis rose & delivered a short testimony, then Father Rodman in a short but lively, impressive & pertinent communication which I have no doubt was useful – he was followed [-] Hannah Dennis in like manner. I have no doubt she reaching of some minds present, she concluded by recommending Sacrifice, & rose a second time & said “not a sacrifice of Heffers & calves of the Stall, but the sacrifice of a broken & contrite spirit” – This I thought applied to many & particularly the Jewes – Mary Morton concluded in Solemn fervent supplication [-]all present, & the Meeting ended under a very [-]ured covering –
In the Afternoon Hannah Dennis was engaged to address the children particularly a considerable number of who were present & on the whole it has been a day of favour & large experience to me for which I desire to be humbly thankful –*

ANTISEMITISM

HDTWHAT?INDEXSTEPHEN WANTON GOULD*FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

September 16, Monday: Charles S. Crocker, of Southern Pacific fame, was born.

Howard Trask, who had escaped hanging for murder by having been found insane, attempted to kill two of the other prisoners with him in Boston jail, and then escaped from the jail. Due to decrepit conditions at the jail that had been revealed by this escape, the prisoners would be taken to more secure accommodations on Lechmere Point — where an unsuccessful attempt would be made to force them to generate power by walking a treadmill wheel.

(Pictured above is one that was in operation not for the generation of power but simply for punishment, at the Brixton House of Correction in 1821.)

George Canning became the British Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 16th of 9th M 1822 / Attended the funeral of Rebecca Goddard - daughter of Thos Goddard - the gathering was large & to me it was a season of precious favour - Mary Morton & Hannah

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Dennis were engaged in lively & pertinent testimonys.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 19, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 19th of 9 M / Silent Meeting & to me a good favoured Season for which I desire to be thankful Set most of the evening at Abigail Robinsons in company with John & Mary Morton, D Williams & his daughter Mary –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 22, Sunday: Portugal's initial Constitution.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 22nd of 9 th M / Our Morning Meeting was a time of remarkable solemnity & favour during the Silent part of it – towards the close our frd D Buffum was engaged in a lively & pwoerful testimony wherein he endeavoured to excite to faithfulness & warn us of the consequence of unfaithfulness to the dictates of pure Wisdom –. In the afternoon Anne Dennis & Father Rodman were concerned in a few words. – Pretty good Meeting –
Set most of the evening at Abigail Robinsons in Company with John & Mary Morton & their Brother Wm Robinson. – When I returned home I found a letter from Thos Thompson with a portrate of Wm Allen of London for me & a large bundle of Books & Pamphlets from him for our Fr Moses Brown, which Thos gave me liberty to open & peruse, which I did & found a very interesting collection, of Ancient things of that Kind. – but considering Moses great Age, I considerd it would be wrong in me to withhold them a moment from him, & accordingly bound them up again to be sent tomorrow Morning in the Packet to Providence. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 24, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 24th of 9th M 1822 / This Afternoon departed this life Amy Buffum an old acquaintance & friend of My Mothers I went into the house about a quarter of an hour before she died & saw her breath her last – poor woman she had attained to the Age of about 75 Years & was several years previous to her death quite blind – her property was nearly run out, tho' she will have some thing left. – She was a member of Society, descended from a good stock of Friends, & tho' she did not in the forepart of her life stand well approved as a Friend but in the latter part of her life was more tender considerate & I hope has exchanged this

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

life of evil & various afflictions for a better World –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 26, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 26th of 9 M / Our Moy [Monthly] Meeting held this day in Town was a season of no common favour - In the first Meeting Mary Morton was engaged in public labour "Our fathers here are they & the Prophets do they live forever" from a text she took occasion to advert to the memory of [-] large body of friends who composed this Moy [Monthly] Meeting within the compas of her recollection, who are now gathered to Rest, from the sufferings & [tria?]ls which they underwent in support of testimonies given this society to bear. - & encouraged [-] who were now active in the concerns of society, [-]thfully to discharge their duty that they may obtain [—]r blessings in the Mansions of Peace. - she also [-ertly] addressed the Youth in a manner which I [-]y will be long remembered by some of them
In the mast Meeting, the buisness was conducted with more solid weight than common, tho' some exercising cases were before us. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 29, Sunday: Jean-François Champollion was able to stand in the Royal Academy of Inscriptions in Paris and read out the names of more than 70 ancient Egyptian rulers, from their cartouches written in hieroglyphics. A stone that had been inscribed in three scripts, found in Rosetta, Egypt, and other such record stones, had provided the critical mass necessary for this breakthrough in linguistics.²⁹⁵

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 29th of 9th M 1822 / A Very rainy Day - Small meetings & to me poor dull heavy seasons. - In the Afternoon H Dennis addressed the lads in a very suitable & appropriate manner on their behaviour in Meeting -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 October 2, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 2nd of 10th M 1822 / This morning our Friends John & Mary Morton left us by the Steam boat for their home in Philadelphia. I did not see them when they went off but they both called to see us he yesterday & she the day before to take leave Their company had been truly greatful to their friends, he had called & set a little while almost every day since he came with me in my shop. Now aged about 84 Years he evinces an increasing concern for the welfare of society & takes a lively interest in all its concerns -. from his far advance in life it is probable this is his last visit to this place, tho' he intends if his

295. Needless to say, I am hoping that this textbase, some 10 GB of material never before assembled in such an accessible form, will provide the critical mass needed for some equivalent data-mining breakthrough. Every day I am in search for this breakthrough.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*health is as good another year as it has been this, to come again Next Season. -- His wife has attended our Meetings with great acceptance as a Minister & May her labours be blessed -
This day John A Wadsworth & Elizabeth Mott were Married at Portsmouth Meeting how[-] & I am informed by some that attended that it was a season of favour - Ruth Mely was largely engaged in testimony & Hannah Dennis in supplication - The Audience very large & quiet -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 3, Thursday: A new overture and a chorus, Wo sich die Pulse, by Ludwig van Beethoven were performed for the initial time, for the opening of the Josephstadttheater, Vienna, conducted by the composer. They were attached to Beethoven's Die Ruinen von Athen which has been adapted by Carl Meisl as Die Weihe des Hauses.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 3rd of 10th M 1822 / Our Meeting today was small & I apprehend not that flow of life which is at seasons experienced, it was however a pretty solid Sitting. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 5, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 5th of 10th M 1822 / This Morning went on board the Packet [-] did not arrive in Providence till near Dark - went immediately to the hospitable Mansion of my much valued friend Moses Brown, who I found well & glad to see me. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 6, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day Morning attended meeting at the School House. - returned to Moses's to Dinner & took [-] sting again at the School House in the Afternoon & [-]aid to tea with the Schollars - Lodged at MB

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 7, Monday: The Mendelssohn family made a visit to Johann Wolfgang von Goethe's home in Weimar. This was for Felix Mendelssohn the 2d meeting with the poet. Fanny played Bach and her Goethe songs for him. When Felix played the poet remarked "You are my David and if I am ever ill and sad, you must banish my bad dreams by your playing."

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day Morning - Rode out to Thos Arnolds on buisness he not

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*being at home had to go a second time to meet [-].- Dined at MB
- then Walked to the School House & after sitting a little while walked [-] town, visited mary Anthony, her husband not at home. made several other calls, returned to the School House mset part of the eveing, then returned to my very agreeable quarters & spent the remainder of the evening. [-] pleasant conversation. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 8, Tuesday: The Galunggung volcano on Java erupted, sending mudflows that destroyed over 100 villages and killed more than 4,000.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*3rd day Morning as [-]re was but little prospect of getting home by water took the Stage & came by land. -
The object of this visit was to attend the Subcommittee of the Y Meeting School which I missed of as it met last week contrary to my calculations - Also I had in view some other buisness which I accomplished to satisfaction -*

MOSES BROWN SCHOOL

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 10, Thursday: It was ordered that Boston's street corners be marked with street signs.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 10th of 10 M / Our Meeting was rather Small & to me a
[-] on of but little life, though I hope others faired better [-] was silent. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 13, Sunday: William Sayward, Jr. of Gloucester died while at sea.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 13th of 10 M / At the Morning meeting Father Rodman had a short testimony in the Afternoon Anne Dennis & Hannah Dennis said a few words - to me it was rather a dry season. - About 5 OCl this After Noon Died [-] Bowen wife of Jonathon, she was a member of society & an exam[-] Friend & will be a loss to her family & friends -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

HDTWHAT?INDEXFRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

October 15: The first issue of the magazine The Liberal included George Gordon, Lord Byron's "Letters to the Editor of 'My Grandmother's Review'" and "The Vision of Judgement" (the latter of which would result in hostile reviews, and John Hunt's prosecution).

Obadiah Moses Brown, son of Friend Moses Brown, died during his 51st year. He had bequeathed his library and a considerable sum of money to the Quaker Yearly Meeting School in Providence, Rhode Island on the creation of which he and his father had been for so many years laboring. Extracts from the will of Obadiah M.

MOSES BROWN SCHOOL

Brown dated March 28, 1814, and from the codicil to the said will dated October 14, 1822, relating to the "Yearly Meeting School" as a legatee, as copied from the official clerk's copy in the municipal records at the Providence, Rhode Island Town Hall by Friend John R. Kellam during October 2007:

.... (from the will:)

Item. I give to my honoured Father Moses Brown, as Treasurer of the Yearly Meeting of Friends School Fund or to his Successor that may hereafter be appointed by the Meeting for Sufferings in the Capacity of the said School Committee, an annuity of three thousand Dollars, and hereby authorize and direct my Executors to pay the same in one Year after my Decease to the said Treasurer for the Time being weather [sic] the School be in operation or not. That the Sum be a part of the Fund of said Institution to be applied for the purpose of procuring an Establishment in Land, Buildings and furnishings the necessary accommodations paying the Salaries of Instructors and assistants, and also the Board of the Scholars and Family of the Institution / nearly similar to Friends Boarding Schools of the Yearly Meeting of New York at Nine Partners, or at Weston in Pennsylvania / wherein the Children members of our religious Society of Friends with such others as may be thought best to be admitted / may receive a religious and guarded Education free from the contaminating Influence of the vain fashionable World which leads young minds from the Simplicity of Truth, and that meek and quiet Spirit exhibited by our blessed Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ whom we profess to follow.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Item. I also give / after the Decease of my Wife Dorcas Brown / the annuity of Three thousand Dollars more to the aforesaid Institution making up the Sum of Six thousand Dollars to be paid by my Executors in one year after the Decease of my Wife, and annually afterwards to the Treasurer of the said School Fund for the Time being for the purpose of supporting and perpetuating the Institution as aforesaid.

Item. I give all my Books and Maps to the Yearly Meeting School after the Decease of my Wife, or when the School shall be got under Way, providing she is consenting thereto how soon soever the School may be in operation.

.... (from the codicil:)

I hereby confirm the Legacy given in my Will for the use of the Yearly Meetings School, which was not then located, but now under successful operation in the Lot given by my Father for that purpose to the Institution there established to be and remain for the use of said Establishment forever.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Friend Obadiah M. Brown

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould had commented on this in his journal:

3rd day 15th of 10th M 1822 / Heard this morning of the Decease of our Valued Friend Sylvester Weeks at his house in Cranston,

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

he has suffered a very painful illness of some obstruction in the Urine passages. – He was an Elder of Honorable standing in Greenwich Moy [Monthly] Meeting, & was an active member & particularly useful in the Quarterly & Yearly Meetings. – his loss to the Church will be great indeed. – I have also heard this Morning that our Frd Obadiah Brown of Providence is very ill & but little prospect of his recovering remains. – It is an Awful time in the Land Sickness in many places prevails & many deaths occur, & a number, where to all human appearance, a longer continuance in life might have been useful. – but The Lords time is the right & best time, & May I & may all cultivate a disposition to Say in sincerity "Thye will be done."
This Afternoon Attended the funeral of Sarah Bowen which went to the Meeting Houses & was a solid favour'd time Testimonys were in course thus Jonathon Dennis, David Buffum Anne Dennis & Hannah Dennis. – David & Hannah were particularly favour'd, & the solemnity of the Meeting was Kept up throughout 4th day 16th of 19th M / Heard this Afternoon of the decease of Our friend Obadiah Brown of Providence & that his Mortal remains were inter'd this day at Providence.

"In the Midst of life we are in Death," when I parted with him at his fathers Door a week ago last first day, little did either of us think it was a final separation. – He was a good man his great Wealth so far from puffing him up rather humbled him & his Charities & other usefulness will be a great loss indeed

October 17, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 17th of 10th M 1822 / Excepting a short Testimony from Father Rodman, Our Meeting was Silent – after which Our Select Meeting was held, it was a season of rather closer searcht than common, which induced me to see that it was a season of rather more proffit than common.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 20, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 20th 10 M / Our Meetings were seasons of favour – we had profitable testimonys in the forenoon from Father Rodman
In the Afternoon J Dennis & Father said a little & I thought[–]itly & that the meeting was a good one. –
Just before the close of the forenoon Meeting I was led out by T Hornsby to produce the Keys of the [–]s Synagogue to deposit therein the remains of Abraham [–], who died in Boston & just arrived. – After the [con?]lusion of the Afternoon Meeting he was interd in the [–]ws burying ground attended by a large concourse of citizens
This Afternoon was the funeral of a child of John Millenalty of Middletown, which I should have been glad to have attended, but

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

for the Afternoon Meeting which I feel myself much bound too as it is generally much smaller than [-] the Morning & the funeral of Tours which I also felt [-] wish to attend.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Austria, France, Great Britain, Russia, and Prussia convened the Congress of Verona to continue the absolutist ideals of the Congress of Laibach of the previous year (this would go on into November). Present were the Emperor of Austria, the Tsar of Russia, the King of Prussia, and all the leaders of Italy with the exception of the Pope. The English delegates would point out that in seven months of the year 1821 no fewer than 21,000 Africans had been abducted as new slaves, and 352 vessels up to no good had appeared at African ports north of the equator. Despite the fact that only Portugal and Brazil were formally allowing the international slave trade to proceed unchecked, that traffic in human lives had been becoming more and more ubiquitous. They would point out that this had been defined as a crime by every nation of Europe and America save one, and that the ordinary operation of law was obviously unable to prevent it. The English delegates to the Congress of Verona would suggest that if each of the assembled nations were to separately denounce the trade as piracy, the result would be to create a collective rule of law that could then be incorporated into a "Law of Nations." They would also suggest that each nation prohibit foreign negrero vessels from sailing under its flag. They would also suggest that for so long as Portugal and Brazil were allowing the trade, none of their produce should be acceptable into international commerce. None of such proposals would be found acceptable. The congress would be able to agree only on vague generalities.

W.E. Burghardt Du Bois: Whatever England's motives were, it is certain that only a limited international Right of Visit on the high seas could suppress or greatly limit the slave-trade. Her diplomacy was therefore henceforth directed to this end. On the other hand, the maritime supremacy of England, so successfully asserted during the Napoleonic wars, would, in case a Right of Search were granted, virtually make England the policeman of the seas; and if nations like the United States had already, under present conditions, had just cause to complain of violations by England of their rights on the seas, might not any extension of rights by international agreement be dangerous? It was such considerations that for many years brought the powers to a deadlock in their efforts to suppress the slave-trade.

At first it looked as if England might attempt, by judicial decisions in her own courts, to seize even foreign slavers.²⁹⁶ After the war, however, her courts disavowed such action,²⁹⁷ and the right was sought for by treaty stipulation. Castlereagh took early opportunity to approach the United States on the matter, suggesting to Minister Rush, June 20, 1818, a mutual but strictly limited Right of Search.²⁹⁸ Rush was ordered to give him assurances of the solicitude of the United States to suppress the traffic, but to state that the concessions asked for appeared of a character not adaptable to our institutions. Negotiations were then transferred to Washington; and the new British minister, Mr. Stratford Canning, approached Adams with full instructions in December 1820.²⁹⁹

296. For cases, see 1 Acton, 240, the "Amedie," and 1 Dodson, 81, the "Fortuna;" quoted in U.S. Reports, 10 Wheaton, 66.

297. Cf. the case of the French ship "Le Louis": 2 Dodson, 238; and also the case of the "San Juan Nepomuceno": 1 Haggard, 267.

298. BRITISH AND FOREIGN STATE PAPERS, 1819-20, pages 375-9; also pages 220-2.

299. BRITISH AND FOREIGN STATE PAPERS, 1820-21, pages 395-6.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Meantime, it had become clear to many in the United States that the individual efforts of States could never suppress or even limit the trade without systematic co-operation. In 1817 a committee of the House had urged the opening of negotiations looking toward such international co-operation,³⁰⁰ and a Senate motion to the same effect had caused long debate.³⁰¹ In 1820 and 1821 two House committee reports, one of which recommended the granting of a Right of Search, were adopted by the House, but failed in the Senate.³⁰² Adams, notwithstanding this, saw constitutional objections to the plan proposed by Canning, and wrote to him, December 30: "A Compact, giving the power to the Naval Officers of one Nation to search the Merchant Vessels of another for Offenders and offences against the Laws of the latter, backed by a further power to seize and carry into a Foreign Port, and there subject to the decision of a Tribunal composed of at least one half Foreigners, irresponsible to the Supreme Corrective tribunal of this Union, and not amendable to the controul of impeachment for official misdemeanors, was an investment of power, over the persons, property and reputation of the Citizens of this Country, not only unwarranted by any delegation of Sovereign Power to the National Government, but so adverse to the elementary principles and indispensable securities of individual rights, ... that not even the most unqualified approbation of the ends ... could justify the transgression." He then suggested co-operation of the fleets on the coast of Africa, a proposal which was promptly accepted.³⁰³ The slave-trade was again a subject of international consideration at the Congress of Verona in 1822. Austria, France, Great Britain, Russia, and Prussia were represented. The English delegates declared that, although only Portugal and Brazil allowed the trade, yet the traffic was at that moment carried on to a greater extent than ever before. They said that in seven months of the year 1821 no less than 21,000 slaves were abducted, and three hundred and fifty-two vessels entered African ports north of the equator. "It is obvious," said they, "that this crime is committed in contravention of the Laws of every Country of Europe, and of America, excepting only of one, and that it requires something more than the ordinary operation of Law to prevent it." England therefore recommended: -

1. That each country denounce the trade as piracy, with a view of founding upon the aggregate of such separate declarations a general law to be incorporated in the Law of Nations.
2. A withdrawing of the flags of the Powers from persons not natives of these States, who engage in the traffic under the

300. HOUSE DOCUMENT, 14th Congress 2d session, II. No. 77.

301. 15th Congress 1st session, pages 71, 73-78, 94-109. The motion was opposed largely by Southern members, and passed by a vote of 17 to 16.

302. One was reported, May 9, 1820, by Mercer's committee, and passed May 12: HOUSE JOURNAL, 16th Congress 1st session, pages 497, 518, 520, 526; 16th Congress 1st session, pages 697-9. A similar resolution passed the House next session, and a committee reported in favor of the Right of Search: HOUSE JOURNAL, 16th Congress 2d session, pages 1064-71. Cf. HOUSE JOURNAL, 16th Congress 2d session, pages 476, 743, 865, 1469.

303. BRITISH AND FOREIGN STATE PAPERS, 1820-21, pages 397-400.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

flags of these States.

3. A refusal to admit to their domains the produce of the colonies of States allowing the trade, a measure which would apply to Portugal and Brazil alone.

These proposals were not accepted. Austria would agree to the first two only; France refused to denounce the trade as piracy; and Prussia was non-committal. The utmost that could be gained was another denunciation of the trade couched in general terms.³⁰⁴

October 24, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 24th of 10th M / Lucy Dow wife of Lorenzo was at meeting & [preac]hed a little, - the Meeting otherwise was Silent & a solid [-] -- In the Preparative Meeting in addition to the [usu]al buisness of answering The Queries - there was requests [-] certificates for two young men. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 27, Sunday: Opening of a 280-mile segment of the Erie Canal, between Rochester and Albany in upstate New York.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 27th of 10 M / Our Morning Meeting was a Solid good one [-]n Dennis & father Rodman appeared acceptable in [—]imony. - In the Afternoon to me it was a [-] roving time & but little benefit - Father was [-]n engaged in a few words. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 31, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 31st of 10th M 1822 / This morning rode to Portsmouth in the Stage to attend our Moy [Monthly] Meeting. The first Meeting was a season of some favour, tho' to me a low time & much depressed. -Several short testimonies were delivered. - In the last the depression continued, two young men were disowned & my feelings were such that I could not be very active in the buisness, tho' could not feel wholly clear of taking a small part. - Dined at Uncle Saml Thurstons & went down to Uncle Stantons took tead & lodged - next day attended to a little buisness & had to do & came home.-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

November 3, Sunday: Giacomo Costantino Beltrami sailed from Liverpool for the United States on a vessel that would encounter great difficulties, requiring more than two months for the crossing.

Ludwig van Beethoven's Gratulations-Menuet was performed for the initial time, in Vienna for the nameday of Carl Friedrich Hensler, new director of the theater in Josephstadt.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould became one of the overseers of the bequest of Friend Obadiah M. Brown:

1st day 5th [error, 3d] of 11th M 1822 / Meetings nearly Silent & not very lively, tho' I thought the Afternoon was more favoured. -

Rec'd between Meetings a letter from our Ancient frd Moses Brown inclosing a copy of part of his son Obadiahs Will, by which I was informed that I was appointed a Trustee with twelve others to receive an Annuity of twelve Hundred Dollars to be distributed according to our discretion in Such benevolent purposes as might occur, particularly by recommending the printing of Such religious Books as May tend to the promulgation of our religious principles where they are but little known. - This Trust humbled my mind & desires were raised that we might be favoured to conduct according to the Will of the Donor & Honour of the Great Cause -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 7, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 7th of 11 M 1822 / Many friends have gone to Quarterly Meeting & our meeting was Small - & to me a very poor & destitute Season - tho' it seemed to me that others experienced a solemnity worth meeting together for Anne Dennis expressed a little in the

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

line of the Ministry

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 November 10, Sunday: At a meeting of the Philharmonic Society of London, the members vote to offer £50 to Ludwig van Beethoven for a new symphony.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 10th of 11th M 1822 / Yesterday towards night with my H & John Rode with Uncle Stanton to his House & lodged - This Mornng we went to Portsmouth Meeting, which to me was a rather poor one -. returned to dinner & in the afternoon left My Wife & John [at] Uncle Stantons to stay & make them a Visit of a few days - walked home. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 November 11, Monday: Hamdullah Abdullah Pasha replaced Hacı Salih Pasha as Grand Vizier of the Ottoman Empire.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 14th of 11 M / The day was Stormy & our Meeting small, a season of mental labour to me & a little solemnity experienced, for which I desire to be thankful

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 November 16, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 16th of 11 M / This forenoon Hannah & John returned from Portsmouth where they have been the Week past & I have kept house alone -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 November 17, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 17th of 11th M / Some favour experienced at Meetings, but also much leanness & barrenness - D Buffum in the forenoon & Father Rodman in the Afternoon delivered testimonies

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 November 21, Thursday: Owing to political unrest the faculty of the Paris College of Medicine was dismissed and the college closed. Hector Berlioz, a student for little more than a year, thus ended his regular studies of medicine.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 21st of 11 M / At meeting my mind was favoured with [obscured] good degree of Solemnity & tenderness. - Father

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Rodman spoke twice & Jonathon Dennis once, I thought pertinently with pretty good savor. – No buisness in the Preparative Meeting. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 28, Thursday: The Champlain Canal was extended through the village of Waterford.

An overture and five choral numbers for Den Sachsen-Sogn vermahlet heute, a festspiel by Robert, by Carl Maria von Weber, were performed for the initial time, to celebrate the wedding of Prince Johann of Saxony to Princess Amalie August of Bavaria, at the Dresden Hoftheater.

Valentine de Milan, a drame lyrique by Etienne-Nicolas Mehul to words of Bouilly and completed by Daussoigne-Mehul, was performed for the initial time, in the Theatre Feydeau, Paris.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 28th of 11 M ?? Our first Meeting was a good solid favoured time [obscured] mind was particularly so for which I desire to be thankful Jannah Dennis, Father Rodman Anne Dennis bore testimonues [obscured] I felt Unity with / – In the last Meeting we had considerable [obscured]ness & some of it trying – Several testimonies of Denial were [–act?]ed on against some who have been Disowned & the cutting out of members is always afflicting –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 29, Friday: Gioachino Rossini's cantata La Santa Alleanza to words of Rossi was performed for the initial time, in the Arena, Verona, commissioned by Prince Metternich for the Congress of Verona as a celebration of the Holy Alliance.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 29th of 11th M 1822 / This Afternoon Hannah Dennis & her daughter Anne Spent the Afternoon with us – & Jonathon joined us at tea & in the evening – This was a very pleasant visit & renewed the belief in my mind that it is good for brethren to Speak often together. – it renews fellowship, & brightens the chain of Friendship. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

December 1, Sunday: The coronation of Peter I as constitutional emperor of Brazil.

Franz Liszt, now a piano student of Carl Czerny and a composition student of Antonio Salieri, offered his initial public concert in the Landstandischer Saal, Vienna. Liszt played the a minor piano concerto of Johann Nepomuk Hummel. The Allgemeine Zeitung would call him "a little Hercules...fallen from the clouds."

Dom Pedro, son of King Joao VI of Portugal, was crowned Emperor of Brazil.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 1st of 12th M 1822 / Our Meeting was rather small in consequence of a hard Storm of Wind & rain, but both to me were seasons of uncommon favour - In the Morning we were Silent - In the Afternoon H Dannis was concerned in a Short but precious testimony

I can but render acknowledgemnts for this Days favour where they are alone due. - Oh that this day the beginning of Winter may prove as a forerunner of better days than I have experienced for some Weeks past. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 5, Thursday: Concerto in a minor for piano and strings by Felix Mendelssohn was performed for the initial time, in Berlin.

5th day 7th [sic] of 12th M / Our Meeting was Silent & to me a Solemn favoured season for which I desire to be thankful - There are a number of interesting Boys who attend our meetings - today while sitting in Meeting they were a Subject of my reflections & best wishes they appear to be Sensible & some of them evince Seriousness in their deportment & particularly in meetings sit with grave attentive countenances. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 8, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 8th of 12th M / In the Morning Meeting, soon after it was gathered, I felt a solemnity arise & remarkably Spread over the Meeting, in which I was favoured to partake to a degree of encouragement - D Buffum rose & observed "that from his advanced age & decrease of natural powers he had sometimes thought he might be excused from public experiences but feeling a concern to rest upon him, he believed it his duty to excite in the Minds of the people a Watchful State of Mind" & gave good evidence of Gospel Authority as did Hannah Dennis in two standings after him Our Afternoon Meeting was good & silent

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

December 12, Thursday: Agustin de Iturbide declared himself Emperor of Mexico and was so recognized by the USA.

Jan Vaclav Vorisek underwent examination as one of nine candidates for the position of 2d court organist in Vienna (he was successful and would take up his duties in the following month).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 12th of 12th M 1822 / Our Meeting was pretty well attended & it appeared to me was a good favourd time tho' some roving was my lot yet a comfortable portion of devotion was experieined. - Father Rodman bore a short but acceptable testimony. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 15, Sunday: The 20-year-old Nantucket Island boatsteerer Samuel B. Comstock and his 18-year-old brother William and his 14-year-old brother George sailed under Captain Thomas Worth aboard the Globe out of Martha's Vineyard, on its 4th whaling expedition. (On a previous voyage this whaler had been the 1st to take 2,000 barrels of oil.)

This voyage would evidently become very frustrating, for although the vessel initially proceeded east toward the Azore Islands and the Cape Verde Islands, in order to pick up the northeast trade winds and proceed toward Cape Horn and the Pacific Ocean and the whaling grounds there, Captain Worth would turn the ship south without stopping at any of these Atlantic islands for the refreshment and recreation of the crew. Ouch! -Then, after the vessel had rounded the Horn, Captain Worth would pass up another refreshment and recreation spot, Valparaiso on the coast of Chile. Ouch! -Then, when the vessel reached Hawaiian waters, Captain Worth would refuse to allow any of his crewmen to go ashore for their usual refreshment and recreation, but instead would have fresh supplies brought out to the ship at anchor. It was almost as if this young Captain Worth, on his first command, had other things to think about than the usual fun and games with eager little brown people!

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 15th of 12 M / Our Morning meeting to me was a season of [obscured]ing to me, but I have no doubt it was to many a time [obscured] savour, & appeared like it as much solemnity seemd spread in the gathering - J Dennis had a short testimony [-]er which was acceptable & D Buffum was largely [-]erned to speak of the State of Christendom as portray[ing] a corrupt state of things, when professing Christians [-] different nations engaged in War, are praying to the same God for success on their Arms. Christian pro[-]ing Ministers thus at the same time engaged -how [incon]sistent with the Doctrines & precepts of Jesus Christ [whos]e injunction was to love one another - In the Afternoon it was still to me a season of little proffit but was enabled to feel that Truth [was] prevalent amongst us - Father Rodman bore a short but acceptable testimony - & J Dennis was [eng]aged to recount the present favours of society & [con]trast it with the times of sufferings in the days [-] our valient Predicessors & endeavoured to excite the youth & others present to live near the Truth, the light [-] have, & be obedient

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

to Known Duty –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 19, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 19 of 12 M / In our Meeting today (which to me was solid & good) Hannah Dennis was engaged in a well Authorized testimony, attended with Life [in] buisness but to appoint Prepresentations in the Preparative Meeting

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 22, Sunday: Grindall Reynolds was born in Franconia, New Hampshire.

Ludwig van Beethoven was elected an honorary member of the Swedish Royal Academy of Arts and Sciences, Stockholm.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day [sic] 22nd of 12 M 1822 / A pleasant Day & Meeting well Attended, & five testimonies delivered - some of them had a reaching effect on my Mind - but on the whole it was a season of leanness to me Silent in the Afternoon, well attended & a little more life in my mind than in the morning

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 26, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 26th of 12 M / Rode to Portsmouth in the Stage to attend the Monthly Meeting - D Buffum preached weightily in the first Meeting - In the last we had but little buisness & that little was transacted harmoniously Dined at Uncle Stantons & lodged - next morning rode home in his Waggon. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 29, Sunday: Henry Nelson Coleridge (a son of Samuel Taylor Coleridge's brother James) began the recording of his famous uncle's table talk.

ENGLISH EVENTS OF 1822

Gioachino Rossini was received by King George IV at Brighton Court.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 29th of 12 M Meetings well attended, & solid good Seasons - Silent except a short offering in the morning by one young in

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

the Ministry –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 30, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 30 of 12 M / This is my Birth day, I am now 41 Years of age. – Thus the great Wheel of time goes on. – I feel it, sensibly feel it. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

William Rounseville Alger was born in Freetown, Massachusetts, the child of Nahum Alger and Catherine Sampson Rounseville Alger (possibly the birth was on the 28th rather than the 30th). This baby eventually would make itself the author of utterly unforgettable aphorisms, to be found now being quoted all over the internet:³⁰⁵

A crowd always thinks with its sympathy, never with its reason.

– William Rounseville Alger

We give advice by the bucket but take it by the grain.

– William Rounseville Alger

Fate is the friend of the good, the guide of the wise, the tyrant of the foolish, the enemy of the bad.

– William Rounseville Alger

The wealth of a soul is measured by how much it can feel; its poverty by how little.

– William Rounseville Alger

December 31, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 31st of 12 M / With this day we close this Year, which has been an eventful Year in many respects – I have rec'd many favours from the Divine Hand to be thankful for, & thro' disobedience have much to repent of – My desires have been Strong this evening that my spirit may be quickened & my devotion to the right cause renew'd – Rec'd this Afternoon an interesting letter from my frd Moses Brown. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

305. Horatio Alger, Jr. is his more talented but much less widely known minister cousin.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

“NARRATIVE HISTORY” IS FABULATION, HISTORY IS CHRONOLOGY

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1823

 January 1, Wednesday: Ludwig van Beethoven applied for the position of Imperial Court Composer.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 1st of 1st M 1823 / Began this Year with a sense of good covering my mind in a precious degree But Oh the Adversary how ready to devour all that is good & a season of conflict ensued, but at last felt a rising above the evil, so that the day closed more comfortably than I expected —³⁰⁶

In Maryland, upon the death of the owner of John Thompson, Mrs. Wagar, her slaves had been divided among her children and grandchildren. At the turn of the year, with John having reached approximately 14 years of age, the slaves were taken to their new lives, the lot of John's family being to fall under the ownership of one George Thomas, a white man of local unsavory reputation:

New Year's, that sorrowful day for us, at length arrived. Each one weeping while they went round, taking leave of parents or children, for some children and parents were separated, as were also husbands and wives. Our meetings were now broken up, and our separation accomplished.... John Wagar claimed me by promise, as he said my grandmother gave me to him; and, consequently, bade me keep out of sight, when they came for my father's family. This I did by hiding myself until the rest were all gone. I did this willingly, as I did not want to go to Mr. Thomas. Indeed, I had rather forego the pleasure of being with my parents than live with him. So I remained behind.

I had lived securely upon the old plantation about three months, when one day I was sent on an errand, two or three miles from home. There I met Mr. Thomas, who said to me, "where are you going?" I answered his question, when he said, "You belong to me; come, go home with me." I told him I wished to return with my errand, but he said "No; go right home to my house, where your father and mother are. Don't you want to see your mother?" I replied that I did, for I was afraid to answer any other way. This Mr. George Thomas had married my old Mistress's daughter, and we fell to him in right of his wife. I went home with him with a heavy heart.

When John Wagar heard of this event, he said I belonged to him and should come back; but he could not accomplish his purpose in this, for being left to Mrs. Thomas, he could not hold me. He then tried to buy me, but my new master would not sell me, to him.

Soon after my arrival in the family, Mr. Thomas let me to one of his sons, named Henry, who was a doctor, to attend his horse.

This son was unmarried, lived a bachelor, and kept a cook and

306. Stephen Wanton Gould Diary, 1815-1823: The Gould family papers are stored under control number 2033 at the Division of Rare and Manuscript Collections of Cornell University Library, Box 7 Folder 12 for August 24, 1815-September 25, 1823; Box 8 Folder 13: October 2, 1823-March 6, 1829; also on microfilm, see Series 7

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

waiter. The cook belonged neither to him nor his father, but was hired. She was a good looking mulatto, and was married to a right smart, intelligent man, who belonged to the doctor's uncle. One night, coming home in haste, and wishing to see his wife, he sent me up stairs, to request her to come down. Upon going up, I found she was in a room with the doctor, the door of which was fast. This I thoughtlessly told her husband, who, upon her coming down a moment after, upbraided her for it. She denied it, and afterwards told the doctor, but not till I had gone to my mother, sick, up to the old man's plantation.

The doctor was a very intemperate man. As soon as his cook told him her story, he came to his father with the complaint, that I had left him without his consent; upon which his father told him to flog me. He ordered me out to the barn, when I was scarcely able to hold up my head, and had to be led by my brother.

Without saying what he wanted of me, he stripped off my clothes and then whipped me, beating me over the head until I became senseless, and life was nearly extinct. I was carried to my mother's quarters, where I lay five weeks, unable to move without assistance. When I finally recovered, I did not return to him, as he did not wish it, but remained with my mother four years.

My father was a very pious man, never complaining, but bearing every thing patiently, and praying for grace and fortitude to help him to overcome his trials, which he believed would one day be ended. He was a good servant and an affectionate parent. But new trials and sorrows soon broke upon this quiet family.

My sister, whose name I must not mention, as she is now in the North, and like myself, not out of danger, was old Mistress's house maid. She possessed both grace and beauty, and to-day, thank God, is a living monument in his temple. She was given to Mrs. Thomas as her maid, and was much prized, because a gift from her mother; but especially because she knew her to be a virtuous girl.

She had found it impossible to long keep a maid of this stamp, for none could escape the licentious passions of her husband, who was the father of about one-fourth of the slaves on his plantation, by his slave women. Mrs. Thomas strove every way to shield my sister from this monster, but he was determined to accomplish his brutal designs.

One day during his wife's absence on a visit to her friends, being, as he thought, a good opportunity, he tried to force my sister to submit to his wishes. This she defeated by a resistance so obstinate, that he, becoming enraged, ordered two of his men to take her to the barn, where he generally whipped his slaves; there to strip off her clothes and whip her, which was done, until the blood stood in puddles under her feet.

Upon his wife's return, Mr. Thomas told her that my sister had been whipped for neglect of duty. Of this Mrs. Thomas did not complain, as she had no objection to necessary floggings. But similar scenes occurring quite often, our Mistress began to suspect that sister was not in fault, especially as in her presence she never neglected her business, and these complaints only came during her absence. Besides, she knew well her husband's former practices, and at last began to suspect that these and my sister's pretended faults, were in some way connected. Accordingly, she began to question her maid concerning her offences, who, fearing to tell her plainly, knowing it would be certain death to her, answered in low and trembling terms, "I must not tell you, but you may know what it is all for. If I have done anything, Madam, contrary to your wishes, and do not suit you, please sell me, but do not kill me without cause. Old Mistress, your mother, who is dead, and I trust in heaven, took great pains to bring me up a virtuous girl, and I will die before I will depart from her dying counsel, given, as you well know, while we were standing by her dying bed."

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

These words so affected Mrs. Thomas, that she fainted and was carried to her bed, to which she was confined by sickness five or six weeks. Her husband's conduct still persisted in, finally caused her death, which occurred four years after.

Mistress told sister that she had best get married, and that if she would, she would give her a wedding. Soon after, a very respectable young man, belonging to Mr. Bowman, a wealthy planter, and reputed to be a good master, began to court my sister. This very much pleased Mistress, who wished to hasten the marriage. She determined that her maid should be married, not as slaves usually are, but that with the usual matrimonial ceremonies should be tied the knot to be broken only by death. The Sabbath was appointed for the marriage, which was to take place at the Episcopal Church. I must here state that no slave can be married lawfully, without a line from his or her owner. Mistress and all the family, except the old man, went to church to witness the marriage ceremony, which was to be performed by their minister, parson Reynolds. The master of Josiah, my sister's destined husband, was also at the wedding, for he thought a great deal of his man.

Mistress returned delighted from the wedding, for she thought she had accomplished a great piece of work. But the whole affair only enraged her unfeeling husband, who, to be revenged upon the maid, proposed to sell her. To this his wife refused consent. Although Mrs. T. had never told him her suspicions, or what nay sister had said, yet he suspected the truth, and determined to be revenged. Accordingly, during another absence of Mistress, he again cruelly whipped my sister. A continued repetition of these things finally killed our Mistress, who the doctor said, died of a broken heart.

After the death of this friend, sister ran away, leaving behind her husband and one child, and finally found her way to the North. None of our family ever heard from her afterwards, until I accidentally met her in the streets in Philadelphia. My readers can imagine what a meeting ours must have been. She is again married and in prosperity.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

The sovereign state of Alabama took action to dispose of various slaves who had been, in accordance with federal law, confiscated from their owners due to their having been imported illegally. Since this federal law against the international slave trade was of course not for the benefit of black people, but for the benefit of white people, these victims were of course to be forced to work for free by the state until they could be auctioned by the state to the highest bidder, with the net proceeds from such auctions to be sent of course directly into state coffers.

"An Act to carry into effect the laws of the United States prohibiting the slave trade."

§ 1. "Be it enacted, ... That the Governor of this state be ... authorized and required to appoint some suitable person, as the agent of the state, to receive all and every slave or slaves or persons of colour, who may have been brought into this state in violation of the laws of the United States, prohibiting the slave trade: Provided, that the authority of the said agent is not to extend to slaves who have been condemned and sold."

§ 2. The agent must give bonds.

§ 3. "And be it further enacted, That the said slaves, when so placed in the possession of the state, as aforesaid, shall be employed on such public work or works, as shall be deemed by the Governor of most value and utility to the public interest."

§ 4. A part may be hired out to support those employed in public work.

§ 5. "And be it further enacted, That in all cases in which a decree of any court having competent authority, shall be in favor of any or claimant or claimants, the said slaves shall be truly and faithfully, by said agent, delivered to such claimant or claimants: but in case of their condemnation, they shall be sold by such agent for cash to the highest bidder, by giving sixty days notice," etc. ACTS OF THE ASSEMBLY OF ALABAMA, 1822 (Cahawba, 1823), page 62.

INTERNATIONAL SLAVE TRADE

January 2, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 2nd of 1st M / Quite unwell with a heavy cold & unable to go to Meeting My H went the walking very bad & she has a hard cold – [added later that evening after he had drawn the usual lines under the entry?] Walter Nichols Died suddenly about 8 OClock this evening

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 5, Sunday: By this point six Turkish assaults on Missolonghi, Greece had been repulsed.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 5th of 1st M / Meetings very small the walking so bad

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

that it was unsuitable for any woman to Walk, two [-]ly at meeting this Afternoon & one in the morning & they [-] -Hannah Dennis in the forenoon was [-] in a few words to commemorate the goodness & mercy [-]d in favouring us, at seasons, with his comfortable [-]ence -Silent in the Afternoon

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 7, Tuesday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 7 of 1st M / Attended the funeral of Walter Nichols, he [-] an old acquaintance of my Parents - a diligent attender [-] our Meetings on first day with his family & was at meeting [-] usual health the first day previous to his decease, which [-] very sudden. he had been a few days unwell & was [-]an company but retired early to bed & soon after he [-]de down expired about 8 OClock in the evening of the 3 inst [-] father & Mother were members of our society & his mother an occasional preacher. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 9, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 9 of 1 M / Father Rodman appear'd twice in testimony to satisfaction [-] a letter from Moses Brown requesting D Buffum, B Freborn & myself to [-] to Providence immediately to consult about the affairs of Obadiahs Will [-]volves me in a exercise - I know not how to go nor how to stay

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 12, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 12th of 1st M 1823 / Our Meeting this forenoon was pretty well attended & D Bufum engaged in a lively, pertinent testimony much to the satisfaction & I trust edification of many present In the Afternoon H Dennis & Father Rodman were engaged in short but good testimonies. -
This Morning Uncle Stanton sailed for NYork on a visit to his Daughter Niobe who is very Sick & not expected to continue long in this life.-*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 16, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 16 of 1st M / Our Select Meeting this day held was a season of some life, but on the whole a low time to me. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

January 17, Friday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 17 of 1 M / Having rec'd several pressing invitations to come to Providence with David Buffum & Benjamin Freeborn to consult on the important concerns relating to the Last Will & Testament of our friend Obadiah Brown desc. on considering the subject it appeared right to go. I accordingly set out this morning in the Stage with Dvd Buffum & arrived there in season found Moses Browns Sleigh in Town ready to carry us to his house. on the Way stoped at the School House. - 7th day rode to Wm Almy & in the Afternoon attended the funeral of Cary Spencers Wife an aged goodly friend -Wm Almy & his daughter Anne preached - after the funeral we all returned to M Browns & entered on the Buisness we went on. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 19, Sunday: Jason Brown was born in Hudson, Ohio, the 2d child of John Brown and Dianthe Lusk Brown.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day attended Meeting in Providence, the first time I ever attended that Meeting except at Quarterly Meeting times -In the forenoon D B preached & in the Afternoon Silent - we dined at J Congdons In the Afternoon we went to Wm Almys & lodged

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 20, Monday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day returned to M Browns - spent the day together & lodged -3rd day - the Stage left me after attending to a little buisness in Providence returned to MB & spent the remainder of the day returned to Providence towards night & lodged at [-] Anthonys -

January 22, Wednesday: A secret treaty was signed at the Congress of Verona, by which France obtained a free hand to enter the Spanish Civil War and restore Fernando VII to his absolute throne.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*4th day took the Stage & came home - The object & occurrences of this visit does not admit of full record, but I may acknowledge that I never found myself apparantly [-]e in my place, or returned with more peace
The appearance that there is a good reward for labour when rightly performed -- The visit [-] & I trust will be memorable to me as long as I live. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

January 23, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 23rd of 1st M / At Meeting rather poor, but not as Destitute as sometimes. - No buisness but the Queries in Preparative Meeting. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 26, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 26 of 1 M / At meeting in the forenoon a short testimony
[-] Father Rodman. - In the Afternoon - poor times to me
In the evening visited David Williams, who is sick [-]ry poor way*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Publication at Philadelphia (I. Ashmead & Co.) of Giacomo Costantino Beltrami's DEUX MOTS SUR LES PROMENADES DE PARIS A LIVERPOOL ETC. He began a voyage down the Ohio River, intending to follow it to its juncture with the Mississippi River and then head downriver for New Orleans, Louisiana. On the journey, however, he would become acquainted with United States Indian agent Lawrence Taliaferro, who was heading upriver on the Mississippi, and would conceive the project of exploring the headwaters of this great river.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

He and Taliaferro joined with Major Stephen H. Long and traveled upriver toward Fort St. Anthony.

January 27, Monday: The United States recognized the United Provinces in South America (Argentina) and the State of Chile, and President Monroe appointed the 1st US ambassadors to South America.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 27 of 1 M / My feelings have been much in sympathy with [-] afflicted particularly dear Sister E Rodman who this morning underwent a painful & trying surgical operation. - my heart [-] deeply for her indeed - And this eveing Aunt Hannah Gould put her Hip out of joint & had it [-] or attempted to be set - all which renders this day memorable in my feelings.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Benjamin West Ball was born in Concord, 1st child of Benjamin Ball with his 2d wife Mary Rogers Ball of Acton (they got married on February 18th of the previous year).

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

His childhood and early youth were passed in his native town, and afterward in Groton, where he attended the Lawrence Academy, and was prepared for Dartmouth College. After completing his course he spent his time in cultivating the acquaintance and studying the philosophy of Emerson, his illustrious townsman. He wrote of himself later: "It was my good fortune to have lived in my boyhood and youth in such beautiful New England towns as Concord, Harvard, and Groton, almost under the shadow of Wachusset Mountain. If I have any of the mens divinator of a poet, it was kindled and nurtured by the scenery of those towns." In 1851 Mr. Ball published his first volume of poems, wholly Greek in thought and inspiration. He says he was almost a pagan at the time, — a Greek of the age of Pericles, — but became a modern under the influence of Carlyle, Macaulay, Tennyson, and Dickens. He studied law with the hero of Lowell's well known ballad, that

John P.
Robinson, he [who]
Says he won't vote for Guv'nor B.

After practicing law two years he was married to Miss Dollie S. Hurd, of Rochester, N.H., where he established his home. He was editor of a newspaper during the Frémont campaign of 1856, and afterward a Washington correspondent. He contributed to the "Atlantic Monthly" and other periodicals articles upon Greek history, poetry, and philosophy, and became known as an eminent scholar. The incidents of his life were few; and, as he said, his autobiography would only be a record of his mental development, — as he was a book-worm, a man of ideas. In 1892 a collection of Mr. Ball's poems was made and published, with an introduction by Frederick F. Ayer. To all intellectual men, and more especially to those who have been influenced by Greek culture, it is a volume of deep interest. It deals with the great problems of human existence, and lifts the minds of readers to the serene heights where Goethe and Emerson live. Ball is probably more purely philosopher than poet, and, without being precisely a pantheist, appears to incline to the views of Spinoza, the man of divinest, purest life in recent centuries. That he is more philosopher than poet is evidenced both by his chosen subjects and their treatment. In this he resembles Emerson. Both however vary their moods, and sometimes sing of the bright things of earth. Emerson gave us the fresh pictures of birds and blossoms in "May Day;" and Ball in "Morgenroth" an "Abendroth," in the "Crow-Caucus," the "Quail," the "August Crickets" and others, shows how intimate are the ties which bind him to Nature, and with what alert senses he walks abroad. Sometimes his blank verse seems to be merely prose, or like a poorly built wall, ready to tumble down; but there are few of his poems which are not pervaded with the immortal spirit. Why purely intellectual poetry is so little read is a problem. Landor, a great man and a great artist, is seldom quoted. After New England's immortal Five, few poets have a better claim than Ball. But, like an eagle, his flights are in the upper regions;

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

and the bright and tuneful birds in the trees near by attract more attention. Certainly no one can read his poem in memory of Emerson, or that rather daring but suggestive dialogue between the Gods, without feeling his power of thought and nobility of expression.

Is Fame given to caprice? Perhaps not; and perhaps the drawback with Ball is in the want of sunlight in his nature. It is true he is seldom joyous; but on the other hand he is never morbidly sad, nor – what is worse – sentimentally melancholy. His verse is serious, as life is serious, – as the mighty past and the unknown future are serious. Within the limits of his temperament he is cheerful, and he often seeks to adorn his weighty thought with stately or glowing and inspiring words.

In person he is tall, broad-shouldered, with plain yet clear-cut and expressive features, and a look of quiet energy in his pale blue eyes. His large frame and resolute face might indicate a man to push his way, but in fact he is shy and retiring, and spends most of his time away from the busy world.

January 30, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 30th of 6th [?] M 1823 / Monthly Meeting in Town, the weather was pleasant & the Meeting pretty well attended - The first was nearly silent, except a short communication from J Dennis towards the close
The last was conducted pretty well, tho' we had some exercising cases to decide. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Rammohan Roy's own press Mirat-ul-Akhbar published his 256-page book, FINAL APPEAL, in response to the "Christian" missionaries and their insistence on dogma at the expense of the moral content of their religion.

By a new United States statute, the federal regulations in regard to the capital crime of piracy were rendered perpetual, which is to say, they would remain in force indefinitely without any need to be periodically renewed (engaging in the international slave trade had for decades been categorized as a type of piracy).

"An Act in addition to 'An act to continue in force "An act to protect the commerce of the United States, and punish the crime of piracy,"' etc. STATUTES AT LARGE, III. 510-14, 721, 789. For proceedings in Congress, see SENATE JOURNAL, 17th Congress, 2d session, pages 61, 64, 70, 83, 98, 101, 106, 110, 111, 122, 137; HOUSE JOURNAL, 17th Congress, 2d session, pages 73, 76, 156, 183, 189.

February 2, Sunday: Rossini's opera "Semiramade" premiered in Venice.

A cantata for the birthday of the Grand Duke of Saxe-Weimar by Johann Nepomuk Hummel was performed for the initial time.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1st day 2 of 2 M 1823 / While setting at dinner today the subject of Drinking healths was casually introduced, & something was said by John rather favouring the Idea on which his Mother related an anecdote of her life which struck me forcibly & which I do not recollect to have heard before - She remarked on a certain time she was Dining at the table with John B Gilpin the British Consul in this Town at his House - when he asked her to drink a glass of Wine with him to King George, whose Birth day it was. - She told him No, she did not Drink healths. He then asked her why & wished a reason assigned. She then replied that she considered it frivolous & unnecessary [-] meaning, but in this case she could say {blot} "In my heart I wish well to King George & some of his subjects I know, & am acquainted with, & many that I do not know." Well he replied, I give you credit as a true descendant of George Fox. - She replied that she wished no greater honour - It occurred to me, how little need there is, of our evading or violating our religious testimonys, for where they are substantially held to, in the presence of those who are not of us, we are uniformly better respected in where there is a half or whole surrender of him to join with the vain fashions of the World There is certainly nothing gained by it, but to the contrary, we loose our own strength & sink in the estimation of observers. -
In the forenoon Hannah Dennis was engaged in a truly Authorized & Gospel testimony much to the comfort & help of the Meetings. - it was followed by two short testimonies that I did not think so much of

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 3, Monday: Spencer Fullerton Baird was born.

Gioachino Rossini's melodramma tragico Semiramide to words of Rossi after Voltaire was performed for the initial time, in Teatro La Fenice, Venice, with a very enthusiastic response (this was the last opera Rossini would write for Italy).

February 4, Tuesday: Massachusetts approved the creation of the Hampshire and Hampden Canal Company.

Lake Chad was for the first time sighted by Europeans (Lieutenant Hugh Clapperton and Dr. Walter Oudney).³⁰⁷

The Active arrived at Honolulu on the island of Oahu bearing the family of the Reverend William Ellis.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 4th of 2 M 1823 / Several of our friends have set out for Providence Quarterly Meeting this Morning - I feel [-]rey at staying behind & fear it will add no spiritual strength. -

307. They decided they would call it Lake Waterloo.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Visited dear Sister Eliza Rodman in her room this morning, she is a poor sufferer & my heart is deeply interested for her - unless she recovers soon I fear her situation is very alarming

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 5, Wednesday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 5th of 2 M / The papers by Mail last night announced the close [-]er Niobe Marshall in this life on the 30th of last Month & her burial last first Day - This Morning Uncle Stanton [-]ned from NYork where he has been to witness the [dyi]ng scene of his daughter Niobe above said - It appears in a short interview with him that her end was triumphant [-]ppy - for three weeks previous she was engaged inviting[?] councel to her friends & connections - she requested [to be?] buried in Friends burying ground & friends attended her funeral & took the management of it - tho' she was a member [-of the ?] Presbyterian Meeting - early in life She was attatched [to fri?]ends & I have no doubt, had she kept her place & stood [-]ed to Divine requirings, would have belonged to our Society her whole life she loved friends, & never appeared to enjoy her [role?] in the society in which she had formed a connection

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 6, Thursday: Maria Szymanowska performed in Kiev.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 6th of 2 M 1823 / Silent small & to me rather a poor Meeting - tho' I trust favour was dispensed to some present

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 8, Saturday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 8 of 2 M / Most of our friends returned last evening from Providence Quarterly Meeting, & bring comfortable accounts of the progress of things there, a good degree of harmony prevailed in the deliberations of the Meeting & friends were comforted together in good measure - tho' accounts from Bedford is Somewhat afflicting respecting the State of Society there - Mary Newhall is there & impresses her public appearances on the Meeting & some who [crossed out] joins with her of whom better things might be expected.-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 9, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 9 of 2 M / Meetings nearly silent & rather dull Seasons

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Thoughts much on troubles at New Bedford. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 13, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

5th day 13 of 2 M / At meeting Father Rodman was engaged in a short testimony addressed to the Youth, which was very cordial to my feelings. –

February 16, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

*1st day 16 of 2 M / D Buffum engaged in a solemn impressive testimony, exciting to Obedience. – Good Meeting
In the Afternoon small & rather lean. –*

February 20, Thursday: British sealer/explorer James Weddell, aboard the brig Jane, fixes his position at 74° 15' S at 34° 16' 45" W in antarctic waters. This furthest south will not be bested until 1841.

Gretchen am Spinnrade D.118, a song by Franz Schubert to words of Johann Wolfgang von Goethe, was performed publicly for the initial time, in the Vienna Musikverein.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 20 of 2 M / Small Meeting & heavy - Mind much in sympathy with Friends at New Bedford where a serious difficulty exists - Mary Newhall is there which the State of things in the minds of Some there causes much ferment & distress among the faithful. - Have this & last evening Visited dear Sister Elizabeth Rodman in her shop, where I rejoice to find her comfortable & I am willing to hope on the way for recovery - The severe surgical operation She has undergone, excited my deepest sympathy & often involved me in deep distress on her account - while sitting with her I could feel no clear prospect that her health would ever be again established, but hope & desire is very strong on her account. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 23, Sunday: A Symphony in D by Jan Vaclav Vorisek was performed for the initial time, in Vienna.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 23rd of 2 M 1823 / Our Morning Meeting was pretty well attended & D Buffum was engaged in a very lively Sound pertinent testimony from the text "God who at sundry times in divers manners Spake in times past unto the fathers by the Prophets Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son who he hath appointed head of all things." &c - in the Afternoon the Meeting

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*was smaller, but a season of some favour –
This day about Dinner time Aunt PATTY GOULD in getting [ready?] to go down stairs, her took a turn & she fell Down & hurt her hip badly, we suppose it is put out of joint but nothing at present can be done with it, & she remains in a suffering condition. – so now in one house lays two poor old women with their hips our of joint - this is an awfully afflicted State both for them & their friends, but [-]ly love a train" & as I was thinking this Afternoon of a saying of Josephs Mitchells once in one of our public meetings "as one [- trial?] passes another comes." so that we need not be impatient & wish improperly to be exempt from suffering, for we know note what is to succeed present trials. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 27, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 27th of 2 M / Yesterday Rode to Portsmouth in the Stage sleigh went to Uncle Stantons on buisness with him, - found them very comfortable – This morning walked thro' the field & over [to Widow?] Banks to Meeting. The first was to me a season of labour was favour'd to experience some favour, but not to the degree that I desired -- In the last Meeting (Monthly) I was [-] our'd to be faithful in the expression of a few words on [-] erval subjects which afforded Strength & peace, beyond what [I ha]ve witnessed in a Moy [Monthly] Meeting for some time – one [-] an was disowned for Marrying out - another was cons-[-]p in Membership who sent an acknowledgment for [-] me offense & a request for Membership was recd [-] Hannah Pearce daughter of Benjamin & a committee [--]ted to visit her on the Subject - Rode home [-] he Sleigh with Abraham Barker & Dined on the [-] at Richard Mitchells –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 2, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 3rd M 2nd 1823 / Silent Meetings, low poor times to me, particularly the Afternoon – Aunt Patty Gould remains much as the week past a poor suffering old woman & I see no immediate prospect of her release, either by recovery or Death. –She has been a good woman all her days, zealous for the Truth & done much for Society both on committees & for about 20 Years of her life as overseer

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 3, Monday: 25 English gentlemen created the London Greek Committee to raise money and volunteers for the Greek rebellion against Turkey.

The US federal government made an appropriate of $50,000 for the suppression of the international slave trade.

"An Act making appropriations for the support of the navy," etc.
"To enable the President of the United States to carry into effect the act" of 1819, $50,000. STATUTES AT LARGE, III. 763, 764.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 6, Thursday: At the urging of the bride's mother, Elizabeth Oakes Prince, although still a teenager, and Seba Smith, the editor of a Portland weekly, were wed. From this point into 1838 Elizabeth Oakes Smith would manage the Smith household, which would include not only the members of the blood family but also the boarding apprentices and printers of their The Eastern Argus.

Waldo Emerson mused sophomoronically in his JOURNAL about the rights of man:

My brother Edward asks me Whether I have a right to make use of animals? I answer "Yes," ... the positive law of Necessity asserts our right. But the use of the sheep for clothing, the ox, the horse, & the ass, for beasts of burden is parallel to these [Arabian & his camel; Northern Islanders & their Whales], and their necessity though less seen is equally strong. "Increase & Multiply" said the Creator to Man; and caused all the brute creation to pass before him & receive [sic] their names in token of subjection. The use of these enables man to increase & multiply a thousand fold more rapidly, than would be practicable if he abstained from their use. Their universal application to our purposes & especially that remarkable adaptation that is observed in many instances of the Animal to the wants of the country in which he is found constitute the grand Argument on this side.

Franz Schubert's song Die abgebluhte Linde D.514 to words of Szechernyi was performed for the initial time, in the Vienna Musikverein.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 6 of 3 M / Our meeting small in consequence of bad Walking & to me a low time -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 9, Sunday: The cause of Claude-Henri de Rouvroy, Comte de Saint-Simon, the believer in human progress, the worshiper of the future, wasn't doing too well. In order to finance his metaphysical schemes he had been all over France attempting to extract large sums of money, like a thousand franks at a pop, from various industrialists he promised to respect afterward, and had gotten some money from some of them, and had just written off to a textile industrialist named Ternaux who had once made a donation, when he loaded a pistol with seven charges, pulled out his pocket watch and spent seven last minutes contemplating the proper organization of human society, and then attempted to blow out his own brains. Although the positive law of Necessity asserted his right to perform this act, he used up all seven bullets and only managed to blow out one of his eyes.

Although this is presumably a record of sorts for philosophical ineptitude, as a matter of principle the Guinness Book of World Records refrains from keeping score in the arena of philosophical ineptitude — so I suppose we'll never really know.³⁰⁸

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 9 of 3 M / In the forenoon Hannah Dennis was engaged in a lively & excellent testimony - Silent Meeting in the Afternoon - - a low distressed day to me - in the evening visited David Williams who is very sick & without speedy help cannot remain in mutability. -his complaint is now evidently the Dropsy & I fear consumptive complaints attending it -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 13, Thursday: Michael Faraday read his paper "On Fluid Chlorine" to the Royal Society in London. He described how cold temperatures and pressure would liquefy a gas, chlorine.

The Pennsylvania General Assembly approved a Delaware and Hudson Canal.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 13th of 3rd M / Silent Meeting & to me a season of favour, may I be thankful for it. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 16, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 16th of 3rd M / Our Morning Meeting was long & silent till near the close when our venerable friend D Buffum rose & expressed "that to him it had been a season of favour & he believed many others present could acknowledge the same - then after a short impressive testimony from him (which I do not retain sufficiently to note the thread of) The meeting closed in a solid manner. - That It was a favoured season my heart fully responded, the arisings of life & mental supplication for help & preservation being vouchsafed to me in an unusual degree. - Silent & short meeting in the Afternoon, but solid & sweet. - In the Morning went to Aunt Patty Goulds & removed her from one bed to another, she is weak & low & cannot remain long in

308. The world being what it is, the publicity generated by this suicide attempt promptly brought in some funds for his cause.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

mutability. –

In the evening visited David Williams who seems fast declining in a Dropsy & I fear is also consumptive

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 20, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 20th of 3rd M 1823 / It was a severe Snow Storm & the Meeting [-] Small - but four women were able to attend, but Hannah Dennis was engaged in a lively encouraging testimony to the few who were gathered & I have no doubt it was a season of general favour, tho' my mind was most of the time in a low state.
– No buisness in the Preparative Meeting. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 23, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 23rd of 3 M / Silent Meetings. – In the Afternoon attended [-] funeral of Priscilla, a widow whose name was originally Louden & of a family of Loudens who were Friends, her parents being buried in our ground, she was buried there also & according to our manner - she was herself an attender of Friends
Meetings
This forenoon Died Sophia Waring Aged 36 Years the wife of Doctor
Waring & Daughter of the late Francis Malbone
She was a kind pleasant courteous Woman, has left [6? young?] Children & having a passing acquaintance with her have felt affected with her removal from time, so young in Years & leaving so numerous a family of Children, The youngest only 3 or 4 Weeks old. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 27, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 27th of 3 M / The forepart of the first Meeting was a season of conflict to my mind but was favord with a comfortable [-] lince before the conclusion tho' it did not end quite as well as I could wish - about the Middle of the Meeting Father Rodman was engaged in a Short but sound & very pertinent testimony [-] my feelings –
In the last (Monthly) our buisness went on pretty well - Hannah Pearce daughter of Benjamin of Portsmouth was recd into Membership – Adam Anthony dined with us. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 30, Easter Sunday: John Maddox of the Rebecca Ann out of Gloucester drowned and his body was found on Master Mores Beach.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*1st day 30th of 3rd M / In the forenoon Meeting our friend Isaac Hammer from the State of Tennessee attended & was silent at the close of the meeting he requested more general notice & the Youth particularly invited but the Storm increasing to violence the meeting was smaller than in the morning, after a long silence he said [-]derable which was good & pertinent & H Dennis was also [-]ned to make a sweet addition. –
The several past days have been Days of Deep seriousness to me.
– I know not the particular time when a closer Baptism has awaited me – May all work for good & the dispensation be Sanctified*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 1, Tuesday: Omaggio pastorale, a cantata by Gioachino Rossini, was performed for the possibly the 1st time, in Treviso, for the unveiling of a memorial bust of Antonio Canova.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th M 1st 1823, 3rd of the Week This day recd from my valued friend & correspondent Thos Thompson of Liverpool a highly interesting Letter Dated 1st M 14th 1823, with Several Valued Pamphlets & a new edition of Stephen Crisps Sermons. – This letter seemed much like a Brook by the way, for my mind was under presure & by it was a little comforted & strengthened. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 3: William Macy “Boss” Tweed, New-York political boss, was born.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 3rd of 4th M / Silent short Meeting & some favour vouchsafed – but small on the Womens side in consequence of very Bad Walking. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 6, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 6th of 4th M / The Morning Meeting was large & silent. – In the Afternoon father Rodman was engaged in public testimony much to my satisfaction & I have no doubt it had a lively impression on some minds present. –
In the evening Visited David Williams whose disorder increases on him & in all human probability will soon terminate his existance. – his state of mind is sweet & pleasant, loving & affectionate to his friends & deems their visits kind. – My mind was much affected with this visit to my old Master. – he has been a useful man in society – open & hosptiable in his house to strangers & friends who visit Newport & will be a great loss to us. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 April 9, Wednesday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 9th of 4 M / I have this morning Sealed up a package containing a letter &c to my frd Thos Thompson of Liverpool & sent it to NYork to be forwarded to him. – It has been of late to me a season of proving & close trial both on my own account & of others - my spirit has been closely exercised & I dont know but I may say deeply bowed for days together, & I hope the dispensation will be lastingly beneficial

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 April 12, Saturday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 12 of 4th M 1823 / I feel thankful to acknowledge renew'd favour this morning - tendering the heart & exciting precious sensations the father leaves me not in a barran unfriutful Wilderness

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 April 10, Thursday: Johann Baptist Jenger proposed that his friend Franz Schubert, despite his youth, be accepted as an honorary member of the Styrian Music Society at Graz. The proposal was accepted.

Franz Schubert wrote his publisher Cappi and Diabelli, accusing them of shady practices and severing relations.

Three songs by Franz Schubert were published by Sauer and Leidesdorf, Vienna as his op.20: Sei mir gegrusst to words of Ruckert, Frühlingsglaube, to words of Uhland, and Hanflings Liebeswerbung to words of Kind.

On approximately this day, Franz Liszt wrote in Ludwig van Beethoven conversation book:

I have often expressed the wish to Herr von Schindler to make your lofty acquaintance, and am rejoiced now to be able to do so. As I will give a concert on Sunday the 13th I most humbly beg you to grant me your exalted presence.

(Contrary to Liszt's own report, Beethoven would not attend — by this point there was no longer anything to gain from attending concerts because he had become almost totally deaf.)

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 10th of 4 M / This was our Select Meeting Day, it was to me a season of solemnity - my spirit was tendered, & brought into a proffitable dispensation of feeling - for which I desire to be thankful. - Oh that I may Keep more on the Watch against the enemy, that I may not suffer So much by his inroads on my heart.-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 April 12, Saturday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 12 of 4th M 1823 / I feel thankful to acknowledge renew'd favour this morning - tendering the heart & exciting precious sensations the father leaves me not in a barren unfruitful Wilderness

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 April 13, Sunday: A second, revised constitution for Greece was adopted by the Second National Assembly in Astros of Kynouria.

Franz Liszt gave a large concert in the Redoutensaal, Vienna, playing music of Johann Nepomuk Hummel, Moscheles, and improvisations on themes suggested by the audience.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 13th of 4th M / A Day of much feeling & I trust of good feeling in our Morning Meeting we had much preaching in the following order Anne Dennis - J Dennis Hannah Dennis D Buffum & Hannah at a second standing. - I had no doubt of the good concern of any of them & some of it had the Kings seal on it, if I know his seal - In the Afternoon My mind was a little more unsettled but still a good degree of favour. - Oh that I may be thankful - My [may] I bow low under every renewal of Divine regard, & receive it in Mercy for the longer I live the more I feel that of our selves we Merit nothing Set Most of the evening at Wm Lees in company with M H Sister Ruth & Mary -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 April 16, Wednesday: The United States navy was making brief landings along the coast of Cuba in this year, in pursuit of pirates. The landing on this date was near Cayo Blanco.

US MILITARY INTERVENTIONS

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 16th of 4M / This morning we went down to the head of the Long Wharf to meet the Steam Boat in which we were previously advised Micajah Collins & Isaac Bassett of Lynn [-]pected to be - at 10 O'clock the Boat arrived & we had just time to take our abovementioned friends by the hand [-] their way to N York & Philadelphia - Micajah expecting [-] attend the latter Yearly Meeting & spend most of the times visiting some Meetings particularly in Virginia - [-]eting. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 April 17, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 17th of 4th M / Silent & pretty good Meeting - In the

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Preparative meeting all the Queries were answered - & no other buisness accepted - I was inform'd that the women's meeting appointed a new Clerk Vist Ruth Dennis in the place of [-] Elizabeth Rodman who has served a number of Years

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 20, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 20 of 4 M / Silent Meetings - The Morning was better than the Afternoon to me. - but in both things were at a low ebb in my feeling -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 24, Thursday: Simon Mayr's cantata La vita campestre was performed for the initial time, in Bergamo.

Eugene Scribes's "Le Menteur Veridique" premiered in Paris.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 24th of 4th M / Attended Monthly Meeting at Portsmouth with sister Ruth - The first Meeting was a good one - David Buffum & Hannah Dennis were both engaged in very lively testimonies - in the last things went on pretty well, but not as well as at sometimes. - We dined at Uncle Stantons. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 27, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 27th of 4th M / Our Morning meeting was pretty well attended & a good solid time - Towards the close a short testimony by J Dennis. - Our frd Avis Keene attended in the Afternoon & notice being given the Meeting was well attended She was much favoured to reach & understand the State of our meeting & to me her testimony was truly cordial & have no doubt it will be remembered by many in days to come. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 28, Monday: In accordance with the Congressional resolution of February 28th,  the President of the United States wrote to the government of Spain proposing an alliance to destroy the international slave trade (HOUSE DOCUMENT, 18th Congress, 1st session, VI. No. 119).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 28th of 4th M / Avis Keene with her Sister Percival called this morning to see us, & paid a short but sweet visit - she dines at B Freeborns, & intends tonight for Providence - & expects to be at our Q Meeting at Greenwich where we may see

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

her again. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 April 29, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 29th of 4 M 1823 / This morning with my Wife went on board the Packet for Greenwich – our company consisted of 15 Friends & the Passage tho' rather long was pleasant – on our arrival We Walked out to Daniel Howlands Father Rodman & Henry Gould in company. – There we took tea & lodged

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 April 30, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day morning Walked to Town [Greenwich] & attended Select Meeting Dined at Abigail Prouds & after tea I met with the Trustees of Obadiah Browns benevolent fund which was our first Meeting – We lodged at cousin Wanton Caseys –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 May 1, Thursday: Franz Liszt gave a homecoming concert in Pest after his triumphal trip to Vienna. He wore a national Hungarian costume. It was the 1st of what would be five performances in Pest this month.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 1 of 5 M – The Quarterly Meeting at large was a season of favour, tho' not without some unpleasant occurrences – after dining at cousin W Caseys I rode to Providence & lodged at Moses Browns –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 May 2, Friday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 2nd of 5th M – Spent this day at the Boarding School & had two long & laborious Sittings of the School Committee returned to Moses Browns & lodged. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 May 3, Saturday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day went in to Providence & after several calls went on board the Packet & came home after a very pleasant passage –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

May 4, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 4th of 5th M 1823 / In our morning Meeting Hannah Dennis was engaged in a lively testimony – Silent in the Afternoon Took tea at Father Rodmans & towards night called at David Williams found him much as when I saw him tho' a little weaker. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 8, Thursday: “Home Sweet Home” was 1st sung (this happened in London).

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 8th of 5th M / Silent Meeting & not a season of that sweet refreshment that I have sometimes experienced. – the fault was my own

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 11, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 11th of 5 M Both Meetings silent except a few words by Anne Dennis in the forenoon. – Set the evening at Dorcas [-]ls with my H & Sister Ruth. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 15, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 15th of 5 M / Silent Meeting, a season of much Poverty & weakness [-] When shall I be strong when shall I be better – [-] weeks ago my mind enjoyed precious favour for which I desire to be thankful & feel so now in that there is some evidence [-] all is not gone. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 18, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 18th of 5 M / Our Morning meeting was large. There was no meeting at several other meetings in town which brought more than common to ours - D Buffum & Hannah Dennis were engaged in lively testimonies The former opened with "Opportunity lost [-] ver be regained" & the latter on the necessity of bearing the [-] Meeting was again well attended in the [-]noon father Rodman & J Dennis bore short testimonies.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

May 22, Thursday: Following his desire to travel, Mikhail Ivanovich Glinka made for the Caucasus, reaching Kharkov today.

The US House passed the protectionist Tariff of 1824.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 22 of 5 M / A well attended Silent Meeting - my feeling [-] very lively. - No buisness in the Preparative Meeting
My Mother & cousin Hannah Gardiner set the Afternoon & took tea with us -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 25, Sunday: Waldo Emerson's 20th birthday.

John Luman Wakefield was born in or near Winsted in Litchfield County, Connecticut.

A Concerto in d minor for violin, piano and strings by Felix Mendelssohn was performed for the initial time, privately, at the Mendelssohn residence in Berlin.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 25th of 5th M 1823 / Both Meetings were Silent, & to me rather dull times. - I have nothing to boast in, it is a time of leanness. - We took tea in family friendship & love at Father Rodmans. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 29, Thursday: Anton Philipp Heinrich gave his 1st concert after arriving in Boston.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 29th of 5 M / A Very rainy day & small Monthly Meeting
In the first Anne Dennis & Father Rodman bore short testimonies.
- Not much buisness & not much life in the last sitting.
Uncle P Lawton & Adam Anthony Dined with us*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

HDTWHAT?INDEXFRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

June 1, Sunday: Henry Youle Hind was born in Nottingham, England, 3d son of Sarah Youle Hind and Thomas Hind, a prominent manufacturer of lace (a younger brother would be the artist William George Richardson Hind, who would venture on explorations in the Canadian interior subsequent to the explorations of the older brother; what appears below is a chromolithograph based on a sketch by William, and depicts his brother Henry lounging in the lodge of Otelne of the Montagnai tribe on the coast of Labrador).

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 1st of 6th M 1823 / Our Morning Meeting was very large & favoured with a lively Gospel testimony from David Buffum. – In the Afternoon a young man who arrived from NYork in the Steam Boat came to Meeting about the Middle of the Meeting he rose & delivered a Zealous & Strenuous testimony which we hardly knew what to make of –

To me it was a favor'd sweet Meeting till he spoke, which threw me into an unsettled State – there was some good in what he Said, but a certain impetuous manner of speaking & being an entire stranger threw the mind into doubt of what he was. –

Took tea at D Buffums – & set the evening with my H at Cousin Anne & Mary Goulds. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 2, Monday: Joaquim Pedro Gomes de Oliveira replaced Jose Antonio Faria de Carvalho Filipe Ferreira de Araujo e Castro as Secretary of State (prime minister) of Portugal.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

2nd day 2nd of 6 M / This Morning Had an opportunity with the Young man above alluded too, who proves to be Hull Barton a Nephew of Henry Hulls of Nine Partners - He appears to be a young man concerned for the promotion of Truth but needs an increase of experience in those things which he labours to establish - I felt favoured in the discharge of my Duty towards him as an Elder & believe he received my message Well. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 3, Tuesday or June 4, Wednesday: The Blessingtons left Genoa.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*4th day 3rd [sic] of 6 M 1823 ?? The toil of Yearly Meeting commences, some have already come from NYork who expect to attend it -
I must acknowledge I feel no small weight & even depression at the approach of our Annual Meeting, but trusting in that Almighty power which has hitherto supported us, & carried us through, I desire not to foster a doubtful state. Indeed I have no need to, for where my dependance has been rightly placed, I have never known a failure of help. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 5, Thursday: A new law created provincial assemblies in Prussia.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 6th [sic] of 6th M 1823 / Our Meeting was pretty well attended nearly all the members in ability of body to attend were there & those who were no - James Hazard from Cornwall State of NYork was there & laboured satisfactorily. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 8, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 8th of 6 M / Silent Meetings & to me rather dull seasons Yearly Meeting approaches, & was it not for the confidence [-] feel in the Power of Truth to support & sustain thro' all [-]y over all, I must acknowledge my mind would be much more depressed at the prospect than it is - It is [-now?] a time in Society when the burden bearer fainteth, several of those who have attended the Y Meeting from my boyhood seem disaffected & there is much trouble [-]t in various Yearly Meetings, on account of a disorganizing spirit which has got up in the minds of some [-]t Doctrine & Discipline, at Salem Lynn & New Bedford. This trouble mainly exists in this Quarter, but at [Phila?]delphia & some other places the difficulty is still greater [-] has seemed sometimes as if great indeed would be the [trial?] which awaits us. - But Ranterism has had its ups & downs from the Days of G

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Fox to the present time, - That spirit has exalted itself & judges down others, has many [-times?] previous to this day displayed its terrific Hydra [head?] but that spirit, which has ever stood above the [-] ills power, & held him in subjection, has never [failed? to be with those who rightly ask & seek for it -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 12, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 12th of 6 M 1823 / Our Meeting was a solid good time Hannah Dennis in the early part of it was impressed with the scripture "Bring ye all the tithes into the Storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house & prove me now therewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, & pour out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive of"

She did not repeat the whole passage, but encouraged us to dedication of heart that we might thereby merit the blessing. - Near the Close Anne Greene was engaged in a short testimony & the meeting soon closed. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 13, Friday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 13th of 6th M / Henry Hull & his companion Wager Hull arrived in town from Wickford in season to Dine with us, soon after, they took a Chaise & went to Portsmouth

We had Several of our friends at tea among them were our frd David Buffum who accidentally fell in to take Thos Anthony home in his chaise & from thence to Meeting at Portsmouth tomorrow. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 14, Saturday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 14th of 6 M / Rode with my H to Portsmouth to attend the opening of the Select Yearly Meeting - which was a season of tenderness & favour Henry Hull was first in a favored testimony. - H G Field[?] in supplication, follow'd in the course of the Meeting & a Baptising supplication at the close by Avis Keene We dined at Uncle Stantons, & came home finding much company in Town.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 15, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1st day From information that H Barton was in Town This morning, considerable exercise was felt lest he should attend meeting & disturb it by unsavory & intrusive communications, -which induced me to go to meeting early in order to meet him in the Yard & induce him to desist. - But he came not, so we had a large solid meeting & Truth reigned over us & was above all -Henry Hull stood nearly an hour & an half in a sound testimony for the [-truth?] as it is in Jesus Christ - he was followed [-] Mary B Allen to the same effect & the meeting [-] closed under a precious covering. -

In the Afternoon we had a most favoured meeting - Soon after it was settled and a little solemnity spread over it Henry Hull rose & delivered testimony to the Truth which was remarakably owned [by?] the great Master (I believe). - & was singularly [-sol?]emnizing to a very large collection who, sat (& stood as many did) much more quietly than is common for an Afternoon Meeting. - after him Deborah Otis was engaged in a short but lively & pertinent testimony Henry concluded in solemn fervant Prayer & after the Meeting closed under a most favourd covering I recollect of in the Afternoon Meeting. - At tea we had the company of Mary Allen & others, & in the evening a short silent [sitt]ing -- What rendered it more remarkable was the favour of the Meeting Hull Barton [& others?] of a ranterous disposition were present & [kept?] down by the power that was over them -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 16, Monday: King Willem I opened a shipyard, at Rotterdam-Antwerp.

Publication of the Diabelli Variations by Ludwig van Beethoven was announced.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day Our Meeting this morning opened under a solemn [-]ing - David Buffum spoke first in a feeling & appropriate manner "Tarry ye at Jerusalem" &c followed by [-]man & Henry Hull, both Meetings were remarkably solid & favoured with solid weight which kept down [a?] loose spirit - & we have abundant cause to [-]t in the Sufficiency of Divine power to carry thro' all & [-] all - My heart was truly thankful for that favour.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 17, Tuesday: Scotsman Charles MacIntosh received a patent for his waterproof cloth he had been using to make raincoats.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day The Select meeting closed this forenoon, having in the

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

course of it been favoured with the power & cementing love of Truth, which remarkably overshadowed it particularly so in the forepart of this last sitting. –

In the Afternoon the Meeting at large met at 3 O'clock. –The very important subject of obtaining an Act from the legislature of this state to quallify the Yearly Meeting to hold property & give discharges to those who bequeath it to them, was brought before the Meeting & largely discussed & after many remarks for & against it, it settled weightily on the Meeting that such an Act ought to be obtained & the one presented to the Meeting was refered for the reconsideration of the Meeting for Sufferings & they to apply on behalf of the Meeting to the Legislature to procure its being passed

This settled quietly & solidly & I believe to the general satisfaction of Friends, it is an important question, as many friends had doubts of the propriety of our being incorporated but many of those who were fully convinced of the propriety & necessity, when they fully heard the Substantial Arguments & reasons offered in its favour. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 18, Wednesday: King Joao VI annulled the Portuguese constitution after protests against him over the loss of Brazil.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day The Morning Meeting was short, but favour'd with life & Authority. –

In the Afternoon which was the closing sitting, some exercise was felt. – but ended after a baptizing supplication from Wm James

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 19, Thursday: Three songs by Franz Schubert to words of Mayrhofer were published by Sauer and Leidesdorf, Vienna as his op.21: Auf der Donau, Der Schiffer, and Wie Ulfru fischt.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day Most friends left town today, all our company excepting Henry Hull & his companion Wager Hull went off in the Morning & they staid to attend the Meeting today & went to Connanicut The meeting today was large & tho' disturbed [by?] several unsavory, unseasonable appearances, yet in [–] of John Willis, James Hazard, John Mann & Henry Hull truth was exalted & would have ended well [but?] for the disturbance of Hull Barton, who as the meeting [–] went to preaching in a most vehement voice & [–] & gathered a Number round him in the little Meeting House, but was unable to gain a Settlement & he went off in confusion.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

— after railing against [friends?] for some minutes. -- Henry Hull left in the Afternoon for Connanicut intending to appoint a Meeting there tomorrow. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 20, Friday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day Towards night Henry Hull returned from Connanicut having visited his relations & had a Meeting this forenoon, to his own satisfaction & those who attended. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 21, Saturday?: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*All our friends left us this morning in the Steam Boat for New York. —
This has indeed been a season of great [—]tal exercise to me, perhaps the most so of any [I re]collect - Various have been the concerns of the Yearly Meeting in which my feelings have been greatly tested - Truth has had the victory over all - for which I desire to render my feeble tribute of gratitude [—]on who overrules for good, may my mind [—]ter in confidence in him*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 22, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 22nd of 6th M 1823 / In the forenoon Meeting Father Rodman, D Buffum & Hannah Dennis were engaged in Testimony - In the Afternoon Jonathon Dennis, Father Rodman & Hannah Dennis were engaged, - so that as to preaching we have had a large portion. — to me it was a season of favour & feel my self particularly proffited by a visit to D Buffums this evening, where I went after Meeting & took tea. - for all favours I desire to be thankful.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

June 25, Wednesday: Initially the Declaration of Independence document was being celebrated not as a guarantor of civil rights but merely as a solidarity document having to do with secession and danger and independence, in other words, with nationalistic chauvinism. It was, after all, a declaration of war, and how many declarations of war do you know of that become famous and are celebrated? It would not be until the 1850s that Abraham Lincoln would begin instead to mine the polite generalities of the introduction to the Declaration for the work they might do in support of individual rights — were we to begin to take these polite generalities seriously. In that vein, Thomas Jefferson responded on this day to a letter from John Winn, William C. Rives, Daniel M. Railey, John Ormond, Horace Branham, and George W. Nichols, refusing to provide them as requested with the date of his birth: “The only birthday I ever commemorate is that of our Independence, the Fourth of July.”

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 25th of 6th M 1823 / My Mind has for days & weeks been under the presure of a Concern, which has bourne with much weight. I feel desirous, & humbly beg in mental supplication that the thing may appear with greater brightness than it now does tho' it is on account of another whom I dearly love yet, I want to feel different. —

Have read this Afternoon a manuscript account of Joanna Hazard wife of Benjn of S Kingstown, who died 4th of 1st M 1820 Aged 24 Years, a view of her pious short life, & triumphant close, excited no small emotion in my heart. — I may acknowledge with gratitude the reading was proffitable

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 26, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 26th of 6 M / All day yesterday I felt as if I should not go to Portsmouth to attend Monthly Meeting today - but on waking this morning & recollecting that Sister Elizabeth Rodman had expressed a wish to attend, I began to cast in my mind if it was not my duty to carry her as my wife could not go, & tho' from a variety of circumstances the prospect looked heavy, yet on looking the subject over, I remembered our sacrifices [-]t cost us something, so I resolved to go, & set out under much depression, but while riding some favour was sweetly extended, my mind became led into feeling & sympathy with my dear sister & her prospect of Marriage, which hither to has been a subject of exercise to me on her account we stoped at Uncle Thurstons before meeting at meeting my mind was sweetly refreshed under a renewed sense of the arisings of Divine life which my soul did, according to my small measure love & felt thankful I was at Meeting — but little buisness presented & the meeting closed soon. — We dinner at Uncle Thurstons, then went down to Uncle Stantons & took tea which was a pleasant visit particularly to Eliza who was never there before. -- In Riding home my spirit was uncommonly bowed, & lead mentally & fervantly to supplicate for our preservation thro' the future walks of life, & my dear sister was brought doubly near me to my best feelings, & not a little affected by the prospect that it is the last time I shall

HDT

WHAT?

INDEX

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

–[possibly?] ride to Portsmouth with her, while she is Elizabeth Rodman. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 29, Sunday: At Gloucester, Jonathan Parsons received notice that his son Jonathan Parsons, Jr. had died while at sea.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 29th of 6th M 1823 / Thought it not best to go to meeting today, I watched last night with my old master David Williams who is now very near the close of life & may [not?] continue the day through. –

DAVID WILLIAMS Died this evening at half past ten OClock Aged 54 Years & three Months to a day

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 30, Monday: Maria Szymanowska performed in Poznan on her 3-year concert tour of Europe.

George Gordon, Lord Byron asked James Henry Leigh Hunt to proceed with publication of DON JUAN Cantos XV-XVI “The Deformed Transformed” without waiting for Canto XVII.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th M 30th (2nd day) 1823 / This day concludes the Month & affords an opportunity of much reflection on the progress of life & brings into view many circumstances that has occur'd from the time of my first going to service, my apprenticeship with David Williams to the present time. – Tho' in the course of my living with him I had many deep, close & proving trials of flesh & spirit to pass thro', which arose from enemies within & without, yet I must now confess that I have no doubt they worked together for my good. – his pious care in keeping me close to Meetings in the Middle of the week, a thing which at first my nature rather rebelled against, yet in time I became reconciled to it & enjoyed many precious Seasons. – together with much other care & concern manifested for me, by him & his wife, very much contributed to keep me in the right way, & preserve me from much evil for which I desire to be thankful, & for which I shall revere their memory. – David Died last night about half past 10 OClock – he was not in the full posession of his mental powers. The night before when I watched with him, & before the close [he?] sank into a state of insensibility as to objects before him. – but while sitting by his bed, while reaon lasted, it was remarkable to observe the innocent state of his mind, & often expressed that the prospect of a close was made more easy to him than he could have expected. -- I attended his funeral & was one of the bearers, as I was also to his wife. – Many people attended & sat at his house in a very solid manner. C Rodman & J Dennis

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

bore short testimonies. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 3, Thursday: A Concerto in d minor for violin, piano and strings by Felix Mendelssohn was performed publicly for the initial time, in the Schauspielhaus, Berlin.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 3rd of 7 M 1823 / Our Meeting was rather small but a season of favour to some – Father Rodman was engaged in a lively testimony. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 6, Sunday: The visitors to Fort St. Anthony, Lawrence Taliaferro, Stephen H. Long, and Giacomo Costantino Beltrami, and Mr. Say, Mr. Colhoun, and Mr. Keating, walked to the Falls of St. Anthony, the extremest limit of navigation on the Mississippi River. Since the water was only a couple of feet deep above the falls, some of them braced themselves against the stiff current and walked across slippery rocks to the island in the middle of the river, and then some of them retreated to the west bank while others ventured on across the remainder of the flow toward the east bank. The fools seem to have been able to get safely to the far shore only with some help from a soldier stationed at the government mills adjacent to the falls.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 6th of 7 M / Both Meetings were solid good ones to me – In the forenoon a Short lively testimony from Father Rodman – Afternoon Silent. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 10, Thursday: Gael chaplains had existed for some time, but on this day they were made universal. They were obliged to receive the license of their bishop previous to assuming their office, and obligated to perform divine service on Sunday, Christmas-day, and Good Friday, and to keep a journal of their transactions with prisoners for the inspection of the justices.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 10 of 7 M / A solid good meeting – Father Rodman was engaged in a sweet & I apprehend a lively & well authorized

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

testimony

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 13, Sunday: George Gordon, Lord Byron embarked on the Hercules.

The date on the earliest grave in Concord's New Burying-Ground. (The date on the oldest extant grave anywhere in Concord is 1677 and the date on the oldest extant grave in its West Burying-Ground is November 17, 1697.)

Burying-Grounds were laid out at an early period, but the date is unknown. The monument on the Hill Burying-Ground, containing the inscription, "JOSEPH MERRIAM, AGED 47 YEARS, DIED THE 20 OF APRIL, 1677," is the oldest in town. The oldest in the West Burying-Ground is that of Thomas Hartshorn, who died November 17, 1697. No other one appears there till 1713. The first person buried in the New Burying-Ground was Mrs. Anna Robbins, who died July 13, 1823, and the fact is properly noted on her monument. Beside these, tradition reports that the ground first used for interring the dead was on the hill easterly of the present one; but no traces of it can be discovered, if indeed one was ever there.³⁰⁹

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 13th of 7 M / The morning meeting was not quite as full on the Mens side of the House &[sic] common, which I have often noticed is the case in hay making time D Buffum & Hannah Dennis engaged in solemn weighty testimonys – Silent in the Afternoon till near the close when a testimony was delivered with the Authority of which I must suspend judgement -- Sister Elizabeth Rodman took tea with us & set the evening – feeling that the time is fast approaching when she will be separated from us, & take a New Name renderd the interview rather a serious cast. – Richard Rodman also came home with John & drank tea [–]re always pleased with his company – indeed I may say I am comforted with it, from a prospect [that?] if he continues to go on, as he seems to have been, he may make a useful man in the [–]& to society / –He has my hearty prayers for his welfare & so has all well inclined lads, and for him in particular my feelings are often much interested – he now seems hopeful & [sup]posed to conduct so as to insure the Esteem of his friends – & set value on it

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

309. Lemuel Shattuck's 1835 A HISTORY OF THE TOWN OF CONCORD;... Boston MA: Russell, Odiorne, and Company; Concord MA: John Stacy, 1835

(On or about November 11, 1837 Henry David Thoreau would indicate a familiarity with the contents of at least pages 2-3 and 6-9 of this historical study. On July 16, 1859 he would correct a date mistake buried in the body of the text.)

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 July 17, Thursday: US Secretary of State John Quincy Adams informed the Russian minister in Washington, Baron Tuyl, that his government would not recognize any Russian territorial claims in North America.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 17th of 7th M 1823 / Silent Meeting & I thought a low time generally, at the close of it was held our Select meeting, which was attended with a little more life, tho' far from being lively - times & seasons are not at our command - this morning my feelings were such as induced me to hope for a good Meeting from the State of Mind I then enjoyed. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 July 19, Saturday: Nahum Ball Onthank was born in Holliston, Massachusetts. His father William Newton Onthank was (according to a descendant of this family) a carpenter and farmer.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 19th of 7 M / This morning took John, crossed both ferrys & went to Willet Carpenters in Boston Neck, after setting his Clock to going, we went to cousin Hannah Gardiners to dinner, after setting with her & her family we crossed to Connanicut went to Hazard Knowles's & cleaned his Clock in season to get to Joseph Greenes to lodge. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 July 20, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

First Day after breakfast walked up to the Widow Mercy Weeden & from there went to Meeting, in the forepart of it my mind was wading in much leanness but towards the close life sprung up & to me the conclusion was satisfactory & solid. - we dined with Mercy Weeden - then walked up to John Carn[-] & from thence to the The old burying place of Friends where we spent some time - here I saw the Tomb stone of my Great Grand Father SAML CLARKE who died 18th of 10th M 1761 Aged 74 years 11 months & 26 days - having heard my mother speak frequently of him, rendered a visit to his grave interesting - also noticed the Grave of Walter Rodman, physician who died 20th of 7 M 1753 in the 34 Year of his age, & what struck me as remarkable was that I should happen to be at his grave exactly 70 years after his decease being on the 20th of 7 M 1823 - he was son of Doct [-] Rodman of Newport & married Rebecca Redwood afterwards the wife of Joseph Clarke own uncle to my mother & was own Uncle to my Wifes father C Rodman After our visit to this repository of the Dead we returned on foot to Joseph Greenes, after setting a while went over to Cousin Molly Howlands took tea & lodged. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

July 21, Monday: The United States navy was making brief landings along the coast of Cuba in this year, in pursuit of pirates. The landing on this date was at Cape Cruz.

US MILITARY INTERVENTIONS

Maria Szymanowska performed in Carlsbad, Bohemia on her 3-year concert tour of Europe.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day Rose early this morning & left cousin Howlands House before any of the family were up, went to Daniel Howlands & after rectifying his Clock, to the ferry, but finding the boat was not ready to Start went up to Caleb Weavers & took a bowl of Milk, returned, come over the ferry in Season to take a Dish of Coffee with my H -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 24, Thursday: Slavery was abolished in Chile.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 24 of 7 M 1823 / Two good testimonys at Meeting, the first by Hannah Dennis the other by Father Rodman. - In the [last?] the queries were answered & pertinent remarks made on [---] of them by D Buffum & J Dennis.-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 27, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day [Sunday] 27th of 7th M / A good favoured meeting this Morning -[-] after taking my seat my mind was preciously [-]hed with the arisings of life - towards the close Father Rodman deliverd a short, good testimony which [-]werd the feelings of my mind --In the Afternoon Father Rodman again engaged in a few [-] & a pretty good Meeting. - With my wife, sisters Ruth & Mary -set the evening at the late residence of David Williams with his daughters Mary & Amy - Altho' some trials await me & has occurd in the course [of this?] day Yet I may acknowledge it to be a day of [-]ly favour - for which I dessire to be thankful

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 31, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 31 of 7 M 1823 / Father Rodman & Hannah Dennis bore short testimonies, but good ones, in the first Meeting which was a Season of some favour in my mind. - In the last, we had a considerable buisness, but none out of the usual course, & all managed Harmoniously. Peter Lawton, Jn Holder, Mitchell Holder Weeden & Susan Anthony

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Dined with us. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 3, Sunday: George Gordon, Lord Byron arrived at Cephalonia.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 3rd of 8th M 1823 / Small Meeting in the Mornng in consequence of Rain - but three good testimonies Father Rodman
D Buffum & H Dennis —In the Afternoon Father Rodman & H Dannis were concerned to bear short testimonies*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 6, Wednesday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 6th of 8 M / This morning took Chaise & with my wife rode to Portsmouth & Attended the Select Quarterly Meeting & in the Afternoon the Meeting of Trustees of Obadiah Browns Benevolent fund. — Lodged at Uncle Thurstons —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

CRIMPING

August 7, Thursday: Henry Elkison, a free black British sailor, was seized in Charleston. –Crimping, but in reverse. The sense of the situation was that the presence of free blacks in this port might give ideas to the local black slaves. Despite British protests even the US Supreme Court would fail to obtain his release.

It is believed that the drawing on the basis of which this illustration would be engraved, was made in this port of Charleston in which Henry Elkison was being seized, in about this year:

The print would be engraved and published by William Keenan (132 King Street, Charleston) based on a drawing by Charles Blacker Vignoles, an English army officer who had arrived in 1817, had served as assistant surveyor general of South Carolina, and was in this year returning to England. The city skyline is marked by the steeple of St. Michael's Church, to the left, and the cupola of St. Philip's Church, in the center, which would burn in 1835. Castle Pinckney is offshore to the far right. Race slavery is of course ubiquitous in the sketch, and utterly invisible.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day attended the Quarterly Meeting at large which was a favourd time – Thos Anthony D Buffum & James Hazard preached in rotation & Anna Jenkins appeard in supplication at the close of The Meeting – We Dined at Uncle Stantons & rode home. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 10, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 10th of 8 M / In the forenoon The Meeting was Silent except that the London Epistle was read for the Year 1822 – In the Afternoon Silent & both Meetings measurably favourd. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

➡ August 12, Tuesday: Charles Henry Davis had spent only two years at Harvard College when he enlisted in the US Navy as a midshipman.³¹⁰ Between sea cruises he would return to his alma mater for the study of mathematics.

Hector Berlioz's 1st essay appeared in Le Corsaire.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 12th of 8 M / I feel disposed to insert that this morning my mind has been favour'd with the fresh arisings of life to my comfort. – Tho' much occupied in outward concerns – I have taken a survey of my early life & the remembrance of divers of my companions, now numbered with the dead was preciouslly revived

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ August 17, Sunday: "I spoke too loudly in the forenoon." The Reverend Convers Francis of Watertown exchanged pulpits for the day with the Reverend Ezra Ripley of Concord. His prooftext for the Concord morning service was 1st Corinthians 3:19 and his topic was "The Wisdom of the World." His prooftext for the afternoon service was Amos 6:1 and his topic was "On Moral Unconcern."

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

[–] day 17th of 8 M / Father Rodman & D Buffum were engaged in lively testimony in the Morning Meeting. In the Afternoon the Meeting was silent – Took tea [at] D Buffums. – Francis Shay of NewYork in compnay [-ith] whom we have had a few Days pleasant acquaintance, he appears to be a tender spirited young man & near as we can discover much of the right stamp upon [him].

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ August 1?: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

[–] day 1? of 8 M / This forenoon Francis Shay took leave of [us] for Providence & this Afternoon Saml Wood of [Ne]wYork & Elijah Coffin came from Connanicut to [brin]g information of Jeremiah

310. Since this was the year of the Great Rebellion at Harvard, one may legitimately suspect that there may have been a reason for this abrupt alteration in young Davis's life trajectory.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Hubbard's being their [there] [&] intending to be here tomorrow at a Meeting which [he] appointed at 5 OClock PM - They staid a little while & returned to Connanicut expecting to return tomorrow. -

[-d]ay 1? of 8 M / This Afternoon Sam Wood of NewYork & [Eli]jah Coffin of North Carolina came over from Connanicut to inform us that Our friend Jeremiah Hubbard was [-] & expected to attend a Meeting tomorrow Morning & another in Newport at 5OC in the Afternoon to be at Portsmouth on 4th day - We forwarded this immediately to Portsmouth & gave out the Meeting [at] Newport Accordingly.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 19, Tuesday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

[-] day 19th of 8 M / Our friend Jeremiah Hubbard & his com[pan]ion Elijah Coffin - attended by Saml Wood & wife [??] [-] from Connanicut this Afternoon & After taking a dish of [tea] with us went to Meeting which was attended by a number of the Inhabitants of the Town, but not so large [as cou]ld be wished -it was a time of favour, rhw [word] was preached with good Authority & Jeremiah was [fav]oured in the conclusion in Solemn Supplication. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 21, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 21st of 8th M 1823 / Our friend Jeremiah Hubbard not feeling clear of Newport, returned from Portsmouth last night to D Buffums & attended Meeting today general information being given - The Meeting was large, he was favoured to declare the Truth in the Ancient simplicity & soundness, with uncommon power & clearness. - his prayer exceeded any thing I have heard for years. -
He attended The Preparative Meeting & preached a little to the relief of my feelings - Jonathon Nichols of Salem gave information of his intentions of Marriage with Sister Elizabeth Rodman as did also Welcome Cong[don] of Providence with Mary Dennis. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

August 24, Sunday, evening: Waldo Emerson to his JOURNAL:

I rested this Sabbath day on the banks of the Quebog. Mr. Stone, a worthy Calvinist, who had been already recommended to my respect, by the hearty praises of my last-named landlord, preached all day, and reminded me forcibly of one of my idols, Dr. N. of Portland.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 22nd [?] of 8 M / Silent Meeting in the forenoon, which was a solid time. - At the conclusion of it I rode with Richard Mitchell to his house & dined, from thence walked to Uncle Stantons to See my Mother who has been there some time & desirous to see me, which I thought a reason for leaving Meeting & which I did in some streightness of Mind - After tea Uncle sent the Waggon to bring me home, rode as far as John Woods where [-?] chaise [-?]ome, [-]oining up took me along the rest of the Distance Set the evening with My H & Sister Ruth at Abigail Robinsons. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

HDTWHAT?INDEXFRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

August 28, Thursday: Giacomo Costantino Beltrami arrived at what he conjectured to be the source of the Mississippi River, as well as the Red River of the North, in what eventually would become the Minnesota Territory, naming the place Giulia after his deceased friend back in Italy, Giulia Spada dei Medici, and naming other lakes nearby after her eight children.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 28th of 8th M / Rode with my H to Portsmouth to attend the Monthly Meeting - went out the West Road stoped at Uncle Peter Lawtons - In the first Meeting [-] Dennis & Father Rodman bore short testimonies - [-] the last Jonathon Nichols of Salem published his intentions of Marriage with Sister Elizabeth Rodman & Welcome Congdon of Providence his intentions of marriage with Mary Dennis. - The young folk behaved with circumspection, their countenances bespeaking that [their] minds were impressed with the importance of the [-] State of life they were about to enter. - we dined at Uncle Thurstons, as did also Jonathon & Elizabeth, Father & Mother Rodman, David Buffum & wife, Brother David Rodman & his wife, & Sister Ruth & Mary Rodman. After dinner Rode down to Uncle Stantons & took tea with them, where I found My Mother ins usual health & spirits. - The Life of religion has been low with me today, but have made some [-ausens] after it, with a little success. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

On approximately this day, Waldo Emerson wrote in his JOURNAL:

Tuesday Morning I engaged Mr Bartlett to bring me to Mrs Shepard's.... After spending three days very pleasantly at Mrs Shepard's, among orators, botanists, mineralogists, & above all, Ministers, I set off on Friday Morning with Thos Greenough & another little cousin in a chaise to visit Mount Holyoke. How high the hill may be, I know not; for, different accounts make it 8, 12, & 16 hundred feet from the river. The prospect repays the ascent and although the day was hot & hazy so as to preclude a distant prospect, yet all the broad meadows in the immediate vicinity of the mountain through which the Connecticut [sic] winds, make a beautiful picture seldom rivalled. After adding our names in the books to the long list of strangers whom curiosity has attracted to this hill we descended in safety without encountering rattlesnake or viper that have given so bad fame to the place. We were informed that about 40 people ascend the mountain every fair day during the summer. After passing through Hadley meadows, I took leave of my companions at Northampton bridge, and crossed for the first time the far famed Yankee river.... In the afternoon I set out on my way to Greenfield intending to pass the Sabbath with George Ripley.... By the light of the Evening star, I walked with my reverend uncle [the Reverend Ripley], a man who well sustains the character of an aged missionary.... After a dreamless night, & a most hospitable entertainment I parted from Greenfield & through an unusually fine country, crossed the Connecticut (shrunk to a rivulet in this place somewhere in Montagu).... From Mr Haven's garret bed I sallied forth Tuesday mornng [sic] towards Hubbardston, but my cramped limbs made little speed. After dining in Hubbardston I walked seven miles farther to Princeton designing to ascend Wachusett with my tall cousin Thomas Greenough if I should find him there, & then set out for home in the next day's stage. But when morning came, & the stage was brought, and the mountain was a mile & a half away - I learned again an old lesson, that, the beldam Disappointment sits at Hope's door. I jumped into the stage & rode away, Wachusett untrod.... Close cooped in a stage coach with a score of happy dusty rustics the pilgrim continued his ride to Waltham, and alighting there, spent an agreeable evening at Rev. Mr Ripley's Home he came from thence the next morning, right glad to sit down once more in a quiet wellfed family - at Canterbury.

VENUS

GEORGE RIPLEY

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

August 31, Sunday: French troops stormed and conquered the Trocadero and entered Cadiz. This would be enough to restore King Ferdinand VII to power.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 31 of 8 M / Before I went to Meeting my mind was [nouri]shed with the Arising of Life - on taking my seat the same feelings were renew'd & desires raised that it might spread over the Meeting - early in the meeting Hannah Dennis was engaged in supplication - followed by Father Rodman in Testimony in which I thought life rose & spread over the meeting which was large & solid - small & silent in the Afternoon. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 1, Monday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 1 of 9 m 1823 / This Afternoon with David Buffum took the Steam boat for Providence in order to attend the meeting of the Sub - School Committee & a Meeting of the Trustees of Browns Benevolent Fund & arrived at Dorcas Browns in time to take a good dish of tea, where we found Moses Brown who took David in his Chaise & I walked to his house & lodged

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 4, Thursday: Jose Luyando replaced Juan Antonio Yandiola Garay as 1st Secretary of State of Spain.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal about the events of the previous day and night:

*3rd day 2nd of 9th M 1823 / After Breakfast We all went up to the School House, B Freeborn in addition, & attended the Meeting of the Sub committee - after Dining at the School House I left D Buffum & others there to attend the Meeting for Sufferings - & went into Providence to visit several of my friends - Jos Anthony among the Number - then returned to the School H & from thence to M Browns too tea & lodged - Next Morning Went into Providence & attended a Meeting of Obadiah Browns Benevolent find held at Wm Jenkins house where we dined. - took tea at Dorcas Browns & from thence D Buffum & I went on board the Steam boat at 6 OC PM with about 250 pasengers Night came on with a thick fog, & runing in the dark we went on the north point of Rose Island in a dangerous Situation, but fortunately no damage appeard to be done to the boat. - There we lay, not knowing where we were till day light, suffering much for want of Sleep, hunger & thirst till the tide rose in the Morning, when we got off, & arrived safe
I have been very sleepy & much fatigued all day & could not*

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

attend Meeting

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 5, Friday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 5th of 9 M / This afternoon when I went to Aunt Patty Goulds to remove her from one bed to another as has been my daily practice almost ever since her confinement I discovered her to be weaker & a little hoarse, which inclined me to think that her change was not far off. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 6, Saturday: James Madison responded reassuringly to Thomas Jefferson's letter of August 30th, assured him that "Nothing can be more absurd than the cavil that the Declaration contains known and not new truths. The object was to assert not to discover truths, and to make them the basis of the Revolutionary Act. The merit of the Draught," Madison offered, "could consist only in a lucid communication of human rights, a condensed enumeration of the reasons for such an exercise of them," and prose "in a style and tone appropriate to the great occasion, and to the spirit of the American people."³¹¹

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 6th of 9 M 1823 / In consequence of my being under necessity of attending the Proprietors Meeting I could not go to aunt Martha Goulds [Aunt Patty] as early in the day as usual but at 4 OC in the afternoon when the Meeting broke up [-]lled in with a view to perform my daily labour & found her too low to be moved. She seemed past notice of any thing but after a little while revived & seemed in much distress & if she knew me at all it was not long at a time. – I procured two good Watchers for the night [-] Knowles & James Mitchells Wife, which was all I could do for her

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 9, Tuesday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal of events since the previous Sunday:

1st day 7th of 9 M / Aunt Patty is living this Morning & so was not to be expected to survive the Day she lays very still, & notices nothing about her. I staid from [-ing] in the forenoon, to be there in case of a change Henry Gould staid in the Afternoon & I went to Meeting & she died about an hour after the Meeting broke, very easily & quietly, thus ending a life of more than 86 Years I have no doubt in peace with God & all men [few] Women having lived more exemplary lives tho' she was always poor, yet she exerted herself to get to meetings & was particularly careful to attend those in the middle of the week, & devoted

311. Smith, James Morton, ed., THE REPUBLIC OF LETTERS: THE CORRESPONDENCE BETWEEN THOMAS JEFFERSON AND JAMES MADISON, 1776-1826. NY, 1995, Volume III, page 1877

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

much time to the Service of Society, under various appointments for about 20 Years in the Station of an Overseer, in which appointment she was carefully zealous in supporting the Discipline, & the various testimonys which our Society bares to the world, in plainness of dress & address & in moderation & temperance in all things - such was her concern on these accounts that she often laboured with those young in years with acceptance, & such was her easy mode of address & care to abide in the life that she seldom gave offence to those with whom she had to labour tho' circumstances often lead to close & plain dealing, but had easy access & good place with most of the members of this preparative Meeting untill confined at home by Age & infirmity. She however got out & attended Meetings, occasionally till within three Years of her Death, - during her illness which was attended with much pain she manifested much christian patience, which considering her mind was previously much impair'd from age & infirmity is remarkable. - In her younger days she Possessed an uncommonly clear understanding, which however was much concealed from the world, from geat natural diffidence, from which circumstance her usefulness in life was not so conspicuous as it might have been however a strong desire faithfully to discharge every religious & social duty, often brought her forward both in Meetings for discipline & among her friends social circles.

On Third Day 9th of the M Her remains were decently interd in Friends burying ground near the Meeting House where her father Mother & Grandfather Benjamin Stanton were buried, after a quiet sold opportunity at the house - wherein a short testimony was born by Father Rodman

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 10, Wednesday: The Champlain Canal was completed at a cost of $875,000 (excluding the feeder to Glens Falls) finally connecting the Hudson River with Lake Champlain.

Lands belonging to Mary Jemison, the "White Woman of the Genesee," were sold to Micah Brooks and Jellis Clute for next to nothing.

Per the journal of Albert Gallatin's son James as recorded in THE DIARY OF JAMES GALLATIN:

Back again in Baltimore and most thankful. A horrible place on the Eastern shore of Maryland called Sennox, a wooden shanty to live in, food not so bad but we have to eat like pigs. When we arrived and saw what it was going to be like we commenced to laugh and we could not stop ourselves. The poor people thought we must be lunatics. Father has gone to his beloved Western Virginia alone. Albert is there. He is going to report to us how the beautiful new residence is progressing. They tell me Baltimore is very cheerful in the winter. It does not look much like it now. Mr. Patterson, Madame Bonaparte's father, has kindly invited us to dinner, fortunately the weather is much cooler. General Reubel and his wife have just called. They are living with Monsieur Pascault who has the beautiful daughter.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Johann Simon Mayr was elected president of the Ateneo, Bergamo.

The National Assembly of Peru named Simón Bolívar as supreme commander of the country.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 11th of 9 M 1823 / Short testimony from J Dennis - a [low?] time at Meeting. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 14, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day [Sunday] 14 of 9 M / Rather a trying Meeting both on account of my own low condition, & testimonys that were borne, which seemed of a doubtful cast. -it is said that ministers need the sympathy of their friends, & I think also [our?,the?] elders need the sympathy & prayers of the body, that they may be enabled to do their duty with propriety -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 16, Tuesday: Carl Maria von Weber traveled to Vienna for the premiere of Euryanthe.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 16th of 9 M / This evening recd a note from Abigail Robinson [cont]aining an extract of a letter from Mary Morton giving an [acco]unt of the Death of Joseph Rodman at Burlington N Jersey. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 17, Wednesday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*4th day 17 of 9 M / This Afternoon rec'd a letter from Stephen Grellett giving the particulars of Joseph Rodmans Decease - It appears he went to the House of the Widow Ann Myers on the 5th inst and friends Meeting in the afternoon on 1st day [Sunday]
& the next day was ill - he Died on the 10th & was buried on the 11th in [friends?] burying ground at Burlington N Jersey Aged 46 Years*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 18, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

5th day 18th of 9th M / Small & hard meeting to me. – One short testimony [con]cerning which I must suspend Judgement —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 21, Sunday: Joseph Smith, Jr. reported that he had been visited by an angel who called himself “Moroni.”

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 21st of 9 M / Our Morning Meeting was large, but soon after it settled I felt unwell & considered it unsafe for me [there?] so I came out & came home. – In the afternoon went again & was comfortable in body & mind, indeed it has been a day of favour for which I desire to be thankful. – Took tea with my H & John at Father Rodmans. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 22, Monday: Stanhope arrived at Argostoli.

Per the journal of Albert Gallatin's son James as recorded in THE DIARY OF JAMES GALLATIN:

I have seen Miss Pascault; Madame Bonaparte was right. I have never seen anything more lovely. As Madame Reubel has invited me to call I will certainly take advantage of her invitation.

Incidental music to Hell's play Ali Baba oder Die 40 Rauber by Heinrich August Marschner was performed for the initial time, in Dresden.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 25th of 9th M / Our Moy [Monthly] Meeting this day held in Town was a pretty good one. Anne Greene & A Sherman preached. – In the last Jonathon Nichols & Sister Elizabeth Rodman & Welcome Congdon rec'd their liberty to Marry according to the good order of Friends. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

[This volume of Friend Stephen Gould's journal ends at this point with a list of names: Ruth Hallack, Sarah Hull, Ruth Halsted, space, Olive Cobb, Lydia Purinton, Eunice Jones, Susan Collins, Sarah Collins, Edwd Cobb, Thos Jones, John Reid.]

October 2, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 2nd of 10th M 1823 / This day Jonathon Nichols and Sister Elizabeth Rodman Solemnized their marriage. The Meeting was very large, being attended by many of what is called the gentry of the Town – a part of the sitting was solemn, but so many present who were not acquainted with either our mode of Worship, or Marriage, occasioned some stir in the forepart of the Meeting,

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

also at the conclusion—. The Meeting, which was held in silence, excepting a Short address from J Dennis explaining the nexcessity of quietude to the Multitude.—

Divers of our friends went to the house to the Wedding, among whom was our Ancient & beloved friend David Buffum & his wife, & to me it was a pleasant Afternoon. Brother Jonathon & Sister Elizabeth, felt nearer to me than they had ever done -They conducted with true dignity of manners — I have no doubt they will do well, at least their desire is to do well & if they do well, they will be blessed. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 3, Friday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 3 of 10 M / We set this Afternoon at Brother David Rodmans with Br Jonathon & Sister Elizabeth - as the time draws near for her separation from us, my feelings are not a little excited at the Prospect. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 5, Sunday: While in Vienna for the premiere of Euryanthe, Carl Maria von Weber traveled to Baden to visit Ludwig van Beethoven.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 5th of 10 M / Our Morning Meeting was well attended Abigail Robinson was present & was favourd in Testimony to some length. — which is the first time of her appearance in that way for (I think) over two years & but very few times for some years past, her health being very feeble she has seldom been at Meeting. — a few words from Father Rodman in the Afternoon. — Br Jonathon & Sister Elizabeth Nichols took tea with us, being the last time, as they expect to set out for Salem tomorrow Morning. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 6, Monday: The 802-foot stone aqueduct over the Genesee River, constructed by David Stanhope Bates, opened in Rochester.

ERIE CANAL

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day Morning 6th of 10 M 1823 / Br Jonathon & Sister Elizabeth set out for their home this morning at 9 OC. — I could not go up to take leave of them - I felt too much to admit of my doing it without emotion — I desire their welfare & have no doubt they

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

desire ours. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 7, Tuesday: The volunteer firemen of the Pawtucket Engine Company No. 2 (the village of Pawtucket was then a part of the town of Seekonk, Massachusetts, which included the area that would eventually become East Providence, Rhode Island) “retired in good order after partaking of some excellent brandy and rum presented by Mr. J. Burbank when he was honorably discharged from the Company.”

In Newport, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 7 of 10 M / This Afternoon we attended the funeral of Mary Lee wife of Robert P Lee. She is a young woman whose loss is much lamented, of an Amiable & innocent life, cut short at the Age of 26 years & married one Year & about ten Months. - early in life she was Baptized in Water, according to the Sabatarian Society, but at her Marriage with R P Lee she was Satisfied to attend Friends Meeting with him. The funeral was conducted according to the order of Friends & her remains were interd in the upper burying place in the Medow Field. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 12, Sunday: Maria Szymanowska performed before 700 people in Leipzig on her 3-year concert tour of Europe.

Charles Macintosh of Scotland began selling raincoats.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 12th of 10 M / Both Meetings Silent. – the morning was a Season of some favour. – Spent part of the evening at the Mansion of the late David Williams in sympathy with his daughter Mary in her prospect of breaking up housekeeping & going to

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Narragansett to live with her brothers

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 October 16, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 16th of 10th M / This day was our Select Meeting, the first was silent, & both to me were low & depressed, tho' not devoid of some encouragement. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 October 18, Saturday: The Reverend William Ellery Channing delivered a speech "Remarks on National Literature" before the American Philosophical Association in Philadelphia, prefiguring Waldo Emerson's declaration of 1837 on this subject:³¹²

A people, into whose minds the thoughts of foreigners are poured perpetually, needs an energy within itself to resist, to modify this mighty influence, and, without it, will inevitably sink under the worst bondage, will become intellectually tame and enslaved.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 18 of 10 M / This evening recd Letters From our fr William Rickman of Rochester in England & our dear Sister Elizabeth R Nichols - the first that has been recd from her Since she has been at her new home in Salem, which gave a very Satisfactory account of her reception at her new home. For this I rejoice & the Language of my heart is "Peace & the God of Peace be with them, & with us, evermore Amen." Nothing very remarkable is contained in Wm Rickmans Letter, but it is pleasant to hear that he is well, & that Friends in that country are in unity. - & also to find that in his advanced age, he is alive in the Truth. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 October 19, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 19 of 10th M 1823 / Both Meetings Silent & both to me Seasons of some favour, & for the little Oh may I be thankful

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

312. This speech would see publication, but not until years later, in the Christian Examiner in 1830.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

October 23, Thursday: The United States navy was making brief landings along the coast of Cuba in this year, in pursuit of pirates. The landing on this date, the last for the year, was at Camrioca.

US MILITARY INTERVENTIONS

The Boston Weekly Messenger announced that at the recent cattle show in Brighton, John Thoreau, Senior's pencils made in Concord had won a $2.⁰⁰ prize.

In Philadelphia, Eastern State Penitentiary first opened its doors (or, rather, it being a prison, a better rendition would I suppose be that it first locked its doors and drew its blinds). Its initial inmate was "...Charles Williams, Prisoner Number One. Burglar. Light Black Skin. Five feet seven inches tall. Foot: eleven inches. Scar on nose. Scar on Thigh. Broad Mouth. Black eyes. Farmer by trade. Can read. Theft included one twenty-dollar watch, one three-dollar gold seal, one, a gold key. Sentenced to two years confinement with labor. Received by Samuel R. Wood, first Warden, Eastern State Penitentiary...."

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 23 of 10th M / A Short testimony by J Dennis & by me some favour experienced as well as Some tossings & roving of mind -
The epistle from the last Yearly, to the Subordinate Meetings was read in The Preparative meeting, & tho' I had heard it several times before, now seemed fresh - The Queries were answered as usual. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 26, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day - of 10 M / Stormy day & small silent Meetings - Some favour in the morning, & if a sense of nothingness was favour there was a large portion in the Afternoon. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 29, Wednesday: Franz Liszt and his family arrived in Augsburg where he would give three concerts over the next four days.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 29th 10 M / This Afternoon with my H rode to Portsmouth & lodged at Uncle Stantons. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 30, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day We went to Meeting with Aunt Stanton - The first was a solid good one in which David Buffum was engaged in a lively solemn testimony on the necessity of Watchfulness
In the last (Monthly) we had considerable business which I thought was well conducted, & ended satisfactorily. -*

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

We returned to Uncle Stanton's dined & staid all night. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 October 31, Friday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day This morning we set out for home, with the Wagon & a borrowed horse. Uncles being in use, but which proving perverse, refused at Sandford's corner to go at all, so we sent him back & walked home. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 November 2, Sunday: Per the journal of Albert Gallatin's son James as recorded in THE DIARY OF JAMES GALLATIN:

My suit is progressing. Josephine likes to hear about France. She plays delightfully both the harp and the spinet. I talk all sorts of nonsense which all lovers do. It has cheered her up as her youth has not been very cheerful.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 2 of 11 M 1823 / Silent Meetings, it is a low, distressingly low time It seems as if things are in a hard state. – There is however a reward for labour. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 November 6, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 6 11 M / Our friends have gone to Swansea to attend the Quarterly Meeting there. – This morning while sitting in the shop, reflecting on the subject precious feelings feelings were raised in my mind & the desire feelingly arose. – O Lord go with them that go, stay with them that stay. – – Silent but good meeting, for which I desire to be thankful

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

HDTWHAT?INDEXFRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

November 7, Friday: In a meeting of the cabinet of President James Monroe, Secretary of State John Quincy Adams successfully espoused the idea of accepting the suggestion of Great Britain (made on August 16 by their Foreign Secretary George Canning), that the European great powers be excluded from further conquests in the New World. Except, there was no need for Great Britain to assist in this ban. Instead, Great Britain would be among the Old World powers banned. We did not, of course, desire to “come in as a cockboat in the wake of the British man-of-war.”

A Nazi apologist, Carl Schmidt, would in 1941 aver that “The 1823 Monroe Doctrine was in the recent history of international law the first and to date most successful example of a regional [Großraum] international law. That is the real precedent for the German Reich” (VÖLKERREICHTLICHE GROßRAUMORDNUNG. Berlin: Deutscher Rechtsverlag, page 13). —But then, everyone knows that those Nazis were lying sacks of shit.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day [7?]th of 11 M 1823 / Br David Rodman has returned from Quarterly Meeting & has been in this Afternoon & gave us a very pleasant account of it, as a season of unusual favour – Our friend Isaac Stevenson from England was there & appeared in the Ministry, evincing his experience in the School of Christ, by the power of his testimony & exemplary deportment – David also handed me a little paper messenger of love dated 7M 1 which I Stevenson brought from my friend Thos Thompson of Liverpool, & tho' it contained nothing but his love, & unsealed, was very pleasant & acceptable. – The Account of this Quarterly Meeting has had a strengthening effect on my mind – it has raised in it feelings which I always count precious. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 9, Sunday: Gioachino Rossini entered Paris for the initial time, on his way to England (the city would become very important to him in his later life).

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 9 of 11 M / Both Meetings were seasons of close exercise to me & I trust proffitable – self was closely examined. – In the forenoon Hannah Dennis bore testimony to the efficacy of Divine Truth, satisfactorily to me. – In the Afternoon we had the company of Sarah Tucker & Susan Howland of Bedford country. – They both bore Solemn & impressive testimony which I trust will be remembered. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 13, Thursday: Rachel Harrington LeGross sold the Brister's Hill property she had acquired for $20 from Brister Freeman, to William Lawrence of Weston for $10.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 12 of 11 M / Small comfortable Meeting. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 16, Sunday: A gigantic banquet was given in Paris by the city's leading artists in honor of Gioachino Rossini in the Restaurant du Veau Qui Tette. 150 guests attended including Adrien Boieldieu, Daniel-Francois-Esprit Auber, and Ferdinand Herold, and many singers, actors, and artists.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day rode to Meeting with her & went to Adam Anthonys to dine, which is the first time I have been at his House since he has moved into his new house & the first time since his marriage – Walked over to Cousin Shadrach Chases & took tea, after which he kindly sent his son Jacob to bring me about half way home, &

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*I walked the rest of the Distance
It has of late been a season of favour to me which I desire to mention with gratitude. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 17, Monday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 17 of 11 M / Last 7th day afternoon I Rode to Portsmouth with Aunt Stanton & lodged. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 18, Tuesday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day [sic] 18 of 11 M / This evening with my Wife & Sister Ruth went on board the Ship Robinson Potter to visit the Passengers about 38 in number from the Kingdom of England & Ireland & the Principality of Wales & were much interested with their Situation & appearance. The Women & children looked healthy & sprightly & tho' all in the Ships stearage together & rather uncomfortable were generally happy – by which it is certain in my mind, that it is more the mind than ther situation that makes us happy.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 20, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 20th of 11th M 1823 / Silent Meeting & to me not an unfavourable time – I desire to be thankful for favour vouchsafed. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 23, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 23rd of 11th M / In the forenoon D Buffum was much favour'd in testimony – He recommended the attentive & Serious perusal of the scriptures & held up the general doctrines of religion in a lively & impressive manner. – Silent in the Afternoon.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 30, Sunday: Franz Schubert wrote to Schober that “my health, thank God, was firmly restored at last.”

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 30th of 11th M / In the forenoon Meeting D Buffum was engaged in lively testimony – but to me the Meeting was a poor

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

time - More favourd in the Afternoon tho' nearly silent. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

December 2, Tuesday: Carlos Martinez de Irujo y Tacon, marques de Casa-Irujo, duque de Sotomayor replaced Victor Damian Saez y Sanchez-Mayor as 1st Secretary of State of Spain.

The doctrine expressed in President James Monroe's 7th annual message to Congress closed "the American continents to colonial settlements by non-American Powers" and excluded "the European Powers from all interference in the political affairs of the American Republics":

[see following]

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

READ THE FULL TEXT

Our President, in his address to the US Congress declaring our first formal foreign policy, also specifically excluded the government of the island of Haiti from protection under his Monroe Doctrine on the interesting traditional basis of its being “a Government of people of color.” Since black people could not trust white people, his reasoning went, and since the governments of the community of nations were made up of white people, the government of Haiti would inevitably exhibit “a separate interest and a distrust of other nations” — and could not therefore itself be trusted.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 2 of 12 M 1823 / In Silent waiting this morning, some touches of life were experienced - & sympathy arose with Friends in a trial which I am informed awaits them at their Quarterly Meeting held there tomorrow

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 7, Sunday: Gioachino Rossini and his wife left Paris heading for London.

Concerto for two pianos in E by Felix Mendelssohn was performed for the initial time, at the Mendelssohn residence in Berlin. One of the invited guests was Friedrich Kalkbrenner.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 7 of 12 M / Our Mornng Meeting was large & to me favoured a short testimony from Susannah Bateman & Hannah Dennis Silent in the Afternoon. -- Set the eveng with my H & Sister Ruth at Henry Gould who gave us some account of the late Quarterly Meeting at New Bedford which he & his wife attended - it appears Truth stood its ground, tho' some bitter herbs were eaten by those who are rightly concerned for the support of our Testimonys

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 11, Thursday: Franz Liszt and his father arrived in Paris.

William Prout read his paper “On the nature of the acid and saline matters usually existing in the stomachs of animals” before the Royal Society in London. In it he clearly demonstrated that hydrochloric acid was the agent of digestion.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 11th of 12th M / A good solid meeting, a considerable number attended in consequence of Welcome Congdon & Mary Dennis's Marriage, which they solemnized in a becoming manner Jonathon & Hannah Dennis had short offerings. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

December 14, Sunday: Dr. Walter Oudney and Lieutenant Hugh Clapperton set out in a westerly direction for the Hausa states, to explore the course of the Niger River. Dixon Denham would explore the vicinity of Lake Chad and the lower courses of the Waube, Logone, and Shari rivers and participated in several Bornuese military raids on neighboring tribes.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 14th of 12 M / Both meetings were Silent, but seasons of some favour for which I desire to be thankful. – Set part of the eveng at Br David Rodmans in pleasant conversation. – My wife has been so unwell for several Days that she has not been out to Meeting

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 17, Wednesday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 17th of 12 M / Have this afternoon recd a long letter from my dear frd Thos Thompson of Liverpool dated 9th M 29th it contained much interesting Matter & the Packet contained Several Pamphlets &c with a view of Liverpool Meeting House, Swarthmore Meeting House & a view of the Chair which G F left as an heir loom. – & a likeness of Richd Reynolds

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

December 21, Sunday: Waldo Emerson to his JOURNAL:

Who is he that shall controul [sic] me? Why may not I act & speak & write & think with entire freedom? What am I to the Universe, or, the Universe, what is it to me? Who hath forged the chains of Wrong & Right, of Opinion & Custom? And must I wear them? Is Society my anointed King? Or is there any mightier community or any man or more than man, whose slave I am? I am solitary in the vast society of beings; I consort with no species; I indulge no sympathies. I see the world, human, brute & inanimate nature; I am in the midst of them, but not of them; I hear the song of the storm – the Winds & warring Elements sweep by me – but they mix not with my being. I see cities & nations & witness passions – the roar of their laughter – but I partake it not; – the yell of their grief – it touches no chord in me; their fellowships & fashions, lusts & virtues, the words & deeds they call glory & shame – I disclaim them all. I say to the Universe, Mighty one! thou art not my mother; Return to chaos, if thou wilt, I shall still exist. I live. If I owe my being, it is to a destiny greater than thine. Star by Star, world by world, system by system shall be crushed – but I shall live.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 21st of 12 M 1823 / Solid good testimonys in the Mornng from D Buffum & H Dennis – Nearly silent in the Afternoon – My mind not wholly destitute of good, but a low time, Oh that I may receive half from whence it is only to be substantially derived. Set the evening mostly with our fr Abigail Robinson, by whom I learned the Severe illness of her Sister Mary Morton. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 22, Monday: Franz Liszt performed in Paris to sensational audience and critical response (he would perform in Paris no less than 38 times before the following April).

Edward Sherman Hoar was born.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 22nd of 12 M / Recd this Afternoon a packet of information with a letter from Wing Russel of New Bedford, where there appears to be new troubles among the disturbers of Society. –

This evening have recd News of the Death of our old & affectionate friend Elizabeth Towle on the 10th inst after about two weeks of illness. She died at Nazareth Pennsylvania where she resided with her husband Saml Towle, Since they left this

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

From James Monroe's 7th Annual Message to Congress:

... At the proposal of the Russian Imperial Government, made through the minister of the Emperor residing here, a full power and instructions have been transmitted to the minister of the United States at St. Petersburg to arrange by amicable negotiation the respective rights and interests of the two nations on the northwest coast of this continent. A similar proposal has been made by His Imperial Majesty to the Government of Great Britain, which has likewise been acceded to. The Government of the United States has been desirous by this friendly proceeding of manifesting the great value which they have invariably attached to the friendship of the Emperor and their solicitude to cultivate the best understanding with his Government. In the discussions to which this interest has given rise and in the arrangements by which they may terminate the occasion has been judged proper for asserting, as a principle in which the rights and interests of the United States are involved, that the American continents, by the free and independent condition which they have assumed and maintain, are henceforth not to be considered as subjects for future colonization by any European powers.... It was stated at the commencement of the last session that a great effort was then making in Spain and Portugal to improve the condition of the people of those countries, and that it appeared to be conducted with extraordinary moderation. It need scarcely be remarked that the results have been so far very different from what was then anticipated. Of events in that quarter of the globe, with which we have so much intercourse and from which we derive our origin, we have always been anxious and interested spectators. The citizens of the United States cherish sentiments the most friendly in favor of the liberty and happiness of their fellow-men on that side of the Atlantic. In the wars of the European powers in matters relating to themselves we have never taken any part, nor does it comport with our policy to do so. It is only when our rights are invaded or seriously menaced that we resent injuries or make preparation for our defense. With the movements in this hemisphere we are of necessity more immediately connected, and by causes which must be obvious to all enlightened and impartial observers. The political system of the allied powers is essentially different in this respect from that of America. This difference proceeds from that which exists in their respective Governments; and to the defense of our own, which has been achieved by the loss of so much blood and treasure, and matured by the wisdom of their most enlightened citizens, and under which we have enjoyed unexampled felicity, this whole nation is devoted. We owe it, therefore, to candor and to the amicable relations existing between the United States and those powers to declare that we should consider any attempt on their part to extend their system to any portion of this hemisphere as dangerous to our peace and safety. With the existing colonies or dependencies of any European power we have not interfered and shall not interfere. But with the Governments who have declared their independence and maintain it, and whose independence we have, on great consideration and on just principles, acknowledged, we could not view any interposition for the purpose of oppressing them, or controlling in any other manner their destiny, by any European power in any other light than as the manifestation of an unfriendly disposition toward the United States. In the war between those new Governments and Spain we declared our neutrality at the time of their recognition, and to this we have adhered, and shall continue to adhere,

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Yet more from James Monroe's 7th Annual Message to Congress:

The late events in Spain and Portugal shew that Europe is still unsettled. Of this important fact no stronger proof can be adduced than that the allied powers should have thought it proper, on any principle satisfactory to themselves, to have interposed by force in the internal concerns of Spain. To what extent such interposition may be carried, on the same principle, is a question in which all independent powers whose governments differ from theirs are interested, even those most remote, and surely none of them more so than the United States. Our policy in regard to Europe, which was adopted at an early stage of the wars which have so long agitated that quarter of the globe, nevertheless remains the same, which is, not to interfere in the internal concerns of any of its powers; to consider the government de facto as the legitimate government for us; to cultivate friendly relations with it, and to preserve those relations by a frank, firm, and manly policy, meeting in all instances the just claims of every power, submitting to injuries from none. But in regard to those continents circumstances are eminently and conspicuously different. It is impossible that the allied powers should extend their political system to any portion of either continent without endangering our peace and happiness; nor can anyone believe that our southern brethren, if left to themselves, would adopt it of their own accord. It is equally impossible, therefore, that we should behold such interposition in any form with indifference. If we look to the comparative strength and resources of Spain and those new Governments, and their distance from each other, it must be obvious that she can never subdue them. It is still the true policy of the United States to leave the parties to themselves, in hope that other powers will pursue the same course....

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Town. -her attentions to us & many more they left in this place will never be forgotten, in sickness she was Attentive & Affectionate, & as a companion pleasant & instructive both in deportment & conversation.-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 25, Thursday: Narciso de Heredia y Begines, Conde de Ofalia replaced Carlos Martinez de Irujo y Tacon, marques de Casa-Irujo, duque de Sotomayor as 1st Secretary of State of Spain.

Two works for chorus and organ by Samuel Wesley were performed for the initial time, in St. Paul's Cathedral, London: Magnificat and Nunc dimittis.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 25 of 12 M / Rode to Portsmouth in the Stage to attend Moy [Monthly] Meeting - The first was a favoured Meeting & Hannah Dennis was engaged in a lively testimony. - In the last there was not much life, but the buisness was pretty well conducted. - Wnet to Uncle Stantons, dined lodged & next Morning Walked home. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 28, Sunday: George Gordon, Lord Byron left for Missolonghi.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 28 of 12 M / Silent & to me good Meetings - Sister Ruth & Richard Rodman took tea with us. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 30, Tuesday: Auf dem Wasser zu singen D.774, a song by Franz Schubert to words of Stolberg, was published in the Zeitschrift fur Kunst, Vienna.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 30th of 12th M 1823 / I am this day 42 Years of Age - It has been a Day of seriousness to me, - but I do not know whether it is Worth while to say much about it. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 31, Wednesday: Georgios Andreou Koundouriotis replaced Petros Iliou Mavromichalis as President of the Executive of Greece.

Per the journal of Albert Gallatin's son James as recorded in THE DIARY OF JAMES GALLATIN:

To-night we all sup with Monsieur Pascault to see the New Year in. It is father's first visit to the house. I am anxious to see how he treats Reubel.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*4th day 31st of 12 M / I feel, Sensibly that the present Year has closed & that another of my life is gone – How do I desire more spiritual communion with my God. – Many have gone down to the grave this year & some of my intimate friends & relations.
– May I be prepared for the change come when it may –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

“NARRATIVE HISTORY” IS FABULATION, HISTORY IS CHRONOLOGY

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1824

January 1, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 1st of 1st M 1824 / Our Meeting today was as well attended as usual for this season of the Year — it was a very quiet & even solemn opportunity. I do not recollect when I have observed more of the precious covering in which my mind was favoured to partake for which I desire to be thankful — Hannah Dennis was engaged in a very lively & pertinent testimony — this appears to me to be a good beginning for the New Year. —³¹³

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 4, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 4th of 1 M / Our Morning Meeting was large & solid, after a few expressions from Anne Dennis - D Buffum rose & delivered a bright lively & sound testimony of greater length than usual for him of late, he observed He had not found it his place often to enter in Polemic divinity in a public way, nor did he now apprehend he had much to say upon it, but as his mind had been drawn to view as certain doctrine which was much inculcated, & contrast it with what he considered substantial Truth, he could but cite the minds of those present to one leading feature of the Doctrine which was "that the Almighty had created a certain portion of Mankind to endless misery without any possible remedy" he hoped none present believed it, & then went on to illustrate the truth & encouraged all to walk in its paths. — In the Afternoon we were silent & tho' the meeting was larger

313. Stephen Wanton Gould Diary, 1823-1829: The Gould family papers are stored under control number 2033 at the Division of Rare and Manuscript Collections of Cornell University Library, Box 8 Folder 13: October 2, 1823-March 6, 1829; also on microfilm, see Series 7.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

than usual was a season of but little life tho' a quiet setting & I thought a little favour extended.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 8, Thursday: Ludwig van Beethoven sent a conciliatory letter to his sister-in-law Johanna van Beethoven, offering financial assistance.

There had been considerable controversy but when the Royal Society put the matter to a vote, there was only one vote cast against accepting Michael Faraday as a new member.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 8th of 1st M 1824 / Favoured this morning with the precious arisings of life in my mind, for which I desire to be thankful – Silent Meeting & a good time, being favourd to feel –various subjects of an exercising nature were presented to view.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 11, Sunday: Franz Liszt improvised at the piano at a meeting of the Societe Academique des Enfants d'Apollon in Paris. They made him an honorary member.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 11th of 1 M / The weather was very unpleasant, rain & wet walking – Meetings Small & Silent – In the forenoon a low time to me – was a little more favourd in the Afternoon for which I desire to be thankful, for a little help in the needful time.
–The Charge of the Meeting falling on me – Henry Gould taking his seat with me.*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 15, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 15th of 1st M 1824 / In the Public meeting, J Dennis had a few words to deliver – it was a meeting of exercise to me, &
I hope not an unprofitable one –*

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

In the last, which was our Select Meeting - we had some exercise, & not as much life as I have felt on some such occasions.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 18, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1 day 18th of 1st M / Both Meetings silent & solid & I trust to me were in good measure profitable seasons. -

January 20, Tuesday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 20th of 1st M / Heard this Afternoon of the Decease of our old friend & neighbour Samuel Towle at Nazareth in Pennsylvania on the 1st day of this M aged 66 Years 1 M & 5 days having survived his wife only twenty two Days - he was a man of a remarkably Meek & quiet spirit, in whose company I have enjoyed many precious feelings, & many instructive hours - I had an intimate acquaintance with him & his wife during most of the time of their residence in this Town, which was about 14 Years & tho not one in profession of Religion, yet our feelings were often united in the best sense. I remember he several times remarked to me, that "The first time he saw me I got on his books & he found he could not easily get me off."

*This evening Hannah Robinson called to see us, who is now living in the family of Wm Hunter, she is a woman of colour & member of Society, belonging to S Kingston Moy [Monthly] Meeting - her spirit seemd solid & very weighty, & savoured of much sweetness.
I know not when I have been in company with any one with whom my spirit felt more united.*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 22, Thursday: On George Gordon, Lord Byron's birthday he authored some "Lines on Completing My Thirty-Sixth Year."

NEW POETRY OF 1824

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 22 of 1 M / Our Meeting was a season of favour to some,
I have no doubt, but as to myself I was very poor - Hannah Dennis was much favoured in a stimulating testimony to faithful labour, seldom have I heard her more acceptably - In the Preparative Meeting which followed - we answered the Queries & proposed Overseers of the Poor to the Moy [Monthly] Meeting
Sister Mary & Hannah Lawton set the eveng.*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 25, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*1st day 25th of 1st M 1824 / Silent Meeting, none of the Most lively to my feelings, tho' there was a good degree of Solemnity
-Took tea & spent part of the evening at D Buffums. -*

En route between Hawaii and Tahiti, a year into the Pacific voyage of the Martha's Vineyard whaler Globe (renown for having been the 1st ship to take 2,000 barrels of oil), late at night there was a mutiny.

One of the ship's boatsteerers, Samuel B. Comstock, was the birthright Quaker first child of a birthright Quaker father from Burrillville, Rhode Island, Friend Nathan Comstock, and a Quaker mother, Friend Elizabeth Emmet Comstock, living on Nantucket Island and then in New-York. This young scion of a privileged and responsible and religious family, having been given the benefit of a guarded Quaker education at Nine Partners, having the world at his feet, had determined that none of this was enough to satisfy himself with his life. He wanted all this plus adequate carousing and swiving. He had therefore equipped himself with the sorts of things he supposed he would need in order to recreate himself as a libertine chieftain on a South Seas atoll — things such as garden seeds.

He persuaded four companions and on this night, with a hatchet, Friend Samuel laid open the head of the sleeping captain, Thomas Worth, with an ax. Silas Payne, one of the new men who had signed aboard in Hawaii, was attempting to use a knife on the ship's 1st Mate, William Beetle, and was doing such an inadequate job of it that Friend Samuel needed to join in with his ax. The other two Comstock brothers took no part in the mutiny. (This would be written up by William Lay in conjunction with Friend Cyrus Hussey, Jr., a Nantucket Quaker who survived the mutiny, but in general the incident would become another forbidden topic in the community.)

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

DEMON OF THE WATERS.

THE TRUE STORY OF THE MUTINY ON THE WHALESHIP GLOBE.

BY GREGORY GIBSON.

ILLUSTRATIONS BY ERIK RONNBERG AND GARY TONKIN.

BOSTON: LITTLE, BROWN AND COMPANY, 2002

Reviewed by Rob Rulon-Miller

In a world where death is as certain as the setting sun, and is as perniciously random as the scattering of galaxies, it's no wonder that death -tragic and unexpected death- is the lifeblood of so much literature and history. I note in passing today's Sunday New York Times cover story on the horrific final minutes of those top-floor employees in the World Trade Towers as recorded in their desperate calls from cell phones or email messages - calls not so much for help as calls already from the afterlife. I also note but will not elaborate on Mr. Gibson's own life-altering foray into the nether world and back: his struggle to cope with the tragic death of his son Galen, who was murdered by a fellow student in a random act of violence at Simon's Rock College in Great Barrington, Massachusetts, in 1992, a journey Mr. Gibson brilliantly recounted in his critically acclaimed GONE BOY: A WALKABOUT (Kondansha International, 1999).

In DEMON OF THE WATERS, Gibson revisits death, examining the murderous and most bloody mutiny that occurred 175 years ago on board the whaleship Globe, where the loved sons of mothers and fathers were savagely mauled and killed. Successive generations have been captivated by the gruesome event, and it remains, arguably, the most disturbing case in the annals of American maritime history. The Globe mutiny has been well-documented and often recounted in maritime anthologies as well as in contemporaneous accounts, including two by the brother of the perpetrator, William Comstock (one in manuscript, one published), and another by two of the survivors, William Lay and Cyrus Hussey. The story falls into Mr. Gibson's lap with the discovery, in Indiana of all places, of a previously unlocated journal recounting the subsequent rescue of the stranded crew on the Marshall Islands in the western Pacific.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

The antagonist of the story, Samuel Comstock, is a young man - a mere teenager when we first meet him- at sixes and sevens with his Quaker upbringing on Nantucket, nothing but a burden for his family and an annoyance to any friends he might have had. When his family moved to Manhattan from Nantucket, Samuel fell in with a street gang named the Downtowners, "who passed their time battling the rival Corlears Hookers. In the manner of many troubled youths, Samuel kept his own hours and often came home late at night, bloody and bruised." To keep Samuel from straying further, his father found him a berth on a merchant ship bound for Liverpool. Four months later Samuel was home again, and to his repertoire of extracurricular activities he now added the chasing of women. The strict Quaker school he was sent to in Poughkeepsie did little more than harden him against authority. Whoring and street fighting were in his blood, and it seems there was little to do with him. Before finally shipping on the Globe, Comstock filled out his teenage years by sailing on the Beaver with a shipment of arms for rebels in Chile and then on the Nantucket whaler George after having spent "some months ... languishing in a Chilean jail" for gunrunning.

The captain of the Globe was Thomas Worth, and at age 29, it was his first command. The ship was manned by a crew of twenty, not one of them older than 26 and half of them teenagers. Samuel Comstock at the time was a mere twenty years old, although already well beyond his years. Departing Martha's Vineyard in December 1822, the Globe followed a usual course to the Pacific, which meant sailing east towards the Azores and the Cape Verdes, where ships would pick up the northeast trade winds that would blow them south and west towards Cape Horn. Ordinarily ships would stop in the Azores or the Cape Verdes for supplies, but because Captain Worth was delayed in leaving and anxious to get to the Pacific whaling grounds in season, he chose not to put in at either group and continued sailing towards the Horn.

In the south Atlantic the Globe captured its first whale, and it is here we learn from Samuel's younger brother, William, who was also on board, that "contact with the whale oil caused Samuel great distress, 'filling him with biles and inflaming his flesh.'" By March of 1823, the Globe rounded the Horn and headed up the South American coast towards Valparaiso, a usual stopping point for provisioning and relaxation after the arduous passage. But again, Captain Worth chose not to stop, and instead continued to head towards the rich whaling fields off the coast of Japan. By May, after five continuous months at sea, the Globe arrived at Hawaii; nor did she stop here. Nonetheless, provisions -including women- were brought from shore. Captain Worth forbade the women to spend the night, but Samuel Comstock disobeyed the order, and the next morning, according to William, "Lady Comstock made her appearance, emerging from steerage, with an air of great dignity, dressed in a new Scotch bonnet...." Captain Worth made no remark, and it was apparent to the rest of the crew that Samuel was becoming a favorite of the captain. "However," writes Gibson, "by allowing Samuel to openly flout his authority, Worth weakened his credibility and risked disrupting his relations" with the rest of the crew, and "alienated Samuel, a recipient of special privileges, from the mates."

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

By summer the Globe had reached the hallowed cruising grounds off Japan. Here, they spent nearly five months chasing whales, but it was not a very successful hunt. "During these months of hard work and unspectacular results, the situation on board the Globe began to deteriorate. Samuel Comstock did his best to rock the boat." A wrestling match ensued between Comstock and the third mate, Nathaniel Fisher, which Comstock lost, a humiliating defeat he did not readily forget. On another occasion, one of the crew was put in irons, and on another, the cook was struck by the captain, both incidences on account of Comstock. There were complaints all around by the crew about the meager rations; even so, the crew complained that they didn't have enough time in which to eat them. So, after not having set foot on land for nearly a year, after being confined for that long to ninety feet of boat with twenty other men, the crew of the Globe returned from the Japan grounds and put in at last at Hawaii. Gibson writes, "All the ingredients for insurrection were there ... indifferent success, bad food, capricious exercise of authority by an inexperienced captain, bullying and physical beatings from the officers, long confinement aboard the ship with no liberty, and the concerted, pernicious influence of a malcontent." On Hawaii six of the crew -it's amazing the number was as small as it was- deserted, and the replacements Captain Worth found ashore -"a rough set of cruel beings" in the words of George Comstock- "seemed so spectacularly ill chosen that one has to wonder about Thomas Worth's grasp of human nature." Of the seven replacements, five were eventually involved in the mutiny.

On December 9, 1823, the Globe departed Hawaii to hunt whales along the Equator. The captain was edgy and the crew tense. There was a flogging by Captain Worth of Joseph Thomas, who had signed on in Hawaii. Comstock took the side of Thomas, and -this being the last straw- with four other conspirators, in the very early morning hours of January 26, 1824, went down into Captain Worth's cabin and, in the sentence we've been waiting for, brought down an axe, "with such force that it nearly severed the top of the captain's head from his body." Silas Payne, who had also shipped in Hawaii, went after the first mate, William Beetle, with a knife, but he botched the job. Comstock was left to finish it by placing the axe in the mate's skull. Beetle was left "gurgling in his own blood and brains." Nor was this all. Samuel Comstock, the putative captain now, in the next twelve hours managed to shoot, bayonet, stab, disembowel, and throw overboard a total of five men, including the three mates and a black man, William Humphries, who for good measure was hanged from the foreyard for attempting to aid those who has been brutalized.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

The mutineers and the rest of the stunned and stupefied crew then sailed west to what is now Mili Atoll at the southern end of the Marshall Islands. Comstock, in what at this point in the story seems like a workaday chore, was murdered by his co-conspirator, Silas Payne, for bribing the natives with precious provisions from the ship. Less than a week later, six of the innocent crew serendipitously escaped in the Globe and managed to sail some 7000 miles across the Pacific to Valparaiso and safety.

Fast forward to Vevay, Indiana, where in 1978 a local book scout, Jay Small, and his younger partner, John Mullins, unearthed a handwritten account dated 1825 by a sailor on board the Dolphin, a United States naval vessel. The Dolphin had been ordered to sail to the Marshall Islands, at the insistence of no less than Presidents James Monroe and John Quincy Adams, to capture the mutineers and learn of their fate. This journal found its way into the hands of ABAA dealer Owen Kubik, who in turn sold it to Gibson. (It is now at the Kendall Whaling Museum.) It contains an eyewitness account by one Augustus Strong, midshipman, of the rescue of the only two survivors on Mili Atoll, Cyrus Hussey and William Lay, and recounts the story they told on their voyage back to civilization. Gibson's book brings the Augustus Strong account to the public for the first time, and for this reason alone the book will stand as one of the most important scholarly works on the terrible event. But, in fact, this journal occupies a minor part of the story as published, much of the recounting of its surfacing having ended up on the editor's floor. As these two expunged chapters may be of interest to our readers, they will run in concurrent issues of this Newsletter.

Gibson is becoming a seasoned, if not a flashy writer. His sentences move at an even pace, and his style is more that of a four-wheel drive Land Rover than a turbo-charged Ferrari. On the surface the facts of this story are practically unbelievable, but Gibson is very adept at making all the bizarreness and surreality of this debacle of a voyage seem possible – even plausible. He teaches us the ways of the sea and the sailor. The passion and intensity that suffuses GONE BOY is not so apparent here, but death on the Globe could never be so close and personal. Nonetheless, the recounting of the mutiny itself is gripping, and Gibson fixes it firmly in the historical context of American interests in the Pacific in the first quarter of the nineteenth century. The thirty-odd pages of Notes at the back are helpful and informative, and the extensive bibliography attests to Gibson's penchant for meticulous research. If there is a flaw in the book, it may be that it was over-researched. Some of the early chapters, especially those on Quaker mores and the building of the Globe, seem a little ponderous, as does the chapter on the management of whaleships and the business of whaling. But my tastes notwithstanding, these arcanæ must be addressed for the mutiny to be understood in full, and Gibson is successful in getting all the essential information on the page with only minor irritation. The illustrations by Erik

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Ronnberg and Gary Tonkin are appealing, if not striking, and I would have liked to have seen more illustrations from contemporary sources.

January 29, Thursday: William Kneass became the 2d chief engraver for the US mint (until 1840) at an annual salary of $2,000.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 29th of 1st M / Our Moy [Monthly] Meeting this day held in Newport was large, the weather being very pleasant Portsmouth Friends pretty well came in. – In the first meeting Anne Dennis, Hannah Dennis & Ruth Freeborn bore acceptable testimonys, but nevertheless, I thought life was low generally over the Meeting –

In the last we had much buisness & some of it of a trying nature, but it appeard to me things were pretty well managed & so ended –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 31, Saturday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 31st of 1st M / Attended the funeral of Mary Nichols daughter of the late Walter Nichols – The sitting was unusually solemn & quiet in which D Buffum bore a testimony Savory & very acceptable to friends & the family of the deceased – The family tho' not Members are dilligent attenders of our Meeting on first Days –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 1, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 1 of 2 M 1824 / Our Meetings were solemn & quiet, tho' silent all Day – We took tea & set the evening at Father Rodmans – John having gone to Portsmouth to stay the rest of the Week while we go to Providence to attend the Quarterly Meeting, which we intend to do health & weather permitting. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 3, Tuesday: In Berlin, Carl Friedrich Zelter publicly announced that his student Felix Mendelssohn had completed his apprenticeship and called him to the world of independent composers (this was Felix's 15th birthday).

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 3 of 2nd M / This Morning got into the Stage with our frd David Buffum & rode to Providence to attend the Quarterly Meeting, we had a pleasant ride & arrived there in season, he

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

going to lodge at Dorcas Browns & I went out to my old friend Moses Browns where as usual I was kindly rec'd. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 4, Wednesday: There is now an allegation all over the internet, that on this day Boston inventor "J.W. Goodrich" introduced "rubber galoshes" to the public. I do not have any information that corroborates that this person "J.W. Goodrich" actually existed, and I do not have any information that corroborates that anything interesting happened during this year in regard to rubber galoshes, either in Boston or elsewhere. Galoshes had been in use long prior to this year, made sometimes of rubberized cloth, and I think it was only long afterward that the name came to be spelled "galoshes" rather than "goloshes," as in Hans Christian Anderson's 1838 story "The Goloshes of Fortune." If you desire to believe this internet story, please do come up with some corroborating details — such as what the initials "J.W." were supposed to stand for plus a birth date and a death date for said inventor, or such as an actual period advertisement for said product.

L'ajo nell'imbarazzo, a melodramma giocoso by Gaetano Donizetti to words of Ferretti after Giraud, was performed for the initial time, in Teatro Valle, Rome.

There is still in existence at Cornell Library a document bearing this date. It is a "revocation of snuff," made out by Martha Stanton. The document mentioned that she was a daughter of Stephen and Mary Wanton and the wife of John Stanton, and was witnessed by John Stanton Gould.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

Our Select Meeting on 4th day was a Solemn favourd time, in which Micajah Collins & several others bore impressive testimonies & Anne A Jenkins in humble reverend supplication. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 5, Thursday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

The Meeting at large on 5th day was a time of deep suffering on acct of Benj Rodman who occupied nearly the whole time in spurious burdensome communication, at three times standing, & little else was said. - the buisness in the last meeting went on pretty well -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 6, Friday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

On Sixth day I spent nearly the whole time at the Boarding School with the committee in hard & exercising service, the subject of Superintendents being discussed - - -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

February 7, Saturday: Die beiden Neffen oder Der Onkel aus Boston, a singspiel by Felix Mendelssohn to words of Casper, was performed for the initial time, before a small invited audience at the Mendelssohn residence in Berlin.

After arriving home in Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould would write in his journal:

Seventh day Morning we took the Stage & rode from [Providence] to Bristol ferry, from whence I walked to Uncle Saml Thurstons, D B. having his chaise sent for him from the latter place I rode into Town with him & am Thankful to be at home this evening, having to acknowledge, favour & enlargement since my absence. –

The beginning of the “Hardscrabble” rioting in Providence, Rhode Island (mobs of white citizens protected by the police while they destroyed the homes of black citizens: urban gentrification through ethnic cleansing). From the diary of George F. Jencks, a white man of Pawtucket, we learn: “A gang of Ruffins toar down & Destroyed the Negro house on the hill this evening.”

Information that is more to the point, about this racism that would culminate in October with a white mob pretending to have been provoked by unwillingness of some black men to step down into the street off the sidewalk to allow them to pass –provoked to the point of tearing apart some 20 black homes in a district off North Main Street known variously as “Addison’s Hollow” and as “Hardscrabble”– may be obtained from the late-life autobiography of William J. Brown, then a 10-year-old observer.³¹⁴

PAGES 50-51: The feeling against the colored people was very bitter. The colored people themselves were ignorant of the cause, unless it could be attributed to our condition, not having the means to raise themselves in the scale of wealth and affluence, consequently those who were evil disposed would offer abuse whenever they saw fit, and there was no chance for resentment or redress. Mobs were also the order of the day, and the poor colored people were the sufferers.

In the northwest part of the city was a place called Addison Hollow, but was nicknamed Hardscrabble. A great many colored people purchased land there, because it was some distance from town, and hence quite cheap. They put up small houses for themselves, and earned their living in various ways. They could be seen almost any time, with their saw-horse, standing, some on the Great Bridge, some on Shingle Bridge, and some on Mill Bridge, waiting for work. As hard coal was not known at that time (except Liverpool coal,) everybody used wood. Some men did jobs of gardening and farming.

A man named Addison built houses, and rented to any one who would give him his price. As he rented cheap, people of bad character hired of him, and these drew a class of bad men and women, so that the good were continually being molested, having no protection. At last disturbances became so common that they raised a mob, and drove many from their houses, then tore them

314. For further details you could consult a publication of the time, HARDSCRABBLE CALENDAR: REPORT OF THE TRIALS OF OLIVER CUMMINS, NATHANIEL G. METCALF, GILBERT HINES, AND ARTHUR FARRIER, published in Providence “for the purchaser” during 1824.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Hard Scrabble,

OR MISS PHILISES BOBALITION

O Dear dear what can the de matter be,
Dear, dear what can de matter be.

Pomp gone so long from Phillis away ;
He promise to buy me a damask and leghorn,
A Plad and a Crape and Silk Tocking to put on,
And a bunch of fine feather to dress my beaver so gay
O Dear, dear, &c.

O, O, so peaceable late we lib in Hard Scrabble,
'Till routed and driven away by the rabble,
Who 'tack us like furies wid a high diddle diddle !
Demolish our dwelling, smash Benran and Cradle,
My Gin Jug and Spider, my Potrait and Ladle,
My Candestand, Chairs, and poor Pompey's Fiddle.
O Dear, dear, &c.

O! O! such a time I neber before see,
De Mobites come wizz ! like a flock of mad bumble bee
Rip open my bed and scatter de fedder !
Assail us wid Brick Bat, wid Crowbars and Shovels,
And drove us poor wretches away from our hovels
To seek shelter out door expose to de wether.
O Dear, dear, &c.

Pomp and I had juss supt on a clam and eel custard,
And just topping off wid desert of tase cheese & mustard
When first salutation widout a forewarning—
Ebery window was smash in, and, O, goody gui !
Pomp leap from de table and cry ' Fly Phillis Fly,'
Or we both shall be mutton'd before morrow morning.
O Dear, dear, &c.

O, de next morning such condition our village,
So late de scene of confusion, riot and pillage.
O! it near broke de heart of my poor aged mother !
De chimnies and walls were den totling or falling,
Poor Cato's hut prop't up, and Cezer's lay sprawling,
And cure's goody gui ! nothing left but de cellar !
O Dear, dear, &c.

De mud Clay & brick dust lay so thick in Hard Scrabble
I was 'blige hold up my skirt to prevent it from drabble
And de fields for a mile was spread wid ben fether ;
Here lay my new bedtick and dare Pompey's garter
And my platter and Coffee Cup bury'd in Mortar,
In miscurious ruin all lay together.
O Dear, dear, &c.

Pomp has told me of Earthquakes Squall and Tornadoes
Trenarners, Harricanes, Gusts and Valeannose,
Of battle at sea, and battle on shore ;
Of Turks and of Hottentots, Indians and Moors,
Of Rygers and Crocodiles Lions and Bores,
But he neber fyre saw such destruction before.
O Dear, dear, &c.

Some few weeks arter some were reign for a trial,
Dare were Peter and Moses and Jim and Abial,
And some forty or tirty or twenty or so ;
But de damage 'twas judge was by some shock of nature,
Mr. Nobody did it ! O what a wile creature,
So de court find um No Guilty and tell um to go.
O dear what a Rogue Mr. Nobody.

Mr. Nobody, wretch ! some invisible d-r-l
De biggest brick block in a moment he level
See what he did bout tre months ago ;
He demolish a bilding near four stories high,
And level the whole in a twink of an eye,
Pray who did it ! Why Nobody know.
O dear, dear, &c.

I guess it best now for us brack folks be easy,
And no longer live lives immoral and lazy,
But gain honest living by sweat ob our brow ;
Depend on't de white folk won't den trouble or 'tack us,
But de good people of Providence will always respect us,
As they are wont to respect all good people now.
O dear, dear, &c.

So Miss Boston keep home your lazy black rabble,
Nor compel them seek shelter again at Hard Scrabble,
For every maggot should stick to be core ;
For should they visit us gain they may find it foul wether
We've plenty of Tar and de ground cover'd wid Fether
And we've Pitch to pitch you all out of door.
O dear, dear, &c.

So while Pomp earn a little by honest day labour,
I'll wash and make soap for some of my neighbour,
And lib by industry as honest folks do :
Pomp throw by your Fiddle & I'll smash de Gin Bottle
And soon we'll be able to buildup our hovel
And more steady course we both will pursue.
O dear, dear, and so fort.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

down, took their furniture -what little they had- carried it to Pawtucket, and sold it at auction. This was done late in the fall. One colored man named Christopher Hall, a widower with three or four children, a pious man, bearing a good character, and supported himself and family by sawing wood, had his house torn down by the roughs and stripped of its contents. He drew the roof over the cellar, and lived in it all winter. The people tried in vain to coax him out, and offered him a house to live in. Many went to see the ruins, among them some white ladies, who offered to take his children and bring them up, but he would not let them go. In the spring following he went to Liberia, on the western coast of Africa. Not long after this there was another mob, commenced at the west end of Olney Street. Here were a number of houses built and owned by white men, and rented to any one, white or colored, who wanted to hire one or more rooms, rent payable weekly. Some of these places had bar-rooms, where liquors were dealt out, and places where they sold cakes, pies, doughnuts, etc. These they called cooky stands. In some houses dancing and fiddling was the order of the day. It soon became dangerous for one to pass through there in the day time that did not belong to their gang, or patronize them. Most all sailors who came into port would be introduced into Olney Street by some one who had an interest that way. I remember when a boy, passing up one day to my father's garden, which was on that street, in company with two other boys, looking at the people as we passed along. Some were sitting at the windows, some in their doorway, some singing, some laughing, some gossiping, some had their clay furnaces in front of their houses, cooking, and seeing us looking at them, said "What are you gawking at, you brats?" hurling a large stone at the same time, and we were obliged to run for our lives. This street had a correspondence with all the sailor boarding houses in town, and was sustained by their patronage. Vessels of every description were constantly entering our port, and sailing crafts were seen from the south side of the Great Bridge to India Point. It was the great shipping port of New England in those days, and although the smallest of all the States, Rhode Island was regarded as among the wealthiest, the Quakers occupying a large portion of the State.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 8, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 8th of 2 M 1824 / Silent Meetings & to me poor low seasons
- the first was as well attended as common, but the Afternoon very small in consequence of the Walking -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 9, Monday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 9th of 2 M / "Distressed but not in despair" but the

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

present times seems as much like both, as any thing that has been known for some time. – Last night after I had gone up stairs to go to bed, I was called down by J Williams & consulted about the proper steps for him to take relative to the affairs of the Williams's, who it appears was broke upon, & theirs, & their late Fathers effects attatched, but my limited knowledge of such proceedings renderd my assistance useless. -- It appears this Morning & today, that their affairs are in a miserable condition, that they are greatly involved & that many are likely to suffer by them. – this casts a gloom on all around, but things are as they are, & it is out of the power of any one to do much to make them better

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 February 12, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 12th of 2 M 1824 / a small meeting & silent, the walking very bad & several of our friends are indisposed with colds. – Many are distressed with late events, their countenances are heac & mine is among the number. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 February 15, Sunday: Following the new principle of nomination just tested a few years earlier by Andrew Jackson, the legislature of the home state of Secretary of State John Quincy Adams nominated their favorite son to run for the office of President of the United States of America. Objections to such a nomination procedure, such as that it would provide greater power to large states than to small states, had begun to be ignored.

George Gordon, Lord Byron has an epileptic seizure.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 15th of 2nd M 1824 / Silent meetings & seasons of mental labour In the evening visited Abigail Robinson. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 February 19, Thursday: Rochester, New York's first bank, the Bank of Rochester, was chartered.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 19th of 2 M / Silent Meeting again, it was a solid meeting & attended by nearly all our members who are in health to attend. –

In the last Preparative, My cousin Joseph Greene requested a certificate to proceed in Marriage with Sarah Collins - At the age of 64 Years seems late in life to enter into a connection of that kind for the first time, but in his situation, the saying "better late than never" may well apply

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 February 22, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 22nd of 2 M / Very Stormy day, small meetings & silent
-& to me low poor times - except towards the close of the Afternoon sitting a little life sprung up -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 February 25, Wednesday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 25th of 2nd M / This forenoon I was innoculated for the Kine Pock by Doctor Dunn - this is the third time the experiment has been tried on me, the two former ones, appearing to have been unsuccessful producing no symptoms nor sore Arm, larger than a pins head, yet I find a small scar from one of the incisions - the Small pox being now prevalent, & very mortal in some places, is an inducement to try again & if possible rescue myself from so serious & destructive malady to mankind. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 February 26, Thursday: Ludwig van Beethoven received a petition by 30 musicians, publishers, and other admirers, requesting a performance of his newest works.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 26 of 2 M / For several days & particularly yesterday I have been quite unwell with a hevy cold, some fever & a rheumatic pain in my knee which was very tedious last night - which prevents my attendance of our Moy [Monthly] Meeting this day held in Portsmouth - My heart is with my friends now assembled there, to transact the weighty & important concerns of the Church. but such was the situation of my health that I could not think it prudent to go. -
Yesterday Afternoon we had the company of Wm R Thurston of NYork to tea & a call from him this morning - He is here on buisness expecting to leave for home this Afternoon or tomorrow -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 February 29, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 29th of 2nd M 1824 / Our Morning meeting was larger than usual a solemn quiet opportunity, & our frd David Buffum much engaged to invite the people to a serious attention to things which make for peace, instancing Martha & Mary - the former being much cumbered & the latter choosing the good part -I have heard him many times, greatly to the edification of the Meeting, but perhaps never more in gospel Authority. - In the Afternoon we were silent & as usual small

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 March 3, Wednesday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 3rd of 3rd M 1824 / Our friend Isaac Stevenson from England was at Portsmouth Meeting today - & is this evening at David Buffums where I went to see him Br Dodman taking Richard, R's Mary & John along with us. - He seems to be a friend of the true stamp, his company was very pleasant & rendered more so, being a particular & intimate acquaintance of my frd & correspondent Thos Thompson of Liverpool. - He is to be at our Meeting tomorrow & Dines with us. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 March 4, Thursday: The "National Institution for the Preservation of Life from Shipwreck was founded in the United Kingdom, to be renamed in 1858 The Royal National Lifeboat Institution.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 4th of 3 M / At meeting, which was attended by many besides our own members, Isaac Stevenson was engaged in very acceptable testimony - at the close of it a meeting was appointed at 6 OC in the evening, the Middle & Winter apartments of the House were filled & the Gospel was preached in the demonstrations & power of it, greatly to the satisfaction & I have no doubt to the edification of Many of the Auditory, who were very still & reverently attendtive - Isaac Dined with us, with his Companion Saml Wood, They took tea at Father Rodmans, & lodge tonight at J Dennis's who waits on them to Bristol & Warren tomorrow where they intend to Appoint Meetings.-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 March 7, Sunday: Il crociato in Egitto, a melodramma eroico by Giacomo Meyerbeer to words of Rossi, was performed for the initial time, in Teatro La Fenice, Venice.

Florida relocated its capital from St. Augustine to Tallahassee.

Prince Louis-Philippe sponsored a concert by Franz Liszt before a large and illustrious audience in the Theatre-Italien, Paris. The reviewer of Le Drapeau wrote that he had been "convinced that the soul and spirit of Mozart have passed into the body of young Liszt."

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 7th of 3 M / Meetings as well attended as usual & both silent. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 11, Thursday: An Office of Indian Affairs was organized, within the Department of War of the US of course, with Ely S. Parker, a member of the Seneca tribe, as its initial director. (This bureau would not be transferred to the Department of the Interior until 1849, and would not become the Bureau of Indian Affairs until 1947.)

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 11th of 3 M / Being quite unwell part of yesterday & last night from the effect of Medicine I am unfit to be at Meeting today

It hardly seemed as if I should add much to the weight of the Meeting if I had gone – but have been favoured with some precious feelings while sitting alone in my shop – for which I desire to be thankful

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 14, Sunday: Franz Schubert's String Quartet D.804 was performed for the initial time, in the Hall of the Gesellschaft der Musikfreunde, Vienna.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 14 of 3 M 1824 / Meeting (save a short offering) was silent in the Morning. – In the Afternoon Jonathon & Hannah Dennis both had a little to say, but both Meetings were low times, the seed was low & under suffering. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 18, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 18 of 3 M / My mind in the forefront of the Meeting was favoured with a little life, but I have been a long time poor & low. – O Lord, help, help. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Per the journal of Albert Gallatin's son James as recorded in THE DIARY OF JAMES GALLATIN:

At last all is settled. Monsieur Pascault is disgusted with the behaviour of the Archbishop, and has written to him to the effect that he will entirely dispense with the services of the Church of Rome, that his daughter will be married in the Protestant Church. He added that a wife's first duty was to obey her husband.

March 21, Sunday: In Cairo, Egypt, a fire broke out, perhaps in the palace of Mehemet Ali near the arsenal, and spread. At about sunset a magazine of gunpowder exploded with a shock that was felt throughout the city. Fearing further explosions, a number of notables took shelter at the British consulate of Henry Salt, while other city residents fled to the western Nile and into surrounding gardens.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1st day 21 of 3rd M / Both Meetings silent the Afternoon was a season of some favour, for which I desire to be thankful & bow in humility before Him who dispenceth all good, & that often by giving us a sense of our wants [deficiencies]. – As we came home from Meeting in the Afternoon I rec'd a letter from our frd Moses Brown dated 18th inst giving an acct of P Hunt & supposing it would be agreeable to David Buffum I immediately sent John out to his house to carry it for his perusal – Sister Ruth took tea with us –after which we all spent the evening at Cousin Henry Goulds.–

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 25, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 25 of 3 M / Our Moy [Monthly] Meeting this day held in Town was about as large as usual, the first meeting was silent – In the last there was considerable buisness in the usual way, & nothing out of the usual course, tho' some of it was of an exercising nature. – Our Company at Dinner were S Fowler, E Lawton, P Lawton Z Chase G Dennis L Dennis

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 27, Saturday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*7th day 27th of 3rd M / This Afternoon rode to Portsmouth with Aunt Stanton & took John along to spent a little time with Cousin B Marshall & his son John who arrived from NYork Last night & went out this morning – First Day Walked from Uncle Stantons to Meeting, Benj Marshall in company – Uncle Aunt & my John rode in the Waggon. – It was to me a good Meeting & a pretty good day, tho' low in feelings – Mary Hicks preached a little in a solid weighty manner – & Ruth Freeborn was engaged in a lively pertinent testimony –
In the Afternoon Br Isaac came out to Uncle Stantons with whom I rode home, & left John & David as company for John Marshall. – Found Thos Hornsby no better & Aunt Nancy Carpenter quite unwell. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 1, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 1st of 4th M 1824 / Meeting rather small, but silent & comfortable Some of the Worthies absent at New Bedford Quarterly Meeting this Day held. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

At Hartford, Connecticut, Eli Todd opened the doors of the Connecticut Retreat for the Insane for its 1st patients. The name and philosophy of treatment of this institution was to be patterned after the humane practices of the York Retreat in England. This institution is now known as the Institute of Living.³¹⁵

PSYCHOLOGY

A board was chosen to study the feasibility of a canal from the Susquehanna River to Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Early on during the 1823/1824 session of the federal Congress, a bill had been introduced into the House of Representatives to comprehensively revise the acts pertaining to duties on imports, in order more fully to protect domestic producers. The bill had become the subject of a protracted debate engaging the talent of both political parties. Mr. Webster had taken an active part in that discussion, but the friends of the bill had not been able, or had been unwilling, to put it into a condition in which Webster would support it. Speaker of the House Henry Clay having addressed the representatives sitting as a Committee of the Whole on March 30/31, on this day it was the turn of Representative Daniel Webster.³¹⁶

MR. CHAIRMAN, — I will avail myself of the present occasion to make some remarks on certain principles and opinions which have been recently advanced, and on those considerations which, in my judgment, ought to govern us in deciding upon the several and respective parts of this very important and complex measure. I can truly say that this is a painful duty. I deeply regret the necessity which is likely to be imposed upon me of giving a general affirmative or negative vote on the whole of the bill. I cannot but think this mode of proceeding liable to great objections. It exposes both those who support and those who oppose the measure to very unjust and injurious misapprehensions. There may be good reasons for favoring some of the provisions of the bill, and equally strong reasons for opposing others; and these provisions do not stand to each other in the relation of principal and incident. If that were the case, those who are in favor of the principal might forego their opinions upon incidental and subordinate provisions. But the bill proposes enactments entirely distinct and different from one another in character and tendency. Some of its clauses are intended merely for revenue; and of those which regard the protection of home manufactures, one part stands upon very different grounds from those of other parts. So that probably every gentleman who may ultimately support the bill will vote for much which his judgment does not approve; and those who oppose it will oppose something which they would very gladly support.

Being intrusted with the interests of a district highly commercial, and deeply interested in manufactures also, I wish to state my opinions on the present measure, not as on a whole, for it has no entire and homogeneous character, but as on a collection of different enactments, some of which meet my

315. Street, W.R. A CHRONOLOGY OF NOTEWORTHY EVENTS IN AMERICAN PSYCHOLOGY. Washington DC: American Psychological Association, 1994

316. Edwin P. Whipple's THE GREAT SPEECHES AND ORATIONS OF DANIEL WEBSTER WITH AN ESSAY ON DANIEL WEBSTER AS A MASTER OF ENGLISH STYLE (Boston: Little, Brown, 1879).

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

approbation and some of which do not.

And allow me, Sir, in the first place, to state my regret, if indeed I ought not to express a warmer sentiment, at the names or designations which Mr. Speaker³¹⁷ has seen fit to adopt for the purpose of describing the advocates and the opposers of the present bill. It is a question, he says, between the friends of an "American policy" and those of a "foreign policy." This, Sir, is an assumption which I take the liberty most directly to deny. Mr. Speaker certainly intended nothing invidious or derogatory to any part of the House by this mode of denominating friends and enemies. But there is power in names, and this manner of distinguishing those who favor and those who oppose particular measures may lead to inferences to which no member of the House can submit. It may imply that there is a more exclusive and peculiar regard to American interests in one class of opinions than in another. Such an implication is to be resisted and repelled. Every member has a right to the presumption, that he pursues what he believes to be the interest of his country with as sincere a zeal as any other member. I claim this in my own case; and while I shall not, for any purpose of description or convenient arrangement use terms which may imply any disrespect to other men's opinions, much less any imputation upon other men's motives, it is my duty to take care that the use of such terms by others be not, against the will of those who adopt them, made to produce a false impression.

Indeed, Sir, it is a little astonishing, if it seemed convenient to Mr. Speaker, for the purposes of distinction, to make use of the terms "American policy" and "foreign policy," that he should not have applied them in a manner precisely the reverse of that in which he has in fact used them. If names are thought necessary, it would be well enough, one would think, that the name should be in some measure descriptive of the thing; and since Mr. Speaker denominates the policy which he recommends "a new policy in this country"; since he speaks of the present measure as a new era in our legislation; since he professes to invite us to depart from our accustomed course, to instruct ourselves by the wisdom of others, and to adopt the policy of the most distinguished foreign states, — one is a little curious to know with what propriety of speech this imitation of other nations is denominated an "American policy," while, on the contrary, a preference for our own established system, as it now actually exists and always has existed, is called a "foreign policy." This favorite American policy is what America has never tried; and this odious foreign policy is what, as we are told, foreign states have never pursued. Sir, that is the truest American policy which shall most usefully employ American capital and American labor, and best sustain the whole population. With me it is a fundamental axiom, it is interwoven with all my opinions, that the great interests of the country are united and inseparable; that agriculture, commerce, and manufactures will prosper together or languish together; and that all legislation is dangerous which proposes to benefit one of these without looking to consequences which may fall on the others.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Passing from this, Sir, I am bound to say that Mr. Speaker began his able and impressive speech at the proper point of inquiry, — I mean the present state and condition of the country, — although I am so unfortunate, or rather although I am so happy, as to differ from him very widely in regard to that condition. I dissent entirely from the justice of that picture of distress which he has drawn. I have not seen the reality, and know not where it exists. Within my observation, there is no cause for so gloomy and terrifying a representation. In respect to the New England States, with the condition of which I am of course best acquainted, the present appears to me a period of very general prosperity. Not, indeed, a time for sudden acquisition and great profits, not a day of extraordinary activity and successful speculation. There is no doubt a considerable depression of prices, and, in some degree, a stagnation of business. But the case presented by Mr. Speaker was not one of depression, but of distress; of universal, pervading, intense distress, limited to no class and to no place. We are represented as on the very verge and brink of national ruin. So far from acquiescing in these opinions, I believe there has been no period in which the general prosperity was better secured, or rested on a more solid foundation. As applicable to the Eastern States, I put this remark to their representatives, and ask them if it is not true. When has there been a time in which the means of living have been more accessible and more abundant? When has labor been rewarded, I do not say with a larger, but with a more certain success? Profits, indeed, are low; in some pursuits of life, which it is not proposed to benefit, but to burden, by this bill, very low. But still I am unacquainted with any proofs of extraordinary distress. What, indeed, are the general indications of the state of the country? There is no famine nor pestilence in the land, nor war, nor desolation. There is no writhing under the burden of taxation. The means of subsistence are abundant; and at the very moment when the miserable condition of the country is asserted, it is admitted that the wages of labor are high in comparison with those of any other country. A country, then, enjoying a profound peace, perfect civil liberty, with the means of subsistence cheap and abundant, with the reward of labor sure, and its wages higher than anywhere else, cannot be represented as in gloom, melancholy, and distress, but by the effort of extraordinary powers of tragedy. Even if, in judging of this question, we were to regard only those proofs to which we have been referred, we shall probably come to a conclusion somewhat different from that which has been drawn. Our exports, for example, although certainly less than in some years, were not, last year, so much below an average formed upon the exports of a series of years, and putting those exports at a fixed value, as might be supposed. The value of the exports of agricultural products, of animals, of the products of the forest and of the sea, together with gunpowder, spirits, and sundry unenumerated articles, amounted in the several years to the following sums, viz.: –

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

In 1790,	$27,716,152
1804,	33,842,316
1807,	38,465,854

Coming up now to our own times, and taking the exports of the years 1821, 1822, and 1823, of the same articles and products, at the same prices, they stand thus: –

In 1821,	$45,643,175
1822,	48,782,295
1823,	55,863,491

Mr. Speaker has taken the very extraordinary year of 1803, and, adding to the exportation of that year what he thinks ought to have been a just augmentation, in proportion to the increase of our population, he swells the result to a magnitude, which, when compared with our actual exports, would exhibit a great deficiency. But is there any justice in this mode of calculation? In the first place, as before observed, the year 1803 was a year of extraordinary exportation. By reference to the accounts, that of the article of flour, for example, there was an export that year of thirteen hundred thousand barrels; but the very next year it fell to eight hundred thousand, and the next year to seven hundred thousand. In the next place, there never was any reason to expect that the increase of our exports of agricultural products would keep pace with the increase of our population. That would be against all experience. It is, indeed, most desirable, that there should be an augmented demand for the products of agriculture; but, nevertheless, the official returns of our exports do not show that absolute want of all foreign market which has been so strongly stated.

But there are other means by which to judge of the general condition of the people. The quantity of the means of subsistence consumed, or, to make use of a phraseology better suited to the condition of our own people, the quantity of the comforts of life enjoyed, is one of those means. It so happens, indeed, that it is not so easy in this country as elsewhere to ascertain facts of this sort with accuracy. Where most of the articles of subsistence and most of the comforts of life are taxed, there is, of course, great facility in ascertaining, from official statements, the amount of consumption. But in this country, most fortunately, the government neither knows, nor is concerned to know, the annual consumption; and estimates can only be formed in another mode, and in reference only to a few articles. Of these articles, tea is one. It is not quite a luxury, and yet is something above the absolute necessities of life. Its consumption, therefore, will be diminished in times of adversity, and augmented in times of prosperity. By deducting the annual export from the annual import, and taking a number of years together, we may arrive at a probable estimate of consumption. The average of eleven years, from 1790 to 1800, inclusive, will be found to be two millions and a half of pounds. From 1801 to 1812, inclusive, the average was three millions seven hundred thousand; and the average of the last three years, to wit, 1821, 1822, and 1823, was five millions and a half. Having made a just allowance for the increase of our numbers, we shall still find, I think, from these statements, that there is no distress which has limited our means of subsistence and enjoyment.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

In forming an opinion of the degree of general prosperity, we may regard, likewise, the progress of internal improvements, the investment of capital in roads, bridges, and canals. All these prove a balance of income over expenditure; they afford evidence that there is a surplus of profits, which the present generation is usefully vesting for the benefit of the next. It cannot be denied, that, in this particular, the progress of the country is steady and rapid.

We may look, too, to the sums expended for education. Are our colleges deserted? Do fathers find themselves less able than usual to educate their children? It will be found, I imagine, that the amount paid for the purpose of education is constantly increasing, and that the schools and colleges were never more full than at the present moment. I may add, that the endowment of public charities, the contributions to objects of general benevolence, whether foreign or domestic, the munificence of individuals towards whatever promises to benefit the community, are all so many proofs of national prosperity. And, finally, there is no defalcation of revenue, no pressure of taxation.

The general result, therefore, of a fair examination of the present condition of things, seems to me to be, that there is a considerable depression of prices, and curtailment of profit; and in some parts of the country, it must be admitted, there is a great degree of pecuniary embarrassment, arising from the difficulty of paying debts which were contracted when prices were high. With these qualifications, the general state of the country may be said to be prosperous; and these are not sufficient to give to the whole face of affairs any appearance of general distress.

Supposing the evil, then, to be a depression of prices, and a partial pecuniary pressure, the next inquiry is into the causes of that evil; and it appears to me that there are several; and in this respect, I think, too much has been imputed by Mr. Speaker to the single cause of the diminution of exports. Connected, as we are, with all the commercial nations of the world, and having observed great changes to take place elsewhere, we should consider whether the causes of those changes have not reached us, and whether we are not suffering by the operation of them, in common with others. Undoubtedly, there has been a great fall in the price of all commodities throughout the commercial world, in consequence of the restoration of a state of peace. When the Allies entered France in 1814, prices rose astonishingly fast, and very high. Colonial produce, for instance, in the ports of this country, as well as elsewhere, sprung up suddenly from the lowest to the highest extreme. A new and vast demand was created for the commodities of trade. These were the natural consequences of the great political changes which then took place in Europe.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

We are to consider, too, that our own war created new demand, and that a government expenditure of twenty-five or thirty million dollars a year had the usual effect of enhancing prices. We are obliged to add, that the paper issues of our banks carried the same effect still further. A depreciated currency existed in a great part of the country; depreciated to such an extent, that, at one time, exchange between the centre and the North was as high as twenty per cent. The Bank of the United States was instituted to correct this evil; but, for causes which it is not necessary now to enumerate, it did not for some years bring back the currency of the country to a sound state. This depreciation of the circulating currency was so much, of course, added to the nominal prices of commodities, and these prices, thus unnaturally high, seemed, to those who looked only at the appearance, to indicate great prosperity. But such prosperity is more specious than real. It would have been better, probably, as the shock would have been less, if prices had fallen sooner. At length, however, they fell; and as there is little doubt that certain events in Europe had an influence in determining the time at which this fall took place, I will advert shortly to some of the principal of those events.

In May, 1819, the British House of Commons decided, by a unanimous vote, that the resumption of cash payments by the Bank of England should not be deferred beyond the ensuing February. The restriction had been continued from time to time, and from year to year, Parliament always professing to look to the restoration of a specie currency whenever it should be found practicable. Having been, in July, 1818, continued to July, 1819, it was understood that, in the interim, the important question of the time at which cash payments should be resumed should be finally settled. In the latter part of the year 1818, the circulation of the bank had been greatly reduced, and a severe scarcity of money was felt in the London market. Such was the state of things in England. On the Continent, other important events took place. The French Indemnity Loan had been negotiated in the summer of 1818, and the proportion of it belonging to Austria, Russia, and Prussia had been sold. This created an unusual demand for gold and silver in those countries. It has been stated, that the amount of the precious metals transmitted to Austria and Russia in that year was at least twenty millions sterling. Other large sums were sent to Prussia and to Denmark. The effect of this sudden drain of specie, felt first at Paris, was communicated to Amsterdam and Hamburg, and all other commercial places in the North of Europe. The paper system of England had certainly communicated an artificial value to property. It had encouraged speculation, and excited over-trading. When the shock therefore came, and this violent pressure for money acted at the same moment on the Continent and in England, inflated and unnatural prices could be kept up no longer. A reduction took place, which has been estimated to have been at least equal to a fall of thirty, if not forty per cent. The depression was universal; and the change was felt in the United States severely, though not equally so in every part. There are those, I am aware, who maintain that the events to which I have alluded did not cause the great fall of prices, but that that fall was natural and inevitable, from the previously existing state of things, the abundance of commodities, and the want of demand. But that would only prove that the effect was produced in another way, rather than by another cause. If these great and sudden calls for money did not reduce prices, but prices fell, as of themselves, to their natural state, still the result is the same; for we perceive that, after these new calls for money, prices could not be kept longer at their unnatural height.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

About the time of these foreign events, our own bank system underwent a change; and all these causes, in my view of the subject, concurred to produce the great shock which took place in our commercial cities, and in many parts of the country. The year 1819 was a year of numerous failures, and very considerable distress, and would have furnished far better grounds than exist at present for that gloomy representation of our condition which has been presented. Mr. Speaker has alluded to the strong inclination which exists, or has existed, in various parts of the country, to issue paper money, as a proof of great existing difficulties. I regard it rather as a very productive cause of those difficulties; and the committee will not fail to observe, that there is, at this moment, much the loudest complaint of distress precisely where there has been the greatest attempt to relieve it by systems of paper credit. And, on the other hand, content, prosperity, and happiness are most observable in those parts of the country where there has been the least endeavor to administer relief by law. In truth, nothing is so baneful, so utterly ruinous to all true industry, as interfering with the legal value of money, or attempting to raise artificial standards to supply its place. Such remedies suit well the spirit of extravagant speculation, but they sap the very foundation of all honest acquisition. By weakening the security of property, they take away all motive for exertion. Their effect is to transfer property. Whenever a debt is allowed to be paid by any thing less valuable than the legal currency in respect to which it was contracted, the difference between the value of the paper given in payment and the legal currency is precisely so much property taken from one man and given to another, by legislative enactment.

When we talk, therefore, of protecting industry, let us remember that the first measure for that end is to secure it in its earnings; to assure it that it shall receive its own. Before we invent new modes of raising prices, let us take care that existing prices are not rendered wholly unavailable, by making them capable of being paid in depreciated paper. I regard, Sir, this issue of irredeemable paper as the most prominent and deplorable cause of whatever pressure still exists in the country; and, further, I would put the question to the members of this committee, whether it is not from that part of the people who have tried this paper system, and tried it to their cost, that this bill receives the most earnest support? And I cannot forbear to ask, further, whether this support does not proceed rather from a general feeling of uneasiness under the present condition of things, than from the clear perception of any benefit which the measure itself can confer? Is not all expectation of advantage centred in a sort of vague hope, that change may produce relief? Debt certainly presses hardest where prices have been longest kept up by artificial means. They find the shock lightest who take it soonest; and I fully believe that, if those parts of the country which now suffer most had not augmented the force of the blow by deferring it, they would have now been in a much better condition than they are. We may assure ourselves, once for all, Sir, that there can be no such thing as payment of debts by legislation. We may abolish debts indeed; we may transfer property by visionary and violent laws. But we deceive both ourselves and our constituents, if we flatter either ourselves or them with the hope that there is any relief against whatever pressure exists, but in economy and industry. The depression of prices and the stagnation of business have been in truth the necessary result of circumstances. No government could prevent them, and no government can altogether relieve the people from their effect. We have enjoyed a day of extraordinary prosperity; we had been neutral while the world was at war, and had found a great demand for our products, our navigation, and our labor. We had no right to expect that that state of things would continue always. With the return of peace, foreign nations would struggle for themselves, and enter into competition with us in the great objects of pursuit.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Now, Sir, what is the remedy for existing evils? What is the course of policy suited to our actual condition? Certainly it is not our wisdom to adopt any system that may be offered to us, without examination, and in the blind hope that whatever changes our condition may improve it. It is better that we should "bear those ills we have,

Than fly to others that we know not of."

We are bound to see that there is a fitness and an aptitude in whatever measures may be recommended to relieve the evils that afflict us; and before we adopt a system that professes to make great alterations, it is our duty to look carefully to each leading interest of the community, and see how it may probably be affected by our proposed legislation.

And, in the first place, what is the condition of our commerce? Here we must clearly perceive, that it is not enjoying that rich harvest which fell to its fortune during the continuance of the European wars. It has been greatly depressed, and limited to small profits. Still, it is elastic and active, and seems

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

capable of recovering itself in some measure from its depression. The shipping interest, also, has suffered severely, still more severely, probably, than commerce. If any thing should strike us with astonishment, it is that the navigation of the United States should be able to sustain itself. Without any government protection whatever, it goes abroad to challenge competition with the whole world; and, in spite of all obstacles, it has yet been able to maintain eight hundred thousand tons in the employment of foreign trade. How, Sir, do the ship-owners and navigators accomplish this? How is it that they are able to meet, and in some measure overcome, universal competition? It is not, Sir, by protection and bounties: but by unwearied exertion, by extreme economy, by unshaken perseverance, by that manly and resolute spirit which relies on itself to protect itself. These causes alone enable American ships still to keep their element, and show the flag of their country in distant seas. The rates of insurance may teach us how thoroughly our ships are built, and how skilfully and safely they are navigated. Risks are taken, as I learn, from the United States to Liverpool, at one per cent; and from the United States to Canton and back, as low as three per cent. But when we look to the low rate of freight, and when we consider, also, that the articles entering into the composition of a ship, with the exception of wood, are dearer here than in other countries, we cannot but be utterly surprised that the shipping interest has been able to sustain itself at all. I need not say that the navigation of the country is essential to its honor and its defence. Yet, instead of proposing benefits for it in this hour of its depression, we threaten by this measure to lay upon it new and heavy burdens. In the discussion, the other day, of that provision of the bill which proposes to tax tallow for the benefit of the oil-merchants and whalemens, we had the pleasure of hearing eloquent eulogiums upon that portion of our shipping employed in the whale-fishery, and strong statements of its importance to the public interest. But the same bill proposes a severe tax upon that interest, for the benefit of the iron-manufacturer and the hemp-grower. So that the tallow-chandlers and soapboilers are sacrificed to the oil-merchants, in order that these again may contribute to the manufacturers of iron and the growers of hemp.

If such be the state of our commerce and navigation, what is the condition of our home manufactures? How are they amidst the general depression? Do they need further protection? and if any, how much? On all these points, we have had much general statement, but little precise information. In the very elaborate speech of Mr. Speaker, we are not supplied with satisfactory grounds of judging with respect to these various particulars. Who can tell, from any thing yet before the committee, whether the proposed duty be too high or too low on any one article? Gentlemen tell us, that they are in favor of domestic industry; so am I. They would give it protection; so would I. But then all domestic industry is not confined to manufactures. The employments of agriculture, commerce, and navigation are all branches of the same domestic industry; they all furnish employment for American capital and American labor. And when the question is, whether new duties shall be laid, for the purpose of giving further encouragement to particular manufactures, every reasonable man must ask himself, both whether the proposed new encouragement be necessary, and whether it can be given without injustice to other branches of industry.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

It is desirable to know, also, somewhat more distinctly, how the proposed means will produce the intended effect. One great object proposed, for example, is the increase of the home market for the consumption of agricultural products. This certainly is much to be desired; but what provisions of the bill are expected wholly or principally to produce this, is not stated. I would not deny that some increase of the home market may follow, from the adoption of this bill, but all its provisions have not an equal tendency to produce this effect. Those manufactures which employ most labor, create, of course, most demand for articles of consumption; and those create least in the production of which capital and skill enter as the chief ingredients of cost. I cannot, Sir, take this bill merely because a committee has recommended it. I cannot espouse a side, and fight under a flag. I wholly repel the idea that we must take this law, or pass no law on the subject. What should hinder us from exercising our own judgments upon these provisions, singly and severally? Who has the power to place us, or why should we place ourselves, in a condition where we cannot give to every measure, that is distinct and separate in itself, a separate and distinct consideration? Sir, I presume no member of the committee will withhold his assent from what he thinks right, until others will yield their assent to what they think wrong. There are many things in this bill acceptable, probably, to the general sense of the House. Why should not these provisions be passed into a law, and others left to be decided upon their own merits, as a majority of the House shall see fit? To some of these provisions I am myself decidedly favorable; to others I have great objections; and I should have been very glad of an opportunity of giving my own vote distinctly on propositions which are, in their own nature, essentially and substantially distinct from one another.

But, Sir, before expressing my own opinion upon the several provisions of this bill, I will advert for a moment to some other general topics. We have heard much of the policy of England, and her example has been repeatedly urged upon us, as proving, not only the expediency of encouragement and protection, but of exclusion and direct prohibition also. I took occasion the other day to remark, that more liberal notions were becoming prevalent on this subject; that the policy of restraints and prohibitions was getting out of repute, as the true nature of commerce became better understood; and that, among public men, those most distinguished were most decided in their reprobation of the broad principle of exclusion and prohibition. Upon the truth of this representation, as matter of fact, I supposed there could not be two opinions among those who had observed the progress of political sentiment in other countries, and were acquainted with its present state. In this respect, however, it would seem that I was greatly mistaken. We have heard it again and again declared, that the English government still adheres, with immovable firmness, to its old doctrines of prohibition; that although journalists, theorists, and scientific writers advance other doctrines, yet the practical men, the legislators, the government of the country, are too wise to follow them. It has even been most sagaciously hinted, that the promulgation of liberal opinions on these subjects is intended only to delude other governments, to cajole them into the folly of liberal ideas, while England retains to herself all the benefits of the admirable old system of prohibition. We have heard from Mr. Speaker a warm commendation of the complex mechanism of this system. The British empire, it is said, is, in the first place, to be protected against the rest of the world; then the British Isles against the colonies; next, the isles respectively against each other, England herself, as the heart of the empire, being protected most of all, and against all.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Truly, Sir, it appears to me that Mr. Speaker's imagination has seen system, and order, and beauty, in that which is much more justly considered as the result of ignorance, partiality, or violence. This part of English legislation has resulted, partly from considering Ireland as a conquered country, partly from the want of a complete union, even with Scotland, and partly from the narrow views of colonial regulation, which in early and uninformed periods influenced the European states.

Nothing, I imagine, would strike the public men of England more singularly, than to find gentlemen of real information and much weight in the councils of this country expressing sentiments like these, in regard to the existing state of these English laws. I have never said, indeed, that prohibitory laws do not exist in England; we all know they do; but the question is, Does she owe her prosperity and greatness to these laws? I venture to say, that such is not the opinion of public men now in England, and the continuance of the laws, even without any alteration, would not be evidence that their opinion is different from what I have represented it; because the laws having existed long, and great interests having been built up on the faith of them, they cannot now be repealed without great and overwhelming inconvenience. Because a thing has been wrongly done, it does not therefore follow that it can now be undone; and this is the reason, as I understand it, for which exclusion, prohibition, and monopoly are suffered to remain in any degree in the English system; and for the same reason, it will be wise in us to take our measures, on all subjects of this kind, with great caution. We may not be able, but at the hazard of much injury to individuals, hereafter to retrace our steps. And yet, whatever is extravagant or unreasonable is not likely to endure. There may come a moment of strong reaction; and if no moderation be shown in laying on duties, there may be as little scruple in taking them off.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

It may be here observed, that there is a broad and marked distinction between entire prohibition and reasonable encouragement. It is one thing, by duties or taxes on foreign articles, to awaken a home competition in the production of the same articles; it is another thing to remove all competition by a total exclusion of the foreign article; and it is quite another thing still, by total prohibition, to raise up at home manufactures not suited to the climate, the nature of the country, or the state of the population. These are substantial distinctions, and although it may not be easy in every case to determine which of them applies to a given article, yet the distinctions themselves exist, and in most cases will be sufficiently clear to indicate the true course of policy; and, unless I have greatly mistaken the prevailing sentiment in the councils of England, it grows every day more and more favorable to the diminution of restrictions, and to the wisdom of leaving much (I do not say every thing, for that would not be true) to the enterprise and the discretion of individuals. I should certainly not have taken up the time of the committee to state at any length the opinions of other governments, or of the public men of other countries, upon a subject like this; but an occasional remark made by me the other day, having been so directly controverted, especially by Mr. Speaker, in his observations yesterday, I must take occasion to refer to some proofs of what I have stated.

What, then, is the state of English opinion? Everybody knows that, after the termination of the late European war, there came a time of great pressure in England. Since her example has been quoted, let it be asked in what mode her government sought relief. Did it aim to maintain artificial and unnatural prices? Did it maintain a swollen and extravagant paper circulation? Did it carry further the laws of prohibition and exclusion? Did it draw closer the cords of colonial restraint? No, Sir, but precisely the reverse. Instead of relying on legislative contrivances and artificial devices, it trusted to the enterprise and industry of the people, which it sedulously sought to excite, not by imposing restraint, but by removing it, wherever its removal was practicable. In May, 1820, the attention of the government having been much turned to the state of foreign trade, a distinguished member³¹⁸ of the House of Peers brought forward a Parliamentary motion upon that subject, followed by an ample discussion and a full statement of his own opinions. In the course of his remarks, he observed, "that there ought to be no prohibitory duties as such; for that it was evident, that, where a manufacture could not be carried on, or a production raised, but under the protection of a prohibitory duty, that manufacture, or that produce, could not be brought to market but at a loss. In his opinion, the name of strict prohibition might, therefore, in commerce, be got rid of 318. Lord Lansdowne.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

altogether; but he did not see the same objection to protecting duties, which, while they admitted of the introduction of commodities from abroad similar to those which we ourselves manufactured, placed them so much on a level as to allow a competition between them." "No axiom," he added, "was more true than this: that it was by growing what the territory of a country could grow most cheaply, and by receiving from other countries what it could not produce except at too great an expense, that the greatest degree of happiness was to be communicated to the greatest extent of population."

In assenting to the motion, the first minister³¹⁹ of the crown expressed his own opinion of the great advantage resulting from unrestricted freedom of trade. "Of the soundness of that general principle," he observed, "I can entertain no doubt. I can entertain no doubt of what would have been the great advantages to the civilized world, if the system of unrestricted trade had been acted upon by every nation from the earliest period of its commercial intercourse with its neighbors. If to those advantages there could have been any exceptions, I am persuaded that they would have been but few; and I am also persuaded that the cases to which they would have referred would not have been, in themselves, connected with the trade and commerce of England. But we are now in a situation in which, I will not say that a reference to the principle of unrestricted trade can be of no use, because such a reference may correct erroneous reasoning, but in which it is impossible for us, or for any country in the world but the United States of America, to act unreservedly on that principle. The commercial regulations of the European world have been long established, and cannot suddenly be departed from." Having supposed a proposition to be made to England by a foreign state for free commerce and intercourse, and an unrestricted exchange of agricultural products and of manufactures, he proceeds to observe: "It would be impossible to accede to such a proposition. We have risen to our present greatness under a different system. Some suppose that we have risen in consequence of that system; others, of whom I am one, believe that we have risen in spite of that system. But, whichever of these hypotheses be true, certain it is that we have risen under a very different system than that of free and unrestricted trade. It is utterly impossible, with our debt and taxation, even if they were but half their existing amount, that we can suddenly adopt the system of free trade."

Lord Ellenborough, in the same debate, said, "that he attributed the general distress then existing in Europe to the regulations that had taken place since the destruction of the French power. Most of the states on the Continent had surrounded themselves as with walls of brass, to inhibit intercourse with other states. Intercourse was prohibited, even in districts of the same state, as was the case in Austria and Sardinia. Thus, though the taxes on the people had been lightened, the severity of their condition had been increased. He believed that the discontent

319. Lord Liverpool.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

which pervaded most parts of Europe, and especially Germany, was more owing to commercial restrictions than to any theoretical doctrines on government; and that a free communication among them would do more to restore tranquillity, than any other step that could be adopted. He objected to all attempts to frustrate the benevolent intentions of Providence, which had given to various countries various wants, in order to bring them together. He objected to it as anti-social; he objected to it as making commerce the means of barbarizing instead of enlightening nations. The state of the trade with France was most disgraceful to both countries; the two greatest civilized nations of the world, placed at a distance of scarcely twenty miles from each other, had contrived, by their artificial regulations, to reduce their commerce with each other to a mere nullity." Every member speaking on this occasion agreed in the general sentiments favorable to unrestricted intercourse, which had thus been advanced; one of them remarking, at the conclusion of the debate, that "the principles of free trade, which he was happy to see so fully recognized, were of the utmost consequence; for, though, in the present circumstances of the country, a free trade was unattainable, yet their task hereafter was to approximate to it. Considering the prejudices and interests which were opposed to the recognition of that principle, it was no small indication of the firmness and liberality of government to have so fully conceded it."

Sir, we have seen, in the course of this discussion, that several gentlemen have expressed their high admiration of the silk manufacture of England. Its commendation was begun, I think, by the honorable member from Vermont, who sits near me, who thinks that that alone gives conclusive evidence of the benefits produced by attention to manufactures, inasmuch as it is a great source of wealth to the nation, and has amply repaid all the cost of its protection. Mr. Speaker's approbation of this part of the English example was still warmer. Now, Sir, it does so happen, that both these gentlemen differ very widely on this point from the opinions entertained in England, by persons of the first rank, both as to knowledge and power. In the debate to which I have already referred, the proposer of the motion urged the expediency of providing for the admission of the silks of France into England. "He was aware," he said, "that there was a poor and industrious body of manufacturers, whose interests must suffer by such an arrangement; and therefore he felt that it would be the duty of Parliament to provide for the present generation by a large Parliamentary grant. It was conformable to every principle of sound justice to do so, when the interests of a particular class were sacrificed to the good of the whole." In answer to these observations, Lord Liverpool said that, with reference to several branches of manufactures, time, and the change of circumstances, had rendered the system of protecting duties merely nominal; and that, in his opinion, if all the protecting laws which regarded both the woollen and cotton manufactures were to be repealed, no injurious effects would

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

thereby be occasioned. "But," he observes, "with respect to silk, that manufacture in this kingdom is so completely artificial, that any attempt to introduce the principles of free trade with reference to it might put an end to it altogether. I allow that the silk manufacture is not natural to this country. I wish we had never had a silk manufactory. I allow that it is natural to France; I allow that it might have been better, had each country adhered exclusively to that manufacture in which each is superior; and had the silks of France been exchanged for British cottons. But I must look at things as they are; and when I consider the extent of capital, and the immense population, consisting, I believe, of about fifty thousand persons, engaged in our silk manufacture, I can only say, that one of the few points in which I totally disagree with the proposer of the motion is the expediency, under existing circumstances, of holding out any idea that it would be possible to relinquish the silk manufacture, and to provide for those who live by it, by Parliamentary enactment. Whatever objections there may be to the continuance of the protecting system, I repeat, that it is impossible altogether to relinquish it. I may regret that the system was ever commenced; but as I cannot recall that act, I must submit to the inconvenience by which it is attended, rather than expose the country to evils of greater magnitude." Let it be remembered, Sir, that these are not the sentiments of a theorist, nor the fancies of speculation; but the operative opinions of the first minister of England, acknowledged to be one of the ablest and most practical statesmen of his country. Gentlemen could have hardly been more unfortunate than in the selection of the silk manufacture in England as an example of the beneficial effects of that system which they would recommend. It is, in the language which I have quoted, completely artificial. It has been sustained by I know not how many laws, breaking in upon the plainest principles of general expediency. At the last session of Parliament, the manufacturers petitioned for the repeal of three or four of these statutes, complaining of the vexatious restrictions which they impose on the wages of labor; setting forth, that a great variety of orders has from time to time been issued by magistrates under the authority of these laws, interfering in an oppressive manner with the minutest details of the manufacture, – such as limiting the number of threads to an inch, restricting the widths of many sorts of work, and determining the quantity of labor not to be exceeded without extra wages; that by the operation of these laws, the rate of wages, instead of being left to the recognized principles of regulation, has been arbitrarily fixed by persons whose ignorance renders them incompetent to a just decision; that masters are compelled by law to pay an equal price for all work, whether well or ill performed; and that they are wholly prevented from using improved machinery, it being ordered, that work, in the weaving of which machinery is employed, shall be paid precisely at the same rate as if done by hand; that these acts have frequently given rise to the most vexatious regulations, the unintentional breach of which has subjected manufacturers to ruinous penalties; and that the introduction of all machinery being prevented, by which labor might be cheapened, and the manufacturers being compelled to pay at a fixed price, under all circumstances, they are unable to afford employment to their workmen, in times of stagnation of trade, and are compelled to stop their looms. And finally, they complain that, notwithstanding these grievances under which they labor, while carrying on their manufacture in London, the law still prohibits them, while they continue to reside there, from employing any portion of their capital in the same business in any other part of the kingdom, where it might be more beneficially conducted. Now, Sir, absurd as these laws must appear to be to every man, the attempt to repeal them did not, as far as I recollect, altogether succeed. The weavers were too numerous, their interests too great, or their prejudices too strong; and this notable instance of protection and monopoly still exists, to be lamented in England with as much sincerity as it seems to be admired here.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

In order further to show the prevailing sentiment of the English government, I would refer to a report of a select committee of the House of Commons, at the head of which was the Vice-President of the Board of Trade (Mr. Wallace), in July, 1820. "The time," say that committee, "when monopolies could be successfully supported, or would be patiently endured, either in respect to subjects against subjects, or particular countries against the rest of the world, seems to have passed away. Commerce, to continue undisturbed and secure, must be, as it was intended to be, a source of reciprocal amity between nations, and an interchange of productions to promote the industry, the wealth, and the happiness of mankind." In moving for the re-appointment of the committee in February, 1823, the same gentleman said: "We must also get rid of that feeling of appropriation which exhibited itself in a disposition to produce every thing necessary for our own consumption, and to render ourselves independent of the world. No notion could be more absurd or mischievous; it led, even in peace, to an animosity and rancor greater than existed in time of war. Undoubtedly there would be great prejudices to combat, both in this country and elsewhere, in the attempt to remove the difficulties which are most obnoxious. It would be impossible to forget the attention which was in some respects due to the present system of protections, although that attention ought certainly not to be carried beyond the absolute necessity of the case." And in a second report of the committee, drawn by the same gentleman, in that part of it which proposes a diminution of duties on timber from the North of Europe, and the policy of giving a legislative preference to the importation of such timber in the log, and a discouragement of the importation of deals, it is stated that the committee reject this policy, because, among other reasons, "it is founded on a principle of exclusion, which they are most averse to see brought into operation, in any new instance, without the warrant of some evident and great political expediency." And on many subsequent occasions the same gentleman has taken occasion to observe, that he differed from those who thought that manufactures could not flourish without restrictions on trade; that old prejudices of that sort were dying away, and that more liberal and just sentiments were taking their place.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

These sentiments appear to have been followed by important legal provisions, calculated to remove restrictions and prohibitions where they were most severely felt; that is to say, in several branches of navigation and trade. They have relaxed their colonial system, they have opened the ports of their islands, and have done away the restriction which limited the trade of the colony to the mother country. Colonial products can now be carried directly from the islands to any part of Europe; and it may not be improbable, considering our own high duties on spirits, that that article may be exchanged hereafter by the English West India colonies directly for the timber and deals of the Baltic. It may be added, that Mr. Lowe, whom the gentleman has cited, says, that nobody supposes that the three great staples of English manufactures, cotton, woollen, and hardware, are benefited by any existing protecting duties; and that one object of all these protecting laws is usually overlooked, and that is, that they have been intended to reconcile the various interests to taxation; the corn law, for example, being designed as some equivalent to the agricultural interest for the burden of tithes and of poor-rates.

In fine, Sir, I think it is clear, that, if we now embrace the system of prohibitions and restrictions, we shall show an affection for what others have discarded, and be attempting to ornament ourselves with cast-off apparel.

Sir, I should not have gone into this prolix detail of opinions from any consideration of their special importance on the present occasion; but having happened to state that such was the actual opinion of the government of England at the present time, and the accuracy of this representation having been so confidently denied, I have chosen to put the matter beyond doubt or cavil, although at the expense of these tedious citations. I shall have occasion hereafter to refer more particularly to sundry recent British enactments, by way of showing the diligence and spirit with which that government strives to sustain its navigating interest, by opening the widest possible range to the enterprise of individual adventurers. I repeat, that I have not alluded to these examples of a foreign state as being fit to control our own policy. In the general principle, I acquiesce. Protection, when carried to the point which is now recommended, that is, to entire prohibition, seems to me destructive of all commercial intercourse between nations. We are urged to adopt the system upon general principles; and what would be the consequence of the universal application of such a general principle, but that nations would abstain entirely from all intercourse with one another? I do not admit the general principle; on the contrary, I think freedom of trade to be the general principle, and restriction the exception. And it is for every state, taking into view its own condition, to judge of the propriety, in any case, of making an exception, constantly preferring, as I think all wise governments will, not to depart without urgent reason from the general rule.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

There is another point in the existing policy of England to which I would most earnestly invite the attention of the committee; I mean the warehouse system, or what we usually call the system of drawback. Very great prejudices appear to me to exist with us on that subject. We seem averse to the extension of the principle. The English government, on the contrary, appear to have carried it to the extreme of liberality. They have arrived, however, at their present opinions and present practice by slow degrees. The transit system was commenced about the year 1803, but the first law was partial and limited. It admitted the importation of raw materials for exportation, but it excluded almost every sort of manufactured goods. This was done for the same reason that we propose to prevent the transit of Canadian wheat through the United States, the fear of aiding the competition of the foreign article with our own in foreign markets. Better reflection or more experience has induced them to abandon that mode of reasoning, and to consider all such means of influencing foreign markets as nugatory; since, in the present active and enlightened state of the world, nations will supply themselves from the best sources, and the true policy of all producers, whether of raw materials or of manufactured articles, is, not vainly to endeavor to keep other vendors out of the market, but to conquer them in it by the quality and the cheapness of their articles. The present policy of England, therefore, is to allure the importation of commodities into England, there to be deposited in English warehouses, thence to be exported in assorted cargoes, and thus enabling her to carry on a general export trade to all quarters of the globe. Articles of all kinds, with the single exception of tea, may be brought into England, from any part of the world, in foreign as well as British ships, there warehoused, and again exported, at the pleasure of the owner, without the payment of any duty or government charge whatever.

While I am upon this subject, I would take notice also of the recent proposition in the English Parliament to abolish the tax on imported wool; and it is observable that those who support this proposition give the same reasons that have been offered here, within the last week, against the duty which we propose on the same article. They say that their manufacturers require a cheap and coarse wool, for the supply of the Mediterranean and Levant trade, and that, without a more free admission of the wool of the Continent, that trade will all fall into the hands of the Germans and Italians, who will carry it on through Leghorn and Trieste. While there is this duty on foreign wool to protect the wool-growers of England, there is, on the other hand, a prohibition on the exportation of the native article in aid of the manufacturers. The opinion seems to be gaining strength,

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

that the true policy is to abolish both.

Laws have long existed in England preventing the emigration of artisans and the exportation of machinery; but the policy of these, also, has become doubted, and an inquiry has been instituted in Parliament into the expediency of repealing them. As to the emigration of artisans, say those who disapprove the laws, if that were desirable, no law could effect it; and as to the exportation of machinery, let us make it and export it as we would any other commodity. If France is determined to spin and weave her own cotton, let us, if we may, still have the benefit of furnishing the machinery.

I have stated these things, Sir, to show what seems to be the general tone of thinking and reasoning on these subjects in that country, the example of which has been so much pressed upon us. Whether the present policy of England be right or wrong, wise or unwise, it cannot, as it seems clearly to me, be quoted as an authority for carrying further the restrictive and exclusive system, either in regard to manufactures or trade. To re-establish a sound currency, to meet at once the shock, tremendous as it was, of the fall of prices, to enlarge her capacity for foreign trade, to open wide the field of individual enterprise and competition, and to say plainly and distinctly that the country must relieve itself from the embarrassments which it felt, by economy, frugality, and renewed efforts of enterprise, — these appear to be the general outline of the policy which England has pursued.

Mr. Chairman, I will now proceed to say a few words upon a topic, but for the introduction of which into this debate I should not have given the committee on this occasion the trouble of hearing me. Some days ago, I believe it was when we were settling the controversy between the oil-merchants and the tallow-chandlers, the balance of trade made its appearance in debate, and I must confess, Sir, that I spoke of it, or rather spoke to it, somewhat freely and irreverently. I believe I used the hard names which have been imputed to me, and I did it simply for the purpose of laying the spectre, and driving it back to its tomb. Certainly, Sir, when I called the old notion on this subject nonsense, I did not suppose that I should offend any one, unless the dead should happen to hear me. All the living generation, I took it for granted, would think the term very properly applied. In this, however, I was mistaken. The dead and the living rise up together to call me to account, and I must defend myself as well as I am able.

Let us inquire, then, Sir, what is meant by an unfavorable balance of trade, and what the argument is, drawn from that source. By an unfavorable balance of trade, I understand, is meant that state of things in which importation exceeds exportation. To apply it to our own case, if the value of goods imported exceed the value of those exported, then the balance of trade is said to be against us, inasmuch as we have run in debt to the amount of this difference. Therefore it is said, that, if a nation continue long in a commerce like this, it must be rendered absolutely bankrupt. It is in the condition of a man that buys more than he sells; and how can such a traffic be maintained without ruin? Now, Sir, the whole fallacy of this argument consists in supposing, that, whenever the value of imports exceeds that of exports, a debt is necessarily created to the extent of the difference, whereas, ordinarily, the import is no more than the result of the export, augmented in value by the labor of transportation. The excess of imports over exports, in truth, usually shows the gains, not the losses, of trade; or, in a country that not only buys and sells goods, but employs ships in carrying goods also, it shows the profits of commerce, and the earnings of navigation. Nothing is more certain than that, in the usual course of things, and taking a series of years together, the value of our imports is the aggregate of our exports and our freights. If the value of commodities imported in a given instance did not exceed the value of the outward cargo, with which they were purchased, then it would be clear to every man's common sense, that the voyage had not been profitable. If such commodities fell far short in value of the cost of the outward cargo, then the voyage would be a very losing one; and yet it would present exactly that state of things, which, according to the notion of a balance of trade, can alone indicate a prosperous commerce. On the other hand, if the return cargo were found to be worth much more than the outward cargo, while the merchant, having paid for the goods exported, and all the expenses of the voyage, finds a handsome sum yet in his hands, which he calls profits, the balance of trade is still against him, and, whatever he may think of it, he is in a very bad way. Although one individual or all individuals gain, the nation loses; while all its citizens grow rich, the country grows poor. This is the doctrine of the balance of trade.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Allow me, Sir, to give an instance tending to show how unaccountably individuals deceive themselves, and imagine themselves to be somewhat rapidly mending their condition, while they ought to be persuaded that, by that infallible standard, the balance of trade, they are on the high road to ruin. Some years ago, in better times than the present, a ship left one of the towns of New England with 70,000 specie dollars. She proceeded to Mocha, on the Red Sea, and there laid out these dollars in coffee, drugs, spices, and other articles procured in that market. With this new cargo she proceeded to Europe; two thirds of it were sold in Holland for $130,000, which the ship brought back, and placed in the same bank from the vaults of which she had taken her original outfit. The other third was sent to the ports of the Mediterranean, and produced a return of $25,000 in specie, and $15,000 in Italian merchandise. These sums together make $170,000 imported, which is $100,000 more than was exported, and is therefore proof of an unfavorable balance of trade, to that amount, in this adventure. We should find no great difficulty, Sir, in paying off our balances, if this were the nature of them all.

The truth is, Mr. Chairman, that all these obsolete and exploded

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

notions had their origin in very mistaken ideas of the true nature of commerce. Commerce is not a gambling among nations for a stake, to be won by some and lost by others. It has not the tendency necessarily to impoverish one of the parties to it, while it enriches the other; all parties gain, all parties make profits, all parties grow rich, by the operations of just and liberal commerce. If the world had but one clime and but one soil; if all men had the same wants and the same means, on the spot of their existence, to gratify those wants, – then, indeed, what one obtained from the other by exchange would injure one party in the same degree that it benefited the other; then, indeed, there would be some foundation for the balance of trade. But Providence has disposed our lot much more kindly. We inhabit a various earth. We have reciprocal wants, and reciprocal means for gratifying one another's wants. This is the true origin of commerce, which is nothing more than an exchange of equivalents, and, from the rude barter of its primitive state, to the refined and complex condition in which we see it, its principle is uniformly the same, its only object being, in every stage, to produce that exchange of commodities between individuals and between nations which shall conduce to the advantage and to the happiness of both. Commerce between nations has the same essential character as commerce between individuals, or between parts of the same nation. Cannot two individuals make an interchange of commodities which shall prove beneficial to both, or in which the balance of trade shall be in favor of both? If not, the tailor and the shoemaker, the farmer and the smith, have hitherto very much misunderstood their own interests. And with regard to the internal trade of a country, in which the same rule would apply as between nations, do we ever speak of such an intercourse as prejudicial to one side because it is useful to the other? Do we ever hear that, because the intercourse between New York and Albany is advantageous to one of those places, it must therefore be ruinous to the other?

May I be allowed, Sir, to read a passage on this subject from the observations of a gentleman, in my opinion one of the most clear and sensible writers and speakers of the age upon subjects of this sort?³²⁰ "There is no political question on which the prevalence of false principles is so general, as in what relates to the nature of commerce and to the pretended balance of trade; and there are few which have led to a greater number of practical mistakes, attended with consequences extensively prejudicial to the happiness of mankind. In this country, our Parliamentary proceedings, our public documents, and the works of several able and popular writers, have combined to propagate the impression, that we are indebted for much of our riches to what is called the balance of trade." "Our true policy would surely be to profess, as the object and guide of our commercial system, that which every man who has studied the subject must know to be the true principle of commerce, the interchange of reciprocal and equivalent benefit. We may rest assured that it is not in the 320. Mr. Huskisson, President of the English Board of Trade.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

nature of commerce to enrich one party at the expense of the other. This is a purpose at which, if it were practicable, we ought not to aim; and which, if we aimed at, we could not accomplish." These remarks, I believe, Sir, were written some ten or twelve years ago. They are in perfect accordance with the opinions, advanced in more elaborate treatises, and now that the world has returned to a state of peace, and commerce has resumed its natural channels, and different nations are enjoying, or seeking to enjoy, their respective portions of it, all see the justness of these ideas, — all see, that, in this day of knowledge and of peace, there can be no commerce between nations but that which shall benefit all who are parties to it.

If it were necessary, Mr. Chairman, I might ask the attention of the committee to refer to a document before us, on this subject of the balance of trade. It will be seen by reference to the accounts, that, in the course of the last year, our total export to Holland exceeded two millions and a half; our total import from the same country was but seven hundred thousand dollars. Now, can any man be wild enough to make any inference from this as to the gain or loss of our trade with Holland for that year? Our trade with Russia for the same year produced a balance the other way, our import being two millions, and our export but half a million. But this has no more tendency to show the Russian trade a losing trade, than the other statement has to show that the Dutch trade has been a gainful one. Neither of them, by itself, proves any thing.

Springing out of this notion of a balance of trade, there is another idea, which has been much dwelt upon in the course of this debate; that is, that we ought not to buy of nations who do not buy of us; for example, that the Russian trade is a trade disadvantageous to the country, and ought to be discouraged, because, in the ports of Russia, we buy more than we sell. Now allow me to observe, in the first place, Sir, that we have no account showing how much we do sell in the ports of Russia. Our official returns show us only what is the amount of our direct trade with her ports. But then we all know that the proceeds of another portion of our exports go to the same market, though indirectly. We send our own products, for example, to Cuba, or to Brazil; we there exchange them for the sugar and the coffee of those countries, and these articles we carry to St. Petersburg, and there sell them. Again; our exports to Holland and Hamburg are connected directly or indirectly with our imports from Russia. What difference does it make, in sense or reason, whether a cargo of iron be bought at St. Petersburg, by the exchange of a cargo of tobacco, or whether the tobacco has been sold on the way, in a better market, in a port of Holland, the money remitted to England, and the iron paid for by a bill on London? There might indeed have been an augmented freight, there might have been some saving of commissions, if tobacco had been in brisk demand in the Russian market. But still there is nothing to show that the whole voyage may not have been highly profitable. That depends upon the original cost of the article

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

here, the amount of freight and insurance to Holland, the price obtained there, the rate of exchange between Holland and England, the expense, then, of proceeding to St. Petersburg, the price of iron there, the rate of exchange between that place and England, the amount of freight and insurance at home, and, finally, the value of the iron when brought to our own market. These are the calculations which determine the fortune of the adventure; and nothing can be judged of it, one way or the other, by the relative state of our imports or exports with Holland, England, or Russia.

I would not be understood to deny, that it may often be our interest to cultivate a trade with countries that require most of such commodities as we can furnish, and which are capable also of directly supplying our own wants. This is the original and the simplest form of all commerce, and is no doubt highly beneficial. Some countries are so situated, that commerce, in this original form, or something near it, may be all that they can, without considerable inconvenience, carry on. Our trade, for example, with Madeira and the Western Islands has been useful to the country, as furnishing a demand for some portion of our agricultural products, which probably could not have been bought had we not received their products in return. Countries situated still farther from the great marts and highways of the commercial world may afford still stronger instances of the necessity and utility of conducting commerce on the original principle of barter, without much assistance from the operations of credit and exchange. All I would be understood to say is, that it by no means follows that we can carry on nothing but a losing trade with a country from which we receive more of her products than she receives of ours. Since I was supposed, the other day, in speaking upon this subject, to advance opinions which not only this country ought to reject, but which also other countries, and those the most distinguished for skill and success in commercial intercourse, do reject, I will ask leave to refer again to the discussion which I first mentioned in the English Parliament, relative to the foreign trade of that country. "With regard," says the mover³²¹ of the proposition, "to the argument employed against renewing our intercourse with the North of Europe, namely, that those who supplied us with timber from that quarter would not receive British manufactures in return, it appeared to him futile and ungrounded. If they did not send direct for our manufactures at home, they would send for them to Leipsic and other fairs of Germany. Were not the Russian and Polish merchants purchasers there to a great amount? But he would never admit the principle, that a trade was not profitable because we were obliged to carry it on with the precious metals, or that we ought to renounce it, because our manufactures were not received by the foreign nation in return for its produce. Whatever we received must be paid for in the produce of our land and labor, directly or circuitously, and he was glad to have the noble Earl's³²² marked concurrence in this 321. The Marquess of Lansdowne.

322. Lord Liverpool.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

principle."

Referring ourselves again, Sir, to the analogies of common life, no one would say that a farmer or a mechanic should buy only where he can do so by the exchange of his own produce, or of his own manufacture. Such exchange may be often convenient; and, on the other hand, the cash purchase may be often more convenient. It is the same in the intercourse of nations. Indeed, Mr. Speaker has placed this argument on very clear grounds. It was said, in the early part of the debate, that, if we cease to import English cotton fabrics, England will no longer continue to purchase our cotton. To this Mr. Speaker replied, with great force and justice, that, as she must have cotton in large quantities, she will buy the article where she can find it best and cheapest; and that it would be quite ridiculous in her, manufacturing as she still would be, for her own vast consumption and the consumption of millions in other countries, to reject our uplands because we had learned to manufacture a part of them for ourselves. Would it not be equally ridiculous in us, if the commodities of Russia were both cheaper and better suited to our wants than could be found elsewhere, to abstain from commerce with her, because she will not receive in return other commodities which we have to sell, but which she has no occasion to buy?

Intimately connected, Sir, with this topic, is another which has been brought into the debate; I mean the evil so much complained of, the exportation of specie. We hear gentlemen imputing the loss of market at home to a want of money, and this want of money to the exportation of the precious metals. We hear the India and China trade denounced, as a commerce conducted on our side, in a great measure, with gold and silver. These opinions, Sir, are clearly void of all just foundation, and we cannot too soon get rid of them. There are no shallower reasoners than those political and commercial writers who would represent it to be the only true and gainful end of commerce, to accumulate the precious metals. These are articles of use, and articles of merchandise, with this additional circumstance belonging to them, that they are made, by the general consent of nations, the standard by which the value of all other merchandise is to be estimated. In regard to weights and measures, something drawn from external nature is made a common standard, for the purposes of general convenience: and this is precisely the office performed by the precious metals, in addition to those uses to which, as metals, they are capable of being applied. There may be of these too much or too little in a country at a particular time, as there may be of any other articles. When the market is overstocked with them, as it often is, their exportation becomes as proper and as useful as that of other commodities, under similar circumstances. We need no more repine, when the dollars which have been brought here from South America are despatched to other countries, than when coffee and sugar take the same direction. We often deceive ourselves, by attributing to a scarcity of money that which is the result of other causes. In the course of this debate, the honorable member from Pennsylvania³²³ has represented the country as full of every thing but money. But this I take to be a mistake. The agricultural products, so abundant in Pennsylvania, will not, he says, sell for money; but they will sell for money as quick as for any other article which happens to be in demand. They will sell for money, for example, as easily as for coffee or for tea, at the prices which properly belong to those articles. The mistake lies in imputing that to want of money which arises from want of demand. Men do not buy wheat because they have money, but because they want wheat. To decide whether money be plenty or not, that is, whether there be a large portion of capital unemployed or not, when the currency of a country is metallic, we must look, not only to the prices of commodities, but also to the rate of interest. A low rate of interest, a facility of obtaining money on loans, a disposition to invest in permanent stocks, all of which are proofs that money is plenty, may nevertheless often denote a state not of the highest prosperity. They may, and often do, show a want of employment for capital; and the accumulation of specie shows the same thing. We have no occasion for the precious metals as money, except for the purposes of circulation, or rather of sustaining a safe paper circulation. And whenever there is a prospect of a profitable investment abroad, all the gold and silver, except what these purposes require, will be exported. For the same reason, if a demand exist abroad for sugar and coffee, whatever amount of those articles might exist in the country, beyond the wants of its own consumption, would be sent abroad to meet that demand. Besides, Sir, how should it ever occur to anybody, that we should continue to export gold and silver, if we did not continue to import them also? If a vessel take our own products to the Havana, or elsewhere, exchange them for dollars, proceed to China, exchange them for silks and teas, bring these last to the ports of the Mediterranean, sell them there for dollars, and return to the United States, — this would be a voyage resulting in the importation of the precious metals. But if she had returned from Cuba, and the dollars obtained there had been shipped direct from the United States to China, the China goods sold in Holland, and the proceeds brought home in the hemp and iron of Russia, this would be a voyage in which they were exported. Yet everybody sees that both might be equally beneficial to the individual and to the public. I believe, Sir, that, in point of fact, we have enjoyed great benefit in our trade with India and China, from the liberty of going from place to place all over the world, without being obliged in the mean time to return home, a liberty not heretofore enjoyed by the private traders of England, in regard to India and China. Suppose the American ship to be at Brazil, for example; she could proceed with her dollars direct to India, and, in return, could distribute her cargo in all the various ports of Europe or America; while an English ship, if a private trader, being at

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Brazil, must first return to England, and then could only proceed in the direct line from England to India. This advantage our countrymen have not been backward to improve; and in the debate to which I have already so often referred, it was stated, not without some complaint of the inconvenience of exclusion, and the natural sluggishness of monopoly, that American ships were at that moment fitting out in the Thames, to supply France, Holland, and other countries on the Continent, with tea; while the East India Company would not do this of themselves, nor allow any of their fellow-countrymen to do it for them.

There is yet another subject, Mr. Chairman, upon which I would wish to say something, if I might presume upon the continued patience of the committee. We hear sometimes in the House, and continually out of it, of the rate of exchange, as being one proof that we are on the downward road to ruin. Mr. Speaker himself has adverted to that topic, and I am afraid that his authority may give credit to opinions clearly unfounded, and which lead to very false and erroneous conclusions. Sir, let us see what the facts are. Exchange on England has recently risen one or one and a half per cent, partly owing, perhaps, to the introduction of this bill into Congress. Before this recent rise, and for the last six months, I understand its average may have been about seven and a half per cent advance. Now, supposing this to be the real, and not merely, as it is, the nominal, par of exchange between us and England, what would it prove? Nothing, except that funds were wanted by American citizens in England for commercial operations, to be carried on either in England or elsewhere. It would not necessarily show that we were indebted to England; for, if we had occasion to pay debts in Russia or Holland, funds in England would naturally enough be required for such a purpose. Even if it did prove that a balance was due England at the moment, it would have no tendency to explain to us whether our commerce with England had been profitable or unprofitable.

But it is not true, in point of fact, that the real price of exchange is seven and a half per cent advance, nor, indeed, that there is at the present moment any advance at all. That is to say, it is not true that merchants will give such an advance, or any advance, for money in England, beyond what they would give for the same amount, in the same currency, here. It will strike every one who reflects upon it, that, if there were a real difference of seven and a half per cent, money would be immediately shipped to England; because the expense of transportation would be far less than that difference. Or commodities of trade would be shipped to Europe, and the proceeds remitted to England. If it could so happen, that American merchants should be willing to pay ten per cent premium for money in England, or, in other words, that a real difference to that amount in the exchange should exist, its effects would be immediately seen in new shipments of our own commodities to Europe, because this state of things would create new motives. A cargo of tobacco, for example, might sell at Amsterdam for the same price as before; but if its proceeds, when remitted to London, were advanced, as they would be in such case, ten per cent by the state of exchange, this would be so much added to the price, and would operate therefore as a motive for the exportation; and in this way national balances are, and always will be, adjusted.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

To form any accurate idea of the true state of exchange between two countries, we must look at their currencies, and compare the quantities of gold and silver which they may respectively represent. This usually explains the state of the exchanges; and this will satisfactorily account for the apparent advance now existing on bills drawn on England. The English standard of value is gold; with us that office is performed by gold, and by silver also, at a fixed relation to each other. But our estimate of silver is rather higher, in proportion to gold, than most nations give it; it is higher, especially, than in England, at the present moment. The consequence is, that silver, which remains a legal currency with us, stays here, while the gold has gone abroad; verifying the universal truth, that, if two currencies be allowed to exist, of different values, that which is cheapest will fill up the whole circulation. For as much gold as will suffice to pay here a debt of a given amount, we can buy in England more silver than would be necessary to pay the same debt here; and from this difference in the value of silver arises wholly or in a great measure the present apparent difference in exchange. Spanish dollars sell now in England for four shillings and nine pence sterling per ounce, equal to one dollar and six cents. By our standard the same ounce is worth one dollar and sixteen cents, being a difference of about nine per cent. The true par of exchange, therefore, is nine per cent. If a merchant here pay one hundred Spanish dollars for a bill on England, at nominal par, in sterling money, that is for a bill of £22 10s., the proceeds of this bill, when paid in England in the legal currency, will there purchase, at the present price of silver, one hundred and nine Spanish dollars. Therefore, if the nominal advance on English bills do not exceed nine per cent, the real exchange is not against this country; in other words, it does not show that there is any pressing or particular occasion for the remittance of funds to England.

As little can be inferred from the occasional transfer of United States stock to England. Considering the interest paid on our stocks, the entire stability of our credit, and the accumulation of capital in England, it is not at all wonderful that investments should occasionally be made in our funds. As a sort of countervailing fact, it may be stated that English stocks are now actually held in this country, though probably not to any considerable amount.

I will now proceed, Sir, to state some objections of a more general nature to the course of Mr. Speaker's observations. He seems to me to argue the question as if all domestic industry were confined to the production of manufactured articles; as if the employment of our own capital and our own labor, in the occupations of commerce and navigation, were not as emphatically domestic industry as any other occupation. Some other gentlemen, in the course of the debate, have spoken of the price paid for every foreign manufactured article as so much given for the encouragement of foreign labor, to the prejudice of our own. But is not every such article the product of our own labor as truly as if we had manufactured it ourselves? Our labor has earned it, and paid the price for it. It is so much added to the stock of national wealth. If the commodity were dollars, nobody would doubt the truth of this remark; and it is precisely as correct in its application to any other commodity as to silver. One man makes a yard of cloth at home; another raises agricultural products and buys a yard of imported cloth. Both these are equally the earnings of domestic industry, and the only questions that arise in the case are two: the first is, which is the best mode, under all the circumstances, of obtaining the article; the second is, how far this first question is proper to be decided by government, and how far it is proper to be left to individual discretion. There is no foundation for the distinction which attributes to certain employments the peculiar appellation of American industry; and it is, in my judgment, extremely unwise to attempt such discriminations.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

We are asked, What nations have ever attained eminent prosperity without encouraging manufactures? I may ask, What nation ever reached the like prosperity without promoting foreign trade? I regard these interests as closely connected, and am of opinion that it should be our aim to cause them to flourish together. I know it would be very easy to promote manufactures, at least for a time, but probably for a short time only, if we might act in disregard of other interests. We could cause a sudden transfer of capital, and a violent change in the pursuits of men. We could exceedingly benefit some classes by these means. But what, then, becomes of the interests of others? The power of collecting revenue by duties on imports, and the habit of the government of collecting almost its whole revenue in that mode, will enable us, without exceeding the bounds of moderation, to give great advantages to those classes of manufactures which we may think most useful to promote at home. What I object to is the immoderate use of the power, – exclusions and prohibitions; all of which, as I think, not only interrupt the pursuits of individuals, with great injury to themselves and little or no benefit to the country, but also often divert our own labor, or, as it may very properly be called, our own domestic industry, from those occupations in which it is well employed and well paid, to others in which it will be worse employed and worse paid. For my part, I see very little relief to those who are likely to be deprived of their employments, or who find the prices of the commodities which they need raised, in any of the alternatives which Mr. Speaker has presented. It is nothing to say that they may, if they choose, continue to buy the foreign article; the answer is, the price is augmented: nor that they may use the domestic article; the price of that also is increased. Nor can they supply themselves by the substitution of their own fabric. How can the agriculturist make his own iron? How can the ship-owner grow his own hemp?

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

But I have a yet stronger objection to the course of Mr. Speaker's reasoning; which is, that he leaves out of the case all that has been already done for the protection of manufactures, and argues the question as if those interests were now for the first time to receive aid from duties on imports. I can hardly express the surprise I feel that Mr. Speaker should fall into the common mode of expression used elsewhere, and ask if we will give our manufacturers no protection. Sir, look to the history of our laws; look to the present state of our laws. Consider that our whole revenue, with a trifling exception, is collected at the custom-house, and always has been; and then say what propriety there is in calling on the government for protection, as if no protection had heretofore been afforded. The real question before us, in regard to all the important clauses of the bill, is not whether we will lay duties, but whether we will augment duties. The demand is for something more than exists, and yet it is pressed as if nothing existed. It is wholly forgotten that iron and hemp, for example, already pay a very heavy and burdensome duty; and, in short, from the general tenor of Mr. Speaker's observations, one would infer that, hitherto, we had rather taxed our own manufactures than fostered them by taxes on those of other countries. We hear of the fatal policy of the tariff of 1816; and yet the law of 1816 was passed avowedly for the benefit of manufacturers, and, with very few exceptions, imposed on imported articles very great additions of tax; in some important instances, indeed, amounting to a prohibition.

Sir, on this subject, it becomes us at least to understand the real posture of the question. Let us not suppose that we are beginning the protection of manufactures, by duties on imports. What we are asked to do is, to render those duties much higher, and therefore, instead of dealing in general commendations of the benefits of protection, the friends of the bill, I think, are bound to make out a fair case for each of the manufactures which they propose to benefit. The government has already done much for their protection, and it ought to be presumed to have done enough, unless it be shown, by the facts and considerations applicable to each, that there is a necessity for doing more.

On the general question, Sir, allow me to ask if the doctrine of prohibition, as a general doctrine, be not preposterous. Suppose all nations to act upon it; they would be prosperous, then, according to the argument, precisely in the proportion in which they abolished intercourse with one another. The less of mutual commerce the better, upon this hypothesis. Protection and encouragement may be, and doubtless are, sometimes, wise and beneficial, if kept within proper limits; but when carried to an extravagant height, or the point of prohibition, the absurd character of the system manifests itself. Mr. Speaker has referred to the late Emperor Napoleon, as having attempted to naturalize the manufacture of cotton in France. He did not cite a more extravagant part of the projects of that ruler, that is, his attempt to naturalize the growth of that plant itself, in France; whereas, we have understood that considerable districts in the South of France, and in Italy, of rich and productive lands, were at one time withdrawn from profitable uses, and devoted to raising, at great expense, a little bad cotton. Nor have we been referred to the attempts, under the same system, to make sugar and coffee from common culinary vegetables; attempts which served to fill the print-shops of Europe, and to show us how easy is the transition from what some think sublime to that which all admit to be ridiculous. The folly of some of these projects has not been surpassed, nor hardly equalled, unless it be by the philosopher in one of the satires of Swift, who so long labored to extract sunbeams from cucumbers.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

The poverty and unhappiness of Spain have been attributed to the want of protection to her own industry. If by this it be meant that the poverty of Spain is owing to bad government and bad laws, the remark is, in a great measure, just. But these very laws are bad because they are restrictive, partial, and prohibitory. If prohibition were protection, Spain would seem to have had enough of it. Nothing can exceed the barbarous rigidity of her colonial system, or the folly of her early commercial regulations. Unenlightened and bigoted legislation, the multitude of holidays, miserable roads, monopolies on the part of government, restrictive laws, that ought long since to have been abrogated, are generally, and I believe truly, reckoned the principal causes of the bad state of the productive industry of Spain. Any partial improvement in her condition, or increase of her prosperity, has been, in all cases, the result of relaxation, and the abolition of what was intended for favor and protection.

In short, Sir, the general sense of this age sets, with a strong current, in favor of freedom of commercial intercourse, and unrestrained individual action. Men yield up their notions of monopoly and restriction, as they yield up other prejudices, slowly and reluctantly; but they cannot withstand the general tide of opinion.

Let me now ask, Sir, what relief this bill proposes to some of those great and essential interests of the country, the condition of which has been referred to as proof of national distress; and which condition, although I do not think it makes out a case of distress, yet does indicate depression.

And first, Sir, as to our foreign trade. Mr. Speaker has stated that there has been a considerable falling off in the tonnage employed in that trade. This is true, lamentably true. In my opinion, it is one of those occurrences which ought to arrest our immediate, our deep, our most earnest attention. What does this bill propose for its relief? It proposes nothing but new burdens. It proposes to diminish its employment, and it proposes, at the same time, to augment its expense, by subjecting it to heavier taxation. Sir, there is no interest, in regard to which a stronger case for protection can be made out, than the navigating interest. Whether we look at its present condition, which is admitted to be depressed, the number of persons connected with it, and dependent upon it for their daily bread, or its importance to the country in a political point of view, it has claims upon our attention which cannot be surpassed. But what do we propose to do for it? I repeat, Sir, simply to burden and to tax it. By a statement which I have already submitted to the committee, it appears that the shipping interest pays, annually, more than half a million of dollars in duties on articles used in the construction of ships. We propose to add nearly, or quite, fifty per cent to this amount, at the very moment that we appeal to the languishing state of this interest as a proof of national distress. Let it be remembered that our shipping employed in foreign commerce has, at this moment, not the shadow of government protection. It goes abroad upon the wide sea to make its own way, and earn its own bread, in a professed competition with the whole world. Its resources are its own frugality, its own skill, its own enterprise. It hopes to succeed, if it shall succeed at all, not by extraordinary aid of government, but by patience, vigilance, and toil. This right arm of the nation's safety strengthens its own muscle by its own efforts, and by unwearied exertion in its own defence becomes strong for the defence of the country.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

No one acquainted with this interest can deny that its situation, at this moment, is extremely critical. We have left it hitherto to maintain itself or perish; to swim if it can, and to sink if it must. But at this moment of its apparent struggle, can we as men, can we as patriots, add another stone to the weight that threatens to carry it down? Sir, there is a limit to human power, and to human effort. I know the commercial marine of this country can do almost every thing, and bear almost every thing. Yet some things are impossible to be done, and some burdens may be impossible to be borne; and as it was the last ounce that broke the back of the camel, so the last tax, although it were even a small one, may be decisive as to the power of our marine to sustain the conflict in which it is now engaged with all the commercial nations on the globe.

Again, Mr. Chairman, the failures and the bankruptcies which have taken place in our large cities have been mentioned as proving the little success attending commerce, and its general decline. But this bill has no balm for those wounds. It is very remarkable, that when the losses and disasters of certain manufacturers, those of iron, for instance, are mentioned, it is done for the purpose of invoking aid for the distressed. Not so with the losses and disasters of commerce; these last are narrated, and not unfrequently much exaggerated, to prove the ruinous nature of the employment, and to show that it ought to be abandoned, and the capital engaged in it turned to other objects.

It has been often said, Sir, that our manufacturers have to contend, not only against the natural advantages of those who produce similar articles in foreign countries, but also against the action of foreign governments, who have great political interest in aiding their own manufactures to suppress ours. But have not these governments as great an interest to cripple our marine, by preventing the growth of our commerce and navigation? What is it that makes us the object of the highest respect, or the most suspicious jealousy, to foreign states? What is it that most enables us to take high relative rank among the nations? I need not say that this results, more than from any thing else, from that quantity of military power which we can cause to be water-borne, and from that extent of commerce which we are able to maintain throughout the world.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Mr. Chairman, I am conscious of having detained the committee much too long with these observations. My apology for now proceeding to some remarks upon the particular clauses of the bill is, that, representing a district at once commercial and highly manufacturing, and being called upon to vote upon a bill containing provisions so numerous and so various, I am naturally desirous to state as well what I approve, as what I would reject. The first section proposes an augmented duty upon woollen manufactures. This, if it were unqualified, would no doubt be desirable to those who are engaged in that business. I have myself presented a petition from the woollen manufacturers of Massachusetts, praying an augmented ad valorem duty upon imported woollen cloths; and I am prepared to accede to that proposition, to a reasonable extent. But then this bill proposes, also, a very high duty upon imported wool; and, as far as I can learn, a majority of the manufacturers are at least extremely doubtful whether, taking these two provisions together, the state of the law is not better for them now than it would be if this bill should pass. It is said, this tax on raw wool will benefit the agriculturist; but I know it to be the opinion of some of the best informed of that class, that it will do them more hurt than good. They fear it will check the manufacturer, and consequently check his demand for their article. The argument is, that a certain quantity of coarse wool, cheaper than we can possibly furnish, is necessary to enable the manufacturer to carry on the general business, and that if this cannot be had, the consequence will be, not a greater, but a less, manufacture of our own wool. I am aware that very intelligent persons differ upon this point; but if we may safely infer from that difference of opinion, that the proposed benefit is at least doubtful, it would be prudent perhaps to abstain from the experiment. Certain it is, that the same reasoning has been employed, as I have before stated, on the same subject, when a renewed application was made to the English Parliament to repeal the duty on imported wool, I believe scarcely two months ago; those who supported the application pressing urgently the necessity of an unrestricted use of the cheap, imported raw material, with a view to supply with coarse cloths the markets of warm climates, such as those of Egypt and Turkey, and especially a vast newly created demand

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

in the South American states.

As to the manufactures of cotton, it is agreed, I believe, that they are generally successful. It is understood that the present existing duty operates pretty much as a prohibition over those descriptions of fabrics to which it applies. The proposed alteration would probably enable the American manufacturer to commence competition with higher-priced fabrics; and so, perhaps, would an augmentation less than is here proposed. I consider the cotton manufactures not only to have reached, but to have passed, the point of competition. I regard their success as certain, and their growth as rapid as the most impatient could well expect. If, however, a provision of the nature of that recommended here were thought necessary, to commence new operations in the same line of manufacture, I should cheerfully agree to it, if it were not at the cost of sacrificing other great interests of the country. I need hardly say, that whatever promotes the cotton and woollen manufactures promotes most important interests of my constituents. They have a great stake in the success of those establishments, and, as far as those manufactures are concerned, would be as much benefited by the provisions of this bill as any part of the community. It is obvious, too, I should think, that, for some considerable time, manufactures of this sort, to whatever magnitude they may rise, will be principally established in those parts of the country where population is most dense, capital most abundant, and where the most successful beginnings have already been made.

But if these be thought to be advantages, they are greatly counterbalanced by other advantages enjoyed by other portions of the country. I cannot but regard the situation of the West as highly favorable to human happiness. It offers, in the abundance of its new and fertile lands, such assurances of permanent property and respectability to the industrious, it enables them to lay such sure foundations for a competent provision for their families, it makes such a nation of freeholders, that it need not envy the happiest and most prosperous of the manufacturing communities. We may talk as we will of well-fed and well-clothed day-laborers or journeymen; they are not, after all, to be compared, either for happiness or respectability, with him who sleeps under his own roof and cultivates his own fee-simple inheritance.

With respect to the proposed duty on glass, I would observe, that, upon the best means of judging which I possess, I am of opinion that the chairman of the committee is right in stating that there is in effect a bounty upon the exportation of the British article. I think it entirely proper, therefore, to raise our own duty by such an amount as shall be equivalent to that bounty.

And here, Mr. Chairman, before proceeding to those parts of the bill to which I most strenuously object, I will be so presumptuous as to take up a challenge which Mr. Speaker has thrown down. He has asked us, in a tone of interrogatory indicative of the feeling of anticipated triumph, to mention any country in which manufactures have flourished without the aid of prohibitory laws. He has demanded if it be not policy, protection, ay, and prohibition, that have carried other states to the height of their prosperity, and whether any one has succeeded with such tame and inert legislation as ours. Sir, I am ready to answer this inquiry.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

There is a country, not undistinguished among the nations, in which the progress of manufactures has been far more rapid than in any other, and yet unaided by prohibitions or unnatural restrictions. That country, the happiest which the sun shines on, is our own.

The woollen manufactures of England have existed from the early ages of the monarchy. Provisions designed to aid and foster them are in the black-letter statutes of the Edwards and the Henrys. Ours, on the contrary, are but of yesterday; and yet, with no more than the protection of existing laws, they are already at the point of close and promising competition. Sir, nothing is more unphilosophical than to refer us, on these subjects, to the policy adopted by other nations in a very different state of society, or to infer that what was judged expedient by them, in their early history, must also be expedient for us, in this early part of our own. This would be reckoning our age chronologically, and estimating our advance by our number of years; when, in truth, we should regard only the state of society, the knowledge, the skill, the capital, and the enterprise which belong to our times. We have been transferred from the stock of Europe, in a comparatively enlightened age, and our civilization and improvement date as far back as her own. Her original history is also our original history; and if, since the moment of separation, she has gone ahead of us in some respects, it may be said, without violating truth, that we have kept up in others, and, in others again, are ahead ourselves. We are to legislate, then, with regard to the present actual state of society; and our own experience shows us, that, commencing manufactures at the present highly enlightened and emulous moment, we need not resort to the clumsy helps with which, in less auspicious times, governments have sought to enable the ingenuity and industry of their people to hobble along.

The English cotton manufactures began about the commencement of the last reign. Ours can hardly be said to have commenced with any earnestness, until the application of the power-loom, in 1814, not more than ten years ago. Now, Sir, I hardly need again speak of its progress, its present extent, or its assurance of future enlargement. In some sorts of fabrics we are already exporters, and the products of our factories are, at this moment, in the South American markets. We see, then, what can be done without prohibition or extraordinary protection, because we see what has been done; and I venture to predict, that, in a few years, it will be thought wonderful that these branches of manufactures, at least, should have been thought to require additional aid from government.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Mr. Chairman, the best apology for laws of prohibition and laws of monopoly will be found in that state of society, not only unenlightened but sluggish, in which they are most generally established. Private industry, in those days, required strong provocatives, which governments were seeking to administer by these means. Something was wanted to actuate and stimulate men, and the prospects of such profits as would, in our times, excite unbounded competition, would hardly move the sloth of former ages. In some instances, no doubt, these laws produced an effect, which, in that period, would not have taken place without them. But our age is of a wholly different character, and its legislation takes another turn. Society is full of excitement; competition comes in place of monopoly; and intelligence and industry ask only for fair play and an open field. Profits, indeed, in such a state of things, will be small, but they will be extensively diffused; prices will be low, and the great body of the people prosperous and happy. It is worthy of remark, that, from the operation of these causes, commercial wealth, while it is increased beyond calculation in its general aggregate, is, at the same time, broken and diminished in its subdivisions. Commercial prosperity should be judged of, therefore, rather from the extent of trade, than from the magnitude of its apparent profits. It has been remarked, that Spain, certainly one of the poorest nations, made very great profits on the amount of her trade; but with little other benefit than the enriching of a few individuals and companies. Profits to the English merchants engaged in the Levant and Turkey trade were formerly very great, and there were richer merchants in England some centuries ago, considering the comparative value of money, than at the present highly commercial period. When the diminution of profits arises from the extent of competition, it indicates rather a salutary than an injurious change.³²⁴

The true course then, Sir, for us to pursue, is, in my opinion, to consider what our situation is; what our means are; and how they can be best applied. What amount of population have we in comparison with our extent of soil, what amount of capital, and labor at what price? As to skill, knowledge, and enterprise, we may safely take it for granted that in these particulars we are on an equality with others. Keeping these considerations in view, allow me to examine two or three of those provisions of the bill to which I feel the strongest objections.

To begin with the article of iron. Our whole annual consumption of this article is supposed by the chairman of the committee to be forty-eight or fifty thousand tons. Let us suppose the latter. The amount of our own manufacture he estimates, I think, at seventeen thousand tons. The present duty on the imported article is $15 per ton, and as this duty causes, of course, an

324. "The present equable diffusion of moderate wealth cannot be better illustrated, than by remarking that in this age many palaces and superb mansions have been pulled down, or converted to other purposes, while none have been erected on a like scale. The numberless baronial castles and mansions, in all parts of England, now in ruins, may all be adduced as examples of the decrease of inordinate wealth. On the other hand, the multiplication of commodious dwellings for the upper and middle classes of society, and the increased comforts of all ranks, exhibit a picture of individual happiness, unknown in any other age." — Sir G. Blane's Letter to Lord Spencer, in 1800.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

equivalent augmentation of the price of the home manufacture, the whole increase of price is equal to $750,000 annually. This sum we pay on a raw material, and on an absolute necessary of life. The bill proposes to raise the duty from $15 to $22.50 per ton, which would be equal to $1,125,000 on the whole annual consumption. So that, suppose the point of prohibition which is aimed at by some gentlemen to be attained, the consumers of the article would pay this last-mentioned sum every year to the producers of it, over and above the price at which they could supply themselves with the same article from other sources. There would be no mitigation of this burden, except from the prospect, whatever that might be, that iron would fall in value, by domestic competition, after the importation should be prohibited. It will be easy, I think, to show that it cannot fall; and supposing for the present that it shall not, the result will be, that we shall pay annually the sum of $1,125,000, constantly augmented, too, by increased consumption of the article, to support a business that cannot support itself.

It is of no consequence to the argument, that this sum is expended at home; so it would be if we taxed the people to support any other useless and expensive establishment, to build another Capitol, for example, or incur an unnecessary expense of any sort. The question still is, Are the money, time, and labor well laid out in these cases? The present price of iron at Stockholm, I am assured by importers, is $53 per ton on board, $48 in the yard before loading, and probably not far from $40 at the mines. Freight, insurance, &c. may be fairly estimated at $15, to which add our present duty of $15 more, and these two last sums, together with the cost on board at Stockholm, give $83 as the cost of Swedes iron in our market. In fact, it is said to have been sold last year at $81.50 to $82 per ton. We perceive, by this statement, that the cost of the iron is doubled in reaching us from the mine in which it is produced. In other words, our present duty, with the expense of transportation, gives an advantage to the American over the foreign manufacturer of one hundred per cent. Why, then, cannot the iron be manufactured at home? Our ore is said to be as good, and some of it better. It is under our feet, and the chairman of the committee tells us that it might be wrought by persons who otherwise will not be employed. Why, then, is it not wrought? Nothing could be more sure of constant sale. It is not an article of changeable fashion, but of absolute, permanent necessity, and such, therefore, as would always meet a steady demand. Sir, I think it would be well for the chairman of the committee to revise his premises, for I am persuaded that there is an ingredient properly belonging to the calculation which he has misstated or omitted. Swedes iron in England pays a duty, I think, of about $27 per ton; yet it is imported in considerable quantities, notwithstanding the vast capital, the excellent coal, and, more important than all perhaps, the highly improved state of inland navigation in England; although I am aware that the English use of Swedes iron may be thought to be owing in some degree to its superior quality.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Sir, the true explanation of this appears to me to lie in the different prices of labor; and here I apprehend is the grand mistake in the argument of the chairman of the committee. He says it would cost the nation, as a nation, nothing, to make our ore into iron. Now, I think it would cost us precisely that which we can worst afford; that is, great labor. Although bar-iron is very properly considered a raw material in respect to its various future uses, yet, as bar-iron, the principal ingredient in its cost is labor. Of manual labor, no nation has more than a certain quantity, nor can it be increased at will. As to some operations, indeed, its place may be supplied by machinery; but there are other services which machinery cannot perform for it, and which it must perform for itself. A most important question for every nation, as well as for every individual, to propose to itself, is, how it can best apply that quantity of labor which it is able to perform. Labor is the great producer of wealth; it moves all other causes. If it call machinery to its aid, it is still employed, not only in using the machinery, but in making it. Now, with respect to the quantity of labor, as we all know, different nations are differently circumstanced. Some need, more than any thing, work for hands, others require hands for work; and if we ourselves are not absolutely in the latter class, we are still most fortunately very near it. I cannot find that we have those idle hands, of which the chairman of the committee speaks. The price of labor is a conclusive and unanswerable refutation of that idea; it is known to be higher with us than in any other civilized state, and this is the greatest of all proofs of general happiness. Labor in this country is independent and proud. It has not to ask the patronage of capital, but capital solicits the aid of labor. This is the general truth in regard to the condition of our whole population, although in the large cities there are doubtless many exceptions. The mere capacity to labor in common agricultural employments, gives to our young men the assurance of independence. We have been asked, Sir, by the chairman of the committee, in a tone of some pathos, whether we will allow to the serfs of Russia and Sweden the benefit of making iron for us. Let me inform the gentleman, Sir, that those same serfs do not earn more than seven cents a day, and that they work in these mines for that compensation because they are serfs. And let me ask the gentleman further, whether we have any labor in this country that cannot be better employed than in a business which does not yield the laborer more than seven cents a day? This, it appears to me, is the true question for our consideration. There is no reason for saying that we will work iron because we have mountains that contain the ore. We might for the same reason dig among our rocks for the scattered grains of gold and silver which might be found there. The true inquiry is, Can we produce the article in a useful state at the same cost, or nearly at the same cost, or at any reasonable approximation towards the same cost, at which we can import it?

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Some general estimates of the price and profits of labor, in those countries from which we import our iron, might be formed by comparing the reputed products of different mines, and their prices, with the number of hands employed. The mines of Danemora are said to yield about 4,000 tons, and to employ in the mines twelve hundred workmen. Suppose this to be worth $50 per ton; any one will find by computation, that the whole product would not pay, in this country, for one quarter part of the necessary labor. The whole export of Sweden was estimated, a few years ago, at 400,000 ship pounds, or about 54,000 tons. Comparing this product with the number of workmen usually supposed to be employed in the mines which produce iron for exportation, the result will not greatly differ from the foregoing. These estimates are general, and might not conduct us to a precise result; but we know, from intelligent travellers, and eye-witnesses, that the price of labor in the Swedish mines does not exceed seven cents a day.³²⁵

The true reason, Sir, why it is not our policy to compel our citizens to manufacture our own iron, is that they are far better employed. It is an unproductive business, and they are not poor enough to be obliged to follow it. If we had more of poverty, more of misery, and something of servitude, if we had an ignorant, idle, starving population, we might set up for iron makers against the world.

The committee will take notice, Mr. Chairman, that, under our present duty, together with the expense of transportation, our manufacturers are able to supply their own immediate neighborhood; and this proves the magnitude of that substantial encouragement which these two causes concur to give. There is little or no foreign iron, I presume, used in the county of Lancaster. This is owing to the heavy expense of land carriage; and as we recede farther from the coast, the manufacturers are still more completely secured, as to their own immediate market, against the competition of the imported article. But what they ask is to be allowed to supply the sea-coast, at such a price as shall be formed by adding to the cost at the mines the expense of land carriage to the sea; and this appears to me most unreasonable. The effect of it would be to compel the consumer to pay the cost of two land transportations; for, in the first place, the price of iron at the inland furnaces will always be found to be at, or not much below, the price of the imported article in the seaport, and the cost of transportation to the neighborhood of the furnace; and to enable the home product to hold a competition with the imported in the seaport, the cost

325. The price of labor in Russia may be pretty well collected from Tooke's "View of the Russian Empire." "The workmen in the mines and the founderies are, indeed, all called master-people; but they distinguish themselves into masters, under-masters, apprentices, delvers, servants, carriers, washers, and separators. In proportion to their ability their wages are regulated, which proceed from fifteen to upwards of thirty roubles per annum. The provisions which they receive from the magazines are deducted from this pay." The value of the rouble at that time (1799) was about twenty-four pence sterling, or forty-five cents of our money. "By the edict of 1799," it is added, "a laborer with a horse shall receive, daily, in summer, twenty, and in winter, twelve copecks; a laborer without a horse, in summer, ten, in winter, eight copecks."

A copeck is the hundredth part of a rouble, or about half a cent of our money. The price of labor may have risen, in some degree, since that period, but probably not much.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

of another transportation downward, from the furnace to the coast, must be added. Until our means of inland commerce be improved, and the charges of transportation by that means lessened, it appears to me wholly impracticable, with such duties as any one would think of proposing, to meet the wishes of the manufacturers of this article. Suppose we were to add the duty proposed by this bill, although it would benefit the capital invested in works near the sea and the navigable rivers, yet the benefit would not extend far in the interior. Where, then, are we to stop, or what limit is proposed to us?

The freight of iron has been afforded from Sweden to the United States as low as eight dollars per ton. This is not more than the price of fifty miles of land carriage. Stockholm, therefore, for the purpose of this argument, may be considered as within fifty miles of Philadelphia. Now, it is at once a just and a strong view of this case, to consider, that there are, within fifty miles of our market, vast multitudes of persons who are willing to labor in the production of this article for us, at the rate of seven cents per day, while we have no labor which will not command, upon the average, at least five or six times that amount. The question is, then, shall we buy this article of these manufacturers, and suffer our own labor to earn its greater reward, or shall we employ our own labor in a similar manufacture, and make up to it, by a tax on consumers, the loss which it must necessarily sustain.

I proceed, Sir, to the article of hemp. Of this we imported last year, in round numbers, 6,000 tons, paying a duty of $30 a ton, or $180,000 on the whole amount; and this article, it is to be remembered, is consumed almost entirely in the uses of navigation. The whole burden may be said to fall on one interest. It is said we can produce this article if we will raise the duties. But why is it not produced now? or why, at least, have we not seen some specimens? for the present is a very high duty, when expenses of importation are added. Hemp was purchased at St. Petersburg, last year, at $101.67 per ton. Charges attending shipment, &c., $14.25. Freight may be stated at $30 per ton, and our existing duty $30 more. These three last sums, being the charges of transportation, amount to a protection of near seventy-five per cent in favor of the home manufacturer, if there be any such. And we ought to consider, also, that the price of hemp at St. Petersburg is increased by all the expense of transportation from the place of growth to that port; so that probably the whole cost of transportation, from the place of growth to our market, including our duty, is equal to the first cost of the article; or, in other words, is a protection in favor of our own product of one hundred per cent.

And since it is stated that we have great quantities of fine land for the production of hemp, of which I have no doubt, the question recurs, Why is it not produced? I speak of the water-rotted hemp, for it is admitted that that which is dew-rotted is not sufficiently good for the requisite purposes. I cannot say whether the cause be in climate, in the process of rotting,

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

or what else, but the fact is certain, that there is no American water-rotted hemp in the market. We are acting, therefore, upon an hypothesis. Is it not reasonable that those who say that they can produce the article shall at least prove the truth of that allegation, before new taxes are laid on those who use the foreign commodity? Suppose this bill passes; the price of hemp is immediately raised $14.80 per ton, and this burden falls immediately on the ship-builder; and no part of it, for the present, will go for the benefit of the American grower, because he has none of the article than can be used, nor is it expected that much of it will be produced for a considerable time. Still the tax takes effect upon the imported article; and the ship-owners, to enable the Kentucky farmer to receive an additional $14 on his ton of hemp, whenever he may be able to raise and manufacture it, pay, in the mean time, an equal sum per ton into the treasury on all the imported hemp which they are still obliged to use; and this is called "protection"! Is this just or fair? A particular interest is here burdened, not only for the benefit of another particular interest, but burdened also beyond that, for the benefit of the treasury. It is said to be important for the country that this article should be raised in it; then let the country bear the expense, and pay the bounty. If it be for the good of the whole, let the sacrifice be made by the whole, and not by a part. If it be thought useful and necessary, from political considerations, to encourage the growth and manufacture of hemp, government has abundant means of doing it. It might give a direct bounty, and such a measure would, at least, distribute the burden equally; or, as government itself is a great consumer of this article, it might stipulate to confine its own purchases to the home product, so soon as it should be shown to be of the proper quality. I see no objection to this proceeding, if it be thought to be an object to encourage the production. It might easily, and perhaps properly, be provided by law, that the navy should be supplied with American hemp, the quality being good, at any price not exceeding, by more than a given amount, the current price of foreign hemp in our market. Every thing conspires to render some such course preferable to the one now proposed. The encouragement in that way would be ample, and, if the experiment should succeed, the whole object would be gained; and, if it should fail, no considerable loss or evil would be felt by any one.

I stated, some days ago, and I wish to renew the statement, what was the amount of the proposed augmentation of the duties on iron and hemp, in the cost of a vessel. Take the case of a common ship of three hundred tons, not coppered, nor copper-fastened. It would stand thus, by the present duties: -

14-1/2 tons of iron, for hull, rigging, and anchors, at $15 per ton,	$217.50
10 tons of hemp, at $30,	300.00
40 bolts Russia duck, at $2,	80.00
20 bolts Ravens duck, at $1.25,	25.00

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

On articles of ship-chandlery, cabin furniture, hard-ware, &c.,	40.00
	<hr/>
	$662.50

The bill proposes to add, —

$7.40 per ton on iron, which will be	$107.30
$14.80 per ton on hemp, equal to	148.00
And on duck, by the late amendment of the bill, say 25 per cent,	25.00
	<hr/>
	$280.30

But to the duties on iron and hemp should be added those paid on copper, whenever that article is used. By the statement which I furnished the other day, it appeared that the duties received by government on articles used in the construction of a vessel of three hundred and fifty-nine tons, with copper fastenings, amounted to $1,056. With the augmentations of this bill, they would be equal to $1,400.

Now I cannot but flatter myself, Mr. Chairman, that, before the committee will consent to this new burden upon the shipping interest, it will very deliberately weigh the probable consequences. I would again urgently solicit its attention to the condition of that interest. We are told that government has protected it, by discriminating duties, and by an exclusive right to the coasting trade. But it would retain the coasting trade by its own natural efforts, in like manner, and with more certainty, than it now retains any portion of foreign trade. The discriminating duties are now abolished, and while they existed, they were nothing more than countervailing measures; not so much designed to give our navigation an advantage over that of other nations, as to put it upon an equality; and we have, accordingly, abolished ours, when they have been willing to abolish theirs. Look to the rate of freights. Were they ever lower, or even so low? I ask gentlemen who know, whether the harbor of Charleston, and the river of Savannah, be not crowded with ships seeking employment, and finding none? I would ask the gentlemen from New Orleans, if their magnificent Mississippi does not exhibit, for furlongs, a forest of masts? The condition, Sir, of the shipping interest is not that of those who are insisting on high profits, or struggling for monopoly; but it is the condition of men content with the smallest earnings, and anxious for their bread. The freight of cotton has formerly been three pence sterling, from Charleston to Liverpool, in time of peace. It is now I know not what, or how many fractions of a penny; I think, however, it is stated at five eighths. The producers, then, of this great staple, are able, by means of this navigation, to send it, for a cent a pound, from their own doors to the best market in the world.

Mr. Chairman, I will now only remind the committee that, while

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

we are proposing to add new burdens to the shipping interest, a very different line of policy is followed by our great commercial and maritime rival. It seems to be announced as the sentiment of the government of England, and undoubtedly it is its real sentiment, that the first of all manufactures is the manufacture of ships. A constant and wakeful attention is paid to this interest, and very important regulations, favorable to it, have been adopted within the last year, some of which I will beg leave to refer to, with the hope of exciting the notice, not only of the committee, but of all others who may feel, as I do, a deep interest in this subject. In the first place, a general amendment has taken place in the register acts, introducing many new provisions, and, among others, the following: -

A direct mortgage of the interest of a ship is allowed, without subjecting the mortgagee to the responsibility of an owner.

The proportion of interest held by each owner is exhibited in the register, thereby facilitating both sales and mortgages, and giving a new value to shipping among the moneyed classes.

Shares, in the ships of copartnerships, may be registered as joint property, and subject to the same rules as other partnership effects.

Ships may be registered in the name of trustees, for the benefit of joint-stock companies.

And many other regulations are adopted, with the same general view of rendering the mode of holding the property as convenient and as favorable as possible.

By another act, British registered vessels, of every description, are allowed to enter into the general and the coasting trade in the India seas, and may now trade to and from India, with any part of the world except China.

By a third, all limitations and restrictions, as to latitude and longitude, are removed from ships engaged in the Southern whale-fishery. These regulations, I presume, have not been made without first obtaining the consent of the East India Company; so true is it found, that real encouragement of enterprise oftener consists, in our days, in restraining or buying off monopolies and prohibitions, than in imposing or extending them. The trade with Ireland is turned into a free coasting trade; light duties have been reduced, and various other beneficial arrangements made, and still others proposed. I might add, that, in favor of general commerce, and as showing their confidence in the principles of liberal intercourse, the British government has perfected the warehouse system, and authorized a reciprocity of duties with foreign states, at the discretion of the Privy Council.

This, Sir, is the attention which our great rival is paying to these important subjects, and we may assure ourselves that, if we do not cherish a proper sense of our own interests, she will not only beat us, but will deserve to beat us.

Sir, I will detain you no longer. There are some parts of this bill which I highly approve; there are others in which I should acquiesce; but those to which I have now stated my objections

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

appear to me so destitute of all justice, so burdensome and so dangerous to that interest which has steadily enriched, gallantly defended, and proudly distinguished us, that nothing can prevail upon me to give it my support.³²⁶

* * * * *

NOTE.

This is commonly called Mr. Webster's "Free Trade" speech. It has been found difficult to select one among his many speeches in support of the policy of Protection which would fully represent his views on the subject; but the reasons for his change of opinion, and for his advocacy of Protection, are fully stated in many of the speeches printed in this volume, delivered after the year 1830. Perhaps as good a statement as can be selected from his many speeches on the Tariff, in explanation of his change of position as to the need, policy, and duty of protection to American manufactures, may be found in his speech delivered in the Senate of the United States, on the 25th and 26th of July, 1846, on the Bill "To reduce the Duties on Imports, and for other Purposes." In this speech, he made the following frank avowal of the reasons which induced him to reconsider and reverse his original opinions on the subject:

—

"But, Sir, before I proceed further with this part of the case, I will take notice of what appears, latterly, to be an attempt, by the republication of opinions and expressions, arguments and speeches of mine, at an earlier and later period of life, to found against me a charge of inconsistency, on this subject of the protective policy of the country. Mr. President, if it be an inconsistency to hold an opinion upon a subject at one time and in one state of circumstances, and to hold a different opinion upon the same subject at another time and in a different state of circumstances, I admit the charge. Nay, Sir, I will go further; and in regard to questions which, from their nature, do not depend upon circumstances for their true and just solution, I mean constitutional questions, if it be an inconsistency to hold an opinion to-day, even upon such a question, and on that same question to hold a different opinion a quarter of a century afterwards, upon a more comprehensive view of the whole subject, with a more thorough investigation into the original purposes and objects of that Constitution, and especially after a more thorough exposition of those objects and purposes by those who framed it, and have been trusted to administer it, I should not shrink even

326. Since the delivery of this speech, an arrival has brought London papers containing the speech of the English Chancellor of the Exchequer (Mr. Robinson), on the 23d of February last, in submitting to Parliament the annual financial statement. Abundant confirmation will be found in that statement of the remarks made in the preceding speech, as to the prevailing sentiment, in the English government, on the general subject of prohibitory laws, and on the silk manufacture and the wool tax particularly.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

from that imputation. I hope I know more of the Constitution of my country than I did when I was twenty years old. I hope I have contemplated its great objects more broadly. I hope I have read with deeper interest the sentiments of the great men who framed it. I hope I have studied with more care the condition of the country when the convention assembled to form it. And yet I do not know that I have much to retract or to change on these points.

"But, Sir, I am of the opinion of a very eminent person, who had occasion, not long since, to speak of this topic in another place. Inconsistencies of opinion, arising from changes of circumstances, are often justifiable. But there is one sort of inconsistency which is culpable. It is the inconsistency between a man's conviction and his vote; between his conscience and his conduct. No man shall ever charge me with an inconsistency like that. And now, Sir, allow me to say, that I am quite indifferent, or rather thankful, to those conductors of the public press who think they cannot do better than now and then to spread my poor opinions before the public.

"I have said many times, and it is true, that, up to the year 1824, the people of that part of the country to which I belong, being addicted to commerce, having been successful in commerce, their capital being very much engaged in commerce, were averse to entering upon a system of manufacturing operations. Every member in Congress from the State of Massachusetts, with the exception, I think, of one, voted against the act of 1824. But what were we to do? Were we not bound, after 1817 and 1824, to consider that the policy of the country was settled, had become settled, as a policy, to protect the domestic industry of the country by solemn laws? The leading speech³²⁷ which ushered in the act of 1824 was called a speech for the 'American System.' The bill was carried principally by the Middle States. Pennsylvania and New York would have it so; and what were we to do? Were we to stand aloof from the occupations which others were pursuing around us? Were we to pick clean teeth on a constitutional doubt which a majority in the councils of the nation had overruled? No, Sir; we had no option. All that was left us was to fall in with the settled policy of the country; because, if any thing can ever settle the policy of the country, or if any thing can ever settle the practical construction of the Constitution of the country, it must be these repeated decisions of Congress, and enactments of successive laws conformable to these decisions. New England, then, did fall in. She went into manufacturing

327. That of Mr. Clay.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

operations, not from original choice, but from the necessity of the circumstances in which the legislation of the country had placed her. And, for one, I resolved then, and have acted upon the resolution ever since, that, having compelled the Eastern States to go into these pursuits for a livelihood, the country was bound to fulfil the just expectations which it had inspired."

April 3, Saturday: Morning and Evening Service for chorus and organ by Samuel Wesley was performed completely for the initial time, in St. Paul's Cathedral, London.

Samuel Young was nominated by a state caucus for governor of New York.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 3 of 4 M / About 2 OC this afternoon a messenger stoped & gave information that Aunt Mary Gould was worse & I was requested to go up there - which I quickly did, & found her very low, but did not appear to me immediately Dieing [sic]. When I went into the Chamber, I went to the bed & inquired how she did. she told me very poorly, & asked me to sit down, which I did) at the head of her bed - she soon put out her hand for me to take, which I did, & took her pulse & found them Stronger than I expected. - She asked me if I did not think her dieing. I told her not immediately - but considered her very weak & low. - While sitting by her bed side, my mind was cover'd with quiet, & I evidently felt a solemn quiet to preside over her, which was a consolation to my feelings on her account - Aunt Stanton came in, to whom she was able to speak with much composure. - it was necessary for me to leave & come home, being under several pressing engagements - but a few minutes before 5 OC a message came that she was very near the close - I went up & found she had expired just as I entered the room Aged 81 Years 4 Months & 1 day, being born the 2nd of the 10th M called December "old stile" 1743

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 4, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 4 of 4 M / Large solid Meeting & silent till near the close, when our frd D Buffum rose & delivered a testimony on the importance of a preparation for a future State, with great life & solemnity - To me the forepart of the Meeting was a favourd season, for which I desire to be very thankful - In the Afternoon the Meeting was silent, but a pretty good time, indeed it has been a day of favour to me -for this renewal of favour, my heart bows under a sense of my unworthyness -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

April 5, Monday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 5 of 4 M 1824 / Attended Aunt Molly Goulds funeral which was a silent solid sitting - she was interd in friends burying ground near our Meeting House on the North side of Aunt Pollys grave

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 8, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 8th of 4th M / Silent & pretty good Meetings - The Committee in care of Jamestown Meeting met at the close, & Concluded to open one there, the First day after the Next Quarterly Meeting at Greenwich. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 10, Saturday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th 10th of 4 M / We had this Afternoon the company our Young Friends Wing Russel & Jos Tillinghast of New Bedford to tea - They appear to be rightly concerned young men, & on good ground, my heart desires their Wellfare - To Wing I feel myself under no small obligations, for many interesting communications, furnished of late on the state of society in New Bedford. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 11, Sunday: Maria Szymanowska gave a very successful performance at the Paris Conservatoire, on her 3-year concert tour of Europe.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 12 [sic] of 4 M / Meetings silent excepting a short savory communication from Anne Dennis - Both small being very rainy - seasons of some favour to me, but Oh how short of what I desire-
This eveng visited James Mitchell who is very sick & without a speedy change for the better, it now looks as if the days of his Years are nearly numbered. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 15, Thursday: Work resumed on the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal after a 19-year hiatus, under Chief Engineer Benjamin Wright.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 15th of 4 M / Meeting silent - In the Select Meeting, a sense of lowness in my mown mind & in others - Indeed it is a low time in the Church, especially this part of it - I felt a sense of lamentation over the State of things in the first meeting & particularly for myself - but what avails Lamentation, it is not that which is to effect change - it is setting about the Work, removing the Rubbish, building the Wall with one hand & loding the Weapon of defence in the other to Keep away the enemy, this would inspire our own minds with confidence that the Work would be completed, & stimulate others to follow our example, & give them confidence in their leaders - but I cannot but say -Alas the weakness which pervades Zion, may her waste places be restored to ancient beauty by the renewed Zeal of her inhabitants

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 April 18, Easter Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 18 of 4 M 1824 / Hard meetings but a degree of favour in the Afternoon - H Dennis & J D was engaged in short testimony in the forenoon & in the Afternoon Jonathon spoke pertinently in a few words

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Waldo Emerson to his journal:

I cannot accurately estimate my chances of success, in my profession, & in life. Were it just to judge the future from the past, they would be very low. In my case I think it is not. I have never expected success in my present employment. My scholars are carefully instructed, my money is faithfully earned, but the instructor is little wiser. & the duties were never congenial with my disposition. Thus far the dupe of hope I have trudged on with my burden at my back, and my eye fixed on the distant hill where my burden would fall. It may be I shall write dupe a long time to come & the end of life shall intervene betwixt me & the release. My trust is that my profession shall be my regeneration of mind, manners, inward & outward estate; or rather my starting point, for I have hoped to put on eloquence as a robe, and by goodness and zeal and the awfulness of virtue to press & prevail over the false judgments, the rebel passions & corrupt habits of men. We blame the past, we magnify & gild the future and are not wiser for the multitude of days. Spin on, Ye of the adamantine spindle, spin on, my fragile thread.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

April 19, Monday: George Gordon Noel, 6th Baron Byron of Rochdale, a volunteer in the Greek rebellion, lay a victim of malaria in Missolonghi (Mesolongion), to the west of Athens.³²⁸ His schemes to become a great white hero seemed remote. Ordinarily he wouldn't have let physicians near him, but on this occasion he was hardly conscious enough to drive them away. They bled the 6th Baron Byron of Rochdale until Captain George Anson Byron became by default the 7th Baron Byron of Rochdale.

His heart and lungs would remain in Greece, while the remainder of his body would be shipped home to be placed in Hucknall Torkard Church near Newstead, Nottinghamshire.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 19 of 4 M / Went to Conannicut to rectify Clocks, after a laborious day returned at Night -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 22, Thursday: A home at 286 Water Street in New-York was the first private residence to be lighted by gas.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 22nd of 4 M / Priscilla Hunt from Indiana was at meeting Long testimony, know not what to say, - some approves - some are doubtful - In the last (Preparative) - Queries answered for the Year, some searching -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 23, Friday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 23 of 4 M / This Afternoon went to Connanicut to attend a Meeting appointed by her there this PM at 4 OC - it was so foggy that we could see nothing in the ferry & steerd by the Compass - it was also rainy & when we got there found the Meeting was not given out, so concluded to stay all Night at J Greenes & appoint the Meeting tomorrow at 11 OClock AM. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

328. A lot of the fighting of the Greek rebellion centered on this small town. It had originally been carried by storm on November 1, 1821 but then the Turks had laid siege to it during October 1822. The Turks had assaulted the town six times by January 5, 1823 but on January 27, 1823 had been compelled to retreat. They would return on April 17, 1825 and bombard the town beginning on May 7, 1825. There would be another bombardment on January 25, 1826. The town would fall to the Turks on April 22, 1825. The Greeks would again capture the town in 1829, and it would be included in the new kingdom of Greece.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 April 24, Saturday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*7th day – Meeting not very full, but considerable many folks there. – Priscilla engaged in a long testimony & concluded in supplication – know not that any fault could be found – her exemplary deportment while I was with her, much in her favour – together with a Savour of life in some part of her testimony at least –
Waited on her & her companions who were John Lawton of Athens NYork & Hannah Eddy of Uxbridge, to the West ferry where we were joined by John Weeden, who agreed to conduct them to Tower Hill Meeting, where they expect to be tomorrow –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 April 25, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 25th of 4 M / Silent Meetings, & rather Small – We took tea at David Buffums & spent the evening pleasantly –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 April 29, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 29 of 4 M / Did not go to Portsmouth to attend Moy [Monthly] Meeting – various discouragements attending – Was absent two Days last week, a prospect of Quarterly Meeting next week – & Thos Hornsby who lives in the house with us is very ill – a day of much seriousness to me –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 May 1, Saturday: Ludwig van Beethoven took a room for the summer in Penzing (he would leave after three weeks because, he said, people on a nearby footbridge were staring at him while he was shaving).

If, while he was working, he did not go out during the forenoon, in order to compose himself, he would stand at the washbasin ... and pour great pitchersful of water over his hands, at the same time howling or, for a change, growling out the whole gamut of the scale, ascending and descending; then, before long, he would pace the room, his eyes rolling or fixed in a stare, jot down a few notes and again return to his water pouring and howling.... Beethoven was everywhere unwelcome as a lodger.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 1st of 5 M 1824 / Rode to Portsmouth with Aunt Stanton this PM – lodged & this (1st day [Sunday]) went with her to meeting A precious good one to me, which I felt very thankful for

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Uncle brought me part of the way home this Afternoon

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 3, Monday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 3 of 5 M / This Afternoon went to Portsmouth again with Dr Hazard to bleed Uncle Stanton who is complaining. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 4, Tuesday: In Greenwich, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 4th of 5 M / In the Greenwich Packet with Friends I went to Greenwich - we got there by 12 OClock, John & Richard on board, with whom I walked up to Dan Howlands & on the way we were caught in the Rain but were Kindly entertained when there. -towards night we walked over to Thomas's to see him & his sister a little while. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 5, Wednesday: Daniel-Francois-Esprit Auber's opera comique Le concert a la cour, ou La debutante to words of Scribe and Melesville was performed for the initial time, in Theatre Feydeau, Paris.

Per the journal of Albert Gallatin's son James as recorded in THE DIARY OF JAMES GALLATIN:

We are back from our honeymoon and leave shortly to join poor mamma at New Geneva. Father still in Washington. The Archbishop has excommunicated Monsieur Pascault.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day Our Select Meeting was better attended than I have sometimes seen it, but a very low time, to appearance with most present - Spent the Afternoon in visiting a few friends & after the Meeting for Sufferings rose, met with the Trustees of O Browns Benevolent Fund - Lodged at cousin Wanton Caseys. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 6, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day The Public Meeting was a season of favour the Ministry flowed freely - Thos Anthony, John Wilbour, Ruth Freeborn & Mary B Allen were all favoured in their communications & under M B Allen, the Meetings closed with a solemn & precious covering. - The weight & savour continued in the Meeting for buisness -Dined at the Widow Bonds after which finding a convenient opportunity,

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

I rode to Wm Almys in Cranston & lodged. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 7, Friday: Under the new constitution of Mejico, there was a new state to consist of the areas now encompassed by Texas and by Coahuila. There were already a few thousand Gringos in Tejas, mostly squatters but counting also those who had permission to be with the Austin colony in central Tejas. (Mejico would make no attempt to discourage such emigration of persons out of the USA prior to 1830, at which point the number of these troublesome intrusives ostensibly in the process of becoming citizens of Mejico rather than citizens of the USA would exceed 30,000.)

In Vienna's Karntnertortheater, the Symphony No. 9 in D Minor for soloists, chorus, and orchestra by Ludwig van Beethoven to words of Schiller, the "Choral" Symphony, was performed for the initial time. The musicians had been instructed to ignore the conducting attempted by the deaf composer. Afterward a violinist would report that on the podium he had thrown himself "back and forth like a madman." At the conclusion of the work the crowd bursts into uproarious applause, including stamping of feet and waving, and Caroline Unger, the alto soloist, turned the composer around to view the spectacle because he had been unaware of it.

In the audience was a very interested Franz Schubert.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day Rode this mornng to the Boarding School in Providence to attend the School committee & spent the day there in the service of society. — at Six oClock we (J Dennis & I) went on board the Steam Boat & arrived home at 10 OClock in the evening finding all as well as when I left tho J Hornsby very ill. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

May 8, Saturday: Charles Louis Flint was born in Middleton, Massachusetts. He was the 2d son of Jeremiah Flint and Mary Hayward Flint, and of the 7th generation from Thomas Flint of Salem (father Jeremiah, grandfather John, great-grandfather Samuel, great-great-grandfather Thomas, great-great-great-grandfather William, great-great-great-great grandfather Thomas Flint born 1603 in Flint, Wales; died April 15, 1663 in Salem Village).³²⁹ In his youth he would work on the family farm and study at a country school.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 8th of 5 M 1824 / I feel glad to be at home & to attend a little to my own concerns - this having been a very broken & unsettled Week - even today we have had many incumberances of callers in, which tends to scatter & cause additional labour for my dear Wife - who has much to do at this season as well as other seasons. - but particularly at this time in consequence of J Hornsby sickness

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 9, Sunday: After King Joao VI of Portugal submitted to his son, Dom Miguel, he boarded a British ship and reasserted his authority.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 9th of 5 M / Before Meeting this morning called to see James Mitchell who is very low & in great distress of body & mind -between Meeting I was informed our friend Hannah Dennis called to see him & tho' the paroxisms of body & mind were so great that he caught hold of her handkerchief & tore it before his hand was disengaged - yet when she kneeled in supplication by his bedside he lay perfectly silent & still. - Our Meetings were both Silent & pretty well attended

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 10, Monday: The National Gallery in London opened to the public in its temporary home in a townhouse on Pall Mall Street.

Per the journal of Albert Gallatin's son James as recorded in THE DIARY OF JAMES GALLATIN:

The French Minister intimated to us that he has an important package to deliver into one of our hands, or accredited servants. As Lucien was returning here from Washington, father sent him for it. Imagine my surprise when I found it was addressed to me. It was from the Duc and Duchesse d'Angouleme -a most beautiful silver-gilt vase with their arms on one side- a wedding present. It was more than a surprise considering all they have been through, on account of the King's death, to have given me a thought. Josephine is delighted with it. Monsieur Pascault was greatly overcome when he saw it. I must consult father in what form to acknowledge it. We go in a 329. Evidently he was not descended from the Thomas Flint family in Concord — because that Thomas had come over from Matlock in Derbyshire rather than from Flint in Wales and had died on October 8, 1653 rather than on April 15, 1663.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

few days to try the new house at New Geneva. It is all ready for our reception. In all events we will pass the summer there. It is getting intolerably hot here.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 10th of 5 M / Was called up this morning to assist in laying out poor JM who departed about an hour before I got to him

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 12, Wednesday: Marianne Wieck left her husband Friedrich in Leipzig and, taking her infant son Victor and her daughter Clara, went to her father's house in Plauen to arrange a legal separation.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 12 of 5 M / Attended as bearer at the funeral of James Mitchell & could but solemnly reflect on the number of times I have served with him at different funerals in the same way - The sitting was silent quiet & solemn & many people attended - 5th day 13 of 5 M / Silent Meeting & poor as respected myself while I trust it was better with others. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 16, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 16 of 5 M / Our Morning Meeting was uncommonly large & much favoured. Anne Dennis, D Buffum in testimony then Hannah Dennis in supplication after which she bore a short testimony & Jonathon said a few words & the Meeting closed. - In the Afternoon silent & tho' low in my own mind, it was not the worst of Meetings. - Times & seasons are not at our command. We are in the Lords hand, to whom alone we must look for Help. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 20, Thursday: Samuel Wesley was appointed organist of Camden Chapel.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 20th of 5th M 1824 / Silent Meeting & not without some good feelings - In the last (Preparative) we had a request for membership from an individual some advanced in years & Judge of a Court - In the admission of members, in this day of corruption of principle, it becomes necessary that we should know that Such are sound in the Free Faith as it is on our Lord & Saviour Jesus Christ, & I hope in this case Friends will be favoured with true judgement, & determine in Wisdom. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

May 23, Sunday: Shortly after Antonio Salieri cut his throat in a suicide attempt, Calisto Bassi began passing out printed copies of his poem “A Lodovico van Beethoven Ode Alcaica” (it was in this poem that Bassi made the initial assertion that Salieri had poisoned Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart — the Vienna police quickly confiscated as many copies as they could get their hands on).

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 23 of 5 M / Our morning Meeting well attended, it was Silent & long & tho' the forepart of it was to me nearly Senseless yet it closed under precious feelings for which I desire to be thankful – Silent again in the Afternoon & not so hard a time as many others. – With John Took tea & set the evening at D Buffums.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 27, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 27th of 5 M / At our Moy [Monthly] Meeting this day held in town we had the company of Walter Allen Thos Howland & Nicholas Congdon who were part of a Committee from the Meeting for Sufferings to make provision for friends at the Yearly Meeting time – The first meeting was nearly silent, & perhaps it might as well have been quite so, but I feel tender in judging. -- In the last the buisness went on well. – Nicholas Congdon Benj Freeborn & wife, Sarah Greene, wife of Jos dined with us, & after dinner I met with the YMs committee on the subject of making provision, & made arrangements for the purpose. – N Congdon lodged with us.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 30, Sunday: Heinrich August Marschner's duties as assistant to Carl Maria von Weber began as he conducted Paer's Wie gerufen in Dresden.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 30th of 5 M / We had a little preaching in the forenoon & in the Afternoon Silent, both Meetings rather small. – Anne Ruth & James Dennis took tea with us, Also Sister Mary Rodman, all set the evening –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 3, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 3rd of 6th M 1824 / Small meeting & low, but a season of some favour to me for which I desire to be thankful – a short exhortation from Jon Dennis. – As Yearly Meeting approaches, the prospect of weight & responsibility increases, but it is somewhere said "As the day is so shall thy strength be, & if my

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

strength does not increase it now seems as if I shall be but poorly quallified for usefulness at that time –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 6, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 6th of 6 M 1824 / Meeting pretty well attended in the forenoon which was solid & Silent. – Silent & dull in the Afternoon. – Set part of the eveng at Abigail Robinsons with Sister Ruth – My H has not been at meeting today from indisposition

Thos Hornsby lays very low in the House, & tho' his apartment is separate from ours yet, we have much additional care in consequence of his situation

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 8, Tuesday: A wool washing and fulling machine was patented by Noah Cushing of Québec (the patent office having just opened its doors, this was the 1st patent ever issued in Canada).

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 8th of 6th M / Yearly Meeting has now Commenced, (that is) Wm Forster Jr has come – had a meeting at Portsmouth day – took tea with us on his way to Connanicut to have a Meeting there tomorrow

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Per the journal of Albert Gallatin's son James as recorded in THE DIARY OF JAMES GALLATIN:

We have been here for some time. The place itself is delightful. The views superb. Air as pure as air can be, but not a soul to speak to-not a neighbour, with the exception of some totally uneducated farmers, their wives and daughters. We are all here. Frances has a pony. Josephine is not allowed to ride at present. So I ride a huge farm-horse-who is as thin as a knife; no roads, so we risk our lives every moment. Albert sometimes rides in front of us. and when we are approaching a dangerous spot he blows a horn. I wish some of my Paris intimes could see us-how amused they would be. Mamma attends to all our personal comforts. We have many too many servants. Frances has named it "Castle Solitude." Our greatest friends are the mosquitoes, who certainly keep us company. Father reads all day as he is compiling some work. It is too hot for him to go to Washington at present. Mr. Crawford is no better.

June 10, Thursday: While at the house of Stephen Groomsbridge, Esq. FRS at Blackheath, the Reverend Professor John Josias Conybeare was seized with an apoplexy.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

5th day 10 of 6 M / At Meeting Wm Forster preached, his testimony was sound & sweet. -- After meeting Hannah Dennis & her daughter Anne called & requested me to pay a visit with them to Thomas Hornsby in his room which Thos readily consented to receive. - I went up with them & it was a season of tenderness to us all, they both spoke with feeling & the visit was well received. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 12, Saturday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 12th of 6 M / Went to Portsmouth with my H & attended the Select Yearly Meeting which was a Season of divine favour, wherein the hearts of many were comforted with the renew'd faith that the Law & Testimony remained precious & would stand the test of all oppositions. - to my mind it was a time to be remembered The Testimony of our frd Wm Forster, Isaac Stevenson, Sally Collins, & others of our own members were plain & Prevalent. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 13, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 13 of 6 M / Our Meeting this morning was not as full as at sometime, & much disturbed by the appearance of divers of the New order (so called) their speaking was awfully burdensome & awfully unsound on christian principles. - Yet for all, there was a good deal of Solid weight kept up & those who attended that were not members, were not at a loss to see the difference between the true & the False. - In the afternoon the Meeting was very large & tho' we had one spurious offering - Our Isaac Stevenson was large in testimony & great in Authority - Truth going over all opposers

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 14, Monday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 14th of 6th M 1824 / This Morning commenced Our Yearly Meeting for Church Government, the solemnity was such as was to be felt, tho' attended with some distress, a gathering home to the fountain was experienced - After the Meeting was opened it was informed that an Individual was present who had no right according to discipline to Sit. this occasioned a jostling, but the minds of Friends were preserved in the quiet & after considerable discussion the individual consented to leave the Meeting, after which my mind was unusually humbled & tendered under a thankful sense of the continued regard of Ancient goodness, & the power of Truth over all loose spirits & gainsayers. - The Buisness of the Meeting moved on in usual course, not without some trouble from several who were burdensome. - But I have to Acknowledge, Great is Truth, & its

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

efficay ever to be confided in -- The Afternoon was solid & quiet, & many weighty & feeling remarks were made on the State of Society by many of our own members & those who are with us from Abroad, particularly Isaac Stevenson Wm Forster Jr & Wm Jackson. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 15, Tuesday: By letter, the Emperor of Austria granted Antonio Salieri's petition to be relieved of his duties at full salary. "In the service of four monarchs of the imperial house you have proved an incorruptible truth and devotion, and a perfect self-negation, which have never for a moment wavered, even in the most diverse and, for less magnanimous persons than you, tempting relations." He had held court positions since the death of Gluck. Although the letter was dated on this day, the Emperor had actually granted the petition in Prague on June 6th.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*3rd day / Our Select meeting was a season of favour for which many minds were thankful. -
In the Afternoon the Meeting at large met under very painful circumstances. - Benj Rodman who was the person who came in yesterday, not having a right by discipline to Sit, came in & took his seat & notwithstanding many intreaties would not withdraw - & the Meeting adjourned without transacting any buisness, after a sitting of about two hours. - Oh painful Oh Afflicting - such an exercise I never saw. - It was however thought he might have been prevailed on to have withdrawn but for some who uphold him*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 16, Wednesday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 16th 6 M / Oh Lord strengthen us for the day, this is the Prayer of my heart this morning -- It was found necessary, in order to have our Meeting select to close the front door of our meeting house on the Mens side, & all other entrances, excepting the door at the little Meeting House, where Several door keepers were placed to let none go in that had not a right according to our discipline, which was promptly attended too by the, -- The buisness progressed in usual course & under a sense of divine favour, tho' the feelings of distress attendant were great - for "the city of Shushan, (the residence of the True Jews) was perplexed" but not disheartened

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

That evening, 22 men, led by Richard Martin, MP, met in Old Slaughter's Coffee House near Covent Garden in London. They desired to enforce regulations on the humane treatment of animals passed by Parliament in 1822 and therefore organized themselves into a group they call the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. (Among their number was William Wilberforce. In 1840, Queen Victoria will allow them to add "Royal" to their title.)

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

June 17, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day / A sitting for buisness this morning from 8 OC to Ten, when we adjourned for the Public Meeting at Eleven which was a time of great distress, the time being almost wholly taken up in spurious offerings - dear Sarah Collins however had some good service, but no Satisfactory result to the Meeting as her communication was followed by others quite as painful as those in the forepart of the Meeting

The Meeting for buisness met at 4 OClock, to finish the Epistles, which were the most sound & agreeable to me of any I recollect for many years, some cavals [cavel: a part or share, a gag or horse's bit. cavil: to jeer, to mock quibble] were set up to some part of them by those who may be considerd in the opposition, but the weight of the Meeting was kept up & closed about dark after a solemn fervent supplication from William Forster. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 18, Friday: Grand Duke Ferdinando III of Tuscany dies in Florence and was succeeded by his son Leopoldo II.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day / This Morning the Meeting for Sufferings & School Committee met - I could not get time to go to the early part of the sitting of the latter, into which I have been this year introduced for the first time, which is an increase of weight & responsibility I tremble under, but seeing my name was mentioned, I thought, considering the state of things it was not best for me to ask to be excused.

The School committee sat about three hours after which the day was spent in parting with many dear friends, some of whom & perhaps none of whom I may never see more, time to all is uncertain. -

Set the evening at Abigail Robinsons in company with our friend William Jackson. -

Thro' the course of this Yearly Meeting my heart has many times been affected with a sense of renew'd favour, for which I desire to be thankful - our company were all pleasant & among others Our frd Isaac Stevenson lodged with us.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 20, Sunday: The remains of John Josias Conybeare were interred in the churchyard at Bath Easton.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 20th of 6th M 1824 / It was rainy & our forenoon meeting was small. Our frd Ruth Davis had good acceptable service. - The

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Afternoon meeting was difered till 4 OClock by request of our Ancient frd Wm Jackson who attended Portsmouth Meeting in the forenoon & wished to be at ours in the Afternoon. –
Wm Jackson attended in the Afternoon, & addessed the youth, particularly the "Little lads" which was very comfortable to my feelings – at a second rising he preached more generally & very acceptably. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 June 23, Wednesday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 23rd of 6th M / This afternoon Uncle Stanton sent his Waggon to Town to take us to his house, whither we went towards night & Lodged – 5th day Morning we went to Moy [Monthly] Meeting which was silent but a solid favourd season. – & the weight was uncommonly preserved during the time we were transacting the buisness – for this sense of favour I desire to be thankful – We returned after meeting & dined at Uncle Stanton's & towards night rode home as we went & kept [sic] the Horse in town all night for John to carry out tomorrow –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 June 27, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 27th of 6 M / Unwell so as not to go to Meeting, but those who did go inform'd that the Meetings were uncommonly large & favourd A Robinson & D Buffum in testimony in the forenoon & in the Afternoon D Buffum & Father Rodman

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 July 1, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 1st of 7th M 1824 / Our Meeting was small, but solid & good – but my own feeding was not on fatness, tho' It did seem to me that others were in better condition than myself – while inserting this my mind is humbled under a sense of my weakness my leanness. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 Our national birthday, the 4th of July, Sunday: In New-York, a "Patriotic Volunteer" ballet performance was offered at the new theater at Chatham Garden.

Meanwhile, thousands watched as New-York's firemen paraded from the lawn in front of the hospital on Broadway between Anthony and Duane streets (Hospital Green) to the Bowery Church.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 4th of 7th M / Our Morning meeting was solid & silent &

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

to me a season of some favour – In the afternoon a few words from D Buffum – pretty good Meeting – With my H & John went out to D B Jr & took tea & set the evening.-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

In Poultney, Vermont, a couple of hundred men repaired a road, after which they repaired to a locale at which “ladies of the neighborhood” had prepared for them a “plenteous repast.”

Jefferson Davis’s father Samuel Emory Davis died.

Hezikiah Prince Jr. lived in the small port town (for the coasting trade) of Thomaston, Maine, and in his journal of 1822-1828 (published by the Maine Historical Society in 1965) he described the July 4th celebrations there. On this year the 4th had been a Sunday, so the national birthday celebration actually took place on Monday the 5th.³³⁰

We had a stage erected in front of the pulpit [of the Brick Meetinghouse] ... The first performance after the reading of the Constitution was an oration by Demerrick Spear, next a written disputation between ... and another between ... we went to the Shore to a dinner provided by the Widow Spear. About 50 set down to dinner after which some appropriate toasts were drunk. [about 3:30 pm] I came home in the chaise I had hired for the day -- Mrs. Hasting’s chaise and Mr. Jourdain’s horse. ... About seven o’clock ... tackled my horse and chaise and carried Miss Henrietta Marsh and Miss Fanny Sprague (two young ladies from Bath and fine agreeable ones, too) over to a ball ... [meeting a party of about 12 couples] ... we spent the evening or rather night in dancing and very pleasantly till about two o’clock when I came away with Miss Marsh and Sprague. Some of the party continued till three o’clock.

4th July, 1826, National Jubilee. A fine morning was ushered in by the roar of cannon in all parts of the town, by a salute of 24 guns from a brass six pounder on the hill and by the ringing of bells. It is the fiftieth anniversary of that joyous day which we hail as our nation’s birthday. It was a glorious day to our country -- it was so to the world, for it declared that “all men are born free and equal” and this principle of equality is gaining upon the old notions of imperial, kingly and lordly characters and as it gains ground, the world becomes enlightened and refined ... After the services at the Meetinghouse the procession formed again walked to the new ropewalks lately erected where a table of 300 plates was spread and a dinner in ample order. Mr. Ruggles presided assisted by five vice-presidents. ... After the cloth was removed and the wine was placed before us, some fine sentiments were drank to and a fine flow of soul seemed to pervade the whole company in number over 200. ... A Mr. Brown sung some fine patriotic songs and towards the last some comic songs in fine style. All was life and spirit, yet all was orderly and harmonious. In the evening a fine display of fireworks was had, procured from Boston ...

CELEBRATING OUR B-DAY

330. This was Nathaniel Hawthorne’s, or Hathorne’s, 20th birthday.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

In a footnote he added that the meetinghouse had been adorned with the names of Washington, Knox, and other patriots in white roses, along with that of Simón Bolívar who had helped revive their fine sense of a steady march of freedom.

July 8, Thursday: Carl Maria von Weber visited Marienbad seeking a cure for his malady.

Hector Berlioz arrived home in La Cote-St.-Andre for a stay of two and a half weeks.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 8 of 7 M / Silent, small & to me a lean meeting, was favoured however to witness a labour in my own heart, but fear there was but little overcoming. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 11, Sunday: Luis Maria de Salazar y Salazar replaced Narciso de Heredia y Begines, Conde de Ofalia as First Secretary of State of Spain.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 11th of 7 M / Silent meeting in the Mornng - In the Afternoon Hannah & Anne Dennis were concerned in short testimonys -To me pretty solid seasons, but Oh my leanness - my weakness

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 15, Thursday: Camden Chapel was dedicated by the Bishop of London, with music provided by its organist, Samuel Wesley.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 15th of 7th M / Meeting Silent & solid - after which was held our Select Meeting which was a season of exercise to me & I hope not unprofitably so. - There were more members present than I ever sat with before in a Moy [Monthly] Meeting capacity 16 in number -three were absent. Vizt Dorcas Earl wholly confined by Age & infirmity - Father Rodman at Salem & Anne Greene unwell -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

→ July 17, Saturday: William Hazlitt remarried with Isabella Bridgewater, at Coldstream in Scotland (because his divorce was not legally recognized in England). This new relationship would endure for only one year.

After ten weeks in London Maria Szymanowska departed for Paris.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 17th of 7th M 1824 / This Morning crossed the Ferry to Narragansett & went to Willet Carpenters to rectify his Clock where I dined - then Crossed again to Connanicut & walked about two or three Miles up the Island to Solomon Carpenters to do something to a Clock there, then tho' much fatigued returned South to Mercy Weedens, drank tea & lodged -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

→ July 18, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

First Day went to Meeting, was favoured with a little life in my own particular - - - went to Joseph Greenes Dined & drank tea & had a pleasant visit. - then came across the ferry home. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

→ July 22, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5 day 22nd of 7th M / Small Meeting a low time - Suffering is our lot - May a right improvement be made. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

→ July 25, Friday: At the request of the Ottoman Sultan, an Egyptian fleet and army sailed from Alexandria (El Iskandariya) to aid in subduing Greek insurgents.

After two and a half weeks at home in La Cote-St.-Andre, in increasing conflict with his father and family over his chosen vocation, Hector Berlioz left to return to Paris.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 25 of 7 M / Good solid meeting - H Dennis was engaged to call our attention to the necessity of rendering unto God thanksgiving & dedication of heart for his many Mercys & favours -after which D Buffum Rose & observed that from great age & considerable infirmity of Body & abatement of the Powers of his mental faculties he apprehended he might be excused from much religious communication, but feeling his mind exercised with considerations arising from a passage of Scripture which had often been feelingly revived in his mind out of Meeting as well as in meeting & at this time which Was - "Set thine House in order for thou shalt Die & not live." he urged the necessity of Doing this in a temporal sense that those we might leave behind

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

might have as little trouble with our affairs as might be - but dwelt much & very lively on the necessity of having our accounts in readiness to appear before the Judge of Quick & Dead for we know not how soon we might be called home to be seen of men no more -- It often seems to me when I hear our above said friend, in lively & pertinent testimony, that he is doing his last work -but he yet lives, tho' thurned[?] of 80 Years & is useful to society & mankind at large. - Small meeting in the Afternoon but closed with me under a sense of weight - perhaps more so as having to sit at the head of it & break it up - Oh the weight of it - I feel my poverty -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 28, Wednesday: Gaetano Donizetti's dramma semiseria Emilia di Liverpool after Scatizzi was performed for the initial time, in Teatro Nuovo, Naples.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 28th of 7 M 1824 / By the mail last evening I recd the News of the decease of Bailey Brooks on the 4th of this Month at sea on board the Brig William of Portland William Norris Master, I had for some years stood in the capacity of Guardian to him & felt a tender Interest for his well fare, he was twenty years & about three Months old. - This morning & last evening I have been round to give his relations & friends the account, which has deeply impressed my mind with the Awful uncertainty of all things here & the necessity of a right preparation for the great & final change

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 29, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 29th of 7 M / This day was our Moy [Monthly] Meeting in Town - In the first meeting we had several testimonys & the one the most to the purpose was from our frd Hannah Dennis - Some days ago we heard of the Sudden departure of our frd JONATHON CHASE ar Swansey, by information today it appears that he had been at Meeting and had preached acceptably on First day last the 25th inst & on returning home was taking his horse out of the Chaise & untackled one side when it was supposed he found himself unwell & stepped into the Stable, as in a few minutes after he was found quite gone - he was a friend much esteemed for his innocent walk in life, & for his excellent gift in the Ministry, in the exercise of which he was faithful & ardent as well as prudent in management of it, in the Year 1815 in company with Daniel Brayton he visited families in this Moy [Monthly] Meeting to good satisfaction, it was my lot to go to many places with them, in which my mind was instructed & enlarged. - The language which forcilby strikes the mind on his suden exit is that of the Poet "Many fall as sudden, Few as Safe" & of the Scripture "Be ye ready also, for in such an hour as ye think not the son of man cometh."

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 1, Sunday: New York State electors were selected in Utica to nominate the governor and lieutenant governor.

Gioachino Rossini arrived in Paris under contract to the Ministry of the Royal Household, to write two new operas and produce one of his already existing works (he also agreed to become director of the Theatre-Italien).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 1 of 8 M 1824 / Some preaching & pretty good meetings, but nothing in which to boast, neither for myself or others. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 3, Tuesday: Singapore was ceded to Great Britain by the Sultan of Johore.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 3rd of 8th M / This morning rode in the Rain with my H & John to Portsmouth, lodged at Uncle Stantons & 4th day Morning took his waggon & went to attend the Select Quarterly Meeting which was a season of some searching, which I hope may be proffitable both to Ministers & Elders. - We dined at Uncle P Lawtons & in the Afternoon while I attended the meeting for Sufferings H went to Adam Anthonys - The service of the Meeting for Sufferings is to me a new one, & a weighty one - which I feel very incompetent too --The cares of Society & concerns of my own are heavy upon me, but I desire to do as well as I can, & leave the rest. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 5, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day was our Quarterly Meeting at large, which was attended by many & was a very solid sitting, Mary B Allen was concerned in a Solid testimony & the Meeting closed rather sooner than common but I believe all in right time. - The buisness was well conducted & John R Davis was engaged in a very lively testimony also Obadiah Davis said a little in the life & the Meeting closed early, after which I got into the Chaise with William Jenkins & rode to Warren & Dined at Coles tavern, the rest of the distance to Providence I rode with Wm Almy & reached Moses Browns House a little before sunset where I lodged -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 August 6, Friday: South Americans under Simón Bolívar defeated the Spanish at Junin, northeast of Lima.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day in the forenoon was engaged with the yearly Meetings committee & in some other services - In the Afternoon at the Boarding School committee & returned to M Browns to lodge.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 August 7, Saturday: In Newport, Rhode Island Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day The Trustees of O Browns Benevolent fund met at Wm Jenkins House at 8 OClock & were engaged in that service till dinner time, after which I attended to a little buisness about Town & at 4 OC PM took the Steam boat & came Home about 9 OC - I have to acknowledge much favour in this little time of being from Home. The life quickened, & my spirit a little raised, for which I desire to be Humbly thankful & trust I am so. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 August 8, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 8th of 8 M 1824 / Meetings nearly silent & very good ones to me - I may acknowledge it has been a good day to me - my spirit tender & my mind in a good measure centered in that which gives stability. -
My H & John are at Portsmouth, not having returned since Quarterly Meeting. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 August 12, Thursday: Adam and Franz Liszt arrive in Calais from England.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 8 M 12 / Meeting comfortable & silent - tho' not as much life as I desired -
This Mornng Jnth Slocum introduced Samuel Peebles a young man from Virginia who produced a good certificate from his Moy [Monthly] Meeting expressive of his prospect of travelling this way for his health, which appears to be low - There is something in his countenance innocent & sweet & his acct of his situation claimed our sympathy & proved an inducement to ask him to stay a day or two among us. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

August 15, Sunday: The Cape Mesurado Colony, founded by the American Colonization Society for the repatriation of American slaves, was expanded into the Colony of Liberia.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 15 of 8 M / In the Mornng Meeting two short testimonys & in the Afternoon silent – both pretty solid to me Took tea at D Buffums with Saml Peebles. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 19, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 19 of 8 M / Father Rodman & H Dennis engaged in good solid testimonys & the Meeting solid – Oh for an increase of life & religious engagement among us

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 22, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 22 of 8 M / In the forenoon Father Rodman in Testimony & supplication & H Dennis in Testimony, an evidence of life was experienced in my own particular – In the Afternoon nearly silent, a few words dropped towards the close by JD Set the evening at Abigail Robinsons

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 25, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 25 of 8 M / This Afternoon went to Portsmouth to attend the Monthly Meeting & lodged at Uncle Stantons. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 26, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day the first Meeting was a good time much solemnity prevailed & Father Rodman Hannah Dennis & Abigail Robinson were all twice engaged in testimony – my own mind favoured with feeling – In the last meeting buisness went on comfortably & closed well –
Dine at Richard Mitchells, & took tea at Jethro's*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 29, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 29th of 8 M 1824 / Our Morning meeting was a favoured

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

time. The silent part of it was unusually solemn & my mind in a state of feeling & tenderness that I am thankful for - - Silent in the Afternoon. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 30, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 30th of 8 M / This morning under no small weight of discouragement, I left home in the Packet for Providence to attend the Meeting of the Sub committee of the YM Schhool & An adjournment of the Meeting for Sufferings, to be held there tomorrow -

We arrived after a tedious passage of eight hours. & I took tea at Jos Anthonys, then went to Moses Brown to lodge

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 31, Tuesday: Hector Berlioz wrote from Paris, replying to a scornful letter from his father: "I am driven involuntarily towards a magnificent career—no other adjective can be applied to the career of artist—and not towards my doom. For I believe I shall succeed; yes, I believe it ... I wish to make a name for myself, I wish to leave some trace of my existence on this earth; and so strong was the feeling—which was an entirely honorable one—that I would rather be Gluck or Mehul dead than what I am in the flower of my age."

On the day that Captain Jones Very and his 11-year-old cabin boy son Jones Very, Jr. arrived back in Salem from their voyage to New Orleans, France, and Portugal, the Marquis de Lafayette was being paraded through the streets of Salem along with his American friend, Fanny Wright. Father and son may well have witnessed this event. In addition, the mother, Lydia Very, may on this day have had an opportunity not only to see but also to speak with Fanny Wright, her personal "idol."

The French luminary, who had been to Ipswich before, honored the place that evening with a second visit. Unfortunately he and his suite were delayed en route by rain and mud and, after having been expected most of the day, they did not enter the packed meetinghouse until between seven and eight in the evening. He was addressed by Nathaniel Lord, Esq. and made a short reply before being conducted to Nathaniel Treadwell's inn, where he kibbitted with some Revolutionary soldiers while obtaining refreshments. The following morning at 10 o'clock he would depart with his suite for Newburyport "amid the benedictions of many hearts." Unlike the canker-worm, this general would not again return.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day - In the morning attended School Committee & in the Afternoon the Meeting for Sufferings, both which made

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

adjournment till tomorrow - lodged again at MB,

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 1: General Lafayette and his suite departed Ipswich at 10AM for Newburyport “amid the benedictions of many hearts.” Unlike the canker-worm, this general would not again return. The weather was so inclement that they would not arrive in Newburyport until too late in the evening for any reception, but the town cannon would be discharged anyway, to alert the residents to his arrival.

In Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day - in dilligent service under my different appointments in society, from the Y Meeting, with my mind much engaged in the service, no part of which was attended with more solid weight than our visit to the children in the School, in the girls department, our frd M Brown was concerned to impart weighty council, & was followed by a baptising supplication from Alice Rathbone & testimony from Hannah Dennis - & was a most interesting opportunity - In the boys school much good council was imparted by several of the committee & I hope our labours will not be soon forgotten - After the service of this day was over I went in to Providence, set the evening with Dorcas Brown & lodged at Welcome Congdons. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

September 2, Thursday: The Marquis de Lafayette breakfasted in Newburyport on yet another rainy day, and William Lloyd Garrison was among the hundreds of townspeople who obtained his handshake at the Tracy mansion on State Street (a building which now houses the town's public library) prior to his departure for Concord.

When the illustrious citoyen reached Concord, Squire Samuel Hoar, on behalf of all, rose to deliver the welcome.

Lafayette, nous sommes ici!

—General “Black Jack” Pershing, arriving with US troops in France at the very end of the WWI trench warfare.

Unfortunately, Squire Hoar did this in a manner which would begin a long and bitter controversy with Lexington over which town's militia had been the first to fire upon the colonial army in America, by pointing out in his speech of welcome that it had been at the Old North Bridge over the Concord River rather than during the prior slaughter on the green in Lexington town that “the first forcible resistance” had been offered by the militia to the army. Before this visit by the marquis, there had in fact been very little note taken either in Concord or in Lexington of the anniversary of the April 19th dustup between the militia and the army. This invidious discrimination between two outbreaks of smallarms fire would produce a “storm of protest” from indignant Lexingtonians. Major Elias Phinney of Lexington would begin to pull together the depositions of survivors, none of whom had forgotten any details of the “battle” and some of whom were finding that they were able to recall details that hadn't actually happened.

When Mary Moody Emerson was introduced to the general, she coquettishly told him that since she had been at the time a newborn infant, she also could lay claims to having been “‘in arms’ at the Concord fight.”³³¹

John Shepard Keyes would later preserve a dim memory of having been pulled by a sister out of the way of the horses that drew Lafayette through Concord, and of the pageantry of that very special day.

Franklin Benjamin Sanborn would later allege that Henry Thoreau had been able to summon a childhood

331. I don't know whether this presentation of Mary Moody Emerson to Lafayette occurred earlier during this day, in Newburyport, or later, in Concord.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

memory of this event, which would have occurred subsequent to his 7th birthday, but Thoreau's memory of the event would have been rather more like the trace memory of Keynes (John Shepard Keyes) and nothing like Walt Whitman's — for Walt's memory much later (a memory produced for the amazement of his friend John Burroughs), was that somehow he had obtained for himself a manly kiss:

On the visit of General Lafayette to this country, in 1824, he came over to Brooklyn in state, and rode through the city. The children of the schools turn'd out to join in the welcome. An edifice for a free public library for youths was just then commencing, and Lafayette consented to stop on his way and lay the corner-stone. Numerous children arriving on the ground, where a huge irregular excavation for the building was already dug, surrounded with heaps of rough stone, several gentlemen assisted in lifting the children to safe or convenient spots to see the ceremony. Among the rest, Lafayette, also helping the children, took up the five-year-old Walt Whitman, and pressing the child a moment to his breast, and giving him a kiss, handed him down to a safe spot in the excavation.

— John Burroughs.

Abba Alcott would love to recount, in her old age, how her aunt Dorothy Sewall Quincy met the marquis at the ball held in his honor. We may be able to judge the nature of the reception and ball at which Dorothy Sewall Quincy “met her marquis” —presumably in Boston rather than in Concord where there would not have been an adequate infrastructure of edifices, servants, and the paraphernalia of privilege— by considering that the visit of this distinguished “friend of America,” who had been declared a guest of the nation by President James Monroe and by the federal Congress, was our nation's chief social excitement of this year.

In Philadelphia, for instance, the celebrations had occupied several days, with the good general Lafayette bowing with grace of manner and greeting each lady and gentleman presented to him with “How do you do?”

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

in very careful English, and the following account subsequently appeared in Niles' Weekly Register:

THE NATION'S GUEST

On Monday morning, the 4th inst., about three hundred children of both sexes, from the different schools in Philadelphia, were arranged in the State House yard to receive General La Fayette: the spectacle was most beautiful and highly interesting.

In the evening he attended a grand ball at the theatre: the lobby of which was converted into a magnificent saloon, adorned with beautiful rose, orange and lemon trees, in full bearing, and a profusion of shrubbery, pictures, busts, banners with classical inscriptions, etc., all illuminated with a multitude of lamps. For the dancers there were two compartments, the house and the stage; the upper part of the former was hung with scarlet drapery, studded with golden stars, while the great chandelier, with two additional ones, and a row of wax tapers, arranged over the canopy, shed down a blaze of light. The first and second tiers of boxes were crowded with ladies in the richest apparel, as spectators of the dazzling array. Beyond the proscenium the stage division wore the appearance of an Eastern pavilion in a garden, terminating with a view of an extended sea and landscape, irradiated by the setting sun, and meant to typify the Western world. The company began to assemble soon after seven o'clock, and consisted of two thousand or more persons, of whom 600 or 700 were invited strangers. Twenty-two hundred tickets had been issued. No disorder occurred in the streets, with the arrival and departure of the carriages, which formed a line along the adjoining squares.

General La Fayette appeared at nine o'clock and was received at the door by the managers of the ball. He was conducted the whole length of the apartments through an avenue formed by the ladies to the bottom of the stage, where Mrs. Morris, Governor Shulze, and the Mayer waited to greet him in form: the full band playing an appropriate air during his progress. As soon as he was seated, the dancers were called, and at least four hundred were immediately on the floor. The dancing did not cease until near five o'clock, though the company began to retire about three. At twelve, one of the managers, from an upper box, proclaimed a toast "to the nation's guest," which was hailed with enthusiasm and accompanied by the descent of a banner from the ceiling. Behind this was suddenly displayed a portrait of the general, with allegorical figures.

A short while later, churning this topic, Niles' Weekly Register offered information about the sexual overtones

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

of toasts which had been offered at a similar upscale bash in Baltimore, and the manner in which such gallantries had been offered and received:

When the music for the dancing ceased, the military band of the first rifle regiment played the most pleasing and fashionable airs.... Just before the ladies of the first tables retired, General La Fayette requested permission to give the following toast, which was received in a manner that reflected credit on the fair objects of it: "The Baltimore ladies – the old gratitude of a young soldier mingles with the respectful sense of new obligation conferred on a veteran." The ladies rose and saluted the general, and the sensation and effect is not to be described; when he sat down there was a burst of applause from all the gentlemen present.

Need we explore the overtones of this toast? The old French general is relying upon the national stereotypes according to which Frenchmen in tight breeches are "gallant," and is reminiscing about when he and his fellows were young and horny, traveling around in magnificent uniforms diddling the lovely young colonial maidens. He is saying to these ladies at the banquet "Maybe it was you I swived with when you were much younger, and you will remember but not I, or consider that maybe it was your mama," and he was saying to their husbands as well, "Maybe it was your wife I swived with when we were so much younger, and she will remember but not I and she will most certainly not tell you about it, or maybe it was your mama, or your wife's mama." He remembers youthful delights and is grateful. Lafayette says all this in the most careful innuendo, "and the sensation and effect is not to be described." What could the American males do but applaud wildly? –They couldn't very well rush the main table and shove this codger's head into his soup, could they?

In Newport, Rhode Island Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day Morng - called a little while at Jos Anthonys, then came on board the Packet & got home in about five hours - This little jaunt [jaunt] to Providence has been attended with depression on account of the inconvenience of leaving home when I have considerable of my own to attend too, & my outward circumstances require my attention - yet I have (I trust) humbly to acknowledge an evidence of divine favour & even an enlargement of my views & exercises which is worth sacrifice & even suffering for & as to my spiritual condition I have returned refreshed & enlivened, with renew'd desires for myself & the society of which I am a member, that I may grow in grace, & there by become increasingly usefull to the latter

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 3, Friday: In Newport, Rhode Island Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 3rd of 9th M 1824 / During my late absence from home, my Wife rec'd for me a letter from Thomas Evans of Philada giving

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

To the Inhabitants of Concord.

THE Concord Gazette & Middlesex Freeman, of Sept. 4th, notices the reception of Gen. LA FAYETTE in this town. This notice is understood to have received the sanction of some of the extensive Committee, who planned the arrangements for the day. Some have said that an active committee-man wrote the account to suit himself. But, by some, this is denied. Yet all admit, that the majority of the Committee adopted the account as true. Still, this account, though it contains no single assertion which is really false, conveys a wrong impression to the reader. It intimates, if it does not say, that the "Ladies who prepared and set out the refreshments of the bower" gave them as a voluntary tribute to the Hero. It also leaves one to suppose, that the whole expenses of the occasion were defrayed by a few public-spirited persons of both sexes who had placed themselves in the front ranks, and contrived to show themselves to no small advantage in presence of the illustrious Guest.

To correct these mistakes this sheet is written. It is intended to state the truth; and it is the common wish that the truth, without varnish or colouring should be told; and with the truth the Citizens will rest satisfied. To receive Gen. LA FAYETTE in Concord with appropriate ceremonies and respect, a Committee of fifteen, was appointed, by a considerable meeting of their townsmen. This Committee served; and an address to the General by their Chairman, spoke the feelings and gratitude of the people with ability, and gave universal satisfaction. Yet in some parts of the committee's doings, there was a strange spirit discovered. In selecting persons to appear in the presence of the Hero, there was a singular display of judgment shall it be called? No, it was not judgment; it was preference and caprice. This was noticed at the time, but called out no peculiar expression of disapprobation. But, this reception, parade, or entertainment had a tail to it. There was a bill to be paid; or, to speak more emphatically, there were an indefinite number of bills to be met. The refreshments voluntarily furnished by the Ladies were to be paid for by the public. As ounce of tea, a slice of bacon, a quarter of sugar, or a shilling's worth of clams, wherever bought or by whoever furnished, had not been furnished without being charged in a bill, and was now to be paid for. The persons who were for excluding their neighbors from joining in making ready the ceremonies, were now not so very anxious to exclude the same neighbors from paying the bill or bills. They who received the General as if they themselves constituted the whole town, and were resolved to appear as the only persons of consequence at his reception, were not so very desirous to exclude others from the privilege of bearing the expense. These remarks it is thought apply not to the whole of the Committee. Some of their number would have preferred a liberal course; and these liberal minds were now averse to inflicting a tax on the town, to bear the expense, incurred, to enable a few persons to display their own personal consequence to advantage.

The warrant for town-meeting on Nov. 1st, contained an article "to see if the town will defray the expense of the reception of Gen. La Fayette." When this was known it produced a strong excitement. There were numbers in town, who had been excluded from aiding in the reception, who were yet so zealous and enthusiastic for the companion of Washington, that they voluntarily contributed enough to defray the whole of these expenses, and would not let it be said, that in Concord it was necessary to lay a town-tax for the reception of the General; seeing and welcoming Gen. LA FAYETTE, without the infliction of a tax.

Let it be remembered that most of these men, are the very persons whom a majority of the Committee excluded from the ceremonies, when Gen. La Fayette was here. They find no fault with the reception, except that so few were allowed to share in it. With parts of it they are much pleased. The military parade was an honour to the town and County; they are proud of it. Indeed had the whole business been conducted on a liberal scale; had all the citizens been allowed to aid in conducting it, no dissatisfaction would have been felt. As it is, many are not pleased. Many have had injustice done them by being excluded; while it is conceived that some individuals have had great injustice done them by being allowed to make themselves seen too much. Be this as it may, it concerns every one to have the matter rightly understood in this town; and beyond this town of Concord let not these things be told.

The following is a Statement of the Expenses incurred at the reception of Gen. LA FAYETTE, September, 1824.

E. THOMPSON'S BILL for Refreshment furnished the troops on duty that day, viz.

20 Nags of drink before his arrival, at 1s $15 33
*10 Bottles of Spirit after his arrival, at 4s 12 00—$25 33

JONATHAN BERTHACK, Jr.'s BILL

To his expense in going to Boston after a Bagle player, 3 75

SAMUEL DEAN'S BILL

For Powder & Flannel to make cartridges for artillery, 12 17

JOSIAS DAVIS' BILL

For Sundries furnished the Bower, viz.

6 lb. Coffee, at 20 cts. - - - - 1 20
3 doz. Eggs 14 cts. - - - - - 42
1 lb. Butter, - - - - - 17
27 lb. Ham, at 12½ cts. - - - - 3 38
5 Bottles Wine of Davenport, at 6s. - 5 00
Making Bower by G. Proctor, - - - 5 00
Abel Conant's attendance of himself and boy, 1 00
Bread of Jarvis, - - - - - 1 00
3 lb. Loaf Sugar, 1s. - - - - 1 33—14 50

DANIEL SHATTUCK'S BILL

7 lb. Currants, at 25 cts. - - - - 1 75
7 lb. Sugar, - - - - - 75
6 lb. White Sugar, at 14 cts. - - - 84
4 lb. Cloves, - - - - - 40
7 lb. Box Raisins, at 20 cts. - - - 1 40
4 lb. Nutmegs, - - - - - 63
7 lb. 12 oz. Loaf Sugar, at 1s. - - - 1 29
Crockery lost and broken, - - - - 95
Expense in notifying Capt. DAVIS, of Jeter by William Whiting, - - - - 63 Damage of Loader, - - - - - 1 20—9 84

MORIS DAVIS' BILL

4 doz. Eggs, at 1s. - - - - - 67
4 lb. HYSON Tea, - - - - - 28—95

WILLIAM WHITING'S BILL

8 lb. Butter at 1s. - - - - - 1 33
6 doz. Eggs, 12½ cts. - - - - - 75
Cash paid for attendance at Table, - - 1 25—3 33

$19 87

The above items are copied exactly from the bill given in, and which was laid before the town. There was another item of $2, which made the whole bill $21 87; This amount was received and receipted for by Col. DANIEL SHATTUCK, in behalf of the Committee of Arrangements.

* Eight dollars of this item were refunded by the commanders of the Concord Independent Companies.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

some acct of the difficultys attending Friends in that Yearly Meeting particularly in that City, Oh! the disheartening circumstances which exist among us, but may the Lord preserve his heritage –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 4, Saturday: Joseph Anton Bruckner was born in Anselden near Linz the eldest of eleven children (only five surviving infancy) born to Anton Bruckner, schoolmaster and organist, and Therese Helm, daughter of a civil servant and innkeeper.

Gioachino Rossini left Paris for Bologna.

In Newport, Rhode Island Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 4th of 9 M / Again occupied all day in the concerns of Society Vizt in attending the Meeting of the Proprietors of Eastons Point as one of the Assisting committee - All I can say, is, that the services of Society press heavily upon me, both as it respects Spirituals & temporals. – Oh that I may be usefully & honourably carried through –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 5, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 5 of 9 M / Morning Meeting large - JD. AD. DB & AR all in rotation engaged in testimony A Robinson in particular much favoured. – In the Afternoon Father Rodman was to me very much acceptably engaged in Testimony. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 9, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 9th of 9 M / Our old frd Job Chaloner & his wife were at Meeting, & Job was acceptably engaged in testimony - they called to see us yesterday, their company was pleasant reviving in my mind many old occurrences while they were inhabitants of this town & as long ago as when I went to school to him

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 11, Saturday: Due to Carl Maria von Weber's increasing debilitation from tuberculosis, Heinrich August Marschner was appointed director of the German and Italian opera companies in Dresden.

Scottish reformer Fanny Wright and her sister Camilla were invited to stay with Maria Colden, wife of former mayor Cadwallader Colden, in New York during their visit to the US.

In Newport, Rhode Island Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

7th day 11th of 9th M / Rode this morning to Portsmouth Meeting House with D Buffum to attend the funeral of Mary Aylsworth, who died on 5th day at Isaac Almys - the funeral was small but a solid sitting at the Meeting House after the Corpse was inter'd - & Wm Almy was engaged in a sound pertinent testimony. - We dined at Isaac Almys & had an Opportunity of much conversation with Wm on concerns of society & some other subjects in [which] he with D Buffum & myself were concerned. - Mary Aylesworth was a solid exampary [sic] friend & had a testimony to bear in public for some Years - She was daughter of John Aylesworth & for many years had lived in Wm Almys family & chiefly a companion to his daughter Anne

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 12, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

9th M 12th (1st day) 1824 / We had unexpectedly the company of our frd Wm Almy at Meeting this morning who was concerned in a deeply Doctrinal testimony attended with life & power - I may acknowledge his communication was a comfort to me, a Strength to my hands, & I dont know but I may say a joy to my heart. - In the Afternoon Job Chaloner delivered a testimony in love & after meeting he & his wife took tea with us, & going away early I spent the rest of the evening at Abigail Robinsons in company with Mary Morton who arrived a few days ago from Philad. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 16, Thursday: King Louis XVIII, age 68, having ruled France for nearly a decade, lay like a beached white whale and breathed one last time and was still. Attendants scurried like ants deprived of their queen. Le Roi [Louis XVIII] est meurt, vive le Roi [his brother, Charles X]! And would you know, the Archbishop of Rheims announced, when the National Convention of France had supposed it had destroyed, to the last drop, together with the vial, in public with witnesses, and certified as destroyed, all the remainder of the Holy Oil of Rheims which had been given to Saint Remi for the coronation of King Clovis in the sixth century by a dove from Heaven, when that had happened on October 6, 1793, some of the sacred oil had nevertheless miraculously been preserved! There could be a coronation for this Charles the X!

Yes, indeed it is foolish for foolish men to suppose they can defy the ways of a provident deity!

In Newport, Rhode Island Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 16th of 9 M / Our meeting was small & from some circumstances a painful one to me. - Of what importance that Ministers should be skilful in their communications, & that Elders too should have a right understanding. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 19, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 19th of 9 M / Our Meeting this morning was silent & not

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*very lively but still I believe a degree of favour extended
In the Afternoon a short lively testimony from Father Rodman.-
Took tea with Father Rodman Br David & Samuel Peebles in company*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 22, Wednesday: In Newport, Rhode Island Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 22 of 9 M / Attended the funeral of Eunice Clarke aged 81 Years & about 5 Months. She was the widow of Nathaniel Clarke & daughter of the late Jacob Barney. - She was a friend in good esteem & many years ago was a useful member of the Moy [Monthly] Meeting. -her funeral was largely attended by friends & others & the sitting a Solid opportunity where Father Rodman Anne Dennis & David Buffum bore short testimonys. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 23, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 23rd of 9 M / Meeting small & low as to my own particular It is again a time of poverty with me, but having known many such seasons succeeded by a degree of Divine help, May I not yet trust in the Holy Helper.
With three other committee men visited a requester this Afternoon, but like the meeting was a low time, & the request withdrawn to the relief of our Minds. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 25, Saturday: In Newport, Rhode Island Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*7th day 25th of 9th M 1824 / Rode this Afternoon to Portsmouth with Uncle Saml Thurston & after taking tea at his house took Saml Peebles who was at his house & walked down to Uncle Stanton's & lodged - Next Morning rode to meeting with Aunt Patty - Abby Sherman & Mary Hix preeached - I returned to Uncle Stanton's & dined, then walked up to Uncle Thurston's to attend to an appointment from the Moy [Monthly] Meeting where the committee agreed to Meet - after which Uncle Thurston brought me as far as the two Mile corner & I walked the rest of the distance, & being unwell found the distance a Match for me
On my return, found John quite unwell with the St Anthonys fire, & My H almost sick with a cold Sister Ruth set the evening with us -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 30, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 30th of 9th M / Our Moy [Monthly] Meeting was rather small & rather heavy, tho' we had a communication from Father Rodman which appear'd to me to be in the life - & buisness went

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

on about as usual in the last Meeting. – We had several of our friends to dine with us. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

October 2, Saturday: The 1st constitution of the United Mexican States (Estados Unidos Mexicanos) was approved, to go into effect at midnight (midnight seems somehow appropriate, for this 1824 constitution was one that normalized human enslavement.)

“HEY HEY HEY, AND HO HO HO! / HUMAN ENSLAVEMENT, IT’S THE WAY TO GO!”

TEXAS

Later on, Anglo “Texian” immigrants would be fulminating against mongrel Mejico to the south and seeking to join themselves unto the United States of America to the north. They would put “1824” on their banner in reference to this constitution. –Without doubt, what these white men meant by such a shorthand reference was something like

“SLAVERY FIRST — SLAVERY LAST — SLAVERY ALWAYS!”

WAR ON MEXICO

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

10th M 2nd (7th day) 1824 / This Afternoon Samuel Peebles of Gravelly Run who has been here about 8 Weeks wanting a few Days

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

let [left] us, taking the Packet for NYork on his way home. – he has been a pleasant & very acceptable inmate in most of the families of Friends here during his stay, his solid deportment has comforted my mind, & under the afflicting disease which attends him, I have been almost surprised to behold in him a pattern of patience & resignation, & it affords me no small satisfaction that he has found his health in a considerable degree improved by our Air

We have hitherto known but very little of Friends of the Yearly Meeting of Virginia, but thro' Saml a medium of acquaintance seems to be open which I think may be useful. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 3, Sunday: Establishment of the Rensselaer School of Theoretical and Practical Science, at Troy, New York. [Elsewhere I have seen recorded that the school was founded on November 5th.] Rather than educating young gentlemen wannabees in the classics, this institution was to take a trade school approach and educate them to become productive servants of society. (The first of these students would graduate in 1835 and in 1861 the school would change its name to Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute.)

The 1st constitution of the United Mexican States (Estados Unidos Mexicanos), having been approved on the previous day, went into effect.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 3rd of 10th M 1824 / Our Meeting large & an uncommon portion of Preaching, in rotation as follows Anne Dennis Mary Morton Hannah Dennis, Father Rodman & Abigail Sherman. – In the Afternoon Mary Morton & Father Rodman were concerned to bear short testimonies. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 4, Monday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 4 of 10 M / Went to Connanicut this morning on buisness Went to Mercy Weedens & on my return called a few minutes at Jos Greenes, from thence to Cousin Molly Howlands & returned across the ferry in time to take tea at home –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 7, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 7 of 10 M / Soon after sitting down in Meeting a solemn covering was witnessed, life renew'd & I thought spread over the Meeting – our fr Mary Morton favourd in Testimony

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 October 10, Sunday: Manuel Felix Fernandez Guadalupe Victoria became the 1st President of Mexico.

The Edinburgh Town Council founded the Edinburgh Municipal Fire Brigade, the first fire brigade in Britain.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 10th of 10 M / Both Meetings were solid opportunities & only a short testimony in the Afternoon from Father Rodman. – Our Cousin Henry, Molly, Lydy Anne & Thomas B Gould set the evening with us – Benj & John Marshall arrived this Morning from NYork

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 October 11, Monday: The Times of London reviewed a new biographical dictionary of musicians, from Sainsbury and Company — the section on Samuel Wesley averred that he had died in 1815 but the newspaper pointed out that as of 1824 he was still alive.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 11th of 10 M / This Morning rose early & rode to Portsmouth with Charles Phelps & took Breakfast at Uncle Stantons, after which Charles & Benj Marshall went to Fall River & I rode into the West rode with Uncle Stanton & walked from the Mill lane home & reached Newport about half after 12 OClock – soon after which I rec'd a letter directed to Brother Isaac & myself from Willet Carpenter announcing the decease of our Cousin Lewis L Clarke, Last 7th day evening about half past 11 OClock being the 9th day of the present Month Aged [] Years. – Cousin Lewis has been a man of a singular turn of mind & at time deranged in Mind but I have no doubt the main bent of his intentions were good & his concern for the wellfare of Society sincere, & his love for his friends & relations in particular, ardent, & has taken much satisfaction in visiting them, & his friends esteem him, but his situation of body & mind for sometime past has been such as to render longer life undesirable for him or his connections –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 October 14, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 14th of 10th M 1824 / This day was our Select Moy [Monthly] Meeting in the public part we had excellent encouraging testimonys from Hannah Dennis Mary Morton, & a few words from another, it was a comfortable Meeting, & that part allotted for buisness there was some exebricise but I trust all ended well & the right thing promoted in the end. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 October 17, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1st day 17 of 10th M / In the morning good solemn & impressive testimonys from David Buffum, Father Rodman & H Dennis - & a large Meeting. - Small & Silent in the Afternoon

On the 15th inst U was informed by letter from Jas Robinson that Cousin Lewis L Clarke had bequeathed to me in his Will Twenty Dollars. - I feel greatful for that small Sum & pleased that in his final Testament he remembered me. - This I consider & feel to be a favour unexpected - my circumstances are small & my dependence small in any way as respects the World - but hitherto I have been preserved from actual want, & desire to be humbly thankful to the Giver of all good for it & hold my confidence in his all powerful supporting Arm of Mercy - for his Mercy my heart is sensible & without it What Am I - Where Am I -& where are any who have it not.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 21, Thursday: Joseph Aspdin, a mason, received a British patent for Portland Cement (this was the 1st modern improvement on the cement used by the ancient Romans).

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 21 of 10 M / Silent & to me precious meeting - in that the arising of life was Sweetly experienced, for which favour I desire to be thankful. - This State of mind I have enjoyed for Some days to my refreshment & encouragement

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 24, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 24th of 10 M / Morning Meeting was large which passed in Silence till near the close, when Father Rodman delivered a short testimony sound clear & according to my feeling appropriate. - Soon After Lucy Dow wife of Lorenzo stood up & spoke, which tho' generally sound, & I have no doubt well ment, was not a very acceptable offering - it being evidently lacking of that seasoning which makes way in Truth, & besides she had no right to preach in our meetings, being not in Membership with us

A few words again from Father Rodman - Lucy was there but silent

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 26, Tuesday: The digging of the western end of the Erie Canal at Lockport, to Lake Erie, was completed.

October 27, Wednesday: Clara Wieck began taking piano lessons with her father, in Leipzig.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

4th day 27th of 10th M 1824 / Uncle Stanton having sent the Waggon into townwe went out this Afternoon to his house & lodged

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 28, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day morning we took Aunt Polly & went to Moy [Monthly] Meeting a sound lively & pertinent testimony - in the last we had a larger portion of buisness than usual - Abigail Sherman was recommended to the Quarterly Meeting as a Minister - Elisha A Lawton & Sarah Lawton published their intentions of Marriage with several other subjects which held the Meeting later than usual. -- After which we dined at Uncle Stantons & lodged again - Wm Wilbour with drewed his request to be admitted to membership & the subject was dismissed. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 29, Friday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day finding it very rainy this Morning we staid till after dinner when we set out & in running the Waggon from the Barn to the house, I found it had got the advantage of me on a seep [steep] hill got to going fast & in clearing myself from it, I pitched head formost over a pile of Boards, on getting up found I was not apparantly hurt but much overcome with the sudden twirl - The fill [?] of the Waggon was broken which detained us longer to get another, but we got home before sunset - I consider this escape from immediate death, in which I was in danger of, both from the fall & from being crushed by the force of the Waggon - a great preservation for which I desire to be humbly thankful

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 30, Saturday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 30 of 10 M / Find myself quite unwell today with a pain in my right shoulder thro' to my Stomach & an occasional shooting pain in my left breast & side - whether it is owing to the fall of yesterday, or only my old complaint the Rheumatism I do not know, but am inclined to think it may be partly woing to both. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 31, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 31 of 10 M / Our Beloved friend Sarah Tucker attended both our Meetings & in both was twice engaged in very lively testimonys much [to] the edification of Friends & others - in the afternoon at her second rising she addressed the Youth very Sweetly, & I can but feelingly desire it may prove lastingly

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

beneficial to them & be remembered by them in days to come. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 4, Thursday: Leocadie, a drame lyrique by Daniel-Francois-Esprit Auber to words of Scribe and Melesville after Cervantes, was performed for the initial time, in Theatre Feydeau, Paris.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 4th of 11th M 1824 / This is our Quarterly Meeting day at Somersett - my mind was much there while sitting in our Meeting today which was small - our fr Job Chaloner was there & spake a little to satisfaction –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

John Augustus Stone's play "Restoration; or, The Diamond Cross" was staged at the Chatham Garden Theater in New-York. During this year the author himself was making appearances in supporting roles at this theater, as usual heavily made up as an old man.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Owen Brown, 3d of John Brown's sons and his stalwart aid both in Kansas and at Harpers Ferry, was born at Hudson, Ohio. With a withered arm, he would attempt to make a career of writing humor articles for newspapers, and would be 35 years of age at the time that he would escape from the aftermath the Harpers Ferry raid. He would complete his life as a grower of grapes in Ohio, and on a mountain near Pasadena, California.

On the following screen is what Harpers Ferry looked like in this year:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

November 7, Sunday: Water rose 421 centimeters above normal in the worst flood to date in Saint Petersburg, and 200 lost their lives.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould seized an opportunity to warn other local Quakers to distrust the New Doctrines of Friend Elias Hicks:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1st day 7th of 11th M / Silent Meetings. - but pretty well attended My mind tho' some favourd was at times scattered - In the evening called at Dorcas Earls & had conversation with Sarah & Phebe on the subject of New Doctrines afloat among friends particularly as delivered by Elias Hicks - bore my testimony against it pretty faithfully. -

November 11, Thursday: Sam L. Hitchcock of the ΦBK society wrote to inform Noah Webster that he had been elected an honorary member.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 12th [sic] of 11th M / Meeting small & silent till near the close, when J Dennis delivered a short testimony. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 13, Saturday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 13 of 11 M / This Afternoon went to Portsmouth & lodged at cousin Shadrack Chases -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 14, Sunday: The Symphony no.1 op.11 by Felix Mendelssohn was performed for the initial time, in the Mendelssohn home, Berlin on the occasion of his sister Fanny's 19th birthday.

In Portsmouth, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day Rode to Meeting with cousin Jacob, & after meeting went to Uncle Stantons & dined -then walked home. - A pleasant little visit, especially to cousin Shadrack, who is a great sufferer in the body, with distress for breath, I believe chiefly owing to a polypus in his nose -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 28, Sunday: At the invitation of Lea Mendelssohn, Ignaz Moscheles visits the Mendelssohn home in Berlin and hears Fanny and Felix Mendelssohn play. She was hoping that Moscheles will consent to teach the two children.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 28th of 11th M 1824 / Both our Meetings were silent & rather low times to me. - Set the evening at Father Rodmans - Sister Ruth is poor in health, & I fear very poor. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 29, Monday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

2nd day 29 of 11 M / It has been my lot for some Months to take care of the Meeting house & while I was there this morning attending to necessary concerns - my mind was lead in many reflections of a serious nature & I do not remember of ever having a clearer view of that preservation which will be experienced by keeping within the limits of Truth - nothing being able to hurt or make afraid

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 2, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 2nd of 12 M 1824 / Our meeting was silent & small tho' attended by several that are not members who do not usually come, it being what is usually denominated "Thanksgiving Day" - to me it was a season of favour for which I desire to be thankful - this is also the day of the Quarterly Meeting at New Bedford & the time of holding the Meeting for Sufferings the which I should have been glad to attended -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 5, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 5th of 12th M / It was my intention to have gone with Jethro F Mitchell to Tiverton Meeting as one of the committee appointed to attend occasionall - but the weather being Stormy yesterday & very Windy today, prevented us. -
Our Meeting at home was silent & to me low. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 9, Thursday: The revolutionary forces of Peru led by Antonio José de Sucre decisively defeated the forces of their Spanish overlords near Ayacucho, southeast of Lima. The Spanish would be thrown out of the American mainland, in the north, in the central region, and in the south. Spain still would retain control, however, over two major islands of the West Indies: Cuba and Puerto Rico.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 9th of 12 M / This morning before meeting a season of feeling - & at meeting a season of some favour - tho' thought which I wished to be clear of would intrude upon me. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 12, Sunday: Felicia Dorothea Hemans's "The Vespers of Palermo" was staged at Covent Garden.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 12 of 12 M / In the mornng Meeting after a Short testimony from D Dennis our frd D Buffum was very lively & caringly[?] engaged in testimony on the necessity of our walking in the straight & Narrow way which leads to life & peace -

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Silent in the Afternoon & a measure of favour extended in both meetings for which I desire to be thankful Cousin Henry Gould set the eveing with us. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 16, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 16th 12 M 1824 / A very solid quiet & I believe favoured Meeting, but my mind poor & destitute. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 19, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 19th of 12 M / In the forenoon three testimonies generally very good. – Silent in the Afternoon –
Poor Day to me –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

The London Times reported that “A wonderful instrument called the stethoscope, invented a few months ago ... is now in complete vogue in Paris.”

“The advent of the stethoscope made it possible to unify tuberculosis.”

– Doctor Jacalyn Duffin

December 22, Wednesday: Edward Everett orated at Plymouth, Massachusetts. This would be published by Cummings, Hilliard & Company at 134 Washington Street in Boston and we infer that this publication likely is the source for a declamation that 13-year-old David Henry Thoreau would perform at the Concord Academy in 1830.

EVERETT AT PLYMOUTH

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 22 of 12 M / Last evening I recd a long letter from my Ancient frd Moses Brown & this Afternoon one from my friend Thomas Thompson of Liverpool. – There seem like a brook by the way – or refreshment in a dry season. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 23, Thursday: Per the journal of Albert Gallatin’s son James as recorded in THE DIARY OF JAMES GALLATIN:

Monsieur Pascault has recovered wonderfully and insists upon having a dinner of all the family on the 31st. He says it will be his last year, and he wants to have them all around him.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

I am sorry I will be away from my father and mother, but my duty is by my wife. We expect our child in the New Year.

Headman Pushmataha of the Choctaw Nation died in Washington DC.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 23 of 12 M / Hannah Dennis was twice engaged in testimony & a few words from Anne. – My mind in that state as not to proffit. – Oh how poor I am. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 26, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

12th M 26th (1st day) / Hannah Dennis & Anne Dennis & Father Rodman were all engaged in testimony – Silent in the Afternoon.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 30, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 30 of 12 M / Yesterday afternoon I went to Portsmouth part of the distance I rode & walked the rest to Uncle Stantons, where I found my mother well & lodged
This morning walked to meeting, the first was a season of uncommon favour, the Silence was to be felt & the appearance of H Dennis both in supplication & testimony were Solemn & impressive. Anne said a few words & Ruth Freeborn was also much favoured in testimony & was particularly comfortable to Friends as she is just emerging from a long state of depression both in body & mind. –The last Meeting had but little buisness – I rode in David Buffums carriage to Rich Mitchells to dinner & from thence Home –*

I bear in Solemn remembrance that I am this day 43 Years of Age – I awoke before day light & remembered it the first thing –& my mind has ruminated on the subject at times all day –Surely I have great cause to be thankful for the many mercys & favours & deliverances that I have had in the course of my life –& have with shamefacedness to acknowledge my poor returns of faithfulness & dedication of heart to Him who hath evidently preserved me thro' many trials unknown to any mortal but myself. – Yet have I confidence to trust in his power, thro' the Mediation of Jesus Christ, & desire to offer unto him Thanksgiving & praise for the past & humbly implore a continuance of Mercy. –

Our dear Young friends Wing Russell & Joseph Tillinghast from New Bedford set the evening with us

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

December 31, Friday: Great Britain recognized the independence of Buenos Aires, Mexico, and Colombia.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*6th day 31 of 12 M 1824 / Wing Russell & J Tillinghast hast dined with us, they are well engaged young men & I feel nearly united to them in Religious fellowship
These closes the Year & in closing it, my heart is humbled under a sense of the goodness of God, in that he has preseerved me thus long. --*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

“NARRATIVE HISTORY” IS FABULATION, HISTORY IS CHRONOLOGY

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1825

January 1, Saturday: The New-York House of Refuge for juvenile delinquents opened in a federal arsenal, at Broadway and the old Boston Road, that had been erected in 1806.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 1st of 1st M 1825 / This Year commences under precious feelings. It has been a day of favour, for which I desire to be thankful

It is feelingly my desire at the opening of the year, more to dedicate my self to the cause of Truth than heretofore, during the past Year I have had many trials, some of which seem in good measure passed by & my mind freed from them, for which I trust I am very thankful. Some however remain & my prayer is to be endued with patience & wisdom, & I have faith to believe I shall.

—
Wing Russell & Jos Tillinghast have been several times in the course of the Day. their company is solid & acceptable & seem to be young men deepening in the true seed & root, in which I desire their progress —³³²

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 2, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 2nd of 1 M 1825 / The day was stormy & meetings small & low, in the forenoon Father Rodman & Jon Dennis bore short

332. Stephen Wanton Gould Diary, 1823-1829: The Gould family papers are stored under control number 2033 at the Division of Rare and Manuscript Collections of Cornell University Library, Box 8 Folder 13: October 2, 1823-March 6, 1829; also on microfilm, see Series 7

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

acceptable testimonys - Silent in the Afternoon - Wing Russell & Jos Tillinghast set the evening with us, also sister Mary. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 6, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 6th of 1st M / Day before yesterday we were inform'd of the illness of Uncle Saml Thurston & finding he was very low yesterday I went out towards night to his house to see him After a little refreshment I went into his room & to his bed side & found him asleep, he however soon roused, when I went & spoke to him, he looked up with the usual pleasant smile on his countenance & says "Is it Stephen" to which I replied yes & inquired how it was with him, but he was so heavy that he did not appear to know what he said in reply - he continued much in that state till the Doctor came, when he was more roused & gave rational answers - I staid all night but finding a Watcher supplied I went to bed.

This morning he remained much as last night, & it being necessary for me to come home, set out & walked a part of the way & Jas Sisson came along with his waggon & brought me the rest of the distance. - There appears to be no hope of Samuels recovery, but the prospect looks now like a speedy dissolution -his loss to the Church & community at large will be very great

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 8, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st 8th of 1st M / Uncle Samuel Thurston Departed this life this Morning about 9 OClock -.-

1st day - After attending the Morning Meeting at home I rode to Portsmouth with Anne Dennis, & After visiting Aunt Thurston a little while in her affliction & looking on the remains of her beloved Consort - I went down to Uncle Stantons to visit my Mother & staid all night. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 9, Monday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day / Attended the funeral which was at 10 OClock at the house & 11 OC at the Meeting House, where large number of people collected & a solemn Meeting was held on the occasion - The weight of service fell on Ruth Freeborn who was much favoured with pertinent & very seasonable matter for the occasion - Jonathon Hannah & Anne Dennis had short testimonys - While the corpse lay over the grave, a short but uncommonly solemn pause was made, & the whole closed decently & becomingly. - I returned to the house of the deceased, dined & rode home with D Buffum Jr - stoping on the way home at John Mitchells & saw his daughter

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Joanne who appears to be in a Consumption - I thought her flushed cheek & quick pulse which I counted at 137 indicated fast approaching dissolution without a change.-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 13, Thursday: Die Forelle, a song by Franz Schubert to words of Schubart, was published by Diabelli, Vienna as his op.32.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 13th of 1st M 1825 / At our Select Meeting this Day, we missed Uncle Samuel Thurston from his usual seat, & felt the Miss-Richd Mitchell & Hannah Dennis, Dined with us the latter set the Afternoon & was joined by her husband at tea, who set the evening with us. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 16, Sunday: William Hutchings, son of Hannah G. Hutchings of Gloucester, died while at sea.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 16th of 1 M / Soon after Our morning Meeting was gathered a very solemn quiet was spread over it, which was increasing, when our Ancient & beloved friend David Buffum rose deliverd a Solemn & well adapted testimony "There is no peace to the wicked, to know good, & not to do it becomes sin to us - My peace I give unto you my peace I leave with you, not such peace as the world gives give I unto you" &c. were passages of Scripture which he used, all having a solemn effect on the Audience - Soon after Father Rodman was engaged similarly & was singularly Solemn & impressive - it was a favouring Meeting, but my mind was not able to partake of it, so deeply as on some other occasions. - In the afternoon we were Silen & small. - Yesterday morning I forwarded a letter to sister Elizabeth & by the Mail at night we recd on from her which expressed their welfare. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 20, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 20th of 1st M 1825 / The Year & the season progresses & my life with them. - yet how poor how lean in the Mind - my feelings were distressed at Meeting under the consideration- it seems as if I have much to do, & the time to do it may be short, & even if it should be prolong'd to the length allotted Man, it will be short. - Father Rodman had a short, but to my feelings acceptable testimony -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 January 23, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 23rd of 1 M / Our Morning Meeting was well attended considering it was very cold, raw high wind & cloudy – Father Rodman was largely exercised in his ministry. – In the Afternoon small & a few words by Father Rodman. -- I have to acknowledge great Poverty of Spirit -- Yesterday I went to Portsmouth with D Buffum to attend the funeral of Joseph Mott - the Meeting was held at the Meeting house & was a season of favour - our friends D Buffum & Ruth Freeborn were very lively & impressively engaged in Testimony – we Dined at the late residence of Uncle S Thurston & after a little time of sitting with the Widow & family in free sympathetic conversation we rode home –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 27, Thursday: In Acton, a “Universalist” church was incorporated, with 49 members, which in a couple of years would rise to 61.

There are now three religious societies in Acton. 1. The Orthodox, which seceded from the town [of Acton] and formed a separate parish during the latter part of Rev. Mr. Shed's ministry. The Rev. James T. Woodbury, brother of the Hon. Levi Woodbury, and formerly a member of the bar in Grafton County, New-Hampshire, was ordained over the parish, August 29, 1832, when the Rev. Mr. Cleaveland, of Salem, preached. 2. The Unitarian, which worships in the meeting-house erected by the town [of Acton]; and 3. The Universalist, which was organized 19th of January, 1816, and incorporated 27th of January, 1825. At the former period it contained 11 members, at the latter 49, and in 1827, 61, twenty of whom resided in other towns. The two last have no settled minister.³³³

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 27th of 1st M / Our Moy [Monthly] Meeting held this day in Town was a season of solemnity & favour – In the first meeting Father Rodman Anne Dennis & Hannah Dennis in succession bore testimony, & in the last the buisness that came before us was conducted with a good degree of weight. – Uncle P Lawton & Adam Anthony dined with us. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 30, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

333. Lemuel Shattuck's 1835 A HISTORY OF THE TOWN OF CONCORD;... Boston: Russell, Odiorne, and Company; Concord MA: John Stacy
(On or about November 11, 1837 Henry Thoreau would indicate a familiarity with the contents of at least pages 2-3 and 6-9 of this historical study. On July 16, 1859 he would correct a date mistake buried in the body of the text.)

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1st day 30th of 1 M / Our Meeting today was well attended & we had considerable preaching which seemed to me to be pretty good, but I was not in the situation to judge or be benefited as at some times. -

I am looking towards our Quarterly Meeting when I hope to feel revival. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 31, Monday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 31 of 1st M 1825 / Rode in the Stage this Morning to Portsmouth to attend to some buisness for Uncle Stanton where I spent the day & lodged. - finding my Mother very smart & well considering her Age &c. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 1, Tuesday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 1st of 2nd M 1825 / This morning walked from Uncle Stantons to Bristol ferry where I took the Stage & Rode to Providence - lodged at Moses Browns who I found well & glad to see me. - 4th day rode with our venerable frd to Select Meeting, after which I dined at Dorcas Browns - In the Afternoon attended the Meeting for Sufferings which set till 9 OC in the evening, then rode with M Brown to his house & lodged -- 5th day Attended the Meeting at large & Dined at Wm Jenkins's, then returned to the Meeting house to Meet with the Trustees of OB Benevolent fund which sat till 8 OC when I returned with Moses to his house & again lodged - 6th day at 10 OC went to the School House & attended school committee which took us all day & late in the eveing when I went into Providence & lodged at Wm Jenkins's -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 5, Saturday: Hannah Lord Montague of Troy patented the 1st detachable shirt collar.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day took Stage with D Buffum & rode to Bristol ferry -after we crossed we found his Carriage there in which I rode home.- This Quarterly Meeting has been as season of precious favour to me for which I desire to be very thankful. - The various sittings, both of Meetings & committees were all in harmony & the hearts of many renewedly Knit together - the labours of our two Ancient Standards D Buffum & Moses Brown was uncommonly interesting - it is no common occurrence to find two so aged men, one in the 87th & the other in his 82 Year, active green & pertinent in their labours. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 February 6, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 6th of 2nd M 1825 / Forenoon Meeting well attended - Afternoon was small - both pretty good meetings. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 February 7, Monday: Per the journal of Albert Gallatin's son James as recorded in THE DIARY OF JAMES GALLATIN:

*My dear wife was safely delivered of a fine boy this morning.
We are going to call him Albert.*

 February 10, Thursday: Simón Bolívar gave up his title as “dictator” of Peru in favor of “El Libertador.”

William James Hubbard “invenit et fecit” an elaborate water-colored cut-paper silhouette mounted on board with gold paint, of a Napoleonic-era cavalry duel between a French Cuirassier and an English 15th Hussar:

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 10th of 2 M / Small but comfortable Meeting, Father Rodman engaged in a short acceptable testimony -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 February 13, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 13th of 2 M / Small Meetings & silent, but solemn sittings. Neither D Buffum, Father Rodman nor Richd Mitchell

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

were there all unable to get out – On we that are Younger, a greater weight is fast devolving, & Oh, Oh that we may be qualified for our Stations. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 16, Wednesday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 16 of 2 M / This day recd a very Acceptable letter from my much valued frd & correspondent Thos Thompsn of Liverpool - his letters are always refreshing & what he sends with them particularly interesting, at this time he Sent to me the "Annual Minutes for this Year" - "The Ground of Christian Discipline briefly esplained" by Joseph Latham - "Collectia 2nd N & several other pieces of value. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 24, Thursday: Dr. Berlioz, after hearing of the fiasco of December 27th, severed the allowance of his son Hector (this began Hector Berlioz's financial troubles, which would persist through the 1830s).

Thomas Bowdler, censor and prude, died.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 24th of 2 M / Our Moy [Monthly] Meeting is this day held at Portsmouth in a very fine pleasant day, tho' the travelling muddy -& I not there, which may not tend to my Spiritual strength but all things considerd I thought I should feel easy my self to stay at home, being rather indisposed & my wife hardly able to keep up from violent head Ach. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 27, Sunday: Abigail Prescott Minott, mother of George Minott, died in Concord.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 27th of 2 M / Very Small Meetings many are sick with a prevailing epidemic call the Influenza & some are absent from home. – Feeling very unwell myself was not there in the forenoon - but went in the Afternoon – Yesterday recd a letter from Samuel Peebles, wherein his health is stated to be very poor - his situation in every respect claims sympathy - he has mine feelingly - his letter was very acceptable being matter of rejoicing to find him alive in spirit tho' depressed in body. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 5, Saturday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 5th of 3rd M 1825 / Saw the decease of our Venerable

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*friend James Davis mentioned in the Paper of today - on the 25 ult. aged 81 Years. - he was a Minister in society of many years standing, & one whose minstry was reaching to my feelings in my youthful Days - He is no doubt gathered as a shock [of wheat] fully ripe into the heavenly garner
This has been our Trustees Meeting & the first we have held since the decease of our friend & associate Samuel Thurston, who we missed in our deliberations, & entered on record by an appropriate minute that his lass we felt & that his services had been acceptable & useful for many Years. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 March 6, Sunday: In Vienna, String Quartet op.127 by Ludwig van Beethoven was performed for the initial time (it was not a success).

In the Teatro San Carlo of Naples meanwhile, I voti dei sudditi, an azione pastorale by Gaetano Donizetti to words of Schmidt was being performed for the initial time.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 6th of 3rd M / In the forenoon our fr D Buffum was very lively in testimony - Silent in the Afternoon - both meetings were very good ones to me - particularly in the Afternoon when life rose in my feelings greatly to my comfort. I desire to be thankful for this renewd evidence of grace - In the eveng went with John out to D Buffum (R Rodman in company) & took tea on my return stoped at Cousin Henry Goulds for my wife who went there to visit his son Thomas, who is very sick of a complaint that looks alarming

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 March 10, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 10th of 2rd M / A good solid but small meeting - Anne Dennis appeard in a few words Acceptably - Our Meetings of late have been smaller than usual owing to the many that are sick with the Influenza, which for two or three weeks has been very prevalent, few familys but have had more or less down with it, & but very few who have not been in lesser or greater degree affected

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 March 12, Saturday: Der Einsame D.800, a song by Franz Schubert to words of Lappe, was published in the Zeitschrift fur Kunst, Vienna.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 12 of 3 M / About a quarter past 9 OC this morning Died Content Warner, she was daughter of Walter Easton & Meribeth his wife her first husband was John Wanton from whom she was divorced & then married [] Warner who died & left her a widow after which she returned to her birth right among Friends And died aged 75 Years [?] a few days

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 13, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 13th of 3rd M 1825 / Our Morning Meeting was silent & well attended - The afternoon small & short testimonys from Jonth Dennis & Father Rodman - Both were good seasons to me for which I desire to be thankful -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 17, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 17th 3rd M / Our Meeting was small, & perhaps smaller than usual from indisposition & bad walking - but to me was a comfortable solid sitting. - My mind has much of late been on the low key, but accompanied with tenderness & a sense of favour.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 18, Friday: The Senate of the University of Cambridge voted to grant Samuel Wesley the right to publish any part of the collection of manuscripts Lord Fitzwilliam had bequeathed to it in 1816 (at his own expense and risk).

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 18th of 3 M / Rode to Portsmouth with Dr Hazard to see Uncle Stanton who is quite sick with the prevailing influenza -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 19, Saturday: Sir Ralph Noel died.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 19 of 3 M / This Afternoon went to the Widow Buckmasters to rectify her clocks. She is very sick & while sitting with her my mind was dipt into sweet feelings - it appears to me she knew where to put her trust & that it was well founded - She is of the Presbyterian persuasion but one of those who has learned in the true school & is very tender in spirit -which mine partook of -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 20, Sunday: Franz Schubert's vocal quartet Flucht D.825 to words of Lappe was performed for the initial time, in the Landhaussaal, Vienna.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 20th of 3 M / This day was the funeral of Sarah Rogers which went to the forenoon Meeting. The Meeting was large solemn & impressive, attended by many of her relations who were not members

Our frds David Buffum & Hannah Dennis were largely & very acceptably engaged in public testimony. -

The Afternoon Meeting was also a favoured time tho' much smaller than in the Morning - Father Rodman was acceptably engaged in a short testimony. -

Sister Ruth Rodman, in addition to her other complaints has a sharp attack of pleuresy - my wife stays with her tonight. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 24, Thursday: Mexico allowed immigration from the US into the district of Texco-Coahuila.

Der Berggeist, an opera by Louis Spohr to words of Doring, was performed for the initial time, in the Kassel Hoftheater, as part of celebrations surrounding the marriage of the daughter of Elector Wilhelm II of Hesse-Kassel to Duke Bernhard Erich of Saxe-Meiningen.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 24th of 3 M / Our Moy [Monthly] Meeting was comfortably attended on both sides of the house - & I trust it was a season of some favour A short testimony delivered - At Preparative meeting some conversation about holding our first day meeting one month earlier at 10 OC in the Morning - but no conclusion

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 27, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 27th of 3rd M 1825 / Silent morning Meeting & to me a good one - Short but good testimony by Father Rodman in the Afternoon - 5th day 31 of 3 M / Our first meeting was a quiet but rather low time - tho' our friends Ruth Freeborn & Abigail Robinson were favoured to bear good testimonys, & appropriate to the State of things -

In our last (Monthly) buisness went on pretty well tho attended with some exercise

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 3, Easter Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 3rd of 4 M 1825 / It has been a violent Snow Storm all

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Day & evening - Our Morning meeting was very small & the Afternoon still smaller - both low times -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 5, Tuesday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*3rd day 5 of 4 M / This Morning about 3 O'clock The Town was alarmed by the cry of Fire which proved to be the house in Broad Street occupied by Richd & Geo: C Shaw which was soon subdued.
-About a Quarter of an hour before the Cry of Fire Julia Hall wife of Milton Hall & daughter of John A Collins Died in Child bed aged 19 years a sudden awful Stroke, the consideration whereof has affected my mind. -
This Afternoon Attended the funeral of Ruth Hazard wife of Godfrey Hazard at the Beach aged 67 Years. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 7, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 7th of 3rd M / The last part of our meeting was a season of some favour. - Father Rodman engaged in a short but good testimony. -- At the conclusion of the Meeting met with the Overseers to have an opportunity with my Cousin D. Gould who has been long in the habit of neglecting Meetings & has imbibed a prejudice against the Active members of Society & seems to entertain himself with arguments against them & the State of Society - My mind was largely opened in expostulation with him, but he seemed hard & unrelenting over which state of mind we could but Mourn one remain[?]

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 10, Sunday: 1st hotel in Hawaii opened.

Der Alpenjager D.588, a song by Franz Schubert to words of Schiller, was performed for the initial time, in the Vienna Musikverein.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 10th of 4 M 1825 / Our Meetings were both well attended & a little acceptable service in both of them by Father Rodman.
To me hard dull seasons. - Oh for better times - I desire to get low, that the streams of life may yet more & more increase in my mind. - By the return of my Br Isaac in the Steam Boat this Afternoon I recd a short letter & little testimony of remembrance from my frd Thos Thompson Dated 2 M 15 1825 - We set most of the evening with our beloved Sister Ruth who seems mending after a severe attack of Pleurisy. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

April 17, Sunday: John Downes got married with Rebecca Pease of Shrewsbury, whose grandfather Captain Levi Pease, owner of a tavern in Shrewsbury, was known as “the father of mail stages in this country,” having started the Boston/Hartford stage line in 1783. For several years Downes worked in Boston as a wood engraver while attempting to become established there as a musician, and seems to have done some woodcuts at Parleys Magazine while Nathaniel Hawthorne was there.

King Charles X of France recognized Haiti 21 years after it had expelled the French following its successful revolution, and demanded that they pay 150 million gold francs, 30 million of which they would need to finance through France itself as down payment.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 17 of 4 M / Both Meetings pretty well attended & the Afternoon was a season of some favour to me –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 21, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 21 of 4 M / Meeting pretty well attended, & by close watching was favoured with some life, for which I desire to be thankful. –
In the preparative Meeting All the queries was answerd, it being the preparative Meeting before the Quarter preceeding the Yearly Meeting. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

April 24, Sunday: Robert Michael Ballantyne was born in Edinburgh, Scotland, a scion of a well-known family of printers and publishers. His father was newspaper editor and printer Sandy Ballantyne. One uncle was James Ballantyne, printer for the most famous writer in Scotland, Sir Walter Scott, and he grew up in and around the Scott home. This was the Ballantyne Press:

When Sir Walter made bad investments, this Ballantyne family would also be financially ruined.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 24th of 4 M / Our forenoon Meeting was pretty well attended, & our frd Abigail Robinson was largely engaged in testimony beyond any thing we have heard from her in some time – "What will a Man give up in exchange for his soul" was her opening which branched out into much wise counsil & warning & the Youth was feelingly included in the testimony. – Hannah Dennis was also lively in a short communication In the Afternoon, the Meeting small but a season of some favour – With John & Richard & set the evening at D Buffums

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 April 27, Wednesday: In Boston, the cornerstone of a new Market House was laid.

Subscriptions for the stock of the Blackstone Canal went on sale in Providence, Rhode Island.

A new French law would compensate families of noble derivation for losses during the French Revolution.

 April 30, Saturday: Daniel Bliss Ripley died at St. Stephens, Alabama at the age of 37.

DANIEL BLISS RIPLEY of [Concord], brother of the preceding [younger brother of Samuel Ripley], was graduated at [Harvard College] in 1805. He was an attorney, and died at St. Stephens, Alabama; April 30, 1825, aged 37.³³⁴

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 30th of 4 M 1825 / Our beloved Sister Ruth spent most of the Day with us, the first time she has been here in Several Months, having been seriously indisposed – & is now in a low state of health, but better than some time ago – from appearances, with the Warm weather she may be still better.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 May 1, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 1st of 5 M 1825 / Our meetings were not seasons of much life yet a degree of favour was experineced. Anne Dennis & father Rodman bore short testimonys.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 May 3, Tuesday: Le macon, an opera comique by Daniel-Francois-Esprit Auber to words of Scribe and Delavigne, was performed for the initial time, in Theatre Feydeau, Paris.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 3rd of 5 M / Under no small discouragement on various accounts We went on board the Packet this Morning for Greenwich to attend our Quarterly Meeting held there this week. – where we arrived in the Afternoon & got to Daniel Howlands between one & 2 OClock: – Soon after there came up a storm of Rain Thunder lightening & the most & largest Hail I ever saw many of the hail stones were as large as Cherrys & if the wind had blown, many windows must have been broken – The Thunder broke near a House South of our Meeting House in Greenwich but did little damage –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

334. Lemuel Shattuck's 1835 A HISTORY OF THE TOWN OF CONCORD;... Boston: Russell, Odiorne, and Company; Concord MA: John Stacy

(On or about November 11, 1837 Henry Thoreau would indicate a familiarity with the contents of at least pages 2-3 and 6-9 of this historical study. On July 16, 1859 he would correct a date mistake buried in the body of the text.)

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 May 4, Wednesday: Henry Huxley was born.

The opera season opened on this night in Palermo under its new director, Gaetano Donizetti (the orchestra performed so poorly that Donizetti would be called to account by the Superintendent of Public Spectacles).

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day Our Select Meeting was a season of favor - Meeting for Sufferings & Trustees Meeting also met which consumed the Day. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 May 5, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day In the first Meeting Wm Almy bore a faithful testimony to the Truth & Alice Rathbone was concerned in solemn Supplication. - In the last meeting buisness was conducted in love & harmony & the Appointment by Greenwich Moy [Monthly] Meeting of Perez Peck to the Station of an Elder was united with -

After Meeting we dined at the Widow Rounds, & then got into Wm Jenkins Carriage & rode to Providence & lodged at his house. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 May 6, Friday: Challenged by Luigi Cherubini to compose a Kyrie for chorus, Felix Mendelssohn produced a Kyrie in d minor.

Maria Brontë died of tuberculosis.

Mayor John Phillips of Boston was fined for "fast riding."

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day - My wife staid with Anne Jenkins & I went out to the School House. - where I was occupied with the School Committee all Day - & tho' it was close application & fatiguing yet the consolation of finding the school in good order & affording a promise of future usefulness to Society was a very consoling & encouraging prospect, for which I feel in good measure thankful - In the eveng called to see Dorcas Brown & lodged at Wm Jenkins's

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 May 7, Saturday: At 8AM in Vienna, Antonio Salieri died at the age of 74.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day With my wife & David Buffum in company we went on board the Packet at 10 OC & after a long but pleasant Passage down the River we got home about 5 OC PM. - Tho' we have been longer from home than we expected, yet the

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

favour experienced particularly in visiting the School yesterday renders the visit a proffitable one to us. – Oh Father I thank thee for the past. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 8, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 8th of 5 M / Silent Meetings & smaller than usual in consequence of the funeral of Anna Anthony at Portsmouth which a number of Friends attended – Set most of the eveng with Abigail Robinson who read me a very interesting part of her letter from her sister Mary Morton which gave an account of their Yearly Meeting at Philadelphia as having been a very favoured season, wherein the weight & savour of Divine life rose over all loose spirits, to the comfort & support of many drooping minds. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 12, Thursday: Organization president John Jay addressed New-York's Bible Society, claiming that human knowledge could not encompass the mysteries of the spiritual world.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 12th of 5 M / A good Silent Meeting Set out with D Buffum to Visit Jos Wilbour in the neck, but going over a gutter the spring of the Chaise broke so I went on, on foot & spent most of the Afternoon –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 15, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 15th of 5 M 1825 / A little good preaching in the forenoon from Father Rodman & J Dennis. – In the Afternoon Silent good meeting. – Took tea at cousin Henry Goulds –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Per the journal of Albert Gallatin's son James as recorded in THE DIARY OF JAMES GALLATIN:

Father has just written to me that I must be present at Uniontown to help him receive Lafayette, who is going to stay a couple of nights with him at Friendship Hill. So I am off to-morrow. Josephine is quite well and so happy with her baby. I do not mind leaving her.

May 19, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 19 of 5 M / A good comfortable meeting to me, in Silence – for which I desire to be thankful –
My dear Aged Mother has been for some weeks very unwell. She was*

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

taken so at Portsmouth where she spent last Winter & since her return is no better & rather grows worse. I grow apprehensive that her case is Serious. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 21, Saturday: Le lapin blanc, an opera comique by Ferdinand Herold to words of Melesville and Carmouche, was performed for the initial time, in the Theatre Feydeau, Paris.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 21st of 5 M / Rode to Portsmouth with Uncle Benjn Freeborn, & took tea at Aunt Elizabeth Thurstons - Then Walked on to Uncle Stantons & lodged. - 1st day [Sunday] Morning after breakfast walked up to Asa Shermans, where Jethro T Mitchell soon met me & with him & his son Wm rode over to Tiverton to attend the Meeting there being part of the committee appointed to visit it occasionally - The number that meet are small & the spring of life evidently low, yet I do not see, any better way than to strive to Keep the Meeting up yet a little longer. - After Meeting we came directly homeward & dined at Assa Shermans, & from thence I rode home with D Buffum Jr who was also at Tiverton. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 26, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 26th of 5 M / Our Moy [Monthly] Meeting was this day held in Town, it was a time of love; nothing went hard & friends were comforted together. - there was a little preaching, well ment but not of the first stamp, either for life or correct delivery

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 29, Sunday: A Mass in A by Luigi Cherubini was performed for the initial time, for the coronation of King Charles X in Rheims. This was the 1st coronation of a French king since 1775.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 29th of 5 M / Both Meetings nearly Silent & both pretty good ones to me - Between Meetings several friends arrived in the Steam Boat, among them were our friend James Hazard. - Saml Newett & Arnold Buffum also came & gave us some acct of NYork Yearly Meeting, where it appeard great trial was experienced. - Took tea at David Buffums. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 June 2, Thursday: Rondo in c minor op.1 becomes the 1st work of Fryderyk Franciszek Chopin to be commercially published, courtesy of Brzezina & Co.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 2nd of 6 M 1825 / Our friend Huldah Hoag from Vermont arrived in the Steam Boat on 3rd day & Attended our Meeting today -also our friend James Hazard from Cornwall NYork State was there & both had acceptable testimonys -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 June 3, Friday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 3 of 6 M / Went this Morning with Huldah Hoag & her temporary companion Susanna Warham from Maryland - to Conannicut to attend an Appointed Meeting there at 3 OC this Afternoon. - After settling the way for them to get to Narragansett I returned home, without attending the Meeting with them feeling it extremely inconvenient for me to be from home at a time so near the Yearly Meeting. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 June 5, Sunday: The two nurses who attended Antonio Salieri reasserted that since Winter 1823, at no point had their patient said anything to them about having murdered Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 5 of 6 M / Stormy Day with much Rain - Our forenoon meeting small but a very solid & good one in which father Rodman had a few words to deliver -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 June 9, Thursday: The Marquis de Lafayette, touring America, arrived in Rome, New York, on the Governor Clinton via the Erie Canal.

Suleika II D.717, a song by Franz Schubert to words of Johann Wolfgang von Goethe, was performed for the initial time, in the Jagor'schersaal, Berlin. Other Schubert songs also were performed to great success.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 9th of 6 M / Our Meeting tho' small was a season of favour a time in which celestial dew fell on some minds to their Strengthening & comfort. - James Hazard David Buffum & Father Rodman were engaged in lively seasonable & pertinent testimonys & James Hazard appeared in the conclusion in humble supplication

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 June 11, Saturday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

7th day 11th of 6th M 1825 / Yearly Meeting has commenced & my wife & I have been to Portsmouth to attend the Select Meeting, which was Measurably favoured - It appeared that we had with us as visiting Brothers & Sisters Vizt James Hazard from Cornwall NYork, George Hatton of Indiana who is a grand son of Susannah Hatton afterwards Leightfoot - Abigail Barker from Burlington & her companion Mary Allenson - Huldah from Vermont & Abigail R Hoag from the same place who is daughter of Thos Robinsons & a Native of Newport -
We dined at Aunt Thurstons, & afer the Meeting for Sufferings we came home -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 12, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day - Both Meetings very large & George Hatton James Hazard engaged in both - George very largely - I suppose it may be called a favoured time - The people very still & attentive

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 13, Monday: At our nation's puzzle palace, President John Quincy Adams was out for his usual after-breakfast skinny-dip in the Potomac. At the middle of the river, in a sudden gust of wind, the canoe capsized and, the record states, the life of our President, although he was an expert swimmer who swam for one to two hours daily, was endangered. Some of the President's clothing was lost and he was forced to hike back to the White House in only one shoe.³³⁵

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day - Our Meeting was remarkably favoured with quiet -The buisness conducted in harmony & good feeling - which is a favour we ought to be & I have no doubt many are humbly thankful for -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 14, Tuesday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day My mind low & oppressed with my own infirmitys & in addition to which have heard this Morning that my brother James W Gould has arrived at Warren & my Brother Isaac has gone in a Chaise to see him - I am going to Select Meeting & hope to feel divine help

Both our Meetings today, Select & that for the body at large, were seasons of favour, order & harmony, in which my mind has been comforted & enlarged - we have had many of our dear Friends at our house & Moses Brown, Abigail Barker, Mary Allenson & some others at tea

Brother James returned home with Br Isaac this afternoon -
The first time we have seen him in about 16 Years

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

335. The record is silent as to whether the life of the President's slave, paddling said canoe, was also endangered when it overturned, and is also silent as to how Antoine might have been punished for having sent the Presidential attire down the river.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 June 15, Wednesday: Elizabeth Brontë died of tuberculosis.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day Meetings again favoured with Quiet - thankfulness prevails in many minds that we have been thus preserved. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 June 16, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day The Meeting this morning met at half past 7 OC & concluded about 10 under a solemn sense of the favours vouchsafed to us in the several sittings. -The Public meeting held at 11 OC was not as large as I have sometimes seen it on that Day but a more favoured Meeting taken generally I perhaps never saw at this time. -The Solemnity of the Silence was to be felt, Geo Hatton began with a short testimony, & was followed by our friend Abigail Barker in a long sound & living gospel testimony The Meeting concluded after a short testimony by Huldah Hoag

The Afternoon has been spent in parting with our friends some of us perhaps have parted forever. - George Hatton & his companion took tea with us - Our lodgers this Year have been Danl & Thos Howland, Thos Anthony & wife, John R Davis & his wife, Daniel Johnson, Stephen Oliver, Benjamin Percival, Micajah C Pratt, Meriam Newhall & Hannah Johnson -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 June 17, Friday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 17th of 6 M / 1825 / We have had the company of our Dear Sister Elizabeth R Nichols & her husband Br Jonathon Nichols with their Child eight months old to spend the Day with us

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 June 18, Saturday: Noah Webster, Esq. returned to his family in New Haven, Connecticut after his lengthy research trip to European and British libraries.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 18th of 6th M / This & yeasterday is always a lonesome Day after Yearly Meeting. - but as we have had a time of favour, let us be thankful -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

June 19, Sunday: Il viaggio a Reims, ossia L'albergo del giglio d'oro, a dramma giocoso by Gioachino Rossini to words of Balocchi after de Stael, was performed for the initial time, at the Theatre-Italien, Paris. The work was performed during coronation festivities for Charles X, who attended but was bored (hey, he had a lot going on in his life).

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 19th of 6 M / The Funeral of Rowena Bowen wife of Stephen Bowen went to the Meeting this forenoon - life was low, & there was but little Said - she was not a member but carried there by request of the family. -
In the Afternoon we had a low time - so we find the tide is always low after a flood. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 20, Monday: The Marquis de Lafayette visited the unfinished Eastern State Penitentiary on Fairmount Avenue in Philadelphia.

In his 2d Birmingham concert, Franz Liszt presented an overture (presumably the overture to his unperformed opera Don Sanche).

Per the journal of Albert Gallatin's son James as recorded in THE DIARY OF JAMES GALLATIN:

We are all very happy here [at Friendship Hill]. The country is beautiful and mamma certainly has the art of making everybody comfortable. Josephine is delicate but loves the good air here, particularly for our boy, who is growing apace. Father worships him at a distance. A few days since I told father for the first time of Mr. Adams' letter to me of February last. I had written privately to Mr. Adams informing him of father's reasons for refusing the Treasury under his administration. Father has always been above suspicion and I may frankly say (although he is my father) that he is the only one of either party who has not fallen into some error which has cast suspicion on their motives. This Mr. Adams frankly acknowledges in his letter to me. When I read this paragraph I could see father's evident gratification at the opinion held of him by a political opponent-and that opponent the actual President of the United States. We drifted into reminiscences of Paris. Father's heart is there and in Geneva, but only stern duty keeps him here.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 20 of 6 M / Sister Elizabeth left us with her husband & child for home. - Sister Ruth accompanying them as far as Providence where she intends to spend a few days in hopes a change of Air may be beneficial to her health. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 23, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

5th day 23rd of 6 M / We had at Meeting Isaac W Morris with his sister & two daughters & Abigail R Hoag the former of Philada & the latter from Vermont – Also Lorenzo Dow came & sat with us – I do not think he did the meeting much hurt, tho' we had a low time Jonathon & Hannah Dennis said a few words. – Lorenzo is in low health, his countenance ghastly & his long beard together, gives him a very unpleasant appearance. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 24, Friday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 24 of 6 M / This Afternoon we had the company of our old acquaintance Abigail R Hoag - she seems very natural, pleasant & agreeable - I remember her well when she lived at her grandfather Thomas Robinsons, a pleasant innocent little girl - Since her removal to Vermont she has become a Minister in Society - Married Nathan Hoag & become the mother of nine Children & is now only about 35 Years of Age -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 26, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 26th of 6th M 1825 / In our Meeting this forenoon we had the public appearances of Susanna Vigineron[?], Hannah Dennis & Abigail R Hoag – In the Afternoon Jonathon Dennis & father Rodman bore short testimonies
We took tea at Father Rodmans & in the evening call on Isaac Williams & family who were at Meeting & are boarding at Sarah Perrys - they Appear to be wise discreet friends, their company was interesting & edifying. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 28, Tuesday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th [sic] day 28 of 6 M / Brother James took breakfast with us this morning after which, as is our usual practice, we read a portion of Scripture, which came in course to be the 5 Chapt of Luke, which appeared to me to be well fitting both our condition, as having toiled all night & caught nothing - but tho' late in the day, there is encouraging hope that by putting the net on the right side we may be favoured to obtain sufficient for our subsistence, both spiritually & temporally, & also to put our trust in Jesus Christ by whose power the man full of leprosy was cleansed, & his power is not shortened, but acts by his Holy spirit in the hearts of men, now, as in the days of his flesh. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

June 30, Thursday: Carl Friedrich Zelter oversaw the laying of the cornerstone of the new Berlin Singakademie.

On her 2d visit to London, Maria Szymanowska gave a concert before the royal family.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 30th of 6 M / Yesterday I was Bled & today under the affects of Medicine, which renders me unfit to attend our Moy [Monthly] Meeting at Portsmouth today – My head has been long out of order & distressingly so for several days -- This eveng our frd Sarah Morris & Catherine W Morris set a while with us – Isaac being unwell did not come, so we walked home with them at 9 OC & set with them a few minutes just to take leave of Isaac & their two daughters, all of them are friends to whom we feel nearly united, tho' our acquaintance has been short. – They leave town in the course of tomorrow for New Bedford & Nantucket. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 1, Friday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 1st of 7th M 1825 / Our friend Abigail Hoag called to take leave of us this Afternoon, as she leaves Town tomorrow for her home in Vermont. – I have felt glad of this renewal of acquaintance with her, she was a Goodly child before she left R Island & I think has improved in the best things, & has a good tho' small gift in the Ministry

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 3, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 3rd of 7 M / In our meeting this morning our friend Abigail Robinson was engaged in a pretty extensive testimony & rose a second time – which was rather a singular circumstance for her – It was a season of some favour – In the Afternoon Father Rodman said a few words – very good –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 7, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 7th of 7th M / Our Meeting was small & heavy, I have heard a number say they were very sleepy & I am sure I have seldom suffered more with heaviness – one little boy got to sleep & slept till nearly all the folks had got out of meeting. – This is frequently the case that our meetings are small & heavy at the time of haymaking. – But alass were we all in that quick & living frame of spirit we ought to be in, this would not be the case. – My health is poor I have suffered this day

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

exceedingly with my old difficulty in my head. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 9, Saturday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*7th day 9 of 7 M / This morning Son John left us for Providence with a prospect of staying there some Months at the Boarding School – I feel thankfull – for the priviledge of his being there, but must acknowledge it is no small trial to My feelings to part with him, he has been our constant care, for 13 Years & over, & generally a pleasant companion – but the time is coming & may not be far distant when a more solemn parting will take place – & may we be prepared for it
Last night I was very sick with fever, sore throat & distress in my head & system generally some better this Morning 7th day continued / Brother J Rodman returned from Providence in the Steam Boat towards night, said he Saw John & Thomas safely landed at the School House by half past 12 OClock. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 10, Sunday: Messe solennelle by Hector Berlioz was performed for the initial time, in the Church of St. Roch (in spite of the fiasco of December 28th, 1824 this time the work was a great success).

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 10th of 7th M 1825 / My health is poor & it has been a very depressed day in body & Mind – I could not attend meeting, Set out to walk there early in the morning to unlock the Doors & gates but found myself unable to do it, & employed another hand. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 12, Tuesday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day [sic] 12th of 7th M / This Afternoon recd a pleasing note from John, who has sent for his Latin books, & expresses much satisfaction in his new situation so far

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 14, Thursday: In writing a sister, Hawthorne signed his letter “Nathaniel Hathorne.” We can see that at this point he had not yet changed the spelling.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 14 of 7 M / Our Meeting was small & owing to the infirmity of my body, my feelings were very low
In the Select Meeting, we had some buisness of importance to judge of, but my feelings were so low that I dare not enter much*

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

into judgement. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 17, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 17th of 7 M / Our Meetings were both small & to me dry seasons, but I expect some thought there was some favour as we had preaching in both, but none of it of a stamp that stood very high in my mind. –

Took tea at D Buffums, who is complaining & not at Meeting he appears to have some fever, but better

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Daniel Webster wrote from Niagara Falls:

My dear Mrs. Blake,
Before leaving here I wish to say an additional word or two on the subject of the Falls, by way of explaining or correcting some things in my letter.

In the first place I said, I think, that Goat Island was midway of the Rapids. This may lead to an erroneous opinion. The Rapids in fact, commence precisely at the head of Goat Island, We may stand at the head of the island, and look up and see a mild and even surface. The shore is level to the water, and we may amuse ourselves by throwing in sticks, and speculating on their course, either to the British or American Fall.

In the next place, I am convinced that I over-estimated both the breadth of the stream and the amount of water on the American side. I think the stream is not more than one fourth as wide as on the other side; and the proportion of water still less.

In the last place, when saying that the rock over which the river falls is limestone, I ought to have added that this limestone constituted but a part of the bank or wall. The first, or upper fifty feet, is limestone, lying in regular strata, as I have mentioned; the next hundred feet is a soft slate stone, which yields in some measure to the action of air, frost, and water. It comes off in small parcels, and is easily picked out of the sides of the bank. I pulled off a piece six feet long, as straight as a walking stick, and not much larger. As these pieces fall down they become pulverized, and turn to a sort of earth. The wearing away of this slate stone necessarily lets fall the limestone from above. Table Rock is the projecting platform of limestone.

The slate stone underneath it is already worn away a great depth into the bank; and Table Rock will one day doubtless precipitate itself into the river.

At the bottom of this course of slate stone, just about even with the surface of the river, commences another kind of stone. It seems to be a red sandstone, lying in very thin layers. It is of so bright a color that it may sometimes be seen, forming the bottom of the river, where the water is very deep.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

You will excuse me, my dear Mrs. Blake, for adding these remarks to my long and tedious letter. It is doubtful whether I shall ever see the Falls again. You will be here at some time, and I hope soon. I will not promise myself, that, as you view the scene, you will find any great correspondence between the view itself and my account of it; but I trust you will call to mind those who have been over the spot before you, and be willing to remember even this unsuccessful attempt to describe it to you by Your affectionate and faithful,

D. WEBSTER.

P. S. We set out this morning for home.

July 19, Thursday: Members of the liberal wing of the Congregationalists of New England formed an American Unitarian Association.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 19 of 7 M / Last evening a letter was recd from Thomas P Rodman & this morning we had one from John which was very pleasing, as both of them appear to be much satisfied with their new situation, pleased with their instructors, & other associates at the School & evince a disposition to be doing all they can to attain learning -- May they do WELL --

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 21, Thursday: New York governor De Witt Clinton and Ohio governor Jeremiah Morrow presided at the groundbreaking for the Miami and Erie Canal, at Middletown, Ohio.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 21st of 7th M 1825 / Our Meeting was small & nearly Silent - In the preparative Meeting we had no buisness but that which comes in regular course - Mt feelings are much alive to Johns situation - it is extremely warm & How he will Stand it I do not know, tho' I know the School House at Providence is in cool airy situation, yet the climate there is so much warmer than Newport I fear the heat will be too much for his constitution

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 24, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 24th of 7 M / Our Morning meeting was a good one - D Buffum was engaged in a remarkably Solemn & impressive testimony, & Father Rodman & J Dennis also spoke acceptably. - In the Afternoon we were small silent & heavy. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 July 28, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 28 of 7 M / Our friend George Hatton from the State of Indiana attended our Moy [Monthly] Meeting & was largely & accepatably engaged in testimony. — In the meeting for buisness we had rather more buisness than usual in addition to the Queries & Answers - A request was recd from Portsmouth Preparative Meeting by Josiah Chase to be admitted to membership & a concern was laid before the Meeting by Hannah Dennis to accompany Sarah Tucker on a religious visit to some parts of the Yearly Meeting to Pennsylvania, which obtained the Unity of the Meeting - & a committee appointed to prepare a certificate, which was presented at an adjournment at 5 OClock & approved & Signed. — We had at dinner Anne Greene, Wait Lawton Benj Freeborn & Adam Anthony. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 July 29, Friday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 29th of 7 M / This Afternoon we had the Company of our cousin Sarah G Lawton daughter of my wifes Uncle James Lawton from Ohio - her mother was Susannah Gould daughter of John Gould & I do freely acknowledge myself pleased & gratified with the inetrvieu She is an intersting Young woman, & much interested with the account I gave of the Gould family.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 July 31, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 31st of 7th M 1825 / George Hatton attends Meeting in the Morning he was silent & in the Afternoon large & Acceptably in testimony. —
Attended the funeral of the Widow Freeborn, who was a Friendly woman & attended our meetings many years when in health. —*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 August 3, Wednesday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*4th day 3rd of 8th M 1825 / Rode to Portsmouth with my wife to Attend our Select Quartelry Meeting - before Meeting we went down to Uncle Stantons & stoped at Aunt Thurstons
After Meeting we dined at Uncle Benjn Freeborns & after the Sittings of several sittings of committees in the Afternoon we went to Uncle P Lawtons & lodged —*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 August 4, Thursday: The name of Walton Felch was “erased” from the records of the 1st Baptist Church of Providence, Rhode Island — which is to say, he was removed from their register of members despite the fact that he had neither died nor transferred his membership to some other church.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day Our first Meeting was large & an excellent Gospel testimony from Micajah Collins who has just returned & is on his way home from a long journey in the Western & Southern States. -Huldah Hoag had short testimony but Geo: Hatton was silent in the first meeting - In the last we had more buisness than usual -Hannah Dennis was liberated to accompany Sarah Tucker on a religious visit to some Quarteerly Meetings in Philadelphia Yearly Meeting - & South Kingston Moy [Monthly] Meeting was united with in the Appointment of Hannah Knowles to the Station of an Elder. - We dined at Aunt Thurstons & rode home -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 7, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 7 of 8 M / Meetings thin & heavy. - a short testimony in the Afternoon from Father Rodman - In the morning a number of Strangers were present who looked as if they might be Southerners -& all day a considerable portion of our own usual attenders were Absent & some of the members away. - Took tea at Father Rodmans

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 11, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 11th of 8th M 1825 / After Meeting this Afternoon I went on board the Wickford Packet with Our old frd & acquaintance Ann Swinburne intending for Greenwich where she intends visiting her relations - We did not get to Wickford till too late to set out for Greenwich & took tea & lodged at Avis & Ann Smiths & next Morning (6th day) by 5 OC we were on the road & arrived at Greenwich in season to Breakfast at Saml Browns - previous to which I rode up to Thos Howlands on a little buisness I had with him - he had gone out & I did not see him - I got back to Wickford at half past nine & found the Packet had left me a Quarter of an hour - so I set out on foot through Boston Neck for the South ferry & arrived after a warm fatiguing walk at cousin Hannah Gardiners who I found with her children very glad to see me, & I was glad to see them, being the first time I have seen them since Cousin Lewis's death - I got home by 4 OC in the Afternoon, not more, nor so much fatigued as I expected, tho' taken a slight cold

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 August 14, Sunday: Gaetano Donizetti's Cantata for the King's Birthday was performed for the initial time, in Palermo.

Franz Schubert and Johann Vogl traveled from Salzburg to Bad Gastein. (there he would work further on the Great C Major symphony, and compose the Piano Sonata D.850).

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 14th of 8 M / Our Meetings were both thinner than usual, as I think they have generally been thro the Summer – A little Preaching the Afternoon
In the evening called at Dorcas Earls, & sat a while with her & her daughter Sarah in sympathy with them in their loss of her Daughter Phebe Robinson. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 August 18, Thursday: Gregor MacGregor issued a £300,000 loan with 2.5% interest through the London bank of Thomas Jenkins & Company. (This would eventuate in the Panic of 1825, the first modern stock market crash in London.)

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 18th of 8 M / Hannah Dennis & Father Rodman bore short testimonys at Meeting – No buisness in the Preparative Meeting

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 August 19, Friday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 19th of 8 M / Was called this Afternoon to the bedside of a Sister in Society Abigail Lee, who was desirous of making a Will which I wrote for her & she executed – She is exceedingly low, has been for some Months blind & now seems wearing out with the Dysentary – She is an old acquaintance of mine & the particular associate of My Aunts Martha Mary & Hannah Gould, also of cousin Jonathon & Ruth Marsh – She seemed quiet patient & resigned. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 August 21, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 21 of 8 M 1825 / Last night about half past 12 OClock Abigail Lee departed this life. –
Very Rainy day & small Meetings short testimonys were however delivered in both –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

August 25, Thursday: Uruguay declared its independence from Brazil and was reincorporated into the United Provinces of the Rio de la Plata.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 25th of 8 m / Rode to Portsmouth with sister Ruth Rodman to attend the Moy [Monthly] Meeting. – In the first Anne Dennis, Abigail Robinson, Ruth Freeborn & Hannah Dennis bore testimonys & I thought there was a remarkable correspondency in all their appearances, & I have no doubt their labours will be useful. – The meeting seemed much like a dry brook in the forefront of it, to me, but low before it closed a comfortable degree of life arose, which I thought assisted me in the labours of the last Meeting in which some important subjects were before us – particularly the request of John Hedly for membership – & the appointment of a committee to consider the propriety of giving testimony concerning some of our deceased Ancient friends. – Before Meeting we stoped at Aunt Elizabeth Thurstons who we found very sick & no better than when I saw her some weeks ago – After meeting we dined & took tea at Uncle Stantons. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 28, Sunday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 28th of 8 M / This morning went on board the Steam boat for Providence for the three fold purpose of visiting our son John at the Yearly Meeting boarding School & to attend a special Meeting of the Meeting for Sufferings & the Sub committee meeting in the course

We got to Providence in season to dine at Wm Jenkins & attend the Afternoon Meeting where in Wm Almy preached with soundness & life. – After which Wm carried me in his chaise to the School House, where I found John, well & very glad to see me, as I was him – After sitting sometime & taking tea at the School House for the purpose of having his company I took him down to Moses Browns House where we lodged together –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 29, Monday: Brazil agreed to a proposed treaty between itself and Portugal, recognizing the independence of Brazil.

In Cranston, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day Spent this forenoon mostly in Providence attending to a little buisness & dined at Jos Anthonys – returned to the School House & spent the Afternoon in the boys school & was pleased with the progress of the learners & order that was observed among them. – it was comfortable also to find that an openness & freedom existed between the Teachers Superintendents & Schollars – to find that the inmates of the institution harmonised throughout & that all things were in a comfortable state – Towards night Wm Almy called at the School House & carried me out to his house at Cranston where I found Daniel & Thomas Howland who were a pleasant addition to our evening circle. –

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 30/31, Tuesday/Wednesday: Johann Nepomuk Hummel became an honorary member of the Societe Academique des Enfants d'Apollon in Paris.

Back in Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day, after breakfast at Wm Almays – he brought me into Providence where I spent the Day in attending the Meeting for Sufferings & Sub School committee, at the School House. – it was a pleasant day & I was glad & in measure thankful to be there. – I lodged at Moses Browns & 4th day Morning rose early & called at the School House on my way to town, & parted with John – After stirring round Providence to accomplish a little buisness got on board the Packet & arrived in Newport in the Afternoon

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 1, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 1st 9th M 1825 / Our meeting was small & the forepart of it to me lively, but alass, it did not end as well as it began. –Father Rodman was engaged in a short but good testimony

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

HDT

WHAT?

INDEX

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

September 3, Saturday: “Genius Unveiling a Bust of Nature,” per Johann Wolfgang von Goethe:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

WALDEN: With a little more deliberation in the choice of their pursuits, all men would perhaps become students and observers, for certainly their nature and destiny are interesting to all alike. In accumulating property for ourselves or our posterity, in founding a family or a state, or acquiring fame even, we are mortal; but in dealing with truth we are immortal, and need fear no change nor accident. The oldest Egyptian or Hindoo philosopher raised a corner of the veil from the statue of the divinity; and still the trembling robe remains raised, and I gaze upon as fresh a glory as he did, since it was I in him that was then so bold, and it is he in me that now reviews the vision. No dust has settled on that robe; no time has elapsed since that divinity was revealed. That time which we really improve, or which is improvable, is neither past, present, nor future.

PEOPLE OF WALDEN

ISIS

EGYPT

Quoting from page 349 of Pierre Hadot's THE VEIL OF ISIS: AN ESSAY ON THE HISTORY OF THE IDEA OF NATURE, in the 2006 translation by Michael Chase:

In 1814, when the archduke Karl August returned from a trip to England, there was a celebration at Weimar to mark his homecoming. Goethe had the town's drawing school decorated with eight paintings that were intended to symbolize the various arts and the protection Karl August accorded to them.³³⁶ Among these symbolic figures executed in the style of emblems, there was one that represented "Genius Unveiling a Bust of Nature," with Nature represented in her traditional aspect as Isis/Artemis. In the distant background, behind the figure, a landscape could be seen, which contrasted strongly with the somewhat artificial atmosphere created by this statue of Nature unveiled. Goethe used these same pictures to decorate his own house for the jubilee of Karl August on September 3, 1825, and for his own jubilee, or more precisely for the anniversary of his entry into the service of the archduke, on November 7 of the same year.

The meaning that Goethe ascribed to this drawing can be inferred from his poetry:

Respect the mystery;
Let not your eyes give way to lust.
Nature the Sphinx, a monstrous thing,
Will terrify you with her innumerable breasts.

Seek no secret initiation beneath the veil; leave alone what is fixed.
If you want to live, poor fool,
Look only behind you, toward empty space.

If you succeed in making your intuition
First penetrate within,

336. Johann Wolfgang von Goethe, Weimars Jubelfest am 3ten September 1825 . . ., ed. Johann Peter Eckermann (Weimar: Hoffmann, 1825), sec. 1.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Then return toward the outside,
Then you will be instructed in the best way.³³⁷

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*7th day 3 of 9 M / Most of this day engaged in the Trustees Meeting - my time is much consumed in the concerns of Society -
I often feel discouraged under it -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 4, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 4th of 9 M / Meeting pretty well attended, two short testimonys A Dennis in the morning & Father Rodman in the Afternoon
I thought I might acknowledge a degree of favour. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 8, Thursday: The Marquis de Lafayette headed back toward France, aboard the USS Brandywine.

Franz Schubert's Erstes Offertorium D.136 for vocal soloist, clarinet, orchestra, and organ, Zweites Offertorium D.223 for soprano, orchestra, and organ, and a setting of Tantum ergo D.739 for chorus, orchestra, and organ, were all performed for the initial time, in the Maria-Trost-Kirche of Vienna.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 8th of 9 M / At Meeting a short but good testimony from Father Rodman - Tho Rainy well attended - & I thought as little life was experienced in my own particular but it is indeed a low time with me -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 11, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 11th of 9th M / I thought our meetings were favoured with a good degree of life - In the forenoon Father Rodman was lively & acceptable in testimony
With my H took tea at David Buffums who was confined at home thro' the day with an alarming swelling under his Arm, not decided whether it is a Bile or something of a Cancerous kind. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 17, Saturday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 17th of 9th M 1825 / Went this Afternoon to Portsmouth to Uncle Stantons & Lodged -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 September 18, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day At meeting we had the company of Sarah Tucker & Hannah Dennis who have met to set out on their journey into Pennsylvania State. — They both were engaged in Testimony & a very favoured Meeting it was to me in particular. it has been a memorable day to me for which I desire to be thankful — When I retired to rest last night my desire was fervant that I might have a Good Day which has been granted —

After the close of the Meeting with the others of the committee had an opportunity with John Hedly who had requested to be a member of our Society — the interview was pleasant & encouraging — Dined & took tea at Asa Shermans — where I wrote a letter to my frd Thos Evans of Philada & handed to Hannah Dennis to carry on — after taking leave of her I walked down to Shadrack Chases & lodged

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 19, Monday: After 13 years of direct Habsburg rule, the Hungarian Diet reopened.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day morning rose & before breakfast walked home not much fatigued.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 22, Thursday: Giacomo Meyerbeer's Il Crociato in Egitto opened in Paris to spectacular success. King Friedrich Wilhelm III of Prussia arrived in the city would attend the 2d performance. (It had been the idea of Gioachino Rossini to stage this opera, and he had invited Meyerbeer to direct the final rehearsals. This reaffirmed their friendship, in existence since 1819.)

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 22nd of 9 M 1825 / Our Meeting tho' small was a season of some favour — Anne Greene preached in the life — Divers of our friends who usually meet with us were absent among them was David Buffum who has gone on a visit to his friends at Smithfield & we missed our friend Hannah Dennis from her seat —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 25, Sunday: In the first major action of the Java War, General Hendrik Merkus de Kock lifted the siege of Jogjakarta.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 25 of 9 M / Pretty good meetings to me — In the morning Father Rodman & in the Afternoon Abigail Robinson were engaged in acceptable testimonys

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 September 29, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 29th of 9th M / At Meeting Father Rodman appeared in Testimony & supplication - Mary Hicks & Abigail Sherman in testimony - In the last Meeting John Hedly & Josiah Chase was admitted to membership - & it Seemed like an encouraging meeting -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 October 2, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 2nd of 10th M 1825 / This morning my dear wife left home with Jonathon Dennis for Sandwich to attend the approaching Quarterly Meeting as of the committee from the Yearly Meeting, which has left me quite alone & lonesome at home
Rowland Greene & Abigail Robinson set out yesterday Afternoon on the same concern - they all expect to be gone a week or ten Days. -
Father Rodman was largely in testimony in the Morning Meeting,
- which on the whole I believe was a good favour'd time --
In the Afternoon D Buffum & Father were both concerned to deliver short testimonys - I went out & took tea & set the evening with D Buffum -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 October 6, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 6th of 10th M / A good, solid quiet & quieting Meeting.
Father Rodman & Anne Dennis engaged in testimony*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 October 9, Sunday: After seeing Il Crociato in Egitto in Paris, King Friedrich Wilhelm III of Prussia formally invited Giacomo Meyerbeer to compose an opera for Berlin. He would decline.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 9 of 10 M / D Buffum engaged in testimony in the forenoon & in the Afternoon silent both seasons of exercise yet some favour to me - When I came home this evening I unexpectedly found my dear wife had returned, much to my satisfaction for I began to feel lonesome at house Keeping -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 October 10, Monday: Dmitri Stepanovich Bortnyansky died in St. Petersburg at approximately 74 years of age.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

2nd day 10 of 10 M / I have been much exercised many ways & my mind under depression (perplexed but not in despair) for a long time. - a little relief was afforded this evening for which I desire to be thankful, & ascribe the favour to Him who provideth for the Sparrows.-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 12, Wednesday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 12 of 10 M / Our dear Son John returned from the Yearly Meeting School in the Packet from Providence today in order to have his cloaths repaired & fitted for winter - his general appearance, & progress in learning is very satisfactory & affords ground for hope he may make a good man. - for which I have no greater desire for him. Under a sense of the improvement he has made my mind is grateful & humble. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 13, Thursday: King Maximilian I of Bavaria died in München and was succeeded by his son Ludwig I.

A Kyrie in d minor for chorus and orchestra by Felix Mendelssohn was performed for the initial time, in Berlin.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 13th of 10th M 1825 / Our Select Meeting this day was silent in both Meetings as to Ministerial labour but a season of some favour to me. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 16, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 16th of 10 M / Meetings small silent & low, but not the poorest time I have known

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 23, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day [sic] 23rd of 10 M / Our first meeting was a good one to me & a short testimony from Jona Dennis was very acceptable. - In the last after the Queries were read I felt much satisfaction & comfort in faithfully yealding to make a few remarks on the subject of reading the scriptures Vizt that the Reading of them frequently in a reverend manner would result in much good to us individually. - This Afternoon buried the daughter of Ebenezer Sherman named Sarah Dillon Sherman - She was a pleasant good dispoitoned child much beloved by all who knew her & her funeral was the longest I ever recollect for a child about 15 Years of Age - She

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

was at School a week ago this Afternoon, went home sick & died of Inflammatory sore throat - she was an old school mate of Johns when he went to his Aunt Ruths school. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 24, Monday: Pedro Alcantara Alvarez de Toledo y Salm-Salm, Duque de Infantado replaces Luis Maria de Salazar y Salazar as 1st Secretary of State of Spain.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 24 of 10 M / This morning John left us for Providence School again to spend a little time having been twelve Days at home in parting with him we feel renew'd anxiety for his wellfare, & thankful for the privilege of his being at that School - that Insitution I have no doubt is intended for a blessing to the Society & My desire is that it may be wisely managed - John has certainly been much benefitted by being there & I desire it may be lasting. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 29, Saturday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 29 of 10 M / We have unexpectedly this Afternoon had the company of Abraham Sherman Jr at tea, who stoped a little while on his way to NYork & has gone in the Steam Boat this eveng - his company was very pleasant, & reviving

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 30, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 30th of 10th M / Morning meeting full & a solid weighty testimony from D Buffum - Silent & small in the Afternoon both to me were composed & pretty solid Meetings for which I desire to be thankful. - Sat the eveng at the widow Eliza Mitchells with my H & Sister Mary -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 2, Wednesday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 2nd of 11th M 1825 / This morning rose early & got into the Stage & set out for Quarterly Meeting at Swansey soon after we got into the Stage we found we were to ride in company with a Prisoner in Irons from the Jail, who was to be removed to Boston for trial of Theft - this circumstance affected my mind with very serious & depressive sensations as we rode along the road - We parted at Troy (Fall River) & I walked the rest of the distance to Slades Ferry & crossed over & went to Nathan Chases, where I found Wm Almy & Thos Howland, & was kindly recd by the family -At our Select Meeting we had a very solid favor'd

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

opportunity, after which I dined at David Braytons, & returned to the Meeting House to a setting of the Trustees of O Browns Fund, & lodged at N Chases

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 3, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day Our Quarterly Meeting was also a Favoured time In the first Meeting was several favoured & solid testimonys among whom were Susan R Smith of Burlington, Sarah Emlen of Pennsylvania, Deborah Otis & Wm Almy after The buisness of the 27 Meeting was transacted in much harmony but the Meeting held late & After Dining at Nathan Chases I set out on foot for Providence intending to lodge at Ruben Chases, where Wm Almy engaged to send a carriage for me in the Morning expecting to take me up on the Road, but just before I got to R Chases - Nathan Buffington came along within five miles of Providence to Monro's Tavern in Seconk where I lodged & took breakfast, & was met by Wm Almays Chase & carried to the School House - We had a very favoured School committee much council being imparted to the Youth & different branches of the institution - I lodged at the School for the first time in my life & 7th day Morning I took John & went down to Moses Browns to breakfast, where I found Sarah Emlen & her companions Esther Levis & Jesse Mavis - & got a little acquaintance with them after breakfast, We all went to the School again, & After sitting in the Boys School With Sarah who did not appear to have any thing to communicate to them - I went to town to get ready to come home in the Steam Boat - which I did & found all Well - - This has been a very interesting visit to me & I desire to be thankful for the favour. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 6, Sunday: In Vienna, String Quartet op.132 by Ludwig van Beethoven was performed publicly for the initial time.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 6th of 11th M 1825 / Both Meetings were Silent, but seasons of some favour to me for which I desire to be thankful -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 8, Tuesday: Maria Augusta Ball was born, 3d child of Nehemiah Ball and Mary Merriam Ball.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 8 of 11 M / This day Our friend Susan R Smith appointed a Meeting at 11 OClock for Members & such as usually attend our

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Meetings, which was pretty well attended & she favoured to see & feel some states in a remarkable manner & speak to them with clearness – She & her companions Susanna Newbold & Rowland Jones Dined with us, & we took tea with them at Father Dodmans, after which they went to D Buffums to lodge

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 9, Wednesday: The calcium-carbonate light was discovered by Sir Galsworthy Guernsey, and developed and used by Thomas Drummond for the government survey of Ireland. He was able to produce by the burning of this chemical a light 83 times brighter than was possible with an oil lamp at the time, atop Slieve Snaght, and was able to detect that brightened light with surveying equipment atop Davis Mountain more than 66 miles away, thus producing a major and accurate directional indication. The limelight would find use in theaters and Guernsey would be awarded a medal.

When Thomas Drummond heated a small ball of lime in front of a reflector on Slieve Snaght, Scotland, its light could be seen from Divis Mountain, which was 100 kilometers away. This was the initial practical demonstration of limelight.

Gioachino Rossini's Il Barbiere di Siviglia was staged in Park Theater, New York (this was the 1st staging in the United States of an Italian opera in Italian).

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 9th of 11th M / Our frd Susan R Smith & her companions Susan Newbold & Rowland Jones drank tea At Abigail Robinsons, went over after tea & rode with them to David Buffums & spent the evening. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 10, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 10th of 11th M / Susan R Smith attended Meeting & was sweetly engaged in Supplication & testimony. after Meeting she had a select opportunity with the Ministers & Elders in which she dealt plainly & closely with us, advising us not to mistake our gifts, & walk Worthily of the vocation wherunto we are called –She was followed in an excellent testimony by Abigail Robinson, & I trust it was a proffitable opportunity – & both very good Meetings –They leave Newport this Afternoon, on their way to Providence. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 11, Friday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 11th of 11 M 1825 / Our frd Susan R Smith left town this PM for Portsmouth & got to Benj Freeborns, where finding her mind engaged to attend a Meeting at Connanicut this Day sent word in early this Morning & word was forwarded in season to have a Meeting there this PM – I accompanied them over, & got

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

there in season to dine at Jos Greenes & go to Meeting at 2 OC which was a very favoured one - I thought after she got thro' that if the State of that people had been minutely detailed to her she could not have Spoken more appropriately to them - After sunset we crossed the ferry & they all lodged with us.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 12, Saturday: A few days after receiving the treaty of August 29 from Brazil, King Joao VI of Portugal recognizes the independence of Brazil.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day Susan not finding herself clear of Newport, gave up to attend our Meeting tomorrow feeling a concern towards the young people, members & others who attend our Meeting. after paying a very Sweet visit to Mary B Chase Who is very low & near the conclusion in a consumption in which she preached & supplicated very sweetly on her behalf - she with her companions Dined at Abigail Robinsons & went out to Jona Dennis to tea -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 13, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 13th of 11 M / Our frd S R Smith attended Meeting this forenoon & was much favoured in testimony, the current of which was to the Youth generally & those who were in the Station of parents -it was a season of Watering to many present & I believe many were thankful for the favour. - After meeting she went to Ruth Mitchells & proceeded on in the Afternoon towards Providence. -

Our Afternoon Meeting was nearly silent excepting a short testimony from father Rodman - After tea went with my H to David Buffums who has been confined with a lame leg near a week, which looks very bad but some better - On our return home we found Mary B Chase had departed this life about 5 OC - I felt very thankful S R Smith went to see her Yesterday

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 15, Tuesday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 15th of 11th M / Attended the funeral of Mary B Chase which went to the Meeting House & was a very solemn opportunity, the Silence was to be felt, & the preaching & supplication of Father Rodman seemed appropriate & lively - It has to me been a good day for which I believe I am truly thankful

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 November 17, Thursday: Der Gondelfahrer D.809, a vocal quartet by Franz Schubert to words of Mayrhofer, was performed for the initial time, in the Vienna Musikverein.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 17th of 11th M 1825 / Small meeting & Silent – In the Preparative Meeting F Carr requested membership which was referd to a committee

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 November 20, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 20 of 11 M / Both Meetings silent, but pretty good ones to me. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 November 21, Monday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 21 of 11 M / Rode in the Stage to Portsmouth – went to Uncle Stantons on buisness staid all night & next mornng came home–

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 November 24, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 24 of 11 M / Our Moy [Monthly] Meeting was well attended, & our friend Ruth Freeborn engaged in a solid weighty testimony – We had but little buisness & the last Meeting was short & to me was a season of some teaching. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 November 27, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 27th of 11th M / Father Rodman was engaged in short testemony, in both Meetings, which were well attended – Took tea & set the evening with our Venreable friends David Buffum & wife, he is yet very lame & tho' confined within doors he manifests much concern on account of Society. – We miss him from the head of our Meetings, both public & private ones. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

December 1, Thursday: In Taganrog in the Crimea, Tsar Alyeksandr I of Russia, Grand Duke of Finland, King of Poland, had a fever, although not from eating poisonous mushrooms as popular stories have it. Now we suppose that what he probably had was malaria. His doctors would apply leeches behind his ears and on the back of his neck relentlessly until he would die on December 13th and be succeeded by his younger brother, Nikolai.

He was only 47 and many of his subjects would refuse to believe that he had died, preferring to suppose that he had merely relocated to some remote cabin in Siberia in order to live out the remainder of his life as a religious hermit.

A college which had been chartered at New Brunswick, New Jersey by King George III in 1766 as “Queen’s College” at this point changed its name in honor of a benefactor, to “Rutgers College” (as of 1924 it would become a university).

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 1st of 12 M 1825 / Our Meeting was pretty well attended considering several were absent from indisposition & some gone to attend the Quarterly Meeting now holding at New Bedford – Father Rodman was engaged in a short testimony. – This evening Aunt Nancy Carpenter recd a letter from John, of which we were glad, not having heard from him in some time

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 4, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 12 M 4 / Our Meetings rather small - in the Mornng a few words from Father Rodman. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 8, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 8 of 12 M / Good meeting & well attended, short testimony from Father Rodman –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 11, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1st day 11th of 12 M / In our Morning Meeting Abigail Robinson & Father Rodman were engaged in testimonys - & in the Afternoon a few words from Father.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 15, Thursday: In Concord, Daniel Hunt got married with the widow Clarissa Flint Cutter, who had a young daughter Clarissa Cutter. Between 1826 and 1843 they would add ten children of their own.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 15 of 12 M / Father again appeared in a short testimony
I am weak, I am poor -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 16, Friday: The British cabinet met in the absence of Huskisson, the minister of finance, to discuss such matters as whether neglecting to pay the army and the navy would bring about a mutiny. Meanwhile, the banking system of England was making full use of the opportunity, carefully “screwing” (meant “putting the thumbscrews to,” or torturing) every person or firm who owed anyone any money. The family fortune of the family of Harriet Martineau, which had been doing quite well thank you in the textile industry, was for instance being ruined, which would make it necessary for the daughters to live by their pens and needles.

The British cabinet decided that it would obtain as much gold as possible to back up the paper currency.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 16th of 12th M 1825 / This Afternoon between 1 & 2 OC A number of Black people embarked on board a Providence packet on their way to Boston from thence to Embark for Liberia in Africa where they are to settle under the patronage of the American Colonization Society - I have just returned from Banisters Wharf where I went to take some of them my old & respectable acquaintance by the hand, in all human probability for the last time - Particularly old Newport Gardiner who I have known & can remember well from my early youth to the present day & have been Associated with, particularly in the African Benevolent Society for several years - His Son Ahema Gardiner & his wife go with him, Also John Chavers & are very respectable Black folks - I wish them well & desire they may better their condition in this life & that which is to come. - My heart was much affected in parting with them & I could hardly refrain from tears

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 18, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 18th of 12 M / Stormy & our meetings small - a short testimony in the forenoon by Father Rodman - After meeting is the Afternoon I went out to Visit our frd D Buffum who is still confined with a very sore leg & I dont know but it is growing worse, yet I hope he may get so as to be about again. -

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Between Meetings Thomas Peckham Died aged [] Years. - he is a distant relation of mine, - I think his Grandmother was a Gould - & is Father to Br John Rodmans wife

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 22, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 22nd of 12 M / Meeting tho' rather small was comfortable. Abigail Robinsons engaged in a lively & pertinent testimony - In the Preparative Meeting the request for membership of Francis Carr was forwarded to the Moy [Monthly] Meeting. - Our frd Hannah Dennis has returned from her journey into Pennsylvania with Sarah Tucker - she was not at Meeting being much fatigued with her journey -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Christmas, Sunday: Due to the strong German influence locally, it had become the custom in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania by this point to decorate a tree outside one's home for the holiday season.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 25 of 12 M / Much exercised in my sleep last night about the care of an appointed Meeting for the Inhabitants of the Town, for A Robinson which I felt approbation of but in consequence of a great number of Friends that seemed to be passing thro' town as at Y Meeting time I could not seem to find time to attend to her concern which troubled me
A little precious feeling while hearing the Scriptures read at Breakfast table this morning, for which I feel thankful Meetings Pretty good - H Dennis spoke in the Morning, & we had some other preaching, which exercised me. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 28, Wednesday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*4th day 28th of 12 M 1825 / Rode this Afternoon to Portsmouth in D Buffums Carriage which he Kindly lent us, taking Sister Ruth along, & Lodged at Uncle Stantons. - 5th day rode in the Morn'g up to the late residence of our Aunt Elizabeth Thurston to attend her funeral, which proceeded to the Meeting house where we had a very solemn Meeting in which Hannah Dennis & Ruth Freeborn were well engaged in testimony - After the Meeting was over & the Corpse interd we returned into the Meeting house to hold our Monthly Meeting which we did with out apparant inconvenience from the circumstance of the funeral -
We dined at Isaac Almays & rode home-*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

December 30, Friday: George Back was promoted to Commander. It would be a year before he would learn of this.

A Kyrie in c minor for solo voices and double chorus by Felix Mendelssohn was performed for the initial time, in Frankfurt.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

30th 12 M (6th day) 1825 / I am this day 44 Years of Age - time spends with rapid silent pace - & where am I - on the brink of eternity, or yet longer time to remain in this state - I feel my deficiency & the need of greater devotion to the best of causes. -I am poor weak irresolute & low & the longer I live, the more I am of the opinion that if we are saved it is thro' Mercy, Rich Mercy & the loving kindness of our heavenly father - I have nothing to boast of. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 31, Saturday: Waldo Emerson closed his girls' school in Chelmsford, Massachusetts.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 31 of 12 M / My mind thro' the day, tho under some Trial, has been favoured with some sweet incomes of life & precious feeling for which I desire to be thankful - I am glad I am thankful at closing the year under a precious sense of feeling. - Recd a very acceptable & pleasant letter towards night from my Aged & beloved friend Moses Brown, which he wrote Yesterday

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

“NARRATIVE HISTORY” IS FABULATION, HISTORY IS CHRONOLOGY

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1826

January 1, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 1st of 1st M 1826 / Our Meeting this morning was large solid & good - our frd H Dennis engaged in a very lively testimony - In the Afternoon small silent & poor. — Brother Isaac & wife spent the day at Uncle Stanton's & bring account that Mother is poorly having hurt her side, by a slight fall, which appears to have excited a tumor she has long had partly on her breast & side
I feel thankful to record this as a day of some favour. —³³⁸*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 5, Thursday: Franz Liszt gave the 1st of four performances this month at the Grand Theatre, Bordeaux.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 5 of 1 M / The year so far begins with some little advances in good - Our Meeting tho' not to me a very lively one, was pretty well attended by members - & this eveng my mind has experienced some arisings of life for which I do sincerely desire to be thankful -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 8, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

338. Stephen Wanton Gould Diary, 1823-1829: The Gould family papers are stored under control number 2033 at the Division of Rare and Manuscript Collections of Cornell University Library, Box 8 Folder 13: October 2, 1823-March 6, 1829; also on microfilm, see Series 7

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1st day 8 of 1 M / Our Morning Meeting was pretty well attended but the seats of three of our Ancient Brothers was vacant - which left the weight of breaking the Meeting on those who were younger In the Afternoon small & poor. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 12, Thursday: Rastlose Liebe D.138, a song by Franz Schubert to words of Johann Wolfgang von Goethe, was performed for the initial time, in the Vienna Musikverein.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 12th of 1 M / Our meeting was a season of some favour but not of abounding - The Select Meeting held after the first a very low time to me. - It was the first meeting of the kind at home I ever set in that Our Frd D Buffum was not present who is confined with a sore leg - Our frd Abigail Robinson was there, & most of the other members who usually attend -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 15, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 15 of 1st M / The Morning Meeting was silent - In the Afternoon Father Rodman was engaged in a lively & to my feelings a Sweet little testimony - & both meetings were seasons of rather uncommon favour to me for which I desire & trust I am in measure thankful. -

*We have had two very acceptable letters four[?] John today, one by John Mitchell & the other by Eleazer Treveth[?]
It is very comforting to my feelings that he is favoured to be at the Yearly Meeting School, & in the way of learning*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 22, Sunday: Birth, in Concord, Massachusetts, of Gorham Bartlett, 3d child of Dr. Josiah Bartlett and Martha Tilden Bradford Bartlett.³³⁹

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 22nd of 1st M / Our Meetings were both pretty well attended, but Our high seats thin - D Buffum, Father Rodman & Hannah Dennis absent - & in the Afternoon none there but a Poor man how do we feel striped when we find the seats vacant of those on whom we have been used to lean -

Set the forepart of the evening at Abigail Robinsons examining & correcting Testimonies concerning our friends Elizabeth Mott & Samuel Thurston deceased, which we are in hopes of presenting to our next Moy [Monthly] Meeting - The latter part called at Cousin Henry Goulds for my wife who spent the evening there -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

339. Gorham would be a student at the Concord Academy under the Thoreau brothers. He would die on June 17, 1854.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

January 29, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal that he took the packet boat from Newport, Rhode Island to Providence in order to attend the Quarterly Meeting of the Quakers:

1st day 29th of 1 M / Desirous of Attending the Approching Quarterly Meeting at Providence, With Hannah Dennis set out this morning in the Packet & did not arrive there till sunset - took a dish of tea at Welcome Congdons & walked out to the School House & lodged where I found John well & very glad to see me as I was him

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 31, Tuesday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day - a violent Storm of Wind, the Snow which fell last night blew tho' the sky was clear & the [illegible] te fell to 8 degrees below Cypher. - It being the Meeting of the Sub-committee a few met, & among them our Aged friend Moses Brown - we made a report to the General committee & spent the day in visiting the Schools, much to our satisfaction & Comfort, finding things in good order & the children generally well behaved - lodged at the School House. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 1, Wednesday: String Quartet "Tod und das Madchen" D.810 by Franz Schubert was performed for the initial time, at the home of Josef Barth in Vienna.

The pirate Charles Colson was hanged in the jailyard on Leverett Street in Boston — but his partner in crime Charles Marchant had cheated the hangman by offing himself the day before.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day - Attended Select Meeting, & Meeting for Sufferings, Dined at David Anthonys - took tea & lodged at Moses Browns. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 2, Thursday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day our Public Meeting a favord season the chief & most important labourers were Mary Batty & Alice Rathbone of Smithfield - In the meeting we had an unusual portion of buisness which occasioned [many long smudges for the rest of the entry, but they appear accidental.] us to hold late & put by our Trustees Meeting. - Dined at Wm Jenkins's - took tea at Jons

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Congdons & returned to the School House & lodged. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 3, Friday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day Spent this day in various Services whether School House-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

HDTWHAT?INDEXSTEPHEN WANTON GOULD*FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

February 4, Saturday: Georgiana Leigh, Augusta's eldest daughter, married her cousin Henry Trevanion.

George Henry Billings was born to Caleb Callender Billings and Betsey Brown Hammond Billings. He would die still a toddler, on April 15, 1828.

James Fenimore Cooper's THE LAST OF THE MOHICANS; A NARRATIVE OF 1757. BY THE AUTHOR OF THE PIONEERS (Philadelphia: H.C. Carey & I. Lea. 2 Volumes).

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day came to town & took breakfast at Jos Anthonys then took the Stages for home & arrived before sunset

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 February 5, Sunday: Buffalo, New York attorney Millard Fillmore got married with Abigail Powers.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 5 of 2 M 1826 / Meetings pretty well attended solid & silent David Buffum & Father Rodman yet confined - their presence we miss on our Meetings. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 February 9, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 9 of 2 M / Meetings again Silent & solid - Father Rodman at Meeting, for which I desire to be thankful. -
I am weak & low every way - even to depression -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 February 16, Thursday: Against the advice of his wife and friends, Carl Maria von Weber, ill with tuberculosis, departed from Dresden for London to direct the premiere of Oberon. Upon his departure, his wife considered she would never again see him alive.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 16th of 2nd M 1826 / Our Meeting was rather small & to me a solid & measurably favoured time towards the close short testimonys were delivered by Jonathon & Hannah Dennis -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 February 17, Friday: Abschied von der Erde D.829, a melodrama for speaker and piano by Franz Schubert to words of von Pratobevera, was performed for the initial time, at the Vienna home of Karl Josef von Pratobevera.

 February 19, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 19th of 2nd M / Meetings pretty well attended for the season, both Silent & the morning was a season of favour to me for which I desire to be thankful in this time of dearth & Poverty. -
After meeting in the Afternoon visited our aged friend David Buffum, who I thought was better in health & seemed very bright & cheerful. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 February 22, Wednesday: Incidental music to von Uechtritz's play Alexander und Darius by Heinrich August Marschner was performed for the initial time, in Dresden.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

CHAPTER VII.

"They do not sleep.
On yonder cliffs, a grisly band,
I see them sit."—Gray.

"'TWOULD be neglecting a warning that is given for our good, to lie hid any longer," said Hawk-eye, "when such sounds are raised in the forest! These gentle ones may keep close, but the Mohicans and I will watch upon the rock, where I suppose a major of the 60th would wish to keep us company."

"Is then our danger so pressing?" asked Cora.

"He who makes strange sounds, and gives them out for man's information, alone knows our danger. I should think myself wicked unto rebellion against his will, was I to burrow with such warnings in the air! Even the weak soul, who passes his days in singing, is stirred by the cry, and, as he says, is 'ready to go forth to the battle.' If 'twere only a battle, it would be a thing understood by us all, and easily managed; but I have heard that when such shrieks are atween heaven and 'arth, it betokens another sort of warfare!"

"If all our reasons for fear, my friend, are confined to such as proceed from supernatural causes, we have but little occasion to be alarmed," continued the undisturbed maiden; "are you certain that our enemies have not invented some new and ingenious method to strike us with terror, that their conquest may become more easy?"

THE LAST OF THE MOHICANS. 87

"Lady," returned the scout, solemnly, "I have listened to all the sounds of the woods for thirty years, as a man will listen, whose life and death depend so often on the quickness of his ears. There is no whine of the panther; no whistle of the cat-bird; nor any invention of the devilish Mingoes, that can cheat me! I have heard the forest moan like mortal men, in their affliction; often, and again, have I listened to the wind playing its music in the branches of the girdled trees; and I have heard the lightning cracking in the air, like the snapping of blazing brush, as it spitted forth sparks and forked flames; but never have I thought that I heard more than the pleasure of him, who sported with the things of his hand. But neither the Mohicans, nor I, who am a white man without a cross, can explain the cry just heard. We, therefore, believe it a sign given for our good."

"It is extraordinary!" exclaimed Heyward, taking his pistols from the place where he had laid them, on entering; "be it a sign of peace, or a signal of war, it must be looked to. Lead the way, my friend; I follow."

On issuing from their place of confinement, the whole party instantly experienced a grateful renovation of their spirits, by exchanging the pent air of their hiding place, for the cool and invigorating atmosphere, which played around the whirlpools and

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 February 23, Thursday: Charles Jarvis died in Concord at the age of 25.

CHARLES JARVIS of [Concord], son of Deacon Francis Jarvis, was born November 27, 1800 and grad[uated] at Harvard College in] 1821. He studied medicine with Doctors Hurd and Bartlett of Concord, and Shattuck of Boston, and received his medical degree in 1825. He settled in South Bridgewater where he soon obtained a respectable practice. But in the following July he was attacked with a fatal disease, removed to his father's house and died February 23, 1826 aged 25.³⁴⁰

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 23rd of 2 M / At home all day & not at Portsmouth to attend our Moy [Monthly] Meeting which was this day held there – I feel as if I might have gone with a little more exercion, but so it is, & tho' I do not feel exactly right about it, yet I have been somewhat favour'd in retirement –

[The next twelve lines are heavily crossed out, date included, and the rest of the page left blank.]

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 February 24, Friday: The Treaty of Yandabo ended the 1st war between Great Britain and Burma. The Burmese would be forced to pay an indemnity. Arakan, Tenasserim, Manipur, Assam, and the Burmese coastline would be annexed to British India. Pegu would be returned to Burma.

When he got back home to Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould would write in his journal:

6th day 24th of 2 M 1826 / Went this PM to Connanicut to attend some buisness - was occupied on 7th day & on first day attended their Meeting there- on 2nd day [Monday] came home –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 February 25, Saturday: On the way to London, Carl Maria von Weber arrived in Paris. During his stay in the city he would meet Luigi Cherubini, Daniel-Francois-Esprit Auber, Gioacchino Rossini, Ferdinando Paer, and Charles-Simon Catel. Hector Berlioz, who idolized Weber, sought out the German but was unable to find him. Rossini, observing Weber's terrible health, tried to talk him out of going on to London.

340. Lemuel Shattuck's 1835 A HISTORY OF THE TOWN OF CONCORD;... Boston: Russell, Odiorne, and Company; Concord MA: John Stacy
(On or about November 11, 1837 Henry Thoreau would indicate a familiarity with the contents of at least pages 2-3 and 6-9 of this historical study. On July 16, 1859 he would correct a date mistake buried in the body of the text.)

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 26, Easter Sunday: Through the agency of Sir George Smart, a Dr. Severin went to see Carl Maria von Weber in London. The doctor told Weber not to worry and prescribed pills and a rabbit skin to be put on his chest.

A constitution for Brazil was promulgated. It provided for a hereditary monarchy and a bicameral parliament.

Alvan Clark got married with Maria Pease.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 26th of 3rd M 1826 / Yesterday Afternoon Our friend Thomas Anthony & Wm Reynolds came from Greenwich, took tea & lodged with us – they also Dined with us today & attended both our meetings – Thomas's ministry was as a refreshing rain on parched land – The hearts of the brethren were comforted & much refreshed thereby, & were thankful on his account as well as our own that there were evidences of life yet remaining – Thomas I have long known & loved he was an early correspondent of mine, in tender Years, when we took sweet council together. – We took tea at Father Rodmans with them, & then I waited on them to D Buffum from whence they went to J Dennis's

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 27, Monday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 27 of 3rd M / This morning our friends Thos A & Wm R came in from J D's – stoped at our house a little while & then crossed the ferry with a prospect of getting home tonight –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 30, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 30th 3 M / Our frd Abigail Robinson much favoured in testimony & to the comfort of some minds – Our Moy [Monthly] Meeting was held & not much buisness before it. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 2, Sunday: A concert to benefit Valentin Alkan took place in the Pape showroom, Paris. This was his debut as pianist and composer.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 2 of 4 M 1826 / Silent meetings excepting a few words from Father Rodman in the Afternoon. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

April 3, Monday: Gioachino Rossini conducted a concert in Paris for the relief of Greek patriots.

Milton Town Meeting granted right-of-way permissions for the construction of a railway, stipulating that “any person shall be entitled to have stone carried in the said cars and vehicles at pleasure, on payment of toll.” These words of this town meeting are the precedent for our American public access to railroads.

April 23, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 23 of 4 M / Our Meeting this morning gathered under unusual Solemnity of which my mind was favour'd to partake – Father Rodman was engaged in a short testimony, which was pertinent according to my feelings – Then our frd D Buffum for the first time since he has got out of his long confinement, appear'd in a very lively & pertinent testimony – He first spoke on his seat, but not feeling easy to go on in that way, he rose, & appeard much affected with the subject of the Marriage at Canna in Gallilee, opening from it the necessity of our attending to the commands of the Master, which was to fill the water pots, which tho a simple injunction, was made a great display of divine power, & that which was weak became strong & refreshing to the company present, so he believed it would be with us now – if we obeyed the command of the Lord we should find our strength renew'd, our quallifications to usefulness & our peace of mind increased. he spake of the necessity of Faith & confidence in the divine Arm, & that we beware of speculation, which was dangerous, particularly when we began to think another time would do – We were Silent but solid in the Afternoon – We took tea at Father Rodmans & then I took a walk on the Point & called at Abigail Robinsons & paid an interesting visit to her, & was comforted with her lively & pertinent remarks, & a letter she read to me from her Sister Mary R Morton

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

May 2, Tuesday: Emperor Pedro I of Brazil waived his right to the Portuguese throne in favor of his daughter Maria de Gloria.

The United States recognized the Peruvian Republic.

After waiting for the loading of stove, utensils, crockery, the Amos Eaton Rensselaer field expedition got under way along the Erie Canal. The LaFayette made its way through the sloop lock at 11 AM, stopping in Troy, New York to onload Hezekiah Hulbert Eaton's chemical apparatus. Timothy Dwight Eaton joined the party. Dinner was held at the foot of the nine-lock Waterford flight. Asa Fitch and others walked as far as Cohoes and then waited two hours for the boat to catch up. At tea Professor Eaton read out the rules of conduct and the schedule — wake at sunrise, breakfast at eight, dinner at 2, tea after boat stopping for the night. There were 24 members of this all-male (it goes without saying) expedition. The sleeping would be crowded so they created a tent on the afterdeck that could sleep 4. Taps not being in their curriculum, they would not get to bed until after midnight. Governor DeWitt Clinton's son George W. Clinton was one of the participants.

GEORGE W. CLINTON

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 2nd of 5th M 1826 / This Morning with my wife & others making a company of 21 in number - went on board the Packet for Greenwich to attend Quarterly Meeting we arrived before One O'clock at Daniel Howlands - & After Dinner Uncle Peter Lawton & I took a Chaise & rode about four Miles to see John Casey who is now I thnk turned 87 Years of Age - he retained his looks remarakbly, his countenance fresh & not materially changed from what it was when I saw him last, 5 or 6 Years ago but his limbs quite debilitated, so that it was with difficulty he could walk about - In his mind there was the marks of former greatness, but, much reduced & even fallen. - he seemed glad to see us, & me in particular - he remains a Monument of warning to others, to take heed least they fall - my mind was humbled & grieved to see his situation, but I concluded it was best to go to see him.

—

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 5, Monday: One day before his planned return home to Dresden, servants in the house of Sir George Smart, London, called to wake their guest, Carl Maria von Weber. When they were unable to rouse him, they broke open the door and found the composer dead in his bed, at the age of 39 years, the victim of the effects of tuberculosis.

The Rensselaer field expedition spent the night in Utica, New York.

GEORGE W. CLINTON

The Trinitarian Congregationalist Church of Concord was authorized by an ecclesiastical council. Initially, this church would have 16 members.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

June 16, Friday: On orders of Sultan Mahmud II, the Janissaries, the elite of the Ottoman army, were killed in their barracks by Spahis (cavalry).

EGYPTIANS

Great Britain recognized the independence of Mexico.

ENGLISH EVENTS OF 1826

The captain of the American ship Silas Richards off Nova Scotia, at St. George's Bank, and one of the passengers, an Englishman named William Warburton, witnessed an enormous, many-humped snakelike creature, slowly approaching the ship.

SEA SERPENT SIGHTINGS

June 17, Saturday: Twelve days after the death of Carl Maria von Weber, Heinrich August Marschner applied to the King of Saxony for his position (he would not get it).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day A large collection at Tower Hill Meeting House where our friend Elizabeth Robson had much to communicate to the people much to the satisfaction of all present - after Meeting I visited the grave of my cousin Lewis L Clarke who lays buried in the ground on which that Meeting House stands - a remembrance of the Interest he took in such Meetings which we had just attended was fresh in my feelings. - We dined at Rowland Hazards & then rode to the Ferry & crossed over to Connanicut & from thence to Newport by sunsett. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 18, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 18th of 6 M 1826 / This forenoon Our frd E Robson attended our Meeting in Newport, was large & favoured in testimony & afterward had an opportunity with the Members of the Meeting. -Not feeling her mind clear of Connanicut as [s]he crossed it yesterday, [s]he had a Meeting appointed there at 4 OC this Afternoon. I with several others went over with her & got there in season to hold the Meeting & return before Dark to Newport. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 19, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

2nd day 19th of 6th M / This morning I went over to Abigail Robinsons on the Point to see & be with our dear Friend E Robson a little while before she left us. -After they got ready I rode with them as far as D Buffum's, from whence they set out for New Bedford, with Jona Dennis & wife for guide - we parted in much love & I trust shall remember each other when far separated. - She is a neighbour & intimate friend of my dear frd Thos Thompson of Liverpool. --

In the course of this Yearly Meeting I have been favoured many ways, & had renewed cause to thank the Father of Mercies, that with all my imperfections, & grievous short comings, I am yet cared for, & believe that however low & gloomy things may appear either in the inward or outward, as there is an abiding in the Faith & patience, light will arise, help will be afforded, at seasons when it may appear as if all before us was darkness & dismay - but oh for an increase of this faith in my heart which can & does remove mountains. - Among other things which has comforted my heart, is a prospect which has opened of keeping my son at the Yearly Meeting School for sometime longer - from a quarter & in a way where I did not expect -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 22, Thursday: After wintering at "Fort Franklin" on the western shore of Great Bear Lake, Lieutenant John Franklin's 2d overland expedition set out for the delta of the Mackenzie River. At Point Separation the party would divide. Richardson and the surveyor Edward Nicholas Kendall would set out in the 24-foot boats Dolphin and Union to explore the coast eastward to the mouth of the Coppermine River, while Sir John and George Back would venture westward in the 26-foot boats Lion and Reliance. Captain Frederick W. Beechey's HMS Blossom awaited them in the Bering Strait.

THE FROZEN NORTH

A decree by Tsar Nikolai set up a Supreme Censorship Committee over a nationwide system of censorship and guidelines for their oversight of literature and the arts.

The 1st Pan-American Congress meets in Panama called by Simón Bolívar to create a union of Spanish speaking America. After three weeks of discussions, the congress would disband with little accomplished.

Adina o Il califfo di Bagdad, a farsa by Gioachino Rossini to words of Bevilacqua-Aldobrandini, was performed for the initial time, in Teatro Sao Carlos, Lisbon (this would be the only occasion on which a Rossini opera would be premiered in the absence of the composer).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 22nd of 6th M 1826 / Our Meeting seemed small in comparison with some we have sat in of late. - & to me it was but a poor time. - there was no buisness in the Preparative Meeting - This Afternoon Solomon Lukins who has travelled in company with Elizabth Robson most of the time since she has been in America, returned from New Bedford to Newport on his return into Pennsylvania where he lives - he called at our house & put up with us till an opportunity presents for a passage to NYork.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 23, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 23rd of 6 M / Solomon Lukens found an opportunity to go to NYork this morning in a Packet with the Wind North East & as fair as it could be which will facilitate his progress, a little sooner than if he had waited till tomorrow to take the Steam Boat. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 24, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 24th of 6th M / Attended the funeral of Anthony Dixon with whom I have been about 11 Years associated as an Assessor of taxes - he was a valuable man to the community at large for many years he did not attend any place of public worship, till about 1819, since which he has regularly attended Friends Meeting on first day & brought his grandchildren with him. - Friends have visited him in his sickness & were satisfied he was near the Kingdom, particularly our friend Anna Braithwaite went to see him & had an opportunity with him much to his comfort & consolation -he died on the 21st about half past one OC in the Morning- & was buried after the plain manner of Friends this Afternoon in the burying ground near his house at the South end of the town partly in the Neck & formerly the property of his father in law Robt Taylor

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 25, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 25th of 6th M 1826 / Our Morning Meeting was pretty large, perhaps some come in expectation that Anna Braithwaite was there Susanna Vigneron, David Buffum, Hannah Dennis & Clarke Rodman all bore short testimonys. - Silent in the Afternoon. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 29, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 29th of 6th M / Rose early this Morning & walked to Uncle Stantons by early breakfast time - took his Wagon & with John rode to Meeting - The First sitting was silent & a favoured one to me - In the last we had but little buisness, but it took us considerable time to do that little, & things were resulted in harmony & good brotherhood - Josiah Chase & Elizabeth Freeborn

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

proposed their intentions of Marriage. – Returned after Meeting to Uncle Stantons dined spent the Afternoon & lodged –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 30, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day Morning he sent his Wagon in & John & I returned home in it. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 2, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 2 of 7 M / Rather heavy & small meeting, tho' we had some public exercise forenoon & Afternoon. We took tea & set the evening at Father Rodmans. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Our national birthday, the 4th of July, Tuesday: Construction was initiated at Harrisburg, Pennsylvania on the Main Line Canal.

The cornerstone was laid for the first lock of the Oswego Canal.

About noon, Stephen Collins Foster was born in Lawrenceville (Pittsburgh), Pennsylvania, the 9th child of William Barclay Foster, a businessman, and Eliza Clayland Tomlinson, daughter of a fairly well-off farmer.

Giacomo Meyerbeer and Eugene Scribe met in Paris to discuss Robert le diable for perhaps the 1st time.

English newspapers picked up and translated, word for word, the hoax or invention that had appeared in the Journal du Commerce de Lyon about an Englishman, one Roger Dodsworth, who had apparently been frozen in a Mount Saint Gothard glacier since an avalanche in 1654, and had on July 4th been recovered and reanimated “by the usual remedies” by a Dr. Hotham of Northumberland. Mary Godwin Wollstonecraft.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Shelley read this newspaper account and by October would produce her THE REANIMATED MAN.

Isabella (Sojourner Truth), who would have been approximately 29 years old, had in this year borne another daughter, whom she had named Sophia, who would need to grow up laboring as an indentured servant, by the husband Thomas to whom she had been assigned by her master who would not admit that he was a husband. She had once again increasing the prosperity of the master race! The remaining slaves of New York State were to be freed one year from this date, and John Dumont had solemnly promised Isabella in some earlier period that he would free her and her husband “a year early” and set them up in a nearby log cabin. So it had come time for the white race to be true to its word. However, since the master had made that commitment to this enslaved woman, she had carelessly lost a finger while working for him — so he figured she still owed him

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

some work. Fair's fair, right? No freedom, no log cabin, not yet, work some more. (But maybe later I'll be able to keep my promise.)

The newspapers of 1826 abounded with descriptions of solemn odes, processions, orations, toasts, and other such commemoratives of July 4th, the 50th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence. One reflection of the public conception of the Declaration was Royall Tyler's "Country Song for the Fourth of July," a poem that describes a New England celebration of the Brother Jonathan type, where neighbors gather for food, fun, and festivities. A clear view of just how the political ideals of the Declaration were received by the masses shines through Tyler's rhymed directions for the country dance. Here is how his dance appeared in an 1841 publication (although Tyler, who would die on August 26, 1826 from cancer of the face, could only have composed this in a considerably earlier timeframe).

Squeak the fife and beat the drum,
Independence day is come!!
Let the roasting pig be bled,
Quick twist off the cockerel's head.
Quickly rub the pewter platter.
Heap the nutcakes, fried in butter.
Set the cups, and beaker glass,
The Pumpkin and the apple sauce.

Send the keg to shop for brandy;
Maple sugar we have handy,
Independent, staggering Dick,
A noggin mix of swingeing thick,
Sal, put on your russet skirt,
Jotham, get your boughten shirt,
To-day we dance to tiddle diddle.
—Here comes Sambo with his fiddle;

Sambo, take a dram of whiskey,
And play up Yankee doodle frisky.
Moll, come leave your witched tricks,
And let us have a reel of six;
Father and mother shall make two;
Sal, Moll, and I, stand all a-row,
Sambo, play and dance with quality;
This is the day of blest equality,

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Father and mother are but men,
And Sambo — is a citizen.
Come foot it, Sal, — Moll, figure in.
And, mother, you dance up to him;
Now saw fast as e'er you can do
And father, you cross o'er to Sambo,
—Thus we dance, and thus we play,
On glorious Independence Day. —

[2 more verses in like manner]

In Salem, Massachusetts, 4th-of-July orator the Reverend Henry Root Colman delivered the necessary holiday oration. This would be printed by the town as AN ORATION DELIVERED IN SALEM, JULY 4, 1826, AT THE REQUEST OF THE TOWN, ON THE COMPLETION OF A HALF CENTURY SINCE THE DECLARATION OF AMERICAN INDEPENDENCE. Meanwhile, elsewhere, 4th-of-July orator George Bancroft was alerting an audience to the fact that his attitudes about government were coming to tend toward the democratic.

On this 50th anniversary of our American independence, which at the time we were referring to as our “Jubilee of Freedom” event, on the 22d birthday of Nathaniel Hawthorne, both former President Thomas Jefferson and former President John Adams died.³⁴¹ This was taken at the time to constitute a sign of national favor from Heaven, although why death ought to be regarded as a sign of favor remains untheorized — perhaps once again we Americans were “pushing the envelope” of what it is to be a human being. At any rate, this coincidence would become quite the topic for conversation in our American republic.

FAMOUS LAST WORDS: Jefferson: “Is it the 4th?” —Ah.” John Adams: “Thomas Jefferson still survives” (actually Jefferson had died at 12:50PM and then Adams died at 5:30PM.)

Even before news of Jefferson’s demise had reached Washington DC, Mayor Roger C. Weightman was having his final letter read aloud at that city’s Independence Day national-birthday festivities. The most stirring words in that former president’s missive —his assertion that the mass of mankind had not been born “with saddles on their backs” nor a favored few “booted and spurred” to “ride” them— had of course originated in the speech delivered by the leveler Colonel Richard Rumbold on the scaffold moments before his execution for treason against the English monarchy, at the conclusion of the English Civil War, in the Year of Our Lord 1685.³⁴² Those who noticed that the former President had intentionally or unknowingly been borrowing sentiments did not see fit to record that fact in writing.³⁴³

341. At any rate, this coincidence would become quite the topic for conversation in our American republic. Refer to L. H. Butterfield, “The Jubilee of Independence, July 4, 1826,” Virginia Magazine of History and Biography, LXI (1953), pages 135-38; Joseph J. Ellis, Passionate Sage: The Character and Legacy of John Adams (NY, 1993), pages 210-16; Robert P. Hay, “The Glorious Departure of the American Patriarchs: Contemporary Reactions to the Deaths of Jefferson and Adams,” Journal of Southern History, XXXV (1969), pages 543-55; Merrill D. Peterson, The Jefferson Image in the American Mind, 1960, pages 3-14.

HDTWHAT?INDEX

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Former president Jefferson's death at Monticello ("All my wishes and where I hope my days will end — at Monticello.") would be followed shortly by the auction of his 90 black slaves over 12 years of age — along with his 12 black slaves between 9-12 years of age, his 73 cows of unknown coloration, and his 27 horses also of unknown coloration— for he had been living quite beyond his means, bringing back with him for instance from France no fewer than 86 large crates of civilized goodies. Jefferson did, however, set free his mulatto blood relatives. Jefferson, one might say, in allowing that after a certain number of crosses with white daddys, an infant ought to be considered to be white, had "pushed the envelope" of what it meant to be a human being. Yeah, right.

Mary Moody Emerson entered into her Almanack a comment that this was the day on which her Country had thrown the gage (thrown down the gauntlet, issued a challenge to a duel of honor):

tho' the revolution gave me to slavery of poverty & ignorance & long orphanship, — yet it gave my

342. Macaulay's HISTORY OF ENGLAND, Chapter V; Adair, Douglass. "Rumbold's Dying Speech, 1685, and Jefferson's Last Words on Democracy, 1826," William and Mary Quarterly, 3rd Series, IX (1952): pages 526, 530:

I never could believe that Providence had sent a few men into the world, ready booted and spurred to ride, and millions ready saddled and bridled to be ridden.

Rumbold was not merely being hanged but being hanged, drawn, and quartered — the penalty for an attempt upon the monarch. This trope about horses, saddles, boots, and spurs was taken at the time to have been originated by Jefferson, in John A. Shaw's EULOGY, PRONOUNCED AT BRIDGEWATER, MASSACHUSETTS, AUGUST 2D, 1826 and in Henry Potter's EULOGY, PRONOUNCED IN FAYETTEVILLE, NORTH-CAROLINA, JULY 20TH, 1826 and in John Tyler's EULOGY, PRONOUNCED AT RICHMOND, VIRGINIA, JULY 11, 1826 in A SELECTION OF EULOGIES, PRONOUNCED IN THE SEVERAL STATES, IN HONOR OF THOSE ILLUSTRIOUS PATRIOTS AND STATESMEN, JOHN ADAMS AND THOMAS JEFFERSON (Hartford CT: 1826). See also THE LAST LETTER OF THE ILLUSTRIOUS STATESMAN, THOMAS JEFFERSON, ESQ. AUTHOR OF THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE: BEING HIS ANSWER TO AN INVITATION TO JOIN THE CITIZENS OF WASHINGTON IN CELEBRATING THE FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF AMERICAN INDEPENDENCE: MONTICELLO, JUNE 24, 1826 (Washington DC: 1826).

That 17th-Century incident was not the first one in our history to conform to the dictum "there must be none higher than us, though of course there must always be some lower than us," for in the 14th Century the Reverend John Ball had been hanged for preaching against public toleration of privileged classes:

*"When Adam dalf [dugged] and Eve span,
Who was then a gentleman?"*

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

fellow men liberty

Isabella (Sojourner Truth), who would have been approximately 29 years old, had in this year borne another daughter, whom she had named Sophia, who would need to grow up laboring as an indentured servant, by the husband Thomas to whom she had been assigned by her master who would not admit that he was a husband. She had once again increasing the prosperity of the master race! The remaining slaves of New York State were to be freed one year from this date, and John Dumont had solemnly promised Isabella in some earlier period that he would free her and her husband “a year early” and set them up in a nearby log cabin. So it had come time for the white race to be true to its word. However, since the master had made that commitment to this enslaved woman, she had carelessly chopped off one of her fingers while working for him –so he figured she couldn’t work as productively with only nine fingers as she had with ten, and so –he figured she must still owe him some work. Fair’s fair, right? No freedom, no cabin, not yet, instead work some more for nothing. (But don’t lose heart, as maybe later I’ll be able to keep my solemn promise.)

TIMELINE OF ACCIDENTS

343. Note that we have here an American author who is establishing his claim to fame upon his being the author of the memorable phrases of our foundational document, and who is attempting incautiously to do so by appropriating phrases originated by someone else. Also, we have here an American public so stupid or so patriotic that it lets him get away with it. Witness John A. Shaw, EULOGY, PRONOUNCED AT BRIDGEWATER, MASSACHUSETTS, AUGUST 2D, 1826 in A Selection of Eulogies, Pronounced in the Several States, in Honor of Those Illustrious Patriots and Statesmen, John Adams and Thomas Jefferson (Hartford, Conn., 1826), 163; Henry Potter, “Eulogy, Pronounced in Fayetteville, North-Carolina, July 20th, 1826,” A Selection of Eulogies...., 130; John Tyler, “Eulogy, Pronounced at Richmond, Virginia, July 11, 1826,” A Selection of Eulogies...., 7-8; National Intelligencer, July 4, 1826; Independent Chronicle and Boston Patriot, July 12, 1826; Philadelphia Gazette, July 5, 1826; Commercial Chronicle and Baltimore Advertiser, July 11, 1826; The last letter of the illustrious statesman, Thomas Jefferson, Esq. author of the Declaration of Independence: Being his answer to an invitation to join the citizens of Washington in celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of American independence: Monticello, June 24, 1826 (Washington, D.C., 1826).

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

In New Harmony, Indiana, Robert Dale Owen gave a speech he called his “Declaration of Mental Independence.”

In Providence, Rhode Island, four of those who had participated in the capture of the British armed schooner Gaspe during the Revolutionary War rode in a parade.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Major John Handy read the Declaration of Independence “on the identical spot which he did 50 years ago,” in the presence of Isaac Barker of Middletown, “who was at his side in the same place fifty years before.” Patriotic fun and games! Friend Stephen Wanton Gould protested to his journal:

3rd day 4th of 7th M 1826 / This is what is called Independence Day - & an exceeding troublesome one it is to all sober Minded people - The expence of this day given to the poor or appropriated to public school would school all the poor children in town for some time. - Last night, we were the whole night greatly troubled & kept Awake, by the firing of squibs & crackers, great Bonfire in the middle of the Parade & tar Barrells, with various noises which were kept up all night & consequently kept us & many others awake, to our great discomfiture - in addition to which is the bitter reflection of the discipation & corruption of habits & morals to which our youth are exposed. - & today we have had numerous scenes of drunkenness both among the Aged & Youth, & many act of wickedness -besides the pomp & vain show apparant in all parts of the Town -This evening again we are troubled with noise & tumult & what kind of a night we are to have cannot be told. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

In New-York, 4 gold medals had been ordered to be struck by the Common Council: 3 were for surviving signers of the Declaration of Independence, and the 4th was given to the son of Robert Fulton as a memorial of “genius in the application of steam.”

In a celebration at Lynchburg, Virginia, among the “aged patriots of ’76” were General John Smith and Captain George Blakenmore.

At the South Meeting House of Worcester, Massachusetts, Isaiah Thomas stood on the spot from which he had read the Declaration of Independence in 1776.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

The Frederick-Town Herald of Frederick, Maryland announced that it would no longer be publishing the usual round of “generally dull, insipid” dinner toasts, “about which few feel any interest.”

In Salem, North Carolina, the Moravian Male Academy was dedicated.

In Quincy, Massachusetts, Miss Caroline Whitney delivered an address on the occasion of the presentation of a flag to the Quincy Light Infantry.

In Arlington, Virginia, General Washington’s tent, the very same tent that the General had been using at the heights of Dorchester in 1775, was re-erected near the banks of the Potomac River for purposes of celebration.

CELEBRATING OUR B-DAY

July 5, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 5th of 7 M / Last Night passed off better than we had reason to expect. Tho’ there was much firing of Crackers till quite late.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 6, Thursday: Gaetano Donizetti’s drama Elvida to words of Schmidt was performed for the initial time, in Teatro San Carlo, Naples, before a royal gala (this piece of music has since disappeared).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 6th of 7 M / Meeting rather small & Silent, but some favour witnessed. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 9, Sunday: The State of Chile was renamed the Republic of Chile.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 9th of 7 M / Hannah Dennis in the Morning, & Father Rodman in the Afternoon bore acceptable testimonys – Our Meetings were rather thin, as they are apt to be in very warm days tho’ I am inclined to think, The Meeting House would be found to be as cool when properly ventilated as any place whatever. – Set the eveng at Abigail Robinsons.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

July 13, Thursday: On the glacis of Peter-Paul Fortress in Russia, a gallows had hastily been erected. All the prisoners were herded into the square to witness the execution of their compatriots before, at 3AM on that misty morning, the condemned, five officers of the “Decembrists” who had been selected by Tsar Nicholas to set an example for the rest, were led out into the flickering light of the bonfires with notices hanging on their chests “Criminals — Regicides!” After their epaulets had been torn off and cast into the flames, and after they had been blessed by the Archpriest Myslovskii, and after the ropes had been put in place and the hoods had been placed over their heads, the command was given and the supports were pulled away from under the platform. Three of these former army officers slipped through their nooses and fell to the ground. One, named Muravey, lay there on the ground waiting for the noose to again be placed around his neck and shouted out the frustration which had brought about the revolt of the previous December:

My God! In this hopeless country they cannot even hang people properly!

You’ll notice that this guy Muravey, whoever he was, was no dummy. He knew that the best way to get attention for this his last piece of social commentary, a remark which would become legendary, was to accompany them, as the last words of a human being about to be judged by Our Maker, with what would be taken by the Archpriest in attendance, Myslovskii, and numerous others at this ceremonial occasion, as a blasphemy.

The Duke of Wellington, in St. Petersburg for the state funeral of Tsar Alexander I, was equally discouraged at the condition of all the Russias, but in his case the occasion of his discouragement was having to stand around and see and smell that due to the long delay during the arrests and trials of the Decembrists, the corpse of the old tsar had become unfrozen and was decomposing. —Yet as a proper diplomat he could not afford to be on record as having blasphemed.

My God! In this hopeless country they cannot even bury people properly!

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

5th day 13 of 7 M / Our first meeting was silent & rather low - in the last which was our Select Meeting, life rose a little - In the Afternoon met with a committee from the Moy [Monthly] Meeting, which was a time of labour - The subject however was debated in love & resulted as well as could be expected considering the diversity of sentiment that existed among us -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 16, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 16th of 7th M 1826 / In our Morning Meeting our frd D Buffum was engaged in a lively testimony - "Go Fourth for this time & at some more convenient season I will call for thee" was his opening - from which he took occasion to remark on the Power of God which convicted & convinced Felex, & the danger of putting off the work of the souls salvation to a more convenient season - In the Afternoon Father Rodman was lively & pertinent in Testimony. - Cousin Henry Gould set most of the evening with us. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 20, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 20th of 7 M / Silent Meeting, & no buisness in the Preparative Meeting but to answer the Queries previous to the Quarter -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 27, Thursday: Fryderyk Franciszek Chopin achieved a high school diploma, in Warsaw.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th 27 of 7 M / In our first Meeting Anne Greene & Father Rodman were engaged in good sound & solid public testimonys - In the last which was our Moy [Monthly] Meeting we had some buisness & some exercise & fear possessed my mind, that one case before us would not ultimately result in the best Manner -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 30, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 30th of 7 M / Our Morning Meeting was Silent. In the Afternoon Father Rodman bore a short but good testimony In both Meetings I had to lament my weakness & poverty - was however favoured in the evening with a little revival of life, in a visit with my wife to Abigail Robinson. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

August 3, Thursday: Waldo Emerson wrote in his journal about having on the previous day been present at Faneuil Hall to hear Daniel Webster's eulogy for the deceased Thomas Jefferson and John Adams:

Yesterday I attended the funeral solemnities in Faneuil Hall in honor of John Adams & Thomas Jefferson. The Oration of Mr Webster was worthy of his fame & what is much more was worthy of the august occasion.

Fryderyk Franciszek Chopin traveled to Bad Reinerz in Lower Silesia accompanied by his sisters Emilia and Ludwika and his mother. They were there for treatment, especially for Emilia, who was showing symptoms of tuberculosis and was probably contagious. Fryderyk, although ill himself, possibly contracted the disease from her. They would remain there for five weeks.

The family of Samuel Ringgold Ward arrived in New-York, and lodged for the first night with their relatives, the parents of the Reverend Henry Highland Garnet:

We lived several years at Waldron's Landing, in the neighbourhood of the Reeves, Woods, Bacons, and Lippineutts, who were among my father's very best friends, and whose children were among my schoolfellows. However, in the spring and summer of 1826, so numerous and alarming were the depredations of kidnapping and slave-catching in the neighbourhood, that my parents, after keeping the house armed night after night, determined to remove to a place of greater distance and greater safety. Being accommodated with horses and a waggon by kind friends, they set out with my brother in their arms for New York City, where they arrived on the 3rd day of August, 1826, and lodged the first night with relations, the parents of the Rev. H.H. Garnett, now of Westmoreland, Jamaica. Here we found some 20,000 coloured people. The State had just emancipated all its slaves - viz., on the fourth day of the preceding month - and it was deemed safer to live in such a city than in a more open country place, such as we had just left. Subsequent events, such as the ease with which my two relatives were taken back in 1828 – the truckling of the mercantile and the political classes to the slave system – the large amount of slaveholding property owned by residents of New York – and, worst, basest, most diabolical of all, the cringing, canting, hypocritical friendship and subserviency of the religious classes to slavery – have entirely dissipated that idea.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

I look upon Greenwich, New Jersey, the place of my earliest recollections, very much as most persons remember their native place. There I followed my dear father up and down his garden, with fond childish delight; the plants, shrubs, flowers, &c., I looked upon as of his creation. There he first taught me some valuable lessons – the use of the hoe, to spell in three syllables, and to read the first chapter of John's Gospel, and my figures; then, having exhausted his literary stock upon me, he sent me to school. There I first read the BIBLE to my beloved mother, and read in her countenance (what I then could not read in the book) what that BIBLE was to her. Were my native country free, I could part with any possession to become the owner of that, to me, most sacred spot of earth, my father's old garden. Had I clung to the use of the hoe, instead of aspiring to a love of books, I might by this time have been somebody, and the reader of this volume would not have been solicited by this means to consider the lot of the oppressed American Negro.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day – Our public Meeting was large & favoured Our frd Wm Almy was alone in service & was large acceptable & edifying - in the last the appointment of Hannah Almy from our Moy [Monthly] Meeting & Jos Metcalf & Lydia Smith from Providence Moy [Monthly] Meeting to the Station of Elders was confirmed. – After Meeting & dined at B Freeborns, & went on to Providence in the Waggon with Nicholas Congdon to attend the School Committee, & arrived at the School House about dark - found John well & spent the evening pleasantly with him & friends there & there lodged –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 4, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day Attended the School committee, some labour & exercise attended the setting for buisness, but we found much encouragement to think well of the Institution, & our visits to the School were attended with that precious sense of love & precious spirit which indeed constrained the acknowledgement that it was good for us to be there, – that it was good for our society that the School existed & furnished a strengthened hope

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

that a Succession of standard bearers would be raised up to fill the places of us who were then Acting as caretakers of those before us in the School -- I lodged at my dear aged friend Moses Browns & on 7th day Morning returned to the School & spent the fournoon & dined - then went to Town & at 3 OClock came home in the Steam Boat.-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 10, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 10th of 8 M / Father Rodman said a few words as did Francis Carr, the first time in Public, he is a friend who needs care, & I hope wisdom & prudence will go hand & hand with those who may find it their places to lend a helping hand. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 13, Sunday: Scottish explorer Alexander Gordon Laing became the 1st European to reach Timbuktu (Mali). He would be killed in September.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 13 of 8 M / Both Meeting very small in consequence of the Rain - Father Rodman engaged in both settings & in the Afternoon I thought we had a good meeting

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 17, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 17th of 8th M / Silent Meeting, but not without some good feelings, yet much of that which savor'd of death -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 24, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 24th of 8 M / Our Meeting very small, the day very Rainy, & the Mond overcast, as well as the Sky -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 30, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 30th of 8 M / Rode to Portsmouth this Afternoon with D Buffum Jr on a committee from the Moy [Monthly] Meeting to Visit Wm Hall who has requested to be dismissed from society - he was absent from home, & we were disappointed. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

➡ August 31, Thursday: Giacomo Costantino Beltrami notified the REVUE ENCYCLOPÉDIQUE that he had discovered in Mexico, and obtained for the outside world, an ancient Mexican manuscript printed upon agave leaves, now known as “the Aztec codex” and as EVANGELARIUM EPISTOLARIUM AZTECUM.³⁴⁴

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 31 of 8 M / Rode with my H to Portsmouth to attend our Monthly Meeting, which was a time of refreshment our first meeting was livily in silence & the testimony all sweet & encouraging. – Mary Hicks D Buffum, Ruth Freeborn Clarke Rodman Hannah Dennis & A Sherman bore short lively testimonys, corresponding in exercise, that we might seek peace & persue it. –

In the last the buisness was conducted orderly & in harmony. – Joshua Shaw & Hannah Pearce published their intentions of Marriage. – We dined & spent the remainder of the Afternoon at Uncle Stantons. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ September 3, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 3rd of 9 M 1826 / Our Meeting this morning, I believe ought to have been silent, tho' there was preaching – It was silent in the Afternoon. –
Visited our friend Mary Morton at her sister Abigail Robinsons

344. It would turn out that the particular codice retrieved by Beltrami wasn't ancient at all, having been produced by native students in 1529 under the sponsorship of a teacher at the Imperial College of Santa Cruz de Tlaltelolco in Mexico, Bernardino de Sahagun.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

this evening - a pleasant visit -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 5, Tuesday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 5th of 9 M / Recd a kind letter from my frd Wm Rickman of Rochester Engd - which was encouraging & acceptable - it was reviving to my weak & low state in every Sense. - It was dated 11th of 7 M 1826 -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 14, Thursday: Heman Doane's "The life and writing of Heman Doane," a 34-page holograph created by him at the age of 17 for the Sunday School in Eastham, Massachusetts. (This manuscript is now at the Houghton Library of Harvard University, under call number MS Am 1778.)

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 14th of 9th / Our Meeting was to me a solid good season in Silence. - Before meeting I was engaged in an opportunity with George Hall who has requested to be dismissed from society having joined the Methodists. - It appeared to me evidently, that he had quit our society without having informed himself of our principles & on no good ground, but to avoid the Cross of Christ, & a choice of walking in his own ways, having been caught in the fire & carried away in the Whirlwind, without waiting to feel the instructions that would have been received in the Small Still Voice
On the whole my opinion is that his request did not originate in good conscience, but in a perversion of it -before we had the opportunity my mind was more favourably impressed towards him, but on hearing his account of himself, I feel that his conduct is for Judgement, more than paliation*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 19, Tuesday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 19th of 9 M / About 1 OC this Afternoon Walter Channing Was taken in a fit in my Brother Isaac's Shop - the scene was Awful, & affected my mind with many serious considerations. - However Rich or great we are in the world in sickness & in Death we are poor dependent creatures. - He revived & went to his lodgings & is better this evening. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

September 21, Thursday: Four songs by Franz Schubert were published by Sauer and Leidesdorf, Vienna as his op.59: Dass sie hier gewesen, Du bist die Ruh and Lachen und Weinen, all to words of Ruckert, and Du liebst mich nicht, to words of Platen.

In a duel fought 6 miles south of Franklin, Kentucky, Sam Houston badly wounded General William A. White.

Lieutenant John Franklin and George Back in the 26-foot boats Lion and Reliance reached Fort Franklin three weeks after Richardson and Kendall, who had completed their survey. That winter Back would learn of his earlier promotion to Commander.

THE FROZEN NORTH

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 21st of 9th M 1826 / Our Frd Abigail Robinson was engaged in a very favoured testimony to the Truth, & our meeting was a good one. – no buisness in the Preparative Meeting. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 24, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 24th of 9 M / Both Meetings nearly Silent, but pretty good solid opportunities. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 28, Thursday: Russia declared war on Persia due to Persian involvement in Transcaucasia.

Ludwig van Beethoven, his brother Johann, and their nephew Karl traveled to Johann's country property at Gneixendorf near Krems. The composer was ill.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 28th of 9 M / Our first Meeting was a solid good time H Dennis was engaged in testimony as was also Father Rodman. – & tho' it thus appeared – I may confess on my part, much leanness of spirit was my portion. – In the last Meeting we had but little buisness, & it seemed to me, that little was pretty well

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

conducted. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 30, Saturday: Manuel Garcia's opera company returned to London from a year's engagement in New-York.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 30th of 9 M / This morning Hannah & Ruth went in the Packet to Providence to visit John at the School, & to attend the Sub-School committee on 3rd day next, they have apparently had a very favourable passage, & I hope will have a good comfortable time. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 October 1, Sunday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 1 of 10th M 1826 / Our Meetings were both pretty solid sittings to me - Father Rodman had some service in the Mornng & in the Afternoon Silent - I went home with D Buffum took tea & set the evening. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 October 5, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 2 [?] of 10 M / Our meeting was a good one, tho small. Our frd D Buffum was engaged in a very lively & pertinent testimony which I thought added to the weight of the Meeting, he was followed by Father Rodman in a short good testimony Last night Died our old neighbour Samuel Vinson, when we first went to house keeping we lived in the next house to him, when we contracted an intimacy which has continued ever since, he was a pleasant interesting companion, & I have no doubt was a religious man he was about 85 Years of age —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 October 6, Friday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 6th of 10th M 1826 / We heard this Morning of the Death of Wm B Rotch son of Benjamin Rotch who died yesterday at his Grandfather Wm Rotches in New Bedford, it was an affecting occurrence to my mind, he was in Newport on the 20th of last Month & seemed as well as any of us & kindly assisted in helping to relieve Walter Channing who was on that day taken in a Fit at my Brother Isaac's

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

➡ October 8, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 8th of 10 M / Silent Meeting in the Morning – In the Afternoon some words were spoken. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ October 12, Thursday: The Gesellschaft der Musikfreunde granted 100 florins to Franz Schubert (he had sent them a manuscript to a symphony which they had managed to lose).

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5thd day 12th of 10th M / Our first Meeting was silent & solid, the last was our Select Meeting –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ October 15, Sunday: The Reverend Waldo Emerson preached his first sermon, “Pray without ceasing,” at his step-uncle the Reverend Samuel Ripley’s church in Waltham, Massachusetts.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 15th of 10 M / Father Rodman had a good testimony in the Morning Meeting – Silent in the Afternoon – Took tea & set the eveng at D Buffums with my H & Sister Ruth –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ October 19, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 17th [?] of 10th M / My H & Sister Ruth spent the eveng at Henry & Molly Goulds dividing it between them. I went the latter part of it – Cousin Hannah Gardiner who came over from Narragansett a week or two ago & went out to Uncle Stantons on a visit, returned Yesterday & goes home this Afternoon

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 October 31, Tuesday: Muzio Clementi's complete Gradus ad Parnassum appeared for the initial time, simultaneously in Paris, Leipzig and London.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day Went to Providence & attended the Sub-School committee, & then rode to Swansey to attend the Quarterly Meeting. - We put up at Nathan Chases & was kindly entertained. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 November 4, Saturday: Emmanuel-Henri-Dieudonné Domenech was born at Lyons, France.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day Came home in the Steam Boat & found all well. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 November 5, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 5th of 11th M 1826 / Father Rodman engaged in short testimony in Both Meetings - they not very lively times to me, but I trust there were some who did not Meet in vain -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 November 9, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 9th of 11th M / Father Rodman bore a short testimony, & to me the Meeting was a little more lively than last first day. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 November 12, Sunday: Saxe-Coburg-Saalfeld and Saxe-Gotha joined in personal union. The new Duchy would be called Saxe-Coburg and Gotha and would be under Duke Ernst I. The Duchy of Saxe-Altenberg was restored to sovereignty by Saxe-Gotha, under Duke Friedrich.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 12th of 11th M / David Buffum & Father Rodman engaged in testimony in the Mornng & Silent in the Afternoon, - My poor mind was in a most destitute state. - I live by faith in the power I have felt in former days - & earnestly desire, a renewal of life - which has been measurably vouchsafed, in a solid reading of the Scriptures this mornng. - but Oh the poverty of my spirit -
Spent the eveng & took tea with My H at D Buffums*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

November 19, Sunday: Fanny and Felix Mendelssohn played a four-hand piano version of Felix's A Midsummer Night's Dream overture for Ignaz Moscheles.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 19 of 11 M / Last eveng we had the company of Benjamin Wing a young Man of Falmouth just from the Boarding School, on his way home, detained in the harbour by a Strong wind he seemed to be an interesting Youth & we were glad to entertain him with lodging - This Morning he sailed for home. -
In our morning Meeting Father Rodman was engaged in a lively testimony & David Buffum in a very solid lively & good communication which I have no doubt reached the hearts of some present.
We were silent in the Afternoon. - & my leanness was great - Were it not for seasons of some refreshment or extendings of divine good out of meetings, & know not but I should almost sink under my poverty -
Help Oh Father, help. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 30, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 30th of 11th M / Our Moy [Monthly] Meeting held in Town - the first Meeting wholly silent - In the last there was but little buisness. - & but little life among us. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 3, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 3rd of 12 M 1826 / In the forenoon our frd D Buffum was engaged in a solemn lively testimony - we were silent in the Afternoon, & both pretty comfortable Meetings.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 4, Monday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 4th of 12 M / On the 27 of last M the Remains of Oliver H Perry were brought into This Harbour by the Ship Lexington from Trinidad where he died between 7 & 8 Years ago. & this day a very great funeral was made & the remains re-interd in our common burying ground - The Town Council requested the shops in Town to be closed during the time of the Funeral processing - which Friends did not comply with. - This evening in conversing with a few men of the town in the Mercury Printing office, - I found considerable acrimony was manifest by some at our non-compliance - I felt it a duty to make defence of our conduct -

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

& in the first instance told them - It was my opinion that the great show & parade got up this day was a departure from Republican simplicity which this nation is bound to maintain, & secondly, it was diverse from all christian example or precept that I had known, & on these grounds alone there was sufficient for us to bear our testimony against it. - but this was not all, for it was not out of meer respect to the remains of O H Perry as a good citizen that all this show & funeral pomp was made - but a more pernicious design was at bottom, which was to pay honour to him as a great Military man & thereby excite a love of military fame in the Minds of our citizens & youth. - which was natural enough to the human heart without this great excitement & waste of money which had better have been given to the Poor. - beside Commodore Perry was a plain unostentations Man, with whom I was well acquainted in his life time, & I knew was not fond of such things, but on the contrary avoided many honors that might have been paid to him, after his achievement on Lake Erie & preferd to travel thro' the country in a private manner - rather than be in the way of receiving the homage which the people at that time were wont to render him.-& further I remarked the effects, such distinguished honours if they could properly be called - were prejudicial to the minds of his children, who might be lead to a conclusion that as their father was so singularly honourd, that they were entitled to something of the same kind, thereby be made proud & haughty & by considering themselves gentlemen stand on their fathers achievements & think themselves above the necessary exertions to obtain a lively hood. - These are some of the Arguments which I used, & but few were disposed seriously to combat them- & I consider they are too substantive to be Seriously controverted by any reasonable men. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 7, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 7th of 12th M 1826 / Our Meeting today was a very good one to me, for which I am thankful - I dont know that I ever more fully realized the Language of Scripture "The Lamb & his followers shall have the victory" or saw more clearly how the Victory is to be obtained - Father Rodman was rather more largely engaged in testimony than is usual for him - & Susannah Bateman said a few words -Abel Collins a public friend from Hopkinton sat with us in silence. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 10, Sunday: When back in Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould caught up in his journal:

7th day 9th of 12 M / Rode this afternoon to Tiverton with our Frd David Buffum - Lodged at Abraham Barkers & next day (1st day [Sunday]) We attended Meeting there - the gathering was small

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

& the appearance of things among them weak & low, yet it seemed as if there was a little encouragement to continue to hold the Meeting.— D B was engaged in a good feeling testimony which went to encourage the few who usually assemble at that place. — We dined at Abraham Barkers & returned home in the Afternoon. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 14, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 14th of 12th M / Our Meeting was pretty well attended by those who usually assemble on 5th days & to me it was a comfortable little meeting

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 15, Friday: The largest of the Schubertiads took place in the Vienna home of Josef von Spaun, at which Johann Vogl sang 30 songs. This night would inspire the famous von Schwind sepia drawing.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 15th of 12 M / This Afternoon rec'd a very pleasant letter from our Dear John who is yet at School in Providence. — I feel grateful, & I may say very thankful for the privilege he enjoys of being there & in the way of obtaining a good education, & yet more so for the favourable turn of mind he seems to have taken. — I hopes are that he will make a good man — but when I consider the Slippery path that yet awaits him, my hopes are mingled with fear as to the Issue. — This Evening we had the compnay of Isaiah Gove from Ware, who is here, for the purpose of carrying home his son Albert, who Married & has lived in this town some time, but unfortunately had his leg broken, when the roof of the Town School House was raised some time ago. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Per the journal of Albert Gallatin's son James as recorded in THE DIARY OF JAMES GALLATIN:

There is not much entertaining. The King is at Brighton. I met Mr. Greville (Charles Greville, author of Journals of the Reign & of George III and William IV) the other night. He is Clerk of the Council. I was amused to see him making notes of the different things I told him. Rather a pedantic person. Princess Lieven is the Ambassador: Prince Lieven is absolutely a nonentity. Lord Goderich is always the same delightful gentleman, it is a pleasure to meet him. Lord Grey I suppose means to be civil, but his manners are not what they should be. Mr. Canning is always most gracious to father, who likes him very much but does not think him a very strong man. Lady Wellesley (Mrs. Robert Patterson — Editor's Note.—Mrs. Robert Patterson, widow of Robert Patterson, who was a brother of Madame Bonaparte. Patterson, married some years after the death of her husband, the Marquis of Wellesley, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, elder brother of the Duke of Wellington) has been in London. We dined with her. Of course now she is a very great lady, and does not forget it. She has asked me to come to Dublin after Christmas. She says I will be much amused at Dublin society and the Viceregal Court. I will certainly go if there is not too much work here. There is that horrible Irish Channel to be considered and the very long journey. Mamma arrives to-morrow. We have to entertain some Americans, there are a great many in London at present. Father has declined to present any at Court. He is not resident Minister only a special Ambassador. I ride every day as I fear I am getting fat; Mrs. Baring has just told mamma that she has invited every available member of the Baring family to her Christmas dinner. We are to be the only outsiders.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

December 17, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 17th 12 M 1826 / Our Meeting this forenoon was silent & solid. - When we returned home we found a letter from Benjamin Marchall, encouraging us to send John immediately to Hudson to enter his Cotton establishment there, which seemed very sudden & unexpected to us, tho we had calculated on his going there in the Spring or summer coming -- after considering & turning the proposition in our minds for a little while, - I saw no other way than to consult my dear Aged Mother & Uncle & Aunt Stanton on the subject who all have a deep interest in Johns welfare & accordingly set out on foot & arrived there by sunset. - Our united conclusion was to consult John & say [lay?] the subject fully before him. - Tho' we all felt seriously affected at the Idea of taking him from the Boarding School at Providence, so suddenly where he seems to be laying a good foundation for the time to come. - I went to bed & rose early on 2nd day [Monday] Morning & got home by 8 OC, & waited the whole day, consulting such of our friends, as came in our way who all seemed to concur with the Idea of leaving the exchange, chiefly to his decision - We accordingly wrote him this eveng, intending it for the Mail tomorrow morning. - The prospect as to the outward is uncommonly good for him, but I see many things which will be a great drawback on prospects of that Kind, but what can we do in our present situation, but to trust him to that Kind Providence which has from his birth to the present day signally favoured him -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Francis Trevelyan Buckland was born at Oxford, England, a son of the Reverend Professor William Buckland, D.D., F.R.S., Dean of Westminster.

His father was a Canon of Christ Church, one of the largest Colleges of the University of Oxford (as well as being a college, Christ Church is also the cathedral church of the diocese of Oxford, to wit Christ Church Cathedral).

HDTWHAT?INDEXSTEPHEN WANTON GOULD*FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULDGO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISMCHRIST CHURCH

His father was also the geologist and paleontologist who had written the 1st full account of a fossil dinosaur. His father was a friend of Sir Richard Owen, Order of the Bath, a biologist, comparative anatomist, and paleontologist who is remembered today not only as the person who had coined the term “Dinosauria” but also as an opponent of Charles Darwin’s theory of origin of new species by gradual modification and adaptation. His father’s great hobby was the consumption of such unusual items as mice in batter, squirrel pie, horse’s tongue, and ostrich (in fact he was “heavy into” grossing people out big time in every way possible and according to one story he gobbled the preserved heart of King Louis XIV), and this “zoöphagy” would become the portly son’s favorite hobbyhorse as well.

December 21, Thursday: Per the journal of Albert Gallatin’s son James as recorded in THE DIARY OF JAMES GALLATIN:

Dined at a large Diplomatic dinner at Prince Jules de Polignac’s at the French Embassy; all men. I was delighted to meet Montmorency; we had good talk over our old days in Paris. He says things are much changed now, and that the King is much

HDT

WHAT?

INDEX

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

HDTWHAT?INDEXSTEPHEN WANTON GOULD*FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULDGO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

disliked. Our successors are not at all well received and do not entertain at all. After dinner, Montmorency and I went for a short time to White's and had supper late. London unutterably dull. Mamma is very happy as she has a perfect riot of churches to go to. It will be gayer after Christmas, but only among the Corps Diplomatique. We are booked for several visits. I was delighted with a long letter from my dear wife. All are well and seem very happy. Father will have to have some sort of reception for the Americans in the New Year. We really make quite a show. We are using all our old French State liveries-which are perfectly fresh.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Der Zwerg D.771, a song by Franz Schubert to words of von Collin, was performed for the initial time, in the Musikvereinsaal, Vienna.

200 Anglo settlers seized Nacogdoches, Mexico (Texas) and proclaimed the Republic of Fredonia. Mexican authorities would down the revolt with the help of Anglo leaders.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 21st of 12 M / Silent Meeting – I could not divest my mind of John & his leaving School – My desires for his right disposal & direction were fervant, & aspirations for his preservation from evil were ardent. – It was to me a good meeting. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 22, Friday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 22nd of 12 M 1826 / Recd a letter from John this evening in which he weighs the subject of going to Hudson in a very satisfactory manner, takes into consideration the arguments in favour & against it & finally concludes the ballance is in favour of going – I have accordingly written this evening to B Marshall this evening whose answer in a few Days will decide the point. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 24, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 24th of 12th M / Both meetings were seasons of some favour to me – In the Morning Father Rodman & in the Afternoon Hannah Dennis bore good testimonies.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 28, Thursday: Franz Schubert's song Die junge Nonne D.828 to words of Craigher was performed publicly for the initial time, in the Musikverein, Vienna.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 28th of 12 M / This day our Moy [Monthly] Meeting is held at Portsmouth the day is extemely cold, & being in expectation of a letter from NYork which will be necessary for me to attend to, & with all my feelings not very active – I omitted going to attend it. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

December 30, Saturday: Per the journal of Albert Gallatin's son James as recorded in THE DIARY OF JAMES GALLATIN:

Rumours of a change in the Cabinet, but nothing definite The King comes to Buckingham House in a few days. There is a report that Lord Liverpool is ill – not confirmed.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 30 of 12th M / This day I am 45 Years of Age – Even if my life should be extended to very old age – I have lived considerably over half my days. – I feel the advance of years already, & it is probably I shall very sensibly realize it soon, in a more full degree. – I desire to be thankful for the past, & for the future place my just confidence in HIM who has been with me from my childhood & borne with me in Great loving kindness & tender mercy. – & kindly provided for me far beyond my deserts -this I know right well –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 31, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 31st of 12 M / Our Meetings were both well attended considerig it was a very Stormy day – Silent in the morning & in the Afternoon Father had a Short pertinent testimony, to my feelings – With this page I take my leave of the Year

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

“NARRATIVE HISTORY” IS FABULATION, HISTORY IS CHRONOLOGY

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1827

January 1, Monday: A contract was signed by Gioachino Rossini making him Premier Compositeur du Roi and Inspecteur General du Chant en France, honorary positions. This would allow him to give up his duties at the Theatre-Italien and spend more time composing for the Opera.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal about Yearly Meeting School in Providence, Rhode Island:

2nd day 1st of 1st M 1827 / This day in the Stage our dear Son John returned from the Yearly Meeting School at Providence where he has been about seventeen [smudged] 17 Months — We were heartily glad to see him. — but the rejoicing is mingled with fear & anxiety about his future welfare as his return is for a preparation for another perhaps longer separation. — his present prospect is to go to Hudson to enter a Factory there belonging to Benj Marshall to learn the Art of Making Calico & other cotton goods. —

We enter the New year & I feel under solemn impressions, which perhaps may as well be felt as expressed. —³⁴⁵

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

345. Stephen Wanton Gould Diary, 1823-1829: The Gould family papers are stored under control number 2033 at the Division of Rare and Manuscript Collections of Cornell University Library, Box 8 Folder 13: October 2, 1823-March 6, 1829; also on microfilm, see Series 7

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 January 4, Thursday: Thomas Say and Lucy Way Sistare³⁴⁶ secretly married in a civil ceremony at the courthouse of Mt. Vernon, Indiana. The only persons in attendance were witnesses Virginia Dupalais and Louisa Neef.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 4th of 1st M / Our meeting was about as large as usual Father Rodman appeared in a good & I thought well authorized testimony - after which T Carr said a few words - & then Father Rodman said a few words again -
It was a season of mixture of feelings. - The forepart of it unusually good & the latter part of no small trial. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 7, Sunday: Olivo e Pasquale, a melodramma by Gaetano Donizetti to words of Ferretti after Sografi, was performed for the initial time, in the Teatro Valle, Rome. The audience response was frigid.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 7th of 1st M / Our Morning Meeting was a good solid time & I thought the power of Truth was unusually felt to arise among us. - Father Rodman Hannah Dennis & D Buffum in succession were engaged in testimonys. - & H Dennis concluded in supplication. -
In the afternoon a short communication from Jonathon Dennis. -
After Meeting I went with my H, Sister Ruth, John & Richard With D Buffum Jr to his house took tea & Spent the evening. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 11, Thursday: An schwager Kronos D.369, a song by Franz Schubert to words of Johann Wolfgang von Goethe, was performed for the initial time, in the Musikvereinsaal, Vienna.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 11th of 1st M 1827 / This day was our Select Meeting,

346. Lucy had been born on November 28, 1800 in New London, Connecticut. Neither her father was Joseph Sistare (1774-1829) nor her mother Nancy Way Sistare (1775-1829) were Quakers. She was an artist and illustrator of specimens (such as in Say's AMERICAN CONCHOLOGY) who had been with him on the "Boatload of Knowledge" keelbarge to the New Harmony commune in the previous year. Later she would become the 1st female member of the Academy of Natural Sciences of Philadelphia. She would die of pneumonia on November 15, 1886 in Lexington, Massachusetts and be buried in New York City (her sister lived on Staten Island).

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

held as usual at the close of the public Meeting. – It was a season of some Searching, & I trust proffit. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 13, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 13th of 1 M / This PM John returned from Fall River where he went to get information at a Factory there. – while there he had an invitation to ride with a Friend of his to Providence which he did & had another opportunity of seeing his friends at the School, who all seem'd rejoiced to see him he passed one night & part of two days at the Insitution much to his satisfaction. – on his way home stoped at Portsmouth to visit his grandmother Gould Uncle & Aunt Stanton & too leave of them–

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 14, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 14th of 1 M / Our meetings were uncommonly solid good ones In the morning Father Rodman & in the Afternoon Hannah Dennis preached. – John took tea at his Uncle Johns & we at home.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 27, Saturday: Franz Schubert was informed that he had failed to secure the post of Vice-Hofkapellmeister to the Imperial Court Chapel.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 27th of 1st M 1827 / This morning with our dear Son John Stanton Gould I set out for Providence in the Stage he on his way to Hudson in the State of N York & I to Quarterly Meeting, he being desirous I might accompany him thus far tho' three days sooner than I should have left to attend the Meeting. – We arrived in Providence early in the Afternoon & first called at Almy & Browns Store, where we found our frd Wm Almy, who was interested in Johns leaving us, & had much parting council to him, with which I was much gratified. – We then went to the School where John found his old associates glad to see him. – & he very glad to see & be with them a little while before he went on his journey. – First day mornng I went into Providence to attend Meeting & left John with his friends, –returned with Moses Brown to dine & then with him to attend the School Meeting in the Afternoon – I lodged with John at the School House & rose early on 2nd day [Monday] Morning & went into Providence before Day & at 5 OClock he started in the Stage sleigh for Hartford. – he was not very cheerful, but sober & Serious, without depression Here I committed him to the care & protection of his heavenly parent, who I fervantly desire may preserve him from

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

every hurtful thing. – I walked about the Streets of Providence till sunrise, when I went to Joa[Jonathon] Anthonys to breakfast, & spent the remainder of the day in town & lodged at the School House. –

3rd day attended the Sub-committee & lodged at Moses Browns. –

4th day attended Select Quarterly Meeting & meeting for Sufferings. – lodged at M Browns

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 1, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day Attended the Quarterly Meeting & an adjournment of the Meeting for Sufferings

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 2, Friday: Ludwig van Beethoven underwent a 3d operation to remove excess abdominal fluid.

A cantata for the birthday of the Duke of Saxe-Weimar by Johann Nepomuk Hummel was performed for the initial time.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day Attended the School committee & went into Town & lodged at Wm Jenkins. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 3, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day came home in the Stage. – My visit to Providence has been an unusual time of favour to me, & the visit will be memorable, as a time of parting with our dear John at the [Quaker school]. – Our meetings were seasons of life, & the good cause promoted according to our ability – I know of no circumstance to cause pain, but on the contrary feel encouraged to hope our Society in these parts is improving.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 4, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 4th of 2nd M / Our Morning Meeting was a time of favour Father Rodman, D Buffum & H Dennis were very lively in testimony. – In the Afternoon Father again had a small offering – Joseph Tillinghast from New Bedford was there & in the eveng he called to see us & we with him called at Father Rodmans & Br John

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Rodmans.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 8, Thursday: Franz Schubert's Lied des gefangenen Jagers D.843 to words of Scott translated by Storck was performed for the initial time, in the Musikvereinsaal, Vienna.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 8 of 2 M / Good solid Meeting. - Father Rodman bore a short testimony. - We begin to feel anxious to hear from John.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 11, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 11th of 2 M / In the morning Father Rodman & Hannah Dennis in testimony & the former in supplication. - Silent in the Afternoon. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 12, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 12th of 2 M / This evening we recd our first letter from John since his arrival in Hudson, which was very satisfactory & encouraging as he appeared to have got there safe without accident, or much suffering, except one day from cold. -found there, all things to answer his expectations as near as he could ascertain on short acquaintance -. - This letter is a great relief to our minds as we had begun to feel very anxious to hear how he had got along. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 15, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 15 of 2 M / Our Meeting was a solid good one to me. - Father Rodman was engaged in testimony - In the last which was Preparative Meeting we had no buisness. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 18, Sunday: Dr. Peter Goodnow of Acton became a merchant in Boston.

Dr. Peter Goodnow was from Bolton, commenced practice in Acton, 12th of October, 1812, left 18th of February, 1827, and is now [1835] a merchant in Boston.³⁴⁷

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1st day 18th of 2 M / Our mornng meeting was a season of exercise on acct of an offering in the ministry & also of Prayer. – In the afternoon a good meeting, the same friend was engaged in a few words acceptably. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 22, Thursday: The Reverend John Barrett of Concord was ordained at Mesopotamia in Trumbell County, Ohio.

JOHN BARRETT, son of John Barrett, Jr., was born September 30, 1781, and graduated at Williams College in 1810. After obtaining a theological education he was employed by the Evangelical Society, and went to Ohio. He was ordained at Mesopotamia, Trumbell County, Ohio, February 22, 1827.³⁴⁸

ALL CONCORD COLLEGE GRADS

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 22nd of 2nd M 1827 / This morning our Frd D Buffum came in to town & took me in his carriage to Portsmouth to attend the Moy [Monthly] Meeting – The first Meeting was a solid favourd time our above mentioned friend was engaged in a lively public testimony "Mind your calling brethren." he mentioned the necessity of minding the calling whereunto we have been called, that our society was raised up, he had no doubt for singular benefit to it in many particulars. – Our testimony against War, had no doubt been the means of preventing much bloodshed in the World & our exorcions on behalf of injured Africa had also done much good, & well as a difusion of genuine christian principles, & of a purer Kind than had been generally practiced previous to the institution of Society. – That our worthy predecessors had suffered much in establishing those principles, & it behoved us to mind our calling & maintain the Warfare – This is but a feeble outline of his offering & retains but very little of the life & spirit in which it was delivered. – but for future remembrance I have thought best to insert the forgoing. –

We had but little buisness, but sat in harmony – We dined at Richd Mitchells & came home finding the travelling worse than when going, which we had previously anticipated as very bad, but proved better than we expected. –

Aunt Stanton was at Meeting but I could not go home with her. –

347. Lemuel Shattuck's 1835 A HISTORY OF THE TOWN OF CONCORD;... Boston MA: Russell, Odiorne, and Company; Concord MA: John Stacy, 1835
(On or about November 11, 1837 Henry David Thoreau would indicate a familiarity with the contents of at least pages 2-3 and 6-9 of this historical study. On July 16, 1859 he would correct a date mistake buried in the body of the text.)
348. Lemuel Shattuck's 1835 A HISTORY OF THE TOWN OF CONCORD;... Boston MA: Russell, Odiorne, and Company; Concord MA: John Stacy, 1835
(On or about November 11, 1837 Henry David Thoreau would indicate a familiarity with the contents of at least pages 2-3 and 6-9 of this historical study. On July 16, 1859 he would correct a date mistake buried in the body of the text.)

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

a circumstance I regretted not having seen my Mother whi is at her house in about two Months. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 25, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 25 of 2 M / A Short testimony from Father Rodman in the morning & in the Afternoon Abigail Robinson was favourd in a short testimony, which to my understanding came in the quiet Stream of the Gospel. – In the evening I went over to Abigail Robinsons, she read to me Several letters recd from her Sister Mary Morton, by which it appears the troubles among friends are lessening there & a prospect of the Truths gaining the Assendency over the heads of gainsayers. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 1, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 3th M 1st 1827 / Silent but solid good meeting, for which I desire to be thankful, to the Giver of all good. – I am the more thankful for this favour, it being a time of depression with me in various ways. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 4, Sunday: Charles John Andersson (Karl Johan Andersson) was born in Värmland in Sweden, an illegitimate child of the English bear hunter Llewellyn Lloyd and a Swedish servant. He would grow up in Sweden with his father.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 4th of 3rd M / Our Morning Meeting was a very solid one, D Buffums preaching was good & I dont know what to say of the rest, but it certainly did not seem to me whooly clear of mixture. – In the Afternoon again we had a pretty good meeting. – I must suspend my judgement of what was offered. – Avis Mumford & Avis C Howland set the evening with us. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 8, Thursday: A day after arriving in Vienna on a concert tour, Johann Nepomuk Hummel visited the home of his close friend Ludwig van Beethoven and found him on his deathbed.

Two works by Franz Schubert were performed for the initial time, in the Musikvereinsaal, Vienna: Gott in der Natur D.757, a vocal quartet to words of von Kleist, and Normans Gesang D.846, a song to words of Scott translated by Storck.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

5th day 8th of 3 M / Silent but quiet [quite?] solid meeting –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 11, Sunday: The introduction of slaves into Texas was prohibited. Hereditary and race slavery was rejected. (Clearly, the good white people of Texas were going to need to revolt against Mexico and link up with the United States of America!)

Constitution of the State of Coahuila and Texas. Preliminary Provisions: –

Art. 13. "From and after the promulgation of the constitution in the capital of each district, no one shall be born a slave in the state, and after six months the introduction of slaves under any pretext shall not be permitted." LAWS AND DECREES OF COAHUILA AND TEXAS (Houston, 1839), page 314.

INTERNATIONAL SLAVE TRADE

Maria Szymanowska performed at the City Theater in Riga on her way to St. Petersburg.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 11th 3 M / Both Meeting was solid good ones. – The minds of the People are much affected & their countenances sad on acct of a poor Black Woman who last evening was found guilty of murder & sentenced to death on the 18th of 5 M next

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 15, Thursday: The Rochester, New York High School opened.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 15 of 3 M / Silent & pretty good meeting – the gathering was about as large as usual. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 18, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 18th of 3 M / A Short good testimony from Father Rodman in the forenoon. – Silent in the Afternoon – good meetings to me – Some trials in the course of the week, but favoured with quiet, & some strength to persue the course I believe best. – I desire to be found in the discharge of every duty & desire preeminently to be a good man.
Between Meetings recd a letter from B Marshall accompanying a parcell from Thos Thompson containing a letter from him & the Annual Monotor for the present Year.
Benjamins letter mentions that John was well at Hudson on the 12th inst*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 March 22, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 22nd of 3rd M / Silent but good meetings – In the last (Preparative) Nathan Bowen renewed his request for membership, which was forwarded to the Moy [Monthly] Meeting for their disposal

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 March 25, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 25th of 3rd M 1827 / Silent solid Meeting in the Mornng In the Afternoon a few words spoken. – Set part of the evening with A Robinson

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 March 28, Wednesday: The Reverend Waldo Emerson sailed from St. Augustine in Florida for Charleston.

That night, in New Bedford, Nathan Johnson and four other named men of color, plus fully 20 other persons whose names we do not have, were raiding a dwelling. Shattering the windows and breaking in the door with clubs and stones, they assaulted one John Howard.³⁴⁹ We are unable to determine from the Taunton court records what had provoked this action as Johnson and all other defendants would be very promptly and summarily found not guilty and released, but according to the diary of New Bedford merchant Samuel Rodman, Jr., this had been “an alleged riot occasioned by a visit of a coloured man from New York or farther south whose object it was to get information of runaway slaves.”

(It was during this year that a New Bedford High School was being organized!)

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 28th of 3 M / By Joseph Tillinghast we rec'd this PM a very comfortable letter from John – Joseph visited him at his home there & went to the Factory where he works & gave us a good account of him – he is the first person that we have seen, who has seen John since he left us – JT set the eveng with us. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

349. This is the man of color who had, in 1822, applied for acceptance as a Quaker, and had been stonewalled by the white Quakers of the New Bedford MA meeting.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 29, Thursday: There were so many citizens around the Schwarzspanierhaus in Vienna, where the body of Ludwig van Beethoven lay in state attended by nine priests –some 15,000-20,000 in total– that soldiers were called in to provide crowd control. School had been canceled for the day and among the spectators were many children. After a chorale had been sung, at 3:00PM, the procession to the church began. Johann Nepomuk Hummel, Carl Czerny, and Franz Schubert were among the mourners. In the procession was a military band, playing an arrangement of Beethoven's funeral march from the Piano Sonata op.26. It took the procession an hour and a half to get to the Trinity Church of the Minorities despite the fact that this destination was little more than a block away. From the church a carriage conveyed the coffin to Währing Cemetery, where a funeral oration by Franz Grillparzer was read by Heinrich Anschutz.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 29th of 3 M / Our Moy [Monthly] Meeting held in Town which was a time of favour - Abigail Robinson twice engaged in testimony in the first Meeting - In the last there were two requests for Membership, but there was also something on the other hand to ballance it. - Isaac Almy & wife dined with us. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 1, Sunday: According to BIRTHS, MARRIAGES AND DEATHS OF THE TOWN OF CONCORD, MASSACHUSETTS (Groton, 1894), Ira Brown of Concord & Frances Eaton of Groton filed an intention to marry.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 1st of 4 M / Short testimonies Morning & Afternoon from Father Rodman - & pretty good Meetings - Francis Carr took tea & set the eveng with us

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 5, Thursday: There was a 2d memorial service for Ludwig van Beethoven, in St. Charles' Church of Vienna, at which the Requiem of Luigi Cherubini was performed.

Vincenzo Bellini departed from Naples, for Milan and the Teatro alla Scala.

Adam and Franz Liszt departed from Paris, for another trip to Britain.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 5th of 4 M / A Good solid Meeting - & my mind favord with the feeling of life, for which I feel thankful -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 8, Sunday: Richard Geyer (Wagner) was confirmed in the Kreuzkirche, Dresden.

Adam Liszt and Franz Liszt arrived in London.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1st day 8th of 4 M / Our meeting this morning was larger than usual & was a solid favourd opportunity - Silent & favourd in the Afternoon - It is no small consolation to my feelings to be able to record a favourd season, as my feelings have been low for a long time - but it has of late seemed like a renewal of favour with me & I hope to be watchful & faithful - Sister Ruth dined with us & we took tea at Father Rodmans & spent the evening. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 12, Thursday: Giacomo Meyerbeer and Eugene Scribe submitted the libretto to Robert le diable to the French censors. It would take four days to get past them.

Vincenzo Bellini arrived in Milan from Naples with a contract to produce an opera.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 12th of 4th M 1827 / To day was our Select Meeting which was a time of mental searching - The public meeting preceeding it was silent - After the Queries were Answered, Our Aged friend David Buffum disclosed a prospect he had of attending the Approaching Yearly Meeting at New York, which was fully united with & he encouraged to lay it before the Moy [Monthly] Meeting. -having felt my mind united in the concern, I gave in my name to accompany him, which was also approved. - It looks like no small undertaking in many respects, & indeed when looking at the subject, I have felt no small discouragement about going, but leave it, in hopes of best direction & best support -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 13: Hugh Clapperton died near Sokoto in Africa, of dysentery, without having been allowed to get any farther into the interior (his servant Richard Lemon Lander would carry out his journal, for later publication).

In France, a "National Guard," a kind of citizen militia, had been formed in Paris by the Committee of Public Safety during July 1789. Command of this force had been offered to Napoleon Bonaparte in 1796 but had been declined. The body had been reorganized in 1805, in 1813, and in 1814, and at this point was disbanded by King Charles X (it would be reconstituted under the Constitution of 1830 and the defection of this body would be one of the principal causes of the overthrow of King Louis Philippe in 1848).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 13 of 4 M / I might have added to yesterdays insertion that in the eveng we had an unexpected call from Isaac Bassett Jr & Micajah Pratt of Lynn who are detained here in the Steam Boat for NYork. The Fog & Wind preventing her from going out. - By the Steam Boat this morning from New York frd Isaac returned & brought us an argreeable letter from Benjamin Marshall, containing renewed proofs of his kind attention to John at

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Hudson —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 15, Easter Sunday: Per the journal of Albert Gallatin's son James as recorded in THE DIARY OF JAMES GALLATIN:

We only stopped one night at Brighton. Rooms had been prepared for us at a house close to the Pavilion, which the King keeps for his guests. We were received by his Majesty, who was lying on a divan — he could hardly hold himself up. Lady Conyngham was present at first, but at a nod from the King, retired. She looks as if she had something of a temper. The King spoke on several political subjects, and for a wonder with great lucidity. He said suddenly, "Canning is a damned old woman." We were bid to sup with the Royal circle. I could see that father could hardly dissemble his disgust. The conversation was boisterous and indecent. Cards after supper, and on a plea of being very fatigued father begged leave to retire. He and I went for a walk by the sea. The only remark he made was, "And that is a King." We left in the morning without seeing His Majesty.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 15th of 4 N / Our Morning Meeting was pretty well attended & was a solid favourd meeting to me. — D Buffum deliverd a very solemn testimony on the Subject of divine Worship & while he was speaking a gust of thunder & lightening & rain came up which with his slow & solemn pronounciation & the grave appearance of his person. — added an impressive feeling, which I trust will not be forgotten by some present — he dwelt on the text "Woman believe me, the hour cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountain nor yet at Jerusalem worship the Father— But the hour cometh & now is when the true worshipers shall worship the Father in spirit & in truth"—
We were small & silent in the Afternoon*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 19, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 19th of 4th M 1827 / Our Meeting was rather larger than usual particularly on the womens side. — In the preparative Meetg we had no buisness to report to the Moy [Monthly] Meeting, excepting the Answers to all the Queries. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

April 22, Sunday: String Quartet op.130 by Ludwig van Beethoven was performed for the initial time with its new ending, in Vienna.

Nachtgesang im Walde D.913 for male vocal quartet and four horns by Franz Schubert was performed for the initial time, in the Musikvereinsaal, Vienna.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 22nd of 4th M / Meetings both silent - the forenoon was larger - both solid opportunities. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 26, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 26th of 4th M / Yesterday Afternoon went to Portsmouth to visit Nathan Dennis on a committee from the Moy [Monthly] Meeting - found him very unwilling to give us a solid opportunity with him - but he at length consented, & we were remarkably favoured to reach the witness for Truth in his heart, but I fear not yet effectually. - Lodged at Uncle Stantons & found my dear Mother very feeble, & very glad to see me. - Today went to Meeting, it being our Moy [Monthly] Meeting at Portsmouth - It was a favoured time Mary Hicks, A Sherman, H Dennis & R Freeborn were engaged in testimony. - I Wilthan Hall was recd into membership - Our frd David Buffum disclosed a prospect he has had for some Months of attending the approaching Yearly Meeting at New York, which as feelingly united with & a copy of a Minute granted him for the purpose & also one to me to accompany him - the prospect has been weightily on my mind for some time & my desire very fervently is to do no hurt My H went out this Morning with her Br David we dined at Uncle Peters - he brought me as far as G Hathaways in his waggon & I walked the rest of the Distance home. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

April 29, Sunday: King Charles X of France dissolved the National Guard.

Die Hochzeit des Camacho, a singspiel by Felix Mendelssohn to words of Klingemann after Cervantes, was performed for the initial time, in the Royal Theater, Berlin. Although the press reaction was encouraging, the work was not a success and the composer left the theater before the final curtain. He would not be authoring any more operas.

Georg Simon Ohm, a physics and mathematics teacher in Cologne, dated the foreword to his book DIE GALVANISCHE KETTE MATHEMATISCH BEARBEITET. In it he describes his discovery that the amount of electricity transmitted through a conductor was directly proportional to the potential difference, and inversely proportional to the resistance. This would hereafter be known as "Ohm's Law" and would be the beginning of understanding of electrical resistance.

Maria Szymanowska took part in a performance at the palace of Countess Daria A. Dierzhavina in St. Petersburg.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 29th of 4 M / Silent Meetings & small in consequence of Much rain Yesterday David Gould returned from the Y Meeting School to refit for the Summer - we think him much improved by his opportunity at the School both in person & mind. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 30, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 30th of 4 M / Recd this morning a very pleasant letter from Sister Eliza & one this Afternoon from John at Hudson - Johns was truly consoling for which I desire to be humbly thankful both on his & our own acct. - this is our 4th letter from him. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

HDTWHAT?INDEXFRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

May 1, Tuesday: A negrero flying the US flag (!), the Ceylon, master J. West, on its one and only known Middle Passage, out of Costa da Mina sailing on March 24, 1827, arrived at Bahia, Brazil.

We will use this painting to illustrate the ship, despite the fact that the vessel in the painting is flying the Spanish colores de sangre y oro rather than the red, white, and blue of our Stars and Stripes:

THE MIDDLE PASSAGE

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 1st of 5th M 1827 / In company with a number of Friends
We went on board the Greenwich Packet (Howland Greene) expecting to sail immediately, but found the Wind so high that we concluded it unsafe to venture. - so we all came on shore & are now waiting for a more favourable time, which we hope will be tomorrow Morning in season to get there to the Select Meeting Uncle Peter Lawton has passed the day & will lodge with us. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

May 2, Wednesday: The Allgemeine Musikalische Zeitung published a report that Johann Nepomuk Hummel would be succeeding Carl Maria von Weber as Kapellmeister in Dresden. The report would get spread around but had been in error.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 2nd of 5th M / It is now after dinner & yet at home - we expect to go to Wickford this Afternoon - I feel exceedingly tried at missing the Select Meeting & Meeting for Sufferings, as well as the Trustees Meeting all of which are held today. - The Greenwich Boat not going, the Women who had thought of going to Ql [Quarterly] Meeting & gave over - so Peter Lawton David Rodman his son Caleb & myself set out for Wickford at 4 OC this Afternoon, arrived there a little after sunset & got a man to carry us in a couple of Chaises & reached Greenwich by 9 OC in the evening. - We lodged at Updikes & next mornng I took breakfast at Abigail Prouds - Our meeting was large. Wm Almy engaged in public labours in sound good testimony. - then Arnold Buffum in a few words, - then Lydia Breed in supplication, & at the close of the Meeting a short testimony from Hannah Robinson. The Meeting was solemn & good. - In the Meeting for buisness we got along well. there was but little buisness to occupy our time but excellent caution & counsel was droped by a number of Friends on the Answers to the Queries. - Dined at A Prouds & then went on towards Providence with John Wilbour & got to Wm Almys in Cranston by sunset. - the eveng passed in pleasant conversation at Williams. - 6th day morning after Breakfast rode with J Wibour to the School House in Providence here I met our frd D Buffum who came up from Newport yesterday to join with us in the labours of the day - which lasted from 10 OC in the Morning till 10 OC at night, including the sitting of the Trustees. - We lodged at M Browns & today ar 12 OC came homeward in the Steam Boat. - During the sittings of the committee and also of the Trustees my mind labourd under much exercise, in the various concerns that came before us. - Some things did not result as would have left the most pleasant savour, but I desire to leave it, & in all things do the best I can. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 6, Sunday: A Turkish (mostly Albanian) force defeated the final Greek army in the field at Phalerum (Palaion Faliron) near Athens, forcing the Greek government to fall and resulting in general chaos.

Im Freien D.880, a song by Franz Schubert to words of Seidl, was performed for the initial time, in the Festsaal of Vienna University.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 6th of 5th M 1827 / In the mornng Meeting D Buffum was engaged in a lively solid testimony - the Meeting was a solid good time. - Silent in the Afternoon.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

May 10, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 10th of 5 M / Silent solid Meeting.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 17, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 17 of 5 M / Silent good meeting. - The prospect of NYork is weighty. My desires is for preservation, & an increase in divine help. - how I need this! -
Went this evening to A Robinsons who read a letter from her sister [Mary] Morton giving an acct of the conduct of the Ranters in Philadelphia, which was deplorable indeed -
It is an Awful time in our society, & what the final result well be I am unable to foresee. There is however a little faith remaining, that tho' reproach has fallen on our heritage in some places, that it well be supported & survive the severe tempest that assails it*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 20, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 20 of 5 M / A large solid Meeting in the forenoon, in which D Buffum, Father Rodman & Hanah Dennis bore lively testimonies - In the Afternoon H Dennis was engaged in a lively testimony & a pretty solid Meeting -
I went home with Jonathon Dennis to Took tea at his House. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 22, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 22nd of 5 M / This Afternoon with our friend David Buffum, I went on Board the Steam Boat Washington for N York - & After a very rough passage we arrived there the next Morning about 9 OClock we were Kindly recd by our friends. - many of them expressing much satisfaction at seeing us. -We went to attend the approaching yearly Meeting - & it was my intention to have kept a Journal of every days proceeding, but find my time so much engaged, obliged to rise early & lay down late that I find it quite out of my power. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 6, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

Now this 6th day of the 6th M having this mornng reached home feel under the necessity to insert that we spent fourteen days in the City, & saw as much confusion both in the outward & inward as I ever saw any where - tho' our Yearly Meeting was in some degree favourd. - it was nevertheless a season of great affliction, oppression & depression were our daily experience. - Such is the prevalence of unsound principles, & a ranterous spirit among many of the Members there, that I know not to what extent it will run. - it seems as if violence is marked in all their movements & the pure seed of the kingdom is constantly under oppression among them. - I thought we had seen trouble in our own Yearly Meeting - but it was nothing compared with what the faithful brothers & sisters have to undergo there. - Thomas Howland of East Greenwich was also there, & we laboured in the Ability afforded & believe our presence was in some degree useful - We saw many dear friends who we encouraged to hold on their way, & do all they could to sustain the Ark & the testimony. -

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

I also had the satisfaction of being in company with Our dear & well beloved son John Stanton Gould, who attended the latter part of the Yearly Meeting & I was comforted to find he is yet in the good old way. - & even more plain in appearance than when he left us -

I also saw many friends whose countenances were pleasant that I had known before, as Henry Hull, Isaac Thorn Jr & His wife Anne, Caleb Macomber, Richd Mott & many others not forgetting Elizabeth Robson

I staid at Benj Marshalls where I formed an acquaintnace with Jos Walker & Jacob Harvey who are his inmates & were very kind & obliging. - on 2nd day [Monday, June 4th] last our dear friends Isaac & Anne Braithwaite arrived in the city -I went immediately to see them & was comforted in meeting them, - The next day I called again on them & found they were expected here to attend our Y Meeting - We came on Board the Boat with friends at 3 OC & reached home the next morning & am glad to find myself in the Quiet. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 7, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 7th of 6th M 1827 / Our Meeting was solid quiet & silent - & my mind was rejoicing to be at home with my friends again. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 8, Friday: Manuel Francisco de Barros de Sousa da Mesquita de Macedo Leitao e Carvalhosa, visconde de Santarem replaced Francisco Alexandro Lobo, Bisop de Viseu as Secretary of State (prime minister) of Portugal.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 8th of 6 M / This forenoon Arrived in the Steam Boat from NYork Our Friends Thomas Shillitoe, George & Ann Jones Isaac & Anna Braithwaite of England - Saml Parsons & his wife of Long Island Phila Griffin of Mamaranock with several others

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*to attend our Y Meeting
Thoms Shillitow came & took lodging with us. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 9, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 9th of 6 M / We are going this morning to Select Meeting at Portsmouth - We feel under some discouragement about the Prospect of Y Meeting as my wife is quite unwell & some disappointed about help. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 10, Sunday: Per the journal of Albert Gallatin's son James as recorded in THE DIARY OF JAMES GALLATIN:

*Matters are going on very well, and father has great hopes of a speedy settlement. A splendid banquet at the Duke of Wellington's last night. A wonderful display of gold plate.
A rout at Lady Lansdowne's. It took me exactly one hour to get from the top to the bottom of the stairs. I was wedged between Charles Greville and an immensely fat Dowager. We all three moved step by step together - and this is called pleasure. Dinner at Devonshire House to-night. The Court is at Buckingham House, but no entertaining.*

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 10 of 6 M / Today commenced our large public Yearly Meeting - In the morning Our friend Anna Braithwaite was engaged in a living & powerful gospel testimony followed by a short but good one by Elizabeth Coggeshall
The Meeting concluded under a most solemn covering after a prayer by Anna Braithwaite. -
In the Afternoon, the Meeting was very large & Anna again concerned in a living gospel testimony then Thos Shillitoe made an addition at three different standings & our friends Wm Almy concluded [in a] solemn reverend Supplication - perhaps these meeting were rarely ever excelled for solemn quiet. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 11, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day Soon after the Meeting gathered, a solemn covering spread over it & Thomas Shillitoe & Geo Jones bore short but sweet testimonies, & the Meeting was moved to buisness by D Buffum - the usual course of buisness was taken up & proceeded in with unusual solemnity. - Afternoon at 4 OC the meeting again met under the same feeling of sweetness, but before we proceeded far in the buisness - we recd a visit from our dear Sister Anna Braithwaite - on standing

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

up she gave us a short acct of the Motives of her returning to her native land last Year & her concern continuing, she returned to accomplish the remaining part of her visit to this country - from which she went on & preached the Gospel in a very lively & striking manner - the rest of the Meeting was conducted with much solemnity & concluded under the same covering. -

[Gould left a space of two lines.]

It was my intention as in times past to have kept a regular Diary of the proceedings of the Yearly Meeting but of all the Yearly Meetings I have ever attended, I have never been so fully occupied. I have rose early, generally by 5 OC in the Morning & not been able to get to bed much before 12 OC at night The constant round of company - & the buisness of the Meeting, together with some other concerns which I had unavoidably to attend too, was about as much as I was able to get thro' with - & no time was left for journalizing. - The Meeting held till 5th day Afternoon, which is longer than I ever remember of its sitting before - all of them were Seasons of favour, & the Gospel labours of our dear friends Thomas Shillitoe, George & Ann Jones & Anna Braithwaite with others of our own & from other Yearly Meetings were truly edifying, strengthening & encouraging - The buisness was conducted in great unanimity & love, & I trust few there were who attened it but will say. - They were instructed by the opportunities

The School committee met on 6th day Mornng which detained many friends till Afternoon - & our Greenwich friends were detained till after dinner today - which is 7th of the Week & 16th of the Month. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 17, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 17th of 6 M / This Morng accompanied our friends Isaac & Anna Braithwaite to Portsmouth to attend Meeting there which was large & favourd - Anna being enabled to declare the Word in a living & powerful manner - We dined at Asa Shermans where she had a sitting with the family. After which we went to Uncle Stantons & took tea - then returned to Newport. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 18, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 18 of 6 M / Our friend Anna Braithwaite had an appointed Meeting this Afternoon, to which the Inhabitants of the Town were invited & many attended, particularly women. - She was favourd to be remarkably clear & powerful in her ministry, & the Audience very attentive, & I believe Truth reigned over the assembly & the people well satisfied & Friends comforted to feel

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

the predominance of live & Truth over all –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 19, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 19 of 6 M / This Morn'g at 8 OC took the Steam Boat Babcock with our friends Isaac & Anna Braithwaite & arrived in Providence at 12 OC - we went to Wm Jenkins where I had an opportunity of seeing my dear friends, particularly Moses Brown -at 2 OC - I came on board the Steam Boat again & was home before Sunset.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 20, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 20 of 6th M 1827 / Been very buisy all day in attending to my old friend & acquaintance Moses Lopez who has been here on a visit to his old friends in Newport & departed this Afternoon in the Steam Boat for his home in NYork.-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 21, Thursday: In a general revision of the criminal code, “benefit of clergy” was abolished in England (it would be abolished as well in Ireland, on July 15, 1828). A bit of background: The exemption of the clergy from secular jurisdiction was one of the privileges claimed by the Roman Catholic church. Beginning with the Norman Conquest, there was no way that any secular authority could exercise discipline over even those of the lowliest ecclesiastical rank. Eventually the practice of excusing officials of the church from punishment even for crimes such as robbery and homicide came to be extended not only to the clergy, but also to clerks and all members of the laity who could read. On the introduction of this custom, the claim was not allowed unless the prisoner appeared in his clerical habit and tonsure, but as the ability to read became the test, this requirement as to attire began to be disregarded. The accused was merely required to read, before the judge, from a psalter or some other book. In 1489 the use of this exemption came to be allowed only once by a person not in orders. In 1512 an exemption to clergy was no longer allowed for murderers and felons. In 1536 the plea of benefit of clergy was abolished in cases of treason. In 1706 the practice of requiring the prisoner to read from a book was discontinued.

In this general revision of the criminal code, the “black act,” so called, passed in 1722, was repealed. This law had been an attempt to put an end to the wanton destruction of deer, game, and plantations, by persons called “blacks” because they blackened their faces and adopted attire that would enable them to avoid detection at night. Such an offense had been punished as a felony with the accused being put to death without benefit of clergy.

Also, in this revision of the criminal code, the stealing of oysters, or oyster brood, from their beds along the saltwater coast, such as by fishing vessels carrying dredges, came to be classified as larceny (British oysters had been prized since the days of the Roman presence, with Juvenal, in his 4th satire, commemorating above all those that were dredged at Richborough in Kent).

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

As of this year in England, a distinction would no longer be made between petty theft not above twelve pence in value, the penalty for which had been whipping and imprisonment, and grand theft, which until 1717 had been punished by hanging. In the future the punishment in both cases was to be transportation to a penal colony.

A person breaking or destroying any machine employed in any manufacture in England (which is to say, an active "Luddite") would be liable to transportation for 7 years, or imprisonment for any term not to exceed 2 years (in the case of a male such punishment might also include flogging, either publicly or privately).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 21st of 6 M / Our Meeting was small & silent but to me a pretty good one. -& this Afternoon in particular my mind has been favour'd with some precious feelings - in the remembrance of our late Yearly Meeting & the many good friends we have had the company of I desire to be thankful for past favours & blessings & tho' I may see low times both inwardly & outwardly, may I never loose my confidence in that power which has hitherto wonderfully supported me

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 24, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 24th of 6 M / Silent meetings - Took tea at Father Rodmans. - Our cousins Benjamin Gould & Eliza Gould are here from Albany. They are children of my cousin Thomas Gould dec'd.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 25, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 25 of 6 M / This Afternoon Aunt Stanton came to town & carried my wife out to spend a few Days Benj & Eliza Gould spent the Afternoon at Brother Isaacs & were to be with us tomorrow, but for Hannahs going to Portsmouth. - In the course of the Afternoon Benjamin has been at the shop & I have shown him some of my ancient family writings & other curiosities in my possession. I have also endeavoured to guard his mind against the prevailing new notions that are among friends, & was glad to find an open ear & apparantly an open heart to receive what I said to him on the subject.-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 27, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 27th if 6 M 1827 / This eveng went to Portsmouth & lodged at Uncle Stantons where my wife had been for days previous on a visit. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 June 28, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day We Attended Moy [Monthly] Meeting - In the first meeting Abigail Robinson Hannah Dennis & Abigail Sherman bore testimonies. - & to me it was a sensible precious meeting to me, my mind being expanded in a way I have seldom experienced. - In the last we had one trying case, but I trust all things will work well at last

I returned to the Meeting the copy of a minute which they gave me in the 4th M for the purpose of attending the Yearly Meeting of NYork. - & tho' such is the defective state of things there, I had no endorsement from that meeting to show that we attended, yet I could not restrain from giving a little acct of the State of things among them - we were not without evidence of our company being very acceptable to sound friends a number of whom expressed in Meeting & out their thankfulness at our being with them, & in refference to D Buffum they said it felt to them like the coming of Titus to the brethren formerly. - I returned to Uncle Stantons, dined & staid all night -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 June 29, Friday: Nathan Brooks of Concord was appointed Master in Chancery for Middlesex County.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day Morning Uncle brought me home leaving my wife there to finish her visit. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 July 1, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 1st if 7th M 1827 / In our forenoon Meetings Father Rodman & D Buffum were engaged in short testimonies - & in the Afternoon Father was engaged in a few words. -- Brother John Rodman & his daughter Ann were in Fall River & attended meeting there with Anna Braithwaite, who was much favoured in testimony both [to?] declared the truth & understand the States of the people

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 July 2, Monday: Thomas Cooper gave the speech in which he used the phrase "calculate the value of the union."

In England, the law of debt was amended so that the lowest sum that could be recovered by imprisonment of a debtor would be £20, rather than £15.

In New Hampshire, Londonderry was divided and a town of Derry NH was incorporated in the eastern part.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

July 5, Thursday, New York Emancipation Day: Slavery had been “abolished” at midnight, in the state of New York. Austin Steward gave Rochester’s New York Emancipation Day Speech.

Actually, only those born before 1799 were manumitted — those born between 1799 and 1827 would be required to continue with their slave labor for a few more years. However, since James McCune Smith had at this point attained the age of 14, his lot fell among those freed rather than among those forced to continue under the category of indentured servant.

But the Emancipation Bill had been passed, and the colored people felt it to be a time fit for rejoicing. They met in different places and determined to evince their gratitude by a general celebration. In Rochester they convened in large numbers, and resolved to celebrate the glorious day of freedom at Johnson’s Square, on the fifth day of July. This arrangement was made so as not to interfere with the white population who were everywhere celebrating the day of their independence — “the Glorious Fourth,” — for amid the general and joyous shout of liberty, prejudice had sneeringly raised the finger of scorn at the poor African, whose iron bands were loosed, not only from English oppression, but the more cruel and oppressive power of Slavery.

They met according to previous appointment, Mr. A.H----, having been chosen president, Mr. H.E----, marshal, and Mr. H.D----, reader of the “Act of Emancipation,” and “The Declaration of Independence.” A large audience of both white and colored people assembled, and the day which had been ushered in by the booming cannon, passed by in the joyous realization that we were indeed free men. To the music of the band the large procession marched from the square to the hotel, where ample provision was made for dinner, after listening to the following oration, which I had been requested to deliver.

I must not omit to mention that on the morning of that happy day, a committee of colored men waited upon the Hon. Matthew

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Brown, and in behalf of the citizens of Monroe County, presented their thanks for his noble exertions in the Legislature, in favor of the Act by which thousands were made free men.

Here is how the events of the day would be presented by the Rochester Daily Advertiser:

ABOLITION OF SLAVERY.

The extinction of that curse by the laws of our State, was marked with appropriate rejoicings on the part of the African race in this neighborhood. A procession of considerable length and respectable appearance, preceded by a band of music, moved from Brown's Island through the principal streets to the public square, yesterday forenoon, where a stage and seats were erected, for the speakers and audience. The throne of Grace was addressed by the Rev. Mr. Allen, a colored clergyman. The act declaring all slaves free in this State, on the fourth day of July, 1827, was read, which was succeeded by the reading of the Declaration of Independence and delivery of an oration by Mr. Steward. We have heard but one opinion from several gentlemen who were present, and that was highly complimentary to the composition and delivery of the same.

The exercises were concluded by a short discourse from the Rev. Mr. Allen, and the procession moved off to partake of an entertainment prepared for the occasion. The thing was got up in good order, and passed off remarkably well. The conduct of the emancipated race was exemplary throughout, and if their future enjoyment of freedom be tinged with the prudence that characterised their celebration of its attainment, the country will have no reason to mourn the philanthropy that set them free.

— And here, then, is Austin Steward's New York Emancipation Day Speech in Rochester, at least as he later remembered and chose to make record of it:

The age in which we live is characterised in no ordinary degree, by a certain boldness and rapidity in the march of intellectual and political improvements. Inventions the most surprising; revolutions the most extraordinary, are springing forth, and passing in quick succession before us, — all tending most clearly to the advancement of mankind towards that state of earthly perfection and happiness, from which they are yet so far distant, but of which their nature and that of the world they inhabit, are most certainly capable. It is at all times pleasing and instructive to look backward by the light of history, and forward by the light of analogical reasoning, to behold the gradual advancement of man from barbarism to civilization, from civilization toward the higher perfections of his nature; and to hope — nay, confidently believe, that the time is not far distant when liberty and equal rights being everywhere

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

established, morality and the religion of the gospel everywhere diffused, – man shall no longer lift his hand for the oppression of his fellow man; but all, mutually assisting and assisted, shall move onward throughout the journey of human life, like the peaceful caravan across the burning sands of Arabia. And never, on this glorious anniversary, so often and so deservedly celebrated by millions of free men, but which we are to-day for the first time called to celebrate – never before, has the eye been able to survey the past with so much satisfaction, or the future with hopes and expectations so brilliant and so flattering; it is to us a day of two-fold joy. We are men, though the strong hand of prejudice and oppression is upon us; we can, and we will rejoice in the advancement of the rapidly increasing happiness of mankind, and especially of our own race. We can, and we will rejoice in the growing power and glory of the country we inhabit. Although Almighty God has not permitted us to remain in the land of our forefathers and our own, the glories of national independence, and the sweets of civil and religious liberty, to their full extent; but the strong hand of the spoiler has borne us into a strange land, yet has He of His great goodness given us to behold those best and noblest of his gifts to man, in their fairest and loveliest forms; and not only have we beheld them, but we have already felt much of their benignant influence. Most of us have hitherto enjoyed many, very many of the dearest rights of freemen. Our lives and personal liberties have been held as sacred and inviolable; the rights of property have been extended to us, in this land of freedom; our industry has been, and still is, liberally rewarded; and so long as we live under a free and happy government which denies us not the protection of its laws, why should we fret and vex ourselves because we have had no part in framing them, nor anything to do with their administration. When the fruits of the earth are fully afforded us, we do not wantonly refuse them, nor ungratefully repine because we have done nothing towards the cultivation of the tree which produces them. No, we accept them with lively gratitude; and their sweetness is not embittered by reflecting upon the manner in which they were obtained. It is the dictate of sound wisdom, then, to enjoy without repining, the freedom, privileges, and immunities which wise and equal laws have awarded us – nay, proudly to rejoice and glory in their production, and stand ready at all times to defend them at the hazard of our lives, and of all that is most dear to us. But are we alone shut out and excluded from any share in the administration of government? Are not the clergy, a class of men equally ineligible to office? A class of men almost idolized by their countrymen, ineligible to office! And are we alone excluded from what the world chooses to denominate polite society? And are not a vast majority of the polar race excluded? I know not why, but mankind of every age, nation, and complexion have had lower classes; and, as a distinction, they have chosen to arrange themselves in the grand spectacle of human life, like seats in a theater – rank above rank, with intervals between

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

them. But if any suppose that happiness or contentment is confined to any single class, or that the high or more splendid order possesses any substantial advantage in those respects over their more lowly brethren, they must be wholly ignorant of all rational enjoyment. For what though the more humble orders cannot mingle with the higher on terms of equality. This, if rightly considered, is not a curse but a blessing. Look around you, my friends: what rational enjoyment is not within your reach? Your homes are in the noblest country in the world, and all of that country which your real happiness requires, may at any time be yours. Your industry can purchase it; and its righteous laws will secure you in its possession. But, to what, my friends, do you owe all these blessings? Let not the truth be concealed. You owe them to that curse, that bitter scourge of Africa, whose partial abolishment you are this day convened to celebrate. Slavery has been your curse, but it shall become your rejoicing. Like the people of God in Egypt, you have been afflicted; but like them too, you have been redeemed. You are henceforth free as the mountain winds. Why should we, on this day of congratulation and joy, turn our view upon the origin of African Slavery? Why should we harrow up our minds by dwelling on the deceit, the forcible fraud and treachery that have been so long practised on your hospitable and unsuspecting countrymen? Why speak of fathers torn from the bosom of their families, wives from the embraces of their husbands, children from the protection of their parents; in fine, of all the tender and endearing relations of life dissolved and trampled under foot, by the accursed traffic in human flesh? Why should we remember, in joy and exultation, the thousands of our countrymen who are to-day, in this land of gospel light, this boasted land of civil and religious liberty, writhing under the lash and groaning beneath the grinding weight of Slavery's chain? I ask, Almighty God, are they who do such things thy chosen and favorite people? But, away with such thoughts as these; we will rejoice, though sobs interrupt the songs of our rejoicing, and tears mingle in the cup we pledge to Freedom; our harps though they have long hung neglected upon the willows, shall this day be strung full high to the notes of gladness. On this day, in one member at least of this mighty Republic, the Slavery of our race has ceased forever! No more shall the insolent voice of a master be the main-spring of our actions, the sole guide of our conduct; no more shall their hands labor in degrading and profitless servitude. Their toils will henceforth be voluntary, and be crowned with the never failing reward of industry. Honors and dignities may perhaps never be ours; but wealth, virtue, and happiness are all within the compass of our moderate exertions. And how shall we employ a few moments better than in reflecting upon the means by which these are to be obtained. For what can be more proper and more profitable to one who has just gained an invaluable treasure, than to consider how he may use it to the best possible advantage? And here I need not tell you that a strict observance to all the precepts of the gospel ought to be your first and highest aim; for small will be the value of all that the present world can bestow, if the interests of the world to come are neglected and despised. None of you can be ignorant of what the gospel teaches. Bibles may easily be obtained; nor can there be a greater disgrace, or a more shameful neglect of duty than for a person of mature age, and much more, for any father of a family to be without that most precious of all books – the BIBLE. If, therefore, any of you are destitute of a BIBLE, hasten to procure one. Will any of you say that it can be of no use to you, or that you cannot read it? Look then to that noblest of all remedies for this evil, the Sunday School – that most useful of all institutions. There you may learn without loss of time or money, that of which none should be ignorant – to read.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Let me exhort you with earnestness to give your most sincere attention to this matter. It is of the utmost importance to every one of you. Let your next object be to obtain as soon as may be, a competency of the good things of this world; immense wealth is not necessary for you, and would but diminish your real happiness. Abject poverty is and ought to be regarded as the greatest, most terrible of all possible evils. It should be shunned as a most deadly and damning sin. What then are the means by which so dreadful a calamity may be avoided? I will tell you, my friends, in these simple words – hear and ponder on them; write them upon the tablets of your memory; they are worthy to be inscribed in letters of gold upon every door-post – “industry, prudence, and economy.” Oh! they are words of power to guide you to respectability and happiness. Attend, then, to some of the laws which industry impose, while you have health and strength. Let not the rising sun behold you sleeping or indolently lying upon your beds. Rise ever with the morning light; and, till sun-set, give not an hour to idleness. Say not human nature cannot endure it. It can – it almost requires it. Sober, diligent, and moderate labor does not diminish it, but on the contrary, greatly adds to the health, vigor, and duration of the human frame. Thousands of the human race have died prematurely of disease engendered by indolence and inactivity. Few, very few indeed, have suffered by the too long continuance of bodily exertion. As you give the day to labor, so devote the night to rest; for who that has drunk and reveled all night at a tippling shop, or wandered about in search of impious and stolen pleasures, has not by so doing not only committed a most heinous and damning sin in the sight of Heaven, but rendered himself wholly unfit for the proper discharge of the duties of the coming day. Nor think that industry or true happiness do not go hand in hand; and to him who is engaged in some useful avocation, time flies delightfully and rapidly away. He does not, like the idle and indolent man, number the slow hours with sighs – cursing both himself and them for the tardiness of their flight. Ah, my friends, it is utterly impossible for him who wastes time in idleness, ever to know anything of true happiness. Indolence, poverty, wretchedness, are inseparable

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

companions, – fly them, shun idleness, as from eminent and inevitable destruction. In vain will you labor unless prudence and economy preside over and direct all your exertions. Remember at all times that money even in your own hands, is power; with it you may direct as you will the actions of your pale, proud brethren. Seek after and amass it then, by just and honorable means; and once in your hand never part with it but for a full and fair equivalent; nor let that equivalent be something which you do not want, and for which you cannot obtain more than it cost you. Be watchful and diligent and let your mind be fruitful in devises for the honest advancement of your worldly interest. So shall you continually rise in respectability, in rank and standing in this so late and so long the land of your captivity. Above all things refrain from the excessive use of ardent spirits. There is no evil whose progress is so imperceptible; and at the same time so sure and deadly, as that of intemperance; and by slow degrees it undermines health, wealth, and happiness, till all at length tumble into one dreadful mass of ruin. If God has given you children, he has in so doing imposed upon you a most fearful responsibility; believe me, friends, you will answer to God for every misfortune suffered, and every crime committed by them which right education and example could have taught them to avoid. Teach them reverence and obedience to the laws both of God and man. Teach them sobriety, temperance, justice, and truth. Let their minds be rightly instructed – imbued with kindness and brotherly love, charity, and benevolence. Let them possess at least so much learning as is to be acquired in the common schools of the country. In short, let their welfare be dearer to you than any earthly enjoyment; so shall they be the richest of earthly blessings. My countrymen, let us henceforth remember that we are men. Let us as one man, on this day resolve that henceforth, by continual endeavors to do good to all mankind, we will claim for ourselves the attention and respect which as men we should possess. So shall every good that can be the portion of man, be ours – this life shall be happy, and the life to come, glorious.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 5th of 7 M 1827 / Our Meeting small & hevy to me, & I am quite inclined to believe there was but very little life among us. – Yet as Wm Flanner on[c]e said in our Meeting "My not being able to feel the life doses [does] not prove that none of the rest are favoured with it. – Had a comfortable letter from John this Morning. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 July 8, Sunday: Immanuel Noble got married with Karolina Andriette Ahlsell.

ALFRED NOBEL

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 8th of 7 M / In the Mornng Meeting our frd Abigail Robinson & Hannah Dennis were engaged in testimony, & in the Afternoon Father Rodman. - With my wife took tea & set the eveng at D Buffums. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 July 12, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 12 of 7 M / Silent Meeting. - which was rather small on the womens side of the house, several of our members from various circumstances were absent - it was a time of some search & I trust proffitable exercises.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 July 15, Sunday, dawn: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 15th of 7 M / In our Morning Meeting D Buffum, preached in rather more lively manner than usual, tho' he always Does well We were Silent in the Afternoon. - during the meeting a violent tempst of thunder lighthening & rain come up - the Meeting however Sat quietly with the exception of one woman who left the Meeting. - We took tea at father Rodmans, who has been so unwell as not to have been at Meeting today

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 July 19, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 19th of 7 M / Our Meeting was very small, owing to a very unusual number of our members being sick - Several are very low, vizt Geo. Hathaway, John Mitchells wife & daughter & several others complaining. - No buisness in the Preparative Meeting but the Queries to answer. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 July 22, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 22nd of 7 M / Small Meetings & nearly silent - I find our Meetings are not as large in the extream hot & cold weather as in the Spring & Fall - but in addition to that cause - there are many now complaining & some very sick who usually attend our meetings. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 July 26, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 26th of 7th M 1827 / Our Moy [Monthly] Meeting was small in consequence of much Rain - In the first Job Chalinor was engaged in a good solid testimony & Hannah Dennis in supplication - In the last we had some exercising buisness particularly the case of Ruth Chase who having married out of the order of society, sent an acknowledgement, about the acceptance of which, there was a difference of sentiment among friends. -- David Buffum returned his copy of a Minute obtained in the 4th M to attend the NYork Yearly Meeting - he gave some acct of his exercise while there & cautioned friends against a spirit of inovation either in the discipline or the Doctrines of the Gospel as held by our Ancient friends. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 July 28, Saturday: Hector Berlioz and three other Prix de Rome candidates received their examination poem, The Death of Orpheus, and were directed to their loges.

The University of Marburg conferred an honorary doctorate on Louis Spohr.

 July 29, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 29th of 7 M / In our Mornng Meeting Hannah Dennis was first in a good solid testimony on the power of truth & the necessity of yealding to its dictates. - then David Buffum was singularly favourd in a very impressive testimony on Faith in God - in which he cautioned us against the danger of adopting the sentiments which is so prevalent among mankind "That we are not under obligation to believe anything we cannot account for or that we cannot comprehend" in which he fully discountenanced the new Ideas of Hixism & other vague ideas now floating amoung friends. -
After which Hannah made an addition with which I did fully unite.
- as a good appendix to the foregoing
We were Silent in the Afternoon*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

ELIAS HICKS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

July 30, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 30 of 7 M / On 7th day last Died our fr George Hathaway of Middletown, he has been long sick of a disaese which was supposed to be a cancer on the liver. - His funeral was this Afternoon at One OClock at the House, which I attended. - it was a very solid opportunity & many met on the Solemn occasion - & weighty & impressive testimony were bourne by our friends Job Chalinor, Hannah Dennis & David Buffum. - I walked out to the House took a pleasant circuitous rout, calling first at D Buffums, then at Jonathons Dennis's, thence walked across the Beach at Coddingtons [-] & there took a Sea bathing - then called at James Chases & from thence went a cross to George Goulds, from thence to the funeral - After which I walked up to the old Gould burying ground & went to the widow Molly Goulds & took tea - & on my way home Stopped at Elijah Anthonys & then came home - this was a pleasant walk & one I had long intended to make for the purpose of calling on my relations & friends -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 1, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 1st of 8th M 1827 / This Morning My wife & I rode to Portsmouth to attend our Select Meeting - Stopped on the way at Uncle Peter Lawtons, where we found several of our friends, from diferent parts of the Quarterly Meeting - Our Meeting was rather small but favoured & divers solid weighty testimonies were bourne - particularly by our fr Thos Shillitoe, - We dined at Saml Dennis's & in the latter part of the Afternoon went to Uncle Stantons & lodged. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 2, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day Our Meeting was large & Thos Shillitoe large in testimony. - In the last Meeting we had considerable buisness & amonst it was a certificate for our fr John Wilbur to visit the Western Quarterly Meetings in the State of NYork, which was united with by the Quarterly Meeting, & he set at liberty to proceed in his prospect as truth might open the way. - We dined at My exteemed cousin Shadrach Chases & then rode home.-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 3, Friday: Friend Joseph Ricketson, Senior wrote a letter to his sons Daniel and Joseph, Junior.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day feeling an engagement of mind to attend the School committee & Meeting for Sufferings at Providence I went on board

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

the Steam Boat Babcock at 8 OC & arrived at the School House while the committee were at dinner. - & in season to their Second setting & to visit the Schools. - In the Boys School T Shillitoe imparted much excellent advice in a solid impressive manner. - In the Girls School he also had much to say & Alice Rathbone appeared in a very baptizing supplication on behalf of all present & the various classes of Society - I lodged at my dear friend Moses Browns. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 4, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day Attended the Meeting for Sufferings held at the School House & had two labourious sittings which resulted to Satisfaction. - The long tedious concern of the Boston Meeting House, was closed or Settled. so far as respects the Yearly Meeting, if Salem Moy [Monthly] Meeting agrees to it, which there is a prospect of & a hope is entertained that we shall not be tried with the question in the manner we have Done. I lodged at the School House -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 5, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day Attended the Meetings for worship at the Institution - In the Morning Obadiah Davis was there favoured in testimony. - In the Afternoon Lydia Wicks bore a good testimony. -- After spending the day in a very satisfactory manner to myself with the superintendents, teachers & Schollars...I went down in the eveng & to Moses Brown & lodged. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 6, Monday: Three songs by Franz Schubert were published by Pennauer as his op.84 (later corrected to op.87): Der Unglückliche to words of Pichler, the 2d setting of Hoffnung and the 3d setting of Der Jungling am Bache, both to words of Schiller.

A treaty between the United States and Great Britain stipulated a joint occupation of the Oregon territory.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day Morning I again for on board the Babcock & came home - My mind during this visit has been almost constantly exercised with the Strong & fervant desires for the wellfare of the School & of Society at large, & for my own right advancement in particular. - I had the comfrtable evidence of love in my heart

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

for the brethren, & was encouraged to believe I was beloved by them. – Yet under all this - how depressed do I feel on acct of my own getting along in various respects. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 8, Wednesday: British Prime Minister George Canning died at his house in Chiswick.

August 9, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 9th of 8 M / Obadiah Davis & Ruth his wife attended our Meeting today & had very acceptable service. – both of them were engaged in testimony & Ruth rather more extensively than I now recollect to have heard her. – In the Afternoon Obadiah made us a very pleasant social visit. – Eliza Stephens a young woman who lives with O & R also came in & set a while with us - she was a child at the Charity school some years ago in this town & as my wife was engaged in it had knowledge of acquaintance with her - she is now a plain friend & member of society, & apparantly under good exercise of mind & very tender in spirit. – her company was very pleasant to us, as it furnished ground of encouragement to try to reclaim those who are affar off. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 19, Sunday: Il borgomastro di Saardam, a melodramma giocoso by Gaetano Donizetti to words of Gilardoni after Melesville, Merle and Boirie, was performed for the initial time, in Teatro Nuovo, Naples. The audience was enthusiastic.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 19th of 8th M 1827 / Our hearts were gladdened last eveng with a Letter from our Son John at Hudson. – Our Morning Meeting was a season of favour Hannah Dennis was largely engaged in testimony, chiefly addressed to the Youth. Father Rodman also bore a short testimony. – After meeting in the Afternoon I rode home with D Buffum & took tea. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 21, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 21st of 8th M / An humbling evidence of divine regard in a little space of silence after reading the Scripture at our breakfast table - But Oh how unworthy I feel. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 23, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 23rd of 8 M / Our Meeting was small & silent – a committee

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

met at the close on acct of a trying case in the Moy [Monthly] Meeting, which as far as respects what we had to do with it was pretty satisfactorily resulted. - but the end is not yet-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 25, Saturday: During the performance of Hector Berlioz's Prix de Rome cantata entry on "The Death of Orpheus," the accompanist, Rifaud, broke down and the music needed to be abandoned. The jury decided that the work was unplayable and the matter was closed — in the awarding of prizes, it would not even be mentioned.

August 26, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 26th of 8 M / In our mornng Meeting Hannah Dennis was much favoured in testimony. - She truly preached Christ & enforced the solid reading of the Scriptures in families We were silent in the Afternoon

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 30, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

8 M 30th - 5th day / It is our Monthly Meeting at Portsmouth & my wife & I not there - I am sorry it is so but so it is, & I cannot attribute it to a want of desire & even concern to meet with our brethren - She is quite unwell, & so was I last night -tho pretty Smart this Morning. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 31, Friday: Frederick John Robinson, Viscount Goderich became Prime Minister the United Kingdom, replacing George Canning (who had died at his home on September 8th).

September 2, Sunday: Mikhail Ivanovich Glinka and three others organized a serenade on the Little Chernaya River near St. Petersburg from 9PM until midnight. Aboard a launch in the river, Glinka directed a chorus and accompanied them on piano. Military musicians played from the launch while, in the breaks in the performance, fireworks were sent up from another launch. Crowds of people lined the banks of the stream and a good time was had by all.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 2nd of 9 M 1827 / Our Meetings were as large as usual & solid seasons - Father engaged in a few words in both of them -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 4, Tuesday: Franz Schubert and Johann Baptist Jenger arrived in Graz from Vienna.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

September 6, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 6 of 9 M / Our Meeting was small & quiet & some favour in my own particular - This Afternoon in Abraham Tuckers chaise took a ride over Eastons Beach & went a cross to Sescawest Beach & rode quite across that - & to our surprise we found at Purgatory Jonas Minturn & wife with Abigail Robinson who I suppose has not been across the Beaches in many years before Since writing the above I have been informed Abigail has not made a similar excursion in 30 Years. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 7, Friday: Tsar Nikolai I decreed that Jews were obligated to the Russian military service, and at a higher rate than Gentiles.

Principe Miguel de Braganca became "Governor of the Kingdom" replacing Manuel Francisco de Barros de Sousa da Mesquita de Macedo Leitao e Carvalhosa, visconde de Santarem as head of government of Portugal.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 7th of 9 M 1827 / This evening Richard Rodman left us for Philadelphia in the NYork Packet - Capt Bennett - thus our young men are leaving us & our Meeting growing smaller - Three youths J Dennis Jr our John & Richard together with Thos Rodman all left town within one year - My mind is affected with a consideration & feel striped by all that goes -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 9, Sunday: "I labored all day under the pressure of a heavy, stupefying cold." The Reverend Convers Francis of Watertown exchanged pulpits for the day with the Reverend Ezra Ripley of Concord. His prooftext for the Concord morning service was "1st Corinthians 13:11 and his topic was "The Difference between the Present and Future State Illustrated by the Difference between Childhood and Manhood." His prooftext for the first of his afternoon sermons was 1st Kings 20:11 and his topic was "The Danger of Premature Confidence and Exaltation Illustrated." His prooftext for the second of his afternoon sermons was Mark 4:26-28 and his topic was "Religion like Seed Cast into the Ground."

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1st day 9th of 9 M / In the morning Meeting D B was very lively & pertinent in testimony - grounded in the 1st Psalm. - In the afternoon we were Silent - - In the eveng with my wife & Sr Ruth took a walk to the lower end of the Town & stoped a while at Wm Lee's -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 11, Tuesday: On his 1st trip to see a production of Shakespeare, Hector Berlioz first laid eyes on Harriet Smithson, playing Ophelia in Hamlet at the Theatre de l'Odeon. The composer later remembered that this was the beginning of "the supreme drama of my life ... The impression made on my heart and mind by her extraordinary talent, nay her dramatic genius, was equalled only by the havoc wrought in me by the poet she so nobly interpreted." As for Ms. Smithson, it was her initial performance in France. She was an overnight sensation.

Clara Wieck played a concerto for the 1st time in public, at an orchestral rehearsal before a small invited audience in Leipzig. She played a concerto by Mozart in E flat.

September 12, Wednesday: Three Italian Songs for bass voice by Franz Schubert to words of Metastasio were published by Haslinger as his op.83.

September 13, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 13th of 9 M Our Meeting today was very small, owing the Absence [?] number of our members & the indisposition of a considerable number of others. - it was however a precious season of favour to me for which I desire to be thankful. - John Mitchells family are very sick, himself seems to be coming down with a fever - Dorcas Earl is very low, my wife Watched with her last night & unable to attend Meeting today - several of our numbers are also complaining of indisposition & unable to be at Meeting -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 16, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 9 m 16 / Our morning Meeting was a solid good one. Father Rodman bore a good testimony & to me it was a season I felt thankful for - We were Silent in the Afternoon - After I was glad of the opportunity of reading a letter from Richd Rodman to his Father, mentioning his safe arrival in Philadelphia & comfortable reception at new place of abode for a considerable time to come. --In the eveng went over [to] see Abigail Robinson & set till 8 O'clock --

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 September 19, Wednesday: Ferdinand Herold's ballet La somnambule to a scenario by Scribe and Aumer was performed for the initial time, at the Paris Opera.

 September 20, Thursday: Music publisher Carl Friedrich Peters died in Sonnenstein at the age of 48. He left his firm to his daughter Anna, who was only 11 years of age.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 20 of 9 M / The day was very stormy, Wind & Rain, & Meeting very small - it was however to me a sweet little opportunity - my mind being much turned to the primitive days of our fathers who [?] sounded & settled The Society, formed the discipline & preached about [?] Jesus & him crucified, & raised up a noble band who followed in their path. - Things now look discouraging as to numbers, in [our?] Moy [Monthly] Meeting - we are small - yet in the reflection, that Arm is not shortened, nor the Power weakened, that caused the dry [bones] to live, Streams to break forth in dry places, & barren fields [?] & fruitful. we have consolation & ground of hope that Zion may arise & shine in her Ancient splendor.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 21, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 21st of 9 M 1827 / My heart was deeply affected this morning with the news of the death of Sarah C Greene wife of my cousin Joseph Greene of Connamicut - She had been complaining the last summer, but was so as to be over to Newport at meeting a number of times. - a bout two weeks ago she went on a visit to her Fathers in Hopkinton, where she was taken ill, her husband was sent for & the next we hear, is, that she is removed from time, & this is the day fixed on for her funeral. - Her husband will loose a valuable wife, & society an exemplary member & Elder, careful in the discharge of every duty, & unoffending in all the walks of life - I believe there are few whose garments were more unspotted by the things of time. - I have no doubt she is now in White Robes, enjoying the presence of her God & Saviour with the ransomed & redeemed of All ages. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 23, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 23rd of 9 M / Our Morning meeting was pretty well attended & Father Rodman engaged in testimony - Henry Channing was there who was once a Presbyterian Minister in New London & attentive to friends when they happened to be there & several times loaned his Meeting House for them to have Meetings in In the Afternoon Father was again engaged in a few words - Wm & Caleb Rodman with a young man from Yarmouth who is here erecting

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

a Salt Works on Robins's lot at the South end of Thames street took tea with us. his name os Leonard Underwood. – In the eveng cousin Henry & Abigail Gould joined us in company, & in the latter part of it we had an unexpected call from Joseph Tillinghast of Bedford, who has come to see his father now very sick. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 25, Tuesday: Der blinde Knabe D.833, a song by Franz Schubert to words of Cibber translated by Craigher, was published in the Zeitschrift fur Kunst, Vienna.

September 27, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 27 of 9 M / Our first Meeting was unusually favoured, before any thing was spoken, I was sensible divine help & goodness was near – Anne Greene was engaged in a testimony in which Gospel power was remarkably displayed, perhaps as much so as I ever saw it thro' her – She was followed by Ruth Freeborn & Father Rodman –
The buisness of the Meeting was well conducted & on the whole it was a comfortable Meeting. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 29, Saturday: Great Britain and the United States agreed to submit their Canadian-boundary issue to international arbitration.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

September 30, Sunday: Sam Patch had relocated to Paterson, New Jersey, where the industrialist Tim Crane had bought up some land at the side of Passaic Falls that had been used by working-class people for their picnics and on it had been creating a hoity-toity pleasure garden, building over the falls a bridge to this garden, on which a toll was being charged in order to keep out the riff-raff:

The working-class locals, enraged at this exclusionary toll, began to beat up the children he employed as toll takers. When Crane staged a celebration of his “improvements,” Patch participated in the working-class protest by jumping 70 feet off the bridge in front of a large crowd. He jumped wearing the marching uniform of his craft guild, which must have been a political statement of sorts. Then during a class-based dispute over the town’s 4th-of-July celebration, he would make the jump again. Then during the town’s first labor walkout, he would make the jump again. This of course began to attract media attention. Having shaken the dust of Rhode Island from off his sandals, he was coming to be termed “The Jersey Leaper.”

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 29th [sic] of 9 M / Father Rodman in Supplication in the Mornng & in testimony in the afternoon Meeting - both pretty good meetings -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 October 1, Monday: Russian troops occupied Yerevan.

Sam Houston was inaugurated as governor of Tennessee, replacing 2-term Governor William Carroll.

Riga's schoolhouse opened.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 1st of 10th M 1827 / This Afternoon I crossed both Ferrys & went to Narragansett to Clean James Robinsons clock, when I got on the Narragansett side I found an oxx cart there in which I rode as far as Tower Hill Meeting House & then got out & went over across to James Robinsons on foot & reached his house a little after candle light. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 October 2, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day was very Rainy & I in the house attending to my buisness - the time passed pleasantly & interstingly -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 October 3, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day after Breakfast James Robinson Brought me in his Chaise to the ferry - I crossed to Connanicut & went to cousin Joseph Greenes & dined - spent a little time with him in sympathy for his late affliction & then came home

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 October 4, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 4th of 10 M / Our frd Abigail Robinson was remarkably favourd in testimony & Father Rodman made an acceptable addition - it was an excellent meeting to me for which I believe I am thankful -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 October 7, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 7th of 10th M / I may acknowledge another pretty favour'd meeting [this] Morning in which Father Rodman was very lively & accepably engaged in testimony. - Recd last eveng a pleasant letter from Moses Brown giving some acct of Ohio Y Meeting [?] given him by our friend Elisha bates. - This Afternoon our Frd D Buffum was singularly lively in testimony he began with saying "Take heed to the light. this is necessary for us all - But my mind has been especially turned

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*[to the] young & rising generation that you be careful to mind the light & whatsoever makes manifest is light. it justifies for good & reproves for evil, & quallifies us to fill our Stations in the civil & religious society with propriety - for on you the important concerns of both civil & religious society must soon devolve - he then went on in a very lively strain of exhortation for some time & said it was his concern to see the youth come up in the paths of virtue, now in his old age, not expecting to have much more opportunity to stir up our minds by way of remembrance, to those things which make for our present & everlasting peace & which if obeyed would qualify us to sing triumphant songs of praise in the world to come -
I went home with him After meeting & took tea & set the eveng.
- I might have added that Father Rodman followed him in a very lively pertinent & edifying short testimony*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 11, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 11th of 10 M 1827 / Today was our Select Meeting After which, in the Afternoon Aunt Stanton being in Town I went to Portsmouth to See my dear Aged Mother who was very glad to see me, as I was her. - I staid all night & 6th day Morning Walked home.-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 14, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 14th of 10th M / Not at meeting all day - - finding myself quite unwell this morning I thought best to take some medicine that rendered it necessary to stay at home -
This eveng by Brother Isaacs return from NYork we had a very comfortable letter & accounts from John at Hudson - it was longer than usual since we heard from him & had become very anxious -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 21, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 21st of 10th M / In both Meetings Father Rodman bore lively testimonials. - In the eveng we had calls from J Sherman Wm Potter & Leonard Underwood, the latter set most of the evening.-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 22, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 22nd of 10th M / Attended the funeral of John Tillinghast tho' the Afternoon was Stormy, high wind & some rain, yet there

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

was a considerable number attended & the sitting, which friends conducted, was solid & quiet & lively testimonys were borne by Father Rodman & Hannah Dennis. –

He died last 7th day the 20th inst about 3 OC in the morning, after a long & painful illness aged about 57 Years – -In his last illness he was favour'd with much quietude & patience & manifested as well as at other seasons of his life, much love for friends, & for many years was a regular attender of our Meeting on first Days. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 23, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 23rd of 10 M / Joseph Tillinghast son of John called to see me. I was glad of the visit as he is one I love & esteem for his honest sincere heart, as well as for his love for Truth & friends

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 25, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 25th of 10th M 1827 / Various causes conspire to keep me from Moy [Monthly] Meeting this Day held at Portsmouth – I am informed by those who did go, that they had a good meeting & that Mary Hicks & Ruth Freeborn bore good acceptable testimonies. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 26, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 26 of 10 M / Hannah Jackson, Ruth Dennis & Sister Mary passed the Afternoon & evening with us. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 28, Sunday: Lowell Mason conducted a performance of the Boston Handel and Haydn Society for the 1st time.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 28th of 10 M / Our Meetings were seasons of some favour but attended with trial - a good deal of preaching & some of it (at least) of doubtful Authority –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 29, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 29 of 10 M / At tea time we had Wm Brown son of Smith Brown - he is a young Physician settled now at Falmouth –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

October 31, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 31 of 10 M / Friends have a pleasant Day to hold their Select Quarterly Meeting at Swansey. Eleanor Lawton & Sister mary set the Afternoon & took tea with us. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 1, Thursday: The contract on Riga's schoolhouse was paid off — $157.50.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 1st of 11 M 1827 / Set out this Morning in the Steam Boat Babcock for Providence but the Wind was so hevy & ahead that we put back after sailing up as far as Gould Island. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 2, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 2 of 11 M / Set out again for Providence in the Babcock & reached there about half after 2 OClock & went immediately to the School House, where I found the committee in the Girls School. - After examining the Books & hearing the children read -After which we set in Silence & good appropriate & feeling communications were made by David Clapp Rowland Greene & Abigail Robinson. - we then went to the Boys School & after looking over their books, we sat in Silence with them. Stephen A Chase first addressed the Schollars on the subject of their education, in an appropriate manner Daniel Clapp then delivered a short testimony which was honest & well ment & in good degree impressive then Rowland Greene addressed them very appropriately - he was followed by Moses Brown on the Subject of Pride, which he endeavoured to guard them against, & encouraged humility as a beautiful ornament & adorning. - David Buffum then in a very affectionate manner said he had been favourd once more to visit the school, in which he had been often interested, & as he had advanced very far in life & felt the infermities of body & mind, it was quite within probability that it might be the last time he might Sit with them, he encouraged them to practice every virtue, & bid them affectionately fare well, reminding them that the way to fare well is to do well both here & hereafter - Mary B Allen then followed in a lively, sweet & pertinent testimony, alluding to the favour we experienced in the company of the beloved Ancients present, & closed in a manner which left much solemnity over the gathering - The committee retired from the School room & met again in a committee capasy - after transacting the buisness necessary we separated & I went home & lodged at the house of my dear friend Moses Brown -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

November 3, Saturday: Le roi et le batelier, an opera comique by Fromental Halevy and Rifaut to words of Saint-Georges, was performed for the initial time, by the Opera-Comique, Paris. It would receive only 13 performances.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day Spent this day at the School House attending the School Committee & Trustees Meeting exceptibly [acceptably], we went into Town to attend the funeral of Caleb Wheaton, an old acquaintance of mine which was a season of favour - the corpse was carried to the Meeting house & several good testimonys were delivered the last & most expressive was by Mary B Allen. - went to my old Quarters at Night

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 4, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day attended Meetings at the School House in the Morning Deborah Otis, Royal Southwick Abigail Robinson, were all very lively & solemn in testimony & to me it was one of the most Watering Seasons I have experienced in a long time my mind travelled with the Ministers & favoured with the incomes of love & life in a manner which raised in my heart gratitude & humble admiration of continued love mercy & goodness vouchsafed in time of need. - I was also at the School Meeting in the Afternoon wherein Deborah Otis prayed & preached & Lydia Breed also offered an instructive testimony - lodged again at Moses Browns-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 5, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day The Meeting for Sufferings having adjourned to the Meeting house in Providence, we met there at 9 OC & set till late dinner time when we closed - Dined at Wm Jenkins, where also a committee of the Meeting for Sufferings had agreed to meet in the Afternoon to inspect the Memorials of dead Friends - it was an interesting interview, & rendered perculiarly so from the circumstance of knowing two ancient friends present Vizt Moses Brown & David Buffum, who remembered most of the Subjects of the memorials & particularly, signed the Memorial of one friend & watched with him the night he died over 50 [?] years ago. - the additional anecdotes which they stated of some were very interesting to us that had the opportunity of hearing them - we did not finish the reading the testimonies till 9 OC in the evening when I went home with Moses Brown & set an hour

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

very interestingly & Memorably to me. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 7, Wednesday: The Reverend Elijah Demond was installed as minister at Lincoln.

A notice appeared in the London Times that Greenwood's Map of London was finally, after a couple of years of surveying, available for distribution to its subscribers.

<http://www.bathspa.ac.uk/greenwood/imagemap.html>

CARTOGRAPHY

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

In the Morning I rose early to come into town in order to return home, but found my Kind & affectionate friend had left word with his family to tackle the Chaise & carry me in, if I was in a hurry to go before breakfast - mentioning to them that he wished to continue his attention to me as this might be the last opportunity we might have together. –

I set out with D Buffum & Abigail Robinson in his carriage & arrived in Newport at little before Dark at night & was glad to find myself at home. –

At no time of my visiting the School have I felt more Satisfaction - & found more solid well concerned young men & girls at the Institution

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 8, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 8th of 11 M / A good meeting to me & a little preaching - there are many trying things afloat in the World, & some trials attend me - but we were greatly comforted in our late visit to Providence, under a consideration of the general good state of the School &c.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 November 9, Friday: In Carlisle, Massachusetts, the funeral of the Reverend Paul Litchfield.

THE SERVANT OF CHRIST

Nicolò Paganini performed at the Teatro del Falcone of Genoa, before the king and queen.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 11th M 9th / Isaac Austin took tea & set the evening with us – he was my youthful associate, & I was glad to see him – This evening we had a very gratifying letter from our Dear J S Gould. – which really did our hearts good. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 November 11, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 11th of 11th M 1827 / Hannah Dennis & Father Rodman in testimony in the Morning & Father in a few words in the Afternoon. – Both were to me seasons of some favour, for which I desire to be thankful. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 November 15, Thursday: The Creeks ceded all their remaining territory in Georgia to the United States of America.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 16th [sic] of 11th M / A good Meeting to me, a few words by Father Rodman – Several friends absent from meeting to attend the funeral of Nathan Chase at Tiverton. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 November 18, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 18th of 11th M / In the Morning Father Rodman & Jona Dennis broke the silence. D Buffum was engaged in an acceptable testimony. – Silent Meeting in the Afternoon – Our Meetings were both well attended & to me they were seasons of some favour. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 November 22, Thursday: Maria Szymanowska met the poet Adam Mickiewicz in St. Petersburg. She would set four of his poems to music. After her death, Mickiewicz would get married with her daughter Celina.

Hector Berlioz conducted in public for the 1st time in a performance of his 1825 mass in St. Eustache, Paris.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 22nd of 11th M / Silent Meeting, & no buisness in the Preparative Meeting. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 December 2, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 2nd of 12th M 1827 / In the mornng Meeting D BUffum was unusally lively & pertinent in testimony. - & father Rodman said a little after him - Silent in the Afternoon - We set the evening with Abigail Robinson. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 December 9, Sunday: From the journal of the Reverend Convers Francis of Watertown:

This day Mr. Emerson from Cambridge preached for me, though I performed the other services. His sermons were from 1 Timothy V, 4 - "let them learn," & from II Chronicles XX, 20, "believe in the L. your G.", &c - These sermons were distinguished by great felicity of thought & style, by rich moral eloquence, & by a fresh & fervent earnestness. It is delightful to see & hear such as young man as Mr. E. -

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 9th of 12 M / Silent & poor wandering meetings to me, was however led to make some effort for a settlement & to feel a little of the rise of life - Last eveng we recd a very pleasant letter from John & in the evening I finished one to him. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

December 12, Wednesday: Four songs by Franz Schubert were published by Weigl as his op.88: Abendlied fur die Entfernte to words of von Schlegel, Thekla: eine Geisterstimme to words of Schiller, An die Musik to words of Schober, and Um Mitternacht to words of Schulze.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

12th M 12th 1827 4th day / This Forenoon Bathesheba Searing went to the House of Wm Ennis to dine & spend the day & soon after she got in, & was seated in the Chair she died immediately - this is an Awful instance of the slender tenure by which we hold life. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 13, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 13 of 12 M / Our Meeting was small but to my mind a solid quiet time, mingled with distress - but I was never more sensible that "Jerusalem was a quiet habitation to them that seek it, a refuge to which we may flee & be safe, amid all the storms, tempests, temptations & besetments that can assail us. - It is however hard under some dispensations to attain to it, yet I am also renewedly confirmed, nothing will be required of us that we shall not be able to perform - no temptations will be permitted to assail us, but that there will be a way be made for escape, as we cleave with the power given us, to the Almighty helper who never failed Israel in their hardest seasons, & his Arm is not Shortened under the Christian dispensation, but is mercifully lengthened out for the help of all who put their trust in him, Above all other powers, for against it, divination nor enchantment nor the powers of Satan cannot prevail, but deliverance will be experienced thro' faith & patience to our humbling Admiration. - Father Rodman was engaged in a short but I have no doubt fervant prayer

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 16, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 16th of 12 M / Meetings solemn & Silent - between Meetings was the funeral of Br John Rodman.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

December 20, Thursday: The Spanish negrero Guerrero had 561 slaves aboard and was being chased by a British cruiser, when it grounded itself on the Carysfort Reef off Key Largo in the Florida Keys. Of the 520 chained slaves left alive after the impact on the reef, 121 would be rescued and offloaded at Key West and seized by the collector there, while 250 would be carried away by the Spanish and taken to Cuba (HOUSE JOURNAL, 20th Congress, 1st session page 650; HOUSE REPORTS, 24th Congress, 1st session I, No. 268; 25th Congress, 2d session I, No. 4; AMERICAN STATE PAPERS, NAVAL AFFAIRS, III, No. 370, page 210; Niles's Register, XXXIII. 373).

INTERNATIONAL SLAVE TRADE

While the dust was settling, the 121 Africans who had been seized by the US government would be put to field labor alongside the slave work crews of the Kingsley and Hernandez plantations.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 20th of 12 M / Our Meeting was silent & solid & to me was a season of some favour for which I desire to be thankful

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 23, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 23 of 12 M / In the Morning Meeting D Buffum & H. Dennis were engaged in testimony - & in the Afternoon the Meeting was silent - Both were seasons of some trial to me - Divine help has since been afforded, & the arisings of life sweetly spring up in my heart - I believe I am thankful

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 27, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 27 of 12th M 1827 / This Morning about 10 OC Died Our friend Dorcas Earl - she had long stood in the Station of Elder in this Moy [Monthly] Meeting & from my first recollection of Meetings 'till she left off attending them from Age & infirmity, she sat at the head of the Meeting on the Womens side. - She was in the 88th Year of her Age. - It is also our Moy [Monthly] Meeting at Portsmouth & partly from indisposition of body, the State of the Weather (a Snow Storm) & some other considerations & did not attend. - it is always unpleasant to have to omit attending a Meeting that I have a right & ought to attend. - but it is not always best to go when we can - I desire my love for the Truth & the Assembling ourselves together, for which & the transaction of our concerns in the Church. may continue, & I believe it does - Society is very precious to me.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 30, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 30 of 12th M 1827 / I recognize this day as the same of

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

the month & Week, that I was born 46 Years ago - I am never willing to let it pass without taking note of it - I feel that it is probable much the greater half of my days are passed & perhaps they may be nearly closed - of this however I have no Knowledge - Many events have taken place since last Year this time, which pass in review before my mind - I am thankful under a present sense of some divine favour - Our Meeting this morning was large Silent solid & solemn to my feelings. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 31, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 31 of 12 M / With this day ends the Year, it has been a favourable Year to me & I trust many occurrences of 1827 will not soon be forgotten - some of a trying nature, & some very pleasant & encouraging - On the whole I think there is much to be grateful & thankful for, & the ballance is on the pleasant side of the scale - Oh Lord preserve us in thy [love?] & enable us to be thankful for thy Mercys & favours

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

“NARRATIVE HISTORY” IS FABULATION, HISTORY IS CHRONOLOGY

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1828

January 1, Tuesday: J. Stephens Abbot became a partner of Lewis Downing, Senior in Concord, New Hampshire in the manufacture of the Concord Coach, which was basically an English-model carriage modified for rough American roads, with its body suspended well above its axles upon leather straps which converted much of the up-and-down jarring into a less unsettling side-to-side swaying. There would be models of this that would seat 6, 8, 10, or 12.

While other carriages were undergoing an infinite variety of changes in style, this design was so excellent so

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

early that it would scarcely require any modification at all.

L'esule di Roma ossia Il proscritto, a melodramma eroico by Gaetano Donizetti to words of Gilardoni after Marchionni, was performed for the initial time, in Teatro San Carlo, Naples. The audience granted it an enthusiastic reception.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal about a stagecoach ride out to visit his mom in Portsmouth, and then a pleasant walk home:

3rd day 1st of 1st M 1828 / This morning when I awoke my mind was lead to reflect on the New Year, & among other thoughts it seemed to me it would be best for me to go to Portsmouth to visit my aged Mother who I have not seen in some weeks. She passes the Winter at Uncle Stanton's being pleasant company to Aunt Patty Stanton - Accordingly I got into the Stage & rode out, found them all comfortable, & very glad to have me to dine with them the first day of the Year

About 3 O'clock Uncle Stanton had his Waggon tackled & sent me on the way as far as Christopher Sweets, the rest of the distance I walked. It was just a pleasant exercise. —³⁵⁰

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 3, Thursday: Franz Schubert's vocal quintet Mondenschein D.875 to words of Schober was performed for the initial time, in the Musikvereinsaal, Vienna.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 3rd of 1st M / Our Meeting was small, but a good solid little opportunity. Father Rodman had a few words to offer very satisfactorily. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 6, Sunday: The Reverend Andrew Bigelow preached in Reading's North Parish on "Signs of the Moral Age." This would be published in Boston by Bowles and Dearborn, 72 Washington Street, and the press of Isaac R. Butts & Co.

SIGNS OF THE MORAL AGE

(During this year he would also publish a sermon on "Pastoral Responsibility" preached before a congregation in Washington DC.)

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 6th of 1 M / In the Morning we had an unusual solid Meeting. D Buffum Rose with the text "Mind your calling brethren" - he exhorted us to faithfulness as he did not believe our society was raised up for a day but designed to stand. We

350. Stephen Wanton Gould Diary, 1823-1829: The Gould family papers are stored under control number 2033 at the Division of Rare and Manuscript Collections of Cornell University Library, Box 8 Folder 13: October 2, 1823-March 6, 1829; also on microfilm, see Series 7

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

had been of great use in the world in abolishing Slavery & enlightening mankind respecting Priest crafts - & notwithstanding the many discouraging prospects from revoltings in various parts, he believed our society would stand - he was followed in short testimonials by Father Rodman & Hannah Dennis. - Silent Meeting in the Afternoon

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 10, Thursday: Gute Nacht, the 1st in Franz Schubert's song cycle Die Winterreise D.911 to words of Muller, was performed for the initial time, in the Musikvereinsaal, Vienna.

Charleston, South Carolina's Courier carried the intelligence that the "Papyrotomia" with "cuttings" by William James Hubbard was being shown. At this point although Hubbard's famous name was still being used, and although Hubbard was still producing the occasional cutting on his own, the silhouettes of this establishment were being cut by another child prodigy by the name of Jarvis or Jervis Hanks or Hanks (Samuel Thomas Gill would also advertise himself as having been at Hubbard Gallery).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 10th of 1 M / A Short testimony by Father Rodman - the walking bad & the gathering small & poor to me -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 13, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 13th of 1st M / We had a little preaching & to me they were dull Seasons - Meetings vary in my feelings sometimes the[y] afford me some good degree of satisfaction & at others Oh the Poverty that I set in. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 17, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 17th of 1st M 1828 / Our Select Meeting was attended by nearly all the Members who are able to attend - it was a season of some exercise, but on the whole things moved on pretty well. - Uncle B Freeborn & Aunt Ruth dined with us

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 20, Sunday: Abraham Lincoln's married sister Sarah died while giving birth.

The Fantasy in C D.934 for violin and piano by Franz Schubert was performed for the initial time, in the County Hall, Vienna. The response was mixed and, programmed at the end of a long noon concert, many in the audience had already departed.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 20th of 1st M / Our Morning Meeting was well attended &

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

a solemn impressive one - Our frd D Buffum was engaged in lively good testimony "Boast not thyself of tomorrow for you know not what a day may bring fourth" his communication was remarkably impressive & I dont know when have seen more impression made on the countenances in audience. - Abigail Sherman followed him in short & well approved testimony. - In the Afternoon Father Rodman was engaged in a good testimony & both were favourd Meetings to me Our young frd Francis Lawton took tea & spent the evening with us, his company was pleasant & intersting & I do strongly desire he may make a good useful man in society & the community at large

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 24, Thursday: Franz Schubert's Standchen D.921 for alto, female chorus, and piano to words of Franz Grillparzer was performed publicly for the initial time, in the Musikvereinsaal, Vienna.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 24th of 1st M / Silent meeting - In the last we had a request from Hannah Brayton for Membership - It is of a doubtful nature & a committee in both meetings were appointed to consider the propriety of forwarding it to the Moy [Monthly] Meeting. - she has been under derangement of mind, tho' now quite calm & quiet but whether enough so as to render it prudent to receive her into membership is at least questionable. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 25, Friday: Robert Schumann played the last of several performances at the Gymnasium in Zwickau — a d minor piano concerto by Friedrich Kalkbrenner.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 25th of 1st M / Went to Portsmouth on buisness this Afternoon lodged at Uncle Stantons - 7th day walked up to the rode & waited at Dr Richardsons for the Stages & then rode home

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 27, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 27th of 1st M / Both meetings were Silent & rather low times, but was favourd at the close of the Afternoon Meeting in company with David Rodman, in an Opportunity with F Carr, on account of his neglect of the attendance of our Meetings. - The poor Man seems quite confused in his Ideas, about our principles, & tho' we were favourd with clearness & a good degree of ability in speaking with him, yet it did not appear that we made much favourable impression. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

January 31, Thursday: On Franz Schubert's 31st birthday, his song Ellens Gesang III D.839 to words of Scott translated by Storck was performed for the initial time, in the Vienna Musikvereinsaal.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 31st of 1st M 1828 / Our Moy [Monthly] Meeting was a time of unusual favour, solid, quiet & – Daniel Clapp accompanied by Amos Aldrich from Smithfield Moy [Monthly] Meeting attended & Daniel preached in the simplicity & sweetness, very much to the comfort of Friends. his visit was very acceptable. –
In the last Meeting, buisness went on in a comfortable satisfactory way & we had reason to believe the Lord was yet with his Church & people & to trust that he would remain with them, as they keep to the Law & testimony. –
Daniel & Amos Dined with us, & My wife set the evening at Sister Rebecca's –
After Meeting I recd a comfortable letter from my friend Wm Almy & also one from my frd Abraham Sherman Jr, the latter gave an account of the decease of our dear friend Elizabeth Rotch wife of Wm Rotch Jr after a short Illness. – she died on the Morning of the 30th inst. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 3, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 3rd of 2nd M 1828 / The walking was very muddy & Meetings Small – but remarkably solid good ones to me – silent in the Morning & in the Afternoon Father Rodman was engaged in a solid & I believe living testimony

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 4, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 4th of 2nd M 1828 / Contrary to previous prospects for some time past, I set out by land this morning by land to Providence with the view of attending the Quarterly Meeting & the School committee & to attend to some other buisness & appointments there. – My journey was a long one, the roads exceedingly muddy & we did not reach Providence till 8 OC in the eveng – lodged at Joseph Anthonys – on third day attended the Sub-School committee – & lodged at Moses Browns – on 4th day our Select Qtly Meeting was a season of favour mingled with a little sufferings – – on 5th day our Meeting at large was held, it was large & a number of savory & seasonable offerings were made – & our friend Rowland Greene was set at liberty to perform a religious visit to the Quarterly Meeting of Purchase in the State of NYork & also to attend the ensuing Yearly Meeting in the City of NYork in the 5th M next – After a Meeting of the Trustees of O Brown I went home with my Aged kind friend Moses Brown & spent 6th day in the School House attending the School

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

committee on 7th day our Meeting for Sufferings was held at the School House & we had two long sittings. I staid that night at the School House & attended the Meeting there on 1st day [Sunday] which were solemn & to the feelings of many if not all present, were very interesting. – Rowland Greene in the Morning & in the Afternoon Rowland Greene & Ruth Freeborn were engaged in lively & powerful testimonys -towards night I walked into town, visited Nancy Pickering & lodged at Wm Jenkins & 2nd day [Monday] Morning came home by Water. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 7, Thursday: Civil War officer Ely Parker, author of the terms of surrender at Appomattox, was born on the Tonawanda Reservation in Indian Falls, New-York.

The Leonore Overture no.1 by Ludwig van Beethoven, that had apparently been intended for a Prague production of Fidelio, but coming to light only after the composer's death, was performed for the initial time.

Charles Baker got married with Joanna Jones of Concord (when they had published their intention to marry “the bands were forbidden by Messrs. Gregory Stone & Daniel Haynes of said Lincoln & after trial before Ebenr Hobs, Charles Wheeler, & Elisha Wheeler, Esqr the Certificate given”).

Henry Neele, still a relatively young man, committed suicide by slitting his own throat.

To Despair.

I.

It was Despair,
He roll'd his large red eye around,
And laid his wither'd hand upon the lyre;
Then woke that strain so wildly terrible,
That Madness
Ceas'd for awhile her idiot grin, and Fear
Call'd Disappointment from his iron cell,
To pause and listen while his own pale cheek

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Grew paler.

II.

It was Despair:
The man of dark imaginings,
Who sits sullen on some blasted heath,
Which the pale moon-beam saddens, not relieves;
There raving,
Fashioning shapes huge, strange, and horrible,
And starting wild, he points at vacancy,
And to the spirits of the night-blast tells
His sorrows.

III.

He asks not aid,
Nor does the big sigh heave his breast,
Nor does the sorrowful tear suffuse his eyes,
For sighs and tears bespeak a spirit worn,
Not withered;
Bended, not broken: they are like the rains
That bless the plains they deluge, when the flow'rs E'en while they bend beneath their weight, are seen Reviving.

IV.

There was a light,
That us'd to flit across his path,
Lonely, yet lovely, and it cheer'd his soul,
And he would cherish it, and call it Hope:
That vanish'd—
And he must wander now despairingly,
Where never taper lends its little ray,
Where never moon must soothe, and never sun
Shall gladden.

V.

Despair is Death:
And though he come not in the storm
That blasts the roses, yet he lurks unseen,
Eating their core away, and o'er them sheds
His mildew:
While of such sad, sad change, the cause and cure
Alike unknown, we can but mourn the flow'rs
That look less beautiful and count the leaves
That wither.

VI.

Thou Sun of heaven!
Tho' thou art cheerful, and he dull
As blackest night, Despair resembles thee;
Fierce as thou art, and lasting as thou seem'st,
His sorrows
Thy setting sees the same pale marble cheeks,
Thy rising radiance vainly strove to gild;
The same dull eye's fix'd glare, the same wild steps,

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Still wand'ring.

VII.

Yet he can smile
With seeming careless jollity,
And o'er the goblet gay will join the laugh,
And strive to play the courtier deftly.
But vainly—
The worm that fattens in the dead man's socket,
Looks not less like the life that glitter'd there,
Than that faint smile, the heart-exulting mirth
It mimics.

VIII.

O saddest lot!
Thus barely doom'd to breathe and be,
To wander up and down this care-bound sphere,
And only know we live, because we feel
Life's sorrows;
And only shrink from death because we fear
The grave itself may hold some dream like life,
And even that dark slumber may not be Unbroken.

February 14, Thursday: Edmond François Valentin About was born at Dieuze, in the Lorraine region of France.

William John Broderip was elected a member of the Royal Society.

The initial of several customs treaties in the German Confederation was signed between Prussia and Hesse-Darmstadt, providing a basis for greater German unity.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 14th of 2 M 1828 / Meeting nearly silent & I apprehend had better been entirely so. — it however was generally a good Meeting to me

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 17, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 17th of 2 M / Our Meeting was pretty well attended, Father Rodman made a small acceptable offering - he was followed by our Ancient frd David Buffum Rose & observed, that he had apprehended it to be his duty, occasionally to say a few words for many years in our solemn Meetings, to stir up the Minds of his fellow candidates for immortality, to a closer attention to those things which would make for their peace - he said he had seldom thought it his place to enter much on nice disputed doctrines or go much into metaphysical reasoning, but had been generally lead to speak on those subjects which were plain & on which most agree - while he had been sitting he had felt the language to revolve in his mind, "Mind the light - take heed to

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

the light, for it is the Light which makes manifest & does teach, & will teach more abundantly all those who yealds to its sacred influence - he made a solemn appeal to all present, if they could not say, they had felt this inward light of Christ in their hearts to operate, by reproving them for evil & justifying them for good, & observed if there were any that could say they had not - he should be willing they should at proper time inform him of it. - as he had uniformly believed the divine light of Christ in the soul was as difusive & universal as the rays of the outward sun. - he observed that he was concerned for his friends present that they be faithful to its dictates, not expecting to stand among them much longer in that capacity. - he closed his testimony in a very feeling manner, which left a remarkable solemn covering over the Meeting. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 21, Thursday: A printing press arrived at the headquarters of the Cherokee council in Echota, Georgia.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 21st of 2nd M / Very Rainy, small Meeting & silent - no buisness in the Preparative Meeting, tho' the womens side a request from Hannah Brayton for membership was forwarded to the Moy [Monthly] Meeting - Put a letter & several pamphlets on board the Packet for John S Gould. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 24, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 24th of 2nd M / Meetings both silent & to me not very lively Meetings. - Nor have I thro' the day experienced Much of the arisings of divine life. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 2, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 2nd of 3 M / Silent meetings & neither of them were very lively with me, tho' not wholly destitute of good -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 6, Thursday: Hongi Hika, Ngapuhi War Chief of New Zealand, died.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 6th of 3rd M 1828 / Silent meeting & to me a season of poverty. How poor & weak I am, but amidst it all I have much to be thankful for, in that I am sometimes favoured with an evidence of continued favour from the divine hand. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 9, Sunday: The initial performance of the new Societe des Concerts du Conservatoire took place at the Paris Conservatory. The group had been formed to promote modern symphonic music, particularly that of Ludwig van Beethoven. This day marked the first performance of the “Eroica” Symphony in France. It would be these performances during this Spring season which would introduce Hector Berlioz to Beethoven –to the expressive power of his music– and solidify for him the symphony as a dramatic form, capable of extra-musical associations.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 9th of 3rd M / In our morning Meeting Anne Dennis said a few words & in the Afternoon Meeting Father Rodman bore a short testimony - In the forepart of the Meeting we were disturbed by a man who appeared to be deranged, he rose up & asked us if we knew Arther Howell or Wm Savery, by which I concluded he knew something about friends & had live in Phila as both those names were familiar to a number present - after a time at the request of Father Rodman & Benj Cornell he withdrew. - Yesterday we had a pleasant letter from John, he appears to be making satisfactory progress in his buisness in Hudson & expects to attend our next Y Meeting in the 6th M -- My Brother James W Gould who had been on a Whaling voyage out of New Bedford came into this harbour last night & on short this morning - he looks better than he did when he was at home in the 6th M 1825. - he went with Isaac to Portsmouth to see Uncle & Aunt Stanton & Mother - & will sail for Bedford in the ship he came in, (called the Persia), tomorrow morning

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 13, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 13 of 3 M / At meeting poor & barran, but our frd Hannah Dennis had a few words in the Sweetness towards the close, which did me good. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 16, Sunday: This year Nicolò Paganini was beginning an extended performance tour that would not end until a performance in Paris in September 1834! On this day he arrived in Vienna from Italy for his 1st concertizing in Vienna. Antonia Bianchi would be singing alongside him.

WALDEN: Near at hand, upon the topmost spray of a birch, sings the brown-thrasher -or red mavis, as some love to call him- all the morning, glad of your society, that would find out another farmer's field if yours were not here. While you are planting the seed, he cries, -"Drop it, drop it, -cover it up, cover it up, -pull it up, pull it up, pull it up." But this was not corn, and so it was safe from such enemies as he. You may wonder what his rigmarole, his amateur Paganini performances on one string or on twenty, have to do with your planting, and yet prefer it to leached ashes or plaster. It was a cheap sort of top dressing in which I had entire faith.

PEOPLE OF WALDEN

NICOLÒ PAGANINI

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 3rd M 16 1828 / In consequence of much Snow which fell on 7th day the walking was such that only about 4 women got to meeting in the morning & as many in the Afternoon - both were silent & very lifeless seasons to me. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 26, Thursday: The first concert consisting entirely of the works of Franz Schubert took place in Vienna. Originally planned for March 21st, it was changed to coincide with the first anniversary of the death of Ludwig van Beethoven. Songs performed for the initial time were Auf dem Strom D.943 to words of Rellstab, Fischerweise D.881 to words of Schlecht, Der Kreuzzug D.932 to words of Leitner, and Die Sterne to words of Leitner. Other premieres included the Schlachtlied D.912 for double male chorus to words of Klopstock and the first movement of the String Quartet D.887.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 26 of 3 Mo// Wm Almy was at Meeting & was concern'd in public testimony to the edification & comfort of Many minds present.— In the last for discipline there was two requests for membership Vizt Job Watson & [blank] Slocum - Benj Anthony & Catherine Almy published their intentions of Marriage with each other. & a committee appt to treat with E W Lawton. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 30, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 30th of 3 M 1818 / This morning we unexpectedly found our friend William Almy at meeting, the gathering was about as large as usual - Wm was engaged in a truly Orthodox sermon, which was remarkably attended with life & power - his supplication was far exceeded any thing I ever heard from him & indeed do not know the time when I have felt the Divine life, solemnity & power so evidently over a meeting as it evidently was particularly at the close of his prayer. - The Afternoon Meeting was silent - the hearts of many brethren were made glad to rejoicing for this days favour - a first token that divine help is near. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 2, Wednesday: The packet boat Niagara was the first boat of the season to pass Syracuse, heading west on the Erie Canal.

April 3, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 3rd of 4 M 1828 / Our Meeting was small & silent but a good degree of favour. - Yesterday I went to the steam Boat as she came in from NYork & unexpectedly met my frd Saml B Tobey just returned from Philad- where he has passed the Winter in completing his studies of Medicine. -He is the Dr. Tobey who wrote the memorial for Anna Jenkins who started the [Providence Shelter for Colored Children; refer to A SHORT HISTORY OF THE PROVIDENCE SHELTER FOR COLORED CHILDREN, page 4]

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 6, Easter Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*1st day 6th of 4th M / Our Mornng Meeting was larger than usual and our frd D Buffum was engaged in a very lively & earnest testimony, & of greater length than he has usually appeared of late - he began with a commendation of the Scriptures & recommending the reading of them, & then observed a small portion of which had ocured to his mind in a lively manner Vizt "Righteousness exalteth a Nation but sin is a reproach to any people" - he shewed in a clear & animated manner the hideousness of Sin & beauty of Excellency of righteousness to Nations & individuals & from that exhorted us to the ground work of Christianity & repeated the text "There was a man sent from God to bear Witness of the light, but he was not that light, but sent to bear witness of it &c. - Hannah Dennis then had a short acceptable testimony
The Meeting was silent in the Afternoon In the evening we went to Cousin Henry Goulds & passed a little time pleasantly with them. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 10, Thursday: Incidental music to Ozaneaux' play Le dernier jour de Missolonghi by Ferdinand Herold was performed for the initial time, in the Theatre de l'Odeon, Paris.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 10th of 4th M 1828 / Our Meeting was silent after it was our Select Meeting, which was a season of some distress but on the whole ended well, in that I trust no hurt was done taking things as they were. Sarah Fowler [Towles] ? dined with us.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 13, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 13th of 4th M / A little preaching in both Meetings. - but rather barran seasons to me. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 14, Monday: At Newgate prison in London a healthy 24-year-old woman, Catherine Walsh, was hanged because she had killed her 6-week-old infant. This would be a treasure for the Royal College of Surgeons — a fit young female body to dissect (they would make the most careful drawings, and these still exist).

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

OTHER WOMEN HANGED IN ENGLAND DURING 1828

Date	Name	Age	Place of execution	Crime
17/03	Mary Magrath	60	Dundalk	Murder
22/03	Jane Scott	22	Lancaster Castle	Murder
08/08	Elizabeth Commins	22	Bodmin	Murder of child
16/08	Ann Harris		Shrewsbury	Murder
22/10	Isabella Mc Menamy	22	Glasgow	Robbery & assault

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 14th of 4 M / Today we had a friendly call from Job Otis of New Bedford on his way to NYork. – our interview was pleasant & to me interesting. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 17, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 17th of 4th M / Silent meeting & Preparative in which all the Queries were Answered. – I felt under the necessity of recommending the more frequent reading the Scriptures, believing a blessing would attend the daily reading of them in our families when quietly convened. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 20, Sunday: French explorer Rene-Auguste Caillie became the 2d European to reach Timbuktu (unlike his predecessor Alexander Gordon Laing, he would live to tell the tale).

Nicolò Paganini performed before the Empress of Austria and her children in the Redoutensaal, Vienna.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 20th of 4th M / A very Stormy day of high wind Rain & Hail Meetings very small, silent & poor. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 27, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 27th of 4th M / Our Meeting were rather small & to me not of the most lively Kind. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 29, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

4th M 29th - 3rd day / This Morn'g in company with other friends on board & David Buffum in company we set out for Greenwich to attend the Quarterly Meeting & were seven hours on board the boat, but had a very pleasant passage. - on our arrival we went immediately in to Daniel Howlands where we were kindly recd

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 30, Wednesday: Documentation of the international slave trade, per W.E. Burghardt Du Bois: "Africans at Key West: Message from the President ... relative to the Disposition of the Africans Landed at Key West." -HOUSE DOCUMENT, 20 Cong. 1 sess. VI. No. 262.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day - Our Select Meeting was a season of some favour & some labour. - I dined at Mary Spencers & My wife returned to D Howlands. - I spent the Afternoon in attending to some concerns of moment & then returned to D Howlands -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 31, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day Our Meeting at large was Much favour'd under the Ministry of Our frd Wm Almy & the buisness was well conducted - We dined at our friend Abigail Prouds, after which we went with Wm Almy to his House & lodged. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 2, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day went to the Y Meeting School & spent the day there in the committee & went to Moses Browns to lodge. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 4, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal about the events of the weekend:

7th day Spent the day again at the School House attending the Meeting for Sufferings. - we lodged at Wm Jenkins & 1st day [Sunday] Morning we went on board the Steam Boat Babcock & got home by Noon & attended our Afternoon Meeting. - & took tea at Father Rodmans. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 5, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

2nd day 5th of 5th M 1828 / This forenoon Uncle Peter Lawton was in town & called to see me perhaps for the last time before he becomes an inhabitant of Dutchess or some other county in the State of NYork, for whence he expects to set out tomorrow. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 7, Wednesday: Russian armies, led by Tsar Nikolai I, crossed the River Pruth (Prut) into Ottoman territory.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 7th of 5 M / Uncle Peter Lawton did not set out for Nine Partners till this Morning. - May his removal be peaceful & prosperous in every sense. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 8, Thursday: Jean Henri Dunant was born.

Sharbel Makhlef was born.

Mauro Giuseppe Sergio Pantaleo Giuliani died.

Robert Schumann and fellow law student Gisbert Rosen went to visit Heinrich Heine in München. Contrary to their expectations, they found him charming and spend several hours with him touring the city.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 8th of 5 M / Our Meeting was Silent, solid & better attended than usual. - to me it was a pretty good meeting. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 10, Saturday: Franz Schubert and Franz Lachner performed Schubert's Great Fantasia D.940 in f minor for 4-handed piano, for Eduard Bauernfeld, in Vienna.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 10th of 5 M / This Afternoon in the Steam Boat Chancellor Livingston Hannah Ann, Catherine & Obadiah Lawton set out for NYork on their way to Nine Partners where they expect to settle with their Father Peter Lawton, who set our by land a few days ago. - he had sold his home-stead at Portsmouth in hopes of bettering his circumstances Which were not poor before he left R I I wish them All well & hope they may realize what he expects - but I cannot but regret the circumstance of their leaving this Island with so little necessity, a spot of land to go out of the family where Friends have so long resorted & lived, together

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

with a promising family to leave the Monthly Meeting is no small trial to us that remain, but there is no alternative but to do the best we can. -

I hope Our Moy [Monthly] Meeting will not be left distitute of helpers, hower [however] discouraging it may appear in some respects -

I trust there is a few exercised for the prosperity of Truth & engaged to promote its cause - but the burden of active labour falls heavy on a few. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 11, Sunday: Capriccio on "La ci darem la mano" from Mozart's Don Giovanni by Nicolò Paganini was performed by the composer in Vienna.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 11th of 5 M / Silent & low meetings. - Elizabeth Huntington Died about 10 OClock this morning in he 80th [?] year of her Age

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 13, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 13th of 5th M 1828 / This Afternoon Attended the funeral of our friend Elizabeth Huntington who was a woman well exsteemed in society & for some years was acceptably engaged in the Appointment of overseer. - The funeral went to the Meeting House. The Sitting was silent excepting a few words offered towards the close by Father Rodman. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

May 15, Thursday: Passage of the bill commonly termed the “Tariff of Abominations.”

The following is a snippet from Charles Haskell’s REMINISCENCES OF NEW YORK BY AN OCTOGENARIAN:
Occupants of the State Prison in Greenwich Street were removed to the newly constructed building at Sing Sing, the construction of which had been commenced in 1825.... The city stages (omnibuses) had so increased at this time (twenty in number) that there were five routes in operation, viz.: Greenwich, Broadway, Manhattanville, Grand, and Dry Dock (via Water and Cherry streets, etc.).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 15th of 5th M / Our Meeting was silent, very solid & to me a season of favour - & tho' it was rainy it was better attended than on more pleasant days. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 19, Monday: William Ladd founds the American Peace Society, in New-York.

To protect northern industry from European goods, the US Congress forwarded and President John Quincy Adams signed the “Tariff of Abominations,” supported both by Daniel Webster and Henry Clay. Tariffs on imports would be increased as a result of this bill, and prices of goods, both raw materials and manufactured items, would quickly rise, to the dismay of the southern states.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal about the events of the previous few days:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

7th day 17th of 5 M / Went to Connanicut on buisness - lodged at John Weedens - 1st day [Sunday] Attended Meeting on the Island & lodged at Joseph Greenes - & staid there all night - 2nd day [Monday] returned home. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 24, Saturday: United States Statute: "An Act making an appropriation for the suppression of the slave trade" (STATUTES AT LARGE, IV. 302; HOUSE JOURNAL, 20th Congress, 1st session, House Bill No. 190).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 24th of 5 M / Being under appointment from the Select Quarterly to visit the Select Monthly Meeting of South Kingston I went this Afternoon to Narragansett & lodged at cousin Hannah Gardiners - where I found her & cousin Patty Hazard comfortable but very lame & both of them Much bent with the infermity of advancing age & the rheumatism - it was pleasant to meet these aged connections of mine, as I have not had an opportunity of being much in their company for some years.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 25, Sunday: The Reverend Waldo Emerson's 25th birthday.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day Clarke Collins carryed me to South Kingston Meeting, where I found Hannah Dennis & Lydia Breed with their Husbands - Hannah & Lydia were both much favour'd in testimony & I considerd it a season of favour to many as well as myself. --I dined at Rowland Hazards, after dinner I went to James Robinsons at Point Judith, spent the remainder of the Afternoon & lodged -In the Afternoon we were joined by Walter & Mary B Allen & Wm Reynolds & his wife, who was a very comfortable & interesting addition to our company -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

May 26, Whit Monday morning: The police in Nürnberg found a small youth, of approximately 16 years of age, wearing old and somewhat bedraggled peasant clothing, apparently dazed and either incoherent or entirely unable to articulate, standing in the public square. He carried notes, or fragments of notes, or something was pinned to his clothing, explaining that his name was Kaspar Hauser and telling something about his birth and with whom he has been living for 16 years. Although rumors circulated that he was the son of a noble, and the rightful prince of Baden, most of these rumors were quickly seen to be false.³⁵¹

351. Refer to Verlaine's and Trakl's poems, Jakob Wassermann's novel, Peter Handke's play, Werner Herzog's movie, and a more recent movie playing on the fantasy that this boy might have been the legitimate pretender to the throne. Also refer to Masson, Jeffrey Moussaieff, translator. LOST PRINCE: THE UNSOLVED MYSTERY OF KASPAR HAUSER (ILLUSTRATED). NY: The Free Press, 1996.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

: And here be it submitted that apparently going to corroborate the doctrine of man's fall, a doctrine now popularly ignored, it is observable that where certain virtues pristine and unadulterate peculiarly characterize anybody in the external uniform of civilization, they will upon scrutiny seem not to be derived from custom or convention, but rather to be out of keeping with these, as if indeed exceptionally transmitted from a period prior to Cain's city and citified man. The character marked by such qualities has to an unvitiated taste an untampered-with flavor like that of berries, while the man thoroughly civilized, even in a fair specimen of the breed, has to the same moral palate a questionable smack as of a compounded wine. To any stray inheritor of these primitive qualities found, like Caspar Hauser, wandering dazed in any Christian capital of our time, the good-natured poet's famous invocation, near two thousand years ago, of the good rustic out of his latitude in the Rome of the Cesars, still appropriately holds:-

"Honest and poor, faithful in word and thought,
What has thee, Fabian, to the city brought?"

Though our Handsome Sailor had as much of masculine beauty as one can expect anywhere to see; nevertheless, like the beautiful woman in one of Hawthorne's minor tales, there was just one thing amiss in him.

No visible blemish, indeed, as with the lady; no, but an occasional liability to a vocal defect. Though in the hour of elemental uproar or peril he was everything that a sailor should be, yet under sudden provocation of strong heart-feeling, his voice otherwise singularly musical, as if expressive of the harmony within, was apt to develop an organic hesitancy, in fact, more or less of a stutter or even worse. In this particular Billy was a striking instance that the arch interferer, the envious marplot of Eden, still has more or less to do with every human consignment to this planet of earth. In every case, one way or another he is sure to slip in his little card, as much as to remind us - I too have a hand here.

After much politicking and despite the opposition of Luigi Cherubini, Hector Berlioz mounted the initial concert in his career of concert-giving, at the Paris Conservatory. Included on the program were 1st performances of his La revolution grecque, scene heroique for vocal soloists, chorus and orchestra to words of Ferrand, the Waverly Overture, Marche religieuse des mages, and the overture to the opera Les francs-juges. The audience was not large — mostly musical luminaries and personal friends of Berlioz. The performance was mostly good, although there were a few flaws. He lost money but generally pleased the critics, and made a name for himself.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day We set out for the Western Meeting House where the Monthly Meeting was held & arrived there at 9 OC & had an

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

opportunity with the Select Members of that Moy [Monthly] Meeting which resulted to a good degree of satisfaction, & I am lead to hope, good will result from our labours - after which came on the Moy [Monthly] Meeting - the public part of it was an eminently favourd time Hannah Dennis & Lydia Breed were favourd in public testimony but our frd Mary B Allen was deep powerful & reaching to the state of the Meeting & her testimony was sKilfully [sic] managed - & it seemed to me the minds of Many were greatly reached. - The buisness of the Meeting was well conducted & a good degree of weight attended- Jamed Robinson carried me to Hezekiah Babcocks to dine & then I returned to his house & Lodged.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 27, Tuesday: Robert Schumann described in his diary his initial bout with mental illness. "I was agitated, but I don't know by what. It seems to me that I will go mad one day." He went on to describe an anxiety attack.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day morning his son Sylvester carried me to the ferry & I came over the ferrys home.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 28, Wednesday: A SERMON DELIVERED BEFORE HIS EXCELLENCY LEVI LINCOLN, GOVERNOR: HIS HONOR THOMAS L. WINTHROP, LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR, THE HON. COUNCIL, THE SENATE, AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS, ON THE DAY OF GENERAL ELECTION, MAY 28, 1828, by James Walker (Dutton and Wentworth, printers to the state).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 28th of 5 M 1828 / My Brother Isaac returned from NYork this Mornng - bringing the intelligence that a division has taken place in the Yearly Meeting of NYork on 2nd day [Monday] last - I dare not to give & hardly to feel a sentiment on this great & momentous event, but I can truly say my heart is filled with fear & Alarm, at the accounts I hear - perhaps further information may make it more easy to my feelings. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 29, Thursday: Robert Schumann again described an episode of mental illness. "But on the way back to Leipzig I seemed to be losing my mind: I did have my mind, yet I thought I had lost it. I had actually gone mad."

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 29th of 5th M / Today was our Moy [Monthly] Meeting held

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

in Town. It was about as large as usual - In the first we had a solid good time David Buffum rose with an excellent, lively & precious testimony beginning with the Text "What more shall I do for my Vineyard that I have not done in it." - after a little opening the subject & expressing his own feelings as being hardly able to rise & very feeble in mind, he began with the 5th of Isaiah & went on to the end of the 6th verse "My well beloved had a Vineyard in a very fruitful hill, and he fenced it, and gathered out the stones therof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, & also make a wine press therin: & when he looked that it should bring forth grapes, it brought it forth wild grapes? - And now go to, I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: I will take away the hedge therof, and it shall be trodden down, And I will lay it to waste. it shall not be pruned nor digged, but it shall come up briers & thorns. I will also command the Clouds they rain no rain upon it." - He then applied it to individual states & desired that such might be the individual care so to dress the vineyards, of our hearts that when fruit was expected by the great husbandman that he may not be disappointed. -

Sarah Fowler rose & said the words of our blessed Saviour had been so impressive on her mind that she thought it would contribute most to her peace just to express them "If ye believe not that I am He & die in your sins, whither I go ye cannot come." -

A few words were then expressed by Mary Weaver & the Meeting closed. -

The Buisness of the last meeting was pretty well conducted - The request of our dear tried sister Rebecca Rodman was received & a committee appointed in both meetings to take a solid opportunity with her, & I can feel no doubt they will report in favour of her being recd into membership -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 5?, Thursday: The Reverend Lyman Beecher preached in Concord at the formal opening of the Trinitarian Congregational Church on Walden Street (this body had split away from the First Parish Church as it had begun its slide toward Unitarianism, and its edifice was already a year and a half old).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 5th of 6th M 1828 / This Morning in the Steam Boat Washington our only & dear Son John S Gould arrived home from Hudson after an absence of one Year & four Months It is nearly three years since he left us & enter'd as a Schollar at the Yearly Meeting School in Providence. - we feel thankful for the priviledge of again seeing him for a little while. - Our meeting which he attended was small, but solid, & a short acceptable testimony from Father Rodman. - We Drank tea with John at Father Rodmans

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

June 6, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 6th of 5th [sic] M / Accounts recd from NYork Yearly Meeting, while they are distressing - they are also relieving, to find that Friends, holding the Ancient & true principles of our dear predecessors in the Faith were favour'd to hold solid quiet meeting in which they were evidently owned by the Great Head of the Church Christ Jesus our Lord & Saviour - & tho' compelled to leave the Meeting House & Assemble in a public Seminary of learning which was Kindly loaned for their accommodation, there were favourd with quiet & the Arm of divine help, which was over all & above all, tho' the wicked Seemed to triumph for a season. - yet I have no doubt their partial & seeming prosperity will prove their ultimate overthrow & defeat After Dinner John left us for Providence intending to visit his old friends there & the Institution at which he long resided, & loved sincerely & also to attend to some buisness for Benj Marshall at some of the Factorys at Lowel Massachusetts - expecting to be gone from us about a week - This Afternoon Our frd D Buffum called at the shop, he seemed feeble, & in many respects very unwell, particularly with a humor on his hand which he thinks is of a cancerous kind & which he had this Afternoon applied caustic for an hour. - he seemed pleasant & cheerful observing that it had been his desire to enjoy the passing moment pleasantly & virtuously. he remarked that he did not expect to remain long with us, that he had a desire to live & be able to attend the approaching Yearly Meeting - This Afternoon we heard of the Sudden removal of our aged respectable cousin Martha Hazard - it appears that she died last night of a fit of which she was taken yesterday morning. - She rose in the morning & ate her breakfast in usual health, which was in general of late was feeble tho' chiefly rheumatic & very lame - She sat down to sewing & soon the work fell from her hands - she observing that she believed, that had come upon her, which she had feard for years - was helped to bed, & very soon became speechless & died the night following. - She was first cousin to my mother & an intimate & much loved cousin too - She was on a visit to her sister Hannah Gardiner in Boston Neck -where I saw he about two weeks ago in a pleasant & tranquil state of mind. - little then thinking it would be the last time I should behold her in mutability tho' I dont know but it might have had a passing thought in my mind. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 12, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 12th of 6th M / Father Rodman was engaged in a lively sound & I thought pertinent testimony - The Meeting small as it generally is the 5th day previous to Yearly Meeting - many have other cencerns which they cannot leave. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

June 13, Friday: Mikhail Ivanovich Glinka left his civil service post in the office of the Council of Communications (he would spend the following 3 years in Italy in an attempt to restore his health).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*6th day 13th of 6 M / Yearly Meeting has now commenced. -Arrrived in the Steam Boat this Morning our friends Isaac & Anna Braithwaite, Elizabeth Robson & her companions - our frd Anna Mott of NYork & Hannah Hartshorn of Pennsylvania. - with several other friends. -
Daniel & Thos Howland & Thos Anthony & wife, our guests arrived from Greenwich in season to dine with us. -
At tea time John S Gould returned in the Stage from his eastern tour having been to Boston Salem & Lowell*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 14, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 14th of 6 M / Rode to Portsmouth with my wife to attend the Select Yearly Meeting - Stopped a few moments at Asa Shermans then went to the Meeting house, where we had a solid & solemn sitting - Our dear venerable fathers in the Church David Buffum & Moses Brown were Absent which is the first Select Yearly Meeting they have been absent since I have sat in them - the first appearance was a most baptizing supplication from dear Anna Braithwaite - followed in a short pertinent & Solid communication from Wm Almy - then Danl Howland then followed Elizabeth Robson in a truly acceptable testimony attended with life & power, in no common degree - Afterwhich the buisness of the Meeting was enterd on & gone through, when several short communications were made & prayer by hannah Hartshorn. - Dined at Isaac Almays, & I returned to attend the Meeting for Sufferings & after that to Isaac Almays took tea & rode home & found a goodly company of folks at our house. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 15, Sunday: Joseph Smith, Jr.'s 1st child died shortly after birth, leaving Emma Hale Smith seriously ill. Sometime after this Joseph would journey to his parents' home to retrieve his 116-page manuscript from his scribe Martin Harris, only to be informed that the manuscript had gone missing.

Grand Duke Carl August of Saxe-Weimar-Eisenach died on his way back home from Berlin (he would be succeeded by Carl Friedrich).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 15th of 6 M 1828 / Rose early & filled up my tour of duty & buisness of various kinds & had a little time of rest

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

before meeting. –

Our Meetings were large as usual - In the morning Elizabeth Robson first appeared in Supplication & then A Braithwaite in Testimony - sound & in great gospel Authority -The Meeting was unusually quiet & solemn - In the Afternoon Elizabeth Robson in testimony & Anna in Supplication It was a remarkably still meeting for the Afternoon & Truth seemed to bear the victory - Our friends A Braithwaite & E Robson took tea with us - & in the evening a large circle of room folks came in & the time passed in pleasant & interesting conversation. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 16, Monday: King Charles X of France, at the urging of Prime Minister Jean Baptiste Silvere Gaye, Vicomte de Martignac, signed ordinances attacking the Jesuits. Henceforward, all religious teachers would need to obtain the approval of the state.

In spite of offers from Turin, Venice, and Naples, Vincenzo Bellini signed a contract with Teatro alla Scala, Milan to produce an opera during the following Carnival.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day Meetings opened under a solemn covering -& we had offerings from several dear brethren. –
Here I intended to have kept a minute Diary of the proceedings from Day to Day during the course of the Yearly Meeting, but in addition to the usually business of the family & an unusual round of company I had to take my share in the transaction of the Meetings - & seldom able to get to bed before past 11 O'clock & frequently up by 5 O'clock in the morning which rendered it quite out of the question for me to write from day to day. –
It now remains for me to add to my Journal that the Several sittings of the Yearly Meeting were seasons of much divine favour - The hearts of the brethren were never more in unison & love, & the various important concerns of society were well conducted. -A Clear declaration of the Faith & present agitated State of Friends in America was drawn up & directed to be printed, & much other important business was done, & the meeting concluded in harmony. –
As respects ourselves we have had much to be thankful for, in a partial enumeration of these [illegible word] favours I may mention that the company of our friend Jonathon Taylor & his companion as lodgers at our house - & twice that of our friends E Robson & Anna Braithwaite, once at tea & once at dinner. – together with many other friends whom we have long known & loved. – The company of our dear son John Stanton Gould who had been absent from us about sixteen months at Hudson, was here & attended the Yearly Meeting, I trust to his great comfort & help in religious understanding, & certainly his being with us was greatly to our comfort & consolation. –
The Meeting held till 6th day evening, which is longer than

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

I ever remember of its holding before. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 21, Saturday: Samuel Taylor Coleridge and William Wordsworth with his daughter Dora went on a tour of the Netherlands and the Rhine.

Ferdinand André Fouqué was born.

The initial steps for the foundation of King's College in London were taken at a meeting over which the Duke of Wellington presided.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 21st of 6 M 1828 / Our friends have mostly left us today, for their homes & different services & my time has been wholly devoted to them & unable to attend the School committee which met at 7 OClock at the Meeting house. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 22, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 22 of 6 M / In our Meeting this morning Father Rodman had a Short testimony & also a short lively testimony from David Buffum - Silent in the Afternoon. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 26, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 26th of 6 M / It is our Monthly Meeting at Portsmouth - Tho' our minds were drawn thither we did not think best to go as our dear & only son was here & needed some preparation made for him previous to his setting out for Hudson, which he expects to do tomorrow if nothing happens to prevent. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 28, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 28th of 6 M / At Three OClock this Afternoon, In the Steam Boat Washington, Our Son John Stanton Gould left us for NYork on his way to Hudson, his company has been truly consoling & comfortable to us. – Our hearts are glad, thankful & Humble to find him in good measure preserved on the right foundation, & desire for him an establishment in the everlasting & unchangeable Truth. – He occupies a large space in our feelings & thoughts & is very near & precious to us, yet I think we have been favoured to give him up, to be separated from us with a freedom that we could hardly have expected. – As he parted with me at the head of the Wharf - Our frd Mary B Allen came out of the boat & came home with me. – after setting

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

a while she went up to Sarah Perrys to see a Niece of hers on whose acct she came to Newport. She returned & lodged with us & we were glad of her company. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 29, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 29th of 5th M 1828 / Our frd Mary B Allen being determined to return to Providence this morning, she went early to the Store on the long Wharf to wait for the Steam Boat that was expected to arrive from NYork. - but it was very foggy & she was disappointed of Attending Meeting as well as myself, as I did not feel free to leave her in waiting alone in the Store. - She went up this Afternoon at Four OC in the Babcock Our Afternoon Meeting which I attended was rather larger than usual & silent. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 2, Wednesday: Lydie, a ballet by Ferdinand Herold to a scenario by Aumer, was performed for the initial time, in the Paris Opera.

After Sam Patch had made his famous leap at the Passaic Falls in September of the previous year, an explanation for his conduct had begun to be offered. Patch, unlucky in love, had been drunk and had attempted to put an end to his miseries. It had been nothing but a failed suicide leap. On this day Patch was interviewed by the local newspaper, and attempted to explain — that that simply wasn't it:

I am perfectly sober and in possession of my proper faculties, and [leaping waterfalls] is nothing more than an art which I have knowledge of and courage to perform, an art which I have

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

practiced from my youth.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 2nd of 7th M 1828 / Understanding this forenoon that my dear long beloved cousin Bathsheba Gould had fell & hurt her hip & lay in a manner that it was likely she could continue long I went up this evening with my wife to see her - I found her very low, & tho' from her Advanced age & feebleness of body she had been for sometimes very weak & childish in mind & at times a little Shattered in her intellects, yet this evening She was entirely sensible & very sweet in spirit - This she always was, for I have seldom known a person in all situations in life more uniformly concientious & desirous to live in the life of the spirit of Truth - When she was told that I was in the room, she said Oh is it Stephen, I always loved Stephen, & when he was a little child his Aunt Patty Gould brought him to our house & laid him on my bed to sleep, so she did - She repeated this over twice & then after laying quiet a while she said - I cant remain so long, I am a very poor weak creature - I am glad thou hast come to be with me a little while. - When I got up to go away

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

she bid me very affectionately farewell & repeated her professions of love & wished me to come again – When my wife went to the bed she recognized her & expressed her love to her saying Oh yes it is Hannah I always loved thee, I have one son & his name is John, he has gone away & and I hope he will live, she spoke of my wifes Services to Friends & said considerable besides evincing her love for friends. – all in childlike simplicity

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 3, Thursday: The father of Clara Wieck, Friedrich Wieck, got married for a 2d time, with Clementine Fechner.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 3rd of 7th M 1828 / Our meeting was small & to me a season of some favour – Father Rodman bore a short but good little testimony, to states afflicted. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 6, Sunday: The Reverend Ezra Ripley made a notation in the records of his 1st Parish Church in Concord, that “Our sister Cynthia Thoreau changed her mind, and did not offer herself for communion with the Trinitarian Church, and is still a member of this church.”

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 6th of 7 M / Our Meetings were well attended & both nearly silent. – The Afternoon was an uncommonly dull one to me. – Before I went to meeting this morning I met with a plain looking man at the door, who I took to be a man from Lynn & from his open & familiar look it seemed as if I had seen him & as he advanced I gave him my hand – he told me he was from Phila & after a little familiar conversation I asked him in to the house On conversing further I found he was not a member of our society, but had been in his youth & was disowned for his outgoings, but had become (as he called it) convinced, but had not joined any society & was now travelling on truths account – I told him as he was not a member we could not consent to his preaching in our meeting, he said he did not attend any Meeting, but went round chiefly conversing in families – said he had been to New Bedford & Staid at S Rodmans. – well I said didst thou feel Saml & his wife to be friends in the life of truth. – he replied, he did not feel free to speak on that subject, but he could say thus much that “while he was there he felt free” – finding what he was, I felt but little openness [the word is crossed out] with him & we frequently fell into long pauses. – I however told him that I had no unity with discenters from friends such as followed Elias Hicks – after a little dissultory conversation he got up to go away saying that he was going to NYork in the Steam Boat this Afternoon – I expected him at meeting but found he did not

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

come. —

Just as I rose from dinner he knocked at the door, came in & set down to wait for the boat — I asked him some leading questions on doctrinal subjects, particularly of his belief in the Divinity of Jesus Christ, whether he believed in his character as God & man, & whether he considered him as a meer prophet & good man — he expressed an unwillingness to give his opinion on these points of doctrine, & engaged[?] the necessity of attending to the inward Light — said he was a friend to all good folks of any denomination & that he did not meddle with particular doctrines, especially the points on which Friends are divided — but still where ever I found him he was associated with those of the separatists or new order. — I told him he could not get along so, that I knew as well as he knew any thing that there were points which they held to that were not christian & took away their claim to the name, that I wanted him to acknowledge the true principle & give his strength to Orthodox Friends & not to carry out two [?] but to come out on the right side, thus he would openly & show himself subserve the good cause &c.

He told me that very soon after he came in in the Morning that he perceived I was under bondage & oppression from a sense of feeling. — I told him as to bondage, I acknowledged more of that than I wished, & as to oppression, he was correct for I did silently set up Lamentation over him, from an apprehension that he had known something of the purifying power of truth in his heart & been in some measure enlightened by it, but from a want of properly embracing the Doctrines of the Gospel, he had not attained to that clearness which he ought to have done — he should bring what I had said to judgement & if it was for him he should take it & if not it would pass off. — & urged the necessity of Love &c & wished me to examine & see if my own words did not apply to myself &c

This is a very imperfect outline of all that passed between us. — but as the opportunity was a little remarkable I thought best to insert something of it here — we parted Kindly. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 8, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 8 of 7 M 1828 / Nancy & Eliza Pickering, & Thos P Rodman took tea with us. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

July 9, Wednesday: Gilbert Stuart died in Boston with his portrait of Nathaniel Bowditch still unfinished.

The East India Marine Society of Salem, which had commissioned this painting, would refuse to accept it in that condition, so Bowditch himself sprang for the cost and hung the portrait, the best one of him ever made, in a hall on the second floor of his home: The East India Marine Society would offer its cash instead to the painter Charles Osgood, and the portrait of Bowditch would be completed in 1835 or 1836:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 9th of 7 M / Samuel Rodman was in town from New Bedford - I had buisness with him on acct of Moses Lopez, which brought us together, & he called & set the evening with us a sociable way. - the time passed on pleasant subjects & not a word on disputable points. - but Oh the secret silent lamentation that pervaded my heart on acct of the loss he has sustained in a separation from the Society of which he was once a useful & ornamental Member. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 10, Thursday: The City of Vienna confers on Nicolò Paganini the Medal of St. Salvator.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 10th of 7 M / Silent & small Meeting - It is the season of haymaking, & the atmosphere very damp which makes people that

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

[?] anxious to be doing while they may. – I cant plead excuses for such as stay from Meetings, but it seems as if it was more justifiable under sime circumstances, than others. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 13, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 13th of 7 M / Meetings again Small - In the Afternoon it was unusually so, the rain coming in torrents prevented many from attending. – In the Morning Anne Dennis spoke a few words and in the Afternoon Father Rodman said a little. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 17, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 17th of 7 M / In our public Meeting we had a deep searching even prophetic testimony from Abigail Robinson & a very lively comfortable one from Ruth Freeborn. – The last was a Select Meeting which was a season of Exercise & even trial to me

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 18, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 18th of 7 M / My mind much oppressed with the state of things among us. Our society is indeed in a low state - its members low & even inefficient - I have long time hoped we should get [on?] without difficulty but my feelings are fearfully alive of what may happen among us.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

July 19, Saturday afternoon: Sam Patch, promised $15 for his daring exploit, again jumped the Passaic Falls. This gratified a crowd of 6,000 to 10,000 persons — a crowd considerably larger than the entire permanently resident population of Paterson, New Jersey.

"One thing can be done as well as another."

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 19th of 7 M 1828 / Went this Afternoon in John Peters boat to Connanicut, from his house walked up to John Weedens, attended to the buisness I went upon & lodged there –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 20, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day Walked from J Weedens to Meeting, called at Mercy Weedens – Dined at Joseph Greenes, spent the remainder of the day & lodged there – The Afternoon was Rainy with Thunder & lightening, which prevented my taking a little excursion round the Island. It was my intention to have visited my Ancient cousin Mary Howland & also to have gone to the old burying ground where

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

my great Grandfather Samuel Clarke was buried. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 21, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day Morning Joseph Greene brought me home in his boat – a pleasant sail across the river. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

July 22, Tuesday: Friend Elias Hicks preached at the Hester Street Meeting House of the Religious Society of Friends in Brooklyn on Paumanok "Long Island."³⁵² Their worship was orderly and settled — for the Orthodox (segregationists) had departed.

ELIAS HICKS

Friend Elias went out during this year on the third of his three very extensive visits to Quaker meetings. On this third journey, he went in a one-horse carriage from the Jericho meetinghouse on Long Island (still extant, as pictured) to visit meetings in Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Indiana. He wouldn't be back home until some time in 1829.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 22nd of 7th M / This Afternoon Edw & Mary Lawton took tea with us. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 27, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 27 of 7 M / In the morning we had a pretty large Meeting tho I expect some were deterd by rain - Father Rodman bore a short testimony & D Buffum a pretty large one to the Truth —

352.A meeting that Henry David Thoreau would later  visit to hear the Hicksite, Friend Lucretia Mott.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Father again was that in testimony in the Afternoon.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 30, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 30th of 7 M / Abigail Weeden wife of Holder Weeden Died night before last & at One OClock her funeral went to Portsmouth & after a Meeting held at the Meeting house her remains were interd there

My Cousin Bathsheba Gould aged about 90 Years Died yesterday - I attended her funeral today at the House of cousin Henry Gould, the sitting was solid & a short testimony from Father Rodman, her remains were carried to Middletown & buried in the family burying ground there. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 31, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 7 M 31 / Our Moy [Monthly] Meeting was a quiet favourd time to me Father Rodman & Abigail Sherman bore short testimmonies - but little buisness. - Uncle Benj Freeborn & wife & Deborah Chase Dined with us. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 3, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 3rd of 8th M 1828 / Our Mornng Meeting was of usual size & D Buffum engaged in testimony - Silent in the Afternoon. - In the evening went with my wife to Abigail Robinsons - Where we Saw our friend Mary R Morton who presented me with a view of the residence of Richard Jordan with him & his old Cow upon it - Richard Jordan's memory is precious to me, his person, his manner & his powerful preaching when on a religious visit from N Carolina in the year 1797 will long remain with me. - his voice when under the gospel influence was remarkably reaching - & well do I remember the hearty prayers he put up for the youth, a precious seed among whom, he said the Lord had given him to believe were then among us. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 6, Wednesday: Andrew Taylor Still was born.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 6th of 8 M / Rode to Portsmouth with my H, & D Buffum in his carriage - Attended Select Meeting - Dined at Asa Shermans - And after a setting of the Trustees of Obadiah Browns Fund, We went to Uncle Stantons & lodged. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

August 7, Thursday: Friend Benjamin Lundy and William Lloyd Garrison staged an abolitionist meeting in the vestry room of the Baptist church in Boston. After they had said their piece the reverend of the church arose to caution his parishioners against allowing themselves to be swayed by such dangerous enthusiasms as these.

(What was the Reverend suggesting? Was he suggesting “Remember, we’re white people here, this really isn’t any of our problem”? —Well then, can you offer a more plausible parsing of what he was suggesting?)

Samuel Taylor Coleridge and William Wordsworth with his daughter Dora returned from their tour of the Netherlands and the Rhine.

Russian forces captured Akhalkalaki from the Turks.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day / Our public Quarterly Meeting was not a very satisfactory one, the preaching was far from being sound tho' charity would induce the hope that the preacher was honest in her views, & what she said did not convey her real meaning else she was very ignorant of what our principles – In the Meeting for buisness we had several cases of importance – particulalry an appeal from a Woman & a case of difference between two Monthly Meetings was referred to the Quarterly Meeting & by them to a committee. – The excellent epistle from the Yearly to the subordinate Meetings was read &c. – After Meeting I rode with Wm Jenkins to Bristol ferry & Dined at Jeremiah Giffords, after crossing the ferry – I rode the rest of the distance to Providence with John Farnum & lodged at Wm

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Jenkins's

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 August 8, Friday: St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church began in Newport (this is therefore the oldest Catholic Parish in Rhode Island). Friend Stephen Wanton Gould, who never mentions in all the pages of his journal the existence of Catholics in his home town, typically took no notice the opening of this church.

*6th day Spent this day at the School House on committee buisness
- Our visit to the Schools were favoured opportunities - lodged at my kind friend Moses Browns -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 August 9, Saturday: An agreement between Great Britain, France and Egypt provides for the withdrawal of Egyptian forces from Greece.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day Spent the day in Providence attending the Meeting for sufferings - Dined at Wm Jenkins & after the setting in the Afternoon rode with Wm Almy to his place in Cranston where I lodged & had a pleasant visit. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 August 10, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*First day - Rode with Wm to Providence & attended Meeting there.
- Dined at Wm Jenkins & went to the School to Meeting in the Afternoon Wm Almy had sound clear & lively testimonies in both.
- After tea at Wm Jenkins I walked out & visited J S Anthony & Jonathon Congdon & returned to W. Jenkins & lodged. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 August 11, Monday: William Corder was hanged at Bury St. Edmunds, England for the murder of Maria Marten at the Red Barn a year earlier.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day - After completing a little buisness that was necessary to attend to I got on board the Reformation Capt Pratt & came home -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

August 12, Tuesday: French explorer Rene-Auguste Caillie reached Fez, Morocco, having crossed the Sahara from Timbuktu. As the 1st European to reach Timbuktu and return alive, Caillie would win a prize of 10,000 francs from the Societe de Geographie.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 12th of 8 M / Spent at home attending to some necessary buisness. - of my own.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 13, Wednesday: Vier Refrainlieder by Franz Schubert to words of Seidl were published by Weigl as op. 95.

With notches in his belt for 14 concerts in Vienna Nicolò Paganini departed on a triumphal road tour covering some 30 cities in Germany, Bohemia, and Poland at the rate of about a city a month (he would be venturing as far east as Warsaw, as far west as Strassbourg).

WALDEN: Near at hand, upon the topmost spray of a birch, sings the brown-thrasher -or red mavis, as some love to call him- all the morning, glad of your society, that would find out another farmer's field if yours were not here. While you are planting the seed, he cries, -"Drop it, drop it, -cover it up, cover it up, -pull it up, pull it up, pull it up." But this was not corn, and so it was safe from such enemies as he. You may wonder what his rigmarole, his amateur Paganini performances on one string or on twenty, have to do with your planting, and yet prefer it to leached ashes or plaster. It was a cheap sort of top dressing in which I had entire faith.

PEOPLE OF WALDEN

NICOLÒ PAGANINI

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 13 of 8 M 1828 / I left home this morning in the Stage for New Bedford on buisness of the Meeting for sufferings, to procure Signers, members of the Meeting to the deed of the Boston Meeting house lot which friends has lately agreed to sell & the late act of the Massachusetts Legislature requires the signature of a certain number of the Members of the Meeting to give a Deed I arrived in Bedford a little before 4 OC PM & after getting a little dinner at a tavern, Joseph Tillinghast assisted me in getting a chaise & rode with me to John R. Davis's & after obtaining his name with that of Abraham Sherman Jr who happened to be there we rode on to Obadiah Davis's, took tea, and obtained his name, & rode back into New Bedford, And arrived there about 9 OC in the evening - after sitting awhile at Francis Tabers & arranging for the Morrow I went to J S Tillinghasts & lodged. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 14, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day, rose early & accomplished all my buisness & after taking breakfast at Francis Tabers, got into the Stage & rode to Providence Wm Rotch James Nichols[?] & his wife & daughter on board. - we rode along very pleasantly, - no subject started that would occasion or call forth altercation. we arrived in Providence between 3 & 4 OC PM, after attending to a little buisness I had in town I walked up to the School House on my way there met John Griscom of NYork & his daughter bound there Also.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

- we passed several hours at the School House & John & his daughter visited the School & inspected the institution generally & then went to Moses Browns, took tea & lodged -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 15, Friday: Augustus Sabin Chase was born in Pomfret, Connecticut, the only son of Seth Chase and Eliza Hempstead Dodge Chase.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day - Spent the forenoon in attending to some little buisness in Providence, delivr'd up my buisness to those who were to complete it & took the Steam Boat at 2 OClock and came home. - In this little excursion I have rode Further than I ever did before in one day, & the whole distance is further than I ever went before in the same time. - It is the first time I was ever in the town of New Bedford. - tho' there are several indeed many more, with whom I am intimately acquainted. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 17, Sunday: Maria Deraismes was born in Paris.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 17th of 8th M / In the forenoon Meeting Anne Dennis, Father Rodman, Hannah Dennis & D Buffum in succession bore short testimonys. - Silent in the Afternoon.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 21, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 21 of 8 M / Our frd Wm Almy was unexpectedly at Meeting with us & was acceptable & pertinent in testimony After Meeting I went with him to David Buffums who was not at meeting being confined by indispositions We spent the Afternoon very pleasantly together the conversation on various subjects - particularly relative to the affairs of our society. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 23, Saturday: :In The Mirror of Literature, Amusement, and Instruction, price 2d, of this day appeared the following accounts:

MOTTOES FOR SUN DIALS.

By the Rev. W. Lisle Bowles.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

MORNING SUN.— Tempus volat.

OH! early passenger, look up — be wise,
And think how, night and day, TIME ONWARD FLIES.

NOON.— Dum tempus habemus, operemur bonum.

Life steals away — this hour, oh man, is lent thee,
Patient to "WORK THE WORK OF HIM WHO SENT THEE."

SETTING SUN.— Redibo, tu nunquam.

Haste, traveller, the sun is sinking now—
He shall return again — but never thou.

CHARMS OF SAVAGE LIFE.

It is remarkable that whites or creoles do not always avail themselves of opportunities to return to civilized society. There seem to be pleasures in savage life, which those who have once tasted, seldom wish to exchange for the charms of more polished intercourse. For example, a creole boy was carried off at the age of 13; at 26 he returned to Buenos Ayres, on some speculation of barter. He said that whoever had lived upon horse-flesh would never eat beef, unless driven by necessity or hunger; he described the flesh of a colt to be the most deliciously flavoured of all viands. This man, having transacted the business which led him to Buenos Ayres, returned voluntarily to his native haunts, and is probably living amongst the Indians to this day.

— General William Miller (1795–1861), MEMOIRS, published by his brother John Miller in London in 1827

August 24, Sunday: The western part of New Guinea was claimed for the Netherlands.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 24th of 8th M 1828 / Morning Meeting silent & in the Afternoon a few words by Father Rodman. —
Went with D Rodman to D Buffums & took tea he being very unwell & confined to his house for several Days*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 26, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 26th of 8 M / Visited our frd D Buffum, who had a concern to speak with an individual & wished me to be present. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

August 28, Thursday: Russian troops captured Akhaltzikhe west of Tiflis (Tbilisi).

In Dublin, Ireland, it was proposed among the English Protestants that “Brunswick Clubs” be formed — Orange societies to prevent Roman Catholic emancipation.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 28th of 8 M / Got into the Morning Stage & rode with Sister Ruth to attend Moy [Monthly] Meeting at Portsmouth — Hannah Dennis & Ruth Freeborn were favoured in seasonable & pertinent testimonies. — In the last meeting a young couple were published for Marriage & not much further buisness of importance or out of the general course. — When Meeting broke up the Stage passed & we got in & rode home without dinner, a thing I do not remember of ever doing before. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 31, Sunday: Sarah Melvin was born in Concord to Charles Melvin (1) and Betsy Farrar Melvin (eventually she would get married with Isaac Buteau).

THE MELVINS OF CONCORD

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 31 of 8 M / Our Meetings were rather smaller than usual. In the forenoon Father Rodman bore a short testimony, & Silent in the Afternoon. — After tea took a walk into the Clifton burying ground, where are the remains of many of our Ancient brethren & sisters in The Church & many of our Ancestors & kinsfolk. — I like to go there some times, it brings into mind the memory of many whose character & standing in our society I venerate & love. — I reflect also that this is the last day of the Month & also of the Summer & where I may be or how situated at the end of another, is not known — a desire to be thankful for present good, & hope for more to come. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 1, Monday: On advice of the court physician, Dr. Ernst Rinna, Franz Schubert moved in with his brother on Kettenbrückengasse 6 in the Vienna suburb of Neue Wieden.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*2nd day 9th M 1st 1828 / Wrote a letter to Wm Almy & finished one I had begun some time past to our son John — & also attended to some little concerns
My mind weak & rather low, but somewhat favoured. —*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

September 3, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*4th of 9th M / Father Rodman bore a short acceptable testimony
-Meeting rather small, but quiet & comfortable time.*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 7, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 7 of 9 M / Our Morning Meeting was nearly silent & ought have been quite so. - silent & solid in the Afternoon.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 11, Thursday: A court in Carlsbad ordered Nicolò Paganini to pay 150 florins to Antonio Caccia (the violinist had hired Caccia as a secretary at the beginning of July but after an unremunerative concert on August 22d had dispensed with his services, in breach of contract).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 11th of 9th M / Anne Dennis & Father Rodman bore short testimonies the Meeting was small & grows smaller, several expect to remove soon, - James Mitchells daughters Rhoda Sarah & Elizabeth will go in a few days to Providence. - others sick & confined from Age render our gathering small yet attended with some encouragement & comfort. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 14, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 14 of 9 M / Father Rodman & Hannah Dennis bore short but good testimonys - In the Afternoon silent After tea I went to see our frd D Buffum yet confined & at times very poorly. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

September 18, Thursday: Felix Mendelssohn's cantata Begrussung for solo voices, male chorus, winds, timpani, cellos and basses to words of Rellstab was performed for the initial time, in Berlin (it had been commissioned by Alexander von Humboldt for performance at a meeting of natural scientists).

The following is a snippet from Charles Haskell's REMINISCENCES OF NEW YORK BY AN OCTOGENARIAN:

A traveller from Cincinnati reached here in the unprecedented time of seven days; so remarkable was this considered that it was noticed and commented upon in the papers....

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 18th of 9 M / Silent small but comfortable meeting Recd P [per?] Mail this Afternoon a very pleasant letter from our dear John -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 21, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 21st of 9 M / Meetings nearly silent but solid good ones to me - After tea walked out to our frd D Buffums house & set the evening with him. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 25, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 25th of 9 M / Our Moy [Monthly] Meeting in Town - Considerable important business was transacted - New Trustees to Eastons Point was agreed upon &c & what was of moment & interesting to my feelings was a certificate was granted Our Son John Stanton Gould directed to Hudson Moy [Monthly] Meeting where he resides. - My desire & prayer is that he may be preserved from evil & established in the Truth. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 September 28, Sunday: Varna was taken by the Russian army.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 28th of 9th M 1828 / Our Morning Meeting was nearly silent, a few words was spoken towards the close of it. -at the close of it I rode with Richard Mitchell to his house & dined & then walked down to Uncle Stantons, spent the Afternoon & lodged there -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 29, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

on 2nd day Morning it Rained & I was detained till sometime after dinner when I set out on foot & walked as far as Mitchells Shop when the rain came on again, & I stoped & waited for the Stage & then rode home. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 30, Tuesday: An attitude was being expressed on this day by Friend Stephen Wanton Gould. I am so horrified by that attitude, which we might characterize as a “quietist” attitude, that I will attempt to characterize it here as follows: “Watch out for those violent Quakers who are the deluded followers of Friend Elias Hicks! We Quakes are neither black slaves nor white slaveholders (well, at least, not now, not any longer), so whatever it is that these black slaves and these white slaveholders have got going on between them, it’s in some other universe, not in the ‘Quaker Close’ universe which we inhabit! It ain’t none of our freaking religious business! Be nonviolent! –Don’t impose yourself! –Leave it alone at the jeopardy of your soul!” Here is what Friend Gould expressed precisely as he expressed it:

3rd day 30th of 9 M / Last eveng I recd a letter from my valued friend Wm Jenkins now at Mount Pleasant Ohio, whither he went to attend the Meeting of the Committees from the yearly Meetings & the Yearly Meeting of Ohio. - he gives me a sad detail of events that have taken place The Hixites were violent, to a

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

degree unknown in civil much more religious society. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

It strikes me that the attitude exemplified above by our “quietist” Friend Stephen is precisely the attitude toward human enslavement that Henry David Thoreau criticized (and the attitude exemplified by Friend Elias and his “Hixites” is precisely the attitude that Henry embraced, by way of the influence on him of Friend Lucretia Mott). Here is how Henry would take a flying dig at this not-so-Friendly “quietist” aberration, in his lecture “A Plea for Captain John Brown”:

What sort of violence is that which is encouraged, not by soldiers but by peaceable citizens, not so much by laymen as by ministers of the gospel, not so much by the fighting sects as by the Quakers, and not so much by the Quaker men as by the Quaker women?

October 1, Wednesday: Founding of the University of London on Gower Street in London (afterward, this would be known as University College). Professor George Long of the University of Virginia had returned to England to become professor of Greek there (until 1831, when he would become editor of the Quarterly Journal of Education). The Long family would reside in Jacksons Lane, Highgate, to the west of Hornsey and would have three female servants, a coachman, and a gardener. With them from America they had brought one of the family slaves, Jacob Walker, who in England would be assigned the role “M.S.” (male servant), and it is not known whether it was Jacob who was that coachman, or that gardener.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 1st 10th M 1828 / Today Joseph S Tillinghast from N Bedford on his way to NYork Hudson &c called & dined with us & took letters for John whom he expects to see next first day. – he went in the Steam Boat Connecticut this Afternoon. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

There's a sketchy painting above the case that holds the Torah scrolls at the Touro Synagogue in Newport. It is a painting of the short names used, in the Hebrew language, for the Ten Commandments that Moses received from YHWH on Mount Sinai. I don't have any better photo of the crude painting in question, which also depicts three golden crowns, than this one, for your edification,

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

but here is a modern representation of the Hebrew characters in question. Read them from right to left:

One of the stories that grew up in Newport over the years had to do with those three golden crowns we can see so nicely depicted at the top of that painting. The story was that the synagogue building had been saved from being trashed during the occupation of the town in Revolutionary War years, when so many of the buildings in the abandoned town were being stripped for kindling to keep the occupying British soldiers warm, because the soldiers presumed that this building must have something to do with the King of England.

Another of the stories that grew up was that this painting, since it is, allegedly, “so fine,” must have been by the famous painter Gilbert Stuart, who resided in nearby North Kingstown. However, it is not listed as one of his known works, nor do we know that he ever painted anything even remotely like this.

As anyone who reads Hebrew who now visits this Newport tourist trap can look up and plainly see, the

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

character that is shown in this painting as the third letter, in the captions of the 7th, 8th, 9th, and 10th Commandments in the left column, is not correct! Four of the ten labels have been reduced to nonsense! If that painting had been hanging up there above the case of Torahs while the building was being used for Jewish worship services during the 18th Century, why would it have been that none of the members of this congregation, and none of the honored Jewish visitors to this synagogue, ever informed anyone of this error in the painting, and why would it have been that nobody went and fetched a ladder and some oil paint and climbed up there and touched over the linguistic error with a few simple dabs? This is what the character does look like  (the artist did get the character right when he painted it in the 6th Commandment, at the top of the left column!), and this is what it might have been made to look like with a few more dabs of paint, had anyone known to correct that painting:

Granted, the Marranos³⁵³ who created this synagogue had been living a submerged life as pretend Christians³⁵⁴ since the Inquisition in Spain in Portugal, and granted, they had only just gotten back into the process of recovering their cultural roots — but surely some of them must have known enough Hebrew to be able to recite the Ten Commandments! So, why didn't they correct this painting?

We discover in the records of the General Assembly of Rhode Island, that on this date the sum of $12.⁰⁰ was paid to the clerk for the town of Newport, Benjamin Baker Howland, who was treasurer of the Newport Savings Bank and a local historian and artist, as reimbursement for a painting of the captions in Hebrew of the Ten Commandments.³⁵⁵ Clearly, Mr. Howland had as little actual knowledge of Hebrew as any other deacon of the local 1st Baptist Church. This painting of his had been created as a mere piece of esoterica, only marking this structure as having formerly been in use as a synagogue, and there would be no opportunity to discover and correct its error — since in point of fact, during the decades of the 1830s, 1840s, and 1850s, there would be no religious services whatever in the structure — since in point of fact, there were no longer any Jews residing in Newport.

JUDAISM

Maybe, as a deacon in the 1st Baptist Church, this Howland should have stuck to designing Christian T-shirts

353. Marrano = a Spanish or Portuguese Jew of the late Middle Ages who converted to Christianity, especially one forcibly converted but adhering secretly to Judaism.

354. For instance, for the first twenty or so years of his life, the President of this congregation, Aaron Lopez, had been living in Portugal as a Christian by the name of Duarte Lopez. He had been under such deep cover that he and his wife, who was always called "Anna" in Portugal, had had their wedding ceremony in a Catholic church. It was only after they were safely in Rhode Island that they were able to live openly under their given names Aaron and Abigail.

355. This is a "Mayflower" family and as you might imagine, there have been any number of Benjamin Howlands. A Benjamin Howland (1755-1821), had been a Democratic legislator in Rhode Island legislature, and had from 1804 to 1809, as a Jeffersonian Republican, served as one of the US Senators from Rhode Island. This clerk Benjamin Baker Howland of 1828 was not the son of this Senator Benjamin Howland who died in 1821. He was, instead, the son of Henry Howland and Susan Baker Howland, and had been born in Newport on December 11, 1787. At an early age he had been thrown upon his own resources, and having a taste for drawing and painting, had begun the study of portraiture under Robert Feke. In September 1825 he had succeeded Charles Gyles as town clerk of Newport, and soon afterwards became probate clerk. For many years he would be reelected without opposition, and he would serve his community as clerk until 1875. He died on October 20, 1877 and there is now a portrait of him in the mayor's office.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

for sale to the summer tourists:

So it is clearly false, that the British troops of occupation spared the wood in this building because they saw those three golden crowns and thought of their monarch. The painting in question wouldn't come into existence for another two human generations! More probably, the reason why this building was spared was that some British officer came along and said to himself "Now here's a nice brick building, neat and spacious, with a raised platform at one end of a columned hall, to properly set off my desk and chair — I think this is the one I'll have for my headquarters."

And Gilbert Stewart? Give me a break, take a close look at the actual painting and recognize that a child could have painted something like this on the basis of a paint-by-the-numbers kit purchased at the K-Mart.

The preposterous stories that once circulated about this synagogue painting present an interesting example of the dangers posed by pseudohistorical accretion tendencies.

October 5, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 5th of 10 M / [Friend Stephen goes to the Yearly Meeting Boarding School in Providence until 21st of 10th Month] This Morn'g in the Steam Boat Chas Livingston I left home for Providence expecting to spend some time at the YM Boarding School in the Absence of Enoch & Lydia Breed who are on a visit to their friends in Ware NH. - I arrived in season to attend the Morning Meeting which was silent. John Farnum of the committee present. - In the Afternoon Wm Almy attended the Meeting & was engaged in an interesting testimony on the important doctrine of our society it was attended with life & in the close was remarkably in the Authority The day passed pleasantly as the weight of care I feel will admit

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

October 6, Monday: Franz Schubert's song Glaube, Hoffnung und Liebe to words of Kuffner was published by Diabelli, Vienna as op. 97.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 6 of 10 M / This forenoon we had a pleasant visit from Moses Brown. – I feel Awkward in my situation as caretaker. but the family are respectful & kind. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 7, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 7 of 10 M / The day has been pleasant & this Afternoon my frd Wm Jenkins called to see me yet it is the first time I have seen him since he returned from his important mission to Ohio on the yearly Meeting committee of Conference – We sympathized with each other, & I did most feelingly & sincerely so with him in his sufferings bodily & mentally both while on the journey to Ohio & while attending that Y Meeting. – And his experience I trust is greatly enlarged & I have no doubt he has deepened in the root of Truth. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Isaiah Thomas (1749-1831), “the first American capitalist of the printing business,” witnessed the 1st canal barge from Providence, Rhode Island arriving at its Worcester dock at Thomas Street, on property which he personally had donated to the city.

The barge that was the 1st to travel the entire length of the new waterway opening up the center of Massachusetts was the Lady Carrington. One official guest had fallen overboard and had had to be rescued with a boat hook. The Blackstone Canal's depth was a minimum of $3\frac{1}{2}$ feet, and it descended $451\frac{1}{2}$ feet by way of a series of 62 locks to its outlet in Providence. Until this canal opened, it cost more to freight Boston goods 40 miles overland to Worcester than it did to ship them the 3,000 miles across the Atlantic to Liverpool,

HDTWHAT?INDEXFRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

England. The new canal was 45 miles long.

There not being enough water in the Blackstone River watershed to supply both the canal and the mills along the way, a river mill faction would dump boulders into the canal and a canal faction would conspire to burn down mills. (What a coup! —Providence would be a commerce winner for 19 entire years, until the steam-powered railroad which was just being proposed, and its route explored, would come along in 1835 and

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

instantly obsolete the old mills along the river, and this canal and its single terminus.)

October 8, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 8 of 10th M / Our Meeting at the School today was to me a season of weight, in which I had to feel my infirmity & weakness - yet a good degree of strength was vouchsafed, & I did not feel that sense of depression which I sometimes do when there is much responsibility devolving upon me. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 9, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 9 of 10 M / Today is the adjournment of our Moy Meeting at home - tho' absent I am present with them in mind - I know there is not much of importance to engage their attention, but feel interested with all there is doing in Newport. - Today Hannah Hussey of our family was taken ill with the Pleurisy & in the evening Dr Toby was called - Had an interesting opportunity with Benjamin Keene son of Jonah who had been here sometime as a schollar & is now going with his Father to Darien in Georgia. -his being taken from this Garden inclosed & placed in the wide world & in a very corrupt part of it too -has excited my tender feelings & much interest on his account. -he has appear'd to be religiously inclined for some time & I felt it my duty to take a solid opportunity with him, & was favoured with enlargement of mind & spirit towards him. - I imparted what impressed my mind in a manner which was satisfactory to my self & he recd my communication with attention & an apparant feeling which encouraged me to hope he will remember the opportunity when afar off. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

October 10, Friday: Nicolò Paganini underwent an operation for an ulcerated tooth in Prague. This would produce severe inflammation of his lower jaw.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 10 of 10 M 1828 / The usual rounds of duty & my time mostly occupied in the Library in sorting the loose pamphlets & preparing them to be bound. much of this kind of care in necessary here. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 11, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 11th of 10 M / We have had considerable company at the Institution today & among the callers has been our frd Moses Brown - Joseph Tillinghast of New Bedford & Susan Ann Buffum with her son Thos on their return from Pembroke where they have been visiting their relations -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 12, Sunday: After a 3-month siege, Varna, north of Constantinople, fell to the Russians.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 12 of 10 M / At our morning Meeting we had the company of our Friend Royal Southwick, whose ministry was acceptable, seasonable & edifying - Saml Newett & his wife on their return from their journey into NYork state to visit their relations were also at Meeting & Saml offered a short but acceptable testimony. - In the Afternoon Wm Almy was with us & bore a noble & rich testimony to the Truth & both meetings were Seasons of favour I trust not soon to be forgotten by many minds present. - a couple of young women came in just before meeting & requested liberty to set the meeting with us which they did & at the close they both looked serious & one seemed much effected - I believe their minds were unexpectedly affected & I trust they carried away no bad impressions of our order, & the solemnity of our meetings. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 13, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 13 of 10 M / Nothing special has occured, but I find myself brought into a close investigation of things here. - I believe there are many things here which need to be helped, - but how they can be helped I do not clearly See. - Mary B Allen

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

came this eveng & staid all night – her company was very agreeable to me. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 14, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 14th of 10 M / Thos Howland of the committee came & dined – his company was very pleasant tho' the time was short that he staid. – Toward night my Brother Isaac came & brought a letter from my wife – his wife & Daughter Susanna are in Providence & Yesterday I called to see them –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 15, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 15 of 10 M 1828 / Our Meeting was silent but solid & quiet. – This is the first day that we have had no company at meals since I have been here. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 16, Thursday: As part of the opening ceremonies for the Delaware and Hudson Canal connecting Honesdale, Pennsylvania with Rondout, New York, the packet Orange left Kingston, New York, to be the initial boat on the waterway. This canal would make the anthracite of northeastern Pennsylvania economically available to cities along the coast of New York and New England, as a substitute for wood fuel.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 16th of 10 M / Today is our Select Meeting at home – I feel much about the little gathering & hope divine support has been near them. – This eveng for the first time since I have been here, went down & sat a little while with Moses Brown & found him friendly & affectionate. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 17, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 17th of 10th M / Spent the day wholly at the Institution & this eveng while our friend Moses Brown was sitting with us a fire was discovered in Providence. – he left us to go in & see what it was –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

➡ October 18, Saturday: The Orange arrived at Honesdale, Pennsylvania to begin the transportation of coal from Pennsylvania fields to Eastern industrial cities.

CANALS

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 18 of 10 M / The fire last eveng proved to be in the North main Street near the Baptist Meeting house - in which the Druggist shop of our late townsman Wm H Taylor was considerably injured. - his goods moved out & consequently damaged - I went into town this morning & met with Several Newport folks of my acquaintance, & called to see nancy Pickering. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ October 19, Sunday: Lydia Maria Francis got married with David Lee Child, becoming Mrs. Lydia Maria Child.³⁵⁶

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 19th of 10 M 1828 / Our Morning meeting was silent &
356. David was a Harvard grad who had gone to Spain in 1817 as secretary to the American legation, but then in Spain had abandoned this position in order to participate in the rebellion of 1823. Once he had gotten back to Boston he read law, but in order to represent defendants who were indigent. At the point at which the couple got married, he was editing a newspaper and was already in deep trouble over libel. Clearly this was not a marriage of convenience.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

rather a poor time to me – In the Afternoon Wm Almy attended & bore testimony to the Truth, but either he or I, or both of us were not as lively as we Sometimes are – Our friend Moses Brown came to see us in the eveng & Attended the Collection in the boys School & gave them good advice. – my mind was impressed with something to say to them, but fearing I should make an unnecessary addition prevented my speaking – tho I believe I should have felt better if I had have made the attempt. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 20, Monday: Clara Wieck performed at the Leipzig Gewandhaus for the initial time, playing one part in a piano duet by Kalkbrenner.

Horatio Gates Spafford was born.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*2nd day 20 of 10 M / Enoch & Lydia Breed returned this evening & I hope to get home tomorrow – This eveng after they arrived I called again on my friend Moses Brown & set a while with them. –
My stay here has been as pleasant as it could be separated so long from my beloved wife & friends at home. – The family here has been uniformly kind & respectful & the children in good measure obedient & towardly in their deportment – all this is a satisfaction & encouragement & withall I have been favoured with religious sensibility, that has kept my spirit in a solid weighty frame & enabled me to go in & set[?] before the family in a manner which on introspection does not appear to leave any sting or disagreeable feelings – many times have I felt the need of increased Salt in myself that I might be enabled duly to Season others & this I have in small degree been favoured with.
– to my own consolation & encouragement –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 21, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 21st of 10 M 1828 / After taking leave of my friends at Providence this morning – At 12 OC I went on board the Chancellor Levington & came home finding my wife well but – Anut nancy Carpenter & James Hammond quite unwell.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

October 23, Thursday: Le Corsaire published an obituary for Franz Liszt, claiming that he had died on the previous day on his 17th birthday. He had lately been so despondent over a failed love affair that the rumor of his death spread easily through Paris.

The Christiania (Oslo) Public Theater gave its initial performance (it would concentrate on opera and singspiels).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 23rd of 10 M / Silent Meeting - In the Preparative Meeting nothing but the usual buisness -
In my absence at Providence my wife recd letters from Several of our friends, a very comfortable one from John, one from Moses Lopez & one from Thomas Thompson. - The one from Thomas was very agreeable on every acct but more especially as it gave information of the arrival at home of our friend E Robson after a Passage of about 20 days from Philadelphia. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 26, Sunday: Izzet Mehmet Pasha replaced Benderli Selim Sirri Pasha as Grand Vizier of the Ottoman Empire.

William McKendree Robbins was born.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 26th of 10 M / Yesterday an accident happened to the Chans Levingston which occasioned her return in a short time after she left the Wf for NYork - Our frd A Sherman being on board I went down & invited him to stay with us, which he did last night & was at our morning meeting - & left town again this Afternoon in the Benj Franklin. - Father Rodman was engaged in testimony this morning & in the Afternoon we were silent Went with David Rodman to David Buffums & took tea with them which is the last time I expect to visit them as housekeepers, they intending tomorrow to remove to their Son Davids & spend the residue of their lives with them unincumbered with the things of this life. - We were joined in the evening by Edw & Mary Lawton & the time was instructively spent. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 27, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 27th of 10th M 1828 / In order to find a place for Redwood Hazard to board (our frd D Buffum wanting him no longer) I got into a Chaise & rode about six miles on that account & at length succeeded temporarily. - on my return I stoped at David Buffum Junrs & saw his father & Mother in their new habitation which

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*looked pleasant & I doubt not they will find themselves pleasantly situated –
Today recd another short letter & parcell from my frd Thos
Thompson. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 30, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*30th of 10 M / Rode to Portsmouth with my Wife to attend our Moy [Monthly] Meeting – we went out the West road & stoped at Shadrack Chases on our way out – At Meeting Mary Hicks preached a little very good. & Hannah Dennis also bore a short testimony.
– In the last we had but little buisness & it soon closed. –
We went to Uncle Stantons to dine, where I found my Aged Mother in good health as usual. – On our return we found Dr Hazard had got home who has been absent about 3 Weeks at Hartford attending his son Alfred who has been very sick there. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 2, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 2nd of 11th M 1828 / Father Rodman had a short testimony in the Afternoon otherwise our Meetings were Silent -to me unusually favourd seasons. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 3, Monday: Ferdinand Herold was created a Chevalier of the Legion of Honor.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 3rd of 11 M / This morning with Sister Ruth Rodman got into the Stage & rode to Swansey to attend the [?] Y Meeting – left her at Nathan Chases & went to the Meeting house to meet with a committee from the Quarterly Meeting on a difficult case existing between the two Monthly Meetings of Swansey & S Kingston – We sat sometime & after spending most of the Day we returned to Nathan Chases & took quarters for the night. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 4, Wednesday: Franz Schubert took his 1st lesson in a projected course in fugue with the noted theorist Simon Sechter.

In a 2d operation on Nicolò Paganini in Prague to treat an ulcerated tooth and correct the results of the 1st operation, all his lower teeth were removed.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

4th day 4th of 11th M 1828 / Was our Select Quarterly Meeting - Which was a season of much favour, perhaps my own mind has seldom felt more savour & weight. - Dined at Daniel Braytons & lodged at Nathan Chases

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 5, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day The Meeting at large was a season of uncommon favour - Divers friends were engaged in the ministry & in particular our friend Alice Rathbone. - After Meeting Ruth with Wm Almy & I with my cousin George Gould proceeded to Providence & a little after dark arrived at the School House where I lodged. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 6, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day Our School committee today has been a most interesting one to me - particularly, as I have been called to take a part in the Affairs of the Institution by a very unanimous voice of the committee present. It has been under consideration for some Months to have Some further Assistance in the Superintendency & My Wife & I have concluded to accept of it, which will occasion our residence at Providence for some Months to come. - The committee divided - a part going to visit the boys & a part the girls School I went with those who visited the boys & a very interesting opportunity it proved to be Rowland Greene & Thomas Anthony being much favoured in public testimony & general advice to the children. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 7, Saturday: Sculptor Leonard Wells Volk was born in Wellstown (today's Wells), New-York.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day Was our Meeting for sufferings, which was held in the forenoon at the Meeting House & in the Afternoon was a Meeting of the Trustees of the O Brown fund at Wm Jenkins. - I lodged at Wm Jenkins.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

November 8, Saturday: Thomas Bewick died. Soon, in commemoration of him, a species of swan would be designated as Bewick's Swan Cygnus columbianus bewickii (it's a mute swan that hoots, so I suppose one might term it a moot mute swan). There would also be a species, Bewick's Wren Thryomanes bewickii.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1st day This Morning I got on board the new Steam Boat Ruth Light & got home in Season to attend the Afternoon Meeting. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 13, Thursday: Timothy Alden died at the age of 92 after being pastor at Yarmouth for more than six decades.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 12th [sic] of 11 M 1828 / We have been buisily engaged in attending to our affairs of getting in readiness to go to Providence. – Attended meeting. Silent – but to me a Season of much reflection. – I feel much at leaving the Meeting only for a time where I had my birth & growth so far Spiritually & Naturally – there are many endearments at the place of my birth but it will not do to dwell too much upon them. –things must be taken as they are & we acquit ourselves as much like men as we can –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 16, Sunday: In the London Protocol, France, Great Britain, and Russia guaranteed the Peloponnesus and Cyclades Islands, effectively recognizing the independence of Greece.

Dr. Josef von Vering, a recognized expert on the treatment of syphilis, was called to visit Franz Schubert.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 16th of 11th M / Our meetings were both well attended & to me they were seasons of interest – particularly as I expect to leave for a season the scenes of my youth to the present day.
–The place where I have taken much comfort, & known some bitter draughts but I can but feel that the move is as nearly right as things commonly get. – Father Rodman bore short testimonies in both Meetings – After Meeting in the Afternoon we rode out to D Buffums & took tea with him & wife & son David & family in their new habitation. – Mother Rodman was also there & staid the evening –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 20, Thursday: Dithyrambe D.801, a song by Franz Schubert to words of Schiller, was performed for the initial time, in the Musikvereinsaal, Vienna.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 20th of 11th M 1828 / Silent public Meeting & no buisness in the Preparative Meeting. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

November 22, Saturday: Concord's Yeoman's Gazette included a tall tale which Henry Thoreau would be able to recycle as "We read that the traveller asked the boy if the swamp before him had a hard bottom. The boy replied that it had. But presently the traveller's horse sank in up to the girths, and he observed to the boy, 'I thought you said that this bog had a hard bottom.' 'So it has,' answered the latter, 'but you have not got half way to it yet.'" WALDEN: There is a solid bottom every where. We read that the traveller asked the boy if the swamp before him had a hard bottom. The boy replied that it had. But presently the traveller's horse sank in up to the girths, and he observed to the boy, "I thought you said that this bog had a hard bottom." "So it has," answered the latter, "but you have not got half way to it yet." So it is with the bogs and quicksands of society; but he is an old boy that knows it. Only what is thought said or done at a certain rare coincidence is good.

Was this tall tale original with the Yeoman's Gazette? –Clearly, it was not, for this is a jest that was first published in an English joke book dating to the late 17th Century:

"A Gentleman ask'd a Shepherd, whether that River was to be passed over or not.
Yes, says he, but going to try, flounc'd over head and ears.
Why thou rogue, says he, did you not tell me it might be past over?
Truly, Sir, says he, I thought so, for my Geese go over and back again every day."

The managers of London's Covent Garden Theater announced that they would remove the stinking gas lighting that had been installed in 1817, and return to the use of candles.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*7th day 22nd of 11 M 1828 / According to previous conclusion & preparation, we this Morning at 10 OC wnt on board the George & Mary Capt Waldron for Providence where we expect to pass sometime as Assistant care takers at the yearly Meeting Boarding School
The prospect was very dull on Setting out but the Wind breazed up & we got to the School about 2 OC PM & just before it began to rain -
We were kindly received by Enoch & Lydia Breed the Superintendents & the family in general - & in a manner which was very encouraging to our feelings. - the eveng passed pleasantly.*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 23, Sunday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 23 of 11 M / Our Morng Meeting was silent & solid in the Afternoon Wm Almy attended & delivered an excellent testimony.
- I could but admire at the goodness of our heavenly father in the help afforded - - Tho' we find ourselves in a large family*

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

& in a responsible situation we are favoured with quiet & a good degree of confidence that we may be favoured to get along pretty well

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 24, Monday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 24 of 11 M / Today our Frd Moses Brown called to see us & set some time. - I have also spoken with several of my friends who seem glad to see us. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 26, Wednesday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 26th of 11 M 1828 / We attended Monthly Meeting in Providence & the Schollars that were members also attended. - it was a season of favour to my mind being comforted with the preaching of Wm Almy & the offerings of Hannah Robinson & another woman were acceptable to me. - I found a good degree of christian submission among the members in management of their affairs, & tho' a difficult & trying case was before them, it seemed to me all were aiming at the right thing. - I must acknowledge that I fear I did not do right in restraining a few words which I felt to make

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 27, Thursday: Documentation of the international slave trade, per W.E. Burghardt Du Bois: "Report of the Secretary of the Navy." -AMERICAN STATE PAPERS, NAVAL AFFAIRS, III. No. 370.

A requiem mass in memory of Franz Schubert took place in St. Ulrich's Church, Vienna. The Requiem of Mozart was performed.

Widerspruch D.865, a vocal quartet by Franz Schubert to words of Seidl, was performed for the initial time, in the Musikvereinsaal, Vienna.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 27 of 11 M / This also is our Moy [Monthly] Meeting at home - I feel for the dear friends I have left & desire they may be favoured to support the ark with firmness. - Oh that they may be Strengthened & Truth Prosper every where. - I desire in myself renew'd faithfulness in its cause. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 29, Saturday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

7th day 29th of 11 M / A week has now passed since we left home with a prospect of spending some time here – I may acknowledge that since we have been here my heart has been made thankful in many respects & particularly for the religious savour with which my spirit has been seasoned & renew'd from day to day. – It has really seemed very much like a right beginning & it does not now seem as if we can look back with regret let what may occur to damp our future progress – I feel cautious in writing too much knowing the critical situation in which all are placed in a family like this. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ November 30, Sunday: Johann Franz Encke (1791-1865)'s comet returned.

SKY EVENT

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 30 of 11 M 1828 / Both Meetings silent but solid opportunities to me. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ December 2, Tuesday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 2 of 12 M 1828 / Today has been our sub committee – nothing unpleasant occurred and the number rather larger than usual attended & Among them our frd Moses Brown but very feeble & hardly disposed to take any part in the concerns of the Meeting

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

December 3, Wednesday: The Democrat from Tennessee, General Andrew Jackson, was elected President of the United States of America, with 648,286 popular votes and 178 electoral votes.

“A large and respectable meeting of the citizens of Concord was convened ... at the Centre brick school-house, pursuant to public notice given by Rev. Dr. Ripley after the religious exercises on Thanksgiving Day [that was the week before], to take into consideration the expediency of forming a Lyceum in Concord.” John Keyes became the chairman of that Concord Lyceum project, and Lemuel Shattuck became its secretary. A committee consisting of Samuel Hoar, John Keyes, Nathan Brooks, Daniel Shattuck, Daniel Starr Southmayd, Samuel Burr, Daniel Stone, and Lemuel Shattuck was charged to prepare a constitution for this new society.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 3 of 12 M / Our week day Meeting which Mary B Allen Attended & had searching & powerful labour much to my consolation & edification & I have no doubt she spoke to the States & condition of many present. – Called a little while at Moses Browns on buisness found him more bright than yesterday –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 4, Thursday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 4th of 12 M / Felt a drift to attend the Meeting in Providence & accordingly went. – it was smaller than I expected but favourd with Solemnity & quiet. – Betsy Purinton spoke to pretty good Satisfaction. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 7, Sunday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 7 of 12 M / Our Morng Meeting was silent & I believe a dry time generally. – In the Afternoon Hannah Robinson bore a short testimony - honest but I doubted, her being specially called or its being best for her to appear among us - SKill was wanting 4th day 10th of 121 M 1828 / Our School Meeting was silent excepting a short testimony from Lydia Breed - to me it was not a very bright meeting & I apprehend the current of life was low with most present. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 11, Thursday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 11 of 12 M / Attended Meeting in Providence, it was silent, & to me rather a hard time. The spring of life was low with me, but I hope others were better off. – Moses Brown who had been unable to attend for several Meeting days, was there

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

today.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 12, Friday: Treaty of Amity, Commerce, and Navigation between the United States of America and Brazil.

READ THE FULL TEXT

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 12th of 12 M / Today Philip Wanton Robinson who has been for some time a Schollar at the Institution left & went home - he had been several weeks confined to his room & bed from raising blood but had recovered so as to be able to be removed to his home in Point Judith. -

This eveng Moses Brown was here at the Institution & spent it very pleasantly Among other interesting anecdotes. - he said he well remembered when tea was first drank in Providence & that two ounces was as much as was bought at a time, & a person who had half-pounds was considered extravagant -

The first Hyson tea that was seen in Providence was prise goods & bought here in the Year 1758 - he bought a canister of it & he well remembers that he & the family were quite excited by its effects & that it was as perceptable as if they had drank a glass of wine. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 14, Sunday: Franz Schubert's Symphony no.6 D.589 was performed publicly for the initial time, in the Vienna Redoutensaal.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 14th of 12th M 1828 / Our Morning Meeting was Silent - In the Afternoon we had the company of Our friends James Tucker & Sarah his wife - Sarah was sweetly engaged in testimony & very much to my comfort & help - having had rather a low day. - I was lead to recount, & look back on the visitations of my youth, & especially to remember some seasons of favour when in Sarahs company in Newport. - particularly one at Jeremiah Austins, when divers of us, then young people, were together & we fell into silence, when Sarah had something to offer remarkably fitting the States of some present. - on mentioning the circumstance to her I found she also remembered it. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 16, Wednesday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*4th day 16 of 12 M / Silent but favour'd meeting to me & I hope we were favourd
Wm Almy called to see us a little while & went in to the Schools
a few minutes –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 December 18, Thursday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 18th of 12 M / Attended Meeting in Providence which was their Preparative Meeting & also ours in Newport
Wm Almy preached, tho' good I thought not as much in the life as I have sometimes heard him
I am thinking much about our meeting at home today – the little gathering there I hope will be favour'd to hold on their way. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 December 21, Sunday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 21st of 12 M 1828 / Morning Meeting Silent – In the Afternoon Wm Almy favourd in testimony – Our collection in the boys room in the eveng a time of labour I rejoiced in the Services of Mary B Allen & Moses Brown who were both present –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 December 24, Wednesday: A 2d Kindersymphonie by Felix Mendelssohn was performed for the initial time, in Berlin.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 24th of 12th M 1828 / Today is Moy [Monthly] Meeting held at Smithfield lower Meeting house [Saylesville, in Lincoln] – My wife & I have both been quite unwell for some days which prevents our attending. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

December 25, Thursday (Christmas): Taking as his model a series of annuals which he had seen in London, Samuel Griswold Goodrich was putting out the first of a 15-year series of gift books, THE TOKEN, A CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEAR'S GIFT FOR 1828. At this point Goodrich's illustrated children's book THE TALES OF PETER PARLEY ABOUT AMERICA had become a favorite of the American public, and so an expanded edition was in the works. A copperplate frontispiece of "Peter Parley Telling Stories" was being added to supplement the illustrative woodcuts in the book. Cutting a new cookie from the successful mold, Goodrich was also self-publishing THE TALES OF PETER PARLEY ABOUT EUROPE, employing some of the same woodblocks that appeared in the AMERICA volume. As you can see, the concept of the nonbook was already ready to be born — and why not?³⁵⁷

Publication of the Lyrical Album for 1829, edited by Mikhail Ivanovich Glinka and Nikolai Ivanovich Pavlishchev, was advertised in the Journal de St. Petersburg (it was a collection of music, some of it by Glinka).

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 25th of 12 M / Today is our Moy [Monthly] Meeting at home I feel for the little but well tried band that will assemble at Portsmouth today - May they experience true help to be near. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 28, Sunday: In Echigo, Japan an earthquake killed 30,000 (give or take).

I have a record that on this day James Walker Bartlett was born, the 4th child of Dr. Josiah Bartlett and Martha Tilden Bradford Bartlett of Concord (I have another record, that he was born on December 18, 1827).

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 28 of 12 M / Our Morning meeting was silent - In the Afternoon Wm Almy was here & was much engaged on acct of the School - his Gospel labours were lively edifying to me & I have no doubt to many minds present. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 30, Tuesday: The Swan River Settlement was created by Britain in western Australia.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

357. This series would publish some of the first works of Nathaniel Hawthorne, Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, and Oliver Wendell Holmes, Sr. The historian George Bancroft, Collector of the Port of Boston, would also contribute articles.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

3rd day 30 of 12 M / This is my birth day which completes my 47th Year – I have often silently remembered this thro’ the day, with a feeling which I hope may be proffitable. – It has Also been our Sub committee Meeting & many of our friends have been here & it has been a pretty pleasant time mingled with some fear. – After transacting the buisness, the committee visited the boys School which was a time of searching & of favour in which our friend Wm Almy & Thos Anthony was engaged in close but encouraging testimony to the Schollars - In the Girls School Wm Almy & Thomas were again engaged in testimony & Moses Brown closed the opportunity with a few very pertinent & feeling remarks, which I trust as coming from his aged lips will be long remembered

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 31, Wednesday: Formation of the Concord Lyceum, an expansion of the Debating Society which had been in existence since 1822. The initial slate of officers of this association would be the Reverend Doctor Ezra Ripley, President, Josiah Davis, 1st Vice-President, Reuben Brown, 2d Vice-President, the Reverends Daniel Starr Southmayd and Hersey B. Goodwin, Vice-Presidents, Lemuel Shattuck, Recording Secretary, Phineas Allen, Corresponding Secretary, Phineas How, Ephraim Merriam, Treasurer, and Dr. Josiah Bartlett, Nehemiah Ball, Samuel Burr, Cyrus Hosmer, Daniel Stone, and Colonel William Whiting, Curators.³⁵⁸

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

12 M 31 1828 4th day / I feel that this is the last date that I shall make in this Year
In a retrospection of the past Year I have the encouraging hope that I have done nearly as well as I could - my Secret trials have been many - know only to my God & my own Soul - & yet I feel that I have been many ways favoured - indeed the evidence has been often renewed that I am still cared for, preserved & protected by the God of my life - & how unworthy do I feel - We have had the acceptable company of our friend Thos Howland today, the weather being cold he Staid here after the committee Yesterday & has been engaged today in writing an important subject now pending in the Qry & Moy [Monthly] Meeting. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

“NARRATIVE HISTORY” IS FABULATION, HISTORY IS CHRONOLOGY

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould

“Stack of the Artist of Kouroo” Project

358. Shattuck’s HISTORY OF CONCORD would allege that the constitution of the society was adopted and the officers elected as this date, but that would not happen until January 7th.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1829

January 1, Thursday: According to an almanac of the period, “The General Congress of Mexico assembled, and was opened by a speech from President Victoria.”

CHRONOLOGY OF EVENTS

As an experiment, a gas streetlamp was placed in Dock Square in Boston.

Martin Van Buren became governor of New York State.

Prince Ibrahim, an Islamic prince who had four decades earlier been sold into slavery, recently manumitted on condition that he return to Africa, was an honored guest of the black citizens of Philadelphia in their New Year’s Day parade up Lombard and Walnut streets, and down Chestnut and Spruce streets.

The overture to the opera Fierabras D.796 by Franz Schubert was performed for the initial time, in the Musikvereinsaal, Vienna.

John Henry Eaton got married with the widowed Peggy O’Neale Timberlake (her husband had during the previous autumn committed suicide aboard the USS Constitution, where he was serving as Purser; she would be accused of promiscuousness and of having had a miscarried pregnancy, by Secretary of War Eaton, prior to their marriage, and would be ostracized by the society women of Washington DC, building toward the fall of President Andrew Jackson’s first cabinet).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal about attending Friends worship in Providence, Rhode Island, and there seeing Friend Moses Brown in the 91st year of his age:

*5th day 1st of 1st M 1829 / In dating the New Year I sensibly feel that I have passed the old one & entered on another - & where or how situated & circumstanced We may be at the end of this, is wisely hid from us. - On entering our kitchen this morning to go to breakfast Many of the girls came up in a Sprightly manner to wish us a happy new Year innocency & sprightliness of their countenances was striking, & evinced the sincerity of their hearts - I hope it will be a happy Year to us & to them - but ear [ere] it may be passed it may not be presumptuous to apprehend that some of the members of this numerous family may be numbered with the silent dead & wheather living or dead I cordially wish all a happy Year
After breakfast I went into town to visit James Mitchell & his sisters - I found James very low & apparantly closing on this world & all the things of it to enter a new scene— as I entered the room I felt my mind solemnized & on drawing to the bed side he put out his hand to take mine. — After sitting a little time with him I asked him if he suffered much pain, he told me he had distress at the lungs - on which I took occasion to remark to him that we were but poor creatures without divine help - Oh yes he replied poor miserable creatures indeed - I then observed*

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

that it had been a consolation to me in times of disertion & poverty to feel that we have an advocate with the Father, this he signified was his consolation. - a little more was said, in which it was manifest that he had given up the world & the prospects of it, & his sisters told me he had fully expressed that to them & his anxious desire to depart & be at rest - it seemed to me his situation was even a desirable one. & I dont know that I ever visited a person in their last moments where there appeared to be a better hope on genuine christian ground. After this satisfactory, & even consoling visit to James - I attended Meeting in Providence which was silent & rather less Sensibility in my feelings than I had reason to expect from the previous opportunity. — Our frd Moses Brown was present on the day of the New Year - now in the 91st Year of his Age. —³⁵⁹

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Superintendents.

1819-1824.	Purinton, Matthew and Betsy.
1824-1835.	Breed, Enoch and Lydia.
1829-1835.	Gould, Stephen Wanton and Gould, Hannah , Asst. Supts.
1835-1836.	Davis, Seth and Mary.
1837.	Breed, Enoch and Lydia.
1838-1839.	Rathbun, Rowland and Alice.
1840-1844.	Wing, Allen and Olive.
1845-1846.	Thompson, Olney and Lydia.
1847.	Congdon, Jarvia and Lydia.
1847-1852.	Cornell, Silas and Sarah M.

359. Stephen Wanton Gould Diary, 1823-1829: The Gould family papers are stored under control number 2033 at the Division of Rare and Manuscript Collections of Cornell University Library, Box 8 Folder 13: October 2, 1823-March 6, 1829; Box 8 Folder 14: April 1, 1829-December 31, 1832; also on microfilm, see Series 7

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 January 7, Wednesday:³⁶⁰ A constitution was adopted, officers were chosen, and Josiah Holbrook inaugurated the Concord Lyceum. Initially 57 persons signed up as charter members.

President	Rev. Dr. Ripley
1st Vice-President	Josiah Davis
2nd Vice-President	Reuben Brown
Treasurer	Ephraim Merriam
Recording Secretary	Lemuel Shattuck
Corresponding Secretary	Phineas Allen
Curators	Samuel Burr, Cyrus Hosmer, Daniel Stone

(Of course, this list of 57 lyceum members does not include the name of little David Henry Thoreau; however, there is a story that when he turned 12 years of age he would join.)

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 7th of 1 M / Silent & rather low meeting at the Institution. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 17, Saturday: The Yeoman's Gazette carried a report of an "adjourned meeting of a large number of the Citizens of Concord" which had taken place on January 7th and which had been about the planned formation of a town Lyceum.

The Reverend Waldo Emerson wrote in his journal:

I am called by an ancient and respectable church to become its pastor. I recognize in these events, ... the hand of my heavenly Father. This happiness awakens in me a certain awe: I know my imperfections: I know my ill-deserts; and the beauty of God makes me feel my own sinfulness the more.... O God direct and guard and bless me, and ... especially her his fiancée Miss [Ellen Louisa Tucker] in whom I am blessed.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 17th of 1 M 1829 / I trust I am under a thankful sense of the many favours & mercies which I receive from the good hand & providence of God, who I know has [?] extended kindness

360. Shattuck's HISTORY OF CONCORD provides the date December 31, 1828, but that is inaccurate.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*towards me far beyond my deserts Various occurrences to day have called to mind some very interesting Scenes & incidents of my early life, & may they long remain. –
Yesterday we had a satisfactory letter from our dear John, on his acct we feel a mixture of gratitude & fear - Gratitude that he is doing as well as he is doing, & Fear as to what may befall him in his tender Years. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 18, Sunday: According to an almanac of the period, "Dispersion of the guerillas and destruction of the Patian faction in the southern part of Colombia by General Cordova."

CHRONOLOGY OF EVENTS

Nicolò Paganini gave a command performance before the King of Saxony and his court at Bruhl Palace, Dresden.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 18 of 1st M / Both our meetings were silent but solid & precious opportunities to some present –
Abraham Tucker & his Sister in Law Nancy has been here some days on a visit to her children - they left After Meeting in the Morning on their way home expecting to be at Newport took letters for us from our friends –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 21, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 21 of 1 M / Silent instructive meeting – I feel it right to acknowledge that my mind has of late been favoured with the precious incomes of life & my spirit humbled under a sense of the goodness of Israel Shepherd to my soul. – I have of late often recurred to the days of mine [blot]usals, & many [-]ions of late had precious conversations with divers [who have?] been long walking in the path of duty. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

January 22, Thursday: According to an almanac of the period, "Four hundred and fifty Indians belonging to the army of the Provinces under the command of Molina, surprised and cut to pieces by General Lavalle, provisional Governor of Buenos Ayres."

CHRONOLOGY OF EVENTS

Sam Houston got married with Eliza Allen, 18-year-old daughter of a well-to-do planter, in her father Colonel John Allen's plantation home on the Cumberland River 3 miles south of Gallatin, Tennessee (for some reason this marriage was over essentially before it even began).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 22 of 1 M / Attended the Preparative & Select Meeting in Providence - Wm Almy preached & Lydia Breed prayed. -the children at the School attended & I was glad of their company.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 25, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 25 of 1st M 1829 / Silent Morning Meeting - in the Afternoon Wm Almy attended & preached. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 28, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 28th of 1st M / Moy [Monthly] Meeting in Providence. The first was silent with the exception of a short testimony from Hannah Robinson. - In the last a long & trying case which has long exercised friends here was brought to a conclusion. Sampson Almy after having been nearly or quite two years under dealings was restored to membership. - taking the case where it was & is It seemed to me it was the best that could be done with it. - I feel disposed to acknowledge that my mind is from season to season in good measure replenished with good, humility & thankfulness often pervades my heart & I desire to be preserved in this frame.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

William Burke was hanged in Edinburgh for the crime of murdering admittedly 15 persons by suffocation in order to sell cadavers to doctors for dissection (a woman named M'Dougal, who was charged with having been his accomplice, had been acquitted):

"LIFE WITHOUT PRINCIPLE": The last resource of our energy has been the robbing of graveyards on the Isthmus of Darien, an enterprise which appears to be but in its infancy; for, according to late accounts, an act has passed its second reading in the legislature of New Granada, regulating this kind of mining; and a correspondent of the Tribune writes: -"In the dry season, when the weather will permit of the country being properly prospected, no doubt other rich 'guacas' [that is, graveyards] will be found." To emigrants he says: -"Do not come before December; take the Isthmus route in preference to the Boca del Toro one; bring no useless baggage, and do not cumber yourself with a tent; but a good pair of blankets will be necessary; a pick, shovel, and axe of good material will be almost all that is required": advice which might have been taken from the "Burker's Guide." And he concludes with this line in italics and small capitals: "If you are doing well at home, STAY THERE," which may fairly be interpreted to mean, "If you are getting a good living by robbing graveyards at home, stay there."

The US House of Representatives received, from its Committee on Commerce, Bill #399, a proposal to amend the Act of 1807 dealing with the international slave trade.

Referred to Committee of the Whole. HOUSE JOURNAL, 20th Congress, 2d session, pages 58, 84, 215. Cf. HOUSE JOURNAL, 20th Congress, 1st session, pages 121, 135.

February 10, Tuesday: At the Vatican in Rome, Pope Leo XII (Annibale Francesco Sermattei, conte della Genga) died.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 10th of 2 M 1829 / During the last week our Quarterly Meeting was held - It was a time of favour to many tho' my dear wife was taken Sick the day of the Select Meeting which she attended & took a Sever cold followed by Severe fever. it has never the less been to me a season of watering & general refreshment - the School committee which followed it was attended with weight & the labours of the committee in the Schools was of a cast not soon to be forgotten - John Wilbours prayer in the Boys School & his Sermon in the girls apartment was truly memorable & I trust will long be remembered, by the Members of the family & Schollars. - During the Qrly Meeting week my dear wife was very sick of a cold & fever which she took

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

attending the Select Meeting on 4th day—

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 4, Wednesday: King George IV granted an audience at Windsor Castle to the Duke of Wellington as his Prime Minister, Sir Robert Peel, and Baron Lyndhurst. After almost six hours of this interaction the Prime Minister became preoccupied with the thought that his king was mad.³⁶¹

According to an almanac of the period, “Andrew Jackson inaugurated as President of the United States at Washington. Senate convened, and John C. Calhoun sworn in as Vice-President of the United States.”

CHRONOLOGY OF EVENTS

Per the ceremony which went down on the East Portico of the Capitol building on this day, the general known as “Andy” or “Long Knife” or “Old Hickory” became 7th President of the United States of America until 1837. As the first military leader to be elected President since George Washington, he was much admired by his electorate. In fact the election of this general was being heralded by many white Americans as a new page in the history of their Republic. Outgoing President John Quincy Adams did not at all share in this enthusiasm and disdained to be present at the swearing-in ceremony. Chief Justice of the Supreme Court John Marshall administered the oath of office. Jackson was inaudible in delivering his inaugural address. A large group walked with him down Pennsylvania Avenue to the White House and entered the executive mansion. There was such public cheer that the White House staff had to relocate the munchies out onto the lawn. To avoid the crush the President himself needed to make his exit by way of a window. This was our 1st president born in a log cabin and, in the drunken carouse that night at his inaugural ball, his rough buddies would be doing considerable damage to White House furnishings.

These had been the President’s (inaudible) remarks:

Fellow-Citizens: About to undertake the arduous duties that I have been appointed to perform by the choice of a free people, I avail myself of this customary and solemn occasion to express the gratitude which their confidence inspires and to acknowledge the accountability which my situation enjoins. While the magnitude of their interests convinces me that no thanks can be adequate to the honor they have conferred, it admonishes me that the best return I can make is the zealous dedication of my humble abilities to their service and their good. As the instrument of the Federal Constitution it will devolve on me for a stated period to execute the laws of the United States, to superintend their foreign and their confederate relations, to manage their revenue, to command their forces, and, by communications to the Legislature, to watch over and to promote their interests generally. And the principles of action by which I shall endeavor to accomplish this circle of duties it is now proper for me briefly to explain. In administering the laws of Congress I shall keep steadily in view the limitations as well as the extent of the Executive power, trusting thereby to discharge the functions of my office without transcending its 361. We know that sometimes George would claim to have been at the Battle of Waterloo — but we do not know for sure that this was dementia because there is a possibility that he was merely attempting to annoy the Iron Duke. At any rate, he would die in about a year.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

authority. With foreign nations it will be my study to preserve peace and to cultivate friendship on fair and honorable terms, and in the adjustment of any differences that may exist or arise to exhibit the forbearance becoming a powerful nation rather than the sensibility belonging to a gallant people. In such measures as I may be called on to pursue in regard to the rights of the separate States I hope to be animated by a proper respect for those sovereign members of our Union, taking care not to confound the powers they have reserved to themselves with those they have granted to the Confederacy. The management of the public revenue—that searching operation in all governments—is among the most delicate and important trusts in ours, and it will, of course, demand no inconsiderable share of my official solicitude. Under every aspect in which it can be considered it would appear that advantage must result from the observance of a strict and faithful economy. This I shall aim at the more anxiously both because it will facilitate the extinguishment of the national debt, the unnecessary duration of which is incompatible with real independence, and because it will counteract that tendency to public and private profligacy which a profuse expenditure of money by the Government is but too apt to engender. Powerful auxiliaries to the attainment of this desirable end are to be found in the regulations provided by the wisdom of Congress for the specific appropriation of public money and the prompt accountability of public officers. With regard to a proper selection of the subjects of impost with a view to revenue, it would seem to me that the spirit of equity, caution, and compromise in which the Constitution was formed requires that the great interests of agriculture, commerce, and manufactures should be equally favored, and that perhaps the only exception to this rule should consist in the peculiar encouragement of any products of either of them that may be found essential to our national independence. Internal improvement and the diffusion of knowledge, so far as they can be promoted by the constitutional acts of the Federal Government, are of high importance. Considering standing armies as dangerous to free governments in time of peace, I shall not seek to enlarge our present establishment, nor disregard that salutary lesson of political experience which teaches that the military should be held subordinate to the civil power. The gradual increase of our Navy, whose flag has displayed in distant climes our skill in navigation and our fame in arms; the preservation of our forts, arsenals, and dockyards, and the introduction of progressive improvements in the discipline and science of both branches of our military service are so plainly prescribed by prudence that I should be excused for omitting their mention sooner than for enlarging on their importance. But the bulwark of our defense is the national militia, which in the present state of our intelligence and population must render us invincible. As long as our Government is administered for the good of the people, and is regulated by their will; as long as it secures to us the rights of person and of property, liberty

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

of conscience and of the press, it will be worth defending; and so long as it is worth defending a patriotic militia will cover it with an impenetrable aegis. Partial injuries and occasional mortifications we may be subjected to, but a million of armed freemen, possessed of the means of war, can never be conquered by a foreign foe. To any just system, therefore, calculated to strengthen this natural safeguard of the country I shall cheerfully lend all the aid in my power. It will be my sincere and constant desire to observe toward the Indian tribes within our limits a just and liberal policy, and to give that humane and considerate attention to their rights and their wants which is consistent with the habits of our Government and the feelings of our people. The recent demonstration of public sentiment inscribes on the list of Executive duties, in characters too legible to be overlooked, the task of reform, which will require particularly the correction of those abuses that have brought the patronage of the Federal Government into conflict with the freedom of elections, and the counteraction of those causes which have disturbed the rightful course of appointment and have placed or continued power in unfaithful or incompetent hands. In the performance of a task thus generally delineated I shall endeavor to select men whose diligence and talents will insure in their respective stations able and faithful cooperation, depending for the advancement of the public service more on the integrity and zeal of the public officers than on their numbers. A diffidence, perhaps too just, in my own qualifications will teach me to look with reverence to the examples of public virtue left by my illustrious predecessors, and with veneration to the lights that flow from the mind that founded and the mind that reformed our system. The same diffidence induces me to hope for instruction and aid from the coordinate branches of the Government, and for the indulgence and support of my fellow-citizens generally. And a firm reliance on the goodness of that Power whose providence mercifully protected our national infancy, and has since upheld our liberties in various vicissitudes, encourages me to offer up my ardent supplications that He will continue to make our beloved country the object of His divine care and gracious benediction.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 4th of 3 M 1829 / Today I got into the Stage & rode to Bristol and the travelling very bad & finding a Packet at Bristol was going to Newport where I was bound got on board her & arrived at Aunt nancy Carpenter about 7 OClock in the evening. Found she & Polly Mc Cush with the rest of the family all very glad to see me. After taking a dish of tea & calling to see my Mother & Brother Isaacs family & then making a visit to Father Rodmans & calling at [-] Taylors shop I returned to Aunt Nancy Carpenters & lodged

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

April 1, Wednesday: The American ship Sachem left Bangkok carrying the Chinese conjoined twins Chang and Eng, to Boston and their career in show-biz.

Edward Everett set out to discover what sort of western country it was, that had spawned a personage such as Andrew Jackson.

According to an almanac of the period, "General Guerrero inaugurated as President of the Mexican Republic at Mexico."

CHRONOLOGY OF EVENTS

(Which is to say, Vicente Ramon Guerrero Saldana succeeded Guadalupe Victoria.)

Back home in Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th M 1st 1829 / Today Daniel Puckett from Indiana & his companion Charles Lippincot from Jersey left Providence in the Steam boat for NYork intending to attend the Yearly Meeting approaching at Philads & from thence Daniel expects to return home - Daniel has made several visits at the School, & his testimony, has had a remarkable reach on the mind of some of the children. - I accompanied him to Swanzey to an appointed meeting there, & was well satisfied with his communication. - It is now a longer time than has occurred in many years since I have written regularly in my journal, & as I do not feel satisfied with the omission, conclude to attend more to it in future than I have for the Month past.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 5, Sunday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 5th of 4th M 1829 / Silent Meetings all day. & to me hard dull seasons. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 8, Wednesday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 8th of 4th M / Silent meeting & to me a poor hard time, tho' I was sensible of a good degree of solemnity being spread over the Meeting. - I have been looking for cause of my barrenness & unfruitfulness of spirit of late - it [in] the first place I apprehend it is owing in measure to the State of my body, which is not very smart & in the next, a want of due Watchfulness & care over my heart. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

April 9, Thursday: According to an almanac of the period, "Great inundation of the Vistula, near Dantzic [Danzig]. A great portion of that city and fifty villages overflowed. Nearly all of 8 or 10,000 head of cattle, and 4 or 5000 houses destroyed, and a considerable number of persons perished."

CHRONOLOGY OF EVENTS

Sam Houston and his 18-year-old bride Eliza separated.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 9th of 4th M / With Isaiah Jones rode to Cranston Meeting house to attend the marriage of Abraham Tucker & Mary Almy - It was a remarkable solid Meeting - Wm Almy preached a little previous to the ceremony being performed, which was performed with uncommon dignity on both sides - After the certificate was signed Lydia Breed bore a short impressive testimony & the Meeting closed in a very Satisfactory manner. --By invitation We went to Wm Almys to attend the wedding where were a considerable collection of solid friends. & a pleasant satisfactory opportunity it proved. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 15, Wednesday: This was the final day of Victor Hugo's contract with the publisher Gosselin in Paris, to turn in the manuscript for THE HUNCHBACK OF NOTRE DAME. The day came and went.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 15th of 4th M / Silent & again a hard meeting to me - I have been favoured the past Winter with good favoured meetings - but it seems as if the return of the time of outward singing of birds has not proved to be so with me in the inward. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

April 19, Easter Sunday: William De Wolf died.

For the 1st time, and unexpectedly, Patriots' Day fell on the day on which Christians were to celebrate the ascent of Christ the martyr Son to the throne of his Father in Heaven. New England's political orators became aware that repeatedly there would arise this cultural coincidence, and that repeatedly they would need to be inventive in their oratory in order to rise to a considerable challenge, in the overcoming of a cognitive dissonance between two parts of a mentality, and two parts of a culture — parts which might function as

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

intended only when gripped within a discretely compartmentalized mindset.³⁶²

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 19th of 4 M / Morning Meeting Silent & hard to me - In the Afternoon Wm Almy attended & had good service, but it was not a time of much life to me - there seemed to be a heavy obstruction & whether it was Wholly in myself I do not certainly know. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 22, Wednesday: According to an almanac of the period, "Lepanto surrenders by capitulation to the Greeks."

CHRONOLOGY OF EVENTS

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 22 of 4 M / Our Meeting today at School was a dull heavy time to me - I am wonderfully tried with Poverty in meetings of

362. The discordant elements (just in case you don't know) are "I'm willing to die for you" and "I'm willing to kill for you."

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

late but have enjoyed some comfortable times out of them, but for which I should feel almost forsaken. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 26, Sunday: Fanny Wright delivered an address which would soon be published as INTRODUCTORY ADDRESS, DELIVERED BY FRANCES WRIGHT, AT THE OPENING OF THE HALL OF SCIENCE, NEW YORK, ON SUNDAY, APRIL 26, 1829.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 26th of 4 M 1829 / Our Meetings were both Silent & to me rather heavy seasons. the Afternoon setting was the most favourable – Tho' I am so tried with poverty in Meetings it is not always so for there are seasons when love & life is sweetly renew'd. – for this I desire to be thankful as well as for numerous other favours, from the source & fountain of good. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 29, Wednesday: John Quincy Adams's son George Washington Adams, summoned by his father to Washington DC, arrived by stage in Providence, Rhode Island and there boarded the steamboat Benjamin Franklin.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 29 of 4 M / To day some of our family went to lower Smithfield [the Saylesville meetinghouse in Lincoln] to attend Monthly Meeting held there Hannah went with Enoch & Lydia in the Chaise & I staid at home to have a care of things here. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 30, Thursday: In the early morning, John Quincy Adams's son George Washington Adams, on the steamboat Benjamin Franklin out of Providence, Rhode Island because summoned by his father to Washington DC, jumped overboard and drowned (it would seem that he had been hearing voices and fearing other passengers).

Publication of Systematische Anweisung zum Fantasieren auf dem Pianoforte op.200 by Carl Czerny was announced in the Wiener Zeitung.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 30 of 4 M / To day is our Monthly Meeting at Rhode Island held in Portsmouth – My mind is much with them but I feel satisfied that my body is here. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

May 2, Saturday: According to an almanac of the period, “Extraordinary hail-storm in Tuscaloosa, Alabama. It fell to an average depth of twelve inches, and destroyed a great amount in gardens, orchards, windows, &c., in some instances killing animals exposed to its fury.”

CHRONOLOGY OF EVENTS

Great Britain took formal possession of Western Australia.

In Washington DC, perusing the Baltimore American, John Quincy Adams and Louisa Adams learned that their son George Washington Adams had disappeared from a steamboat on the Long Island sound.

There was serious rioting in Manchester, England — a factory was burnt, and numerous provision-shops robbed.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 2nd of 5th M 1829 / Today the committee appointed by the General School committee for the purpose met in order to examine the accounts of the Institution for the past Year & I have the satisfaction to say that they found them in pretty good order & seemed well pleased with the State of them. — As the care of the Accounts has fallen to me since we have been here. —it is cause of no Small pleasure, & excites gratitude, & I dont know but I may say Thanksgiving that it is so.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 3, Sunday: Bronson Alcott, in Boston: “Heard Mr. [Ezra Stiles] Gannett in the forenoon on the effects of the Lord’s Supper upon communicants. With my views on this subject, the effects which he mentioned could not be produced. I do not regard the participation in this ordinance as the best profession of religion. Profession, it seems to me, consists in practice. It is practice itself. A true follower of Truth is best known by avoiding everything like a connexion with or profession in any peculiar form in which that truth has been presented. He bows to the authority of no man... He would not stop the progress of his own mind by narrowing its observation to the doctrines of a sect and creating a prejudice against others.”

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 3rd of 5 M 1829 / Our meetings were both silent but solid & pretty favour’d Seasons to me, tho’ of late I have not been favoured with any very high banquet in Meetings, but am favoured at Seasons with precious feelings & many deep & Serious reflections & am encouraged to believe that I am still cared for.—

While we were sitting in our Morning Meeting Isaiah Jones returned from his visit to NYork & Philad & gave us some favourable account of the yearly Meeting which he attended in Philad.— We had his company at Meeting in the Afternoon & was glad again to see him in his old Seat tho’ he intends to leave

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

us again tomorrow to Commence School Keeping in Pawtucket. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 4, Monday: According to an almanac of the period, “Riot in Manchester, England. One large factory burnt, and two others nearby destroyed.”

CHRONOLOGY OF EVENTS

Gioachino Rossini signed a new contract, to receive an annual government stipend on top of reimbursement for any musical activities.

In Providence, Rhode Island Jacob Wood manumitted a female of colour known by the name of Hetty and passing commonly by the name Hetty Smith, whom he had purchased from Thomas McCall for the bona fide sum of $450 on January 8, 1828 in Georgia.

Note (see a nearby page) the interesting detail in the document, recorded on page 158 of volume 57 of the Providence, Rhode Island town DEEDS AND MORTGAGES books, that in its body one deliberate condition and restriction is stipulated, to wit, that “that the said female of colour Hetty, shall not at any time hereafter, go to, stay, or reside in either of the States of South Carolina, Georgia, or Louisiana, without first the consent of the said Jacob Wood or his executors in writing obtained, which may be general or special and which shall continue in force, until revoked, and any refusal to comply with such revocation + go out of the said three states, or any or all of them, makes this deed null + void ab initio to all intents and purposes + restores to the said Jacob Wood his original rights,” but that immediately after the body of the document, and the witnessed signatures thereunto, there appears a signed codicil of the very same date, revoking that one explicit condition. Well, what happened? –Did Hetty Smith throw a fit right there in the town office when she found out that she wasn’t to be allowed to visit her relatives in the South, and did then Jacob Wood grasp the error of his ways and immediately relent? (Intriguing, isn’t it?)

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 4 of 5 M / This morning I took Isaiah Jones in our Chaise & went with him to Pawtucket & Landed him at Nathan Buffingtons where he has taken lodging for the present. – This is the first time I was ever as far north of this house. -Pawtucket appears to be a pleasant place, well built & many of its houses considerably ornamented by Iron fences &c.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

State of Rhode Island, City of Providence -

To all persons to whom these presents may come: I, Jacob Wood of Potosi, Georgia do send greeting. Whereas James Smith esquire of Liberty County, in the State of Georgia on the _____ day of 1799 did by a deed of gift under his hand and seal and which is of record in said County, give unto his sister then Miss Elisa M. A. M^cCall a girl of color known by the name of Hetty + with the same deed delivered her into possession: And whereas the said Elizabeth M. A. Smith after the aforesaid deed + having the said girl Hetty in possession, did legally intermarry in Liberty County in said State with Thomas M^cCall by virtue of such ^{inter}marriage + the laws of said State all her property real + personal became vested in her husband Thomas M^cCall + especially the said female of colour [sic] Hetty + was long after his marriage, in his actual possession. And whereas the said Thomas M^cCall in virtue of said rights, did, for the bona fide sum of four hundred and fifty dollars to him paid by the said Jacob Wood on the eighth day of January in the year One thousand eight hundred and twenty eight, execute a bill of sale of the said female of color Hetty, to said Wood + which is recorded in the Intosh County in said State, by which all the said Thomas M^cCall's right + title in her became vested in the said Jacob Wood: Now Know Ye, That I, Jacob Wood, being now the legal owner of Hetty, for good + sufficient causes + benevolent motives to me thereunto moving, and being now personally present in Providence in the State aforesaid + she the same Hetty in the said City + State, hath granted liberated, manumitted + set free, + by these presents doth grant, liberate manumit + set free the said female of Color, aforesaid called Hetty (and passing commonly by the name Hetty Smith) subject to the sole + only condition + restriction, that the said female of colour [sic] Hetty, shall not at any time hereafter, go to, stay, or reside in either of the States of South Carolina, Georgia, or Louisiana, without first the consent of the said Jacob Wood or his executors in writing obtained, which may be general or special and which shall continue in force, until revoked, and any refusal to comply with such revocation + go out of the said three states, or any or all of them, makes this deed null + void ab initio to all intents and purposes + restores to the said Jacob Wood his original rights. And the said Jacob Wood for himself his heirs executors + administrators, the liberation of the said female of colour [sic] Hetty, at all time against himself or them or any claiming under them shall + will warrant + defend forever. In witness whereof the said Jacob Wood has hereunto affixed his hand and seal this fourth day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty nine.

Signed sealed + delivered in the presence of
J. C. Carpenter

Isaac Peace Hazard

I do hereby give my consent, to the female of color called Hetty in the annexed deed returning to the State of Georgia whenever she pleases. Providence Rhode Island 4 May 1829.

Witness, J. C. Carpenter

Jacob Wood

Recorded June 10 1829.

Jacob Wood ((L.S.))

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

May 6, Wednesday: According to an almanac of the period, "The French Consul General at Buenos Ayres demanded his passports and left that place, in consequence of alleged insults to his flag and nation; The French Admiral took possession of the Buenos-Ayrean fleet of four brigs and several gunboats, after a hard action. One of the brigs burnt."

CHRONOLOGY OF EVENTS

C. Demian of Austria was awarded a patent for an accordion.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 6th of 5 M / With my H rode to Greenwich & attended our Select Quarterly Meeting & in the Afternoon the Meeting for Sufferings held there. - We Dined at the Widow Abigail Prouds & lodged at Daniel Howlands. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 7, Thursday: According to an almanac of the period, "The Budget presented to the British Parliament by the Chancellor of the Exchequer. The most important fact stated in the speech of the Chancellor, was an anticipated decrease in the revenue of £850,000, arising from a depression of commerce. This depression was, however, considered as temporary, and the future prospects of the country were represented as encouraging," and "The French Minister of Marine stated, in his Budget presented to the Chamber of Deputies, that the Navy had been increased by the addition of seventy-nine vessels within the year."

CHRONOLOGY OF EVENTS

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 7th of 5 M 1829 / Our Quarterly Meeting held at large was a time of favour Our Friends Thos Anthony & Wm Almy was both favoured in testimony & the Meeting concluded after prayer by Abel Collins - There was an unusual quantity of business. - A Certificate was granted our Frd Rowland Greene to attend the Y Meeting in NYork to be held about the close of this Month & also to visit the Meetings generally in that State & in Canada. - Joanna Peck from Greenwich & David Rodman from Rhode Island Moy [Monthly] Meetings were approved in the Station of Elders. -- This latter appointment of my dear Brother in Law David Rodman is very consoling to me. - as I feel much on account of the poor & striped condition in which the particular Meeting of Newport is now reduced. - it is only within my short remembrance that the High seat in that House was filled from end to end & now there is but two men that occupy it. - I feel however a hope that the numbers may yet increase & that the meeting in which I had my breath & being may not be suffered to go down. - We rode home thro' Warwick by the way of Loyd Greenes. - by getting out of our way we increased our Journey several miles but it was a pleasant jant & we got to the School House [what

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

is now the "Moses Brown School" in Providence] before dark. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 8, Friday: Louis Moreau Gottschalk, who would become the 1st internationally recognized US pianist, was born in New Orleans, 1st of seven children born to Edward Gottschalk, part owner of a cloth shop, and Aimee-Marie Brusle, daughter of a baker.

According to an almanac of the period, “Decree issued by Bolivar imposing additional duties on imports, for the purpose of increasing the revenue to meet the exigencies of the state” and “Severe but indecisive engagement between the Turkish garrisons of Rudschuk and Giurgevo and the Russian besieging army.”

CHRONOLOGY OF EVENTS

Sam Houston and his travel buddy Haralson got off the barge at Little Rock, Arkansas after 15 glorious days drifting together down the broad Mississippi. They would proceed up the Arkansas River aboard the steamer Facility, to Webber’s Falls near the mouth of the Illinois River (not the same river as the Illinois River that runs through Illinois), would be met there by Cherokee headman Oolooteka, and would proceed some 30 miles to the confluence of the Verdigras, Arkansas, and Neosho rivers, Three Forks near present-day Muskogee, Oklahoma, where Fort Gibson had been established.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day [sic] 8th of 5 M / Today has been our general committee meeting which has been a time of harmony & love among brethern & I believe among the Sisters also. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 10, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 10 of 5 M 1829 / Thomas Howlad of the committee attended Meeting today – Wm Almy came in the Afternoon & preached. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 13, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4 day 13 of 5 M / Hannah Robinson attended Meeting & preached a little. – acceptably to me.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

May 18, Monday: Niblo's Garden opened at Broadway and Prince Street in New-York.

According to an almanac of the period, "Peruvian Frigate Prueba destroyed by fire in the harbour of Guayaquil, and a considerable number of persons killed."

CHRONOLOGY OF EVENTS

May 20, Wednesday: "Les deux nuits," an opera comique by Adrien Boieldieu to words of Scribe and Bouilly, was performed for the initial time, in the Theatre Ventadour of Paris (initially a success, it would ultimately fail).

According to an almanac of the period, "Death of the reigning Duke of Oldenburgh."

CHRONOLOGY OF EVENTS

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 20th of 5 M 1829 / Our Meeting was silent & a time of some life & favour to me – In the Afternoon I went into Town where I found a letter from my Brother Isaac giving me the Information that Our Venerable & much loved friend DAVID BUFFUM died this morning at 2 O'clock. – he had been much in my mind thro' the course of the day & from his infirmities of body & very advanced Age (about 86 Years) I had reflected that his Stay might be short tho' I did not expect to hear of his removal quite so soon – Yet the news was not surprising or shocking to my feelings. – There is no man with whom I have been in closer habits of intimacy. he scarcely ever came into Newport for many years without coming to my shop & spending a social hour & I more frequently visited him at his house than any other person as the notes of my journal will testify. – his company was always interesting to me. I seldom was in it without deriving some instruction, his ministry from season to Season has been truly edifying to me & I have often seen & felt the good affects of it in others & I never saw a friend who sat at the head of a Meeting with more dignity & I never knew him to close the Service of it at an improper time.

In our Meetings for discipline no friend was more judicious in their remarks & management of the Affairs of society, & from early life none devoted more time to the Service of it. – he frequently has made long journeys on committees from the Yearly Meeting. – But I am giving an account of him not designed for this place tho' my memory will long or as long as I live love to dwell on his life & the fatherly care he has extended towards me from season to season for many years

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

May 21, Thursday: August replaced Peter I as Duke of Oldenburg.

Nicolò Paganini arrived in Warsaw from Frankfurt-an-der-Oder.

Robert Schumann arrived on foot in Heidelberg from Mannheim, because he had exceeded his budget and didn't have enough for coach fare. "My lodgings face the asylum on the right and the Catholic church on the left, so that I'm really in doubt whether one is supposed to go crazy or become a Catholic."

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 21st of 5th M 1829 / Attended Preparative Meeting in Providence. - Wm Almy preached & excellently too. - John & Elizabeth Meader from Sandwich NH was there but were silent they are on their way to NYork to attend the Y Meeting there & have in Prospect a long journey throughout that I several other Y Meetings. -

I dined at Wm Jenkins's in hopes of receiving information of the time of David Buffums funeral in season to go to Newport to attend it but no boat being going & not receiving a letter till the arrival of the Mail I gave up the prospect for tonight -when the Mail arrived a letter from Br David Rodman informed that it was to be tomorrow at 2 OC PM at the Meeting house.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 22, Friday: According to an almanac of the period, "A law passes the Mexican Congress, prohibiting the importation of most descriptions of woollen and cotton goods."

CHRONOLOGY OF EVENTS

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 22 of 5 M 1829 / Rose early this morning & went into Providence with some expectation of setting out for Newport with Wm Jenkins by land to attend the funeral of our fr DAVID BUFFUM but the Morning proving Warm & neither of us feeling very well & no boat going in season to attend the funeral we finally gave up the prospect & I came home & settled down quietly & now between 2 & 3 OC the time that I have no doubt the funeral is sitting in the Meeting house I spend in my chamber in pensive reflection & in writing this minute

The last time I saw my dear departed friend was when I was down at Newport in the 3rd M last - on the 7th day of it I went out to his house & took tea spent the evening & lodged, & next Morning being the first of the week I parted with him for the last time, at which time he told me that he did not expect to see me again & was much affected when we parted. - it was however common for him of later years to frequently advert to the closing period in that way - he thought much of death & often warn'd us publicly & privately to prepare for the great & solemn event -- The last time he was at Providence was I think in the 5 M 1828 when he came by land from Greenwich Quarterly Meeting & attended

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

the School committee at which time at a Setting in the boys School he bid them affectionatly farewell, observing that he did not see or know that that was the last time he should ever be here. yet from his advanced age & infermities of body he thought he might with propriety bid us farewell. – I well remember the Solemnity with which he pronounced the words & the savour of life that attended his & other communications at the time. – But he is gone. The earth is now closed upon him & we have nought but the remembrance of his virtues. – which I have no doubt will long remain. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 May 24, Sunday: After Nicolò Paganini performed at the banquet in Warsaw celebrating coronation of Tsar Nikolai as King of Poland, the monarch presented him with a diamond ring.

CHRONOLOGY OF EVENTS

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 24 of 5 M / Our morning Meeting was silent & to me a season of some Suffering in body - being quite unwell & hardly fit to Sit in Meeting my wife was so much so that she Staid in her room thro' the day. – In the Afternoon Wm Almy attended & had acceptable Service. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 May 30, Saturday: Felix Mendelssohn performs Carl Maria von Weber's Concertstuck in f minor in the Argyll Rooms, London. His performance without music causes amazement among his listeners.

According to an almanac of the period, "Captain Ross sails from Woolwich, England, in the steamboat Victory, on a voyage for the discovery of a Northwest passage."

CHRONOLOGY OF EVENTS

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 30 of 5 M / Last 4th day I went to Newport & attended Our Monthly Meeting - after meeting on 5th day I went to Portsmouth & visited my aged Mother & Uncle & Aunt Stanton Spent Yesterday in visiting my friends in Newport & this Afternoon came home in the Rush Light

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 May 31, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 31 of 5 M / Morning Meeting Silent - In the PM Wm Almy attended & preached –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 June 3, Wednesday: In the Wellington administration in Britain, Earl Rosalyn became privy seal.

According to an almanac of the period, "A detachment of men from the Austrian squadron under Baron Bundicra, land near Morocco, and destroy two Moorish brigs; and succeed in re-embarking with a loss of 22 men."

CHRONOLOGY OF EVENTS

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 3 of 6th M 1829 / A[t] Meeting Lydia Breed preached & I dont know as I have much more to say -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 June 5, Friday: In Baltimore, a school for black girls was established by the Sisters of Providence.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 5 of 6 M 1829 / Took a pleasant ride to Pawtucket with Lydia P Nichols & Eunice Easton. I went for the first time to the common burying ground in Providence. -

[The rest of this page and the next are blank.]

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 July 1, Wednesday: Water was let into the Lehigh Valley Canal.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7 M 1st 1829 / Today was our week day Meeting at the Institution [the Quaker school in Providence] it was rather a dull time to me but I hope & trust others were benefited by it

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 July 5, Sunday: According to an almanac of the period, "Spanish invading expedition against Mexico sails from Havana. It consisted of one 74, two frigates, three corvettes, one brig, one schooner, and transports containing 4500 troops. The fleet commanded by Commodore Laborde, land forces by General Barradas."

CHRONOLOGY OF EVENTS

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 5th of 7 M / Again poor Meeting Wm Almy was here in the Afternoon & laboured faithfully but in weakness. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

July 8, Wednesday: Abraham Mendelssohn wrote to his son Felix in England urging him to adopt the name Bartholdy in place of Mendelssohn, in order to proclaim his Christian faith.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 8 of 7 M / Our dear Ancient Brother Thomas Shillitoe from England was here at Meeting with our. - Our dear friends Moses Brown also attended with him. - Thos was largely & baptizingly engaged in public testimony - he was also engaged in testimony at the dinner table in the girls apartment. - he spent the rest of the day here & was very interesting & Sweet in conversation - I trust his visit will be remembered for good.

-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 11, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 11th of 7 M / Today we have had rather a Solemn parting with Abigail Pierce who has been about ten years the principle teacher at this Institution. - She resigned her place & has been Succeeded by Deborah Ramsdell- & having paid her visits round among her friends left us today & took passage in the Steam boat Chanselor Livingston for NYork - Our dear friend Thomas Shillitoe also went in the Same boat expecting to attend the General Conference at Philad & after that is over he expects to take Passage pretty soon from NYork for his home in Old England - The other day when he was at the Institution I walked across the fields with him down to Moses Browns - & while Sitting with him in Moses's keeping room he gave me a Small Silver Watch Seal as a token of remembrance This seal he told me belonged to his great great grandfather & he believed to his great great Grandfather & he apprehended it might be two hundred Years old. - he informed me he had worn it himself many years, & it had been constantly with him in all his journeys on the Continent of Europe in England & America untill that time which was the 8 of 7 M 1829 - I took it in remembrance of him & shall leave or make an impression with it on wax on this page that if by any means I should look it I may retain the impression which is a Stags head [there is a rectangular space, taking up three line, of two by four inches with the mark of the seal in the middle.]

Thomas leaves us in much love, & we feel that his services in this country has been a blessing to Society, & truly wonderful that a man of his uncommon nervas sensibility & advanced age of 76 should be so favoured thro' the many trials he has had to pass through, of false brethren & in various other respects. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 July 12, Sunday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 12th of 7 M 1829 / At our morning Meeting we were Silent Nicholas Congdon & wife & also Walter Allen were present. -
In the Afternoon Wm Almy was here & engaged in testimony -
After meeting this Afternoon Our much respected & beloved second teacher Lydia B Allen left the Institution [the Quaker school in Providence] not expecting to return to it in that capacity
She carries with her the good will & wishes of every member of the family & Schollars*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 July 19, Sunday: Russian forces crossed the River Kamchyk south of Varna and routed the waiting Turks north of Constantinople. According to an almanac of the period, "Choris and Berbus, in Asiatic Turkey, occupied by the Russians."

CHRONOLOGY OF EVENTS

After a stay of two months, and ten concerts in Warsaw, Nicolò Paganini was departing for Berlin and was given a farewell reception.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 19th of 7 M / In the Mornng our Meeting was silent & in the Afternoon William Almy was here & delivered a good instructive testimony. - It was a dull day however to me - life was low in my mind. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 July 22, Wednesday: Felix Mendelssohn departed London for Edinburgh in the company of his friend Karl Klingemann.

According to an almanac of the period, "A division of 6 or 7000 Turks defeated by the Russians in descending the Balkan; 400 prisoners and a considerable number of cannon taken."

CHRONOLOGY OF EVENTS

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 22nd of 7 M / After meeting today with my wife E & L Breed & Several others - went to Wm Jenkins & took tea - it was a pleasant social visit - was there also Mary B Allen & Alice Rathbone who are in town expecting to set out tomorrow for Philad to attend the General Conference. - Saml F Hussey went in the Steam Boat on his way for the same purpose. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

July 23, Thursday: According to an almanac of the period, "Capture of Mesembrin with 2000 men and 15 cannon," "Capture of Achiola, with 14 cannon and 2 powder magazines." and "Greek National Assembly opened at Argos, on which occasion Count Capo d'Istria made a long speech."

CHRONOLOGY OF EVENTS

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 23 of 7 M / We attended Preparative & Select Meeting in Providence. - Tho' weakness & fear was my companion yet the Meeting was not of the poorest class with me We had some good preaching from Anna A Jenkins & L Breed & on the whole I felt pretty well in the conclusion - & quite as well for having been silent as to remarks on the buisness. - As it is now likely we may remain here for a year to come - we begin to think it best for us to have a certificate to set us a little more at liberty among our friends & to qualify us to be useful & used as occasion may require - for we feel that it is our duty to stand resigned to do what may be required at our hands - being sensible that we are advancing in life, the evening curtain draws on & we may be nearer a close of life than some who are much older
In the Steam Boat today our friends Wm Almy Moses Sleeper Thos Howland Mary B Allen & Alice Rathbone took Passage on their way to Philad to attend the General conference to be held there next 2nd day [Monday] the 27th inst. - they apparantly have a good time & the language of my heart has been "Go O Lord with them that go, stay with them that stay. - help for we are weak."*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 24, Friday: According to an almanac of the period, "Capture of Bourgas, with ten cannon, and large quantities of stores."

CHRONOLOGY OF EVENTS

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*6th day 24 of 7 M / In the Stage a little after dinner time, arrived Father Rodman & Br David on their way home from Salem where they have been to visit Sister Elizabeth Nichols - We were very glad to see them, it is the first time Father has been here since we have been in Providence & as he has now entered his eightieth Year it is more than probable he may never be here again. - In reflecting on the subject of his visit, I can but feel that it well be a privilege for which I ought to be thankful, if I live as long & as well as he has done. -1st day [Sunday] 26th of 7 M 1829 / Yesterday Morning Father Rodman & Br David left us after spending one night & part of two days with us, & returned home -
Our Meetings today were Silent & not very lively seasons to me. - I trust I feel thankful for all my favours & blessings which I*

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

acknowledge to be many, altho' due acknowledgements & returns are not made to God the Author & dispencer of the, all, yet I do trust & believe, it is in good measure so, - that is, I labour to cultivate in my heart a sense of blessings dispenced to me & may the humble tribute of thanksgiving & praise be ascribed with renewed ardor where it is justly due. - for myself I can do nothing & am Unworthy of them all. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 29, Wednesday: According to an almanac of the period, "Simultaneously movements by Russian corps from Maraseh and Karnabat; the former against the rear of Schumla, by General Krassowski, and the latter toward Jambouli, by General Sheremetief."

CHRONOLOGY OF EVENTS

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 29 of 7 M / Monthly Meeting has been held in Providence - the first Meeting was a very good solid comfortable one to me. - life was brought into operation if not into dominion by the preaching of Anna Jenkins & supplication by Lydia Breed - a good testimony was born by Daniel Howland & an old friend by the name of Crowell from Bass river said a little that I could not reject, tho' I did not understand it so fully as some communications. - The buisness in the last was pretty well conducted, but as their is a difference in their management from what I have been used to in Rhode Island Moy [Monthly] Meeting it did not seem as natural to me as at the proceedings of our own Moy [Monthly] Meeting. - however there was some encouragement & some trial - there were two disowned & one hopeful application for membership from a daughter of George Benson - This evening Perry Chase the Young man who lives with Moses Brown & drives his carriage came up to the Institution & brought the heavy & very afflicting intelligence of eleven failures in Pawtucket in the course of the day - & three in Providence & among them just at night, it came out that Jonathon Congdon & Charles Hadwen had failed. - this is indeed a sad shock. - in Jonathon's failure his whole hopeful family are involved & his son Arbold is clerk of Providence Moy [Monthly] Meeting & R I Quarterly Meeting It seems as if the stoutest heart shudders at the consequences, & we learn that some who have been remarkable for their firmness was much affected & not a little Shaken at recent occurrences. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

August 9, Sunday: According to an almanac of the period, “Entire change in the French ministry by a decree of the king. The Liberals or moderate party dismissed from office, and an Ultra-royalist ministry, with Prince de Polignac at its head, appointed in their places. This measure is said to have been effected through the influence of the British cabinet.”

CHRONOLOGY OF EVENTS

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 9th of 8 M / Lydia Breed & Anna A Jenkins attended Meeting at lower Smithfield - which Seemed to me like a right concern. - Our Meeting at School this Morning was Silent - Our friend Abram Sherman from New Bedford attended with us. - Saml Foster & his Mother & our Nephew Wm Rodman was also - in addition to the foregoing In the Afternoon we had the company of Loyd Greene & wife - Lydia Breed having returned was present & she & Loyd had short acceptable offerings. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 10, Monday: Race rioting began in Cincinnati, Ohio.³⁶³

After giving 4 concerts in Breslau (Poznan) Nicolò Paganini reached Berlin.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 10th of 8 M / Saml F Hussey & daughter Miriam have Spent most of the day with us on their return to Portland from Philad where they have been Saml being one of the delegation from our Y Meeting to General Conference lately held at Philad. -After we rose from Dinner there arose a Mighty rush of Wind preceeded by distant thunder & attended by mighty Showers of Rain. - In the midst of this I was in the Library & from the Window saw a woman & little boy walking up the Avenue making for the east end of the Institution, & it appears entered at the door there & went into the Ironing room where our folks were engaged at work - Soon after my wife came & told me who she was, & it appeared to be Polly Wenwood that was of Newport now the widow of Nathaniel G Senter - Senter applied to [Paul Cuffe to go to Sierra Leone in 1814, but Cuffe explained he was taking chiefly People of Color] with Her husband I was well acquainted being brought up next door to him - our fathers houses joined & I well knew both her & her family in Newport. - The History of these individuals are truly affecting & Strikingly exhibit the danger of a loose unguarded & irreligious education. - Just in a few words to State that her husband was among the wickedest boys of his time - his father a professed Dash & took great pains to proselite others, giving the rein loose & unchecked to his sons, (his daughters being more carefully educated & guarded by their Mother) who running on, all came to their ends Speedily - Nathl Lived the longest & marrying this poor girl, who also was none

363. The rioters were, and this goes without saying, white.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

of the most prudent - they lead an unsettled & miserable life & he finally died in Ohio a few years ago leaving his wife destitute with one child, a fine looking little boy, who now are little more than wanderers on the face of the earth. - Their Situation excited my tender feeling exceedingly - she had Known better days he father Godfrey Wenwood was among the bivers in Newport She knew no want from childhood to her marriage with Nath Senter -since which her sufferings has been great as she told both me & my wife

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

HDTWHAT?INDEXFRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

August 12, Wednesday: On the island of Madagascar, the coronation of Queen Ranavalona I, who would be the mortal foe of all things Christian. She would excel in the devising of newer and better ways to torture to death anyone caught in possession of a BIBLE. Over the course of her 33-year reign, she would murder a very significant percentage of the population of this large island.

Sam Houston fell ill with malaria and was treated with Indian medicine while staying with Headman

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Oolooteka (John Jolly), his adopted father (into September).

According to an almanac of the period, "Selimno, to which place the Grand Vizier had made his way from Schumla, attacked by several Russian corps, amounting to about 27,000 men, collected from different posts by General Diebitsch, into whose hands the place easily fell, the Turks flying in dismay," "Mr. M' Lane, Envoy to Great Britain, and Mr. Rives, to France, embark on board the United States frigate Constellation at New York," and "Tampico declared a free port, for the admission of provisions, by General Barradas, the Spanish commander."

CHRONOLOGY OF EVENTS

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 12th of 8 M 1829 / Our Meeting was silent & to me a time of but little life - leanness & poverty of Spirit was my lot - Was in town this Afternoon & felt grieved to see the depression in buisness & sorrowful countenances about the streets - many have failed in Trade & one or two failures have occurd today, but it is hoped the worst is over, At least it seems as if one great failure that was expected is averted, by arrangements which have been made in the course of yesterday & today -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 16, Sunday: The Sachem, docking in Boston opposite the India Wharf, delivered not only "sugar, sapan wood, gamboge, buffalo horns, leopard skins, and tin," but also the "Siamese twins" Chang and Eng — Dr. John C. Warren was going to have an opportunity to examine an interesting pair of specimens.

"SIAMESE TWINS"

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 16 of 8 M / Our Morng Meeting silent - In the Afternoon Wm Almy was here & was engaged in a lively pertinent & on the whole excellent testimony on the subject of the Lords Prayer - I have seldom known better justice done to a subject. - Several of the Towns people came in to attend out of curiosity & sat very attentively. - John Farnum was also here & staid to tea. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

August 20, Thursday: According to an almanac of the period, "Capture of Adrianople [Edirne, northwest of Constantinople] by a Russian force consisting of 28,000 men, commanded in person by General Diebitsch. The garrison of the city, amounting to 100,000 regular troops, laid down their arms immediately on the approach of the Russians, to whom the Turks also abandoned all their artillery, camp equipage, and munitions of war; 54 pieces of cannon, 29 stands of colors, and 5 horse-tails, fell into the hands of the conquerors," and "British Parliament prorogued to the 15th of October."

CHRONOLOGY OF EVENTS

Robert Schumann departed from Heidelberg on a journey to Switzerland and Italy.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 20 of 8th M / We attended preparative Meeting Hannah Robinson & Wm Almy preached -the latter a very satisfactory communication to my mind. - Several new Schollars arrive this Afternoon - the family is now enlarging fast -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 22, Saturday: The anti-black rioting in Cincinnati, Ohio reached its peak on this weekend with white attacks on a slum known as "Bucktown." More than 1,000 Americans, more than half this city's black community, fled the city to attempt to find relative safety in Canada.

According to an almanac of the period, "The Mexican army, under General Santa Anna, make an unsuccessful attack upon the Spaniards in Tampico" and "A new levy of troops ordered by the Emperor of Russia of three men out of every five hundred."

CHRONOLOGY OF EVENTS

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 22nd of 8th M / Enoch & Lydia returned from Lynn Qrtly Meeting - Saml Brown son of the late Smith & Lydia of Pembroke was here today - I was glad to find him apprantly an improving Friend

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 23, Sunday: According to an almanac of the period, "Rodosto, on the sea of Marmora, captured by the Russian army under General Roth."

CHRONOLOGY OF EVENTS

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 23rd of 8 M 1829 / Our morning meeting was silent but a pretty solid time - In the Afternoon Wm Almy was with us & added

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

to the number of his excellent Sermons at this house. - I have always considered his services at this Institution as truly valuable. -

In our eveng collection in the boys School I selected to be read from the Annual Monitor of 1822 The "Striking instance of the influence of Divine Grace" which appeared in the H G of Philad - I seldom ever saw the children & even young men more solemnly attentive. - This afforded some encouragement. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 26, Wednesday: Stopping in Milan on his way from Paris to Bologna, Gioacchino Rossini sought out Vincenzo Bellini at his home and the two meet for the 1st time. They have nothing but compliments for each other. Rossini went on to spread his praise for Bellini throughout the city.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 26 of 8 M / Today we attended Monthly Meeting held at lower Smithfield - this is the first time I was ever at Smithfield - it seems like a pleasant Meeting house & I was much interested with its situation - The Meeting was an interesting one to me Wm Almy & Lydia Breed were acceptably engaged in testimony - There appeared to be but very little buisness on the Minutes - but Our fr Moses Brown introduced the subject of the recent Alarming occurence of Failures in Trade among the Members of our Society & particularly among the Members of this Moy [Monthly] Meeting, by which our good name has been evilly Spoken of in the world - it resulted in the appointment of a committee to Inspect into the state of things & report accordingly

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 27, Thursday: Treaty of commerce and navigation between the United States of America and Austria-Hungary.

READ THE FULL TEXT

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

8th M 27 of 1829 / This forenoon our frd William Buffum Died at his house in Smithfield. He was in the 88th Year of his Age - his remains are to be interd on the 29th from the Meeting house at Woonsocket, he was brother of My much endeared friend David Buffum & was a man of great worth in society I well remember his labours in discipline & pious care to keep the concerns of our Society in wholesome order - he attended Yearly Meetings regularly for many years. -

In the Afternoon I went to Town & heard the unpleasant news of the Bleech house &c belonging to Benj Marshall at Hudson was

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

burned last 2nd day [Monday]. – This affected my mind very deeply not knowing what might have befallen our dear son who is there engaged at the works. – I have no doubt it must have occasioned him great fatigue, if it is otherways well with him –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 1, Tuesday, 1829: Ad in the Boston Daily Courier: “GREAT NATURAL CURIOSITY Last Week of the Exhibition of the Siamese Double Boys ... the Forenoons of Thursday, Friday and Saturday next, will be devoted to the reception of Ladies, from 9 to 1...”

“SIAMESE TWINS”

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 1 of 9 M 1829 / To day was our sub committee meeting It was a good harmonious time in which brotherly & sisterly affection was prevalent & good concern manifest for the prosperity of the Institution [what is now the "Moses Brown School" in Providence]. – The School was visited. I did not go into the Girls apartment - but in the boys I did - Wm Almy gave much suitable council & our Ancient frd Job Chalinor gave much suitable council & caution.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 2, Wednesday, 1829: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 2nd of 9th M 1829 / Our frd Job Chalinor attended our Meeting & was engaged in testimony & supplication I thought it a time of some favour tho' life did not rise into dominion as at some times. – Job is now nearly 79 Years of age & feeble in body & Mind but I believe is concerned for the cause & labourd faithfully in the ability afforded. I have been acquainted with him from my childhood - at which time he lived in Newport & I went to School to him - & was at Meeting the day he first appeard in public & well remember the circumstance –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 6, Sunday: Gioachino Rossini and his wife arrived in Bologna from Paris.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 6 of 9 M / Morning meeting silent – In the Afternoon Wm Almy attended & preached in a lively & pertinent manner. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 8, Tuesday, 1829: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

3rd day 8th of 9 M / Yesterday & today I have been quite sick commencing in the Morning with an oppression at my Stomach which increased thro' the forenoon & at Dinner time I found it necessary to take Active medicine. which made me very sick in the Afternoon so that I kept my room & nearly or quite fainted way - In the eveng I thought it necessary to consult Dr Tobey who administerd an emetic but I passed the night comfortably & this morning felt a little better but the cause not removed When the Doctor came today he with our frd Moses Brown thought my symptoms indicated fever & that I had better keep my room & take more medicine which I have done this Afternoon Lydia Keene of Lynn returned to School today & says Matthew & Betsy Purinton are there & that Betsy is very sick & Doubts are entertained of her returning to Providence. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 9, Wednesday, 1829: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 9 of 9 M 1829 / Confined to my room & mostly to my bed.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 13, Sunday, 1829: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 13th of 9 M / I attended Meetings they were both Silent & pretty good ones to me. -
I doubt whether at any time in my life I was sicker than I have been in the course of last Week - my general system was affected & an approach of Inflammatory Bilious Fever was indicated by almost every symptom, I applied medecine closely under Dr. Tobey & was successful in reducing the force of the disease pretty soon. - I may acknowledge that my mind was favoured with quiet on the occasion. & also acknowledge my thankfulness for the favour. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 20, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 20th of 9 M / At our Morning Meeting we had the Acceptable company & edifying Ministry of our friend Mary B Allen - In the Afternoon I felt a drawing in my mind to attend the Meeting in Providence - which I did much to my satisfaction it being a very quiet solid opportunity - Wm Almy attended at the Institution & I am informed had good service among the children. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

September 23, Wednesday: London's new postoffice building opened.

The Philadelphia Free Enquirer related that a few nights earlier, the celebrated "High Priestess of Infidelity" Fanny Wright had been scheduled to deliver a lecture in the Walnut Street Theater, rented by her for $75, but had found upon arrival that the theater's stockholders had overridden their manager's agreement. She then arranged to rent Washington Hall, but its proprietress was pressured into cancelling. Finally, near Military Hall, she managed to deliver a few words to a tightly packed street crowd of her admirers, from her carriage.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 23rd of 9 M / Having buisness at Newport I expect to go down in the Steam boat at 12 OC - I remember that is it Moy [Monthly] Meeting in Providence & that tomorrow is our Moy [Monthly] Meeting at R Island which I expect to attend - I also remember that our frd Moses Brown is this day 91 Years old & spent the Afternoon here inspecting the Schools yesterday with as much Pleasantness As many that had not attained half his age - I also remember that it is the Anniversary of the Great Storm 14 Years ago -

I arrived safe in Newport about 3 OClock & nearly as soon as I had landed an acquaintance of mine informed me that Our dear & only son John Stanton Gould had arrived here the day before -on going to Aunt Nancy Carpenters I found he had just left the house to go to Providence in a Packet that Afternoon. I repaired immediately to Banisters Wharf & got there just in time to prevent his going - & detained him with me. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 5, Monday: Chester A. Arthur was born.

Fanny Kemble made her 1st appearance on the stage when she appeared as Juliet in her father's production of "Romeo and Juliet." London's Covent Garden Theatre was £13,000 in debt when she started her career but she proved so popular than within a short period it was back in the black. Fanny soon had several elderly admirers including Sidney Smith, Thomas Macaulay, and George Stephenson, who would invite her to the opening of the Liverpool and Manchester Railway.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 5th of 10th M 1829 Since the last date we have enjoyed the company with us, at the Institution, of our dear son J S Gould, which has been very pleasant to us both to see him as a steady hopeful Youth, having been during his absence from us preserved in plainness of Dress & address & I trust in good measure from the contaminating influence of the spirit of the World & I think has deepened in the best sense. - This Afternoon he & his Mother have gone to Newport on his way home to Hudson where we expect he will remain for some time to come -& perhaps as long as he or we may live but we are thankful deeply so, that he is doing so well, & desire not to repine at the loss of his

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

company tho' we feel it sensibly & keenly

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 14, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 14 of 10 M / I was very unwell last night & thro' this forenoon which prevented my attending Meeting – Anne A Jenkins was there & preached sweetly as I was informed by those I esteem good judges – This Afternoon We had a Meeting of the sub committee to consider of Benj B Hussey preposition to leave the School on account of Ill health which was acceded to & he expects to leave us next 1st day [Sunday] to spend the Winter at Savannah in Georgia- At the same time Moses Brown & myself were directed to write to Isaiah Jones inviting him to return & take charge of the School. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 15, Thursday: Asaph Hall, who would discover the moons of Mars (Phobos and Deimos), was born.

In about this timeframe, Fanny Wright and William S. Phiquepal were setting out from New-York on a combination lecture tour and mission to free the slaves of Nashoba (when they attained New Orleans they would debark with these blacks, toward freedom in Haiti).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 15 of 10 M / Tho' quite unwell I attended Meeting in Town which was silent & an uncommonly solid favourd time to me. – I was thankful for this renew'd extension of Divine regard & hope it may be continued. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 18, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 18th of 10 M / Morning Meeting Silent – In the Afternoon

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Sarah Tucker attended & was lively & pertinent in testimony & also Supplication.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 21, Wednesday: Sam Houston was made a Cherokee citizen, by admission letter issued at Tahlontuskee in the Indian Territory.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 22 [sic] of 10 M / Our Meeting was silent & rather a low time with me. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 22, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 22nd of 10th M 1829 / Today was Preparative Meeting & also the Select Meeting in Providence - In the first Wm Almy was engaged in a very lively & well adapted testimony - & the last Meetings were solid & good. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 25, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 25 of 10 M / Silent in the Mornng & in the Afternoon Wm Almy attended & was much favoured in testimony, & it was a good meeting
This eveng Joseph Tillinghast & Wm Taber from New Bedford came here & brought a letter from Abraham Sherman Jr.*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 28, Wednesday: Destruction by a mob of The True South, an abolition newspaper published at Newport, Kentucky.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*4th day 28th of 10 M / We attended Monthly Meeting held at Smithfield at which our Certificate was read & received, which unites us to Providence Monthly Meeting. - I know not that I shall ever feel as if that was as much my own as Rhode Island Moy [Monthly] Meeting, but I desire to be united to the living body where they or I may be - There are those here that I love & feel nearly united to, & hope I may be willing to contrirubute my mite & usefulness. -
In the first Meeting Hepzibah Harris a friend in the Station of an Elder, & now quite blind - appeard in testimony in a few words, which evinced a lively concern for the cause of Truth & willingness to be engaged for its support - She was followed by a lively & powerful testimony by Wm almy & after a few words in tenderness of Spirit by Caleb Fisk the meeting closed - We rode*

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

home to Dinner

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 29, Thursday: A Roman Catholic council was held in Baltimore.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 29th of 10 M 1829 / Today is the Moy [Monthly] Meeting held at Newport - I have mentally been with them Seveal times in the course of the day & remembered some very precious time I have had there, & some low depressing seasons. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 31, Saturday: From the log of the lightkeeper on Matinicus Rock: "a saver [severe] gail Broak over rock"

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 31 of 10 M / Christopher Almy an old acquaintance in Newport now in Vermont spent the day with us as it was a violent North East Storm of wind & Rain we were confined within doors which gave opportunity for much pleasant & interesting conversation about old times & old occurrences. I recounted this day with one I spent at his fathers in Portsmouth in the 1st M 1803 when I was confined there in a great Snow Storm. - which was a truly pleasnt & memorable day of my life being then just out of my time & on a visit to my cousin Zacheus Chase & family & other friends there -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 5, Thursday: At a meeting of the new Concord Academy Debating Society that had recently been organized by Preceptor Phineas Allen, David Henry Thoreau debated Edward Wright on the topic "Is a good memory preferable to a good understanding in order to be a distinguished scholar at school?" Neither contestant having made any preparation, the record of the encounter reads "Such a debate, if it may be called so, as we have had, this evening, I hope never again will be witnessed in this house or recorded in this book."

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day was the Meeting at large which was larger & I think it may be said a solid favourd time, tho' we had quite as much preaching as I thought was necessary - The Preachers were in quick succession & early in the commencement of the Meeting & I think in rotation as follows - Wm almy - Obadiah Davis long Anne Wing late Dennis - Ruth Davis & Hannah Dennis - some of them made short rejoinders & considering the number of Appearances the Meeting ended well -
The Meeting for buisness was well conducted & After Meeting we rode home without dinner - Br David Rodman & wife in company. - We found a large accession of our Family & Friends expecting to*

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

attend the General Committee tomorrow -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 11, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 11th of 11 M [too faint to be transcribed]

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 18, Wednesday: In the Massachusetts Spy:

Sam Patch jumped down the falls at Rochester on the 6th inst.
in presence of 10,000 gapers.

The Leipzig Allgemeine Musikalische Zeitung denominated Fryderyk Franciszek Chopin "one of the brightest meteors on the musical horizon."

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 18 of 11 M / Meeting Silent at the School House - In the Afternoon Attended the funeral of Amy Hadwen wife of Charles Hadwen it was a very solid opportunity - Wm Almy preached & Anne A Jenkins prayed. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 19, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 19th of 11 M 1829 / Attended Preparative Meeting in Town - Lydia Breed was engaged in a seasonable & lively testimony in which she was followed by Wm Almy in a short appropriate communication. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

HDTWHAT?INDEXSTEPHEN WANTON GOULD*FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

November 21, Saturday: New-York's The Constellation commented that Sam Patch was "indisputably the most distinguished man of his day, with the exception of Miss Fanny Wright." The Providence, Rhode Island Daily Advertiser outed Sam by revealing that he had been doing honest work for a day's pay as a mule spinner in a mill in Pawtucket "until his vaulting ambition o'r-lept itself and the loss of his life has been the consequence."

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 21st of 11 M 1829 / It is one year this day of the week, & of the Month, tomorrow, Sice we left our home in Newport & arrived at this house early in the Afternoon. - We commemorate the day & on looking back feel abundant cause of gratitude - in that we have been favoured to get along (at least) pretty well - no very thorny parth has fallen to our lot & yet we have not been devoid of trials -

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

The Year has been passed as pleasantly as generally falls to the lot of Mortals & if we can finish our course here as well as we have begun it we may well count ourselves as highly favoured. – May we ascribe all to the Goodness & Mercy of Him who was with Moses in the Bush. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 22, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 22 of 11 M / This day the 22 of 11 M which fell last Year on 7th day - completes one Year since we came to the Yearly Meeting Boarding School. –
Our Morning Meeting Silent - In the Afternoon Wm Almy Attended & had an excellent testimony to the Children - his Subject Blessed are the Peace Makers &c –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 24, Tuesday: From the log of the lightkeeper on Matinicus Rock: “a man of war passed hear to Day.”

On this day or the following one Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 24th (?) of 11 M 1829 / Silent Meeting - This eveng we had the Company of David Buffum from R I who brought the account of the welfare of our friends & relations there in general – Aunt Nancy Carpenter excepting - who we had been previously informed by letter from Dr. Hazard was on the 20th inst was attacked with a Shock of a fit - she is some better but yet poorly.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

November 26, Thursday: The Reverend Lyman Beecher preached a sermon on the topic of atheism, which would eventuate in a book “dedicated to the working men of America,” LECTURES ON POLITICAL ATHEISM.

Bushrod Washington died, bequeathing 160 acres to the manumitted mulatto slave West Ford who is suspected to be the only son of George Washington, with a slave woman named Venus. John Augustine Washington III inherited Mount Vernon, and West Ford –although he had become a free man– would continue to work at Mount Vernon as an overseer (West’s mother Venus would deacease before he would become financially able to purchase her manumission). Refer to <http://www.westfordlegacy.com/home.htm>.

Josiah Haynes, Jr. got married with 25-year-old widow Mary Hayward.

On this day or the previous one, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 25 (?) of 11 M / Today was our Moy [Monthly] Meeting held in Providence - Wm Almy largely & very pertinently engaged in testimony - The committee from the Quarterly Meeting attended on account of the recent failures in trade, Which has lately occured in society & particularly in This Moy [Monthly] Meeting - They gave suitable service & were helpful. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 29, Sunday: After two months convalescence, Felix Mendelssohn left England for Berlin.

Gott im Ungewitter D.985, a vocal quartet by Franz Schubert was performed for the initial time, in the Vienna Redoutensaal.

Samuel Sebastian Wesley was appointed organist at St. John, Waterloo Road, London.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 29 of 11 M / Our Morng Meeting Silent - In the Afternoon Wm Almy laboured in the Gospel acceptably among us. - Saml Brown of Pembroke was here being an old acquaintance & his parents intimate friends of my father & Mother - together with

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

a religious sympathy I feel with him - drew him quite near. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 2, Wednesday: To prevent unrest, President Vicente Guerero exempted the Tejas Territory of Mexico from the antislavery decree of September 15th.

“A Monody,³⁶⁴ made on the late Mr. Samuel Patch, by an admirer of the Bathos,” by Robert Sands, appeared in the New-York Commercial Advertiser:

... he dived for the sublime,
And found it.

364. For another “monody,” see July 22, 1882.

HDTWHAT?INDEXSTEPHEN WANTON GOULD*FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULDGO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISMSAM PATCH

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 2nd of 12th M 1829 / Silent Meeting. –
This morn'g I awoke from a Dream just before the Clock struck three – I at Portsmouth & on a piece of Ground near Lawtons Gulley, where I have often been both Sleeping & waking – I dreamed was with me a child it seemed as if he inclined to turn in to a certain place to get some water from a certain spring – I remarked to him he had better not go as it was dangerous but he inclined to, & stepped round, on my going in another position I saw him opposite, & saw the Rock was shelving & crumbly or rotten, of which I appraised him & requested him to step round

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

& come on my side - but as he moved his foot hold gave way & down he went into the water & tho' it was not higher than his middle -he was evidently hurt & crying - in agitation I awoke This dream convey'd instruction & warning which I hope to remember & proffit by - & I dont know but I may convey it to [blank] believing it was for his warning as well as mine.-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 7, Monday: In President Andrew Jackson's first address to Congress, he wrote (it was usual in those times for such addresses to be in writing rather than delivered orally) of "setting apart an ample district west of the Mississippi, ... guaranteed to the Indian tribes as long as they shall occupy it"; and he called the Bank of the United States a failure at the very thing it had done really well, establishing uniform and sound currency.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 7th of 12th M 1829 / Got into the Stage this Morning & rode to Newport where I had been intending for some days - Stopped at Portsmouth & visited my Mother at Uncle Stantons then took the Boston Stage & rode - Newport finding our friends all well

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 8, Tuesday: Felix Mendelssohn arrived home in Berlin.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day spent in attending to a little buisness & in visiting my friends & relations much to my satisfaction.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 9, Wednesday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4 day took the Steam Boat & returned to Providence. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 26, Saturday: Two new works by the Mendelssohn siblings were performed for the initial time, at the Berlin home of the composers' parents, in honor of their silver wedding anniversary: Die Heimkehr aus der Fremde, a liederspiel by Felix Mendelssohn to words of Klingemann, and Festspiel for vocal soloists, chorus, and orchestra by Fanny Mendelssohn Hensel to words of her husband, Wilhelm Hensel.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 26 of 12 M / This evening our Ancient & beloved friend Moses Brown called & set several Hours with us & was very pleasant & interesting - We recd also a pleasant letter from our dear John - Many things we have to be thankful for. - & I often

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*feel that I make poor returns for favours recd. –
Have thought much of things & friends at home. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 30, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 30th of 12 M 1829 / This day is my Birthday - I am now 48 Years of Age - There has been nothing very remarkable to insert, save that I have often recured in mind to the time & Age I have attained too. – I feel that I am on the down Hill side of life - that time passes swiftly & that I may be much nearer the conclusion of it than I may be aware. –

We attended Providence Moy [Monthly] Meeting held at Smithfield – Wm Almy Preached powerfully & instructively - he was followed by Hannah Robinsons in a testimony which felt lively & pertinent to me. –

After Meeting we rode home to dinner - Found Eliza Bowen & Anthony Shoves wife here from Newport - & that Brother Isaac had also been here & was coming again. - Jonathon Fry of Bolton also came towards Night with his daughter

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

“NARRATIVE HISTORY” IS FABULATION, HISTORY IS CHRONOLOGY

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1830

January 1, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal in Providence, Rhode Island about being in the company of Friend Moses Brown, in the 92d year of his age:

*6th day 1st of 1st M 1830 / We commence a new Year — It has been a comfortable day to me in body & mind - I have been twice into town & transacted small concerns & feel thankful & grateful for my many favours. - I know that few who have lived 48 Years have got along more easily & pleasantly than I have tho' attended with some close trials yet I have much to be tankful for & desire to cultivate a disposition to be grateful & render the tribute of praise Where it is alone due
This eveng we had the company of our friend Moses Brown, now in his 92nd Year - he is still pleasant animated & interesting in conversation.—³⁶⁵*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Anastasio Bustamante y Osegera became acting President of Mexico.

In South Carolina, meeting of merchants renounced a proposed state loan for railroad construction as inadequate, and “adopted a resolution urging the company to apply again for a congressional appropriation” — to the disgust of state’s rights radicals. Senator Robert Hayne and Representative William Drayton would be willing to present the petition to Congress, but not to support it. Ironically, it would then be presented to Congress by Hayne’s famous antagonist, Daniel Webster.

In Baltimore, an illustrious party, including William Wirt, rode a carriage pulled by one horse on the new railroad as far as the Carrollton Viaduct at a speed of 15 miles per hour (note that, to duplicate this feat on a conventional road, the carriage would have required four horses).

January 6, Wednesday: Fanny Wright and William S. Phiquepal boarded the brig they had chartered, the John Quincy Adams anchored off New Orleans, to convey their Nashoba slaves to Haiti and there set them free.

General Manuel de Mier y Teran reported on a plan to defend Mexico against encroachment by the USA.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 6th of 1st M / Our dear friend Mary B Allen was at Meeting with us & bore a living & faithful testimony much to our comfort & Strength Lydia Breed also bore a short but good and appropriate testimony. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

365. Stephen Wanton Gould Diary, 1829-1832: The Gould family papers are stored under control number 2033 at the Division of Rare and Manuscript Collections of Cornell University Library, Box 8 Folder 14: April 1, 1829-December 31, 1832; also on microfilm, see Series 7

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

January 10, Sunday: Caleb Atwater attends President Andrew Jackson's "First levee"; "opened at 5:00,... President [and cabinet] were there at an early hour.... The Secretary of War, and all his family were dressed in the neatest but plainest manner. The Secretary's lady ("Peggy" Eaton), whose person is symmetry itself, neither needed nor wore any thing, but plain American calico for a dress, without a ruffle, or a single ornament, on her person... no sooner had she taken her place, near the President's family, than all the beauty and fashion in the room, gathered around her, to do her honor.... During five long hours, they stood, almost without moving from their places on the floor, shaking hands with those who had just entered the room, or were about to retire from it."

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 10 of 1st M / Silent Meetings but pretty good ones - I feel renewedly that the Silent Wing of time passes very swiftly with me. - Had it not been for the Stormy weather I expect my wife & I should have gone to attend Smithfield Meeting today. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 13, Wednesday: Samuel Wesley began his last lecture series, in Bristol.

A great fire of suspicious origin struck New Orleans causing over $300,000 damage. Slaves were blamed.

The State of Venezuela seceded from Gran Colombia.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 13 of 1 M Silent Meeting but pretty good. I however was sensible of much barrenness & unfruitfulness of Spirit, both in & out of meetings - it is far from a season abounding - but I hope to proffit by it -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 17, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 17th of 1st M 1830 / Silent in the Morning- In the Afternoon we had the pious labours of Wm Almy - Daniel & James Buffum of Salem were here & attended both Meetings - They appear to be a couple of clever solid young men & I also like the appearance of their Brother Samuel who has come as a Schollar to the School - I am glad to see such good looking young men - James Buffum told me that the Schooling he recd here some years ago had done much to attach him to the Society of Friends. - he is an acquaintance of J S Gould. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

February 3, Wednesday: Ministers of Great Britain, France, and Russia met in London and agreed on three protocols which established a completely sovereign Greece and fixed its boundaries, creating it a hereditary monarchy, establishing peace between Greece and the Ottomans, offering the Greek crown to Prince Leopold of Saxe-Coburg, and guaranteeing the religious freedom of Catholics in Greece.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 3 of 2 M 1830 / Attended Select Quarterly Meeting in Providence, which was a time of favour indeed

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 4, Thursday: Charter of the Camden and Amboy railroad of New Jersey.

Charter of the Delaware and Raritan Canal.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day, Attended the Quarterly Meeting at large this was also a time of favour & all the testimonys approvable except one which was from Abraham Chase a disowned Member which was unsound and unsavory. – The buisness was conducted well & things ended well Edmond Chase of Fall River was confirmed in the Station of an Elder. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 5, Friday: Giacomo Meyerbeer was awarded the Imperial Order of the Southern Cross by Emperor Pedro I of Brazil in Paris.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day our General School Committee [what has become the "Moses Brown School" in Providence] was a very favoured time & I believe many were thankful for it. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

February 6, Saturday: Hector Berlioz wrote to Humbert Ferrand of his mental state under the simultaneous burdens of conceiving the Symphonie fantastique and his infatuation with Harriet Smithson. "I listen to the beating of my heart, its pulsations shake me like the pounding pistons of a steam engine. Every muscle in my body quivers with pain.... Futile!... Horrible!"

The Argyll Rooms, London, home of the Philharmonic Society, burnt to the ground. The orchestra's library was saved.

I pazzi per progetto, a farsa by Gaetano Donizetti to words of Gilardoni, was performed for the initial time, in Teatro del Fondo, Naples. The work was a success.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day Attended Meeting for sufferings and harmony prevailed

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 7, Sunday: In England, after the very severe cold and snowfall of January, a period of rapid and decisive thaw commenced.

Fryderyk Franciszek Chopin played his Piano Concerto no.2 in f minor for the initial time, in a private performance in the Chopin home, Warsaw.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 7th of 2nd M 1830 / In our Morning Meeting our fr Deborah Otis appeared in the forepart in Supplication & in the rest of the time was occupied in a testimony of great life & power by John Wilbourn - it was indeed at time of watering for which my heart was glad & thankful - In the Afternoon Deborah rose four times & imparted much good counsell to the children. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 10, Wednesday: Boston's mayor, Harrison Gray Otis, deflected a southern demand to punish David Walker and suppress his AN APPEAL ... TO THE COLORED CITIZENS OF THE WORLD...: "notwithstanding the extremely bad and inflammatory tendency of the publication, ... the author was an old-clothing dealer who openly avowed the statements in the book when questioned by a representative of the Mayor's office ... in short he is acting on his own, not as a pawn in some conspiracy, and cannot be taken seriously ... the book had caused no excitement in Boston."

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 10 of 2 M / Silent good meeting. - My mind yesterday & today had been lead to view many subjects that are past, some that are present, & some that are in prospective. - it has been a time of deep seriousness with me. - Last evening I had an inward time to go to Smithfield to attend the Quarterly Meeting which commences there today - tho' not seeking much object in going & feeling no special drift to attend that Meeting - I did

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

not feel warranted in leaving the Institution at this time. – it is not always best to run when there is an opportunity for running – but it is best for us to be careful to go when required. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 11, Thursday: La noce de village, a ballet tableau by Ferdinand Herold was performed for the initial time, in the Palais de Tuileries, Paris.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 11 of 2 M / A good Meeting to me in Town Wm Almy preached.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 14, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 14th of 3rd M 1830 / My Diary neglected for much longer time than usual for many Years –

Since the last date we have had no very unfavourable occurrences & yet some trials in the School. –

We have recd a very acceptable & comfortable letter from John & several of our friends. –

Today in our Morning Meeting we had the company of our Sister Mary B Allen, who appeared in Supplication & Lydia Breed preached.

In the Afternoon Wm almy was here & very acceptable in the Ministry. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 16, Tuesday: Led by Liberals, the French Chamber of Deputies voted to request of King Charles that he make changes in his council to remove right-wing elements.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 16th of 3rd M 1830 / Called this Morning to pay a visit of sympathy at John Earls who lost a child yesterday between 15 & 16 Months old, while he was absent from home. – it called to Mind the loss of our first Child Caleb, who died while I was absent at Moy [Monthly] Meeting at Portsmouth

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 17, Wednesday: To help defray expenses, William S. Phiquepal left Fanny Wright in Haiti to return the John Quincy Adams to New Orleans with a cargo of Haitian coffee. By this time she was pregnant by him, which would lead to a most unhappy marriage. "Mingling in the easy social life of Haiti's mulatto aristocracy, she and Phiquepal spent a month together on the island. There were garden parties and dinners, rides on horseback, strolls through Port-au-Prince...."

Fryderyk Franciszek Chopin made his official debut performance in Warsaw, in the National Theater, playing his f-minor Piano Concerto publicly for the initial time, plus the premiere of his Fantasia on Polish Airs opus 13.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 17 of 3 M / In our family Meeting today Lydia Breed was engaged in a close searching & pertinent testimony. - We attended the funeral of John Earls Child - tho' the Day was stormy & Rainy a considerable number attended & among us was Jas Fenner Gov of the State of R I which was the first time I was ever in his company I informed him after the funeral of the recent death of his old friend & acquaintance Christopher Fowler of Newport, with which information he Seemed much surprised - they were very intimate & he had not heard of his illness At the funeral Lydia was again engaged in testimony much to my satisfaction. - Yesterday I recd a good letter from my old friend & acquaintance Sarah Tucker.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 21, Sunday: Kantate zu Ehren von Josef Spendou D.472 by Franz Schubert to words of Hoheisel, for solo voices, chorus and orchestra was performed for the initial time, in the Landhaussaal, Vienna.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 21 of 3 M 1830 / After the funeral on 4th day Lydia returned & was taken sick & remains poorly. -
Our Mornng Meeting was silent - In the Afternoon Wm Almy was here & much favoured in testimony - After Meeting I walked with him to Moses Browns & took tea Moses has been very sick but is some better. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 24 Wednesday: Johann Nepomuk Hummel gave a very successful concert in the Salle Chantierine, Paris.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 24th of 3rd M 1830 / Attended Moy [Monthly] Meeting in Providence Wm Almy engaged in Testimony & also Anna A Jenkins very sweetly & encouragingly to some minds present. -

HDTWHAT?INDEXFRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

In the last Meeting we had four cases reported from Smithfield Preparative Meeting of Friends who had failed in Trade Vizt Wm Harris, Abraham Wilkinson, Timothy Greene & Nathan Buffington. – My name was on the committee to treat with them –it is an undesirable Situation to be placed in, but I saw no other way than to submit & do the best I could. – This is a day of trial in which we live. There is much to encounter many ways, but as the eye is kept single to the Truth –I have some faith left to believe, way will be made even in hard places, to effect all that is necessary to effect, in the discharge of Duty both in ourselves & the Church. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 28, Sunday: Stephen Elliott died of “apoplexy” (that would be most likely a stroke) in Charleston, South Carolina. His grave in St. Paul’s churchyard there would initially be unmarked. His herbarium is now at the Charleston Museum. He is remembered “in a genus of plants of the Heath family ... established by Dr. Muhlenberg,” presumably Ericaceae Elliottia racemosa.

The Reverend Charles Grandison Finney and his wife Lydia Finney had their 2d child in New-York, naming it Charles Beman Finney after their friend Nathan Beman.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 28th of 3rd M / In the course of this Week Lydia Breed

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

has remained sick & confined to her chamber. – Dorcas Innman has been taken with the Pleurisy & is quite sick. Several other occurrences of a trying nature has presented which seem to render the task somewhat more proving & difficult than at other times. – I may however acknowledge that Strength seems given according to the day.

Silent Meeting this Morning, & also in the Afternoon - both were poor times to me.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 31, Wednesday: A Reform bill was proposed.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 31 of 3 M 1830 / Our meeting at the School was a poor hard time.

– Oh for more Salt.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 1, Thursday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 1 of 4 M 1830 / Attended Meeting in town, but alas my leanness, my weakness & Poverty followed me even there. -- In the Afternoon we had a call from Moses Brown & Wm Jenkins & agreed to write to Phebe Burgess to come here as Second teacher.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 2, Friday: “L’Armonica cetra del nume,” a cantata for solo voices, chorus, and orchestra by Gioachino Rossini in honor of Marchese Sampieri, was performed for the initial time, in the dedicatee’s Bologna home.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 2 of 4 M / Went this Afternoon to Pawtucket with John Farnum to visit those complaind of at last Moy [Monthly] Meeting – it so worked that we got an opportunity with all of them. – it was a time of some searching & painful labour – but the committee were favoured in the discharge of duty –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 3, Saturday: Johann Nepomuk Hummel gave the 2d and last concert of his trip through Paris.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould learned that Moses Lopez had died in New-York, and that his body had been carried to the Jewish cemetery in Newport for burial:

7th day 3 of 4 M / By the News Paper from Newport this evening I discoverd the removal by death of several of my old neighbours

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

& friends - Among Whom were Wm S N Allen - James Dinfer[?] of Portsmouth - Capt Henry Hunter - & Also my old acquaintance Moses Lopez had died on the first inst at NYork & was carried to Newport on the 3rd & buried in the Jews Burying ground there. Tho' he was not by profession a Christian but a Jew, yet he possessed some of the promonent Christian virtues & was a very kind & good friend to me in many respects - I loved him & hope he has gone to rest thro' the intercession of Jesus Christ our Lord.-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 April 4, Sunday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 4th of 4th M 1830 / Wm Almy was here in the Afternoon & preached. - The Morng Meeting was silent & a low time to me. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 April 9, Friday: Eadweard Muybridge, who would pioneer the study of motion in photography, was born.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 9 of 4 M / I woke this Morng just before the Clock struck three in a State of great destitution leaness & poverty of spirit. - wherein I was In Light to see & feel the necessity of living in a continual state of watchfulness & prayer - of keeping the mind in a state in which it in appeal to God for help, strength & confidence in him who is alone able to help be as an Anchor for the soul to flee to on all occasions. - Ah in such seasons of destitution how little can our own Wills & Human reason do for us - Unsanctified Human reason is totally insufficient to afford the mind any consolation in seasons of disercion - yet aided, refined & enlightened by divine grace, it may be called in for our help - but Divine Grace is the essence at last. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

April 11, Easter Sunday: Louis de Chaisne, Comte Bourmont became the 1st French military commander of Algeria.

In the Anna-Kirche of Vienna, Acts I & II of Lazarus, oder Die Feier der Auferstehung D.689, an oratorio by Franz Schubert to words of Niemeyer, was performed for the initial time.

While in Frankfurt, Robert Schumann for the 1st time witnessed a performance by Nicolò Paganini. This was of course impressive but he wondered whether such a virtuoso might be lacking in “that great, noble, priestly serenity characteristic of the genuine artist.”

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 11 of 4 M 1830 / Silent Meeting in the Mornng In the Afternoon we had the company of Wm almy who preached acceptably. – his labours at this house I hope may be blessed to the rising generation as well as to some in more maturer years. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 18, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day [sic] 18 of 4 M / Silent Meetings – seasons of some favour to me, tho’ not a little tried with unsettled & roving feelings. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 19, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 19 of 4 M / Recd a letter from John, very pleasant & good.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 20, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 20th of 4th M / Recd a letter from Abraham Tucker containing a good deal of acceptable & interesting matter. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 21, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 21st of 4 M / Our Meeting in the family was silent & rather a low time to me. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

April 22, Thursday: Giacomo Meyerbeer was elected a corresponding member to the Academie Royale des Beaux Arts de l'Institut de France.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 22nd of 4th M 1830 / In the first Meeting Lydia Breed had a short but good testimony - In the Preparative meeting we had a complaint presented against Anson Potter & one against Rowland E Hazard which were forwarded to the Moy [Monthly] Meeting.

In the Select Meeting which followed, - The Usual buisness of answering the queries were attended to & our friend Anna A Jenkins opened a concern to attend the ensuing Yearly Meeting at New York which was fully united with. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 23, Friday: The ship from Haiti, bearing Francis Wright, docked in Philadelphia. Fanny was pregnant. She would soon leave for New-York, to be with her sister Camilla.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 23 of 4 M / Our frined Moses Brown had a severe ill turn yesterday & last night - I visited him today & found him comfortable and pleasant. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Because of an unfortunate dalliance, when Fanny Wright arrived in Philadelphia from Haiti, she arrived pregnant. She would go on, to New-York, in an attempt to assist her troubled sister, Camilla, whose life had been wracked by tragedy and illness, and who was “visibly sinking.” The only person with whom she was hanging out was Robert Dale Owen, and the two were very possibly in love but he was attempting to cope with “the impossibility of their situation by burying his emotions in work.” He was commuting every day five miles on horseback from their rural home in the upper reaches of Manhattan Island to “the city” (south of Houston Street), and working there twelve hours a day.

Harriet Arbuthnot was the wife of a Tory MP and a great friend to Wellington. She secretly became his “social secretary” at No. 10 Downing Street. According to THE JOURNAL OF MRS. ARBUTHNOT 1820-1832, as edited by Francis Bamford and the duke of Wellington (Macmillan, 1950),

The King goes on much the same. The Doctors say he is a little better, but I think Halford is persuaded he will die. He gets black in the face & his pulse alters when he has these attacks on his breath, which they think shows something wrong about the heart. They took him out airing ten days ago &, when he got to the Lodge, he was so bad they were frightened to death & thought he would die. They gave him quantities of brandy, & he rallied so completely that he got into his carriage & drove 20 miles. His mode of living is really beyond belief. One day last week, at the hour of the servants’ dinner, he called the Page & said,

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

"Now you are going to dinner. Go down stairs & cut me off just such a piece of beef as you would like to have yourself, cut from the part you like best yourself, & bring it me up." The page accordingly went and fetched him an enormous quantity of roast beef, all of which he eat, & then slept for 5 hours. One night he drank two glasses of hot ale & toast, three glasses of claret, some strawberries!! and a glass of brandy. Last night they gave him some physic and, after it, he drank three glasses of port wine & a glass of brandy. No wonder he is likely to die! But they say he will have all these things & nobody can prevent him. I dare say the wine will not hurt him, for with the Evil (which all the Royal Family have) it is necessary, I believe, to have a great deal of high food, but the mixture of ale & strawberries is enough to kill a horse....

April 25, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 25 of 4th M / With my H Rode to Smithfield & attended Meeting there, - it was silent & a dull season to me. - I Returned to the Afternoon Meeting at the Institution Wm Almy was there & preached instructively

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 28, Wednesday: Franz Liszt and Henri Herz played duets at the Salle Chanteraine, Paris.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 28th of 4 M / Rode to Smithfield to attend the Moy [Monthly] Meeting - it was a very pleasant Ride - we enjoyed the Scenery - the beautiful pines & the other forest trees were highly inteersting & particularly the wild plums which is in full blossom

But the Meeting tho' highly favoured in some respects was a season of painful exercise Wm Harris Abraham Wilkinson Timothy Greene & Nathan Buffington were disowned - & three others were taken under dealing - the Meeting held over four hours. -In the first Meeting our friend Wm Almy preached & was followed by Anna A Jenkins - Lydia Breed closed in Supplication - In the last meeting Anna A Jenkins opened a concern to attend the approaching Yearly Meeting at New York & recd a copy of a Minute for the purpose & Lydia Breed felt a drawing to attend the Moy [Monthly] Meetings of Dartmouth & New Bedford & had a copy of a Minute for that purpose. - So that amidst all the discouraging circumstances which attend us - there are some which evince that there are some alive & ready to go fourth in the great course of their Lord & Master. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

May 2, Sunday: James Watson Webb assaulted Duff Green, who,... drew from his breast a pistol and presented it at Webb, who immediately ceased all hostile demonstration, and on his return to New York published an article over his name.

Those New-Yorkers who had moved out of their apartments as of May Day, but had failed to find new apartments and were camping in parks such as the City Hall Park, were being taken by the police to jail. Here is a snippet from Charles Haskell's REMINISCENCES OF NEW YORK BY AN OCTOGENARIAN (1816-1860):³⁶⁶

James Watson Webb of the Courier and Enquirer feeling aggrieved at some action of Duff Green, editor of a paper in Washington, went there for the purpose of resenting the charge against him by punishing Green, who, upon the appearance of Webb in a threatening manner, drew from his breast a pistol and presented it at Webb, who immediately ceased all hostile demonstration, and on his return to New York published an article over his name, relating the meeting with Green on the steps of the Capitol, and that the pistol was of a given length with a mahogany stock. The article was held to be very injudicious and humiliating to his friends. Bennett, upon his publication of the Herald in 1838, took advantage of it; and for a long while after when he referred to Webb, it was "mahogany stock," "barrel and all," etc. A new line to Philadelphia was established in the spring: running time (by steamboats and coaches), twelve hours —mirable dictu! About this period India-rubber overshoes first appeared; the exact date I cannot give. They were wholly made of pure rubber, and were very rough and unsightly in fashion. Prior to this, provident elderly persons wore overshoes of leather, men and boys greased their boots or shoes in winter, or suffered with wet feet. The popular letters of Major Jack Downing first appeared in the New York Advertiser. They assumed to be from the pen of an Eastern pedler, who having been intimate with General Jackson, the President, they jointly occupied a bed, and he addressed him in that strain. They were written by Charles Augustus Davis of this city.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 2 of 5 M 1830 / Silent Meeting in the Mornng - Wm Almy was here & preached in the Afternoon.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 4, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 4th of 5 M / The sub-committee Meeting was larger than common at this time, it was a comfortable Meeting after which several Friends set out for Quarterly Meeting at Greenwich.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

366. Other of the "Jack Downing" letters were written by Seba Smith, of the Portland ME Courier. Some of Davis's Jack Downing sketches satirizing the controversy over Andrew Jackson's dismantling of the 2nd Bank of the US are reprinted in THE ANNALS OF AMERICA, Volume 6, Selection 10 (page 41).

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 May 5, Wednesday: Franz Liszt dined at the home of Victor Hugo in Paris, where he met Prosper Merimee.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 5th of 5 M 1830 / We rode to Greenwich to attend the Select Qry Meeting - a Good Meeting. - Lodged at Danl Howlands. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 May 6, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day - Qry Meeting at large Wm Almy in testimony & A A Jenkins in Supplication
In addition to the usual buisness there was a good testimony from R I Moy [Monthly] Meeting concerning Our dear friend David Buffum decd. - but it fell far below the Standard of his worth & usefulness in society. - Dined at the Widow Prouds & rode home.-*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 May 11, Tuesday: Johann Nepomuk Hummel gave his 2d concert on his current stay in London, in the concert hall of the King's Theater, Haymarket.

L'auberge d'Auray, an opera comique by Ferdinand Herold and Carafa to words of Moreau de Commaguy and d'Epagny, was performed for the initial time, in the Theatre de Ventadour, Paris.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day [sic] 11 of 5th M / This Morning Phebe Burgess arrived in the Steam Boat from NYork to take her place as teacher at the Institution. She was brought up by Moses Brown in his carriage & by him introduced to us. - Soon After her arrival I left with Lucy Nichols & took the NYork Steam Boat for Newport. - where we arrived safe & found our friends in health. - on 4th day I took Chaise & went to Portsmouth to see My Mother who was 83 Hears old the day before - found her & Aunt Stanton pretty well
- Uncle having gone into Town I missed the opportunity of seeing him -After dinner I rode across the Island to Visit my old friends & relatives Shadrack Chase & his sister Elizabeth at the old mansion House of their late father & my much loved cousin Zacheus Chase - after a pleasant visit & a Dish of Tea with them
I rode home, enjoying the beautiful Scenery of the West rode, which I have so many times traveled & admired & loved from my early childhood to the present Day. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 May 13, Thursday: The State of the South of Colombia (Ecuador) was declared independent of Gran Colombia.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

On 5th day attended our Week day Meeting in Newport - it was silent - & comfortable to meet with my old friends.- The day was rainy & the number smaller than usual in pleasant weather. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 May 15, Saturday: Fanny Wright responded in the Free Enquirer to the allegation in a “scabrous pamphlet” by Dr. William Gibbons that her followers advocated “promiscuous, if licensed, concubinage” and that her philosophy of life could offer “no remedy for the evils of life other than a pistol or a hangman’s noose.”

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

On Seventh day after having attended to such buisness as I went upon - came on board the Steamer Rush Light & returned to Providence & the Institution with Lucy who went down with me to visit our friends & Relations there. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 May 16, Sunday: King Charles X of France dissolved Parliament and called for new elections.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 16 of 5 M 1830 / Silent meeting in the morning In the Afternoon Wm Almy was here & was very instructive in a deep Doctrinal testimony on the subject of Faith. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 May 19, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 19 of 5 M / Silent meeting & but little life in me. -My mind is variously exercised. I pray that in all things it may be stayed on Gods to feel after him as the place to depend in all exigencies. - I have known his power to support in seasons of great desercion. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

June 1, Tuesday: In England, threshers, and other agricultural machines, were impacting the lives of farm laborers so radically that they began to fire the ricks of straw in the fields. The unrest would become famous as the “Swing Riots.”

Maine’s Cumberland and Oxford Canal was completed.

In Concord, Massachusetts, this was the day of the federal census enumeration. We notice immediately that the federal government was interested in how old a white American was but considered it to be a matter of indifference, how old an American of color was.

	Male	Female	Total
Under 5 years	151	126	277
Of 5 & under 10	119	116	235
Of 10 & under 15	104	115	219
Of 15 & under 20	116	89	205
Of 20 & under 30	192	195	387
Of 30 & under 40	124	120	244
Of 40 & under 50	80	82	162
Of 50 & under 60	48	63	111
Of 60 & under 70	30	46	76
Of 70 & under 80	26	27	53
Of 80 & under 90	11	11	22
Of 90 & under 100	0	2	2
	1,001	992	1,993
Free persons of color, any age	15	13	28
	1,016	1,005	2,021

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 1 of 6 M 1830 / To day was our Sub Committee Meeting - On the whole it was a pleasant time, tho' some subjects were before us which interested & tried my feelings - particularly that of omiting to employ Moses Mitchell & Jos Hoag as teachers in the Boys School - They have been honest & faithful teachers & their conduct such in trying cases as has inspired my respect & confidence, & if they leave the Institution it will be with my esteem & love. -

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

The Trustees of O Browns Fund also had a Meeting & such of us as was present agreed to appoint Samuel B Tobey to the trust in the place of Maik Coffin who has been disowned by the Monthly Meeting of Nantucket -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 8, Tuesday: The USS Vincennes returned to New-York harbor as “the first warship to circumnavigate the earth.” Well, anyway, that was its blurb in the patriotic press.

The Quaker educational institution in Providence, Rhode Island, on its way to becoming today’s Moses Brown School, was visited by a couple of traveling Hicksite Quakers, and Friend Stephen Wanton Gould, living in an apartment of the boarding house for students as a kind of house parent, found himself in deep opposition to these Hicksites and everything they stood for:

3rd day 8th of 6th M / Today Stephen Wilson & Hannah his wife from Goose Creek in Virginia called at the Institution - they are Hixites & Hannah as Preacher & has come on here to impose on Friends - She was formerly Hannah Pope of Bolton & an old acquaintance of ours as a Yearly Meeting lodger. - We treated her civilly but cool & felt grieved that one who had once been esteemed & no doubt in good measure religious should be attached to wrong principles - they were accompanied by Anson Potter a disowned Member of the Moy [Monthly] Meeting at whose house they lodged last night - From here they went to James Scott another disowned member. - After tea I went down to Moses Browns & sat with him & Elisha Bates. -

June 10, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 10 of 6 M 1830 / Elisha Bates attended Meeting in Providence at their regular Week Day Meeting & had one appointed at 5 OClock for the inhabitants of the Town - I could not conveniently attend either having much to do to get ready to go to Yearly Meeting - We however undertood he was favoured in each & the one appointed for the inhabitants was very satisfactory. - A good many friends arrived this Afternoon at the School House on their way to Yearly Meeting & among them some whom I have long known & been glad to meet -

June 11, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 11 of 6 M / At 12 OClock we came on board the Steam Boat President for Newport to attend our Annual Meeting - Arrived at about 3 OC & went immediately to Aunt Nancy Carpenters found her feeble but about, & our house cleaned up & ready to receive us - we expect to occupy our own rooms & bed but to make her house our eating home. - By this we can have considerable of the

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

company of our friends & furnish rooms for friends to resort to & transact much of the buisness of society - hold committees - do writing &c -

We took tea at Brother isaacs & in the evening called to see many of our old friends & relations. -

June 12, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*7th day 12th of 6th M 1830 / This morning commences our Annual Meeting for Ministers & Elders at Portsmouth Took Chaise & with my wife rode our the West road enjoying the beautiful Scenery of the Island & got to Meeting in Season. -
The meeting was favourd with solemn quiet - on sitting down in it there was a comfortable feeling attendant on my mind - in part for Worship Wm Almy opened the service & was followed by Elisha Bates - a few words after by Phebe Field I think was about all that was said -*

The part for the transacting the affairs of the Church was attended with some exercise but on the whole a time in which Truth had the ascendancy - We dined at Uncle Isaac Almys - After which I returned to the Meeting house to the Meeting for Sufferings - from there to Uncle Isaac Almys took tea & rode home as conductors to Elisha Bates & companion where we expect we shall Board this Y Meetingtime having the use of our part of the house to accomodate our friends with sleeping & sitting apartments. - After I got to bed I was very unwell & had a poor night. -

June 13, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day - Our Morning Meeting was very large Phebe Field opened the Service by directing the people to the breaking of bread to the Multitude, how he commanded them to sit down on the grass, & The fragments that were left which I thought had a solemnizing effect on the Assembly - & soon after Our friend Elisha Bates rose on the necessity of laying a right foundation - that no building would stand that was built on uncertain foundation & it was of consequence that religious opinions & principles on wrong foundation could not Stand & from this branched out & delivered one of the most copious sermons on the christian religion that I perhaps ever heard, & attended with great Authority & power - he stood over an hour & the people were profoundly attentive & singularly Still for so great an Audience
In the Afternoon the Meeting was much larger than in the Morning
- Wm Almy commenced the service by calling the attention of the Audience to the subject of Worship & a little hinting at the Nature of this great & important duty - he was soon followed by Joseph Brown who commenced with the Text "Faith hope & Charity
& the greatest of these Charity" - he followed these subjects thro' in masterly manner, & his testimmony attended with life &*

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

power - concluding with a most affectionate & solemn appeal to the Youth present, which left as much savour as I have lately seen on so great an Audience. Phebe Field concluded in a few expressions on the Necessity of preparing for death reciting the passage "All flesh is as grass" &c -

The Steam Boat arrived this Morning from Providence with about 500 Passengers to Attend our Meeting today, & at night returned with about 90. - This is probably as great a number of people as ever sailed in this River in one Boat. -

June 14, Monday: French troops began landing in Algeria.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day Meeting commenced at the usual hour, 9 OC in the Morning. - After sitting some time in Silence, a Solid covering over the Meeting but not of the most lively cast. - The Meeting Moved to buisness & the usual reading of epistles & other transactions at this sitting were gone thro' & I thought under the most favourable circumstances. - We adjourned to the 3rd house & again met & enterd on the State of Society. - Several very weighty, deep & reverend communications were made by Elisha Bates & Joseph Browne, Wm Almy & several of our own members participating usefully in the discussion of subjects before us, relating to the State of society as represented by the Answers to the queries & part which only were gone thru at this time. The Select Meeting being adjourned to 8 OClock this evening it met & went thro' the State of Society which took till the hour of Ten to which the Meeting at large was adjourned - when the Select Meeting adjourned till 5th day Morning

At 10 the Meeting at large met & proceeded to the reading of the document prepared by the General committee of the different Meetings - the Shutters between the Men & Women were raised so that one reading answered for both Meetings - it occupied just two hours in the reading & a most solemn quiet prevailed the whole time & after it got through, the quiet in which the greatest flood of Approbation flowed from every quarter of the house, & from every class, young & old, I ever heard on any occasion -

The Meeting being much exhausted rose at Two OClock & Adjourned till 5 OC -

June 19, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

It was my intention to have kept a more regular Diary of events thro' the course of this Yearly Meeting than I have done of late years, concluding that as we were exempt from close family care it might be in my power so to do - but tho' we were not house keepers, we were residing in our own hired house & recd many visitors, what with the continual service of society, in meeting & out which devolved upon us, we were not able to retire to bed

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

till about 12 OClock each night & generally rose at 5 in the Morning. - I am however now at the close, & after Friends have gone, being in my old shop where I have long lived & had many pleasures, for which I desire to be thankful, & many pains which I desire may & believe has, taught me much experience, & there for duly to appreciate their value. - I say now, at the close I am able in retrospect to say, that great & Manifold have been our favours together, at this very important season of our Yearly Meeting - The divine blessing has manifestly attended us & while on some accounts, some trials have presented & some bitter herbs dispenced yet "The hearts of many have been made to burn as he has talked to us by the Way." The Lord has evidently directed our councils & himself "Presided chief Speaker in & among us - & Many young & Old will have to commemorate his gracious dealing at this season. - Our friends Elisha Bates & Joseph Browne have been favourd instruments & by the weight of these spirits helped to keep things in order they have also labourd in Word & doctrine & been favour'd to reach the witness for God in many Minds, & I trust sow some seeds, which may take root & flourish in the Garden of the Lord We had much of the company of our fr Elisha Bates & his companion Abel Townsend who lodged in our part of the house & Ate with Aunt Nancy Carpenter. - With the other Public friends we have had but little families intercourse. - tho' we have seen & heard enough from them to Satisfy us they are acceptably here The Meeting closed yesterday Morning (6th of the Week) under a most solemn covering, after a weighty deep & searching testimony from Elisha Bates -

After attending the usual organising settings of the Meeting for Sufferings, & School committee Friends parted, & most of them left town & I have reason to believe many can say it is good for me that I have been here. - 10ock[?] most of this evening, & drank tea at Father Rodmans having the company of our dear Brother & Sister Nichols. -

This Morning (7th day of the Week) My wife feeling it best for her to return to Providence she took the Steam Boat & went accordingly. - I remained behind to attend to some concerns which appeard necessary - & have spent the day in putting things at home in as good order to leave as I can. -

June 20, Sunday: The British possession of Gibraltar became a crown colony.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day It was my calculation to have taken the Steam Boat & been in Providence by 9 OClock this Morng but we could not reach it in season to get on board before it left - so we took the Wind Packet in hopes to get to the Afternoon Meeting - but the Wind Slackning we did not reach the School House till Meeting had been set half an hour It rained most of our passage - Br & Sister Nichols were on board with me & came to the School House

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

June 22, Tuesday: Sam Houston's initial newspaper column written to defend the position of native Americans was published in The Arkansas Gazette under the name Tah-lohn-tusky.

The pillory in the Old Bailey in London was used for the final time.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 22nd of 6 M 1830 / Brother & Sister Nichols left us this Morning taking with them his son Isaiah & daughter Lydia continuing Lucy at the School. -

June 23, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 23rd of 6 M / Rode with my H to Smithfield to attend Monthly Meeting - It was a pleasant Ride & a good Meeting Wm Almy, Hepzibah Harris & Anna A Jenkins bore good & precious testimonies. - In our ride home we took a rode which brought us to one of the Locks of the Worcester Canal & we had the satisfaction of being there & saw two boats pass the Lock, one up, & the other down - This is the first time I ever saw a Boat pass a Canal lock. - It was an interesting sight to us both. -

June 27, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 27th of 6 M / In the forenoon our fr Lydia Breed was engaged in a seasonable pertinent & lively testimony & in the Afternoon Wm Almy was similarly concerned among us. - it was a day of some favour for which I desire to be thankful - It is a favour which might be acknowledged & gratefully remembered that we are able to enjoy present good - to see & feel that the Gracious Arm of Divine Mercy is extended & is supporting us thro' the vicisitudes, temptations & multiform trials of this life. - My heart is often fraught with gratitude that I am enabled to see & enjoy the pleasant scenery around this institution & above all, that my heart is preserved in a State of some religious sensibility. - & inabled to make some progress in the path way of religious improvement. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 30, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 30th of 6 MM 1830 / Our Meeting was a dull heavy one - render'd more so to me from indisposition of Body Abigail Arnold of the committee set with us - Yesterday was our sub committee meeting. - We had a pretty large company & some important buisness before us - particularly that of employing a teacher in the higher branches of education.-no conclusion come to - a proposition was made to employ an individual Not a member & the name of one was mentioned - I must

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

acknowledge that this proposition was trying to my feelings, from a sense of the danger we run in introducing Such to care & Authority here who have not the best interest of society at heart. –

July 3, Saturday: French elections concluding on this day would result in a loss for pro-government forces.

The Savannah, Georgia newspaper The Georgian carried an intriguing story about the Spanish negrero Fenix, which had been stopped by a US warship because it was robbing an American ship off Cuba:

The schooner Swift at Charleston from Key West, on the 25th ultimo off Key West, was boarded by a boat from the R.C. Pulaski [Capt.] Swiler, from Key West for Pensacola, with a piratical Guineaman under convoy, who reported that the above slaver had been taken a few days previous off the East end of Cuba while in the act of robbing an American brig (the Kremlin of Boston from Europe bound to Havana) by the U.S. schooner Grampus – She had, when taken, 83 slaves on board, of which 3 had died since their capture. The pirate was formerly the pilot boat built schooner Trimmer, of New York. The Grampus left Key West 24 ultimo for Pensacola – officers and crew all well.

INTERNATIONAL SLAVE TRADE

Have you ever wondered what happened to people who got freed from slave ships? As this article reported, there were 82 or 83 Africans, 3 of whom died before the warship reached its home port, Key West. They were taken on to Pensacola, and then to New Orleans, where a federal judge ruled they were free persons of color — but of course he could not free them in Louisiana lest they be seized and sold. The matter would need to be taken to the US Supreme Court before these people could be safely released.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 3rd of 7th M 1830 / This Morning Our friend Moses Brown waited on Benjamin Chappell Stanton a young man from Ohio to see us, after sitting a while he found himself very unwell & returned home, leaving Benjamin in our Care. – his object in coming from Ohio is to Solicit subscriptions for Barclays Works which he proposes to publish entire. – he appears to be a solid well concerned young man & I do heartily wish him success. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Our national birthday, the 4th of July, Sunday: Nathaniel Hawthorne's 26th birthday.

In Columbia, South Carolina the 4th had already been celebrated, on Saturday the 3rd — of course because Down Here In God's Country We Remember The Sabbath Day And Keep It Holy.

Vice President John C. Calhoun, at the Anniversary celebration in Pendleton, South Carolina, stirred up a certain amount of controversy with a toast in which "consolidation and disunion" were the "two extremes of our system" — whatever the hell that was supposed to mean.

CELEBRATING OUR B-DAY

Suffer the Little Children to Come Unto Me, an anthem by Lowell Mason, was performed for the initial time, by a children's choir in Park Street Church, Boston.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 4th of 7 M / Both Meetings Silent & in the mornng Enoch & Lydia at Smithfield. —
Benj C Stanton was here in the Mornng & went to Town in the Afternoon. — The more acquaintance I have with him the more I esteem him. —*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 7, Wednesday: There had been an ambush and massacre of Fox tribesmen by the Dakota and Menominee, probably in early May, as the Foxes had been at the request of Joseph Street en route to a conference at Prairie du Chien. On this day, with the Sauk, Fox, Dakota, and Menominee assembled, the sessions began. The differences would not be reconciled and the conference would not succeed.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*4th day 7th of 7 M 1830 / In setting down quietly this Mornng in our Chamber - I was lead to a view of my many blessings & favours, outwardly & inwardly, & I trust I have always been in good measure sensible of them, but not enough grateful to Him who dispenced them. — whose Merciful & Kind Providence has been signally manifest for my help on various occasions, all my life long.
Our Meeting was a rather more dry time than I expected when it first began. Previous to going my mind was in a lively sensible frame & I was thankful for the favour - but probably by not keeping close to the Inward watch I soon fell in a low condition as to life & was not able to rise out of it. —*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

July 9, Friday: Stanislaw Moniuszko received a certificate attesting that, through private education, he had attained adequate progress up to the 4th form.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 9th of 7 M / Our fr Joseph Bowne from Butternutts in the State of NYork called to see us with Wm Jenkins a little while. – he is on his return from Nantucket & a few Meetings that way where he has been spending his time Since Yearly Meeting & is now bound to Salem & Lynn to take those Meetings & then to return here & go directly home. – Phebe Field with Anna A Jenkins called at the door a little while in the Afternoon. – After tea I took Jon Slocum a Scholar & at present assistant teacher in the Absence of B B Hussey – & went down to Moses Browns & spent a little time J Bowne & Phebe Field being there. – it was a pleasant visit & interesting to us all. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 11, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 11th of 7 M 1830 / We attended Meeting in Smithfield at the close of which a Meeting was appointed at 4 OC in the Afternoon by Our fr Phebe Field who was in the Mornng at Cumberland meeting & to be here at the time appointed in the Afternoon – We went to the widow Hepzibah Harris to dine. –this extended my journeying North, about 3 Miles. – I was much pleased with some acquaintance with Hapzibah. I have been in the way of frequently seeing her at Meeting, but never before in her company – She is a good patient old woman & tho blind, can see further in some things, than many who has two good eyes. – The Meeting in the Afternoon was large, & very solid – Phebe was much favourd. She appeard to have a good understanding of States – & was sound in Doctrine & her Ministry & Supplication appeard in the life & with a good degree of Power – She returned with us to the School House & lodged. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 12, Monday: Very heavy rain began falling in western New York, and would continue through the following morning.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 12th of 7th M 1830 / Phebe Field & her daughter spent the forenoon with us & after dinner Enoch carried them to Town. – We recd a letter from Sister Ruth Rodman –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 14, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

4th day 14th of 7 M / Our Meeting was held at 9 OC this Morning to accomodate Our friends Joseph Bowne & Phebe Field who wished to attend, so as to go on Board the Steam Boat at 12 OC for NYork. Joseph & Phebe were both engaged in testimony very acceptably, they were comforting and encouraging, both to the Caretakers & Scholars -

Samuel Emlen son of our late friend Samuel Emlen was also at Meeting, & our always acceptable friend Moses Brown Ahab Arnold Wm Jenkins & Anna A Jenkins also attended. -

I have no doubt that tender impressions were made on the minds of the Scholars & others present - Josephs preaching was well calculated to live in the minds of the children. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 1, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 1st of 8th M 1830 / Silent Meeting in the Morning & In the Afternoon Wm Almy attended & was favoured in testimony. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 3, Tuesday: Commander George Back travelled up the Rhine River to Switzerland. He would spend more than a year touring Italy.

Louis-Philippe, son of the Duc d'Orleans, was elected King of the French.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 3rd of 8th M 1830 / After Attending the Meetg of the Sub committee My wife & I took the Chaise & rode down to Rhode Island & Staid at Uncle Stanton's where I found my Aged Mother as comfortable in health as when I last saw her at the Yearly Meeting time. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 4, Wednesday: James Thompson, a civil engineer hired by the Illinois Legislature, filed a survey and plat of the town of Chicago in Section 9, Township 39, Range 14, and the municipality received its first legal description — although the town would not incorporate for another three years.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day Attended the Select Quarterly Meeting & After Meeting rode into Newport & lodged at our Own home. - Visited many of our friends & relations in the course of the evening. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

HDT

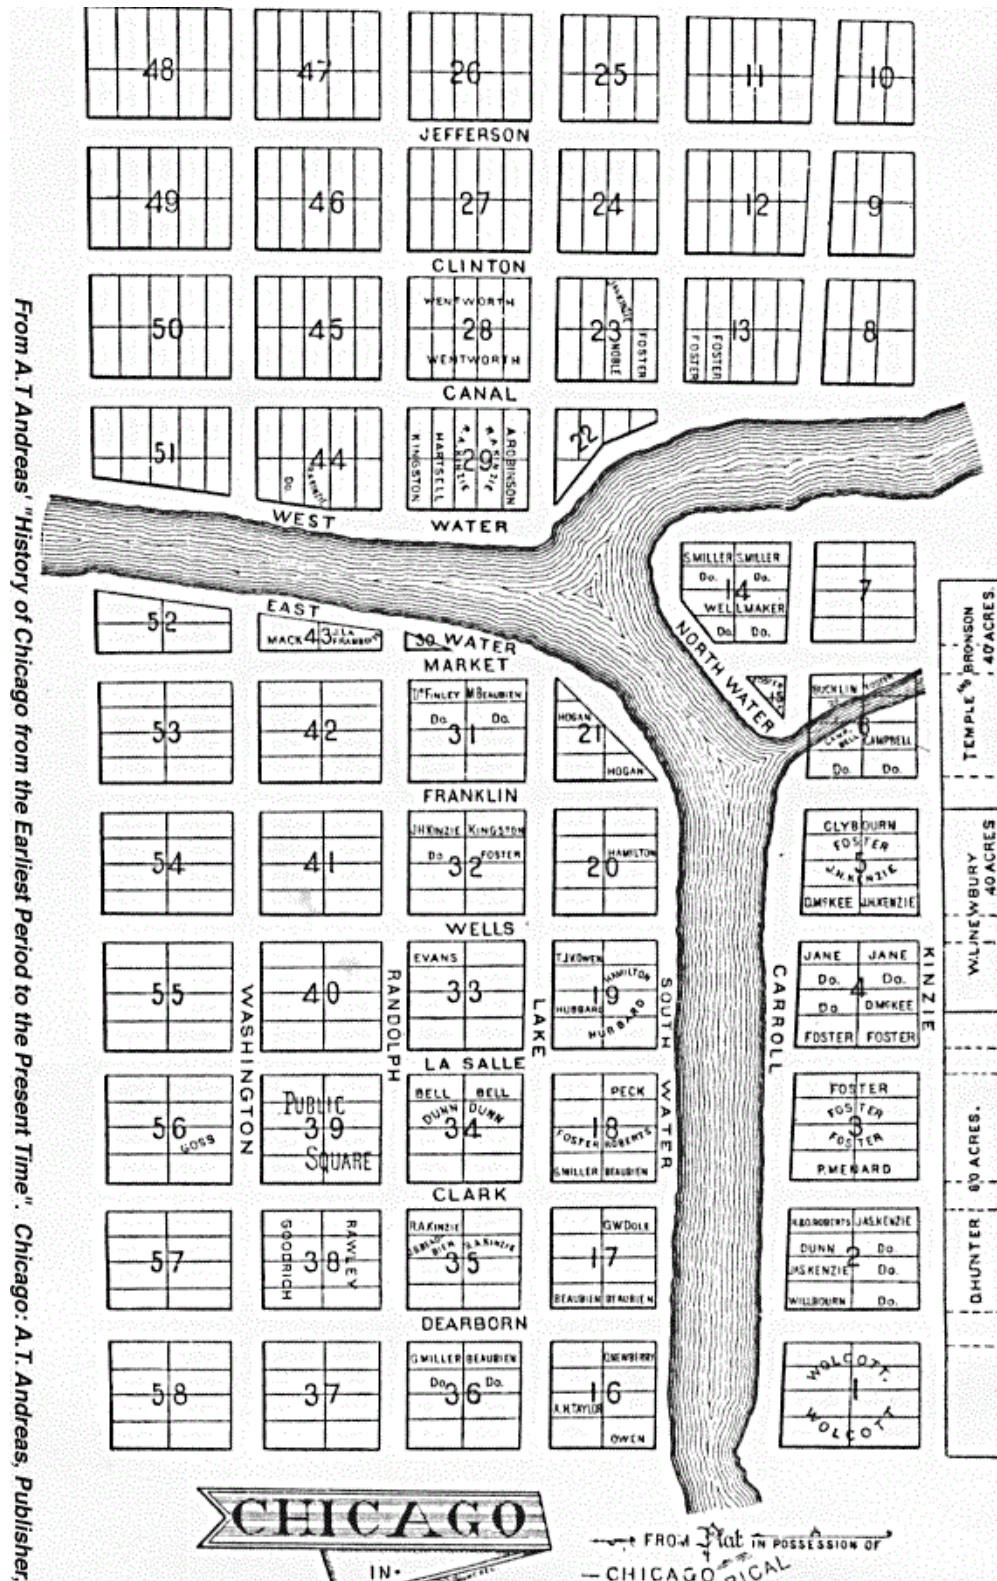

WHAT?

INDEX

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 August 5, Thursday: Charles Wesley Jr. reported that his brother Samuel was “deranged and strapped down” but was better after being bled by doctors. He said the cause was “drink.”

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day After making a number of calls & doing a little buisness we again Rode to Portsmouth & Attended the Quarterly Meeting at large held there –
In the first meeting Wm Almy was very extensively engaged in a sound pertinent testimony – was followed in a short good testimony from Anna Macomber from Westport & the Meeting concluded after a prayer by Betsy Purinton.
We then rode to Bristol ferry & took some dinner at Jeremiah Giffords & from hence crossed the ferry & rode to our now home at the Institution before Dark.*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 August 6, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 6th of 8th M 1830 / To day has been our General Committee Meeting, which has been largely attended & several new members who was never at a similar Meeting. – The Subject of an extended education at this Institution was before us & it was unanimously agreed that Measures be taken to procure a teacher who was capable of teaching the higher branches of learning such as Latin Greek &c &c – but in the Settlement of the premises on which it should be done occasioned some exercise & both Meetings of the committee were occupied in the consideration of the subject – It resulted in the appointment of a committee to dispose of the subject by agreeing with an instructor as way should open for. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 August 7, Saturday: In an all-day session, the French Chamber of Deputies rejected republican demands for a constitutional convention and a national referendum. They revised the constitution and named Louis-Philippe as the new King of France.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 7th of 8 M 1830 / Attended the Meeting for Sufferings – It was a time of exercise tho’ there was no very important buisness before it. – things however ended pretty well. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 August 8, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 8 of 8 M / We rode to Smithfield & Attended Meeting there. – It is a very pleasant Meeting place & the company who meet there considerably interesting. – The number at Meeting

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

today was rather smaller than at some time but it was a comfortable season. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 11, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 11th of 8 M 1830 / Our Meeting was not a season of much life to me. I am thankful however in being able to insert in my Diary that however short I come in devotion to the Cause of Truth I have occasional renewals of life springing up in my heart.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 12, Thursday: Johanna Schumann grudgingly approved a plan of Freidrich Wieck to allow her son Robert to study piano and theory and assess his progress after a 6-month period.

Ground was broken at Schenectady, New York for the Mohawk and Hudson Rail-Road. Backer and lawyer C.C. Cambreleng addressed the crowd.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 12th of 8th M / After waiting on Lydia Breed and my wife to Meeting in Providence which they had a mind to attend - I took the Steam Boat for Newport having buisness there which required my personal attention. – Found Aunt Nancy & all my particular friends well & had time to accomplish some things I went on - in the course of the Afternoon. Took tea at Father Rodmans & lodged at our own hired house

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 13, Friday: Achille Charles Leonce Victor, Duc de Broglie replaced Marie Jean Paul Roch Yves Gilbert Motier, Marquis de Lafayette as prime minister of France.

Congressman Warren Davis, on the nullification “solution” to the tariff: “An oppressive and tyrannical law, that is driving almost to madness a generous, patriotic and highminded people, would be seen to be annulled, avoided, and made harmless by the quiet and peaceful intervention of ‘trial by jury’.”

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day - Was informed today that Peleg Heng on [?] had had the whole of one of his eyes taken out in consequence of a Cancerous affection & day before yesterday a painful & dreadful operation was performed on my cousin Thomas B Gould. –

Spent the day in various concerns among others a visit to my Aged Aunt Hannah Gould tho' circumstances required my dealing closely with her & setting in order before her the exceeding Sinfulness of Sin Yet my labour afforded peace to my own mind and I am in good hopes that the effect of it on her will be lastingly useful I visited most of my friends in the course of the day - & effected some buisness which may hereafter be much

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

to my advantage & got ready to leave in the Morning –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 14, Saturday: A Constitutional Charter for France was promulgated. It called for an elected monarchy, legislation initiated in the Chambers, an end to press censorship, and the disestablishment of Roman Catholicism.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day Rose early & on going to the house top to see if the Steam Boat was in sight found she had turned Brentons Point & Ringing her Bell - I repared immediately to the head of Long Wharf & was soon joined by Sister Ruth Rodman in a carriage & had a pleasant Passage up & arrived at the Institution between 8 & 9 OClock finding all things well & comfortable.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 15, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 15th of 8 M / Our friend Elizabeth Wing from Tiverton in Rhode Island Moy [Monthly] Meeting Attended our Afternoon Meeting very acceptably - She is now out on a Religious visit to the Meetings of this Quarterly Meeting. - her Travelling companion is her husband Edward Wing & a very suitable one he is. They Lodge at the Institution, & expect to attend an appointed Meeting at Cumberland tomorrow.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

August 16, Monday: Despite the fact that he had little sympathy for such republican changes and was wary of service under the new constitutional monarch Louis-Philippe, Alexis de Tocqueville took the oath of loyalty as mandated. He began musing on ways of avoiding all this unpleasant commonness, such as by visiting the United States of America to “see there what a great republic is like” and to observe whether or no that sort of thing could ever be good for France. He commented that his only fear was that upon his return, he would find France also had become a republic.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 16 of 8 M / Took Sister Ruth & rode to Cumberland Meeting with Edw & Elizabeth Wing - Stopped at Davis Metcalfs & refreshed before Meeting. The Meeting was not large but a season of favour. – Dined at Davis Mercalf then left Ruth & came home, as they expected to be at Smithfield tomorrow. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

HDTWHAT?INDEXSTEPHEN WANTON GOULD*FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

The news arrived in America, that King George IV of England had died. Note the black banner at the top of the column, the manner in which printers of the period announced a death:

August 17, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 8th M 17th 1830 / Rode to Smithfield to attend the Appointed Meeting & Joined our friends & Sister Ruth. —Elizabeth was favour'd in the language & encouragement to all & there were a pretty respectable number of Females who were not members & some men. — Elizabeth requested the members present to remain - & to them she had very encouraging service. After the Meeting closed I rode home with them to the Institution

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

& After dinner & resting a while - our kind young friend Gilbert Congdon took Sister Ruth with him in a Chaise & Conducted them to Elihu Bowens in Scituate where they expect to be at Meeting tomorrow & next day at Cranston. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ August 22, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1 day 22 of 8 M 1830 / Silent Meeting in the Morning - In the Afternoon Wm Almy attended & preached a sound acceptable & I thought seasonable sermon

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ August 29, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 29 of 8 M 1830 / Silent Meetings all Day. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ August 31, Tuesday: A British patent was awarded to Edwin Beard Budding of Stroud, Gloucestershire, for a lawn mower.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*3rd day 31 of 8 M / Today was our Sub committee Meeting - which was a pleasant time & a considerable important buisness transacted
It was pretty much concluded to build an Addition to this House for the accomodation of a School for the higher branches. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ September 1, Wednesday: A poem by Sarah J. Hales, "Mary Had A Little Lamb," was published in Boston.

Sam Houston and several of his associates purchased the Grand Saline and the land surrounding it, located 25 miles northwest of Fort Gilson, from the Osage children of A.P. Chouteau.

The following is a snippet from Charles Haskell's REMINISCENCES OF NEW YORK BY AN OCTOGENARIAN:
Charles Kean made his first appearance at the Park Theatre in "Richard III" before a great audience. Booth was playing tragedy at the "Bowery" Theatre at this time, and the rival performances were very interesting to the public. Kean may be said to have laid here the foundation of his great reputation. He returned to England in 1833, when his countrymen acceded to the American opinion of him.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 1 of 9 M 1830 / Mary B Allen was at Meeting & very

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

acceptable in the Ministry. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 5, Sunday: Imelda de' Lambertazzi, a melodramma tragico by Gaetano Donizetti to words of Tottola, was performed for the initial time, in Teatro San Carlo, Naples.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 5th of 9 M / Rode with my wife to Smithfield & attended Meeting there - it was Silent but Solid & a considerable number present. - After Meeting we went to Aza Arnolds & dined - I was much gratified with an opportunity to visit this Aged & respectable friend now in his 83rd Year. - We spent the Afternoon with him very pleasantly & then rode home.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 8, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 8th of 9 M / Silent Meeting. – It was a very Solid quiet which seemed to prevail, but I could but lament my own poverty & weakness.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 12, Sunday: Elector Wilhelm II of Hesse-Kassel returned to the capital from Karlsbad. In a few days, unable to depend on his military, he would call for a new constitution for the country.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 12th of 9th M 1830 / Silent Meetings at the Institution – In the Afternoon John Brown of Dover a member of the committee & his Brother Moses Brown of Philadelphia, attended. – Immediately after the close of our Meeting a number of us went to Town to attend the Funeral of Wm Jenkins's child Wm Almy Jenkins who died at his gan rd father Wm Almy's in Cranston yesterday Morning & was brought to Town this & buried from his fathers house this afternoon In the burying ground used by Friends here
This is a heavy loss to the Parents & connections who I have no doubt will be supported under it by the religion which they have long professed & I have no doubt professed in a very good degree. The funeral was Solemn the setting quiet & Wm Almy appeared in reverend supplication & also in a short testimony at the close. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

September 22, Wednesday: State of the South of Colombia was renamed the State of Ecuador.

Holland's Belgian provinces were separated.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 22 of 9 M / Today was our Week day Meeting at the Institution. - Oh Poverty & leanness is Yet upon me - but the Meeting today was a little better than at sometimes - Our fr Moses Brown called to see us a little while this Afternoon, but my wife being under engagement to go to Dorcas Anthonys & Phebe Holdens on buisness of the Meeting we were obliged to leave hi. -Finished & mail'd a letter to John this Afternoon -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 23, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 23 of 9 M / We attended Meeting in town it was a good solid quiet Meeting tho there was great noise in the Streets with Drums &c it being a Military general muster. - Our friend Moses Brown was at Meeting, it is his Birthday being 92 Years of age this day - he Seemed pleasant & cheerful after Meeting & offered a few remarks to the buisness in the Preparative Meeting. -
When we returned from Meeting we found a letter from John, which had been left in our absence by Benjamin Marshall who has gone to Pawtucket & will be at the Roger Williams Hotel this Afternoon -
I spent most of the Afternoon in waiting & looking for Benj Marshall - but found him not - concluded he had gone further than Pawtucket*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 25, Saturday: Charles Sumner and Barzillai Frost graduated from Harvard College. (During October 1829, the young Frost had submitted a requirement "Algebraic Geometry" (21 ¼ x 38 ¾ inches) that is still on file there: <<http://oasis.harvard.edu:10080/oasis/deliver/~hua17004>>.)

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*7 day 25th of 9th M 1830 / Benj Marshall came & we had a good opportunity with him in our room to make many inquirys about our dear John
He staid about an hour & an half & then I carried him into Town. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

➡ September 26, Sunday: To Friend Stephen Wanton Gould, in Providence, Rhode Island, it was a distinctly unpleasant experience to encounter in the public street his former friend William Rotch — since he had been disowned from the Religious Society of Friends for having Hicksite leanings:

1st day 26 of 9 M / Silent & measurably favour'd Meeting. —After meeting in the Afternoon I rode into Town. — In the Street I met Wm Rotch & noded to him, & he to me — but he did not look nor feel to me, as Wm Rotch once looked & felt. — I deplore his departure from Society — but nothing can be done — he must remain as he is. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ September 29, Wednesday: John F. Knapp was hanged in Salem, for having murdered 82-year-old Joseph White on April 6th.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*4th day 29th of 9 M / Moy [Monthly] Meeting held in Town Wm almy was short in testimony encouraging the youth
The buisness was pretty well conducted — Elisha Bowen dined at the Institution the first time since we have been here —*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ October 3, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 3rd of 10 M 1830 / Silent Meetings & rather heavy times. Between Meetings we had a short visit from Thos P Rodman —he now resides at New Bedford, but has it in contemplation to remove. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ October 5, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 5 of 10 M / Our Sub-committee meeting was a pleasant time. — Our friends Edw & Elizabeth Wing were here. — After Dinner several Set out to attend the Quarterly Meeting at Sandwich, where a time of some trial is expected from what was anciently demanind [denominated?] the HOT SPIRIT

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ October 6, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*4th day 6th of 10 M 1830 / Silent Meeting at the Institution
We have had many Silent meeting of late.*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ October 9, Saturday: Felix Mendelssohn arrived in Venice.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 9 of 10 M / This Morning our friends who left on 3rd day

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

to attend Sandwich Quarter returned bringing with them the Satisfactory account that things went well & apprehended difficulty was averted & things probably in a better State but it is feared not long to be depeneded on

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 10, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 10 of 10 M / My wife & I attended Smithfield Meeting in the forenoon & at home in the Afternoon. - Mary B Allen was at the Institution in the Morning & we were inform'd had good Service in the Ministry. - We also had the company of Thos Howland who was here on his return from Sandwich -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 11, Monday: At his final performance in Warsaw, Fryderyk Franciszek Chopin premiered his Piano Concerto no.1 in e minor.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 11 of 10 M / This Afternoon Enoch & Lydia Breed Set out on a journey to their home in Weare, to visit their children & attend Salem Quarterly Meeting - they expect to be absent from the Institution about sixteen days

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 17, Sunday: Dutch forces bombarded Antwerp.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 17th of 10th M 1830 / Silent Meetings at the Institution. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 20, Wednesday: Robert Schumann moved into the Leipzig home of his teacher, Friedrich Wieck, which included Wieck's daughter, Clara.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 20 of 10 M / Silent Meetings again & rather poor hard times to me -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

➡ October 21, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 21 of 10 M / Attended Preparative & Select Meetings held at the Meeting house in Providence. – Wm Almy was engaged in an encouraging & instructive testimony to those who are Young. -- Dined at Doctor Tobey's - after which had an opportunity with a young man on acct of his marrying out of the order of Society - in company with Elisha Bowen. – These are generally hard cases

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ October 24, Sunday: Andrew Jackson, in a letter to Mary Eastin, copied the attitude that John Caldwell Calhoun was “persecuting Peggy Eaton in order to renew the assault on Rachel Jackson.”

The State of Venezuela was renamed the Republic of Venezuela.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 24th of 10th M / In the Afternoon Wm Almy attended & delivered an excellent testimony. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ October 27, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 27th of 10 M / Attended Monthly Meeting in Smithfield where Wm Almy was much engaged in testimony & very acceptably. Enoch & Lydia Returned from Weare

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ November 4, Thursday: Harriet Arbuthnot, wife of the Tory member of Parliament Charles Arbuthnot and close friend of the Duke of Wellington, noted in her diary that “Parliament was opened by the King on the 2nd. He was very well received by the people who, however, were very disorderly, hooted and hissed the Duke wherever they could see him. People complain that the Duke did harm by declaring publicly he would not lend himself to any reform and that he thought, in its results, no form of representation could be better than ours. I don't believe there will be any disturbance. The wretched state to which Belgium is reduced by their desire for reform is a pretty good lesson for sober and reflecting people such as we are.”

John Cab Hobhouse, a Whig politician, recorded in his journal that “The Duke of Wellington made a speech in the Lords, and declared against Reform. I hear he was hissed, and hurt by a stone. I heard this evening that a very unpleasant feeling was rising among the working classes, and that the shopkeepers in the Metropolis were so much alarmed that they talked of arming themselves.”

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day [sic] 4th of 11th M 1830 / To day was our Sub-committee – It was a pleasant harmonious time & after it was over divers of our friends set out to attend the Quarterly Meeting approaching at Somerset. –

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 November 12, Friday: Waldo Emerson began reading Volume I of Friend William Penn's SELECT WORKS.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 12 of 11 M / Recd a letter this Afternoon from my brother Isaac informing me that my old friend John Slocum Died yesterday Afternoon in Newport - I respected him much. -

 November 14, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 14th of 11th M 1830 / Silent Meetings all day & pretty good times to me. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 November 20, Saturday: Publication of the Concerto for Piano and Orchestra op.113 by Johann Nepomuk Hummel was announced in the Allgemeiner Musikalischer Anzeiger, Vienna.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 20th of 11th M / A number of callers at the Institution & Several new Scholars. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 November 21, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 21st of 11 M / Daniel Clapp attended our Mornng Meeting & bore a very sound good testimony & rose twice. - Lydia Breed was also acceptably engaged in testimmony. - Silent in the Afternoon.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 November 24, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 24th of 11th M / Attended our Moy [Monthly] Meeting in Providence it was a good comfortable Meeting & Wm Almy was engaged a testimony of unusual length & unusual or uncommon life & power on the great fundamentals of the christian religion. - Betsy Purinton was also engaged in acceptable testimony. - There was not a great deal of buisness in the last Meeting. & it closed pretty soon - The day was very Rainy & none of our Scholars attended - My wife was also sick & unable to attend. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 November 28, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1st day 28th of 11th M / Silent Meetings. – Enoch & Lydia went to Warwick to attend the Meeting held there the last first day in each Month. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 30, Tuesday: The Revolutionaries were in control of Warsaw. The Russian army and Grand Duke Konstantin were forced to retreat.

Riots broke out in Tambov southeast of Moscow, in response to a cholera epidemic and the government policy of quarantine.

Pope Pius VIII, Francesco Saverio Castiglioni, died in Rome.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 30th of 11th M 1830 / The day was violent stormy with Wind & pelting rain from the North East It was our Sub committee Meeting & not enough of the committee were able to get there to make a meeting & they adjourned. –

Having felt my mind drawn to attend the approaching Quarterly Meeting to be held in New Bedford for Sandwich - Stormy as the Morning was & the whole Day proved I got into the Stage by way of Tanton [Taunton] & set out –

When we arrived at Tanton I met with Wm Dean of Salem who I had not seen in a number of Years. – Tho' he has left the Society of Friends of which he was once a useful member, his external appearance was plain – & his conversation open & Friendly – we conversed freely on the subject of his separation from society & I discharged my mind freely to him & with a plainness which I apprehend has seldom been used with him – on our arrival at New Bedford he stoped at his Brother in Law Wm Rotchs & I went to my friend Joseph Tillinghast by whom I was kindly received & entertained while there & had time in the evening to call on several of my friends & acquaintances. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 1, Wednesday: Polish troops outside Warsaw decided to join the uprising and they marched into the city to defend it.

English explorers Richard and John Lander reached Fernando Po (Bioko) after having traversed the lower Niger River by canoe over the last four months.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 1st of 12 M 1830 / Attended the Select Qrly Meeting which was a season of distress but some relief towards the close by the Ministry of John Wilbour, – Dined at Francis Tabers & also took tea there & in the evening met there with a committee from the Y Meeting & the Select Meeting of New Bedford on account of existing difficulty among them – tho' I was not a Member of that

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

committee & met with them by invitation - I had an opportunity to relieve my mind of some exercise which I had been under. - it was a season to be remembered - divers who were as carts heavily pressed with shieves were encouraged to bear the burden & our hearts were cemented together in much love. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 2, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day Attended the Qrly Meeting at large - Thomas Anthony from our Qrly Meeting was there & well engaged in testimony. -Several other appearance but neither of the others were very satisfactory to me. - In the last there was but very little buisness & several burdensome appearances by way of Preaching. - This is the second time I was ever at New Bedford & the first Quarterly Meeting I ever attended excepting that of Rhode Island to which I belong. - I dined at Geo Howlands & took tea & set most of the eveng at Francis Tabers. - Took the Stage to Fall River & came home from there by the Steam Boat. - In looking over this journey I am not conscious of doing any hurt & perhaps no good - but I do feel as if I had got some good by going & I desire to be thankful. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 5, Sunday: Christina Rossetti was born in London.

Warsaw was considered “liberated” after the defection of the army and the withdrawal of the Russian regent.

In Vienna, Fryderyk Franciszek Chopin and Tytus Woyciechowski learned of the uprising in Warsaw. Tytus returned to participate, but he convinced Chopin to stay in Vienna. Chopin apparently changed his mind and tried to catch his friend as he was leaving, but was unable to do so.

Afternoon. Episode de la vie d'un artiste: Symphonie fantastique en cinq parties by Hector Berlioz was performed for the initial time, at the Paris Conservatoire. Also on the program was the premiere of Berlioz's Chant guerrier for voice and piano to words of Moore, translated by Gounet. Giacomo Meyerbeer and Gaspare Spontini were among the admirers. Berlioz would later remember that Liszt “forcibly led me off to dinner at his house and praised me with the most energetic enthusiasm.”

Tonight Harriet Smithson appeared at the Opera in the title role of Auber's La Muette de Portici. Her performance was a failure. Berlioz did not attend as he was having dinner with Liszt.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 5 of 12 M 1830 / We rode to Smithfield [the Saylesville meetinghouse in Lincoln] & attended Meeting there - In the Afternoon at Meeting at the Institution [what has become the

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

"Moses Brown School" in Providence]. – Thomas Howland is here acceptably as his company always is. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 25, Christmas, Saturday: An overture in B_b "Drumbeat Overture" WWV 10 by Richard Wagner was performed for the initial time, in the Royal Saxon Hoftheater, Leipzig. It was Wagner's public debut as a composer.

The Best Friend of Charleston began to carry passengers over the first completed six miles of track, on a scheduled basis between Charleston and Hamburg SC, and thus became the first regularly scheduled steam railway carrier of the New World:

Away we flew on the wings of the wind at the speed of fifteen to twenty-five miles an hour, scattering sparks and flames on either side, passed over three saltwater creeks, hop, step and jump and reached the end of the line at State and Dorchester Roads before any of us had time to determine whether it was prudent to be scared.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*7th day 25 of 12 M 1830 / A longer time than usual has now elapsed since I have written in my Diary - I may humbly acknowledge that it has been a time of much favour & sweetness & quiet to my mind tho' trials have awaited us - I have been for more than a week since the last date confined to the room by sickness & about two days to the bed - We have also been tried with accounts from Newport that the Small Pox was in Br David Rodmans family - but are now comforted by hearing that the child is getting well - We hope none of the others will take it & that our Aged Father will be preserved from it; who has not had it & declines being inoculated for the kine Pock. -
What a blessing it is to be favoured to dwell in the quiet in times of Peril & dismay - Truly we have been tried, deeply tried but I must say I never felt more confidence in the divine Arm of support. - Oh may this continue - Human Philosophy may do much, but it falls far short of yealding the rich consolation & firm Anchor of hope, which is to be found in the Religion which comes by our blessed Lord & Saviour Jesus Christ. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 29, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

12 M 29 1830 (4th day) / Rode to Smithfield & attended Moy [Monthly] Meeting - In the first Meeting Betsy Purinton prayed & I thought it was a pretty good Meeting, tho' my own mind was very much secluded from Good, & perhaps preserved from much that

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

was positively bad -

In the last Meeting we got along pretty well with the buisness. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 30, Thursday: Wilkes Allen was born to Mary Morrill Allen and the Reverend Wilkes Allen in Chelmsford, Massachusetts.

Hon. Wendell Davis died in Sandwich. The body would be interred at Plymouth.

Hector Berlioz reluctantly left Paris for Rome to fulfill his Prix de Rome obligations. He intended to stop at his home, La Cote-St.-Andre along the way.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 30th of 12 M 1830 / This day 49 Years ago I was born in Newport - I do not know as I can say much on the event. - I have much to be thankful for - have passed thro' some trials & recd many blessings & favours - & my heart is often deeply fraught with gratitude, & desires raised that some due returns of devotion may be made to HIM who has cared for & protected & preserved me all my life long - Thro' the step - by paths of youth, to sober man hood, & to the advance of Old Age. - But I have nothing of my own to offer. - all is thro' his mercy & the Intercession of Christ our Holy Redeemer - For some time past it has been a season of favour with me. - The love of my youth & the days of mine espousals have been remembered & in some degree renewed - We are now situated at the Yearly Meeting Boarding School in Providence where we have an ample field to exert ourselves in the promotion of the good cause & devote ourselves to the service of the Society which both me & my dear wife love & wish to serve.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX

John Randolph writes from London, sick, on his way back from a fruitless mission to Russia:

"... Congress and the Virginia Assembly both meet this day, and I pray God to send us, the people, a safe deliverance.

It will be very unlucky in case of a general war in Europe, which some look forward to, that we shall have eaten all our wheat, for I learn that there is a total destruction of Indian corn.

...A great discovery has been made on the Continent, far surpassing any of Archimedes or Newton. The people have discovered the secret of their strength; and the military have found out that they are the people...

Commend me earnestly to all my old friends ... I shall be

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

among them (dead or alive) next Summer. I have provided for a leaden coffin, feeling as I do an inexpressible desire to lie by the side of my dear mother and honored father at old Matoax." (Source: Bouldin, Home Reminiscences of Randolph, p227)

12/07 Jackson delivered his annual message to Congress. He "crowed over his triumphs in foreign affairs, the wisdom of the Maysville Road veto and [progress towards paying] the National Debt [and] argued the right ... to use his veto at will to implement his reform program (as opposed to only vetoing on the basis of unconstitutionality)." (Source: Remini, Jackson, vol 2, p301) (Text of the Annual Address)

The first issue of the Washington Globe, published by Francis Blair. It carried advertisements and was sold by subscription in a move to avoid party dependency. (Source: Derr, Fronteirsman, p178)

12/10 - A deep freeze sets in in Boston - "All Boston shrank, braced and blued with a steady cold that deepened without a break from December 10 through Christmas. ... 'God save the poor,' Emerson wrote in letter after letter. (Source: Richardson, Emerson, p117)

12/16 Abraham Lincoln, age 21, with John Reed, "having been called on to apprais an Estray Mare ... Do find her to be four years old next Spring a bright bay 14 hands high -- a Small blaze and a Snip in her face -- right hind foot white ... appraised to 30 Dollars". (Source: Basler, Works of Lincoln, vol 1, p3)

12/25 - Snow began to fall in Illinois and accumulated to a depth of several feet for many days, accompanied by temperatures 10 and 20 degrees below zero. "Cattle died; deer and turkey which had been numerous were nearly exterminated. Of wild animals, only the wolves survived (other sources say that, after slight rain caused a crust to form on the snow, wolves were able to get around on the snow, while hooved animals, like cattle and deer, were trapped). (Source: Beveridge, Lincoln, vol. 1, p104)

"NARRATIVE HISTORY" IS FABULATION, HISTORY IS CHRONOLOGY

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1831

January 1, Saturday: William Lloyd Garrison began publication of The Liberator in Boston (this would become the leading abolitionist journal in the United States).

I am in earnest, I will not equivocate – I will not excuse – I will not retreat a single inch. AND I WILL BE HEARD.

400 copies were distributed. In the first year of its publication, this new newspaper would attract only 50 white subscribers — but considerably more subscribers among the free blacks of the North. There were, of course, no slave-state subscribers of either race, and there was no Southern distribution.

... Every place I visited gave fresh evidence of the fact that a greater revolution in public sentiment was to be effected in the free states – and particularly in New England – than at the South. I found contempt more bitter, opposition more active, detraction more relentless, prejudice more stubborn, and apathy more frozen, than among slave owners themselves.... I will be as harsh as the truth, and as uncompromising as justice....

SLAVERY

HDTWHAT?INDEXSTEPHEN WANTON GOULD*FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Here is an illustration of the period, indicating what sorts of people the illustrator believed read The Liberator:

In this same illustration, note what the illustrator suspected that such a person might have on his wall, besides an illustration from a Shakespearian play:

HDTWHAT?INDEX

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

I've had enough fun, I'll show you the whole illustration:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

The Reverend Adin Ballou's "Epistle General to Restorationists" in the Independent Messenger would bring about a confrontation with the Reverend Thomas Whittemore in the Independent Messenger and the Trumpet and Universalist Magazine.

The following, about early connections between Frederick Douglass and William Lloyd Garrison in Baltimore, is from pages 30-31-32 of William S. McFeely's FREDERICK DOUGLASS (Norton, 1995):

When Frederick was nine, and again when he was twelve, Baltimore was the scene of legal actions involving white men who had insulted each other. The disputes were of seemingly small importance. In the first instance, one party was knocked to the ground and the assailant was fined on dollar; in the second, the man who had done the insulting was jailed, but his punishment was not fierce – the prisoner took his meals with his jailer's family. Yet these quarrels reverberated down through out history.

The man knocked to the ground was Benjamin Lundy; the man put in jail was William Lloyd Garrison. The men with whom they had their disputes were slave traders; the subject of the disputes was slavery.

Austin Woolfolk was a prosperous Baltimore merchant whose place of business was on Pratt Street. Like other businessmen then and since, he was eager to be regarded not only as successful but also as benevolent. In his advertisements he stressed his discretion and kindness. Woolfolk was a slave trader.

The Maryland economy was changing. There were fewer and fewer huge slaveholding enterprises like Wye House. Landowners were looking for nonagricultural sources of income, which, it turned out, were not dependent on slave labor. It was not considered good form for Marylanders of substance to mistreat their people by dividing families, but it was even worse form to slide down the ladder economically. The landowners sold certain assets – slaves– in order to invest in others – mercantile or manufacturing enterprises. The Maryland archives record hundreds of sales of slaves, then in great demand in the cotton belt south and west of Maryland. Frederick's aunt Maryann and his cousin Betty were sold south in 1825, for example. That year, Talbot County slaveowners received $22,702 from sales of their people to Woolfolk alone. They made their sales discreetly, but they made them.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

In 1827, Benjamin Lundy was indiscreet. The unembarrassable Quaker, publisher of the Genius of Universal Emancipation, which he worked on whenever he happened to be on his peripatetic crusade to end slavery, printed an account of Woolfolk's having cursed one of his wares as the black man stood on the gallows, about to be hanged for participation in an attempted seizure of the Decatur, carrying him from Baltimore to Savannah. In his narrative, Lundy called the slave trader a "monster in human shape." The merchant sought out the editor and knocked him to the ground. Picking himself up, Lundy did not strike back, but instead went to the courthouse and sued Woolfolk for assault. After many delays, a judge levied a fine of one dollar, saying Woolfolk had been greatly provoked.

A week later in Boston, Lundy described the incident, and the ugliness of the slave trade, to a group that included another editor, the conservative young William Lloyd Garrison. Garrison later credited his commitment to the antislavery cause to this meeting with Lundy, in the boarding house at which they were both staying; soon he was attacking slavery in his Vermont newspaper. Impressed by his convert, Lundy walked from Baltimore to Bennington in the winter of 1829 to persuade Garrison to join him in Maryland.

The following summer Garrison did come to Baltimore – the city where his mother had lived, briefly, and died. He and Lundy stayed at a boarding house on Market Street run by two Quaker ladies. Garrison soon met Jacob Greener, John Needles, and William Watkins, antislavery leaders in the black community. Immediately, the two editors began to take as their primary target in the Genius of Universal Emancipation the locally hated slave trade that resulted in the sale south of slaves who, in Baltimore, held hopes of entering the growing and articulate free black society. Their most sensational attack was on two New Englanders, Francis Todd and Nicholas Brown, the owner and captain, respectively, of a Newburyport ship, the Francis, then conveying eighty-five slaves, sold by Woolfolk, from Maryland to a plantation on the Mississippi River south of New Orleans – the site of the most dreaded slave markets.

Todd and Brown sued for libel, and Garrison, as author of the piece (which was no more offensive in its rhetoric – "domestic piracy," "horrible traffic" – than the typical campaign invective of the day) was fined fifty dollars. And when he did not pay the fine, he was sent to jail, and from his cell skillfully assailed slaveholders everywhere. Eager to quell this incipient and effective martyrdom, Garrison's jailers released him after forty-nine days. The publication of his new newspaper, the Liberator, followed, beginning on January 1, 1831.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 1st of 1st M 1831 / In commencing the new Year - my mind is engaged to supplicate for a renew'd engagement of heart to

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*love & serve Him who has long been gracious & Merciful - dispensing his favours to me, who am unworthy of them.
We know not what we may have to pass thro' from season to season
- nor how much we may stand in need of from his Holy hand - but may our minds be gathered increasingly to a humble reliance on his mercy & Holy support. — I was early convinced that the Religion of Jesus Christ stood preeminently above all other sources of consolation & help thro' the various changes incident to this life - All the Philosophy of Seneca & other Moralists falls below, & cannot stand without the aid & help of revealed religion & may we flee to it as our only rock of refuge against which the Storms of time has ever beat in vain. —
The days has passed pleasantly & may it be an earnest of the future thro' the coming year. —³⁶⁷*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

In New-York, the English traveler Thomas Hamilton was experiencing local customs.³⁶⁸

It is the custom in New York, on the first day of the year, for the gentlemen to visit all their acquaintances; and the omission of this observance in regard to any particular family, would be considered as a decided slight. The clergy, also, hold a levee on this day, which is attended by their congregation.... The routine is as follows: The ladies of a family remain at home to receive visits; the gentlemen are abroad, actively engaged in paying them. You enter, shake hands, are seated, talk for a minute or two on the topics of the day, then hurry off as fast as you can. Wine and cake are on the table, of which each visiter [sic] is invited to partake. The custom is of Dutch origin, and, I believe, does not prevail in any other city of the Union. I am told its influence on the social intercourse of families, is very salutary. The first day of the year is considered a day of kindness and reconciliation, on which petty differences are forgotten, and trifling injuries forgiven. It sometimes happens, that between friends long connected, a misunderstanding takes place. Each is too proud to make concessions, alienation follows, and thus are two families, very probably, permanently estranged. But on this day of annual amnesty, each of the offended parties calls on the wife of the other, kind feelings are recalled, past grievances overlooked, and at their next meeting they take each other by the hand, and are again friends.

January 2, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 2 of 1 M 1831 / Silent in the Morning In the Afternoon
Wm Almy was here & large in testimony- I have no doubt his*

367. Stephen Wanton Gould Diary, 1829-1832: The Gould family papers are stored under control number 2033 at the Division of Rare and Manuscript Collections of Cornell University Library, Box 8 Folder 14: April 1, 1829-December 31, 1832; also on microfilm, see Series 7

368. Men and Manners in America would be published anonymously two years later through Carey, Lea & Blanchard of Philadelphia.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

preaching does good here

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 4, Tuesday: Noah Webster wrote to his wife “Becca” that his lecture on the English language before the House of Representatives had been well received, and pointing out that former President John Quincy Adams had been in his audience.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 4 of 1 M / Recd this eveng a very comfortable letter from our dear Son at Hudson –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 9, Sunday: A new constitution was announced in Hesse-Kassel. During the celebrations Louis Spohr’s Jessonda was performed, as was a play by Niemeyer. In the play was a new hymn by Spohr: Hessens Feiergesang for chorus and winds to words of Wolf.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 9th of 1st M 1831 / Our Mornng Meeting was silent In the Afternoon Wm Almy was here & preached a wonderful sermon from the admirable one, preached on the Mount - grounding his remarks on “Blessed are the Meek” &c to my mind it was one of the greatest evidences of inspiration I ever heard from him. it was calculated to do good & I am fully of the belief it did do good & I was willing & desirous to take all of it that belonged to me

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 12, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*4th day 12th of 1st M 1831 / Silent Meeting, & to me a pretty good one. – I desire to be thankful for all my favours. – They are not a few – I know of no better way than to receive with meekness the offers of present good – & if trials await us, & come upon us, then appeal to Him who will sustain us, as our confidence is placed in Him
His mercy & kind Providence is overall his works & does wonderfully help all who depend upon him. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 16, Sunday: The insurrection that had broken out at Göttingen in Germany on the 8th was suppressed.

This was the 3d and final day of the “Great Snowstorm” of 1831. Some three to three and a half feet had been deposited, with drifts of up to twelve feet. Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 16 of 1 M / It has been a Violent Snow Storm all Day. – Silent Meetings. – to me they were pretty comfortable seasons. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

January 19, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*4th day 19th of 1st M / Today our venerable friend Moses Brown came to see us & attended our Meeting - it was Silent & a good meeting -
This evening Wm Dow of Vassalborough came on a visit to his sister. - Wm was an old Scholar & an intimate of Johns. - he appears to respect him & speaks of the testimony with interest*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 20, Thursday: Austria, France, Great Britain, Prussia, and Russia set the boundaries of the Netherlands and Belgium and agreed to the perpetual neutrality of Belgium.

Six months after receiving a patent for the 1st (well, the 1st practical) sewing machine, Barthélemy Thimonnier was assaulted in his factory in the rue de Sevres district of Paris and forced to flee for his life. A mob of approximately 200 tailors ransacked the factory, destroying the machines.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 20th of 1st M 1831 / Today we attended Meeting in Town - In the first Wm Almy preached very good - After which the Preparative Meeting & Select Meeting were heald [held] - Today was buried Our Friend Lydia Wilkinson at Pawtuicket She was an Elder in Society & we regretted not being Able to attend her funeral as it was appointed at the hour of our Meeting in addition to which the travelling was so bad from the great quantity of snow which had fallen - that it was inconvenient for many to go who otherwise would have gone - She was about 85 Years of Age & the widow of Oziel Wilkinson -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 January 23, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 23rd of 1st M / Tho the sky is clear, it has never the less been a driving Snow Storm - the Wind has been high at North West, & the Snow has blown violently - I apprehend a number of Small Meetings in this quarter may have fallen through - particularly Smithfield where no Man lives within a very considerable distanc

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 26, Wednesday: Children's author Mary Mapes Dodge was born in New-York.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th dat 26 of 1 M / Today was Moy [Monthly] Meeting held in Providence Wm Almy Preached particularly to the Scholars, the largest of whom attended - The travelling so bad that no acct was recd from Smithfield Preparative Meeting -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 29, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 29 of 1 M 1831 / Today Arnold Paine was here from Cumberland & informed us of the decease of Old Jeremiah Wilkinson Aged 91 Years & that his funeral is to be this Afternoon. -There is also a funeral this Afternoon of an Aged Woman friend at Scituate

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 30, Sunday: A Polish national government was elected. Adam Czartoryski was made president.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 30 of 1 M 1831 / Silent Meetings - The traveling hard & bad. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

January 31, Monday: Congressman Crockett started a fight in the US House of Representatives over which committee of the House would be the proper one to receive a petition that had been sent in by three Cherokees, that they be granted 640-acre land tracts.

Gaetano Donizetti left Milan for Rome. He would find his destination city in turmoil.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 31 of 1 M / Today our friends Edw & Elizabeth Wing arrived at the Institution after a very hard travel in Snow & cold - to attend Quarterly Meeting & the Meetings of the School committee we were glad to see them & feel their devotion to the cause. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 1, Tuesday: Giacomo Meyerbeer entered into a contract with the librettist Scribe to produce an opera comique entitled Le Portefaix. The composer would be unhappy with the libretto and would back out.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 1st of 2 M / Our Sub-committee Meeting was small but enough to transact buisness. - The day passed pleasantly. - Our frd Edw & Elizabeth Wing were acceptably with us

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 2, Wednesday: Bartolomeo Alberto-Mauro-Cappelari was elected Pope Gregory XVI. Among the crowd receiving his 1st blessing was a visiting German, Felix Mendelssohn, on the eve of his 22nd birthday.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

4th day 2nd of 2 M / Select Meeting was small but considering the travelling it was remarkable that so many were able to attend. – Dined with Wm Almy at his New residence & attended the Meeting for Sufferings in the Afternoon. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 3, Thursday: “Statutes relating the Theological Department in Harvard University” were confirmed by the Overseers of Harvard College. With their adoption the functions of the Directors ceased and the “Society for promoting Theological Education in Harvard University” became disconnected from Harvard University, under the name of the “Society for promoting Theological Education.”

The federal Congress amended the law of copyright, extending its term from 14 years to 28 years and allowing a renewal period of an additional 14 years, and permitting an author’s wife and children to file for such a renewal in the event of the demise of the author himself. Noah Webster, Esq. considered that in lobbying for this bill, he had done a service not only to his own financial interests but of course to all its future authors and hence to the Nation itself. Also, while he had been lobbying in Washington DC, 100 members of the Judiciary and both Houses of Congress had endorsed “the whole Websterian series of books from the great DICTIONARY to the SPELLING BOOK.”

The Belgian Congress proclaimed Louis-Charles-Philippe-Raphael d’Orleans, duc de Nemours, son of King Louis-Philippe of France, as king (the father had refused the throne in favor of his son).

Revolution broke out in Modena, Parma, and the Papal States. Revolutionaries in the Duchy of Modena proclaimed the Duke of Reichstadt, Napoléon’s legitimate son, as king of Italy (this young gentleman was, however, at the time the prisoner of Metternich in Vienna).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 3rd of 2 M / Quarterly Meeting well attended considering the travelling – Wm Almy Thomas Anthony & M B Allen labourers.-- Our friend John Wilbour has a weighty concern to visit England & Ireland which was committed to the consideration of a committee to report at next Quarterly Meeting. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

February 4, Friday: Gioachino Rossini departed Paris for Spain in the company of the banker Alejandro Maria Aguado.

An insurrection began in Bologna, Italy in opposition to papal government and a provisional government was proclaimed (with the assistance of Austria the sovereignty of the Pope would be restored).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 4th of 2nd M 1831 / Today was general committee Meeting which was well attended & the buisness pleasantly conducted. - My Wife I again renew'd our contract to Stay at the Institution another Year. - at present it Seems as if we are useful here, & in the way of laying up a little for advanced life - this we were never in the way before. - but in the closest times I never despaired - & have great cause to be thankful, & I believe I am in a good degree so that we have been mercifully preserved alive - from hunger, from cold, & from Nakedness - & also from the fear of it - but Most of all that we are yet favoured with some little spiritual life. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 6, Sunday: Alexis de Tocqueville and Gustave de Beaumont were given an 18-month leave to study the penal system in the United States of America. Don't blow it, guys.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 6th of 2 M / Silent Meetings. - Our friends all left us who were here at Qrly Meeting & Lydia Breed sick so that we had no preacher

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 9, Wednesday: Inspired by last July's revolution in France, citizens of Reggio and Modena overthrew Duke Francesco IV d'Este and set up provisional governments.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 9 of 2 M / Silent Meetings again but a pretty good Meeting to me -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

February 13, Sunday: Gioachino Rossini conducted a production of Il barbiere di Siviglia before King Ferdinando and the Spanish court in Madrid, and became the toast of the court.

David Crockett wrote to a constituent: "Thare will be an explosioin take place this week that will Tare their party into sunder Mr. Calhoun is coming out with a circular or a publication of the correspondence between him & the President that will blow their little Red Fox or aleaus Martin van buren into atoms." Crockett's optimism mirrored Calhoun's hopes of exposing Van Buren as a Machiavellian, who had orchestrated all his troubles.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 13 of 2 M / Silent in the Mornng - In the Afternoon Wm Almy was here & had good service

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 14, Monday: In Ethiopia, Ras Marye of Yejjju marched an army into Tigray and, although he himself did not survive, defeated the warlord Dejazmach Sabagadis of Agame at Debre Abbay (at the end of the battle Sabagadis, who surrendered, was executed).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 14th of 2 M / This eveng recd a long & intersting letter from Sister Ruth - She informs us that recent accounts from Richd Rodman are unfavourable to his health & that he is blind with one Eye -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 16, Wednesday: Representative Mercer moved that the rule of the US House of Representatives in regard to motions be temporarily suspended, so that he might submit a resolution requesting the Executive branch of the federal government "to enter into negotiations with the maritime Powers of Europe, to induce them to enact laws declaring the African slave trade piracy, and punishing it as such." The House would not, however, allow its rule to be thus suspended (Gales and Seaton, REGISTER OF DEBATES, VII. 726).

INTERNATIONAL SLAVE TRADE

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 16 of 2 M 1831 / I desire to inculcate in my own mind,

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

& would in other's if I could, a disposition to take the benefit of present goods, without looking behind or before, at ills that have happened or that may be perceived may happen - the longer I live the more I feel the force & verity of the saying that "the present time is only ours" & believe it is our duty to improve it in the best manner we can & at all times & in all things labour after a thankful humble state.- I know from experience this is sometimes hard to arrive at, but I believe we may attain to much more than is generally practiced by a careful & watchful disposition to keep out & keep down, all which would destroy in Gods Holy Mountain - all which would arise to lay waste the precious seed of life in our hearts - I do not conceive this to be effected of our selves, but as we cultivate the disposition we shall be assisted thro' the assistance & Mediation of Jesus Christ our Lord & Saviour, to know an establishment which the Storms & probations incident to this life will not effect or remove - some times the center may be permitted to be shaken but as we keep to it we shall find it sufficiently under all circumstances. - May I, may all who have had this precious shield of faith committed to us, not cast it away, as tho' it had never been anointed with Oil. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 20, Sunday: After a 2-day battle at Grochow near Warsaw, 2,000 rebellious Poles and 7,000 Russians lay dead.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 20 of 2 M / Our frd Wm Almy was here this Afternoon & preached an excellent Sermon, & in it gave a little history of the rise & progress of this Institution. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 23, Wednesday: Richard Wagner matriculated at Leipzig University as a music student.

Polish and Russian forces clashed at Grochow. They would fight for 3 days without strategic result.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 23rd of 2nd M 1831 / Today is our Monthly Meeting at Smithfield. - The travel is so bad that none of us from the Institution have attempted to go. - There is a large quantity of snow remaining on the ground it rained most of last night, & is raining hard this Morning, so that it is neither Sleighing or Wheeling, & every step a horse takes will sink him (in many places) to his knee joints, & in some places worse than that - so that we have not ventured to undertake to go. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

February 24, Thursday: Paul Devaux replaced Charles Rogier as head of the provisional Belgian government.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 24 of 2 M / We learn today that ten men & one woman were all that could get to the Moy [Monthly] Meeting, yesterday at Smithfield, - they adjourned the Meeting till three weeks from today, - to meet at Providence

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 27, Sunday: Etienne Constantin de Gerlache replaced Albert Joseph Goblet d'Alviella as head of government for Belgium.

Captain John Biscoe discovered the existence of land, farther to the south than Captain Cook had been able to go in his circuit about the South Pole in a high latitude in 1773 (in 1832 Biscoe would set foot on Graham's Land and in 1841 Sir James Clark Ross would discover a continent down there which would initially be termed "Victoria Land").

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 27th of 2 M / Wm Almy attended Meeting here in the Afternoon & had good service. - Both our meetings were Seasons of some favour to me. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 1, Tuesday: In the House of Commons, Lord John Russell introduced a "Great Reform Bill" intended to reduce the electoral dominance of the landed aristocracy.

The town of Newcastle had in 1599 volunteered to pay a duty of one shilling per chaldron on its coal to Queen Elizabeth on account of certain tax arrears, and because King Charles II had passed on this shilling per chaldron in 1677 to the duke of Richmond it had come to be referred to as "the Richmond shilling." The tax arrears of the town of Newcastle having long since been oversupplied, as of this date that duty shilling finally was relinquished.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 1 of 3 M 1831 / Today was our Sub-committee, there were but few of the committee here but enough to transact the buisness that was necessary. - The traveling is so bad that many could not get here. - Pliny Earl was agreed with as a teacher &

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

introduced to the School –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 2, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 2nd of 3 M 1831 / Silent solid Meeting & my mind was particularly solemnized under several considerations. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

“An Act making appropriations for the naval service,” etc. “For carrying into effect the acts for the suppression of the slave trade,” etc., $16,000 (STATUTES AT LARGE, IV. 460, 462).

March 3, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 3 of 3 M / Went to town & having Abby Rodman to see on board the Steam Boat for home I did not attend Meeting in town -perhaps it will be no more than honest to say that I forgot it

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

till it was too late to go –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Inventor George Mortimer Pullman was born in Brocton, New York.

Representative Mercer moved that the US House of Representatives temporarily suspend its rules so that he could submit a resolution. The House voted 108 over 36 to suspend and Mr. Mercer's resolution passed by a vote of 118 over 32.

"Resolved, That the President of the United States be requested to renew, and to prosecute from time to time, such negotiations with the several maritime powers of Europe and America as he may deem expedient for the effectual abolition of the African slave trade, and its ultimate denunciation as piracy, under the laws of nations, by the consent of the civilized world." HOUSE JOURNAL, 21st Congress, 2d session, pages 426-8.

INTERNATIONAL SLAVE TRADE

March 6, Sunday: La sonnambula, a melodramma by Vincenzo Bellini to words of Romani after Scribe and Aumer, was performed for the initial time, in Teatro Carcano, Milan, to great success. A sojourning Russian, Mikhail Ivanovich Glinka, was in the audience. "Shterich and I ... embraced one another and shed a flood of tears from emotion and joy."

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 6th of 3 M / Wm Almy was here this Afternoon & had good service at Meeting –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 9, Wednesday: With a little help from some Austrian soldiers, Duke Francesco IV d'Este reasserted his power in Reggio and Modena, bringing to an end the month-old provisional government.

A day after his arrival in Rome Hector Berlioz met Felix Mendelssohn (the duo would over the following few weeks be spending a lot of time in each other's company).

Nicolò Paganini encountered wild enthusiasm as he performed at the Opera in Paris for the initial time. Luigi Cherubini, Friedrich Kalkbrenner, Giacomo Meyerbeer, Fromental Halevy, Adolphe Adam, Heinrich Heine, George Sand, and Victor Hugo were in the audience — which is to say, most of artistic Paris.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 9 of 3 M / Mary B Allen attended our meeting today & was much favour'd in testimony

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 13, Sunday: Casimir Pierre Perier replaced Jacques Lafitte as prime minister of France.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1st day 13th of 3rd M / Lydia Breed had acceptable service in our Morning Meeting – In the Afternoon Wm Almy was here & preached. - his ardent & faithful labours with the Scholars & inmates of this Institution I hope will be blessed to many, & I can hardly think that, so much good service can be wholly lost -I am induced to believe that it will be remembered by some & the effects of it felt when he may be removed from works to reward. -3rd day 15th of 3rd M / Recd a letter this eveng from Our friend Elisha Bates - by which it appears he is like to attend our approaching Yearly Meeting of which I am glad & have no doubt of its being right for him to make the Sacrifice - in coming so great a journey to see us. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 16, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 16th of 3rd M 1831 / Silent but pretty good meeting at the Institution -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Victor Hugo's NÔTRE-DAME DE PARIS (THE HUNCHBACK OF NOTRE DAME) appeared in print. One of its chapters had been misplaced and left out of this initial printing.

1st production of Concord playwright John Augustus Stone's play TANCRED, KING OF SICILY; OR, THE ARCHIVES OF PALERMO,³⁶⁹ at the Park Theater in New-York, with the author in the cast.

After 36 hours of labor, Anna Bronson Alcott was born to Abba Alcott. For days after the birth, the husband and father Bronson Alcott never left the room. He was hunched over the table writing HISTORY OF AN INFANT: OBSERVATIONS ON THE PHENOMENA OF LIFE AS DEVELOPED IN THE PROGRESSIVE HISTORY OF AN INFANT DURING THE FIRST YEAR OF ITS EXISTENCE (although this, and Bronson's observations of his other children, would amount to some 2,500 pages). Although it is arguably the first work of child psychology done in the United States of America, the manuscript has of course never been published. Bronson carefully recorded such things as the onset of the vowel sounds, and noted at what point the consonants f, g, k, j, and l could be distinguished. (Does this remind you of the "melting bank" section, in WALDEN? –It should.) To keep the family going, the Alcotts asked Abba's father for a loan of an additional $300.⁰⁰.

THE ALCOTT FAMILY

March 17, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 17th of 3 M / Today was an adjourment of the Moy [Monthly] Meeting held in Providence - the walking was so bad that the girls did not go, but the boys did - It was a good Meeting & Wm Almy was engaged in a testimony of uncommon clearness, life & power - to the efficacy of the Christian Religion & the excellency of it as professed by our Society.-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

369. Note that this is a completely different play than 1827's TANCRED; OR, THE SIEGE OF ANTIOCH, which never was performed.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 18, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 18 of 3 M / Walked out to Wm Almys new habitation, dined & spent a few hours with him very pleasantly. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

The following is a snippet from Charles Haskell's REMINISCENCES OF NEW YORK BY AN OCTOGENARIAN:

The Bachelors' Fancy Ball, which had been the subject of great interest in the fashionable circle, took place at the City Hotel. In brilliancy and general success it met all expectation.

The Supreme Court of the United States of America handed down their decision in the case of the Cherokee Nation v. Georgia, refusing to grant the Cherokee Nation an injunction against the State of Georgia under the treaty of 1791, on the grounds that only a foreign nation could sue in a federal court, but no Indian tribe was a foreign nation, therefore the treaty with the Cherokee was not a treaty with a foreign nation, therefore the Cherokee could not sue.

"...The conflicts of Europeans with American-Indians, Maoris and other aborigines in temperate regions ... if we judge by the results we cannot regret that such wars have taken place ... the process by which the American continent has been acquired for European civilization [was entirely justified because] there is a very great and undeniable difference between the civilization of the colonizers and that of the dispossessed natives...."

— Bertrand Russell,
THE ETHICS OF WAR, January 1915

Bertrand Russell

March 20, Sunday: The Reverend Duncan M'Caig of the Church of Scotland had been observed to shoplift a Bible from a bookstore. Investigation of his home library had produced several other stolen books. Although he asked to be bailed so that he might prepare his sermon for this day, he was committed to confinement. The end result would be that he would be found guilty of this and eleven other distinct acts, and sentenced to transportation for a period of 14 years — one year for each of the volumes he had been proven to have purloined.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 20 of 3 M / Silent Meeting in the morning In the Afternoon Wm Almy was here & much engaged for our welfare. — his testimony plain powerful & prevalent
His preaching is very satisfactory to me & I have no doubt will do much good to the youth of this Institution —*

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Moses Farnum & wife were also with us today –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 24, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day & 5th day 23 & 24 of 3 M / On 4th day we held Meeting as usual at the Institution - on 5th day The Children went to Town to Preparative meeting - Wm Almy preached a memorable Sermon on the advantage our Society is to its younger Members. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 27, Sunday: Samuel Sebastian Wesley resigned his position as organist at St. John, Waterloo Road, London.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 27th of 3 M 1831 / Mary B Allen attended our Meeting at the Institution this morning – she prayed for us in a lively manner & Lydia Breed preached. – In the Afternoon I felt an inclination to attend the Meeting in Town & went in to it - which was a solid Silent time. – walked home & found Wm Almy here who invited me to ride down to visit father Browns with him where I took tea & set part of the evening. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 28, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 28 of 3 M / Recd a letter from Brother Isaac today informing me that Our dear Aged Mother was quite weak & feeble -apparently on the decline, in consequence of which I think I must go to Newport tomorrow - but cannot feel certain about it till tomorrow comes March 29, Tuesday: The outbreak of the Bosnian uprising of Muslims against the Ottoman Empire (this would not be suppressed until 1850).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day [sic] 29th of 3rd M / Took the Steam Boat & went to Newport, found my Mother in a very low State, & apparently wearing out –She was very glad to see me as I was to see her. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 30, Wednesday: The Albany, New York Orphan Asylum, in operation for most of the past two years, was incorporated.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*4th day 30 of 3 M / Spent this day with my dear Mother & in calling on some of my valuable friends & acquaintances
Have had much conversation with Mother in the course of the day
- find her resigned & not expecting to stay in this world long. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 31, Thursday: After struggling at Dembe-Wielkie from 5 in the afternoon until 10 at night, Polish forces routed Russian forces.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 31 of 3 M / Attended the Moy [Monthly] Meeting held in Newport -Ruth Freeborn preached comfortably & the buisness of the Meeting was conducted with the usual regularity & weight with which that Meeting conducts its buisness
But from some circumstances it was a season of depression. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Frederick Brown (1) died at New Richmond, Pennsylvania.

Professor Charles Dexter Cleveland and Miss Alison Nisbet McCoskry, a daughter of Dr. Samuel A. McCoskry, of Carlisle, Pennsylvania and a grand-daughter of Dickinson College's 1st president, Charles Nisbet, were wed. The couple would have nine children: Alison Nisbet Cleveland, Charles Dexter Cleveland, Samuel McCoskry Cleveland, Alison Nisbet Cleveland, Dexter Cleveland, Treadwell Cleveland, Wilberforce Cleveland, Eliza Cleveland, and Lucy Cleveland.

James Hale, in charge of exhibiting the Chinese "Siamese Twins" Chang and Eng Bunker, wrote from New-York: "We have not had forty ladies since we opened — they you know are our best customers, if we can get them — Our receipts have averaged but $20 per day— and two nights at the Theatre paid $50 per night amounting in all — 15 days to 425 dollars ... I expect to go to Philadelphia on Sunday next and try it there, and feel afraid on coming back we shall have to come down to 25 cents to make money."

April 1, Friday: Polish forces defeated Russians and captured Minsk Mazowiecki east of Warsaw, sending the Russians into retreat.

Worried about the lack of correspondence from his fiancée, Hector Berlioz left Rome making for Paris, and jeopardizing his Prix de Rome grant.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 1st of 4th M 1831 / This Morning took a final leave of my dear Mother & took the Steam Boat for Providence. - She was entirely willing I should leave her, not expecting (as she said) to see me again in this World - & circumstances made it very necessary for me to return to Providence & I was glad I did finding my dear wife in a very anxious State of mind about her family in Newport - her brother David having recently Failed in

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

his buisness & in a low depressed State of mind. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 April 2, Saturday: Alexis de Tocqueville and Gustave de Beaumont embarked for America. When their ship Havre set sail from Le Havre, it promptly ran aground and did not get out to sea until after midnight.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 2 of 4 M / Spent the day at the Institution writing up the books & in the Afternoon recd a letter from Brother Isaac informing me that our dear Aged Mother departed this life at about half past 10 OClock last eveng Aged 83 Years & about 11 Months. – I did not expect she would have failed quite so soon, but the news did not surprise me - nor Shock my feelings as it is an event I have long anticipated & when we parted Yesterday Morning it was considered a final parting by both of us. & I should not have left her but from very necessary considerations -it was comfortable & relieving to my dear H as she was very anxious to hear from her family at home & in particular from her Br David, whose situation & state of mind is a tried one at present. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 April 3, Easter Sunday: Walton Felch remarried in Hubbardston, Massachusetts with Mrs. Nancy Sullivan.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 3 of 4 M 1831 / Took the Steam Boat President went to Newport. – found all my friends & relations as comfortable as could be expected
I was glad to find my dear Mothers remains look very natural & composed, & I have no doubt of her being at rest. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 April 4, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 4th of 4th M / Today was the funeral of my dear Mother. – The setting was a quiet solid opportunity - the gathering was large, as she was a woman much known & highly respected by all classes of the community – She was really one of the honourable Women of her day - a practical christian, but never made a high profession of religious attainments, but always very humble in

HDT

WHAT?

INDEX

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

Go To MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

SIAMSE

THE TWINS

For Day only.

THE
UNITED BROTHERS, CHANG-ENG,
Very respectfully acquaint the Ladies and Gentlemen of

THAT THEY WILL BE IN THAT PLACE ON

And will receive Visitors at the

The Hours of Admission will be from till in the noon, and from till in the Evening.

ADMITTANCE 50 CENTS.

Pamphlets, containing an historical account of the 'Twins, with many interesting particulars never before published, can be purchased at their Room. Price, with an engraved likeness, 12 1-2 cents—with a lithograph, 18 3-4 cents.
The 'Twins have also a few copies of a very superior likeness, executed in litho-

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

her pretentions. – Father Rodman made a short offering, which was pertinent & applicable to the living "Oh that my people were wise, that they understood this that they would consider their latter end &c

She was interd in the upper burying ground of friends Medow field on the South side of Fathers grave. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 5, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

day 5 of 4 M / Finding nothing to protract my stay in Newport – & it being necessary for me to be in Providence, I took the Steam Boat & came home. – My reflections were of a serious cast on the Passage – but not depressed Found the Sub committee had separated a little before I arrived & several gone to New Bedford to attend the Quarterly Meeting to be held there tomorrow

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 6, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 6 of 4 M 1831 / Silent Meeting at the Institution, but to me a solid good time

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 10, Sunday: Felix Mendelssohn departed Rome for a 2-month visit to Naples.

The Poles defeated the Russians at the village of Seidlitz near Warsaw, capturing two standards and 15 cannon, and taking 6,000 prisoners.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 10th of 4 M / Silent Meeting in the Mornng & in the Afternoon Wm Almy was here & had a short testimony. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 13, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4thd day 13 of 4 M / Silent Meeting at the Institution but a pretty good one to me

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

April 14, Thursday: In Florence, Hector Berlioz received a letter from Mme Moke, stating that her daughter, his fiancée Camille Moke, was going to marry someone else. She suggested that he should not kill himself. He concocted a plan to arrive at their house in disguise and kill both of them. On this night he left for Paris.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 14 of 4 M / Rode into Town with my wife & called at Phebe Holders & for the first time saw her Mother aged 88 Years -She looked like a good quiet old woman & the visit was pleasant - then attended Meeting in Providence & a very solid good one it was to me - Wm Almy bore a short but I have no doubt living testimony. - After Meeting we rode round the lower part of the town & came home. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 17, Sunday: At Genoa, on his desperate trip back to Paris from Florence, Hector Berlioz, weak from not eating and lovesick despair, fell Ophelia-like off the ramparts into the ocean. After almost drowning, he was fished out and for awhile lay on the beach vomiting water.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 17th of 4 M / Silent in the Mornng - In the Afternoon Wm Almy attended & was engaged in testimony. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 20, Wednesday: Wilhelm replaced Karl II as Duke of Brunswick.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 20 of 4 M / Meeting at School a good silent opportunity. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

In England, the House of Commons's Reform Bill was defeated and the Parliament was dissolved. The gentry were arming their country houses with cannon against anticipated mobs. In the USA, the Washington Globe announced the resignations of John Eaton and Martin Van Buren. Van Buren's friends in New-York, unaware that he had something to do with engineering the whole thing, were worrying.

The following is a snippet from Charles Haskell's REMINISCENCES OF NEW YORK BY AN OCTOGENARIAN:

William Cullen Bryant, editor of the Evening Post, and William L. Stone, of the Commercial Advertiser, met in Broadway near Park Place, and a personal rencontre occurred, Bryant striking Stone with a cowhide, whereupon they closed and were parted by the bystanders. Stone prevailed, to the extent of carrying off the whip with which he had been attacked.

THE POET WITHOUT HIS WHIP

April 21, Thursday: The Rochester, New York Savings Bank was incorporated.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 21 of 4 M / Preparative & Select Meeting in Town it was a very good Meeting - Wm Almy much favoured in testimony - The Scholars attended -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 24, Sunday: Johann Nepomuk Hummel arrived in London for a concert tour.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 24 of 4 M 1831 / Silent in the Morn'g - in the Afternoon Wm Almy was here & much favoured in testimony I consider Williams attendance at this meeting a favour to the whole Institution & particularly to the Scholars on whose acct he is much interested & seldom fails of having something specially for them. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

April 27, Wednesday: A Polish force sent to raise support from the populace of southeast Poland, after meeting with general apathy, crossed the border and was interned in Austria.

King Carlo Felice of Sardinia died in Turin and was succeeded by Carlo Alberto, son of Prince Charles of Savoy-Carignan.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*4th day 27th of 4 M / Attended Moy [Monthly] Meeting at Smithfield Betsy Purinton favoured in testimony - Many of our Scholars took the pains to walk out to this Meeting & I may acknowledge their company & solid countenances was animating & strengthening to my Mind -
Our last Meeting was a remarkable good one there was considerable buisness & among it was a communication from three who have lately failed in trade requesting to be restored to unity with the body. - Oh! how glad I was to find they had a disposition to stand well with the Church, & also to find the Affectionate disposition there was in all to receive them. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 30, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*7th day 30 of 4 M 1831 / I have been the past week very closely engaged in making arrangements for the Annual Settlement of Accounts - which has strained my head exceedingly so that I was almost sick Yesterday. -
I might have mentioned that on 3rd day last we had an unexpected visit from Benj Marshall & his son John who were bearers of a very acceptable letter from our son John who lives with them at Hudson. - Their account of John is favourable, & indeed we are truly thankful for it. - How greatly do I desire his preservation from evil & establishment in the unchangeable truth*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 1, Sunday: The Duke of Wellington wrote to Mrs Arbuthnot that "Matters appear to be going as badly as possible. It may be relied upon that we shall have a revolution. I have never doubted the inclination and disposition of the lower orders of the people. I told you years ago that they are rotten to the core. They are not bloodthirsty, but they are desirous of plunder. They will plunder, annihilate all property in the country. The majority of them will starve; and we shall witness scenes such as have never yet occurred in any part of the world."

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 1 of 5 M 1831 / Silent in the Morning Meeting & in the Afternoon Wm Almy attended & had good service.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

May 3, Tuesday: Zampa, ou La fiancee de marbre, an opera comique by Ferdinand Herold to words of Melesville, was performed for the initial time, at the Theatre de Ventadour, Paris.

Wendell Phillips submitted a college requirement "Some beautiful results to which are led by the Differential Calculus in the development of Functions" (21 ¼ x 28 ¾ inches) that is still on file at Harvard College: <<http://oasis.harvard.edu:10080/oasis/deliver/~hua17004>>

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 3 of 5 M / Today was sub committee Meeting. The number present was small as it usually is the Meeting previous to the General committee. - enough however met to transact the buisness necessary to be done - & brotherly & sisterly love seemed prevalent. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 4, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 4 of 5 M / Rode with my H to Greenwich to attend the Quarterly Meeting. - The Select meeting was solid & good but there was not much preaching. - We dined at Mary Spencers. - After the Meeting for Sufferings we rode out to Daniel Howlands & lodged - here we met with divers of our friends who we loved & the time was spent pleasantly. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 5, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 5th M - Our Quarterly Meeting at large was well attended by friends from the different Meetings & a large & respectable Number of Youth were present especially from Fall River Meeting - they have the convenience of a Steam Boat which renders it easy for them to attend. - Wm Almy was large & excellent in Testimony - & Rachael Thornton appeared - in Supplication. - In the Meeting for buisness our Friend John Wilbour opened his prospect of performing a religious visit to friends in Englan & Ireland, which was united with & he set at liberty to lay his prospect before the Select Yearly Meeting. --Our friend Rowland Greene returned the certificate granted him sometime ago to perform a visit to friends in York Yearly Meeting - which visit he has now accomplished. - After dining at Updikes we rode home.-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 6, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 6 of 5 M 1831 / Today was the General committee, it was largely attended & the subjects before it resulted in harmony & I thought the conclusions were in wisdom

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

It was a day of much interest - as subjects of importance were acted upon. - The brethren present were glad to see each other.-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 8, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 8th of 5th M / Our friend John Wilbour attended Meeting this Morning & preached excellently to us. - we were Silent & alone in the Afternoon but it was a pretty good meeting. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 11, Wednesday: Alexis de Tocqueville and Gustave de Beaumont arrived in New-York harbor aboard "a tremendous steamship," the President.

Robert Schumann mentioned for the 1st time a condition that may have been syphilis.

Johann Nepomuk Hummel gave his 1st public concert on this tour to London, in the concert room of the King's Theater, Haymarket. Attendance was lower than expected due to the ongoing election campaign.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 11th of 5 M / Silent Meeting at the Institution & not a very lively one to me

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 12, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 12 of 5 M / I went in & attended Meeting in Town - it was a very solid meeting & Hannah Robinson offered a short Prayer which seemed to me to be in the life. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

HDTWHAT?INDEXFRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

May 15, Sunday: In New-York, Alexis de Tocqueville's initial impression of Americans: "the Americans seem to us to carry national pride altogether too far. I doubt it is possible to draw from them the least truth unfavourable to their country. ... In general it seems to me that there is much of the small town in their attitude and that they magnify objects like people who are not accustomed to seeing great things." He wrote in his diary about American preoccupation with business, and the busyness of Americans:

All the Americans whom we have encountered up to now, even to the simplest shop salesman, seem to have received, or wish to appear to have received, a good education. Their manners are grave, deliberate, reserved, and they all wear the same clothes.

All the customs of life show this mingling of the two classes which in Europe take so much trouble to keep apart. The women dress for the whole day at seven in the morning. At nine o'clock one can already make calls. At noon one is received everywhere. Everything bears the stamp of a very busy existence. We have not yet seen any fashionables. I even have the notion that good morals are here the result less of severity of principles than of the impossibility in which all the young people find themselves of thinking of love or busying themselves seriously with it.

Messa di San Alessandro by Simon Mayr was performed for the initial time, in Bergamop, for the entry of Bishop Gritti-Morlacchi.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 15 of 5 M 1831 / Meeting silent in the Mornng - in the Afternoon Wm Almy was here & had good service. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

May 18, Wednesday: There was a news account of the activities of the visitors Alexis de Tocqueville and Gustave de Beaumont.

The Salon of 1831 opened in Paris. Among the works shown for the 1st time was the “Liberty Leading the People” of Eugene Delacroix.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 18th of 5 M / We rode our to Cumberland to attend Smithfield Preparative Meeting held there. - we stoped at Davis Metcalfs before Meeting. - The Meeting was silent & very small - but rather comfortable. - We returned & dined at Davis Metcalfs & spent the Afternoon very pleasantly - our ride home was also very pleasant - we came thro' Central Falls a beautiful Manufacturing establishment that we never were at before. - My wife as well as myself enjoyed the scenery exceedingly. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 19, Thursday: At a public dinner organized by Governor Hamilton at St. Andrew's Hall, George McDuffie gave a harangue, denominating the tariff as “a system of stupendous oppression under which we are steadily and rapidly sinking into utter and hopeless ruin,” and labeling the conceit that nullification would end in “blood-shed and civil war” as “utterly ridiculous.” “The Union ... is a foul monster, which those who worship ... are worthy of their chains. ...[S]hall we be frightened by mere phantoms of blood, when our ancestors, for less cause, encountered the dreadful reality? ...[Are we] to be frightened from the discharge of our most sacred duty ... by the mere nursery tales of raw-heads and bloody-bones?”

After having spent a month in Nice, which was as far as he got in his attempt to return to Paris to murder his former fiancée and her mother, and during which he composed his King Lear Overture, Hector Berlioz began his return journey to Rome.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 19th of 5 M / It was exceedingly Rainy this MORning & the children could not go into Town to attend Preparative Meeting - Enoch & Lydia & My wife & I attended. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 22, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 22 of 5 M / Silent meeting. - Enoch & Lydia at

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Smithfield. - In the Afternoon Wm Almy was here & preached a truly encouraging & interesting sermon both to the children & those having the care of them. - his opening was "Train up a child in the way he should go &c. - Thos Howland & Geo Benson were also at Meeting. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 25, Wednesday: The Reverend Waldo Emerson's 28th birthday.

Alexis de Tocqueville toured New York penitentiaries, and wrote to Abbe Leseur.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 25 of 5 M / I was very unwell today & did not attend Moy [Monthly] Meeting - My wife went & as it was very rainy the Meeting was small, but enough to transact the buisness in a respectable manner. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 27, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 27th of 5 M 1831 / I took the Steam Boat Rush Light this Morning & went to Newport to attend to some management for Yearly Meeting - Found things in comfortable progress for accommodation - & our friends in as good spirits as could be expected considering the tried state some of them are in, particularly Father Rodman's family who on Davids account has much to bear. - in addition to the low state of his mind, has failed in buisness, & will come short of paying his creditors all that is due them. - on first day Morning I got on board the Steamer President & arrived at Providence in season to attend the Morning Meeting After Meeting in the Afternoon I rode home with Wm Almy & took tea with him.-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 May 31, Tuesday: Lt. James Clark Ross, R.N. reached the North Magnetic Pole on the Boothia Peninsula.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 31 of 5 M / Today was our Sub-School committee meeting - we had not a large, but comfortable Number & harmony was prevalent - Our friend Jared Pattison & his companion Henry Stanton from Ohio were here & sat with the committee. -- Jared held a meeting with us in the Meeting room at 3 OC PM & went to Moses Browns to tea. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 June 1, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 1st of 6 M 1831 / Went with our friend Jared Pattison to Smithfield Meeting - It was small but he had a close preaching testimony to the few present - his testimony was a remarkable one, & closely affected the minds of some present - & was a renewd evidence to my mind of the divine power in directing his Servants. - & showing them the ground & the paths they should persue, where they have not been - We dined at Aza Arnolds, & we returned to town & took tea with Dr Tobey

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 June 4, Saturday: Leopold Georg Christian Friedrich, Prinz von Sachsen-Coburg und Gotha was proclaimed king of Belgium.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 4th of 6 M 1831 / Took the Steam Boat Fulton & went to Newport on a little buisness which I had preparatory to Y Meeting got there in Season to ride out to David Buffums where I took a dish of Tea & had an opportunity of setting a while with my aged friend Hapzibah Buffum the widow of our late Valued & beloved friend David Buffum decs. - Returned & in the eveng accomplished the little errands I had & lodged at our home - Aunt Nancy Carpenter being glad to see me -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 June 5, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day Morng rose early & got ready to take the first opportunity - the Chanselor Livingston was in early & by her I returned to Providence & arrived in season to be at our Morning Meeting. -
It is worthy to remark that the Steam Boat Fulton is the oldest boat of her kind, being built by Robert Fulton in NYork & has*

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

made a great many successful trips in the Sound, & from & to NYork & Providence She has now become so old that she has lately been sold, & is to be broken up - & the Trip she made on 7th day was to be her last, & when she left the wharf a gun was fired as a farewell signal - a gun was also fired when she left the head of the Long Wharf in Newport. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 8, Wednesday: Robert Schumann, writing in his diary on his 21st birthday, mentioned for the 1st time one of his alter-egos, Florestan.

In London, the actress Sara Siddons died.

In consequence of the erection of fences to enclose the forest, a group of more than 2,000 assembled in Dean Forest in Gloucestershire to tear down such fences.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 8 of 6 M 1831 / With my dear Wife got on board the Steam Boat & came to Newport - but I had not been five minutes in Newport before I found I had to return to Providence the same day, having left the Quarterly Select account & Answers - I accordingly returned on board the Rush Light in which we came & arrived at the School House Sometime before sunset. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 20, Monday: Alexis de Tocqueville and Gustave de Beaumont were attending a trial.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 20th of 6th M 1831 / Today we have been engaged in parting with our friends & getting things in order which have been neglected by our absence -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 21, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 21 of 6 M / Engaged pretty much as yesterday, & among others we had the company of our interesting young friend Sarah H Jenkins from Hudson who being an acquaintance of our Son John we took the opportunity of writing to him by her & forwarding a few things which will be interesting to him. —

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

Go To MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 22, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 22 of 6 M / Our friends Jonathon & Hannah Chapman Backhouse & Elizabeth Coggeshall attended our School Meeting - Moses Brown & A A Jenkins were also present - Eliza Coggeshall spoke a little very sweetly as did Hannah - & Jonathon appeared very sweetly in supplication — he alluded in his supplication to the Aged & venerable head who was with us, in a feeling & appropriate manner, then on behalf of the Caretakers, teachers & Scholars. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 27, Monday: Alexis de Tocqueville had an interview with Hugh Maxwell.

Grand Duke Konstantin, brother of Tsar Nikolai I and Viceroy of Poland, died of cholera.

Otto Nicolai sang the part of Jesus in a Berlin production of the St. Matthew Passion of Johann Sebastian Bach.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 27th of 6th M 1831 / My wife being absent have felt a little lonesome today - tho' there is many around me, yet I have had a rather lonesome & rather low feeling hanging about me - this I know is weakness & I had almost said nonsense. - therefore away with it -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 29, Wednesday: In London, a British and Foreign Temperance Society was organized.

At St. James' Palace, Johann Nepomuk Hummel and Nicolò Paganini gave a joint concert before the King, Queen, and nobility (on his current visit to London, Paganini's presence was overshadowing Hummel; the two performers already knew each other, having shared a stage in Weimar a couple of years earlier).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 29th of 6 M 1831 / Rode to Smithfield with Mary Lafavour to attend Moy [Monthly] Meeting. — Wm Almy, Betsy Purinton Dorcas Payne wife of Caleb all preached acceptably. — In consequence of the Rain the Meeting was small, but there were

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

enough present to transact the buisness reputably & in order. – there however not much to do. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 30, Thursday: In Yonkers, Alexis de Tocqueville received a letter from Gustave de Beaumont (meanwhile, Beaumont was receiving a letter from de Tocqueville).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 30th of 6 M / After dressing & washing this Mornng I set down at the Window with my face North, admiring the Scenery which presented of Trees in rich foliage, & the field of grass & Grain florishing in my view, a degree of humble gratitude & Worship arose in my mind to the Author of our Manifold mercies & blessings, which he bestows upon us. It would seem as if some tribute was due for the many favours He has bestowed on me – not only what I now enjoy, but for what I have recd & enjoyed all my life long. – I desire to cherish a thankful remembrance of them. – & hope to as long as I live –
This Afternoon My dear wife & Wm Jenkins returned from their journey to Boston Lynn & Salem to accompany Jonathon & Hannah Backhouse they give a favourable acct of their excursion. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 2, Saturday: Alexis de Tocqueville and Gustave de Beaumont arrived in Albany, New York.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*7th day 2nd of 7th M 1831 / This Afternoon our friend Doctor Wm
Carey arrived in Providence from his visit to Dartmouth New Bedford & Nantucket – which he has performed since Yearly Meeting. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

July 3, Sunday: Alexis de Tocqueville and Gustave de Beaumont attended a Shaker meeting.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 3rd of 7 M / Our Morning Meeting was silent. – as was the Afternoon – Doctor Wm Carey a Minister in Society from NYork State was here in the evening, & had the Scholars collected in the Meeting room & had a good & encouraging opportunity with them. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 6, Wednesday: Alexis de Tocqueville and Gustave de Beaumont visited Syracuse, New York, interviewing prison employees. There was an interview with Elam Lynds.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 6 of 7 M / This Afternoon the News arrived in Providence that James Monroe late President of the United States died on the 4th inst in New York. – It is a very remarkable coincidence the three of our expresidents (Adams Jefferson & Monroe) should have died on the 4 day of the 7 Month. – When James Monroe visited New England soon after he was Elected President he was at Newport & I well remember of calling to see him & of shaking hands with him in company with Rowland Hazard. –I also well remember the embarrassment I felt on the occasion. – Our meeting at the Institution was a dull Heavy time to me. – This Afternoon our friend John Wilbour called a few minutes at the Institution & took leave of us preparatory to his leaving home, on his religious visit to Friends in Europe. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 July 7, Thursday: Alexis de Tocqueville and Gustave de Beaumont departed from Syracuse, New York.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 7th of 7 M 1831 / Today Nathan Hunt attends Meeting in town - & Elisha Bates is sick at Wm Jenkins. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 July 8, Friday: Alexis de Tocqueville and Gustave de Beaumont visited Frenchman's Island.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 8th of 7 M / At 10 OC this forenoon Our frd Moses Brown came here with Nathen Hunt preposing to have an opportunity with the Scholars - we soon collected them in the Meeting room & Nathan had a great deal to say, all appropriate, feeling & good & a good opportunity it was. — After it was over I took him & his companion over the House & into the New Building, with which he seemed gratified & pleased — After tea we went to See our frd Elisha Bates & spent the evening with him at Wm Jenkins's - he is better & in hopes to be about tomorrow. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 July 10, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 10th of 7 M / Nathan Hunt was at Smithfield Meeting Moses Brown went with him as did Enoch & Lydia. — Our dear friend Elisha Bates came up & was with us at Meeting in the forenoon - his Sermon was very reaching & I have no doubt convincing to many minds both of the younger & more advanced scholars - all were serious & many in tears. — I have no doubt his visit here will be memorable to Many for years to come — he dined at the table with the Boys & noticed several of them in a way which pleased them & I have no doubt will be useful —

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*The Afternoon Meeting at the Institution was silent. –
The Meeting in Town was put off till five O'clock on Elishas account & a general invitation extended to the Inhabitants of the Town. –Our teachers a number of older Scholars went into the Meeting. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 13, Wednesday: While leaving Auburn, New York, Alexis de Tocqueville made a journal entry about religion.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*4th day 13th of 7th M / Silent but good meeting to me –6th day
15th of 7th M 1831 / This morning we had the company of Jeremiah
Hubbard & wife & our dear Aged friend Moses Brown. –After a Social time in the family & walking over the house, Jeremiah had a mind to have the Scholars & family collected in the Meeting room. – We were soon together & a very favoured season it proved – he was much favoured in testimony & supplication & the children were very Solid & attentive –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 17, Sunday: Alexis de Tocqueville arrived in Batavia, New York. In Canandaigua, he interviewed John Canfield Spencer. On this day he and Gustave de Beaumont exchanged letters.

Johann Nepomuk Hummel departed from London for Germany with a gift from Queen Adelaide.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 17 of 7 M / Both our meetings at the Institution were silent. – The Mornng Meeting a season of some favour – in the Afternoon very lifeless – perhaps a bad feeling in my head & the Prospect of Phila might have contributed to it a little – At 5 O'clock attended Jeremiah Hubbards Meeting in Providence which was very large & many of the Clergy & gentry of the Town were present & he preached & prayed an abundance. – & said much that

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*was good, & a few things that I believe if unsaid his service would have been better. –
It is a great thing to be a great Minister & a thoroughly skilful Minister too. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 20, Wednesday: At this point Alexis de Tocqueville was stopping over in Erie, Pennsylvania.

Fryderyk Franciszek Chopin \(Frédéric François Chopin\), seeing no future in Vienna, departed for München. His real goal was Paris, but the Russian ambassador would not grant him a passport for Paris so he obtained one for London knowing that this would take him through Paris.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould would in a few days summarize in his journal:

4th day 20 of 7 M 1831 / After attending Meeting at the Institution - I went on Board the Steam Boat for NYork intending for Philadelphia to attend the committee of general conference from several Yearly Meetings - Cornelius Howland[?] Mary B Allen & Lydia Breed of this Y Meeting & Jeremiah Hubbard & wife of N Carolina in company - We had a good Passage to NYork & I put up at Saml Woods where we were soon joined by our friend John Wilbour who was on his way on his religious visit to England expecting to embark on first day the 24inst - - 5 & 6th days rested in NYork & on 7th day Mornng took leave of John Wilbour & set out in the Steamboat for Phila - had a good passage down the Raratan & across in the Stage to Trenton - on board the Steamboat at Borden town we had a heavy thunder gust - here I saw Joseph Bonaparts Observatory - we proceeded on our Passage & landed at Burlington sometime before sunsett & were very cordially recd at the house of our friend Wm Allenson by his sisters Elizabeth Mary & Sybel - Wm being from home when we first arrived, but soon returned. - The house of these dear friends seemed much like home - Elizabeth & Mary have been to New England & we had seen & been acquainted with them before. - Next morning being 1st day [Sunday] the 24th of 7 M before Meeting time Wm Almy Wm Jenkins & Charles & John Warren arrived in the Steam Boat & we all attended Meeting in Burlington. - Wm Almy took the service to me very satisfactorily - After meeting he & Wm Jenkins went to see Susan Smith & we dined at Wm Allensons - They went on to Philad in the Steam Boat & John Warren & I staid to the Afternoon Meeting - John had much & good Service - we lodged at Wm Allensons &

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 July 25, Monday: At 3:50AM, Maria Agata (Wolowska) Szymanowska died of cholera in St. Petersburg at the age of 41.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day Morning the 25th of 7 M we took the Steam Boat & went down to Philad[el]phia.] Took lodgings with Beulah Parker where my Nephew Richard Rodman boards - & at 10 OClock met with the committee at Arch Street Meeting - Dined at my lodgings & at 4 OC PM again met with the committee - took tea at my lodgings & in the evening walked round the City a little with Richard Rodman. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 July 26, Tuesday: John Caldwell Calhoun's Fort Hill Address appeared in the Pendleton Messenger.

Benjamin Peirce, the librarian of Harvard College, died.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 26 of 7 M The committee having adjourned till 4 OC PM I embraced the opportunity of walking round the City [Philadelphia] - called at Thos Kites Store [publisher] & went to the Hospital where I saw Wm Penns Statue & Wests painting of Christ healing the sick & then rode out to fair Mount to see the stupendous Water Works by which the whole City is supplied with Water. - Dined & took tea at Thomas Stewartsons. - The committee at their setting this PM agreed on a report to the Yearly Meetings & closed our buisness at this time - hence we were in readiness to make our Way home

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 July 27, Wednesday: Hymne aux morts de juillet by Ferdinand Herold to words of Hugo was performed for the initial time, at the Pantheon of Paris, to mark the 1st anniversary of the Revolution of 1830.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 27 of 9 [sic] M Took the Steam Boat & had a pleasant Sail to Trenton & from thence took Stage across to Frankford where we again took the Steam Boat & arrived in New York & were very Kindly recd by our friends there & particularly by Saml Wood & family where most of us lodged. - as there was no Steam Boat going on

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

July 28, Thursday: On the 1st anniversary of the July Revolution, Hector Berlioz wrote to Charles Duveyrier from Rome that he was devoted to the social reform program of the comte de Saint-Simon (this letter would be intercepted by agents of Prince von Metternich).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day the 28th of 7 M We all attended Westbury Quarterly Meeting held in the City of NYork in which Wm Almy had good service. –
Feeling my mind much drawn to Hudson where our beloved son now resides & it being very convenient to go I did not feel easy to return with the rest of the committee & at 5 OC in the Afternoon went on board the North River Steam Boat & arrived in Hudson between 2 & 3 OC in the Morning & went immediately to Bryans Hotel where I took bed for the rest of the night – After breakfast I took a Chaise & boy to carry me out to the print Works & soon found John – & we were mutually glad to see each other – Spent the forenoon in walking round the place & returned to Benj Martials [Marshalls] House to dinner – In the Afternoon we had the company of Joseph Barton & his daughter Sarah Ashby & grand daughter Mary Ashby & one of their friends (Anna Comstock) who now lives in Ohio – These were agreeable acquaintances, being sound friends & Johns intimate associates & neighbours. – My health was poor & I did not enjoy all that I might on some occasions –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 30, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 30 of 7 M 1831 Passed an uncomfortable forenoon at home, but got so as to be able to Walk up to Joseph Bartons & drank tea with them, which was a very pleasant & interesting visit to me

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 31, Sunday: After 28 Menominee held a kind of anniversary celebration of their massacre of Fox the previous year, they fell into a drunken stupor. A large group of Fox were awaiting this stupor, and slaughtered the entire group. Black Hawk either participated in this action or helped plan it.

The Mohawk and Hudson Railroad, the 2d in the USA, began operations. Among the passengers on the partially completed route to Schenectady, New York were former governor Joseph C. Yates, former Albany mayor John Townsend, Schenectady mayor John I. De Graff, Albany police chief John Meigs, New-York police representative Jacob Hayes, and politician Thurlow Weed.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould would summarize in his journal, after arriving back home in Rhode Island:

1st day 31 of 7 M Rode with John into Hudson & attended the little gathering of sound friends who meet there. – Tho' it was small it did seem to me that the Meeting was not in vain, but

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

if the few who assemble would Seek to have Salt in themselves that it would season others & the savour would spread very considerably – I dined with John at Bryans Hotel after which I called on James Nixon & took tea, then went to the Wharf & waited for the Arrival of the Steam Boat & while in waiting for that I had an opportunity of seeing an old acquaintance James Brown & his wife (Irish folks) who once lived in Newport & now in Athens opposite Hudson. – He is one of the Boatmen in the River & went across & brought his wife over to see me. –

I parted with my dear son John on the Wharf not far from Sunset & arrived in NYork next morning, (2nd day [Monday] the 1 of 8 M 1831) & was very kindly recd at the house of our frd Saml Wood & sons & in the Afternoon at 5 OC took the Steam Boat Washington for home – & on 3rd day reached home in the forenoon while the subcommittee were sitting & was very glad & I trust thankful to find my dear wife & friends all well. –

This journey has been quite an extension of my travels it is the first time I was ever up the North River to Hudson In going up the North River it was [a] matter of some regret to me that both passages up & down the River were mostly performed in the night that much of the beautiful scenery was lost to my view.–

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 3, Wednesday: James Walter Spooner was born in Plymouth MA to Ephraim Spooner and Marie Elizabeth Spooner.

Charles Marie de Brouckere replaced Etienne Noel Joseph, chevalier de Sauvage as head of government for Belgium.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 3 of 8 M / My wife left yesterday after noon to attend the Quarterly Meeting at Portsmouth I was so fatigued & unwell that it did not seem best for me to go & she went in the Chaise with Thomas Howland. – I was glad again to meet our family, in our family Meeting & I have the satisfaction to believe that they were glad to see me. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 7, Sunday: At a Baptist church in Dresden, New York, William Miller preached the sermon on the 2d advent of Jesus Christ that would launch his Adventist movement. His conceits, based upon an over-familiarity with the book of Daniel, would prove to be a real crowd-pleaser — he had keyed into a bunch of exceedingly popular fantasies. For the next week he would need to repeat this to various audiences.

MILLENNIALISM

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 7th of 8th M 1831 Our Meeting was silent in the Morning

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

& in the Afternoon Wm Almy attended & had good service. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 14, Sunday: Robert Schumann played through the 1st movement of a piano concerto in F major for friends in Leipzig. They were very supportive, but he would never finish the work. “This seems to me like the 1st thing written in my style that inclines toward the romantic.”

Mount Vesuvius began to go through a period of activity that would last until December 23, 1832: “Effusiva — Terremoto il 14 agosto ed emissione intracraterica. Lave a SE verso Bosco (August 20, 1831); a SSE (September 20, 1831, continuing through 1831 unless otherwise indicated); verso Torre del Greco (November 20, 1831), Ercolano (December 25, 1831), Boscotrecase e Piano delle Ginestre (February 27, 1832), Ottaviano ed Eremo (July 23, 1832); verso W (August 8, 1832); verso Bosco (October-November 15, 1832); verso Torre del Greco (December 16-23, 1832).”

MOUNT VESUVIUS

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 14 if 8 M — Yesterday Brother David Rodman i& family were here & set our on their way to Lynn where they expect to reside for the present in hopes of getting into buisness - I do most affectionately wich them well & good success. — Morning Meeting Silent Wm Almy had good Service in the Afternoon - & Benjamin Clarke a [?end] Lawyer of New York attended - he appears to be a sound friend & tho' engaged in Law is said to support well his good standing in society

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 August 17, Wednesday: Alexis de Tocqueville and Gustave de Beaumont arrived in Buffalo.

The steam-packet Rothesay Castle between Liverpool and Beaumaris was wrecked near Beaumaris. Of the some 135 to 145 persons supposed to be on board only 22 would survive.

Jan, Count Krukowiecki was made dictator of Poland.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 17 of 8 M 1831 / Silent & good Meeting with the Scholars

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 August 21, Sunday: The troops of Lisbon, Portugal revolted against Don Miguel, at a cost of 300 lives.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 21 of 8 M / Our friend Anna A Jenkins attended our Meeting this Morning, her testimony & supplication were sweet & precious offerings, which I trust will be long remembered. – Silent Solid Meeting in the Afternoon

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

HDTWHAT?INDEXFRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

August 24, Wednesday: The Reverend John Stevens Henslow, Professor of Botany at Cambridge University and founder of the Botanic Garden there, suggested that Charles Darwin travel with him aboard HMS Beagle, a 10-gun brig, for its 2d world voyage of exploration and charting.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 24th of 8th M 1831 / Rode with my wife to Smithfield & attended Moy [Monthly] Meeting - it was to me a remarkably solid & good meeting - in the first Meeting Wm Almy bore a short testimony In the last we did not have much buisness but affairs were conducted in a solid manner I believe this was the first meeting I ever attended with Moses Brown where he was wholly silent in a Meeting for buisness. - he was pretty smart in

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

health, but he told me after meeting that he had nothing special to offer tho' he took an interest in the subject before us –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 26, Friday: At the Quaker educational institution that eventually would become the “Moses Brown School,” in Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould felt unwell, so he let some leeches attach themselves to his forehead and engorge themselves with his blood and drop away. After this he felt better (don't you wish you could have been there with a camera).

6th day 26th of 8 M / I have felt unwell today, my head much out of order, but I applied several Leeches to my temples this Afternoon & feel better – Our frd Moses Brown & Wm Jenkins called at the Institution today. – Recd a letter this Afternoon from Sister Elizabeth Nichols giving us a pretty favourable acct of Brother David Rodman & family, in their new situation in Lynn affording some hope it may again be well with them –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 28, Sunday: Fryderyk Franciszek Chopin \(Frédéric François Chopin\) performed a morning concert in München.

At the Providence, Rhode Island farm home of Friend Moses Brown that night, a burglar or team of burglars made off with the usual sorts of portable goodies.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 28th of 8th M 1831 / Silent meeting in the Morning Enoch & Lydia absent at Smithfield Meeting –
In the Afternoon Wm Almy was here & labour'd in the Gospel –
After Meeting by his invitation I went home with him to tea –*

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

& returned in the eveng & finished a letter which I had begun some days ago, to Elisha Bates.—

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

“Citizens” communicated with Virginia Governor John Floyd in regard to the undesirability of permitting a religious meeting of the blacks:

His Excellency John Floyd

Governor of Virginia

Sir

There is at this moment a numerous meeting of the blacks from this place & the surrounding country, at the Rural Shades, for the purpose, as they allege, of Religious worship, the propriety of countenancing such a meeting at this time is respectfully submitted to your consideration by several

Citizens

A white man would find this letter written on this date, on the road south of the city of Richmond, and forward it to Virginia Governor John Floyd:

Richmond Aug. 28, 31.

To

Joe to "brother", no date

Dear brother I send you this by brother billy who can tel you more than I can rite you must beshore to rememer The day, for al dependes on that for you now tis the last Sunday in October we are al reddy down belo you mstnot be faint harted al depends on you if you deceve us we are al lost for ever your affecionat brother

Joe Dr.

Do burne This as soon as you receve it

[in another hand] Furnished by a gentleman near Richmond city after the insurrection. It was found in the road below the city five or six miles-John Floyd “Anonymus” to Governor John Floyd in Richmond — posted from the town of Petersburg:

To the Governor of Virginia

Sir

It has been humbly & respectfully suggested that as Nat. Turner the leader & mover of the insurrection in Southampton has not been caught or killed that it would be adviseable to offer a large reward for him if caught by a white or free man, or manumission to any slave who will bring him dead or alive so that he may be punished. It is perhaps idle to think that this insurrection is ended until the Leader is killed

Aug 28th

Anonymus.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

August 29, Monday: Nicolò Paganini arrived in Dublin for a concert tour of Ireland. He would provide 23 concerts in 6 weeks.

Michael Faraday created the 1st electrical transformer, based upon electromagnetic induction.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 29 of 8 M / Last night some very wicked person or persons broke into the house of our friend Moses Brown & Stole his Watch from the head of his bed took some Money from his Pocket Book - opened several of his drawers & chests & rumaged over papers, & carried one of his small trunks some distance into his front yard where they broke it open, but left it & carried off his bunch of Keys. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Williamson Mann of Chesterfield wrote the following to "Ben Lee in Great hast mail speedily Richmond swift":

My old fellow

Chesterfield Aug 29 1831

Ben-

You will tell or acquaint every servant in Richmond & adjoining countys they all must be in a strik readiness, that this occurance will go through virignia with the slaves & whites if there had never been an assosiation & a visiting with the free & slaves this would never had of been they are put up by the free about their liberation I've wrote to norfolk amelia nottaway & several other countys to different slaves bob bill Miller Bowler John furguson fed roney & several other free fellow has put of Dr Crumps nor field Mr Scotts & a great many gentlemen private servants how they must act in getting in getting of their liberation they must set fire to the cyty begining at Shockoe hill then going through east west north south set fire to the briges they are aboutt to break out in fousland & in meclenburg Cyt & several other countys very shortly now there is a barber here in this place as [—ry] tells me a methodist of the name edwards has put a great many servants up how they should do & act by seting fire to this town I do wish they may succeed by so doing we poor whites can get work as well as the Slaves or collard This fellow edward the methodist says that judge J. F. Maz is no friend to the free & your Richmond free assosiates that you master Watkins Lee brokenberry Johnson Taylor of Norfolk & several other noble delegates is bitterly against them all Ruben Mr archers servant say that billy hickman has jest put him up how to revenge the whites all the brite molatoes of Rich wants to be white So boys you all must do the best you all can for your selfes, only acquainted the servants how you all shall proceed as your friends has advise they has stopt your alls religeon edwards syas so you all ougght to get reveng Some way every white in this place is sceard to death except my slef & a few others this methodist has has put up a Great many slaves in this place how to do I can tell you to push on boys push on

Yor friend williamson Mann

August 31, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 31 of 8 M / Our meeting was silent but a pretyy solid gathering. —

In the Afternoon I went to Town.—

This is the last day of the Summer of 1831 I feel that my summers are fast passing away & that the Winter of Age is drawing on a pace & my concern is that I may be consistent in whatever Station or situation I am — that should I advance into Old age I may

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

have the support of that religion which has been my stay in Youth & which has been the delight of my heart to live in — I can now in the more mature walks of life testify that the Religion of Jesus Christ is All sustaining

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

→ September 4, Sunday: On this day and the following one, Alexis de Tocqueville and Gustave de Beaumont took a carriage from Whitehall to Albany, New York, through the terrain in which Lake Champlain is situated. The mountains of Vermont on the horizon seemed “very high.” They would promptly depart toward Boston, where they were intending to recommence for a fortnight their study of penitentiaries, “somewhat forgotten for the last month,” before betaking themselves to Philadelphia.

A constitution was granted in Saxony.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 4th of 9th M 1831 / Our Morning Meeting was silent —In the Afternoon Wm Almy was here & much favoured in testimony —his opening was "Train up a child in the way he should go, & when he is Old he will not depart from it" —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

→ September 7, Wednesday: Gustave de Beaumont wrote a letter to Alexis de Tocqueville in Stockbridge.

Bonaventura Niemojewski replaced Jan, Count Krukowiecki as dictator of Poland.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 7 of 9th M / Silent meeting at the Institution Brother Isaac & his son Nathan was here today & I was very glad to see them — they gave us a pleasant account of the welfare of our friends & relations in Newport. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

September 14, Wednesday: In England, the gardening writer John Claudius Loudon and the science fiction author Jane C. Webb were wed. He was 47 and she 23. The couple would honeymoon in the Lake District and in Scotland. They would have a daughter, Agnes. The new wife would learn to act as her husband's secretary, copyist, researcher, and note taker, toward the preparation of the ENCYCLOPEDIA OF GARDENING which would be published in 1834. Jane Webb Loudon would prepare INSTRUCTIONS IN GARDENING FOR LADIES, a nontechnical volume which would see nine editions and sell more than 20,000 copies.

Alexis de Tocqueville and Gustave de Beaumont visited the prison in Charleston, Massachusetts.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 14th 9 M / Attended Meeting at the Institution which was silent but a pretty good meeting -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 21, Wednesday: Alexis de Tocqueville had an interview with Mr. Gray, a Senator of the State of Massachusetts, and confided to his diary as to the reasons for the relative moral purity of the American people:

American morals are, I believe, the purest existing in any nation, which may be attributed, it seems to me, to five principal causes:

- 1. Their physical constitution. They belong to a northern race, even though almost all living in a climate warmer than that of England.*
- 2. Religion still possesses there a great power over the souls. They have even in part retained the traditions of the most severe religious sects.*
- 3. They are entirely absorbed in the business of making money. There are no idle among them. They have the steady habits of those who are always working.*
- 4. There is no trace of the prejudices of birth which reign in Europe, and it is so easy to make money that poverty is never an obstacle to marriage. Thence it results that the individuals of two sexes unite ..., only do so from mutual attraction, and find themselves tied at a time in life when the man is almost always more alive to the pleasures of the heart than those of the senses. It is rare that a man is not married at 2-+ years.*
- 5. In general the women receive an education that is rational (even a bit raisonneuse.) The factors above enumerated make it possible without great inconvenience to allow them an extreme liberty; the passage from the state of young girl to that of a married woman has no dangers for her.*

...

Mr Clay, who appears to have occupied himself with statistical researches on this point, told Gustave de Beaumont that at

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Boston the prostitutes numbered about 2000 (I have great difficulty believing this.) They are recruited among country girls who, after having been seduced, are obliged to flee their district and family, and find themselves without resource. It seems that the young blood of the city frequents them, but the fact is concealed with extreme care, and the evil stops there, without ever crossing the domestic threshold or troubling the families. A man who should not be convicted but suspected of having an intrigue would immediately be excluded from society. All doors would be shut to him.

Mr. Dewight was saying to me that a venereal disease was a mark of infamy which was very hard to wash away. On the other hand, the police do not concern themselves in any way with the prostitutes. The Americans say that it would be to legitimate the evil to oppose to it such a remedy. Mr. Dewight said to us (what we had already had occasion to remark in the prison reports) that of all the prisoners those who most rarely reformed were the women of bad morals.

Norborne E. Sutton wrote to Governor John Floyd of Virginia:

Bowling Green Sept 21st 1831

Honorable John Floyd

Sir It is now certain that the slaves in this county was apprised of the insurrection which developed itself in South Hampton. Some Gentleman have enquired of these slaves as to this fact, (Mr. Campbels) in this immediate neighbourhood all admitted that they had received information of the intended insurrection but that it commenced two soon by eight days Yesterday a faithful servant of Mr. Wm P Taylors gave him information that large meetings of slave were held in his neighbourhood for the purpose of concerting and effecting the best course they should pursue to get clear of the whites Much excitement and much alarm has prevailed in the county especially with the slaves of the county and it is now so obvious that the slaves design an attempt between this and the 1st of October I have concluded to suggest to you the propriety of furnishing the militia with arms at least to some extent For one until the information in relation to Mr Taylors slaves was received I had not even had my gun in my room Because I did not apprehend any danger and I was certain it was calculated to create a greater degree of alarm with my wife and I thought too it was giving an importance which might induce the negroes in this neighborhood to imagine that I was alarmed I hope sir you will arm the Troop and a part of the companies in this county if not all I am as perfectly satisfied that those traveling preachers and Pedlers have been instrumental to a great degree in producing the present state of things as that I am now addressing this letter to you And I do hope that the Legislature will at the next session at least pass a law which shall have for its object This That no man particularly a stranger shall preach in any County or Town until he shall have produced sufficient evidence that he has been regularly ordained and of his

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

moral worth and standing when he was received on his last place of residence I hope I shall be excused for suggesting other civils slaves should not be permitted to have preaching at any time nor should they be permitted to go about contracting for themselves I would make the Law in relation to These matters more penal and I would make it the duty of every officer to arrest such slaves as are permitted to go at large and sell him forthwith the result to be applied to the use of the County Again Sir it is now the practice at every Court House to see large numbers of Carts some white and some black vending and trading in various things there Sir although I have used my exertions to arrest the civil practice of court nights frequently the exhibition of whites and blacks mingling together Beggars description They have no law imposed upon them They are composed of the very dregs of the different Counties and what I ask is to be expected but disorder and consequences of the most dangerous and alarming results Last October or November Mr Blak had a valuable slave killed at these Carts white and black all engaged in the [encounter?] late at night I hope you will incur[?] these suggestions respectively yours &c Norborne E Sutton

*P.S. I would suggest the propriety of arming the four companies immediately about this place where information must be received first on sight to be fully armed say Capt John Bellah Capt John Washington Captain Washington Carter and Capt W. Wrights these I think should be armed fully
N. E Sutton*

In Rhode Island, as incendiary reports of a supposed massive slave revolt in North Carolina were appearing in the Providence Journal (slaves were maybe burning down the city of Wilmington; a white army was maybe gathering in Raleigh, etc.), there was another local race riot. In the white riot of 1824, the rioters had torn down several houses in the black district of Providence by Gaspee Street and the State House that was known as Hardscrabble. Again this was happening, fueled by liquor and property values, this time in Olneys Lane (now Olney Street) and in Snowtown, a hollow up against Smith Hill southwest of the Hardscrabble district, in the Charles/Orms Street area. The rioting was initiated by a mob of white sailors, continued with the throwing of stones between a group of blacks and a group of whites, and culminated with a black man stepping out of a house with a gun and warning the sailors away – “Is this the way the blacks are to live, to be obliged to defend themselves from stones?” – and then being forced to shoot dead one of the advancing white men. The mob, except for five sailors, retreated to the foot of the hill. After someone shot and wounded three of these sailors, the mob again advanced, and began systematically to knock down two houses and damage several others.

So, as a point of interest, here is the manner in which these events would be truncated in an almanac of 1844:

1831. A riot of four days continuance commenced Sept. 21, in Olney's lane, North end. It originated with some sailors and the colored people living in the lane, one of the former being shot by a black man, and instantly killed. An immediate attack was made on the houses, and two were promptly destroyed. Each evening the mob increased in number, and violence. The efforts of the Town Council and the Sheriff to suppress it were ineffectual, and the services of the military were called into requisition by the Governor. On the fourth evening, the corps, near Shingle Bridge, were assailed by the crowd, with stones and other missiles, and were commanded to fire, which they did, and four men fell mortally wounded. The crowd dispersed, and quiet was restored. Nearly twenty small houses had been destroyed or badly injured. — At a town meeting, Nov. 22, more than three-fifths of the votes polled were in favor of a City Charter.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

We can afford to let local citizen William J. Brown tell the story, for his account is remarkably detailed despite the fact that we have no reason to suspect that he himself had been present and remarkably tolerant despite the fact that he himself had no reason whatever to be objective about this tense racial confrontation:

PAGES 50-54: The feeling against the colored people was very bitter. The colored people themselves were ignorant of the cause, unless it could be attributed to our condition, not having the means to raise themselves in the scale of wealth and affluence, consequently those who were evil disposed would offer abuse whenever they saw fit, and there was no chance for resentment or redress. Mobs were also the order of the day, and the poor colored people were the sufferers....

Not long after this [an earlier gentrification mob action] there was another mob, commenced at the west end of Olney Street. Here were a number of houses built and owned by white men, and rented to any one, white or colored, who wanted to hire one or more rooms, rent payable weekly. Some of these places had bar-rooms, where liquors were dealt out, and places where they sold cakes, pies, doughnuts, etc. These they called cooky stands. In some houses dancing and fiddling was the order of the day. It soon became dangerous for one to pass through there in the day time that did not belong to their gang, or patronize them. Most all sailors who came into port would be introduced into Olney Street by some one who had an interest that way. I remember when a boy, passing up one day to my father's garden, which was on that street, in company with two other boys, looking at the people as we passed along. Some were sitting at the windows, some in their doorway, some singing, some laughing, some gossiping, some had their clay furnaces in front of their houses, cooking, and seeing us looking at them, said "What are you gawking at, you brats?" hurling a large stone at the same time, and we were obliged to run for our lives. This street had a correspondence with all the sailor boarding houses in town, and was sustained by their patronage. Vessels of every description were constantly entering our port, and sailing crafts were seen from the south side of the Great Bridge to India Point. It was the great shipping port of New England in those days, and although the smallest of all the States, Rhode Island was regarded as among the wealthiest, the Quakers occupying a large portion of the State....

There was a sailor boarding house in Power Street, kept by a man from Virginia by the name of Jimmie Axum. He was a sailor, every inch of him, and his wife, Hannah, was an Indian woman of the

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Narragansett tribe. Uncle Jimmie was a shipping master and a fiddler, and when he failed to entertain sailors, they all knew where to go – Olney Street was their next port of entry.

When a ship's crew of sailors came ashore they would all go to Uncle Jimmie's to board, and Uncle Jimmie, with his household, would entertain them with fiddle and tamborine. There would be drinking and dancing through the day and evening, and every half hour some one would take a pitcher and go after liquor, which they purchased by the quart or pint. The best of Jamaica rum then sold for nine pence a quart; gin at the same price. Brandy was twenty-five cents a quart.

In those days it was common to drink liquor; everybody used it. Ministers drank and Christians drank. If you were passing on Main or Water Street in the morning the common salutation was: "Good morning, Mr. A. or B., won't you walk in and take a glass of brandy or gin?" If men were at work on the wharf, at eleven in the morning and four in the afternoon grog was passed around, consisting of a jug of rum and a pail of water. Each one would help himself to as much as he wanted. Even the people that went out washing must be treated at eleven and four o'clock, and people were considered mean who would not furnish these supplies to those whom they employed. If a person went out to make a call or spend the evening and was not treated to something to drink, they would feel insulted. You might as well tell a man in plain words not to come again, for he surely would go off and spread it, how mean they were treated – not even so much as to ask them to have something to drink; and you would not again be troubled with their company.

The sailors often drank to excess. You could frequently see them on South Water Street lying at full length or seated against a building intoxicated.

After sailors had stayed at Uncle Jimmie's boarding-house long enough to be stripped of nearly all their money by Uncle Jimmie and his wife, and the females which hung around there, they would be suffered to stroll up to Olney Street to spend the rest of their money.

One night a number of sailors boarding at Uncle Jimmie's went up to Olney Street to attend a dance. It was about nine o'clock when they left the house, expecting to dance all night and have what they called a sailor's reel and breakdown. About ten o'clock there came to Uncle Jim's a large, tall and powerful looking black man to the door. He said, "Uncle Jimmie, where is the boys?" He answered, "You will find them up in Olney Street; they went up to a dance tonight." He replied, "I am going up there, and if anybody comes here and inquires for me tell them I am gone up to the dance in Olney Street." Uncle Jimmy said, "Who are you and what is your name?" The man replied, "I am the Rattler." No one took notice of him. Those that were on the floor continued their dancing. This man seeing no one noticed him went in amongst them and commenced dancing, running against one man and pushing against another, just as his fancy led him. There being at that time five or six large men calling themselves

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

fighting men or bullies, came to the conclusion that they would not have their dance broke up in that shape by a stranger that nobody knew. One of the men by the name of James Treadwell, and known to be a great fighter, said to another large double-jointed man, so considered, by the name of Augustus Williams, "This fellow calls himself the Rattler, let's rattle his box." So they gathered three or four other men who would come to their assistance if needed. They approached the stranger and addressed him saying, "Who are you, stranger, and what do you want here?" He replied "I am the Rattler." They said to him, "If you don't clear out we will rattle your box." He replied, "That you can do as soon as you have a mind to." Without further ceremony they all pitched into him. The Rattler threw one man into the bar, another he threw across the room, some he slammed against the sides of the house, and in a few minutes he cleared the house, and as they had no power to resist him, they very wisely concluded that he was the devil in fine clothing. This story was told me by Augustus Williams, who was present and witnessed the whole affair and declared it to be the truth. The next visitation in Olney Street was made by two crews of sailors, one white and the other colored, consequently a fight was the order of the day, in which the blacks were the conquerors, and drove the whites out of the street. The white sailors not relishing this kind of treatment, doubled their forces the next night and paid Olney Street another visit, and had a general time of knocking down and dragging out. This mob conduct lasted for nearly a week. They greatly discomfited the saloonkeepers, drinking their liquors, smashing up the decanters and other furniture. One of their number was shot dead by a bar tender, which so enraged them that they began to tear down houses, threatening to destroy every house occupied by colored people. Their destructive work extended through Olney Street, Gaspee Street and a place called the Hollow, neither of which bore a very good reputation. They warned the better class of colored people to move out, and then went on with their work of destruction, calling on men of like principles, from other towns, to help, promising to share with them in the plunder, or take their pay from the banks. Governor Arnold hearing of this ordered out the military, thinking that their presence would quell the mob. They were not so easily frightened, and continued their work of ruin until the governor was compelled to order his men to fire. This had the desired effect; broke up the riot and dispersed the mob; but Olney Street had fallen to rise no more as a place of resort for rum shops, sailors and lewd women.

READ EDWARD FIELD TEXT

Here now is the same event, but as it would be described in William Read Staples's 1843 ANNALS OF THE TOWN OF PROVIDENCE FROM ITS FIRST SETTLEMENT, TO THE ORGANIZATION OF THE CITY GOVERNMENT, IN JUNE, 1832:

The first outbreak of popular feeling was on the night of

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

September 21. A number of sailors visited Olney's lane for the purpose of having a row with the blacks inhabiting there. After making a great noise there and throwing stones, a gun was fired from one of the houses. The greater part of the persons in the lane then retreated to the west end of it, and five sailors who had not been engaged in any of the previous transactions, went up the lane. A black man on the steps of his house, presented a gun, and told them to keep their distance. They in turn proposed taking his gun. This they did not attempt, but pursuing their walk a little further, then stopped. Here they were ordered by the black man "to clear out," or he would fire at them. This they dared him to do. He did fire, and one of their number was instantly killed. The first company, who were still at the foot of the lane, then returned, tore down two houses and broke the windows of the rest. During the next day there was a great excitement. The sheriff of the county with other peace officers were in Olney's lane early in the evening. As the mob increased in numbers and in violence of language, they were ordered to disperse, and seven taken in custody. Subsequently others were arrested, who were rescued from the officers. The sheriff then required military aid of the Governor of the state, and at midnight the First Light Infantry marched to his assistance. The mob, not intimidated by their presence, assaulted them with stones. Finding that they could effect nothing without firing upon them, the soldiers left the lane, followed by the mob, who then returned to their work, and demolished six more houses in the lane and one near Smith street, not separating until between three and four o'clock in the morning. On the morning of the 23d, an attack on the jail being expected, the sheriff required military aid, and the Governor issued his orders to the Light Dragoons, the Artillery, the Cadets, the Volunteers, and the First Infantry, to be in arms at six o'clock in the evening. The mob appeared only in small force, and did little mischief. The military were dismissed until the next evening. On the evening of the 24th there was a great collection of persons in Smith street and its vicinity. Soon they commenced pulling down houses. Upon this, finding it impossible to disperse or stay them, the sheriff called again on the Governor, and the military were again assembled. During their march to Smith street they were assailed with stones. They marched up Smith street and took post on the hill. Here both the Governor and the sheriff remonstrated with the mob, and endeavored to induce them to separate, informing them that the muskets of the military were loaded with ball cartridges. This being ineffectual, the riot act was read, and they were required by a peace officer to disperse. The mob continued to throw stones both at the houses and soldiers. The sheriff then attempted to disperse them by marching the dragoons and infantry among them, but without success. He then ordered the military to fire, and four persons fell mortally wounded, in Smith street, just east of Smith's bridge. The mob immediately dispersed, and peace was restored.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

This week, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould and his wife had been visiting Newport from their current home at the Quaker educational institution that eventually would become the “Moses Brown School” in Providence, Rhode Island.

6th day [Friday] 16th of 9 M 1831 / Having for sometime anticipated a visit to Newport We went on board the Steam Boat at 12 OC & arrived at our home about 3 OC PM. – I had not been there half an hour before I met with an accident which so lamed me that I was wholly unable to get about & 7th [Saturday] & 1st day [Sunday]s I was in Bed most of the time – on 2nd day [Monday] I was about a little & on 3rd day [Tuesday] we came home again to the Institution not a little disappointed in not being able to visit my friends & attend to many little things that was desirable to me. – But disappointment & trial is the lot of us all on this side of the grave, & I have much to be thankful for, in being favoured as I have. – Few have been more exempt from the disagreeables of life, while I may recount many bitter cups which I have had to take from time to time, yet I have been exempt from many which falls to the lot of Some in passing down the Stream of time. – We found our friends & relations at Newport in good health & comfortable in situation – Father & Mother Rodman tho’ aged are Smart & now free from some trials which recently awaited them in Davids state of mind & the situation of his family – he having removed to Lynn & is more comfortable in mind & a pretty good prospect of maintaining himself & family. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

September 22, Thursday: Alexis de Tocqueville made an entry in his journal about juries. He and Gustave de Beaumont heard from Francis \(Franz\) Lieber: “We Europeans, we think to create republics by organizing a great political assembly. The Republic on the contrary, is of all the governments the one that depends most on every part of society ... If an obstacle embarrasses the public way, the neighbors will at once constitute themselves a deliberative body; they will name a commission and will remedy the evil by their collective force, wisely directed ... For my part, I feel myself inclined to believe ... that constitutions and political laws are nothing in themselves. They are dead creations to which the morals and the social position of the people alone can give life.”

They asked Lieber about the purity of American morals:

We asked him: Is it true that morals are as pure here as they pretend?

He replied: Morals are less good in the lower classes than among the enlightened; however, I think them superior to those of the same classes in Europe. As for the educated, their morals are as perfect as it is possible to imagine them. I don't believe that there is a single intrigue in Boston society. A woman suspected would be lost. The women there are, however, very coquettish; they even display their coquetry with greater boldness than with us because they know that they cannot go beyond a certain point, and that no one believes that they overstep that bound. After all, I like still better our women of Europe with their weaknesses, than the glacial and egotistical virtue of the Americans.

Q. To what do you attribute the unbelievable master that one obtains here over the passions?

A. To a thousand causes: to their physical constitution, to Puritanism, to their habits of industry, to the absence of an unemployed and corrupted class, such as a garrison for example, to the early marriages, to the very construction of the houses, which renders the secret of an illicit liaison almost impossible to keep.

Q. They say that the young men are not sages before marriage.

A. No. They are even, like the English, gross in their tastes, but like them they make a complete separation between the society in which they habitually live, and that which serves their pleasure. These are like two worlds which have nothing in common together. The young men never seek to seduce honest women.

In England, a Reform Bill passed in the House of Commons.

Hackney coaches had been introduced in London in 1625 to ply for hire, and in 1634 Captain Baily had placed four such coaches at the Maypole in the Strand. A Lost-and-Found Office had in 1815 been established to deal with items left accidentally in these public coaches. On this day all restrictions, as to the numbers of such coaches for hire that might ply the streets of the municipality, were lifted. Taxi!

In Rhode Island, the Providence Journal ran a very small report at the end of its news columns of this fatal local “affray” involving a “large mob.” The newspaper’s primary focus remained, however, on the larger events of the “Insurrection in North Carolina.” Although it had not been confirmed that the blacks had burned the city of Wilmington, the current estimate was that half the whites of the town had been killed. The slaves were supposedly sweeping across two counties, burning and killing as they went. The Journal reprinted a letter praising white citizens who were taking “vigorous measures” against these black “offenders.” This letter concluded with “I foresee that this land must become a field of blood.” That day’s issue of the American provided a lengthier account of the Providence “RIOT AND MURDER,” blaming white sailors for having instigated this confrontation. That day, also, the American published a letter, apparently from one of the rioters, asserting that the “Negroes armed themselves and fired upon four sailors,” and that the crowd had destroyed only the homes of these “foul-blooded” murderers. As the neighborhood was “worse than the celebrated Five Points District in New York, our populace are determined to level” the remaining houses. The anonymous writer’s main argument, justifying the demolitions, was the one that was so successful in 1824: that the neighborhood evil could be remedied only by gentrification, on a scale not contemplated since King Philip’s War. That evening a mob of 700 or 800 whites destroyed six more of the properties along Olney’s Lane while the sheriff, constables, and Town Council watched, now and again ordering the rioters to cease and desist. Governor James Fenner called out a militia company, and late that night 25 militiamen arrived. Pausing only to free rioters whom the authorities arrested, the mob finished off Olney’s Lane and proceeded to Snow Town, which most likely was somewhere near what is now the University of Rhode Island. They destroyed two houses there, dispersing around 4AM. The militia succeeded in taking only seven of the white rioters into custody.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Having arrived back at the Quaker educational institution that eventually would become the “Moses Brown School” in Providence from his visit to his old haunts in Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould was settling in and taking care of business — and it becomes abundantly clear from his entry in his journal that in the nice white “Quaker close” of religious righteousness that they had set up for themselves, the fact that there were race riots going on in the less beautiful side of downtown Providence just across the river from the meetinghouse was none of their concern.

5th day 22 of 9 M / Preparative Meeting, the Boys attended but there was so much of a prospect of a Storm that the Girls staid at home – I have thought proper to stay most of this day in my chamber & keep my leg up –it has been more comfortable than Yesterday but is still poorly. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 25, Sunday: On a Rhode Island Sunday there were of course no newspapers, but a special Town Meeting was held in Providence that nevertheless succeeded in attracting 3,000 white citizens (most of them not property owners, and thus having no privilege to vote at such an assembly, but interested to hear anyway what was being decided in this tense interracial situation by their betters).

RACISM

Of course, this being the Lord’s Day, and Friend Stephen Wanton Gould being a Quaker, we find there to be no concern of any kind expressed in his journal, in regard to these nearby political goings-on and racial anguishings:

1st day 25 of 9 M / Silent Meetings all day – I sat in AM but my Leg & knee were not very comfortable—

God was in his Heaven, the Quakers were in their quietistic Close, and all was well!

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

September 27, Tuesday: The 1st passenger railroad in Scotland opened between Glasgow and Garnkirk.

Fryderyk Franciszek Chopin \(Frédéric François Chopin\) arrived in Paris after a 2-week trip from Stuttgart.

The Providence Journal presented only a short, platitudinous editorial on the riots. Newport, Rhode Island's Democratic Rhode Island Republican praised Governor Fenner's decision to open fire on the white mob, explaining that liberty, law, and authority were "intimately blended" — were indeed as inseparable as the Holy Trinity. That newspaper provided extracts from Rhode Island's royal charter, still in effect, by which the governor had been authorized "to kill, slay and destroy, by all fitting ways" any who "enterprize the destruction, invasion, detriment or annoyance" of Rhode Islanders. The American's story of "Another Riot" was truly ambivalent, for while it lamented that "this neat and beautiful village has become one mass of ruin," and its "virtuous and orderly citizens deprived of their dwelling," the race it denounced was the black one that had been deprived, rather than the white one that had done the depriving. Providence's blacks, rather than its whites, were characterized as having been "unusually bold" and as having "repeatedly defied civil authority."

Of course, the Providence Quaker being safe in their quietistic "Close" up on College Hill, we find no concern whatever being expressed in the journal of Friend Stephen Wanton Gould in regard to these nearby political goings-on and racial anguishings:

3rd day 27th of 9th M 1831 / My leg & knee gets better so slowly, that I hardly know whether to conclude it is better from Day to Day or not.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 28, Wednesday: Oliver Cromwell had in 1657 signed a writ of privy seal establishing a university at Durham in England, but this institution had upon the Restoration of the monarchy been suppressed. On this day a new university was founded in Durham by the bishop, by an act of chapter (the parliament sanctioned this, it would receive the royal assent during the following year, and the institution would be able to open its doors in 1833).

The Anti-Masonic convention in Baltimore nominated William Wirt for president and Amos Ellmaker of Pennsylvania for vice president. Those secretive Masons, for sure we weren't going to let them get away with anything!³⁷⁰

In Rhode Island, the Democratic Patriot sadly approved of the action of the local white militia. It was good that they had fired on the Providence mob. However, it was also fitting that the white mob had been allowed to deconstruct the black residences along Olneys Lane, that had been such an "annoyance" to "the most respectable part."

No trace of an awareness of any general social problem is to be detected in this diary report by Stephen Wanton Gould of local Quaker goings-on:

4th day 28th of 9 M / Our Moy [Monthly] Meeting held in Providence was a good one all our Scholars [the Quaker youths at the Institution] attended - Wm Almy & Anna A Jenkins were very acceptable in testimony & Hannah Robinson also had a good

370. Wirt would obtain, basically from Mason-haters, only 100,715 votes, amounting to 7 electoral votes, whereas Andrew Jackson would obtain, basically from slavery-lovers, 701,780 votes, amounting to 219 electoral votes.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*little testimony to bear – & life was prevalent over the Meeting.
– In the last Meeting the buisness was conducted in a solid Manner - two or three certificates were received & A friend applied for his children to be taken under care of Friends - A young man Also applied to be received into membership. –*

October 1, Saturday: Hector Berlioz and two colleagues arrived in Naples where he immediately visited the tomb of Virgil.

Alexis de Tocqueville had an interview with John Quincy Adams. He made a journal entry about the criminal justice system and other issues.

Clara Wieck played for Goethe at his Weimar home (the piano bench too low, she sat on a cushion to render two works by Henri Herz, La Violetta and Bravura Variations op.20). He invited her back.

October 2, Sunday: Alexis de Tocqueville made a journal entry based on an interview with a Mr. Henry Clay, a Georgia planter (not the Henry Clay of Virginia). He made journal entries about inheritance laws and religion.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 2nd of 10th M / Silent Meeting in the Morning In the Afternoon Wm Almy was here & had good & acceptable Service. – Gilbert Congdon was here & staid the eveng & I had a very satisfactory opportunity with him in our room in the evening, previous to the collection of the School, which we attended

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 5, Wednesday: Alexis de Tocqueville toured the Connecticut State Prison. He wrote to his father, and to his mother, and made journal entries.

Under King William IV, the measuring of coal offered for fuel in London began to be regulated by law (on account of frauds practiced, the measuring of wood for fuel had been thus regulated since 1543 under King Henry VIII).

By the Equalization Act, foreign wines were to pay an English duty of 5s. 6d. per gallon, and Cape wines 2s. 9p.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 5 of 10 M / Silent meeting & pretty solid I have of late had some favourd Seasons, some renewings of the Spirit of life for which I desire to be thankful. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

October 9, Sunday: The 1st head of an independent Greece, Count Ioannis Antonios Kapodistrias, was assassinated on the steps of his church in Nafplion, Greece (there's still a bullet hole in a wall of the church, that they'll show you). It was a family revenge killing.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 9th of 10th M 1831 / Meeting in the Morning was silent,
& my mind lean & destitute - In the Afternoon Wm Almy attended & preached admirably well & to the point - but I could not attain to so good a settlement as I could wish -
But this eveng, a precious covering has attended my feelings for which I desire to be thankful. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Mikhail Ivanovich Glinka and Nikolai Kuzmich Ivanov departed from Milan for Turin on their tour of Italy.

The Head of State of Greece, Ioannis Antoniou Kapodistrias, was murdered outside a church in Nauplia by a rival Greek faction. He would be replaced by Avgoustinos Kapodistrias at the head of a triumverate. With the death of Kapodistrias, the Conference of London would rescind the border of September 26th.

Clara Wieck played for Johann Wolfgang von Goethe at his home for a 2d time. He presented her with a medallion of himself with a handwritten note on the box:

*To the artistically highly gifted Clara Wieck.
In kindly remembrance of October 9, 1831.
Weimar. J. W. Goethe.*

November 22, Tuesday: Alexis de Tocqueville and Gustave de Beaumont, after spending a few more days in Philadelphia, set out for Pittsburgh, and the Ohio and Mississippi valleys. On the steamboat The Fourth of July, they would converse with "a great landholder from the State of Illinois."

A notice regarding Alexis de Tocqueville and Gustave de Beaumont was printed in Poulson's American Daily Advertiser.

In Lyon, France, manufacturing had been so depressed that artisans were able to earn only eightpence by working an 18-hour day. Desperate, they began an insurrection, and after a hard day's fighting, had driven the military out of the town (on December 3d Marshal Soult would march an army of 40,000 with 100 cannon into town to restore order and submission — a gesture that would prove more than adequate).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 22 of 11th M 1831 / A much longer time has elapsed than

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

for a longtime before, since I have written in my journal. – There has been but little different from the usual course in the time & sometimes I have almost felt discouraged, about making so many similar records in this way, but on the whole I do not feel so well satisfied to wholly omit it. – It is three Years this day since we came to Providence to live I will remember the day & time. – where we shall be at the end of another three years, we know not. – nor do I at this moment feel as if I cared, so that we are in the right place, & have as much to be thankful for as we have for the last three years of our life – for tho' some bitter cups have been our portion – we have been favoured with strength to endure them, & have recd many favours for which I trust we are thankful to the Giver of All Good

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 23, Wednesday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*4th day 23rd of 11th M 1831 / The Scholars attended the Moy [Monthly] Meeting held in Town – Wm Almy was much favoured in testimony on the subject of the cross of Christ – Daniel Clapp followed him in a well concerned testimony & it was very good, but continued a little too long – Anna A Jenkins was then engaged in supplication & I believe it may be safely considered to have been a season of favour
In the last Meeting I thought the buisness was well conducted. – Moses B Lockwood was received into membership & the request of Christo[pher] Spencer to have his children taken under the care of Friends was also granted There were three requests from the womens Meeting, from Women at Scituate Meeting – & on the whole it was a time of some encouragement, for which I desire to be thankful –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 24, Thursday: Andrew Jackson Jr., adopted son of the president, got married in Philadelphia with Sarah Yorke, daughter of a formerly wealthy Philadelphia merchant (who had died just after losing his fortune). The couple would honeymoon in the White House, which would almost certainly be the initial meeting of the father with his new daughter-in-law: “Sarah became a joy and comfort to [President Andrew Jackson] for the rest of his days.”

Alexis de Tocqueville and Gustave de Beaumont arrived in Pittsburgh.

Michael Faraday read the initial part of his paper “Experimental Researches on Electricity” to the Royal Society in London. This described his work over the last few months, during which he had pioneered the 1st electrical transformer and the 1st electric generator, and discovered the electromagnetic induction that would become the basis of our thinking in this new field.

November 27, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1st day Attended both meetings, in Newport & father Rodman was engaged in Both to my edification & comfort – I was also comforted to find my beloved meeting was so well attended tho' it was a very Stormy day – the place where I have enjoyed so many seasons of divine favour & where also I have known many trials & close baptisms of spirit. – I love Newport & hope it may yet increase in religious weight & stand as in days past, & tho' Friends have much decreased & become few in Number, yet there is a goodly few left –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 28, Monday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day Morning in the Steamer Rush Light we returned to Providence. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 29, Tuesday: Frederick Townsend Ward was born near the docks of Salem, Massachusetts (since most of his correspondence has been destroyed by a relative, we know very little about the earlier portions of this short life).

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 29 of 11 M 1831 / Our sub committee Meeting was held – it was a pleasant time, & the buisness conducted harmoniously. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 4, Sunday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 4th of 12 M 1831 / Our morning meeting was silent & to me almost no meeting at all – I could not get my mind so centered as to be able to experience any life. –

In the Afternoon Wm Almy attended & It did seem as if the life thro' him reached me. – It was an uncommonly favoured season, he was large & impressive in Testimony & powerful & prevalent in supplication & in a manner I have seldom heard him before – Yesterday Samuel Gummere our teacher for the new department of this School arrived. – Dr. Tobey brought him up on a visit to the School but carried him back to town where he spends this Day. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

December 5, Monday: At the seating of the 22d Congress, the Democrats remained in control with 25 seats in the Senate, versus 21 National Republicans, and with 141 seats in the House of Representatives, versus 58 National Republicans.

In London, two men Bishop and Williams were hanged who had been convicted of having imitated the crime of William Burke of Edinburgh, by "burking" an Italian boy. They admitted having also murdered several other persons in this manner.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 5 of 12 M / Today Saml Gummere came up & has entered as one of our family. - but the School will not be opened for some time as the room is not quite finished by the Carpenters & the Scholars are not yet engaged -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 11, Sunday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 11th of 12 M 1831 / This morning about half past 3 Oclock Mary Lefavour came to our Door & called my wife, an Alteration having appeared in Mary W Townsend - & about half past 5 OC she breathed her last so quietly & peacefully that it seemed difficult to perceive the exact Moment she ceased to exist. - She remained sensible & knew those around her & was evidently in a most quiet frame of spirit & there can be no reason to doubt her having centered to a blessed state of immortality. - She & we have been anxiously expecting her parents for Several days. - but they well now be disappointed of seeing her in this life
Our Mornng Meeting was quiet & solid & in the Afternoon we had the company of Wm Almy very acceptably & comfortably.*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 14, Wednesday: Carlo Verdi petitioned Duchess Maria Luisa of Parma for support in his quest for a grant from the Monte de Pieta e d'Abbondanza in Busseto for his talented son, Giuseppe.

The 140 delegates to the national Republican convention meeting in the Atheneum of Baltimore, Maryland nominated Henry Clay for president and John Sergeant of Pennsylvania for vice president.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 14th of 12 M / About an hour before meeting time Abel W Townsend & wife arrived - They felt Most easy to set with us in Meeting which was solid & solemn. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 16, Friday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 16th of 12 M 1831 / At 2 Oclock today was the Meeting

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

for the funeral of Mary W Townsend - a considerable number of Friends attended & the Meeting was a most Solemn & impressive one - Hannah Robinson was engaged in a few Words - Wm Almy followed in a most solemn & weighty supplication in which his mind was particularly drawn to supplicate for the Children & Youth present - then for all present & then particularly for the Afflicted parents - then Dorcas Paine in a few words - & Betsy Purinton concluded the Service in another Supplication - it was a time of uncommon favour, & the minds of most were impressed with solemnity. - The Male Scholars Attended the funeral in procession - but the Walking was such, on acct of the Snow & cold weather that the Girls did not go to the Grave - Our dear Aged friend Moses Brown being very unwell was unable to attend but sent his carriage for the use of those who might wish to ride in it -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 18, Sunday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 18 of 12 M 1831 / Our Morning Meeting was silent but solid - In the Afternoon Wm Almy was here as usual - & as usual was engaged in a very lively & instructive testimony, adapted to all present but in particular to the children He began by remarking that when he took his seat his mind was lead to reflect on the Scite on which this building was erected, that within a comparative few years the Land was in a state of Native forest - but now a place of intent where a large portion of our youth was instructed & where they met to worship God, he took occasion to spiritualize on the subject & I have seldom seen the Scholars more interested & attentive - Lydia Breed closed in supplication - Our friends Abel W Townsend & wife went to Town this Morning - not knowing that they shall return - they dined at Wm Jenkins & expected to lodge at Wm Almys. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 21, Wednesday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day [-] of 12 M 1831 / Silent meeting & not a very Bright one. Lydia Breed & my wife both sick with the Influenza. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 22, Thursday: The municipality of East Retford in Nottinghamshire came to be lighted by gas.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day [-] of 12 M / Attended Preparative meeting - some of the Male Scholars went - Betsy Purinton bore a good acceptable

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

testimony

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ December 28, Wednesday: As threatened earlier in the month, the USS Lexington under Commander Silas Duncan arrived in the Falkland Islands and looted settlements, disarming and carrying away inhabitants such as one of the governor's aides.

Calvin Edson, the living skeleton, placed himself on exhibit in Boston for an admission fee of 25 cents.³⁷¹

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*4th day 28 of 12 M 1831 / My H being almost sick with a cold -
I rode to Smithfield with Deborah Ramsdell to attend Moy [Monthly] Meeting -It was a rather low Meeting but we were favoured to transact what little buisness we had with a good degree of order
Most of those who have been head were absent*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ December 30, Friday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 30th of 12 M 1831 / This is a day which seldom if ever

371. Born in Stafford, Connecticut, Edson was 42 years of age and had a wife and three children. When he had served as a soldier during the Revolutionary War, his weight had been 135 pounds and he had been 5 foot 6 inches. Since then his height had shrunk by 3 inches and he had come to weigh but 58 pounds. He was able to ride horseback and would demonstrate that he was able to lift 150 pounds.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

passes unnoticed by me. — It is my Birthday & I am 50 Years old — It does not seem as if I had lived half a century. tho' I have kept more "note of time" than some others & perhaps can give more account of events which have occurred from my childhood to the present day. — I much desire so to live the rest of my allotted time as to be able to depart in peace when the time of my departure arrives, & tho' the Merits of Him, who died for us, be received with the rest prepared for the righteous. -- My life has been as free from keen affliction as most men, yet I have had many trials of Faith patience & even hope. — but have been favoured & sustained thro' all to the present day — & my mind is confirmed in the Faith that there is a hand Divine which rules & overrules the destinies of men. & that this hand has sustained me I can truly acknowledge, & a sense thereof has often drew forth the Silent & sometimes the vocal ascription of adoration & Praise. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

“NARRATIVE HISTORY” IS FABULATION, HISTORY IS CHRONOLOGY

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1832

January 1, Sunday: There would no longer be a duty on candles in England.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 1st of 1st M 1832 / Our Morning meeting was silent In the Afternoon Wm Almy was here & engaged in a very interesting testimony, which I hope will be long remembered by the Scholars as well as the rest of us. —³⁷²

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 3, Tuesday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

day 3rd of 1st M / Today was our Sub School committee, we had not much buisness to transact. —The Afternoon was spent in visiting the School in the Girls apartment Wm Almy Elizabeth Wing & Alice Rathbone had appropriate communications to make — Time did not admit much in the boys School. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 4, Wednesday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 4th of 1st M / Elizabeth Wing & Alice Rathbone attended our Meeting today & had living & powerful testimonies to deliver. — This is certainly a place of favour.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

372. Stephen Wanton Gould Diary, 1829-1832: The Gould family papers are stored under control number 2033 at the Division of Rare and Manuscript Collections of Cornell University Library, Box 8 Folder 14: April 1, 1829-December 31, 1832; also on microfilm, see Series 7

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

January 5, Thursday: Edward Jesse's post as commissioner of hackney coaches at Windsor Palace was eliminated. During this year he issued his initial volume of GLEANINGS IN NATURAL HISTORY, WITH LOCAL RECOLLECTIONS ... TO WHICH ARE ADDED MAXIMS AND HINTS FOR AN ANGLER (London: John Murray, Albemarle Street).

TREE PLANTING.

be readily lifted. Cross levers may be used for larger trees which require more men, thus :—

so that as many men can conveniently apply their strength to it as are wanted, without being in each other's way. The whole is fixed and unfixed without

GLEANINGS IN NATURAL HISTORY

Vincenzo Bellini set out from Milan on a long journey to Naples and Sicily. Wherever he went this would become a "triumphal procession."

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th Day 5 of 1 M / We have been informed today of the particulars of a most disgraceful & disgusting fall from Grace & reputation among men of a Man in Lynn, standing in the Station of an Elder & holding most important appointments in our Society -The Soul sickens at the appalling acct such a man standing as he did in our Society, nearly 60 Years of Age with a valuable wife, amiable children & grandchildren to attempt to commit Rape & for it to appear that he has for sometime been in the habit of gross improprieties among Women, why it is enough to make us all

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*distrust ourselves & calls aloud for renew'd Watchfulness & care least we also become cast aways – But I do yet firmly believe in the principle & power of Truth to support & sustain all, &
if it is kept to will preserve from falling –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 6, Friday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 6th of 1st M 1832 / This evening recd a letter from my old & long loved friend Thomas Thompson of Liverpool it contained a pleasant acct of the travels of our friend John Wilbour now in that country on a religious visit as well of Stephen Grillett & Christo Healy - it also contained the information of the decease of our dear friend Jonathon Taylor of Ohio, in Ireland, who was also in that country on a religious Mission, I was comforted with receiving a letter from Thomas & think I shall now renew my correspondence with him. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

That evening 12 abolitionists, William Lloyd Garrison and others, walked up “Nigger Hill” in Boston in a northeaster snowstorm to meet in the basement of the African Meeting House off Belknap Street and constitute themselves as a New England Anti-Slavery Society, in opposition to the agenda of the American Colonization Society which was seeking to return the freed Africans to Africa. There were “a number of colored citizens” present as observers as these white men filed to the front and placed their signatures in the meeting book. A number of black elders placed their names in a parallel column as a gesture of general support. Friend Arnold Buffum of Old Smithfield and Providence became president. Garrison became corresponding secretary, but declined to allow the new society any control over the editorial policies of his newspaper.

AME

ABOLITIONISM

January 8, Sunday: Francisco Tadeo Calomarde Arria replaced Manuel Gonzalez Salmon y Gomez de Torres as First Secretary of State of Spain.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 8th of 1st M / Silent Morning Meeting, & not a very poor one to me – In the Afternoon Wm Almy Attended & was favoured in a gospel Testimony. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 11, Wednesday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

4th day 11th of 1 M / Silent & rather poor meeting - my mind was hardy [hardly] in a situation to Worship - but I labour'd to get on the right ground, & perhaps if I had labour'd harder I might have been more successful. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 12, Thursday: Michael Faraday read the 2d part of his paper "Experimental Researches in Electricity" to the Royal Society in London.

Commodore David Porter appointed John Gliddon, an English merchant resident at Alexandria, Egypt, as the 1st United States consular agent for that port.

Fausta, a melodramma by Gaetano Donizetti to words of Gilardoni and the composer, was performed for the initial time, in Teatro San Carlo, Naples. The work scored a major success.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 12 1 M / Had an agreeable call from my friends Thos G Pitman & Michael Freeborn of Newport & James Chase of Portsmouth who have come up to attend the Gen'l Assembly now sitting in Providence. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 13, Friday: Horatio Alger, Jr. was born to Olive Augusta Fenno Alger in North Chelsea, Massachusetts (which now is known as Revere), where his father the Reverend Horatio Alger was the Unitarian minister. (Although said town may not have produced its quota of Tattered Toms or Ragged Dicks, it has evidently managed to produce at least one reverend who couldn't keep his pants buttoned.)

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 13 of 1 M / Time passes swiftly & silently away - I feel that it is so & the necessity of a preparation for the end or conclusion of it -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 15, Sunday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 15th of 1st M 1832 / Silent Meeting in the mornng. In the Afternoon a favour'd testimony from Wm Almy on the Subject of Samuel the Prophet commencing with his early call from the Lord & Elis conversation with him on the subject - he beautifully illustrated the whole example given in scripture & with no small effect on the minds of many of his Audience - After Meeting I went home with Wm Almy & took tea, & set the eveng - Uncle Isaac Almy & Dr. Tobey were there. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 17, Tuesday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

3rd day 17 of 1st M / This forenoon I set an hour with my beloved Ancient friend Moses Brown & was very glad to find him much better in health & very comfortable & pleasant. – This Afternoon Wm Almy Jona[thon] Farnum & L B Tobey spent sometime with us. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 18, Wednesday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4 day 18 of 1 M / A Silent Meeting & a season of no small distress to some of us. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 19, Thursday: Austrian troops occupied Ancona after unrest in the Papal States.

Giacomo Meyerbeer was created a Chevalier of the Legion of Honor by King Louis Philippe.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 19th of 1st M / My mind has been sorely exercised & distressed on several accounts for some Days –When I went into Town I felt no abatement but concluded to go to meeting & get as near right as I could – Some good degree of favour was experienced from the preaching of Wm Almy & a prayer by Hannah Robinson & after the Preparative & Select meeting was over – I was sensibly relieved from the depression, & have remained so this evening which I am truly thankful –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 22, Sunday: Molly Pitcher, who had distinguished herself in the battle of Monmouth during the Revolutionary War, died.

French police arrested leaders of the St. Simonians, an egalitarian religious-political group that numbered among its affiliates many top artists. Ferdinand Hiller and Heinrich Heine witnessed some of the arrests. Among their effects was Mendelssohn's Piano Quartet in b minor. Although Felix Mendelssohn was present in Paris, he was never himself associated with this group.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 22 of 1st M 1832 / Silent & hard meeting in the Morning – In the Afternoon Wm Almy was here & preached about the Devil. & it is astonishing to me that some do not believe there is a Devil when his works are so conspicuously seen – It was an Admirable Sermon & I was very thankful we had such a preacher as Wm Almy. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 January 25, Wednesday: First use of the majoritarian democratic term “To the Victors belong the spoils” — in a speech by US Senator William Learned Marcy of New York.

An act to abolish human slavery, introduced into the Virginia legislature by an all-white grandson of Thomas Jefferson, was defeated by only seven votes.³⁷³ This was the final defeat for all attempts to terminate the institution of slavery by legal means. Thomas Roderick Dew’s REVIEW OF THE DEBATE IN THE VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE OF 1831-1832 contained an accounting of the considerations taken subsequent to the Nat Turner revolt, for the elimination of the institution of slavery. In the wake of the insurrection, Georgetown rigidified its black code, threatening to punish with exceptional severity any person of color found in possession of abolitionist literature. On the plantation, via the grapevine, Fred Bailey must have heard a whole lot about the Turner revolt, and at this point he had just figured out what the highly charged term “abolitionist” meant — a term that he had been too cautious to ask about, of anyone who might know.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 25 of 1st M / Attended Moy [Monthly] Meeting held in Town the weather & traveling was such that it was a small gathering - it however was a season of favour & Wm Almy & Hannah Robinson were engaged in acceptable testimonies. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 26, Thursday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 26 of 1 M / Recd an acceptable & pleasant letter from Saml T Hussey of Portland. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 29, Sunday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 29th of 1st M / Silent in the Morning - In the Afternoon a favour'd sermon by Wm Almy

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 31, Tuesday: On Harrow Road at London, Kensal-Green Cemetery opened.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1 M 31 3 day / The Sub School committee met & it was a pleasant comfortable meeting. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 February 1, Wednesday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 1st of 2nd M 1832 / Today was our Quarterly Meeting of Ministers & Elders - It was a season of favour & the preaching

373. What, you didn't know that Jefferson had some all-white progeny?

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*I thought was all good, & the buisness before us conducted harmoniously
Our Ancient friend Moses Brown was able to sit with us – & also attended the Meeting for Sufferings in the Afternoon. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 February 2, Thursday: In the year of the publication of the 5th edition,³⁷⁴ Waldo Emerson began Gilbert White's THE NATURAL HISTORY AND ANTIQUITIES OF SELBORNE.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd of 2nd M 1832 / Quarterly Meeting - which has been a favoured one. – The public appearances were in rotation first a few Words by Anna D Wing - then Thomas Anthony in a favoured Gospel testimony followed in one & the same tenor by Susan Howland - then after pretty good communications from Danl Clapp & Hannah Dennis The Meeting closed. – & proceeded to buisness. –very considerable of Moment was before us - Rowland Greenes concern to pay a religious visit to the Yearly Meeting of Virginia & part of that of N Carolina was united with - several return certificates were granted to friends who had visited us in the Ministry some time past - And the appointment of Theophilus Shove by Swansey Moy [Monthly] Meeting to the Station of an Elder was concurred with - there were several acceptable religious communications in the last Meeting & some that probably might as well have been spared. – The Children all went to Meeting from the School. - The Girls were carried in Carriages. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 February 3, Friday: George Crabbe died in Trowbridge, Wiltshire.

The USS Lexington reached Montevideo from the Falklands, with its prisoners, planning to detain them until Argentina acceded to United States demands.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 3rd of 2nd M / A Large School committee & the buisness pretty well managed. – We engaged to stay at the Institution another year - which never looked so heavy in prospect before, but we must try to do the best we can, & perhaps we shall get through. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

374. THE NATURAL HISTORY OF SELBORNE / BY THE LATE GILBERT WHITE; WITH ADDITIONS BY SIR WILLIAM JARDINE. New ed. London: Printed for Whittaker, Treacher & Co. Series title: Constable's miscellany ...; v. 45.
I do not know that this was the edition which Waldo Emerson was consulting.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 February 4, Saturday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 4 of 2 M / Our friends left us this morning & tho' there are many in the house, the family seems Small now they are gone.—

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 February 5, Sunday: William Parkman died at the age of 91.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 5th of 2nd M / Silent hard meeting & not much better in the Afternoon tho' Wm Almy & Ruth Freeborn were here & both preached —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 February 8, Wednesday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*4th day 8th of 2nd M 1832 / My mind on a low key, but some favours while sitting in Meeting
I have of late been looking through & read considerably in the Journal of our Ancient friend Thomas Chalkley. - by which my mind has been replenished with good, & I have been renewedly thankful that it was written & published to the World. I have no doubts that many hundreds & thousands have experienced like benefit from it, who have long since been numbered with the Silent dead. - I know it was a book often read comfortably by my Dear father in his life time & indeed I hardly remember of ever seeing him read in any other excepting Robert Barclays Apology & the Bible. - My Brother David who was a sea faring man & died while young in life in Savannah Georgia, would not go to Sea without Thos Chalkleys journal in his chest & I have heard my Mother say that her Grandmother Mary Clarke who remembered him well & loved him & The Truth sincerely - considered that the house was not destitute of an interesting book while that Journal was in it - that I am well assured it has proved a blessing to many, & I can say of a Truth that I greatly desire, our dear young Men & Women had a greater relish for reading that Book - I have no doubt it would prove as a hedge around their minds, by seasoning them with the same pure & christian spirit which so sweetly shone in his life, conduct & principles. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 February 12, Sunday: The Galapagos Islands were annexed by Ecuador.

There was an outbreak of cholera in London, that would take at least 3,000 lives.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 12 of 2 M 1832 / Our Morning meeting was silent & pretty good to me - In the Afternoon our Ancient fr Joseph Hoag attended

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

& had good service. I thought there was a good deal of Gospel Oil attending his communication & it was a very satisfactory & comfortable Meeting to me. – he also attended our collections in each School & had something to say in both all of which I thought was encouraging to the Scholars & had a good tendency H's companion was Amos Peasly a young man who has been a Scholar at this institution since we have been here, & now looks like a promising character in our society – He is from Sandwich Moy [Monthly] Meeting in the State of N Hampshire. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 February 15, Wednesday: Friedrich Wieck and his daughter Clara reached Paris, where they would meet Nicolò Paganini, Friedrich Kalkbrenner, Giacomo Meyerbeer, Henri Herz, Felix Mendelssohn, and Frederic Chopin.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 15th of 2 M / Silent Meeting but a pretty good one tho' attended with some distress –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 February 16, Thursday: On their way across the Atlantic Ocean to South America, the HMS Beagle and Charles Darwin arrived at the small equatorial group of islands known as St. Peter and St. Paul's Rocks (0°56'N, 29°21'W).

Joseph Smith, Jr. recorded his revelation that there were 3 degrees of glory in heaven. In addition he began teaching that all humans are “begotten sons and daughters unto God.”

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 16 of 2 M / Preparative Meeting most of the Male Schoars attended – Wm Almy as usual was much favoured in testimony. – I have often seen & been sensible of the efficacy of Religion, from inward experience, & the evidence that is a divine reality has of late been much renew'd & confirmed in my mind. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 February 19, Sunday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 19th of 2nd M 1832 / Silent & rather a distressed Meeting in the Morning. – Wm Almy was here & favoured in testimony but my mind still oppressed & tried –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

February 22, Wednesday: Antonio de Saavedra y Frigola, Conde de Alcudia replaced Francisco Tadeo Calomarde Arria as First Secretary of State of Spain.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*4th day 22 of 2 M / We rode to Smithfield & attended Moy [Monthly] Meeting - Wm Almy very satisfactorily engaged in testimony. -there was but little buisness & the Meeting did not last long. -
It was a pleasant day & a pleasant ride. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Ground was broken for Indiana's Wabash and Erie Canal, to connect the Ohio River with Lake Erie.

There was a dinner party in Washington DC on this, the centennial birthday of George Washington. When the cloth was removed after the banquet, Senator Daniel Webster of Massachusetts had the honor of calling for the official toast:³⁷⁵

I rise, Gentlemen, to propose to you the name of that great man, in commemoration of whose birth, and in honor of whose character and services, we are here assembled.

I am sure that I express a sentiment common to every one present, when I say that there is something more than ordinarily solemn and affecting in this occasion.

We are met to testify our regard for him whose name is intimately blended with whatever belongs most essentially to the prosperity, the liberty, the free institutions, and the renown of our country. That name was of power to rally a nation, in the hour of thick-thronging public disasters and calamities; that name shone, amid the storm of war, a beacon light, to cheer and guide the country's friends; it flamed, too, like a meteor, to repel her foes. That name, in the days of peace, was a loadstone, attracting to itself a whole people's confidence, a whole people's love, and the whole world's respect. That name, descending with all time, spreading over the whole earth, and uttered in all the languages belonging to the tribes and races of men, will for ever be pronounced with affectionate gratitude by every one in whose breast there shall arise an aspiration for human rights and human liberty.

We perform this grateful duty, Gentlemen, at the expiration of a hundred years from his birth, near the place, so cherished and beloved by him, where his dust now reposes, and in the capital which bears his own immortal name.

All experience evinces that human sentiments are strongly influenced by associations. The recurrence of anniversaries, or of longer periods of time, naturally freshens the recollection, and deepens the impression, of events with which they are historically connected. Renowned places, also, have a power to awaken feeling, which all acknowledge. No American can pass by the fields of Bunker Hill, Monmouth, and Camden, as if they were

375. Edwin P. Whipple's THE GREAT SPEECHES AND ORATIONS OF DANIEL WEBSTER WITH AN ESSAY ON DANIEL WEBSTER AS A MASTER OF ENGLISH STYLE (Boston: Little, Brown, 1879).

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

ordinary spots on the earth's surface. Whoever visits them feels the sentiment of love of country kindling anew, as if the spirit that belonged to the transactions which have rendered these places distinguished still hovered round, with power to move and excite all who in future time may approach them.

But neither of these sources of emotion equals the power with which great moral examples affect the mind. When sublime virtues cease to be abstractions, when they become embodied in human character, and exemplified in human conduct, we should be false to our own nature, if we did not indulge in the spontaneous effusions of our gratitude and our admiration. A true lover of the virtue of patriotism delights to contemplate its purest models; and that love of country may be well suspected which affects to soar so high into the regions of sentiment as to be lost and absorbed in the abstract feeling, and becomes too elevated or too refined to glow with fervor in the commendation or the love of individual benefactors. All this is unnatural. It is as if one should be so enthusiastic a lover of poetry, as to care nothing for Homer or Milton; so passionately attached to eloquence as to be indifferent to Tully and Chatham; or such a devotee to the arts, in such an ecstasy with the elements of beauty, proportion, and expression, as to regard the masterpieces of Raphael and Michael Angelo with coldness or contempt. We may be assured, Gentlemen, that he who really loves the thing itself, loves its finest exhibitions. A true friend of his country loves her friends and benefactors, and thinks it no degradation to commend and commemorate them. The voluntary outpouring of the public feeling, made to-day, from the North to the South, and from the East to the West, proves this sentiment to be both just and natural. In the cities and in the villages, in the public temples and in the family circles, among all ages and sexes, gladdened voices to-day bespeak grateful hearts and a freshened recollection of the virtues of the Father of his Country. And it will be so, in all time to come, so long as public virtue is itself an object of regard. The ingenuous youth of America will hold up to themselves the bright model of Washington's example, and study to be what they behold; they will contemplate his character till all its virtues spread out and display themselves to their delighted vision; as the earliest astronomers, the shepherds on the plains of Babylon, gazed at the stars till they saw them form into clusters and constellations, overpowering at length the eyes of the beholders with the united blaze of a thousand lights.

Gentlemen, we are at a point of a century from the birth of Washington; and what a century it has been! During its course, the human mind has seemed to proceed with a sort of geometric velocity, accomplishing for human intelligence and human freedom more than had been done in fives or tens of centuries preceding. Washington stands at the commencement of a new era, as well as at the head of the New World. A century from the birth of Washington has changed the world. The country of Washington has been the theatre on which a great part of that change has been

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

wrought, and Washington himself a principal agent by which it has been accomplished. His age and his country are equally full of wonders; and of both he is the chief.

If the poetical prediction, uttered a few years before his birth, be true; if indeed it be designed by Providence that the grandest exhibition of human character and human affairs shall be made on this theatre of the Western world; if it be true that,

"The four first acts already past,
A fifth shall close the drama with the day, Time's noblest offspring is the last";—

how could this imposing, swelling, final scene be appropriately opened, how could its intense interest be adequately sustained, but by the introduction of just such a character as our Washington?

Washington had attained his manhood when that spark of liberty was struck out in his own country, which has since kindled into a flame, and shot its beams over the earth. In the flow of a century from his birth, the world has changed in science, in arts, in the extent of commerce, in the improvement of navigation, and in all that relates to the civilization of man. But it is the spirit of human freedom, the new elevation of individual man, in his moral, social, and political character, leading the whole long train of other improvements, which has most remarkably distinguished the era. Society, in this century, has not made its progress, like Chinese skill, by a greater acuteness of ingenuity in trifles; it has not merely lashed itself to an increased speed round the old circles of thought and action; but it has assumed a new character; it has raised itself from beneath governments to a participation in governments; it has mixed moral and political objects with the daily pursuits of individual men; and, with a freedom and strength before altogether unknown, it has applied to these objects the whole power of the human understanding. It has been the era, in short, when the social principle has triumphed over the feudal principle; when society has maintained its rights against military power, and established, on foundations never hereafter to be shaken, its competency to govern itself.

It was the extraordinary fortune of Washington, that, having been intrusted, in revolutionary times, with the supreme military command, and having fulfilled that trust with equal renown for wisdom and for valor, he should be placed at the head of the first government in which an attempt was to be made on a large scale to rear the fabric of social order on the basis of a written constitution and of a pure representative principle. A government was to be established, without a throne, without an aristocracy, without castes, orders, or privileges; and this government, instead of being a democracy, existing and acting within the walls of a single city, was to be extended over a vast country, of different climates, interests, and habits, and of various communions of our common Christian faith. The experiment certainly was entirely new. A popular government of this extent, it was evident, could be framed only by carrying into full effect the principle of representation or of delegated power; and the world was to see whether society could, by the strength of this principle, maintain its own peace and good government, carry forward its own great interests, and conduct itself to political renown and glory.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

By the benignity of Providence, this experiment, so full of interest to us and to our posterity for ever, so full of interest, indeed, to the world in its present generation and in all its generations to come, was suffered to commence under the guidance of Washington. Destined for this high career, he was fitted for it by wisdom, by virtue, by patriotism, by discretion, by whatever can inspire confidence in man toward man. In entering on the untried scenes, early disappointment and the premature extinction of all hope of success would have been certain, had it not been that there did exist throughout the country, in a most extraordinary degree, an unwavering trust in him who stood at the helm.

I remarked, Gentlemen, that the whole world was and is interested in the result of this experiment. And is it not so? Do we deceive ourselves, or is it true that at this moment the career which this government is running is among the most attractive objects to the civilized world? Do we deceive ourselves, or is it true that at this moment that love of liberty and that understanding of its true principles which are flying over the whole earth, as on the wings of all the winds, are really and truly of American origin?

At the period of the birth of Washington, there existed in Europe no political liberty in large communities, except in the provinces of Holland, and except that England herself had set a great example, so far as it went, by her glorious Revolution of 1688. Everywhere else, despotic power was predominant, and the feudal or military principle held the mass of mankind in hopeless bondage. One half of Europe was crushed beneath the Bourbon sceptre, and no conception of political liberty, no hope even of religious toleration, existed among that nation which was America's first ally. The king was the state, the king was the country, the king was all. There was one king, with power not derived from his people, and too high to be questioned; and the rest were all subjects, with no political right but obedience. All above was intangible power, all below quiet subjection. A recent occurrence in the French Chambers shows us how public opinion on these subjects is changed. A minister had spoken of the "king's subjects." "There are no subjects," exclaimed hundreds of voices at once, "in a country where the people make the king!"

Gentlemen, the spirit of human liberty and of free government, nurtured and grown into strength and beauty in America, has stretched its course into the midst of the nations. Like an emanation from Heaven, it has gone forth, and it will not return void. It must change, it is fast changing, the face of the earth. Our great, our high duty is to show, in our own example, that this spirit is a spirit of health as well as a spirit of power;

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

that its benignity is as great as its strength; that its efficiency to secure individual rights, social relations, and moral order, is equal to the irresistible force with which it prostrates principalities and powers. The world, at this moment, is regarding us with a willing, but something of a fearful admiration. Its deep and awful anxiety is to learn whether free states may be stable, as well as free; whether popular power may be trusted, as well as feared; in short, whether wise, regular, and virtuous self-government is a vision for the contemplation of theorists, or a truth established, illustrated, and brought into practice in the country of Washington.

Gentlemen, for the earth which we inhabit, and the whole circle of the sun, for all the unborn races of mankind, we seem to hold in our hands, for their weal or woe, the fate of this experiment. If we fail, who shall venture the repetition? If our example shall prove to be one, not of encouragement, but of terror, not fit to be imitated, but fit only to be shunned, where else shall the world look for free models? If this great Western Sun be struck out of the firmament, at what other fountain shall the lamp of liberty hereafter be lighted? What other orb shall emit a ray to glimmer, even, on the darkness of the world?

There is no danger of our overrating or overstating the important part which we are now acting in human affairs. It should not flatter our personal self-respect, but it should reanimate our patriotic virtues, and inspire us with a deeper and more solemn sense, both of our privileges and of our duties. We cannot wish better for our country, nor for the world, than that the same spirit which influenced Washington may influence all who succeed him; and that the same blessing from above, which attended his efforts, may also attend theirs.

The principles of Washington's administration are not left doubtful. They are to be found in the Constitution itself, in the great measures recommended and approved by him, in his speeches to Congress, and in that most interesting paper, his Farewell Address to the People of the United States. The success of the government under his administration is the highest proof of the soundness of these principles. And, after an experience of thirty-five years, what is there which an enemy could condemn? What is there which either his friends, or the friends of the country, could wish to have been otherwise? I speak, of course, of great measures and leading principles.

In the first place, all his measures were right in their intent. He stated the whole basis of his own great character, when he told the country, in the homely phrase of the proverb, that honesty is the best policy. One of the most striking things ever said of him is, that "he changed mankind's ideas of political greatness."³⁷⁶ To commanding talents, and to success, the common elements of such greatness, he added a disregard of self, a spotlessness of motive, a steady submission to every public and private duty, which threw far into the shade the whole crowd of vulgar great. The object of his regard was the whole country.

376. See Works of Fisher Ames, pp. 122, 123.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

No part of it was enough to fill his enlarged patriotism. His love of glory, so far as that may be supposed to have influenced him at all, spurned every thing short of general approbation. It would have been nothing to him, that his partisans or his favorites outnumbered, or outvoted, or outmanaged, or outclamored, those of other leaders. He had no favorites; he rejected all partisanship; and, acting honestly for the universal good, he deserved, what he has so richly enjoyed, the universal love.

His principle it was to act right, and to trust the people for support; his principle it was not to follow the lead of sinister and selfish ends, nor to rely on the little arts of party delusion to obtain public sanction for such a course. Born for his country and for the world, he did not give up to party what was meant for mankind. The consequence is, that his fame is as durable as his principles, as lasting as truth and virtue themselves. While the hundreds whom party excitement, and temporary circumstances, and casual combinations, have raised into transient notoriety, sink again, like thin bubbles, bursting and dissolving into the great ocean, Washington's fame is like the rock which bounds that ocean, and at whose feet its billows are destined to break harmlessly for ever.

The maxims upon which Washington conducted our foreign relations were few and simple. The first was an entire and indisputable impartiality towards foreign states. He adhered to this rule of public conduct, against very strong inducements to depart from it, and when the popularity of the moment seemed to favor such a departure. In the next place, he maintained true dignity and unsullied honor in all communications with foreign states. It was among the high duties devolved upon him, to introduce our new government into the circle of civilized states and powerful nations. Not arrogant or assuming, with no unbecoming or supercilious bearing, he yet exacted for it from all others entire and punctilious respect. He demanded, and he obtained at once, a standing of perfect equality for his country in the society of nations; nor was there a prince or potentate of his day, whose personal character carried with it, into the intercourse of other states, a greater degree of respect and veneration.

He regarded other nations only as they stood in political relations to us. With their internal affairs, their political parties and dissensions, he scrupulously abstained from all interference; and, on the other hand, he repelled with spirit all such interference by others with us or our concerns. His sternest rebuke, the most indignant measure of his whole administration, was aimed against such an attempted interference. He felt it as an attempt to wound the national honor, and resented it accordingly.

The reiterated admonitions in his Farewell Address show his deep fears that foreign influence would insinuate itself into our counsels through the channels of domestic dissension, and obtain a sympathy with our own temporary parties. Against all such

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

dangers, he most earnestly entreats the country to guard itself. He appeals to its patriotism, to its self-respect, to its own honor, to every consideration connected with its welfare and happiness, to resist, at the very beginning, all tendencies towards such connection of foreign interests with our own affairs. With a tone of earnestness nowhere else found, even in his last affectionate farewell advice to his countrymen, he says, "Against the insidious wiles of foreign influence, (I conjure you to believe me, fellow-citizens,) the jealousy of a free people ought to be constantly awake; since history and experience prove, that foreign influence is one of the most baneful foes of republican government."

Lastly, on the subject of foreign relations, Washington never forgot that we had interests peculiar to ourselves. The primary political concerns of Europe, he saw, did not affect us. We had nothing to do with her balance of power, her family compacts, or her successions to thrones. We were placed in a condition favorable to neutrality during European wars, and to the enjoyment of all the great advantages of that relation. "Why, then," he asks us, "why forego the advantages of so peculiar a situation? Why quit our own to stand upon foreign ground? Why, by interweaving our destiny with that of any part of Europe, entangle our peace and prosperity in the toils of European ambition, rivalry, interest, humor, or caprice?"

Indeed, Gentlemen, Washington's Farewell Address is full of truths important at all times, and particularly deserving consideration at the present. With a sagacity which brought the future before him, and made it like the present, he saw and pointed out the dangers that even at this moment most imminently threaten us. I hardly know how a greater service of that kind could now be done to the community, than by a renewed and wide diffusion of that admirable paper, and an earnest invitation to every man in the country to re-peruse and consider it. Its political maxims are invaluable; its exhortations to love of country and to brotherly affection among citizens, touching; and the solemnity with which it urges the observance of moral duties, and impresses the power of religious obligation, gives to it the highest character of truly disinterested, sincere, parental advice.

The domestic policy of Washington found its pole-star in the avowed objects of the Constitution itself. He sought so to administer that Constitution, as to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquillity, provide for the common defence, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty. These were objects interesting, in the highest degree, to the whole country, and his policy embraced the whole country.

Among his earliest and most important duties was the organization of the government itself, the choice of his confidential advisers, and the various appointments to office. This duty, so important and delicate, when a whole government was to be organized, and all its offices for the first time

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

filled, was yet not difficult to him; for he had no sinister ends to accomplish, no clamorous partisans to gratify, no pledges to redeem, no object to be regarded but simply the public good. It was a plain, straightforward matter, a mere honest choice of men for the public service.

His own singleness of purpose, his disinterested patriotism, were evinced by the selection of his first Cabinet, and by the manner in which he filled the seats of justice, and other places of high trust. He sought for men fit for offices; not for offices which might suit men. Above personal considerations, above local considerations, above party considerations, he felt that he could only discharge the sacred trust which the country had placed in his hands, by a diligent inquiry after real merit, and a conscientious preference of virtue and talent. The whole country was the field of his selection. He explored that whole field, looking only for whatever it contained most worthy and distinguished. He was, indeed, most successful, and he deserved success for the purity of his motives, the liberality of his sentiments, and his enlarged and manly policy.

Washington's administration established the national credit, made provision for the public debt, and for that patriotic army whose interests and welfare were always so dear to him; and, by laws wisely framed, and of admirable effect, raised the commerce and navigation of the country, almost at once, from depression and ruin to a state of prosperity. Nor were his eyes open to these interests alone. He viewed with equal concern its agriculture and manufactures, and, so far as they came within the regular exercise of the powers of this government, they experienced regard and favor.

It should not be omitted, even in this slight reference to the general measures and general principles of the first President, that he saw and felt the full value and importance of the judicial department of the government. An upright and able administration of the laws he held to be alike indispensable to private happiness and public liberty. The temple of justice, in his opinion, was a sacred place, and he would profane and pollute it who should call any to minister in it, not spotless in character, not incorruptible in integrity, not competent by talent and learning, not a fit object of unhesitating trust.

Among other admonitions, Washington has left us, in his last communication to his country, an exhortation against the excesses of party spirit. A fire not to be quenched, he yet conjures us not to fan and feed the flame. Undoubtedly, Gentlemen, it is the greatest danger of our system and of our time. Undoubtedly, if that system should be overthrown, it will be the work of excessive party spirit, acting on the government, which is dangerous enough, or acting in the government, which is a thousand times more dangerous; for government then becomes nothing but organized party, and, in the strange vicissitudes of human affairs, it may come at last, perhaps, to exhibit the singular paradox of government itself being in opposition to its own powers, at war with the very elements of its own existence.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Such cases are hopeless. As men may be protected against murder, but cannot be guarded against suicide, so government may be shielded from the assaults of external foes, but nothing can save it when it chooses to lay violent hands on itself.

Finally, Gentlemen, there was in the breast of Washington one sentiment so deeply felt, so constantly uppermost, that no proper occasion escaped without its utterance. From the letter which he signed in behalf of the Convention when the Constitution was sent out to the people, to the moment when he put his hand to that last paper in which he addressed his countrymen, the Union,—the Union was the great object of his thoughts. In that first letter he tells them that, to him and his brethren of the Convention, union appears to be the greatest interest of every true American; and in that last paper he conjures them to regard that unity of government which constitutes them one people as the very palladium of their prosperity and safety, and the security of liberty itself. He regarded the union of these States less as one of our blessings, than as the great treasure-house which contained them all. Here, in his judgment, was the great magazine of all our means of prosperity; here, as he thought, and as every true American still thinks, are deposited all our animating prospects, all our solid hopes for future greatness. He has taught us to maintain this union, not by seeking to enlarge the powers of the government, on the one hand, nor by surrendering them, on the other; but by an administration of them at once firm and moderate, pursuing objects truly national, and carried on in a spirit of justice and equity.

The extreme solicitude for the preservation of the Union, at all times manifested by him, shows not only the opinion he entertained of its importance, but his clear perception of those causes which were likely to spring up to endanger it, and which, if once they should overthrow the present system, would leave little hope of any future beneficial reunion. Of all the presumptions indulged by presumptuous man, that is one of the rashest which looks for repeated and favorable opportunities for the deliberate establishment of a united government over distinct and widely extended communities. Such a thing has happened once in human affairs, and but once; the event stands out as a prominent exception to all ordinary history; and unless we suppose ourselves running into an age of miracles, we may not expect its repetition.

Washington, therefore, could regard, and did regard, nothing as of paramount political interest, but the integrity of the Union itself. With a united government, well administered, he saw that we had nothing to fear; and without it, nothing to hope. The sentiment is just, and its momentous truth should solemnly impress the whole country. If we might regard our country as personated in the spirit of Washington, if we might consider him as representing her, in her past renown, her present prosperity, and her future career, and as in that character demanding of us all to account for our conduct, as political men or as private citizens, how should he answer him who has ventured to talk of disunion and dismemberment? Or how should he answer him who dwells perpetually on local interests, and fans every kindling flame of local prejudice? How should he answer him who would array State against State, interest against interest, and party against party, careless of the continuance of that unity of government which constitutes us one people?

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

The political prosperity which this country has attained, and which it now enjoys, has been acquired mainly through the instrumentality of the present government. While this agent continues, the capacity of attaining to still higher degrees of prosperity exists also. We have, while this lasts, a political life capable of beneficial exertion, with power to resist or overcome misfortunes, to sustain us against the ordinary accidents of human affairs, and to promote, by active efforts, every public interest. But dismemberment strikes at the very being which preserves these faculties. It would lay its rude and ruthless hand on this great agent itself. It would sweep away, not only what we possess, but all power of regaining lost, or acquiring new possessions. It would leave the country, not only bereft of its prosperity and happiness, but without limbs, or organs, or faculties, by which to exert itself hereafter in the pursuit of that prosperity and happiness.

Other misfortunes may be borne, or their effects overcome. If disastrous war should sweep our commerce from the ocean, another generation may renew it; if it exhaust our treasury, future industry may replenish it; if it desolate and lay waste our fields, still, under a new cultivation, they will grow green again, and ripen to future harvests. It were but a trifle even if the walls of yonder Capitol were to crumble, if its lofty pillars should fall, and its gorgeous decorations be all covered by the dust of the valley. All these might be rebuilt. But who shall reconstruct the fabric of demolished government? Who shall rear again the well-proportioned columns of constitutional liberty? Who shall frame together the skilful architecture which unites national sovereignty with State rights, individual security, and public prosperity? No, if these columns fall, they will be raised not again. Like the Coliseum and the Parthenon, they will be destined to a mournful, a melancholy immortality. Bitterer tears, however, will flow over them, than were ever shed over the monuments of Roman or Grecian art; for they will be the remnants of a more glorious edifice than Greece or Rome ever saw, the edifice of constitutional American liberty.

But let us hope for better things. Let us trust in that gracious Being who has hitherto held our country as in the hollow of his hand. Let us trust to the virtue and the intelligence of the people, and to the efficacy of religious obligation. Let us trust to the influence of Washington's example. Let us hope that that fear of Heaven which expels all other fear, and that regard to duty which transcends all other regard, may influence public men and private citizens, and lead our country still onward in her happy career. Full of these gratifying anticipations and hopes, let us look forward to the end of that century which is now commenced. A hundred years hence, other disciples of Washington will celebrate his birth, with no less of sincere admiration than we now commemorate it. When they shall meet, as we now meet, to do themselves and him that honor, so surely as they shall see the blue summits of his native mountains rise in the horizon, so surely as they shall behold the river on whose banks he lived, and on whose banks he rests, still flowing on toward the sea, so surely may they see, as we now see, the flag of the Union floating on the top of the Capitol; and then, as now, may the sun in his course visit no land more free, more happy, more lovely, than this our own country!

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Gentlemen, I propose— "THE MEMORY OF GEORGE WASHINGTON."

February 26, Sunday: Tsar Nikolai I signed an "Organic Statute" establishing direct Russian rule over Poland and abolishing that nation's constitution.

Frédéric François Chopin gave his initial concert in Paris, in the Salle Pleyel. The performance had been organized by Frederic Kalkbrenner and Camille Pleyel and was praised by Franz Liszt and Felix Mendelssohn. The hall was only a third full and many of the patrons were Polish emigres. The program included Ludwig van Beethoven's Quintet op.29, Chopin's F minor piano concerto, and Introduction March and Grand Polonaise for six pianos by Kalkbrenner (Chopin and Kalkbrenner took part). Antoni Orlowski would profess grandly that "All Paris was stupefied!" Chopin had "mopped up the floor with every one of the pianists here."

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 26th of 2 M / Silent in the Morn'g - In the Afternoon
Lydia Breed bore a short testimony - In the eveng with Enoch & Lydia had a long conference in our room relating to the affairs of the Institution which resulted satisfactorily*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 28, Tuesday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 28th of 2nd M / Sub-committee Meeting - subjects relating to the Institution was pleasantly resulted - the company was small but an agreeable number

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 29, Wednesday: The 1st Constitution of the State of New Granada (Colombia) was adopted.

Charles Darwin was able to visit a jungle near Bahia, Brazil.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 29 of 2 M / Mary Shove was here & attended Meeting, she

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

bore a short testimony under a good concern & I felt unity with her offering –

We have been informed today of the wicked conduct of RR. – certainly trials of various kinds await us & it would seem that Father & Mother Rodmans cup was near full as any I know of or almost ever heard of – was it not for the support which is afforded them from relevation, & with which they were early acquainted, I dont see how they could be sustained. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 4, Sunday: Jean-François Champollion died in Paris. For his immense symbolic significance during the period of Thoreau's life, it would be good to refer to John T. Irwin's "The Symbol of the Hieroglyphics in the American Renaissance." American Quarterly 26 (1974):103-26.

WALDEN: Thus it seemed that this one hillside illustrated the principle of all the operations of Nature. The Maker of this earth but patented a leaf. What Champollion will decipher this hieroglyphic for us, that we may turn over a new leaf at last? This phenomenon is more exhilarating to me than the luxuriance and fertility of vineyards. True, it is somewhat excrementitious in its character, and there is no end to the heaps of liver lights and bowels, as if the globe were turned wrong side outward; but this suggests at least that Nature has some bowels, and there again is mother of humanity. This is the frost coming out of the ground; this is Spring. It precedes the green and flowery spring, as mythology precedes regular poetry. I know of nothing more purgative of winter fumes and indigestions. It convinces me that Earth is still in her swaddling clothes, and stretches forth baby fingers on every side. Fresh curls springs from the baldest brow. There is nothing inorganic. These foliaceous heaps lie along the bank like the slag of a furnace, showing that Nature is "in full blast" within. The earth is not a mere fragment of dead history, stratum upon stratum like the leaves of a book, to be studied by geologists and antiquaries chiefly, but living poetry like the leaves of a tree, which precede flowers and fruit, –not a fossil earth, but a living earth; compared with whose great central life all animal and vegetable life is merely parasitic. Its throes will heave our exuvia from their graves. You may melt your metals and cast them into the most beautiful moulds you can; they will never excite me like the forms which this molten earth flows out into. And not only it, but the institutions upon it, are plastic like clay in the hands of the potter.

JEAN-FRANÇOIS CHAMPOLLION

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Waldo Emerson to his journal:

In the year 1832 died Cuvier, Scott, Mackintosh, Goethe, Champollion, Leslie.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 4 of 3 M 1832 / Silent Meetings & to me pretty good ones
- Trials & I may add tribulations await us - the Conduct of R R in NYork has been such as all true sensibility sickens & revolts at the Idea of. - I am more & more confirmed that The religion of Jesus Christ is the only firm Anchorage for the mind & that as it is lived in, will support under every affliction & will lead & guide in such way & manner as will satisfy the mind of the course to be persued both to obtain happiness here & in an after State - I have many times rejoiced in this & been consoled in time of streight & trial*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 4, Sunday: Jean-François Champollion died in Paris. For his immense symbolic significance during the period of Thoreau's life, it would be good to refer to John T. Irwin's "The Symbol of the Hieroglyphics in the American Renaissance." American Quarterly 26 (1974):103-26.

WALDEN: Thus it seemed that this one hillside illustrated the principle of all the operations of Nature. The Maker of this earth but patented a leaf. What Champollion will decipher this hieroglyphic for us, that we may turn over a new leaf at last? This phenomenon is more exhilarating to me than the luxuriance and fertility of vineyards. True, it is somewhat excrementitious in its character, and there is no end to the heaps of liver lights and bowels, as if the globe were turned wrong side outward; but this suggests at least that Nature has some bowels, and there again is mother of humanity. This is the frost coming out of the ground; this is Spring. It precedes the green and flowery spring, as mythology precedes regular poetry. I know of nothing more purgative of winter fumes and indigestions. It convinces me that Earth is still in her swaddling clothes, and stretches forth baby fingers on every side. Fresh curls springs from the baldest brow. There is nothing inorganic. These foliaceous heaps lie along the bank like the slag of a furnace, showing that Nature is "in full blast" within. The earth is not a mere fragment of dead history, stratum upon stratum like the leaves of a book, to be studied by geologists and antiquaries chiefly, but living poetry like the leaves of a tree, which precede flowers and fruit, -not a fossil earth, but a living earth; compared with whose great central life all animal and vegetable life is merely parasitic. Its throes will heave our exuviae from their graves. You may melt your metals and cast them into the most beautiful moulds you can; they will never excite me like the forms which this molten earth flows out into. And not only it, but the institutions upon it, are plastic like clay in the hands of the potter.

JEAN-FRANÇOIS CHAMPOLLION

Waldo Emerson to his journal:

In the year 1832 died Cuvier, Scott, Mackintosh, Goethe, Champollion, Leslie.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 4 of 3 M 1832 / Silent Meetings & to me pretty good ones - Trials & I may add tribulations await us - the Conduct of R R in NYork has been such as all true sensibility sickens & revolts at the Idea of. - I am more & more confirmed that The religion of Jesus Christ is the only firm Anchorage for the mind & that

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

as it is lived in, will support under every affliction & will lead & guide in such way & manner as will satisfy the mind of the course to be persued both to obtain happiness here & in an after State - I have many times rejoiced in this & been consoled in time of streight & trial

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 10, Tuesday: It was the height of the cholera epidemic in Paris, 2,000 people dying on this day (the morticians ran out of coffins).

After Mehmet Ali demands Syria for helping the Turks against the Greeks, the Ottoman Empire declares war on Egypt.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th M 10 - 1832 / My journal has been neglected Much longer than common. - I now resume it to insert the decease of my Last Aunt on my fathers side Vizt Hannah Gould who departed this life in Newport on 5th day evening the 5th inst about 11 OC in the evening In the 84th Year of her Age She was the last of three Maiden Sisters, & I believe was the last great Granchild of Old Daniel Gould, from whom our family sprung - on 7 day [Saturday] I went down to Newport to attend her funeral which was on first day, her remains being carried to the Meeting house in the Morning & after Meeting were decently interd in Friend burying ground near the Meeting House to the North of her Sisters Martha & Mary who deceased before her. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 13, Sunday: Georges Cuvier died in Paris.

According to The Observer, "At a quarter past twelve o'clock, the Royal carriage in which their Majesties were seated, without attendants, reached the village of Hounslow. The postillions passed on at a rapid rate till they entered the town of Brentford; where the people, who had assembled in great numbers, expressed by groans, hisses, and exclamations, their disapprobation of his Majesty's conduct with respect to the Administration. The Duke of Wellington had entered the Palace in full uniform about a quarter of an hour before the Majesties, and had been assailed by the people with groans and hisses. The Duke, after remaining more than three hours with his Majesty, left about a quarter-past four, amidst groans and hisses even more vehement than when he arrived. Lord Frederick Fitzclarence was received with the same disapprobation, and loud cries of 'Reform'."

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 13 of 5 M 1832 / Enoch & Lydia went to Scituate Meeting - The charge of our Meeting at the Institution of course fell on my wife & I - both were solid & silent. - My diary has been unusually neglected partly arising from an apprehension that there is but little use in keeping it up - there is a constant sameness in events or occurrences of my life.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

- or at any rate there is not much of Interest to record, & yet I do not feel easy wholly to omit it. - While I am far from being exempt from trials - there is much in my life which I have cause to be humbly thankful for to Him whose hand of love & power has thro' the various turnings & courses which I have experienced has indeed been visible & often extended for my help. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 17, Thursday: In Concord, the formation of the Concord Mozart Society, replacing the Concord Harmonic Society, which had been a choir.

The Concord Harmonic Society was formed about 1800, for the purpose of improvement in sacred music. For several years past it has not been under regular organization. May 17, 1832, the Concord Mozart Society was formed, and takes place of the other. Ephraim Willey was chosen President, Elijah Wood and Francis Hunt, Vice-Presidents, and Phineas Allen, Secretary.³⁷⁷

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 17 of 5 M / In the Steam Boat Rush Light this Mornng We went to Newport to make some preparations for yearly Meeting. - Found our friends Well & the House which we continue to hire of Aunt Nancy Carpenter, & in which our goods still remain - in as good order as could be expected, considering it has been left for a Year - On our arrival we were informd that our Son Jn S Gould had passed us in the NYork Boat from NYork on his way to Hudson to see us. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 18, Friday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

On 6th day he returned to Newport & we spent the time we staid very pleasantly in preparing our house - making some arrangements & visiting our friends, & on 7th day we had a very comfortable family visit at Edw W Lawtons - On first day attended our Native Meeting which tho Smaller than years ago & many whom we loved in life, removed & I trust at rest from their labours -it still however remains to be a respectable & comfortable Meeting & in the Mornng Father Rodman was engaged in a lively & pertinent testimony. - Silent in the Afternoon. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

377. Lemuel Shattuck's 1835 A HISTORY OF THE TOWN OF CONCORD;... Boston MA: Russell, Odiorne, and Company; Concord MA: John Stacy, 1835
(On or about November 11, 1837 Henry David Thoreau would indicate a familiarity with the contents of at least pages 2-3 and 6-9 of this historical study. On July 16, 1859 he would correct a date mistake buried in the body of the text.)

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 May 21, Monday: Washington Irving arrived from Spain, in New-York.

In a storm at the delta of the Ganges River, eight to ten thousand people drowned.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

On Second day we again took the Rush Light & returned to Providence. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 May 24, Thursday: Johann Nepomuk Hummel in Weimar wrote to Robert Schumann in Leipzig.

French balloonist Francois Arban made his initial ascent.

Schumann wrote twice to Hummel asking for a critique of his opp. 1 and 2. Hummel found Schumann talented but said he was “trying too hard to achieve originality, by which I mean something strange.” He encouraged Schumann but said nothing about taking him as a pupil.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 24th of 5th M 1832 / Attended Preparative meeting in Providence - it was silent. but a pretty good Meeting

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 May 26, Saturday: Giacomo Meyerbeer departed London for Berlin, two weeks before the production there of Robert le diable.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 26th of 5 M / The weather having been mostly Rainy & uncomfortable for the last week - We have been mostly confined within doors & John has not had an opportunity to call on some of his friends with [which] duty & inclination prompted to This Morning we passed an interesting hour at the Mansion of our friend Moses Brown & went to Wm Almys & Dined & in the evening he called on Wm Jenkins. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 May 27, Sunday: Egyptian forces of Ibrahim, son of Mohammed Ali, took Acre after a siege. Egypt annexed Syria, although both were nominally under Turkish rule.

20,000-30,000 German liberals met at Neustadt and marched to the ruins of an old castle near Hambach. They listened to speeches calling for patriotism and political reform.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 27 of 5 M / This being the day John had fixed to return

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

to Newport on his way back to Hudson, we rose early & got him to the Steam Boat which went at 7 OC – & after taking leave in much concern for his welfare every way we parted, not expecting to see him again very soon if ever. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 30, Wednesday: In Germany, the Hambaucher Fest demonstration for civil liberties and national unity came to an end — without accomplishing any change.

In eastern Ontario, Canada, the Rideau Canal opened.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 30th of 5th M 1832 / Attended Monthly Meeting held in Providence. – Wm Almy preached a good Sermon – In the last we had some exercise, but the Meeting finished pretty well. – Today Mary Griscom left in the Steamboat B Franklin for NYork & John was to join her at Newport on his way to Hudson This evening We recd a pleasant letter from John dated at Newport this Morning – by which he appears to have had a pleasant visit among his friends & kinsfolks at his Native home & was expecting to take the boat this PM – tho' it was a hard rainstorm when Mary Griscom left Providence – before the boat got to Newport it cleared off & they appeared to have a fine time round Point Judith. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

HDTWHAT?INDEXFRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

June 1, Friday: William Lloyd Garrison attacked the proslavery duplicity of the American Colonization Society in his self-published 236-page THOUGHTS ON AFRICAN COLONIZATION: OR AN IMPARTIAL EXHIBITION OF THE DOCTRINES, PRINCIPLES AND PURPOSES OF THE AMERICAN COLONIZATION SOCIETY, TOGETHER WITH THE RESOLUTIONS, ADDRESSES AND REMONSTRANCES OF THE FREE PEOPLE OF COLOR. These folks were, he amply demonstrated on the basis of their own writings, a group of people who rather than desiring the wellbeing of abused Americans of color, desired merely to eliminate the danger posed to slavery by the local presence of free persons of color by getting rid of these free persons of color, an agenda which was entirely due to cupidity and to "an antipathy to blacks." 2,275 copies were produced and placed on sale at $0.⁶² each, one of them winding up in the hands of a student in the Lane Seminary of Cincinnati, Theodore Dwight Weld.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 1st of 6th M 1832 / Today an Indian Man by the name of Wamsley was hung for Murder, about two miles South of the Road to Pawtucket - I happened in town as he was going to the Gallows & saw him at a distance - it was a most affecting scene to see so many thousands flocking after the Miserable man. - such executions are in my opinion not calculated to effect any moral & certainly no religious good - for among the crowd were many who were drunk, some staggering & others laying. - my heart was deeply affected with the scene & I could but deplore the fate of the poor object, & intercede that we might all be preserved from crime. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

June 8, Friday: For some reason the Reverend Daniel Starr Southmayd preached his final sermon before Concord's Trinitarian Congregationalists and asked to be released from the pulpit. (He had been their pastor since 1827. There had been some sort of controversy that had alienated one member of the church, Joseph C. Green, to the extent that an article describing the conflict had been placed a Boston religious publication, which had led to this member's formal trial before the congregation and his excommunication. The next time we hear news of this man, he will be attending the foundational meeting of the American Anti-Slavery Society in Philadelphia in 1833, representing himself as of Lowell, Massachusetts, and then we will see him functioning as a Presbyterian missionary, and schoolteacher, in the general vicinity of Mejico's Tejas province that today is known as Houston.)

The Rev. DANIEL S. SOUTHMAYD was born at Castleton, Vermont, February 11, 1802, graduated at Middlebury College in 1822, and at the Theological Seminary at Andover in 1826. After sustaining the pastoral office a little over five years, he asked for a dismissal, June 8, 1832, which was granted by the church, and confirmed by a council on the 15th, consisting of the Rev. Samuel Stearns of Bedford, moderator, the Rev. Elijah Demond of Lincoln, scribe, the Rev. Sewall Harding of Waltham, the Rev. Leonard Luce of Westford, and delegates from their respective churches. From the time the church was organized to Mr. Southmayd's ordination, 6 members were added to the church, and during his ministry 77, (53 by original profession, and 30 by letter from other churches,) and 30 were males and 53 females; 4 have been dismissed, 2 excommunicated, and 5 have died; present [1835] number of members 88, of whom 30 are males. Several, however, have removed from town. Mr. Southmayd administered 46 baptisms, and married 26 couples. He now [1835] lives at Lowell. ... Deacon John White bequeathed to this church $700, and Miss Sarah Thoreau $50, which has been vested as a fund for its use.³⁷⁸

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th M 8th 1832 6 day of the week 1832 / This Morning We went down to Newport to attend the Yearly Meeting - We took quarters with Aunt Nancy Carpenter, & had the privilege of using our rooms as usual - Many called to see us in the course of the YMeeting [Yearly Meeting] & we had a precious favoured Meeting through out. - In the Mornng of first day there was not as much preaching as usual - a large preportion of it however was good, & in particular the testimonies from our friends Hannah C Backhouse & John Meader, stood high in my estimation - In the Afternoon our friends Joseph Bowne was large & powerful -I do not feel like undertaking to record many particulars of the transactions of the Meeting suffice it to say it was a season of favour & tho' some trying things were under consideration, I believe the Minds of Friends were engaged to cultivate love & harmony & labour for the maintainance of the good cause After repeated

378. Lemuel Shattuck's 1835 A HISTORY OF THE TOWN OF CONCORD;... Boston MA: Russell, Odiorne, and Company; Concord MA: John Stacy, 1835

(On or about November 11, 1837 Henry David Thoreau would indicate a familiarity with the contents of at least pages 2-3 and 6-9 of this historical study. On July 16, 1859 he would correct a date mistake buried in the body of the text.) with the contents of at least pages 2-3 and 6-9 of this historical study.)

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

settings the Meeting closed on 6th day forenoon & the School committee & the meeting for Sufferings sat in the Afternoon

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 9, Saturday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

On 7th day Morning we returned to Providence & resumed our labours at the School

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 17, Sunday: John James Babson got married with Mary Coffin Rogers, daughter of Timothy Rogers. The couple would produce four children only one of whom would survive to maturity.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 17th of 6th M 1832 / Our friend Margaret Parker accompanied by her Husband Benj Parker, & her Sister Sybel Allenson were at Meeting with us this Afternoon, & Margaret had acceptable Service. – In the Morning we were silent.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 19, Tuesday: In Providence, Rhode Island, all the physicians assembled at the summons of Dr. Levi Wheaton, and by the request of the mayor, in the Senate chamber, to plan what might be done in regard to the current outbreak of the Asiatic cholera.

June 20, Wednesday: A new US charge d'affaires, Robert Baylies, arrived in Buenos Aires to try to resolve the Falklands dispute. The Argentines required reparations before any negotiations.

Robert der Teufel by Giacomo Meyerbeer was produced in Berlin.

La tentation, an opera-ballet by Fromental Halevy and Gide to words of Cave and Coralli, was performed for the initial time, in the Paris Opera.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 20th of 6th M / Our friend Ann Taylor & her companions from Ohio were at Meeting at the Institution & had good service. Ann in Testimony & supplication. they dined & spent the Afternoon in examining the house &c. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 21, Thursday: William Crotch resigned as 1st principal of the Royal Academy of Music.

In Providence, Rhode Island, a Quaker who was a follower of Friend Elias Hicks ("the Sitting of an Hixite," a visiting Hicksite) managed to attend a midweek meeting for worship without his or her presence having been detected in advance by Friend Stephen Wanton Gould:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

5th day 21 of 6 M / Our above mentioned friends [Ann Taylor & her companions from Ohio, Margaret Parker accompanied by her Husband Benj Parker, & her Sister Sybel Allenson] attended Meeting in town - & had good service - Lydia Breed also preached acceptably. - In the Preparative Meetg we had no buisness - but was imposed on by the Sitting of an Hixite, which was not known till after the Meeting rose. -

July 3, Tuesday: Count Sormani-Andreani, director of Milan Conservatory, reported the unfavorable results of Giuseppe Verdi's entrance examination. Giuseppe Corbari, a civil clerk, included comments that Verdi was too old, lived outside Lombardy and Venetia, and did badly on the piano examination.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 3rd of 7 M 1832 / Today was our Sub-committee Meeting The Subject of the existance of Cholera in the City of NYork were introduced early in our being together & engaged our close & very Serious attention - Our friends Moses Brown Wm Almy & Thomas Howland were of the opinion the School ought to be immediately vacated, & as some doubted whether this committee had power to cause a suspension & dispensation of it - It was concluded to call a Meeting for Sufferings to act in the case which was accordingly done - to meet tomorrow at 10 OC at the Meeting house in Providence. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

HDTWHAT?INDEXFRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Our national birthday, Wednesday the 4th of July: Nathaniel Hawthorne's 28th birthday.

The song "America" that had been jotted down by Dr. Samuel Smith on a scrap of paper was performed by Boston schoolchildren.

In New-York, Fourth of July celebrations were subdued due to a cholera epidemic.

On the bank of the Potomac River, Henry Clay was guest of honor at a National Republican Celebration.

CELEBRATING OUR B-DAY

In England, the Durham University founded by Lord Protector Cromwell had been suppressed at the Restoration. At this point re-opening of that University was authorized by the monarch.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day the 4th of 7 M – The Meeting for Sufferings Met at the time & place, & entered into a feeling & solemn view of the Subject of the Cholera in NYork & the probability of it appearance in Providence, & fully Authorised the School committee to Vacate the School in case it should appear necessary. –

In the Afternoon the committee again met & on examining the evidence before us, it did not appear that the disorder had increased in NYork & it was concluded to meet again next 7th day Afternoon, again to consider the subject & act as wisdom & prudence might then dictate

I attended the Meeting for Sufferings held at the Meeting House in Town. – Those who attended our Week day meeting at the Insitution report it to have been a remarkable solemn meeting & I did not learn there was any preaching

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 5, Thursday: The HMS Beagle and Charles Darwin sailed from Rio de Janeiro.

The German Diet enacted a “Ten Articles” document which reinstated restrictions on speech and press, and on political organizations. The German states pledged their mutual assistance in dealing with the current situation of popular unrest.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 5 of 7 M / Some who attended the Week Day Meeting in Town, report it to have been a very Solemn Meeting, Wm Almy in testimony & Anna A Jenkins in Supplication both alluded to the very serious & affecting season of Sickness which visits our Land.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 6, Friday: The Mexican Emperor Maximilian was born — although, of course, as Maximilian rather than as the Mexican Emperor.

Having returned to England from France, Nicolò Paganini offered a concert in London’s Covent Garden (he would perform there a dozen times over the following 6 weeks).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 6 of 7 M 18312 / Accounts from NYork are no more favourable, – the Sickness spreads & increases. – All we can do is to prepare in the best manner we can as to the outward, and keep our minds quiet & centered on the All sufficiency of the Power that sent it, & can when he pleases

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

stay the destroying pestilence when he pleases. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 7, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 7 of 7th M / Today the committee met again & came to a conclusion to Vacate the School for the present. In the evening the Scholars were collected in the Lecture room & informed of the conclusion, & the reason of it & much suitable advice was given on the Occasion by Wm Almy Moses Brown & Anna A Jenkins it was a time of solemnity, but we did not get to that state of feeling which was very desirable. – In short life did not rise into dominion as I have sometimes seen & felt it to do. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 8, Sunday: A force of 7,500 Portuguese liberals led by Dom Pedro, former emperor of Brazil, sailing from the Azores, landed unopposed at the mouth of the River Mindelo, north of Porto. Their intention was to place Pedro's daughter Maria, who was deposed in 1828, back on the throne.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 8 of 7 M / Silent Meeting in the Morning In the Afternoon Wm Almy was here & had much to communicate but the life in my mind was at a Low Ebb– Yesterday while the committee was gathering we had a few drips of Rain, some distant Thunder & the Tempest passed off South & appeared to settle over Rhode Island [Aquidneck] – it looked to us that it was very heavy that way – This evening our Neighbour Gideon Palmer came in & informed us that the lightning Struck Job Shermans house in Newport & killed his daughter Rebecca – this is a most solemn & effecting event. – the house was thought to be on fire & in searching for that they found Rebecca at one of the Windows which she had gone too to shut, but the lightning had killed her & her cloaths were on fire. – as they lived next door to Aunt Nancy Carpenter was of course our neighbour. – they were kind affectionate & sincere & we loved them Much. – Rebecca was one of the most useful Girls in sickness & spaired no pains, but applied her bodily strength & other means in rendering assistance where she could – This is a most affecting event in the neighbourhood, the young & old are affectionate & Kind to each other & take much comfort in friendly intercourse. – I feel for my Brothers family who lives opposite & for our dear Aunt Nancy Carpenter who lives next door, about whom I have thought much in the course of this day How Solemn the Truth and how it is realised in this instance – "In the midst of life we are in Death"– Moses Brown attended our evening collection in the Girls part, & had a good deal to say to them in a very lively & appropriate

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

manner - Lydia Breed also preached & was engaged in supplication

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 9, Monday: A force of Portuguese liberals entered Porto unopposed.

Within the US War Department, a "Commissioner of Indian Affairs" office was created.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 9 of 7 M / The accounts from NYork are no more favourable, the pestilence spreads & many flee to places which they hope will be more healthy, but to what, & whom shall we flee. Why, He who directeth its course, will undoubtedly send it where he pleases, & may We be favoured, to rest our hopes & confidence in His holy all protecting Arm. - The times on which we have fallen are indeed, big with great & momentous events, which call with a loud voice to all & on all, to renew their devotion & come up with increased faithfulness to the Cause of Truth & Righteousness

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 11, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 11 of 7 M / Our Meeting was silent & solemn The rumor of Cholera has excited the feelings of thousands. - We are in the Lords hand

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

President Andrew Jackson vetoed the renewal of the charter of the Second Bank of the United States (he claimed the bank was elitist, and favored northeastern interests), thus causing the birth of the Whig Party. Daniel Webster addressed the US Senate:

Mr. President,— No one will deny the high importance of the subject now before us. Congress, after full deliberation and discussion, has passed a bill, by decisive majorities, in both houses, for extending the duration of the Bank of the United States. It has not adopted this measure until its attention had been called to the subject, in three successive annual messages of the President. The bill having been thus passed by both houses, and having been duly presented to the President, instead of signing and approving it, he has returned it with objections. These objections go against the whole substance of the law originally creating the bank. They deny, in effect, that the bank is constitutional; they deny that it is expedient; they deny that it is necessary for the public service. It is not to be doubted, that the Constitution gives the President the power which he has now exercised; but while the power is admitted, the grounds upon which it has been exerted become fit subjects of examination. The Constitution makes it the duty of Congress, in cases like this, to reconsider the measure which they have passed, to weigh the force of the President's objections to that measure, and to take a new vote upon the question.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Before the Senate proceeds to this second vote, I propose to make some remarks upon those objections. And, in the first place, it is to be observed, that they are such as to extinguish all hope that the present bank, or any bank at all resembling it, or resembling any known similar institution, can ever receive his approbation. He states no terms, no qualifications, no conditions, no modifications, which can reconcile him to the essential provisions of the existing charter. He is against the bank, and against any bank constituted in a manner known either to this or any other country. One advantage, therefore, is certainly obtained by presenting him the bill. It has caused the President's sentiments to be made known. There is no longer any mystery, no longer a contest between hope and fear, or between those prophets who predicted a veto and those who foretold an approval. The bill is negatived; the President has assumed the responsibility of putting an end to the bank; and the country must prepare itself to meet that change in its concerns which the expiration of the charter will produce. Mr. President, I will not conceal my opinion that the affairs of the country are approaching an important and dangerous crisis. At the very moment of almost unparalleled general prosperity, there appears an unaccountable disposition to destroy the most useful and most approved institutions of the government. Indeed, it seems to be in the midst of all this national happiness that some are found openly to question the advantages of the Constitution itself and many more ready to embarrass the exercise of its just power, weaken its authority, and undermine its foundations. How far these notions may be carried, it is impossible yet to say. We have before us the practical result of one of them. The bank has fallen, or is to fall.

It is now certain, that, without a change in our public counsels, this bank will not be continued, nor will any other be established, which, according to the general sense and language of mankind, can be entitled to the name. Within three years and nine months from the present moment, the charter of the bank expires; within that period, therefore, it must wind up its concerns. It must call in its debts, withdraw its bills from circulation, and cease from all its ordinary operations. All this is to be done in three years and nine months; because, although there is a provision in the charter rendering it lawful to use the corporate name for two years after the expiration of the charter, yet this is allowed only for the purpose of suits and for the sale of the estate belonging to the bank, and for no other purpose whatever. The whole active business of the bank, its custody of public deposits, its transfer of public moneys, its dealing in exchange, all its loans and discounts, and all its issues of bills for circulation, must cease and determine on or before the third day of March, 1836; and within the same period its debts must be collected, as no new contract can be made with it, as a corporation, for the renewal of loans, or discount of notes or bills, after that time.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

The President is of opinion, that this time is long enough to close the concerns of the institution without inconvenience. His language is, "The time allowed the bank to close its concerns is ample, and if it has been well managed, its pressure will be light, and heavy only in case its management has been bad. If, therefore, it shall produce distress, the fault will be its own." Sir, this is all no more than general statement, without fact or argument to support it. We know what the management of the bank has been, and we know the present state of its affairs. We can judge, therefore, whether it be probable that its capital can be all called in, and the circulation of its bills withdrawn, in three years and nine months, by any discretion or prudence in management, without producing distress. The bank has discounted liberally, in compliance with the wants of the community. The amount due to it on loans and discounts, in certain large divisions of the country, is great; so great, that I do not perceive how any man can believe that it can be paid, within the time now limited, without distress. Let us look at known facts. Thirty millions of the capital of the bank are now out, on loans and discounts, in the States on the Mississippi and its waters; ten millions of which are loaned on the discount of bills of exchange, foreign and domestic, and twenty millions on promissory notes. Now, Sir, how is it possible that this vast amount can be collected in so short a period without suffering, by any management whatever? We are to remember, that, when the collection of this debt begins, at that same time the existing medium of payment, that is, the circulation of the bills of the bank, will begin also to be restrained and withdrawn; and thus the means of payment must be limited just when the necessity of making payment becomes pressing. The whole debt is to be paid, and within the same time the whole circulation withdrawn.

The local banks, where there are such, will be able to afford little assistance; because they themselves will feel a full share of the pressure. They will not be in a condition to extend their discounts, but, in all probability, obliged to curtail them. Whence, then, are the means to come for paying this debt? and in what medium is payment to be made? If all this may be done with but slight pressure on the community, what course of conduct is to accomplish it? How is it to be done? What other thirty millions are to supply the place of these thirty millions now to be called in? What other circulation or medium of payment is to be adopted in the place of the bills of the bank? The message, following a singular train of argument, which had been used in this house, has a loud lamentation upon the suffering of the Western States on account of their being obliged to pay even interest on this debt. This payment of interest is itself represented as exhausting their means and ruinous to their prosperity. But if the interest cannot be paid without pressure, can both interest and principal be paid in four years without pressure? The truth is, the interest has been paid, is paid, and may continue to be paid, without any pressure at all; because the money borrowed is profitably employed by those who borrow it, and the rate of interest which they pay is at least two per cent lower than the actual value of money in that part of the country. But to pay the whole principal in less than four years, losing, at the same time, the existing and accustomed means and facilities of payment created by the bank itself, and to do this without extreme embarrassment, without absolute distress, is, in my judgment, impossible. I hesitate not to say, that, as this veto travels to the West, it will depreciate the value of every man's property from the Atlantic States to the capital of Missouri. Its effects will be felt in the price of lands, the great and leading article of Western property, in the price of crops, in the products of labor, in the repression of enterprise, and in embarrassment to every kind of business and occupation. I state this opinion strongly, because I have no doubt of its truth, and am willing its correctness should be judged by the event. Without personal acquaintance with the Western States, I know enough of their condition to be satisfied that what I have predicted must happen. The people of the West are rich, but their riches consist in their immense quantities of excellent land, in the products of these lands, and in their spirit of enterprise. The actual value of money, or rate of interest, with them is high, because their pecuniary capital bears little proportion to their landed interest. At an average rate, money is not worth less than eight per cent per annum throughout the whole Western country, notwithstanding that it has now a loan or an advance from the bank of thirty millions, at six per cent. To call in this loan, at the rate of eight millions a year, in addition to the interest on the whole, and to take away, at the same time, that circulation which constitutes so great a portion of the medium of payment throughout that whole region, is an operation, which, however wisely conducted, cannot but inflict a blow on the community of tremendous force and frightful consequences. The thing cannot be done without distress, bankruptcy, and ruin, to many. If the President had seen any practical manner in which this change might be effected without producing these consequences, he would have rendered infinite service to the community by pointing it out. But he has pointed out nothing, he has suggested nothing; he contents himself with saying, without giving any reason, that, if the pressure be heavy, the fault will be the bank's. I hope this is not merely an attempt to forestall opinion, and to throw on the bank the responsibility of those evils which threaten the country, for the sake of removing it from himself. The responsibility justly lies with him, and there it ought to remain. A great majority of the people are satisfied with the bank as it is, and desirous that it should be continued. They wished no change. The strength of this public sentiment has carried the bill through Congress, against all the influence of the administration, and all the power of organized party. But

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

the President has undertaken, on his own responsibility, to arrest the measure, by refusing his assent to the bill. He is answerable for the consequences, therefore, which necessarily follow the change which the expiration of the bank charter may produce; and if these consequences shall prove disastrous, they can fairly be ascribed to his policy only, and the policy of his administration.

Although, Sir, I have spoken of the effects of this veto in the Western country, it has not been because I considered that part of the United States exclusively affected by it. Some of the Atlantic States may feel its consequences, perhaps, as sensibly as those of the West, though not for the same reasons. The concern manifested by Pennsylvania for the renewal of the charter shows her sense of the importance of the bank to her own interest, and that of the nation. That great and enterprising State has entered into an extensive system of internal improvements, which necessarily makes heavy demands on her credit and her resources; and by the sound and acceptable currency which the bank affords, by the stability which it gives to private credit, and by occasional advances, made in anticipation of her revenues, and in aid of her great objects, she has found herself benefited, doubtless, in no inconsiderable degree. Her legislature has instructed her Senators here to advocate the renewal of the charter, at this session. They have obeyed her voice, and yet they have the misfortune to find that, in the judgment of the President, the measure is unconstitutional, unnecessary, dangerous to liberty, and is, moreover, ill-timed.

But, Mr. President, it is not the local interest of the West, nor the particular interest of Pennsylvania, or any other State, which has influenced Congress in passing this bill. It has been governed by a wise foresight, and by a desire to avoid embarrassment in the pecuniary concerns of the country, to secure the safe collection and convenient transmission of public moneys, to maintain the circulation of the country, sound and safe as it now happily is, against the possible effects of a wild spirit of speculation. Finding the bank highly useful, Congress has thought fit to provide for its continuance.

As to the time of passing this bill, it would seem to be the last thing to be thought of, as a ground of objection, by the President; since, from the date of his first message to the present time, he has never failed to call our attention to the subject with all possible apparent earnestness. So early as December, 1829, in his message to the two houses, he declares, that he "cannot, in justice to the parties interested, too soon present the subject to the deliberate consideration of the legislature, in order to avoid the evils resulting from precipitancy, in a measure involving such important principles and such deep pecuniary interests." Aware of this early invitation given to Congress to take up the subject, by the President himself, the writer of the message seems to vary the ground of objection, and, instead of complaining that the time of bringing forward this measure was premature, to insist, rather, that, after the report of the committee of the other house, the bank should have withdrawn its application for the present! But that report offers no just ground, surely, for such withdrawal. The subject was before Congress; it was for Congress to decide upon it, with all the light shed by the report; and the question of postponement, having been made in both houses, was lost, by clear majorities, in each. Under such circumstances, it would have been somewhat singular, to say the least, if the bank itself had withdrawn its application. It is indeed known to everybody, that neither the report of the committee, nor any thing contained in that report, was relied on by the opposers of the renewal. If it has been discovered elsewhere, that that report contained matter important in itself, or which should have led to further inquiry, this may be proof of superior sagacity; for certainly no such thing was discerned by either house of Congress.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

But, Sir, do we not now see that it was time, and high time, to press this bill, and to send it to the President? Does not the event teach us, that the measure was not brought forward one moment too early? The time had come when the people wished to know the decision of the administration on the question of the bank? Why conceal it, or postpone its declaration? Why, as in regard to the tariff, give out one set of opinions for the North, and another for the South?

An important election is at hand, and the renewal of the bank charter is a pending object of great interest, and some excitement. Should not the opinions of men high in office, and candidates for re-election, be known on this, as on other important public questions? Certainly, it is to be hoped that the people of the United States are not yet mere man-worshippers, that they do not choose their rulers without some regard to their political principles, or political opinions. Were they to do this, it would be to subject themselves voluntarily to the evils which the hereditary transmission of power, independent of all personal qualifications, inflicts on other nations. They will judge their public servants by their acts, and continue or withhold their confidence, as they shall think it merited, or as they shall think it forfeited. In every point of view, therefore, the moment had arrived, when it became the duty of Congress to come to a result, in regard to this highly important measure. The interests of the government, the interests of the people, the clear and indisputable voice of public opinion, all called upon Congress to act without further loss of time. It has acted, and its act has been negatived by the President; and this result of the proceedings here places the question, with all its connections and all its incidents, fully before the people.

Before proceeding to the constitutional question, there are some other topics, treated in the message, which ought to be noticed. It commences by an inflamed statement of what it calls the "favor" bestowed upon the original bank by the government, or, indeed, as it is phrased, the "monopoly of its favor and support"; and through the whole message all possible changes are rung on the "gratuity," the "exclusive privileges," and "monopoly," of the bank charter. Now, Sir, the truth is, that the powers conferred on the bank are such, and no others, as are usually conferred on similar institutions. They constitute no monopoly, although some of them are of necessity, and with propriety, exclusive privileges. "The original act," says the message, "operated as a gratuity of many millions to the stockholders." What fair foundation is there for this remark? The stockholders received their charter, not gratuitously, but for a valuable consideration in money, prescribed by Congress, and actually paid. At some times the stock has been above par, at other times below par, according to prudence in management, or according to commercial occurrences. But if, by a judicious administration of its affairs, it had kept its stock always above par, what pretence would there be, nevertheless, for saying that such augmentation of its value was a "gratuity" from government? The message proceeds to declare, that the present act proposes another donation, another gratuity, to the same men, of at least seven millions more. It seems to me that this is an extraordinary statement, and an extraordinary style of argument, for such a subject and on such an occasion. In the first place, the facts are all assumed; they are taken for true without evidence. There are no proofs that any benefit to that amount will accrue to the stockholders, nor any experience to justify the expectation of it. It rests on random estimates, or mere conjecture. But suppose the continuance of the charter should prove beneficial to the stockholders; do they not pay for it? They give twice as much for a charter of fifteen years, as was given before for one of twenty. And if the proposed bonus, or premium, be not, in the President's judgment, large enough, would he, nevertheless, on such a mere matter of opinion as that, negative the whole bill? May not Congress be trusted to decide even on such a subject as the amount of the money premium to be received by government for a charter of this kind?

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

But, Sir, there is a larger and a much more just view of this subject. The bill was not passed for the purpose of benefiting the present stockholders. Their benefit, if any, is incidental and collateral. Nor was it passed on any idea that they had a right to a renewed charter, although the message argues against such right, as if it had been somewhere set up and asserted. No such right has been asserted by anybody. Congress passed the bill, not as a bounty or a favor to the present stockholders, nor to comply with any demand of right on their part; but to promote great public interests, for great public objects. Every bank must have some stockholders, unless it be such a bank as the President has recommended, and in regard to which he seems not likely to find much concurrence of other men's opinions; and if the stockholders, whoever they may be, conduct the affairs of the bank prudently, the expectation is always, of course, that they will make it profitable to themselves, as well as useful to the public. If a bank charter is not to be granted, because, to some extent, it may be profitable to the stockholders, no charter can be granted. The objection lies against all banks.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Sir, the object aimed at by such institutions is to connect the public safety and convenience with private interests. It has been found by experience, that banks are safest under private management, and that government banks are among the most dangerous of all inventions. Now, Sir, the whole drift of the message is to reverse the settled judgment of all the civilized world, and to set up government banks, independent of private interest or private control. For this purpose the message labors, even beyond the measure of all its other labors, to create jealousies and prejudices, on the ground of the alleged benefit which individuals will derive from the renewal of this charter. Much less effort is made to show that government, or the public, will be injured by the bill, than that individuals will profit by it. Following up the impulses of the same spirit, the message goes on gravely to allege, that the act, as passed by Congress, proposes to make a present of some millions of dollars to foreigners, because a portion of the stock is held by foreigners. Sir, how would this sort of argument apply to other cases? The President has shown himself not only willing, but anxious, to pay off the three per cent stock of the United States at par, notwithstanding that it is notorious that foreigners are owners of the greater part of it. Why should he not call that a donation to foreigners of many millions?

I will not dwell particularly on this part of the message. Its tone and its arguments are all in the same strain. It speaks of the certain gain of the present stockholders, of the value of the monopoly; it says that all monopolies are granted at the expense of the public; that the many millions which this bill bestows on the stockholders come out of the earnings of the people; that, if government sells monopolies, it ought to sell them in open market; that it is an erroneous idea, that the present stockholders have a prescriptive right either to the favor or the bounty of government; that the stock is in the hands of a few, and that the whole American people are excluded from competition in the purchase of the monopoly. To all this I say, again, that much of it is assumption without proof; much of it is an argument against that which nobody has maintained or asserted; and the rest of it would be equally strong against any charter, at any time. These objections existed in their full strength, whatever that was, against the first bank. They existed, in like manner, against the present bank at its creation, and will always exist against all banks. Indeed, all the fault found with the bill now before us is, that it proposes to continue the bank substantially as it now exists. "All the objectionable principles of the existing corporation," says the message, "and most of its odious features, are retained without alleviation"; so that the message is aimed against the bank, as it has existed from the first, and against any and all others resembling it in its general features.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Allow me, now, Sir, to take notice of an argument founded on the practical operation of the bank. That argument is this. Little of the stock of the bank is held in the West, the capital being chiefly owned by citizens of the Southern and Eastern States, and by foreigners. But the Western and Southwestern States owe the bank a heavy debt, so heavy that the interest amounts to a million six hundred thousand a year. This interest is carried to the Eastern States, or to Europe, annually, and its payment is a burden on the people of the West, and a drain of their currency, which no country can bear without inconvenience and distress. The true character and the whole value of this argument are manifest by the mere statement of it. The people of the West are, from their situation, necessarily large borrowers. They need money, capital, and they borrow it, because they can derive a benefit from its use, much beyond the interest which they pay. They borrow at six per cent of the bank, although the value of money with them is at least as high as eight. Nevertheless, although they borrow at this low rate of interest, and although they use all they borrow thus profitably, yet they cannot pay the interest without "inconvenience and distress"; and then, Sir, follows the logical conclusion, that, although they cannot pay even the interest without inconvenience and distress, yet less than four years is ample time for the bank to call in the whole, both principal and interest, without causing more than a light pressure. This is the argument.

Then follows another, which may be thus stated. It is competent to the States to tax the property of their citizens vested in the stock of this bank; but the power is denied of taxing the stock of foreigners; therefore the stock will be worth ten or fifteen per cent more to foreigners than to residents, and will of course inevitably leave the country, and make the American people debtors to aliens in nearly the whole amount due the bank, and send across the Atlantic from two to five millions of specie every year, to pay the bank dividends.

Mr. President, arguments like these might be more readily disposed of, were it not that the high and official source from which they proceed imposes the necessity of treating them with respect. In the first place, it may safely be denied that the stock of the bank is any more valuable to foreigners than to our own citizens, or an object of greater desire to them, except in so far as capital may be more abundant in the foreign country, and therefore its owners more in want of opportunity of investment. The foreign stockholder enjoys no exemption from taxation. He is, of course, taxed by his own government for his incomes, derived from this as well as other property; and this is a full answer to the whole statement. But it may be added, in the second place, that it is not the practice of civilized states to tax the property of foreigners under such circumstances. Do we tax, or did we ever tax, the foreign holders of our public debt? Does Pennsylvania, New York, or Ohio tax the foreign holders of stock in the loans contracted by either of these States? Certainly not. Sir, I must confess I had little expected to see, on such an occasion as the present, a labored and repeated attempt to produce an impression on the public opinion unfavorable to the bank, from the circumstance that foreigners are among its stockholders. I have no hesitation in saying, that I deem such a train of remark as the message contains on this point, coming from the President of the United States, to be injurious to the credit and character of the country abroad; because it manifests a jealousy, a lurking disposition not to respect the property, of foreigners invited hither by our own laws. And, Sir, what is its tendency but to excite this jealousy, and create groundless prejudices?

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

From the commencement of the government, it has been thought desirable to invite, rather than to repel, the introduction of foreign capital. Our stocks have all been open to foreign subscriptions; and the State banks, in like manner, are free to foreign ownership. Whatever State has created a debt has been willing that foreigners should become purchasers, and desirous of it. How long is it, Sir, since Congress itself passed a law vesting new powers in the President of the United States over the cities in this District, for the very purpose of increasing their credit abroad, the better to enable them to borrow money to pay their subscriptions to the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal? It is easy to say that there is danger to liberty, danger to independence, in a bank open to foreign stockholders, because it is easy to say any thing. But neither reason nor experience proves any such danger. The foreign stockholder cannot be a director. He has no voice even in the choice of directors. His money is placed entirely in the management of the directors appointed by the President and Senate and by the American stockholders. So far as there is dependence or influence either way, it is to the disadvantage of the foreign stockholder. He has parted with the control over his own property, instead of exercising control over the property or over the actions of others. And, Sir, let it now be added, in further answer to this class of objections, that experience has abundantly confuted them all. This government has existed forty-three years, and has maintained, in full being and operation, a bank, such as is now proposed to be renewed, for thirty-six years out of the forty-three. We have never for a moment had a bank not subject to every one of these objections. Always, foreigners might be stockholders; always, foreign stock has been exempt from State taxation, as much as at present; always, the same power and privileges; always, all that which is now called a "monopoly," a "gratuity," a "present," have been possessed by the bank. And yet there has been found no danger to liberty, no introduction of foreign influence, and no accumulation of irresponsible power in a few hands. I cannot but hope, therefore, that the people of the United States will not now yield up their judgment to those notions which would reverse all our best experience, and persuade us to discontinue a useful institution from the influence of vague and unfounded declamation against its danger to the public liberties. Our liberties, indeed, must stand upon very frail foundations, if the government cannot, without endangering them, avail itself of those common facilities, in the collection of its revenues and the management of its finances, which all other governments, in commercial countries, find useful and necessary.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

In order to justify its alarm for the security of our independence, the message supposes a case. It supposes that the bank should pass principally into the hands of the subjects of a foreign country, and that we should be involved in war with that country, and then it exclaims, "What would be our condition?" Why, Sir, it is plain that all the advantages would be on our side. The bank would still be our institution, subject to our own laws, and all its directors elected by ourselves; and our means would be enhanced, not by the confiscation and plunder, but by the proper use, of the foreign capital in our hands. And, Sir, it is singular enough that this very state of war, from which this argument against a bank is drawn, is the very thing which, more than all others, convinced the country and the government of the necessity of a national bank. So much was the want of such an institution felt in the late war, that the subject engaged the attention of Congress, constantly, from the declaration of that war down to the time when the existing bank was actually established; so that in this respect, as well as in others, the argument of the message is directly opposed to the whole experience of the government, and to the general and long-settled convictions of the country.

I now proceed, Sir, to a few remarks upon the President's constitutional objections to the bank; and I cannot forbear to say, in regard to them, that he appears to me to have assumed very extraordinary grounds of reasoning. He denies that the constitutionality of the bank is a settled question. If it be not, will it ever become so, or what disputed question ever can be settled? I have already observed, that for thirty-six years out of the forty-three during which the government has been in being, a bank has existed, such as is now proposed to be continued.

As early as 1791, after great deliberation, the first bank charter was passed by Congress, and approved by President Washington. It established an institution, resembling, in all things now objected to, the present bank. That bank, like this, could take lands in payment of its debts; that charter, like the present, gave the States no power of taxation; it allowed foreigners to hold stock; it restrained Congress from creating other banks. It gave also exclusive privileges, and in all particulars it was, according to the doctrine of the message, as objectionable as that now existing. That bank continued twenty years. In 1816, the present institution was established, and has been ever since in full operation. Now, Sir, the question of the power of Congress to create such institutions has been contested in every manner known to our Constitution and laws. The forms of the government furnish no new mode in which to try

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

this question. It has been discussed over and over again, in Congress; it has been argued and solemnly adjudged in the Supreme Court; every President, except the present, has considered it a settled question; many of the State legislatures have instructed their Senators to vote for the bank; the tribunals of the States, in every instance, have supported its constitutionality; and, beyond all doubt and dispute, the general public opinion of the country has at all times given, and does now give, its full sanction and approbation to the exercise of this power, as being a constitutional power. There has been no opinion questioning the power expressed or intimated, at any time, by either house of Congress, by any President, or by any respectable judicial tribunal. Now, Sir, if this practice of near forty years, if these repeated exercises of the power, if this solemn adjudication of the Supreme Court, with the concurrence and approbation of public opinion, do not settle the question, how is any question ever to be settled, about which any one may choose to raise a doubt? The argument of the message upon the Congressional precedents is either a bold and gross fallacy, or else it is an assertion without proofs, and against known facts. The message admits, that, in 1791, Congress decided in favor of a bank; but it adds, that another Congress, in 1811, decided against it. Now, if it be meant that, in 1811, Congress decided against the bank on constitutional ground, then the assertion is wholly incorrect, and against notorious fact. It is perfectly well known, that many members, in both houses, voted against the bank in 1811, who had no doubt at all of the constitutional power of Congress. They were entirely governed by other reasons given at the time. I appeal, Sir, to the honorable member from Maryland, who was then a member of the Senate, and voted against the bank, whether he, and others who were on the same side, did not give those votes on other well-known grounds, and not at all on constitutional ground?

General Smith here rose, and said, that he voted against the bank in 1811, but not at all on constitutional grounds, and had no doubt such was the case with other members.³⁷⁹

We all know, Sir, the fact to be as the gentleman from Maryland has stated it. Every man who recollects, or who has read, the political occurrences of that day, knows it. Therefore, if the message intends to say, that in 1811 Congress denied the existence of any such constitutional power, the declaration is unwarranted, and altogether at variance with the facts. If, on the other hand, it only intends to say, that Congress decided against the proposition then before it on some other grounds, then it alleges that which is nothing at all to the purpose. The argument, then, either assumes for truth that which is not true, or else the whole statement is immaterial and futile.

But whatever value others may attach to this argument, the
379. Edwin P. Whipple's THE GREAT SPEECHES AND ORATIONS OF DANIEL WEBSTER WITH AN ESSAY ON DANIEL WEBSTER AS A MASTER OF ENGLISH STYLE (Boston: Little, Brown, 1879).

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

message thinks so highly of it, that it proceeds to repeat it. "One Congress," it says, "in 1815, decided against a bank, another, in 1816, decided in its favor. There is nothing in precedent, therefore, which, if its authority were admitted, ought to weigh in favor of the act before me." Now, Sir, since it is known to the whole country, one cannot but wonder how it should remain unknown to the President, that Congress did not decide against a bank in 1815. On the contrary, that very Congress passed a bill for erecting a bank, by very large majorities. In one form, it is true, the bill failed in the House of Representatives; but the vote was reconsidered, the bill recommitted, and finally passed by a vote of one hundred and twenty to thirty-nine. There is, therefore, not only no solid ground, but not even any plausible pretence, for the assertion, that Congress in 1815 decided against the bank. That very Congress passed a bill to create a bank, and its decision, therefore, is precisely the other way, and is a direct practical precedent in favor of the constitutional power. What are we to think of a constitutional argument which deals in this way with historical facts? When the message declares, as it does declare, that there is nothing in precedent which ought to weigh in favor of the power, it sets at naught repeated acts of Congress affirming the power, and it also states other acts, which were in fact, and which are well known to have been, directly the reverse of what the message represents them. There is not, Sir, the slightest reason to think that any Senate or any House of Representatives, ever assembled under the Constitution, contained a majority that doubted the constitutional existence of the power of Congress to establish a bank. Whenever the question has arisen, and has been decided, it has always been decided one way. The legislative precedents all assert and maintain the power; and these legislative precedents have been the law of the land for almost forty years. They settle the construction of the Constitution, and sanction the exercise of the power in question, so far as these effects can ever be produced by any legislative precedents whatever.

But the President does not admit the authority of precedent. Sir, I have always found, that those who habitually deny most vehemently the general force of precedent, and assert most strongly the supremacy of private opinion, are yet, of all men, most tenacious of that very authority of precedent, whenever it happens to be in their favor. I beg leave to ask, Sir, upon what ground, except that of precedent, and precedent alone, the President's friends have placed his power of removal from office. No such power is given by the Constitution, in terms, nor anywhere intimated, throughout the whole of it; no paragraph or clause of that instrument recognizes such a power. To say the least, it is as questionable, and has been as often questioned, as the power of Congress to create a bank; and, enlightened by what has passed under our own observation, we now see that it is of all powers the most capable of flagrant abuse. Now, Sir, I ask again, What becomes of this power, if the authority of precedent be taken away? It has all along been denied to exist; it is nowhere found in the Constitution; and its recent exercise, or, to call things by their right names, its recent abuse, has, more than any other single cause, rendered good men either cool in their affections toward the government of their country, or doubtful of its long continuance. Yet there is precedent in favor of this power, and the President exercises it. We know, Sir, that, without the aid of that precedent, his acts could never have received the sanction of this body, even at a time when his voice was somewhat more potential here than it now is, or, as I trust, ever again will be. Does the President, then, reject the authority of all precedent except what it is suitable to his own purpose to use? And does he use, without stint or measure, all precedents which may augment his own power, or gratify his own wishes?

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

But if the President thinks lightly of the authority of Congress in construing the Constitution, he thinks still more lightly of the authority of the Supreme Court. He asserts a right of individual judgment on constitutional questions, which is totally inconsistent with any proper administration of the government, or any regular execution of the laws. Social disorder, entire uncertainty in regard to individual rights and individual duties, the cessation of legal authority, confusion, the dissolution of free government,—all these are the inevitable consequences of the principles adopted by the message, whenever they shall be carried to their full extent. Hitherto it has been thought that the final decision of constitutional questions belonged to the supreme judicial tribunal. The very nature of free government, it has been supposed, enjoins this; and our Constitution, moreover, has been understood so to provide, clearly and expressly. It is true, that each branch of the legislature has an undoubted right, in the exercise of its functions, to consider the constitutionality of a law proposed to be passed. This is naturally a part of its duty; and neither branch can be compelled to pass any law, or do any other act, which it deems to be beyond the reach of its constitutional power. The President has the same right, when a bill is presented for his approval; for he is, doubtless, bound to consider, in all cases, whether such bill be compatible with the Constitution, and whether he can approve it consistently with his oath of office. But when a law has been passed by Congress, and approved by the President, it is now no longer in the power, either of the same President, or his successors, to say whether the law is constitutional or not. He is not at liberty to disregard it; he is not at liberty to feel or to affect "constitutional scruples," and to sit in judgment himself on the validity of a statute of the government, and to nullify it, if he so chooses. After a law has passed through all the requisite forms; after it has received the requisite legislative sanction and the executive approval, the question of its constitutionality then becomes a judicial question, and a judicial question alone. In the courts that question may be raised, argued, and adjudged; it can be adjudged nowhere else. The President is as much bound by the law as any private citizen, and can no more contest its validity than any private citizen. He may refuse to obey the law, and so may a private citizen; but both do it at their own peril, and neither of them can settle the question of its validity. The President may say a law is unconstitutional, but he is not the judge. Who is to decide that question? The judiciary alone possesses this unquestionable and hitherto unquestioned right. The judiciary is the constitutional tribunal of appeal for the citizens, against both Congress and the executive, in regard to the constitutionality of laws. It has this jurisdiction expressly conferred upon it, and when it has decided the question, its judgment must, from the very nature of all judgments that are final, and from which there is no appeal, be conclusive. Hitherto, this opinion, and a correspondent practice, have prevailed, in America, with all wise and considerate men. If it were otherwise, there would be no government of laws; but we should all live under the government, the rule, the caprices, of individuals. If we depart from the observance of these salutary principles, the executive power becomes at once purely despotic; for the President, if the principle and the reasoning of the message be sound, may either execute or not execute the laws of the land, according to his sovereign pleasure. He may refuse to put into execution one law, pronounced valid by all branches of the government, and yet execute another, which may have been by constitutional authority pronounced void.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

On the argument of the message, the President of the United States holds, under a new pretence and a new name, a dispensing power over the laws as absolute as was claimed by James the Second of England, a month before he was compelled to fly the kingdom. That which is now claimed by the President is in truth nothing less, and nothing else, than the old dispensing power asserted by the kings of England in the worst of times; the very climax, indeed, of all the preposterous pretensions of the Tudor and the Stuart races. According to the doctrines put forth by the President, although Congress may have passed a law, and although the Supreme Court may have pronounced it constitutional, yet it is, nevertheless, no law at all, if he, in his good pleasure, sees fit to deny it effect; in other words, to repeal and annul it. Sir, no President and no public man ever before advanced such doctrines in the face of the nation. There never before was a moment in which any President would have been tolerated in asserting such a claim to despotic power. After Congress has passed the law, and after the Supreme Court has pronounced its judgment on the very point in controversy, the President has set up his own private judgment against its constitutional interpretation. It is to be remembered, Sir, that it is the present law, it is the act of 1816, it is the present charter of the bank, which the President pronounces to be unconstitutional. It is no bank to be created, it is no law proposed to be passed, which he denounces; it is the law now existing, passed by Congress, approved by President Madison, and sanctioned by a solemn judgment of the Supreme Court, which he now declares unconstitutional, and which, of course, so far as it may depend on him, cannot be executed. If these opinions of the President be maintained, there is an end of all law and all judicial authority. Statutes are but recommendations, judgments no more than opinions. Both are equally destitute of binding force. Such a universal power as is now claimed for him, a power of judging over the laws and over the decisions of the judiciary, is nothing else but pure despotism. If conceded to him, it makes him at once what Louis the Fourteenth proclaimed himself to be when he said, "I am the State."

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

The Supreme Court has unanimously declared and adjudged that the existing bank is created by a constitutional law of Congress. As has been before observed, this bank, so far as the present question is concerned, is like that which was established in 1791 by Washington, and sanctioned by the great men of that day. In every form, therefore, in which the question can be raised, it has been raised and has been settled. Every process and every mode of trial known to the Constitution and laws have been exhausted, and always and without exception the decision has been in favor of the validity of the law. But all this practice, all this precedent, all this public approbation, all this solemn adjudication directly on the point, is to be disregarded and rejected, and the constitutional power flatly denied. And, Sir, if we are startled at this conclusion, our surprise will not be lessened when we examine the argument by which it is maintained. By the Constitution, Congress is authorized to pass all laws "necessary and proper" for carrying its own legislative powers into effect. Congress has deemed a bank to be "necessary and proper" for these purposes, and it has therefore established a bank. But although the law has been passed, and the bank established, and the constitutional validity of its charter solemnly adjudged, yet the President pronounces it unconstitutional, because some of the powers bestowed on the bank are, in his opinion, not necessary or proper. It would appear that powers which in 1791 and in 1816, in the time of Washington and in the time of Madison, were deemed "necessary and proper," are no longer to be so regarded, and therefore the bank is unconstitutional. It has really come to this, that the constitutionality of a bank is to depend upon the opinion which one particular man may form of the utility or necessity of some of the clauses in its charter! If that individual chooses to think that a particular power contained in the charter is not necessary to the proper constitution of the bank, then the act is unconstitutional!

Hitherto it has always been supposed that the question was of a very different nature. It has been thought that the policy of granting a particular charter may be materially dependent on the structure and organization and powers of the proposed institution. But its general constitutionality has never before been understood to turn on such points. This would be making its constitutionality depend on subordinate questions; on questions of expediency and questions of detail; upon that which one man may think necessary, and another may not. If the constitutional question were made to hinge on matters of this kind, how could it ever be decided? All would depend on conjecture; on the complexional feeling, on the prejudices, on the passions, of individuals; on more or less practical skill or correct judgment in regard to banking operations among those who should be the judges; on the impulse of momentary interests, party objects, or personal purposes. Put the question in this manner to a court of seven judges, to decide whether a particular bank was constitutional, and it might be doubtful whether they could come to any result, as they might well hold very various opinions on the practical utility of many clauses of the charter.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

The question in that case would be, not whether the bank, in its general frame, character, and objects, was a proper instrument to carry into effect the powers of the government, but whether the particular powers, direct or incidental, conferred on a particular bank, were better calculated than all others to give success to its operations. For if not, then the charter, according to this sort of reasoning, would be unwarranted by the Constitution. This mode of construing the Constitution is certainly a novel discovery. Its merits belong entirely to the President and his advisers. According to this rule of interpretation, if the President should be of opinion, that the capital of the bank was larger, by a thousand dollars, than it ought to be; or that the time for the continuance of the charter was a year too long; or that it was unnecessary to require it, under penalty, to pay specie; or needless to provide for punishing, as forgery, the counterfeiting of its bills,—either of these reasons would be sufficient to render the charter, in his opinion, unconstitutional, invalid, and nugatory. This is a legitimate conclusion from the argument. Such a view of the subject has certainly never before been taken. This train of reasoning has hitherto not been heard within the halls of Congress, nor has any one ventured upon it before the tribunals of justice. The first exhibition, its first appearance, as an argument, is in a message of the President of the United States. According to that mode of construing the Constitution which was adopted by Congress in 1791, and approved by Washington, and which has been sanctioned by the judgment of the Supreme Court, and affirmed by the practice of nearly forty years, the question upon the constitutionality of the bank involves two inquiries. First, whether a bank, in its general character, and with regard to the general objects with which banks are usually connected, be, in itself, a fit means, a suitable instrument, to carry into effect the powers granted to the government. If it be so, then the second, and the only other question is, whether the powers given in a particular charter are appropriate for a bank. If they are powers which are appropriate for a bank, powers which Congress may fairly consider to be useful to the bank or the country, then Congress may confer these powers; because the discretion to be exercised in framing the constitution of the bank belongs to Congress. One man may think the granted powers not indispensable to the particular bank; another may suppose them injudicious, or injurious; a third may imagine that other powers, if granted in their stead, would be more beneficial; but all these are matters of expediency, about which men may differ; and the power of deciding upon them belongs to Congress.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

I again repeat, Sir, that if, for reasons of this kind, the President sees fit to negative a bill, on the ground of its being inexpedient or impolitic, he has a right to do so. But remember, Sir, that we are now on the constitutional question; remember that the argument of the President is, that, because powers were given to the bank by the charter of 1816 which he thinks unnecessary, that charter is unconstitutional. Now, Sir, it will hardly be denied, or rather it was not denied or doubted before this message came to us, that, if there was to be a bank, the powers and duties of that bank must be prescribed in the law creating it. Nobody but Congress, it has been thought, could grant these powers and privileges, or prescribe their limitations. It is true, indeed, that the message pretty plainly intimates, that the President should have been first consulted, and that he should have had the framing of the bill; but we are not yet accustomed to that order of things in enacting laws, nor do I know a parallel to this claim, thus now brought forward, except that, in some peculiar cases in England, highly affecting the royal prerogative, the assent of the monarch is necessary before either the House of Peers, or his Majesty's faithful Commons, are permitted to act upon the subject, or to entertain its consideration. But supposing, Sir, that our accustomed forms and our republican principles are still to be followed, and that a law creating a bank is, like all other laws, to originate with Congress, and that the President has nothing to do with it till it is presented for his approval, then it is clear that the powers and duties of a proposed bank, and all the terms and conditions annexed to it, must, in the first place, be settled by Congress.

This power, if constitutional at all, is only constitutional in the hands of Congress. Anywhere else, its exercise would be plain usurpation. If, then, the authority to decide what powers ought to be granted to a bank belong to Congress, and Congress shall have exercised that power, it would seem little better than absurd to say, that its act, nevertheless would be unconstitutional and invalid, if, in the opinion of a third party, it had misjudged, on a question of expediency, in the arrangement of details. According to such a mode of reasoning, a mistake in the exercise of jurisdiction takes away the jurisdiction. If Congress decide right, its decision may stand; if it decide wrong, its decision is nugatory; and whether its decision be right or wrong, another is to judge, although the original power of making the decision must be allowed to be exclusively in Congress. This is the end to which the argument of the message will conduct its followers.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Sir, in considering the authority of Congress to invest the bank with the particular powers granted to it, the inquiry is not, and cannot be, how appropriate these powers are, but whether they be at all appropriate; whether they come within the range of a just and honest discretion; whether Congress may fairly esteem them to be necessary. The question is not, Are they the fittest means, the best means? or whether the bank might not be established without them; but the question is, Are they such as Congress, bona fide, may have regarded as appropriate to the end? If any other rule were to be adopted, nothing could ever be settled. A law would be constitutional to-day and unconstitutional to-morrow. Its constitutionality would altogether depend upon individual opinion on a matter of mere expediency. Indeed, such a case as that is now actually before us. Mr. Madison deemed the powers given to the bank, in its present charter, proper and necessary. He held the bank, therefore, to be constitutional. But the present President, not acknowledging that the power of deciding on these points rests with Congress, nor with Congress and the then President, but setting up his own opinion as the standard, declares the law now in being unconstitutional, because the powers granted by it are, in his estimation, not necessary and proper. I pray to be informed, Sir, whether, upon similar grounds of reasoning, the President's own scheme for a bank, if Congress should do so unlikely a thing as to adopt it, would not become unconstitutional also, if it should so happen that his successor should hold his bank in as light esteem as he holds those established under the auspices of Washington and Madison?

If the reasoning of the message be well founded, it is clear that the charter of the existing bank is not a law. The bank has no legal existence; it is not responsible to government; it has no authority to act; it is incapable of being an agent; the President may treat it as a nullity to-morrow, withdraw from it all the public deposits, and set afloat all the existing national arrangements of revenue and finance. It is enough to state these monstrous consequences, to show that the doctrine, principles, and pretensions of the message are entirely inconsistent with a government of laws. If that which Congress has enacted, and the Supreme Court has sanctioned, be not the law of the land, then the reign of law has ceased, and the reign of individual opinion has already begun.

The President, in his commentary on the details of the existing bank charter, undertakes to prove that one provision, and another provision, is not necessary and proper; because, as he thinks, the same objects proposed to be accomplished by them might have been better attained in another mode; and therefore such provisions are not necessary, and so not warranted by the Constitution. Does not this show, that, according to his own mode of reasoning, his own scheme would not be constitutional, since another scheme, which probably most people would think a better one, might be substituted for it? Perhaps, in any bank charter, there may be no provisions which may be justly regarded as absolutely indispensable; since it is probable that for any of them some others might be substituted. No bank, therefore, ever could be established; because there never has been, and never could be, any charter, of which every provision should appear to be indispensable, or necessary and proper, in the judgment of every individual. To admit, therefore, that there may be a constitutional bank, and yet to contend for such a mode of judging of its provisions and details as the message adopts, involves an absurdity. Any charter which may be framed may be taken up, and each power conferred by it successively denied, on the ground, that, in regard to each, either no such power is "necessary or proper" in a bank, or, which is the same thing in effect, some other power might be substituted for it, and supply its place. That can never be necessary, in the sense in which the message understands that term, which may be dispensed with; and it cannot be said that any power may not be dispensed with, if there be some other which might be substituted for it, and which would accomplish the same end. Therefore, no bank could ever be constitutional, because none could be established which should not contain some provisions which might have been omitted, and their place supplied by others.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Mr. President, I have understood the true and well-established doctrine to be, that, after it has been decided that it is competent for Congress to establish a bank, then it follows that it may create such a bank as it judges, in its discretion, to be best, and invest it with all such power as it may deem fit and suitable; with this limitation, always, that all is to be done in the bona fide execution of the power to create a bank. If the granted powers are appropriate to the professed end, so that the granting of them cannot be regarded as usurpation of authority by Congress, or an evasion of constitutional restrictions, under color of establishing a bank, then the charter is constitutional, whether these powers be thought indispensable by others or not, or whether even Congress itself deemed them absolutely indispensable, or only thought them fit and suitable, or whether they are more or less appropriate to their end. It is enough that they are appropriate; it is enough that they are suited to produce the effects designed; and no comparison is to be instituted, in order to try their constitutionality, between them and others which may be suggested. A case analogous to the present is found in the constitutional power of Congress over the mail. The Constitution says no more than that "Congress shall have power to establish post-offices and post-roads"; and, in the general clause, "all powers necessary and proper" to give effect to this. In the execution of this power, Congress has protected the mail, by providing that robbery of it shall be punished with death. Is this infliction of capital punishment constitutional? Certainly it is not, unless it be both "proper and necessary." The President may not think it necessary or proper; the law, then, according to the system of reasoning enforced by the message, is of no binding force, and the President may disobey it, and refuse to see it executed.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

The truth is, Mr. President, that if the general object, the subject-matter, properly belong to Congress, all its incidents belong to Congress also. If Congress is to establish post-offices and post-roads, it may, for that end, adopt one set of regulations or another; and either would be constitutional. So the details of one bank are as constitutional as those of another, if they are confined fairly and honestly to the purpose of organizing the institution, and rendering it useful. One bank is as constitutional as another bank. If Congress possesses the power to make a bank, it possesses the power to make it efficient, and competent to produce the good expected from it. It may clothe it with all such power and privileges, not otherwise inconsistent with the Constitution, as may be necessary, in its own judgment, to make it what government deems it should be. It may confer on it such immunities as may induce individuals to become stockholders, and to furnish the capital; and since the extent of these immunities and privileges is matter of discretion, and matter of opinion, Congress only can decide it, because Congress alone can frame or grant the charter. A charter, thus granted to individuals, becomes a contract with them, upon their compliance with its terms. The bank becomes an agent, bound to perform certain duties, and entitled to certain stipulated rights and privileges, in compensation for the proper discharge of these duties; and all these stipulations, so long as they are appropriate to the object professed, and not repugnant to any other constitutional injunction, are entirely within the competency of Congress. And yet, Sir, the message of the President toils through all the commonplace topics of monopoly, the right of taxation, the suffering of the poor, and the arrogance of the rich, with as much painful effort, as if one, or another, or all of them, had something to do with the constitutional question.

What is called the "monopoly" is made the subject of repeated rehearsal, in terms of special complaint. By this "monopoly," I suppose, is understood the restriction contained in the charter, that Congress shall not, during the twenty years, create another bank. Now, Sir, let me ask, Who would think of creating a bank, inviting stockholders into it, with large investments, imposing upon it heavy duties, as connected with the government, receiving some millions of dollars as a bonus or premium, and yet retaining the power of granting, the next day, another charter, which would destroy the whole value of the first? If this be an unconstitutional restraint on Congress, the Constitution must be strangely at variance with the dictates both of good sense and sound morals. Did not the first Bank of the United States contain a similar restriction? And have not the States granted bank charters with a condition, that, if the charter should be accepted, they would not grant others? States have certainly done so; and, in some instances, where no bonus or premium was paid at all; but from the mere desire to give effect to the charter, by inducing individuals to accept it and organize the institution. The President declares that this restriction is not necessary to the efficiency of the bank; but that is the very thing which Congress and his predecessor in office were called on to decide, and which they did decide, when the one passed and the other approved the act. And he has now no more authority to pronounce his judgment on that act than any other individual in society. It is not his province to decide on the constitutionality of statutes which Congress has passed, and his predecessors approved.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

There is another sentiment in this part of the message, which we should hardly have expected to find in a paper which is supposed, whoever may have drawn it up, to have passed under the review of professional characters. The message declares, that this limitation to create no other bank is unconstitutional, because, although Congress may use the discretion vested in them, "they may not limit the discretion of their successors." This reason is almost too superficial to require an answer. Every one at all accustomed to the consideration of such subjects knows that every Congress can bind its successors to the same extent that it can bind itself. The power of Congress is always the same; the authority of law always the same. It is true, we speak of the Twentieth Congress and the Twenty-first Congress, but this is only to denote the period of time, or to mark the successive organizations of the House of Representatives under the successive periodical election of its members. As a politic body, as the legislative power of the government, Congress is always continuous, always identical. A particular Congress, as we speak of it, for instance, the present Congress, can no farther restrain itself from doing what it may choose to do at the next session, than it can restrain any succeeding Congress from doing what it may choose. Any Congress may repeal the act or law of its predecessor, if in its nature it be repealable, just as it may repeal its own act; and if a law or an act be irrepealable in its nature, it can no more be repealed by a subsequent Congress than by that which passed it. All this is familiar to everybody. And Congress, like every other legislature, often passes acts which, being in the nature of grants or contracts, are irrepealable ever afterwards. The message, in a strain of argument which it is difficult to treat with ordinary respect, declares that this restriction on the power of Congress, as to the establishment of other banks, is a palpable attempt to amend the Constitution by an act of legislation. The reason on which this observation purports to be founded is, that Congress, by the Constitution, is to have exclusive legislation over the District of Columbia; and when the bank charter declares that Congress will create no new bank within the District, it annuls this power of exclusive legislation! I must say, that this reasoning hardly rises high enough to entitle it to a passing notice. It would be doing it too much credit to call it plausible. No one needs to be informed that exclusive power of legislation is not unlimited power of legislation; and if it were, how can that legislative power be unlimited that cannot restrain itself, that cannot bind itself by contract? Whether as a government or as an individual, that being is fettered and restrained which is not capable of binding itself by ordinary obligation. Every legislature binds itself, whenever it makes a grant, enters into a contract, bestows an office, or does any other act or thing which is in its nature irrevocable. And this, instead of detracting from its legislative power, is one of the modes of exercising that power. The legislative power of Congress over the District of Columbia would not be full and complete, if it might not make just such a stipulation as the bank charter contains.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

As to the taxing power of the States, about which the message says so much, the proper answer to all it says is, that the States possess no power to tax any instrument of the government of the United States. It was no part of their power before the Constitution, and they derive no such power from any of its provisions. It is nowhere given to them. Could a State tax the coin of the United States at the mint? Could a State lay a stamp tax on the process of the courts of the United States, and on custom-house papers? Could it tax the transportation of the mail, or the ships of war, or the ordnance, or the muniments of war, of the United States? The reason that these cannot be taxed by a State is, that they are means and instruments of the government of the United States. The establishment of a bank exempt from State taxation takes away no existing right in a State. It leaves it all it ever possessed. But the complaint is, that the bank charter does not confer the power of taxation. This, certainly, though not a new, (for the same argument was urged here,) appears to me to be a strange, mode of asserting and maintaining State rights. The power of taxation is a sovereign power; and the President and those who think with him are of opinion, in a given case, that this sovereign power should be conferred on the States by an act of Congress. There is, if I mistake not, Sir, as little compliment to State sovereignty in this idea, as there is of sound constitutional doctrine. Sovereign rights held under the grant of an act of Congress present a proposition quite new in constitutional law.

The President himself even admits that an instrument of the government of the United States ought not, as such, to be taxed by the States; yet he contends for such a power of taxing property connected with this instrument, and essential to its very being, as places its whole existence in the pleasure of the States. It is not enough that the States may tax all the property of all their own citizens, wherever invested or however employed. The complaint is, that the power of State taxation does not reach so far as to take cognizance over persons out of the State, and to tax them for a franchise lawfully exercised under the authority of the United States. Sir, when did the power of the States, or indeed of any government, go to such an extent as that? Clearly never. The taxing power of all communities is necessarily and justly limited to the property of its own citizens, and to the property of others, having a distinct local existence as property, within its jurisdiction; it does not extend to rights and franchises, rightly exercised, under the authority of other governments, nor to persons beyond its jurisdiction. As the Constitution has left the taxing power of the States, so the bank charter leaves it. Congress has not undertaken either to take away, or to confer, a taxing power; nor to enlarge, or to restrain it; if it were to do either, I hardly know which of the two would be the least excusable.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

I beg leave to repeat, Mr. President, that what I have now been considering are the President's objections, not to the policy or expediency, but to the constitutionality, of the bank; and not to the constitutionality of any new or proposed bank, but of the bank as it now is, and as it has long existed. If the President had declined to approve this bill because he thought the original charter unwisely granted, and the bank, in point of policy and expediency, objectionable or mischievous, and in that view only had suggested the reasons now urged by him, his argument, however inconclusive, would have been intelligible, and not, in its whole frame and scope, inconsistent with all well-established first principles. His rejection of the bill, in that case, would have been, no doubt, an extraordinary exercise of power; but it would have been, nevertheless, the exercise of a power belonging to his office, and trusted by the Constitution to his discretion. But when he puts forth an array of arguments such as the message employs, not against the expediency of the bank, but against its constitutional existence, he confounds all distinctions, mixes questions of policy and questions of right together, and turns all constitutional restraints into mere matters of opinion. As far as its power extends, either in its direct effects or as a precedent, the message not only unsettles every thing which has been settled under the Constitution, but would show, also, that the Constitution itself is utterly incapable of any fixed construction or definite interpretation, and that there is no possibility of establishing, by its authority, any practical limitations on the powers of the respective branches of the government.

When the message denies, as it does, the authority of the Supreme Court to decide on constitutional questions, it effects, so far as the opinion of the President and his authority can effect it, a complete change in our government. It does two things: first, it converts constitutional limitations of power into mere matters of opinion, and then it strikes the judicial department, as an efficient department, out of our system. But the message by no means stops even at this point. Having denied to Congress the authority of judging what powers may be constitutionally conferred on a bank, and having erected the judgment of the President himself into a standard by which to try the constitutional character of such powers, and having denounced the authority of the Supreme Court to decide finally on constitutional questions, the message proceeds to claim for the President, not the power of approval, but the primary power, the power of originating laws. The President informs Congress, that he would have sent them such a charter, if it had been properly asked for, as they ought to confer. He very plainly intimates, that, in his opinion, the establishment of all laws, of this nature at least, belongs to the functions of the executive government; and that Congress ought to have waited for the manifestation of the executive will, before it presumed to touch the subject. Such, Mr. President, stripped of their disguises, are the real pretences set up in behalf of the executive power in this most extraordinary paper.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Mr. President, we have arrived at a new epoch. We are entering on experiments, with the government and the Constitution of the country, hitherto untried, and of fearful and appalling aspect. This message calls us to the contemplation of a future which little resembles the past. Its principles are at war with all that public opinion has sustained, and all which the experience of the government has sanctioned. It denies first principles; it contradicts truths, heretofore received as indisputable. It denies to the judiciary the interpretation of law, and claims to divide with Congress the power of originating statutes. It extends the grasp of executive pretension over every power of the government. But this is not all. It presents the chief magistrate of the Union in the attitude of arguing away the powers of that government over which he has been chosen to preside; and adopting for this purpose modes of reasoning which, even under the influence of all proper feeling towards high official station, it is difficult to regard as respectable. It appeals to every prejudice which may betray men into a mistaken view of their own interests, and to every passion which may lead them to disobey the impulses of their understanding. It urges all the specious topics of State rights and national encroachment against that which a great majority of the States have affirmed to be rightful, and in which all of them have acquiesced. It sows, in an unsparing manner, the seeds of jealousy and ill-will against that government of which its author is the official head. It raises a cry, that liberty is in danger, at the very moment when it puts forth claims to powers heretofore unknown and unheard of. It affects alarm for the public freedom, when nothing endangers that freedom so much as its own unparalleled pretences. This, even, is not all. It manifestly seeks to inflame the poor against the rich; it wantonly attacks whole classes of the people, for the purpose of turning against them the prejudices and the resentments of other classes. It is a state paper which finds no topic too exciting for its use, no passion too inflammable for its address and its solicitation.

Such is this message. It remains now for the people of the United States to choose between the principles here avowed and their government. These cannot subsist together. The one or the other must be rejected. If the sentiments of the message shall receive general approbation, the Constitution will have perished even earlier than the moment which its enemies originally allowed for the termination of its existence. It will not have survived to its fiftieth year.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

July 14, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 14th of 7 M 1832 / The sub-committee met this Afternoon & found the School reduced to about 16 of a side & not finding much to do, did not set long, & adjourned to next 7th day. - This afternoon recd a very good letter from Sister Ruth - & Also one from our dear son John.- it appears he has lately been to Albany & witnessed the progress of several cases of Cholera, & the examination of one after death, - I feel sorry he should expose himself to the infection unnecessarily. - but I must leave it, he is in the hands of Him who governs all things & will do right

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 15, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 15th of 7 M / Our Meeting was smaller than I ever saw it in this House - it was a time of much solemnity in the Morning Anna A Jenkins attended & was engaged in a very solemn testimony & also in Supplication. - it was a time not soon to be forgotten by most that were present. - Thos Howland was also at Meeting - In the Afternoon we were silent but solid & rather solemn - Abraham Tucker was at Meeting with us. - Our collection in the school was also a time of seriousness.-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 23, Monday: A flow of lava came out of Mount Vesuvius toward Ottaviano ed Eremo.

MOUNT VESUVIUS

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 23 of 7 M 1832 / No other person appearing to be a leisure to accompany Joseph Bowne on his proposed visit to the Meetings to the South in this Qrty Meeting I set out with him this Morning & attended Meeting at Cranston & then rode to Asa Sissons to dinner & attended another appointed Meeting in the Afternoon at Greenwich & lodged at Daniel Howlands. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

→ July 24, Tuesday: George Bradford Bartlett was born, the 6th child of Dr. Josiah Bartlett and Martha Tilden Bradford Bartlett of Concord (per other accounts, he was born on July 19th of this year, or July 7th of the following one).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day attended an appointed Meeting at Wickford & dined at Avis & Ann Smiths then rode to So Kingston & lodged at James Robinsons &c. - 4th day had an appointed Meeting at Tower Hill Meeting -Dined at John B Dockrays & took tea at Wm Robinsons & returned to J B Dockrays to lodge

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

→ July 25, Wednesday: The initial deaths due to the Asiatic cholera in Newport, Rhode Island.

→ July 26, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5 day had an appointed Meeting at Western Meeting House - on our way to it stoped at the house of our friend Amy Knowles & at Christo[pher] Brownells, at this House he told us Geo Fox had a Meeting before the Meeting House was built - after the Meeting we dined at Hezekiah Babcocks & then went on to Kingston (formerly Little Rest) & attended an appointed Meeting at that place held in the Presbyterian Meeting House & lodged at John T Nichols's

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

→ July 28, Saturday: A correspondent to The New-York Mirror: A Weekly Journal, Devoted to Literature and the Fine Arts had recently toured the general burying-ground situated upon a pretty slope with a view of the harbor at the upper end of the town of Newport, Rhode Island. He of course reported on the granite obelisk that had been there erected to the memory of Commodore Oliver Hazard Perry, who had died of the yellow fever at sea in 1819 — a monument which had not as yet been inscribed with his name and would not for many decades sport the present bronze statue:

It is, as yet, unfinished at the base. His remains were reinterred last fall, between those of his child and his father and mother. There is nothing to mark the spot where the commodore and his child lie, but two small mounds of earth, already overgrown with briars. It is intended, I understand, to disinter and bury him near his monument. There are two plain marble slabs over the spot where the commodore's father and mother are buried. The inscriptions are simply that Christopher Perry, a captain in the United States navy, died June first, 1818, aged fifty-nine years; that Sarah Perry, died December fourth, 1830, aged sixty-two years. At this place I could not avoid reflecting that there, mouldered into dust, lies the gallant hero of Erie. I imagined him on his favorite element, in the pride and glory of his youth, hurling death and defiance at a foe claiming to be mistress of the ocean; I saw him leaving a ship, that had done more then [sic] her duty, in an open boat, amidst showers of shot, waving his banner proudly in the air. In my mind's eye I beheld him trying his fortunes anew in another ship, manoeuvring [sic] the enemy according to his own tactics, breaking his line, and from starboard and larboard dealing out his slaughtering messengers to a gallant but inveterate foe, until the lion crouched beneath the pinions of the eagle, and owned his supremacy; but these things have ceased to be – the grasshopper and cricket alone chant his requiem, amid the solitude of this rural and interesting abode of the dead; but let him rest, "Au plaisir fort de Dieu."

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Then his attention had been attracted, he reported, by a tombstone near the centre of the enclosure, and with difficulty he had deciphered the following:

Here lyeth the body of John Cranston, Esq. Governor of the colony of Rhode Island, &c. He departed this life March twelfth 1683, in the fifty-fifth year of his age.³⁸⁰

Beside this inscription, on the same stone, he deciphered the following (with blanks left for words quite obliterated by time):

Here lyeth the body of Samuel Cranston, Esq. Late governor of this colony, aged sixty-eight years, and departed this life March the twenty-sixth, A. D. 1727. He was son to John Cranston, Esq. who also was governor here in 1680. He is descended from the noble Scottish Lord Cranston, and carried in his veins the stream of the ancient blood of Crawford, Bothwell, and _____; having had for his grandfather clerk chaplain of king Charles the first; his great grandfather was John Cranston, of _____; this last was son to James Cranston, Esq. Which James was son to William Lord Cranston.³⁸¹

"_____ happy now brave Briton without end,
Thy country's father and thy country's friend."

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould recorded in his journal:

380. By another account, considerably more accurate, this inscription reads instead as follows:

Here lyeth interred the body of Major John Cranston esq. Governor who deceased this life the 12 day of March in the 55th year of his age, 1680.

381. By another account, somewhat more accurate, this inscription reads instead as follows:

Here lies the body of Samuel Cranston, Esq., late Governour of this colony; aged 68 years; and departed this life April ye 26, A.D. 1727. He was the son of John Cranston, Esq., who was also Governour here, 1680. He was decended from the noble Scottish Lord Cranston, and carried in his veins a stream of the ancient Earls of Crawford, Bothwell, and Traquairs. Having had for his grandfather James Cranston, clerk, Chaplain to King Charles the First. His great-grandfather was John Cranston, of Bool, Esq. This last was son to James Cranston, Esq., which James was son to William Lord Cranston.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

6th day [Friday] had a Meeting at Richmon [Richmond] at this Meeting three women attended having their infants in their Arms & the one of them was restless & cryed, it was seemingly no disturbance - We rode aftermeeting [sic] about ten Miles to Jabez Collins's & dined & from thence to Abel Collins's in Stonington & on 7 day [Saturday] we had a Meeting in the New Meeting House which friends have just built in Hopkinton. - & dined at Ethan Fosters - then rode to Coventry & lodged at Perez Pecks. -

On first day [Sunday] I attended Meeting there with Joseph & after dinner left him & returned to the Institution & Joseph went on attended by Perez to Warwick to attend a Meeting appointed there at 5 OClock. -

All the Meetings have been seasons of great favour the people being very attentive & Joseph remarked that he had rarely attended a course of Meetings where there appeared to be greater seriousness & more tenderness of spirit

I may here acknowledge that I have never before been out on so extensive a journey of the kind - & am well paid for it

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 1, Wednesday: People began to die of the Asiatic cholera in Providence, Rhode Island.

In 1828 it had been enacted that murderers were to be executed in England the day next but one after their sentencing, and their bodies dissected or hung in chains. At this point the dissection clause was rescinded (in 1834 the hanging-in-chains clause would also be rescinded).

In England it was decided that the distillation of spirits from mangold wurzel was to be permitted.

The "British Band" of Fox and Sac under the general leadership of headman Black Hawk arrived at the junction of the Bad Axe River and the Mississippi, and disagreement broke out. Black Hawk was trying to lead his people north to find refuge among the Ho-Chunk (Winnebago), but most of this band chose instead to attempt a crossing of the Mississippi. During the crossing the steamship Warrior opened fire on the band, killing 23.

"...the merciless Indian Savages, whose known rule of warfare, is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes and conditions."

- Declaration of Independence

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 August 8, Wednesday: A flow of lava came out of Mount Vesuvius toward the West.

MOUNT VESUVIUS

The Greek National Assembly voted Prince Otto of Bavaria as King of Greece.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 8 M 1 1832 / Rode to Portsmouth this Mornng & attended the Select Quarterly Meeting - We went to Uncle Stantons Dined & lodged - 5th day attended the Meeting at large & then returned to Providence. - In our Absence several cases of Cholera appeared in the town near the Steam Factory on the West side of the River - this appeared Serious & Alarming. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 August 12, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 12th of 8th M 1832 / Our family Meetings have been poor & low seasons this week - At our collection in the boys School room this evening my mind was favourd with more of a Solemn covering than I have experienced in some time for which I desire to be thankful

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 August 14, Tuesday: Melchor Eca y Muzquiz replaced Anastasio Bustamante y Osegera as acting President of Mexico.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 14th of 8 M 1832 / Thomas Howland came last evening, staid all night, & this Morning set out in the Stage for Lynn to attend The Quarterly Meeting to be held there this Week. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 August 19, Sunday: Unable to resolve the Falklands dispute, US charge d'affaires Robert Baylies departed Buenos Aires for home.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 19th of 8th M 1832 / Last eveng Thos Howland returned from Lynn & passed the day with us & attended our Meetings, & the Collection of the family in the eveng - at the close of which he encouraged us to continue in the practice of reading the Scripture &c. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 August 22, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

4th day 22 of 8 M / Our family Meeting was Silent & Small, but solid & quiet -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 23, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 23 of 8 M / We attended Meeting in Town, it being preparative Meeting. - Hannah Robinson appeared in a sound & lively testimony which did me some good - Towards the close Wm Almy & Moses Brown had short offerings, but neither of the reached my feelings & State as Hannah did. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 26, Sunday: Messe in D-Dur for soloists, chorus and orchestra by Otto Nicolai was performed for the initial time, in Berlin.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 26 of 8 M / Silent Meetings at the Institution In the eveng our beloved friend Moses Brown came & set a while with us & Attended our evening Collection & after the Scripture was read he felt engaged to make divers pertinent remarks -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 2, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 2nd of 9th M 1832 / Silent Meeting & seasons of some solemnity. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 4, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 4th of 9th M / Today was the Meeting of the Sub committee & also the adjournment of the General Committee. - It really seemed pleasant, to have a company of Friends round us again & it was till within a few days the expectation that the School would be reopened again at this time but on the First of the M the Cholera appeared again in Providence, & when the committee got together again, it was their unanimous sentiment that the time had not come, to call the children together as there was no knowing to what extent it might rage. - We had the company of Thos Howland Thos Anthony & Wm reynolds last night & Thos Howland will stay tonight

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 September 5, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 5 of 9 M / We had the Company of Thos Howland at Meeting which was silent & pretty solid. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 6, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 6th of 9th M 1832 / Tho' I was not very well Yesterday nor today, yet Feeling an inclination I walked into Town & sat Meeting with them there & it was a pretty good silent opportunity but Meeting of late have not been to me as I could desire – leanness & barrenness has fallen much to my lot. – This evening we recd a very satisfactory letter from our Moses A Cortland, who has gone home on a visit to his friends –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 9, Sunday: "It is my desire ... to do nothing which I cannot do with my whole heart." What Waldo Emerson was after, in resigning from his pulpit over reluctance to administer the sacraments, as he made clear in his journal,³⁸² was nothing more or less than power.

If he never spoke or acted but with the full consent of his understanding, if the whole man acted always, how powerful would be every act & every deed. Well then or ill then how much power he sacrifices by conforming himself to say & do in other folks' time instead of his own! ... & this accommodation is, I say, a loss of so much integrity & of course so much power.

"Emersonians are all alike; every Thoreauvian is Thoreauvian in his or her own way."
– Austin Meredith

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

I am the one, of course, who has supplied this boldface emphasis on the word “power,” not Emerson. Of course the reason why this obsession with unitary power would bother someone now but did not bother Emerson then is, we’ve had an opportunity as Emerson had not, to hear Nazi talk about doing things with their “whole heart,” Nazi talk about the “whole man” and his powerful integrity of purpose and function and being. Some Emersonians may take offense at my remarks here, but I will defend myself by pointing out that I am painting their Emerson in famous company for these remarks that I have made about the Sage of Concord hold with equal force for the Rector of Freiberg. It has been pointed out by Mary C. Turpie as long ago as 1944³⁸³ that Emerson could not have been very serious about the various arguments he gave his congregation for why he needed to leave them, for he cribbed these reasons mostly from Friend Thomas Clarkson’s A PORTRAITURE OF QUAKERISM

(see the article review on the next screen)

some time after he became disaffected and shortly before resigning. Note also that Emerson did not resign from the ministry, but only from his contractual obligation to minister to a particular congregation for a salary, and that he did not do this until he expected to be relieved for the rest of his life from financial need, and that he did this almost immediately after forming this expectation, and that he promptly went off as a tourist to the Continent.

383. “A Quaker Source for Emerson’s Sermon on The Lord’s Supper,” New England Quarterly 17.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Turpie, Mary C. "A Quaker Source for Emerson's Sermon on the Lord Supper."
New England Quarterly 17:1 (March 1944): 95-101:

"A Review From Professor Ross's Seminar"

Richard Grusin cites this essay as an important one regarding Emerson's source for his June 1832 proposal for the modification of the communion rite. According to Turpie, this piece of writing is the only one in which Emerson uses exegesis and the last time that he acknowledged "orthodox custom" to such an extent. He borrowed Volumes 1 and 2 of Thomas Clarkson's PORTRAITURE OF QUAKERISM from the local lyceum before journeying to the White Mountains and he gave his sermon soon after his return. His sermon on the Lord Supper is, in effect, a rewriting of Clarkson's version.

Turpie notes that Emerson's motive for making the sermon goes beyond a kinship he evidently felt for the Quaker text. However, her concern is with his source rather than his reasons for using it. During the course of her article, she includes segments from both works side-by-side and they are surprisingly close in their development. Emerson's beginning helps to prove Turpie's theory:

That he was led to this conclusion by the Quakers is suggested by the close of his introductory paragraph: "It is now near two hundred years since the Society of Quakers denied the authority of the rite altogether, and gave good reasons for disusing it." But neither the extent to which he employs Quaker reasons nor the existence of his debt to the particular account of them has been recognized. (950)

Turpie emphasizes that Emerson's sermon is superior to his source because he edited it to get rid of unimportant details and repetitious passages.

(Kathryn C. Mapes, March 8, 1992)

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

THE LORD'S SUPPER

The Kingdom of God is not meat and drink, but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.
— ROMANS XIV. 17.

In the history of the Church no subject has been more fruitful of controversy than the Lord's Supper. There never has been any unanimity in the understanding of its nature, nor any uniformity in the mode of celebrating it. Without considering the frivolous questions which have been lately debated as to the posture in which men should partake of it; whether mixed or unmixed wine should be served; whether leavened or unleavened bread should be broken; the questions have been settled differently in every church, who should be admitted to the feast, and how often it should be prepared. In the Catholic Church, infants were at one time permitted and then forbidden to partake; and, since the ninth century, the laity receive the bread only, the cup being reserved to the priesthood. So, as to the time of the solemnity. In the fourth Lateran Council, it was decreed that any believer should communicate at least once in a year – at Easter. Afterwards it was determined that this Sacrament should be received three times in the year – at Easter, Whitsuntide, and Christmas. But more important controversies have arisen respecting its nature. The famous question of the Real Presence was the main controversy between the Church of England and the Church of Rome. The doctrine of the Consubstantiation taught by Luther was denied by Calvin. In the Church of England, Archbishops Laud and Wake maintained that the elements were an Eucharist or sacrifice of Thanksgiving to God; Cudworth and Warburton, that this was not a sacrifice, but a sacrificial feast; and Bishop Hoadley, that it was neither a sacrifice nor a feast after sacrifice, but a simple commemoration. And finally, it is now near two hundred years since the Society of Quakers denied the authority of the rite altogether, and gave good reasons for disusing it.

I allude to these facts only to show that, so far from the supper being a tradition in which men are fully agreed, there always been the widest room for difference of opinion upon this particular.

Having recently given particular attention to this subject, I was led to the conclusion that Jesus did not intend to establish an institution for perpetual observance when he ate the Passover with his disciples; and, further, to the opinion, that it is not expedient to celebrate it as we do. I shall now endeavor to state distinctly my reasons for these two opinions.

I. The authority of the rite.

An account of the last supper of Christ with his disciples is given by the four Evangelists, Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John. In St. Matthew's Gospel (Matt. XXVI. 26-30) are recorded the words of Jesus in giving bread and wine on that occasion to his disciples, but no expression occurs intimating that this feast was hereafter to be commemorated.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

In St. Mark (Mark XIV. 23) the same words are recorded, and still with no intimation that the occasion was to be remembered.

St. Luke (Luke XXII. 15), after relating the breaking of the bread, has these words: This do in remembrance of me.

In St. John, although other occurrences of the same evening are related, this whole transaction is passed over without notice.

Now observe the facts. Two of the Evangelists, namely, Matthew and John, were of the twelve disciples, and were present on that occasion. Neither of them drops the slightest intimation of any intention on the part of Jesus to set up anything permanent. John, especially, the beloved disciple, who has recorded with minuteness the conversation and the transactions of that memorable evening, has quite omitted such a notice. Neither does it appear to have come to the knowledge of Mark who, though not an eye-witness, relates the other facts. This material fact, that the occasion was to be remembered, is found in Luke alone, who was not present. There is no reason, however, that we know, for rejecting the account of Luke. I doubt not, the expression was used by Jesus. I shall presently consider its meaning. I have only brought these accounts together, that you may judge whether it is likely that a solemn institution, to be continued to the end of time by all mankind, as they should come, nation after nation, within the influence of the Christian religion, would have been established in this slight manner – in a manner so slight, that the intention of commemorating it should not appear, from their narrative, to have caught the ear or dwelt in the mind of the only two among the twelve who wrote down what happened.

Still we must suppose that the expression, "This do in remembrance of me," had come to the ear of Luke from some disciple who was present. What did it really signify? It is a prophetic and an affectionate expression. Jesus is a Jew, sitting with his countrymen, celebrating their national feast. He thinks of his own impending death, and wishes the minds of his disciples to be prepared for it. "When hereafter," he says to them, "you shall keep the Passover, it will have an altered aspect to your eyes. It is now a historical covenant of God with the Jewish nation. Hereafter, it will remind you of a new covenant sealed with my blood. In years to come, as long as your people shall come up to Jerusalem to keep this feast, the connection which has subsisted between us will give a new meaning in your eyes to the national festival, as the anniversary of my death." I see natural feeling and beauty in the use of such language from Jesus, a friend to his friends; I can readily imagine that he was willing and desirous, when his disciples met, his memory should hallow their intercourse; but I cannot bring myself to believe that in the use of such an expression he looked beyond the living generation, beyond the abolition of the festival he was celebrating, and the scattering of the nation, and meant to impose a memorial feast upon the whole world.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Without presuming to fix precisely the purpose in the mind of Jesus, you will see that many opinions may be entertained of his intention, all consistent with the opinion that he did not design a perpetual ordinance. He may have foreseen that his disciples would meet to remember him, and that with good effect. It may have crossed his mind that this would be easily continued a hundred or a thousand years – as men more easily transmit a form than a virtue – and yet have been altogether out of his purpose to fasten it upon men in all times and all countries. But though the words, Do this in remembrance of me, do occur in Matthew, Mark, or John, and although it should be granted us that, taken alone, they do not necessarily import so much as is usually thought, yet many persons are apt to imagine that the very striking and personal manner in which this eating and drinking is described, indicates a striking and formal purpose to found a festival. And I admit that this impression might probably be left upon the mind of one who read only the passages under consideration in the New Testament. But this impression is removed by reading any narrative of the mode in which the ancient or the modern Jews have kept the Passover. It is then perceived that the leading circumstances in the Gospels are only a faithful account of that ceremony. Jesus did not celebrate the Passover, and afterwards the Supper, but the Supper was the Passover. He did with his disciples exactly what every master of a family in Jerusalem was doing at the same hour with his household. It appears that the Jews ate the lamb and the unleavened bread, and drank wine after a prescribed manner. It was the custom for the master of the feast to break the bread and to bless it, using this formula, which the Talmudists have preserved to us, "Blessed be Thou, O Lord our God, the King of the world, who hast produced this food from the earth," – and to give it to every one at the table. It was the custom of the master of the family to take the cup which contained the wine, and to bless it, saying, "Blessed be Thou, O Lord, who givest us the fruit of the vine," – and then to give the cup to all. Among the modern Jews who in their dispersion retain the Passover, a hymn is also sung after this ceremony, specifying the twelve great works done by God for the deliverance of their fathers out of Egypt.

But still it may be asked, why did Jesus make expressions so extraordinary and emphatic as these – "This is my body which is broken for you. Take; eat. This is my blood which is shed for you. Drink it." – I reply they are not extraordinary expressions from him. They were familiar in his mouth. He always taught by parables and symbols. It was the national way of teaching and was largely used by him. Remember the readiness which he always showed to spiritualize every occurrence. He stooped and wrote on the sand. He admonished his disciples respecting the leaven

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

of the Pharisees. He instructed the woman of Samaria respecting living water. He permitted himself to be anointed, declaring that it was for his interment. He washed the feet of his disciples. These are admitted to be symbolical actions and expressions. Here, in like manner, he calls the bread his body, and bids the disciples eat. He had used the same expression repeatedly before. The reason why St. John does not repeat his words on this occasion, seems to be that he had reported a similar discourse of Jesus to the people of Capernaum more at length already (John VI. 27). He there tells the Jews, "Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, ye have no life in you." And when the Jews on that occasion complained that they did not comprehend what he meant, he added for their better understanding, and as if for our understanding, that we might not think his body was to be actually eaten, that he only meant, we should live by his commandment. He closed his discourse with these explanatory expressions: "The flesh profiteth nothing; the words that I speak to you, they are spirit and they are life."

Whilst I am upon this topic, I cannot help remarking that it is not a little singular that we should have preserved this rite and insisted upon perpetuating one symbolical act of Christ whilst we have totally neglected all others – particularly one other which had at least an equal claim to our observance. Jesus washed the feet of his disciples and told them that, as he had washed their feet, they ought to wash one another's feet; for he had given them an example, that they should do as he had done to them. I ask any person who believes the Supper to have been designed by Jesus to be commemorated forever, to go and read the account of it in the other Gospels, and then compare with it the account of this transaction in St. John, and tell me if this be not much more explicitly authorized than the Supper. It only differs in this, that we have found the Supper used in New England and the washing of the feet not. But if we had found it an established rite in our churches, on grounds of mere authority, it would have been impossible to have argued against it. That rite is used by the Church of Rome, and by the Sandemanians. It has been very properly dropped by other Christians. Why? For two reasons: (1) because it was a local custom, and unsuitable in western countries; and (2) because it was typical, and all understand that humility is the thing signified. But the Passover was local too, and does not concern us, and its bread and wine were typical, and do not help us to understand the redemption which they signified.

These views of the original account of the Lord's Supper lead me to esteem it an occasion full of solemn and prophetic interest, but never intended by Jesus to be the foundation of a perpetual institution.

It appears however in Christian history that the disciples had very early taken advantage of these impressive words of Christ to hold religious meetings, where they broke bread and drank wine as symbols.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

I look upon this fact as very natural in the circumstances of the church. The disciples lived together; they threw all their property into a common stock; they were bound together by the memory of Christ, and nothing could be more natural than that this eventful evening should be affectionately remembered by them; that they, Jews like Jesus, should adopt his expressions and his types, and furthermore, that what was done with peculiar propriety by them, his personal friends, with less propriety should come to be extended to their companions also. In this way religious feasts grew up among the early Christians. They were readily adopted by the Jewish converts who were familiar with religious feasts, and also by the Pagan converts whose idolatrous worship had been made up of sacred festivals, and who very readily abused these to gross riot, as appears from the censures of St. Paul. Many persons consider this fact, the observance of such a memorial feast by the early disciples, decisive of the question whether it ought to be observed by us. For my part I see nothing to wonder at in its originating with them; all that is surprising is that it should exist among us. There was good reason for his personal friends to remember their friend and repeat his words. It was only too probable that among the half converted Pagans and Jews, any rite, any form, would find favor, whilst yet unable to comprehend the spiritual character of Christianity.

The circumstance, however, that St. Paul adopts these views, has seemed to many persons conclusive in favor of the institution. I am of opinion that it is wholly upon the epistle to the Corinthians, and not upon the Gospels, that the ordinance stands. Upon this matter of St. Paul's view of the Supper, a few important considerations must be stated.

The end which he has in view, in the eleventh chapter of the first epistle is, not to enjoin upon his friends to observe the Supper, but to censure their abuse of it. We quote the passage now-a-days as if it enjoined attendance upon the Supper; but he wrote it merely to chide them for drunkenness. To make their enormity plainer he goes back to the origin of this religious feast to show what sort of feast that was, out of which this riot of theirs came, and so relates the transactions of the Last Supper. "I have received of the Lord," he says, "that which I delivered to you."

By this expression it is often thought that a miraculous communication is implied; but certainly without good reason, if it is remembered that St. Paul was living in the lifetime of all the apostles who could give him an account of the transaction; and it is contrary to all reason to suppose that God should work a miracle to convey information that could so easily be got by natural means. So that the import of the expression is that he had received the story of an eye-witness such as we also possess. But there is a material circumstance which diminishes our confidence in the correctness of the Apostle's view; and that is, the observation that his mind had not escaped the prevalent error of the primitive church, the belief, namely, that the second coming of Christ would shortly occur, until which time, he tells them, this feast was to be kept. Elsewhere he tells them, that, at that time the world would be burnt up with fire, and a new government established, in which the Saints would sit on thrones; so slow were the disciples during the life, and after the ascension of Christ, to receive the idea which we receive, that his second coming was a spiritual kingdom, the dominion of his religion in the hearts of men, to be extended gradually over the whole world.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

In this manner we may see clearly enough how this ancient ordinance got its footing among the early Christians, and this single expectation of a speedy reappearance of a temporal Messiah, which kept its influence even over so spiritual a man as St. Paul, would naturally tend to preserve the use of the rite when once established.

We arrive then at this conclusion, first, that it does not appear, from a careful examination of the account of the Last Supper in the Evangelists, that it was designed by Jesus to be perpetual; secondly, that it does not appear that the opinion of St. Paul, all things considered, ought to alter our opinion derived from the evangelists.

One general remark before quitting this branch of the subject. We ought to be cautious in taking even the best ascertained opinions and practices of the primitive church, for our own. If it could be satisfactorily shown that they esteemed it authorized and to be transmitted forever, that does not settle the question for us. We know how inveterately they were attached to their Jewish prejudices, and how often even the influence of Christ failed to enlarge their views. On every other subject succeeding times have learned to form a judgment more in accordance with the spirit of Christianity than was the practice of the early ages.

But it is said: "Admit that the rite was not designed to be perpetual. What harm doth it? Here it stands, generally accepted, under some form, by the Christian world, the undoubted occasion of much good; is it not better it should remain?"

II. This is the question of expediency.

I proceed to state a few objections that in my judgment lie against its use in its present form.

1. If the view which I have taken of the history of the institution be correct, then the claim of authority should be dropped in administering it. You say, every time you celebrate the rite, that Jesus enjoined it; and the whole language you use conveys that impression. But if you read the New Testament as I do, you do not believe he did.

2. It has seemed to me that the use of this ordinance tends to produce confusion in our views of the relation of the soul to God. It is the old objection to the doctrine of the Trinity, — that the true worship was transferred from God to Christ, or that such confusion was introduced into the soul, that an undivided worship was given nowhere. Is not that the effect of the Lord's Supper? I appeal now to the convictions of

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

communicants – and ask such persons whether they have not been occasionally conscious of a painful confusion of thought between the worship due to God and the commemoration due to Christ. For, the service does not stand upon the basis of a voluntary act, but is imposed by authority. It is an expression of gratitude to Christ, enjoined by Christ. There is an endeavor to keep Jesus in mind, whilst yet the prayers are addressed to God. I fear it is the effect of this ordinance to clothe Jesus with an authority which he never claimed and which distracts the mind of the worshipper. I know our opinions differ much respecting the nature and offices of Christ, and the degree of veneration to which he is entitled. I am so much a Unitarian as this: that I believe the human mind cannot admit but one God, and that every effort to pay religious homage to more than one being, goes to take away all right ideas. I appeal, brethren, to your individual experience. In the moment when you make the least petition to God, though it be but a silent wish that he may approve you, or add one moment to your life, – do you not, in the very act, necessarily exclude all other beings from your thought? In that act, the soul stands alone with God, and Jesus is no more present to the mind than your brother or your child. But is not Jesus called in Scripture the Mediator? He is the mediator in that only sense in which possibly any being can mediate between God and man – that is an Instructor of man. He teaches us how to become like God. And a true disciple of Jesus will receive the light he gives most thankfully; but the thanks he offers, and which an exalted being will accept, are not compliments – commemorations, – but the use of that instruction.

3. Passing other objections, I come to this, that the use of the elements, however suitable to the people and the modes of thought in the East, where it originated, is foreign and unsuited to affect us. Whatever long usage and strong association may have done in some individuals to deaden this repulsion, I apprehend that their use is rather tolerated than loved by any of us. We are not accustomed to express our thoughts or emotions by symbolical actions. Most men find the bread and wine no aid to devotion and to some, it is a painful impediment. To eat bread is one thing; to love the precepts of Christ and resolve to obey them is quite another.

The statement of this objection leads me to say that I think this difficulty, wherever it is felt, to be entitled to the greatest weight. It is alone a sufficient objection to the ordinance. It is my own objection. This mode of commemorating Christ is not suitable to me. That is reason enough why I should abandon it. If I believed that it was enjoined by Jesus on his disciples, and that he even contemplated making permanent this mode of commemoration, every way agreeable to an eastern mind, and yet, on trial, it was disagreeable to my own feelings, I should not adopt it. I should choose other ways which, as more effectual upon me, he would approve more. For I choose that my remembrances of him should be pleasing, affecting, religious. I will love him as a glorified friend, after the free way of friendship, and not pay him a stiff sign of respect, as men do to those whom they fear. A passage read from his discourses, a moving provocation to works like his, any act or meeting which tends to awaken a pure thought, a flow of love, an original design of virtue, I call a worthy, a true commemoration.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

4. Fourthly, the importance ascribed to this particular ordinance is not consistent with the spirit of Christianity. The general object and effect of this ordinance is unexceptionable. It has been, and is, I doubt not, the occasion of indefinite good; but an importance is given by Christians to it which never can belong to any form. My friends, the apostle well assures us that "the kingdom of God is not meat and drink, but righteousness and peace and joy, in the Holy Ghost." I am not so foolish as to declaim against forms. Forms are as essential as bodies; but to exalt particular forms, to adhere to one form a moment after it is out-grown, is unreasonable, and it is alien to the spirit of Christ. If I understand the distinction of Christianity, the reason why it is to be preferred over all other systems and is divine is this, that it is a moral system; that it presents men with truths which are their own reason, and enjoins practices that are their own justification; that if miracles may be said to have been its evidence to the first Christians, they are not its evidence to us, but the doctrines themselves; that every practice is Christian which praises itself, and every practice unchristian which condemns itself. I am not engaged to Christianity by decent forms, or saving ordinances; it is not usage, it is not what I do not understand, that binds me to it – let these be the sandy foundations of falsehoods. What I revere and obey in it is its reality, its boundless charity, its deep interior life, the rest it gives to my mind, the echo it returns to my thoughts, the perfect accord it makes with my reason through all its representation of God and His Providence; and the persuasion and courage that come out thence to lead me upward and onward. Freedom is the essence of this faith. It has for its object simply to make men good and wise. Its institutions, then, should be as flexible as the wants of men. That form out of which the life and suitableness have departed, should be as worthless in its eyes as the dead leaves that are falling around us.

And therefore, although for the satisfaction of others, I have labored to show by the history that this rite was not intended to be perpetual; although I have gone back to weigh the expressions of Paul, I feel that here is the true point of view. In the midst of considerations as to what Paul thought, and why he so thought, I cannot help feeling that it is time misspent to argue to or from his convictions, or those of Luke and John, respecting any form. I seem to lose the substance in seeking the shadow. That for which Paul lived and died so gloriously; that for which Jesus gave himself to be crucified; the end that animated the thousand martyrs and heroes who have followed his steps, was to redeem us from a formal religion, and teach us to seek our well-being in the formation of the soul. The whole world was full of idols and ordinances. The Jewish was a religion of

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

forms. The Pagan was a religion of forms; it was all body – it had no life – and the Almighty God was pleased to qualify and send forth a man to teach men that they must serve him with the heart; that only that life was religious which was thoroughly good; that sacrifice was smoke, and forms were shadows. This man lived and died true to this purpose; and now, with his blessed word and life before us, Christians must contend that it is a matter of vital importance – really a duty, to commemorate him by a certain form, whether that form be agreeable to their understandings or not.

Is not this to make vain the gift of God? Is not this to turn back the hand on the dial? Is not this to make men – to make ourselves – forget that not forms, but duties; not names, but righteousness and love are enjoined; and that in the eye of God there is no other measure of the value of any one form than the measure of its use?

There remain some practical objections to the ordinance into which I shall not now enter. There is one on which I had intended to say a few words; I mean the unfavorable relation in which it places that numerous class of persons who abstain from it merely from disinclination to the rite.

Influenced by these considerations, I have proposed to the brethren of the Church to drop the use of the elements and the claim of authority in the administration of this ordinance, and have suggested a mode in which a meeting for the same purpose might be held free of objection.

My brethren have considered my views with patience and candor, and have recommended unanimously an adherence to the present form. I have, therefore, been compelled to consider whether it becomes me to administer it. I am clearly of opinion I ought not. This discourse has already been so far extended, that I can only say that the reason of my determination is shortly this: – It is my desire, in the office of a Christian minister, to do nothing which I cannot do with my whole heart. Having said this, I have said all. I have no hostility to this institution; I am only stating my want of sympathy with it. Neither should I ever have obtruded this opinion upon other people, had I not been called by my office to administer it. That is the end of my opposition, that I am not interested in it. I am content that it stand to the end of the world, if it please men and please heaven, and I shall rejoice in all the good it produces.

As it is the prevailing opinion and feeling in our religious community, that it is an indispensable part of the pastoral office to administer this ordinance, I am about to resign into your hands that office which you have confided to me. It has many duties for which I am feebly qualified. It has some which it will always be my delight to discharge, according to my ability, wherever I exist. And whilst the recollection of its claims oppresses me with a sense of my unworthiness, I am consoled by the hope that no time and no change can deprive me of the satisfaction of pursuing and exercising its highest functions.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

NOTE: There are a number of situations in the Kouroo database in which we can examine what happens when a congregation disapproves of one of its pastor's beliefs. We can, for instance, study the situation in which the Reverend Moncure Daniel Conway spoke out to his congregation from his pulpit in Washington DC in opposition to human slavery, whereupon he was dismissed from his post. The fact is that the congregation in Boston had expressed no problem whatever with their assistant pastor Waldo Emerson's beliefs. They thought he was doing just fine. They were happy as clams with him. It is therefore an interesting question why this assistant pastor, soon after becoming wealthy, elected to step forward and announce the existence of doctrinal disagreements. Was he looking for a face-saving way to quit his job, one that would make other people wrong? Why not just slip out the back, Jack? Why not just make a new plan, Stan?

The problem is all inside your head, she said to me
The answer is easy if you take it logically
I'd like to help you in your struggle to be free
There must be fifty ways to leave your lover

She said its really not my habit to intrude
Furthermore, I hope my meaning won't be lost or misconstrued
But I'll repeat myself at the risk of being crude
There must be fifty ways to leave your lover
Fifty ways to leave your lover

Just slip out the back, Jack
Make a new plan, Stan
You don't need to be coy, Roy
Just get yourself free
Hop on the bus, Gus
You don't need to discuss much
Just drop off the key, Lee
And get yourself free

Just slip out the back, Jack
Make a new plan, Stan
You don't need to be coy, Roy
Just get yourself free
Hop on the bus, Gus
You don't need to discuss much
Just drop off the key, Lee
And get yourself free

She said it grieves me so to see you in such pain
I wish there was something I could do to make you smile again
I said I appreciate that and would you please explain
About the fifty ways

She said why don't we both just sleep on it tonight
And I believe in the morning you'll begin to see the light
And then she kissed me and I realized she probably was right
There must be fifty ways to leave your lover
Fifty ways to leave your lover

Just slip out the back, Jack

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Make a new plan, Stan
You don't need to be coy, Roy
Just get yourself free
Hop on the bus, Gus
You don't need to discuss much
Just drop off the key, Lee
And get yourself free

You just slip out the back, Jack
Make a new plan, Stan
You don't need to be coy, Roy
Just get yourself free
Hop on the bus, Gus
You don't need to discuss much
Just drop off the key, Lee
And get yourself free

September 11, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 11th of 9th M / This morning I got on board the Steam Boat Rush Light & went to Newport Found our friends well – Spent 4th day in transacting some buisness & visiting my friends

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Waldo Emerson wrote to the Proprietors of the Second Church in Boston:

*Christian Friends,
In the discourse delivered from the pulpit last Sabbath, I explained the circumstances which have seemed to me to make it my duty to resign my office as your minister. ...I am pained at the situation in which I find myself, that compels me to make a difference of opinion of no great importance, the occasion of surrendering so many & so valuable fuinctions as belong to that office. ...And so, friends, let me hope, that whilst I resign my official relation to you I shall not lose your kindness, & that a difference of opinion as to the value of an ordinance, will be overlooked by us in our common devotion to what is real & eternal.*

Ralph Waldo Emerson.

September 13, Thursday: Henry Swasey McKean sent his recommendations to Charles Beck in regard to the minimum of Latin study required for a degree from Harvard College. (Clearly, since McKean of the Class of 1828 would have known Marshall Tufts of the Class of 1827, such a communication would have been provoked by the publication earlier that month of the anonymous book by the eccentric Tufts, denouncing the study of ancient languages such as Greek and Latin at Harvard as being without value.)

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day attended the Week day Meeting which was a solid good one to me - finished my buisness & called on divers relations & old

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

friends

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 14, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day I again took the Rush Light & returned to Providence stoping at Warren on our way to take Passengers who had been there to attend a Baptist Convention. – We had a great many on board, & among them was my old neighbour Robert Rogers. – it was a pleasant Passage, & with James W Kinzey a young man of Newport & a Baptist Preacher – I had considerable conversation, which I apprehend was not hurtful but might tend to usefulness. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 15, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 15th of 9th M 1832 / My wife today seems quite unwell, threatend with the disentary

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 22, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7 day She is getting better slowly

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 23, Sunday: In a storm at Macao, China, some 100 fishing boats were lost. After the storm 1,405 bales of cotton would be recovered floating in the sea.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 3rd of 9 M / My wife has set up most of the day & is comfortable. –
After tea, with Mary Griscom called to see our Ancient fr Moses Brown on his birthday having completed his 94th Year found him very smart & bright & had attended Meetings thro' the day –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 26, Wednesday: After 22 years of construction, the Gota Canal opened, linking Goteborg on the west coast of Sweden with Soderkoping on the Baltic.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*4th day 26th of 9 M 1832 / Our Moy [Monthly] Meeting held in Town was a time of some favour. – for which I trust there was a disposition to thankfulness
A woman belonging to Scituate was recd into membership & two other similar cases was referd*

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

My wife now seems to be pretty much restored & I think I am thankful for it –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 18, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day [sic] 18th of 10 M 1832 / My wife having in good measure recovered from her late illness - Went in the Steam Boat President to Newport. - On my return to the Institution stoped at the Post Office & found an agreeable letter from John, & on my way from thence, met our fr Mary B Allen, who had just returned from Nantucket where she had been for some Months to take care of her Aged Mother. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 24, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*4th day 24 of 10 M / We attended Moy [Monthly] meeting at Smithfield, which was pretty well attended - Wm Almy in a Short testimony in the first Meeting & the buisness of the last well conducted
We had a pleasant ride & I had many instructive reflections as we were riding along the road. - The variagated appearance of the forest was beautiful. - & not less interesting than when the products of Nature are in their strength & glory - An Aged man if he walks consistently & in the Truth retains a beauty which all good folks admire & the wicked revere*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 25, Thursday: A decree of Louis-Philippe established the Académie des Sciences Morales et Politiques, numbering 30 members, divided into five sections: Philosophy, Jurisprudence, Political Economy, History, and Moral Philosophy.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 25 of 10 M 1832 / Today is our Moy [Monthly] Meeting at Rhode Island - I feel much for & about my dear home Meeting - but I do not see how I can at present - contribute much for its help.
What a change there is in it since my time, but the weight always fell on a few, & I believe in preportion to the Numbers that are now there & the number that was there 30 & 40 Years ago, the solid weight is not greatly diminished.*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

October 26, Friday: Treaty between the US federal government and the Potawatami. The treaty was, as per usual, entered into in good faith.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 26 of 10 M 1832 / My mind was seriously affected on reading in the Newport Paper recd this evening, the Decease of my cousin Sarah Tew Aged 47 Years - She died in New Bedford on 7th day last the 20 inst & was interd at Newport on the 22nd Her Mother was daughter of John Wanton, who was the son of the late Gov John Wanton, & a near relation of my Mothers - Her Father was Latham Thurston, & I well remember both her Father & her Mother -Latham Thurston was a near blood relation of my Mothers. -Sarah with her Mother used to visit at our house when I was a boy, & tho' She was not a member was a diligent attender of Our Meetings when a Girl, & after her widowhood, & from her relationship & acquaintance which subsisted, I felt a nearness for her. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 6, Tuesday: Robert Schumann wrote to his mother, "I have become fully resigned and consider my hand incurable." His loss of one hand was attributed either to a device intended to strengthen his hand or to mercury poisoning which was part of a treatment for syphilis.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*3rd day she returned finding our connections all well & leaving them so -
Our School is filling up fast, scholars come in every day*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 25, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 25th of 11 M 1832 / Our Morning Meeting was silent - Wm Almy Preached in the Afternoon an admirable Sermon & Hannah Robinson Supplicated for us in a manner which satisfied me that she was Authorized & qualified for the Occasion. -
I have seldom for years Written so little in my diary as of late perhaps it would be better to write more, but as my life is pretty much one thing over & over, I sometimes am discouraged about it- I however may now insert that many trials in a small way await me, & I am satisfied that I do not always manage them in the Most Wisdom, but feel conscious of trying in the general to do as well as I can*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 26, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

12 M 26 1832 / Went to Smithfield to attend Moy [Monthly] Meeting - A considerable number of our Scholars went - which made a pretty large Meeting - Wm Almy & Anna A Jenkins preached well - Our Ancient friend Moses Brown was able to be there & his company was very pleasant. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 29, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 29 of 12 M 1832 / Recd a very acceptable letter from Our Son John - for which & the welfare attending him I desire to be thankful. -

Of late I have written but little in my diary. - & do not feel quite so well satisfied to leave it off entirely - tho' at present I see but little use in thus journalizing - My rounds of service is so much alike from day to day that there does not seem to be much to insert. - I feel desirous to do as well as I can & for the many favours recd believe my heart is often fraught with gratitude to Him who hath preserved me most signally on many occasions both in mind & body. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 30, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 30 of 12 M / Behold; I am this day 51 Years old. - Oh that I was better. - This has been a year of some trial & much proving, & while I am conscious I might have done better yet I am thankful for the preservation I have experienced

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 31, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 31 of 12 M 1832 / This is a season of the Year which never passes unnoticed & unfelt by me - That time is going rapidly is certain I can now look back & well recollect circumstances which occurred about 45 Years ago, & the time, where is it -- Well it is certainly not to be recalled & I desire to be thankful for past & present good & I apprehend there are but few who have had more to be thankful for - While my life has not been exempt from trial I certainly have cause of great thankfulness for many favours & exemptions from many of the keen & stinging afflictions which fall to the lot of many. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

“NARRATIVE HISTORY” IS FABULATION, HISTORY IS CHRONOLOGY

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1833

January 1, Tuesday: The initial issue of Knickerbocker Magazine was published, in New-York.

Sidney Smith began publishing Rochester, New York's Evening Advertiser (he would soon turn it into a morning newspaper, to distinguish it from its afternoon rival the Daily Advertiser).

Concert Piece op.113 for clarinet, basset horn and piano by Felix Mendelssohn was performed for the initial time, in Berlin.

Leitch Ritchie began a Library of Romance series (Smith and Elder).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal about his work at the Quaker Yearly Meeting Boarding School in Providence, Rhode Island:

1st M 1833 / My old Book being full, at the end of the Month [12th Month, December 1832] I have concluded to make a new one for the purpose of occasional journalizing, concluding I may be less frequent in my entrys in it than for many years heretofore. — I do not feel quite satisfied to omit it altogether. — There is much of a Sameness in my daily round since I have been attached to the Yearly Meeting boarding School where we have now lived over four Years & how much longer we shall be here is uncertain - Another week may decide that we take a residence else where - & at present I am not anxious about it, tho' I may acknowledge, our being here has been very advantageous to us in a pecuniary point of view & our outward circumstances much improved for which I desire to be thankful, & believe I am really & even humbly so. — In the course of this M we have had diverse good Meetings, & I have been out to Johnson with Wm Almy to attend the funeral of a widow Waterman Aged 88 Years, & tho' some trials await me it has been a time of favour.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

___384

“MOSES BROWN SCHOOL”

February: Maria W. Stewart, the lady who had the previous September delivered a public address in the Franklin Hall in Boston (to our knowledge the very 1st time ever that an American woman had spoken in public before a group, let alone an American woman of color), attempted to speak at the African Masonic Lodge in Boston. Her topic this time was not “Religion and the Pure Principles of Morality, The Sure Foundation on Which We Must Build” but the very non-specific “An Address Delivered at the African Masonic Hall.” Incautiously, she attempted to persuade her audience that the black man had not been sufficiently outspoken on the discrimination issue, and that possibly the reason for this inadequacy was, he feared to offend his white friends.

“Have the sons of Africa no souls?”

Evidently her audience was locked and loaded to reject this, as they had provided themselves with rotten tomatoes with which to pelt her as she attempted to express her hypothesis. She would need to leave town.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd M 1833 / This has been a Month of Some trial both of body & mind - I have been quite sick for one thing, & besides some trying & provings of mind, perhaps rather uncommonly so for me, who have had so Smooth a passage thro' life, but I desire to cultivate a thankful disposition for present & past good & for the future trust in Him who hath signally helped me thus far on lifes journey. -

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 24, Sunday: A setting of the Stabat mater D.383 (translated by Klopstock) for solo voices, chorus and orchestra by Franz Schubert was performed for the initial time, in Vienna.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal about a death that had occurred on the 18th, which is to say, Monday of the previous week:

3 M 24th 1833 / On 2nd day the 18th of this Month Died at Long Plains near New Bedford Our friend Obadiah Davis Aged 67 Years - he was a respectable friend & Minister of good standing - I remember to have been tenderd under his Ministry in younger life when he was frequently at Newport - - He married Ruth Sherman daughter of our late Friend Sampson Sherman, who is herself a Minister in good Standing. - Obadiah was a useful man in society was sometime Clerk of the Yearly Meeting & Member of the Meeting for Sufferings many Years. -

June 14, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6 M 14 6th day 1833 / This day we took the Institution horse & Chaise & went to Portsmouth for my wife to attend a committee on the Removal of the Y Meeting appointed last Year After which we went to Uncle Stantons & lodged -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 15, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 15th - Attended the Select Meeting held at Portsmouth & in the Afternoon the Meeting for Sufferings - then Rode into Newport & took quarters with Aunt Nancy Carpenter & at our home, the part of the house where we occupy when in Newport being fitted to receive company.

The Several sittings of the Yearly Meeting continued till 6th day the 21st inst & were seasons of favour & refreshment with a little exception & tho' no small portion of Mental Suffering awaited me, I can truly say I believe I was the better for my attendance of the Meeting. -

On 7th day we returned to the Institution in the Steam Boat.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 16, Sunday: Johann Nepomuk Hummel arrived at Ostende, having departed from England for the final time.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day Rode to Smithfield with my friend Benj Fry & attended Meeting there Benj was engaged in Supplication & testimony much to Satisfaction & comfort of the Audience After Meeting I rode part of the way home with Aza Arnold -&

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

walked the rest

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 28, Friday: The French legislature ordained primary education for every community in France. Professor François Pierre Guillaume Guizot would, as head of the department of public instruction, implement this law with extraordinary vigor).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day [sic] 28th of 9 M 1833 / Much time has passed away since I have made an entry in my Diary.

Since that time there has many events occur'd which have been greatly interesting to me some of them have been of a comfortable kind & many of an afflictive nature, which has caused me to Mourn & even tremble for my own state as well as the State of society both in Europe & America. – Altho' in some places in some instances, there is some encouragement to hope that the true seed of Quakerism is not extinct, but Yet retains a greenness which would induce the hope, & strengthen the desire that it may yet live, be known in Judah & great in Israel but what of Infidelity on the One hand, formality & outward profession on the other, together with on an intemperate Zeal, and in some instances a total want of zeal & in others a disposition to return to the beggarly elements, placing the letter above the spirit &c – I confess I do not see where our poor society will land at last. –

This evening by the Newport Mercury I learn the decease of our Ancient & beloved Friend RICHARD MITCHELL of Middletown Aged 79 years died the 26 inst. I have known him from a child – he was one of those worthy Elders in society who was an ornament to the Station, & ever on the Alert for the good & prosperity of the Society at large, having been under all the appointments which is usual in Rhode Island Moy [Monthly] Meeting – he was for many years a zealous, judicious & well concerned Overseer – for many years a faithful Trustee of the Property of that Moy [Monthly] Meeting & labour'd carefully for its outward Interests as well as a more spiritual interest – I have been associated with him in many appointments & always preferred his judgement & experience to my own, but ever found in him a disposition to listen to & weigh well the feelings & views of those younger & of less experience – tho' having attained to a good old Age & to a period of life when much more Service activity had ceased for a year or two, yet his place in the Church will be vacant & his former services remembered. – he had been mostly confined to his house for the last Year & from a complication of affliction which had awaited him, his natural powers of mind were much abated. – his bodily suffering for years had also been great having been afflicted with a gravelly complaint which at time occasioned much pain. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

October 9, Wednesday: Waldo Emerson arrived in Boston.

At some point Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal about this period:

4th day 9th of 10th M 1833 / Set out from the Institution to go to New Bedford & from thence to Newport Back to Providence – Took the Steam Boat for Fall River but it being nearly night when I got there concluded to take tea & lodge at Edmond Chases, where I found a pretty large social circle, who to Meet was very Pleasant

Next Morning his son Edmond took me over to New Bedford in season to attend An adjournment of their Moy [Monthly] Meeting for the purpose of liberating Robert S Holloway & Abby Taber to consummate their Marriage for which purpose they appointed a Meeting at 3 OC the Next day. –

10 M 11 – This Afternoon attended the Meeting in which Robert & Abby Married – it was a very solid solemn & well conducted Meeting & Joseph Davis preached (I thought) with good Authority The Wedding which I also attended was conducted in a manner which reflected great credit on the parties concerned, –on 7th day My Kind & affectionate friend Joseph Tillinghast at whose House I lodged sent his Carryall & Smith Holloway brother to Robert over to my dear friend Edward Wings in Tiverton, where I lodged & met a very kind reception. – Attended Meeting on First day at Tiverton with Edw & Elizabeth which was small but some favour experienced. – I intended to have come on to the Island After Meeting but the Storm of Wind & Rian was so great & the Sea broke so tremendously over the Stone Bridge that I concluded to return to Edwards & on Second day Morning 14th of 10 M he brought me to the Bridge from his house – I walked across it & ferry Neck, & when I got up into the Main Road found a carriage returning from Bristol Ferry, which brought me into Newport. & 3rd day the 15th of 10 M Robert Holloway & his wife Abby went on Board the Steam Boat for NYork on their way to Ohio – I parted with them in tender & Affectionate feelings on the Long Wharf where the boat lay

On the 16th I got on board the Steam Boat & returned to Providence in good season for our Meeting at the Institution. –

I found most of my friends in Newport pretty well excepting Our dear Sister Ruth Rodman who is in a poor State of health from a complaint in her Arm & breast which is feared will prove of a Cancerous nature. –

On my return recd a very good letter from Our dear John –

November 16, Saturday: Penny Magazine:

<http://www.history.rochester.edu/pennymag/104.htm>

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

7th day 16th of 11th M 1833 / Today My H returned from Newport where she has been for the Week past to visit our friends there & particularly our beloved Sister Ruth who is not essentially better than when I was there, tho' relieved from an attack of Cold & fever under which she laboured some days previous to Hannahs going down. -

December 23, Monday: Georgia reformed, amended, and consolidated its penal laws relating to the supply of slaves.

§ 1. "If any person or persons shall bring, import, or introduce into this State, or aid or assist, or knowingly become concerned or interested, in bringing, importing, or introducing into this State, either by land or by water, or in any manner whatever, any slave or slaves, each and every such person or persons so offending, shall be deemed principals in law, and guilty of a high misdemeanor, and ... on conviction, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars each, for each and every slave, ... and imprisonment and labor in the penitentiary for any time not less than one year, nor longer than four years." Residents, however, may bring slaves for their own use, but must register and swear they are not for sale, hire, mortgage, etc.

§ 6. Penalty for knowingly receiving such slaves, $500. Slightly amended December 23, 1836, e.g., emigrants were allowed to hire slaves out, etc.; amended December 19, 1849, so as to allow importation of slaves from "any other slave holding State of this Union." Prince, DIGEST, pages 619, 653, 812; Cobb, DIGEST, II. 1018.

INTERNATIONAL SLAVE TRADE

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day [sic] 12 M 20 / Last night Departed this life at his house in Smithfield Aza Arnold in the 87th Year of his Age he was a friend much respected, & attended Yearly Meeting when I was a boy - he attended Smithfield lower meeting & was a Member of Providence Moy [Monthly] Meeting- & Since my association with him my esteem has much increased for his Character & standing - he sat at the head of the Meeting he belonged too with much dignity & propriety & will be no small loss to it He was buried from the Meeting house on 2nd day [Monday] the 23rd in the burying ground adjoining

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Christmas: Henry Bibb had grown into a light-colored young slave who could, in the dusk, even pass for a white man. He had been courting a slave on a plantation about four miles away near Bedford KY. Evidently this slavemaster William Gatewood's idea of a Christmas present for himself was jus primae noctis: Malinda's master was very much in favor of the match, but entirely upon selfish principles. When I went to ask his permission to marry Malinda, his answer was in the affirmative with one condition, which I consider to be too vulgar to be written in this book.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 25th of 12th M 1833 / Rode to Smithfield to Attend Moy [Monthly] Meeting - It was very small & very poor - But I will try to hope the next may be better. -
This evening our friend John Wilbur called a little while at the Institutiion, but left to go to Moses Browns to lodge. -

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

December 29, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 29th of 12 M / Our fr Jn Wilbur was at our Meeting this Afternoon & I thought his testimony was in the life of the Gospel & I have no doubt did some good, tho' all present might not have thought very highly of its usefulness. -

December 30, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 30th of 12 M 1833 / Lo! I am 52 Years old this day - O that I was better, Oh that I was able to bear with Meekness the trials of this life. I fully believe in that spirit & power which can conduct thro' all with safty, & land us safe at last among other things which are trying & afflicting, is the present state of our Society, both in England & this country I am afraid we shall become quite a different people both in Doctrine & in practice from what our worthy predecessors were - but let is hope for the best

December 31, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 31 of 12 M 1833 / I have written much less in my Diary this year than for many Years past - but this will be a Memorable year to me as long as I live - I shall remember it has been fraught with trials keen & piercing - I may also commemorate the Goodness of God in sustaining my soul tho' things have sometimes seemed much like overwhelming. - I feel at the close some better & hope to be duly thankful. -

“NARRATIVE HISTORY” IS FABULATION, HISTORY IS CHRONOLOGY

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1834

January 1, Wednesday: A Zollverein or customs union among 18 German states, headed by Prussia, went into effect.

Frederick Douglass later reported that:

At daybreak I was ordered to get a load of wood from a forest about two miles from the house.... I had never driven oxen before.... Once the gate was opened in front of them, my oxen charged through full tilt. They caught the huge gate between the wheel and the cart body, crushing it into splinters and coming within a few inches of crushing me with it.... Covey told me that he would now teach me how to break gates and idle away my time.... [He] ordered me to take off my clothes.... "If you beat me," I thought, "you shall do so over my clothes." After many threats he rushed at me..., tore off the few thin clothes I had on, and proceeded to wear out on my back the heavy goads which he had cut from the gum tree.... [D]uring the first six months there I was whipped, either with sticks or a cowhide whip, every week.... I was sometimes tempted to take my life and that of Covey but was prevented by a combination of hope and fear.

"The morning of January 1, 1834, found me on the road to Covey's. The chilling wind and pinching frost matched the winter of my own mind as I trudged along.... [Chesapeake Bay] was now white with foam raised by a heavy northwest wind." Frederick Douglass the troublemaker who had attempted to set up a Sunday School for black children, had been contracted by his owner to Mr. Edward "The Snake" Covey's on his 150-acre rented farm some seven miles to the northwest of St. Michaels, Maryland—where discipline was

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

by whip- to work for the first time as field rather than house slave:

Frederick Douglass's NARRATIVE

In my new employment, I found myself even more awkward than a country boy appeared to be in a large city. I had been at my new home but one week before Mr. Covey gave me a very severe whipping, cutting my back, causing the blood to run, and raising ridges on my flesh as large as my little finger. The details of this affair are as follows: Mr. Covey sent me, very early in the morning of one of our coldest days in the month of January, to the woods, to get a load of wood. He gave me a team of unbroken oxen. He told me which was the in-hand ox, and which the off-hand one. He then tied the end of a large rope around the horns of the in-hand ox, and gave me the other end of it, and told me, if the oxen started to run, that I must hold on upon the rope. I had never driven oxen before, and of course I was very awkward. I, however, succeeded in getting to the edge of the woods with little difficulty; but I had got a very few rods into the woods, when the oxen took fright, and started full tilt, carrying the cart against trees, and over stumps, in the most frightful manner. I expected every moment that my brains would be dashed out against the trees. After running thus for a considerable distance, they finally upset the cart, dashing it with great force against a tree, and threw themselves into a dense thicket. How I escaped death, I do not know. There I was, entirely alone, in a thick wood, in a place new to me. My cart was upset and shattered, my oxen were entangled among the young trees, and there was none to help me. After a long spell of effort, I succeeded in getting my cart righted, my oxen disentangled, and again yoked to the cart. I now proceeded with my team to the place where I had, the day before, been chopping wood, and loaded my cart pretty heavily, thinking in this way to tame my oxen. I then proceeded on my way home. I had now consumed one half of the day. I got out of the woods safely, and now felt out of danger. I stopped my oxen to open the woods gate; and just as I did so, before I could get hold of my ox-rope, the oxen again started, rushed through the gate, catching it between the wheel and the body of the cart, tearing it to pieces, and coming within a few inches of crushing me against the gate-post. Thus twice, in one short day, I escaped death by the merest chance. On my return, I told Mr. Covey what had happened, and how it happened. He ordered me to return to the woods again immediately. I did so, and he followed on after me. Just as I got into the woods, he came up and told me to stop my cart, and that he would teach me how to trifle away my time, and break gates. He then went to a large gum-tree, and with his axe cut three large switches, and, after trimming them up neatly with his pocketknife, he ordered me to take off my clothes. I made him no answer, but stood with my clothes on. He repeated his order. I still made him no answer, nor did I move to strip myself. Upon this he rushed at me with the fierceness of a tiger, tore off my clothes, and lashed me till he had worn out his switches, cutting me so savagely as to leave the marks visible for a long time after. This whipping was the first of a number just like it, and for similar offences.

Mr. Covey had a reputation as a “nigger-breaker,” but was going to experience considerable difficulties, even a threat to his professional standing, in his attempts to break this particular nigger.

[We will notice, however, that at no point in the struggle would Douglass try to kill Edward Covey, something reasonable and easy, for he was trying to do something considerably more fraught, get such a person's attention and then talk turkey to him: “I seized Covey hard by the throat.... I told him....” Strange to relate, although in this struggle Douglass had drawn blood from Covey and could reasonably have anticipated that as soon as order and propriety had been restored he would be tortured to death by “The Snake” and his Christian crowd

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

— he would find that instead he was no longer being lashed. Douglass seems to have attributed this to his master's economic need to obtain maximum work from him with minimum expenditure of effort. Consider this as bravado, in the face of the fact that the only difficulty Covey would have had in killing Douglass, other than in ordering the other laborers to dig a shallow hole in the field alongside the corpse, would have come when he had to reimburse Thomas Auld for his economic loss:

I did not hesitate to let it be known of me, that the white man who expected to succeed in whipping, must also succeed in killing me.

But one wonders whether it was not precisely this hopeless resistance which may have inspired Covey to respect Douglass as a man and as a human. I offer that these fights in the fields of Maryland may well have been a turning-point not only in the individual life of Douglass, but also –unfortunately– in the ideology of nonresistance to evil as espoused by William Ladd, the Reverend Adin Ballou, the Reverend Henry C. Wright, Abby Kelley, John A. Collins, the Reverend Samuel Joseph May, Edmund Quincy, John Humphrey Noyes of the Perfectionist, and William Lloyd Garrison. For later on Douglass would use this memory as fuel for his breach with other antislavery advocates over Garrison's principled nonresistance to evil and as fuel for the encouragement, by the allies of John Brown, of an indigenous uprising of the black slaves of the South, when Douglass began in 1851 to find alternate funding from the "Liberty Party" created by the intemperate wealthy white man Gerrit Smith. We see that Frederick Douglass believed he had already put what would become the doctrine of ahimsa to the ultimate test, and that he had already discovered this doctrine to be ultimately wrongheaded — and was following the path of Nehru rather than the path of Gandhiji.]

SLAVERY

While this sturm-und-drang about becoming free from slavery was going on in Maryland, in Newport, Rhode Island, the quietist Friend Stephen Wanton Gould was writing in his journal about becoming free from sin:

*4th day 1st of 1 M 1834 / I am thankful in being Able to insert today that is has been a day of some favour - a good day, wherein my soul has experienced some access to the fountain of good, & been enabled to cry in Secret Abba Father.— Our Meeting which was silent was free from conflict which has often awaited me of late. — I rejoice in it & most ardently have I desired for help & preservation.*³⁸⁵

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

385. Stephen Wanton Gould Diary, 1833-1836: The Gould family papers are stored under control number 2033 at the Division of Rare and Manuscript Collections of Cornell University Library, Box 9 Folder 15: January 1, 1833-August 28, 1836; also on microfilm, see Series 7

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

➡ January 2, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 2 of 1st M / Attended Meeting in Town, it was Small, but a season of some favour to my mind, for which I desire to be thankful. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ January 5, Sunday: The Gazette Musicale appeared for the 1st time, in Paris. One of its founders was Franz Liszt.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 5 of 1 M / Both Meetings silent, & times of some favour to me, & I thought in the general a pretty solid covering was felt. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ January 8, Wednesday: David Henry Thoreau checked out, from Harvard Library, the four volumes of Washington Irving's A HISTORY OF THE LIFE AND VOYAGES OF CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS (London: John Murray, Albemarle-Street, 1831; NY: G. & C. Carvill, 1828).

CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS

HDTWHAT?INDEXSTEPHEN WANTON GOULD*FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULDGo To MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

"There is no Frigate like a Book
To take us Lands away"
— Emily Dickinson

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 8th of 1 M 1834 / Our Meeting was silent & some favour experienced. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 9, Thursday: The HMS Beagle and Charles Darwin arrived in Port San Julian, Patagonia.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 9 of 1 M / Felt an inclination to attend the Meeting in Town which to me was a more solid time than I have sometimes enjoyed there Wm Almy preached a good sermon on the necessity of Overcoming &c. —
After Meeting I called to see John Griscom who last evening in going from the Institution was over set & very considerably hurt
— Mary who was with him was also some hurt but not badly.*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

HDTWHAT?INDEX

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

January 12, Sunday: William Wyndham Grenville, 1st Baron Grenville, Prime Minister of the United Kingdom died.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 12 of 1 M / Our Meeting this Morning was a pretty good solid Season – Lydia Breed was favoured in a short pertinent testimony
Silent & pretty good meeting in the Afternoon. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 19, Sunday: Over the course of ten days, Henry C. Wright would religiously view every piece of Scott memorabilia there was to be seen at Abbotsford. Wright had read Scott's SCOTTISH CHIEFS and had concluded, on September 28-29, 1833, that such works were "pernicious." He visited Scott's gravesite. His summation was that despite the manner in which other tourists were treating this place as if it were some sort of shrine, the reputation which Sir Walter Scott had left behind was an insignificant one:

*I believe [Shakespear (sic) & Scott] have ruined many souls.
WOuld God they had never seen the light of day & that I had more strength to resist temptation.*

Sir Walter Scott's Abbotsford

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 19 of 1 M / I have been quite unwell for some days with a cold Cough & some fever, but feel some better this evening. – –Our meetings were both silent but I was favoured with some feeling – A portion of J J Gurneys Portable Evidences were read this evening in our School collection, & tho' I do not unit with

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

every thing he has written, yet I thought what was read was very good. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 23, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 23rd of 1 M 1834 / Attended Preparative Meeting in Town – Wm Almy preached in the first meeting – In the last for the concerns of society – the Queries were Answered & a young man brought forward by the Overseers for Marrying out of the Order of Society

The Select Meeting which followed was a season of searching & distress to most present – indeed I believe it will be safe to say all were brought into a State of feeling on acct of the State of Society & particularly the state of the Ministry in various parts of this Continent & in England. – There are doctrines advanced in writing, in the Gallery, & in private conversation, which are at variance with the Doctrines of the Gospel as professed & preached by our dear Ancient Friends whose memory & spirit is precious to me – & if on acct of this, & some other things, the ways of Zion do not Mourn & distress is felt within her borders, then I do not understand the bleating of Sheep & the loing [lowing] of the Oxen which I hear in mine ears. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

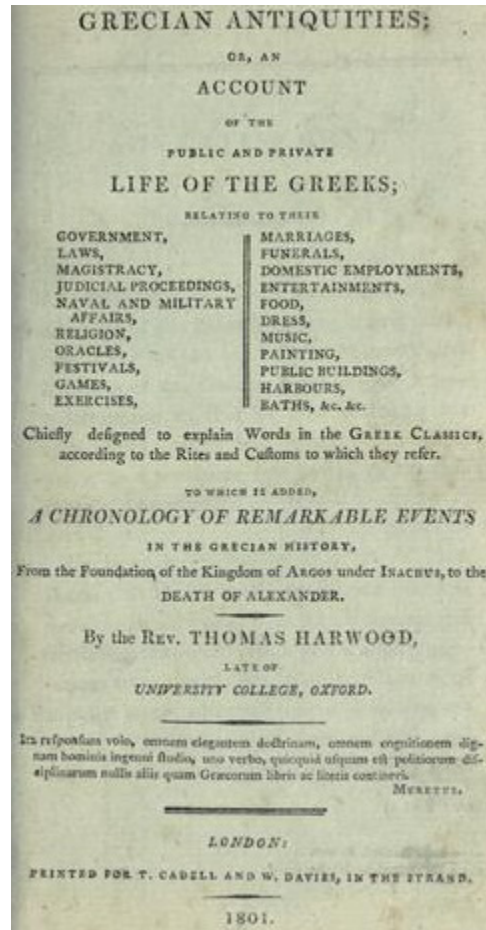

January 29, Wednesday: President Andrew Jackson instructed Secretary of War Lewis Cass to use troops to quell workers' riots along the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal — this would be the initial use of federal troops to quell labor conflicts.

The waters of the Thames River passing through London were so extraordinarily high that it was necessary to have watermen to convey Londoners from street to street.

Fellow student Augustus Goddard Peabody checked out for David Henry Thoreau, presumably from Harvard Library, GRECIAN ANTIQUITIES OR, AN ACCOUNT OF THE PUBLIC AND PRIVATE LIFE OF THE GREEKS; RELATING TO THEIR GOVERNMENT, LAWS, MAGISTRACY, JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS, NAVAL AND MILITARY AFFAIRS, RELIGION, ORACLES, FESTIVALS, GAMES, EXERCISES, MARRIAGES, FUNERALS, DOMESTIC EMPLOYMENTS, ENTERTAINMENTS, FOOD, DRESS, MUSIC, PAINTING, PUBLIC BUILDINGS, HARBOURS, BATHS, &C. &C. CHIEFLY DESIGNED TO EXPLAIN WORDS IN THE GREEK CLASSICS, ACCORDING TO THE RITES AND CUSTOMS TO WHICH THEY REFER. TO WHICH IS ADDED, A CHRONOLOGY OF REMARKABLE EVENTS IN THE GRECIAN HISTORY, FROM THE FOUNDATION OF THE KINGDOM OF ARGOS UNDER INACHUS, TO THE DEATH OF ALEXANDER. BY THE REV. THOMAS HARWOOD, LATE OF UNIVERSITY COLLEGE, OXFORD. (London: Printed for T. Cadell & W. Davies, in the Strand, 1801).

HDTWHAT?INDEXSTEPHEN WANTON GOULD*FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULDGO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

GRECIAN ANTIQUITIES

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*4th day 29 of 1 M / Moy [Monthly] Meeting held in Providence
With the exception of a short testimny from H R - it was silent
- both to me pretty good Meetings. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 4, Tuesday: The negrero Encomium, carrying a cargo of 45 slaves from Charleston, South Carolina, to New Orleans, was wrecked near Fish Key, Abaco, and the slaves were carried to Nassau, in New Providence, British West Indies and there set free. Naughty, naughty Great Britain would eventually need to pay the American owners an indemnity for having so mishandled their slave properties (SENATE DOCUMENT, 24th Congress, 2d session II, No. 174; 25th Congress, 3d session, III, No. 216).

INTERNATIONAL SLAVE TRADE

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

3rd day 4th M 2nd 1834 / Sub Committee Meeting. – A pretty pleasant Day – & my mind very quiet. – We hear by those who come from Rhode Island that Sister Ruth is no better – her case pretty decidedly a Cancer in the breast.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 5, Wednesday: David Henry Thoreau checked out, from Harvard Library, GREEK EXERCISES; CONTAINING THE SUBSTANCE OF THE GREEK SYNTAX, ILLUSTRATED BY PASSAGES FROM THE BEST GREEK AUTHORS, TO BE WRITTEN OUT FROM THE WORDS GIVEN IN THEIR SIMPLEST FORM. BY BENJAMIN FRANKLIN FISK. CONSUECUDO ET EXERCITATIO FACILITATEM MAXIME PARIT. QUINTIL (Boston: Hilliard, Gray, Little, and Wilkins, 1831).³⁸⁶

IT'S ALL GREEK TO ME

Α Β Γ Δ Ε Ζ Η Θ Ι Κ Λ Μ Ν Ξ Ο Π Ρ Σ Τ Υ Φ Χ Ψ Ω
 Α Β Γ Δ Ε Ζ Η Θ Ι Κ Λ Μ Ν Ξ Ο Π Ρ Σ Τ Υ Φ Χ Ψ Ω
 α β γ δ ε ζ η θ ι κ λ μ ν ξ ο π ρ σ ς τ υ φ χ ψ ω
 α β γ δ ε ζ η θ ι κ λ μ ν ξ ο π ρ σ ς τ υ φ χ ψ ω
 Νόμιζε μηδὲν εἶναι τῶν ἀνθρωπίνων βέβαιον.
 Ἡ ψυχὴ τοῖς σπονδαίοις λόγοις αὐξέσθαι πέφυκε.
 Νόμιζε μηδὲν εἶναι τῶν ἀνθρωπίνων βέβαιον.
 Ἡ ψυχὴ τοῖς σπονδαίοις λόγοις αὐξέσθαι πέφυκε.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 5th of 2nd M 1834 / Our Select Meeting to day was to me a comfortable time. – I had good Unity with Lydia Breeds testimony & also with Mary B Allens. – Our Meeting for Sufferings was also a time of Some favour & freedom, this Afternoon & I have enjoyed the company here this evening some of whom have come from Salen Lynn & ware to attend Quarterly Meeting &c at this time. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 6, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 6th of 2nd M 1834 / Our Quarterly Meeting was a truly

386. Benjamin Franklin Fisk graduated from Harvard College with the Class of 1824 (Elias Hasket Derby, Edward Bliss Emerson, John Mark Gourgass, and died in 1832.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*good one throughout - it was a Season of favour & there was Much good preaching - Our friends Danl Howland Thos Anthony - Anna A Jenkins Hannah Dennis & Mary B Allen bore testimony in succession & there was a prayer by a female which I could not hear one word of & I apprehend was heard by few & those who were near to her -
We had but little buisness in the last Meeting, but harmony was prevalent. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 9, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 9th of 2n M 1834 / Silent meetings & rather poor as to life but solid setting & I apprehend some were favoured. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 11, Tuesday: New-York's Platt Street opened.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 11 of 2 m Rode in the Stage to Pawtucket to attend the funeral of Timothy Greene - I learn Timothy was much favoured in his last Illness & apparantly made a good close. - his corpse was singularly tranquil in countenance, & to me this has seemed an earnest of a quiet spirit in an after state - for tho' I have known some instances of this kind where it was justifiable to entertain doubts of future well being - yet not knowing how far the Mediatlional office of Jesus Church may prevail with the Father - I feel most satisfied to consider the countenance of Corpse Somewhat of an Index of an After State - The setting was a solid one - Lydia Breed was much favooured in testimony & many people were present. -

After the funeral I walked back to the Institution thro' the New turnpike rode

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 16, Sunday: A new law went into effect in France giving local officials wide authority to refuse permits to sell newspapers and pamphlets.

Ernst Haeckel was born.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 16th of 2nd M 1834 / Our friend John Wilbur was at Meeting this Morning & engaged in testimony in a manner that was consoling to some Minds present as well as instructive to the Scholars - Silent in the Afternoon sitting

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

February 20, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 20 of 2 M / Attended Meeting in Town it being Preparative Meeting. - Wm Almy preached pretty well. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 23, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 23 of 2 M / Silent Meeting & measurably favoured. - Rote to Thomas Shillitoe
There is now great distress in the Monied community & yesterday Saml Shove failed in Providence - in New Bedford the pressure is unparalled - over Fifty failures having occured in a few Weeks & where it will end is uncertain. -
I thank the Lord that I owe nothing & am no where responsible in away but that I can answer at a Moments Warning that. I know of no responsibility beyond this nor do I apprehend any. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 26, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*4th day 26th of 2nd M 1834 / Rode with my wife to Smithfield to attend the Monthly Meeting It was quiet Solid & Silent - The Morning was cold & the riding rough, but softened & a little better on our return. -
There was very little buisness in the last Meeting & it held but little time. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 27, Thursday: Rosmonda d'Inghilterra, a melodramma serio by Gaetano Donizetti to words of Romani, was performed for the initial time, in Teatro Pergola, Florence.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 27 of 2 M / More trouble in the Monied concerns - We are told today that Otis Barlett of Smithfield has failed & assigned his property for the benefit of his creditors. - This is a hard Stroke for a Man advanced in life & a large dependant family. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 5, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 5th of 3rd M / Yesterday was subcommittee & divers of our friends were here - it was a pretty pleasant day & I hope the labours of the committee will be productive of good particularly in the New School where care & labour is much needed. - This Mornng my wife went in the Steam Boat President

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

to Newport to see Sister Ruth who is very poorly & in a distressed State from a Can[C]erous affliction in her breast. – Being obliged to Carry my wife to town in time to take the Steam Boat – I could not attend our Meeting which I was sorry for, as our friends Edw & Elizabeth Wing was here & attended Meeting. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 6, Thursday: David Henry Thoreau checked out, from Harvard Library, Mary Barney's A BIOGRAPHICAL MEMOIR OF THE LATE COMMODORE JOSHUA BARNEY (1832).

WAR OF 1812

COMM. JOSHUA BARNEY

He also checked out the 1st of the 2 volumes of Captain Charles Stuart Cochrane's JOURNAL OF A RESIDENCE AND TRAVELS IN COLOMBIA DURING THE YEARS 1823 and 1824 (London: Henry Colburn, 1825).

COCHRANE IN COLUMBIA

VOL. II (NOT CONSULTED)

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

"There is no Frigate like a Book
To take us Lands away"
— Emily Dickinson

York, in Upper Canada, was incorporated as the city of Toronto.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 6th of 3rd M 1834 / A tranquiil pleasant day - for which I desire thankfulness of heart

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

The author, in Columbia (in drag?):

In this volume Thoreau would learn of the poison frogs Phyllobates terribilis, Phyllobates bicolor, and Phyllobates aurotaenia occurring from Nicaragua to about 20 degrees latitude in South America. The family Dendrobatidae includes at least 170 species of frogs only these three of which, called “rana de veneno” locally, can produce the extraordinary toxins, more potent than curare, that are used by natives to tip their blowgun darts. Cochrane encountered these frogs as he crossed the western Andes on foot.³⁸⁷

Those who use this poison catch the frogs in the woods, and confine them in a hollow cane, where they regularly feed them until they want the poison, when they take one of the unfortunate reptiles, and pass a pointed piece of wood down his throat, and out one of his legs. This torture makes the poor frog perspire very much, especially on the back, which becomes covered with a white froth: this is the most powerful poison that he yields, 387. The blowgun darts were about eight inches in length, with a spiral groove cut into their pointed tip to convey the poison. The blowguns were of reed, about 12 feet in length. Maximum effective range was approximately 100 yards.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

Go To MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

and in this they dip or roll the points of their arrows, which will preserve their destructive power for a year. Afterwards, below this white substance, appears a yellow oil, which is carefully scraped off, and retains its deadly influence for four to six months, according to the goodness (as they say) of the frog. By this means, from one frog sufficient poison is obtained for about fifty arrows.

March 7, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 7th of 3rd M 1834 / This mornng I called down at Moses Browns & found him buisy in making an Alteration in his Will - In the Afternoon he rode up to the Institution & spent several hours - The clearness of his mind was remarkable. In conversation with J G he opened the nature of the Scriptures & of their divine Spiritually [spirituality?], in a manner that was Striking & powerful, eliciting from my mind the cordial acknowledgement that such good experience "Is enough" to satisfy

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

any mind, that Religion is no fiction, & must be found in spirit, & there experienced, where the Scriptures will bear Witness to that which is made manifest Within. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 8, Saturday: William Lloyd Garrison reviewed, in The Liberator, the 1st American edition of Friend Jonathan Dymond's ESSAYS ON THE PRINCIPLES OF MORALITY, AND ON THE PRIVATE AND POLITICAL RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF MANKIND. BY JONATHAN DYMOND ... WITH A PREFACE BY THE REV. G. BUSH [1796-1859] (NY: Harper & Brothers). Terming Friend Jonathan "the Lord Bacon of our times," Garrison recommended the power and perception of this book as "almost super-human." This British Friend's thoughts finally were reaching their American audience!

READ THIS BOOK

It was in this manner that Friend Jonathan's thoughts on "Civil Obedience" (Essay III, Chapter 5) and the Quaker Peace Testimony reached an American audience. The page header for one of the pages of the chapter on "Civil Obedience" (Essay III, Chapter 5) was "RESISTANCE TO THE CIVIL POWER," and at that point the author was observing that "satisfactory knowledge may be deduced respecting resistance to the civil power," that the true and original Christian will, where appropriate, such as in regard to "acts of bloodshed and violence, or instigations to such acts," decline to participate. This would constitute a "resistance to ... civil power" based upon "non-compliance":

When the first Christians refused obedience to some of the existing authorities, - they did not resist. They exemplified their own precepts, - to prefer the will of God before all; and if this preference subjected them to evils, to bear them without violating other portions of His will in order to ward them off.

WAR RESISTERS LEAGUE

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*7th day 8th of 3rd M / I do not remember to have been more seriously struck than I was this Morning on reading in the Newport Paper Notices of the death of Catherine T Jordan aged 29 Years in Hudson where She lived with her husband - & also of Catherine F Bailey aged 26 wife of Saml Bailey & daughter of our next door neighbour E Pascal Faisnear -
With Catherine Jordan I have known & been acquainted from her childhood - she was when a child a dilligent Attender of Friends Meeting in Newport & seldom Missed being there with her Mother on First days & she & her Husband are intimate acquaintances of our Son John in Hudson -
Hannah T Bailey we have also known from her infancy & was a very pleasant pretty & clever girl & play Mate with John living side by side we were in habits of intimacy
Both were in the bloom & blush of life both called away at an early age & well may we say, in the Midst of life we are in death -
Man cometh up like a flower & is cut down, & to whom shall we*

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

seek for Succor but from Thee O God. – This language with several passages of Scripture have dwelt much on my Mind thro' the day. — I have also noticed in this evenings paper the decease of Doctor Gustavas Baylies who I well remember as a practitioner in Newport when I was a boy, The paper says he was 70 Years old, but from his appearance then I should think he was older. – he Died at Newtown on Lng Island. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 9, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 9 of 3 M 1734 / Today finished a letter & sent it to my Office for my wife in Newport – Also wrote to Abrhm Sherman Jr in answer to one recently recd from him by Cht R Tucker– Our Meetings were both Silent & very solid seasons – My mind some favoured but I could not come at all I wanted to feel –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 10, Monday: The Dusseldorf Theatrical Association constituted itself to bring theater and opera to the city. In charge of directing the operas would be Felix Mendelssohn.

Nehemiah Ball, Jr. was born in Concord, 7th child of Nehemiah Ball and Mary Merriam Ball. He would be fitted for college at the Hopkins Classical School in Cambridge and would prove to be intellectually quite capable, but erratic in disposition.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 10 of 3 M / Recd a letter this evening from my dear Wife at Newport – Mentioning that our beloved Sister Ruth was in a very suffering State with her breast & also that Aunt Nancy Carpenter was quite poorly. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 8, Saturday: William Lloyd Garrison reviewed, in The Liberator, the 1st American edition of Friend Jonathan Dymond's ESSAYS ON THE PRINCIPLES OF MORALITY, AND ON THE PRIVATE AND POLITICAL RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF MANKIND. BY JONATHAN DYMOND ... WITH A PREFACE BY THE REV. G. BUSH [1796-1859] (NY: Harper & Brothers). Terming Friend Jonathan "the Lord Bacon of our times," Garrison recommended the power and perception of this book as "almost super-human." This British Friend's thoughts finally were reaching their American audience!

READ THIS BOOK

It was in this manner that Friend Jonathan's thoughts on "Civil Obedience" (Essay III, Chapter 5) and the Quaker Peace Testimony reached an American audience. The page header for one of the pages of the chapter on "Civil Obedience" (Essay III, Chapter 5) was "RESISTANCE TO THE CIVIL POWER," and at that point the author was observing that "satisfactory knowledge may be deduced respecting resistance to the civil power," that the true and original Christian will, where appropriate, such as in regard to "acts of bloodshed and violence, or instigations to such acts," decline to participate. This would constitute a "resistance to ... civil power" based upon "non-compliance":

When the first Christians refused obedience to some of the existing authorities, — they did not resist. They exemplified their own precepts, — to prefer the will of God before all; and if this preference subjected them to evils, to bear them without violating other portions of His will in order to ward them off.

WAR RESISTERS LEAGUE

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*7th day 8th of 3rd M / I do not remember to have been more seriously struck than I was this Morning on reading in the Newport Paper Notices of the death of Catherine T Jordan aged 29 Years in Hudson where She lived with her husband - & also of Catherine F Bailey aged 26 wife of Saml Bailey & daughter of our next door neighbour E Pascal Faisnear -
With Catherine Jordan I have known & been acquainted from her childhood - she was when a child a dilligent Attender of Friends Meeting in Newport & seldom Missed being there with her Mother on First days & she & her Husband are intimate acquaintances of our Son John in Hudson -
Hannah T Bailey we have also known from her infancy & was a very pleasant pretty & clever girl & play Mate with John living side by side we were in habits of intimacy
Both were in the bloom & blush of life both called away at an early age & well may we say, in the Midst of life we are in death - Man cometh up like a flower & is cut down, & to whom shall we seek for Succor but from Thee O God. - This language with several passages of Scripture have dwelt much on my Mind thro' the day.
— I have also noticed in this evenings paper the decease of Doctor Gustavas Baylies who I well remember as a practitioner in Newport when I was a boy, The paper says he was 70 Years old, but from his appearance then I should think he was older. - he*

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Died at Newtown on Lng Island. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 15, Saturday: Antoine-Jean Letronne (1787-1848)'s Opinions Cosmographiques des Peres (On the Cosmographical Opinions of the Church Fathers), starting on page 601 in Revue des deux Mondes, furthered the conceit that the early Middle Ages had been a period of profound intellectual darkness (this article follows after Washington Irving, as a source for the urban legend that the Flat Earth theory was propagated by the Vatican).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 15 of 3 M / Recd a letter from my wife in Newport – Sister Ruth is no better, her disorder seems to be increasing. – Saw by the Paper this evening that John Lawton Died at the Assylum on Coaster Harbour – Aged 80 Years – he was an apprentice to my Father at the Tailors trade – & in my youth used to work for him, he also at the same time lived nearly opposite my Fathers in the house now occupied & owned by Job Sherman, & I well remember his Mother Sarah Wanton – He was one of the dissolute Young men of that Day & who was in the habit of Drinking to excess & finally went to the Assylum. – What State of mind he died in I know not but hope he gave better evidence of a Sober & religious life in the conclusion than he did in the commencement of his career. He died on the 8th inst & I thought best to insert it being one of whom I had early knowledge & I find all those are fast passing off the Stage of this life –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 16, Sunday: While Mikhail Ivanovich Glinka and his sister were in Berlin, they received word that their father had died. They would immediately return to Russia. This would be Glinka's 1st return to his homeland in almost four years.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 16th of 3rd M 1834 / Morning Meeting Silent – In the Afternoon Wm Almy was here the first time in about three Months he preached from the text "That which makes manifest is light"

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

From this day to the 28th, those institutionalized at Harvard College would be composing a petition to "the Honourable Faculty" of that institution, as follows:

We have no doubt that the original design of this system was good. But at the present time instead of being as it was probably intended by those who introduced it a consequence resulting from labour with higher and nobler motive in view, it has become in a great degree the primary and sole object and with its attainment, in whatever manner, all exertion ceases. That this system tends to produce envy and jealousy among those whose interests require that they should at least in some degree be united we think is evident. We believe moreover that the time has arrived when literary standing must depend on something more than mere college rank, when a nobler motive must prompt the student to action than the petty emulation of the schoolboy, when he must have a higher standard of action than the mere marks of his instructor. Again we think the direct tendency of this system to produce superficial scholars is a strong argument in favour of its abolition.... Impressed with these views we submit them to your consideration with the request that some measures may be taken for the abolition of that system which has produced so universal dissatisfaction [sic].

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

From this point in time into July, during the 3d term of his Freshman year, David Henry Thoreau would be studying the Italian language under the Harvard instructor Pietro Bachi. (Thoreau would be enrolled in the study of Italian for four terms, in the study of French for four terms, in the study of German for four terms, and in the study of Spanish for two terms under an instructor named Sales.)

DEPARTMENT OF MODERN LANGUAGES.

This is at present under the superintendence of George Ticknor, A.M., Smith Professor of the French and Spanish Languages and Literature, and Professor of Belles Lettres; assisted by four Instructors, Viz. Francis Sales, Esq., Instructor in French and Spanish; Pietro Bachi, A.M., J.U.D., Instructor in Italian; Charles Follen, J.U.D., Professor of the German Language and Literature; and Francis M.J. Surault, Instructor in French.

The principles which regulate the study of the modern languages are these: 1. No student is compelled to study anyone of them. 2. A student choosing to study any one, is bound to persevere; he is not permitted to quit the study until he has learnt the language. 3. Those, who enter upon the study of any language, are formed into sections, and carried forward according to their proficiency, without reference to the distinction of Classes. 4. The Instructors are paid only for one half their time, and the days of instruction are Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays. The Recitations are held generally during study hours; or A.M. from Study Bell till 12 o'clock, and P.M. from 2 o'clock till prayers; but, to avoid interference with recitations in other branches, some sessions have been heard from 12 to 1 o'clock, and some in the evening, during the past year.

Two things should be borne in mind, when considering the state of this department during the academical year of 1832-3.

1. Neither Freshmen nor Seniors attended in it, except as volunteers; that is, the Students pursuing the study of some language entirely beyond the regular course. The regular Students, therefore, were all either Sophomores or Juniors, who chose some Modern Language, as a substitute for other prescribed studies.

2. The Graduates attending on the instructions of this department, whose number is considerable, are not noted.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

First Statement.

Number of Undergraduates taught during each term; the languages in which they were instructed; and the proportion of regular Students and Volunteers.

	Fr.	Sp.	It.	German.	Pg.	Volunteers.	Regular.	Total.
First Term	112	15	46	39	7	112	107	= 219
Second Term	109	22	55	49	5	132	108	= 240
Third Term	80	27	71	63	3	129	115	= 244

The system of volunteer study was begun in this Department with thirteen students in 1826; has constantly increased ever since; and is now of more consequence than the system of regular study, embracing large numbers and advancing further.

Second Statement.

Examination was held in each of the terms by the Committee of the Overseers, who attended punctually and examined the students carefully themselves; and there were passed during the year, as having learned French 47; Spanish 16; Italian 21; German 18; Portuguese 2; Total 104.

 March 20, Thursday: Moses Greenleaf died in Williamsburg, Maine.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 20 of 3 M / Attended the Preparative Meeting held in Town, it was Muddy & none of the Girls went & but a few of the boys
Wm Almy engaged in testimony – It was a pretty good Meeting to me. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 March 21, Friday: Le Tribunal de Premiere Instance de la Seine ordered that the annuity promised to Gioachino Rossini by King Charles X be paid in perpetuity.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 22 of 3rd M / Recd a letter from my wife in Newport, & if Sister Ruth is no worse she expects to return to the Institution 3rd day next. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 March 23, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 23rd of 3 M / Our Morning Meeting was silent – In the Afternoon Wm Almy was here & preached a good sermon & was much

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

fuller than common for him on the subject of spirituality It was a good testimony. – Oh that our society may be preserved on the Ancient foundation – in the Doctrine of Ancient Friends who I firmly believe knew the Truth & lived & Died in it –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 26, Wednesday: David Henry Thoreau checked out, from Harvard Library, Thomas Gray's THE VESTAL, OR A TALE OF POMPEII, which although it was a historical novel offered more than 35 pages of explanatory notes in the 1830 edition published in Boston by the firm of Gray and Bowen.³⁸⁸

THE VESTAL ... OF POMPEII

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 26 of 3 M 1834 / Attended Moy [Monthly] Meeting held in Town – Wm Greene preached – followed by Wm Almy. – In the last there was considerable buisness & a time of exercise & some distress but things ended pretty well.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

On the north boreal slope of Canada, Commander George Back received news from York Factory.

(Page 240) ... a person arrived late in the evening with the packet from York Factory, which we had been expecting daily for the last six weeks. The happiness which this announcement
388. Would this have been where Thoreau learned of the ruts of Pompeii, which in 1851 he would mention in his journal?

July 7, Monday, 1851: ...Even the facts of science may dust the mind by their dryness –unless they are in a sense effaced each morning or rather rendered fertile by the dews of fresh & living truth. Every thought that passes through the mind helps to wear & tear it & to deepen the ruts which as in the streets of Pompeii evince how much it has been used. How many things there are concerning which we might well deliberate whether we had better know them. Routine –conventionality manners &c &c –how insensibly and undue attention to these dissipates & impoverishes the mind –robs it of its simplicity & strength emasculates it. Knowledge doe[s] not cone [come] to us by details but by lieferungs from the gods. What else is it to wash & purify ourselves? Conventionalities are as bad as impurities. Only thought which is expressed by the mind in repose as it wer[e] lying on its back & contemplating the heaven's –is adequately & fully expressed– What are side long –transient passing half views? The writer expressing his thought –must be as well seated as the astronomer contemplating the heavens –he must not occupy a constrained position. The facts the experience we are well poised upon –! Which secures our whole attention!

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

instantly created can be appreciated by those only who, like us, have been outside the pale of civilisation, and felt the blessing of communication with their friends but once through a long twelvemonth.

THE FROZEN NORTH

March 27, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 27th of 3rd M / By the Steam Boat this forenoon my dear wife returned from Newport where she has been the last three Weeks with Our dear & well beloved Sister Ruth Rodman who is in an afflicted state with a Cancer on her breast - I am grieved, sorely grieved on her account - there appears to be no prospect of her being better -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 30, Easter Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 30th of 3rd M / In our Morning Meeting Lydia Breed was engaged in a lively sound & pertinent testimony In the Afternoon Wm Almy was here & addressed the Scholars on the subject of Morality & religion. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 17, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 17th of 4th M 1834 / Attended Meeting in Town, it being Preparative & Select meeting In the Public Meeting Wm Almy, Moses Brown, & Anna A Jenkins Spoke & tho' the forepart of it was painful, in ended under a good savour - In the last Meeting the queries were Answered & a communication was recd from a Man who stands as a Member, requesting to be dismissed from Society, & forwarded to the Moy [Monthly] Meeting - In our Select Meeting it was a searching & Very distressing season, but we were favoured to close well or pretty well, & I hope some good was done - It is time the Elders look around them & see what is for them to do. They ought to be Watchmen & Watch Women on the Walls of Zion, & it is greatly to be feared that unless they do stand firm & arrest wrong things & wrong doctrines in their first appearance, that our society will become quite another thing & the Doctrines of our Dear Ancient friends become very much despised or perverted at least, for there Are Doctrines advanced both in England & this country which are at variance with those held in the primitve days of the Society - My soul has long mourned over it & been sorely distressed with apprehensions that some are "Merging" into the Doctrines of other Societies instead of supporting our own.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

April 20, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 4th M 20th 1834 / Our Meetings were both silent & to me seasons of Poverty
Oh that my Soul may not perish on the barren Mountains, be destroyed in the Earthquake, carried off in the whirlwind nor Yet settle down in the calm; at last there seems to be danger on every side, & there is much at this time to encounter to stand from & keep to the Ancient & true foundation, & what will be the result of some Shakings that await us, is beyond my foresight, yet a little hope is underneath that all will not be shaken down*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 30, Wednesday: David Henry Thoreau checked out, from Harvard Library, the 1st volume of Walter Wilson, Esq.'s MEMOIRS OF THE LIFE AND TIMES OF DANIEL DE FOE (London, 1830).

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

THE MAINE WOODS: Setting out on our return to the river, still at an early hour in the day, we decided to follow the course of the torrent, which we supposed to be Murch Brook, as long as it would not lead us too far out of our way. We thus travelled about four miles in the very torrent itself, continually crossing and recrossing it, leaping from rock to rock, and jumping with the stream down falls of seven or eight feet, or sometimes sliding down on our backs in a thin sheet of water. This ravine had been the scene of an extraordinary freshet in the spring, apparently accompanied by a slide from the mountain. It must have been filled with a stream of stones and water, at least twenty feet above the present level of the torrent. For a rod or two, on either side of its channel, the trees were barked and splintered up to their tops, the birches bent over, twisted, and sometimes finely split, like a stable-broom; some, a foot in diameter, snapped off, and whole clumps of trees bent over with the weight of rocks piled on them. In one place we noticed a rock, two or three feet in diameter, lodged nearly twenty feet high in the crotch of a tree. For the whole four miles, we saw but one rill emptying in, and the volume of water did not seem to be increased from the first. We travelled thus very rapidly with a downward impetus, and grew remarkably expert at leaping from rock to rock, for leap we must, and leap we did, whether there was any rock at the right distance or not. It was a pleasant picture when the foremost turned about and looked up the winding ravine, walled in with rocks and the green forest, to see, at intervals of a rod or two, a red-shirted or green-jacketed mountaineer against the white torrent, leaping down the channel with his pack on his back, or pausing upon a convenient rock in the midst of the torrent to mend a rent in his clothes, or unstrap the dipper at his belt to take a draught of the water. At one place we were startled by seeing, on a little sandy shelf by the side of the stream, the fresh print of a man's foot, and for a moment realized how Robinson Crusoe felt in a similar case; but at last we remembered that we had struck this stream on our way up, though we could not have told where, and one had descended into the ravine for a drink. The cool air above, and the continual bathing of our bodies in mountain water, alternate foot, sitz, douche, and plunge baths, made this walk exceedingly refreshing, and we had travelled only a mile or two, after leaving the torrent, before every thread of our clothes was as dry as usual, owing perhaps to a peculiar quality in the atmosphere.

HDT

WHAT?

INDEX

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Thoreau also checked out Oliver Goldsmith's THE HISTORY OF ENGLAND FROM THE EARLIEST TIMES TO THE DEATH OF GEORGE THE SECOND, ... WITH A CONTINUATION TO THE TREATY CONCLUDED AT PARIS IN THE YEAR 1815.

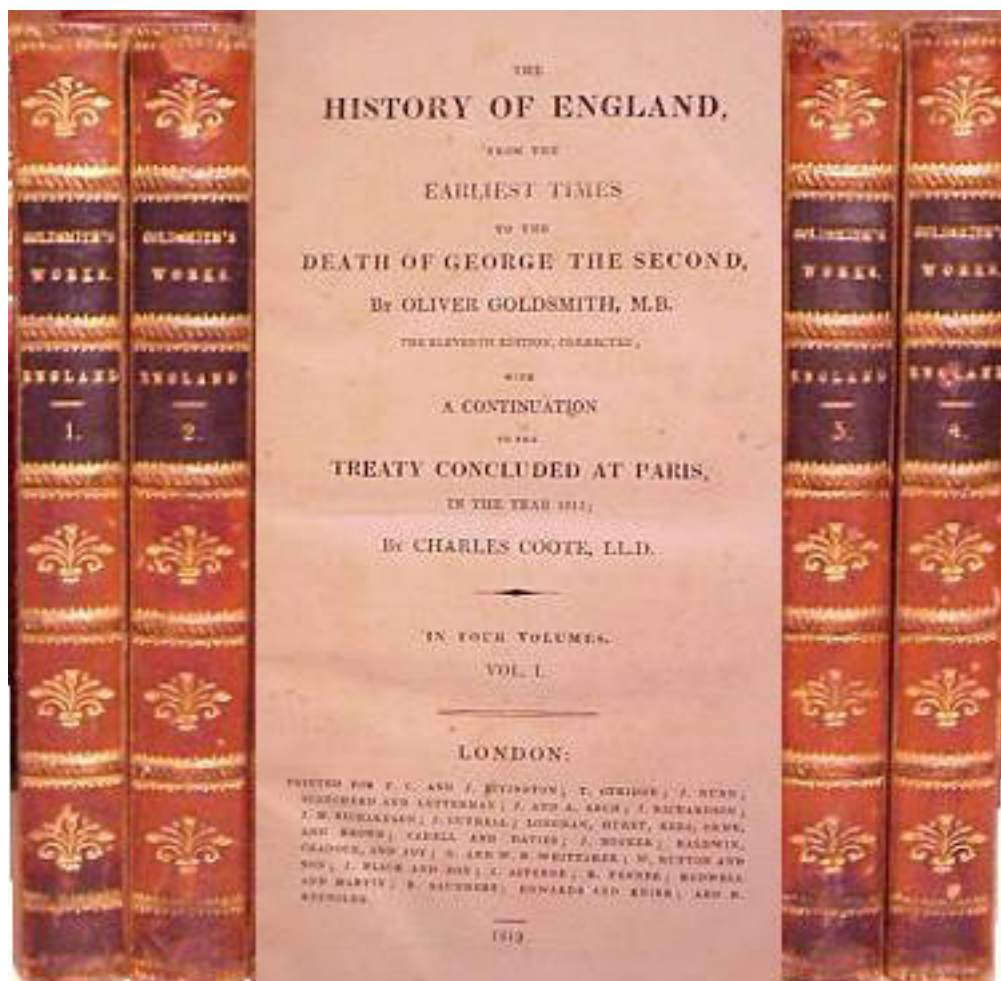

GOLDSMITH'S ENGLISH, I

GOLDSMITH'S ENGLISH, II

GOLDSMITH'S ENGLISH, III

GOLDSMITH'S ENGLISH, IV

This had originally been issued in 1771 and had covered the history of England only down to 1760. The volumes Thoreau consulted may have been from any one of a number of expanded editions, for instance an expanded edition by Charles Coote (1819) that continued the history of England into the year 1815:

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

4th day 30th of 4 M / Rode this Morning to Greenwich to attend the Quarterly Meeting - The Select Meeting this day held was a season of favour After the Meeting for Sufferings in the Afternoon We went to Daniel HOWlands & lodged

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 11, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 6 M 11th 1834 / Early this Morning Ann V Allen daughter of Gideon Allen of New Bedford Died at the Institution aged 13 Years She was taken on 7th day last with a distressing disease which proved to be the Dropsy in the Head - her Agony was great till very near the close & she was deprived of reason very soon after she was taken - In the Afternoon her father carried her home for Internment - This event was an exceedingly trying one -not only to us but throughout the whole Institution

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 12, Thursday: Ioannis Kolettis replaced Alexandros Nikolaou Mavrokordatos as President of the Ministerial Council of Greece.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 12 / This eveng we recd a letter from Edw W Lawton informing is that our Dear & truly beloved Sister Ruth Rodman was apparently very near her end & requested we would come to Newport in the early Boat tomorrow Morning -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 13, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*6th day 6 M 12th [sic] / We got on board the Rush Light this Morng at 8 OClock & in about 3 hours found ourselves in Newport - but our dear Sister had left us - She died yesterday soon after Edw W Lawtons letter was written - The Cancer on her breast with which she had long suffered set to bleeding & very speedily released her from great suffering & I have no doubt has transplanted her from Earth to Heaven
We found our dear Aged Father & Mother very quiet & composed & also our dear Sister Mary for which I trust our hearts were truly thankful*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

June 14, Saturday: A process for making sandpaper was patented in the US by Isaac Fischer, Jr. of Springfield, Vermont.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*7th day 14th of 6th M 1834 / As the funeral of our dear Sister Ruth was to take place at 4 OC this Afternoon, I saw nothing in my way to going to Portsmouth & attending the First sitting of the Select Yearly Meeting & accordingly rode there with Richard Mott – the forepart of it was a season of favour which I thought Augered well for the Meetings that were to come – divers solid & weighty testimonies were borne & the buisness of the Meeting was conducted under a sense of solid weight & closed with a precious covering – I rode immediately home, & in the Afternoon attended the funeral which was indeed a time of no common favour – tho' held at the House there were many attended, & many public friends were present from abroad who had come to attend the Yearly Meeting The first who spoke was Anne Thorn then Hannah Bacckhouse & Rebecca Updegraph followed in a most ardent Supplication – After which the setting closed
At the grave Sophrona Page appeared in supplication & H Backhouse & Mary Allen preached – this was an uncommon occurence, for there to be so much service at a grave in Newport I remember but few such occurences in the course of my life. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 15, Sunday: Despite Hungarian opposition, Prince von Metternich granted permission for the publication in Zagreb of a political newspaper and literary magazine in Croatian.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 15th of 6th M 1834 / Our public Meetings were very large – In the Morning Richard Mott had the weight of the Service very much to the gratification, & I trust the edification of the people present, & particularly to the comfort of his friends. – In the Afternoon Richd was sick & was not at Meeting –there were divers offerings most of which were Satisfactory & I thought the people were very quiet & a good degree of solid weight over the Meeting. –
This Morning I had the Satisfaction to Meet our dear John Stanton Gould on the Long Wharf when the Steam Boat landed her pasangers – it was matter of Mutual regret to us he could not have been here to have attended the funeral of his beloved Aunt Ruth, but it was orderd otherwise & it is our duty to submit. – Second Day Morning the Meeting opened under a solemn covering – & as I cannot [two pages repeated] recollect with sufficient precision to enter each days exercise. I must close the account by inserting that it was a season of uncommon favour & a general harmony prevailed & a sense of love was singularly manifest in the progress of the buisness of the Meeting – It closed on 6th day forenoon, & my wife having the Service of Clerk to perform*

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

we could not return to the School House on 7th day but were detained in Newport till 12 O'clock on first day, when we took the NYork Boat which had been detained in the fog, but we reached the School House just after the Afternoon Meeting had commenced - we did not go into Meeting but caught the drippings in the entry & heard a living Sermon from Rebecca Updegraff We regretted not being able to Stay in Newport to attend the funeral of our Ancient friend & worthy Elder Hepzibah Buffum who died yesterday - but it seemed most prudent to return - under a thankful sense of a week of divine favour, tho' the loss of our dear & truly valuable Sister Ruth, was trying & Afflicting to our feelings, but the consoling belief that she has escaped a world of conflict & great suffering for a year past, & is doubtless translated into another & far better country - assuages all our privation & loss sustained by her removal. In addition, (until 6th day) we had the company of our dear John who left us before the Meeting closed, his buisness at Hudson requiring his return. It is a great consolation to us that he retains the Principles, & in a very good degree the appearance of a Friend & is much attached to Society taking an interest in the concerns of it, & is actively engaged in promoting many good things - particularly Temperance. We desire & I trust we are, humbly thankful that he has thus far, been in good measure preserved & our prayer to God is, that he may be enlarged in every good word & Work. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 9, Wednesday: The administration of Earl Grey had been formed in England soon after the resignation of the Wellington administration, on November 16, 1830. At this point the Grey administration was dissolved (a new administration would form under Viscount Melbourne).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 9 of 7 M 1834 [a problem here, for Monday 2nd day was the 7th of July] / Went to Newport in the Steam Boat Rush Light this morning to settle the Yearly Meeting Accounts & to attend to some other buisness which was of importance to me I also visited some of my friends & acquaintances & had a pleasant time - returned to Providence in the Rush Light on 4th day Afternoon. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 13, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 13th of 7th M 1834 / Hannah Backhouse attended Meeting at the Institution & preached & prayed In the Morning - In the Afternoon Dugan Clarke & his wife Asseaneth were here - Asseaneth preached & also Dugan - then Asseaneth prayed & it felt to me, they were in the life & power of the Gospel - their

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

company & services were comfortable and strengthening to me. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 20, Sunday: Waldo Emerson preached temperance to the Native Americans at Stillwater, Maine.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 20th of 7 M / Sat our meetings in weakness & poverty, but not as distressing as at some times – In our School Collection this eveng an acct of a friend was read from Piety Promoted who appeared to have lived a long life of Virtue & closed in peace - after the reading closed & the pause continued - I felt desirous for a little help from the fountain of life & turning my mind to it more closely I felt the veil withdrawn & access given in a manner that was comfortable & encouraged my Spirit. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 24, Thursday: In Portugal, the Liberal Wars came to an end.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 24th of 7th M 1834 / It is Preparative Meeting & Also Select Meeting, but being very unwell this Mornng my head & bowels much out of order, I did not go to Meeting tho' I dressed & thought I would go till nearly Meeting time, when I found my head particularly so poorly that I dare not risk the hot sun. – my mind has been often with them & sometimes almost regret I did not attempt to go

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 30, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 30th of 7 M 1834 / Attended Monthly Meeting held in town. It was a time of favour – no common favour – Wm Almy was first engaged in testimony then Hannah Robinson then Dorcas Paine & the Anna A Jenkins. –then Lydia Breed in supplication –It was not so much from the general outpouring, that I count the remarkable feeling of life & love which seemed to prevail, tho I do consider some of the communications were as Diamonds of the first water & calculated to do much good particularly to the youth. –but there was that over the Meeting which seemed to carry the evidence that Silence is Worship as well as vocal communication. –There was not much buisness to engage the attention of the last Meeting & it closed after a short setting. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

August 4, Monday: Abraham Lincoln, age 24, was elected to the Illinois General Assembly as a member of the Whig party. He would begin to study law.

Barthelemy Theodore, chevalier de Theux de Meylandt replaced Jean Louis Joseph Lebeau as head of government for Belgium.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

John Venn was born at Hull in Yorkshire.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 4 of 8th M 1834 / Joseph Bowne returned from his religious visit to the eastern Quarterly Meeting & attended the Afternoon Meeting in Town yesterday – today he called here at the Institution & sat less than an hour & then returned homeward

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

taking the SteamBoat for NewYork.

This Afternoon took a pleasant & interesting walk to Moses Browns Bridge with the little girls -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 5, Tuesday: The Ecclesiastical Reform Commission for Portugal declared that all clergymen currently absent from their churches or monasteries were to be considered traitors.

During the night Elijah Pierson died. Later, the prophet Matthias would darkly warn the others in The Kingdom that any who opposed him could expect to die in the same manner.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 5th of 8th M 1834 / This Afternoon Rode down to Rhode Island & lodged at Uncle Stantons

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 6, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day Attended Select Quarterly Meeting In the Afternoon we rode into Newport Passed the Afternoon at Father Rodmans In the eveing at Aunt Nancy Carpenter but we found the Old lady very sick

We felt strengthened at leaving Aunt Nancy on 5th day Morning, but she was willing we should go to Portsmouth to attend the Quarterly Meeting which we did - It was a very warm day & on that account the most suffering Meeting I recollect to have attended - we had some preaching which was good & satisfactory, but the stream did not rise high

We had not much buisness in the last Meeting. - After Meeting we got a little Dinner at Jeremiah Giffords & returned to Providence intending to return to New Port if we understood Aunt Nancy was much worse.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 8, Friday: After observing a spectacular meteor shower, Professor John Locke (1792-1856) of Ohio Medical College reported that all the streaks of light had seemed to be originating from a point near the star Algol in the constellation Perseus. -But the annual nature of this August phenomenon, the Perseid shower, would not become clear for some years.

SKY EVENT

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day was the General School committee Many of the committee attended. among them was our dear friends Edw & Elizabeth Wing who left in the Afternoon, for Elizabeth to finish her family

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

visit in Greenwich Monthly Meeting –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 13, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 13th of 8th M 1834 / Our Meeting was silent but some favour experienced - This Afternoon I have been favoured to feel very quietly & pleasantly. It is comfortable to feel the Mind tendered & sweetened by the fresh incomes of Divine life. Moses Brown called & set some time with us this Afternoon, he showed us a few lines he had recd from Josiah Foster, accompanying the London Eoistles both of which we read, that to the Mens & Womens Yearly Meeting. – which produced a Solemnity & quiet over our Minds. – I have had one letter & one verbal account from Newport, which impart that Aunt Nancy is not worse than when we left her. –

The Evening Transcript:

The general excitement occasioned by the proceedings of night before last at Charlestown, and which yesterday-for the honor of the city be it said-raged among us with an earnestness corresponding to the atrocious character of that affair, has today, in a good degree, subsided. To the active exertions of the Mayor, and other municipal authorities-the spirit and unanimity with which these were seconded by the whole community, and especially the great meeting called at Faneuil Hall-and finally, to the very commendable course pursued, as will be seen, by the Reverend Bishop Fenwick-must it be attributed, that after so stormy a day, the night passed off without disturbance in any direction. At Charlestown, also, the proceedings of the public meeting undoubtedly had a similar effect.

Among all the comment excited by this unprecedented enormity, we have noticed none which more justly describes the nature of the case than that of the Atlas, a portion of which we transfer to our columns.

What a scene must this midnight conflagration have exhibited-lighting up the inflamed countenances of an infuriated mob of demons-attacking a convent of women, a seminary for the instruction of young females, and turning them out of their beds, half naked in the hurry of their flight, and half dead with confusion and terror. And this drama, too, to be enacted on the very soil that afforded one of the earliest places of refuge to the puritan fathers of New England-themselves flying from religious persecution in the old world-that their descendants may wax strong and mighty, and in their turn

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

be guilty of the same persecution in the new!

We remember no parallel to this outrage in the whole course of history. Turn to the bloodiest incidents of the French Revolution-roll up the curtain that hangs before its most sanguinary scenes-and point us to its equal in unprovoked violence, in brutal outrage, in unthwarted iniquity. It is in vain that we search for it. In times of civil commotion and general excitement-of confusion, and cruelty, and blood-when the edifice of civil society was shaken to its base and crumbling into ruin-when the foundations of the great deep were broken up, and rapine and fire and murder, were sweeping like a torrent over the land-in times like these there was some palliation for violence and outrage, in the tremendously excited state of the public mind.

But here there was no such palliation. The Courts of Justice were open to receive complaints of any improper confinement, or unauthorized coercion. The civil magistrates were, or ought to be on the alert, to detect any illegal restraint, and bring its authors to the punishment they deserve. But nothing of the kind was detected. The whole matter was a cool, deliberate, systematized piece of brutality-unprovoked-under the most provoking circumstances totally unjustifiable-and visiting the citizens of the town, and most particularly its magistrates and civil officers, with indelible disgrace.

The violation of the tomb in the garden, alone, would seem sufficient to justify these remarks, severe as they are. The feelings with which, yesterday morning, we witnessed the rude exposure of those remains to the glare of the day, and the gaze of an indiscriminate multitude, are such as we hope may never be aroused again.

The destruction of the Bishop's Lodge, in front of the Convent, has not excited much comment; but we cannot forbear expressing our regret-especially since the publication of the course adopted by that prelate on this occasion-that a large and valuable library, consisting of classical and other works, should have been utterly consumed in the common ruin which overwhelmed the whole establishment; not a single book was saved.

We rejoice that no occasion arose last night for the application of any of the means provided by the authorities and the citizens generally, for the preservation of good order. Large numbers of volunteers acted as special constables and watchmen during the night, the firemen were on the alert, and the Independent companies had made arrangements for very prompt attendance in case of necessity, but fortunately none of their services were required.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

MEETING OF THE CATHOLICS. So great was the excitement among the Catholics, that Bishop Fenwick deemed it necessary to call a meeting at the Church in Franklin street. The account of which, we copy from the Gazette of this morning.

At 6 o'clock several hundred were assembled, when the Bishop came in and addressed them for about thirty minutes, in a most eloquent and judicious manner. He deserves the warmest commendation from his Protestant fellow citizens, for the admirable style in which he managed this business. Previous to speaking, the Bishop read a part of the fifth chapter of Matthew, containing the following among other verses:

"you have heard that it hath been said, An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth. But I say to you, not to resist evil: but if one strike thee on thy right cheek, turn to him also the other.

"And if a man will contend with thee in judgment, and take away thy coat, let go thy cloak also unto him. And whosoever will force thee one mile, go with him other two.

"You have heard that it hath been said, Thou shall love thy neighbor, and hate thy enemy. But I say to you, love your enemies, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them that persecute and calumniate you."

Bishop Fenwick then proceeded to address his hearers, embracing several hundred of both sexes. He spoke of the destruction of the Usuline Convent and the adjacent buildings. He spoke also of the beauty and utility of that institution, and alluded to its growing popularity among the intelligent classes, both in this vicinity and at a distance. Among the pupils of the institution were some from Louisiana, and the West India Islands. After denouncing the conduct of the incendiaries in appropriate terms, he asked, "What is to be done? Shall we say to our enemies, you have destroyed our buildings, and we will destroy yours? No, my brethren, this is not the religion of Jesus Christ-this is not in accordance with the spirit of that blessed religion we all profess. Turn not a finger in your own defence, and there are those around you who will see that justice is done you."

The Bishop then complimented the City Authorities and others for the stand they had taken in defence of the rights of the Catholics; and he assured his hearers that they had the sympathies of all respectable citizens. The destruction of the Convent, he said, was an act of the most degraded of the human species, and it met with no

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

favor from the intelligent people of Boston. He impressed upon the minds of his Catholic brethren the fact, that it was not their duty to seek revenge for this vile act; and said that that man was an enemy to the religion he professed, and would put the Catholic Church in jeopardy, who should raise a finger against their opponents at this time.

The Bishop said he had no fears that those who were present would act in opposition to his advice and if any acts of violence were committed, it would be by those who, with perhaps a commendable ardor and alacrity, were rushing to their aid from a distance, and who may not have correct information on the subject. He enjoined it upon all present as solemn duty, to inform these individuals, if they should fall in with any of them, of what he had said, and the advice he had just given them.

He concluded his admirable remarks-which were delivered in a most impressive manner-by assuring his hearers that the Public Authorities were not idle spectators of what was passing. They are on the alert, (said he) and it is your duty to remain quiet, to remain peaceable, and they will see you righted.

GREAT MEETING AT CHARLES TOWN

A meeting was called yesterday afternoon by the Selectmen, for the purpose of obtaining an expression of the opinions of the citizens, in regard to the recent outrage. Dr. Thompson was chosen Moderator, and P. Dodge Esq, Secretary. The following resolutions were passed:

Resolved, That a liberal reward be offered by the Town, for the detection of the authors of the outrage last night committee.

Resolved, That a committee of five persons be appointed to report such resolutions as it may be expedient for the town to adopt, and to nominate a Committee Vigilance.

The following persons were appointed: Hon E. Everett, Capt Whipple, John Soley Esq, William Austin Esq, and John Skinner Esq.

The above committee retired, but soon returned and reported the following preamble and resolutions:

Whereas, The Ursuline Convent, in this town, was attacked last night by a riotous and lawless assemblage, its peaceful and unoffending inmates-consisting exclusively of women and children-driven out, and the Convent, after being pillaged, was, with the adjacent buildings, reduced to ashes, therefore

Resolved, unanimously, by the citizens of Charlestown,

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

in town meeting assembled, that we regard with feelings of indignation and horror, the aforesaid lawless acts of midnight violence, committed within the limits of town.

Resolved, unanimously, that the citizens here assembled consider it a duty to themselves and the town, to take all proper measures to ascertain the authors and perpetrators of the aforesaid acts of violence and outrage, committed in a manner unexampled in this country-in defiance of the laws, and in violation of those feelings of honor and humanity, by which the innocent and defenceless are place under the protection of all good citizens.

Resolved, That it is the incumbent duty of all good citizens, to co-operate with the Selectmen and the magistrates in detecting and bringing to justice all persons concerned as perpetrators and abettors of outrages so discreditable to the community in which we live, and to the country at large.

Resolved, That the following persons be appointed a Committee of Vigilance, whose duty it shall be in conjunction with the Selectmen, to take such measures as may be necessary to reserve the public peace, and to detect the perpetrators of the outrages last night committed, viz: Gen N. Austin, Joseph Tufts, Esq, David Devens, Esq, J. K. Frothingham Esq, Capt L. Turner, Dr A. R. Thompson, Capt Joe F. Boyd, Benjamin Thompson Esq, Dr J. S. Hurd, and Wm Sawyer Esq.

Resolutions were also passed, authorizing the Committee of Vigilance to offer a suitable reward, not exceeding $1000, for the detection of the projectors of the conflagration, to be paid in proportion to the degree of guilt proved against the offenders, and requesting the Governor of the Commonwealth to offer a suitable reward for a similar purpose.

The Rev Mr Byrne, Catholic Priest, made some just and pertinent remarks, and assured the meeting that he had used, and he hoped effectually, the most untiring exertions to prevent a reaction on the part of the Catholics. He was listened to with marked attention.

Mr Everett, after reading the resolutions, drawn up by himself, made a few brief, but energetic remarks, and the resolutions were carried nem con.

HDTWHAT?INDEXFRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

August 23-September 10: “Effusiva-Esplosiva — Lava a SE tra Boscoreale ed Ottaviano.
Distrutto il borgo di Caposecchi e di S. Giovanni (800 persone senzatetto).”

MOUNT VESUVIUS

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 23 of 8 M / Rode into Town this Morning & soon after I got there was informed by Arnold Congdon that our dear friend & faithful labourer in the Gospel Daniel Howland of East Greenwich - he died last night in a fit & is to be buried tomorrow - the particulars I have not learned, but conclude it must be very sudden, he was at Providence on the 8 & 9 of this Month & attended the School committee & Meeting for Sufferings - he then appeared to be as well as usual, tho' I recollect of noticing a flush in his face, & heft of countenance, which I thought might be indicative of a repeated attack of a fit having had one some Months or a year ago. - He was indeed what may well be denominated a lovely & very loving friend - but few of my acquaintance possessed more of the milk of human Kindness, or was more devoted in the cause of Truth & deeper in concern for the welfare of our poor society. Altho' in point of matter there was not that

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

variety of subject & expression in his Ministry yet I can truly testify that his Offerings never seemed to me as old Manna, but if his matter was similar to what we had often heard, it seemed to be renewedly sanctified & seldom failed to produce some baptism in the auditory & were sometimes very reaching – his loss will be deeply felt among a numerous acquaintance by whom he was unusually beloved, & also in Society where his public labours & usefulness in our Meetings for discipline will be greatly missed - He had arrived at an age when according to the course of nature it could not be expected that he could continue much longer, having attained the [blank] Year of his Age, but it is hard to part with such dear friends & valued pillars in the Church.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 24, Sunday: The Sociedade Filarmonica was established in Rio de Janeiro.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*8th M 24 (1st day) 1834 / It has been a warm day & an oppressive air. – Our Meetings partaking of the state of our bodys. – My mind much in thought about the funeral at Greenwich, but it did not seem best for me to go – We learn that several of our friends in Town went & among them Wm Almy & Arnold & Gilbert Congdon John Bullock & wife (Br & Sister in Law to John Griscom) attended Meeting in the Afternoon – Also Ahab Arnold
Some Months ago I heard Our friend Thomas Anthony relate a dream he had sometime before, which has occur'd to my mind since hearing of the decease of Daniel Howland. – Thomas told me in this House that he Dreamed he stood in a pleasant open piece of ground, & that as he looked up he saw Daniel Howland rising up to Heaven seated in a large Easy Chair. – this seemed to me at the time I heard Thomas relate it as a remarkable & striking dream & very characteristic of the manner in which he went thro' the world, for no man went more easily & comfortably & I have no doubt he has gone straight to heaven. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 27, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*4th day 27th of 8th M 1834 / Today was our Monthly Meeting held at Smithfield to which my wife and I went & had a very pleasant ride & in addition & far to be prised – a good Meeting. Our friends Jeremiah Hubbard & Phineas Nixon his companion from N Carolina & John Warren from Maine were present & had good service, tho' I thought John was more in the life & power than any who spoke.
Jeremiah is not here on a specific religious Mission but under an appointment with the friends that is with him from the Meeting for Sufferings of his own Yearly Meeting to Our Meeting for Sufferings on the State of the black people in N Carolina which*

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

appear to be in a Critical State.

John Warren is here on his way to NYork where he expects to embark on his religious Mission in England & Ireland.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 29, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6 day 29 of 8 M 1834 / Today our friend John Warren went in the Steam Boat for NYork intending to embark next 2nd day [Monday] the 1 of 9M for England & Ireland on a religious visit in furtherance of which he recd a certificate from the Select Yearly Meeting in the 6 M last. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 31, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 31st of 8th M 1834 / In our Morning Meeting Lydia Breed & Mary B Allen had good service - it was a favoured time - In the Afternoon Jeremiah Hubbard was here & was better than common & the children were very attentive - It was a time of some favour - tho' I must confess the Stream did not rise in my own mind quite as high as it does sometimes. - In the evening I had a conversatiion with a couple of young women who are not members, but Scholars here - they are inclining to the Baptists - my mind was uncommonly open & enlarged with them & tho' it may not make Quakers of them may nevertheless be of some Service to them.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 6, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 6 of 7th M 1834 / We recd this Afternoon a letter from Newport informing that our Aged Aunt Anna Carpenter was taken in a fit & was very low, & our company necessary, we accordingly made ready & on First 1st day [Sunday] Mornng went down in the Steam Boat & found her some revived so that she new Hannah, but I was not sensible that she knew me - On 2nd day [Monday] finding her comfortable for her situation & considerably revived I left & returned to Providence to prepare to leave for a longer time if it should be found Necessary - but by the Mail on 3rd day I recd a letter informing me She was much worse & My wife requested my return to Newport immediately. Accordingly at 12 OC on 4th day I set out & on my way to the Steam Boat recd a letter from Brother Isaac Mentioning that she Died that Morning about 5 OC the 10th of 9th M 1834 in the 89th Year of her Age. - I arrived there in the Afternoon, & found her whom I had seen in the Same place & loved from a child removed from time; No more to be Seen of Men -on 6th day the 12th inst her remains were interd in friends burying ground between the graves of her Husband Caleb Carpenter, & her daughter Mary after a Solid

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Silent Sitting at the house

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 13, Saturday: For his 13th and final flight in the clouds, Charles Ferson Durant soared the distance from Boston to Lincoln in 2 hours and 20 minutes. This brought his career to an abrupt termination, as he had pledged that he would hang up his talaria in exchange for a vow from a certain young lady to love, honor, and obey (the middle-aged Louis Lauriat may have witnessed this adolescent derring-do and the reaction of the masses).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

On 7th day following after making some preparation to leave Newport - on 1st day [Sunday] Morning I took the Steam Boat & returned to Providence, leaving my wife in Newport on Account of her Mother whom she did not feel easy to leave being taken quite sick the night before - however on 2nd day [Monday] finding her Mother Better She returned in the Steam Boat in the Afternoon. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 18, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 18th of 9th M 1834 / We have this day Mentioned to our friends here, that in consequence of the decease of our Aged Aunt Anna Carpenter we have come to the conclusion to leave the Institution & Providence, & return to Newport to live, it was her request two years ago that we should do so - & now her boarders are all desirous we should come & occupy the house & make a family with them, which after due deliberate consideration we have concluded to do - Aunt Nancy Carpenter having by her Will so provided that we can do it, to some advantage & convenience to our Selves - that Is - she has given to My wife the South half of her house in which we have lived & paid rent for, & after her, she has given it to our son John. The other half the house she has given her brother Clarke Rodman during his life & after him to Mary Rodman during her life, & after her decease to our Son John in fee Simple he paying Twelve Hundred Dollars, that is to say Six hundred to David Rodman & Six hundred to John Rodmans children that may be living at Marys decease, or at Fathers decease whichever event may last occur - So that we think it best for us to return & occupy the whole House with her boarders & as by her Will she has ordered that her family shall not be immediately broken up; We shall have time to prepare -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 21, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 21 of 9 M 1834 / Just before we went into Meeting this Morning Edmond Breed Died Aged 21 Years - he had been a Scholar

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

here & had been hired to work on the farm, was taken Sick between two & three Weeks ago of a fever - his illness tho' slow in progress & his departure at last rather sudden, it having taken an unfavourable turn on his stomach & bowels - about an half an hour before his final close he requested the whole family called and gave us all his hand & bid us farewell & in the course of the Morning Sent Messages to his parents & brothers, & also to Several of his acquaintances & to some who was around his bed he gave suitable advice, it was indeed a solemn Scene & our Meeting was a season to be remembered tho' not a word was uttered.

*—
In the Afternoon Wm Almy was here & preached. —*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 24, Wednesday: The Reverend Horatio Wood received and accepted a call to minister in Walpole, New Hampshire.

Dom Pedro, leader of the Portuguese liberal cause, died of consumption at the age of 36. He had defeated his absolutist brother Dom Miguel four months earlier. Pedro de Sousa Holstein, marques e conde de Palmela would replace him as prime minister.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 24th of 9th M / Our friend Thos Arnott from Indiana Yearly Meeting attended our Moy [Monthly] Meeting today - which was a season of favour to us all, he was large in testimony & well adapted to States & conditions present —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 4, Saturday: Since August 1833 Great Britain and France had been proposing that the United States of America join in a treaty for suppression of the international slave trade. The US had been making insincere excuses, and playing games. At this point, backed into a corner, we got honest, admitting that we weren't about to "make the United States a party to any Convention on the subject of the Slave Trade" (PARLIAMENTARY PAPERS, 1835, Volume LI, SLAVE TRADE, Class B, pages 84-92).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 4th of 10th M 1834 / We this day recd a very interesting letter from our dear John - it gave us great comfort & satisfactiion in every part, & I may acknowledge my spirit was much tendered in reading it - among other things he mentioned that the day he wrote his letter, he recd one from our dear Ancient Father Moses Brown now 96 Years old - John reflections upon it were such as evinced a mind, viewing things on right ground & under a State of feeling which promises an increase, if cultivated rightly.

We have known for some time that he was under engagement in Marriage to Mary Ashby a young woman living near his present residence, of good standing in the world & a Member of Society -for this our hearts have often been secretly glad even to humble

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

rejoicing - in his letter recd today he informs us that his Marriage day is now fixed & if life is preserved & nothing occurs to prevent will take place the 3 of 9 M 1835 which is nearly a Year hence, if we live, & they live, we may probably be at Hudson about that time. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 5, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 5 of 10 M / Our Morning Meeting was silent In the Afternoon Wm Almy was here & preached an animated sermon - after which Lydia Breed prayed. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Richard Henry Dana, Jr. on the Pilgrim discovered himself as close to the coast of South America.

AND NOW, FOR SOMETHING ENTIRELY DIFFERENT, A REPORT FROM OUR SAILOR:

Sunday, October 5th. It was our morning watch; when, soon after the day began to break, a man on the fore-castle called out, "Land ho!" I had never heard the cry before, and did not know what it meant, (and few would suspect what the words were, when hearing the strange sound for the first time,) but I soon found, by the direction of all eyes, that there was land stretching along on our weather beam. We immediately took in studding-sails and hauled our wind, running in for the land. This was done to determine our longitude; for by the captain's chronometer we were in 25° W., but by his observations we were much farther, and he had been for some time in doubt whether it was his chronometer or his sextant which was out of order. This land-fall settled the matter, and the former instrument was condemned, and, becoming still worse, was never afterwards used.

As we ran in towards the coast, we found that we were directly off the port of Pernambuco, and could see with the telescope the roofs of the houses, and one large church, and the town of Olinda. We ran along by the mouth of the harbor, and saw a full-rigged brig going in. At two, P.M., we again kept off before the wind, leaving the land on our quarter, and at sun-down, it was out of sight. It was here that I first saw one of those singular things called catamarans. They are composed of logs lashed together upon the water; have one large sail, are quite fast, and, strange as it may seem, are trusted as good sea boats. We saw several, with from one to three men in each, boldly putting out to sea, after it had become almost dark. The Indians go out in them after fish, and as the weather is regular in certain seasons, they have no fear. After taking a new departure from Olinda, we kept off on our way to Cape Horn.

CHRONOMETRY

LONGITUDE

November 14, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 11M 14 1834 / After a residence of Six Years lacking 8 days My wife left the Institution today in the Steam Boat President for Newport where we expect to reside for a time - I expect to follow her in a few days & join in the cares of our family Aunt Nancy Carpenter having requested in her life time that we

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

would keep her family together & also left me one of the Executors of her Will renders it necessary we should be in Newport - we therefore resigned our Standing in the Institution at Providence at the last Meeting of the General Committee

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Hughes Bernard Maret, duc de Bassano replaced Etienne Maurice, comte Gerard as prime minister of France.

In Parma, Nicolò Paganini played his 1st concert in Italy since he left in 1828.

The Pilgrim entered the Pacific Ocean and began to turn toward the north:

Friday, Nov. 14th. We were now well to the westward of the Cape, and were changing our course to the northward as much as we dared, since the strong south-west winds, which prevailed then, carried us in towards Patagonia. At two, P.M., we saw a sail on our larboard beam, and at four we made it out to be a large ship steering our course, under single-reefed topsails. We at that time had shaken the reefs out of our topsails, as the wind was lighter, and set the main top-gallant sail. As soon as our captain saw what sail she was under, he set the fore top-gallant sail and flying jib; and the old whaler- for such, his boats and short sail showed him to be- felt a little ashamed, and shook the reefs out of his topsoils, but could do no more, for he had sent down his top-gallant masts off the Cape. He ran down for us, and answered our hail as the whale-ship, New England, of Poughkeepsie, one hundred and twenty days from New York. Our captain gave our name, and added ninety-two days from Boston. They then had a little conversation about longitude, in which they found that they could not agree. The ship fell astern, and continued in sight during the night. Toward morning, the wind having become light, we crossed our royal and skysail yards, and at daylight, we were seen under a cloud of sail, having royals and skysails fore and aft. The "spouter," as the sailors call a whaleman, had sent out his main top-gallant mast and set the sail, and made signal for us to heave to. About half-past seven their whale-boat came alongside, and Captain Job Terry sprang on board, a man known in every port and by every vessel in the Pacific ocean. "Don't you know Job Terry? I thought everybody knew Job Terry," said a green-hand, who came in the boat, to me, when I asked him about his captain. He was indeed a singular man. He was six feet high, wore thick cowhide boots, and brown coat and trowsers, and, except a sun-burnt complexion, had not the slightest appearance of a sailor; yet he had been forty years in the whale trade, and, as he said himself, had owned ships, built ships, and sailed ships. His boat's crew were a pretty raw set, just set out of the bush, and, as the sailor's phrase is, "hadn't got the hayseed out of their hair." Captain Terry convinced our captain that our reckoning was a little out, and, having spent the day on board, put off in his boat at sunset for his ship, which was now six or eight miles astern. He began a "yarn" when he came aboard, which lasted, with but little intermission, for four hours. It was all about himself, and the Peruvian government, and the Dublin frigate, and Lord James Townshend, and President Jackson, and the ship Ann M'Kim of Baltimore. It would probably never have come to an end, had not a good breeze sprung up, which sent him off to his own vessel. One of the lads who came in his boat, a thoroughly countrified-looking fellow, seemed to care very little about the vessel, rigging, or anything else, but went round looking at the live stock, and leaned over the pig-sty, and said he wished he was back again tending his father's pigs.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

At eight o'clock we altered our course to the northward, bound for Juan Fernandez.

This day we saw the last of the albatrosses, which had been our companions a great part of the time off the Cape. I had been interested in the bird from descriptions which I had read of it, and was not at all disappointed. We caught one or two with a baited hook which we floated astern upon a shingle. Their long, flapping wings, long legs, and large staring eyes, give them a very peculiar appearance. They look well on the wing; but one of the finest sights that I have ever seen, was an albatross asleep upon the water, during a calm, off Cape Horn, when a heavy sea was running. There being no breeze, the surface of the water was unbroken, but a long, heavy swell was rolling, and we saw the fellow, all white, directly ahead of us, asleep upon the waves, with his head under his wing; now rising on the top of a huge billow, and then falling slowly until he was lost in the hollow between. He was undisturbed for some time, until the noise of our bows, gradually approaching, roused him, when, lifting his head, he stared upon us for a moment, and then spread his wide wings and took his flight.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

November 22, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 22nd of 11th M 1834 / It is just Six Years today, the same day of the Month & Week, since we Came to Providence to reside at the yearly Meeting School - I am still here, but my wife returned to Newport more than a Week ago - our things are packed up or nearly so, & I am waiting for the Packet to come up & take them on board, to convey them to our Native town & former residence.

Alass what changes have taken place there since we left it, many whom we loved in life were intimately associated with, have gone to their long homes, to be Seen of men no more, yet some are left who we shall be glad to greet again as friends & neighbours on this side of the grave. - Since our residence at Providence we have enjoyed much & suffered much, & after all have much to be thankful for.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 26, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

On the 26th of 11th M I left the Institution after taking leave of both Schools, the Help in the Kitchen, & those who usually are occupants of the setting room - at 12 OC went on board the Steam boat Benj Franklin & returned to Newport. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 27, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

On the 27th was Monthly Meeting held in Newport at which I saw many of my old friends & Acquaintance. - The first Meeting was a time of favour, Father Rodman, Hannah Dennis & Elizabeth Wing were lively pertinent & solemn in testimony - In the last Meeting the buisness was conducted solidly & regularly. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

The Pilgrim, with Richard Henry Dana, Jr., sailed north along the East coast of South America, day after day in waters without islands, entirely out of sight of the continent.

Thursday, Nov. 27th, upon coming on deck in the morning, we were again upon the wide Pacific, and saw no more land until we arrived upon the western coast of the great continent of America.

As we saw neither land nor sail from the time of leaving Juan Fernandez until our arrival in California, nothing of interest occurred except our own doings on board. We caught the south-east trades, and ran before them for nearly three weeks, without

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

so much as altering a sail or bracing a yard. The captain took advantage of this fine weather to get the vessel in order for coming upon the coast. The carpenter was employed in fitting up a part of the steerage into a trade-room; for our cargo, we now learned, was not to be landed, but to be sold by retail from on board; and this trade-room was built for the samples and the lighter goods to be kept in, and as a place for the general business. In the mean time we were employed in working upon the rigging. Everything was set up taut, the lower rigging rattled down, or rather rattled up, (according to the modern fashion,) an abundance of spun-yarn and seizing-stuff made, and finally, the whole standing rigging, fore and aft, was tarred down. This was my first essay at this latter business, and I had enough of it; for nearly all of it came upon my friend S_____ and myself. The men were needed at the other work, and M_____, the other young man who came out with us, was laid up with the rheumatism in his feet, and the boy Sam was rather too young and small for the business; and as the winds were light and regular, he was kept during most of the daytime at the helm; so that nearly all the tarring came upon us. We put on short duck frocks, and taking a small bucket of tar and a bunch of oakum in our hands, went aloft, one at the main royal-masthead and the other at the fore, and began tarring down. This is an important operation, and is usually done about once in six months in vessels upon a long voyage. It was done in our vessel several times afterwards, but by the whole crew at once, and finished off in a day; but at this time, as most of it came upon two of us, and we were new at the business, it took us several days. In this operation they always begin at the mast-head and work down, tarring the shrouds, back-stays, standing parts of the lifts, the ties, runners, etc., and go out to the yard-arms, and come in, tarring, as they come, the lifts and footropes. Tarring the stays is more difficult, and is done by an operation which the sailors call "riding down." A long piece of rope- topgallant-studding-sail halyards, or something of the kind- is taken up to the masthead from which the stay leads, and rove through a block for a girt-line, or, as the sailors usually call it, a gant-line; with the end of this a bowline is taken round the stay, into which the man gets with his bucket of tar and a bunch of oakum, and the other end being fast on deck, with some one to tend it, he is lowered down gradually, and tars the stay carefully as he goes. There he "swings aloft 'twixt heaven and earth," and if the rope slips, breaks, or is let go, or if the bowline slips, he falls overboard or breaks his neck. This, however, is a thing which never enters into a sailor's calculation. He only thinks of leaving no holydays, (places not tarred,) for in case he should, he would have to go over the whole again; or of dropping no tar upon the deck, for then there would be a soft word in his ear from the mate. In this manner I tarred down all the headstays, but found the rigging about the jib-booms, martingale, and spritsail yard, upon which I was afterwards put, the hardest. Here you have to hang on with your eyelids and tar with your hands.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

This dirty work could not last forever, and on Saturday night we finished it, scraped all the spots from the deck and rails, and, what was of more importance to us, cleaned ourselves thoroughly, rolled up our tarry frocks and trowsers and laid them away for the next occasion, and put on our clean duck clothes, and had a good comfortable sailor's Saturday night. The next day was pleasant, and indeed we had but one unpleasant Sunday during the whole voyage, and that was off Cape Horn, where we could expect nothing better. On Monday we commenced painting, and getting the vessel ready for port. This work, too, is done by the crew, and every sailor who has been on long voyages is a little of a painter, in addition to his other accomplishments. We painted her, both inside and out, from the truck to the water's edge. The outside is painted by lowering stages over the side by ropes, and on those we sat, with our brushes and paint-pots by us, and our feet half the time in the water. This must be done, of course, on a smooth day when the vessel does not roll much. I remember very well being over the side painting in this way, one fine afternoon, our vessel going quietly along at the rate of four or five knots, and a pilot-fish, the sure precursor of a shark, swimming alongside of us. The captain was leaning over the rail watching him, and we went quietly on with our work.

November 30, Sunday: There was a total eclipse of the sun (#7251) from Alaska to Virginia.

SKY EVENT

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 11th M 30th 1834 / Attended our Meetings in Newport - In the Morning Father Rodman was engaged in testimony & supplication & in the Afternoon in testimony - The Meetings were well attended and there seems some encouragement to hold on & endeavour to keep up our Meetings - for tho' they are much smaller & changed from what they were in the early part of my life, yet it seems as if there was some life remaining & yet solid attenders. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 4, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 4th of 12 M 1834 / Attended Meeting & was favoured with a little ability to labour in the spirit of the Mind for help - the Meeting looked natural, & feels natural but how long we may be sojourners in it, is Strongly on the page of uncertainty A few days ago I recd a letter from our friend Wm Rickman of Rochester England now in the 90th year of his Age. - This seemed

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

much like a brook by the way & I was thankful for it. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 7, Sunday: Andante spianato for piano by Frédéric François Chopin was performed for the initial time, by the composer at a Berlioz concert in the Paris Conservatoire.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 7th of 12 M 1834 / Pretty good Meetings - with a little exception in the Afternoon - A young man wellmeaning delivered a testimony & being not a member, was alluded to in a manner by a friend, which I thought & felt did more hurt than the young mans testimony - when shall we be all Wise. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 11, Thursday: A commando party from the Cape government killed a Xhosa chief. (An army of 10,000 men led by his brother Maqoma would cross into the Cape Colony pillaging and torching homesteads. This 6th Xhosa War would include clashes between white settlers and Bantu peoples in Cape Colony. Dutch-speaking settlers would colonize the area north of the Orange River.)

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 11th of 12th M 1834 / Silent solid meeting In the evening we went to Henry Goulds & passed the time pleasantly. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 14, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 14th of 12 M 1834 / Silent & solid Meetings It was a stormy day & the gathering small

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 20, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 20 of 12 M / My mind has been favoured this Morning with a degree of life for which I desire to be thankful

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

According to a notice in the Hampshire Telegraph and Sussex Chronicle etc. of Portsmouth, England for February 16, Monday, 1835 and in the Caledonian Mercury of Edinburgh, Scotland for February 19, Thursday, 1835, on this day the British troop-ship containing Captain John Thoreau of the 37th Regiment of Foot was departing from the island of Jamaica in the Caribbean, intending to head for the harbor of Portsmouth, England: “The Athol, troop-ship, Mr. Karley, Master-Commander, arrived on Sunday, in 23 days from New Providence. She left Jamaica Dec. 20, and brought home a company of the Royal Artillery” and in addition four passengers including “Capt. Thoreau of the 37th Regiment.”³⁸⁹

We need not inquire as to whether Captain John and scholar David Henry were relatives by blood, as that might have been the case or might not have been the case but in any event matters not, not a whit, neither to them nor to us. What we need to ask of ourselves is whether or not we might be persuaded that a strong disjunction exists between the life of such a military person living upon expectation of eventual arrival in a home port and/or upon expectation of eventual promotion to a next higher ranking, on the one foot, and the sort of life that was here being recommended to us by this Harvard College teenage scholar. –Because, if such a strong disjunction might be made out to exist, then also, the advice being offered to us above might be made out to be at least in part an expression of a Peace Testimony: that this recommended feminine enjoyment of “life as it passes” is more consistent with a peaceable life than with the much admired manly spit-and-polish blood-and-guts way of the warrior.

David Henry Thoreau’s Harvard College assignment was to write an essay on the topic “The different ideas we form of men whose pursuit is Money, Power, Distinction, Domestic Happiness, Public Good.” Quoting Alexander Pope’s “Essay on Man,” Thoreau’s reaction, in part, was:

Aristocrats may say what they please, liberty and equal rights are and ever will be grateful, till nature herself shall change; and he who is ambitious to exercise authority over his fellow beings, with no view to their benefit or injury, is to be regarded as actuated by peculiarly selfish motives. Self-gratification must be his sole object. Perhaps he is desirous that his name may be handed down to posterity, that in after ages something more may be said of him, than that he lived, and died. He may be influenced by still baser motives; he may take delight in the enjoyment of power merely, and feel a kind of satisfaction at the thought that he can command and be obeyed. It is evident then that he, who thus influenced, attains at last the summit of his wishes, will be a curse upon mankind. His deeds may never be forgotten; but is this greatness? If so, may I pass through life unheeded and unknown.

“But grant that those can conquer; these can cheat;

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

'Tis phrase absurd to call a villain great."

When we hear it said of a man that Money is the idol which he worships ... we figure to ourselves one who is continually striving after something which he is destined never to obtain, and who does not enjoy life as it passes, but lives upon expectation. In short, one who has painted to himself an imaginary Elysium, towards which no step in his progress brings him nearer.

December 21, Sunday: Waldo Emerson to his journal:

Blessed is the day when the youth discovers that Within and Above are synonyms.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 21 of 12 M / Our Meetings were both times of some favour, especially in the Morning - Father Rodman was engaged in testimony in both & I thought with useful effect - It is now a time of great stir among the religious professors in many places & Newport comes in for its share. - I hope some good will arise from it, but it is greatly to be feared many will take up with a false rest, as rest short of that which is in God thro' Jesus Christ - Many have gone into the water today & been Baptised, who I fear have not yet known that of the Holy Ghost & Fire to have passed in them. - Oh! that people knew that true Religion does not consist in their own willing & runnings, & that of themselves they can do nothing aright but that all must come from God thro' Jesus Christ, that is able to effect salvation & that not in the Whirlwind & Fire, but the small still voice must be known & heard, before true progress can be made in Religion -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 22, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 22nd of 12 M 1834 / This has been a remarkably fine & pleasant Day for the season of the Year - In the forenoon I took a walk round the Hill & called to see Old Ceasar Wanton who is now wanting a few Months of 90 Years of Age - he has been a very respectable black man all his life & was Servant to old Gideon Wanton who died in this Town in the year [blank] Ceasar seemed very tender in spirit & sensible of his time in this World being

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

very short, he assented to his dependence on God thro' Jesus Christ & said he prayed for patience to wait for his close. - he is so as to walk about his room & the house - but seemed very weak & feeble, & as if it would not be long before he will leave this world of pain & tribulation, & I have no doubt when the Change comes it will be peaceful & Happy. - It felt to me while sitting with him, that the present state of his mind is an earnest of that which will follow in an After State. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 24, Wednesday: Robert Schumann purchased all publication rights to the Neue Zeitschrift fur Musik, making him the sole owner.

Little more than a year after he entered the Paris Conservatoire, Jacques Offenbach was officially removed from the list of students, voluntarily.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 24th of 12 M 1834 / I have lately recd a letter from Wm Rickman of Rochester England now in the 90th Year of his Age it was written in a fair & pretty firm hand, tho' the tremulous hand of Age appears in some parts of it - yet it evinces a lively frame of spirit & shows that the religion of his youth is not Lost in old age & that he yet occasionally travels in the Ministry & in the course of the last summer took a circuit of many Miles & attended three Quarterly Meetings. - I have this Afternoon recd a letter from My dear friend Moses Brown, now in the 97th Year of his age in a hand writing nearly as good as W Rickmans & evincing the same greenness in old age & liveliness of Spirit which convinced him of Friends principles in the Morning of life & is now the guide & staff of his old age. - I shall keep these letters as precious mementos of these venerable Friends the first I was acquainted with when here on a religious visit in the Year [blank] And with the latter I have been long intimately & interestingly acquainted before I lived in Providence & while there was much united in travel of spirit for the welfare of society & the Institution, with which we were connected.

It is not likely I shall ever have many more letters from those Friends, tho' if M B continues in Mutability I may occasionally get one from him. -& I am willing here to record that he has been my long tried & well proven Friend - I love & venerate his name

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 December 25, Thursday, Christmas: All liberals in Spain received a general amnesty.

Franz Liszt and Frédéric François Chopin appeared jointly in at Stoepel's Music School, Paris, playing Moscheles Grand Duo for piano four hands and Liszt's own Grosses Konzertstück über Mendelssohns Lieder ohne Worte.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 25th of 12th M 1834 / Rode to Portsmouth in the Stage & attended Moy [Monthly] Meeting - The Day was cold & some Snow falling which made the Meeting small - The Meeting was silent excepting a few words from Hannah Dennis towards the close. - it was also a low & hard time to me & I thought the same feeling was prevalent - In the last Waterman Chase & Elizabeth Anthony daughter of Job published their intentions of Marriage, a certificate granted to the Widow Whiting & her daughter & a complaint noticed against Wm T. Potter for his departure in dress & Address & also for Suffering Music & dancing in his House. - After meeting dined at Asa Shermans & hired his Chaise & son to bring me home, as it looked like a Storm & not wishing to wait for the evening Stage or be obliged to stay from home all night.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Charles Darwin spent this Christmas Day aboard the HMS Beagle in an unnamed harbor of the peninsula of Tres Montes in Patagonia.

Christmas was becoming, at this point, an American national holiday. Frederick Douglass recounted that the contract his owner had made with the farmer Mr. Edward "The Snake" Covey, in accordance with the holiday convention of that period, was complete as of Christmas Day, but that the institution of slavery was so contaminated that even traditional generosity could easily be placed at the service of impure and base motives:

Frederick Douglass's NARRATIVE

The days between Christmas and New Year's day are allowed as holidays; and, accordingly, we were not required to perform any labor, more than to feed and take care of the stock. This time we regarded as our own, by the grace of our masters; and we therefore used or abused it nearly as we pleased. Those of us who had families at a distance, were generally allowed to spend the whole six days in their society. This time, however, was spent in various ways. The staid, sober, thinking and industrious ones of our number would employ themselves in making corn-brooms, mats, horse-collars, and baskets; and another class of us would spend the time in hunting opossums, hares, and coons. But by far the larger part engaged in such sports and merriments as playing ball, wrestling, running foot-races, fiddling, dancing, and drinking whisky; and this latter mode of spending the time was by far the most agreeable to the feelings of our masters. A slave who would work during the holidays was considered by our masters as scarcely deserving them. He was regarded as one who rejected the favor of his master. It was deemed a disgrace not to get drunk at Christmas; and he was regarded as lazy indeed, who had not provided himself with the necessary means, during the year, to get whisky enough to last him through Christmas.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Meanwhile, half a world away and on 'tother side of several cultural divides, our sailor boy Richard Henry Dana, Jr. was finding that on Christmas Day Captain F. Thompson of the Pilgrim was somewhat more interested in the discipline and control of his crew than in the good of his crew.

[next screen]

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

AND NOW, FOR SOMETHING ENTIRELY DIFFERENT, A REPORT FROM OUR SAILOR:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Thursday, Dec. 25th. This day was Christmas, but it brought us no holiday. The only change was that we had a “plum duff” for dinner, and the crew quarrelled with the steward because he did not give us our usual allowance of molasses to eat with it. He thought the plums would be a substitute for the molasses, but we were not to be cheated out of our rights in this way.

Such are the trifles which produce quarrels on shipboard. In fact, we had been too long from port. We were getting tired of one another, and were in an irritable state, both forward and aft. Our fresh provisions were, of course, gone, and the captain had stopped our rice, so that we had nothing but salt beef and salt pork throughout the week, with the exception of a very small duff on Sunday. This added to the discontent; and a thousand little things, daily and almost hourly occurring, which no one who has not himself been on a long and tedious voyage can conceive of or properly appreciate—little wars and rumors of wars,—reports of things said in the cabin,—misunderstanding of words and looks—apparent abuses,—brought us into a state in which everything seemed to go wrong. Every encroachment upon the time allowed for rest, appeared unnecessary. Every shifting of the studding-sails was only to “haze”¹ the crew.

In the midst of this state of things, my messmate S _____ and myself petitioned the captain for leave to shift our berths from the steerage, where we had previously lived, into the forecabin. This, to our delight, was granted, and we turned in to bunk and mess with the crew forward. We now began to feel like sailors, which we never fully did when we were in the steerage. While there, however useful and active you may be, you are but a mongrel,—a sort of afterguard and “ship’s cousin.” You are immediately under the eye of the officers, cannot dance, sing, play, smoke, make a noise, or growl, (i.e. complain,) or take any other sailor’s pleasure; and you live with the steward, who is usually a go-between; and the crew never feel as though you were one of them. But if you live in the forecabin, you are “as independent as a wood-sawyer’s clerk,” (nautic,) and are a sailor. You hear sailors’ talk, learn their ways, their peculiarities of feeling as well as speaking and acting; and moreover pick up a great deal of curious and useful information in seamanship, ship’s customs, foreign countries, etc., from their long yarns and equally long disputes. No man can be a sailor, or know what sailors are, unless he has lived the forecabin with them—turned in and out with them, eaten of their dish and drank of their cup. After I had been a week there, nothing would have tempted me to go back to my old berth, and never afterwards, even in the worst of weather, when in a close and leaking forecabin off Cape Horn, did I for a moment wish myself in the steerage. Another thing which you learn better in the forecabin than you can anywhere else, is to make and mend clothes, and this is indispensable to sailors. A large part of their watches below they spend at this work, and here I learned that art which stood me in so good stead afterwards.

But to return to the state of the crew. Upon our coming into the forecabin, there was some difficulty about the uniting of the allowances of bread, by which we thought we were to lose a few pounds. This set us into a ferment. The captain would not condescend to explain, and we went aft in a body, with a Swede, the oldest and best sailor of the crew, for spokesman. The recollection of the scene that followed always brings up a smile, especially the quarter-deck dignity and eloquence of the captain. He was walking the weather side of the quarter-deck, and seeing us coming aft, stopped short in his walk, and with a voice and look intended to annihilate us, called out, “Well, what the d—l do you want now?” Whereupon we stated our grievances as respectfully as we could, but he broke in upon us, saying that we were getting fat and lazy, didn’t have enough to do, and that made us find fault. This provoked us, and we began to give word for word.

1. Haze is a word of frequent use on board ship, and never, I believe, used elsewhere. It is very expressive to a sailor, and means to punish by hard work. Let an officer once say, “I’ll haze you,” and your fate is fixed. You will be “worked up,” if you are not a better man than he is.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

THE REPORT FROM OUR SAILOR DANA, CONCLUDED:

This would never answer. He clenched his fist, stamped and swore, and sent us all forward, saying, with oaths enough interspersed to send the words home,— “Away with you! go forward every one of you! I’ll haze you! I’ll work you up! You don’t have enough to do! If you a’n’t careful I’ll make a hell of the ship!.... You’ve mistaken your man! I’m F_____ T_____, all the way from ‘down east.’ I’ve been through the mill, ground, and bolted, and come out a regular-built down-east johnny-cake, good when it’s hot, but when it’s cold, sour and indigestible;— and you’ll find me so! The latter part of this harangue I remember well, for it made a strong impression, and the “downeast johnny-cake” became a by-word for the rest of the voyage. So much for our petition for the redress of grievances. The matter was however set right, for the mate, after allowing the captain due time to cool off, explained it to him, and at night we were all called aft to hear another harangue, in which, of course, the whole blame of the misunderstanding was thrown upon us. We ventured to hint that he would not give us time to explain; but it wouldn’t do. We were driven back discomfited. Thus the affair blew over, but the irritation caused by it remained; and we never had peace or a good understanding again so long as the captain and crew remained together.

“NARRATIVE HISTORY” IS FABULATION, HISTORY IS CHRONOLOGY

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1835

January 1, Thursday: Waldo Emerson lectured at the Lyceum in Concord on “The Study of Natural History.”

Incidental music to Schmale’s play Beim Antritt des neuen Jahres WWV 36 by Richard Wagner was performed for the initial time, in the Magdeburg Stadttheater, conducted by the composer.

In this extraordinarily cold winter Boston Harbor had frozen, all the way out to Fort Independence.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 1st M 1st 1835 / It has been a very clear Day & the Air cold. — Attended Meeting which was Silent & I thought solid - Indeed it has been a pretty good day with me - for which I desire to be thankful. —³⁹⁰

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 4, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 4th of 1st M / In our Morning Meeting Father Rodman preached a short good testimony - Silent in the Afternoon

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 11, Sunday: Mrs. Mary Mercy Moor Ellis died. This missionary couple had produced four children. The Reverend Ellis would prepare a biography of his deceased wife.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

390. Stephen Wanton Gould Diary, 1833-1836: The Gould family papers are stored under control number 2033 at the Division of Rare and Manuscript Collections of Cornell University Library, Box 9 Folder 15: January 1, 1833-August 28, 1836; also on microfilm, see Series 7

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1st day 11 of 1st M / Meetings well attended for Winter & Father Rodman engaged in a more than commonly solemn Testimony in the Morning, & a few words in the Afternoon - At the close of the Mornng Meeting Job Sherman read the Notice of the Funeral of Uncle Isaac Almy at Portsmouth on 4th day next - Which was the first we had heard of his death or Sickness - It appears he had been unwell with the Influenza for some days & last night ate a hearty supper of minced pie & went to bed as usual but in the night was taken unwell & got up with a view of making a fire & fell & died instantly. - How true indeed it is that in the Midst of life we are in death, & how great & forcibly is the necessity suggested of a state of preparation to meet the summons in its sudden presentation

He was a man who promised to live long as his constitution was favourable to it & his ancestors lived long. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 21, Wednesday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 21st of 1st M 1835 / To day the Select Meeting was held at Portsmouth - being quite unwell I did not go. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 22, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 22 of 1st M 1835 / Attended Preparative Meeting in Newport. - The first meeting was a time of some favour & in the last we had some evidence of the continuation of a right concern among the brethren. The remarks of my cousin Henry Giuld on the reading of the Queries was pleasant & in accordance with my own feelings. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Richard Henry Dana, Jr. arrived in the bay of Monterey, California.

AND NOW, FOR SOMETHING ENTIRELY DIFFERENT, A REPORT FROM OUR SAILOR:

It was a fine Saturday afternoon when we came to anchor, the sun about an hour high, and everything looking pleasantly. The Mexican flag was flying from the little square Presidio, and the drums and trumpets of the soldiers, who were out on parade, sounded over the water, and gave great life to the scene. Every one was delighted with the appearance of things. We felt as though we had got into a Christian (which in the sailor's vocabulary means civilized) country. The first impression which California had made upon us was very disagreeable:— the open roadstead of Santa Barbara; anchoring three miles from the shore; running out to sea before every south-easter; landing in a high surf; with a little darklooking town, a mile from the beach; and not a sound to be heard, or anything to be seen, but Sandwich Islanders, hides, and tallow-bags. Add to this the gale off Point Conception, and no one can be at a loss to account for our agreeable disappointment in Monterey. Beside all this, we soon learned, which was of no small importance to us, that there was little or no surf here, and this afternoon the beach was as smooth as a duck-pond.

We landed the agent and passengers, and found several persons waiting for them on the beach, among whom were some, who, though dressed in the costume of the country, spoke English; and who, we afterwards learned, were English and Americans who had married and settled in the country.

I also connected with our arrival here another circumstance which more nearly concerns myself; viz., my first act of what the sailors will allow to be seamanship— sending down a royal-yard. I had seen it done once or twice at sea, and an old sailor, whose favor I had taken some pains to gain, had taught me carefully everything which was necessary to be done, and in its proper order, and advised me to take the first opportunity when we were in port, and try it. I told the second mate, with whom I had been pretty thick when he was before the mast, that I would do it, and got him to ask the mate to send me up the first time they were struck. Accordingly I was called upon, and went up, repeating the operations over in my mind, taking care to get everything in its order, for the slightest mistake spoils the whole. Fortunately, I got through without any word from the officer, and heard the “well done” of the mate, when the yard reached the deck, with as much satisfaction as I ever felt at Cambridge on seeing a “bene” at the foot of a Latin exercise.

January 25, Sunday: Hector Berlioz began his duties as concert critic at the Journal des Debats, a post he would hold for the following 28 years.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 25th of 1st M / In the Morning Meeting, Father Rodman was engaged in a short but good testimony & the Meeting was well attended — Silent in the PM. — I have been very unwell with a heavy cold attended with some fever for several Days & it is as much as ever it was prudent for me to be at Meeting this Afternoon as it Rained. — I hope my indisposition will not prevent my being at Providence Qrtly Meeting next week — but hope to be content, be it as it may. — I do not feel much stimulous about going, but should be unwilling to be absent, having several appointments to answer.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 January 28, Wednesday: George Cuvier Harlan was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, son of Professor Richard Harlan.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 28th of 1st M / I have been out a little today but find it safest & most comfortable to keep mostly within doors. - my cough continues & I seem to take cold very easy. - My mind has been favoured with quiet. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 29, Thursday: Waldo Emerson began his first planned series of lectures, six offered on the topic of biography sponsored by the Society for the Diffusion of Useful Knowledge, at the Masonic Temple in Boston, by delivering the introductory lecture "Tests of Great Men."³⁹¹

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 29th of 1st M 1835 / Monthly Meeting in town which was a time of some favour but no great overflowing. - The buisness in the last pretty well conducted

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 February 1, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 1st of 2 M 1835 / Our Morning meeting was well attended & to my feelings a solid & rather solemn meeting, a time of Favour to me for which I desire to be thankful in the fresh feeling & evidence which attended me. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

391. These are now printed in EARLY LECTURES, Volume I, pages 93-201, the editors of which assert that Emerson "was becoming dissatisfied both with the restraints imposed by the lyceum system and with the subject of science as there presented."

At some point during this year, a 12-year-old Thomas Wentworth Higginson would be attending one or another of Emerson's public lectures.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

February 2, Monday: Waldo Emerson to his journal:

Let Christianity speak ever for the poor & the low. Though the voice of society should demand a defence of slavery from all its organs that service can never be expected from me. My opinion is of no worth, but I have not a syllable of all the language I have learned, to utter for the planter. If by opposing slavery I go to undermine institutions, I confess I do not wish to live in a nation where slavery exists. The life of this world has but a limited worth in my eyes & really is not worth such a price as the toleration of slavery. Therefore though I may be so far restrained by unwillingness to cut the planter's throat as that I should refrain from denouncing him, yet I pray God that not even in my dream or in madness may I ever incur the disgrace of articulating one word of apology for the slave trader or slaveholder.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 2 of 2 M 1835 / Set out this mornng on the Stage for Providence - before we got to Durfees Tavern in Portsmouth the Stage Broke down - concluding it would be sometime before they could get repaired I walked on, but by the way got a Man to take his Waggon & carry me to the Ferry - when the Passengers arrived they inform'd me they succeeded in getting under way again in the Stage but they had not proceeded far before the Axle tree broke & the Coach turned bottom upward & tho' several were hurt none Seriously injured - I could but rejoice that I had taken another way to get to the ferry for if my weight had been added to the others the consequence might have been more serious - Crossed the ferry & again took a Coach & arrived safe at Providence, tho' we again came near being oversett - the horses taking a shear & running on a side Bank in the road, in consequence of one of the bridles giving way. - Lodged at my Kind friend Moses Browns who was very glad to see me & received me in a kind & affectionate manner. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 3, Tuesday: At the 3d performance of I Puritani at the Theatre-Italien of Paris, the decree and ribbon making him a chevalier of the Legion of Honor were presented to Vincenzo Bellini.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

Spent 3rd day at the School House & returned with M Brown to his house to lodge

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

February 4, Wednesday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day Attended Select Meeting and Meeting for Sufferings, also a Meeting of the Trustees of O Browns Fund - Dined at S B Tobey's & returned to M Bs to Lodge. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 5, Thursday: Having completed his introductory lecture "Tests of Great Men" at Boston's Masonic Temple for the Society for the Diffusion of Useful Knowledge, Waldo Emerson began the substance of his new "Biography" series of lectures with an account of Michael Angelo Buonaroti: on succeeding Thursdays he would deal with Martin Luther, John Milton, Friend George Fox, and Edmund Burke.

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day The Public & Private Meeting was large & a pretty good Meeting - Sophrona Page had the weight of Service in the Ministry & Mary B Allen appeared in Supplication

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 6, Friday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

Spent 6th day Mostly at the School House & on 7th day took the Steam Boat & returned home. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 8, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 8th of 2 M 1835 / Good Meetings Father had a short testimony in the Morning & Silent in the Afternoon

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 10, Tuesday: Records of the "Institute of 1770":

"Is the immense mass of literature of the present day beneficial?" Kettell lectured on the "Character of Washington."

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

The gas lighting of certain principal streets of the city of Philadelphia.

(This wasn't just going on in Philadelphia — when, in the following year, Darwin would return from his long voyage aboard the Beagle, he would be enchanted by a radical change in the appearance of London, which had been transformed into a fairyland “magically lit by the millions of gas lights.”)

February 12, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 12 of 2 M / Good Solid Silent Meetings -
This Morning recd a parcell & letter of Three Sheets from my kind & obliging friend Thos Thompson of Liverpool containing Much valued & highly interesting intelligence from that Land as well as from James Backhouse who is on a religious visit at Vandimens Land & New Holland. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Having introduced his Thursday-night audience in Boston's Masonic Temple to Michael Angelo Buonaroti, Waldo Emerson proceeded to introduce them to Martin Luther. This lecture would be the longest and most prepared of the series, it seems in part due to the fact that the reverend would be contemplating the similarity of Luther's act in posting his 97 theses in Latin at the door of the Catholic church in Wittenberg to his own act in providing a letter of resignation to Proprietors of the Second Church in Boston on September 11, 1832. He would not ever publish this lecture as an essay.

Friend Angelina Emily Grimké attended a lecture sponsored by the Female Anti-Slavery Society of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

I went ... to an anti-slavery meeting, and heard with much interest an address from Robert Gordon. It was feeling, temperate, and judicious; but one word struck my ear unpleasantly. He said, “And yet it is audaciously asked: What has the North to do with slavery?” The word “audaciously,” while I am ready to admit its justice, seemed to me inconsistent with the spirit of the Gospel; although we may abhor the system of slavery, I want us to remember that the guilt of the oppressor demands Christian pity and Christian prayer.

The following advertisement appeared in the Charleston, South Carolina Courier:

FIELD NEGROES. By Thomas Gadsden. On Tuesday, the 17th inst., will be sold, at the north of the Exchange, at ten o'clock, A.M., a prime gang of ten negroes, accustomed to the culture of cotton and provisions, belonging to the Independent Church, in Christ's Church Parish. Feb. 6th.

SLAVERY

February 13, Friday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

6th day 13th of 2 M / Attended the funeral of Mary Taylor -over 90 Years of Age - widow of James Taylor, Cabinet Maker -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 14, Saturday: Giovanni Virginio Schiaparelli, astronomer who would assign names to Mars's "canals," was born.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 14 of 3 M 1835 / Attended the funeral of our Friend, & my distant relation, Abigail Robinson who Died 4th day the 11 inst in the 77th Year of her Age. - She was for about 40 Years a valuable Minister among Friend & performed several religious visits within the limits of this Yearly Meeting & once went as far South as any Friends lived in company with Lydia Weeks - She was a woman of no ordinary Rank in the world, was much esteemed by people of all persuasions & as a Minister in our Society few stood before her for a sound clear & savory testimony her diction rather elegant & her manner dignified. - She was for a long time the only Friend or Member of Society who lived on Eastons Point, & is the last Recommended Minister in our Society that lives in the Town of Newport. - Father Rodman delivered a good & appropriate testimony at her funeral. - Elijah Anthony, David Buffum, Joseph Fish & myself were the bearers. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 25, Wednesday: Gaetano Donizetti departed from Paris after modest success, to return to Naples.

When he would get back in Newport on the evening of the 27th from this trip to Providence, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould would write of the events of this day in his journal:

4th day 25th of 3 M 1835 / This morning rose by 4 OClock & got breakfast & went to the head of the Long Wharf to wait for the Steam Boat which arrived in season for me to get to Providence by 9 OClock after attending to a little buisness I went to the Monthly Meeting held there - which to me was a season of favour, of Memorable favour - Hannah Robinson appeared in a very satisfactory testimony to me - Then Dorcas Paine in testimony of solid weight & good savour & then H Robinson appeared in supplication & if it was not attended with life I do not understand what the life is - In the last meeting the buisness was conducted well - I had asked the preceeding Preparative Meeting for a Certificate directed to Rhode Island Moy [Monthly] Meeting which request was recognized & Enoch Breed & Arnold Congdon appointed to make the necessary inquiry & prepare one to be presented next Month Report was made by a committee that they had laboured with John Albertson & considered further labour useless - this was an Ancient plain friend & who I knew had been useful in society & served as an overseer - not understanding by the report what the nature of the complaint was I requested to have the minute of last Month read by which I found [that he] had petitioned for & received the allowance which government had made to the old revolutionay Officers & Soldiers, he having been one – when I found the nature of the Offense a conversation which I had at last Yearly Meeting with Old Thomas Davis of Weare Moy [Monthly] Meeting who was himself a Soldier & was engaged in Service at Bunker Hill – occured to me with so much weight that it seemed as if I should be short in duty not to in Form the Meeting of it & requested the Youth present to mark the expressions Thos told me that ne never had any disposition to receive the Stypend allowed by government – for the little payment he had received seemed like a curse upon him. – After Meeting I went up to the School House & dined & spent the Afternoon then went down to Moses Browns drank tea spent a pleasant evening & lodged I found him sick with a cold & hard cough & If I had not seen him recover from a much worse state, I should conclude it was the last time I should ever see him in mutability – After breakfasting with my Aged & dearly beloved friend I went to Town – visited Mary Griscom & then walked out to see my dear friend Wm Almy who has recently had an attack of Paralysis & lost the use of his left side, but has recovered so as to walk with help, but his hand is nearly useless – his mouth considerably drawn & his speech rather thick – his mind was clear, & his conversation correct, & his feelings very tender & loving – he wept frequently in speaking of subjects, & individuals that interested him, particularly of the departure of our late dear friend Abigail Robinson. Soon after dinner I prepared to leave him when in speaking of some subject we both were much tenderd & after I had got out the door, he sent for me back to request me to send his love to our Son John at Hudson – that he should remember him at that time, in so affectionate a manner & so much brokenness of spirit was very affecting to my feelings, & quite broke me into tears, which I could not surpress till I got considerable distance from his house.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

When I got into Town I call & set an hour at Dr Tobey & then went out to the School House – spent the Afternoon took tea & lodged there – on 6th day Morning the 27th – I came into town, & called a while at Jon[athon] Congdons – then on my way to the boat attended to a little buisness, & called on several of my old friends – we had a slow time down the River in very thick fog & some rain – it was so thick a fog that the boat was obliged to Stand Still several times, & we did not get to Newport till 4 OClock. –

While I was at Providence I thought if I never went there again, I could say my last visit was a good one. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

April 1, Wednesday: The Pilgrim, with Richard Henry Dana, Jr. arrived at San Pedro harbor.

AND NOW, FOR SOMETHING ENTIRELY DIFFERENT, A REPORT FROM OUR SAILOR:

After a slow passage of five days, we arrived, on Wednesday, the first of April, at our old anchoring ground at San Pedro. The bay was as deserted, and looked as dreary, as before, and formed no pleasing contrast with the security and snugness of San Diego, and the activity and interest which the loading and unloading of four vessels gave to that scene. In a few days the hides began to come slowly down, and we got into the old business of rolling goods up the hill, pitching hides down, and pulling our long league off and on. Nothing of note occurred while we were lying here, except that an attempt was made to repair the small Mexican brig which had been cast away in a south-easter, and which now lay up, high and dry, over one reef of rocks and two sand-banks. Our carpenter surveyed her, and pronounced her capable of refitting, and in a few days the owners came down from the Pueblo, and, waiting for the high spring tides, with the help of our cables, kedges, and crew, got her off and afloat, after several trials. The three men at the house on shore, who had formerly been a part of her crew, now joined her, and seemed glad enough at the prospect of getting off the coast.

On board our own vessel, things went on in the common monotonous way. The excitement which immediately followed the flogging scene had passed off, but the effect of it upon the crew, and especially upon the two men themselves, remained. The different manner in which these men were affected, corresponding to their different characters, was not a little remarkable. John was a foreigner and high-tempered, and, though mortified, as any one would be at having had the worst of an encounter, yet his chief feeling seemed to be anger; and he talked much of satisfaction and revenge, if he ever got back to Boston. But with the other, it was very different. He was an American, and had had some education; and this thing coming upon him, seemed completely to break him down. He had a feeling of the degradation that had been inflicted upon him, which the other man was incapable of. Before that, he had a good deal of fun, and amused us often with queer negro stories,— (he was from a slave state); but afterwards he seldom smiled; seemed to lose all life and elasticity; and appeared to have but one wish, and that was for the voyage to be at an end. I have often known him to draw a long sigh when he was alone, and he took but little part or interest in John's plans of satisfaction and retaliation.

After a stay of about a fortnight, during which we slipped for one south-easter, and were at sea two days, we got under weigh for Santa Barbara. It was now the middle of April, and the south-easter season was nearly over; and the light, regular trade-winds, which blow down the coast, began to set steadily in, during the latter part of each day. Against these, we beat slowly up to Santa Barbara— a distance of about ninety miles— in three days. There we found, lying at anchor, the large Genoese ship which we saw in the same place, on the first day of our coming upon the coast. She had been up to San Francisco, or, as it is called, “chock up to windward,” had stopped at Monterey on her way down, and was shortly to proceed to San Pedro and San Diego, and thence, taking in her cargo, to sail for Valparaiso and Cadiz. She was a large, clumsy ship, and with her topmasts stayed forward, and high poop-deck, looked like an old woman with a crippled back. It was now the close of Lent, and on Good Friday she had all her yards a’cock-bill, which is customary among Catholic vessels. Some also have an effigy of Judas, which the crew amuse themselves with keel-hauling and hanging by the neck from the yard-arms.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 1st of 4th M 1835 / This day recd a kind & interesting letter from my dear Friend Thos Shillitoe of Tottenham England dated 26th of 12 M [December] 1834 — from accounts preciouslly recd of the state of his health. I did not expect to have seen the traces of his pen again — he gives a Sombre picture of the state of things in his country, regarding the state of our society. – But I can but hope The Ancient principles of our Early friends will stand the test of Truth.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 13, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 13th of 4th M 1835 / Today our friends Edward & Elizabeth Wing came to town & dined with us – Wm Reynolds joined them at tea – Wm lodged at Job Shermans and Edw & Elizabeth lodged with us –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 14, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 14 of 4 M / This forenoon while sitting in our room Elizabeth Wing apprehended to me a concern to have a religious opportunity in the family on acct of Rowland Hazard – it was immediately effected & she addressed Rowland in very encouraging language & I have no doubt felt out his state & administered to it much to the satisfaction of all present & I have no doubt greatly to his comfort & edification. – She dined at Job Sherman, after which she & Wm Reynolds went in the Steam Boat Providence on their way to Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, & Elizabeth intends to attend that of NYork on her return – I was gratified & comforted with a visit from Edward & Elizabeth, for I do love them with no common love

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 25, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 25th of 4th M 1835 / It seems to be serious times in the land in various respects – but that which I seem mostly under the pressure of at the present moment is the alarming illness of my intimate friend James Taylor Apothocary who is very low & we fear is drawing to a conclusion –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 3, Sunday: The Gazette musicale published the 1st of 6 installments of Franz Liszt's "On the Situation of Artist and Their Condition in Society" (co-authored by Marie d'Agoult).

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 3rd of 5th M 1834 [sic] / This Morning about 7 O'clock my Friend & very intimate acquaintance James Taylor, apothocary departed this life – he was pleasant to me in life & in death it is hard to part with him – but all pleasant pictures of this life must be stained in our view & the Scripture realised, that we have no continuing City here. –

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Our Meetings were solid seasons.—

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 5, Tuesday: King Leopold of Belgium officiated at the opening of a railroad line from Brussels to Mechelen — the 1st public passenger railroad to be opened in Europe.

In Greenwich, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 5 of 5 M / My friend James Taylor was interred this Afternoon - I could not attend the funeral expecting to be called to go on Board the Greenwich Packet which we were about 4 OC & reached there before Dark -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

David Henry Thoreau was studying the first two volumes of Harvard Library's copy of the 2d edition of William Godwin's LIFE OF GEOFFREY CHAUCER, published in London in 1804.

GODWIN'S CHAUCER, VOL. 1

GODWIN'S CHAUCER, VOL. 2

GODWIN'S CHAUCER, VOL. 3

GODWIN'S CHAUCER, VOL. 4

He would make notes in the series of college notebooks now stored at the Alderman Library of the University of Virginia.

Per the records of the "Institute of 1770":

Thoreau absent. Russell lectured on "Poetry." Debated: "Whether the spread of the Catholic religion endangers the freedom of our institutions." Debaters for the next discussion: Trull, Treat, Thoreau and Thomas. Lecturers: Thoreau and Treat.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

May 6, Wednesday: In Northampton, Samuel Whitmarsh the wannabee silk manufacturer purchased 20 acres “in the Great Pastures, so called” near the Mill River for $2,500.

In New-York, the 1st-day issue of James Gordon Bennett, Sr.'s Herald newspaper was being hawked for one penny (this would become the initial Rupert-Murdoch-style metropolitan daily to sacrifice all respectability and increase sales by actively stimulating the public taste for crime and vice, routinely devoting front-page coverage to tales of murder and rape and providing press coverage for such events as races and prizefights).

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day Attended the Select Quarterly Meeting in the forenoon & the Meeting for sufferings in the Afternoon, & went out to Thos Howlands to lodge

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 7, Thursday: In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day the Meeting at large, which was a season of favour -our friend Thos Anthony was engaged in a very powerful testimony for the Truth -- Meeting for buisness was satisfactorily conducted - Dined with Dr Eldredge & my wife having an opportunity to ride went on to Providence by land & I took the Steam Boat King Philp & went to Fall River, & after discharging their lading & taking in an addition of fuel returned to Providence & arrived there about half pasty 10 OClock. -I lodged at Dr Tobeys. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 8, Friday: Mikhail Ivanovich Glinka got married with Mariya Petrovna Ivanova, his sister's brother-in-law's wife's sister (after four years of this they would separate and divorce).

In Copenhagen, Hans Christian Andersen's TALES, TOLD FOR CHILDREN (1ST COLLECTION).

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day Spent the Morning in calling on some of my old friends - then went up to the School House where I spent the Afternoon & evening & lodged

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

The Pilgrim, carrying Richard Henry Dana, Jr., arrived in San Diego harbor.

AND NOW, FOR SOMETHING ENTIRELY DIFFERENT, A REPORT FROM OUR SAILOR:

Friday, May 8th, 1835. Arrived at San Diego. Here we found the little harbor deserted. The Lagoda, Ayacucho, Loriotte, and all, had left the coast, and we were nearly alone. All the hide-houses on the beach, but ours, were shut up, and the Sandwich Islanders, a dozen or twenty in number, who had worked for the other vessels and been paid off when they sailed, were living on the beach, keeping up a grand carnival. A Russian discovery-ship which had been in this port a few years before, had built a large oven for baking bread, and went away, leaving it standing. This, the Sandwich Islanders took possession of, and had kept, ever since, undisturbed. It was big enough to hold six or eight men— that is, it was as large as a ship's fore-castle; had a door at the side, and a vent-hole at top. They covered it with Oahu mats, for a carpet; stopped up the vent-hole in bad weather, and made it their head-quarters. It was now inhabited by as many as a dozen or twenty men, who lived there in complete idleness— drinking, playing cards, and carousing in every way. They bought a bullock once a week, which kept them in meat, and one of them went up to the town every day to get fruit, liquor, and provisions. Besides this, they had bought a cask of ship-bread, and a barrel of flour from the Lagoda, before she sailed. There they lived, having a grand time, and caring for nobody. Captain T _____ was anxious to get three or four of them to come on board the Pilgrim, as we were so much diminished in numbers; and went up to the oven and spent an hour or two trying to negotiate with them. One of them,— a finely built, active, strong and intelligent fellow,— who was a sort of king among them, acted as spokesman. He was called Mannini,— or rather, out of compliment to his known importance and influence, Mr. Mannini— and was known all over California. Through him, the captain offered them fifteen dollars a month, and one month's pay in advance; but it was like throwing pearls before swine, or rather, carrying coals to Newcastle. So long as they had money, they would not work for fifty dollars a month, and when their money was gone, they would work for ten.

“What do you do here, Mr. Mannini?” said the captain. “Oh, we play cards, get drunk, smoke— do anything we're a mind to.”

“Don't you want to come aboard and work?”

“Aole! aole make make makou i ka hana. Now, got plenty money; no good, work. Mamule, money pau— all gone. Ah! very good, work!— maikai, hana hana nui!”

“But you'll spend all your money in this way,” said the captain.

“Aye! me know that. By-'em-by money pau— all gone; then Kanaka work plenty.”

This was a hopeless case, and the captain left them, to wait patiently until their money was gone.

We discharged our hides and tallow, and in about a week were ready to set sail again for the windward. We unmoored, and got everything ready, when the captain made another attempt upon the oven. This time he had more regard to the “mollia tempora fandi,” and succeeded very well. He got Mr. Mannini in his interest, and as the shot was getting low in the locker, prevailed upon him and three others to come on board with their chests and baggage, and sent a hasty summons to me and the boy to come ashore with our things, and join the gang at the hide-house. This was unexpected to me; but anything in the way of variety I liked; so we got ready, and were pulled ashore. I stood on the beach while the brig got under weigh, and watched her until she rounded the point, and then went up to the hide-house to take up my quarters for a few months.

May 9, Saturday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day took the King Philip again at 8 OC in the Morning & returned to Newport — After having a pleasant & I trust

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

proffitable visit & seen many friends whom I love –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 10, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 12th [sic] of 5 M 1835 / Had a pleasant & interesting call from my friend and acquaintance John Howland of Providence President of the R I Historical Society he was born in Newport & has lived in Providence about 65 Years - & is a man of very respectable & venerable standing in that Town. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 14, Thursday: Charles Darwin reached Coquimbo in Northern Chile.

Nicolò Paganini received a gold medal from the City of Genoa.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 14th of 5 M / I attended Meeting which was a comfortable & refreshing Season & in the Afternoon took the Steam Boat Boston for New York with my wife to attend the Marriage of our dear son John Stanton Gould with Mary Ashby at Hudson – We had on the whole a pleasant & easy sail to NYork tho' it was rather rolling round Point Judith, we arrived in NYork early in the Morning & rode across the City to the North River Steamboat the Albany & had a pleasant & exceedingly interesting sail the Scenery being beautiful & quite a novelty to my dear wife who enjoyed it exceedingly - we arrived at Hudson in season to ride five miles out to the residence of our dear Mary Ashby, found her & her Mother & Grandfather well & were affectionately received by them just as they were setting down to tea - After a little refreshment - I walked down to Joseph Marshall's where our dear John has lived, & was not apprised of our arrival - he soon went back with me & Spent the evening pleasantly & sweetly –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

May 16, Saturday: Mrs. Felicia Hemans, the immensely popular British romantic poet who had for many years been issuing one or more books of poetry per year, died in Dublin, Ireland at the age of 42, reportedly of tuberculosis complicated by scarlet fever.

The Reverend Henry C. Wright went to the downtown Boston office of the Garrisonians (this may have happened on the 16th, or it may have happened on the 18th), waited around until someone showed up, and asked to sign up for membership in the antislavery crusade.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 15th [sic] Spent this day in much sweetness of feeling & in resting after our journey, finding our new acquaintance highly interesting & affectionately disposed towards us. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 17, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 16th [sic] Rode into Hudson & attended their Meeting, which tho' small was a solid good on[e] A Short testimony by Abigail Hall & another encouraging one by Rachael Gardner of Nantucket who with her Husband Benj Gardner & Elizabeth Mitchell were there on a visit from Nantucket - We returned to Stockport & dined -towards night we took a walk to Columbiaville, an interesting village, where are Manufacturings for Cotton &c so round by Joseph Marshalls House. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 18, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 18th of 5 M 1835 / Spent the day again quietly with our friends at Stockport & find them very near our hearts - & indeed & in Truth thankful are we that our beloved John has been cast in the way of so good company & has formed a connection with a young woman so amiable & pleasant in life -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 19, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 19th of 5th M / This being the day appointed for the Solemnization of the Marriage we rode into Hudson to Meeting which was very large consisting of person of all persuasions in the City & many came who could not be accommodated with a seat

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

-After the gathering was seated a very solemn covering spread of the Meeting & a silence that was to be felt in which Abigail Hall delivered a Short testimony which seemed to me did no hurt & to my feelings was rather pleasant - after which Sarah M Upton knealed in solemn Supplication. - after the Meeting was again seated, the solemnity continued in a remarkable manner. - The young folks stood up & pronounced the Marriage covenant in a manner which was at once forcible & striking on the Minds of the Audience, not a smile or the least symptom of disorder occurring thro' the whole & each countenance evincing a state of feeling not common to be general on like occasions - After the certificate was signed & read which our friend Saml Marrot performed handsomly it was signed by many present as witnesses -the solemnity continuing our friend Sarah M Upton rose & commended the people for their orderly & becoming deportment & added a short but savory & in good degree powerful testimony to the Truths of the Gospel - after which & a Solemn pause the Meeting closed & we returned to Stockport the wedding consisted of about 20 or 25 of the particular friends of the family including the overseers

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 20, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 20th of 5th M 1835 / We attended Monthly Meeting at Hudson & dined with [blank] Jenkins then parted with our friends & dear Children & at [?] went on board the Steam boat David Clinton & had a good & pleasant passage down to NYork & arrived there early in the Morning - the 21 of 5 M & called at Wilson Merretts & took breakfast his daughter & son having been schollars at the School at Providence made us wish to see them His daughter Amelia is a fine amiable girl & if she keeps her place will make a fine woman - After sitting a while with them we went to Elizabeth Coggeshall & set a little while with them -She & her husband being old townsfolk we felt it a duty to see them -Then we went to Samuel Woods, dined & waited till it was time to go on board the Steam Boat Boston, & then came homeward, arriving at our home in Newport about 7 OClock next Morning being 6th day the 22nd of 5 M 1835 This is the longest journey My wife has ever taken & is the first time she was ever in NYork or Hudson. - We found our friends at home all well, & our family concerns in good order - This we felt to be an additional favour to the many we have heretofor recd & desire to be thankful to Him from whom all good is derived. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 24, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 24th of 5 M 1835 / Attended Meeting at home, & in the forenoon experienced a dull Heavy time - but in the Afternoon

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

was more favoured – Father bore short testimonies in both. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 28, Thursday: Commander George Back journeyed toward Montréal on his way back home to England and glory.

The morning [...] was so fine, and the channel so free from obstruction, that I immediately prepared for my departure, having arranged that Hassel should follow in one of the Company's boats, and take the place of the person who was appointed to accompany me. Accordingly, provided with every thing that was necessary for the journey, I took leave of my kind friend Mr. Smith, [...]

THE FROZEN NORTH

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 28th of 5th M 1835 / Attended the Moy [Monthly] Meeting held in Newport - In the first Father & Hannah Dennis bore short but acceptable testimonies - In the last we conducted the buisness pretty well - Perez Peck & Wm Reynolds came in a little while before the Meeting closed - they were a committee from the Meeting for Sufferings to make provision for the Yearly Meeting & the Moy [Monthly] Meeting appointed a corresponding committee & after the Meeting they came home & dined with us also Asa Sherman. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 31, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 31 of 5 M / This morning Huldah Hoag arrived in the Steam Boat & attended Meeting In the Morning she had good service among us – In the Afternoon Father Rodman was lively & pertinent in testimony & was followed in short but acceptable testimony from Huldah – After Meeting I walked with her to the Point & set an hour with her at Mary Williams's at the house where Abigail Robinson lived - I was glad to find, that house is likely to be occupied by friends - it having been purchased by Hetty Smith & a Life lease given by her & her husband to Mary Williams

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 2, Tuesday: The 1st test run of a train over the entire new Boston and Providence RR route between Boston and Providence, Rhode Island, via Attleboro and Rumford, followed the east shore of the Seekonk River and crossed that river to a terminus at Providence's India Point. The trip consumed 2 hours and 25 inclusive of five stops — which was considered very speedy. broad will] only encourage the common people to move about needlessly.”

Arthur Wellesley, Duke of Wellington

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

The above description would make the event seem simpler than it was. Although the train of cars carrying the invited guests covered the entire distance, the train's locomotive did not. For the initial leg of the journey, as far as Canton, the train needed to be tugged along by a team of draft horses due to a delay in the arrival of the new locomotive that was to run between these two depots (this delinquent locomotive would show up a few days later).

READ EDWARD FIELD TEXT

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*3rd day 2nd of 6th M 1835 / It being concluded by Father Rodman to resign the Town Treasurership - & many of my friends having proposed me as his successor - I consented to stand as a candidate & after three trials I was elected in Town Meeting by a Majority of one vote as Town Treasurer - the Majority was not calculated to create pride but rather to humble the creature - I feel that for this unexpected provision for another Year & hope due returns may be made to Him from whom I have recd many unmerited blessings & merciful provisions, from sources little expected, & this all my life long -
I went down to the Steam Boat this Morning & as I expected found John on board with our dear Mary & her Mother. - but they had been so Sick off Point Judith that I only saw John they went on direct for Boston & Salem intending to return the last of this or first of next Week.-*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 3, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 3rd of 6th M 1835 / This Morning Died at Portsmouth Ruth Freeborn after an afflicting illness of many Months - the Dropsy - She was a valuable friend & excellent Minister in our Society - - her loss will be severely felt by her immediate friends & connections as well as by the Church - How many valuable members of society have passed from Works to reward during the past Year - Oh that there may be an increase of religious concern among us, that the pillars of our society may be supported, increased & found standing erect. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 6, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 6th of 6th M 1835 / This Afternoon went to Connanicut with Huldah Hoag to attend Meeting tomorrow. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

June 7, Sunday: Jose Maria Queipo de Llano Ruiz de Saravia, Conde de Toreno replaced Francisco Martinez de la Rosa as Prime Minister of Spain.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day the 7th / Before I went to meeting I called to see Old Mercy Weeden, who is an old acquaintance of Mine. – We had a pretty full & good Meeting & Huldah was favoured in testimony & supplication – After dining at my cousin Joseph Greenes where we lodged & found him & my Ancient cousins Anne & Mary very glad to see me we came across the ferry & got to our Afternoon Meeting in season. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 8, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 8th of 6th M 1835 / This morning our dear & indeed precious children with their Mother our dear Sister Sarah Ashley arrived in the Steam Boat from Providence having passed a few days previous on their way to Boston & Salem. – It is a Sweetness & consolation to us, to have them with us, which I am unable to describe, but hope to render proportionate gratitude, to Him who has blessed us with many favours, of which we acknowledge ourselves unworthy. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 13, Saturday: Felix Mendelssohn accepted the position of director of the Gewandhaus concerts in Leipzig for the following year.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*7th day 13 of 6 M / From the last to the present date we passed in pleasant (& I may safely add) happy interview with our very dear children & our dear Sister Sarah Ashby who expect to stay till the close of Yearly Meeting which commences this day at Portsmouth which my dear wife & self attended. – It was a time of some secret mental suffering but on the whole was a time of favour, in that some were favoured to feel the ground they stood on & to know the time in which we live to be perilous & to require deep Watchfulness & care, lest the enemy attack us on a fresh or new side & lead us a way as far in the opposite as he has done many in Hixism.
In the Afternoon I attended the Meeting for Sufferings – & to some it was really a Suffering Season. – but it was also a time which afforded some encouragement to believe there is some strength remaining. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

June 14, Sunday: The Gazette Musicale de Paris published the 1st “official” biography of Franz Liszt, nominally by Joseph d’Ortigue (it may have been by Marie d’Agoult).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 14th of 6 M 1835 / Excepting a few short offerings Our Morning Meeting was silent but a very solid good Meeting - As usual in the Afternoon on Y Meeting First days the Meeting was much larger than in the Morning & Elisha Bates very large in testimony - the people were very quiet & well satisfied with what they heard & I hope Truths testimony was exalted. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 15, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day Morning - We have for lodgers Joshua Lynch & James Boulton from Ohio - Mead Atwater & Richard Snell from the State of NYork together with our old friend Thomas Howland. - I cannot undertake to insert any thing like a regular Diary of the events of the Yearly Meeting - I shall therefore only say it was a time of no small suffering on acct of the State of Society, but yet there is ground to hope for the best - my mind was encouraged to trust in Israels Shepherd who leadeth the Flock correctly on, affording shelter from Storms & refreshment at noon day & will as his crook is suffered to guide & gather us, preserve from all hurtful things both on the right & left We have had Many pleasant & encouraging interviews with our friends & been favoured to get along in a good, & comfortable degree of peace as respects ourselves - & withall, the company of our dear John & Mary with our dear Sister Sarah Ashby has been truly balsamic to our hearts, & many have been the secret, but ardent mental prayers which my soul has been engaged to put up on their behalf - We have also had the company of many of our dear friends whom we love, that we have not had an opportunity to entertain at our home for six years being only boarders while in Newport, when residing at the boarding School in Providence This has been a pleasant circumstance to us, & we desire to be thankful for the Privilege-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 19, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

Meeting closed on 6 day forenoon & in the Afternoon many of our friends left us - Particularly our dear John & Mary with their Mother Sarah Ashby - they took the Steam Boat President for NYork expecting to be at their own home in Hudson on 7th day evening. - as they have made us a very pleasant visit & our minds were fraught with gratitude on the account thereof - & were willing to give them up to return - May the Lord bless & preserve them

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

in life & in Death. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 20, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

On Seventh day Joshua Lynch finding his mind released from further service at present - disposed of his carriage & horses & returned in the Afternoon boat to NYork on his way to his home in Ohio, thinking way for further service in New England may open again at some future period. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

In the Capitol rotunda, a would-be assassin fired a percussion-cap pistol at President Andrew Jackson from a distance of approximately six feet. The cap failed to ignite the pistol's charge of powder and balls. As the aged Chief Executive took after him with a cane, the assailant produced a second pistol, but was wrestled to the floor before he could fire, by Congressman David Crockett. I don't know whether Congressman Davy was wearing his trademark coonskin at the time, or not. The failure of the pistol's charge to ignite excited the religious fervor of some Americans, who would term this a providential miracle of God.

By 1830 the tombstone inscription of John Jack in the Old Hill Burying Ground near the Milldam had become weathered and worn, and Concord residents had decided that it needed to be replaced. The replacement gravestone was being written up in the Concord Freeman:

SLAVERY

God wills us free, Man wills us Slavers;
I will as God wills, Gods will be done.

HERE LIES THE BODY OF JOHN JACK,
A NATIVE OF AFRICA, WHO DIED
MARCH 1773, AGED ABOUT 60 YEARS.

Though born in a land of Slavery,
He was born free.
Though he lived in a land of Liberty,
He lived a Slave,
Till by his honest, though stolen labours,
He acquired the source of Slavery,
Which gave him his freedom —
Though not long before,
Death, the grand tyrant,
Gave him his final emancipation,
And set him on a footing with Kings.
Though a slave to vice,
He practiced those virtues,
Without which Kings are but slaves.

We have copied from a tombstone in one of the burying places in this town the above inscription, which we thought might please some one of the many who at this time are deeply interested in the welfare of the slaves. The writer of it is understood to have been the late Hon. DANIEL BLISS, who for a time was in the practice of Law here and administered on the "goods and effects" of the slave; but at the commencement of the Revolution his principles inclining him to the side of Royalty, he left the country and lived and died a subject of the British government.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

The stone that originally indicated the grave of JOHN JACK was broken some years since by accident; but afterwards, at the suggestion of RUFUS HOSMER, Esq. of Stow, in this county, a native of this town and a gentleman of pure and generous feelings, a subscription was commenced by members of Middlesex Bar, which was completed by the people of this town and was sufficient to procure a very seemly and durable monument as a memorial to Jack the Slave.

Those who are acquainted with the localities of this neighborhood will recollect, that the burying place is situated upon an abrupt rising ground. On the memorable 19th of April, 1775, the British officers who commanded the troops sent out from Boston to destroy the material of war collected at Concord, and whose was the first blood shed by American hands in the revolutionary struggle,³⁹² selected this spot as a point of observation from which they could watch the movements of the Americans and indicate by signals to their own soldiery sent in different directions, the plan of operations which circumstances might require them to pursue. Whilst thus occupied, this humble inscription caught the eye of one of those officers who was observed to copy it, and sometime afterwards it appeared in an English Magazine which made its way across the great waters and was read in this country.

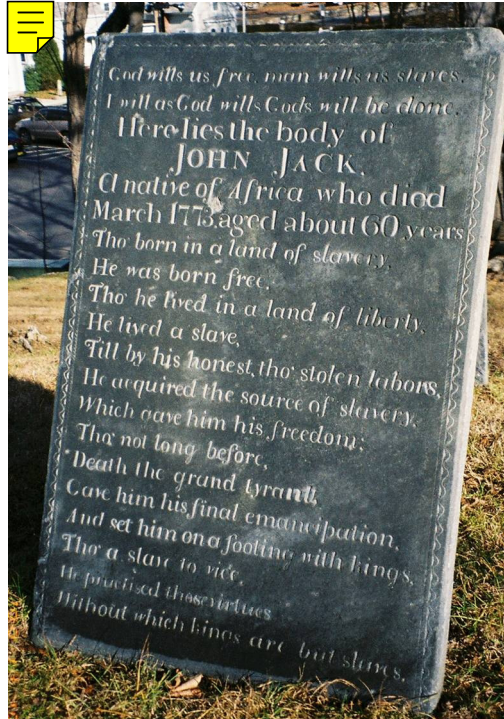

The grave of this forgotten African is in a retired spot surrounded by a cluster of beautiful young locust trees — where his ashes will quietly repose, till the grand inquest of this world shall be summoned and its decisions proclaimed. It will then be known by what right this son of immortality was torn from his mothers arms, his native land, his home, and upon this soil of the free reduced to the condition of the beast that perisheth. It will then be known by what right millions of the race have been stolen from their father land and here converted into beasts of burden, into goods and chattels and retained in that condition of sorrow by human legislation from [sic] mere reasons of state.

We have met with no one who recollects JACK; the tradition however is, that he belonged to a family by the name of Barns who lived on the Boston road some ways below the village, and that he died at the house of some member of that family to whom he gave his property.

392. On this point we are inclined to believe that an erroneous impression very extensively prevails. We know it was long the claim that British blood was first shed at Lexington, and we suppose from some circumstances of the late celebration in that town that the claim is still urged. We can only say that the fact may have been so, but as far as we have investigated the subject we can find no evidence of it. We take this opportunity to commend to our fellow citizens the perusal of a pamphlet prepared by the Rev. Dr. RIPLEY of this town and published in 1828. The respected writer has enjoyed the very best opportunity to acquire correct information on this subject — he has lived in this community more than half a century, been intimate with all classes of society and familiarly conversed with great numbers who took an active part in the scenes of that eventful day.

HDTWHAT?INDEXSTEPHEN WANTON GOULD*FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Professor Elise Lemire's mom, Virginia Lemire, took a photo in Sleepy Hollow recently, getting the lettering of John Jack's 1835 replacement memorial stone to stand out admirably by rubbing it with snow (see blowup on following screen).

HDTWHAT?INDEXFRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULDSTEPHEN WANTON GOULDGO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

June 21, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 21 of 6 M 1835 / Both in the forenoon & Afternoon Meetings Father Rodman was engaged in testimony & in the Morning in Supplication his Afternoon service was chiefly to the Youth & my mind had been specially drawn towards them, it seemed quite a corresponding exercise with my own. — Our old friend & associate Caroline Tobey from Providence was at Meeting — it was

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

pleasant again to sit in Meeting with her. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 25, Thursday: On the coast of California, a pueblo was founded with the construction of its very 1st building. This settlement would come to be known as Yerba Buena, and in a later timeframe, as San Francisco.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 25 of 6 M 1835 / We rode to Portsmouth & attended Moy [Monthly] Meeting - Mead Atwater & his comapnion Richd Snell were there & Mead was very acceptable in the Ministry - After the conclusion of the last Meeting we went to Uncle Stantons & spent the Afternoon - we found him very unwell, but passed the Afternoon more comfortably than common.—

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 28, Sunday: After graduating from the General Theological Seminary, William Ingraham Kip was ordained as an Episcopal deacon.

For his Junior year at Harvard College, David Henry Thoreau enrolled for classes in Greek, Latin,³⁹³ English, French, German, theology, and moral philosophy.

The Sturgeon Bay Ship Canal opened (currently for small craft only). France obtained a Columbian charter to dig a ship canal entirely across its province of Panama, from sea to shining sea.

AMANAPLANACANALPANAMA

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 28th of 6th M / Our Mornng Meeting was well attended & Father engaged in the Ministry acceptably. - In the Afternoon our friend Mead ATwater was at Meeting & well engaged in the Ministry - it was rather larger than in the Morning. - H & Richd

393. Would it have been during this period that he had Henry Swasey McKean for his Latin tutor?

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

went to Fathers to tea, & are to come here to lodge

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 2, Thursday: Less than two years after his appointment as music director for the city, Felix Mendelssohn gave his final concert in Dusseldorf.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 2nd of 7th M 1835 / Our meeting tho' rather small was a pretty good one to me, in that I was favoured to feel a resting place for the mind - attended at the same time with some cogitation of flesh & spirit. -

In the Afternoon went to Redwood Library & saw the Presents which the King of England has lately sent it, of a large Sett of Books containing the Ancient Laws of the Kingdom & among them, what is called Doomsday book, after which I went & spent an interesting hour with my friend Johnson near the Beach. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 5, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th M 5th 1835 (1st day) / Father Rodman was engaged in testimony & supplication in the Mornng Meeting & in the Afternoon in testimony - They were good meetings, tho' life was not as much in dominion in my mind, as I desired it might be. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 9, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 9th of 7 M / Thro' forgetfulness of the time on which Meeting began I was not there today

It happened on this wise - Meeting on 5th day in Newport from my Youth till the time we removed to Providence always began at 11 OClock - since our removal, in the Summer season it has been changed to half past 10 OClock - This Morning I was engaged on some buisness & returned home as I thought in good season to be at Meeting, but when I got ready it wanted only 10 Minutes of 11 OClock & then I recollected that Meeting must have been gathered nearly half an hour - It is some satisfactiion to me that Meeting was on my mind, & that it was not the day, but the time of day that escaped me - Some may say a Miss one way, is as bad as another, but I do not feel very guilty or very bad any way about it, but am sorry to Miss a Meeting when it was my full intention to have attended. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 11, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 11th of 1th M 1835 / Today My wife made a little party

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*for a few little girls of the neighborhood & our acquaintance, as well as for our own comfort & pleasure as of our little niece Elizabeth R Nichols - it was a pleasant sight to see them enjoy themselves rationally & instructively -
My mind seemed in a state to enjoy the scene of innocence, & I was thankful for the privilege*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

(probably a misprint in the book; this probably occurred on some other day:) Richard Henry Dana, Jr., in the absence of the Pilgrim, enjoyed his California life.

AND NOW, FOR SOMETHING ENTIRELY DIFFERENT, A REPORT FROM OUR SAILOR:

Saturday, July 11th. The Pilgrim set sail for the windward, and left us to go on in our old way. Having laid in such a supply of wood, and the days being now long, and invariably pleasant, we had a good deal of time to ourselves. All the duck I received from home, I soon made up into trowsers and frocks, and displayed, every Sunday, a complete suit of my own make, from head to foot, having formed the remnants of the duck into a cap. Reading, mending, sleeping, with occasional excursions into the bush, with the dogs, in search of coati, hares, and rabbits, or to encounter a rattlesnake, and now and then a visit to the Presidio, filled up our spare time after hide-curing was over for the day. Another amusement, which we sometimes indulged in, was "burning the water" for craw-fish. For this purpose, we procured a pair of grains, with a long staff like a harpoon, and making torches with tarred rope twisted round a long pine stick, took the only boat on the beach, a small skiff, and with a torch-bearer in the bow, a steersman in the stern, and one man on each side with the grains, went off, on dark nights, to burn the water. This is fine sport. Keeping within a few rods of the shore, where the water is not more than three or four feet deep, with a clear sandy bottom, the torches light everything up so that one could almost have seen a pin among the grains of sand. The craw-fish are an easy prey, and we used soon to get a load of them. The other fish were more difficult to catch, yet we frequently speared a number of them, of various kinds and sizes. The Pilgrim brought us down a supply of fish-hooks, which we had never had before, on the beach, and for several days we went down to the Point, and caught a quantity of cod and mackerel. On one of these expeditions, we saw a battle between two Sandwich Islanders and a shark. "Johnny" had been playing about our boat for some time, driving away the fish, and showing his teeth at our bait, when we missed him, and in a few moments heard a great shouting between two Kanakas who were fishing on the rock opposite to us: "E hana hana make i ka ia nui!" "E pii mai Aikane!" etc., etc.; and saw them pulling away on a stout line, and "Johnny Shark" floundering at the other end. The line soon broke; but the Kanakas would not let him off so easily, and sprang directly into the water after him. Now came the tug of war. Before we could get into deep water, one of them seized him by the tail, and ran up with him upon the beach; but Johnny twisted round, turning his head under his body, and, showing his teeth in the vicinity of the Kanaka's hand, made him let go and spring out of the way. The shark now turned tail and made the best of his way, by flapping and floundering, toward deep water; but here again, before he was fairly off, the other Kanaka seized him by the tail, and made a spring towards the beach, his companion at the same time paying away upon him with stones and a large stick. As soon, however, as the shark could turn, he was obliged to let go his hold; but the instant he made toward deep water, they were both behind him, watching their chance to seize him. In this way the battle went on for some time, the shark, in a rage, splashing and twisting about, and the Kanakas, in high excitement, yelling at the top of their voices; but the shark at last got off, carrying away a hook and line, and not a few severe bruises.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

We kept up a constant connection with the Presidio, and by the close of the summer I had added much to my made vocabulary, besides having made the acquaintance of nearly everybody in the place, and acquired some knowledge of the character and habits of the people, as well as of the institutions under which they live.

California was first discovered in 1536, by Cortes and was subsequently visited by numerous other adventurers as well as commissioned voyagers of the Spanish crown. It was found to be inhabited by numerous tribes of Indians, and to be in many parts extremely fertile; to which, of course, was added rumors of gold mines, pearl fishery, etc. No sooner was the importance of the country known, than the Jesuits obtained leave to establish themselves in it, to Christianize and enlighten the Indians. They established missions in various parts of the country toward the close of the seventeenth century, and collected the natives about them, baptizing them into the church, and teaching them the arts of civilized life. To protect the Jesuits in their missions, and at the same time to support the power of the crown over the civilized Indians, two forts were erected and garrisoned, one at San Diego, and the other at Monterey. These were called Presidios, and divided the command of the whole country between them. Presidios have since been established at Santa Barbara and San Francisco; thus dividing the country into four large districts, each with its presidio, and governed by the commandant. The soldiers, for the most part, married civilized Indians; and thus, in the vicinity of each presidio, sprung up, gradually, small towns. In the course of time, vessels began to come into the ports to trade with the missions, and received hides in return; and thus began the great trade of California. Nearly all the cattle in the country belonged to the missions, and they employed their Indians, who became, in fact, their slaves, in tending their vast herds. In the year 1793, when Vancouver visited San Diego, the mission had obtained great wealth and power, and are accused of having depreciated the country with the sovereign, that they might be allowed to retain their possessions. On the expulsion of the Jesuits from the Spanish dominions, the missions passed into the hands of the Franciscans, though without any essential change in their management. Ever since the independence of Mexico, the missions have been going down; until, at last, a law was passed, stripping them of all their possessions, and confining the priests to their spiritual duties; and at the same time declaring all the Indians free and independent Rancheros. The change in the condition of the Indians was, as may be supposed, only nominal: they are virtually slaves, as much as they ever were. But in the missions, the change was complete. The priests have now no power, except in their religious character, and the great possessions of the missions are given over to be preyed upon by the harpies of the civil power, who are sent there in the capacity of administradores, to settle up the concerns; and who usually end, in a few years, by making themselves fortunes, and leaving their stewardships worse than they found them. The dynasty of the priests was much more acceptable to the people of the country, and indeed, to every one concerned with the country, by trade or otherwise, than that of the administradores. The priests were attached perpetually to one mission, and felt the necessity of keeping up its credit. Accordingly, their debts were regularly paid, and the people were, in the main, well treated, and attached to those who had spent their whole lives among them. But the administradores are strangers sent from Mexico, having no interest in the country; not identified in any way with their charge, and, for the most part, men of desperate fortunes—broken down politicians and soldiers—whose only object is to retrieve their condition in as short a time as possible. The change had been made but a few years before our arrival upon the coast, yet, in that short time, the trade was much diminished, credit impaired, and the venerable missions going rapidly to decay. The external arrangements remain the same. There are four presidios, having under their protection the various missions, and pueblos, which are towns formed by the civil power, and containing no mission or presidio. The most northerly presidio is San Francisco; the next Monterey; the next Santa Barbara, including the mission of the same, St. Louis Obispo, and St. Buenaventura, which is the finest mission in the whole country, having very fertile soil and rich vineyards. The last, and most southerly, is San Diego, including the mission of the same, San Juan Capestrano, the Pueblo de los Angelos, the largest town in California, with the neighboring mission of San Gabriel. The priests in spiritual matters are subject to the Archbishop of Mexico, and in temporal matters to the governor-general, who is the great civil and military head of the country.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

The government of the country is an arbitrary democracy; having no common law, and no judiciary. Their only laws are made and unmade at the caprice of the legislature, and are as variable as the legislature itself. They pass through the form of sending representatives to the congress at Mexico, but as it takes several months to go and return, and there is very little communication between the capital and this distant province, a member usually stays there, as permanent member, knowing very well that there will be revolutions at home before he can write and receive an answer; if another member should be sent, he has only to challenge him, and decide the contested election in that way.

