4th day 26 [sic] of 11 Mo// [note error? or two entries for the 26th because he is watching with Edward?] The Doctors speak more favorable of Edward this morning, say, more favorable symptoms appear

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 28, Thursday: Piano Concerto no.5 “Emperor” by Ludwig van Beethoven was performed, probably for the initial time, in the Leipzig Gewandhaus.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 27 [sic] of 11 Mo// Our Moy [Monthly] Meeting was this day held in town The first meeting was much favor'd Anne Greene Ministered to us in a very lively manner: C Rodman then spake a little to my satisfaction then D Buffum appear'd in as lively a testimony as I think I ever heard from him – Our last meeting was much in the quiet & I thought favor'd beyond what is common – My mind I may thankfully acd [acknowledge?] was quickened & refreshed – Since meeting I have rec'd a very acceptable letter from my much loved friend & brother Micaiah Collins dated 14th inst at Gooses Creek Virginia

98. In 1815 this southwest battery would be renamed Castle Clinton.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 November 29, Friday: Wendell Phillips was born in Boston as a descendent of that municipality's 1st mayor.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 29 of 11 M 1811// The day has passed as usual, the mind susceptible of tender impressions - E W Lawton is consider'd some better -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 November 30, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 30 of 11 Mo// Again nothing material but the usual rounds to insert. - E W Lawton Much as Yesterday -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 December 1, Sunday: Carl Maria von Weber, dissatisfied with his situation in München, left on a concert tour with the clarinetist Heinrich Baermann.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 1 of 12 M 1811// Our Meetings were silent, & to me seasons of some wresting for life & thought I obtain'd some victory -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 December 2, Monday: José Miguel Carrera declared himself dictator of Chile.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 2nd of 12 M // Having for some time felt my mind drawn to address a letter to James Denson Ladd of Spring Mills Virginia, I yealded to the impulse this forenoon - Also wrote to Philip Dunham - Brother Isaac & Wife with their little daughter Martha Stanton took tea with also my Mother

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

December 3, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 3 of 12 M // My H has been for Several days much unwell with a cold, but is well enough today to spent the Afternoon at her fathers.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 4, Wednesday: Carl Maria von Weber and Heinrich Baermann reached Prague.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 4th of 12 M // A Pleasant Walk this evening with Brother D R when in my mind was bbought into sweet feelings. I felt rejoiced that my Spirit was thus quickened -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 5, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 5 of 12 M // Silent meeting, thoughts on outward subjects uncommonly intruded on my mind, yet I thought a little favor was experienced. - E W Lawton not as well today & yesterday, his situation remains doubtful -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 6, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 6 of 12 M // Being caught in the Rain at father Rs last eveng we staid there last night - The day has passed as usual except that I have been this Afternoon engaged in religious conversation with Ebenezer Coleman who is Presbyterian & Strong Predestinarian, he has lived in Connecticut & appears exceeding ignorant of friends & their Principles, but I hope the conversation which passed between us, will do no hurt but tend rather for his information. I was thankful in feeling a good degree of life to attend my spirit in the conversation

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

December 7, Saturday: The nation read in the gazettes that in the Indiana back woods, the forces of the Shawnee headman Tecumseh, brother of the prophet Tenskwatawa, had been decisively defeated by a group of white settlers under the command of William Henry Harrison.

HDTWHAT?INDEXFRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULDSTEPHEN WANTON GOULDGO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

By Yesterday's Mail.

INDIAN WAR—Official.

Extract of a letter from Governor HARRISON to the Secretary of War—dated H. Q., near the Prophet's Town, Nov. 5, 1811.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to inform you, that the dawn of yesterday terminated an action between the troops under my command, and the whole of the Prophet's force. Their precipitate retreat, leaving a number of the warriors dead on the field, and the subsequent abandonment of their town, (which was partially fortified) attest for us a complete and decisive victory. It has, however, been dearly purchased. A number of brave and valuable men have fallen victims to their zeal for their country's defence. The behavior of the regular and militia troops was such as would have done honor to veterans. I arrived at my present position (a mile from the town) on the evening of the 5th inst.; a correspondence was immediately opened with the Prophet, and there was every appearance of a successful termination of the expedition, without bloodshed. Indeed there was an agreement for the suspension of hostilities until a further communication should take place on the next day. Contrary however to this engagement, he attacked me at half-past four o'clock in the morning, so suddenly, that the Indians were in the camp before many of the men could get out of their tents. A little confusion for a short time prevailed, but aided by the great exertions of the officers, I was soon enabled to form the men in order. The companies which were hard pressed were supported, several successful charges made, and about day light the enemy were finally put to flight. Our killed and wounded amount to 170, of these 42 are now dead.

I have not been able to ascertain the number of Indians in the action, it must however have been considerable.

The principal chief of these Potawatamis, who have joined the Prophet, is wounded, and in our possession. I have taken care of him, and shall send him back to his tribe. At a more leisure moment I shall do myself the honor to transmit a more particular account of the action, and of our previous movements, and am, with the highest respect, Sir, your humble servant,

WM. HENRY HARRISON.

The Hon. Wm. Erving, Secretary of War.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 7 of 12 M // The day has passed as usual E W Lawton remains quite low the termination of his disease, doubtful

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 8, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 8 of 12 M // C R spake in our assembly this forenoon. Silence in the Afternoon & after meeting Brother D R & myself walked down to Jon[athon] Dennis's, took tea & spent the evening Sister Ruth the while with my H -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

About a year and a half earlier, the church structure in Carlisle had burned to the ground. On this day a new structure was dedicated, with a greater number of pews. The state tax for this year was remitted in order to assist the occupants of the town in their hardship.

ECCLESIASTICAL HISTORY [OF CARLISLE]. The first house for public religious worship was commenced about 1760, and completed in 1781, when 24 pews on the lower floor were sold for $950.50; and in 1793, nineteen in the gallery for £58. This house was struck by lightning in May, 1810, and entirely consumed. The present house was dedicated the second Sabbath in December, 1811, and contained 44 pews on the lower floor and 16 in the gallery, which were sold for $2746.50. The builders were Joseph Wyman and John Sawyer; and the whole expense of the house, including the preparation of the spot, was $4866.81. A bell was procured in 1812 at an expense of $350. In consequence of the unfortunate loss of the old house the state tax for 1811 was remitted. The church was organized February 28th, 1781, and then consisted of 10 male and 24 female members. Nathaniel Taylor, John Green, Phinehas Blood, and their wives, Joseph Monroe, Ebenezer Chase, Agnes Foster, Mercy Monroe, Ruth Monroe, Abigail Parlin, and Rebecca Heald had been members of the church of Concord. The other male members were Joshua Monroe, Jonathan Spaulding, Thomas Spaulding, Job Spaulding, John Robbins, and David Dickinson.

On the 17th of May, 1781, the church voted unanimously to invite Mr. Paul Litchfield to become their first pastor. In this vote the town concurred the 25th of the same month by a vote of 43 to 3. It was agreed to give him £150 as a settlement; and £80 in silver money and 20 cords of wood annually, as a salary, so long as he should supply the pulpit. He was ordained November the 7th, 1781, on the same day as Mr. Stearns in Lincoln. The council on the occasion was composed of pastors and delegates from the churches in Billerica, Bedford, Concord, Acton, Westford, Ashby, 2d [Church] in Scituate, Abington, 2d [Church] in Medway, Franklin, North [Church] in Newburyport and 2d

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

[Church] in Salem; and were invited by Jonathan Spaulding, Thomas Spaulding, and John Green, a committee of the church. In the public religious exercises, the Rev. Samuel Spring, of Newburyport, made the introductory prayer; the Rev. Samuel Niles, of Abington, preached the sermon from 1 Cor. iv. 2; the Rev. Nathaniel Emmons, of Franklin, made "the prayer during the imposition of hands"; the Rev. David Sanford of Medway, gave the charge, the Rev. Samuel Spring the right hand of fellowship, and the Rev. Samuel Whitman of Ashby made the concluding prayer.

The first communion was held December 31st, 1781, when it was voted to require a written or verbal relation by candidates, before the church and congregation, of the religious exercises of their minds before admission into the church. This embarrassing regulation was so modified two years afterwards, as to permit them to do it before a committee of the church. The doctrines contained in the confession of faith, and preached by Mr. Litchfield were strictly Calvinistic, coinciding in many points with that system of theology known by the name Hopkinsianism.

No records are preserved to show the number of admissions into the church during Mr. Litchfield's long and peaceful ministry. In 1798, an interesting revival of religion prevailed, in which considerable additions were made to the church. The number of communicants in 1829, were 3 males and 24 females.⁹⁹

99. Lemuel Shattuck's 1835 A HISTORY OF THE TOWN OF CONCORD;... Boston: Russell, Odiorne, and Company; Concord MA: John Stacy

(On or about November 11, 1837 Henry Thoreau would indicate a familiarity with the contents of at least pages 2-3 and 6-9 of this historical study. On July 16, 1859 he would correct a date mistake buried in the body of the text.)

HDTWHAT?INDEXSTEPHEN WANTON GOULD*FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

December 9, Monday: The Englishman Thomas Manning, a private explorer, became the first European in a century to enter Lhasa.

More reports came in about the fighting on the frontier:

BATTLE WITH THE INDIANS.
From the CENSINEL.

Since our last, a great number of letters have been received giving details of a very bloody battle fought on the 7th November by the United States' army, commanded by Gen. HARRISON, and a body of Indians of the Pawnee tribe, commanded by "The Prophet" about half a mile from his chief town, and 200 miles in advance of Vincennes. The letters from Washington disagree in many of the particulars of this battle, and nothing official had been received at the War Office at the last date; but the letters below we know to have been written by officers of the 4th U. S. regiment, who were in the action, and who must have been best acquainted with the particulars of it. On our first page is a letter received and published by a member of Congress. Our letters from Washington say, the immediate return of the army excites unpleasant sensations in the minds of the western members; who consider an Indian war as commenced. These letters speak in the highest terms of the gallantry and discipline of the 4th. U. S. Regiment, not 300 strong; and particularly of the excellent conduct of Col. Boye, in the battle. The regulars, they say, saved the army from a second St. Clair's massacre. The reports of the killed and wounded are variously stated;—that of the Indians was said to have been comparatively small; their town was burnt the day after the battle; but some letters say, they had removed their

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 9 of 12 M // I have thought seriously on Several important sunjects – Neighbor Mumford & daughter with father & Mother R spent the Afternoon with us

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

HDT

WHAT?

INDEX

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

December 10, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 10 of 12 M // Nothing Material of my own to insert -Mary Barker Wife of Matthew a valued friend Died this Afternoon

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 11, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 11 of 12 M 1811// Again this day has passed with the usual rounds. We have rec'd a letter from Hannah Collins which was very acceptable - my mind has also been favor'd with the ariseings of life for which I desire to be thankful -

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 December 12, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 12 of 12 M // The Corpse of our valued friend Mary Barker wife of Matthew were carried to meeting this day & After meeting was inter'd in the upper burying ground, Our friend Jos Douglass of Durham & his companion Edw'd Cobb of Portland were at Meeting. Jos was concern'd in a loving testimony & spake clearly of his apprehension that the present deceased was at rest & had Joined the Society of Saints & Angels & just men made perfect. -Edw Cobb, Jeremiah Austin Jr Jonathon Dennis & David Buffum Jr took tea with us & spent part of the evening very agreeably on our part - Edw was our Lodger at the Yearly Meeting time in 1810, at which time we formed a very agreeable acquaintance with him. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 December 13, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 13 of 12 M // Jeremiah Austin Jr has been at the Shop twice today & seems very sweet in spirit, spake with much feeling of Poor Isaac & desired if I wrote him again to insert his affectionate love, he oft remembers him & cannot give him up - Rote this eveng to Matther Purinton of Salem

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 December 14, Saturday: Carl Maria von Weber and Heinrich Baermann performed the premiere of Weber's Seven Variations on a Theme from Silvana J.128 at the home of Count Firmian in Prague.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 14 of 12 M // The day has passed with the usual rounds, nothing material to insert. - Sisters E & M set the evening with us

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

December 15, Sunday: That night Seraphine, an opera by Jan Vaclav Tomásek to words of Dambek, was performed for the initial time, in the Prague Estates Theater. It was well received.

In Kentucky, while drunk, Lilburn Lewis became enraged over the breaking of a pitcher, bound his 17-year-old slave George, and in front of the assembled household's other slaves, dismembered him piece by piece with an axe. The details of the incident are variously recounted, but perhaps have most poetically been recounted by Robert Penn Warren in 1953 in the long poem "Brother to Dragons: A Tale in Verse and Voices."¹⁰⁰

SLAVERY

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 15 of 12 M // I watched with E W Lawton last night & in the night wrote to D Smith. Being not very smart this mornng I went to bed & lay till past noon - Went to meeting in the Afternoon & felt Dull Set the evening at home & went to bed early

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

100. The case has especial historical relevance not because of the extreme brutality of the incident, but because the perpetrator was a relative of President Thomas Jefferson, and hopefully therefore Jefferson's reaction or lack of reaction might allow us to extrapolate as to Jefferson's state of mind in regard to race.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

December 16, Monday: As the great comet Flaugergues (C/1811 F1) had been receding, its tail had been lengthening, from 24 degrees to 70 degrees.

SKY EVENT

Centered in northwestern Arkansas, there were two enormous (~7.2-8.1 Richter) earthquake shocks, the 1st at 2:15AM and the 2d at 8:15AM. They said the Mississippi River flowed backwards (which would be to indicate that a seismic "seiche" propagated upriver). It would be alleged that this had been forecast months before by Tecumseh.

John James Audubon, in Kentucky, hearing the roar of the New Madrid, Missouri earthquake¹⁰¹ and noticing the effects of the enormous earthquake (still inadequately understood) in strange brightenings and darkenings of the sky, presumed that a tornado might be approaching and sought shelter from it.¹⁰² Just as the steamboat New Orleans came out into the smooth waters of the Mississippi, heading downriver after the rapids known as the Falls of the Ohio, without warning the quake struck and the normally very smooth waters of the Mississippi River became agitated into the same sort of turbulent maelstrom from which this steamboat had

101. Am I sure that this is not a reference to the earthquake that would occur on February 7, 1812 at 4:45AM?

102. Notice that it had not yet been clearly established, that comets were extra-atmospheric, astronomical in nature. Some natural philosophers were still holding to a theory that actually a comet was a type of long-lasting atmospheric disturbance, and therefore quite close to the surface of the earth and able to exert a direct influence upon us.

HDTWHAT?INDEXFRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

just emerged. Church bells were heard to ding in Boston as the first of four major temblors ripped along the

New Madrid faultline which runs from Arkansas to Illinois. In this initial temblor, presently estimated at 8.1 on the Richter scale, tree trunks snapped — but because of low white population density, only a few dozen people were reported as having been killed. Soil liquefaction along the Mississippi River was, according to our Federal Emergency Management Agency, similar to that experienced during the great Kobe quake of January 1995, and as a result the great river ran backward for three days. Were a temblor of Kobe's 7.0 magnitude to strike along the New Madrid faultline at 9:30AM on some day under our current conditions — and it is estimated that there is a significant probability that some such temblor will occur — the Arkansas State Office of Emergency Services estimates that 14,000 people will die and there will be 240,000 homeless. Since

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

there are presently five major oil and natural gas pipelines running across this faultline, conveying heating fuel to the Eastern seaboard states, if this inevitable disaster should strike during a winter a significant portion of our nation will be subjected to a chilling brush with reality.¹⁰³

There would be follow-on major earthquakes on January 23, 1812 and on February 7, 1812. After this series of major quakes, there would be a new lake in Tennessee, Reelfoot Lake, that had not existed in 1810.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 16th of 12 M // My H not being Smart I set most of the evening at home & entertained her & myself in reading Sillimans Journal

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 17, Tuesday: John Antes died at his home in Bristol, England at the age of 71.

Amphion, an opéra by Etienne-Nicholas Méhul to words of de Jouy, was performed for the initial time, in the Paris Opéra. This would later be called Les Amazones, ou La fondation de Thèbes. The response was disappointing, largely due to the libretto.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 17 of 12 M // Again nothing material, but the usual rounds. set most of the eveng at home emply'd as the last. I think Sillimans journal is a fine thing, & contains may [many] seasonable pertinent & instructing observations, tho' he is doubtless in some errors

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 18, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 18 of 12 M // My H not very smart Sister Mary spent most of the day & evening with us. - read as last eveing, Sillimans observations on the universities of Oxford & Cambridge particularly pleased me -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 19, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 19 of 12 M // Our Meeting was pretty well attended & Silent, in the last which was Preparative meeting, the names of

103. According to our National Research Council, writing as of 1994, it is simply not yet known “whether the relocation of materials on the surface of the earth is dominated by the slower but continuous fluxes operating all of the time or by the spectacular large fluxes that operate during short-lived cataclysmic events.”

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*David Williams, Stephen Gould & David Rodman were Proposed as Overseers of the Poor which was approbated by a few voices & forwarded to the Moy [Monthly] Meeting
In the first meeting I thought I was favor'd to feel the life to arise & dispell some clouds which hung over me, for which I desire to be thankful*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 20, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 20 of 12 M 1811// My6 H spent the Afternoon & evening at Brother D Rs. I called in the evening at D Williams -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 21, Saturday: A constitution of the first republic of Venezuela was adopted in Caracas.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 21 of 12 M // A Report that could not be traced to its origin has been circulated in town for several day that Rowse Taylor was Killed by the Indians at Ohio. This Afternoons Mail brought a letter directed to Rich'd Mitchell In the direction of which I recognized his well known hand - the Post Mark was the 3d of this Mt, the contents of the letteer we may hear more about tomorrow

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 22, Sunday: After a successful concert on the previous evening, in spite of a blizzard, Carl Maria von Weber and Heinrich Baermann left Prague heading toward Dresden.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 22 of 12 M // Hearing that Richd Mitchell was in town went with my usual impatience & curiosity in persuit of him to get intelligence from Rowse. found the letters at D Williams & heard part of them read which convey'd the glad tidings that he was settled on a farm of 160 Acres in the state of Ohio, town of Smithfield. -
Our forenoon meeting was pretty well attended & D Buffum & H Dennis labor'd to arrest our attention to the One thing Needful -In the Afternoon we were Silent - My H not being able to attend*

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

meeting in the Afternoon went to My fathers to dine - In the eveng we borrow'd Rowse's letter & I read it to my father & Mother who were peculiarly pleased with his account of the journey & final settlement. I hardly ever saw father more interested -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 23, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 23 of 12 M // The day has passed pretty much as usual in the evening went round among some of our wealthy members to collect a little Money for the poor

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 24, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 24 of 12 M // This has been a violent stormy day I did not go home to dinner, & took a little with Aunt Anna Carpenter's Brother D R came to the Shop in the Afternoon finding nothing to do in his own - I set the eveng at home & read indubly [?] to my H in Silliman's journal & finished it

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 25, Wednesday: French troops defeated the Spanish defenders of Valencia and laid siege to the city.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 25 of 12 M // By accounts today the Storm of Yesterday was more violent than we who were mostly confined within doors were aware - The Wind was so high as to blow down several trees in Broad Street & Washington Square, the large & Ancient honey locust that stood in John Earls yard, a Chimney on the Point, frose to death an horse belonging to Sandford in Middletown, drove on Shore a brigg from Ireland with 70 Passengers, Men Women & children were obliged to wade from the wreck & came from the Neck thro' the Streets this Afternoon to a house provided by the town for their accomodation on the long wharf, they were pitiable Objects indeed -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

December 26, Thursday: In a theater of Richmond, Virginia, a fire killed 5 black Americans, and 68 white Americans of whom many were from prominent local families.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 26th of 12 M 1811// I walked towards Portsmouth to attend our Moy [Monthly] Meeting. Rich'd Mitchell kindly gave me a ride of about 3 Miles on my way to Meeting his Sleigh, in going over one bank we over Set but neither of us was hurt. Our Meeting was small. The Womens side of the house counted but seven & them very young Women, I suppose neither of them over 30 years of life: -Ours was large in Number, perhaps 40 of 50 - Peter Lawton was Clerk & for the first time I was assistant & succeeded beyond my expectations -After meeting I rode with R Mitchell to his house & dined & after dinner a part of the way home with D Buffum in his sleigh which eased me of my journey exceedingly for if I had not have been assisted in this way it is not probable I should been able to have got home the same day. & tho' as it was my limbs were much fatigued, yet I was glad I went, for had I had not the Books & papers of neither meeting would have been there -Jonathon Dennis the two D Buffums, little Wm Chase & myself were all that were there from Newport. The Snow Banks were formidable indeed some I walked over that I doubt not were 15 feet high.

A sorrowful affair was related to me in Portsmouth It appears that about 7 an hour before sun set in the Storm the day before yesterday Joseph Cundel went out of his Mill & has not yet been seen or heard from Yet. they have been searching the Mill dam today & cannot find him whether he was suffocated in the snow drown'd in the Mill dam & got into the Sea is Yet undetermined, but there is no prospect of ever finding him alive.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 27, Friday: Heinrich Baermann and Carl Maria von Weber arrived in Leipzig having passed up Dresden. The Saxon court was absent.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 27 of 12 M // Our Sisters Joanna Ruth & Mary set the evening with us [too faded] the day the usual rounds -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 28, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 28 of 12 M // The day being Stormy I have been the whole day at the Shop - Set the eveng at home -

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 29, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 29 of 12 M // Our Meetings were rather small owing to the badness of the travelling. In the forenoon C R preached, in the Afternoon Silent [faded] night visited the Work & Alms house - Set the eveng at home

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 30, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 30 of 12 M // This day complete the 30th year of my Age & should I live till tomorrow, shall be progressing in my 30th & consideration of it has this eveng been deep & impressive on my Mind. Oh how swiftly glides the Moments of our precious time, & how little improvement in those things that are of the utmost importance. Oh! that it may not all steal away & the Work left incompleat

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 31, Tuesday night: A portion of the tail of the great comet Flaugergues \(C/1811 F1\) was observable.

SKY EVENT

This, the "Great Comet of 1811," would be given a mention by Tolstòy in WAR AND PEACE:

The radiant star which, after traveling in its orbit with inconceivable velocity through infinite space, seemed suddenly -like an arrow piercing the earth- to remain fast in one chosen spot in the black firmament, vigorously tossing up its tail.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

31 of 12 M 1811// Here ends the year & what more shall I say of it than that it has come & gone. I feel my mind humbled at the poor improvement of I have made, but am thankful in believing that tho' I may have taken Some retrograde Steps yet my mind is still visited with the renewals of love & life.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

“NARRATIVE HISTORY” IS FABULATION, HISTORY IS CHRONOLOGY

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1812

January 1, Wednesday: For four days, Mount Vesuvius would be in eruption: “Effusiva — Lava ad W verso Torre del Greco.”

The Austrian Empire’s new Civil Code went into effect.

Dr. Benjamin Rush, a mutual friend, had been attempting to get former President John Adams to reconcile with former President Thomas Jefferson. Adams had been bitterly resentful of Jefferson’s claim that he was of uniquely importance as the author of a foundational document, the Declaration of Independence. That document had in fact not been a foundational document of the United States of America at all, but a mere piece of political theatre, nor in fact had Jefferson, low man on the totem pole, had that much of a hand in the creation of it. “The Declaration of Independence I always considered as a theatrical show,” he wrote at this point. “Jefferson ran away with all the stage effect ... and all the glory of it.” However, on this day for the first time in 11 years, Adams did send off a letter to Jefferson.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st of 1 Mo 1812// I commence the new Year under feelings of depression, & seriousness on various subjects - And a concern renewed on my mind this evening, that I may double my dilligence in labor to dwell near the life & not suffer it to be lessened by neglect. Altho I have not expressed much for a long time in my journal relative to my progress in religious matters yet I have not been unmindful of them, but there is Such a Sameness in each days experience that it seems like unnecessary repitition to express how it is with me daily - When I do well I feel peace & in proportion to my neglect of duty in my condemnation¹⁰⁴

104. Stephen Wanton Gould Diary, 1812-1815: The Gould family papers are stored under control number 2033 at the Division of Rare and Manuscript Collections of Cornell University Library, Box 7 Folder 10 for May 1, 1809-June 30, 1812 and Folder 11 for July 1, 1812-August 20, 1815. Series 7 Microfilm Reel #3, positive, is made up of Friend Stephen Wanton Gould’s Diary #11, 1812-1815 (July 1, 1812-August 20, 1815, of which the original is held by the Quaker Collection of Haverford College)

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

January 2, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 2nd of 1 M 1812// This day news was brought to town that Joseph Cundell was found Near his mill coverd in a bank of Snow he was found Yesterday & bury'd this Afternoon. – It so happened this day that my buisness was so that I omitted meeting. – but my mind has been in a favor'd State for which I desire to be thankful. –Set most of the eveng at home

January 3, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 3 of 1 Mo// Again the mind under exercise which I hope may be proffitable – Sister Mary set the eveng with us –

January 4, Saturday: Miss Abigail Dudley, who had provided funds for a choir in Concord, died. Her grave would be marked by the 1st gravestone to be fashioned out of white stone, in the Hill Burying-Ground.

“THIS STONE IS DESIGNED BY ITS DURABILITY TO PERPETUATE THE MEMORY, AND BY ITS COLOUR TO SIGNIFY THE MORAL CHARACTER OF
Miss ABIGAIL DUDLEY,
WHO DIED JAN. 4, 1812
AGED 73.”

This, actually, was the year of the greatest average age of death in Concord:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

The following table, exhibiting the number of deaths in [Concord] between several specified ages, the number each year, the aggregate amount of their ages, average age, &c. &c. during the 50 years commencing January 1, 1779, and ending December 31, 1828, was compiled from records carefully kept by the Rev. Dr. Ripley [Ezra Ripley]. Great labor has been expended to make it correct and intelligible.

Year.	Under 1	to 5	to 10	to 20	to 30	to 40	to 50	to 60	to 70	to 80	to 90	to 100	Total.	Aggre. Am. Age.	Average Age.
1779	2	0	0	1	2	0	0	0	2	4	1	0	12	578	48
1780	1	2	1	1	0	0	1	1	3	0	0	0	10	307	30
1781	3	1	0	1	0	2	0	1	1	2	1	3	15	721	48
1782	1	2	1	0	1	2	0	1	1	5	3	1	18	933	52
1783	5	2	1	0	4	2	3	1	2	3	1	0	24	811	34
1784	4	1	1	2	2	0	0	1	1	2	1	2	17	607	35
1785	2	0	1	0	3	2	2	3	2	2	0	0	17	672	39
1786	4	1	0	4	3	1	1	0	1	2	1	1	19	590	31
1787	2	2	0	0	1	2	1	1	2	0	1	0	12	416	35
1788	2	0	2	0	2	2	2	1	2	3	3	0	19	877	46
1789	3	1	0	1	2	3	0	1	1	4	1	0	17	694	41
1790	2	5	2	2	2	0	3	0	3	4	3	0	26	970	37
1791	3	1	0	0	0	1	2	1	3	3	3	0	17	841	49
1792	5	0	0	1	4	3	1	6	2	2	1	1	26	1021	39
1793	1	0	3	0	1	2	2	4	1	3	0	2	19	894	47
1794	1	1	1	0	4	3	0	1	5	1	3	1	21	1018	49
1795	0	2	0	4	3	4	1	1	2	2	2	0	21	824	39
1796	1	8	2	0	2	2	2	2	1	6	1	0	27	926	34
1797	3	1	1	1	2	1	4	1	1	3	3	0	21	893	43
1798	4	3	0	2	2	0	1	0	1	5	2	1	21	831	39
1799	0	1	0	1	4	0	2	3	4	4	1	0	20	1006	50
1800	3	7	0	0	0	4	1	2	1	4	2	1	25	926	37

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Year.	Under 1	to 5	to 10	to 20	to 30	to 40	to 50	to 60	to 70	to 80	to 90	to 100	Total.	Aggre. Am. Age.	Average Age.
1801	3	3	2	6	3	0	2	2	3	4	4	0	32	1197	37
1802	2	4	1	3	2	2	1	3	1	6	2	0	27	1067	39
1803	2	7	2	3	4	9	3	0	3	2	2	1	38	1194	31
1804	4	4	0	3	3	1	3	3	1	4	2	1	29	1037	39
1805	12	1	0	3	6	2	0	2	2	2	5	0	35	1132	32
1806	5	4	0	1	6	2	1	3	4	1	4	1	32	1201	39
1807	7	1	0	2	6	2	3	1	3	4	2	1	32	1182	37
1808	1	5	1	0	0	1	3	2	4	0	2	0	19	722	38
1809	2	3	0	0	2	1	3	1	2	2	2	1	19	821	43
1810	5	1	1	3	3	4	4	3	6	4	3	1	38	1626	45
1811	1	2	2	0	4	1	1	2	4	2	2	0	21	881	42
1812	3	6	2	1	1	5	2	2	3	3	3	1	32	1131	36
1813	3	2	1	2	4	2	3	3	1	4	2	0	27	1094	40
1814	2	0	0	0	4	4	4	1	3	0	2	2	22	1012	46
1815	4	2	4	5	4	5	3	4	5	4	6	1	47	1910	41
1816	6	1	0	1	2	0	1	3	2	4	1	0	21	802	38
1817	2	4	2	2	4	0	5	1	1	0	0	0	21	495	28
1818	2	1	0	2	1	4	1	3	3	2	1	0	20	825	41

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Year.	Under 1	to 5	to 10	to 20	to 30	to 40	to 50	to 60	to 70	to 80	to 90	to 100	Total.	Aggre. Am. Age.	Average Age.
1819	2	2	1	4	0	3	3	4	2	4	1	1	27	1006	37
1820	2	3	0	0	2	3	2	5	0	5	6	0	28	1374	49
1821	3	5	0	2	0	1	3	3	2	10	4	0	33	1582	48
1822	2	10	1	3	5	2	2	3	2	4	2	2	38	1285	34
1823	5	3	1	1	2	1	3	3	2	1	3	1	26	970	37
1824	4	3	0	1	1	2	4	4	3	5	2	0	29	1244	43
1825	3	7	1	1	2	2	5	6	4	6	3	0	40	1645	41
1826	8	6	4	0	3	2	8	4	1	5	2	0	43	1367	32
1827	2	2	0	0	1	3	1	2	1	0	3	0	19	893	44
1828	4	4	0	0	0	1	3	1	2	5	1	2	23	1020	48

It is impossible to specify the diseases by which the several persons died. As far as can be ascertained from the [Rev. Dr. Ripley \[Ezra Ripley\]](#)'s records, it appears that about one seventh of the whole number died of consumption, one fifth of fevers of various kinds, one twelfth of old age, one sixteenth of canker-rash, one nineteenth of the dropsy, one twenty-fifth of paralytic affections, and nearly the same number each of dysentery and casualties.

By adding the columns in the above table, we shall find that the whole number, who died during the 50 years, was 1242; of whom 153 died under 1 year of age; 137 of 1 and under 5; 42 of 5 and under 10; 70 of 10 and under 20; 119 of 20 and under 30; 101 of 30 and under 40; 106 of 40 and under 50; 106 of 50 and under 80; 106 of 80 and under 90; 28 of 90 and under 100; and a native black of 105. Of these 107 died in January, 111 in February, 118 in March, 103 in April, 88 in May, 81 in June, 88 in July, 95 in August, 115 in September, 121 in October, 121 in November, and 94 in December. These proportions generally hold good in particular years, more deaths occurring in the spring and autumn than at other seasons of the year. Of those who lived 80 years and over, 54 were males and 81 females; 90 and over, 8 were males and 21 females; 95 and over, 3 were males and 4 females. The year when the least number of deaths occurred was 1780, and when the greatest, 1815. The yearly average is 25 nearly. the least average age was in 1817, the greatest average in 1812. The aggregate amount of all the ages, for 50 years, is 49,192, and the mean average age nearly 40. Estimating our population, during this period, at an average of 1665, which is nearly correct, as will appear on reference to our account of the population, we shall find that 1 in 66 dies annually.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

153 or 1 in 8 1-8 died under 1 year.	620 or 1 in 2 lived 40 and upwards.
218 or 1 in 5 2-3 died under 2 years.	570 or 1 in 2 1-3 lived 45 and upwards.
255 or 1 in 4 8-9 died under 3 years.	514 or 1 in 2 2-5 lived 50 and upwards.
270 or 1 in 4 3-5 died under 4 years.	463 or 1 in 2 3-5 lived 55 and upwards.
290 or 1 in 4 1-3 died under 5 years.	408 or 1 in 3 1-11 lived 60 and upwards.
304 or 1 in 4 1-11 died under 6 years.	354 or 1 in 3 1-2 lived 65 and upwards.
332 or 1 in 3 3-4 died under 10 years.	296 or 1 in 4 1-5 lived 70 and upwards.
358 or 1 in 3 1-2 died under 15 years.	209 or 1 in 5 1-17 lived 75 and upwards.
402 or 1 in 3 1-11 died under 20 years.	135 or 1 in 9 1-5 lived 80 and upwards.
472 or 1 in 2 3-5 died under 25 years.	69 or 1 in 18 lived 85 and upwards.
521 or 1 in 2 2-5 died under 30 years.	29 or 1 in 42 5-6 lived 90 and upwards.
571 or 1 in 2 1-3 died under 35 years.	7 or 1 in 177 3-7 lived 95 and upwards.
622 or 1 in 2 died under 40 years.	2 lived to 99, and 1 to 105.

In these calculations minute fractions are omitted. They exhibit results highly favorable to the health of the town. Few towns are so healthy.¹⁰⁵

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 4th of 1 Mo// The day passed as usual; Set the eveng at home —

January 5, Sunday: French forces surrounding Valencia began to bombard the city.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

105. In France, 1 in 31 arrives to the age of 70; in London 1 in 10; in Philadelphia, 1 in 15; and in Connecticut 1 in 8. In Salem, 1 in 48 dies annually; in Philadelphia, 1 in 45; in Boston, 1 in 41; in London, 1 in 40; in Paris, 1 in 32; and in Vienna, 1 in 22. — See History of Dedham and American Quarterly Review, Vol. VIII. p. 396.

Lemuel Shattuck's 1835 A HISTORY OF THE TOWN OF CONCORD;... Boston MA: Russell, Odiorne, and Company; Concord MA: John Stacy, 1835

(On or about November 11, 1837 Henry Thoreau would indicate a familiarity with the contents of at least pages 2-3 and 6-9 of this historical study. On July 16, 1859 he would correct a date mistake buried in the body of the text.)

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1st day 5 of 1 Mo// I had an hard battle to engage with the enemy this Morning but thro' divine favor was enabled to keep clear of offense & if I sinned I believe it was only in thought thus overcoming enabled me to enjoy precious meeting for which I desire to be thankful -In the forenoon D Buffum gave us a lively testimony from the text "Boast not thyself of tomorrow" & very pertinently alluded to the late sudden disaster by Storms at sea & fire in Richmond Va where in the Theater many lives were lost in a few minutes - In the Afternoon C R & H Dennis both appear'd sweetly in testimony. I set most of the evening at home, with my mind comfortably retired which is a State I love to feel -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 6, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 6th of 1 Mo// The mind again in conflict which I hope & pray may prove profitable, may the Stubble & reprobate Metal be consumed, & nothing left which obstructs the circulation of the life - In the Morn'g went to Wm Pattens to hear the relations of a passenger in the Ship Orion Capt Barzille Huzzey of Nantucket from London of grievances & imposition of the Captain on the Voige, which were truly afflicting, the Man whose name was White a Presbyterian Minister supposed the Capt was a member of our Society & wanted the interference of Some of our Members - but on investigation I am induced to think he is not in membership & if he is his conduct has been a disgrace to Us. - In the eveng Met at C J Tennys with the Directors of the African benevolent Society -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 7, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 7 of 1 M 1812// My H Spent this Afternoon with our dear Aunts Martha Mary & Hannah Gould, we also set the eveng. I can say it was an agreeable time to me -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

January 8, Wednesday: The Spanish defenders of Valencia surrendered to the surrounding French. Meanwhile, British and Portuguese troops had surrounded the French in Ciudad Rodrigo.

Sigismond Fortuné François Thalberg was born in Pâquis near Geneva, son of Joseph Thalberg and Fortunée Stein (it was possible that at that point both of his parents were the marriage partners of others).

Gioachino Rossini's farsa L'inganno felice to words of Foppa after Palomba was performed for the initial time, in Teatro San Moisè, Venice, and was very successful with critics and public.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 8 of 1_Mo// This day has been pretty much occupied in the Discharge of the Duties of my new appointment as Overseer of the Poor

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 9, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 9 of 1_Mo// Our meeting was silent & comfortable, at least it felt so to me; My H set the Afternoon at Brother Isaac's. I took tea with them.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 10, Friday: The steamboat New Orleans arrived in New Orleans. And yes, despite the dire prediction of the mayor of Cincinnati, it would be able to make its way back upriver against the current (since it was almost empty).

Friend Luke Howard observed what we would now term smog above the great metropolis of London:

...the sky, where any light pervaded it, showed the aspect of bronze. Such is, occasionally, the effect of the accumulation of smoke between two opposite gentle currents, or by means of a misty calm. I am informed that the fuliginous cloud was visible,

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

in this instance, for a distance of forty miles.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 10 of 1 Mo// My mind has been brought under feelings which are pleasant, tho' of a serious nature, for which I desire to be thankful

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 11, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 11 of 1 Mo// Nothing particular to insert more than that the Day passes as usual -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 12, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 12 of 1 Mo// In the forenoon we had a Sweet testimony from H Dennis - In the Afternoon silence, & according to my sense they were both good solid Meetings. - Set the eveng at Home Sister Mary spent it with us -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 January 13, Monday: The publication of Jan Ladislav Dussek's Two Duos for piano and harp C.257-258 was entered at Stationer's Hall, London.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 13 of 1 Mo// The usual rounds - In the eveng called to see Mary Williams Junr who is quite sick -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 14, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 14 of 1 Mo// The day has again passed without anything particular to insert - Sister Ruth set the eveng with us agreeably -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 15, Wednesday: Johannes Herbst died in Salem, North Carolina at the age of 76.

If one looked carefully, one could still make out the great comet Flaugergues (C/1811 F1) in the night skies, in the constellation Aquarius. (It had been visible since late March in 1811: this had been and still is the longest period of naked-eye visibility of any comet of which we have record.)

SKY EVENT

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 15th of 1 Mo// Father seems to look much more poorly than common this mornng [?] & complains of a new infirmity vizt a pain in his breast, The left [?], thinks he has a fever, has prescribed some Medicine & he is better this eveng - tho very feeble - Sister Eliza spent the day with us -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 16, Thursday: In his consideration Prime Minister Spencer Perceval was not prosecuting the peninsular war with sufficient vigor, and so Lord Wellesley resigned as Foreign Secretary.

Samuel Hoar, Jr., Joseph Barrett, and Jonas Lee prepared a petition to the Massachusetts legislature, that due to the decrepitude of the Middlesex County buildings in Cambridge, the county offices ought at this point to be removed to Concord. They, and Tilly Merrick, Isaac Hurd, Jonas Buttrick, Francis Jarvis, and Benjamin Prescott, Jr., would be authorized by the townspeople to present this to the legislature:

"To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.
"The inhabitants of the town of Concord, in the county

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

of Middlesex, humbly show, that the existing laws, requiring some of the sessions of the courts for said county to be holden in said Concord and others in Cambridge in said county, are in their execution attended with many inconveniences. The clerk of said courts is required to transport a large number of dockets and other papers from his office in Cambridge to Concord, when the courts are to hold a session in the latter place; delays are often produced in the trial of causes by the unforeseen demand of papers, in the public offices, at a distance from the place of trial; a large bill of costs is annually crated to said county by the transportation of prisoners from one of those towns to the other, for trial; parties, jurors and witnesses, when the courts sit at Cambridge, are drawn to one extremity of the county to attend the trail of causes; much useless expense to said county is created, not only in building, but in the frequent repairing two court-houses and two jails. The court-house and jail in Cambridge are now old and decayed, and unfit to answer the purposes for which they were built; and others, if the courts are hereafter to be holden there, must soon be erected.

"Your memorialists further represent, that said Concord is nearly in the centre of said county, and that a court-house and jail in said town have recently been erected at a considerable expense, which are commodious and sufficient for the use of said county; that in the court-house in Concord, convenient rooms for all public offices for said county may be fitted up at a trifling expense, in which the public records may be deposited more safely than in their present situation.

"Wherefore your memorialists pray, that said Concord may be made the shire town of said county, and that all the courts for said county may in future be holden in said town of Concord. And as in duty bound will ever pray."¹⁰⁶

(This effort would fail.)

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 16th of 1 M 1812// Father rested comfortable last night, & has been free from pain thro' the day, but he is so week that he has kept his bed all day, in getting up this evening found himself much fatigued, he would not consent to have a fire in the Chamber untill I prevailed upon him this Afternoon & while making it up It seem'd to me as if it would be his last illness

106. Lemuel Shattuck's 1835 A HISTORY OF THE TOWN OF CONCORD;... Boston: Russell, Odiorne, and Company;

Concord MA: John Stacy

(On or about November 11, 1837 Henry Thoreau would indicate a familiarity with the contents of at least pages 2-3 and 6-9 of this historical study. On July 16, 1859 he would correct a date mistake buried in the body of the text.)

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

-I never saw him so sick & low in body before.-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 17, Friday: After a successful performance in Leipzig, Carl Maria von Weber and Heinrich Baermann left the city to respond to an invitation from Gotha.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 17 of 1_Mo// Our dear father seems very low this Mornng & much distressed for breath, when I went into his room this morning to carry some fire, I asked him how he did, he said "I am no better. This is hard service I have come to, it is such a turn as I never had before, but I have ruffed it along a great while, & it will be but a little longer on Mothers asking him to take a powder, he said, I dont see that they do any good, I want something for my breath between 10 & 11 OClock the Doctr came & opened a vein, which as yet has not much relieved his breathing, he came again between 12 & 1 OC & says the fever is not so high but considers his case very doubtful & proposes a blister to the Side

While I with dear Aunt Patty Gould was setting by him just now, speaking of his fever he said, The Dr told him it was not so high, but it is the highest & the lowest time I ever knew." The Doctor thinks his complaint is the Peripnumony which in addition to his precious weekness render'd his case very dubious -he has been a little more easy thro' the Afternoon, particularly since his blisters were on & if they draw well thro' the night & no more unfavorable symptoms take place there may be some room to hope he may recruit a little. - I was much gratified that Our friend D Buffum called to see him, not being present I know not as he had any thing particular to communicate.- This is the most afflicting period of my life, I know not how to express myself

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

January 18, Saturday: A $100 reward, plus costs, was issued for the capture and return of Jack, his wife Betty, and their daughter Fanny, who were eluding the white Virginian who had purchased them, James A. Glenn. Jack, who had formerly been the property of J. Byad, was a small mulatto man of about 40 or 45 years of age and a very sensible man with hair that could be made to appear straight. He had been an active good gardener, hostler, and carriage driver. Betty, his wife, who had formerly been the property of John Corbin, was a fleshy mulatto woman between 30 and 35 years of age, and a very pleasant person. Fanny, their daughter, had reached 14 or 15 years of age, was very crosseyed, was short and stout, and was like her mother a very pleasant person. The newspaper advertisement suggested that they might be residing with free relatives of color and would probably be pretending to be themselves also free:

100 DOLLARS REWARD.
RAN AWAY from the subscriber in Halifax county, Virg. on the night of the 7th July, 1811, three Slaves, viz JACK, his wife BETTY, and their daughter FANNY—Jack is a small mulatto man, about 40 or 45 years of age, his hair inclined to be straight; he is very sensible, and an active good gardener, hostler and carriage driver; Betty is a large mulatto woman, inclined to be very fleshy and has a pleasing countenance when spoken to; she is between 30 and 35 years of age, and Fanny, a mulatto girl, 14 or 15 years of age, very cross-eyed, has a pleasing countenance, and apt to smile when spoken to, she is low but stout and well made. Jack carried with him two trunks, one turned up with buff, one of which was nearly new, and a number of other clothes. Betty and Fanny carried with them a number of good clothes, not recollected. They will, doubtless, attempt to pass as free, and probably will be seeking about Richmond, where Betty has a brother and her mother living, both of whom are free; her brother calls himself John H. Muleton. All masters of vessels and others are cautioned against conveying away, or in any way harboring said slaves at their peril.
I will give the above reward if secured in any jail so that I get them again, or one third for either of them. If brought home all reasonable charges will be paid in addition to the above reward.
JOHN WILSON, Committee of James A. Glenn.
N. B.—Jack formerly belonged to J. Byad, Betty was purchased of John Corbin.

Naughty Jack. Naughty Betty. Naughty crosseyed Fanny. What, did they suppose they were entitled to — life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness?

SLAVERY

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

7th day 18th of 1 M 1812// Our dear father is no better this morning, when I went into his room & enquired how he felt with some difficulty he said I am no better, I have had a very hard night -

He has been as comfortable as could be expected this day tho' very weak & low. I think I have not seen him sleep so easy nor fetch so long breaths since he was taken as this evening, yet from his many weaknesses & emaciated body I hardly dare lay hold of hope. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 19, Sunday: France reoccupied Swedish Pomerania.

Allied (UK-Portugal-Spain) troops captured the French garrison at Ciudad Rodrigo southwest of Salamanca.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 19 of 1 Mo// My dear father remains much as yesterday. I Watched with him last night & dear Aunt Patty Gould set up with me, desirous to do as much as long as she can for him, he rested the forepart of the night & rased [?] as easy as could be expected, about 3 OClock he became very restless & wanted to get up, but we prevailed upon him to lay till near day break & thro' the day his raising continued easy to what it was - This evening while the Doctor was there he expressed his satisfaction with him & said he believed he could & did do all that a Doctor could for him he also spake of our great attention to him & when ever I went to him thro' the last night & today he seem'd very affectionate. Our very kind & helpful friend Thos Hornsby spent most of the Afternoon & evening with him

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 20, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 20 of 1 Mo// My dear father seems weaker this mornng but remains sensible - he has been restless & uncomfortable thro' the day but after being got up in the eveng he seem'd quite as comfortable as could be expected & slept more than an hour & at nine OClock I left him as well as could be expected - He asked Mother what was the day of the Month on her telling him the 20th he said this is the day that John was to sail Meaning Uncle John Stanton who we had heard previous to his illness was to sail on this day from N York for Liverpool, after he waked out of a nap of sleep, he was asked if he wanted any thing he said no nothing but to be still & quiet - In the course of the day he told Susanna

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Davenport an old friend of the family that, he knew his time was Short & that he was quite resigned to & Satisfied with the event

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 21, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould's father, James Gould, died.

3rd day 21 of 1 M 1812// I think my dear father seems, not to be more sunken this morn'g than he was last night, tho' his Watchers (who were Benj Hadwen & Hannah Hull) say that he was much distressed till after 2 O'clock in the morning 11 OC AM I think my dear father is now sinking very fast, he breaths short, is cold, & refuses to take any thing whatever, but lays very composed & his countenance bespeaks a placid state 1 OC PM, My dear father is still more sunk than when I wrote the above, he does not speak & appears to be fast expiring, his countenance is still placid, & he looks around on all in the room as if he knew all, & I have no doubt he does & is sensible that the last moment of his existence fast approaches, - Oh Awful Era, ! may my soul be prepared for it, when it may arrive. - At several times and particularly a few minutes ago, while Standing by his bedside it seem'd as if all fell into Stillness which was attended with a Solemn but sweet covering, & my spirit favord to partake a little of it, for which I desire to be thankful Past 2 O'clock I have now the painful distressing task to insert the decease of my dear & affectionate father he breathed his last in this World about 10 Minutes before 2 O'clock this Afternoon - not expecting his dissolution quite so soon I stepped out & wrote the foregoing but was soon sent for. I found he had lain much as I left him untill he became violently convulsed & when he came out of that very soon expired - The dear old man continued sensible & knew all around him untill he became convulsed, a few minutes before that time Mother asked him if he knew Isaac he nodded his head to say yes but his weakness had so far increased that he was past speaking This morning Mother perceived that it was not probable that he could last long expressed to him her apprehension of their being soon to part in this World, he reply'd that he was fully sensible of it, & said we met in Love & we part in it, he said that as to his great account he felt no uneasiness about it, believing it to be settled but that some of his outward affairs were not so well arranged as he could wish, but however he was not very uneasy about them - About two Months ago he purchased a small house of which it was his intention to have given, his Sisters a life lease in, Mother assured him that She would see that they should not be disturbed, to which he added that he knew if she had not have exerted herself in the affair it never would have been procured, -he has many times manifested his satisfaction at having Aunt Patty Gould with him, & when our Good old friend Susanna Davenport came to see him he expressed his readiness to depart & seem'd desirous for her to Stay in the house as long as he lasted which she did & was truly helpful. – Thomas Hornsby's kindness & attention he also seem'd very greatful for, & indeed thro' his whole illness his patience & affection towards those around him has been remarkable, & he has now gone I have no doubt to rest, from the labors pains & fatigue if this World to a world where Sorrow is no more known, to receive a reward according to his Works. –

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 22, Wednesday: A 3d regency was set up in Spain to rule for King Fernando VII, in opposition to the French.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 22nd of 1 mo 1812// My dear father now lays a Corpse, I think I never saw him look more natural, indeed he looks more like himself than he has for several months. There seems to be allmost a Smile on his Countenance, which to my mind is an additional evidence of his being now at rest. – I have been most of the day at home my dear H being in a situation which prevented her being with my dear Mother in this trying occasion, & from her present situation & the severity of the Weather has prevented her going to see father in his illness which has been a great cross to her & not less so to us all - but we are favor'd with quiet minds for which & all other blessing I desire to be renewedly thankful

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 23, Thursday: At 9AM there was a follow-on major (~7.0-7.8 Richter) earthquake along the New Madrid fault, continuing the damage that had begun on December 16, 1811. After this string of quakes, there would be a new lake in Tennessee, Reelfoot Lake, that had not existed in 1810.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 23 of 1 Mo// This is the day we have concluded on to pay the last duties to the remains of our dear father, his corpse retains its placidity & is no way alter'd from yesterday. – The funeral was at 2 OClock at the house attended by many friends & respectable inhabitants of the town, for he was a man of good Report & unblemished Character, but there was not near as many attended as would have done had the going been more safe, much snow was on the Ground & the walking very slippery – After about an hours setting at the house our friend D Buffum observed that such a Solemn pause on such occasions was very proper & useful in giving time for reflections, that the turn must soon be hours & he then thought if all were easy it was a suitable time to

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

proceed to the last Duties – Which we did, & during the time of the funeral, I think I can say for us all, Our minds were favor'd with as much composure as could be expected on an occasion so trying, so deeply afflicting

Altho' Our dear father had lived to the Advanced Age of nearly 73 Years & from his numerous infermities of body, it could not be expected he could live much longer to go in & out before us, yet, the event is hard to bear, we shall feel his loss each succeeding day of our lives, & very expecially Our dear & affectionate Mother who will feel as a Stricken Deer or Sparrow on the house top.

We much regret, the weather has been such that we could not have the company of our Cousins Peleg Gardiner & Wife, & Lewis L Clarke from Narragansett, it would have been a peculiar Stay & comfort expecially to Mother, but we could not even send them Word of our Situation. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 24, Friday: Robert Fulton's and Livingston's workshops in New-York were destroyed by arson.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 24th of 1 M 1812// I have spent most of the day in writing to L L Clarke & finishing some other writing on hand –finding my self not very well & a pain sometimes in my side I thought it was most prudent to Set the evening at home to avoid exposure to this very raw & uncomfortable air. – I hardly ever knew a more severe Spell of weather than we have had for several weeks past --

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 25, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

7th day 25 of 1 Mo// The loss of my dear father has been the Subject of my thoughts most of the day & indeed let my body be employed about what it would that has been uppermost in my mind. I desire yea pray that we may all be favor'd to abide in the Quiet & live in the peace together. My dear Mother seems much striped & my dear Aunts much foresaken, but I trust they have those yet living who will care for them & feel affectionatly for their wellfare. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 26, Sunday: France annexed Andorra.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 26 of 1 Mo// Owing to the very sloppy walking our meeting was smaller than common, especially in the Afternoon -In the forenoon C Rodman spoke to the people - After tea I called a little while at D Williams & set the remainder of the eveng at home & read Bucannans Christian Researches in Asia

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 27, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 27 of 1 Mo// Rec'd letters from Cousin L L Clarke which was as a brooke by the way - We every day feel the recent great loss revived, & my heart is indeed hevy in the remembrance, but he is gone from us & it now remains for Survivors to make the best of our journey to a better country where I doubt not but he has gone & is at peace & rest. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 28, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 28th of 1st M 1812// Every time I enter the late dwelling of my dear father, I feel his loss & miss him from his seat both in the Shop & house, which allways leaves a painful voice in my mind, but it teach us to realize & reconcile the various changes to which we are subject in passing thro this probationary state & vale of tears. -

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 29, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 29 of 1 Mo// The usual rounds of buisness & the usual feelings & reflections of late -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 30, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 30 of 1 Mo// This day was our Moy [Monthly] Meeting held in town which was made small in consequence of the bad weather travelling -20 females attended, yet the buisness of both Meetings was transacted pretty well - In the first C R was concern'd in testimony which to my mind carried the evidence of the right thing & I beleive made its way in the minds of All present - The last was to me a low time but was not an hard time. - I was favor'd with feeling & some good degree of animation, for which I desire to be thankful
In the eveng called a little while at D Williams & set the remainder at Home Sisters Ruth & Eliza being there -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 31, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 31 of 1 Mo// My mind has been much occupied in feeling & thinking on the loss of my dear & very affectionate father. I miss him every day & shall continue to untill the end of my Days -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 February 1, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 1 of 2 M 1812// The mind occupied much as Yesterday & nothing has transpired different from the usual rounds

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

February 2, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 2 of 2 Mo// Our meetings were large - In the forenoon C
R preached, (I have no doubt) with good Authority Set the eveng at Home with My H. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 3, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*2nd day 3 of 2 Mo// Attended the Town Council with my Dear Mother to prove the Will of my late dear father, a trying time to Mother
She has my sincere sympathy. My H being pretty Smart spent the Day at my Mothers - Father & Mother Rodman spent the Afternoon*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 4, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*3rd day 4th of 2 M 1812// I have spent part of this day in finishing a letter which I begun yesterday to Uncle & Aunt Stanton giving a more particular acct of my dear fathers sickness & Death
My dear Aunt Martha Gould spent the Afternoon & part of the evening with us. - While I set looking at her my mind was struck with her innocent countenance, & mild affectioate tone of voice.
I love her much & believe I have thro' life duly appreciated her worth to me, she has been to me in my youth an anxious caretaker & continues to this day to love me & I do her most sincerely -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 5, Wednesday: Governor Tompkins's committee submitted a report suggesting the basic features of a school system that would become New York state law.

After some private performances and a public concert in Weimar, Carl Maria von Weber and Heinrich Baermann arrived in Dresden.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 5 of 2 Mo// Nothing but the usual rounds & the usual reflections thro' the Day. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

February 6, Thursday: José García de León y Pizarro replaced Eusebio Bardaji y Azara as First Secretary of State of the resistance government of Spain.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 6 of 2 Mo// I am sorry again to acknowledge that buisness has kept me from meeting, a circumstance which I allways lament but so it is. Sometimes things will so opperate as to prevent – It is remarkable that most of our friends who went yesterday to Providence to attend the Quarterly Meeting return'd this Afternoon towards night, it appears meeting got thro' in season for them to go on board the Packet by 3 OClock & they got down before night which is a circumstance never before happened. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 7, Friday: At 4:45AM there was another follow-on major (~7.4-8.0 Richter) earthquake along the New Madrid fault, completing the series that had begun on December 16, 1811 and continued on January 23, 1812. After this series of major quakes, there would be a new lake in Tennessee, Reelfoot Lake, that had not existed in 1810. I'm sure there couldn't have been any connection, but at Landport in Portsmouth, Hampshire, England, Charles Dickens (Charles John Huffam Dickens) was born into a family beleaguered by debt. His father John Dickens, son of a butler and a housekeeper at Crewe Hall, had risen to the post of clerk in the Navy Pay Office. His mother Elizabeth Barrow was the daughter of a senior clerk in that Navy Pay Office.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 7 of 2 Mo// My mind has for Several days been brought under close exercise, from an apprehension that Duty will lead me to write a letter to Uncle Benjamin Gould touching the things of his everlasting Peace, but peculiar circumstances render the performance of it a great trial, & how it will terminate in my mind I cannot tell at present. I do most ardently wish him well, & at this time my secret Prayer is that his last days may be his best Days

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 8, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 8 of 2 Mo// My mind is exercised with subjects before me, the importance of which feel momentous.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

February 9, Sunday: Incidental music for Kotzebue's plays The Ruins of Athens and King Stephen by Ludwig van Beethoven was performed for the initial time, at the opening of the Pest Theater.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 9 of 2 Mo// C Rodman spake in our forenoon meeting & according to my judgement a good evidence attended his communication - The Afternoon Meeting was Silent - It has been a day of exercise to my Spirit, which I hope may prove profitable -- Set the eveng at home with my H. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 10, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 10 of 2 Mo// This eveng paid visits of Sympathy to my old neighbors Saml Gibbs & Saml Towle, the latter is very sick himself & has a daughter very low, his wife also suffers much with a lame foot which renders them in a very helpless situation, when we lived in their neighborhood they were very kind & affectionate neighbors to us, & they Still remain near in our hearts, & are people whom I believe near the Kingdom of heaven - My H set the Afternoon at her fathers

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 13, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 13 of 2 Mo// Our Meeting seem'd a refreshing brooke by the way C Rodman & H Dennis were conserved in short but lively testimonys. - In the eveng called at D Williams, a little while & set the remainder at home with my H. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 14, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 14 of 2 Mo// The Mind much occupied on things of a serious nature. In the eveng called at Aunt Patty Goulds & found her complaining with a lame side. I hope she will get better & be spared to us a little longer. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 February 15, Saturday: Due to tensions between France and Russia, and due to his pending divorce proceedings, Adrien Boieldieu wrote to Tsar Alyeksandr from Paris that he needed to resign from his position as Kapellmeister.

The United States of America claimed the Oregon Territory.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 15 of 2 Mo// Occupied at trade but the mind has been turned to look inward, & the life has been raised.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 February 16, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 16 of 2 Mo// In the forenoon it seem'd as if the life was low, yet R C & D B had lively & acceptable testimonies to bear -In the Afternoon things seemed a little better & C R spake a few words, nearly as follows "Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the Dead that Christ may give thee life, & then when the Gospel trumpet is sounded thou wilt be susceptible to its glorious effects" Saw cousin Thos Gould at Aunt Marthas this evening & was very glad, as I esteem him much. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 February 17, Monday: Ellen Sturgis was born in Boston, daughter of the wealthy China trader William F. Sturgis with Elizabeth Marston Davis Sturgis, daughter of a prominent Boston jurist.¹⁰⁷ From her poem "Life a Duty":

I slept, and dreamed that life was Beauty;
I woke, and found that life was Duty.
Was thy dream then a shadowy lie?
Toil on, poor heart, unceasingly;
And thou shalt find thy dream to be
A truth and noonday light to thee.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 17 of 2 Mo// Thos Gould called to see me, & spent Some time in the Shop - In the evening I called at Aunt M Gs a little while

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

107. Her sister Caroline [Caroline Sturgis Tappan] would not be born until 1819.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

➡ February 18, Tuesday: Carl Maria von Weber and Heinrich Baermann performed a private recital for the royal family in Dresden. Their public performance in Dresden was unsuccessful, Weber's music being found deficient by comparison with Louis Spohr's.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 18 of 2 Mo// Called at Aunt M Gs, & found her not Smart Mother R Set the evening with us --

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ February 19, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 19 Of 2 Mo// Aunt Molly Gould fell & hurt her side this morning & was bled this Afternoon -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ February 20, Thursday: Captain Paul Cuffe sailed his Traveller from Sierra Leone toward the coast of Massachusetts with a cargo of African goods. Upon arrival, his vessel and its cargo would be embargoed because his last port of call had been a British port and the US and Britain had gone to war.

In 1812 tensions between the United States and Britain were nearly at the breaking point. Once home, having just returned from a British colony, Cuffe's ship was seized by customs officials. The incident necessitated Cuffe's going to Washington to win back his brig and cargo. He was not only successful in this goal, but he also met with President James Madison in an attempt to gain support for his next trip to Sierra Leone. Cuffe was the first black man to ever meet on official business with the President of the United States.

Cuffe intended to visit Sierra Leone once each year, bringing skilled immigrants and needed supplies while exporting African products to cover expenses. He had purchased a house in Freetown but never intended to settle there himself, because, as he explained "my wife is not willing to go." The war with England delayed his return, however, as traffic with the enemy became forbidden.

Carl Maria von Weber arrived in Berlin on his concert tour with Heinrich Joseph Baermann. He would stay at the home of the parents of his fellow student Meyer Beer (Giacomo Meyerbeer).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 20th of 2nd Mo 1812// Our first meeting was pretty favor'd to me but attended with a doubtful occurance. - The first (Preparative) was short - but two friends asked for certificates
-thus we go one after another, Some are removed by Death & some*

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*go to other places untill I know not but Poor R Island will be entirely striped of friends.
Sister Joanna Set the evening with us -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 21, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*6th day 21 of 2 Mo// Nothing very particular to insert - Day after Day passes away & I remain much as I have been for years;
-however I am not unmindful that time is Swiftly & Silently on the wing & that it will soon be finished with me even if my days should be lengthened to the age allotted man by Scripture*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 22, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 22 of 2 Mo// Went to Redwood Lybrary return'd the "History of Plants" which I had taken from there some weeks ago.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 23, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 23 of 2 Mo// In the forenoon C R spake a little acceptably. The Afternoon was Silent. I set the eveng at home.
My H not well -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 24, Monday: Prussia signed a treaty of alliance with France. The treaty bound Prussia to allow the free passage of French troops and to provide 20,000 Prussian troops for use with France. Prussia also adhered to the Continental System.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 24 of 2nd Mo// Nothing particular to insert, except the usual rounds - The weather is very close & winterlike which has a tendency with some other circumstances to depress my spirits.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Rosalind Cobb Wiggins has pointed out that while Friend Paul's vessel was being impounded by the US Coast Guard on Aquidneck Island in April, he would be lodging at the home of Stephen Wanton Gould and Hannah Gould in Newport, and that this amounted to a social gesture in the society of that day that was bold even for Quakers: "White people who could afford servants considered African-Americans to be the lowest sort of domestic, scarcely educable and more like the docile creatures in their barns. People of Color could be lodged in the stable and fed in the kitchen, but not Paul in Stephen and Hannah's home." I do not find evidence, however, within Friend Stephen's journal itself, that Friend Paul lodged at the Gould home for more than one evening, or that he slept in some supposedly available area inside the home itself rather than in an outbuilding, and so I wonder whether Friend Rosalind had independent evidence of that lodging — or whether she was here merely drawing an unsupported speculative inference. (Within my own conceptual frame of reference, I rather doubt that there would have been available a "decent" space within the tiny home to put up a white adult male overnight, let alone putting up an adult male of color, unless he were to doze sitting up before the fire in the front room.)

February 25, Tuesday: Opening of Massachusetts General Hospital in Boston.

Robert Fulton left Washington DC for New-York.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 25 of 2 Mo// It is exremely [s]lippery walking & this Morning in coming out of father R's door I sliped & fell my whole length into the street against the steps on my back which hurt my shoulders & ribs very much —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 26, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 26 of 2 Mo// I am better of my fall today, for which I desire to be thankful — This eveng visited the African School.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

February 27, Thursday: George Gordon, Lord Byron's maiden speech at the House of Lords was in opposition to a proposal to impose capital punishment upon Luddites found guilty of frame-breaking.

LORD BYRON'S SPEECH

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 27 of 2 Mo// Our Moy [Monthly] Meeting is this day held at Portsmouth, I would have been glad to have gone, but such is the situation of my dear H that at present I feel most easy not to leave her long at a time. – Those who attended the meeting say they had a pretty good time, but suffered much with the cold in going & coming.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 28, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 28 of 2 Mo// I hardly know what to say. The day has passed, & to but very little account in any way. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 29, Saturday: George Gordon, Lord Byron's Cantos I and II of CHILDE HAROLD'S PILGRIMAGE were published, inclusive of the line

Who would be free, themselves must strike the blow?

that would be so often quoted by Frederick Douglass in 1863 while he was seeking volunteers for the Civil War black regiments:

*Liberty won by white men would lose half its luster.
Who would be free themselves must strike the blow.
Better even die free, than to live slaves.
I urge you to fly to arms and smite to death the power that would bury the Government and your liberty in the same hopeless grave.*

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

This is your golden opportunity.

HEREDITARY BONDSMEN! KNOW YE NOT WHO WOULD BE FREE, THEMSELVES MUST STRIKE THE BLOW?--British Poet.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 29 of 2 Mo// The day has passed as usual. & the mind in its usual mood

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 1, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 1 of 3 M 1812// C Rodman ministered unto us in both meetings, & In how not but his appearance was acceptable. I thought I was favor'd especially in the forenoon to know something of an opening. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 2, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 2 of 3 Mo// The Day has again passed with the usual rounds.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 3, Tuesday: Cuffee, a Paumanok Long Island Shinnecock Indian minister, died near Montauk, New York at the age of 55.

The US Congress passed the 1st foreign aid bill.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 3 of 3 M Each day produces so little, that is worthy of nore & my mind so barrab of Life that, I sometimes doubt the propriety of my waisting paper, but do not deel quite easy to omit it

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 4, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 4th of 3 rd M 1812// Nothing but the usual rounds.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 5, Thursday: Spanish forces laid siege to Cuautla, held by Mexican revolutionaries.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 5 of 3 M ?// Our meeting was pretty well attended & I can truly say that my mind was comforted with the presence of several of the youth who appear, sober minded & from their good conduct are hopeful, & I am fully of the faith that some of them will become useful members—

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 6, Friday: Aaron Lufkin Dennison, father of American watchmaking, was born.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 6 of 3 Mo// Nothing particular to insert. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 7, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 7 of 3 Mo// The day has passed pretty much as usual.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 8, Sunday: Georg Joseph Vogler and his student Meyer Beer (Giacomo Meyerbeer) departed from Darmstadt for a journey to München.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 8 of 3 Mo// In the Mornng Meeting C R spake a few words & in the Afternoon we sat in Silence. — My mind was some what barran in them but not in so poor a state as at sometimes. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 9, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 9 of 3 Mo// I am well aware that the enemy does in divers ways beset me & sometimes with sharp buffeting, but I am thankful in believing that the good hand is yet near me & does help beyond what I have a right to expect. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

2nd day 10th of 3 M 1812// My Beloved H & her little son rested finally [?] last night & are comfortable today. I desire not to set my heart upon this child or promise myself any happiness in him. We have had a proof of the fallacy of such promises in the loss of our dear little Caleb, who I often think of & can scarcely help repining in seasons of weakness when I think of his very engaging ways. he was certainly a remarkable fine child -but it may be childish in me to say much more about him, if this is as forward & as engaging as he was it will be a renewed cause of humility & gratitude, which I hope my heart will not be calous to. -

March 10, Tuesday: George Gordon, Lord Byron published the first two cantos of his CHILDE HAROLD'S PILGRIMAGE. The sensation would be immediate and widespread and would establish Byron in the mind of the public. He would later remark, "I awoke one morning and found myself famous."

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 10 of 3 Mo// I have today been made acquainted with some cases wherein the enemy is secretly & all most quite openly at work at the other end of the Island, on which account I feel Sorrowfull, & may an increased concern prevail in my mind to work against his subtilty in my own heart that it may be the more clean & qualified frallies [?] his shafts against others. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 11, Wednesday: A decree was issued in Prussia that "Jews and their families presently residing in our States and in possession of general privileges, patents of naturalization, letters of protection, and concessions were considered inhabitants and citizens of Prussia."

JUDAISM

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 11 of 3 Mo// Oh! that I was better. I feel the need of more life more of the quickeneing spirit, but am comforted with

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

the belief that I am yet favor'd with that or the renewal of that which is necessary to the Souls Salvation.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 12, Thursday: The Spanish Cortes passed a liberal constitution in Cadiz. This would become the manifesto for Spanish liberals through a great part of the 19th Century.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 12 of 3 M C R was concerned in testimony in our meeting today. & on my own part may acknowledge that it was a season of some favor vouchsafed to my mind for which I desire to be thankful - Altho' the mind wandered a little, yet it was enabled to keep the object in view

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 13, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 13 of 3 Mo// My mind has various ways been exercised & depressed on subjects which I have thought best not to insert here, Oh that I may be favored to keep the right object in view.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 14, Saturday: Fearful of Russian expansion, Austria concluded a military alliance with France, agreeing to provide an army for Napoléon Bonaparte.

Cirio in Babilonia, ossia La caduta di Baldassare, a dramma con cori by Gioachino Rossini to words of Aventi, was performed, presumably for the initial time, in the Teatro Comunale, Ferrara. This was a flop.

The birth of Friend Stephen Wanton Gould's son, John Stanton Gould.

7th day 14 of Mo// My dear Wife has been sometime expecting to be sick & this Afternoon much indisposed but did not send for assistance untill near sunset & about 7 OClock was delivered of a fine boy for which I desire to [be] thankful to the Lord, the great giver of all good things. - This is an event which has long exercised my mind, & I can but repeat my thankfulness that it is thus far over. The Doctor was not in the house to exceed an hour, & my Dear H is as well this evening as can be expected-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 15, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 15 of 3 Mo// C R spake in our forenoon Meeting. In the Afternoon we were Silent. My H & little sone had a restless night but have been as comfortable thro' the day as could be expected.
—

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 16, Monday: The Emperor Napoléon appointed his brother Joseph (King José I of Spain) as commander-in-chief of the French armies in Iberia.

An allied (Great Britain/Portugal) army reached the French-held fortress of Badajoz in Extremadura, Spain.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 16th of 3 M 1812// My Beloved H & her little son rested finally [?] last night & are comfortable today. I desire not to set my heart upon this child or promise myself any happiness in him. We have had a proof of the fallacy of such promises in the loss of our dear little Caleb, who I often think of & can scarcely help repining in seasons of weakness when I think of his very engaging ways. he was certainly a remarkable fine child -but it may be childish in me to say much more about him, if this is as forward & as engaging as he was it will be a renewed cause of humility & gratitude, which I hope my heart will not be calous to. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 17, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 17 of 3rd Mo// Our little son was very ill last evening & the nurse thought he was almost gone, but recover'd & Slept quietly all night. - I hardly think we shall be able to raise him, but I desire to leave the event to the All Wise disposer & humbly to acquiesse with what he pleases to lay upon me. - I am brought this morning under a depressing sense of my unworthyness, & Oh! that all uncleanness may be perged out. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 18, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

4th day 18 of 3 Mo// The young child & his mother had a fine night last & are this mornng very comfortable. for which may render the tribute of a greatful hearts. - I have had the Company of my much lov'd friend Jos Austin for an hour or two in my Shop which has been very greatful - he also set a little while with my H this evening -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 19, Thursday: The Spanish Constitution of 1812 was proclaimed in Cadiz. This was liberal in that it supported universal suffrage and a constitutional monarchy under King Fernando VII.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 19 of 3 Mo// Our meeting was pretty well attended & was comfortable to me - In the first C R had a small communication, & in the last Job Weeden son of John of Connanicut, requested the care & membership of Society which was forwarded to the Moy [Monthly] Meeting & as a ballance for that agreeable occurence, the overseers inform'd that they had treated with E W Lawton for keeping company with a woman not of society, so that it seems as if what is laid on with one hand is taken off with the other.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 20, Friday: Jan Ladislav Dussek died of gout at either St. Germain-en-Laye or Paris, at the age of 52.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 20 of 3 Mo// The young Child & his Mother again rested well last Night - the usual rounds thro' the Day. - In eveng Called at Aunt M Gould.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 21, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 21 of 3 Mo// I feel a degree of thankfulness that My Dear H & little son are doing as well as they are. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 22, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 22 of 3 Mo// Last night I spent in Watching with Christo[pher] Grant Mason & in the Mornng went to bed - In the Afternoon attended Meeting which was as bright as I could expect after setting up all night - D Rodman walked with me to Saml Thurstons where we took tea & set most of the evening --

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 23, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 23 of 3 M 1812// I heard this mornng that John Weaver of Connanicut has departed this life, thus we go one after another to our long homes, & the time will soon come when it will come to those who are now young in years

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 24, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*3rd day 24 of 3 Mo// This mornng while setting silently the Spring of life arose in my mind with much Sweetness & comfort for which I desire to be thankful
We have now pretty much concluded that our little Son be named John Stanton - it is far from being my wish that he should be so called, as three names I much disapprove of, & John is not the name of my choice, but Aunt Martha Stanton in a letter from N York requested some Months ago & before my dear fathers decease that if this child was a son that his name be so called, which father knew & was pleased with - My dear Mother seems now very anxious the child should be called agreeable to his aunts request, which seems very difficult for me to countenance., & as I feel nothing of conscience about it, think best to acquiese with the desires of both Mother & Aunt*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 25, Wednesday: Publication of the Twelve Dances for piano op.44 by Johann Nepomuk Hummel was announced in the Wiener Zeitung.

Samuel Wesley and his wife Charlotte Louisa Martin Wesley executed a deed of separation.

Lady Caroline Lamb gave a waltzing party at Melborne House. Among the guests were George Gordon, Lord Byron, Annabella Milbanke, Rev. Sidney Smith, Lady Jersey, Lord and Lady Kinnaird, et al.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 25 of 3 Mo// The day has rolled away much as days generally do with me - Several friends went to Connanicut to attend the funeral of our Aged & Worthy friend John Weaver whose remains were carried to the Meeting house & after Meeting were decently inter'd in the Meeting House Yard I should have been glad, & thought of going but concluded as tomorrow is our Moy [Monthly] Meeting it would not be best to leave my Shop two days successively -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 27, Friday: Caroline Lamb wrote her initial love letter to George Gordon, Lord Byron.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 27 of 3 Mo// Yesterday toward night, Departed this Life at his house in Portsmouth HOLDER ALMY a worthy & excellent man, & will be a great loss to Society - His Ministry was generally lively & clear & I have no doubt hath been helpful to many, especially the feeble minded. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 28, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 28 of 3 M 1812// The day has passed with the usual rounds. - My H & little son are quite smart. May I be daly thankful

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 29, Easter Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 29 of 3 Mo// The day has been exceedingly Stormy which has prevented my going to Portsmouth to attend the funeral of the much lov'd & Valuable friend HOLDER ALMY whose remains I understand were taken to the Meeting House where Our friend D Buffum & Wm Almy were engaged in testimony, & After Meeting

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

his remains were decently inter'd in the burying ground near the Meeting house. He has been for many years useful & acceptable in the Ministry, & his innocent & exemplary life has render'd him an ornament to society, he died greatly beloved by all who knew him, & his loss will be great to his family & society. - Our Meetings at home were but small owing to the inclemency of the weather, & tho' my mind was somewhat on the rove yet, there seem'd to be a good degree of favor which render'd the retreat more easy when I detected my self thinking on unprofitable subjects.- In the Mornng D Clapp Jr called to see me & was at Meeting. he appears to be a Sober Man

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 30, Monday: The allied army surrounding Badajoz began bombardment of the fortress.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 30 of 3 Mo// The Day has passed with the usual rounds-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 31, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 31 of 3 Mo// Another day one much as usual

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 1, Wednesday: Count Nikolai Ivanovich Saltykov replaced Prince Mikhail Barclay de Tolly as Chairman of the Committee of Ministers of Russia.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 1 of 4th M 1812// This has been a precious day with me, my spirit has been much tender'd & sweetness from several occurences. particularly in Conversation with my dear friend Sarah Fish who has been to the Shop & opened Some of her exercises [meaning trials and difficulties] in which I was led into near sympathy with her & enabled to say a little which was at least satisfactory to my own mind & I believe was encouraging to her - My spirit was also tendered bu a short visit from my much loved neighbor Samuel Towle who has been in affliction all Winter, having had a sick daughter & now lays very low. - I was also not a little tender'd by a visit from Cousin William Borden. - our conversation turned on days that are gone & some of our relations that are doubtless at rest & the various changes that we are subject to in this World

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 April 2, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 2 of 4 M 1812// Our Meeting was comfortable Hannah Dennis appear'd in a few sweet & savory expressions, then C Rodman Spake (I thought) with a good degree of Authority.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 April 5, Sunday: In St. Petersburg, an alliance between Russia and Sweden was signed. Russia gave assurances that in the division of the spoils of war Sweden would get Norway, and promised to send 30,000 soldiers to drive the French from Germany.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 3 [sic] of 4 M // Our forenoon Meeting was silent, in the Afternoon C R Spake a few words, with weight Visited the Work & Alms Houses with D Rodman - This has been a day of Much reflection on various Subjects. - & my mind has been de[ressed] with the prospects before me. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 April 6, Monday: After British and Portuguese troops captured, from a combined garrison of French, Spanish, and Hessians, the fortress and city of Badajoz in Extremadura, what followed was a plunder, rape, and murder of local citizens.

The Shelleys returned from Ireland to Wales.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 6 of 4 M // Oh! that I was what I ought to be. Altho' I do try to maintain the conflict yet such is the stroving between flesh & spirit that in consequence of the predominance of the former the latter is often but very lean & barran. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 April 7, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 7 of 4 M // This morning a bunch which my mother had on her Shoulder worked out. it looked like a worm in a Cows Back & resembled thus [a circle with a dot in the middle] it was blue & red & I have no doubt was or is of a cancerous nature. what

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

the future will be with it is uncertain but she says, it feels much better than it has for Months. - Rec'd a letter from Isaac Austin Dated [blank] M [blank] Richmond in Virginia. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

→ April 9, Thursday: At 9:30AM José Antonio Aponte and other leaders of an uprising of blacks in Cuba were hanged. His head in an iron cage would be placed on display in front of the home in which he had lived (heads of these other leaders would also be variously posed).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 8 [sic] of 4 M // Our meeting was silent & I thought my mind was favor'd to partake of quiet, altho' some weakening things obtruded - this Afternoon, brought into serious thoughtfulness & feelings on various subjects especially the necessity of a preparation for the final chance - & the uncertainty of time. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

→ April 10, Friday and 11, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6 & 7 day // Depression has awaited me on various subjects

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

→ April 11, Saturday: When about 100 Luddites attacked Rawfold's Mill in Liversedge, Yorkshire, the local militia killed four of them.

→ April 12, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 12 of 4 M // In the forenoon meeting D Buffum spake a few Words & in the Afternoon C Rodman. - Our Nurse went away this Morning wich leaves my H in quite a lonely situation with her little boy, but thro' favor She is very Smart

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

→ April 13, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 13 of 4 M // It has been a very thick snow which has

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

continued to fall from 8 OClock in the morning till quite dark in the evening. The trees & bushes have been loaded as in the dead of Winter with Snow, a sight I never saw so late in the Spring. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 14, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 14 of 4 M // The Snow of Yesterday has melted away very fast today - I called to see Aunt P Gould this eveng, found her poorly but better than she had been - Sister Ruth set the evening with my H who with the little boy are very smart.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 15, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 15 of 3 M 1812// My dear & much lov'd friend Philip Dunham has been in town, his company has been reviving & strengthening, I only regret that I have been unable to have as much of it as I might have done had it not been Town meeting day to voat for Representatives to the general Assembly & Governor &c which occupied my mind more than I could have wished, but believing that the present State of the Nation & of our own State, demands the best men that can be selected to fill important offices, I was induced to voat for those whom I really believed would do for the best. - And altho I with Several other friends attended the Town Meeting, yet I believe we were not influenced by what is called party principles, but the real good of the nation. & party Spirit

I desire may be ever guarded against, for I am fully & renewedly confirmed, will ever prove a bane to vital religion, & in proportion as the spirit of party is indulged, in proportion will the pure spark of divine life wither & decay. - but still I cannot see it to be wrong for me in some cases to give my voice for mene to rule over us. for when the "Wicked rule the land Mourns."

My dear friend Philip dined & took tea with us

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 16, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

5th day 16 of 4 M // At Meeting father R had a few words to communicate.

My mind was lead to look back on days that are gone & particularly to reflect on the tender dealings of Divine goodness with me & was humbled under a sense of my man7 missteps & short comings. -

Philip Dunham was at meeting but sat in silence. --

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 April 17, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 17 of 4 M // I watched last night with James Robinson, he is an Old standard of this town & intimate friend & acquaintance of my late Dear father. Setting up last night makes me feel very dull & hevy today

Philip Dunham has been at the Shop a considerable time in the course of the Day, his company very sweet & precious

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 April 18, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 18th of 4 M // P Dunham went home this mornng. his visit has been very helpful to me having been favor'd to feel the renewals of life from his savory conversation -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 April 19, Sunday: In Concord, the militia assembled to take part in war with the British.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 19th of 4 M // Amos Peasly & Benjm Fulsom were at meeting this forenoon. Also Hireanea Thompson. The two former of the State of Newhampshire & the latter of Smithfield Amos is a living & powerful Minister & Hireanea has a good gift & were both largely concern'd in testimony & Hireanea in a supplication - In the Afternoon they appointed a meeting at Portsmouth 3 OClock, several friends went from town & said Amos was largely concerned in testimony & supplication

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

April 20, Monday: US vice-president and former New York state governor George Clinton died in Washington DC at the age of 72.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 20th of 4 M // The day has passed with the usual rounds, & the mind occupied on usual subjects. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 21, Tuesday-24, Friday: Rosalind C. Wiggins has pointed out that while Friend Paul Cuffe's vessel was impounded by the US Coast Guard on Aquidneck Island, he lodged at the home of Stephen Wanton Gould and Hannah Gould in Newport, Rhode Island and that this amounted to a social gesture in the society of that day that was bold even for Quakers: "White people who could afford servants considered African-Americans to be the lowest sort of domestic, scarcely educable and more like the docile creatures in their barns. People of Color could be lodged in the stable and fed in the kitchen, but not Paul in Stephen and Hannah's home." I do not find evidence, however, within Friend Stephen's journal itself, that Friend Paul lodged at the Gould home for more than one evening, or that he slept in some supposedly available area inside the home itself rather than in an outbuilding, and so I wonder whether Friend Rosalind actually had independent evidence of that lodging — or whether she was here merely drawing an unsupported speculative inference. (Within my own conceptual frame of reference, I rather doubt that there would have been available a "decent" space within the tiny home to put up a white adult male overnight, let alone putting up an adult male of color, unless he were to doze fully clothed sitting up before the fire in the front room.)

At the Hanover Square Rooms in London, Palestine, an oratorio by William Crotch to words of Heber, was performed for the initial time (there was a capacity audience and the response was so positive that the work would need to be repeated on May 26th).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 21 of 4 Mo 1812// Paul Cuffee has arriv'd from Africa & has passed considerable time in my Shop this Afternoon but such was the State of his mind at present in consequence of difficulty at the Custom house about his Vessel that he could not into into a detail of the progress & Success of the object of his voyage.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 22, Wednesday: Friedrich replaced Viktor II as Prince of Anhalt-Bernburg-Schaumburg-Hoym.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 22 of 4 Mo // Paul Cuffe took tea & set the eveng & is to lodge with us - he has related many interesting particulars of his voyage.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 23, Thursday: William Jones was clerk of all the courts of the county of Somerset, Maine.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 23 of 4 Mo // Our meeting was rather small & to me a very dull season – the last (preparative) was also Dull but the whole of the Queries were answer'd to pretty good satisfaction.

—

April 24, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 24 of 4 Mo // Paul Cuffee is in town endeavoring to effect measures to enable him to get to Washington & labor there for the release of his Vessel & Cargo. he is procuring letters of recommendation, & other documents that may be of service to him in explaining the nature of his voyage to Africa & the minds of the people seem to be very open to render him all necessary assistance

April 25, Saturday: Georg Joseph Vogler and Meyer Beer (Giacomo Meyerbeer) arrived in München from Darmstadt.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 25 of 4 M // The mind of men are much agitated with the prospect of War which seems to threaten this nation, but notwithstanding all the appearances, I feel a hope that the Clouds will pass over this time - but the times are gloomy news has reached us of a most terrible Earth Quake which has buried the City of Carackas in South America & many thousand Souls in it. This certainly looks like the last times spoken of in Scripture "Rumor of War," & Earth Quakes in divers places - but if the mind can be kept in humble dependance on that power of that Name by which the Seas when in great commotion are stilled, & the Quaking of the Earth may be Silenced, Sure we may not be troubled for in him is everlasting strength, & by his strength he will Sustain the Righteous, & by his Strength he will convert the Wicked.

April 26, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1st day 26 of 4 M // This Mornng being pleasant my H & little son spent the Day with my Mother, it is the first time the Child has been carried out, he appeard to bear it well & has been very quiet all Day - When I carried [him] into the late dwelling of my dear Father it much affected my mind I missed his kind & fond attention when I used to carry our little Caleb down to see him & it brought into my mind reflections & feelings that I had one day when I saw him at Aunt Patty Goulds it was a few weeks before he Died - he was then very feeble & his countenance I thought was much Sunken & I thought it hardly probable he would live the Spring out - I thought then if he could but live to see this Child born I should be thankful, but doubts possessed my Mind & I was much affected with the consideration parting with him, allmost as much as when the time of final separation took place & the remembrance of him this day has lived upon my mind & is renewe'd fresh upon it with each day of my life. -
Our Meetings were as large as usual C R had a few words to communicate. - After meetg in the Afternoon I visited my Old neighbor Saml Gibbs who lays very low & appears to be fast verging to the Grave - His intelects have much failed but he knew me & seem'd glad to see me. -

 April 27, Monday: Succession of the deacons of Lincoln:¹⁰⁸

Names.	Chosen.	Died.	Age.
Benjamin Brown	Aug. 20, 1747.	April —, 1753.	—.
Joshua Brooks	April 18, 1749.	June 26, 1768.	80.
John Gove	April 18, 1749; was in office about 40 years.
Samuel Farrar	Dec. 28, 1763.	April 18, 1783.	75.
Joshua Brooks, Jr.	Dec. 28, 1763.	March 8, 1790.	70.
Edmund Wheeler	May 6, 1784.	June 1, 1805.	74.
Samuel Farrar	May 6, 1784.	Sept. 19, 1829.	93.
Eleazer Brooks	Nov. 6, 1794.	Nov. 9, 1806.	80.
John Hartwell	April 9, 1804.	Nov. 2, 1820.	73.
Thomas Wheeler	Sept. 2, 1805.
James Farrar	April 27, 1812.
Eleazer Brooks	April 27, 1812.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 27 of 4th Mo// The day has passed as usual. Our little boy very smart but brother Johns little daughter Ann is very ill.—

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 28, Tuesday: Yorkshire mill owner William Horsfall was murdered by Luddites.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 28 of 4 M // Our dear little boy has been quite unwell today, which has caused considerable Alarm in my mind, & occasioned me to decline Watching with Jas Robinson. little Ann much as yesterday.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 29, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 29 of 4 M // I am laboring under an hevly cold & sore throat & if I am not better fear I shall not be able to get to Portsmouth to attend our Monthly Meeting tomorrow. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 30, Thursday: Louisiana became the 18th state of the United States of America.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 30 of 4 M // Altho much unwell with a cold & the mornng quite rainy I could not feel easy to omit going to Portsmouth to attend the Moy [Monthly] Meeting. failing of company I took a Chaise & rode out alone. got to the Meeting house in season to meet with the School committee before meeting. The first meeting was Silent. In the last buisness was transacted with love & harmony two were rec'd members & one disowned. After meeting I dined at my much lov'd cousin Z Chases, found him &

108. Lemuel Shattuck's 1835 A HISTORY OF THE TOWN OF CONCORD;... Boston MA: Russell, Odiorne, and Company; Concord MA: John Stacy, 1835
(On or about November 11, 1837 Henry Thoreau would indicate a familiarity with the contents of at least pages 2-3 and 6-9 of this historical study. On July 16, 1859 he would correct a date mistake buried in the body of the text.)

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

wife persuing the same rounds, & all things about there then much as when I was a little boy. I love to go there & allways shall while they & I remain in mutability

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 2, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 2 of 5 M 1812// Altho much engaged at trade this Afternoon my mind has been brought under feelings which are comfortable, because they are a proof to me that the good Spirit is yet alove in me, & yet depression is underneath -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 3, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 3 of 5 Mo// I have been quite unwell for Several days, & thought it was best not to attend meeting this forenoon
In the afternoon I went. it was small & rather poor Set the eveng at hom, Sister E & M was with us. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 4, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*2nd day 4 of 5 Mo// This mornng my old Neighbor & landlord Saml
Gibbs Died in an advanced Age, about 2 OClock*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 5, Tuesday: Ludwig II replaced August Christian Friedrich as Duke of Anhalt-Köthen.

Dies Haus was zu verkaufen, a singspiel by Johann Nepomuk Hummel to words of Klebe after Duval, was performed for the initial time, at the Leopoldstadt Theater, Vienna.

American slaver captains like La Coste of South Carolina, caught red-handed and convicted, were usually at the last moment the beneficiaries of “executive clemency” by the President of the United States. For instance, on this date William Babbit, convicted for importing slaves, was pardoned by President James Madison, himself a slavemaster (PARDONS AND REMISSIONS, I. 248).

INTERNATIONAL SLAVE TRADE

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

3rd day 5 of 5 Mo// Many friends have been in town from Portsmouth intending with others to go to Greenwich to attend the Quarterly Meeting, but the wind has been so exceedingly high from the North West that the attempt would be very hazardous. They had been detained all Day & their getting up tomorrow is doubtful. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 6, Wednesday: Martin Robison Delany was born in Charles Town, Virginia, which of course is now Charlestown in West Virginia. Although his father was a plantation slave, the law was that the status of the child followed the status of the mother (for obvious reasons in this miscegenating era), and in this case this worked out for the benefit of the child as its mother was a free black seamstress. (As a child, Martin would play with the white boy, John Avis, who eventually would become the jailor of John Brown.) In search of appropriate education for their children, the Delany family would while Martin was a child move from Virginia to Pennsylvania.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 6 of 5 Mo// Our friends set off pretty early in the mornng with an head wind & pretty fresh. - We hope however that they have arrived safe in Greenwich before night. It has been a day of much Stir & noise as it allways is on days of the General Election, but I think this has been as orderly & rather more so than common

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 7, Thursday: Robert Browning was born in Camberwell, England. His father was a clerk with the Bank of England, and although he would receive precious little formal education, he would be able to make extensive use of the books of philosophy, history, and biography in his father's substantial library. His mother would teach him to appreciate music. He would live with his parents until 1844.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 7 of 5 Mo// Considering that a number of friends are absent at Quarterly Meeting, Our meeting was well attended, & Hannah Dennis was sweetly concerned in testimony to the refreshment (I doubt not) of many present. - This Afternoon Ateended the funeral of my Old Neighbor Samuel Gibbs. - We Spent the Day with our little son at my dear Mothers who is about breaking up living as she has done, & going to take the chambers & brother Isaac is coming in below. - The dear old woman in speaking of the change while setting at tea was affected to weeping, which rent a tender place in my heart but we are born to changes, & we must expect them, greater & greater untill the great change of all, which may I be prepared for-

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 8, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 8th of 5th M 1812// The friends who went to the Quarterly Meeting at Greewich have returnd & got to the Wharf before Noon They express much satisfaction & think the Meeting was much favord & a season of encoragement. Rowland Greene expressed a concern & produced a certificate which Greenwich Moy [Monthly] Meeting had furnished him with to pay a religious visit to friends in the State of Ohio, which was united with & the certificate endorsed

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 9, Saturday: The Emperor Napoléon I departed from Paris for his invasion of Russia.

La scala di seta, a farsa comica by Gioachino Rossini to words of Foppa after Planard, was performed for the initial time, in Teatro San Moisè, Venice. It was one of three works performed that night.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 9 of 5 Mo// I have this Afternoon Spent a little time at the Court house, the General Assembly have had before them a law respecting the exemption of Friends & others conciencious scrupulous of bearing Arms, which after Some debate passed by a majority of 27 - It seems to Make much grumbling among many that friends should be exempt & I know not how long the law will stand in its present form, I fear it will be but temporary. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 10, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 10 of 5 Mo// In the forenoon Meeting C Rodman had a few words to communicate. In the Afternoon Silent. - Cousin L Clarke took tea with us & in the eveng my dear H went up to see Johns Child which is sick. She also attended the Afternoon Meeting which is the first since her confinement. Sister Ruth took care of little John the while -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

May 11, Monday: John Thoreau and Cynthia Dunbar were united in Concord, in a wedding ceremony officiated over by the Reverend Ezra Ripley.

Marriages

Spouses	Marriage Date	Marriage Place
THOREAU, John & Rebecca Kettell	Jun, 1797	Concord
THOREAU, John & Cynthia Dunbar	May, 1812	Concord

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

John in later years

Cynthia in later years

Cynthia would have been a noticeably pregnant bride, since Helen Louisa Thoreau would be born on October 22nd, but I simply do not know whether in that time and that place such a thing would have been a scandal (at least during earlier New England generations, a bride being already pregnant would have been quite normal and expectable).

At the turn of the century rural women in Massachusetts had been marrying at over 23 years of age, three years later than their mothers (their daughters would be marrying, in the 1830s, at over 25 years of age, two years later than this generation and five years later than their grandmothers). Therefore the age of this bride, 25 years, was not at all unusual for the time and the place.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 11th of 5 Mo// The usual rounds of buisness & no peculiar occurrence

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 May 12, Tuesday: Ignacio de la Pezuela y Sánchez replaced José García de León y Pizarro as First Secretary of State of the resistance government of Spain.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 12 of 5 Mo// This Afternoon I accidentally met with a book written on religious subjects which I took up & read a little in, whereby my mind was quickened & brought into the life, & a very agreeable season ensued for which I desire to be thankful.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 May 13, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 13th of 5 Mo// Nothing to insert but the usual rounds of each Day

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 May 14, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 14 of 5 Mo// I thought we had a very good meeting, as to my own particular I know not when my condition was better, the roving of the mind was easily checked, * life accessible. C R had a few words of warning "Set thine house in order for thou shalt Die & not live" which I thought was solemn & impressive - The precious savor of life has also accompanied*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 May 15, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 15 of 5 Mo// Nothing particular to insert -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

➡ May 16, Saturday: William John Broderip graduated from Oriel College, Oxford. He would enter the Inner Temple, and study in the chambers of Godfrey Sykes alongside Sir John Patteson and Sir John Taylor Coleridge.

ORIEL COLLEGE ➡

The Emperor and Empress of France arrived in Dresden accompanied by a torchlight parade. Also in attendance were the various German kings, of Saxony, Prussia, Bavaria, Württemberg, and Westphalia.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 16th 5 M 1812// A Season of precious favor this mornng finished a letter to James D Ladd of Grancille Mill Virginia this Afternoon -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ May 17, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1st day 17th of 5 Mo// Our forenoon Meeting silent. - In the Afternoon a few words by C R after Meeting father R & myself went out to D Buffum & set the eveng

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 18, Monday: Amidst celebrations by night and military preparations by day, the Emperor and Empress of Austria arrived in Dresden.

John Bellingham was hanged in front of Newgate Prison, for the murder of Prime Minister Spencer Perceval a week earlier. In the cheering multitude was George Gordon, Lord Byron.

Demetrio e Polibio, a drama serio by Gioachino Rossini to words of Viganò-Mombelli, was performed for the initial time, in Teatro Valle, Rome.

Friend Paul Cuffe was in New-York while on his way back from Washington DC to Westport, Massachusetts. He wrote in his diary that

On my Return Called to see Dr. Ross, a man that Resided 7 years in Jamaica in which time he Saw most horrible abomination inflicted on the Slaves being jibetted, Launched on a Plank Down a Steep Place Whiped Hanged Burnt and racked. Lord have Mercy I Pray Thee.

During this stop-over in the big city, Friend Paul went with Friend Thomas Eddy for a visit to the African School. There was a street encounter:

P.S. I was traveling in the Street With my Guide he kindly introduced me to two Methodist preachers Who accosted me thus, "Do you understand English?" I answered them "There Was a Part I did not understand (Viz) that of one Brother professor making merchandize of and holding in Bondage their Brother professor, this part I Should be glad they Would Clear up to me."

These white preachers, in the big city for a convention of their fellows, of course made no response to a person of color's street insolence. Friend Paul was sufficiently disturbed by the encounter, however, that that evening he wrote the incident up as a letter. On the following day he would go to the convention of Methodists and make his protest heard, and later he would pay a call on the Methodist Bishop, the Reverend Asbury, in a further effort to discuss the pros and cons of human enslavement.

RHODE ISLAND RELIGION

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 18 of 5 Mo// Tho' its seems as if there is nothing to insert, yet I feel most easy to say that times are gloomy both within & without both as respecting myself & things at large in town, State & the world. yet it does not just at this present

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

time seem as if the devastation of War was quite so much to be feared as some little time ago -- O Williams set the eveng with us, on our part very acceptably.-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 19, Friday: In New-York, Friend Paul Cuffe was sufficiently disturbed by his street encounter with the two Methodist ministers who proved to be unwilling to discuss the pros and cons of human slavery with him, that he visited the convention they were attending and made a protest. Later he would pay a call on the Methodist Bishop, the Reverend Asbury.¹⁰⁹

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 19 5 Mo// I watched last night with James Robinson he lays very helpless & I hardly think it any more than within possibility that he may get about again -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 21, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 21 of 5 Mo// I dreamed last night that I saw my dear father dressed exactly as when alive but something shining in his appearance, it seemed as if he was walking down the back street to attend a funeral in the Neck & that he looked very feeble & as he walked my dear aged cousin Zacheus Chase was by his side & when he came to a place of some difficulty to pass, Cousin Chase would take hold of his Arm to assist him. Cousin Chase Also looked very well dressed & his cloths like fathers appeard to have a lustre -I thought my mind was much grieved that he should think of walking so far in his feeble state & was anxious to get a Chaise to carry him - This dream has been much in my mind today & thought I would insert it.
Our Meeting was silent, & to me a season of roving, tho' for a few minutes it did seem as if there was Good at work & might have risen into dominion had it not have been for the very unsettled state of my Mind - In the last (Preparative) A Sherman was reported by the overseers for various deviations.
Uncle Saml Thurston dined with us & set most of the Afternoon with my H & little son, his company was very agreeable*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

109. Perhaps Friend Paul would discuss with this Bishop the contribution to religious thought of the Reverend John Wesley. In his description of the Methodist character, the Reverend Wesley had insisted repeatedly that the heart of Christian ethics was love. He offered the following definition: "A Methodist is one who has 'the love of God shed abroad in his heart by the Holy Ghost given unto him;' one who 'loves the Lord his God with all his heart, and with all his soul, and with all his mind, and with all his strength. God is the joy of his heart, and the desire of his soul.'" -Or, perhaps, Friend Paul wouldn't.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

May 22, Monday: After a vote of no confidence, Robert Banks Jenkinson, 2d Earl of Liverpool resigned as Prime Minister of Great Britain.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 22 of 5 Mo// Brother Isaac Moved into the house with Mother The change to mother is deeply trying.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 23, Tuesday: Johann Nepomuk Hummel's pantomime Der Zauberkampf, oder Harlekin in seiner Heimat to words of Kees was performed for the initial time, in Theater-an-der-Wien, Vienna.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 23 of 5 Mo// Much occupied in mind in many subjects

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 24, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 24 of 5 M 1812// In our forenoon meeting H Dennis was engaged in a very lively manner in testimony - Sister Ruth took care while my H went to meeting - In the Afternoon we were Silent
- Abigail Robinson who has not been at meeting in eleven Months was there this fornoon, her health is better - After tea I walked into the Neck with OWilliams. he went to see a man by the name of Champlin who is very sick & I went to see Jos Wilbur who is also sick of a fever. I was glad I went as he was desirous of making a Will, & gave me the minutes to bring to father Rodman. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

May 25, Monday: The destruction by earthquake of Caracas, Venezuela, begun with the shock of March 26th, was completed.

Ralph Waldo Emerson's 9th birthday.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*2nd day 25 of 5 Mo// Nothing particular to insert.
The Day has passed with the usual rounds. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 26, Tuesday: Albany, New York's Lancasterian School Society (which is to say, its board of education) was incorporated.

Luigi Cherubini resigned as a member of the Jury of the Académie imperiale de musique.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 26 of 5 Mo// Pretty buisy at trade. Thoughts & reflections much turned towards the Aspect of the Affairs at Washington. some hopes were entertained a few days ago that an accommodation would take place with England, but now things look more discouraging –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 27, Wednesday: Joseph Hunt died at the age of 63.

JOSEPH HUNT of [Concord], youngest son of Deacon Simon Hunt, was born March 1, 1749, and graduated at [Harvard College] in 1770. He was a physician at Dracut and Concord, and several years Secretary of the Massachusetts Medical Society. He died May 27, 1812, aged 63.¹¹⁰

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

110. Lemuel Shattuck's 1835 A HISTORY OF THE TOWN OF CONCORD;... Boston MA: Russell, Odiorne, and Company; Concord MA: John Stacy, 1835
(On or about November 11, 1837 Henry Thoreau would indicate a familiarity with the contents of at least pages 2-3 and 6-9 of this historical study. On July 16, 1859 he would correct a date mistake buried in the body of the text.)

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

4th day 27 of 5 Mo// I watched last night with Joseph Wilbur, which, has occasioned me a very uncomfortable day, tho' I dont know that I feel worse than common, yet having watched so lately makes it rather more trying – Joseph is pretty ill, tho' in the night I thought he was better & would probably do well, but the Doctor says he is worse today than yesterday & thinks his case very critical. – he conversed much in the course of the night & expressed his sense of short comings & that if he had have been more faithful to the Truth he would not now be so poor & destitute.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 28, Thursday: The Emperor Napoléon I departed from Dresden, where he had extracted promises of troops for his Russian campaign from the leaders of Europe, and headed east.

The Peace of Bucharest ended hostilities between Russia and the Ottoman Empire and set the River Pruth (Prut) as the European boundary. Russia abandoned claims to Moldavia and Wallachia but annexed Bessarabia. Amnesty and autonomy were provided for the Serbians but Serbia was still to be occupied by Turkey. This freed Tsar Alyeksandr to act against Napoléon.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 28 of 5 Mo// We hear this mornng that Poor Joseph Wilbour is very ill & not expected to continue long. This is an hevyr prospect for me & has not a little depressed my spirits, his removal will probably bring a hevyr burden on me as he has appointed his brother Wm & myself executors to his Will Our first meeting was silent, the last (Monthly) was conducted with good order, no very exercising case before us. Anne Greene disclosed a prospect she had long had of visiting some meetings in the Quarterly meetings of Nine Partners & Stamford & some other meetings in N York Yearly Meeting – Hannah Dennis also expressed a concern to accompany her, which was united with & they set at liberty to open their Prospect in the Quarterly Meeting – My H was at the last meeting

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 29, Friday: A New York State caucus nominated DeWitte Clinton for the presidency.

Robert Fulton's wife Harriet Fulton offered an entertainment aboard his Paragon.

The Emperor Napoléon took leave of Empress Marie Louise in Dresden and headed toward the front.

On this day and the following one Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th & 7th days 29th & 30th 5th M 1812// Occupied as usual. The mind taken up on various subjects of an outward nature

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 May 31, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 31 of 5 Mo// Our forenoon meeting was large, Hannah Dennis & C Rodman were concern'd in testimony & the London Epistle was read – After meeting James Mitchell & I went down to see Joseph Wilbour, he had sent for me the day before, but I did not hear of it till this morning just before I went to meeting -his wish to see me, was to communicate some things relative to the management of his family in case of his removal which he said he expected would soon be. I staid with him all the Afternoon, & left him with a ray of hope of his recovery

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 June 1, Monday: President James Madison got up on a platform so he could be seen (he was shorter than Senator Paul Wellstone) and addressed the houses of the American Congress, asking for a declaration of war against England. The British practice of “crimping” American seamen was, he averred, one of the prime issues which needed to be resolved by “force of arms.” (Ah, force of arms. Other people killing each other while we watch. That should be fun.)¹¹¹

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 1st of 6 M 1812// Joseph Wilbour appears to be no worse & I think hope may be cherished of his recovery.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 June 2, Tuesday and 3, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd & 4th days 2 & 3 of 6 Mo// Jos Wilbour appears much so & an hope is still cherished of his recovery. – Nothing in particular further to insert

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

111. He was of course lying. He didn't give a damn about this. After the war, the international settlement papers would not be so much as mention such an issue, which proves in black and white that this hadn't really been any reason for fighting — any more than the welfare of black people would really be our motive for fighting a Civil War.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

June 7, Sunday: Walton Felch was received into the 1st Baptist Church of Providence, Rhode Island, Pastor Stephen Gano, by baptism. (His connection with this congregation would culminate on August 4, 1825 “by erasure,” which is to say, he would neither die nor transfer his membership to some other church.)

The Reverend Stephen Gano (think “Gano Street”)

The Emperor Napoléon arrived in Danzig (Gdansk) on his way to the front and inspected the supplies stored there.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 7 of 6 Mo// In the forenoon D Buffum was concerned in a lively testimony. In the Afternoon we were silent. After tea took a Walk around the hill & down the neck with D Rodman went to Coggeshall burying ground, where John Coggeshall the first President of Rhode Island was buried in the Year 1747, the oldest Stone I have yet met with in any of my researches. --

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

May 18, Monday: Amidst celebrations by night and military preparations by day, the Emperor and Empress of Austria arrived in Dresden.

John Bellingham was hanged in front of Newgate Prison, for the murder of Prime Minister Spencer Perceval a week earlier. In the cheering multitude was George Gordon, Lord Byron.

Demetrio e Polibio, a drama serio by Gioachino Rossini to words of Viganò-Mombelli, was performed for the initial time, in Teatro Valle, Rome.

Friend Paul Cuffe was in New-York while on his way back from Washington DC to Westport, Massachusetts. He wrote in his diary that

On my Return Called to see Dr. Ross, a man that Resided 7 years in Jamaica in which time he Saw most horrible abomination inflicted on the Slaves being jibetted, Launched on a Plank Down a Steep Place Whiped Hanged Burnt and racked. Lord have Mercy I Pray Thee.

During this stop-over in the big city, Friend Paul went with Friend Thomas Eddy for a visit to the African School. There was a street encounter:

P.S. I was traveling in the Street With my Guide he kindly introduced me to two Methodist preachers Who accosted me thus, "Do you understand English?" I answered them "There Was a Part I did not understand (Viz) that of one Brother professor making merchandize of and holding in Bondage their Brother professor, this part I Should be glad they Would Clear up to me."

These white preachers, in the big city for a convention of their fellows, of course made no response to a person of color's street insolence. Friend Paul was sufficiently disturbed by the encounter, however, that that evening he wrote the incident up as a letter. On the following day he would go to the convention of Methodists and make his protest heard, and later he would pay a call on the Methodist Bishop, the Reverend Asbury, in a further effort to discuss the pros and cons of human enslavement.

RHODE ISLAND RELIGION

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 18 of 5 Mo// Tho' its seems as if there is nothing to insert, yet I feel most easy to say that times are gloomy both within & without both as respecting myself & things at large in town, State & the world. yet it does not just at this present time seem as if the devastation of War was quite so much to be feared as some little time ago -- O Williams set the eveng with us, on our part very acceptably.-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

June 1, Monday: President James Madison got up on a platform so he could be seen (he was shorter than Senator Paul Wellstone) and addressed the houses of the American Congress, asking for a declaration of war against England. The British practice of “crimping” American seamen was, he averred, one of the prime issues which needed to be resolved by “force of arms.” (Ah, force of arms. Other people killing each other while we watch. That should be fun.)¹¹²

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*2nd day 1st of 6 M 1812// Joseph Wilbour appears to be no worse
& I think hope may be cherished of his recovery.*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 2, Tuesday and 3, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd & 4th days 2 & 3 of 6 Mo// Jos Wilbour appears much so & an hope is still cherished of his recovery. – Nothing in particular further to insert

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 4, Thursday: The Louisiana Territory was renamed the Missouri Territory.

The United States House of Representatives voted 79 over 49 for President James Madison to lead us into another war against Great Britain.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 4 of 6 Mo// I thought best to stay home from meeting to perform an engagement which I could not conveniently have done, & gone.
This is the day which has been talked of or anticipated for several Years. One Nimrod Hughs prophecyed that on this day one third of the inhabitants of the World was to be destroyed by hail, & for several weeks & indeed months his book has been newly circulated to get monay by. it first came out about 3 or 4 Years ago. Many were so unwarrantable credulous as to admit the belief of his imposotion & became much terrified. one woman some weeks ago, gave up work & said she had enough to last till this time, & was sure she should then die & many others oeven people of pretty considerable strong minds have been almost overset with this false prophecy in this Town & many other places. but the Day has now nearly passed & nothing strange or uncommon has happened. to be sure it has been cloudy, has rained a little & jas been very cool for the Season, also the Wind has been fresh*

112. He was of course lying. He didn't give a damn about this. After the war, the international settlement papers would not be so much as mention such an issue, which proves in black and white that this hadn't really been any reason for fighting — any more than the welfare of black people would really be our motive for fighting a Civil War.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 6, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 6 of 6 M 1812// "Watch & keep your garments clean" is a sentence which I believe is not exact Scripture, or perhaps the same words are not exactly so form'd into a sentence in the Scripture but are the spirit of many passages contain'd in it. -They have passed much in my mind this Afternoon, Since news has arrived in town that Congress are endeavoring for war & that a declaration may very shortly be expected from them against England. I have felt renewedly concern'd that I may be kept clear of over anxiety, as to the issue, but to labor to keep my garments clean & watch against wrong spirit.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 7, Sunday: Walton Felch was received into the 1st Baptist Church of Providence, Rhode Island, Pastor Stephen Gano, by baptism. (His connection with this congregation would culminate on August 4, 1825 "by erasure," which is to say, he would neither die nor transfer his membership to some other church.)

The Reverend Stephen Gano (think "Gano Street")

The Emperor Napoléon arrived in Danzig (Gdansk) on his way to the front and inspected the supplies stored there.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1st day 7 of 6 Mo// In the forenoon D Buffum was concerned in a lively testimony. In the Afternoon we were silent. After tea took a Walk around the hill & down the neck with D Rodman went to Coggeshall burying ground, where John Coggeshall the first President of Rhode Island was buried in the Year 1747, the oldest Stone I have yet met with in any of my researches. --

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 8, Monday: Prince Ferdinand Johann Nepomuk Kinsky agreed to pay Ludwig van Beethoven's stipend at the same value as before the revaluation of Austrian currency.

The New York/Vermont border was finalized along a line run by New York surveyors Robert Yates, Robert R. Livingston, John Lansing, Jr., Gulian C. Verplanck, Simeon De Witt, Egbert Benson, Richard Sill and Melancthon Smith in conjunction with Vermont surveyors Isaac Tichenor, Stephen R. Bradley, Nathaniel Chipman, Elijah Paine, Ira Allen, Stephen Jacob, and Israel Smith.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 8 of 6 Mo// Matthew Franklin & Willet Hicks of N York arrived this Afternoon to attend our Yearly Meeting. --

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 11, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 11 of 6 Mo// Our meeting was a good one to me, & I was made renewedly thankful in feeling the life sweetly revived, especially in the forepart of it -- Father Rodman spake a few words on the subjects of Affliction, Matthew Franklin followed him on the same subject I thought much to the purpose. --

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 13, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*7th day 13 of 6 Mo// The toil has now commenced. Many friends have come to town to attend the Yearly Meeting. I already have been much engaged in going to boarding houses to arrange friends. things works wrong they wish to crowd together in greater numbers than I could wish & my mind is much exercised with it -- Oh that I may abide in the patience. I long yea pray for patience & meekness. --
I think this day has closed beyond my expectation Things seem pretty favorably settled at the Boarding Houses --
We had to tea Several of our friends & acquaintances Called in at father Rs & saw my dear friend Micajah Collins, who* has been on a religious visit to friends in Pennsylvania & parts thereaway -

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 14, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 14th of 6th M 1812// Our forenoon meeting was not as large as common owing to the weather being rainy - It was very quiet Solemn & favor'd considering the number present - Several small gifts were offered in the forepart of it - then Our Ancient & beloved friend David Sands appear'd in a long & very uncommonly baptizing testimony; after proceeding midway of his communication he observed that it was many years since he was in that house & that he was so much altered as not to appear as he did then, the ravages of time were apparent in his appearance & he knew not as he was able to speak so as to be heard & understood, but gospel love drew his mind with a strong cord towards the inhabitants of this land, that since he was in this place last many of his old friends & acquaintances had gone to their long homes. he had enquired after most of them found a few living & many gone who then stood as way marks & ensamples to the flock, & that he then stood as a monument of Gods Mercy, but should soon be called from this to another World

This part of his testimony deeply affected my mind particularly when I reflected that my late dear father was well acquainted with him & often spoke of him before his death & enquiring with a degree of anxiety to know if he was not coming to see us He concluded the meeting in a Solemn supplication. - After meeting I spoke with him he remeber'd the family & when I told him my name he enquired if I was not James Goulds son In the Afternoon the meeting was very large & David was much favord both in testimony & supplication

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 15, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 15 of 6 M 1812// Our Meeting as usual began at 9 OC Deland appear'd in supplication, then in an excellent testimony. after several other small appearances in each [?] of which I thought was a degree of life the meetings proceeded to buisness - The buisness went on in the usual channel & Epistles from London, New York & Baltimore & North Carolina were rec'd & read. The London Epistle excited a few excellent remarks from Deland & Matthew Franklin. After which the meeting adjounr'd to meet at 4 OClock in the Afternoon -

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

After dinner went to see Abraham Sherman with John Weeden to fulfill our appointment from Moy [Monthly] Meeting respecting his disorderly Walking. for my own part I thought I was much favor'd with ability to offer suitable council & advice, but alas I fear our labor is nearly useless.

Our Meeting in the Afternoon was much favor'd, tho the Accounts from the variious Quarters were painful in many respects -Our friends Elijah Hoag Matthew Franklin & David Sand was very extensive & Powerful in communication endeavoring rebuild the waste places & encourage friends to press forward notwithstanding the many deficiencies he apprehended Truth was rising & would continue to rise if friends kept their ranks in righteousness -all must rally round the Standard. -

Many took tea with us among whom were my much lov'd friends John Caset & Daniel Howland

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 16, Tuesday: Great Britain agreed to revoke the Orders of Council that had forbidden American trade with European ports.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 16 of 6 Mo// There was no meeting this forenoon - At 4 OC the Meeting met by adjournment. & was occupied in reading the Minutes of the meeting for sufferings &c - Also on the subject of a Yearly Meeting school which was very exercising, a committee was appointed to take the matter into consideration. - Our friend Moses Brown was absent, he was summoned as a witness at the Circuit Cort now sitting in this town. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 17, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 17 of 6th M 1812// At 8 oClock this Mornng I met with the committee (being one of them) who were to consider the School fund.

The Meeting met at 10 Clock - D Sands had much to communicate on the various subjects before us.-

In the Afternoon - Epistles were presented to all the Yearly Meetings & approved, also a communication to the various Quarterly Monthly meetings, containing seasonable council & Advices - After much excellent cautionary & advisory Matter by many friends expecially by D Sands the meeting concluded by a fervant Prayer by him, for every branch of the family.

The various settings of this Yearly Meeting have, according to my sense of things, been uncommonly favor'd, & on my own part I

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

may humbly acknowledge, that I have been quickened in my Spirit & enabled to partake of the good things that our heavenly father has favor'd us with. Many very many lively testimonies were communicated, but are not to expect our best food from them. They serve for the moment to quicken the feelings, & sometimes as a very useful resort when the mind is gather'd home in stillness, & in stillness it is, the great Minister of the spirit is to be heard, who far exceeds in his affects upon the mind, any of his instruments, yet they are useful in their places & their labors often blessed to the people --
We have had Much company at our house among whom as pretty constant visitors were Edward Cobb & Wife Josiah Keene & Wife Benjamin Persival & Wife, Eastis Newhall & Daniel Johnson Hesiah & Hannah Johnson, whose company was very pleasant - Micajah Collins & wife, Matthew Purinton & wife & many others occasionally called to see us, & but a few meals passed but that we had as many as we could comfortably feed. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 18, Thursday: Franz Schubert begins instruction in counterpoint with Antonio Salieri in Vienna.

Unaware of course that Great Britain had already rescinded its offending actions two days before, President James Madison signed the joint congressional Declaration of War. This 2d war of the United States of America upon Great Britain, which would take place over a number of years, is now denominated in our history books the "War of 1812" (evidently we spare ourselves embarrassment when we do not give this war an accurate name).¹¹³ –Not that any of this makes any difference (only a fool would suppose that nations go to war for the reasons they proffer)!

Upstate New York was woefully unprepared. Fort Niagara had deteriorated during the decade after 1800 as its garrison had become increasingly smaller. Many of the old buildings, some of them dating to the French occupation, had disappeared. The walls on the land side remained in place, but there was never a large enough workforce to keep them in good condition. At the outbreak of hostilities the Americans could muster only 150 soldiers to man this strongpoint. However, the British preparedness was not much better. The Napoleonic Wars in Europe had been sucking up all of England's attention, with Canada on the back burner at best, so there were in this year only a couple of thousand of British regular soldiers in all of what is today the province of Ontario. The United States Army although far larger was composed mostly newly organized units consisting of

113. Interestingly, the federal government of the USA stated that one of the reasons why it was declaring war on Britain was the British embargo on hemp. After the Brits had lost this one, the analysis made by the Arthur Wellesley, Duke of Wellington would be that their forces had suffered from a lack of command discipline: "They wanted this iron fist to command them."

CANNABIS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

untrained recruits. The Americans were confident, but without justification. Some of the bloodiest fighting would occur along the Niagara River. Captain Nathaniel Leonard would do what he could to improve his defensive readiness, while the corresponding enemy commander likewise concentrated on organizing a defense. Much of the summer would be spent in preparation as units of the state militia were activated and moved toward the Niagara Frontier. In order to keep the regular army and the militia well separate and diminish friction, the militia camp was established at Lewiston, six miles away upriver.

At some point during this period of intermittent scattered hostilities, John Thoreau would become the commissary for¹¹⁴ Fort Independence on Castle Island in Boston Harbor. Thoreau would make a note of this in his journal in 1850:

After October 31, 1850: ... My father was commissary at Fort Independence in the last war. He says that the baker whom he engaged returned 18 ounces of bread for 16 of flour, and was glad of the job on those terms. ...

HENRY'S RELATIVES

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 18 of 6th M 1812// Our Meeting was very large. Anne Greene was concern'd in supplication, then Micajah Collins in an acceptable testimony, then David Sands in a very extensive & powerful testimony
In the last (Preparative) David had a few close remarks on the subject of Rainess [?]
At 5 OClock a meeting was appointed for the people of colour, many attended but not all of them by a very considerable - D Sands was by far the greatet laborer amongst them, Anne Willis Hannah Dennis & James Hazard had small testinnies to bear. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 19, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*6th day 19 of 6 Mo// David Sands had a meeting at Portsmouth today -We feel quite lonesome after so much company but however, friends of our own town & family feel as near & I think nearer than before. I love them all dearly. -
I desire to be thankful that my dear wife & little son have been pretty well, & tho my wife has not been able to attend all of the settings of the Y Meeting yet she has kept about & waited on friends -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 20, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

114. This is what we would consider similar to "running the PX" at a smallish current military base.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

7th day 20th of 6th Mo// My mind is this morning dipt into a sweet tenderness. Oh may I be thankful for it – The morning savor has in good measure continued thro' the day – & finding my mind engaged to write a few lines to Hannah Pope of Bolton, complied therewith & feel relieved. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 21, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 21 of 6th Mo// In the forenoon our meeting was large. father Rodman was concern'd in (I believe) a living Supplication – In the Afternoon it was again – father had a few words in testimony – When the meeting broke – I found an handBill had been published in confirmation of the fears that has been long apprehended, that WAR Was declared by Congress against Great Brittan. – This is a Dismal Prospect. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 22, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 22 of 6th Mo// This is a gloomy day every mans countenance appears sad as he passes the street, bespeaking a mind saddened by the Prospect of the desolation of a War. – My heart is deeply affected within me, but know not what to do or which way to turn, dependence alone, is to be placed on the Lord, on whose mighty power I feel a little hope that things will not be as bad as is anticipated Things look no better this Afternoon. It may truly be said that the "Mourners go about the Street" every countenance is sad & every heart hevvy –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 23, Tuesday: The news that the USA had declared war on Britain arrived in Boston and the Massachusetts General Court voted its disapproval.

Carlos Martínez de Irujo y Tacón, marques de Casa-Irujo replaced Ignacio de la Pezuela y Sánchez as First Secretary of State of the resistance government of Spain.

Napoléon Bonaparte arrived at the front at Alexota.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

3rd day 23 of 6 M 1812// This evening Mail confirms, the news of War, the Act of Congress, signed by the President has come. we are no more in doubt as to the issue, the voice of Congress is heard in the language, terrific to the minds of the people Oh! this is a gloomy day in which we live, a day of sorrow & sadness indeed. — when & where it will end is beyond the ken of human sagacity to determine, we have no refuge but the Lord alone & in him we have as sure hiding place, if we put our whole trust in his Power

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 24, Wednesday: The unwieldy Grande Armée of Twenty Nations (Anhalt, Austria, Baden, Bavaria, Croatia, Dalmatia, Denmark, France, Hesse-Darmstadt, Holland, Illyria, Italy, Lippe, Mecklenburg, Poland, Portugal, Prussia, Saxony, Spain, Switzerland, Westphalia, and Wurttemberg) of the Emperor Napoléon, the largest military force assembled to that date, crossing the Niemen River near Kovno (Kaunas), entered Russia with the objective of intercepting the British navy's main supply of high-quality cannabis for use as its maritime cordage. — England could not obtain such high-quality maritime cordage from the USA not only because of the state of war that existed between Britain and the USA at this time but also because the hemp farmers of Kentucky were using a “dew-rotting” process of leaching the resin out of the hemp fiber (as opposed to “water-rotting”). For the same reason the US Navy was avoiding the purchase of cordage made from this domestic hemp, and mostly the Kentucky produce was being used for bag fabric and as rope binding for the baled cotton of the Deep South.

At the Middleton Colliery in West Yorkshire, England, John Blenkinsop introduced the public to his coal-powered rack-and-pinion locomotive Salamanca capable of pulling heavy loads of coal, replacing the labors of 50 horses and 200 men.

In Providence, Rhode Island, news of the War of 1812 was unwelcome, but the “patriots” organized nevertheless — organized to the extent even of formalizing and placing under discipline a group of “those who were exempt by law from the performance of military duty,” such as the followers of the Peace Testimony of the Quakers (evidently with the idea of obligating them to free corvée labor in general support of the war effort):

1812. The news of the Declaration of War with Great Britain was received June 24, and was noticed by the tolling of bells and

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

displaying the flags at half mast. The majority here was opposed to the war and to the administration of the general government, but they promptly held meetings and passed spirited resolutions to make united efforts against a foreign enemy. The chartered companies were filled with new members, volunteer associations were formed, and those who were exempt by law from the performance of military duty, were organized into several corps, and officered and disciplined for service.

THE QUAKER PEACE TESTIMONY

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

READ EDWARD FIELD TEXT

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 24th of 6th Mo// The times are such, as, is felt at the heart of every considerate man, every countenance continues to wear a gloom & as they pass the streets look piteously. altho' the Act of warfare has not commenced, yet it has been declared by Congress to exist between this Country & England. Vast numbers of property is exposed on the seas & will doubtless be taken & much property in England will be confiscated which stares many in the face with ruin, & those of more indigent circumstances feel the strong probability of starvation, for the want of buisness to procure food to eat My circumstances are streightened. I have nothing but what I earn from day to day, & how I am to pass the coming Winter is yet a sealed thing. I can but feel very keenly at the heart, but am disposed to labor to think as little about the future as may be & receive the present blessing with as much gratitude as I am capable of -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 25, Thursday: A day after learning of the French invasion, Tsar Alyeksandr of Russia wrote to the Emperor Napoléon I asking for peace and a withdrawal from Russian territory. Napoléon would not be interested.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 25 of 6 Mo// Being a very rainy day My H was disappointed of her intention to go to Portsmouth to attend the Moy [Monthly] Meeting - So Brother D R & myself took a Chaise & rode out together - We stoped a few minutes before meeting at the house of our late friend Holder Almy & after drying ourselves a little went to meeting
Hannah Dennis spoke a few words, the A Sherman a few & then D Buffum a few - Buisness went on rather dully in the last but we got through as well as could be expected - We dined at Peter Lawton & on our way home stoped at cousin Chases where my Mother*

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

has been for a day or two on a visit. found her & cousin Chases family all well, & then rode home & was not a little thankful to find my H & little son had done well thro' the day

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 26, Friday: The Polish Diet declared the independence of Poland. No other power, including the Emperor Napoléon I, would endorse this act.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 26 of 6 Mo// Our old friend & neighbor Elizabeth Whightman wife of Vaneline Whightman Departed this life in the 75th Year if her Age about Sun set last evening —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 27, Saturday: British forces captured Salamanca from the French.

The cargo ship Commencement, out of Black Rock, New York, was seized by the British on Lake Ontario.

When news of the declaration of war upon Great Britain had reached Providence, bells had been tolled, stores had been closed, and flags had been lowered to half-mast. On this day the Providence Gazette characterized the report of the federal committee on foreign relations that had recommended our entry into this war in the following manner:

They reported in several heavy columns their malignant, hostile manifesto against Great Britain, and with gigantic strides and ostentatious swellings, had thrown down the gauntlet of defiance to John Bull, in favor of the atrocious murderer and incendiary Napoleon Bonaparte.

This Rhode Island newspaper straightforwardly declared the war declaration of the federal Congress to have been “a work of darkness”:

We are now to contend against an oppressed nation gloriously struggling for the preservation of its liberties.

READ EDWARD FIELD TEXT

An act was passed at the January meeting of the general assembly in 1822, forbidding the sale of rum, wine or strong liquor within one mile of any meeting being held for the worship of Almighty God. Another law forbade the running at large of cows in the business portion of Providence between the 10th of November and the 10th of April, except on Sundays, and between 8 at night and sunrise.

As Lafayette entered the State House on North Main street, he recognized and cordially embraced Colonel Stephen Olney, who had served under him at Yorktown and had been one of the first to penetrate the British works. For further details of Lafayette's visit, see Z. Allen's MEMORIAL OF LAFAYETTE, Providence, 1861.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 27 of 6 M 1812// The day has passed as usual much talk among the people of the effects & extent of the present War but few can see to the end of it –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 28, Sunday: Allied troops entered Vilna (Vilnius), abandoned by the Russians.

The Polish Diet in Warsaw proclaimed the reunion of Poland and Lithuania.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 28 of 6 Mo// Father Rodman was concern'd in supplication in the forenoon meeting in the Afternoon we were Silent - I set a little while at D Williams in the eveng Sister Ruth took care of the little boy while my H went to meeting

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 29, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 29 of 6 Mo// The day has passed without any remarkable occurrence but we know not what to expect from day to day, or hour to hour. The minds of the people are filled with War some with the spirit of fight, some in an high state of alarm for the safety of their persons & property, & some seem to evince a disposition to be still & labor for a peaceable disposition, & center their minds on God in times of outward danger, looking into Him as their only safe hiding place – here is a spot on which I greatly wish to dwell, & may my spirit more & more recur to the source from whence true help springs. – Towards night visited Joseph Wilbour he seems getting better, & the state of his mind is truly precious.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

HDT

WHAT?

INDEX

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

June 30, Tuesday: Issuance of our 1st national circulating currency, US Treasury Notes, initially in the amount of $5,000,000, was authorized by the federal congress in order to finance President James Madison's war upon Great Britain (Shortie wanted to be a war president, tra la). With the 1st Bank of the United States dead in the water, and with no provision whatever for internal revenue taxes, we would be able to finance war only through loans and through these innovative notes, which bore interest at 1-1/2 cents a day per $100 (except for the "Small Notes" of 1815). A total of five issues between 1812 and 1815, totaling $36,000,000 in denominations of $3 to $1000, would be emitted. These national banknotes would be fully subscribed and accepted by banks and merchants.

(These notes were blank on the back.)

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 30 of 6 Mo// When I first commenced this Book, things in the Nation & at home were prosperous & pleasant to what they now are we had then peace & plenty, & minds freed from the horrors of War. tho' even at that some trials awaited us but they were far inferior to the present, yet at this time we have many things to be thankful for & I believe my heart is deeply sensible of it, for which I desire to be thankful to the Author of every Blessing.

Stephen Gould

Newport Rhode Island. -

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

[back of sheet blank; end of this volume]

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 1, Wednesday: The US government doubled its tariffs to help pay for its war with England.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 7th Mo 1st 1812 / Here beginneth a new Book, where the [whether] I shall be & what will be my state before I come to the end of it I know not. I may be in some other town & I may be in the silent grave, reflections on which are almost daily in my mind & sometimes hourly. – The times are now troublesom, War exists between this country & England, & my mind is almost constantly occupied on the subject, but thanks to the Almighty protector & preserver of his dependant children, I can say that hitherto, my spirit has been favored to abide in the quiet, but am unable to see how far this state of quietude would extend, was I in the midst of fighting & carnage, which we know not how soon we may expect, when I reflect on that, the mind is sometimes turned to look for another place of abode, but I have a wife & child which would be difficult to remove, & I have a beloved Mother & three Aged Aunts, who are strong & Cords of attachment, that at present nothing appears, but to meet the fate of Dear Rhode Island, & Newport in particular, I love it, much & there are many in it, who are, to me, almost as a right hand or right eye, & yet as I have said should times of eminent danger ensue, I am unable to see how I [S]hould conduct & whether I should remove or not. – Every day produces some new occurrence of a calamitous nature. Yesterday & today it has been in rumor that J Banister had failed in trade & is like to ruin many. Sorrowful indeed My H spent the Afternoon with Our little son at Aunt A Carpenters. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

July 2, Thursday: While in Prague, Ludwig van Beethoven visited Prince Kinsky and was assured that his stipend at the new value will be coming soon. He received an advance of 60 ducats.

William Monroe, a young cabinetmaker of Concord whose business was not doing well due to the war, working in a shop which previously had been used by Andrew Edwards for the manufacture of organs, had the inspiration to develop a technique for the manufacture of pencil bodies. He had cut Eastern red cedarwood into slabs, had planed the slabs to a uniform 8th-inch thickness, and had made 6 grooves at a time in the slabs with a water-powered grinder. Into the grooves he had rubbed a pasty mixture of ground graphite and fillers. He did not fire his paste, but allow it to dry. Gluing another slab on top of this had created a block of 4 to 10 pencils which could be sawed apart with other water-powered machinery. These were the 1st pencils manufactured in America, and were 3/8th inch thick, and came in either octagonal or hexagonal cross-section. According to Albert Lane's CONCORD AUTHORS AT HOME, on this date William was able to take his 1st sample of about 30 pencils of local manufacture into Boston and wholesale them to a hardware dealer on Union Street, Benjamin Andrews, and make a contract with this merchant to accept all he could manufacture for a given period of time. For Monroe, the perfection of this pencil-making machinery would be the labor of a decade. At one point during his childhood Henry Thoreau would labor in this Monroe factory, which would be manufacturing pencils until like 1833.

[T]here was a school for young ladies ... in Medford, and one of the pupils ... from Concord ... learned to utilize the bits and ends of Borrowdale lead used in drawing, by pounding them fine and mixing a solution of gum arabic or glue. The cases were made from twigs of elder, the pith being removed with a knitting needle.... [T]he writer [Horace Rice Hosmer], then [circa 1840] a boy of ten years, helped the same lady to make similar pencils from plumbago and English red chalk.... H. David Hubbard, living in the north part of Concord, made the first cedar wood pencils for the New England trade; but they were of little value, and but few of them were manufactured. In 1812 William Monroe, a cabinet maker by trade, pounded some plumbago with a hammer, mixed it in a spoon with some adhesive substance, and filled the compound into some cedar wood cases. Some of these pencils were shown to Benjamin Andrews of Boston, who was ready to buy, and encouraged Munroe to make more of them. Twelve days after he carried five gross, which were readily taken and paid for, and a new industry was fairly started. Munroe ... made the "water cement" or paste lead which was filled into the grooves in a soft state, and after remaining a week or more the surface of the pencil slab was planed to remove the composition which adhered to it, and to leave a clean surface for gluing on a veneer of cedar. The pencil slab was about 1/4 inch thick, and the veneer 1/8 inch and of varying widths from 4 to 10 pencils wide.... Eben Wood of Acton worked with Munroe in Concord, when all the work was done by hand. The logs of cedar were cut into slabs and veneers with a "two-handed saw," by two men; planed by hand to a thickness, grooved with the spur plane or plough, one groove at a time, and so on through all the different processes.... Eben Wood ... saw a tool for cutting the points of shoe pegs, and by applying the principle of the circular saw soon had a grooving machine which would cut six grooves at a time.... A moulding and trimming machine soon followed; then a wedge glue press, holding 12 gross pencils took the place of the hand screws which Munroe

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

used.... His machine for trimming the ends of pencils ... is in use at the time of writing this article [circa 1880].... He made the hexagon and octagon shape cases, halving them together, with similar shaped grooves for the dame.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 7th M 2nd / At Meeting few words were spoken by C R - when I first took my seat I anticipated a season of favor but roving soon took place & I could not or did not get settled again untill a few minutes before the meeting concluded - My Mother came home this mornng from cousin Z Chases where she has been a week -This Afternoon I have heard a report which has given me much pain for a young man, a dear young lad, only about 20 years of Age, has had a child laid to him - Oh the trouble this will make for his father & family, & Society. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 3, Friday: John James Audubon was granted US citizenship.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 7 M 3rd 1812 / As to the Outward this has been one of the finest days we have had, the air warm but not warmer than was agreeable - had it not have been for the painful sensations excited for the young lad mentioned Yesterday I dont know of any thing that has occurd to interrupt tranquility - My Mother & Sister Ruth set the eveng with us

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Our national birthday, Saturday the 4th of July: Nathaniel Hawthorne's, or Hathorne's, 8th birthday.

CELEBRATING OUR B-DAY

In the area to the west of the Genesee River that eventually would become Rochester, New York, the family of Hamlet Scrantom moved into a cabin that had been built for them by Henry Skinner.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 7M 4th / This day (being Independence Day) has as usual been very noisy, many guns fired &c - Such seasons of tumult are very unpleasant, but no accident has happened

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 5, Sunday: Ludwig van Beethoven arrived in Teplitz (Teplice) via Prague to take the cure.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1st day 7M 5 / Father R was concer'd in both meetings in a few words to the people. - After Meeting in the Afternoon went with D R to J Dennis's & took tea. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 6, Monday: Ludwig van Beethoven, in Teplitz, penned a letter to his "Immortal Beloved" (now believed to be Antonie Brentano, a Viennese lady married to a Frankfurt businessman).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*2nd day 7 M 6 / Yesterday Josiah C Shaws son Philander In the [-] year of his age was drowned at Perrys Wharf. This melancholy occurrence, warning us of the uncertainty of time & the promised pleasure of any pleasing prospect. -
Had conversation with J W... on the subject of his late difficulty, gave him such advice as I was capable of & was glad to find him deeply sensible of the error he had fallen into. -
Brother D R set the eveng with us. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 7, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*3rd day 7 M 9th [sic] / Attended the funeral of Phlander Shaw at which was the greatest number of children I ever saw at a funeral. The children of the preinciple schools in town were there -
After the funeral was over I went on to the Alms House to see a man by the name of Richardson who appears to have his brains turned with religion, or religious enthusiam, he talks & preaches continually & when I went to the door of his apartment he began to preach to me, he asked me if I sanctified the Lord my God in my heart. I told him that was a question I did not choose to answer him, he still went on with a loud voice exhorting me to answer him, he still went on with a loud voice exhorting me to that effect - I told him it was my opinion that he talked more of religion than he was acquainted with, & that is he would be quiet & talk less he would feel more of it to flow in his heart & come to experience that it was an inward thing, on which he turned from me, set down on his Bunk & looked me in the face steadily & rather contemptuously. I told him I had a mind to come to see him for some time & to preach a little to him as well as he to me a great deal, he then took out his little pocket Bible & read some of the proverbs of Solomon - but after saying a little more to him I left him not supposing I had done any good, for tho' he was very full of reproving others, he would not receive it from others with that meekness which he recommended. -
There has been a report in circulation which agitated the mind of some that a large Fleet of ships was seen of, but it proved*

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

untrue.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 8, Wednesday: Allied troops entered Minsk.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 7 M 8th 1812 / My Mother, Aunt Patty Gould & Brother Isaac & wife with their little daughter Martha took tea with us this Afternoon. - I was particularly glad of Aunt Patty Goulds company it is allways greatful to me & grows more so as the time of final separation draws near - I may go first, but according to natures course her days are nearly number'd - Sister Ruth set the evening with us. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 9, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 7M 9th / I have no good reason for not attending meeting, but so it is I was not there. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 10, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 7M 10th / This Afternoon recd a preseent for our little son from Uncle & Aunt Stanton of NYork. it was a silver cup marked I S G which they have sent him for his name. Uncle also sent me a book entitled A Tour throu' some parts of North America by Robert Sutclif an englishman who uncle brought over to this Countrny & has since Died, what little I have already read of it induces me to believe that it is a very instructing & interesting Work.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 July 11, Saturday: United States forces invaded Canada near Detroit.

The boys of the Boston Latin School, including Ralph Waldo Emerson, worked on the fortifications of Fort Strong¹¹⁵ on Noddle Island:

The great comet Flaugergues \(C/1811 F1\) had been invisible even to telescopes due to its position in regard to the sun (astronomers refer to this difficult portion of the sky as the ecliptic), but on this date it was rediscovered by a telescope in Cuba. Its tail was ten arc-minutes in length.

SKY EVENT

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*7th day 7 M 11 / Spent lesure time in reading Robert Sutcliff,
I think it an highly valuable publication*

115. This is not the Fort Strong which would be active during our civil strife, as that one would be on the Long Island of Boston Harbor.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

July 12, Sunday: On what would become Henry Thoreau's birthday, US forces led by General William Hull invaded Canada.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 7M 12 / Very soon after I took my seat in meeting this morning I found my mind covered with sweetness & a season of precious favor ensued. Truth was really in dominion among us, people sat uncommonly quiet & silence remarkably solemn Abigail Sherman rose about the middle of the meeting with a few words then Ruth Davis & then D Buffum in lively & authoritative testimonys & Ruth concluded the meeting in solemn supplication -Sister Rhodman took care of our little boy while my H went to meeting

In the Afternoon father R Had a few words to communicate -In the eveng Sister Ruth & Joanna being there Brother DAVID & I called at Thos Robinsons in the evening & sat a little time very agreeably. -

Spent lesure time in reading Robert Sutcliff his writings are fraught with very interesting anecdotes, most of them very instructing & some very affecting. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 13, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 7th M 13th 1812 / Have pretty much reading Robert Sutcliff, he appears to have been a man of very minute observation, & I believe well acquainted with the operation of religion. I take him to be a friend of some account in society as he mentions several times of meeting with committees of importance in New York & Philadelphia. he came a Passenger from England with Uncle Stanton & was well esteemed by him. The last time he came over to this country his family came with him, & he has since deceased & his travells in this land are published for their benefit. I understand they are in low circumstances. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 14, Tuesday: King Jérôme of Westphalia, angry at his older brother Napoléon Bonaparte, abandoned the Grand Armée of Allies and returned to Kassel.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 7 M / Finished a letter which I began yesterday to Micajah Collins - In which I wrote nearly the following - "What a precious thing is love, & I think I can say of a truth, that an unusual degree of it has attended my mind since the Yearly Meetg & indeed I do not think at any time in my life I ever felt a greater disposition to salute every one in it. - There was something at that time which left a precious savor & has not departed like the early dew, for which my mind is at least in a very good degree humbled & thankful & believe there never was a time when there was a greater necessity for every one to cultivate in their minds love towards one another. The times are very peculiar & we know not to what the present depraved state of things will lead, there is much to fear, but amid all the recent talk & commotion in the minds of the people concerning War, I have again thankfully to acknowledge that my mind hath been preserved remarkably in the quiet, yet how I should retain this quietude in seasons of closer trials, when surrounded by an Army & perhaps bullets flying, I am unable to say. I know I am not mine own or my brothers keeper, & can only (by Divine help) pray for the preservation of either. nothing that we can do of ourselves will avail anything, & if we can be favor'd to pray in the living faith, prayer will be as effectual in these as in the Days of the prophets & Apostles, in this true & living faith. I feel renewedly concern'd to abide & to increase, believing as Daniel Anthony once told us, that if it is suffered to decrease in the mind, the enemy will step in and jostle in proportion as we let go our hold, thus many good beginnings have been quite overthrown by that old deceiver.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 15, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 15 of 7 M 1812 / As I have often said of late the times are very gloomy. In addition to things of a Public nature I have heard that Edward Senter son of the late Doctor Isaac Senter has been very Distracted for several days. Some time ago he attempted to put an end to his existence but got about again & was pretty consistent & heard of the decease of his grandfather & that he left him considerable property, but the latter proving untrue I suppose it proved more than he could bear & left him quite distracted for several days & was this Afternoon carried to the Alms House.— Thus we have an example of an inworld & irreligious education, his & mine lived adjoining neighbours & I had an opportunity of knowing the particulars of his youthful race, his father was a professor & openly avowed Deist, & encouraged his children in loose conduct, tho' he pretended to plead for morality, yet in his own example was such, & his attention to his children so small that they took great Libertys & were very wicked, & the fate of the family has been very remarkable. He first lost a son at sea — the father next died himself of a consumption & apparantly in an obdurate state his wife was a clever woman & good neighbour & desires I believe that things were different in the family, but she poor woman, soon after her husbands decease was taken suddenly ill in Providence & Died there. Next Horace was shot in a duel at Savannah which was the means of familys being broken up entirely

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

& the remaining children put to board. The two daughters are somewhat hopeful the two remaining sons Nathaniel & Edward alas for them Edw in the situation above described & Nathl at present a infidel no hopes of his being better, a family educated as they were can never expect to florish long.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 16, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 7 M 16th 1812 / Yesterday & the day before our dear little son was quite sick, & I was much alarmed about him, but this morning he seems much better, for which I desire to be thankful, to be obliged to part with him would indeed be a keen stroke, but I dare not crave to strongly for him to be continued as the Lord but knows what is best for us. –
Our meeting was solid & solemn, but I thought my mind was not as much quickened at some seasons
Father Rodman & Ruth Davis bore short testimonys Saw James Hosier this eveningn he has been to Ohio & has seen Rowse & Mary Taylor, he gives a more favorable account of their situation than we have heard. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 17, Friday: At this point during the 1812-1815 war with Great Britain, the USS Constitution escaped from a squadron of seven British ships.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 7 M 17th / Our dear little son had a very distressed night last, but is much more smart & brisk this morning than we had any right to expect - he has continued well thro' the day & I desire to be thankful for it. – Father & Mother Rodman & Sarah Earl set the evening with us.

July 18, Saturday: Caleb Goldsmith Forshey was born in Somerset County, Pennsylvania, a son of John Sire Forshey (September 10, 1777-October 1857) and Elizabeth Monroe Forshey (circa 1778-October 1855). He would spend his childhood in Ohio, being educated in the local schools of Norwich, and then enter Kenyon College in Gambier, Ohio as a part-time student.

The Alliance of Orebro combined Russia, Sweden, and Great Britain.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 7th M 18th / Nothing new to insert, things as it respects my own particular & the nation at large are pretty much as usual. –I am often hevvy hearted when looking over the prospects before us. War with its attendant trains of honour stairs us in the face we know not now soon our peaceable habitations may be

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

disturbed with the sound of guns & Armed Men in array against each other, May the Lord in mercy avert these calamities & draw our minds to look unto him for succor in every condition. – I have thankfully to acknowledge that our dear little boy has been very smart his the Day –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 19, Sunday: While taking the cure at Teplitz (Teplice), Ludwig van Beethoven and Johann Wolfgang von Goethe met for the initial time. Beethoven would on August 9th, “Goethe delights far too much in the court atmosphere. Far more than was becoming a poet.” Goethe would write on September 2d, “His talent amazed me; unfortunately he was an utterly untamed personality, who was not altogether in the wrong in holding the world to be detestable but surely does not make it any the more enjoyable for himself or others by his attitude.”

At Sackets Harbor on the New York shore of Lake Ontario, the Canadian Provincial Marine Fleet attempted to recover its schooner Lord Nelson but was driven off.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 7 M 19th / Silent meetings, the forenoon was a pretty good one to me – between meetings Meribeth Easton was buried, She was the Widow of Walter Easton, tho' she retained a right of membership, her memory is very precious

July 20, Monday: Public opinion in Rhode Island was so decidedly opposed to the War of 1812 that, on this night, a small schooner that had been being fitted out in Providence for a war privateer was taken down the river and scuttled.

READ EDWARD FIELD TEXT

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*2nd day 7 M 20th / Saw an experiment of a DIVING BELL by a man who went to the bottom of the Water at the head of long wharf & staid 34 minutes I did not get there untill after he had been down some time but I saw him come up.
Set the eveng at home our little boy was not very well. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 21, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*3rd day 7th 21 1812 / I am brought under exercise which has touched a quick place in my mind an awful period has arrived. This afternoon the different Military companies are to meet to draft their quotas of men required by the government for the defence of the state. & several are liable to the draft for whom I feel deeply concerned. & the Prayer of my heart is that they may be this time spared. –
Since wrighting the foregoing my mind has been greatly relieved*

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

JW has been in & told me that neither of the young men alluded to above were drawn out, for which my heart is thankful. They were young men who I have no doubt are concientiously scrupulous of bearing Arms, but not shielded by Society, except one who from peculiar circumstances the Clerk declined giving him a certificate, tho' in my judgement his reasons for declining were insufficient Abijah Winton of Salem took tea with us.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 22, Wednesday: French forces were routed by the British and Portuguese south of Salamanca, opening the way to Madrid.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*4th day 7 M 22 / Drums fifes & Guns are daily heard. a company in uniform are this moment passing they are marching about trying to induce others to enlist with them – Oh! what dismal effects on the minds of the people has War. Well indeed it must be so, for sacred writ declares that it cometh of Mens lusts, & when men are given up to follow their own lusts wether it be in one thing or another, what poor depraved creatures we are, & when War is the rage, how does it tend to demoralise mankind.- My heart is saddened at the prospect & prayer often raised that the days of this calamity may be shortened. –
I omitted to particularise a matter yesterday which has dwelt much on my mind since. – In the Afternoon a lad came into the shop & told me that from particular circumstances the Clerk of this meeting has refused to grant his brother a certificate, which would have exempted him from a draft in the Militia, & it was then too late for me to see the Clerk on the subject. – & I thought to myself there is nothing to be done but to pray that he may not be drafted this time, & such feelings attended as begot earnest intercessions that he might not be, & as my mind was thus engaged it seemed as if a living faith arose that he would not –& when I was informed that he was not it seemed as if I was renewedly confirmed in the assurance of Christ to his disciples. Whatsoever ye ask in faith Shall be granted Reced a letter from Lewis L Clarke containing much good matter. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 23, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 7th M 23rd 1812 / Our meeting was pretty well attended C R spake a few words. When the Queries were read in the Preparative, the one respecting property taken in War fastened on my mind & I was brought under exercise, which induced me to make a few observations calling the minds of friends to a

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*carefulness with respect to being concerned in the purchase of goods that might be brought in by Privateers. which was followed by a few seasonable remarks by D Buffum & A Mitchell
Sister Mary took care of the little boy while my H went to Meeting
This afternoon recd a letter from Hannah Pope dated 16th inst which was very agreeable, he situation has claimed my sympathy many times & particularly at the last Yearly Meeting, & soon after he return home I felt a disposition to write her & accordingly did.-
Aunt Patty Gould Set the eveng with us.*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 24, Friday: Tsar Alyeksandr made a public appeal in Moscow for assistance from every ablebodied Russian.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 7th M 24th / Nothing worth inserting. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 25, Saturday: Spain reasserted its power in Venezuela. Revolutionary leader Francisco de Miranda surrendered his troops to the Spanish.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*7th day 7 M 25 / I am going presently to Narragansett to attend to some buisness at Cousin Silas Caseys.
Arrived at Narragansett before dinner. Dined at cousin P Gardiners & after dinner went with cousin L Clarke to cousin Caseys, compleated my buisness & took tea there my aunt was very agreeable found there an old relation whom I never saw but once & that when I was a boy, it was cousin Caseys Sister [-] Gardiner She appeared to me to be a very meek spirited woman, & while sitting with her my spirit was not a little affected. she is 80 years of age has gone thro' much affliction in this World & now appeard to be much refined & I believe will shortly be taken to REST - After tea we returned to cousin Gardiners & lodged. -next morning I went to Meeting in So Kingston where at Present is a very comfortable & thriving little gathering - After meeting Rode with Cousin Lewis & Cousin Patty Hazard to her home & dined spent the Afternoon & took tea, found cousin John Hazard in Poor health & think he is wasting away, but may continue some time in mutability - towards night we returned to Cousin Gardiners & lodged next morning being 2nd of the week I rose early & caught the ferry home & found my Dear H & little boy pretty well. -but*

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

heard that my dear Aunt Martha Gould is more unwell than she has been. –

In the eveng walked to see Aunt Martha found her very poorly but sitting up. – She set the eveng with us last 5th day & if it should be the last I shouldnt be disappointed. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 26, Sunday: Franz Schubert sang as chorister in the Imperial Chapel for the final time. He was entering adolescence and his voice has broken. He marked the occasion by writing in the alto score of Peter Winter's Mass no.1 "Schubert, Franz, crowed for the last time, 26 July 1812." He would begin to devote his energies to composing church music.

Fire destroyed a good part of the city of Baden, southwest of Vienna.

July 27, Monday: Ludwig van Beethoven left Teplitz (Teplice) and would never see Johann Wolfgang von Goethe again.

July 28, Tuesday: When Allied forces reached Vitebsk west of Moscow, they found the city vacant.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 7 M 28th 1812 / This mornng I called early to see my dear Aunt Martha. I found her sitting up & she thought rather more comfortable than yesterday - I conceived her ease quite alarming, & have requested Dr Easton to visit her & try to help her a little; tho' there appears no expectation of her ever being well, yet she may be kept along for some time, her life is of importance to her sisters. She has been her whole life time a care taker of them & her removal will be a severe shock, but I have no doubt that when ever it pleases the Lord to cut the slender thread of time, her change will be from a life of care & anxiety to one of happiness forever – She hath been ever since my time a religious & faithful Woman, & to her counsul [sic] & example I owe much. in my childhood I lived with her several years & her care & tender concern for my present & future wellfare was obvious then, & has continued to the present day. One instance of her faithfulness to religious scruples was so impressive in my mind at the time, that I have not forgotten it tho' a long time ago, & has been frequently revived since the present War & privateers have been fitting out, – When I was quite a boy, a Spanish prize was sent into this port by some of the then contending powers & the property sold, by some means a rare & delicious nut fell into my hands that came in the prize. I carried some of them to her prepared for eating, with which she seemed much pleased & was going to eat some, but at that moment was informed, either by me or some one standing by, which I do not recollect, of where they came from. She immediately

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

declined touching them & altho' I labord hard to induce her to partake of them, yet I could not succeed. – her firmness in declining was very impressive in my feelings, & the savor of it has never entirely left me. –

Our dear little boy was very well & playful in the forenoon but in the Afternoon was very feverish & sick, & continued so thro' the evening –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 29, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 7 M 29 1812 / Our little boy was some restless last night, but rested much better than we expected when we went to bed. he however is not much better this morning. – Aunt Patty Gould much as yesterday

Our little boy seems much better this evening, for which I desire to be thankful. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 30, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 7th M 30th / Our little boy continues better, seems quite pert & lively this morning.

In our meeting which was Our Monthly meeting held in town, Anne Greene & D Buffum were Labourers in the Gospel. – In the last we had ample scope for the exercise of patience, several matters of the lesser importance was disposed of – & Certificates were granted Anne Greene & Hannah Dennis to pay a religious visit to friends in NYork State particularly the Quarterly Meetings of Stamford & Nine Partners.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 31, Friday: One final telescopic observation of the great comet Flaugergues \(C/1811 F1\) was accomplished, as it was entering the constellation of Capricornus. The astronomer Wisniewsky described it as a faint yellowish nebulosity with a diameter of about an arc-minute and a half, without a detectable tail.

SKY EVENT

Francis H. Gregory sallied out of Sackets Harbor, New York hid three gigs among the Thousand Islands and captured a British ship. He then needed to burn his prize in order to avoid its recaptured by a British gunboat.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 7 M 31st / Our little boy being very smart & well we spent the day at My Mothers with him. – Aunt Gould some better

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

August 1, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 8th M 1st 1812 / Aunt P Gould much as yesterday. Our little boy pretty smart but my H poorly –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 2, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 8 M 2 / In the forenoon meeting H Dennis had a considerable to communicate twice, father had little once. In the Afternoon we were silent. after meeting Went with Br D R & took tea with Saml Thurston. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 3, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 8 M 3rd / The heart sickens & is very sad at the prospect of things in the nation. an hand Bill has been printed in town this Afternoon giving an account of a shocking Mob in Baltimore wherein some were killed & many wounded. Oh! Alass what are we coming to – In these times of calamity, the mind has no safety but in its God & may we so conduct in times of tranquility as in the Season of tumult & the clashing of the Potsherds to look unto him with assurance that He will help us. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 4, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 8th M 4th / Our friend John Casey & several others have come down to Quarterly Meeting I was glad to see them all but the sight of our dear old friend J Casey was very salutary. – John Casey & Loyd Greene paid us a visit this evening which was very greatful. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 5, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 8th M 5th / Friends from the Narragansett county have come over pretty thick this Afternoon to attend the Quarterly Meeting. I am very glad to see them. it always very pleasantly Salutes my feelings to see them riding by at such a public time

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

August 6: The allied (Great Britain/Portugal) army began its march from Valladolid to Madrid.

Ludwig van Beethoven performed a concert, along with Giovanni Battista Polledro, in Karlsbad (Karoly Vary) to benefit the victims of the fire in Baden of July 26th.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 8th M 6th 1812 / My dear H could not leave the little boy to go to Portsmouth to attend the Quarterly Meeting held there this day, so Sister Ruth went with me in A Chaise The first meeting was Solid & but little Preaching soon after it was settled J Greene had a few words to communicate, which I thought sound & not unsavory. Then a long pause of more than an hour ensued, in which I thought our dear friend J Casey might (from the exercise he appeared under) have communicated something that would have benefited the meeting – The next after J Greene was Hannah Dennis, who was very Sweet & savory. The next was A...C... a friend from S Kingston who I believe is generally well approved in his own meeting, but made a most miserable & feeble fight in the Quarterly Meeting but I hope did not much hurt. –the meeting ended –

In the last we had much business. The Queries & answers drew forth many pertinent & seasonable remarks especially That concerning our testimony respecting War - Matthew Franklin had much to say & much of it very agreeable to my feelings – Moses Brown very feelingly made a remark to this effect speaking of the beauty of our principles. he said Methinks the contrast between a similar number of Warriors to the number present would be very Striking, one sitting in solemnity & in peaceable spirit, the other all in jar & confusion, which may be seen in all who are in the spirit of it & traced down the the councils that declare it – I have not done the remark justice, but that is the substance of it. – The certificates of Anne Greene & Hannah Dennis were endorsed & they set at liberty to proceed on their journey

After Meeting we dined at Anna Anthonys & then rode home

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 7, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 7 of 8 M 1812 / At 4 O'clock this Afternoon Matthew Franklin appointed a meeting for the inhabitants of this town, which prov'd to good satisfaction – Matthew was favor'd to explain the inconsistency of War with the christian religion, in a clear point of view, but it did not appear to be so open a time as some, yet he appear'd to be much help'd on in his subject - he concluded the meeting in supplication.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

August 8, Saturday: Russian Cossacks repelled Allied cavalry near Inkovo.

The 30-ton paddle steamer Comet began the first commercial steamboat service in Europe, over the 39 kilometers of the River Clyde between Glasgow, Greenock, and Helensburgh (this craft had been constructed by Henry Bell and John Wood).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 8th M 8th / Matthew Franklin has been in town resting & visiting his freinds & acquaintances. - Our dear little son has been quite unwell all day

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 9, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 8 M 9 / Our dear little boy was so Ill this foenoon that my dear H was unwilling to be alone with him & I staid from meeting to assist her - In the Afternoon I went to meeting & the little boy was so much better that I took a Walk to the beach with David Rodman.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 10, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 8M 10 / Our little boy has been better today but on the whole rather poorly. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 11, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 8M 11 / Saw a man of colour at Wm Pattens from Philadelphia who is a Presbyterian preacher by the name of John Gloucester he was formerly a slave, has purchased himself & family which has cost him 1500 Dollars. two of which remains unpaid & he is now in town trying to collect the ballance due by donations from the Rich & humane. - he appears to be an intelligent & good looking man. - I can only wish him success being unable to assist him in a pecuniary way. - Our little boy has been very smart today -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 August 12, Wednesday: British, Portuguese, and Spanish troops under Arthur Wellesley, Viscount Wellington of Talavera and of Wellington entered Madrid.

Amos Perry was born in South Natick, Massachusetts. After graduating from Harvard College with Henry Thoreau in 1837 (he was a member of the Hasty Pudding Club, which Thoreau was not) he would teach in New London, Connecticut and Providence, Rhode Island. He would visit Europe several times and would be from 1862 till 1867 the United States consul at Tunis. In 1873 he would become the secretary of the Rhode Island historical society and in 1880 its librarian, and in 1885 he would be made the superintendent of the state census. In 1841 Brown University would award him the degree of A.M. He would publish, in 1869, CARTILAGE AND TUNIS, in 1883, MEMORIAL OF ZACHARIAH ALLEN, 1795-1882, and in 1887, RHODE ISLAND STATE CENSUS, 1885.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*4th day 8M 12 / Our little boy is but poorly at best, but I hope he will not be much worse. –
This evening I went to Tennys meeting house & heard John Gloucester the man of colour mentioned yesterday preach & I thought he misapplied Scripture exceedingly, yet he appeared to be a man of some ingenuity & readiness of utterance. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 August 13, Thursday: The USS Essex defeated HMS Alert off Bermuda, and captured a troop transport.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 8thM 13th 1812 / Our Meeting was a precious one. I thought I was sensible of more life circulating among us than I had felt for some time. – life seem acceptable if the mind like agitated Needle varied from the pole it seemed easily to return to its wonted place again, for this favor I desire to be thankful. –

Lydia Almy was concerned to speak a few words which I thought was savory. – While setting in Meeting today I could but contrast ours with the one I was in last evening. While there it seemed as if the sound was nearly all that I could find among them.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 August 14, Friday: Allied forces reached Krasnoye, southwest of Smolensk, and met the first organized Russian resistance.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 8M 14 / Our dear little boy seems to be very well now for which I believe my dear wife & I are very thankful.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

August 15, Saturday: Mass in C by Giovanni Paisiello was performed for the initial time, at Paris.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 8M 15 / The mind has been turned on vaious subject, which very often deeply impress it. – The present State of things in this world & this beloved Nation in particular. The times are very trying, it seems as if there is nothing doing or to be done whereby an honest livelyhood can be obtained & what little that is done is so mingled with iniquity that one can scarcely touch & remain unpoluted. – I hear that this Afternoon that a prise has been sent in this Port by some privateer, & I am sure that knowingly I could not buy an ounce or gill of any thing she has on board & to have my hands or mind free from the most despicable & mean kind of all Warfare –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 16, Sunday: The summer and early fall had been quiet on the Niagara Frontier, such as at Fort Niagara, with local American and British commanders having agreed upon a local truce while they each attempted to strengthen their respective positions. During the truce, however, the British took an opportunity to transfer some of their soldiers westward, and on this day they achieved an important victory at Detroit. The US commanding general, William Hull, would find himself being courtmartialled.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 8M 16 / In our forenoon meeting Father Rodman had a few words to communicate – then Hannah Dennis, & then D Buffum. I thought it was a very good meeting. The sap of life seemed to circulate without much obstruction. – In the Afternoon Father R was concerned in supplication. This Afternoon Mother Rodma & John went to Portsmouth to see Sister Eliza who has been there some time & on 6th day was taken ill of a bilous complaint but is now better. – After Meeting visited the work & Alms houses with D R

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 17, Monday: The Federalist Party convened in New-York, choosing De Witt Clinton to run against incumbent President James Madison.

Russian and Allied forces had been battling near Smolensk for a couple of days and there had already been approximately 23,000 casualties without any strategic result. Under cover of darkness the Russians evacuated the city, which they had so trashed that it would prove logistically useless to the Emperor Napoléon I's Grand Armée of Twenty Nations.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 8thM 17 / It has been a very stormy day, much rain & the

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Air as cold as in the [?] M – Our little boy has been very smartly well for several Days – The mind has been very lean & barren of Good – how poor & weak I am & alas I know not when it will be more in the fullness with me. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 18, Tuesday: The Friends of Liberty, Peace and Commerce staged an anti-war mass meeting in New-York.

At this point during the 1812-1815 war with Great Britain, the USS Constitution captured the British frigate Guerriere. 101 people were killed.

The scene would be depicted in the following year by Thomas Birch:

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 18th of the M 1812 / The day has passed pretty much as usual – We had tea at father Rodmans – In the eveng Walked round the Hill with Br D Rodman

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 19, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 19 of 8M / Not a small degree of depression has been the

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

companion of my mind. Things as to the outward appears very dubious, however may I be favord to view the favorable side of them as long as I can. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 20, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 20 of 8 M / Our Meeting was pretty well attended, – & I thought the forepart of it was favor'd with the circulation and spreading of life & was thankful in feeling myself in a measure partaker of it. – A friend appeared in the Ministry in the latter part of the Meeting.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 21, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 21 of 8M / James Lovegrove & his Wife with Josiah Siddons are in town. – James belongs to Baltimore & has been to Bolton & married a Daughter of Folger Popes & is now on his return home with his new Wife

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 22, Saturday: Swiss adventurer Johann Ludwig Burckhardt “discovered” the ancient city of Petra near Wadi Musa (Jordan).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 22 of 8M / Rote a leeter to Hannah Pope & mentioned her Brother & Sisters being in town. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 23, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 23rd of 8thM / Our Morning Meeting was large as usual – According to my sense a good degree of favor was mercifully extended a friend appear'd in testimony & supplication – In the Afternoon we were silent & a pretty good time. My Dear H left the little boy at her fathers & went to Meeting

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 24, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

2nd day 24th of 8M / I have had a very low spell, having felt as the Pelican in the Wikderness as described, alone lonely & lonesome in a great barraness, both as respects outward & inward prospects, & tho' my prospects as to the outward are very small & streightened, yet have now been favor'd in buisness today beyond what is common, for which I desire to be thankful – My dear Mother spent the eveng with us

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 25, Tuesday: Following reverses in western Spain, the French lifted the siege of Cádiz and moved north.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 25 of 8M / It has been a pretty stiring day in town, on account of the Election of Jackson & Potter – the town Meeting was conducted with order & things acceded according to my wishes

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 26, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 26 of 8M / My mind has been brought under some feelings on account of several things. my dear H was taken quite unwell at dinner time which was somewhat alarming

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 27, Thursday: French forces abandoned Seville and moved north.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 27 of 8 M / Our Monthly Meeting is this day held at Portsmouth. I made arrangements to go & early My dear Wife & little son but the morning was very rainy & unsuitable for them. I thought my circumstances would not admit of my hiring a chaise for myself only & my health would be endangered by going on horseback

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 28, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 28 of 8th M 1812 / Sam'l Thurston & I having a little buisness with Sam'l Plum[?] we went out to his house & spent this Afternoon with him, he treated us very kindly, shewed us some curiosities around his house & several pieces of ancient

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Coin, one that was more than one thousand seven hundred years old, another that was coined of the gold that was dug out of Ancient Herculanium, another of gun metal coined at a time of great scarcity of money in England, & many of their guns were converted to that purpose - altho Money & doubtless a source of evil to some yet I had much rather the guns that are now in the world we put to that use than to kill men with. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 29, Saturday: Mikhail Ilarionovich Kutuzov took command of the Russian army.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 29 of 8M / My dear Wife not having been to Portsmouth in rather more than a year. We concluded to take this pleasant Morning & go thither we carried our little Son he slept most of the time we were in the Chaise while going - We left him At Anne Anthony's & went to Meeting After meeting we returned there & dined then went to Cousin Z Chases & took tea, where we saw my dear Aunt Patty Gould She went out there some days past in hopes the change of Air may be beneficial to her health After tea we rode home & I believe our little Son is none the worse for his visit. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 31, Monday: Carl Maria von Weber left Berlin for Gotha.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 31st of 8 M / Our dear little boy seems to have taken no cold by his ride yesterday; that we yet perceive - This Afternoon a Privateer arrived & in her salute fired grape shot one of which grazed Benj Marvels Wife on the thigh, but did not hurt her materially. Such is the effects of those Wicked exploits.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 1, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 1 of 9 M / Nothing worth inserting. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 2, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 2nd of 9 M 1812 / This is a day AWFULLY to be remembered about 10 O'clock this forenoon two companies of volunteer troops under James Perry & David Mellvill paraded down street on their way to meet an enemy if one comes, which is the Prayer of my heart never may molest them. – Their faces were all well known to me, & many of them intimate acquaintance & old school fellows some of them men advanced in life & will probably according to the course of nature descend into their graves very shortly Should no cannon ball ever reach them. – On seeing them pass, mine heart was deeply reached, & prayer arose to the Great Over ruler of events, that he would hasten the time when nation should no more wage War with Nation & the Implememnts of Death be beaten into Instruments that may further the happiness of Mankind, & in a very particular manner to hasten the time when this highly favor'd nation may again be restored to peace & as formerly persue, every one his own occupation without the fear of an enemy. –

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

Go To MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 3, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 3 of 9M / Our dear little son has been very sick, was complaining yesterday & the day before, but today his Cough & oppressed lungs grew worse and assumed an unpleasant & alarming appearance that I was ready to conclude that the time was at hand when we must resign him to HIM who lent him to us. he is however relieved this evening from a puke for which I desire to be thankful. I find that he gets a fresh hole in my affections every day. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 4, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*6th day 4 of 9 M / Our dear little boy rested pretty well & had but one coughing spell thro' the night & has been comfortable today 7th day 5th of 9 M / Our dear little son is still better but not Well
It has been a very rainy day which with the uncommonly cold & wet weather that we have that of late renders the prospect very dull & even gloomy respecting Corn, which is feared will be vert scant throughout New England –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 5, Saturday: Allied forces reached the village of Borodino where the Russians had massed for the defense of Moscow. Some skirmishing began.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

September 6, Sunday: Carl Maria von Weber arrived in Gotha from Leipzig and Berlin. He was alone, as Heinrich Baermann has given up the tour, leaving Weber in Berlin.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 6th of 9M / Our meetings were small woing to the very wet weather - The forenoon a good time to me the Afternoon rather more roving - CR spake a few words. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 7, Monday: Twelve hours of fighting between Russian and Allied troops at Borodino, west of Moscow, ended in complete stalemate, both sides too exhausted to continue. The day produced somewhere between 70,000 and 90,000 total casualties (more soldiers were killed at Borodino than in any battle prior to World War I).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2 day 7 of 9 M / This morning I looked over some English news Papers - they much affected my mind particularly in observing their numerous notices of mirrors[?] theft & need of every kind under the head of such trials by Law which it appears to be their custom to publish a list of accd to my heart true Prayer is the only safe spirit to dwell in & prayer ?? raised in my spirit for preservation from every vice

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

HDTWHAT?INDEXFRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULDSTEPHEN WANTON GOULDGo To MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

September 8, Tuesday: Russian forces withdrew from Borodino.

The news:

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 8th of 9th M 1812 / It is a very cloudy time both as respects the natural & Political world in the natural we have a very uncommon proportion of Cloudy & rainy weather & in the Political things are very dubious many days Mail brings fresh accounts of increased difficulty from various parts of the United States - Our Armys taken & defeated in some instances with much slaughter, & in the Southern State Negroes have in some places become disaffected & made attempts to rise. - & the Minds of the people in allmost every quarter are much agitated

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

some with jealousies towards one another & some of the Government, & where these things will end is very uncertain. – May we flee to the Strong Tower in which there is safety & there abide. I feel the desire to arise in fervent intercession in my own behalf from the full persuasions that nothing short will avail us in seasons of inward or outward conflicts This Afternoon in Company with Wm Allen & C J Tenny & some of the coloured directors visited the African Benevolent Society – was pleased with the appearance of the Scholars & their improvement in education. – As I was returning from the above mentioned School saw our Ancient & very venerable friends Jeremiah Austin Senr standing on Washington Square with several with him – I was very glad to see him if it was but for a few minutes – he came to town on business & went out again directly. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 9, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 9 of 9 M / Rec'd a letter from David Smith, which was very grateful. – My H & little son took tea at aunt A Carpenters also my Mother Aunt P Stanton & Brother Isaac & Wife also Lewis L Clarke who is over on a short visit to us

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 10, Thursday: French soldiers pillaged Novospasskoye, home town of Mikhail Ivanovich Glinka.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 10 Of 9 M / Our Meeting was well attended the weather was pleasant & several elderly people came that does not in common from age & infirmity – Job Chaloner was also with us & preached very sweetly & acceptably. I believe his appearance in the ministry was edifying & comforting to many present – C R had a few words towards the close of the Meeting, & I think I may say it was a season of favor. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 11, Friday: Sappho von Mitiene, a ballet by Johann Nepomuk Hummel to a scenario by Viganò, was performed for the initial time, in Vienna's Theater-an-der-Wien.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 11 of 9 M / Widow Sears, Nancy Rathbone & daughter, Mother Rodman Josiah Lawton took tea with us. –

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Aunt Patty Gould spent the forenoon & dined with us.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 12, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7 day 12 of 9M 1812 / Yesterday Abigail Robinson Went to Providence accompanied by Saml Thurston to pay a little visit in a religious Way to friends there. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 13, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 13 of 9 M / In our forenoon Meeting D B & C R had public communications to bear. - In the Afternoon we were Silent. - by the kindness of Sister Ruth my H was at meeting This forenoon & in the Afternoon we left the little boy at Aunt Patty Goulds & after Meeting we returned there & took tea with her. & tho very feeble she was very glad to have him. - After tea Brother D Rodman & I took a walk around the Hill & as we were returning up the Mainstreet we saw around Townsends Coffee house a large gathering of People which led me to suspect that some news had arrived. I stepped up to one standing by & inquired what it was. - he informed me that there was a report that three English shipes were seen off between Block Island & Point Judith - We walked up street & extended to the head of the Alms House lane & back thro' Farwell Street & as we got near the Parade. We found the Town was under General Alarm. Drums beating fifes Playing & People running with their Arms in every direction. Soon a very considerable Military force was underway to Fort Adams & a gard set to Watch the town. The w[h]ole of the evening & forepart of the Night was Noisy - but thru the Whole I can truly say that fear scarcely possessed my mind. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 14, Monday: Russian soldiers and citizens torched Moscow and retreated to the southwest. About midnight the vanguard of the Grand Armée of Twenty Nations of the Emperor Napoléon I reached the abandoned metropolis. There would be no shelter and nothing to eat.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 14th of 9 M / This morning things have assumed their usual tranquility the English Ships appear to have gone by & the Military comapanys returning to their homes- It is wonderful how soon the Mind becomes fitted to its condition, perhaps if actual engagement had taken place I should have felt different but as it was in all the Meeting my mind was very calm. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

September 15, Tuesday: In New York, Robert Fulton reached a compromise with the Albany Company.

The Emperor Napoléon I took up residence in the Kremlin as fires broke out in the city, mostly set by Russian agents.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 15 of 9 M / Jeremiah Austin Junr is in town & been at the Shop he shewed me a letter which he had written to James Madison which I though a pretty good one. – I wrote to D. Smith –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 17, Thursday: Over the previous three days fire had been destroying three quarters of Moscow as the invading army looted whatever they could.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 17 of 9 M 1812 / Our Meeting was pretty well attended, specially on the Womens side of the house. – We were silent in the first & the last (preparative) we had no buisness. My mind was comfortably refreshed in the first meeting, tho' some roving was experienced.

This Afternoon I took a Walk into the Neck as far as the Telegraph erected for the purpose of Alarm in case of Ships of War – John Tillinghast went with me. – I had much agreeable reflection of Mind & our conversation was mostly on subjects interesting & innocent – I travelled over fields & viewed scenes that I never did before & in returning we came the way I was Just eight Years & three days ago with Thos Hornsby. – My mind was solemnized in many reflections on things that are past since that space of time. – What will happen or where I shall be in the eight years to come is hid with him who knows all things, & who in infinite wisdom has ordered it so, for if we knew our fate, Miserable indeed should we be. – Many of my intimate friends & dear connections have within the last years descended to the grave & perhaps before the next comes around I may be number'd with them. And Oh saith my soul may my exit be in PEACE come when it may

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 18, Friday: The Emperor Napoléon I and his staff returned to Moscow from their temporary refuge in the Petrovskoye Palace outside the city.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 18th of 9 M / My H with our little boy with Mother Rodman

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Spent the Day at Uncle Saml Thurstons. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 19, Saturday: Admitted to the bar in Middlesex County, John Keyes “hung out his shingle” as a lawyer in Concord.

The Emperor Napoléon I authorized a French retreat from Russia.

In Spain, British forces withdrew from Burgos.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 19 of 9 M / Our dear little boy seems to be well at present which with the present good health of his mother I feel as a blessing to me.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 20, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 20 of 9 M / In the forenoon meeting C R had a few words to communicate - After Dinner my mind being inclined I went out to Middletown & visited some of my relations there Took tea with cousin Sarah Gould Widow of John Gould - On my way home called to see cousin Elizabeth Anthony
I find that with the removal of individuals places in a very great measure lose their charms from my boyhood up to the present time I have occasionally had many very pleasant visits in that neighborhood, but since the Family of my dear cousin Thos Gould has been broken up the center has seemingly been removed & there is not so great an enthusiasm as when his family were there*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 21, Monday: US forces marched under Captain Benjamin Forsyth from Sackets Harbor, New York to Cape Vincent, crossed the border under cover of darkness, and attacked British and Canadian forces at Gananoque, Ontario. The US forces were victorious.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 21 of 9 M 1812 / The day has passed with the general sameness of most The mind has been turned in many ways. [black lines obscuring]

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 September 22, Tuesday: A Kyrie in C by Antonio Salieri was performed for the initial time, in Vienna.

The Spanish cortes offered the post of commander in chief of its armed forces to Arthur Wellesley, Viscount Wellington.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 22 of 9 M / Aunt Molly Wanton was this eveng taken ill with faintness & sickness of the stomach but got most renewed before bed time.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 23, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 23 of 9 M / Aunt Molly Wanton seem'd quite poorly this morning but after the medicine had effect she was quite smart in the Afternoon. I did not know but she was about to leave us, from the manner in which she was taken.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 24, Thursday: At Mozhaysk, west of Moscow, Russian forces severed the main supply line of the Emperor Napoléon I's Grand Army of allies. Suddenly this Grand Army was all alone and on its own. Oh, this is going to get ugly.

The Principalities of Waldeck and Pyrmont were rejoined as the Principality of Waldeck-Pyrmont under Prince Georg.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 24 of 9 M / Our Meeting was well attended & a precious good one it was our friend Daniel Howland of Greenwich was with us & preached very sweetly & with good gospel Aunthority. Job Chaloner was also present & concern'd in an acceptably testimony In the last meeting (Monthly) we had considerable buisness, some of it was exercising both on the mens & womens side of the house but things I believe will end well at last. – Rich Mitchell Geo Dennis & Anne Anthony dined with us. In the eveng went with my H & sister Ruth & sat a while with our good Old neighbor Saml Towle & Wife –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 25, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 25 of 9 M / Daniel Clapp Jr of Pomfret & Sarah Albro of Middletown were married at our Meeting house a meeting was appointed at the 3rd hour in the Afternoon for the purpose. – towards the conclusion of the Meeting D Buffum made a few

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

observations which were very gratefull to my feelings. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 26, Saturday: Gioachino Rossini's melodramma giocoso La pietra del paragone to words of Romanelli was performed for the initial time, in Teatro alla Scala, Milan. The work was an instant success.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 26 of 9 M / Nothing material to insert – Mother R Set the evening with us

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 27, Sunday: Pedro Gómez-Labrador Avelo replaced Carlos Martínez de Irujo y Tacón, marques de Casa-Irujo as First Secretary of State of the resistance government of Spain.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 27 of 9 M / C R & D Buffum were concerned in testimony
& in the forenoon Meetings – Colonel Kingsbury was present. – In the Afternoon C R had a few words to communicate – After meeting I took tea with Saml Thurston Danl Clapp Jun & Wife were also there. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

September 28, Monday: According to the journal of Friend Thomas B. Hazard or Hafsard or Hasard of Kingstown, Rhode Island, also known as “Nailer Tom,”¹¹⁶ there was a “Ginneral Muster” on this day at Exeter, Rhode Island.

The Count von Rumford’s will was witnessed by, among others, the Marquis de Lafayette. He left his watches to Humphry Davy and Daniel Parker and the bulk of his estate he divided among his daughter Sarah, whom he had once abandoned, Harvard College, which he had never attended, and the United States Military Academy of an army he had once betrayed.¹¹⁷ In his dotage he was writing an article “On the Salubrity of Warm Bathing” while occupying his time playing solo bridge and chess and riding around Paris in a carriage dressed entirely in white. He was also scribbling on the magnum opus by which he was to be remembered,

116. He was called “Nailer Tom” because his trade was the cutting of nails from scrap iron, and in order to distinguish him from a relative known as “College Tom,” from another relative known as “Shepherd Tom,” and from his own son who –because he had fits– was known as “Pistol-Head Tom.”

117. It would be the sheerest surmise, and probably inaccurate, to infer that Benjamin Thompson had had any second thoughts about any of his activities.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

“The Nature and Effects of Order,” from which we have most fortunately been spared.¹¹⁸

Sarah, Countess of Rumford, as of 1797

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 28th of 9th M / The times a[re] serious & gloomy. The War has involved us in many miseries which I think thicken every day, where or how the many of the inhabitants of this town are to get even the common necessities of life the coming Winter is hid in dark uncertainty

118. After his death, his daughter Sarah, angry at not having been allowed to marry and at having been forced all those years to attend an old father, decorated her home with portraits of his mistresses and used the manuscript pages to start fires in his fireplace.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

I feel not a little depressed at the prospect as respects my self, but hope to be enabled to place my confidence in HIM who is not now less in power, than in the days of famine formerly

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 29, Tuesday: Sometime after this date, the Shelleys went with Elizabeth Hitchener to London.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 29 of 9 M / Edw W Lawton & wife J Rodman & Wife Mary Anthony & her brother George & E Rodman took tea with us - & some of them set the eveng (on our part) very agreeably - I love the company of my friends, & the circle of this Afternoon & eveng were peculiarly pleasant. - [five lines crossed out]

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 30, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 30 of 9 M 1812 / here ends the Month with account of a d in the Upper burying ground in the Meadow field - his remains were first carried to the Meeting house - C R & D B made communications sad disaster which happened last night - A gun boat was cast away on Bevertail & nine men lost. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 1, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 1 of 10 M 1812 / Our Meeting was small principally owing to a considerable number of friends having gone to Thurston to attend the Marriage of David Buffum Junr & Susan Ann Barker. the Meeting was appointed at 2 OC PM This Afternoon Mother & Aunt Patty Stanton return'd from Narragansett where they have been on a visit three weeks lacking one day. - My H spent the Afternoon at her fathers with the little boy - I took tea with them -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 2, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 2nd of 10 M / The day has passed without any thing particular to insert. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 October 3, Saturday: La duchesse de la Vallière, a cantata by Louis Joseph Ferdinand Hérold was performed for the initial time, at the prize-giving ceremony for the Prix de Rome, in Paris (Hérold's work won 1st prize).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 3 of 10 M / My H and little son spent the day at my Mothers —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 October 4, Sunday: In London a spendthrift 19-year-old heir to a baronetcy, Percy Bysshe Shelley, who was just getting his bride Harriet Westbrook Shelley pregnant, met William Godwin, a liberally oriented man whose defenseless daughter Mary Godwin Wollstonecraft had just turned 15. Hot damn!

WILLIAM GODWIN'S LIFE

US forces defeated British forces at Ogdensburg, New York after a British raid out of Prescott, Ontario had failed and their two gunboats had been forced to return.

The French garrison of the Spanish city of Burgos was besieged by British and Portuguese troops under Arthur Wellesley, Viscount Wellington. The siege would fail when French forces would be relieved, but Wellington would capture the city during June 1813 shortly before the battle of Vitoria.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1st day 3 [sic] of 10 M / C R was concern'd in testimony in the forenoon & Afternoon Meetings – Visited the Work & Alms houses –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 5, Monday: The Emperor Napoléon I sent out emissaries, searching for someone with whom he might conclude an armistice or peace. –My goodness, Mon General, are you suddenly interested in declaring peace?

Ludwig van Beethoven arrived in Linz to try and break up an affair between his brother Johann and the sister-in-law of Johann's tenant, Therese Obermayer. The dispute would result in a physical brawl between the two brothers.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 5 of 10 M / The day has passed pretty much with the usual rounds – Aunt Patty Gould dined with us. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 6, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 6 of 10 M / Nothing particular to insert.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 7, Wednesday: In 1806 Edward Flint had been appointed guardian over the five minor children of widow Mary Brooks Merriam, but at this point guardianship was transferred to her 2d husband William Swan.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 7 of 10 M / My Mother and Aunt patty Stanton spent the Day & set the evening with us. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 8, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 8 of 10 M / This forenoon I went to Connanicut on buisness of the Estate of Daniel Holloway, after I had compleated what I went for – Called a little while at Cousin Joseph Greenes & Cousin Molly Howland & got back to town at rather late Dinner time –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 9, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 9 of 10 M / Tho' somewhat unwell & fatigued yesterday I consented to set up last night with our Aged friend Wm Lee who appears near the conclusion of time – & tho unwell I may acknowledge that I was helped for I was not sleepy in the night & have not felt those disagreeable feelings today which follow

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

watching. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 October 10, Saturday: It may have been on this day that in a transparent attempt to resolve his pressing financial issues, George Gordon, Lord Byron proposed marriage to the heiress Anne Isabella Milbanke (she had the sense to refuse him).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 10 of 10 M 1812 / This Afternoon in company with the others of the committee for the purpose visited Sarah Stevens, late Sherman in consequence of her having Married out of the order of society. – Towards night I went to Portsmouth on buisness Lodged at Z Chases. – After breakfast the next Morning I called at P Lawtons & from Thence went to Meeting which was a good comfortable time to me – no one preached – After Meeting I went to Abraham Anthony's & dined then returnd to Cousin Z Chases & took tea then Walked homeward. found my H & little son in good health. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 October 12, Monday: Dr. Peter Goodnow of Bolton established a medical practice in Acton.

Dr. Peter Goodnow was from Bolton, commenced practice in Acton, 12th of October, 1812, left 18th of February, 1827, and is now [1835] a merchant in Boston.¹¹⁹

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 12 of 10 M / This forenoon Departed this life in the 84th Year of his Age William Lee, An exemplary man in the various walks of life, and has been a useful member of society especially as one of the Trustees of the Point land. – & the last man living of the former set. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

119. Lemuel Shattuck's 1835 A HISTORY OF THE TOWN OF CONCORD;... Boston MA: Russell, Odiorne, and Company; Concord MA: John Stacy, 1835
(On or about November 11, 1837 Henry Thoreau would indicate a familiarity with the contents of at least pages 2-3 and 6-9 of this historical study. On July 16, 1859 he would correct a date mistake buried in the body of the text.)

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

October 13, Tuesday: US military forces began crossing the Niagara River at Lewiston, New York by occupying the village of Queenstown Heights, Canada and killing the commander of the British forces there, General Isaac Brock. However, the state militiamen were refusing to leave the territory of the United States of America, and so, when the British forces counterattacked, the federal troops who had made the crossing to the Canadian bank, unsupported, out on a limb, found it necessary to surrender. The garrison of Fort Niagara attempted to divert enemy attention with a bombardment of Fort George on Queenston Heights. Fort George returned the cannon fire and, because of their higher position, were able to drive the American gunners away from their weapons. The American fort, its guns silenced, was then abandoned. Its garrison huddled outside its walls. Realizing that under these conditions the British would be able to simply walk in and occupy the American position, the American officers called for volunteers and reoccupied the fort. (In the lull that would follow this fighting, United States Engineers would attempt to improve the old fortifications by strengthening the exposed river side of the fort with temporary walls. To compensate somewhat for the fact that the batteries of Fort George could fire down on Fort Niagara, the Engineers removed the roofs of the two redoubts and the "French Castle" and remounted their cannon on the upper floors to gain every possible bit of extra elevation.)

On the following day, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould would write this in his journal:

3rd & 4th days / Have passed much as usual, & nothing has occur'd worth inserting. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 15, Thursday: The Reverend Ephraim Abbott interviewed a violent psychopath, John Usher, whose hands were being kept tied at all times:

"The more evil he does, the more he seems to rejoice."

(On the same day, this Congregationalist pastor made an attempt to persuade a birthright Quaker to convert. :-)

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 15th of 10 M / Wm Lee was this day inter'd in the Upper burying ground in the Meadow field - his remains were first carried to the Meeting house - C R & D B made communications

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 16, Friday, and 17, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6 & 7 days / Nothing particular to insert

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

October 18, Sunday: On the same day that the Emperor Napoléon I resolved to retreat to Smolensk, Russian forces took a body Allied cavalry near Vinkovo completely by surprise (the French would nevertheless manage to make their escape).

Jacob and Wilhelm, the Brothers Grimm dated the preface to the initial volume of their KINDER- UND HAUS:MÄRCHEN.

The USS Wasp captured the HMS Frolic well off the Virginia coast.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 18 of 10 M / Our friend Christopher Hely & Nathan Spencer & his wife of Rensillerville in N York state were at Meeting Christopher is an excellent preacher in a plain simple way - in the Afternoon he called together as many of the inhabitants of the town & people of colour as he could get & a favor'd meeting it was.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 19, Monday: The Emperor Napoléon I departed from Moscow. The Grand Armée of Twenty Nations began its long homeward trudge. In two days of fighting the Allies would be driven back at Polotsk, northwest of Smolensk.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 19 of 10 M / Much occupied in settling the Estate of Daniel Holloway which we are in hopes soon to compleate

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 20, Tuesday: Austin Flint, who would become a pioneer in US heart research, was born.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 20 of 10 M / Occupied much as Yesterday.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 21, Wednesday: When they learned of the advance of the French into La Mancha, the British and Portuguese raised their siege of Burgos and retreated towards Valladolid.

Samuel Wesley wrote to his mother in Brighton asking for money. Since she has recently come to his aid he requested half of his inheritance.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 21 of 10 M / Again much occupied about the Estate of D Holloway

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 October 22, Thursday: A 1st child, Helen Louisa Thoreau, was born to John Thoreau and Cynthia Dunbar Thoreau, who had married one another on the eleventh of May in that year.

DUNBAR FAMILY

THOREAU GENEALOGY

John in later years

Cynthia in later years

We may note that when this child would belatedly be recorded in the Concord town records, she would be recorded as having been born as of the year 1813. (The town's records are not all that accurate or complete, but might this error have been purposefully registered in order to remove any doubt as to Helen's legitimacy as the eldest child of this very new marriage?)

Births

Name	Sex	Birth Date	Birth Place	Father's Name	Mother's Name
THOREAU, John		1754	Concord
THOREAU, Mary	F	1786	Concord	John
THOREAU, Sarah		1791	Concord
THOREAU, Helen L.	F	1813	Concord	John	Cynthia
THOREAU, John	M	1815	Concord	John	Cynthia
THOREAU, Sophia Elizabeth	F	Sept. 27, 1819	Chelmsford	John	Cynthia

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 22 of 10 M / Our friend Christo Hely was in town & attended Meeting & the funeral of Sam Wilcox - but being previously engaged I went to Conanicut with our friend D Buffum to attend the funeral of Job Watson where David was largely & very acceptably engaged in declaring the truth to the People. - We dined at John Weedens & got home before sunset. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

October 23, Friday: US troops at St. Regise, New York killed 8 British soldiers, took 23 prisoners, and captured supplies meant for trade with the Indians.

After the retreating Allies took control of Maloyaroslavets and a bridge over the River Lusha, Russian troops appeared and drove them away.

In France a group of officers headed up by General Claude-François de Malet (who had for four years been being detained at a lunatic asylum), announced that the Emperor Napoléon had deceased and read to the public a faked proclamation of the French senate authorizing formation of a new government. The conspirators suborned the officers of the 10th Cohort, a body of 1,200 soldiers, and set up their military headquarters in the Hotel de Ville. General Malet occupied the offices of the district general of the Place Vendôme where, confronted by General Pierre-Augustin Hulin, commander of the Paris garrison, he shot him. Recognizing Malet as a recent detainee, Major Laborde then disarmed him, returned him to custody, and ordered the 10th Cohort back into barracks. A total of 84 people would be taken into custody.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 23 of 10 M 1812 / Nothing very particular to insert, the day has passed with the usual rounds. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 24, Saturday: After a fierce battle for Maloyaroslavets, during which the town changed hands five times, the Russians were forced to withdraw, although they would continue to fire on the Allies in the town.

Publication of Eight Piano Pieces op.37 by Johann Nepomuk Hummel was announced in the Wiener Zeitung.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*7th day 24 of 10 M / Our much lov'd friend Obadiah Williams left us this forenoon with his family for Albany intending to settle some where in the state of N York. - my mind was not a little affected at parting with them I loved them much & consider him & his family a loss to this meeting. -
This Afternoon visited Sarah Stevens in company with the others of the committee, her situation is peculiar & has engaged our sympathy & fervant desires for her wellfare in treating with her my mind was uncommonly opened & favor'd to speak in a manner that was peaceful to myself*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 25, Sunday: USS United States defeated HMS Macedonian off the Azores.

When French forces defeated the Spanish at Palencia, effectively they obtained control over Valladolid.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 25 of 10 M / Our forenoon Meeting was to me a very precious season, a renewal of lif was experienced for which I desire to be thankful. - C R spake a few words -

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

In the Afternoon not quiet so much favor'd but a pretty good meeting. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 26, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 26 of 10 M / Our dear little boy has been for several days quite complaining & today has had an eruption on his skin which I think favorable if it does not strike in The Doctor say this eveng that the eruption on Johns skin is the Wild fire & that care must be taken to keep it out -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 27, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 27 of 10 M / My spirit is deeply oppressed & depressed & was the same feelings to continue for any length of time I dont know what would be the consequence. - but thro' favor it goes off & I am favor'd with quiet. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 28, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 28 of 10 M / After breakfast this mornng in walking to my Shop I was inform'd of the decease of my wife's Uncle in law Job Almy he was up very early in the mornng & complained of a pain in his stomach but walked out in his Orchard, came in again & soon expired in his chair. the news of his sudden departure very much affected my feelings. - I went out directly to his house in season to assist in laying him out. Oh! the great necessity of ever keeping on the Watch, even unto prayer to God for help for we know not in what day or hour we may be called to render an account of our Deeds

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 29, Thursday: General Claude-François de Malet and 22 others involved in the failed coup d'état against the Emperor Napoléon I were convicted by a council of war.¹²⁰

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 29th of 10th M 1812 / Rode with my dear H to Portsmouth to attend the Moy [Monthly] Meeting - Christopher Healy was there & was very largely concern'd in testimony he is a man of no education & not very largely endowed with human understanding, but is very uncommonly gifted in the Ministry. he is powerful & reaching upon an Audience & appears to attend very closely to divine openings & I said in my heart with Wm Penn who remarked after a very powerful testimony from John

120. It is accepted that a coup d'état that fails is by definition a mutiny, and treason. Nobody likes losers!

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Steel appointed for a great Public dispute with some of the Priests of that day – After the Meeting ended Wm Penn remarked to Robt Barclay "This is neither the Wisdom of the North nor the elloquence of the South but the Power of God thro' a Plowman which is Wonderful in our eyes."

Our last meeting was favor'd Christopher having much to communicate. – our buisness was conducted with uninimity & love tho' some exercising things were before us & the meeting was detained late. – We reached Richard Mitchells about sunset & dined. – then rode home & found that our dear little John had done exceedingly well without his mother under the care of Mary Briggs which I consider an encouragement for her to leave him again when duty calls her away which at this time I thought did –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 30, Friday: British troops began retreating out of New Castile, which would leave the capital city of Madrid undefended. The British soldiers took out their frustrations on the Spanish populace and there was the usual round of murders, rapes, and looting.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 30 of 10M / Job Almy was inter'd this Afternoon. My H went to the funeral which was very large but the Widow Phebe Proud Aged 91 Years being to be buried at the same time & in a plain way in our burying ground, I thought it probable but few people would attend & duty seemed to lead me there, so I omitted the first mentioned funeral & went to the last & was glad I did, & it proved as I supposed it would, but few people were there & they were beset to get suitable bearers. I called a while this eveng at D Williams, & went home & found My Mother & Aunt P Stanton setting with my H. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

October 31, Saturday: Napoléon Bonaparte reached Vyaz'ma, 218 kilometers west of Moscow, and paused to assess his situation.

In France, 13 persons convicted of the failed coup d'état, three of them generals of the army, were executed on the plain of Grenelle.

As you can see here, mass executions by volley tend to be messy because not everybody gets aimed at — someone usually need to wait while the guys reload.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 31 of 10M 1812 / Aunt Patty Stanton sailed this forenoon about 10 OClock for New York. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 1, Sunday: At high mass in St. Michael's Church in München, Georg Joseph Vogler demonstrated his triorganon for the initial time (he had only recently completed construction of this instrument).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 1 of 11 M 1812 / Our forenoon Meeting was large & a season of great poverty of spirit to me. C R had a few words to communicate. In the Afternoon it was larger than Common for an Afternoon Meeting Wm Almy was with us & rose late in the sitting apparently poor & the seed low in his mind & in Meeting but by his keeping close to the openings of truth & folloowing it faithfully in its risings & falling. Truth rose sweetly into dominion & I have no doubt but he was favor'd to minister very suitably to the states of some present & I felt pretty clearly that his communication was blessed to us I sat the eveng at home.

—

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

November 2, Monday: Near Prague, Prince Ferdinand Johann Nepomuk Kinsky, an important patron of Ludwig van Beethoven, fell off his horse — he would soon die.

Martin Van Buren was sworn in as a New York State Senator.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*2nd day 2 of 11M / I have some exercises to pass through which are indeed painful to flesh & blood, & I find no way so safe as to turn the mind inward & pray secretly in the ability afforded for help preservation & forgiveness, which has been my experience this morning. which I desire to render thanksgiving to Him who thus helpeth. —
Went this evening to see Dorcas Easton & Abigail Lee to advise with about their affairs. —*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 3: A Republican caucus chose DeWitte Clinton to run for the governorship of New York.

From this date until January 26, 1813, Samuel Taylor Coleridge's Belles Lettres and his Shakespeare lectures would be being presented at the Surrey Institution.

Pursuing Russians succeeded in surrounding the Allied rear guard. The rear guard would eventually be saved, but at great cost to the Allies.

In Newport, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould became a juror:

3rd day 3rd of 11 M / I have the misfortune to be drawn a Juror at the now sitting Court of Common Please & have spent much of this day at the Court house.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

RHODE ISLAND

November 4, Wednesday: Samuel Wesley wrote to his mother once again to notify her that if her son failed to receive £100 immediately, he was going to be clapped in the debtors' prison.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 4th of 11 M / Occupied as Yesterday had two cases committed to the Jury & was favor'd to give such a Verdict in each case as feels easy to my mind. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

RHODE ISLAND

November 5, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 5 of 11 M / Got discharged from the court so as to be

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

at Meeting late, but was favor'd to get quiet soon considering the confused litigation I had just left - Paul Cuffe was at meeting & Dined with me after dinner settled a little buisness between us & in the Afternoon went to Court again, tried a case but did feel so well Satisfied as in the former ones tho' I could see no other way to get along with it. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

RHODE ISLAND

November 6, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 6 of 11 M 1812 / Got clear of the Jury this forenoon in consequence of being a relation to one of the Parties concern'd -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

RHODE ISLAND

November 7, Saturday: Allied troops in the north of Spain retreated to Chereya.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 7 of 11 M / Again on the Jury but got discharged this eveng -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

RHODE ISLAND

November 9, Monday: George Gordon, Lord Byron wrote a final letter to Caroline Lamb, which she would later publish in her novel, GLENARVON.

Napoléon Bonaparte and the Grande Armée reached Smolensk where they proceeded to loot the city. At the same time, Allied reinforcements were attacked by Russians southwest of the city and induced to surrender.

In Newport, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 9 of 11 M / Been buisily engaged in getting in my shop wood &c. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 11, Wednesday: US troops led by Commodore Isaac Chauncey sailed out of Sackets Harbor, New York and attacked the Canadian Provincial Marine Fleet at Kingston, Ontario. Chauncey was, however, forced to withdraw without having driven the British from Lake Ontario.

In Newport, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 11 of 11 M / Buisily occupied at trade & find myself much behind hand in consequence of last weeks service at Court

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

November 12, Thursday, 1812 Allied forces began to retreat west from Smolensk..

In Newport, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 12 of 11 M / I have seem'd to be so much occupied in my shop that I was inclined to believe that duty to my family demanded the omission of Meetings, but on the whole I dont know nor hardly believe that I gained any thing by it. - By those who did attend I learnt that C R had a few words to communicate & H Dennis was largely concerned in public testimony - In the eveng I called a little while at D Williams.-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 13, Friday: George Gordon, Lord Byron left Eywood after his stay with Lady Oxford.

In Newport, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 13 of 11 M / I felt disposed this forenoon to write to Edward Cobb of Portland, In the eveng called & set a while at Aunt Martha Goulds - My H & little son spent the Day at her fathers. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 14, Saturday: The Allies attacked the Russians at Smolyani but were forced to withdraw.

Back again in Newport, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 14 of 11 M / This eveng by moonlight walked to Portsmouth & reached cousin Z Chases in season to set some time very agreeably with them before bed time - In the morng I rode with him to Meeting which was silent & a poor wandering time to me. I rode back with cousin Chase as far as Uncle Peter Lawtons where I stoped & dined transacted the little buisness that called me to Portsmouth & spent the afternoon very agreeably.- after tea Uncle Peter brought me homeward as far as John Goulds from thence I walked home stopping by the way at Sam'l Thurstons -found my H & little son fine & well -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 15, Sunday: John Clarke Allen was born to Mary Morrill Allen and the Reverend Wilkes Allen in Chelmsford, Massachusetts.

At about the midpoint of November the Shelleys returned from London, without Elizabeth Hitchener, to Tremadoc.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 November 16, Monday: Russian troops captured Minsk, the main Allied supply point.

Georg Joseph Vogler gave the first public concert on his instrument, the triorganon, in St. Michael's Church, München. This performance was a great success.

General Henry Dearborn began moving 5,000 men from Plattsburgh, New York to Rouses Point for a planned invasion of Canada.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2&3 days 16th & 17 of 11 M 1812 / These days have passed as usual except that My H & little son on 3rd day spent the day at my Mothers

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 November 17, Tuesday: Allied troops attacked the Russians south of Krasnoye and sent them reeling. Left for dead on the battlefield was 24-year-old Jean-Victor Poncelet. He would recover and in the following spring, in a Russian prison camp, invent projective geometry.

 November 18, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 18 of 11 M / Nothing material to insert that occurs to mind

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 November 19, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 19 of 11 M / Our meeting was large as usual & I doubt not but a season of instruction to some minds present - C R was concern'd in testimony & supplication -- In the last meeting (Preparative) Osborn Mory requested to be admitted into membership

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 November 20, Friday: General Henry Dearborn's New York militia refused to cross over into Canada.

Russian troops crossed from the west bank of the Berezina into Borisov, 73 kilometers northeast of Minsk, and captured it from Polish defenders.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 20 of 11 M / On 2nd day [Monday, November 16th] last Died Samuel Young Aged 85 Years he was a fisherman & accounted an honest Man I have been accustomed from boyhood to see him moving round the Neighborhood & Standing at the Grainary corner with his fish. he was a short man & wore a wig which rendered him somewhat remarkable for appearance as wigs of the

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

description he wore are now very uncommon. - Thus one old standard after another is removed & we may in time take their places in the minds of the rising posterity & then be removed ourselves, but to calculate on long life is very precarious for we know not what Day or hour we may be called away, -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 21: Alterations to Fort Niagara, New York had been made just in time. The US forces there and the British at Fort George on the far side of the Niagara River found themselves engaged in an artillery duel. The action produced a heroine: when, at the height of the battle, a cannon mounted on the roof of the French Castle lost one of its crewmen, a soldier's wife, Betsy Doyle, stepped in to help keep the cannon in operation.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 21 of 11 M / The day has passed with the usual rounds. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 22, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 22 of 11 M / Our meeting this forenoon was large & I believe a solemn season to minds present C R had a few words in testimony on the subject of living faith -
In the Afternoon it was better attended than usual for an Afternoon Meeting D Buffum was concern'd on a remarkable pointed manner to warn us of the possibility of withstanding the day of visitation until it closes upon us, & repeated this Passage with great earnestness & power "Call upon the Lord while he is near & upon our God for he will have mercy & abundantly pardon" saying that it had rung in his ears from hour to hour both in the present & morning sitting
After Meeting I walked into the common burying ground with Christo Almy, then took tea with Aunt Patty Gould & set the remainder of the eveng at home Molly eveng passed it with us with her son John very agreeably on our part*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 24, Tuesday: L'occasione fa il ladro, a burletta per musica by Gioachino Rossini to words of Prividali after Scribe, was performed for the initial time, in Teatro San Moisè, Venice. Public reaction was tepid.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd & 3rd day 23 & 24 of 11 M 1812 / Nothing uncommon has occur'd these days, but the mind hath been mindful of many things.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

November 25, Wednesday: After pressing Russian forces under Mikhail Kutuzov, Peter Wittgenstein, and Admiral Pavel Chichagov off the west bank of the Berezina River, the Grand Armée of Twenty Nations of Napoléon Bonaparte began to cross at Studienka. The river was unexpectedly thawed and, since the bridge had been destroyed, difficult to cross. Finally the river was crossed on a reconstructed pontoon bridge. Casualties were very high on both sides.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 25th of 11 M / My mind hath been introduced into feelings not a little exquisite in looking at the prospect of things as respects a livelihood if things remain as they are. The Rich will be made poor & the poor, poorer still even to wretchedness. The War obstructs almost every kind of traffic in which a man may be innocently concerned & there is no human prospect of cessation of hostilities between this country & Britain & where we shall land is only known to him who sees & knows all things. - Under these prospects my mind sometimes much depressed, for since the War commenced I have not done business sufficient to maintain myself & family & see no way to extend it. And Oh that my dependence may be on the Lord who is mindful of the smallest amongst men.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 27, Friday: Lowell Mason left his home in Medfield, Massachusetts to move to Savannah, Georgia.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 26 of 11 M / Our Monthly Meeting this day held in town has been a remarkable one for divine favor. Abigail Robinson was first concerned in testimony then Anne Greene in supplication & then in testimony, then D Buffum in testimony then Hannah Dennis & then Abel Collins from So Kingston, then A Robinson concluded with a few pertinent words hoping that we might abide under to present favor. I do not recollect a meeting of more openness in the ministry in this town nor one wherein divine good seemed nearer. - The business in the last was conducted with unanimity & love & I believe all ended well with us. - Isaac Lawton & Darius Lawton Dined with us. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 28, Saturday: Russian forces attacked remnants of the Allied force still east of the Berezina River. Retreating to Studienka, the Allies gave battle but were captured.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th & 7th Days of Week / Have passed pretty much as usual & nothing particular to insert. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 November 29, Sunday: The Allies completed their crossing of the Berezina River and blew up their pontoon bridges, leaving behind 15,000 camp followers and refugees most of whom would be massacred by Cossacks. Russian forces attacked Plechenitzi on the Allied route of retreat but in a desperate action were fought off.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 29 of 11 M / Our meetings were very small owing to its being a very uncommon hevy rain all Day – I was however glad to observe John Castons zeal in getting out both forenoon, of whom recent convictions & change from a careless & very unconcern'd life to one very devoted & concern'd for his immortal part I may write when I feel more like it. Lewis Clarke & his nephew Sam'l took tea with & cousin Saml spent the eveng – he appears to be of strict Presbyterian he lives in Pomfret in Connecticut Sister Eliza has been with us all Day. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 November 30, Monday: Birth of the second child of John James Audubon and Lucy Bakewell Audubon, John Woodhouse Audubon.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 30 of 11 M 1812 / Cousin Lewis & Sam'l Clarke return'd home this forenoon –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 December 1, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould became a juror:

3rd day 1 of 12 M / Rec'd this Afternoon a letter from Micajah Collins which hath been indeed as a pleasant brook by the way. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 December 2, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 2nd of 12 M / The mind occupied on various subjects of importance This eveng finished & carried to the Post Office a letter to Micajah Collins

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 December 3, Thursday: At Molodesczo, the Emperor Napoléon I issued the 29th Bulletin informing his countrymen that there has been a disaster in Russia and he would need for them to get busy and raise for him a new army of 300,000. –Hey, French people, “when the going gets tough the tough get going”!

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 3rd of 12 M / Our meeting was well attended & a

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

comfortable season my mind was favor'd with a good degree fixedness tho' somewhat tried with roving – C Rodman was concern'd in a few warning sentences to such as rejected the truth, & A Robinson was larger in testimony to the same effect

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 5, Saturday: At Smorgon east of Vilna (Vilnius), Napoléon informed his generals that he was abandoning the army in retreat and making a separate dash of 12 days toward Paris, where because of the recent attempt at a coup d'état he obviously needed to be. He departed that evening.

In the Bolshaya Lipovitsa settlement in Russia, Aleksandr Mikhaylovich Grenkov was born in the family of sexton Mikhail Fyodorovich Grenkov and Marfa Nikolayevna Grenkova as the 6th of 8 children. He would become the venerable Ambrose of Optina Monastery, would be referred to in Dostoevski's THE BROTHERS KARAMAZOV as “an earthly angel and a heavenly man,” and would in 1988 be canonized (he can now be referred to as St. Ambrose of Optina).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day & 7th day 4 & 5 of 12 M / 6th day furnished nothing worthy of remark -7th day I attended the examination of a young

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

man taken up on suspicions of robing David Williams shop the night preceeding. he was an object of pity, but I was far from feeling him guiltless of the charge tho nothing could be proved against him.—

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 6, Sunday: According to the journal of Friend Thomas B. Hazard or Hafsard or Hasard of Kingstown, Rhode Island, also known as “Nailer Tom,”¹²¹ “The British Ship Macedonia, a prize to the U.S. Frigate United States got into Newport” on this day.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 6 of 12 M / To me pretty good meetings. C R spake a few words in the mornng & again in the Afternoon H Dennis also was concern'd in testimony H Dennis Dined with us & before meeting brother JR came in & set with us. we soon fell into silence & H addressed him in a remarkable manner – My H went to meeting in the Afternoon – Sister Ruth took care of the child the while, & set the eveng with – brothe Isaac also called

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 7, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 7 of 12 M / The town has been in much stir & what some call rejoicing at the arrival of a British Frigate called the Masadonian yesterday - which was captured by the United States Frigate

What man possessing real christianity will rejoice at such an occurrence especially under the corroding reflection that there are now on board many wounded some with legs & others with arms shot off with their sores still green & needing the attendance of a Surgeon, & last of all that in the action many were precipitated into an Awful Eternity. What heart possessed with human feelings will not recoil at deeds so horrible? & certainly will not the humble christian drop a tear at the depravity of poor fallen & degenerate man - parents deprived of their children, Children of their Parent &c or on their native to their hospitable board, witness the most lamentable & awful sight of their limbs shot off -OH! who can reflect on these things without exquisite pangs –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 9, Wednesday: The exhausted Allied army reached Vilna (Vilnius) and found it was not too exhausted to plunder.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

121. He was called “Nailer Tom” because his trade was the cutting of nails from scrap iron, and in order to distinguish him from a relative known as “College Tom,” from another relative known as “Shepherd Tom,” and from his own son who –because he had fits– was known as “Pistol-Head Tom.”

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

3rd & 4th days / On third day nothing to insert. On fourth day rec'd a letter from D Smith which seem'd refreshing –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 13, Sunday: The Emperor Napoléon I reached Dresden on his way back to Paris.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 13 of 12 M / Our Meeting this forenoon was well attended but to me a poor wandering season. After I came out I thought I felt so poor & destitute that I could hardly realize that I had been setting in a meeting. –
Hearing the decease of my Aged cousin Elizabeth Anthony mentioned at the close of the meeting I thought I would walk out to her late residence & passed a little time with the family, &
I was glad I did as the visit & walk afforded sensations which produced very precious feelings & I was not a little thankful to feel my mind quickened with the renewals of life – My dear H attended both meetings, & in the eveng went down to see my mothers who is very unwell*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 14, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 14 of 12 M / I feel thankful that my mind is again today in a solid frame & not so dead & hard as yesterday in the forenoon

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 15, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*3rd day 15 of 12 M / This day cousin Elizabeth Anthony was buried
– I should have been glad to have attended the funeral but I thought I could hardly spare the time. She was first cousin to my father & a relation he much exteemed. – Aunt Patty Gould told me a few evengs ago that since her remembrance there were of them 28 own cousins living & that she was acquainted with 27.
there are now only 7 remaining. –
This evening called to see Edw & Mary Lawton this is the first time I have called on them since their marriage of which I feel ashamed, as they have been intimate friends & relations.*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 16, Wednesday: A cantata for “La Goguette” by Luigi Cherubini was performed in Paris at a meeting of that singing society.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

December 17, Thursday: The 29th Bulletin of December 3d of the Emperor Napoléon was published at Paris.

The Piano Concerto no.2 J.155 by Carl Maria von Weber was performed for the initial time, in Gotha, with the composer himself at the keyboard. Weber would report that everything “went excellently.”

Upon orders from General William Henry Harrison, Lieutenant Colonel John B. Campbell took a detachment of 600 mounted troops on a sweep down the Mississinewa River valley, to destroy all the villages of native Americans there all the way from what is present-day (relocated) Somerset to what is now the city of Peru (“PEE-roo”) on the Wabash River. This of course was genocide, but it was all right because neither the word nor the concept had yet been invented — and of course it would be mere presentism to condemn the past on the basis of present-day enlightened attitudes. Anyway, on this day the armed white men arrived at a Miami village and destroyed it at the cost of two dead troopers and eight dead native Americans. Then the troopers proceeded downriver for a couple of miles, destroying a couple of other villages, before they returned to site of their initial triumph in order to bivouac for the night.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 17th of 12 M / Last night D Rodman & myself watched with John Cooke; he died this mornng at exactly 5 OClock
In consequence my last nights Watching I feel very miserable today with a pain in my side & drowsiness, & have not felt able to attend meeting. I understood however that it was a quiet season & C Rodman & H Dennis had short testimonys to deliver.*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

December 20, Sunday: Intending to undertake another concert tour, Carl Maria von Weber left Gotha.

At Fort Manuel in what is now South Dakota, Sacagawea died. William Clark, in St. Louis, assumed custody of Jean Baptiste and her infant daughter, Lisette. (Legends would arise later, that it was Charbonneau's other wife who had died, and that Sacagawea herself lived until the late 1800s and died on the Shoshone reservation in Wyoming — but these legends are without corroboration.)

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 20 of 12 M 1812 / On sixth & seventh days I was much unwell on Sixth day my side was so painful that I was obliged to leave my shop & Doctor pretty sharply thro' the Day - I am today much better but feel the effects of it - Attended Meetings - father Rodman had service in the morn'g - in the Afternoon silent & after Meeting brother D Rodman & I went to visit the work & Alms houses & in the eveng went a little while to D Williams -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

December 24, Thursday: Anhalt-Bernburg-Schaumburg-Hoym, having been separated from Anhalt-Bernburg in 1707, was rejoined to the Duchy.

Arthur Wellesley, Viscount Wellington arrived in Cádiz to accept command of the Spanish armies from the cortes.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 24 of 12 M / Second third & fourth days passed with the usual rounds -

Our Meeting today was rather small & silent & to me a dull season tho' I think there was not that hardness which I sometimes feel - In the last (Preparative) A certificate was requested for O Williams & family -

This Afternoon in company with the others of the committee visited Sarah Stevens again & it proved a season of favor tho' way does not open in her mind to make acknowledgement or request a longer continuance of the subject under the care of the Moy [Monthly] Meeting - When I first went my mind was under great leanness & Poverty for sometime but by keeping down & attending to the little & keeping close to the little life afforded, I found it to increase & I became sweetly tendered & had much more to offer than had any expectation of, & I believe the opportunity will not soon be forgotten - as we left her much tenderer in spirit

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 25, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 25 of 12 M / Mine heart hath been sweetly tendered at seasons this the Day for which I desire to be thankful, at such seasons I am rejoiced even if my feelings are but very low, Yet if I am but favor'd with feeling I consider it a blessing & an evidence that Good has not left me. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 27, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1 day 27 of 12 M / My Meetings today were attended with but little life in the Afternoon C Rodman had a few words to communicate which I believe were in the life. After meeting in the Afternoon I went with Brother D Rodman to Jon a Dennis & spent the eveng very agreeably

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

December 30, Wednesday: Russian troops surrounded Prussian forces who were among the allies evacuating Riga. The Prussians, in the “Convention of Tauroggen,” declared themselves neutral. Even though the act was unknown to King Friedrich Wilhelm III of Prussia, it signaled a change of heart among Germans.

Ludwig van Beethoven petitioned the estate of Prince Kinsky that he be paid his stipend at the revalued rate to which the Prince had agreed (before being thrown by his horse and dying).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 30 of 12 M / With this Day I finish my 31 Year of my life. I feel most sensibly feel that time with me is passing away very swiftly & that I Shall soon come to a conclusion & Oh that I may be prepared

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 31, Thursday: In München, Meyer Beer (Giacomo Meyerbeer) played the piano at a concert to benefit wounded Bavarian soldiers. His performance so overwhelmed everyone that when he entered the room at the dinner that followed, the guests burst into applause.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 31st of 12 M 1812 / Sister ELiza & Mary Briggs being willing to keep house for us & take care of our little son I went with my H to Portsmouth to attend Our Moy [Monthly] Meeting which was to me a good time Hannah Dennis was concerned in a lively & well Authorized testimony Also Sarah Fish – In the last Meeting buisness was conducted in good harmony, tho’ some things of an exercising nature was before us – Sarah Stevens was disowned – & it was agreed to cut the Wood from the lot on which Portsmouth Meeting House stands which is supposed will sell for money sufficient to pay the present Debt of the Meeting We dined at Peter Lawtons & rode home before Dark & learn’d our little boy had done well without his Mother. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

“NARRATIVE HISTORY” IS FABULATION, HISTORY IS CHRONOLOGY

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1813

January 1, Friday: Russian troops crossed the Nieman in pursuit of the French.

Carl Maria von Weber's cantata In seiner Ordnung schafft der Herr for solo voices, chorus and orchestra to words of Rochlitz was performed for the initial time, in Leipzig.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 1st of 1st M 1813 / This Mornng rec'd a letter from Betsy Purinton & another from L L Clarke - My H spent the Day with our little boy at Aunt A Carpenters & this eveng I met with the Directors of the A Benevolent Society at C J Tennys —¹²²

RHODE ISLAND

The New Year never comes in but that I notice another Year of my life has rolled away & reflect that they will all rapidly fly away even should they be extended to the age of Man allotted by scripture, but the time no Man knows, therefore how great indeed is the necessity of a preparation for the solemn change. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 2, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 2nd of 1st M / My dear Mother has been unwell for some weeks - I went in to see her at Noon & found her spirits much sinken & quite alarm'd about her situation I persuaded her to have the advice of a Physician but Doctr Easton being confined

122. Stephen Wanton Gould Diary, 1812-1815: The Gould family papers are stored under control number 2033 at the Division of Rare and Manuscript Collections of Cornell University Library, Box 7 Folder 11 for July 1, 1812-August 20, 1815; also on microfilm, see Series 7

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

& she not being inclined to have any but him - I went to his house & stated her case to him as well as I could & received his advice & communicated it to her as well as I could & hope she will follow it - but if she does not get better soon I fear the case will work hard. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 3, Sunday: Allied troops retreating from Riga reached the comparative safety of Königsberg (Kaliningrad).

Meyer Beer (Giacomo Meyerbeer) departed München for Stuttgart to produce Wirth und Gast.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 3 of 1 M / From the medicine which Mother has taken she is more relieved this eveng - In the forenoon Meeting H Dennis D Buffum & father Rodman bore testimony to the necessity of doing our Days work in the Day time - In the Afternoon father R had a few words to communicate - My mind was much tried with insensibility but the Keeping close to the little; believe I was favor'd to experience a little quickening. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 4, Monday: The emperor Napoléon I ordered King José of Spain (his brother) to evacuate Madrid and move north to Valladolid.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 4 of 1sr M / This has been a day of such great depression of spirits that I have been allmost good for nothing. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 7, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 7th of 1sr M 1813 / This mornng my mind was refreshed with the arisings of life & I was in hopes a better meeting than I had tho I believe it was not the worst of times. - C R had a few words to communicate. - This eveng call'd to see Benj Reynolds who is very low I believe in a consumption tho' he may get about again, he sent for me from a regard he appears to have for me & I wish I had have found his mind more abstracted from the world. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 10, Sunday: William Jones died at Norridgewock in Maine at the age of 40. His remains would eventually be relocated to Concord.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

WILLIAM JONES of [Concord], only son of Samuel Jones, was born September 15, 1772, and graduated at [Harvard College] in 1793. He read law with Jonathan Fay, Esq., and commenced practice in this town, but removed to Norridgewock, Maine, about 1801. He was appointed, June 29, 1809, clerk of the Court of Common Pleas for the county of Somerset, and on the 23d of April, 1812, clerk of all the courts in that county, and June 22, 1809, judge of Probate. While resident in Concord he delivered an oration on the 4th of July, 1795, which was published. May 12th of that year he was appointed Captain of a company of cavalry, and April 17, 1799, Major in the 15th regiment of the United States' army stationed at Oxford. On the 27th of March, 1806, after his removal to Maine, he received a commission of Lieutenant-Colonel, and February 21, 1810, of Brigadier-General, in the militia of that state. He died at Norridgewock on January 10, 1813, aged 40. His remains were removed, and interred in Concord.¹²³

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 10th of 1st M / Our Mornng Meeting was silent - In the Afternoon I started at home to take care of our little boy while my H went to Meeting & consider'd it my duty so to do - This eveng visited Benj Reynolds again & thought him better -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 12, Tuesday: Carl Maria von Weber arrived in Prague from Leipzig to find that he was being offered the post of Director of the Opera. He would eventually sign a 3-year contract with unlimited powers.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd 12 of 1 M / Oh! that I had money, how would my heart bound within me at relieving distress - My mind was much affected a few minutes ago by a young Woman who came into the shop & offered me a Watch for sale with this information that she had two children the youngest nine Months & very sick with a sore mouth, she had no wood nor money & her husband a Lieutenant in the Army & absent for many Months & uncertain when she shall hear from him. but Alass times are so streightened that it was our of my power to do any thing for her. - My heart is much larger than my purse it was willing, nay further than that it was pained at not being able take her Watch & give her the Money. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 14, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

123. Lemuel Shattuck's 1835 A HISTORY OF THE TOWN OF CONCORD;... Boston: Russell, Odiorne, and Company; Concord MA: John Stacy
(On or about November 11, 1837 Henry Thoreau would indicate a familiarity with the contents of at least pages 2-3 and 6-9 of this historical study. On July 16, 1859 he would correct a date mistake buried in the body of the text.)

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

5th day 14th of 1st M / Our Meeting was pretty well attended Silence prevailed among us - to me it was a more than common quiet & favor'd season some jostlings of the enemy but his power was not great. - This eveng the Overseers of the poor met at our house (Male & female) to consult several cases which require our attention

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 17, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 17 of 1st M / Our Mornng Meeting was pretty well attended
C R had a few words to communicate. - In the Afternoon Amos Peasly & his companion were at Meeting & a very favor'd season it was, Benj Fry the companion first spoke & rose a second time.
H Dennis & Father Rodman said a few Words, then Amos in a long & excellent testimony, his companion rose again, then Amos addressed the those that were under affliction & concluded the Meeting in Solemn supplication. Making in all eight different public appearances in the Meeting. Divine good seemed near & I believe many Minds were Made to rejoice to find the fountain so sweetly opened. the Meeting was not as large as could be wished
- My dear H was at Meeting -our kind neighbour Mary Briggs took care of our little son while she went -
This eveng we rote to Uncle & Aunt Stanton -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

January 21, Thursday: John Charles Frémont was born in Savannah. Georgia.

In the diary of Francisco de Paula y Marin, counselor to King Kamehameha II, we find an entry mentioning the planting of pineapples (from the Caribbean) and oranges (from the Old World) in the island chain to which we now refer as the Hawaiian Islands.

Friend Paul Cuffe was named to the committee tasked to rebuild the local Friends' meetinghouse.

Completing a trip of 55 days, Lowell Mason arrived in Savannah, Georgia from his home in Medfield, Massachusetts.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 21st of 1st M 1813 / It is just one Year this day since My dear Father departed this life - - The day I well remember & the sensations felt at the time has been renewed at this time.
I feel his loss & expect I shall for years to come & perhaps to the end of my life. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 23, Saturday: Drury Lane reopened, with a successful performance of Samuel Taylor Coleridge's REMORSE (previously called "Osorio").

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 23rd of 1st M 1813 / This Afternoon Rode to Portsmouth on Thos Potters horse & clean'd his Clock which I finished in the evening & went from thence to Abraham Anthonys & staid all night -1st day [Sunday] Mornng Rose & found a severe snow storm however after eating breakfast with Abraham & his very agreeable

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

family, I encountered the storm & went across to Cousin Zacheus Chases found the dear old Man recovering from a severe attack upon the lungs which I think has destroyed his future activity he seemed very tender & sweet in his Mind - The day proving very stormy I could neither go to Meeting nor come home in the Afternoon I consequently lodged there & 2nd day [Monday] Mornng rose early & got as far as Cardir Hazards farm in Middletown when the gun fired for day break & to Saml Thurstons when the Bell rung for sun rise, & home in good season to open shop - found My H & little son had been well in my absence but had a bad pain in her side this Morning

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 28, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 28th of 12th M 1813 / Our meeting today was as well attended as our Moy [Monthly] Meetings usually are at this season of the year. There were many there whose faces I was glad to see, both among the Aged & Youth, & particularly our frd Richard Mitchell who Yesterday had a very narrow escape of his life, when on the Parade in a sleigh his horse took fright at a passing Drum & ran away, brought up against the Brick Market full but with his head & in his falling fell on Richd who was much hurt but was immediately bled & was comfortable today - the horse died in a few hours after, & Jacob Richardson & Benj Pearce narrowly escaped being crushed to Death by the horse & sleigh. - Our Meeting was a good one to me. -C R & H D had short testimonies in the first & in the last our buisness went on as well as could be expected. Osborn Mory was rec'd into Membership. - Philip Anthony Dined with us & I have very much to regret that My Dear H could not attend Meeting being unable to get any body that the child was acquainted with to stay with him in her absence.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 29, Friday: PRIDE AND PREJUDICE by Jane Austen was published anonymously (the 1st version had been finished in 1797).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 29 of 1st M / Sister mary Rodman fell this forenoon on the Ice & hurt her back exceedingly. - 7th day she is Better this Morning. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 31, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 31 of 1st M / In the Mornng Meeting C R had a few words to communicate which were comfortable. - In the Afternoon we were Silent. - Brother D R & I went oour to Saml Thurstons &

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

took tea & set part of the eveng very agreeably –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 4: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

5th day 4th of 2nd M / Our Meeting was small but I thought favor'd to me however it was a season of life tho' towards the last of it was somewhat tried with roving. C R had a few words to communicate which felt savory. Many friends were absent at Providence to attend the Quarterly Meeting whom I have often thought of & should have been glad to have been with, but such are my circumstances & situation that I cannot do as my inclination leads

6th day 5th of 2nd M 1813 / My Mind has this Mornng been brought into sweet feeling for which I desire to be thankful
Br D Rodman has returned from Quarterly Meeting & called to see us this eveng & gave a very interesting acct of it, he said our beloved friend Micajah Collins was there & had good service also dear old John Casey. & several others – That Rowland Greene returned his certificate & gave a short but full & very affecting account of his journey into Ohio & parts thereaay. David said it was a favor'd season, & I have no doubt it was & that it will be blessed to many – he said many of our friends made affectionate inquirey me & my dear H which was very acceptable & cordial to our feelings.

7th day 6 of 2 M / I heard this Mornng that our late friend & faithful labour Elizabeth Mott departed this life at her late residence in Portsmouth Aged 84 Years & some months her Ministry I well remember when I was a child & the solidity of her deportment. She was a near relation to my father & was frequently to see him & Aunt Patty Gould which gave me frequent Opportunities of being in her company
I may acknowledge this eveng that it has been a precious Day to me my mind has enjoyed a Sweet tenderness, for which I desire to be thankful

February 7, Sunday: Russian forces occupied Warsaw.

A column of whites set out to destroy Alachua Seminole towns.

FLORIDA

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

"...the merciless Indian Savages, whose known rule of warfare, is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes and conditions."

— Declaration of Independence

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 7 of 2 M / Rode this mornng to Portsmouth to attend the funeral of my Aged cousin & friend Elizabeth Mott. I went with Walter Cornell & got to the house in good season & proceeded to the Meeting house with the funeral where gathered a large concourse of people for the season of the Year & a meeting of great favor it was. Hannah Dennis first spoke then Abigail Robinson, then David Buffum, & then H Dennis again - all their testimonies were solemn & weighty & I have no doubt but that many were impressed with the solemnity of the occasion & the truths of the doctined declared. - My Aged cousin Zacheus Chase has gotten so smart & comfortable that he was our to meeting today the first time in three Ms.
I dined at Benj Motts which is the first time I was ever at his house.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 9, Tuesday: King Friedrich Wilhelm of Prussia ended all deferments from military service.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day of 2nd M / I have this Afternoon Visited the sick -Vizt My cousin Wm Borden & Joseph Tillinghast - Cousin Wllm has been long time confined but is getting Better slowly poor Joseph is just taken down with the Pirisnumony [?] & is in great distress - My heart deeply affected at the sight & I hope to improve by it

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 10, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 10 of 2 M / Notwithstanding my many trials I have to acknowledge & be thankful for a tender heart. I have been this day much tendered in spirit & I trust enjoyed a measure of the

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

divine presence. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 11, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 11th of 2nd M / Our Meeting was rather small, but I thought in good measure favor'd C R had a few words to say -- Satan is continually buffeting me a circumstance took place this orng which I afterward regretted, wherein I manifested more temper than was becoming or warrantable. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 14, Sunday: John Leighton Tuttle resigned and was replaced as postmaster of Concord by John Keyes.

Alyeksandr Sergeyevich Dargomizhsky was born in Troitskoye, Tula District, south of Moscow, son of a wealthy landowner who was the illegitimate son of a nobleman, and Princess Kozlovskaya, a poet.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 14th of 2nd M 1813 / I watch'd last night with Joseph Tillinghast who is very low & at times much lost in his Mind but at intervals quite rational & conversed on subject of a serious nature very properly He spake to me of the beauty of Brethren dwelling together in love & observed it was very precious – he said he had been much exercised for some Months past & had labor'd to have his mind settled on good things, & that from time to time in his life he had been much edified in reading friends writing & considered them very benefical to young people – he several times appear'd in prayer & thanksgiving for the Many favors vouchsafed. – & I was glad I passed the night with him –
I was so unwell in consequence of Watching that I did not attend Meetings today – & my dear H went all day –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 15, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 15th of 2nd M / Called this eveng to see Jos Tillinghast found him very low & much distressed – but frequently calling on his Maker in a solemn manner & affecting to those Present. – he often desired to be released from his great distress of body but prayed for patience to the end. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 16, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 16 of 2nd M / My H & little son spent the Afternoon at

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

My Mothers. – In the eveng visited Jos Tillinghast again & found him no better –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 18, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 18 of 2nd M / Our Meeting was pretty well attended but I believe a low time to most present as respected life. Jos Chalinor was present had a short but acceptable testimony C R also said a few Words. – In the preparative meeting David Rodman & I were proposed as overseers of the Poor for this ensuing Year & Anthony Shove was reported by Overseers as having married out of the order of society.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 21, Sunday: La rosa bianca e la rosa rossa, a melodramma eroico by Simon Mayr to words of Romani after de Pixérécourt, was performed for the initial time, in Teatro San Agostino, Genoa.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 21 of 2 M / Our Meetings were pretty well attended In the forenoon LYdia Almy & father Rodman had a few words to communicate – In the Afternoon father was again engaged to communicate a little – Meetings were poor a lean seasons to me – J Dennis & Wife dined with us. – After Meeting in the Afternoon Br D R & I visited the Work & Alms House. – My H went to meeting in the Afternoon while Sister Ruth took care of the little Boy —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

HDTWHAT?INDEXFRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 February 25, Thursday: A 2nd Issue of US Treasury Notes was authorized by our national congress:

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 25 of 2nd M / The Day being fair & pleasant & Sister Eliza & Mary Briggs being willing to take care of our little boy -I went with My H to Portsmouth to attend the Moy [Monthly] Meeting which was a low time in some respects was a season of some instruction to my mind - We had much buisness but it went on to pretty good satisfaction considering some of it was a very affecting nature. -In the first meeting Father R had a few words to communicate
We dined at R Mitchells & then rode home & found our son well.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 February 28, Sunday: By the Treaty of Kalisch, Russia and Prussia allied themselves against France and the Rhenish Confederation.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 28th of 2M 1813 / Last night I was on the volunteer town Watch & was not in condition to attend Meeting in the forenoon. In the Afternoon I went which was silent & a dull sleepy time

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

to me

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 2, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*3rd day 2nd of 3rd M / My spirits are allmost below nothing today
- from a complication of difficulties which I have been brooding over I feel as if I was of no Service in this world. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 4, Thursday: President James Madison's 2d Inaugural Address.

French forces evacuated Berlin.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 4 of 3rd M / Our meeting was a remarkable opportunity soon after I sat down my mind became sweetly cloathed with that which was precious in which I sat most of the Meeting & desire to be thankful. - about the Middle of the Meeting John Easton who has for sometime attended our Meetings under much exercise of Mind stood up & deliver'd something by way of a Prayer & preaching together which seem'd very inthusiastic & to appearance his mind was a little deranged. however I have no doubt he had many sympathisers in the Meeting. -D Buffum was engaged in the most lively & appropriate testimony I ever heard which was in substance as follows

*"Thy will Oh! Lord be done" was perhaps the highest Anthem every sung by men or Angels. - We may suppose that we have made considerable progress in the work of Religion & think ourselves resigned to the divine Will, yet when there are sacrifices required or we called upon to give up to some things which are very near to us there is a holding back - I have remembered these expressions "Say unto my people go forward which might be no very hard thing as the land of Canaan was in view before them, but I have also remember'd a very different case a trying situation in which they were placed, when the enemy was behind & the red sea before them, there were brought to a stand & the command was "Stand still Stand Still & see the Salvation of God.
- having dropped these few hints as they impressed my mind, I feel willing to leave them, desiring as I believe it attainable that we may labor for that state wherein we may experimentally say thy will be done O Lord in all things"*

This is but a very impefect sketch of what was said but it being so remarkably sweet & lively I withall toucing poor exercised Johns case, that I thought best to insert it according to my recollection: - C R then spake a few words to the moimt & Meeting concluded. --

After Dinner I visited Dorcas Easton who is very in of the

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Perisnumony. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 March 5, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 5 of 3 M 1813 / Last eveng rec'd a very acceptable Letter from J D Ladd Dated Montpelier Virginia 2M 20 1813

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 March 7, Sunday: The Russian army began crossing the Elbe River and moving slowly toward the west.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 7 of 3 M / In our forenoon Meeting father C R had a few words & then Hannah Dennis was pretty large in the Ministry –In the Afternoon C R was again concerned in few Words –
In the eveng I called a little while to see Dorcas Easton & my H went to see Sister Joanna & Sister Sarah –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 March 10, Wednesday: In Linz while on his way from Bavaria to Vienna, Meyer Beer (Giacomo Meyerbeer) unexpectedly encountered Georg Joseph Vogler, and his old teacher informed him that he had been appointed as Court and Chamber Music composer by Grand Duke Ludwig of Hesse-Darmstadt.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 10 of 3 M / Last night I Watched with Joseph Tillinghast he is very weak & low & it is wonderful that he lives as long as he has

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 March 11, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 11 of 3 M / Our Meeting was a better time to me than some - - We had a few words from C R – John Weaver Dined with us -After Dinner in company with him & J Mitchell Visited, Anthony J Shove on acct of his having Married out of the order of Society. Our visit was hopeful & satisfactory & I was enabled to say more than I expected considering my poverty & leaness when I went.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 March 14, Sunday: The US Congress obtained a $11,000,000 war loan.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1st day 14th of 3 M / This forenoon Meeting D Buffum was concern'd in a very briefly & powerful testimony. – In the Afternoon C R was also concerned. – Joseph Tillinghast Died this Mornng about 10 Minutes before 7 OClock. –

3rd day 16 of 3 M / Attended the funeral of Doctor Easton he was carried to his farm near the Beach & inter'd in the family burying ground the last internment in that ground was the Doctors sister which funeral I attended with my Dear Father he was constantly in my mind while I was there today which added not a little to the solemnity of my feelings. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 17, Wednesday: King José I of Spain (Joseph Bonaparte) departed from Madrid for the final time.

Samuel Wesley's Organ Concerto in B^b was performed for the initial time, in London, with the composer himself at the keyboard.

With the death of Winthrop Faulkner at the age of 39 in South Acton, the fulling mill at "Mill Corner" in South Acton was leased out until, in 1826, his son Winthrop Emerson Faulkner would come of age and be able to assume control.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 17 of 3 M / Attended the funeral of Joseph Tillinghast which was attended with a good degree of solemnity & as large as could be expected considering the weather. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 18, Thursday: Russian troops occupied Hamburg — the independence of that city was restored.

David Melville of Newport, Rhode Island patented an apparatus for making coal-gas.

FIRE

LIGHTING THE NIGHT

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 18 of 3 M / Our Meeting Was small RR said a few Words in the last - three certificates were asked for Vizt Joseph Sisson his son Joseph & Solomon B Bess is to proceed in marriage engagements

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 21, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 21 of 3 M 1813 / In the forenoon Meeting Hannah Dennis appear'd in Supplication & Abigail Robinson & C Rodman in testimony
In the Afternoon Silent Meeting, after which visited the Work &
Alms houses & in the eveng made several call with my H*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 25, Thursday: At Kalisch, the Russian General Kutuzov, in the names of Tsar Alyeksandr and King Friedrich Wilhelm, called on all Germans to rise against the French.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 25 of 3rd M / In our first meeting father Rodman & Sarah

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Fish were concerned in testimony. – In the last (Monthly) we had much buisness some of which was an afflicting nature, Vizt two were disowned for incontinency & some other things, did not get along as could be wished, nothing, however but Uninimity prevailed among us which so far was comfortable – James Tucker of Dartmouth & Sarah Fish published their intentions of Marriage with each other. -- My dear Cousin Zacheus Chase was at Meeting of which I was very glad. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 27, Saturday: Nathaniel Currier, lithographer of Currier & Ives, was born.

Carl Maria von Weber arrived in Vienna to search for musicians and music for the Prague opera.

The Prussian ambassador in Paris delivered the declaration of war on France.

A combined Russian-Prussian force occupied Dresden after it was evacuated by the French and the King of Saxony.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 27 of 3rd M / This Afternoon I crossed the ferrys to Narragansett & reached cousin Peleg Gardiners in season to take tea with them, after which took cousin Lewis's horse & rode to cousin John Hazards where my buisness Lay - In riding up there mine ear was very pleasantly saluted with the singing of the Birds which occasioned a pleasing sensation of mind, before I reached his house I Saw two great fires one to the Westward & the other east on Boston Neck the one to the west was the largest I ever saw & had a very terrific appearance. It was on my cousin Hazards land, bushes &c which he was burning –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 28, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day morning after sleeping well, I arose found it a sever rains storm which continued all Day & eveng with great violence so that none of us could go to meeting the day however was spent very pleasantly & I trust instructively as both cousin John & his Wife & Nathan were very interesting in conversation & I did what I could to render myself agreeable. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 29, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day Morng - Arose early, took breakfast with cousin Hazard then rode to the ferry found no boat there & went up to cousin

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Gardiners sat a little while with them & returned again to the ferry accompanying 'd by cousin Lewis crossed both ferrys comfortably & reached home by 12 OClock finding My dear Wife & little son in good health, & my buisness & concerns as I left them. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 1, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 1 of 4 M 1813 / Our Meeting was well attended C R had a few words to deliver - It was the dulllest of season with me, tho' life in no great dominion.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 4, Sunday: The British placed a 90-day embargo on all vessels in US harbors.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 4 of 4 M 1813 / Meeting this Morng was well attended & C R spake a few words. A season of leanness to me - In the Afternoon I staid at home to take care of the little boy while my H went to Meeting Towards night took a pleasant walk down town with Br D R & went into the old house which belonged to my father & tho' it is greatly in ruins I could retrace the places which I so much loved to be in when I was a boy & lived with my Dear Aunt Paty Gould. The rooms below & chambers above all look very natural & recall to my mind many juvinile scenes, when innocency sat an my brow, & if at any time a wrong thing was done conscience awakening concience, would step in to my little mind & not leave it untill all was attoned for. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 8, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 8 of 4 M / Our Meeting was well attended & C R had a few words to communicate - It seem'd like a season of favour of which my mind partook in a comfortable degree. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

April 9, Friday: Moll Pitcher, a resident of Lynn, Massachusetts, died. Her name would enter local language as the generic reference to necromancy in the 19th Century, as shown in this extract about a masquerade party at Brook Farm from THE BLITHEDALE ROMANCE (emphasis added):¹²⁴

Among them was an Indian chief, with blanket, feathers and war-paint, and uplifted tomahawk; and near him, looking fit to be his woodland-bride, the goddess Diana, with the crescent on her head, and attended by our big, lazy dog, in lack of any fleeter hound. Drawing an arrow from her quiver, she let it fly, at a venture, and hit the very tree behind which I happened to be lurking. Another group consisted of a Bavarian broom-girl, a negro of the Jim Crow order, one or two foresters of the middle-ages, a Kentucky woodsman in his trimmed hunting-shirt and deerskin leggings, and a Shaker elder, quaint, demure, broad-brimmed, and square-skirted. Shepherds of Arcadia, and allegoric figures from the Faerie Queen, were oddly mixed up with these. Arm in arm, or [page 815] otherwise huddled together, in strange discrepancy, stood grim Puritans, gay Cavaliers, and Revolutionary officers, with three-cornered cocked-hats, and queues longer than their swords. A bright-complexioned, dark-haired, vivacious little gipsy, with a red shawl over her head, went from one group to another, telling fortunes by palmistry; and Moll Pitcher, the renowned old witch of Lynn, broomstick in hand, showed herself prominently in the midst, as if announcing all these apparitions to be the offspring of her necromantic art. But Silas Foster, who leaned against a tree near by, in his customary blue frock, and smoking a short pipe, did more to disenchant the scene, with his look of shrewd, acrid, Yankee observation, than twenty witches and necromancers could have done, in the way of rendering it weird and fantastic.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 9 of 4 M / Went on buisness to Connanicut with Saml Thurston & after we have completed it, we called and made a comfortable little visit to cousin Joseph Greene & found them all pretty WELL -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

124. Note that in 1825 William Blake had illustrated the allegoric figures from Edmund Spenser's THE FAERIE QUEEN.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

April 12, Sunday: Caspar Carl Beethoven, seriously ill with tuberculosis, signed a document appointing his brother Ludwig van Beethoven guardian over his son Karl in the event of his death.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 12th of 4th M 1813 / Our Meeting the forenoon was well attended C R had a short communication & D B a lengthy one & very lively. In the Afternoon it was again well attended & silent -This eveng I visited Thos Robinson & went into the chamber to see his Wife who is sick & sat a little while with her very agreeably. Abigail read an interesting letter from her Sister Morton to me from David Sands -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 15, Thursday: In West Florida, which was Spanish territory, on authority given by the US Congress, General Wilkinson with 600 soldiers seized Mobile Bay. The small Spanish garrison elected not to put up a fight. After this the US would advance, toward the east into disputed territory to the Perdido River, as projected in 1810.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 15 of 4 M / Our Meeting was well attended and comfortable Hannah Dennis & father Rodman appear'd in testimony quite lively & savory. - In the Afternoon attended the funeral of cousin Wm Borden he was the only male first cousin living in Newport which my Mother had he was 66 Years of Age & buried in friends burying ground

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 16, Friday: The 1st mass-production factory started up in the manufacture of that greatly needed object, the pistol. (Every year we find a new way to kill you — and yet some folks will claim there to be no such thing as progress!)

The Emperor Napoléon I departed from Paris on his way to rejoin his army, or what was left of it, at Erfurt.

A letter from little Ralph Waldo Emerson, when he was about ten years old, to his aunt Mary Moody Emerson, provided an account of one of his days:—

Boston, April 16, 1813.

Dear Aunt,—I am much obliged to you for your kind letter. I mean now to give you an account of what I do commonly in one day, if that is what you meant by giving an account of one single day

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

in my life. Friday, 9th, I choose for the day of telling what I did. In the Morning I rose, as I commonly do, about 5 minutes before 6. I then help Wm. in making the fire, after which I set the table for Prayers. I then call mamma about quarter after 6. We spell as we did before you went away. I confess I often feel an angry passion start in one corner of my heart when one of my Brothers gets above me, which I think sometimes they do by unfair means, after which we eat our breakfast; then I have from about quarter after 7 till 8 to play or read. I think I am rather inclined to the former. I then go to school, where I hope I can say I study more than I did a little while ago. I am in another book called Virgil, and our class are even with another which came to the Latin School one year before us. After attending this school I go to Mr. Webb's private school, where I write and cipher. I go to this place at eleven and stay till one o'clock. After this, when I come home I eat my dinner, and at two o'clock I resume my studies at the Latin School, where I do the same except in studying grammar. After I come home I do mamma her little errands, if she has any; then I bring in my wood to supply the breakfast room. I then have some time to play and eat my supper. After that we say our hymns or chapters, and then take our turns in reading Rollin, as we did before you went. We retire to bed at different times. I go at a little after eight, and retire to my private devotions, and then close my eyes in sleep, and there ends the toils of the day.... I have sent a letter to you in a Packet bound for Portland, which I suppose you have not received, as you made no mention of it in your letter to mamma. Give my love to Aunt Haskin and Aunt Ripley, with Robert and Charles and all my cousins, and I hope you will send me an answer to this the first opportunity, and believe me, I remain your most dutiful Nephew,

R. Waldo Emerson.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 16 of 4 M / The times on which we have fallen are indeed distressing and alarming. I see & feel it every Day - but what has excited my feeling particularly at this time is this Afternoon a sharp & successive firing was heard from Fort Wolcot & the first time 3 Guns fired in succession which is a signal of Alarm at the approach of the English which affrighted many people & for the first time since the war startled me a little, it all however proved to be nothing more than that they were exercising their men & Guns - I think however such firing is injudicious & a few Afternoons ago when a British ship chased a vessel within the Reef she fired sharply & affrighted a poor Young Woman the Wife of — Marvel who was near her lying in so the she went into fits & labor pains & died in a few hours. Oh the hevy Guilt that will lay on the heads of those who are the Authrs of this most wicked War. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

April 18, Easter Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 18th of 4th M 1813 / I staid from Meeting this mornng for my H to go & took care of the little boy the while. In the Afternoon I attended Father Rodman appear'd in Supplication & a short testimony. After meeting D Rodman & I went out to Saml Thurstons took tea & spent the evening very agreeably & may I not add proffitably for the precious Life was near both at Meeting this Afternoon & in setting with my friends this evening
—

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 22, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 22 of 4th M / Our Meeting was well attended C R & H D appear'd in testimony — All the queries were Answered in the Preparative Meeting & no other buisness appeared

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 25, Sunday: When the Emperor Napoléon I rejoined his army, or what was left of it, at Erfurt, can you imagine how glad these guys were to see him again?

The Bavarian government announced its neutrality.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 25 of 4 M / Yesterday & today I have been quite unwell with a pain seated in my shoulders thro' to my stomach which has prevented my going to meeting today.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 28, Wednesday: Prince Mikhail Illarionovich Kutuzov, commander of the Russian armies in Europe, died of natural causes in Bünzlau (Boleslawiec, Poland).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*4th day 28 of 4 M / About 9 OClock this morning the town was in general Alarm in consequence of an English Frigates approaching the harbours Mouth & finaly has run in between Conanicut & Boston Neck The Military company are now in Motion some going one way & some another. & what will be the Issue I know not perhaps before night we shall see & know more about it. — I can not say but that I have felt some purturbation of mind but have indeavor'd to labor for quiet & have been favor'd in good measure with it. —
It now appears that the Frigate above mentioned chased the ship in not far from the South ferry, which appears was the Ship*

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Whampoa of N York from France who -- she found it impossible to avoid a broadside from the Frigate ran on shore, the Frigate came to Anchor & sent Arm'd boats, which took & set fire to the Whampoa but by exertions of the People on shore was extinguished & much of the cargo will be saved. - great Alarm was excited in many Minds in consequence of this circumstance but no lives lost that we yet learn. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 29, Thursday: Jacob Frederick Hummel of Philadelphia received a patent for a "varnish of elastic gum to render water-proof" shoes and other things (this was the initial US patent for a rubber product).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 29 of 4 M / Went to Portsmouth with my H to attend the Moy [Monthly] Meeting. - C R spake in the first - In the last we had much buisness among which were two requests for Membership which was comfortable but we had some other circumstances which render'd it a deeply exercising, yea, even Afflicting time to me - We dined at Cousin Z Chases & when we came [home] we found our dear little boy had not been well this afternoon

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 30, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*6th day 30 of 4 M 1813 / Our dear little Son slept quietly until 12 OClock last night, then awoke with violent puking & a relax which followed him closely till 3 OClock in the morning when it subsided & I went to bed but his Mother sat up with him the remainder of the Night. he seems relieved & revived this Morning but whether he is essentially better I am unable to determine in my own Mind. -
Our little boy has been much better thro' the day & the Doctor thinks him doing well. - for which I desire to be thankful*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 2, Sunday: At Lützen southwest of Leipzig, Russian and Prussian troops attacked the French. The battle, a limited gain for the Emperor Napoléon I, cost 30,000-40,000 men their lives. Arthur Schopenhauer fled a Berlin that had come under threat (he would find refuge for a short time in Weimar and then, after quarreling with mommy, withdraw to nearby Rudolstadt).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 2nd of 5 M 1813 / Our Meetings were pretty well attended & both silent ??? meeting in the Afternoon David Rodman & I took

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

a little walk in the common burying ground before tea. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 5, Wednesday: Søren Aabye Kierkegaard was born in Copenhagen, Denmark.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 5th of 5 M 1813 / How has blindness & superstition been foster'd in the minds of the Weak & credulous of almost all Ages of the World I have listened with attention to several Anecdotes related by my Mother at breakfast table this Morning. she said that just before the Lexington fight in the revolutionary War Aun Molly Wanton went to Hanover in Mass State to visit Aunt Joselin & while there the country was in an Alarm with a remarkable Phanomenon lately appear'd in — garden who lived in the neighborhood the Phenomen was Red Cabage a thing never seen nor heard of before in that Part of the country. The Opinions of many old men & women were taken on the subject who all agreed that it was ominous & presaged Blood in great effusion. one morning in came a neighbour with the Awful story of "Have you heard what has been seen in neighbor — garden?" the answer was No. The story was told, & Aunt Molly heard it with attention & reply'd why my father has the seed of red Cabage & plants them every year they are much used at R I as Pickle. This greatly abated the horror attendant on Many minds, but she said they seemed Almost sure it could not be admitted as a very extraordinary affair. —

She also related a story which her Grandmother used to tell soon after the first settlement of this Country before the lands were much cleared Mushrooms were not seen as at this Day at which time a large cap with a remarkable Prominence were fashionable among the Women about that time Mushrooms first appeared which so affrighted them that those caps soon went out of fashion, from the notion that Mushrooms looked like them & were sent as a warning of some hevy judgement soon to await the inhabitants of this country. This has Also been the day of the General Election & much stir as usual & great flocks of Children Passing the Streets — My mind has been on a low key from a sense of the depressed state of things in the World & what they may reduce me & every body else besides me in this town in Particular. Surely things never was more gloomy. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 8, Saturday: French troops entered Dresden.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 8th of 5th M 1813 / Our friends on third day last went to Greenwich to attend the Quarterly Meeting & yesterday & today

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

being very stormy, Wind very high & the rain decending in meere torrents They have not yet got down & I hardly think they will until tomorrow. It would have been very pleasant to me to have gone up & attended the Meeting but this detention of two days longer than common would have been irksome. When Friends went up I wrote a few lines to our frd Rowland Greene.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 9, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 9th of 5thM / I staid at home this forenoon to take care of our little boy while my H went to Meeting & soon after she had taken her seat she says our friends came in who had just got down from Greenwich – C Rodman, H Dennis, A Sherman and L Almy all offered testimonys. – In the Afternoon Sister Ruth took care of John & my H & I went to Meeting together – C Rodman appear'd in supplication & D Buffum in a favor'd testimony & a very good Meeting it was to me After which I went to the Alms House where I saw several men very sick who had been taken Prisoners by the English & returne'd to this country in a Cartael arrived a few days ago, poor things my heart was deeply touched for them. They are far from their friends & in a very suffering condition. one of them has a wife & four children in Portsmouth N Hampshire. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 10, Monday: When the anti-French alliance abandoned Dresden the King of Saxony realized he was going to need to get all buddy-buddy with the emperor Napoléon I.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 10th of 5 M / I was informed that one of the Men I saw at the Alms House yesterday, died this morning, poor creature I can feel much for his friends, having had a brother who died from home.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 11, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 11 of 5 M 1813 / My Mind has this mornng been dipt into sweetness & several subjects have been ruminated upon which have been pleasant, & at such times the language is 'Lord evermore give us of this bread, ['] but such is the propensity of frail human nature that it is not at all times food convenient for us, from our repeated errings we are brought to Poverly & allmost ready to conclude that we have past the day of grace & this Poverty is designed to bring us to a sense of our dependance & to chastise us for omissions & comissions, offensive in the

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Divine sight, but my heart has been made thankful this morning under a fresh evidence that the good hand is yet with me & will continue with me unto the end if faithful to what is from season to season manifested by the Witness of truth in the heart –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 12, Wednesday: “Behold, how good and joyful” for three voices and organ by Samuel Wesley to words of Psalm 133 was performed for the initial time, at the installation of the Duke of Sussex as the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of All England (Masonic).

A cartel was arranged, for exchange of POWs between Great Britain and the United States of America.

READ THE FULL TEXT

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 12 of 5th M / My Mind has again this Day been favor'd with good feelings for which I desire to be thankful. The precious sweetness has arisen much to my comfort & confirmation in the efficacy of truth

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 13, Thursday: British and Spanish forces under Arthur Wellesley, Viscount Wellington began their final offensive in the “Peninsular War” to liberate Spain from its French overlords. Austria would join in the alliance against France.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 13 of 5 M / Our Meeting was Silent & a season of some favor to me. – This Afternoon recd a very Acceptable letter from Micajah Collins of Lynn, which I answer'd this evening

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 16, Sunday: Lord William Bentinck, British Minister in Sicily, informed King Joachim Murat that Great Britain will favor his remaining King of Naples until another kingdom might be found for him.

In Vienna, Johann Nepomuk Hummel got married with a vocalist, Elisabeth Röckel.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 16 5 M / Tho' much unwell I rode this morning to Portsmouth, on horse back before Meeting called at Cousin Zacheus Chases, found Shadrack very sick (I think) in a rapid decline, he may perhaps live sometime & get smart again. – Then went to Meeting which was Silent but I believe a favor'd season to some minds I dined with Benj Pearce & then went to visit Joseph Fish in company with Richard Mitchell & Jonathon Dennis, being appointed for that purpose in consequence of his request

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

to be received into membership - we found him according to our feelings in a religious frame of Mind & acquainted with the Cross of Christ & my mind was encouraged with a prospect of his future usefulness in society. -We took tea with him - On my way home I stoped a little while at the Widow Shermans - then Rode along pleasantly in company with Jonathon

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 20, Thursday: French troops attacked a Russian/Prussian force near Bautzen east of Dresden, and captured the town (each side lost about a quarter of its soldiers, killed or wounded).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 20 of 5 M / Our Meeting was pretty well attended, & silent
In the Preparative Meeting Certificates were requested for Geo. B Robinson & Anthony Chase. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 26, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 26 of 5 M 1813 / The Mind is this mornng brought a little down, as into the valley of humiliation from a sense of my many defects, which tho' I am often sensible of, seem a little more depressing than common. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 27, Thursday: That morning the American fleet was at anchor off the mouth of the Niagara River. After a final cannon bombardment, boats filled with troops headed for the shoreline. By the end of the day they were in possession of the smoldering remains of Fort George and the remnants of the British forces were in full retreat westward along the shore of Lake Ontario. For the first time the river mouth had fallen entirely into American hands. (The American forces would fail to follow up on this advantage, and the British forces would be regrouped to fight another day.)

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 27 of 5 M / Our Meeting was very small. I believe there were not 40 women which made a very small Moy [Monthly] Meeting - The first was silent - & in the last we had a considerable buisness, which we got along with pretty well - Joseph Fish & Richard Kilson were received into membership - & James W Gould was disowned. Owing to its being a very Rainy Day we had no company at Dinner & was the reason of the Meeting being very Small -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 30, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1st day 30 of 5 M / In consequence of my having been for sometime quite unwell I was bled this forenoon which has prevented my attending Meeting today. I understood however that there was considerable preaching both forenoon & Afternoon. —This eveng feeling pretty Smart called to see my friend Mary Tillinghast

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 1, Tuesday: Évariste Régis Huc was born in Caylus, France.

French troops occupied Breslau (Wroclaw) and Katzbach.

Austrian Emperor Franz and Count von Metternich, on their way from Vienna to Gitschin, ran into the Russian Count Nesselrode looking for them. The Russians wanted Austria to commit to their cause. Franz told him that he would side with Russia in the absence of a favorable peace agreement with the Emperor Napoléon I.

Off the port of Marblehead MA there was an engagement between the HMS Shannon and Captain James Lawrence's USS Chesapeake. Although the Chesapeake was being defeated by the Shannon, the seriously wounded Captain bravely advised his crew "Don't give up the ship." (This has been painted as really a nice story, but it wasn't but fifteen minutes later that the crew struck the ship's colors — and he would die of his wounds.)

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 1 of 6 M / I have today been more engaged than is pleasant at the election of town Officers - Father Rodman was candidate for town Treasurer which naturally occasioned considerable anxiety & consequently exertion to Stimulate his friends to give him a vote & my labor was not wholly without effect, for he succeeded by a majority of more than 70 votes. —which insures him a comfortable living for the coming Year. — The spirit of party is a bane to all true Religion but a becoming care to have our Councils to consist of men that will be likely to do justice to their constituents as far as their knowledge extends, is in my opinion the duty of every good citizen, for truly when the "Wicked rules the Land does Mourn." for I truly

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

have seen it, & experienced it, to my full conviction. –

5th day 2 of 6 M / Our Meeting was rather Small, but I believe a season of favor to many Minds Sarah Tucker late Fish appeared in a lively testimony I have no doubt to the comfort of some afflicted minds present. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 6, Sunday: At Stoney Creek, the American invaders of Canada were attacked and defeated by British forces. 50 American soldiers and 400 Indians were taken prisoner. The American troops would soon be buttoned up in the forts at the mouth of the Niagara River.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 6 of 6 M 1813 / Our Meetings were silent except a few words from a friend in the Afternoon - After tea took a pleasant Walk round the hill with D Rodman & on my return was informd of the Arrival in the Harbour of Uncle Stanton in the Ship Pacific from Lisbon I immediately came down Street & found him at Mothers & was very glad to see him. I went with him to the Ship & spent an hour for the first time I was ever on board a Ship that floated. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 10, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 10 of 6 M / At meeting CR was concerned in testimony - the Meeting was to me a pretty good time for which I desire to be thankful

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 12, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 12 of 6 M / Yearly Meeting has this Day commenced at Portsmouth friends are Now coming into town but much fewer in numbers than I ever before saw them, & I suppose there will be but few here to what we have had in years past. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 13, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day Our forenoon Meeting was unusually small owing I suppose In great Measure to peoples not coming in from Portsmouth as usual on 7th day night & the Mornng being very rainy & the weather very cold for the season The Meeting was very much favor'd with quiet & the current of Gospel testimony. - first in supplication by Ann Shipley then by Mary Clisby [?] then

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Henry Hull in a loving testimony as perhaps was ever delivered in our Meeting house. then Eliza Coggeshall in a sound good testimony & H Hull concluded in solemn supplication. – In the Afternoon Henry Hull again in testimony with life & power inviting the Youth to godliness of life & conversation. Then L Cofggeshall with good Authority. text "the fool saith in his heart there is no God." –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 14, Monday: William Henry Farquhar was born in York, Pennsylvania. This family was from Scotland. Friend Amos Farquhar, the father, a cotton manufacturer who had turned to farming and teaching school, had been born in 1768 as a great-grandson of Allen Amos Farquhar, the original immigrant of 1721, and his marriage with Friend Mary Elgar Farquhar had begun in 1795. William had a brother Charles Farquhar, Sr. who would become a physician in Alexandria, Virginia, and a brother Benjamin Hallowell Farquhar, so named in honor of a Quaker educator in Alexandria, who would get married with Mary W. Kirk.

The 1st Treaty of Reichenbach was signed between Great Britain and Prussia (this called for Britain to pay a substantial subsidy to maintain the Prussian army, in return for the Principality of Hildesheim being ceded to Hanover).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day Our Meeting opened this mornng under a very solemn covering. Short testimonies from Abel Thomas Henry Hull & Enoch Dorland - Much feeling was excited at the reading of the Epistles especially those from London. – Wm Rotch Junr in a weighty feeling manner proposed the attention of the Meeting to the distresses of the people in the eastern country on acct of provision, which was refer'd for future consideration. – 2nd Afternoon - The state of society as represented In the Answer to the Queries was gone into & many feeling & weighty remarks were made by H Hull & E Dorland & others. – The Accounts from the several Quarterly Meetings gave information of six appellants[?] two of whom appear'd this Afternoon & committees appointed to hear the parties. – Wm Almy opened a concern that the Meeting should present a petition to the general government which took much hold of the Meeting but from the advanced state of it was refer'd to a future sitting - - the meeting adjourned to 3 OClock tomorrow Afternoon. –

June 24, Thursday: Henry Ward Beecher was born in Litchfield, Connecticut (8th of the Reverend Lyman Beecher's 13 children, brother of Harriet Beecher Stowe).

At Beaver Dams in Ontario, the American invaders of Canada were again attacked and defeated by British forces. The American troops would soon be buttoned up in the forts at the mouth of the Niagara River.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 24th of 6thM / This Mornng took Chaise & rode with my

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

dear wife & little son to Portsmouth to attend the Moy [Monthly] Meeting. left John at Anne Anthonys & went to Meeting A Sherman H Dennis Obadiah Davis & Parker Halls wife were concern'd in testimony & a precious Meeting it was to me. We had much Buisness in the last Meeting some of which worked unpleasantly to my mind we dined at Anne Anthonys & came home early & found Uncle & Aunt Stanton had Arrived last eveng from Providence. – I can best remark that in riding to Portsmouth this morn'g in observing the fields in a very flourishing state & the Clover yealding a rich perfume my mind was humbled under a sense of the Goodness of God & the small returns poor rebellious man is making for the Beauties received at his hand – I thought did but our conduct arise in as sweet insense before him as does his inanimate part of the creation in what a different stall would our minds be in How sweet & clean would they be – On observing large fields of Whiteweed [?] I could but breath forth the Prayer "Oh Lord keep thy fields White unto harvest" I remember Anne Greene expressed those words in Supplication in our Meeting some Years ago & they particularly struck my Mind at the time & the feelings were sweetly renew'd this Morning

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 25, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 25 of 6 M / I find that I quite misunderstood the observations of a friend in Meeting Yesterday which drew some remarks from me which were immp'per & on reflection today leaves an incomf'ortable savor. – I believe my remarks were to hasty, & it is poor consolation to say, it is not the first time I have missed – I hope however that by being humbled under it, the effect may tend to deepen me in experience & make me more cautious in future.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 26, Saturday: At the French headquarters near Dresden, Austrian Count von Metternich had an intensive negotiation with the Emperor Napoléon I and pushed four points of mediation: the dismantling of the Duchy of Warsaw, the enlargement of Prussia, the return of the Adriatic provinces to Austria, and the renewed independence of Hamburg and Lübeck. At the conclusion of nine hours of fruitless bargaining the Emperor would threaten war.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 26 of 6 M / This Aft'ernoon rec'd a few lines from L E Clarke giving us the affecting news of the Decease of our Dear & much lov'd Cousin John Hazard of North Kingston after a lingering consumption of several Months. Lewis state that he died in sure & certian hope of the Life to come, that Peter Hoxie observed to him just before the close "The Master is nigh to uphold & John thou'd whn knowest it" he bowed his head in the Affirmation tho' nearly Speechless. –

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

My exercise has been today somewhat uncommon. Soon after I came down to the shop a hevy depression came over my mind which continued till I went to dinner, when I went home my H told me that Sister Eliza & Mary Briggs had carried our little John to Portsmouth which served only to increase my previous apprehensions that something was going to happen & would happen to him however this soon wore off but I become more & more distressed in spirit. about the Middle of the Afternoon brother Isaac came in with the account of Cousin Hazards Death. Soon after which it seemed to pass my mind with a degree of Sweetness "Surely the bitterness of Death is Past." & the exercise gradually wore off & I am inclined to believe that my mind was thus Dipt into sympathy with my dear cousins in N Kingston, tho' at the time I knew not what it was for - for I am sure had I lost a very near relation, my mind would not have been brought under closer sufferings -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 27, Sunday: The 3d Treaty of Reichenbach was signed by Austria, Prussia, and Russia, with Austria pledging that it would declare war on France by July 20th should the Emperor Napoléon I reject Count von Metternich's offer of mediation (the deadline was to become August 10th).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 27 of 6 M / I attended Meeting this forenoon which was not the worst of seasons to me. - In the Afternoon I staid at home to take care of John while my dear H went to meeting - - In the eveng I walked our to D Buffums to wait on Ruth home. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 28, Monday: King José I of Spain (Joseph Bonaparte) left Spanish soil for the final time.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 28th of 6 M / This has been a peculiar Day of my life. In the forenoon my mind was under exercise for what I knew not. it seemed however as if my spirit was continually under pressure & I was glad to feel my heart tender, feeling it as a renew'd pledge of the extendings of Divine goodness. - As I came down from Dinner & as I was walking across from the Shop to go into my mothers I saw a young man look at me with a familiar countenance & looked at him a second time & recognized the looks of my long loved & very dear friend ISAAC AUSTIN. I staped up to him & took him by the hand & asked him into the shop where we sat down together for more than three hours. This meeting was very unexpected & very affecting to both our Minds. we have not seen each other for nearly Seven years. In the interim whereof many & great changes have taken place, & tho' I have been

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

preserved from grose wickedness, yet, ah! poor thing the round of wickedness he has since been, I feel myself humbled under a sense of my own failings & feel no disposition to boast over him, since I saw him he has been confined nearly five years in the State Penitentiary at Richmond Virginia & is just released & on his way to Nantucket - I was glad yea my spirit bowed in humble thankfulness to find him a true Penitent & seeking his fathers house both his earthly & his heavenly fathers house with great apparent sincerity - Early in life while I was an apprentice I form'd an acquaintance with him which increased untill he undertook buisness for himself when I was obliged from occurences too obvious to relinquish a part of my confidence, but the love that I had felt for him was too strong to be eradicated from my heart & with all his faults there was something in him which made me love him much, he soon failed in trade & went from here & settled in Abany [Albany?] opened trade again & committed greater enormities than hi?? & went off privately & was finally taken up in Richmond & committeed to the Penitentiary, for what exactly I was never informd - but seeing him today my love was very tenderly renew'd for him, for beyond all doubting in my mind he has known the ways of Truth with great clearness & his heart was early visited with the Day Spring from on high, & many times in our early youth have we sat together & spoke of the Lords dealings with us in a manner which both abundantly confirm'd me that he has been made Acquainted with the Lords dealing & now after all his rounds of folly & disipation to see him while Youth still sits on his brow, so humble & contrite in spirit is matter of great rejoicing & consolation. - My heart was exceedingly tender'd at the interview & was a season which I shall never forget while I remember any thing - he went from here & has gone on board a vessel in the harbour intending for Nantucket this eveng

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 29, Tuesday: While the allied forces were closing in around San Sebastián on the Bay of Biscay, in the Théâtre Feydeau of Paris, Le nouveau seigneur de village, an opéra comique by Adrien Boieldieu to words of Creuzé de Lesser and Favières, was performed for the initial time (it's like they didn't know they were being snuck up on).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 29th of 6 M 1813 / My dear Isaac did not sail last night & has been on shore again this Morning & spent some time in my shop renew'd tender love springs in my heart towards him, his situation excites my sympathy & my pitty beyond any words which I have at command to express them in Uncle & Aunt Stanton spent the afternoon with us, also Mother & Sister Sally

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

June 30, Wednesday: At the French headquarters near Dresden, the Emperor Napoléon I signed off on Count von Metternich's four conditions: he accepted the armed mediation of Austria, he accepted a meeting of all belligerents at Prague with negotiations to be completed at least by August 10th, and he accepted a suspension of all military activity until August 10th.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th [sic] day 30 of 6 M / I saw My Beloved Isaac this morning walking the deck of the vessel in the harbour thro' a spy glass, the sight of tho' thus far moved my heart with pitty & compassion, -I well knew him by his gate & his cloathing & I could even discern his features thro' the glass which I had. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 1, Thursday: Import duties were doubled by the US Congress.

The trade monopoly of the East India Company was abolished.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 1 of 7 M 1813 / My buisness was such that I omitted meeting & in this instance as in allmost all others it proved of no advantage to me as I could have done all that was necessary before & the man did not call in meeting time as expected for his Watch - We spent the Afternoon & took tea at Aunt A Carpenters with Uncle & Aunt Stanton.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 2, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 2nd of 7 M /I have been to day much Afflicted with the Tooth Ach, & have felt allmost good for nothing.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Our national birthday, Sunday the 4th of July: Nathaniel Hawthorne's, or Hathorne's, 9th birthday.

CELEBRATING OUR B-DAY

4,000 of our slaves would be able to depart from their American servitude by way of an arrangement with the Royal Navy during the War of 1812. On the face of it, this was the largest emancipation between the revolution in Haiti in the 1790s and the British colonial abolition of the 1830s (though the emancipation in New York state on July 4, 1827 is a possible contender). These freedom fighters began to leave American waters left in this month and the last would have departed by April 1815. Just under 1,000 would settle in Trinidad, with the remainder settling in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick — apart from a few who would wind up in Bermuda and a score or so who would reach England.

Joshua Barney proposed a plan for the defense of Chesapeake Bay.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 4 of 7 M / I staid from Meeting this forenoon for my H to go & took care of our little boy - In the Afternoon went - M Morton preached & C R Prayed - Walked out with D R to J Dennis & took tea & set the eveng very agreeably. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 5, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 5 of 7 M / We all [??] Uncle & Aunt Stanton, Isaac & Sally, Mother & My H & little John took tea with Aunt Patty Gould

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 11, Sunday: Antonio Cano Manuel y Ramírez de Arellano replaced Pedro Gómez-Labrador Avelo as First Secretary of State of the resistance government of Spain.

Joseph Bonaparte was removed as commander in chief of French armies in Spain.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1st day 11 of 7 M / Attended Meetings In the forenoon D Buffum was concern'd in testimony from the text "Righteousness exalteth a Nation but sin is a reproach to my People" father R also had a few words to communicate - In the Afternoon father was again concern'd

Uncle & Aunt Stanton & Mother, Dined with us & took tea. -At tea we had the Addition of Mother Rodman & Sister Ruth

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 12, Monday: First recorded "12th of July" sectarian riots in Belfast, Ireland.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 12 of 7 M / An Account was rec'd last night of the probability of a Cessation of hostilities between this country & England & the hope is considerably Strengthened by further intelligence this eveng, & mine heart had leap'd with gratitude at the pleasing prospect - not that I see any great pecuniary advantage that I should particularly derive even in case of a peace, but Oh by the Milions of treasure & the rivers of Blood that hath been lost by this very Wicked & very impolitic War, & over all & above all the Guilt that fall on our once peaceful happy Country in consequence of it, is sufficient to make a heart capable of it shudder as the very thought. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 18, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 18 of 7 M / At last Moy [Monthly] Meeting the case of Solomon Lawton was refer'd on acct of Jonathon Dennis & myself & today we went to Portsmouth to pay him a visit, which we did after meeting. He treated us respectfully, but we could not feel that we gained an entrance for the Truth in his heart, yet we are encouraged to hope that after many days the bread may be found returning on the Waters - We felt the satisfaction of having labor'd in love & faithfully according to the Ability rec'd -

I rode out with Jon & before meeting stoped at P Lawtons Dined at B Freeborn's Visited Solomon at his fathers & took tea at cousin Z Chases.-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 21, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 21 of 7 M / We have for several weeks past had the very Acceptable company of Uncle John Stanton & Aunt Martha from N York which we have enjoyed much & this Mornng they have left us for their home - They went to Narragansett Intending to take the Stage thro New London - My Mother went with them to Narragansett intending to spend some time with our friends & relations there.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

& I crossed the ferry to Connanicut & saw them across the Island.

—
They are very affectionate relations to me, having manifested a disposition to do much for my advantage & will no doubt to me make proof of their disposition should occasion offer. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 22, Thursday: On the island of Barbados, after a hurricane, 18 were dead and an additional 8 were missing.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5 day 22 of 7 M 1813 / Our Meeting was small but I believe attended with a degree of favor. — My cup was not made to overflow but I was thankful under a sense that I was a partaker of the small measure Vouchsafed. — In the last Preparative a certificate was requested for John Carl Junr [Earl?] Williams Directed to Scipio [New York]

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 25, Sunday: After a siege of almost a month, British troops attacked the French defenders of San Sebastián — but were thrown back.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 25 of 7 M / Our Meeting this Afternoon was small but I thought was under a good degree of favor. After it D R & I went out to Saml Thurstons & took tea — I did not go to meeting in the forenoon being in the mornng under the necessity of Drinking some Salt Water — so I staid at home & took care of John, while my H went. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 29, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 29 of 7 M / Our first Meeting was nearly silent. A friend was concerned in a few words — The last (Monthly) was long & much buisness before us which we got along with to pretty good satisfaction. — Sarah Tucker late Fish obtained liberty to visit the Quarterly Meetings of Sandwich Salem & Falmouth. — Uncle Benj Freeborn & wife & Benj Mott & Geo Dennis Dined with us —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 1, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 1 of 8 M 1813 / In our Meeting this Mornng Anne Greene & D Buffum were concern'd in Public testimony — In the Afternoon C R had a few words — both of them & particularly the morning

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

were favord Seasons to me. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 5, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 5 of 8 M / Br David Rodman & I took a carriage & Carried our Wives & Sisters to Portsmouth to attend the Quarterly Meeting we stoped a little while before Meeting at P Lawtons where we had the company for a little while of Our Venerable & very interesting friend Moses Brown of Providence his conversation was amusing informing & edifying -- The first that Broke Silence in the Public Meeting was Peter Hoxie, the next James Greene then Mary Morton then C Rodman & then John Casey to whom the weight of service fell, but according to my capacity of Judging all that were concern'd in Public appearance were favor'd & particularly Dear old John Casey - - In the last meeting Our buisness went on pretty well & the London printed Epistle for the present Year was read, & was very excellent. - Our Dear friend J Casey concluded the Meeting in a very solemn & impressive prayer to the Lord for the three classes of Mankind, The Aged, Middleaged & Youth
We Dined at Anna Anthonys & rode home toward night - father Rodman was taken Faint in the Carriage & Obliged to get out for some time & then ride very slowly home. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 8, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 8th of 8 M 1813 / Wm Almy Attended our forenoon Meeting & appeard in testimony & Supplication much to our satisfaction & edification C R Also said a few words & the London Epistle for last Year was read. - Wm Almy attended a Meeting at Portsmouth appointed by him at 4 OClock -Our Afternoon Meeting was Short & Silent

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 12, Thursday: After secretly rearming, Austria declared war on France, joining the coalition of Great Britain, Russia, Prussia, Sweden, and the German principalities.

Carl Maria von Weber began rehearsals for the initial production in Prague with his reconstituted company: Gaspere Spontini's Fernand Cortez. This would be the first of 62 operas Weber would produce in Prague.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 12 of 8 M / Attended Meeting C R & H Dennis appear'd in agreeable testimonys
My Mind has been much in sympathy with a poor dear young woman Wife of Edw Stanhope who hath for about two years been afflicted with a dreadful sore leg & it increased in size untill it measured 27 inches round with the most excruciating pain, all* applications that could be thought of were made but none afforded even temporary relief for several months past & it was at length concluded that there was no chance for her life but Ampitation which has been this forenoon perform'd by Dr. Turner.

HDTWHAT?INDEXFRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 15, Sunday: Fort Dearborn, at what was to become Chicago, had been surrendered to the British. The evacuees were massacred by the Native American allies of the British.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 15th of 8th M / Our Meetings have been Silent today except a few words in the forenoon by C R – Towards night took a walk down to the garden & into the Clifton burying ground where many of our relations lay buried both Goulds & Wantons & Rodmans; & the graves of my Grandfather & Grandmother Wanton & have lately had made up & some stones put to dissignate them by, they are close to the Mouth of the Vault on the West side between that & the grave of their son Michael which has an head & foot stone letterd. – I know very well know that there is no great use in dissignating graves, but there is a decency which is becoming, & which I think friendly & other people ought to attend to. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 19, Thursday: The US frigate Constitution under Issac Hull captured the British frigate Guerriere.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 19 of 8 M / Sister Ruth & Eliza went this mornng to Providence intending to go from there to Lynn & Salem to attend their approaching Quarterly Meeting. – Our Meeting this day was as well attended as usual & to me a

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

degree of favor was extended. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 22, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 22 of 8 M / In our forenoon meeting D B was concerned in a short & lively testimony -- In the Afternoon C R Said a few Words -- Sister Mary & Ruth Freeborn took tea with us. - In the eveng our little John was taken very ill with a puking but was relieved by bed time

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 26, Thursday: Benjamin West died.

The Emperor Napoléon I entered Dresden. Since it held a 2-to-1 majority, the Austrian army went on the attack, but then a French counterattack was successful. Although the Allies made initial advances the French eventually regained all lost territory. Then when French troops attempted to pursue Prussian contingents over the Katzbach River, the troops in flight turned desperately and defeated them.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 26 of 8 M 1813 / This Morning under no small discouragement I set out to Walk to Portsmouth to attend our Moy [Monthly] Meeting our little boy being complaining My H was not easy to leave him - When I had Walked as far as Middletown Town House Deacon Wm Tilley took me into his carriage & carried me as far as Mitchells shop which was a great relief I then traveled on & got to the House of our late friend Holder Almy with comparative ease & remembered the Account of Peter Gardiner that his "Master would give him hind feet" my reflections in the Walk was very pleasant & encouraging - took some refreshment before meeting -Went to meeting where we sat in silence & to me it was a good time, in the last I found it more my place to be still & make but few remarks on the buisness but towards the close a little jostle took place, but I dont know that much Damage was done, or at least my condition I thought was not injured - After Meeting David Shove & Mary Sherman received liberty to consummate their Marriage & a Meeting appointed tomorrow Afternoon at 3 OClock for the purpose - And Job Baker & Eunice Anthony published their intentions of Marriage with each other. - After Meeting Joseph Wilbour took me into his Chaise & brought me home, we stoped by the Way at Cundals Mills & I dined at Rich Mitchells & Joseph & Isaac Mitchells - On my return found my H & John as well as when I left them which was cause of thankfulness & they occaisoined some thoughtfulness at leaving them for only that short time. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

➡ August 29, Sunday: Some allied troops being pursued by the French counterattacked at Priestena, Bohemia south of Dresden, and managed to beat off the pursuers.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 29th of 8th M / In our Mornng Meeting CR appeared in testimony. In the Afternoon we were silent - Solomon B Boss went home with me & took tea sat the eveng & staid all night. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ September 1, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 1 of 9 M 1813 / The Month commences with depression of Spirits indeed there is hardly any Prospect looks promising. my buisness Dull & very little Money fall in my Way - Our little son seems to be unwell & I think in addition to the difficulty of his eye teeth which are now coming through, I believe he has the hooping cough coming on - Ah poor little fellow, trouble is commensurate with Our existence & if his life should shortly terminate there is this consolation that his troubles will end with his life -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ September 5, Sunday: Off Monhegan Island in Maine waters, there was an encounter between the USS Enterprise and HMS Boxer. It was all so very picturesque. We can be sure that someone made points by being exceedingly manly. Or something.

William Hildreth of Concord died.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 9 M 5th 1813 / We had a Short testimony in the forenoon Supplication in the Afternoon. - Our dear little son has been

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

quite indisposed for several days & this Afternoon we gave him an emmetic which operated favorably in the evening. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 8, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 9M 8 / Since dinner my Mind has been affected in a way which it hath not for a number of Years & indeed I do not recollect that my feelings were ever similarly arrested at a similar sight. – it was at seeing a poor miserable object of a Man singing an heroic Song of the revolution with his Wife sitting by, & a parcle of Boys & Men standing at the corner of the Brick Market – there was something in his countenance so depraved & his manner so corrupt that my heart was greatly affected with the sight & a prayer arose for his reformation. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 9, Thursday: A treaty was signed at Töplitz bringing Austria in as an equal participant with Russia and Prussia against France. All sides pledged 60,000 troops.

Georg Friedrich Heinrich Fürst zu Waldeck und Pyrmont replaced Georg Fürst zu Waldeck und Pyrmont as Prince of Waldeck and Pyrmont (George II replacing George I).

Carl Maria von Weber conducted his initial performance with the Estates Theater in Prague, a performance of Spontini's Fernand Cortez.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 9 of 9M / Our Meeting was attended by most of our members who are able to get out & was I think a pretty comfortable gathering

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

September 10, Friday: Off the island of Put-in-Bay, Ohio, the American fleet on Lake Erie engaged the small British squadron commanded by Captain Robert Barclay, RN. Commodore Oliver Hazard Perry was aboard his flagship USS Lawrence, which came to be heavily damaged by British fire. Perry's "spaniel dog" had been stowed in the china cabinet in the wardroom of the Lawrence and was howling incessantly. One of the gun captains was torn in half by a 24-pound ball. Lieutenant of Marines John Brooks, struck in the hip by a cannonball, was pleading to be finished off but found no-one willing to pull the trigger on him. Carrying his battle flag emblazoned with the injunction of Captain James Lawrence "Don't give up the ship," Perry, wearing a plain jacket so as not to identify himself, transferred by a small boat with a hole in its side half a mile to the nearby USS Niagara. By great good luck he was able to perform the perfect maneuver known as "crossing the T," in fact the only nautical maneuver in which a sailing ship may deliver damage to another ship without receiving damage in return, passing the Niagara between the bow of one British vessel and the stern of another in such manner that, while neither of these ships were able to direct a broadside at him, his own broadsides were simultaneously delivering "raking fire" to the full length of those enemy vessels:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Within fifteen minutes the British surrendered. Perry reboarded the heavily damaged Lawrence to receive Captain Barclay's surrender and penned the now-famous man's man sentiment "We have met the enemy and they are ours."

(Indeed the enemy were ours, for Perry would be able to bring each and every vessel of that British squadron into port as a prize of the US, with the proceeds of sale to go into the pockets of the American participants in the Battle of Lake Erie. Perry would be promoted to Post-Captain.)

(While this battle was taking place on Lake Erie, Senecas of the southern tier assembled to protect Anna Church, who was alone at Angelica while her husband was trapped in Europe by the war.)

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 10 of 9 M / My Mind is far from being in an elevated condition on the other hand depression is very much my portion -Oh that in all situations my hope & trust may be Steadfastly on the Lord. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

September 12, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 12th of 9th M / Our Morng meeting was large & quiet & I thought favord Mary Morton appeard in a Solemn supplication & H Dennis in testimony In the Afternoon we were Silent but I thought a good degree of favor was extended - After meeting walked with Br D R & took tea with Saml Thurston

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 16, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 16 of 9 M / Our Meeting was silent but well attended, & I thought a good degree of favor was extended --

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 17, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 17 of 9 M / My Mind has for several weeks been perplexed about Moving from our present habitation which is in every respect very agreeable to us, our neighbours very kind & affectionate & our rooms very pleasant - but the house annexed with my shop being vacant & to be had for a few Dollars more than what we now give, has proved a temptation & it seems now pretty much concluded on that we move in a few weeks, not however without much regret at leaving our neighbors who are Wm Briggs's family & have ever proved very kind & affectionate to us. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 19, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 19 of 9 M 1813 / I staid from meeting this forenoon to take care of John for my H to go - She told me that it was a favord meeting - D Buffum M Morton & H Dennis appeard very sweetly in testimony. - In the Afternoon I went - Silence prevailed & I thought a pretty good Meeting - towards Night took a pleasant Walk with Br D Rodman. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 23, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 23 of 9 M / Our Meeting was well attended & to me a very comfortable season - soon after I took my seat life sweetness & tenderness arose in my mind which frequently moistened mine eyes with tears, & while thus sitting the substance of a testimony once delivered in our Meeting house by our leams[?] came very fresh & sweetly into my mind "Every true servant will be occupied

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

in his Masters service or Watching at the door of the tabernacle until he appear." which continued at times thro' the whole sitting, & Mine heart was rejoiced to find that the good spirit was still with me, & did arise this day greatly to my comfort & has continued near this Afternoon – Our friend Anne Greene was over from Connanicut & had a precious little testimony to deliver. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 26, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 26 of 9 M / Our Meetings were silent but good seasons to me – After meeting with Br D Rodman & J Sherman walked out to J Dennis & took tea – Brother Isaac Is very sick I found him this evening much worse than he has been with a fever – This mornng The Frigate President arrived in the harbor & in the evening went up the river this circumstance I consider a great calamity to this town as the Probability is that We shall be under a rigorous blockade by the British Last eveng James Irish was Drowned in Coddingtons Cove he had been to Prudence after grapes with John Chase & [] Sherman a lad about 13 Years of age – they landed John Chase at his shore & the other two were carrying the boat to James Chases boat house – a flow of Wind upset them but by exercion they righted her again but she soon overset again & Irish perished the boy held on to the boat & after an hour or two drove on shore allmost exhausted but saw the light at Jonathan Dennises house & with great difficulty just as they were going to bed they very humanely administered to his necessitys & soon recovered him so that he could give an account of himself –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 29, Wednesday: United States forces reoccupied Detroit.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 29th of 9th M 1813 / This Day Brother Isaac & I have enter'd into an agreement in much love respecting the settlement of our late dear fathers estate – The Will left it in four parts to be divided at the Decease or second Marriage of our dear Mother. – The decease of Brother David left it in three, that is, between Isaac James & myself – The personal Estate he gave to mother of course is at her disposal & the real estate which was only dividable by fathers Will Consisted of the House & lot in which he lived & an old house & lot at the lower end of Thames Street which he purchased of John Tracy & a lot in Gidley Street which he purchased of Phineas Gilbert & has been called the Gilbert Garden. – The estate was in debit rising 1200 Dollars – Brother Isaac sometime past went to Boston when Brother James was there & purchased his right of one third in the estate which left it only dividable between him & me & Isaac has now agreed to give me the Old house & lot & the Gilbert Garden & fifty

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Dollars to quit claim to the house & lot up town & he to cancell all the debits, the principle part of which is due to him for building the addition to the house in which father lived & which he & mother now occupies. – The Inventory amounted to a little rising 400 Dollars including the House & leased lots which was purchased of Deborah Garrison for our Aunts Patty Mary & Hannah Gould to live in – none of which we consider as belonging to us, but to Mother who has the right of Disposal – Thus we have come to know our particular right & proportion of the estate in reversion of after Mother without any Difficulty & in great Brotherly harmony which I pray may ever exist between us.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 30, Thursday: After being abandoned by their King Jérôme Bonaparte, Westphalian troops surrendered Kassel to the invading Russians. The victors dissolved the Kingdom of Westphalia and removed this absent monarch from authority. Meanwhile, in flight, Jérôme reached the Rhine River and safety.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 30th of 9th M 1813 / Our Meeting was small but thirteen women attended owing to the weather being exceedingly stormy – yet we held Monthly Meeting & in the first Job Challinor preached with acceptance in the last our buisness labor'd exceedingly owing to the womens committee not sending their report respecting the clearness of Eunice Anthony to preceed in marriage with Job Baker in consequence of which the Meeting was adjourned till One OClock tomorrow at Portsmouth – Antipas Chase & Susanna Hicks dined with us having this day published their intentions of Marriage with each other. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 1, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 1 of 10 M 1813 / In understood by a friend that attended the adhourment that the young friends were reported clear & a meeting was appointed in the Afternoon at which they solemnized their Marriage. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 2, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 2 of 10 M / This Afternoon Brother Isaac & I have concluded the buisness between us & passed Deeds – which puts to an end between us all concern of our late Dear fathers estate, we each know our share in reversion from Mother – I have the two lots down town & he has the homestead. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

➡ October 3, Sunday: At Wartenburg, Prussian troops inflicted heavy losses on the French.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 3 of 10 M / In consequence of having scraped the skin from off my heal & being quite lame with it I staid at home from Meetings.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ October 5, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 5 of 10 M / We have this Day removed from our very comfortable & agreeable accomodations in Spring Street owned by Jethro Briggs & occupied in the lower part by his son Wm & family -Into the house to which my Shop is attached where I have said before we shall be comfortable in some respects but not so much so on some others - We leave our dear Neighbors with much regret we had lived on such intimate terms with tham that they really claim a great share of our affections. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Arthur Wellesley, Viscount Wellington resigned as commander in chief of the Spanish army.

In the “Battle of the Thames” or Moraviantown, east of Chatham in Ontario, United States forces under General William Henry Harrison, victor at the battle of Tippecanoe (Keth-tip-pe-can-nunk), Indiana, who had crossed the Detroit River in pursuit of British General Proctor, captured Ft. Malden south of Detroit at the entrance to Lake Erie.

HDTWHAT?INDEX

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Shawnee headman Tecumseh was shot dead and General Procter fled.

HDTWHAT?INDEXSTEPHEN WANTON GOULD*FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Here is the death of Tecumseh as it has been depicted in a Brumidi frieze on the rotunda of the US Congress:

The body was skinned and the white soldiers made nice forget-me-not strops for their straight razors (not depicted). A friend carried the bones off and, it seems, buried them on an island, but upon the death of this friend, the location of the burial was lost.¹²⁵

October 7, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 7 of 10 M / This forenoon I calculated to go to Meeting till within a few minutes before the time when my Wood came which I thought would overlay my time so as to prevent - but I afterwards found as I allmost uniformly have that I might have gone to meeting & nothing have differed by it. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

¹²⁵. They must have been a little disappointed! Because, as Herodotus noted, death knowing not color, no matter what hue human skin is while it is adorning a living human being, when our skin has been cured and dried it uniformly becomes just another piece of whitish stuff.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

British, Portuguese, and Spanish forces led by Arthur Wellesley, Viscount Wellington crossed the Bidassoa River from the Iberian Peninsula into France.¹²⁶

The Iron Duke pissing in the Bidassoa?

126. Entering the French homeland like this was a really, really big deal — making a legitimate comparison of the French emperor with the German Führer, this must have felt something like our crossing of the Rhine River during WWII. So, did the Iron Duke piss in the Bidassoa the way General Patton would piss in the Rhine?

WORLD WAR II

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

October 10, Sunday: At 8PM, Giuseppe Fortunio Francesco Verdi was born at Le Roncale near Busseto northwest of Parma, eldest of two children born to Carlo Verdi, a tavern owner, with Luigia Uttini, daughter of tavern owners.

Juan O'Donojú O'Ryan was named First Secretary of State (Prime Minister) of Spain.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 10 of 10 M 1813 / In consequence of indisposition I staid from our forenoon Meeting - but my H went, & told me that D Buffum & A Robinson preached sweetly - In the Afternoon I went, had a good Meeting - father R said a few words. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 14, Thursday: The Emperor Napoléon I entered Leipzig at the head of 200,000 men. "It ain't over 'till it's over." Bavaria declared war on France.

There was a ceremony in Caracas, Venezuela at which Simón Bolívar was awarded the title "El Libertador."

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5 day 14 of 10 M / Our meeting was large as usual, silent & I thought a pretty good time. - Wm L Burling late of N York is now here. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 15, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 15 of 10 M / Wm Burling & L L Clarke took tea with us & Wm set the evening in addition came Sisters Ruth, Eliza, Joanna & Rebecca - Br David & John who made a very agreeable circle

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 17, Sunday: During a lull in the fighting at Leipzig both sides were reinforced.

Fernando de Salerna replaced Juan O'Donojú O'Ryan as First Secretary of State of Spain.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 17 of 10 M / In our Morning meeting D Buffum was much favord in testimony - Illustrated the passage of Felix trembling before Paul & apply'd it to the condition of an individual or individuals present In the Afternoon we were silent. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

October 19, Tuesday: When the French began to pull their forces out of Leipzig, a rear guard was supposed to held off the advancing Allies. However, a corporal who had been left in charge of destroying the causeway out of the city got nervous and blew it up while French troops were still crossing over it. This trapped the rear guard in the city where it would eventually be obliged to surrender. Total casualties in the Battle of the Nations at this point mounted to some 92,000, not to consider thousands of civilian casualties in and around Leipzig. Wurttemberg and the rest of the Confederation of the Rhine joined the Allies against France. Saxony was occupied. Prussian troops occupied Frankfurt-am-Main. The French empire east of the Rhine was obliterated.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 19 of 10 M / I have been much occupied today in attending to the pulling down of the house which falls to me After Mother It was with much reluctance that I consented to its being taken Down as it was the place of my Youth, where I lived very hapily with my dear Aunts Patty Mary & Hannah Gould & spent many pleasant hours, & in going over it this morning recognized the various corners in which I played & Kept my pretty things in those Days, which were days free from care & trouble, & it is no small test of feelings to see it taken our of sight. - here many would think I have evinced weakness, & perhaps I may, but the scenes of my youth were pleasant & on them I love to reflect & I do not feel that there can be much harm in it - - In consequence of the extreme rottenness of the building I have been long sensible that it could never be enjoyed again as an habitation, or even as a store & The boys were daily carrying it off peace by peace. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 21, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 21 of 10 M / Attended Meeting but a dull time to me. - A Short testimony by father Rodman - Jona Dennis & Solomon B Boss dined with us - - - Sister Ruth took tea & set the evening

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 22, Friday: Maria Louisa Sampson was born in Plymouth, Massachusetts.

The Meerfeld Endowment, by Imperial decree, was awarded to Franz Schubert.

Helen Louisa Thoreau's 1st birthday.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 22 of 10 M 1813 / Last Night I watched with David Huntington & feel but Poorly today We have this Afternoon finished pulling down the old house & building the fence round the Lot. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

October 24, Sunday: In Prague, incidental music for Das österreichische Feldlager, a play by Schmidt after Schiller, by Carl Maria von Weber, was performed for the initial time.

From this day until November 5th, Persia and Russia would be negotiating the Treaty of Gulistan of 1813 that would end of the Russo-Persian War by Persia (Iran) surrendering to Russia all territories to the north of Aras River.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 24 of 10 M / In our Forenoon Meeting D Buffum was concerned in a very lively testimony, in the Afternoon we were silent. & both Meetings were unsettled seasons to my mind.-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 27, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 27 of 10 M / This forenoon was the funeral of Sam'l Elam it reached town about noon & the corps was carried to the Meeting house where was collected a considerable number of the great folks of the town & our friend David Buffum was concerned in a testimony which was pertinent & attended with power. - After Meeting the corps were enter'd in the burying ground near the Meeting house by the side of our late friend John Hadwen -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 28, Thursday: An allied administration took over in Saxony and Stolberg-Wernigerode. A Prussian administration took over in Quedlinburg.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 28 of 10 M / Rode with my H to Portsmouth & attended our Monthly Meeting. - - Dined at cousin Chases & rode home During the deliberations of this day a very exercising case occur'd - It seems that a certain friend has taken a dislike to me & thinks I have joined the party against him (as he calls it) but I believe there is no party except which wishes him all love & good Will & today he undertook to handle me in a very indirect & unhandsome manner - but I concluded it was best to take no notice of his remarks neither did any other friend & the Meeting ended very quietly. - This friend is very bitter in his spirit towards many friends & why he should be against me who never did him any harm in my life either in word or Deed, I know not - I feel nothing but love for him & hope he may yet experience the Strong man to be bound hands & feet in him -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

October 29, Friday: William Benjamin Carpenter was born at Exeter in England, the 1st son of the Unitarian Reverend Dr. Lant Carpenter.

An allied occupation administration took over in Hannover and Hildesheim.

Nicolò Paganini performed for the 1st time at Milan's Teatro alla Scala, presenting the initial performance of his "Le streghe, variations on a theme from Süßmayr's Il noce di Benevento." During this visit to Milan he met the singer Antonia Bianchi of Como, Italy.

President James Madison appointed Lewis Cass as the Governor of the Michigan Territory to serve in that capacity whenever convenient (that is, with long periods of absence during which a Lieutenant Governor would take over), until 1831.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 29 of 10 M / Rode out to the late residence of Saml Elam & met the Town Council, but the Witnesses to the Will not being present it was not Proved - The Object I had in going was to be engaged as an appraisor to the Estate - Wm Rotch having requested me to Act in that capacity. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

October 30, Saturday: An Austrian-Bavarian force that had placed itself at Hanau east of Frankfurt-am-Main, astride the line of French retreat, was decimated by the French forces.

An allied occupation administration took over in Brunswick. The Kingdom of Westphalia was dissolved. Wilhelm I resumed his throne as Landgrave of Hesse.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 30 of 10 M 1813 / I have been quite seriously indisposed today with a cold which I have labored under with a sore throat -today the soreness of the throat has much increased - but I have kept about & been out some. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 5, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, & 5th days of the Week / I have been pretty much the whole of the time confined to the House with the most severe Cold & Cough attended with a considerable degree of inflammation on the Lungs, besides which I have been so hoarse I could scarcely speak - My Cough still holds on & I have some fever remaining, but I raise pretty freely & I feel in hopes that the greatest difficulty has passed by - I was not at Meeting on first day & have not been today, & had I been in health it was my intention to have gone to Swansea to have attended the Quarterly Meeting which is held there this Day -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Arthur Schopenhauer returned from Rudolstadt to his mother's home in Weimar.

By the Treaty of Gulestan signed on this day, Russia received all Persian territory north of the Aras River (this included Abkhazia, Dagestan, Baku, and Georgia).

November 6, Saturday: Bremen was returned to the status of a free city.

The Duchy of Brunswick was restored. Duke Friedrich Wilhelm was returned to his throne.

The Electorate of Hannover being restored, Georg III (who was also King George III of England) was restored to that throne.

An allied occupation administration took over in Frankfurt-am-Main.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 6 of 11 M 1813 / I have been better of my Cold for Yesterday & today, but I raise a great deal yet. Cough hard & have a shortness of Breath which is very tedious.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

November 7, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 7 of 11 M / Attended Meeting this forenoon we had a short testimony & supplication of the merits of which, from my own state of Leanness I was no judge of – In the afternoon I staid at home for my H to go which she did & said meeting was silent.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 11, Thursday: The French garrison at Dresden surrendered to the Allies.

British troops defeated American forces at Chrysler's Farm, Montréal.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd 3rd, 4th & 5th Days / These Days have been occupied in taking an Inventory of the Personal Estate of Saml Elam at his late residence at Portsmouth, Wm Rotch Junr was there, also Thos Arnold two days, whose company was very pleasant – conversation with Wm Rotch Junr was edifying & I may safely say that the time spent with him was to proffit both spiritually & temporally – It Rained so hard on fifth Day that we could not come from Portsmouth to attend Meeting – but I rode home in the Afternoon with Wm Rotch Junr. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 14, Sunday: The Emperor Napoléon I confessed to the French Senate that its Grand Empire was no longer in existence.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 14 of 11 M 1813 / Attended Meetings which were seasons of favor but considerably obstructed by hindering things & endeavored however to keep up the contest pretty closely –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 18, Thursday: In Alabama, United States troops from Fort Strother raided a settlement of Hillabee Indians at Ten Islands on the Coosa River. The soldiers were apparently unperturbed by the fact that the Hillabee were currently in peace negotiations with the United States. 60 were killed and 250 captured.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 18th of 11 M / Our Meeting was pretty well attended & I believe was to some a season of favor – I[t] was however to me attended with Barrenness – & Poverty –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 November 21, Sunday: King Wilhelm I of Hesse was restored to his throne.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 21 of 11 M / In our forenoon Meeting A Robinson & D Buffum appeared in testimony - Much to satisfaction - In the Afternoon we were silent - Meetings today were seasons wherein my mind was favord to keep up the warfare in a good degree - I walked out to Saml Thurstons with D Rodman took tea & set the forepart of the evening. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 November 23, Tuesday: An epidemic of typhoid fever in Leipzig, possibly caused by the dead and wounded from the Battle of Leipzig littering the streets of the city and suburbs (including the Gewandhaus), produced the death of acting Police Commissioner Carl Friedrich Wilhelm Wagner.

In 1813 several British naval officers, prisoners of war, resided in Concord on parole, some of whom were taken in the Guerriere. A number left here, November 23d, but their places were supplied by others the next day. Some of them were of distinguished families and scattered their wealth with liberal hands.¹²⁷

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 23 of 11 M / Last night David Rodman & I watched with David Huntington whose situation is very distressing -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 November 25, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 25 of 11 M / Our Moy [Monthly] Meeting this Day held in town was silent - In the last we had but little buisness with which we proceeded in the love no Obstruction thereto appearing. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 November 28, Sunday: Simon Mayr's melodramma tragico Medea in Corinto to words of Romani ater Euripides was performed for the initial time, at Teatro San Carlo, Naples.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 28 of 11 M / Our forenoon Meeting was silent & I thought favor'd in the Afternoon the funeral of D Huntington went to

127. Lemuel Shattuck's 1835 A HISTORY OF THE TOWN OF CONCORD;.... Boston MA: Russell, Odiorne, and Company; Concord MA: John Stacy, 1835

(On or about November 11, 1837 Henry David Thoreau would indicate a familiarity with the contents of at least pages 2-3 and 6-9 of this historical study. On July 16, 1859 he would correct a date mistake buried in the body of the text.)

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Meeting - C R said a few Words

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 2, Thursday: The County of Hanau was attached to Hesse-Kassel.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 2nd of 12 M 1813 / Our Meeting was silent & a season of some favor to me however, Wanderings of mind was trying but were not permitted wholly to run away with The Mind from best things -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 5, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 5 of 12 M / Last night I watched with Thos G Hazard & have felt so hevy today that I did not attend Meeting - went to bed early in the evening -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 9, Thursday: A chorus for a production of Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet by Carl Maria von Weber was performed for the initial time, in Prague.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 9 of 12 M / Soon after I took my seat in Meeting my mind became settled & centerd in a favor'd frame And I can say it was a time of proffit for which I desire to be thankful -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 12, Sunday: Great Britain laid claim to the District of Columbia on the west coast of the North American continent (British Columbia), in opposition to a similar United States claim.

After three days of fighting against the British and Portuguese, French forces retreated back into Bayonne.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1 day 12 of 12 M / Our Meetings were pretty good seasons - in the forenoon D Buffum was concerned in a lively testimony - Silence in the Afternoon -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 13, Monday: James Robert Ballantyne was born at Kelso, Scotland, a nephew of the Ballantyne brothers whose publishing debts would in 1826 so embarrassed Sir Walter Scott.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*2nd day 13 of 12 M / Rode to Portsmouth with Thos Hornsby to attend the Town Council we were appointed Appraisors to the Estate of Saml Elam & render'd in the Inventory which we had perviously taken - Wm Rotch Junn was there. -
Our Ride tho' very cold was not was unpleasant as might have been expected -*

December 16, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 16th of 12 M 1813 / Our Meeting to me was comfortable & I believe I can say it was good for me to be there. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 19, Sunday morning: Captain Nathaniel Leonard arrived at the gate of Fort Niagara only to be surprised to encounter there British sentries rather than American ones (only his being a prisoner of war in Canada would prevent a courts martial). The British sallied out of the fort, torched the village of Youngstown, New York, and continued up the River Road to drive away an American detachment at Lewiston, New York and torch that village as well (by the end of the year the British troops would have also put Manchester, Schlosser, Black Rock, and Buffalo to the torch).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 19 of 12 M / I staid from meeting this forenoon to give my H an opportunity of going - In the Afternoon I went but had a rather a dry meeting - however It has been a day of no small favor - life has been near & my mind has been expanded in a manner a little uncommon on the subject of War as being inconsistent with the pure spirit of Christianity

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 23, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 23rd of 12 M / I thought our Meeting was favor'd & a degree of it was experienced in mine own particular but was much tried with rovings of mind. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 26, Sunday: Aureliano in Palmira, a dramma serio by Gioachino Rossini to words of Romani after Sertor, was performed for the initial time, in Teatro alla Scala, Milan. Unfortunately, the effort met with a cool reception.

British Foreign Secretary Viscount Castlereagh departed London for the continent.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 26 of 12 M / We had a testimony in both our Meeting of the Merits of Which I presume not to judge - they were very

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

barran Seasons to me. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 30, Thursday: Walter Savage Landor's LETTERS TO THE COURIER, SIGNED CALVUS (a pamphlet).

Hannover annexed Hildesheim.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 30 of 12 M 1813 / I have concluded not to go to Portsmouth to attend the Moy [Monthly] Meeting & I have serious doubts whether the conclusion is right. The only excuse I can offer is that I was obliged to get up last night with a severe tooth Ach & slept but little sound sleep till after 3 OClock - but my face is easy this Mornng & the day is very fine - this is the first time I have missed a Monthly Meeting in this Month since expiration of my Apprenticeship which is now eleven Years - I am however encouraged that I do not omit going easily - for it really occasions distress of mind & serious reflections. - The foregoing was written in the Mornng & from any thing I have gained in my buysness I might as well have been at Portsmouth - Nothing I have undertaken has prospered in my hands -I undertook to put a Crystal to a Watch & broke two in doing it -I have been to work on a watch all day & every thing seemed to work against me - however my mind has been tender & my spirit humble for which I desire to be thankful - With this day I complete my 32nd Year, which Also excites serious reflections

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 31, Friday: Prussians and Russians commanded by Field Marshal Blücher crossed the Rhine River near Mannheim.

In raids over the previous week, native Americans allied to the British had destroyed Buffalo and 6 other western New York towns.

Benjamin Wiley, Jr. was born to Keturah Green Wiley and Benjamin Brown Wiley.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6 day 31 of 12 M / Here completes this Year which seldom rolls round but that I feel sensible that another of my life is gone- Father & Mother Rodman spent the Afternoon & took tea with us

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

“NARRATIVE HISTORY” IS FABULATION, HISTORY IS CHRONOLOGY

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1814

January 1, Saturday: On the New York side of the Niagara River, Youngstown, Lewiston, Manchester, Schlosser, Black Rock, and Buffalo had been put to the torch. By holding Fort Niagara the British were in control not only of the mouth of the river but also of a safe haven for their warships and supply vessels.

The Emperor Napoléon I replied favorably to the allied offer of December 15th.

Hung Hsiu Ch'üan 洪秀全 was born. After being disappointed in the Confucian civil service examinations, he would have visions and come to the conclusion that he must be Jesus Christ's younger brother on a mission to redeem China (don't laugh, 25,000,000 Chinese are going to die rancid deaths on account of this fantasizing).¹²⁸

CHINESE CIVIL WAR

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 1st of 1st M 1814 / Recd this eveng a leter from my beloved friend Micajah Collins Dated 12 M 23rd - which was a very agreeable NewYears gift.—¹²⁹

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 2, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 2 of 1st M / Our Meeting this forenoon was a preciousy favored season our fr D Buffum was much favor'd in a living & baptizing testimony In the Afternoon we felt the continuation of divine regard - I don't know when I have experienced better Meetings - L L Clarke took tea with us -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

128. For all that he was JC's little brother, this guy wouldn't actually have much use for anything peculiar to the New Testament — such as for instance kindness, or forgiveness, or redemption. Instead his Christianity was going to be long on obedience, and proper worshipfulness, and his dad was to be construed as a God of vengeance. But the Tai-p'ings did have a useful list of prohibitions: there was to be no prostitution in their Kingdom of Heaven, or even divorce, there was to be no enslavement or even foot-binding, there was to be no recreational use of opium or wine or tobacco — and of course there was to be no gambling! Both the Chinese Communists of the PRC (People's Republic of China, on the mainland) and the Chinese Nationalists of the ROC (Republic of China, on Taiwan) now claim that they originated as this nativist resistance movement against the Manchu overlords in Beijing.

129. Stephen Wanton Gould Diary, 1812-1815: The Gould family papers are stored under control number 2033 at the Division of Rare and Manuscript Collections of Cornell University Library, Box 7 Folder 11 for July 1, 1812-August 20, 1815; also on microfilm, see Series 7

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 January 5, Wednesday: The Spanish Cortes returned to Madrid.

“Betsey Telock, Æ. 49, is burnt to death. It has been commonly reported, that she came to her end by spontaneous combustion from the inordinate use of ardent spirits. But it is the opinion of the gentleman, who first discovered her body, soon after the flames in her room were extinguished, that she caught her bed-clothes on fire with a candle, and thus lost her life.”

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 5th of 1st M / I Dreamed last night of seeing Our friend Mary Mitchell deceased - She seem'd to be in the Meeting house Yard in company with my Aunts Martha & Mary Gould & as I approached her she put out her hand to me & we shook hands together in the same manner in which we did when she was alive - This Dream has left a pleasant savor thro' the day -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 6, Thursday: In Concord, formation of a society for the suppression of alcohol abuse.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 6 of 1st M / Our friend Gideon Molineux & his companion Silvester Birdsill from NYork state were at our Meeting today & at Portsmouth yesterday - Gideon is a preacher of the true stamp, & manifested himself a deep searcher of States - he appeared in testimony & supplication much to the comfort of the living, & the awakening of such as were at ease - They have gone to Connanicut this Afternoon accompanied by David Buffum & John Weaver intending to have a meeting there tomorrow. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 9, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 9th of 1st M / In our fournoon Meeting D Buffum & H Dennis appeared in very acceptable public testimony - In the Afternoon we were silent - - I thought both Meetings favor'd. - In the eveng My H went with Sisters Ruth & Joanna to Thos Robinsons

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 13, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 13 of 1st M / Our meeting was pretty well attended & I thought it was a lean time for life. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 15, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

7th day 15 of 1 M / This evening I walked to Portsmouth to visit my Aged & much loved cousins Zacheus Chase & Wife – The next morning it was a severe SnowStorm which kept us within doors all Day & deprived me of Attending Meeting – The day however passed pleasantly & on 2nd day [Monday] morning I walked home & found it quite fatiguing to travel in the Snow, which however was not over my shoes except in a few places – I found my H & little son were well & done well in my absence.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 20, Thursday: Moses Prichard finally was able to get married with his fiancée of eight years, Jane Hallett. For the initial three years of their wedded bliss they would reside at Cynthia Dunbar Thoreau's boardinghouse in Concord.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 1 M 20th 1814 / Our Meeting was pretty well attended & I thought was favor'd – In the preparative meeting, Several of the Queries were remarked upon especially the one respecting the Poor & friends generally that were in ability & the Overseers of the Poor were encouraged to discharge their duty especially at this season of the Year – A request from Sally Hadwen was received to be admitted to Membership – her case is peculiar – she was born after her father was disowned, but lived alternately with her Grandmother Hadwen & Aunt Dorcas Brown who brought her up in the ways of Society & she has attended Meetings of Discipline without knowing she had no right of Membership but being now inform'd of it has now requested to be confirmed as a member –
My H spent the eveng at Gilbert Chases. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 21, Friday: Modena and Reggio were occupied by Neapolitan troops.

The Emperor Napoléon I ordered the release of Pope Pius VII from confinement at Fontainebleau.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 1 M 21 / It is this day two Years that my dear Father left time in commemorating the day my mind is led into seriousness & sensations are excited which I trust are profitable to be abode under. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 23, Sunday: Prussian troops crossed the Marne River.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1st day 23 of 1 M / Our Meeting in the forenoon was well attended- A friend appeared in testimony & supplication – In the Afternoon we were Silent Visited the Work & Alms Houses. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 27, Thursday: Creek Indians attacked the United States forces in Camp Defiance, Alabama. The attack failed but the natives inflicted heavy casualties.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 27 of 1st M / Our friends Hinchman Haines & Joseph Haines from New Jersey were at meeting Hinchman is truly a great & deep Minister – Joseph a good Preaching Elder – Jabez Green from Cornwall Moy [Monthly] Meeting in NYork State was also at meeting & preached a little to us, but the two former were of the most importance. –

In our meeting for buisness Hinchman gave us much good advice. – & a considerable buisness was before us among which a committee was appointed to report the names of some suitable friends to the Station of Elders. –

B Mott, P Lawton, A Sherman, G Dennis & I Lawton came home to Dine with us but our Chimney took fire & burned so badly that they all left us except I Lawton. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 30, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 30 of 1 M / Our Meetings were well attended- In the forenoon we had a testimony from a friend – In the evening Br J Rodman & Dr Hazard were our visitors- a short call from father Rodman. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

February 1, Tuesday: This was “Cold Tuesday” in Concord. The temperature was well below zero.

In a driving blizzard at La Rothière, a combined Allied force of Russians, Prussians, Austrians, Bavarians, and other Germans attacked the French forces. Due to the extreme weather, and some Allied blunders, the Emperor Napoléon I was able to arrange an orderly retreat. The struggle on this day nevertheless produced some 12,000 casualties, order of magnitude.

L’oriflamme de Charles Martell, an opéra comique by Etienne-Nicolas Méhul, Henri Montan Berton, Rodolphe Kreutzer, and Ferdinando Paer to words of Etienne and Baour-Lormian, was performed for the initial time, at the Paris Opéra (this was a government effort to rally support for the Emperor and for France during this invasion).

Neapolitan troops occupied Tuscany.

George Gordon, Lord Byron’s THE CORSAIR hit the bookstore shelves — and on this day sold a magnificent 10,000 copies.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 1 of 2nd M 1814 / It was my intention to have gone this day to Providence to have attended our Quarterly Meeting to be held 5th day next but the River Shut with Ice last night & the Packets do not run the expense of the Stage is rather beyond prudence for me to bare & it looks so much like a Storm & indeed Snows a little this Afternoon that it seems to be rather too great a risk & undertaking for me to Walk even as far as Warren which I had contemplated & take the Stage from thence hence I see no way but to abide in the patience & see what the morrow will bring forth - My mind has been quite unsettled most of the day - but since dinner feel more like laboring for the quiet & waiting for the event. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 2, Wednesday: The Spanish cortes passed restrictions on King Fernando VII (should he be released by the French).

Luigi Cherubini was named a lieutenant in the “corps de musique” of the National Guard in Paris.

Visiting Providence during the cold snap, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould and his travel party overnighed at Elmgrove, the home of Friend Moses Brown:

4th day This Mornng tho’ the prospect was dubious I went in the mud & slow [SNOW?] out to J Weavers & rode with him to Providence - We stoped James Maxwells in Warren & dined - then went on & reached Moses Brown before night in evening we crossed Moses Bridge. - We lodged with our fr Moses it is the first time I was ever there & found him the same interesting character at home as abroad. -

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

The following morning, on their way into Providence, they stopped off to say hello at the home of Moses's son Moses Obadiah Brown.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 3, Thursday: As the Emperor Napoléon I arrived in Troyes southeast of Paris, the citizens barricaded their houses and were refusing to aid his soldiers. Meanwhile, ministers of the four allies were meeting in Châtillon-sur-Seine.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal about a visit to the home of Friend Moses Obadiah Brown:

5th day Mornng after breakfast we rode to Providence stoped a few moments at O Browns - then went down town & did a message or two before Meeting. - At Meeting our fr James Greene opened the Service in a sound & I believe seasonable & savory testimony then Hinchman Haines in a living testimony & supplication - In the Meeting for buisness Sarah Greene - daughter of Paul was appointed to the Station of an Elder - I went with Br D Rodman to Henry Russells & dined where I saw Saml Brown & his sister Eliza who inform'd me of the decease of their Mother Lydia Brown on the 26 of 10 M last. - after dinner we gave a call at Josiah Lawtons & took a dish of tea - Spent the remainder of the eveng at Caleb Wheatens & returned to Henry Russells & lodged. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 4, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day Mornng - After breakfasting at Henrys set out for home we started from Jos Anthonys came over John Browns Bridge - stoped at Coles in Warren & bated our horse then over Bristol ferry to Holder Chases & dined & reached Home early in the eveng - With a thankful Heart that I had been once more favord to be at a Quarterly Meeting & to find my dear wife & little son in pretty good Health

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 5, Saturday: Preliminary peace talks between the French and the Allies began at Châtillon-sur-Seine — the Allies offered the French their 1792 boundaries and the French of course found that utterly unacceptable.

Der Götterbund, an allegorical drama by Meyer Beer (Giacomo Meyerbeer) to words of Kley, was performed for the initial time, for the birthday of the composer's mother.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 5th of 2M 1814 / The savor of my visit still remains &

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

I feel thankful that I have been -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 6, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 6 of 2 M / In our forenoon Meeting A friend bore testimony to the Truth In the Afternoon we were silent & I thought pretty good Meetings
In the eveng called at D Williamsses. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 10, Thursday: French forces attacked Russian forces at Champaubert, capturing General Olssufiev and allowing only a fifth of his army to escape.

The peace talks at Châtillon-sur-Seine had been getting nowhere and at this point were suspended. The allies met amongst themselves at Troyes.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 10 of 2 M / Our Meeting owing to the stormy weather was very small - two Women only attended, but it was among the preciously favor'd seasons to my mind -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 12, Saturday: Bayard à Mézières, ou La siège de Mézières, an opéra comique with music by Adrien Boieldieu, Luigi Cherubini and two others to words of Chazet and Dupaty, was performed for the initial time, in the Théâtre Feydeau, Paris.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 12 of 2 M / My Mind frequently runs to my late visit at Providence with much satisfaction & has this day been reviewed with peculiar sensations which are very pleasant. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 13, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 13 of 2 M / In our forenoon Meeting C R & D B were concerned in testimony The latter I considerd much favored - In the Afternoon a few words were droped by C R - In the eveng D
Rodman & I went our to S Thurstons & took tea. -
I consider it a season of favor to me, being often enabled to experienced the tendering influence of Divine love for which I desire to be thankful. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

February 17, Thursday: French forces attacked various German units at Mormant and Valjovan and sent them reeling in disarray.

After a week's hiatus, the peace talks were restarted at Châtillon-sur-Seine.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 17 of 2 m / Our friends Hinchman Haines & Jospeh Haines attended our Meeting this day general information was given to the inhabitants of the town but the day proving very rainy few of them attended The meeting however was large considering the weather he appear'd both in testimony & supplication in a very deep & weighty manner. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 20, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wantonould wrote in his journal:

1st day 20 of 2 M / Our Meetings were as well attended as common considering the Walking - we had short communications in each. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 24, Thursday: When the Emperor Napoléon I reentered Troyes there was general rejoicing.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 24 of 2 M / The riding was so exceedingly bad & withall a very rainy day, that I thought it imprudent to attempt to go to our Moy [Monthly] Meeting which was this day held at Portsmouth. - Nobody went from town but D Williams & his daughter Mary & they were obliged to stay out all night. -- It is not a little unpleasant to me to omit a Moy [Monthly] Meeting. I never do it but I feel the omission. -I rote this forenoon to my fr Obadiah Williams in Butternutts. - it is the first time since he left this Town. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 27, Sunday: British forces defeated French forces at Orthez, opening up southwestern France to invasion.

Symphony No. 8 in F Major, Op. 93 by Ludwig van Beethoven was performed for the initial time, in the Redoutensaal, Vienna. Audience response was warm but not uproarious. One musician in the violin section was Louis Spohr.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 27 of 2 M 1814 / My much beloved friend Philip Dunham spent last eveng with us & was at our Meeting today. he dined with us & went aftermeeting to D Buffums & to J Dennis to lodge

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

- Philip gave us evidences in both meetings of his Authority in the Gospel - I love him much & hope he will be preserved & deepen in the Truth -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 3, Thursday: The French garrison at Soissons surrendered to the Prussians and Russians.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 3rd of 3 M 1814 / Our Meeting today was well attended - & I hardly know what else to say of it - We seldom escape trial of late - as respects my own condition I thought it quite as well as common. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 6, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 6 of 3 M / Our Meeting this forenoon was large - C R preached first from the Text "Open thy Doors of Lebanon & let the fire devour thy Cedars - D Buffum was then concerned in an appropriate testimony & savory - but our meetings of late are seasons of exercise. - In the Afternoon my H went while I staid & took care of the little boy. - Sister Ruth & Br John set the eveng with us. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 9, Wednesday: At Chaumont southeast of Paris, Russia, Austria, Prussia, and Great Britain published a joint treaty creating these four countries as arbiters of the future to the exclusion of lesser powers, and pledging themselves to continue the war upon France as long as necessary and never conclude any separate peace. They backdated this document to March 1st.

Prussian troops made a surprise attack on the French at Laon sending them into headlong flight.

French forces in the south fell back to Lyons.

A British force including Lord William Bentinck landed at Livorno and made for Lucca.

Samuel Wesley's Organ Concerto in C was performed for the initial time, at Covent Garden. The music had been intended for a concert on March 4th, but had not been ready — Wesley had finished it on March 5th and then he and Vincent Novello had spent the night copying parts. The manuscript was dated March 8th.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 9 of 3 M / Our friend Mary Bonsall accompanied by Hannah Elliot & George Williams of Philadelphia came to town day before Yesterday after a meeting at Connanicut in the forenoon -rested yesterday, & today attend Meeting at Portsmouth & expect to return to town this Afternoon. –

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 March 10, Thursday: Die Eselshaut, oder Die blaue Insel, a feenspiel by Johann Nepomuk Hummel to words of Geway, was performed for the initial time, in the Theater-an-der-Wien, Vienna.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 10 of 3 M / Our fr M Bonsal & G were at Meeting Mary was concerned in Savory & acceptable in testimony – My Dear H was unable to go to Meeting in consequence of the Disposition of our little Son.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 March 13, Sunday: When Russian forces made a surprise night attack on French positions at Rheims northeast of Paris, the French repelled the attack, inflicting heavy casualties.

The Allies, having crossed the English Channel, at this point captured the city of Paris. That city's chief of police, Fouché, seeking alliances among the new authorities, suggested that they consider deporting his former boss Napoléon Bonaparte to the United States of America.

As peace broke out, young George Back found himself released from the prisoner-of-war camp at Verdun.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 13 of 3 M / Our forenoon Meeting was well attended – A testimony from friend – Text "We have a little sister who has no breasts &c --Solomon B Boss & wife dined with us – – My H went to meeting in the Afternoon & I staid at home with John who has not been well for a week past. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 March 17, Thursday: Lucca was occupied by Neapolitan troops.

Prussians defeated the French at Fismes.

After their defeat at Horseshoe Bend on the Tallapoosa River near present-day Alexander City, Alabama on this day, the defeated Red Sticks (Creeks) would be forced to flee to the Florida peninsula. Sam Houston had been twice wounded. His combat activities caught the eye of General Andrew Jackson.¹³⁰

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 17 of 3 M / Attended Meeting which was as large as usual – Asa Howland was there & took tea with us this Afternoon

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

130. Have you ever wondered about fatherless boys who go out onto a battlefield and either are killed or attract the attention of a father figure? –Have you ever wondered why they would do that? –Do such situations seem like chance events, to you? –Happenstances?

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 20, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 20 of 3 M / Both our Meetings were silent which is the first, first Day in Many Months that there has been no public offering in some part of the Day. to me both were seasons of leanness. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 22, Tuesday: A letter from the Emperor Napoléon I to Empress Marie-Louise, in which he outlined his strategic plans, was captured by Russian troops.

French troops abandoned Lyon.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 22 of 3 M / Last eveng was very Dark with very high Wind & Snow - Sam Carr was lost in the Storm in coming from the point to his house he got blown down & Bewildered lost his way, & got into the Water & was drowned - he was this Morning found not far from the house he left When his watch was brought to me to clean off the Last Water I was uncommonly shocked being the first I had heard of the Accident. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 24, Thursday: In an attempt to create divisions in Spain, the Emperor Napoléon I released King Fernando VII at Bácsara.

The Papal States were returned to the Pope (they had been annexed by Napoléon in 1809). In return, the Pope recognized the French annexation of Avignon.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 24 of 3rd M 1814 / Our Meeting today was silent but to me a favord Season - In the last Solomon B Boss & Joseph Robinson requested removal certificates - It seems discouraging in prospect to find our meeting so fast diminishing. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 27, Sunday: United States forces defeated Creek Indians at Horseshoe Bend on the Tallapoosa River of Alabama. More than 600 were killed, 146 were wounded, and some 300 native women and children were captured. Headman Red Eagle surrendered, ending the Creek uprising.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 27 of 3 M / Silent Meetings & I thought pretty good ones

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

After tea took a Walk round the Hill with Br D Rodman –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 31, Thursday: The French defenders of Paris agreed to an armistice. Allied armies, led by Tsar Alyeksandr, entered the French capital. As the Russian and Prussian armies entered Paris, Fromental Halévy broke off piano practice to help his brother stare at Cossacks marching past his home.

There being rumors that the Elysée Palace had been mined, the Tsar took up residence in the home of Charles Maurice de Talleyrand.

The Emperor Napoléon I took up residence in Fontainebleau.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 31st of 3rd M / Our first Meeting was silent & in the last (Monthly) we had an exercising time. Things however ended well – among the things which occupied our attention was the Appointment of an Elder – Jonathon Dennis was appointed & his name concluded to be sent forward to the Quarterly Meeting. I may now remark that the company of the Aged has many times of late felt peculiarly grateful to my feelings. "Blessings brighten as they takes their leave" & very pleasant was the presence of our Aged friend Thos Robinson at meeting this day when I first saw him I was glad he was able to attend, but before the buisness of the Meeting had got through he was of great use in setting a difficult Matter before us. – My mind is often affected with heviness at the prospect of the short time which several of our worthy & useful ancients have to remain with us & tho' they may outlive many of us who are young & Active yet certainly in the course of nature their days must be nearly number'd & who will be endowed with their quallifications to manage in discipline is a thing hid yet as thro' all generations there have been some raised up & quallified to carry the Ark of the testimony there is yet room to hope that the Testimony will not be left to Reproach –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 3, Sunday: Nobody loves a loser. The Emperor Napoléon I was deposed. Charles Maurice de Talleyrand-Périgord, prince de Bénévent was named the leader of a provisional government for France.

The name of the Académie Impériale de Musique (Paris Opéra) was changed to the Académie de Musique.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 3rd of 4th M 1814 / Our forenoon Meeting I believe was highly favor'd indeed I thought it much more than commonly so before any thing was Said & I believe nothing that was said hurt the solemnity Our Ancient fr D Buffum was well engaged in testimony wherein he was concerned to call the attention of the Youth to things which belong to their Peace – then a few Words

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

by Father Rodman- & then Hannah Dennis concluded the Meeting in Solemn Supplication. - Our Afternoon Meeting was silent but favor'd with Solemnity. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 7, Thursday: Lucca was occupied by Austria.

The Reverend Mr. Timothy Flint sent out a rather amazingly self-revelatory open letter to his parishioners, requesting that he be dismissed from his charge at their Lunenburg Congregational Church — a missive his parishioners would be careful to preserve.

Three respectable ministers have been here with a view to settle in this region, have become discouraged and are gone, since I have been here. Twelve at least have been in this way in this country — they are all gone. ... I also, have had enemies, and bitter ones in this place. ... My congregations ... are larger, than when Mr. Mathews, or Mr. Giddings preached here, or other ministers, who are known. ... Religion, when I came here was considered contemptible. The phalanx of opposition was in array from one end of the street to the other. Why did they invite me here? On speculation. A minister — a church — a school — are words to flourish in an advertisement to sell lots. ... I shall not attempt a vindication of my course. ... I have passed through good report and through evil report. I have endured my "cruel mockings" and my perils from "false brethren." ... I came naked here. I am naked still. ... my confidence in the God whom I serve, is deep and unabated. ...¹³¹

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 7th of 4 M / Our Meeting today was silent & to me a season of distress - - Recd a letter this Mornng from David Smith 28th Ult & Post Mark of 1st inst.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 10, Easter Sunday: George Gordon, Lord Byron wrote an ODE TO NAPOLEON BONAPARTE.¹³²

British forces captured Toulouse.

British Foreign Secretary Viscount Castlereagh and Austrian Foreign Minister Prince von Metternich arrived in Paris to represent their respective countries. They met with Tsar Alyeksandr of Russia and worked out the conditions of abdication. This was presented to Charles Maurice de Talleyrand-Périgord, prince de Bénévnt and the provisional government, who accepted them.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 10 of 4 M 1814 / Our Meeting this forenoon was pretty well attended And a season of favor - I can say ti was in good

131. The God whom he serves. Hmmm.

132. I haven't read this, and thus cannot tell you whether it contains the line "Lo, how the mighty have fallen."

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

measure so the me - D B was concern'd in testimony - - - In the Afternoon father R said a few Words.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 12, Tuesday: Napoléon Bonaparte, who since his excellent adventure in Russia had been wearing a tiny pouch of black taffeta on a string around his neck, gulped down its contents. It contained opium with a mixture of belladonna and hellebore. But his suicide potion didn't work, more's the pity — it just made him spasm and go comatose for awhile.¹³³

Down but not out

DOPE

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*3rd day 12th of 4 M / This Afternoon took a little walk with John & called on our old neighbor Briggs. - While sitting there my mind was much exercised on Marys account, she has lately become Serious & I have no doubt but her mind has been tenderly visited & reached by divine love & my fervant secret intercessions have been put up that she may not take up her rest in the barran hills of an empty profession, but Alass it is little else which I can do for her The Work must be on her own part but the Baptists have gotten hold of her among whom it is a time of much stir & many go into the Water -The young coverts are almost continually at work upon her, to get her in Also. The event must be left & whether she does or does not yeald to their importunity I shall ever believe that her mind is at present under impressions which if cultivated would lead her beyond Water Baptism or any other outward cerimony even into, spiritual Baptism & the Spiritual Supper of our Lord & Master these she may Know by the depth of experience by due attention to that holy & pure spirit which I have no doubt she hath of late felt the operations of. -
This Afternoon & while writing the above the funeral of Ann Rogers has Passed by she was a young woman of respectability but suddenly taken from time. - but a few nights ago she attended a Ball where with great mirth & gayety there she took a hevvy cold which very shortly put a period to her life - I understand she was favor'd in her illness with quiet & resignation to her situation, but I do hope her sudden Death may prove a Warning*

133. All the pain of dying with none of the benefit of death: Nazi leaders, with their cyanide-filled tooth cavities, must have learned from this Frenchman's bad example.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

to the great Party Makers & to the young people of the town. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 13, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 13 of 4 M / Day before yesterday Joseph CARPENTER departed this Life at the Alms House the Keeper being his guardian – & was this Afternoon buried from the house of his sister Anna Carpenter, in the south half of which he had the rents of during his life –he was a man of sense & agreeable in conversation but in consequence of a very sore leg for many years the smell of such as rendered his company very disagreeable. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 14, Thursday: Charles-Philippe de France, comte d'Artois was named Lieutenant-general of the Kingdom, succeeding Charles Maurice de Talleyrand-Périgord, prince de Bénévent as Head of State for France.

Prince Eugène, Viceroy of Italy, signed a peace accord with the Allies and surrendered his forces.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 14th of 4 M 1814 / In our Meeting to day my mind was agreeably & profitably employed most of the time & love was renewedly Kindled in my heart towards the small company gathered –& desires raised that we might all labor to improve our time while it lasted. – Newport has now become striped [stripped] as to numbers, many have removed away & the few which remain who are concernd to be faithful in their day have no small weight to bear
Father R bore a short testimony*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 19, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 19 of 4 M / All our aforementioned friends dined with Sister R Rodman Also which was to us a great gratification I love them all but my old & long true friend Micajah is very near to my best feelings – he & Wm Brown have left their home with a prospect of visiting the Southern Middle States as far as Ohio which they expect will not be accomplished in less than one Year, but felt their minds previously drawn to visit us a little – Their case has very tenderly excited my sympathy & I can say my heart has been this day made thankful for their company & the feelings which it has occasioned – They left our house

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

in the Afternoon to drink tea at D Buffums & expecting to lodge there tonight – The only Alloy to this day has been an afflicting Ague –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 20, Wednesday: The Emperor Napoléon I took leave of his Imperial Guard at Fontainebleau and departed with a retinue of 14 carriages toward the coast of France.

A mob attacked the Italian Senate in Milan, and the Finance Minister was tortured in an attempt to force him to give over the treasury.

Having received a parish vote of 30 yeas over 10 nays, the Reverend John White was ordained over the 3d parish in Dedham at a salary of $600 and ten cords of wood, the ordination sermon being preached by his own pastor, the Reverend Ezra Ripley of Concord (spirits, crackers, and cheese for the occasion cost $5.63).

JOHN WHITE of [Concord], son of Deacon John White, was born December 2, 1787, graduated at [Harvard College] in 1805, and was ordained over the third parish in Dedham April 20, 1814.¹³⁴

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 20th of 4 M / Our friends returned this evening Which they spent at John Rodmans & at the close of it Abijah & William came & lodged with us. – we sat up till 11 O'clock in agreeable conversation. – I understand by those who were there that Micajah was much favored in their Meeting at Portsmouth today. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 21, Thursday: A 5-man provisional government took over in Lombardy.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 21st of 4th M 1814 / Our beloved friends Micajah Collins & his wife Wm Brown & Abijah Chase were at Meeting with us Wm Brown first appeared in testimony very sweet lively & fresh from the fountain then a little before the close Micajah in a short but very feeling manner gave us much good advice. – They dined with Br D Rodman, just before they set out I went up & found them in silence I joined with them & soon Micajah addressed us in a sweet & tender manner on the subject of parting from each other & gave us much precious advice which tender'd (I have no doubt) all hearts present. mine was very much so & a very solemn covering seem'd to be over us as I think I ever witnessed – They have just called at our Door to part with my dear H – leaving us under renew'd feelings of that love which length of time nor

134. Lemuel Shattuck's 1835 A HISTORY OF THE TOWN OF CONCORD;... Boston: Russell, Odiorne, and Company; Concord MA: John Stacy
(On or about November 11, 1837 Henry Thoreau would indicate a familiarity with the contents of at least pages 2-3 and 6-9 of this historical study. On July 16, 1859 he would correct a date mistake buried in the body of the text.)

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

distance of Miles cannot separate. – They expect to lodge tonight at Benj Freeborns in Portsmouth & go on to Providence the next day, from whence they expect to go on westward, to return they know not when They have my full unity & near sympathy & very particularly dear Wm Brown who leaves at home a wife & two little children. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 24, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 24 of 4 M / Father Rodman in a short & D Buffum a pretty lengthy testimony in the forenoon – in the Afternoon the Meeting was silent – after which Father & I walked down to J Dennis & took tea. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 28, Thursday: The frigate HMS Inconstant, Captain Sir Edward Tucker, built 1783, sailed from the Mediterranean port of St.-Raphaël, with the Emperor Napoléon I aboard (he had opted for a British vessel, fearing retribution from the French navy).

The Kingdom of Italy was dissolved by Austria.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 28 of 4 M / My H and Sister Ruth have gone to Portsmouth together to attend our Moy [Monthly] Meeting which I am unable to attend in consequenc of the effects of a severe ague which I have for some time labored under, it is better but the Stiffness & soreness remain – I feel sorry to be deprived of going to Portsmouth Moy [Monthly] Meeting as I have three times in succession a circumstance which I think has never occurred since I was an apprentice. it is however a comfort to believe that the engagement is still active in my mind & I hope it will not be suffered to abate

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 1, Sunday: Andrew Jackson was commissioned a major general in the regular army with command of Tennessee, Mississippi, and Louisiana.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 1 of 5th Mth 1814 / Our Meetings were both Silent & I considerd lean poor seasons – After meeting took tea with My H & John father Rodmans

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 May 3, Tuesday: King Louis XVIII arrived in Paris and seated himself upon the throne of France.

The Sovereign Principality of Elba was created, to be ruled over by the Emperor Napoléon I.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 3 of 5 M / Our friends that went to Greenwich this Mornng to attend the Quarterly Meeting had a fine fair wind & easy time up.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 4th (Wednesday) of 5th Mo.: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 4 of 5 M / "In the midst of life we are in Death" - It has been the Day of General Election & as usual much noise & tumult in town - During which my mind has been not a little in the glooms & far from partaking in the coman merriment, so tho I have frequently said to myself (particularly this afternoon) "In the midst of life we are in Death" - Toward night heard of the recent Death of our excellenct friend Thos Scattergood of Philadelphia. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

The accumulating unused education fund of the Rhode Island Quakers having risen to about $9,300, there arose yet another scheme to divert the interest to some other more urgent non-educational purpose, and so Friend Moses Brown submitted the following letter:

The Meetings for Sufferings,
Dear friends:

As my feeble state of health prevents my attending the Meeting at this time, I thought best to inform you, that in the course of my confinement by bodily indisposition for some time past, the subject of the Yearly Meeting's School has been renewedly brought under my consideration, and believing that a permanent institution for a guarded education of the rising generation will be promotive of their usefulness in society and the honor of Truth. I have for the furtherance of these desirable objects, concluded to give a tract of land on the West part of my homestead farm, containing about Forty-three Acres for the purpose of erecting suitable buildings for the boarding School thereon; Provided the Meeting should consider it an eligible situation, and conclude to carry into effect the establishment of the benevolent institution thereon. If the Meeting should appoint a Committee to view the ground, consider the proposal and report their prospect to the next Meeting for Sufferings, which may be more generally attended, they can then Act upon it, as it shall appear to them best. You will however dispose of the proposal in this or any other way that appears to you best.

As treasurer of the School fund, I may for your information mention that its present amount is about Nine thousand three hundred Dollars. With desires that this important subject may be considered and proceeded in conformably to the mind of truth that we may hope for its blessing.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

I conclude your affectionate friend,
Moses Brown

His offer brought the value of the fund that had been being accumulated for some years, for Quaker education, to a total of $9,300 (not even close to the estimated $16,000 that would be needed). The land in question is in the area now referred to as "the East Side," but at the time was being referred to as "Providence Neck," and very obviously, it wasn't worth nearly as much then as it is worth now that it is enveloped in the most toney district of Providence. The property contained some seven acres of usable trees, and quantities of stone that might be used in the construction. At the time such land was considered to be worth about $200 per acre. The land is along what is now referred to as Olney Avenue, but at the time this road was being referred to as "Neck Road." (Neck Road ran directly up the hill along what is now Olney Avenue, turned at the top of the hill to follow what is now Morris Avenue, then turned again along what is now Rochambeau and plunged through what is now the entrance to Butler Hospital, to Swan Point and then to the Pawtucket Line. This was the track that one would follow if one wanted for some reason to, say, journey to Boston.) It was noted that the plot was situated at the crest of the hill "about Three fourths of a mile from the compact part of the Town of Providence and Friends Meeting House there, and about the same distance from the College," the Rhode Island College that is now known as Brown University. The Meeting for Sufferings adjudged this to be "a pleasant and healthy scite [sic] to erect such a Building upon."

The initial plan would be to construct two buildings, one for the education of boys and the other for the education of girls, but the expense of this would force a consolidation into one building.

May 5, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 5th of 5th M 1814 / Our Meeting was pretty large considering some are absent to Quarterly Meeting. Our Aged friend Thos Robinson & Wife were present whose company was pleasant, their Daughter Abigail was also there who has been confined by ill health for several Months.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 6, Friday: Between 4AM and 5AM, Georg Joseph Vogler died of a stroke in Darmstadt at the age of 64. At the time of his death he was penniless, having been ruined by his attempt to construct the Triorganon instrument.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 6 of 5 M / Our friends have returned this Afternoon from Quarterly Meeting after a plesant passage up & down the River. -They bring information that John Baley & Amos Peasly were there & allmost on a religious visit to this & Smithfield Quarterly Meeting

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

May 8, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 8th of 5 M / Our friend D Buffum was concern'd in the forenoon Meeting in a Savory & pathetic testimony on the necessity of the frequent reading the Scriptures warmly recommending it to the rising generation. - The Meeting however to me was a season of great leaness - In the Afternoon we were Silent & my Mind was in a more favor'd state.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 12, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 12 of 5 M / I have but a poor account to insert of myself which is that I stayed from meeting - perhaps I might have gone, but such was the State of my buisness that I omitted tho' not without considerable inward reproof. - My mind has been in a tender frame & humbled in a considerable degree under a sense of my Short comings. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 15, Sunday: Master Commandant Thomas Macdonough's squadron sailed out of Otter Creek into the Narrows, and away to the north of Lake Champlain. They would be cruising all summer about the lake, while drilling for the naval engagement they considered to be an inevitability.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 15 of 5 M / Our Meeting this forenoon was attended with rather an uncommon circumstance soon after the Meeting was settled a youngish man rose up in the young mens quarter & asked liberty to tell what God had done for his Soul & waited a few minutes, & nothing being said he went on to remark that he had been long a professor of Religion but had not possessed it but a little while, that he was brought up in the Calvinistic order & used formal Prayer &c but that the Lord was pleased to Shew him that his state was then very Dark & has since brought him into his marvelous light & confirm'd his mind that true worship

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

consisted in Spirit & truth so that he felt the Lord Power to constrain him to Publish what he had done for his soul, after giving some little account of the operations of Truth on his mind he went on to encourage christians to hold on their way & stand as examples to the flock & then to exhort Sinners to forsake the evil of their way & turn unto the Lord for grace was free to all - then the Youth he exhorted to Watchfulness & also all classes present - declaring that he Stood in fear & trembling among us as he did at all times when he undertook to speak in the Lords name - I was wholly at a loss to conjecture who he was or what he was he spoke rather broken English & I could not understand all he said, but there was not much to find fault with except his breaking the order of Society in speaking where he had not a right - - After Meeting I understood he was a Swiss & had married an Indian in Narragansett & now lived with Nicholas Geffroy & worked at the Watch making buisness. -Father Rodman said a few words D Buffum was concernd in a living & Powerful testimony & Hannah Dennis also appeard in a few words very sweetly & Truth I believed reigned in no common degree In the Afternoon our Meeting was silent except what talking our little John Gould did who was carried for the first time in his life but was so restless that his Mother was obliged to bring him home before the Meeting was fairly settled.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 19, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 19th of 5th M 1814 / Our Meeting was silent, pretty well attended but to me a season of but little Spiritual refreshment tho' I have not a Doubt but others were favord to experience the Arisings of life. -
In the Last (Preparative) Mary Perry requested Membership -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 20, Friday: King Vittorio Emanuele of Sardinia reentered Turin for the first time in 16 years and attempted to replace everyone in his administration in their old posts. The laws of 1770 were reinstituted and everyone of French descent was ordered out of the country.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*6th day 20 of 5 M / A pleasant visit this Afternoon at D Buffums.
My H & John & Mother Rodman were there -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 22, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 22 of 5 M / In our Mornng Meeting D Buffum was concerned in a lively testimony - it was to me a season very devoid of

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

life. my mind however was running on much the same subject which D B had to treat upon

In the Afternoon I was again in a barran State tho' I tried to get centered & settled but could effect but little - times & seasons are not at our command. - The Meeting was Silent -After tea took a Walk to the Beach with Br D Rodman. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 24, Tuesday: Pope Pius VII made a triumphal return to Rome.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 24 of 5 M / Our frd Amos Peasely is in Town & expects to be at our Moy [Monthly] Meeting on 5 day [Thursday] next. - Many are the Afflictions of this life. my mind has been affected with the situation of Mary Hind who had within a few days become quite distracted She is a West India woman no connections here & destitute of property. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 25, Wednesday: Ralph Waldo Emerson's 11th birthday.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 25 of 5 M / Our friend A Peasly is at Portsmouth Meeting today

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 26, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 26 of 5 M 1814 / Amos Peasly was at Meeting his Service was uncommonly lively & edifying & Powerful. indeed I do not think for power I ever heard any thing to exceed it - I have no Doubt many were sensibly edified & those who were in allmost a lifeless state had their feelings greatly quickened
In the last Meeting (Monthly) considerable buisness was transacted in good harmony -
Geo Dennis & Jos Wilbour Dined with us & Uncle & aunt Thurston & Eliz Freeborn took tea -
In the eveng took a pleasant Walk round the Point with Br D*

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Rodman —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 29, Sunday: Master Commandant Thomas Macdonough brought his fleet out of Otter Creek and came to anchor off Plattsburgh, New York.

In Paris, former Empress Josephine died of natural causes.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 29 of 5 M / In consequence of having taken some Physic last night I was not at Meeting - In the Afternoon attended which was silent & to me a dull season but not wholly without life. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 30, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 30th of 5 M / I have spent more time than was for my pecuniary Proffit in reading the Manuscript Journal of My late Cousin David Greene dec'd / but the Mind has been thereby strengthened & renew'd in the belief that to note time as it passes is far from being unprofitable. In reading his various experiences I have found that which has accorded with mine own, "as face answers face in a glass" he seemd much in the same line as I have been. he has delighted in the same rural scenes at cousin Thos Goulds in Middletown, taken the same solitary walks about the town & to Portsmouth, experienced the ebbings & flowings of divine life & had recorded many of the same errors of his life as I find in mine own. in perusing it I found my mind often much affected & almost to weeping, to find many of his exercises so congenial with mine own.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 31, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 31 of 5 M 1814 / This has been a day of Calamity, & depressing to every mind that abhors War. - Late last evening an Alarm was beat & reported that the British Brig Nimrod was beating up the west Passage after a Vessel under Sweedish colours - The Malitia went down to Gardiners beach where they staid all night & in the Mornng at About 9 OClock the Nimrod came up to the Sweedish Vessel laying at Anchor & fired an abundance of 32 / & grape Shot Sent her Barge & set fire to the Vessel the Militia went off to her to extinguish the fire & in coming from her with Some of her crew a thirty two pound shot struck the Boat Killed a young Man belonging to Middletown by the name of John Smith & dangerously wounded another belonging to this town by the name of Isaac Bassett. - This is the first time I ever heard the sound of Killing Guns. it was Awful indeed, but Alass what is the human mind capable of vast numbers went down as spectators & viewed the horid scene with composure, & many made quite a buisness to run round & pick up the Bullets to bring to town to sell which I am told brought $1 a piece.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

The independence of the City of Hamburg was restored for a 2d time.

The First Treaty of Paris was signed by Great Britain, Austria, Prussia, Russia, Spain, Portugal, Sweden, and France, returning the French boundaries to those of January 1, 1792 and restoring the Bourbon dynasty. France renounced all claim to the Netherlands, Belgium, Germany, Italy, and Switzerland. Tobago, Saint Lucia, and Ile de France were ceded to Britain. Santo Domingo was granted to Spain. Austrian rule was reestablished in Istria. The 12-year dispute over the possession of Malta ended in favor of Great Britain, by its becoming a crown colony. A clause called for the independence of the German states and their union in a federation, but that particular clause was held as a secret. It was agreed to hold a Congress in Vienna starting October 1st.

Effective immediately, this treaty prohibited the introduction of slaves into French colonies by foreigners. The treaty specified that as of June 1, 1819, the international slave trade would also be interdicted absolutely even to the French themselves. France and Great Britain agreed to endeavor to induce the approaching Congress at Vienna "to decree the abolition of the Slave Trade, so that the said Trade shall cease universally, as it shall cease definitively, under any circumstances, on the part of the French Government, in the course of 5 years; and that during the said period no Slave Merchant shall import or sell Slaves, except in the Colonies of the State of which he is a Subject." Castlereagh wrote to Austria, Russia, and Prussia in hope "that the Powers of Europe, when restoring Peace to Europe, with one common interest, will crown this great work by interposing their benign offices in favour of those Regions of the Globe, which yet continue to be desolated by this unnatural and inhuman traffic."

W.E. Burghardt Du Bois: During the peace negotiations between the United States and Great Britain in 1783, it was proposed by Jay, in June, that there be a proviso inserted as follows: "Provided that the subjects of his Britannic Majesty shall not have any right or claim under the convention, to carry or import, into the said States any slaves from any part of the world; it being the intention of the said States entirely to prohibit the importation thereof."¹³⁵ Fox promptly replied: "If that be their policy, it never can be competent to us to dispute with them their own regulations."¹³⁶ No mention of this was, however, made in the final treaty, probably because it was thought unnecessary.

In the proposed treaty of 1806, signed at London December 31, Article 24 provided that "The high contracting parties engage to communicate to each other, without delay, all such laws as have been or shall be hereafter enacted by their respective Legislatures, as also all measures which shall have been taken for the abolition or limitation of the African slave trade; and they further agree to use their best endeavors to procure the co-operation of other Powers for the final and complete

135. Sparks, DIPLOMATIC CORRESPONDENCE, X. 154.

136. Fox to Hartley, June 10, 1783, as quoted in Bancroft, HISTORY OF THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, I. 61. Cf. Sparks, DIPLOMATIC CORRESPONDENCE, X. 154, June 1783.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

abolition of a trade so repugnant to the principles of justice and humanity."¹³⁷

This marks the beginning of a long series of treaties between England and other powers looking toward the prohibition of the traffic by international agreement. During the years 1810-1814 she signed treaties relating to the subject with Portugal, Denmark, and Sweden.¹³⁸ May 30, 1814, an additional article to the Treaty of Paris, between France and Great Britain, engaged these powers to endeavor to induce the approaching Congress at Vienna "to decree the abolition of the Slave Trade, so that the said Trade shall cease universally, as it shall cease definitively, under any circumstances, on the part of the French Government, in the course of 5 years; and that during the said period no Slave Merchant shall import or sell Slaves, except in the Colonies of the State of which he is a Subject."¹³⁹ In addition to this, the next day a circular letter was despatched by Castlereagh to Austria, Russia, and Prussia, expressing the hope "that the Powers of Europe, when restoring Peace to Europe, with one common interest, will crown this great work by interposing their benign offices in favour of those Regions of the Globe, which yet continue to be desolated by this unnatural and inhuman traffic."¹⁴⁰ Meantime additional treaties were secured: in 1814 by royal decree Netherlands agreed to abolish the trade;¹⁴¹ Spain was induced by her necessities to restrain her trade to her own colonies, and to endeavor to prevent the fraudulent use of her flag by foreigners;¹⁴² and in 1815 Portugal agreed to abolish the slave-trade north of the equator.¹⁴³

June 2, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 2nd of 6 M 1814 / Meeting rather small but attended by several of the Worthys who thro' Age & infirmitys have not Steadily attended of late Vizt Sarah Robinson & daughter Abigail & My Cousin Bathsehba Gould whose presence was comforting to me. Was favoord with quuiet tho' roving of mind tried me a little, & had the watch been faithfully kept up a greater degree of favor doubtless might have been experienced - It seem'd to me to be a season of favor to many present - One Short appearance in the Ministry C R to pretty good satisfaction - My dear H was there we have gotten quite at ease with respect to attending Meetings of late. We take our beloved little John put him to Bed & leave him a slepp & the hand of Morpheus seldom leaves him till we return.

Saw at Banisters Wharf the Brig that was set on fire by the British on 3rd in the east Passage she was towed round to day

137. AMERICAN STATE PAPERS, FOREIGN, III, page 151.

138. BRITISH AND FOREIGN STATE PAPERS, 1815-6, pages 886, 937 (quotation).

139. BRITISH AND FOREIGN STATE PAPERS, 1815-6, pages 890-1.

140. BRITISH AND FOREIGN STATE PAPERS, 1815-6, page 887. Russia, Austria, and Prussia returned favorable replies: BRITISH AND FOREIGN STATE PAPERS, 1815-6, pages 887-8.

141. BRITISH AND FOREIGN STATE PAPERS, 1815-6, page 889.

142. She desired a loan, which England made on this condition: BRITISH AND FOREIGN STATE PAPERS, 1815-6, pages 921-2.

143. BRITISH AND FOREIGN STATE PAPERS, 1815-6, pages 937-9. Certain financial arrangements secured this concession.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

about 40 Hogs heads of Molasses was saved, but the wreck exhibits a scene of destruction, her quarter deck is burned allmost to the Water it looks like a mere Shell. - Alass for a State of Warfare When will Mankind beat their swords into Ploughshares & learn the horid Art no more. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 4, Saturday: King Louis XVIII issued the Constitutional Charter, claiming hereditary right to the throne of France with a permanent bicameral parliament.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 4th of 6th M 1814 / This evening Mail from Boston brings News Papers containing accounts of great events in Europe, nothing short of another complete revolution in the Government of France - Bonepart is seems has yealded his Aunthority to the family of Burbons & Lewis the 18th is now on the Throne, thro' the instrumentality of the allied Powers who have followed him to Paris & made this Great Wonderful & strange overturn in the state of things. - The world therby is rid of one of the greatest, if not the greatest Tyrant that ever existed, who has been a Terror to the Nation around him for Years. - but while I can feel this event as of great importance to the World, may I not allow my mind to rejoice at it not knowing what is for the best. - The change has not been effected but by great slaughter & blood shed of the human species, Milions of lives has it lost. Alass shocking & miserable has been the state of Poor Europs for years. my heart has often felt deeply affected at the multiplied accounts of battles that have been fought on her "delightful plains" - & I greatly desire the Sword may now be sheathed & the period predicted by the Prophet Isiah when the "Lyon & the Lamb shall lay down together" be hastened. - Alass for our poor Country of America, now at War, may she also, be blessed with returning PEACE

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 5, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 5 of 6 M / Our Meeting this forenoon, I thought was unusually favord was favord in my own particular with a good degree of reverant quiet The Mind however at times wont to rove. - Our friend D Buffum in testimony labord faithfully tho the forepart of it in weakness - he introduced the Passage of Martha & Mary. enforced the necessity of choosing the better part - Warned us against a security within ourselves contenting with a Morral life &c - C Rodman sd a few words After Afternoon Meeting Silent & to me Solemn & favord - after talk a

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Walk to the Alms House with Br D Rodman –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 6, Monday: The Duchy of Guastalla was returned to sovereignty by the allies, under Duchess Maria Luigia (former Empress Marie-Louise of France).

Tsar Alyeksandr, King Friedrich Wilhelm, and Prince von Metternich arrived at Dover for an official visit to England in celebration of the defeat of the Emperor Napoléon I.

A council dismissed the Reverend Timothy Flint from his charge at the Congregational Church in the Lunenburg portion of Fitchburg, Massachusetts.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 6th of 6 M 1814 / My dear Mother has been quite unwell for several Days but her Medicine has had a favorable effect & I think her better today. - She related a little experience of hers today. She says that about five years ago soon After Aunt Molly Wanton lost her reason & several trying instances existing in the family, one day in particular her mind was greatly under pressure of Affliction & to add to it one of the family had stuck a Nail in their foot which added to her agitation. after the difficulty of the Nail a little subdsided she set down & Wept then took up a book, a Sermon Called the Covenant preached by James Muir D D & read a little in it then sat still a while & it came into her Mind to get Bogatzkys Golden Treasury & see what the Text was for the Month & day of the Month that she was born Vizt 5 M 11th & found it to be "How long wilt thou hide thy face from me O Lord Psal XIII.2 - Divine Answer: For a small moment have I forsaken thee, but with great Mercies will I gather thee. In a little wrath I hid my face from thee for a moment, but with everlasting kindness will I have mercy on thee: for this is as the Waters of Noah unto me, for as I have sworn that the Waters of Noah should no more go over the earth so have I sworn that I would not be wroth with thee nor rebuke thee Isa IVI.7.9." Which text was the same with the Sermon she had just before read & she said, the effect was such as soothed her mind & comforted her up, & the Clouds seemed quite to dispell for a season. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 7, Tuesday: George Anson Byron was promoted to Captain.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 7 of 6 M / Attended Town Meeting being the Election of Town Officers considerable opposition to those of last year was expected, but the greater part of the solid freemen attended & Most Friends of the Town were present which I have no doubt prevented much delay in the buisness as those who were disposed

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

to oppose were thereby discouraged - The whole buisness of the Town was conducted without a single paper Vote. - I thought I was never more sensible of the good effect of the countenances of solid people on the conduct of the loose minded, & I differ much in sentiment with those who think Friends ought not to Attend Town Meetings. I believe they may & have done in this Town much good many times for there is something in the Countenances of a weighty Friend which carries Awe over others. & it is my solid judgement that if Friends in some sections of this Country had timely exerted their influence in a proper Manner the present disastrous War might have been Averted.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 8, Wednesday: Hostilities began at St. Leonard's Creek. (This would go on for some time.)

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 8 of 6 M 1814 / We had the company of our interesting neighbour & friend Mary Briggs & Mariah Mumford this Afternoon & Sister Mary joined us in the evening - - I felt near sympathy with Dear M Briggs, her mind appears very tender & sweet & I have no doubt is preciously visited with the "Day Spring from on high" I read to her the acct of Thos Burling of N York who died some years ago at the Age of 14 Years - the acct of his Pious close & lively expressions of the times with his Sisters dream after his death was affecting to her mind & drew the pearly tear. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 9, Thursday: John Kimball de Laski was born in St. John, New Brunswick.

At a dinner with the Prince-Regent in Carlton House, King Friedrich Wilhelm of Prussia, the Earl of Liverpool, and Viscount Castlereagh were invested as Knights of the Garter.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 9 of 6 M / Our Meeting to me was a favord One, & my heart was made renewedly thankful under a sense of the extendings of divine goodness In the forepart of it a travel [travail] was experienced for one on whose account I have at seasons of late felt much for & who my prayer is may find the right Way - After which I was led to reflect on divers persons some who lived before & some since my remembrance, who filld seats in that house & now are called from works to reward. - we who now meet there, are also hastening fast to the final change to experience what they have passed thro' before us. & may our change be as glorious as there is reason to believe some of theirs have been. - Our friend Mary Varney was present & toward the close of the meeting got hold of the State of it pretty well & declared the Truth with boldness among us, to the tendering of divers minds. -

HDTWHAT?INDEXFRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Notwithstanding the aforementioned state of favor, roving & unprofitable thoughts sometime presented. but were not premitted to get the Assendancy very far. -
The experience at Meeting has continued thro' the afternoon -Oh how precious is a tender mind. - This eveng Br D Rodman called & gave us a view of a couple of letters from Avis Mumford of this town now residing in New Bedford to her Brother & Sister. She displays an excellent talent at writing - fine sentiment & withall a pious seeking mind.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 10, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 10 of 6 M / Yesterdays savor has been renew'd today, under which my heart [h]as been thankful to the Author of All Good.

We have begun to prepare for Yearly Meeting & towards Night Saw our ancient fr John Casey from Greenwich go up street with a company with him among whom was Thos Howland who stoped & took tea with us & set the eveng in interesting conversation -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

7th day 11th of 6 M: At the New England Yearly Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends, as recorded in the diary of Friend Stephen Wanton Gould, the prospect of a Yearly Meeting School would be discussed. Friend Moses Brown was offering a lot of 40 Acres on his farm near Providence, Rhode Island:

7th day 11th of 6 M 1814 / Yearly Meeting has now commenced, Friend have come plentifully into Town - Our family consists of Ezekiel Jones & Wife Isaac Bassett & his Wife - Dan'l Johnson Saml Philbrook. Estes Newhall Ezra Collins & Thos Anthony as lodgers. - My mind & body much engaged, but favord to keep in a good degree of patient quiet. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 12, Sunday: Emperor Franz I of Austria was proclaimed King of Lombardy, which he of course annexed.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day / The forenoon meeting was large & favord John Moore a Physician of Pensylvania was very large in testimony. he declared the Truth with good natural ability of Mind, & with no common Share of divine Authority - My post was door Keeper which I endeavor to fulfill with all my abilities - I never set down during the whole meeting & being at the door had an opportunity to observe the countenances of those about, anxious to hear - My mind was sensibly affected to see how desirous they were to hear, many of them afraid to go into the house for fear they would have to set still a little while - I did very feelingly

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*deplore the state of poor Mankind many of whom seem desirous of no better food than Words - & notwithstanding my fatigue of body my mind, was favord with a good degree of feeling quiet
The Afternoon Meeting very large but as still as common & I thought considerably more so than common Doctor John Moore again the only laborer, his preaching both for matter & manner much resembles Rich Motts. I thought him not quite so favor'd as in the Morning. - the people were much pleased with his testimony. - I dont remember of both our first day meetings at the Yearly Meeting time, passing with but two commemorations & both of them from one man - several of our lodgers took tea out, their places were supplyd at table by several from Lynn & Salem friends -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 13, Monday: Angéla ou L'atelier de Jean Cousin, an opéra comique by Adrien Boieldieu to words of Montcloux d'Epinay, was performed for the initial time, at the Théâtre Feydeau, Paris.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day / Our Meeting met at the usual time I thought not under as solemn covering as I had witnessed, but in good measure. - The public service was a short & savory Prayer by Joseph Douglas & a few words from C Rodman discussing forward appearances which I hope will not be taken by the feeble ones as a blow at them - After a space of about half an hour D Buffum proposed our proceeding to buisness. The usual rotine of which was gone through - Epistles from the Yearly Meetings of London, Baltimore, Philadelphia New Garden & New York were read & a corresponding committee appointed. nothing further remarkable at this time -

Afternoon, the meeting met at the 3rd hour, as usual at this sitting we had much preaching. The State of Society was enterd into & a number of deficiencies confessed in the Answers. - Remarks were made by James Hallock Danl Haverland & John Moore from abroad -Moses Brown Wm Almy C Rodman & Benj Percival of our own members were most conspicuous. The latter appeared in an humble Prayer much to the comfort of some present. - Three of the committee in the case of Folger Popes appeal refer'd from last Year being absent -at his request he was called in & three more added in his presence The Meeting then Adjourned to the 4th houe tomorrow Afternoon

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 14, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day / The meeting met at the time adjorned, was opened under a solemn covering, a pathetic testimony by D Haveland chiefly in address to the youth, he then asked liberty to set a while

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

in the womens apartment which was given & Our fr Moses Brown accompanied him. – Committee to report the State of the treasury reported. O Brown for treasurer. that there was 400 Dolls in his hands & 400 Dolls necessary to be raised. – The Committee in the case of Folger Popes appeal then reported. they confirmed the judgement against him, a very solemn covering was witnessed over the Meeting. after Minute was made & the report accepted he was called in, took his seat on the right hand on the front seat of the Old mens quarter, after a solemn pause of about five minutes Saml Rodman the Clerk rose up & read the report & Minute. in a few minutes the Appellant rose & requested liberty to give reasons to the Meeting why the report ought not to be accepted – The Clerk rose & informed him with consistent & in a very dignified manner, that it would be contrary to the usage of the Meeting to admit such remarks when a committee had reported their judgement & in the report asserted that they had given the parties a full hearing – Folger then remarked that he thought it within the limits of discipline to Allow such indulgence & went on a little further & left the Meeting observing he left it for our consideration & passed out of the Meeting. – Solid & solem remarks were made by John Casey & D Buffum. – The Minutes of the Meeting for Sufferings were then read by which it appear'd the subject of the Yearly Meeting school had been before them & that our friend Moses Brown had offered a lot of 40 Acres on his farm near Providence. This subject brought great weight over the Meeting which seemed fully united in the belief that the time had come when it might be Moved forward in with great safety than at any period heretofore. –[a Minute was made on Singly encouraging friends to promote subscriptions throughout the Yearly Meeting & a minute made recommend the care of the buisness of the Meeting for Sufferings. These lines were crossed out] The Epistle from Virginia Yearly Meeting was recd & read at this time.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 15, Wednesday: A joint Austrian/Bavarian administration took over in Birkenfeld.

The Netherlands abolished the slave trade.

Ministers meeting in London decided to move the meeting of the Congress of Vienna from July 1st to August 15th.

Johann Nepomuk Hummel's singspiel Die Rückfahrt des Kaisers to words of Veith was performed for the initial time, in the Theater-an-der-Wien, Vienna.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day / Meeting opened with a little excellent preaching by John Moore he principally address to the Youth [one line crossed

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

out] at this [repeat of 2 day] sitting the corresponding committee produced essays of Epistles to the yearly Meetings of London New Garden, Baltimore, Virginia Philadelphia & New York also one for the new Yearly Meeting established last Year at Ohio which were agreed to after a little alteration in some of them. – The Subject of the Yearly Meeting School came again before us & it was unanimously agreed & a minute made recommending subscriptions throughout the Yearly Meeting for the Promotion of it The Meeting adjourned to the 4th hour in the Afternoon. –

Afternoon met by adjournment – John Moore again preached excellently & Danl Haveland appeared in a living Powerful & Humble Prayer for all ranks & discriptions in society. – The Meeting was occupied chiefly in finishing unfinished minutes preparing endorsements for friends that were with us from other Yearly Meetings & was concluded by fervant prayer by John Moore

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 16, Thursday: Emperor Franz I returned to Vienna amidst joyful festivities and a public holiday.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day Our frinds have mostly left us this morning for their own homes which leaves our houses destitute to what they have been for a week past. – The Meeting was large, much favor'd & I believe to the satisfaction of all & the edification & comfort of many present. – James Hallock was first & largely favor'd in testimony, then John Moore, J Hallock rose a Second time & J Moore followed in a fervant Prayer – Hannah Dennis had a few words in conclusion which considering the favor'd state the Meeting was left in, had an unusual good effect – This Afternoon J Moore attended as physician with Several of this Town to extract a Cancer from cousin Elizabth Gould Breast which was very favorably performed. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

QUAKER EDUCATION

June 18, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day [sic] 18th of 6 M 1814 / This Afternoon we had the Company of Cousin Martha Hazard. My Mother. Br Isaac Sister Sally. & Thos Hornsby to set the Afternoon & take tea with us. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 19, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1st day 19th of 6th M / Our Meeting this mornng was large & tho' there was considerable preaching I thought it rather a dull season Daniel Clapp of Pomfret spake a few words - then David Buffum pretty lengthy in a seasonable, appropriate & savory testimony. Then Hannah Dennis shot [short] but with her usual Sweetness. -Sister Ruth Dined with us - Silent in the Afternoon with Br D R walked out to J Dennis & took tea. - Sister Rebecca Rodman got comfortably to bed this evening with a fine boy We all feel thankful on her account -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 21, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 21 of 6 M / Cousin Nathan Hazard & Thos Hornsby took tea with us. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 23, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 23rd of 6 M / The infirmities of my nature predominated in my Thoughts so far in meeting that tho' I labord to get the mind centerd on good, was frustrated. till Hanna Dennis broke the bread among us. perhaps there might not have been twelve basket fulls left, but certainly my mind was in a much better condition after her communication than before & I have no doubt the meeting generally were edified

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 25, Saturday: Austria regained sovereignty over Tirol.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 25th of 6 M 1814 / This forenoon by previous agreement Br John Rodman & I went to Portsmouth on our way stoped at the new Stone Factory now building in the crossroad near the Bridge on Lawtons Gulley. it is now nearly to the tops of the window frames of the second story & appears to be built in a substantial manner, after examining it a little we went to Thos Potters where I soon accomplished the little buisness I went upon. from there we crossed the field & went to Anne Anthonys, spent about 3 hours very agreeably & drank tea, then went to Peter Lawtons & finding him from home went down to I Lawtons & set the evening - returned to Peters & lodged & found him at home - Next Mornng after breakfast we walked Down on Benj Motts farm to see the new factory their building of Stone by E W Lawton. Geo Engs & Co. which we found nearly in as great state of forwardness as the other, after walking round & contemplating a little on things

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

around &c we bent our way to the Meeting house but found it early Meeting time & stepd to the Widow Almys where we rested a little & return'd to meeting, which was large solemn & silent, but I found the previous exercise I had taken was more than convenient for my body, & the mind unable to rise above it. a good degree of favor was however experienced. -After Meeting we walked to Uncle Sam Thurstons & dined. found him & wife settled more to their minds than at their former residence, after dinner proceeded homeward, a shower overtook us & we halted a little at Rich Mitchells, took a little refreshment & came home with fatigued limbs - found my H & John at father Rodmans where I took a dish of Tea & came home. -

This visit without exceptions as to the outward is one of the most Pleasant I have had in many years. There seemed to be no alloy, we accomplished all we set our to do & a little more, which with a good degree of innocency attended our own minds & the scenery around, renderd it proffitable in a good degree, tho' perhaps not so much divine favor attending the mind as at some others when the outward was less favourable.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 29, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 29 of 6 M 1814 / Mary Babcock sent for me this forenoon to come & see her. I found her quite feeble & weak, but so as to be sitting up in her chair. She expressed a wish to Make a Will which she had done several times before at prvious visits. I took the Minutes & came home rote the Will & went again after dinner & she executed it. - She seemed quite sensible that the day of her dissolution draws near & expressed a wish to be buried in friends ground but I told her that as her relations were all laid in the common I thought she had better be also. She seemed readily to relinquish the prospect. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 30, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 30 of 6 M / Rode with my H & our little J S G to Portsmouth, stoped at Anne Anthony's where we left John & went to Meeting - In the first Jeremiah Austin preached - - In the last buisness was conducted with as much weight & solemnity as I ever knew in a Monthly Meeting - After the buisness was ended that remained on the Minutes Jonathon Dennis proposed in quite a weighty manner that that part of Discipline which requires the appointment of Visitors be revived, which obtained the weighty consideration of the Meeting & drew many seasonable & pertinent remarks, particularly from D Buffum Saml Thurston C Rodman & Benj Freeborn

The subject was so weighty in the Meeting that it was laid before

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

the Womens Meeting & left for further consideration till next Month. –

After Meeting we returned to A Anthonys found John had done well in our absence Dine & rode home –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 1, Friday: Elijah Hinsdale Burritt joined the Congregational Church of Simsbury, Connecticut.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 1 of 7 M 1814 / This morning before I was up, message was sent that Mary Babcock had departed this life about 1 / 2 an hour before I arose & went to [-] Durfees where I had boarded her for several Months gave the necessary directions as her Guardian & returned to breakfast In the instance of her death the necssity of speedy attention to things appertaining to the final close of time is renewedly & forcibly suggested to the mind. Several weeks ago she sent for me to consult about making her Will. I left with her such advice as I thought necessary & she was to consider of it & when her mind was made up send for me, which she did three weeks before, but I neglected going untill she sent again when I found her quite ill & a necessity for immediate attention. Tho' I did not then think her change quite so near.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 3, Sunday: American forces and their native allies crossed the Niagara River and captured the British garrison of Fort Erie.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 3rd of 7 M 1814 / In the forenoon meeting a few words were spoken by father Rodman & a pretty good meeting, tho' myself tried with roving thoughts. - Left Meeting in the Afternoon to attend the funeral of my Ward Mary Babcock, being the last service I could perform for the body. - She was buried from the house of Benj Durfee at the foot of Belview Street where I put her to board last spring & where I believe she has had every attention paid to render her situation as comfortable as her very infirm & helpless state would admit.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Our national birthday, Monday the 4th of July: Nathaniel Hawthorne's, or Hathorne's, 10th birthday.

The 4th was celebrated in Honolulu, Hawaii with a dinner ashore, as artillery salutes were fired from ships in the harbor.

In New-York, Uri K. Hill sang an "Ode" written especially for the occasion while Commodore Stephen Decatur, an honorary member of the State Society of the Cincinnati, dined with that association in Tontine Coffee House.

The Declaration of Independence was printed in the Philadelphia Aurora General Advertiser.

In Ashburton, England, American prisoners of war celebrated the 4th by drinking 18 toasts.

CELEBRATING OUR B-DAY

At Halifax, Nova Scotia, George Back became a midshipman aboard HMS Akbar.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 4th of 7 M / Considering It is Independence Day there has been but little Muster in town to what is usual at the Annual return of this Day. it is a time of Mourning in the land. The countenances of most people are sadned at the sorrowful situation of our national concerns in general but particularly the difficulty that we have been placed under since the general Blockade of the British on the Coast. "Commerce does indeed droop her head" & her almost every movement is hung in Cypress, besides the fear which exists of an attack, and our peaceful dwelling, rased to the dust -these things tend to cast a gloom on all around & Oh that the people would turn it to their lasting Benefit. - My heart has been many times affected under a sense of things as they are, but alas to see & feel is all I can do. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 5, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 5th of 7 M / Mary Briggs is very sick & is this very warm day suffering under a tedious Blister, my mind is alive to her case it feels more than I know how to express - She has a very near place in my heart, but I fear unless a change takes place speedily for the better in her health, that the time fast approaches when ties of Affection must be broken I called to her home this Afternoon but found her so feeble as to render it improper to go into her room. -

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

My Mother & Izabel Gardiner set the Afternoon with us.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 6, Wednesday: The Quadriga was restored to its place on the Brandenburg Gate (this symbol of the Prussian state had been removed by the Emperor Napoléon I in 1806 and was brought back to Berlin by Marshal Blücher).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 6th of 7th M 1814 / Uncle David Lawton & his daughters Ann & Hannah Dined and spent the day with us also Sister Ruth - In the Afternoon I went with uncle David to Thos Robinsons where we set an hour in agreeable conversation. The old man & his wife relating several old but interesting Anecdotes, some of them particularly of the Wanton family. - We had in addition to the foregoing at tea the company of Hannah Dennis & daughter Anne. Margaret Buffum & Sister Eliza & Mary In the eveng Edw & Mary Lawton & J Sherman came in, making a very pleasant & agreeable circle. -

While I was at Thos Robinsons with Uncle David the old man related the following. He said the way the Wanton family came to settle on R I was - In Scituate Massachusetts where Edw Wanton first settled there was great persecution of Friends of which society he was convinced under the Gallows when Mary Dyre & her friends were hanged The Priest of the town of Scituate took great pains to do many things to try the feelings of Edw & his family & among which he named his dog Wanton. Edw two sons Wm & John not being in the same spirit of non resistance as their father, was determined on giving the Priest a severe whipping & knowing at the same time it would be unsafe to reside afterwards in Scituate provided themselves with Horses to come off full speed for R I They accordingly put their plan into execution whiped the priest unmercifully, mounted their horses & came away, but before they got far, at a Tavern they were overtaken by a concourse of Presbyterians who surrounded the house. Wm & John looked out of the Windows & determined on an adventure, they accordingly rushed out of the house with sticks in their hands beat their way through the crowd, & seeing the Presbyterians horses were better than their own siezed them & galloped off, these two men were no small adventurers thro' life. Tho John became afterward a very religious Man & Public friend - after they were settled on R I & While they were young in years Pirates infested the Coast the two Wantons volunteered their service to go out after them which they did & finally succeeded in bringing them in - In one of their cruises after these pirates they put into Martha's Vineyard & Richd Ward was on board, who determined to furnish himself [a number of pages missing]

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

July 19, Tuesday: Samuel Colt, American gunsmith and inventor, was born.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 19th of 7th M 1814 / The times are gloomy & sadly affecting - This day I have witnessed the passing along our streets of Militia companies going to take different stations, & Oh how Awful to see men pass by in full health, some of them too as Drunk as they can stand - they not knowing how soon their existence may be in another world or sadly maimed for life. - As one company passed down Street, very soon followed the young man (Isaac Bassettt) who had his leg shot off 31st of 5 M last when the Nimord in the east Passage his countenance pale & wan. -such thinks I is the miserable consequence of War. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 21, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 21st of 7 M / Our meeting was silent & I believe solid to many minds & might by me have been better enjoyed had it not have been for a little unwatchfulness in the beginning & weakness of body before the close - the last (preparative) the Queries were Answered in which I took an active part in weakness, believing it my duty so to do - & felt satisfied therewith. I have often seen ways made where none has appeared to my humbling admiration & today has been a renew'd evidence of care of my friends & of Providence extended. - When we returned from Meeting we found at our door a Barrel of Flour, & on inquiry found it a present from Uncle Stanton of N York - It came in a vessel which arrived last eveng having narrowly escaped capture by a British Barge. - - I believe I feel humbly thankful for this favor. - My H & John set the Afternoon at our old neighbor Briggs - -Mary seems to be getting better. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 22, Friday: At Greenville in Ohio, the United States of America made peace with several native American nations (Wyandots, Delawares, Shawnee, Senecas, and Miami), that had previously been British allies.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 22 of 7 M / At our pause at dinner table my mind was renewedly humbled under a sense of the Bounty of Providence - The vegetables on the table were the produce of my garden & of a delicious quality, & in eating them greatful sensations were excited to the giver of all things. - John Earl & wife, Eunice Clark & hudson Jacob, Sarah Earl & Father & Mother Rodman spent the Afternoon & took tea with us.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

--I attended the funeral of John M Mansfield.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 24, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 24 of 7M 1814 / Our forenoon meeting was a quiet season. Father Rodman had a few words to communicate. Afternoon silent between Meetings walked with Saml Wood of NYork to Avis Carpenters & made a short but plreasant visit, & found for the first time found I was related to her & her family & that her children were third cousins, by way of the Stantons After meeting in the afternoon walked with Saml to David Buffums & took tea after which we took a walk on Tomany Hill Saml seem'd much pleased with the extensive prospect & the scenery around. He seems to be a very goodly friend. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 25, Monday: The Prussian marshall, Gebhard Leberecht von Blücher, was the toast of England, and even the sight of his boots got Londoners hot by reminding them of how easy it was for their wearer to have people killed. On this day at Killingworth Colliery near Newcastle, England, George Stephenson's locomotive, named, guess what, the Blücher—the 1st really adequate locomotive—made its initial run.

The engine hauled coal trucks.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 25 of 7 M / Rose before Sunrise, took chaise & with Sam Wood Rode to the Place called Purgatory near Learlaw[?] west Beach & Rode home thro' Green End a rout I never was before, found it as pleasant tract of Country as any on the Island - At Purgatory I have been twice before but not since I was Boy, its appearance I readily recognized also the Marked Rocks nearby where when I was there last I put my name but found the "All subduing hand of time" had obliterated it. many names placed there - & engraved deep still remain among which I Observed Thos Rotch in 1784 & another in 1764 the name I do not reclollect. -

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*This little ride was peculiarly interesting both to me & Saml.
he was much animated in contemplating the works of nature & I was glad of the opportunity of obliging him by conducting him to these favorite haunts of the Curious.*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

July 28, Thursday: Percy Bysshe Shelley escaped the annoyance of his pregnant wife Harriet Westbrook Shelley and his infant daughter Ianthe Shelley by running away with a teenager, Mary Godwin Wollstonecraft, to Bourbon France. They took along with them another 16-year-old adventuress, Percy's step-sister Mary Jane Clairmont, and this ménage would be moving quickly through war-ravaged France into Switzerland.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

5th day 28 of 7 M / Attended our Moy [Monthly] Meeting this day held in town - The first was silent & the last a season of but little life - as Dr Rutty says "the fire was under the Ashes" - The subject of appointing visitors was revived but so little life being felt in the meeting was dismissed for the present -- Jethro F Mitchell & wife & B Pearce dined with us

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 31, Sunday: When Carl Maria von Weber arrived in Berlin, he found the city in a state of nationalistic excitement on account of the defeat of the Emperor Napoléon I.

Brigadier General Alexander Macomb's brigade, made up of the 6th, 13th, 15th, 16th, and 29th regiments, set out in boats from Cumberland Head for Chazy Landing while Bissell's brigade, made up of the 5th, 14th, 30th, 31st, 33d, 34th, and 45th regiments, began to march toward Chazy. Invalids, and 200 effectives, were left behind to finish the military works on Cumberland Head. At this point there were 4,500 men in or to the rear of the village of Champlain, and a working party of 400 under Colonel Fenwick was completing three redoubts there.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 31st of 7 M 1814 / Our Meetings were both silent & I believe seasons of favor, as respects my own condition it would rank about middling - tho considerably tried with roving of mind - Towards night took a walk to the Work & Alms houses with Br D Rodman. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 3, Wednesday: Ludwig van Beethoven's Elegischer Gesang "Sanft wie du lebstest" was performed for the initial time, in the house of Baron Johann von Pasqualati, Vienna.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 5 [sic] of 8 M 1814 / Yesterday by mail a letter from Aunt M Stanton in NYork - replied to it this Mornng & put it in the Mail -this Afternoon meeting with a private conveyance & Thos Casey rote another to Uncle Stanton. - Elijah Waring arrived in town this Afternoon & took quarters at Aunt Anna Carpenters. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 4, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 4 of 8 M / Rode with Sister Ruth to Portsmouth - My H went in a Chaise with Eliza being a good driver, & Ruth affraid to go with Eliza, caused our separation. - before meeting we stoped at Uncle Saml Thurstons - In the first Peter Hoxie was concernd in a lively testimony, then James Green sound orthodox & to my feelings very savory - Then Abel Collins in a supplication - Then Sylvester Weeks in testimony feelingly then

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Peter Hoxie addressed the Youth - then Abigail Robinson sound sweet & Savory - In the last being the Quarterly Meeting we had but little buisness - The answers to the Queries excited some feeling remarks from Wm Almy -John Casey & Peter Hoxie particularly on the appearance of defects in the Attendance of mid-week Meetings - but my mind was much more alarmed at the very cautious manner in which several of the answers stood respecting Love & Unity as for instance "Love & Unity measurably subsists among most friends" leaving room for much disunity to exist unnoticed. -

We all dined at Anne Anthonys. - towards night rode home & found our little John had done well with our Kind old neighbor Briggs who took care of him in our Absence.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 5, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 5th of 8 M / We had the agreeable company of Elijah Waring & wife from Philadelphia at tea also Aunt Anna Carpenter & Lewis Clarke & Aunt Anna says it is the first time she ever sit the afternoon & took tea with any of the tennants that ever lived in this part of the house, a great favor indeed. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 6, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 6th of 8 M 1814 / My Mind is this eveng rather more than common under an humbling sense of my own weaknesses & deficiencies which excites seriousness & tenderness of Heart. - & desires renewedly arise for deliverance from every evil bond - Yesterday I recd a very acceptable letter from my beloved friend Micajah Collins dated [-] Penna 7 M [-] which I forgot to insert yesterday. I love Micajah much. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 7, Sunday: During celebrations for the return of the King of Prussia in Berlin, Carl Maria von Weber was thrown by the crush of the crowd under the wheels of an oncoming carriage. He was saved just in time by his friend Ludwig Tieck.

The papal suppression of the Society of Jesus of 1773 was rescinded by Pope Pius VII.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 7 of 8 M / Pretty good meetings. Our friend Peter Hoxie attended & had good service - In the forenoon In testimony & Supplication also Hannah Dennis in testimony twice & very sweetly -In the Afternoon Peter was again concerned in

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Testimony. & father Rodman in Supplication - My old mistress Mary Williams with her cousin Nancy Brown & her daughter took tea with us. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 9, Tuesday: By the "Treaty of Fort Jackson" imposed by General Andrew Jackson, more than half the land of the Creek Nation (9,300,000 hectares) came to pertain to the white people.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 9 of 8 M / My H spent the Afternoon & eveng at David Williams's - I went up & took tea with them & set a part of the eveng very agreeably - This eveng Sister Elizabeth recd a letter from Betsy Purinton & one from Saml Philbrick

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 10, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 10th of 8 M / Raymond Perry Burdick a young man of my acquaintance, has just left my shop expecting this Afternoon to set out for Lake Erie to join the Squadron there. - I had much conversation with him & put into his Pocket "Christianity a System of Peace" by T Parsons. - his heart was very heavy as was mine at the reflection that we were about to part & very probably never to meet again in this life. - Alass for the state of things. Many precious souls precipitated into eternity to gratify the ambition of wicked, very wicked Men. & great in my opinion will be their responsibility in the day of acct that is hastening on all flesh. - 5th day 11 of 8 M / Our Meeting was attended by early all our Members it seemed to be a quiet solid time among us, tho' in my own mind Life did not rise as at sometimes, but I thought general favor was evidently to be felt over the meeting. - My mind is this afternoon is more than commonly impressed & depressed with the state of the times. - Rote this eveng to cousin Eliz Robbins of L Island & Uncle Wm Mitchell of Nine Partners.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 August 14, Sunday: By the Convention of Moss, Sweden recognized the Norwegian constitution — but in union with the Swedish throne.

In areas heald by the revolutionary forces in Mexico, the country's first income tax was levied.

Il turco in Italia, a dramma buffo by Gioachino Rossini to words of Romani after Mazzolà, was performed for the initial time, in Teatro alla Scala, Milan.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 14th of 8 M 1814 / Our Meetings were both silent, except a few words by a friend in the forenoon. — John Yarnal a young man from Philad & cousin of our late friend Peter Yarnal took tea & set the evening with us. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 August 18, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 18 of 8 M / Our Meeting was pretty well attended - Life low in my own particular, but I thought it a solid opportunity. —In the last (Preparative) we had no buisness but to appoint Representatives. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 August 19, Friday: Franz Schubert passed his final examination at the Imperial teachers' training college, Vienna.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 19 of 8 M / Spent about five hours of this day on a committee from the Town to inspect the state of the Poor both at the Work & Alms house & the Pension list to discover what can be done to lessen the Towns expenses - but found that but small abridgements could be made —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 August 21, Sunday: Having sired, upon his housekeeper Victoire Lefèvre, one final bastard,¹⁴⁴ Benjamin Thompson died in Auteuil on the outskirts of Paris as Sir Benjamin Thompson, "Count von Rumford." —One of those people who had utterly wasted life in its every aspect.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 21 of 8 M / At meeting in the forenoon silent except a few words towards the close by D Buffum. — This Afternoon we concluded to try John at meeting the second time the first his mother was obliged to bring him home, but he set with me this Afternoon & behaved as well as was possible for a child of two

144. Registered as the product of un père absent, this son would grow up to become a French soldier and be killed in the Crimea.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

years & five months to do. he scarcely moved himself the whole time –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 23, Tuesday: Pélage, ou Le roi et la paix, an opéra by Gaspard Spontini to words of Jouy, was performed for the initial time, in the Paris Opéra.

“General Izard wrote to the War Department that he had decided to remove west by way of Lake George and Schenectady with 4,000 men, leaving the sick and convalescents and about 1,200 men under Brigadier General Alexander Macomb to garrison Plattsburgh and Cumberland Head. The same day Macomb sent to Williams, commanding the Secret Corps, desiring that his agents obtain further information in regard to the enemy’s force.”¹⁴⁵

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 23rd of 8 M / A season of self examination.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 25, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 25th of 8 M / This morning took Chaise & rode to Portsmouth to attend our Monthly Meeting on the way there, stoped at cousin Zacheus Chases & spent an hour very agreeably. – In the first meeting my mind was for three quarters of an hour much unsettled but by wrestling was favrd with the arisings of life in which time Our fr WM Almy rose with lively & pertinent matter & after him H Dennis. Then Mary Hicks in a few words which I could not hear & meeting ended pretty well with me. – In the last we had but little buisness – We dined at Abrahams Anthonys- & rode home – 6th day 26th of 8 M 1814 / When we came home last evening we found our relatives Benjamin Marshall & his wife Niobe in town- we went immediately up to Mary Frys to see them & they came down to see Mother before bed time – This forenoon Niobe was engaged in calling on some of her old friends & I took a walk with Benjamin they made a short but agreeable call at our habitation & dined with Isaac & Mother. – After dinner with Mother I waited on them to their lodgings & parted with them, with much regret as, they were in a few moments to leave town Benjamin appears to be a man very Amiable in his manners & disposition & I can but again regret their leaving town so soon feeling desirous to devote a little more time & attention to them feeling an obligation to them on Uncle Stantons account as well as the love I feel for them. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

145. THREE CENTURIES IN THE CHAMPLAIN VALLEY: A COLLECTION OF HISTORICAL FACTS AND INCIDENTS. Tercentenary Edition, 1909.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

August 28, Sunday: In Dresden, Johanna Rosine (Pätz) Wagner, a widow with nine children, widowed by Carl Friedrich Wagner for less than a year, got married with Ludwig Heinrich Christian Geyer, a portrait painter, actor and poet — who it would seem may have been her infant Wilhelm Richard Wagner's biological father. The family would relocate to Dresden.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 28th of 8th M / Our Meetings both Silent & to me dull seasons Our little John went again this Afternoon & behaved well
-Father & Mother Rodman took tea with us this Afternoon -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 31, Wednesday: "Gen. Izard, having waited in vain for different orders, withdrew from Plattsburgh and marched his army of 4,000 troops along the new State road through Pleasant Valley on their way to the Niagara Frontier. Almost immediately, an officer came riding furiously shouting the news of a British invasion from the north and warning out the militia..."¹⁴⁶ Brigadier General Alexander Macomb appealed to Vermont Governor Chittenden to send the militia. Chittenden was stuck on the legalism that the state militia could not serve outside the borders of the state but did urge General John Newell of Charlotte and General Samuel Strong of Vergennes to ask for volunteers to serve in New York. "On the same day General Mooers ordered out the militia of Clinton and Essex en masse to resist the invasion of the British and couriers on horseback hastened to alarm the surrounding villages and towns."¹⁴⁷

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*4th day 31 of 8 M / Set the evening at Thos Robinsons with my H
-previous to my going in I walked up further on the Point & finding an acquaintance at the gate of the North Battery or what is now called Fort Greene. I Stopped & by invitation went in & walked round. it appeared to be a neat clean place with good accommodations, but the sight of so many implements of Death & the reflection that some or all of the young men that I saw there with their fine forms, innocent countenances & amiable minds might soon meet the Pale messenger on that very spot at an untimely period, did not fail to affect my heart with seriousness. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

146. THREE CENTURIES IN THE CHAMPLAIN VALLEY: A COLLECTION OF HISTORICAL FACTS AND INCIDENTS. Tercentenary Edition, 1909.

147. THREE CENTURIES IN THE CHAMPLAIN VALLEY: A COLLECTION OF HISTORICAL FACTS AND INCIDENTS. Tercentenary Edition, 1909.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

September 1, Thursday: According to a record created later by Mrs. Davidson, “Macdonough to-day anchored his fleet in Cumberland Bay. Sir George Prevost following (Gen. Brisbane) with all his combined forces, amounting to 15,000 well disciplined troops, threw himself into the little village of Champlain. Immediately on his arrival there, he endeavored [sic] to disaffect the minds of the inhabitants toward their own government, and draw them over to the enemy; failing in this, he proceeded to impress wagons and teams in the vicinity for the purpose of transporting their baggage and military stores.”¹⁴⁸

When 2,500 British troops from Nova Scotia arrived at Castine, Maine, the US defenders blew up their fort and ran away. The British thereupon sail up the Penobscot River, investing it as far as Bangor.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 1 of 9 M 1814 / Small Meeting - a few words dropped by a friend to me satisfactory. - Great overturns in last Mo nothing short of the British having reached the City of Washington & destroyed the Capitol Presidents House & other Public property -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 4, Sunday: “The main body of the invading army had indeed reached Chazy and Lieut.-Col. Appling, Capt. Safford and Lieut. M.M. Standish with a troop of New York State cavalry were sent out on the State road as an advance guard, while Capt. Sproul, with two cannon and 200 American soldiers went to defend Dead Creek bridge. About 700 of the militia of Clinton and Essex counties came pouring into Plattsburgh, in response to the call of Gen. Mooers, and the Vermonters rallied in great number under Gen. Strong. Early in the morning the boys of Capt. Aiken’s company, who, only the week before had been pupils in the Academy, marched to West Chazy where they remained all night.”¹⁴⁹ Eleazer Williams would record later that “The enemy’s guard is within eighteen miles from us. Some of the bold and brave militia-men have exchanged shots with them.” Mrs. Davidson would record later that “According to the best of my recollection, however, the town (Plattsburgh) was deserted by the inhabitants on or about the fourth of September, 1814.”

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 4th of 9 M 1814 / Our Meetings were both silent - I struggled for life & was favor’d to witness its arisings in the Afternoon -David Rodman & I took tea at Jon Dennis’s & set the forepart of ye eveng.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

148. THREE CENTURIES IN THE CHAMPLAIN VALLEY: A COLLECTION OF HISTORICAL FACTS AND INCIDENTS. Tercentenary Edition, 1909.

149. THREE CENTURIES IN THE CHAMPLAIN VALLEY: A COLLECTION OF HISTORICAL FACTS AND INCIDENTS. Tercentenary Edition, 1909.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

September 5, Monday: General Macomb ordered that 720 sick and invalid troops be conveyed to Crab Island.

In an otherwise clear sky to the northwest of Agen, France, a small, slow-moving, perfectly spherical white cloud appeared at about 11AM. After remaining motionless for a period of time it began to speed toward the south while revolving upon its axis. Observers heard rumbling noises of an ear-shattering intensity culminating in an explosion, and there was a shower of stones of various dimensions. After this the cloud remained stationary, slowly evanescing.

ASTRONOMY

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 5th of 9 M / In addition to all the other unpleasant occurrences of the times the unpleasant information that the Banks of NYork & Philadel had stopd payment of Specie & that the Exchange Bank in Providence had done the same - This is a renewe'd damper on Trade & credit. - Where we shall get, or what next that is unpleasant will occur is hard to tell, but the times are such that it is not worth while to suffer our expectations to be so raised about any thing as to be disappointed, let what will occur tho' total destruction of Property & the loss of our own & many others lives be the unhapy issue.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 6, Tuesday: Governor Caleb Strong of Massachusetts called up the state militia for the defense of Maine. "About noon the British army reached Plattsburgh and took possession of the village north of the Saranac. Their right wing, under Col. Wellington, had been only temporarily checked by the loss of their leader at Culver Hill and the skirmish which had preceded that, near Beekmantown Corners, and later, at Halsey's Corners. Meanwhile, the left wing had been somewhat delayed by obstructions placed in the road, by an encounter at Dead Creek bridge and the firing of the American gun boats at the mouth of the Creek. Overwhelmed, however, by the immense number of the enemy, the defenders had retreated in good order to their works on the east side of the river, pulling up the planks of the bridge. Prevost chose for his headquarters the Thomas Allen farm, on the hill west of the village, from the summit of which the British commander could overlook the lake and watch for the appearance of his fleet. His troops encamped on the high ground in the vicinity, now known as Prospect Heights. Lieut. Gen. de Rottenburgh, second in command, established himself west of Prevost, towards Hammond hill, with Gen. Powers and his command opposite on the south side of the road, but further west. Maj. Gen. Robertson, was at the Isaac Platt farm, where the dead and wounded of the recent engagements had been carried. Brisbane was at the Boynton farm, then occupied by Samuel Lowell and the Qr. Master General took possession of the Capt. Nathaniel Platt homestead, where that patriot still remained, although the Bailey family had retired to the 'Union' at Peru."¹⁵⁰

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 6th of 9 M / My mind has this Afternoon been much withdrawn from outward things, tho' necessity engaged at times in them - & turned unward, & I have been thankful in witnissing the quickening operation of divine love in some good degree to arise in my heart. - I am deeply sensible of many short comings

150. THREE CENTURIES IN THE CHAMPLAIN VALLEY: A COLLECTION OF HISTORICAL FACTS AND INCIDENTS. Tercentenary Edition, 1909.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

but tho' I have not very frequently spoken of my spiritual condition of late, yet am not unmindful of the passing of things, being sensible that time goeth swiftly away & that we are hastening apace to that country from whence no traveller returns, & before that Judge from whose decree there is no appeal. – My mind was forcibly struck on observing this Afternoon the Sun to grow low in the horizon & to see the vegetable Kingdom on the decline – I thought it emblematical of advanced age or the close of a mans life, how anxiously as we watch his last breath & how beautiful to see his setting sun go down in Brightness –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 8, Thursday: Vermont militiamen began to arrive on the battlefield. Captain Farnsworth of St. Albans, for instance, brought a rifle company of 96 men.

Royalists under José Tomás Boves forced Simon Bolívar and the Second Republic out of Caracas, reasserting Spanish power.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 8th of 9 M 1814 / Silent Meeting and I believe but very little of the circulating sap of life among us –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 9, Friday: King Louis XVIII of France appointed Gaspare Spontini as director of the King's Private Music and the Théâtre-Italien.

“Prevost was now busily engaged in bringing up his battering trains and supplies; erecting batteries and otherwise preparing for the siege. The Americans had already burned fifteen or sixteen buildings on the north side of the river which afforded protection to the enemy; also, their own barracks and hospitals near the forts, while their sick and convalescent had been removed to Crab Island, where those who were able manned a battery mounting two six pounders. Skirmishes with the enemy at the two bridges and at the different forts along the river were frequent. During the day, Allen, Travis and Williams of Aiken's Volunteers came near being captured or killed by a guard of the enemy, while securing supplies from a barn within the enemy's lines. That night was dark and stormy. Williams says:— ‘A corps of the regular troops, under Captain MacGlassin, about 11 o'clock, crossed the Saranac, and stormed, at the point of the bayonet, a bomb-battery of the enemy, near Weight's printing office. My brother John was the leader of this detachment, and was the cause of the death of the engineer of the battery. Having accomplished the duty assigned them, they returned to the forts whence they had issued, with honor and victory.’”¹⁵¹

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 9th of 9th M / This evengs Mail brings nothing of a pleasant nature on the contrary accounts from various quarters that the calamities of War increase & the Cloud is thickening fast great Military preparations are making – Extra Sessions of

151. THREE CENTURIES IN THE CHAMPLAIN VALLEY: A COLLECTION OF HISTORICAL FACTS AND INCIDENTS. Tercentenary Edition, 1909. These war stories never lose anything in the retelling, do they?

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

the General Court of Boston & the General Assembly of this State are to be called by the respective Governors. - but unto whom are we to flee for safty Surely it must be to the Lord Alone for in him only is sure defense. - a trust in our own endeavors must prove falacious to all those who rely on them. - for my own part the situation of our National affairs has never appear'd so gloomy as at the present moment, & I have never seen less prospect of a peace, nor never since the declaration have I felt more sensibly depression to assail my mind & yet it is far from being below hope & confidence in HIM who is all power in heven & earth. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 12, Monday: The Swiss Diet accepted the cantons of Geneva, Valais, and Neuchâtel into its confederation.

The British advance on Baltimore was halted by the Maryland militia when British commander Major General Robert Ross was killed.

After the battle on Lake Champlain, the Vermont volunteers disbanded. Commodore Macdonough sent the wounded to his hospital on Crab Island. Trenches were dug to the south of the hospital tents, and as soldiers of one or the other side died their bodies were placed indiscriminately in these trenches. It was almost as if it didn't matter what the fight had been about.

Later on these poorly buried bones in their fragments of uniform would begin to come to the surface, and would be noticeable for many years by random passers-by:

We passed close to the small island, called Crab-Island, to which the dead and wounded of both fleets were carried, and which was the common grave of hundreds of friends and foes. The particular details of the scenes of horror which attended and succeeded the [Battle of Plattsburg of September 11, 1814] - of the shocking mutilations of the human form, in every imaginable mode and degree, and of the appalling display on the beach, of so many bodies, dead and wounded, preparatory to their conveyance either to the hospital or the grave, I shall, for obvious reason, omit. Even now, their bones, slightly buried on

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

a rocky island, are partly exposed to view, or being occasionally turned up by the roots of trees, blown down by the wind, shock the beholder, and their buttons, and other parts of their clothes, (for the military dresses in which they were slain, were also their winding sheets,) are often seen above the ground. Long may it be, e'er the waters of this now peaceful lake are again crimsoned with human blood.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 12 of 9 / Went Yesterday Afternoon to Portsmouth, got through with my buisness & took tea at Thos Potters in season to be at Cousin Zacheus Chases before dark where I spent the eveng & lodged. - took breakfast there next morning & before meeting went up to Peter Lawtons & set awhile -At Meeting our friend Wm Almy was concerned in a pertinent sound & lively testimony on the subject of War - & in solemn Supplication - - to me a good meeting - Returned from meeting to Cousin Z Chases & dined - In the Afternoon took a Walk to the shore & on the side of the Gulley reviewing scenes which greatly delighted men in boyhood, & now Years more Mature, are not less so. - After tea Walked home & found my H & little son well, but Hannah not a little depressed from my absence & the many gloomy reports in circulation of threatened Invasion by the British --

A town meeting was this day held to consider what was best to be done for the safty of the Town. some things were done but I felt no freedom to attend believing friends could not act in it with consistency & feeling something in my mind to say "Stand Still & see" - In the Meeting I was inform'd it was concluded to send away the public Records which I thought a prudent measure - & a motion was made by John Cahoon (a man bearing no good will to friends) that our Representatives be instructed to use their Influence in General Assembly to get the Law exempting friends from Military duty repealed, which was put to vote & the designs of this man & some others were frustrated by a very large Majority. -on being informed of This circumstance my mind was humbled & afresh adverted to what seemed so impressively to pass it in the Morning for sometime before & while the people were going up to the Meeting, with countenances bespeaking an agitated concern

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

September 15, Thursday: The English soldiers and sailors who had been taken prisoner, and who were able to travel, were sent by steamboat from Plattsburgh, New York for Greenbush, New York in the care of Captain White Youngs.

For the 2d time, George Gordon, Lord Byron proposed marriage to the heiress Anne Isabella Milbanke. This time, they announced that they had become engaged.

Russian State Secretary Count Karl Nesselrode arrived in Vienna to attend the Congress.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 15th of 9 M 1814 / Late at meeting by Accident but a solid favord time to me & I believe to others. A few words spoken by C R. —

This Mornng Allancin Peckham of Middletown Moved in the Extra sessions of the General Assembly now sitting in this Town that the Law exempting friends & other conscientious people from Military Duty be repealed. In a very short time after the question was taken & there appear'd but five Votes in favor of it. Thus the House of Assembly has again & with allmost unanimous Vote frustrated the designs of a few Malicious people who are ready on any occasion to persecute as far as their power extends —

This is a fresh cause of thankfulness to the Author of every good & my heart has when ever I have reflected on the subject been tendered within me & desires raised that we who are of an Age to reap the benefit of the exemption May so order our lives & conversations as not to dishonor the Principles we Profess

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

September 17, Saturday: The Rarotonga group of islands of the Cook Islands, which would eventually become the home of Thomas Francis Neale, was officially discovered by the Russian ship Suvarov.

HERMITS

The main island of Suvarrow atoll was, when first sighted by the whites, covered with a tall forest of mostly banyan trees.

Prussian Chancellor Prince Karl August von Hardenberg arrived in Vienna to attend the Congress.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 17 of 9 M 1814 / Altho I have been very buisily occupied this Week in Assessing the Town Poor Tax, Yet I can say with a degree of humble gratitude that there has been but few weeks perhaps in my whole life when my mind has been more favord with peace & quiet within. & tho' there is much stir among the people of the Town in moving away there goods & their persons to avoid apprehended danger, & rumors of great Battles that have been fought within the once peaceful & very happy States of America. Yet amid all I have not been moved & on this ground I greatly crave to remain that when we are put to the test & an hostile foe may present at our doors, faith & good resolution may not forsake me. -In this event I feel much for my dear Wife & little son, having no where for them to flee for refuge - but having in the course of my life many times seen ways opened both for preservation & escape from dangers, tho' not of the Magnitude which now appears to threaten & means provided for a lively hood when the close of the Year has left me allmost with out resource

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*- I have no reason to distrust that Almighty Power which is over all his Works & sees & knows what is best for us. -
This evengs Mail brings an account of a great Battle having been fought at Baltimore. - & Plattsburgh Oh! Oh! when will the Art of War cease & All men love like Brethren -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 18, Sunday: The initial meeting was held in Vienna between the representatives of the four victorious powers: Austrian Foreign Minister Prince von Metternich, Prussian Chancellor Prince Karl August von Hardenberg, British Foreign Secretary Viscount Castlereagh, and Russian State Secretary Count Karl Nesselrode.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 18th of 9 M 1814 / This Mornng rose early & walked on the Hill & went on the Top of the Church house which has now become an open desolated place & fast tumbling to ruins. From the top of this house is (I believe) a more extensive prospect than from the Church Lantern. The Mornng was clear which afforded a view of the sea. - I saw no ships of War off which I was glad off - these are not times as were once, to see enlivening commerce spead her sails on the broad Ocean. - not a single sail is now discovered from Month to Month or craft in our Rivers any more than in the days when the Natives possessed the Land. The Walk was pleasant but pensive & left a pleasant savor on the mind & gave me a good appetite when I sat down to breakfast with my beloved H & little John

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 22, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5 day 22 of 9 M 1814 / Our Meeting today was silent but a good one tome. -
I drew the lines & began the insertion of this day without recollecting that the last date was unfinished Our Meetings on first day last were pretty good ones but mostly silent - In the Afternoon Br D Rodman & I walked out to John Weavers & took tea, a pleasant visit to pleasant people, with an hopeful family of children around them -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 25, Sunday: Tsar Alyeksandr I of Russia and King Friedrich Wilhelm III of Prussia made their ceremonial entry into Vienna to attend the Congress, accompanied by Emperor Franz I of Austria (who had met them outside the city).

Franz Schubert's Mass in F D.105, composed for the centennial of the Liechtental Church, was probably performed for the first time, and was directed by the composer.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1st day 25 of 9 M / I have this mornng experienced renewal of life & I do acknowledge with a greatful heart that notwithstanding my various engagements. I have of late been favor'd from day to day for many days together with the precious incomes of love & life to a degree which has to my admiration quieted all fear with respect to the commotion of the times. -- At the forenoon meeting D. Buffum Preached - perhaps never more favord - Silent in the Afternoon - Set the eveng at home - & my Mother came in & set with us. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 29, Thursday: Ministers of the four powers held their first official meeting at Vienna and agreed on a statement of procedure.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 29th of 9th M 1814 / Yesterday Afternoon I recd a few lines from Cousin L L Clarke informing that our Cousin Silas Casey departed this life the day before at Greenwich & that his remains were to be brought down to Boston Neck to his late Mansion to be inter'd this Afternoon. -- The near relationship between his wife & my mother & the intimacy which has allways existed in the family placed in my mind between the two Drifts of going to the funeral or attending our M Meeting this day held in town - had the wind been favorable or so as to have induced a belief that I could have crossed the ferries in season, I believe the former would have prevailed, but it not being the case I concluded to give up the Idea. -- Our first Meeting was silent except a few words from C R which to me felt savory -- In the last The buisness (what little we had) went on well - - - Uncle I Lawton Dined with us - Also Our Aged & Venerable friend Jeremiah Austin Sr of his Company I was very glad. I know of no man who I consider more pure in spirit or that has filled the various Station in society which he has been called to with more propriety & now tho' past 80 Years of Age, appears to retain his Natural understanding perfectly, & is green & lively in the Truth

This eveng my H Spent the eveng at our Cousin Elizbeth Anne & Mary Goulds- I Joined her & pleasant opportunity it proved. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 2, Sunday: There was a grand ball at the Hofburg, celebrating the opening of the Congress of Vienna.

On a 4th assault, Spanish forces succeeded in dislodging the local defenders of Rancagua. They then proceeded to off everyone they could find including wounded and the non-combatants — only a few hundred of the Chileans, under Bernardo O'Higgins, would be able to hide or escape.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 2nd of 10th M / Our meeting this mornng was large & a

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

very favor'd one - Early in the sitting Abigail Robinson appeared in testimony & was unusually enlarged - adverting to the present calamitous times, exhorting us to repent & it may be what we most fear may be averted - While she was speaking our fr Wm Almy came in & took a back seat till she had done & then went forwd into the Galery but was not concern'd in testimony - Hannah Dennis appear'd in supplication - & soon After Ruth Weaver spoke a few words so low that I could not understand them - This I believe was the first aappearance of hers in Public - Afternoon Meeting Silent - Set part of the eveng at Thos Robinsons Sisters Ruth & Eliza being there. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 3, Monday: British forces left Madeira, which they had held since 1807.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 3rd of 10 M 1814 / My mind has this day been tender & serious & feelings excited which warrant the hope of a continuance of divine favor - These feelings I have been much favo'd with of late for which I desire to be thankful - Took tea at father Rodmans with my H & little son.-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 6, Thursday: Thousands of people joined the crowned heads of Europe in food and entertainment at the Augarten park in Vienna.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 6 of 10th M / Our Meeting was silent & a season of close reflection to me. I believe I was favor'd to view some things properly. -
This Afternoon British Ships were seen off which created an Alarm & this evening a muster was made by the Militia. - My heart can but Mourn for the Situation of the Nation, & deeply sympathise with those who are obliged to follow the sound of the Drums & Life with their implements of Death on their shoulders, intending to Kill or be killed. & very far be it from me to rejoice because I am exempt from that service - I hold the exemption in humility desirous so to conduct as to bring no reproach on the principles which I profess. - I do feel much for the poor things which are to be exposed this night many of them feeble & delicate in health & Oh! saith my soul may this dreadful War soon be brought to a close.*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 7, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1 day [sic] 7 of 10 M / The Alarm last eveng proved harmless - only some ships passing eastward - but how soon they may return we cannot tell -

This Afternoon took a Walk to Middletown with Eunice Earl & Sister Ruth Rodman to read the epistled to Women Aged & infirm & unable to attend Meetings- We called at the Widow Hathaways found her weak & very low from the effects of a Cancer & unable to hear them read - then went to Cousin Sarah Gould read them to her & Cousin Elizabeth Anthony where we took tea & had a pleassant walk home before Dark. - This is a service which I think the women proffitably engaged in -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 9, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 9th of 10 M / In the forenoon Meeting D Buffum appeared in lively testimony - Silent in the Afternoon - In the eveng went to D Buffums to meet [-] brother who had fallen into [illegible] threatening languages to a man in the Town Meeting - D B & I were appointed to treat with him but in opportunity [--?]

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 13, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 13th of 10th M 1814 / Our Meeting was pretty well attended a quite a comfortable season. Our friend & my cousin Anne Greene was over & declared the truth among us in the simplicity & the Power, to the comfort of many (I have no doubt) that were present besides myself - She addressed the Youth very sweetly inviting them to an experience of the blessed Truth that thro' the Medium of Jesus Christ - Father R had a short testimony & the Meeting ended. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 16, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 16th 10 M / Anne Greene was at Meeting In the forenoon the & D Buffum bore lively testimonys - In the Afternoon Anne tred the Wine press alone - The Youth were her principle engagement & I trust some hearts were tendered by her communication - Our little John was there & Anne is the first person he has heard preach - while she was speaking his attention was much fixed upon her & When he came out, his first impression was that she was a naughty Woman for speaking out loud in Meeting, nor could we seem to make him very clearly comprehend the use or object of Preaching.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

October 20, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 20th of 10M / Our Meeting was pretty well attended - a short testimony was delivered - I believe it was a season of but little life - We had no buisness but to Answer the Queries in the last which was our Preparative - After Meeting we met with D Sherman to treat further with him respecting matters of which he was complained of but met with no better success than the last time. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 23, Sunday: William Mackay Prichard was born (presumably, this happened at Cynthia Dunbar Thoreau's boardinghouse in Concord at which his parents Moses Prichard and Jane Tompson Hallet Prichard were residing).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 23 of 10 M / A few words were spoken in our forenoon meeting but I consider'd it a dull season - In the Afternoon I thought there was more life circulating among us. - My H set the eveng at Thos Robinsons I went about 7 OClock & was very agreeably entertained - both by their intersting conversation & Abigail read some of her sister Mortons letters. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 24, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 24th of 10 M / This morning I crossed the ferries to Narragansett stoped at Ezeak Gardners & rectified his Clock & there Dined, then went to the Widow Ester Carpenters & cleaned theirs & took tea - The Dr Woman is a person of great information & well read in history & furnished it with much Anecdote in relating several of her husbands Ancestors she mentioned that one of them was a Military officer under Oliver Cromwell & that she had in the house a case of Pewter Bottles which he used in the Army, on my expressing a wish to see one of them both its curiosity as a pewter Bottle & its great Antiquity they brought out the case which contained Six Square Pewter Bottles with Screw - tops, both the screws & the tops were as good as they ever were & the bottle good except one of them which leaked a little which might easily be stoped by a little solder. they will contain six quarts apeace. - I took tea with this agreeable old woman & her daughters & after finishing the Work on hand, went to Cousin Gardiners spent the remainder of the evening & there lodged. After Breakfast at cousin Gardiners the next Morning I crossed the ferry went to cousin Howlands on Connanicut rectified their Clock & dined - - went to the ferry & found the boat not quite ready - went up to cousin J Greenes & set about 1 / 2 an hour, then returned & crossed to Newport & found my H & little son had

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

been well in my absence. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 27, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 27 of 10 M / Rode to Portsmouth with my H to attend the Moy [Monthly] Meeting - In the first C R, H D & A S bore short testimonys - In the last we had not a great deal of buisness. - Daniel Chase was complain'd of by Portsmouth Prep Meeting for neglecting to pay his Depts - his case was committed to a committee which I fear will prove a trying one. - We dined at Uncle Saml Thurstons & rode home before dark. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 30, Sunday: The members of the Congress of Vienna attended a concert directed by Antonio, of 40 pianists on 20 pianos, at the riding school of Vienna (this must have been something like 40 riders astride 20 horsiebacks).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 30 of 10 M / In the forenoon Abigail Robinson & Father Rodman concern'd in testimony. Abigail was large in offering - to me a season of favor. - The Afternoon Meeting Father again appeard. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 2, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 2 of 11th M 1814 / Arose This Morng by 4 OClock And with Brother D Rodman took Chaise & went to Swansea to attend the Quarterly Meeting we Crossed the Bridge at Howlands ferry before Sunrise & got yo Troy [?] by Breakfast time - we had a comfortable repast at Durfees Tavern & crossed Slades ferry at 10 OC stooped at the Widow Chases a few minutes before Meeting - At Meeting James Greene first declared the Truth in a lively feeling manner, then Jonathon Chase delivered a few words much in the sweetness of life. - Obadiah Davis delivd the longest & best testimony & ever heard from him - Ruth Davis concluded the meeting in solemn. - In the meeting for discipline abiel Howland spead his Concern to visit Easton & several other Quarterly Meetings in NYork state which was concurd with - A proposition was brot forwd from Greenwich Moy [Monthly] Meeting to build a Meeting House in Plainfield Connecticut which was refer'd to a committee - & was the chief buisness which came before us except that which is of course - After Meeting we spoke with a few of our Friends standing about the house, whom we were glad to see, then Rode to the ferry & crossed, & from thence reached Peter Lawtons a little after Dark where we were Kindly entertained our food relishing well having fasted from the time of our Repast at Fall River in the Morning - At Peters we Lodged, & next

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*morning after breakfast rode home. –
Our little excursion was a pleasant one & attended with a renew'd evidence of the extention of Divine favor which I trust will render it a little proffitable. – In the 11th M 1806 I attended the Quarterly Meeting at the same place. – & if I do not attend it in 8 years to come I shall have passed quite the meridian of life – Ah how time flies – it flies indeed, & will soon be gone.
how needful for me to improve every moment yet left. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ November 5, Sunday: Rhode Island joined Massachusetts in calling for a constitutional convention.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 6th [sic] of 11 M / Two public testimonies in the forenoon & one in the Afternoon – – The one in the Mornng by D Buffum was very lively & pertinent. –
Set part of the eveng at D Williams where I fell in with Josiah Siddons of Philadelphia. he had heard of me by Hannah Pope who is an acquaintance of his*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ November 10, Thursday: The Russian commander, Prince Repnin, who had reason to anticipate that he was going to receive Poland in return, turned over the administration of Saxony to Prussia and began the evacuation of his troops.

William J. Brown was born into a free black family in Providence, Rhode Island. His grandfather Cudge had worked as a teamster for Friend Moses Brown before being manumitted by Moses on November 10, 1773.

MOSES BROWN

➡ His father was a sailor who had previously worked on Moses's farm, and his mother was the daughter of a black slave and a Narragansett woman. William would become a sailor, a shoe repairman, a Baptist minister, and a leader in Providence's black community. Here are some entries from his autobiography:

PAGES 5-11: My father's name was Noah Brown; his father was Cudge Brown and his mother Phillis Brown. Grandfather Brown was born in Africa, and belonged to a firm (named Brown Brothers) consisting of four, named respectively, Joseph, John, Nicholas and Moses Brown. They held slaves together, each brother selecting out such as they wished for house service; the rest of the slaves to perform out-door labor. I am not positive, but believe my grandfather was brought from Africa in the firm's

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

vessel. He had two or three brothers. One was named Thomas, and the other Sharp or Sharper Brown, and they worked for Moses Brown. My grandfather was occupied as a teamster, doing the team work for two farms, the one on which Mr. Brown lived, and the other to the northward towards Swan Point Road.

PAGES 32-35: My grandfather was married to Phillis, November 20th, 1768, and they went to keeping house, living in one towards the north end of Olney street, owned by Mr. Brown, where he kept his teams. Newport, his oldest son, was born April 22d, 1769. Rhoda, his oldest daughter, was born September 27th, 1776, and Noah, my father, was born September 20th, 1781. James was born November 17th, 1788....

My father married Alice Greene; her maiden name was Alice Prophet. She was a widow, having lost her husband, Uriah Greene, several years previous to her second marriage. They were married in Cranston, R. I., the 25th of December, 1805, and commenced keeping house in that town, but being engaged in a seafaring life, he removed to Providence, and rented a house of Dr. Pardon Bowen, situated on Wells street. During his residence in Cranston, he had a son born, July 10th, 1810, and named him Joseph George Washington Brown. My sister, Mary Alice, was born September 1811, in this city. My brother George was born September 23d, 1817. After residing in Dr. Pardon Bowen's house five years, we were obliged to move, as Mr. Bowen wished to make a strawberry bed in the garden where the house was located. My father hired a house called the Red Lion, near the junction of South Main and Power streets, on the north side, the place where the Amateur Dramatic Hall now stands. My brother Henry was born there in 1820....

My mother, as I stated, was a widow when she was married to my father. I never had any knowledge respecting her first husband's relations. My mother's relations were the Prophets, who belonged to the Narragansett tribe, and resided in Cranston. My grandmother's father was a man of note and one of the chiefs, and called, Grandfather Jeffery. Whether he was a prophet by name or by title I know not. He had two daughters, but whether he had any sons I know not, but think he had none. One of grandfather Jeffery's daughters married a white man, preferring civilized to savage life. The other daughter, my grandmother, purchased a colored man and married him, by whom she had five children, one son and four daughters, John, Phebe, Mary, Alice, and Eunice. Her father being very much displeased with her management, gave his effects to the first, who married the white man, and the fourth generation are living in the city at present, and moving in upper circles. After some years his anger abated towards his daughter's husband and he rendered some aid to the family....

Pages 40-51: The house which my father rented [was] located in the south part of the town, near the water. It was a gambrel roofed house, painted with plain boards like clapboards, and painted red.... On the west side was a door and two windows, one over the other, and two doors on the north side, one leading into the cellar, the other into the back yard, with two windows the same as in front. The inside of the house was arranged as follow: two rooms on the first floor, the largest used for a kitchen, the other for a sitting room or bed room. Adjoining us on the east was a sailor boarding house kept by Mr. James Axum. From our east window could be seen a fine garden filled with various kind of vegetables belonging to Mr. Axum. There were two rooms upstairs arranged the same as below, having access by a stair-way in a small entry three feet by six, on the north side of the west room. When we first moved in we occupied the upper rooms, until the family below could vacate their rooms, which was some six months after we moved in. Two rooms was considered quite a genteel tenement in these days for a family of six, especially if they were colored, the prevailing opinion being that they had no business with a larger house than one or two rooms. The family occupying the lower floor of our house were considered the upper crust of the colored population, Mr. Thomas Reed by name, by trade a barber, and kept a fashionable shaving saloon....

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

He was responsible for the rent to Mr. Tillinghast and other heirs, to whom it belonged. It was forty dollars per year. There being more room than he needed or could afford to pay for, he rented the upper part for fifteen dollars per year; which reduced his rent to twenty-five dollars. The landlords received their rents quarterly. Every one knew, in those days that a man having a family of six could not pay the rent of four rooms, unless he robbed or went on the highway to get a living....

(We can see in the above the reality that lay behind Frederick Douglass's observation that in certain respects people of color in the antebellum northern society had moved from being the slaves of individuals to becoming "slaves of the community.")

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote something in his journal that has not been completely decipherable:

5 day 10th of 11 M / Omitted Meeting & went down The Neck to attend in surveying a peace of Land at the request of an old acquaintance who is involved in a Law Suit pending in the Court [?] is setting - I understood there were two appearances in the ministry at Meeting [?] they were edifying to [?]

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 13, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 13th of 11th M 1814 / One Public appearance in each of our Meetings, today they were dull seasons to my mind & I believe dullness generally pervaded the gathering. - In the eveng sat a little while at D Rodmans & went into Sister Joannas Chamber &

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

was glad to find her comfortable with her sweet little infant whose name they have concluded to call Abbe.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 15, Tuesday: Pedro Cevallos Guerra replaced José Miguel de Carvajal Vargas y Manrique, duque de San Carlos as First Secretary of State of Spain.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd 15th of 11 M / Much occupied with D Rodman as overseers of the poor in fitting out Sarah Rogers on a Journey to Galen in Seneca Coounty in the State of NYork where she expects to reside with her Nephew Matthew Rogers. - She was disappointed by the Packet & took the Stage to Providence where she is to meet John Sheldon who is to see her with comfotable accommodations & suitable company on her way to Galen. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 17, Thursday: Because it was being perceived as a Revolutionary institution, the Paris Conservatoire began to experience the official displeasure of the new regime, and Bernard Sarrette was suspended as director.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 17 of 11 M / Our meeting small - a short offering by a friend - No buisness in the Preparative Meeting -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 1, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 1 of 12th M 1814 / I have scarcely been free from the Ague in my face since the last date - & this day being very wet & Rainy I again omitted Meeting. - This is a day appointed by all New England States for Thanksgiving & Prayer & has been observed as usual in this town.
We had at tea the company of Sarah Arnold of Troy in N York She also set the evening near the close of which her Mother Elizabeth Arnold came in & set a little while their company was truly pleasant Elizabeth was the Daughter of our late friend John Hadwin & looks & speaks exceedingly like her Mother, so much so that as she was relating a circumstance I could not refrane from looking at her. - she also appears to be a woman that has learned much in this School of Christ.*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 4, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 4th of 12 M / We had the company of Hinchman Hanes &

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Joseph Hanes at Meeting both forenoon; they had acceptable service among us & in some instances as "ministered" to our states remarkably - they are bound into the eastern Quarterly Meeting to finish the Work they began Last Winter. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 5, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 5th of 12th M 1814 / Our friends Hinchman & Joseph Hanes set out for New Bedford this Morning accompanied by our young frds John D Williams & Saml Dennis. - - This eveng we had the company of several of our young friends Vizt E W Lawton & wife Caty Dennis & Avis Howland whose company was very pleaaasant & tho' neither of the foregoing are members of society I believe some of them are in a way thro' faithfulness to become greater in religious attainments than some of us who hold a birth right

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 6, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 6 of 12 M / For more than a Week past I have suffered greatly with a tooth Ache & Ague in my face - & this day above all others have been peculiarly afflicting

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 10, Saturday: At the Congress of Vienna a committee of the Eight Powers was constituted, to investigate the feasibility of the total abolition of human enslavement.¹⁵²

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 10th of 12 M / With a mind depressed I am going to Portsmouth this Afternoon to meet D Buffum & J Weeden tomorrow, to visit Davis Sherman - - Reached Cousin Zacheus Chases about Dark & in season to take tea with them my limbs were much fatigued, but passed the eveng agreeably with them. - next Morning 1st day [Sunday] was a Snow Storm but I footed it to Meeting & got there in season to dry myself & get comfortable before the people gathered. - The Meeting was silent & a season of struggle & exercise to me - John Weeden & I dined at the Widow Shermans, where after dinner

152. Notice how new and novel such an idea was — for instance, such an idea is not to be found being suggested or so much as contemplated anywhere in the Good Book, not even in the teachings of Jesus Christ. You could go to eleven Hollywood movies about the slave gladiator rebel Spartacus and be informed dramatically twenty-two times that this had been his fantasy of the perfect world — and twenty-two times you would be entertaining a fantastical historical feel-good preposterousity. Dreaming of being able to get along without slaves is sorta like our technological fantasy of being able to get along without the ringing of the telephone — it is an “emergent,” an idea that cannot arise until the conditions for its arising have fully emerged, conditions such as that things as they are have become dreary and distressing even for the owners of telephones.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

we had an opportunity with David which proved very exercising to me but before we left him were able to discover more tenderness in him than on any former opportunity, yet could not discover so much of a right disposition in him as we desired. I think my mind was never so enlarged in any similar opportunity & was a season of instruction – From there I went to Uncle Saml Thurstons took tea & set the eveng very agreeably with them – Lodged & this morning again footed it home thro' the Snow, which was a fatiguing journey as any I have taken in a long time found my beloved Wife & little Son had been well & done well in my absence for which I feel thankful as for my own Wellfare. – This eveng I have the tooth Ach. I suppose the effects of cold taken in Walking into town

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 15, Thursday: A group of New Englanders assembled in the chamber of the State House in Hartford, Connecticut to consider the implications of the War of 1812 for their section of the American nation. This “Hartford Convention,” which included official and unofficial delegations from the New England States, would be meeting until January 4, 1815.

READ THE FULL TEXT

This Hartford Convention, which would discuss separatism (regional secession from the federal union), would be proposing that as an alternative there might be a series of amendments to the federal Constitution:

READ THE FULL TEXT

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 15th of 12 M 1814 / Soon After taking my seat in Meeting I thought I felt life arise & spread from Vessel to Vessel among us & it proved a season of favor – The Word was preached in the power & demonstration of the Spirit first by H Dennis & then by A Robinson & father R had a few words which felt pertinent & lively. – After I came our of meeting I compared notes with J F Mitchell & found his sense of the forepart of the Meeting was similar to Mine.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 18, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 18th of 12 M / Our meeting this forenoon was a season of deep & humbling instruction to my mind, the like exactly I do not recollect – Soon after I took my seat by the Stove our friend D B took his seat by the side of me & it seemed to pass my mind that he would preach. The impression soon passed off & I had some struggle to get the mind settled, when of a sudden I seemed to emmerge from that & a passage of Scripture occur'd with life Vizt "If any man lack Wisdom let him ask of God" it seemed to expand & I was led into many reflections upon it. &

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

it appear'd to me that many feel a want of some thing which they do not possess Vizt Religion or true Wisdom, & for the Want of a right application to the source from whence true Wisdom may be obtained, to him who giveth liberally & upbraideth not they lean to their own understanding, get bewildered & finally established in formality rather than in the life & essence of Religion -after this had passed my mind & continued seriously impressed on it for some time, I looked up & saw D Buffum was about to rise -When he arose his opening was "Get wisdom & with all thy gettings get understanding"- & fully illustrated the subject of the true wisdom & understanding & true faith, often advising that if any lacked Wisdom let them ask of God who giveth liberally & upbraideth not - his exercise & opening was so exactly similar to mine, that as he repeated the scripture it wrought no small astonishment in my feelings - at the same time humbling my mind under a sense of the continued favor of divine goodness to a mind unworthy -- Father Rodman was afterwards concerned in a few words. Also Ruth Weaver expressed the passage Vizt Eye hath not seen nor ear heard, neither hath it entered into the heart of Man to conceive the good things which God hath layed up in Store for them who love & fear him. - In the Afternoon Our meeting was silent but Divine goodness near - Sister Ruth took tea & set the evening with us. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 19, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd 19th 12th M 1814 / Was born this Mornng about 5 Minutes before 1 OC unto my Brother Isaac & Sarah his Wife a daughter whose name they have concluded to call Susan

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 20, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd 20 of 12 M / In setting a little while with my Mother this morning she made a remark which struck me with some force Vizt that when a person increased in a generous disposition as they increased in Years it was a pretty true sign that Grace a bounded with them for it was the case with people that as they incline to the Earth they become more Earthy. - She related that her grandfather Saml Clarke when his children were all married off he observed to them when all together that Now they were settled & provided for to his mind & when he left time his estate should be for them, but added it was not his intention to lay up any of his income, he ment to spend the whole of it & that he did & kept open house for the entertainment of all friends who came along, & the poor of every description found relief within his

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

door.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 22, Thursday: Christian missionaries arrived in the Bay of Islands of New Zealand, to set up a mission.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 22 of 12 M / Our meeting was about as large as usual A Robinson was concerned in testimony also another friend but I did not think that life arose as at some seasons - In the last & Preparative Job Weaver published his intentions of Marriage with Almy Chase which was the chief buisness that came before us - Our little John was at Meeting & it was the first meeting of buisness he ever attended, & as he has begun to attend them young I desire he may become a useful & ornamental Member This is my concern for him, & should he read this when I am gone, I pen it now, for his information that he may know a parents solicitude for his future wellfare

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 25, Sunday: In the previous year, Joanna Southcott had been put on notice by a Spirit that at the age of 65 she would by the “power of the Most High” give birth during the harvest season of this year to a man-child, to be known as the Shiloh, the Prince of Peace, who would “rule the nations with a rod of iron.” She had journeyed to London, witnesses noticing that she appeared pregnant, but during the harvest season nothing had happened, and then on this Christmas Day some allege that an infant was delivered stillborn, “caught up to God and His throne” — while the evidence seems to suggest that there was no such blessed event (Skinner, Stephen. MILLENNIUM PROPHECIES. Stamford CT: Longmeadow Press, 1994, page 109).

MILLENNIALISM

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 25th of 12 M 1814 / A few words were delivered by an Elder brother in the forenoon - Soon after I took my seat on looking round & observing a considerable number of young people with very innocent countenances, love rose in my heart toward them & with it, the Passage, "And he had compassion on the multitude" - It also soon opened to my mind with lively sensations that were we to assemble with true Faith in him who in former days had compassion on the multitude & break a little bread among them which satisfied a great number & there was much to spare, so we in this day might experience that Miracle wrought in us spiritually for tho' in sitting down in meeting we might feel but little else than poverty & want, yet by faith, we might expereince that little greatly enlarged & by the time Meeting closed go away greatly satisfied that we had been there, & that the Blessed Master had owned us by his living presence. -- In

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

the Afternoon we were silent but I thought it was a solid, may I not say solemn season to many present.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 29, Thursday: Edward Jesse's father, the Reverend William Jesse, died in his 77th year at West Bromwich.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 29 of 12 M / Quite to my disappointment & sorrow my Wife was this Morning taken with a violent sick headache which prevented her going to Portsmouth with me to attend the Moy [Monthly] Meeting - I took Sister Mary in the Chaise with me on the way thither we stoped a few minutes at Uncle Saml Thurstons & warmed & refreshed our selves & got to meeting in season. Our first meeting was silent & I thought favor'd with life: - In the last Discipline Hannah Dennis paid us a visit in Gospel love which was very acceptable to the Meeting. I do not think I ever heard her with more Life or better Authority. - Job Weedon & Almy Chase published their intentions of Marriage with each other. - The case of D Sherman was refer'd at the request of the committee & that of L Gould Junr at my request feeling my mind much exercised at the prospect of his being disowned at that Meeting. - On the whole it proved a Season of deep instruction to my mind & I believe enlargement. We dined at Richd Mitchells & rode home before dark finding my dear H relieved from her headache but quite feeble.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 30, Friday: George Gordon, Lord Byron and Hobhouse arrived at Seaham.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 30th of 12th M 1814 / With this day I complete the 33 Year of my Age - Another Year of my life has gone & I have advanced another towards the Grave. - It has seldom in my life happened that this day has passed away unnoticed & has ever been a day of much reflection. - this has been peculiarly so - love has flowed sweetly in my heart & I desired to be thankful for a fresh evidence of the continuation of divine regard. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

December 31, Saturday: George Gordon, Lord Byron and Annabella signed their marriage contract.

When the Vienna palace of Russian ambassador Count Andrei Kyrillovich Razumovsky was consumed by fire, hundreds of art works meticulously collected by him were forever lost. Two people who attempted to salvage embassy documents were killed. The count would return to Russia, depriving Ludwig van Beethoven of one of his most important patrons.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 31 of 12 M 1814 / Here ends the Year - It has been to me a day of seriousness & much reflection - Who will see the close of the next is very uncertain - but it is certain that many of us who are now on the stage & probably some who are in Active life Will not. -

This evening I was admitted a member of Engine Company N 5 - There are some circumstances which prompted to this measure which I conceive justifiable but from my present feelings I shall not remain a Member Long.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

“NARRATIVE HISTORY” IS FABULATION, HISTORY IS CHRONOLOGY

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1815

January 1, Sunday: The British were repulsed in a 2d attack upon General Andrew Jackson's system of ditches around the sea approaches to New Orleans, in a War of 1812 that because of the Treaty of Ghent was already over. News of the Treaty of Ghent arrived at the Congress of Vienna — this would significantly raise the influence of Britain on the continent because it meant that that nation, undistracted, could in the future field many more troops there.

Lowell Mason entered upon his new duties as choir director at the Independent Presbyterian Church of Savannah, Georgia.

The followers of Joanna Southcott had allowed her corpse to putrefy for four days while they waited around to see if a magical bouncing baby was going to spring from it. Finally they allowed a post-mortem, which gave no indication of any pregnancy. Joanna had left behind her, however, a sealed Great Box, and the expectation that if this box were not properly opened in the presence of 24 Bishops of the Church by the end of the year 2004, there was going to be all hell to pay. (The box has been opened, although not in the presence of any 24 Bishops of the Church—it proved to contain a horse-pistol, a few coins of the period, various scribblings, some trinkets, and odds and ends— and, as we now notice, the year 2004 has come and has gone.)

MILLENNIALISM

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 1st M 1815 / We commence the Week, the Month & the Year together - a day of thoughtfulness it has been to me. Our Meetings have both been Silent & to me pretty good seasons, tho' roving of mind intruded a little — Father & Mother Rodman set the evening with us -¹⁵³

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

January 2, Monday: At Seaham, George Gordon, Lord Byron and Annabella Milbanke were wed. Lord and Lady Byron would sojourn at Halnaby in Yorkshire until the 21st of the month.

Andrew Law sent a petition from Newark, New Jersey to the US House of Representatives to renew the 1802 patent for his system of musical notation involving four note shapes and the elimination of the staff (which wasn't going to happen).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 2nd of 1st M / This day rode with J. Weaver to R Mitchells in Company with Abigail Robinson & H Dennis to See Thos Gould Junr who being at Cundels Mills I took the Chaise went & invited him up to Richards where After dinner we had a solid opportunity with him & discharged our Legacy of Love in a manner which affords peace to our Minds tho' with no obvious benefit to his. - There is a solid & enriching benefit remitting from a sense of having done our duty & all that lays in our power to restore a brother but alass the poor thing seem'd shut up in a full belief that he had done right tho' much was said & very affectionatly expressed to convince him of the error in which he is involved - Vizt that of learning the Art of War - Abigail Robinson & Hannah Dennis, seem'd to be much engaged for his Welfare - After the opportunity we spent a little time in interesting conversation in company with Richard & his wife - then I rode home with Hannah & John with Abigail. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

153. Stephen Wanton Gould Diary, 1812-1823: The Gould family papers are stored under control number 2033 at the Division of Rare and Manuscript Collections of Cornell University Library, Box 7 Folder 11 for July 1, 1812-August 20, 1815 and Folder 12 for August 24, 1815-September 25, 1823. Series 7 Microfilm Reel #4, positive, is made up of Friend Stephen Wanton Gould's Diaries #12-16, 1815-1838 (August 24, 1815-September 20, 1838 and Extracts from the records of the monthly meeting held by Rhode Island Quakers, 1676-1707) (Reel #12 is the negative copy of Reel #4)

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

January 7, Saturday: At the Congress of Vienna, France was admitted as an equal member to the directing Council of Four (Austria/Great Britain/Prussia/Russia).

Arthur Wellesley, Duke of Wellington was ordered to abandon his post as Ambassador-plenipotentiary to France in the capital city of Paris and –Castlereagh the chief British envoy being needed at home to manage relations with the House of Commons– hie himself to the Congress of Vienna.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 7th of 1st M / Here ends the first week of the Year –It may be memorable in my mind – It has been a season of life & love

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 8, Sunday: On the northern shore of the Gulf of Mexico, the British army, unaware that a treaty of peace had been signed, made a 3d assault against General Andrew Jackson's system of ditches around the sea approaches to New Orleans. Whoever won control over this port and river city supposed they would "win" the war that was already over, because the port was the key to all of the American Inland South facing the Caribbean, a general territory which went under the name "Louisiana," that is, "Land of Louis XV, King of France," although whatever paltry "rights of ownership" Louis XV had had to this real estate (which were debatable) had passed to his (erstwhile) heir the Emperor Napoléon I subsequent to his having lost his head, and had then been sold to the national government of the United States of America in 1803 for the paltry sum of $0.⁰⁴ per acre.¹⁵⁴ However, Jackson had been reinforced with levies from Kentucky and the British troops were being led by a brother-in-law of Arthur Wellesley, Duke of Wellington, Packenham, who had achieved his position of military mastery from political connections of rank and privilege rather than from any demonstrated facility in getting other men to die when he told them to. The watchword of the British was "Booty and Beauty." The troops were chiefly drawn from Wellington's peninsular army. This relative Packenham did a no-no. He led a manly frontal assault against a fully prepared and alerted defensive position

154. When the national government of the United States of America purchased rights to such territories from weaker people, such as the Dakota nation, they weren't in the habit of paying nearly as much as this per acre, even when the rights to the real estate were far more real than the rights of King Louis.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

under fine daylight conditions with no thought of surprise or other trickiness. The attackers were cut down in half an hour of concentrated rifle and cannon fire with losses of almost 2,000 dead and injured. Only one of their general officers was still alive. American casualties were 6 killed and 10 wounded (Jackson's loss in the entire campaign was merely 333 souls). The British withdrew to their original landing-place and re-embarked.

This Battle of New Orleans, the last campaign of the War of 1812, was being fought subsequent to the signing of the Peace of Ghent on December 24, 1814. There is no merit, however, in the frequent assertion that Jackson's great victory was won after the war was over, for the Ghent treaty specifically called for continued hostilities until ratification by both governments, and this mutual ratification would be effected only during February 1815. After so many distressing months of failure in a war in which the enemy had burned and sacked the federal capital and which had led disaffected citizens to question the value of the Union itself, Jackson's victory at New Orleans would seem to wipe away the nation's memories of incompetent leadership. Overnight, Old Hickory would be transfigured into a symbol of distinctive American strengths and virtues, and his path would turn inevitably toward the freshly painted because scorched "White House." But for the moment the Virginia Dynasty still commanded, and Jackson would retire with his honors to his beloved Hermitage. Some admirers of Jackson would be able to obtain a lock of his hair, which hair, now tested, shows lead poisoning which would fully explain his severe abdominal cramping and constipation during this period. (The lead bullet lodged in his body produced chronic health problems such as irritability, paranoia, severe mood swings, and kidney failure, until it would be surgically removed in 1832 and the dissolved lead burden in his body would be able to decrease. The calomel which he took due to this constipation, since it contained mercury, may explain why his teeth would fall out at such an early age.)

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 8th of 1st M 1815 / Our Meetings were silent excepting a short offering in the forenoon – Went with Father Rodman to visit of our friend D Buffum who had for a week or two been confined by indisposition. took tea with him & set most of the evening. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 12, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 12 of 1st M / Our Meeting was silent. And to me a season of but little proffit, being much unsettled. – We took tea at Father Rodmans. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 14, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 14th of 1 M / Heard this Afternoon of the recent very sudden departure out of time of our Beloved friend & Brother Matthew Franklin of NYork. It appears he was at Pearl Street Meeting & was delivering a sermon in which he appeared to be engaged with unusual life & while in the Middle of a sentence Sat down & was soon helped out of Meeting to his home & died in a fit of Apoplexy in a short time - with this goodly young man I was well acquainted - He has twice visited New England & the

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

last time was in 1812 - His ministry was lively pertinent & Sound His death was a solemn Warning to those who are in health to be prepared for we know not in which hour we may be Summoned to Eternity. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 15, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 15 of 1st M / Ruth Weaver reviewed the text "Boast not thyself of tomorrow for we know not what a day may Bring forth
- & father Rodman followed her on the same subject - D Buffum was lively & Powerful in testimony - In the Afternoon Silent. -
In the eveng Br J Rodman & I called a little while at Neighbor
Towles. - then came back & Set the remainder together & Br Isaac Joined us very agreeably -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 16, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*2nd day 16th of 1st M 1815 / I have today met with the Following Obituary notice in the NYork Commercial Advertiser of the 10th inst "Smitten friends
"Are Angels sent on errands full of love
"For us they languish
"And for us they die young Death has impressed another awful lesson upon those who glory in the transitory enjoyments of life. - He has deprived this city of a valuable & worthy citizen & has bereaved the Society of Friends of a Member, who tho' in the prime of life has long stood forth, an Able advocate in the cause of universal righteousness, & whose life adorned the doctrines he propessed.
Matthew Franklin, a distinguished minister in that Society expired last evening about half past seven. The circumstances of his death are Solemn and impressive. In usual health he attended the meeting in Pearl Street to which he belonged on the preceeding morning, and, after an interval of Silence, he rose & repeated the following emphatic declaration of the apostle James; "Pure religion & undefiled before God the Father, is this, to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction."
On this point of the text he enlarged very instructively illustrating the nature of the duties, to which the apostle alluded, and exhorted the audience to the exercise of christian benevolence with much of that feeling & pathos, for which his discourses have latterly been remarkable. - But Oh! it was enough! While this pleading with a countenance suffused with earnestness & affection the cause of the indigent & friendless, a Mandate from the councils of eternal wisdom arrested him in the commencement of a sentence, and instantly*

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

closed his mental powers in utter oblivion to the woes & sufferings of his fellow creatures. He suddenly applied his hand to his head, slowly took his seat, rose up, & feebly with the assistance of others walked out; was conveyed home & without uttering a Sentence fell into a State of Apoplectic insensibility in which he languished until released without a struggle, from the last tie of his mortal nature.

Numerous are the eyes that will overflow at this event, for he was tenderly beloved by every class of his friends. The poor will lament their loss for many were they upon whom his private charities, like the refreshing dews of the night upon the parched soil, shed relief & gladness. As an active Governor of the NYork Hospital; as a Trustee of the Free School; as a Member of other important associations; as a correct & upright Merchant, his loss will be long & deeply regretted. Oh his social qualities & his eminent worth as a Minister of the Gospel, it becomes us here to be silent: we cannot do justice to a theme so affecting. "He mourns the dead who lives as they desire."

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 19, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 19th of 1st M 1815 / Our Meeting was pretty well attended by Members. James Hallack was with us, & I think it may be said the Love of God was very conspicuous in his ministry. -In the last (Preparative) he was also concerned very sweetly for the various branches of society & particularly for the Youth. -At the close of the preparative Meeting he requested a Meeting to be appointed at the sixth hour tomorrow evening which was agreed upon. - In the Afternoon I recd a letter from Aunt Patty giving a Short acct of the funeral of M Franklin - & at the same time one from Obadiah Brown giving inclosing two for James Hallack I immediately carried them to E Hoxies[?] where I found him. -they contained information of the extreme illness of his son, which brought his mind into a streight about the Meeting he had appointed, thinking he had better return homeward tomorrow Morning. -

Was called upon to examine the bruises of Matilda Speare which she said she had recd from Daniel Chase Jr & his wife to whom she was by indenture bound by the Overseers of this Town. (The child is about 6 years old. On inspection of the Back there appear'd to be marks which indicated severe bruises of a blackish, greenish & yellowish hue like old bruises that had begun to disappear the most remarkable was on the left Shoulder & there were similar marks on the right shoulder which the child inform'd me was occasioned by the stripes of an horse whip given by Mrs Chase. One of her ears bore the marks of bruises & scratches, the scabs remaining, which she said was done by Mrs. Chase who took her up by the ear. - On the lower extremities of her body there appeared large weals & from the breadth of them

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

I should suppose they had been swollen to the size of a common finger. On inspecting her head there appeared to be bald spots where the hair was evidently pulled out by the roots which she said was done by Mrs. Chase at various times & stated twice in particular when she by sudden force tore her our of bed by the hair & one when her own child wet the flour [floor], she took her by the hair & rubed her face in the Water. -

I went to see those marks of unnatural abuse at the request of one of the town Council in company with one of the overseers of the poor, & certainly it was wicked in the extreme & if the facts are proven upon Chase & his wife I think hevy damages will be recovered by prosecution & their rights of Membership in Society be forfeited. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 20, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 20th of 1 M 1815 / James Hallack feels most easy to attend the meeting & I have been much occupied tho' [thro'] the Day in preparing the Meeting house for it --

At 6 OC. R M the meeting met - the house was well lighted with Candles. - It proved to be the most solid & satisfactory Meeting that has been held by appointment in this town for many years. - James was engaged about two hours in very weighty & Powerful communication & tho' the Small part of the house was full & so much crowded that many stood in the Passage, when he concluded speaking all remained perfectly still & quiet, none moved from their seats & I thought I never witnessed a more solid covering over a gathering - & when the meeting concluded the people seemed unwilling to separate

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 21, Saturday: Horace Wells was born in Hartford, Vermont.¹⁵⁵

The assembled leaders in Vienna attended a requiem mass in St. Stephen's Cathedral organized by Talleyrand, for Louis XVI on the 22d anniversary of the monarch's execution. The requiem was conducted by Antonio Salieri.

LA GUILLOTINE

From this date until March 9th, Lord and Lady Byron would be at Seaham, home of Sir Ralph and Lady Milbanke.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 21st of 1st M 1815 / I have heard many speak of their satisfaction & edification at being at James Meeting last evening

This eveng rode to Portsmouth with David Williams & lodged at 155. Wells's drug experiments on himself would, on January 24, 1848, bring about his death.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Cousin Z Chases

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 22, Sunday: Great Britain and Portugal signed a treaty in regard to the international slave trade. In return for British cancellation of a £600,000 debt owed by Portugal, no subject of Portugal would ever purchase any slave along the coast of Africa north of the equator.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

-1st day Rose early & took breakfast which was very kindly prepared for us by Elizabeth & Alice - we then rode down into New town on the buisness we went on - then went to Meeting which was Silent - After Meeting we had an oppertunity with David Sherman - his case is to me a very trying one - We dined at John Bordens after which we rode to George Halls to invesitage Davids case a little further where D Williams left me & went on towards Westport - I returning home stoped a few minutes at Saml Thurstons & from thence to Richd Mitchells & took tea & from thence rode home - before dark. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 26, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 26 of 1 M / In our first meeting Abigail Robinson was concerned in an excellent testimony touching the State of the times, recommending an individual inquiry how far each one has contributed to the drawing down the Judgements of Heaven which now seem to be poweri [pour] down on the inhabitants of this once highly favor'd land. -
In the last (Monthly Meeting) was an exercising time - a proposition was made to appoint a committee to inspect the state of society & to visit such members as way opened, which by the improper meddling of some, the extreme caution of others, & the Want of Zeal in some - nearly fell thro' - tho' the preposition spread with considerable life over the meeting when first made*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 30, Monday: The 6,487 volumes of ex-president-in-bad-need-of-some-ready-cash Thomas Jefferson's library, purchased on this day by the federal congress for $23,950 to replace volumes burned by the British during the War of 1812, would be arriving in Washington DC by horse and wagon.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 30th of 1st M / Confined within doors with the Ague & the soreness of my Blister, my mind much turned towards the ensueing Quarterly Meeting at Providence had made calculations to attend it, but such are my infirmities that I fear to attempt it, at this very cold spell of weather would be an imprudent risk, several of my friends have been in this Afternoon & offered

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

me a seat in Their Chaises, which is very kind & a renew'd insentive to dedication for I have often believed that way is made for those who are devoted to discharge their duty where no way appears. As I have no way left but the expence of the Mail stage the river being shut, no less than three offers of conveyance has felt very greatful. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 24, Tuesday: Before the New Jersey state legislature, the postponed steamboat hearings resumed.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 24 of 1 M / Spent this day with my friend David Buffum at his house engaged in writing his Will. he is frequently of late subject to ill turns & is now confind by one of them I think his frail tabernacle of Clay is dissolving, but may contunie by care some time longer. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 25: Ludwig van Beethoven accompanied vocalist Franz Wild at a concert to celebrate the birthday of the Tsarina at the Congress of Vienna (this would be his final public performance at the piano).

January 29, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 29th of 1st M 1815 / Much afflicted with the Ague in my face, which with a portion of physic taken last eveng prevented my going to meeting - the Ague remaining hard I put a Blister on my Arm this evening. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 31, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 31st of 1st M / My face stukk very uncomfortable & confined within doors - I have given up the prospect of Quarterly Meeting - some who attempt ed it going & got as far as Bristol ferry were obligedd to return the ferry being stopd with Ice & the weather today has been the coldest I wver knew this eveng the mercury was 8 degrees below nothing - I have felt thankful for having things around me comfortable & especially that I have wood aplenty & can keep my stove [store?] comfortable. - My H has spent most of the day in the Shop with her Spinning Wheel

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 February 1, Wednesday: The Duke of Wellington arrived at the Congress of Vienna as the British representative, replacing Viscount Castlereagh.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 1st of 2nd M 1815 / The cold abates a little more Ice made in the harbor [too faint] night than I ever before saw [five line nearly illegible, but all having to do with the extreme cold]

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 February 2, Thursday: Representatives of 32 teeny German states unrecognized at the Congress of Vienna demanded an immediate congress of Germany to consider a constitution, a congress that would never happen.

The Duke of Wellington made his initial public appearance in Vienna, at a ball in the Redoutensaal. Everyone was fascinated and, as you might imagine, there was quite a large crush.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 2nd of 2nd M 1815 / Attended Meeting & tho' my spirit was barran when going, it proved a season of feeling & close exercise, expecially in commemorating what passed at our last Moy [Monthly] Meeting. -It seemed to open fully & satisfactorily to my mind that the body must witness an exercise for itself, or it will long remain barran & unfruitful - true it is, that individuals compose the body & individuals must & will be exercised, but their hands will be tied from useful labor untill we can experience a more general concern, untill the body is more fully bound to promote labor for its own help & restoration, & it was my sense then & remains so now, that could the Moy [Monthly] Meeting be united in appointing a judicious committee one that would be willing to be exercised in the cause of Truth, who might have liberty to visit individuals, families & Meetings at their discretion much benefit might be the result - & not only such as are delinquents require help, but many who are endeavoring to fill their ranks in righteousness may need the friendly & pious call of their brethren & sisters, who may be enabled thro' divine help to afford them suitable council & thereby strengthen their hands in well doing. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 February 5, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 5th of 2 M / Our mornng Meeting was as large as could be expected considering the hevy fall of Snow last night About 20 women got out - In the Afternoon it was also pretty well attended & [illegible] spoke a few words. - Set the evening pretty much at home excepting a short call at Brother Isaacs in the forepart of it. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

February 8, Wednesday: The Five Powers in Vienna finally came to agreement in regard to Saxony and Poland. Also, the eight signatories of the Treaty of Paris signed a statement on the international slave trade, unanimously concurring that it was immoral (dedicating themselves to its eradication, they could of course arrive at no agreement on any enforcement provision — just because something is immoral does not mean that anything ought to be done about it because this is, after all, an imperfect world in which the wise people do understand that “the best is ever the enemy of the good”).

British forces from Louisiana captured Mobile in the Mississippi Territory.

Caleb C. Billings (presumably “Junior” or “II”: the 1st infant so named would survive but five months, dying on July 4th) was born to Caleb Callender Billings and Nancy Thoreau Billings.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4 day 8th of 2 M 1815 / A Day of exercise of mind a proposition by our fr D Buffum made today occasioned (with some other circumstances relative to Society) much serious reflection this evening. — The proposal was to stand in the capacity of Overseer — which I am very unwilling to consent to, from a concious belief that I can be more useful out of the appointment than in it. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 9, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 9 of 2nd M / At Meeting an appearance in supplication — My mind in a pretty good state. — Still exercised with the proposition of standing as Overseer. — I feel a desire to do what I can in my day & generation, but cannot believe that to be my proper sphere. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 9, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 9 of 2nd M / At Meeting an appearance in supplication — My mind in a pretty good state. — Still exercised with the proposition of standing as Overseer. — I feel a desire to do what I can in my day & generation, but cannot believe that to be my proper sphere. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

February 11, Saturday: After months of sometimes acrimonious debate, a final agreement on Poland and Saxony was signed at the Congress of Vienna. The Posen district was returned to Prussia while Galicia reverted to Austria. Krakow and its surrounding 1,000 square kilometers became a free city. The remaining 127,000 square kilometers of the old Duchy of Warsaw became the Kingdom of Poland under the Russian Tsar. In return for giving up most of its claims Prussia received 40% of Saxony, the Duchy of Westphalia, Swedish Pomerania, and the west bank of the Rhine. In return for its concessions Austria received the Tyrol, Salzburg, the Adriatic Provinces, and certain assurances in Italy. Everybody was as happy as they could possibly be in an imperfect world.

The British sloop-of-war Favorite arrived at New-York, with an English and an American messenger bearing a treaty of peace, which the English government had already ratified. The news of the Treaty of Ghent, despatched by express, would reach Boston in thirty-two hours. As the news spread, a general feeling of satisfaction expressed itself in rejoicing, without caring to inquire what were the terms of the treaty.

AMERICAN NAVAL BIOGRAPHY. Compiled by Isaac Bailey. Providence: Published by Isaac Bailey, near the Turk's Head [Providence, Rhode Island]. H. Mann & Co. printers.

NAVAL BIOGRAPHIES

The personages we are expectedly to desire so eagerly to emulate are Thomas Truxton, Edward Preble, Alexander Murray, John Rodgers, Isaac Hull, Stephen Decatur, Jacob Jones, James Lawrence, William Bainbridge, John Barry, Nicholas Biddle, David Porter, Charles Morris, William Henry Allen, Oliver Hazard Perry, William Burrows, John Cushing Aylwin, and Thomas MacDonough. This volume concludes with an essay "Characteristick anecdotes of the Battle on Lake Erie."

Thou, Ocean, thou, the seaman's sire !
Witness for us, while deeds like those Approved our prowess to our foes,
Did they not 'midst ourselves, inspire
In all, the emulous desire
As well to act, as to admire !

February 12, Sunday: The news arrived in Providence, Rhode Island, by express stage out of New-York, that in Ghent "on the 24th December last," a peace had been concluded between the United States of America and Great Britain, and that the Battle for New Orleans had been merely a waste of everyone's lives. This express stage proceeded forward to inform first Worcester and then Boston.

1815. The glad tidings of Peace were announced here February 12, and our streets were thronged with delighted men and women, and resounded with acclamations of joy. The town was brilliantly illuminated in the evening, and although it was intensely cold, the streets were thronged to a late hour by persons of both sexes and of all ages, and the sound of mirth resounded from almost every dwelling. Many, however, who had been carried along by this tide of rejoicing, had cause to mourn when the excitement had subsided, and the "sober second thought" of reflection had returned. They had speculated largely, when prices were high, and vast amounts were invested in merchandise, the value of which, on restoration of peace, "fell, like Lucifer, never to rise again." Many failures were the consequence; but to people at large, peace came as a blessing.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

This year was signalized by the Great Storm and high tide. The storm commenced Sept. 22, and the wind was violent, and increasing through the night and the succeeding morning, many houses were unroofed, and other blown down. The tide on the 23d, rose to an extraordinary height, the gale from the South-East was of unparalleled severity, both combined, they drove the principal part of the shipping in the harbor from its moorings up the river against Weybosset bridge, which in short time gave way, and the whole was driven up and landed on the northern shore of the cove. A large sloop was left a considerable distance North of Great Point, now the site of the State Prison, and between that point and the upper part of the Canal basin, were upwards of thirty sail, of a burthen from 500 tons downwards. The water entirely filled the lower stories of the buildings in Market-street, west of the bridge, and a portion of the brick wall of the Washington Insurance building, in the third story, was broken in by the bowsprit of the ship Ganges, as she was driven rapidly by in the foaming current. A sloop of some 50 or 60 tons was driven across Weybosset-street, into Pleasant-street, where she grounded. The Baptist meeting-house, built for Rev. Mr. Cornell, near Muddy Dock, now Dorrance-street, was entirely destroyed. Many houses, stores and barns were swept from the wharves in South Water, Weybosset and some other streets, into the cove, where many of them were crushed to pieces. The water at the junction of Westminster and Orange-streets was at least six feet in depth. Two human beings only here lost their lives in this storm, which was matter of great wonder, when so many were perilled. No measures were taken to ascertain the damage done by the storm, but it was estimated at about a million of dollars.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 12 of 2nd M / In our Mornng Meeting D Buffum was concerned in a very lively testimony to the necessity of "Commencing with our own hearts" &c In the Afternoon a short testimony by a friend - both meetings I considered favor'd seasons to me tho' not wholly exempt from thoughts which had better be excluded from a religious Meeting - Jonathon Dennis Dined with us - & Sister Ruth took tea & set the evening. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 14, Tuesday: British forces took control of the city of Kandy on the island of Sri Lanka.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 14 of 2nd M / This Morning at five OClock which was before Day break - My friend Charles Gorton knocked at the door & gave me the very pleasing intelligence that two men had arrived at 2 OC with the News of PEACE from Bristol & that the Printers were striking off hand Bills - I thought the news so pleasing

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

that I immediately dressed myself made my [illegible] & went out & at the Watch House I [illegible] the two Messengers of Peace themselves who cont [illegible] had before told me - After staying there a while I walked out a little & returned home a little after day light & pretty soon Rec'd the hand bill. The Bells were set to Ringing before Sunrise & guns fired & both Bells & Guns have been going the whole day with many displays of Colours in different parts of the Town - & generally the greatest scene of public rejoicing I ever beheld - This evening the Town was generally illuminated wherewith Thames Street was nearly as light as Day & as many men women & children travelling about as at the General Election. Lights were placed in the Church Lantern which was to have been a Signal of Alarm, now a Token of Peace.

This mode of rejoicing (tho' on this occasion I cannot feel so far amiss as on some others) is very far from what I conceive to be right, my heart hath indeed been humbled & made thankful to HIM who ruleth the world in that he hath Blessed us with the return of the Olive Branch. & Oh that the people would lay it to heart.

Another cause of thankfulness is that with all the commotion of the day & evening no accident has happened that has come to my knowledge.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 15, Wednesday: Viscount Castlereagh departed from Vienna for London.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 15th of 2nd M 1815 / On looking over the late great event of Peace my heart is humbled under a sense of gratitude for the many favors recd - I have been blessed with the means of reputable living thro' the War & have not gone behind hand while many have spent their last & gone much in debt & some have within my knowledge suffered much with cold & Hunger this Winter - & for the many favors I have recd I do feel a Song of praise unto Him who alone was the Author of All - & Oh that I may renew my devotion to his cause - With what gratitude should the inhabitants of this Town look unto the Lord, having preserved us from the Danger of invasion the Sword & famine, in viewing his tender mercies, my heart is full

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 16, Thursday: Johanna Wagner Geyer and Ludwig Geyer added a daughter, Cäcilie, to their family which already included the toddler Wilhelm Richard Wagner.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 16 of 2 M / Jonathon Chase & Daniel Brayton of Swansey

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Attended Meeting & Jonathon appear'd in testimony, which evinced him to be a living member of the Body - They are on a visit to the Moy [Monthly] Meeting - intending to see the families of it & have commenced their services this Afternoon. - In the Preparative Meeting The former Overseers with the addition of my name were reported & agreed to be recommended to the Moy [Monthly] Meeting for that Service - A Service which I feel not only incompetent on but have serious doubts whether it is the sphere in which I ought to act - however submit to the judgement of my friends. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 17, Friday: In support of homeland agriculture, a Corn Bill was introduced into the House of Commons to restrict import of foreign grain. This would enhance the nation's security but raise the price of bread.

The federal Congress proposed that the United States of America borrow the sum of $18,400,000, by creating an issue of treasury notes in the amount of $25,000,000. A portion of these treasury notes, issued in sums under $100, would be payable to bearer, and would serve as a currency. Treasury notes over $100 were to bear interest at 5 2/5%, making a cent and a half a day on each $100. Both were to be receivable for all public dues and were to be transferable at option, those bearing interest in 6% bonds and those without interest in 7% bonds.

The ratification of the treaty of Ghent that had been signed the previous December 24th ended the War of 1812 between England and the USA. By its provisions all conquered territory was to be mutually restored, and three commissions were to be appointed: the first to settle the title to the islands of Passamaquoddy Bay; the second to settle the northeastern boundary as far as the St. Lawrence; and the third to, run the line through the St. Lawrence and the lakes to the Lake of the Woods. In case of disagreement, the point in dispute was to be referred to some friendly power. Hostilities on land were to terminate with the ratification of the treaty, and on sea in certain specified times, according to the distance, the longest time being four months. The treaty provided against the carrying away by the British of "any negroes or other property." Both parties agreed to use their best endeavors for the suppression of the slave-trade.

INTERNATIONAL SLAVE TRADE

W.E. Burghardt Du Bois: At the Congress of Vienna, which assembled late in 1814, Castlereagh was indefatigable in his endeavors to secure the abolition of the trade. France and Spain, however, refused to yield farther than they had already done, and the other powers hesitated to go to the lengths he recommended. Nevertheless, he secured the institution of annual conferences on the matter, and a declaration by the Congress strongly condemning the trade and declaring that "the public voice in all civilized countries was raised to demand its suppression as soon as possible," and that, while the definitive period of termination would be left to subsequent negotiation, the sovereigns would not consider their work done until the trade was entirely suppressed.¹⁵⁶

In the Treaty of Ghent, between Great Britain and the United States, ratified February 17, 1815, Article 10, proposed by

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Great Britain, declared that, "Whereas the traffic in slaves is irreconcilable with the principles of humanity and justice," the two countries agreed to use their best endeavors in abolishing the trade.¹⁵⁷ The final overthrow of Napoleon was marked by a second declaration of the powers, who, "desiring to give effect to the measures on which they deliberated at the Congress of Vienna, relative to the complete and universal abolition of the Slave Trade, and having, each in their respective Dominions, prohibited without restriction their Colonies and Subjects from taking any part whatever in this Traffic, engage to renew conjointly their efforts, with the view of securing final success to those principles which they proclaimed in the Declaration of the 4th February, 1815, and of concerting, without loss of time, through their Ministers at the Courts of London and of Paris, the most effectual measures for the entire and definitive abolition of a Commerce so odious, and so strongly condemned by the laws of religion and of nature."¹⁵⁸ Treaties further restricting the trade continued to be made by Great Britain: Spain abolished the trade north of the equator in 1817,¹⁵⁹ and promised entire abolition in 1820; Spain, Portugal, and Holland also granted a mutual limited Right of Search to England, and joined in establishing mixed courts.¹⁶⁰ The effort, however, to secure a general declaration of the powers urging, if not compelling, the abolition of the trade in 1820, as well as the attempt to secure a qualified international Right of Visit, failed, although both propositions were strongly urged by England at the Conference of 1818.¹⁶¹

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 17th of 2nd M 1815 / Our friends J Chase & D Brayton go on their visits to families I attended them to Wm Leer Jos Williams & Alice Wyatts - then R Mitchell took my place & went with them thro' the Day - they took tea with us & in the evening & again waited on them to father Rodmans, Susan Thurstons, Polly Hadwens & John Earls at Wm Lees & John Earls they were remarkably favor'd, & evinced themselves Skillful workmen & wise thro' the whole.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

157. AMERICAN STATE PAPERS, FOREIGN, III. No. 271, pages 735-48; U.S. TREATIES AND CONVENTIONS (edition of 1889), page 405.

158. This was inserted in the Treaty of Paris, November 20, 1815: BRITISH AND FOREIGN STATE PAPERS, 1815-6, page 292.

159. BRITISH AND FOREIGN STATE PAPERS, 1816-7, pages 33-74 (English version, 1823-4, page 702 ff.).

160. Cf. BRITISH AND FOREIGN STATE PAPERS, 1817-8, page 125 ff.

161. This was the first meeting of the London ministers of the powers according to agreement; they assembled December 4, 1817, and finally called a meeting of plenipotentiaries on the question of suppression at Aix-la-Chapelle, beginning October 24, 1818. Among those present were Metternich, Richelieu, Wellington, Castlereagh, Hardenberg, Bernstorff, Nesselrode, and Capodistrias. Castlereagh made two propositions: 1. That the five powers join in urging Portugal and Brazil to abolish the trade May 20, 1820; 2. That the powers adopt the principle of a mutual qualified Right of Search. Cf. BRITISH AND FOREIGN STATE PAPERS, 1818-9, pages 21-88; AMERICAN STATE PAPERS, FOREIGN, V. No. 346, pages 113-122.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

February 18, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 18th 2m / A very driving Snow Storm the whole day but our above mentioned friends inclining to ersue their visit to families I attended them thro' the Day first to D Rodmans then to Betsy Buffums. John Eastons (not a member) Robert Lawtons Eliza Hoxie Hannah Eastons, Robert Braytons not a member where they chose to dine being a relation & an old acquaintance - next to Gilbert Chases, James Taylor, Mary Tillinghast, Perry Weaver & the Widow Allens. - Our visit to John Eastons was remarkable he was mightily affected with Jonathons preaching & Daniels Prayer, our hearts were all greatly reached - at Robt Lawtons Nicholas was called in but came reluctantly Daniel however reached the witness in his mind & broke him into tears. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 19, Sunday: Violin Concerto no.7 by Louis Spohr was performed for the initial time, in Vienna. This was judged among the best in that form yet composed.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 19 of 2nd M / I am almost sick with the cold taken yesterday travelling about in the Snow - Attended meetings & in both our above mentioned friend had good service

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

HDTWHAT?INDEXFRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

February 20, Monday: At this point during the 1812-1815 war with Great Britain, the USS Constitution, off Lisbon, captured the British sloops-of-war (or, perhaps, brigs) HMS Cyane and HMS Levant. The engagement took place by moonlight off Madeira. The loss to the Constitution was only three killed and twelve wounded. Meeting subsequently with a fleet of British vessels, our frigate escaped in a fog but lost HMS Levant, which the British warships recaptured.

(After this 1812-1815 war with Great Britain, our big frigate would be laid up for repairs at the US Navy Yard in Boston until 1821.)

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 20 of 2 M 1815 / Our friend J Chase & Daniel Brayton finished their visit in town this Afternoon I believe to their own & friends satisfaction - Jonathon Dennis attended them today. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

February 21, Tuesday: The British, after issuing a proclamation of martial law, withdrew from the coast of Georgia.

Congress authorized the funding of the non-interest-paying treasury notes in circulation. The interest upon the loan was 7%. $3,268,949 was invested in bonds at par.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*3rd day 21st of 2nd M / This Afternoon about 5 OClock the Providence Mail Stage arrived with a White flag before & a National standard behind with the news of the Ratification of the treaty with England by the President - immediately all the bells in town were set to ringing & people flocked about the streets in great numbers
On going out & making some inquiry I find it is not exactly as above stated. - The Senate have passed their Sanction to the treaty & it waits the Presidents signature.*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

February 22, Wednesday: Mary Godwin Wollstonecraft gave birth to a daughter, two months premature.

A large concert was given in Boston with massed choirs and instrumentalists, to celebrate George Washington's birthday and the Treaty of Ghent. The event would inspire the founding of the Boston Handel and Haydn Society.

The American sailors being held in the prison complex on the Devonshire moor near Plymouth, England marched in their yard in celebration of this birthday (it may have been upon this occasion that the impromptu black band from #4 performed "Yankee Doodle" to the annoyance of watching British officials).

IMPRESSMENT

HDTWHAT?INDEXSTEPHEN WANTON GOULD*FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th 22nd of 2nd M / The Mail this eveng Brot the Treaty of peace & the Presidents Proclamation which puts to rest all doubt & question that peace is really concluded between England & America. This is an Era of the World very remarkable. all Christian Powers are now at Peace - no War exists between any of them & May this state long continue & prove a forerunner of that great Day long ago predicted even to the Nations of the Earth shall learn the Art of War no MORE. - The Bells have rung

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

all day & in the evening many houses were illuminated. I am thankful the Nation is at peace & as thankful that the mode of rejoicing practiced by the people is over 5th day 23rd of 2nd M 1815 / The mornng being very cold the travelling bad & my H being quite unwell I got into a Sleigh with David Williams & His daughter Mary & rode to Portsmouth to attend the Monthly Meeting & in going I have seldom suffered more with the cold. The travelling being hard & our Horse dull made us late at Meeting - We met our Friends Jonathon Chase & D Brayton & Jonathon & Hannah Dennis were concerned in lively testimonys - We had much buisness in the last meeting but were favord to get along with it to pretty good satisfaction & in good season. - We dined at Uncle S Thurstons in company with Jonathon & Daniel who have nearly accomplished their visit to the families of Friends in this Monthly Meeting We took our leave of them & rode home much more comfortably than we rode out the weather having moderated & the road become Smoother.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 26, Sunday: The Emperor Napoléon I, three generals, and a thousand men set sail from the Island of Elba in the Mediterranean, passing the ships on guard and heading toward the southern coast of France.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 26th of 2nd M / Meetings small walking bad & lean seasons a few words offerred in the Afternoon. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 28, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 28th of 2 M / Sitting this eveng attending to my H while she was reading the Memoirs of Benj Bangs a weighty frame of mind came over me & I believe I livingly said in my heart "BLESSED be the NAME of the LORD" while sitting thus enjoying the circulations of the divine life those words involuntarily rose up in much precious feeling & I was grateful for this fresh evidence of divine favor. -- Heard this Afternoon that my Aged cousin Joseph Greene of Connannicut is low & apparently near his end

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 2, Thursday: The Dominion of Kandyan Provinces (Ceylon) was vested in the Sovereign of the British Empire.

The Emperor Napoléon I reached Castellane.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

5th day 2nd of 3rd M 1815 / Our friend D Buffum was concerned in a lively & very sweet testimony "He that knoweth his Masters will &c" Ruth Weaver appeared in a few words - Meeting well attended considering the very bad travelling - to me it was a season of favor. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 5, Sunday: Upon the 12th meeting of the "Swiss Committee," most issues of the Congress of Vienna were resolved (or so they supposed).

The German physician Franz Mesmer died. He had developed "Mesmerism," a set of techniques we now know as hypnotism. Prior to the introduction of anesthesia in the late 1840s, this "Mesmerism" would be being very widely relied upon for surgical pain relief.

Nancy Thoreau Billings died in Bangor, Maine, possibly due to complications of childbirth. Her widower Caleb Callender Billings would remarry on June 7, 1818, with the widowed Betsey Brown Hammond, a mature daughter of Reuben Brown of Concord.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 5 of 3 M / Mt Aged cousin (by marriage) Joseph Greene of Jamestown departed this life this morning about 5 O'clock - he married my fathers own Cousin Abigail Gould & their son David served his time at the Tailors trade with him, both which circumstances made a particular intimacy in the families. - The walking very bad. Meetings both small & silent - a few women attended & some that were not members

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 7, Tuesday: At Laffrey, 800 soldiers produced the first threat to the project of the returning Emperor Napoléon I. Disdaining armed confrontation, he walked toward them identifying himself as their emperor and inviting them to gun him down. The soldiers threw down their weapons and knelt. They, and then their officers, turned sides and went on that day to take Grenoble.

News of the escape reached Metternich and the Quadruple Alliance at the Congress of Vienna, and they were brought to an awareness that they were going to need to defeat the emperor again on the field of battle.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 7th of 3rd M / This Mornng with my H crossed the ferry to Connanicut to attend the funeral of cousin Jos Greene we had 14 others on board the boat Vizt D Buffum Jons Dennis & Wife, John Weaver & two Daughters - James Mitchell & Daughter Rhoda & others - At the funeral we met our friend Thos Jones & Geo Philbrick on a religious visit - The Meeting was held at Josephs house in which Thos Jones spoke twice D Buffum twice & Hannah Dennis once one of their communications appeared to me to be with good Authority -particularly D Buffums "He observed that we were on a very important voyage with our all on board & desired we might pay strict attention to the helm the company & the Pilot

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*that we might arrive safe at the haven where true riches lays -
In his second standing he illustrated the Prodigal holding [illegible] the encouragement to return to the fathers House
- The Corpse were inter'd in the Meeting House [illegible] A pretty large company of us arrived at the house & they [illegible] T Jones & G Williams with us Recd by T Jones
[illegible]*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 8, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 8th of 3rd M 1815 / This Morning recd a letter from my fr Hannah Pope, Baltimore dated 2nd M 15 1815 / & 2n M 19 -which was very acceptable. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 9, Thursday: Mary Godwin Wollstonecraft wrote in her journal: "Thursday 9th. Read & talk — still think about my little baby — 'tis hard indeed for a mother to lose a child."

George Gordon, Lord Byron and Lady Byron left for Six Mile Bottom to visit Augusta Leigh.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 9th of 3rd M / Thos Jones & his companion George Philbrick were at meeting - Thos was concern'd in a short but sweet testimony. - The meeting was as well attended as could be expected considering the Walking-Rote a letter this eveng to Wm Rotch Jnr respecting Jacob Rivera

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 12, Sunday: Lord and Lady Byron began to stay at Six Mile Bottom, until the 28th of the month.

GEORGE GORDON, LORD BYRON

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 12 of 3rd M / Our Meetings were both pretty large, no vocal communication & from my own condition I was ready to conclude it was a low season with most present but little life in circulation

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 14, Tuesday: Troops sent by King Louis XVIII to subdue Napoléon Bonaparte went over to his side at Auxerre southeast of Paris.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 14 of 3rd M / This day our little son John Stanton is

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

three Years old. – he is at present a promising little boy. / – can spell quite smartly & repeat a considerable number of poetic peaces which gives him quite a smart & forward appearance & he is a remarkable minute observer of allmost every thing he sees & hears & appears to have many Ideas not common in children of his age –He is advancing into a World fraught with many snares & woes, & should he arrive to maturity I crave nothing for him beyond his being a good man & useful in his generation. This is my anxious desire & I pray the God of our lives that the Angel of his presennce may ever be near & guard him from evil. he is now young, but not so young but a sense of good & evil is very apparent in his mind. – & exerts[?] evidently powerful convictions for doing wrong & a commendation of or good attend him & as proof of this I could instance many circumstances within six months

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 16, Thursday: The Kingdom of the Netherlands (in our present era, that would correspond to Netherlands, Belgium, and Luxembourg) was established under King Willem I.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 16th of 3rd M 1815 / At meeting two Public Testimonys one from C Rodman the other H Dennis – After meeting we had a short opportunity with D Chase Jr but two of the committee being absent we defer'd investigation for another opportunity – Saml Thurston & Richd Mitchell dined with us – Sister Eliza set the evening

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 19, Sunday: It was a Sunday in Paris in the spring and Louis XVIII was packing his bags, intending to flee with his family to find safety in Belgium.

Mary Godwin Wollstonecraft wrote in her journal: “Sunday 19th. Dream that my little baby came to life again — that it had only been cold & that we rubbed it by the fire & it lived — I awake & find no baby — I think about the little thing all day — not in good spirits — Shelley is very unwell.”

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 19 of 3rd In the Mornng Meeting our friend D Buffum was concerned in a lively feeling & pertinent testimony – In the Afternoon silence prevailed –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 23, Thursday: King Louis XVIII of France crossed the border into Belgium and found safety in exile in Ghent.

The USS Hornet, off the island of Tristan d'Acunha in the south Atlantic, captured the HMS Penguin and destroyed her.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 23rd of 3rd M / Our Meeting was Small - we had a little preaching of its merits I am an incompetent judge but this I know it was not a little exercising & straightening to my mind. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 26, Easter Sunday: The estate of Prince Kinsky resumed annuity payments to Ludwig van Beethoven.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 26th of 3rd M / In each Meeting we had an offering my judgement suspended - A friend at Meeting Joseph Sharpless travelling with books to sell. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 27, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 27 of 3rd M / Our friend D Buffum called into the shop as he frequently does. Our conversation was interesting - he recurred to a Dictionary which I have in my possession for information respecting the culture of Madder which he says he is making some attempts to propagate - he remarked that his Years & in fermities had so increased that he considered his present exercioons were not for himself - I remarked in reply that he was acting in conformity to a sentiment I had heard expressed Vizt "that a man should live as tho' he was to live a thousand Years & yet at the same time he should live as if he was not to live a week - he said he considered that sound doctrine, that for the benefit of future generations men should lay plans & give in case with the first [illegible] the results had this been the case with the first settlers many houses would now have with different [illegible]

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 30, Thursday: In Rimini, Joachim Murat, former King of Naples and brother-in-law of the international outlaw Napoléon Bonaparte, proclaimed the independence of Italy. He declared war on Austria.

Mehmed Emin Rauf Pasha replaced Hursid Ahmed Pasha as Grand Vizier of the Ottoman Empire.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

5th day 30th of 3rd M 1815 / In our first meeting we had a Short testimony. — In the last (Monthly) we had much buisness but all pretty much refered — Wm Potter of Portsmouth requested membership which was refered to a committee — Geo Davis & Son dined with us.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 1, Saturday: To all to whom these preasants shall come Greeting

MANUMISSION

Whereas Kettle Sutton of Pencader hundred Newcastle County and State of Delaware Farmer; did purchase of his Sister Sarah Sutton, of this same place for a valuable consideration in Money, and become lawfully seized of and in a certain colored boy named David Williams, now aged ten years the first day of March last post —
Now Know Yea, that I Kittle Sutton afforesaid in conformity to the Laws customs and usages of the State of Delaware and for other good causes and consideration one thereunto moving, have Manumitted liberated and sett free, and by these preasants do manumitt liberate and sett free from slavery the said David Williams afforesaid from and after he shall arrive to the age of thirty years whitch will happen on the first day of March in the year of our LORD one Thousand eight hundred and thirty five, and I do for my self any heirs Executors Administrators or afsignes hereby quitt all claim to the servises of the said david Williams afforesaid and from the claims of all and every person or persons whomesoever; I do declare the said David Williams absolutely Free to all intents and purposes after the expiration of the said term of twenty years from the first day of March last post
In testimony of whitch I have hereunto sett my hand and Seal this first day of April in the year of our LORD one Thousand eight hundred and fifteen 1815—
Signed Sealed — — } Kittle Sutton {Seal}
& Delivered in presence of }
Geo. - - Purie
Margaret Peirce
Newcastle County /s I George Purie Esq one of the founders of the Prase in and from said County do hereby certify that the above Manuission signed Sealed and delivered to be deposited with in my Possession Given under my hand and Seal the day and year above written
Geo - - Purie

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day [sic] 1 of 4th M 1815 / Peter Hoxie took tea set the evening & lodged wuth us — We had also at tea Father ^& Mother Rodman & Neighbor Mumford. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

HDT

WHAT?

INDEX

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

To all to whom these presents shall come Greeting
 Whereas Little Sutton of Pencader hundred Newcastle County and State of Delaware Farmer, did purchase of his Sister Sarah Sutton, of the same place for a valuable consideration in Money, and became lawfully seized of and in a certain colored boy named David Williams, now aged ten years the first day of March last past
 Now Know Ye, that I Little Sutton aforesaid in conformity to the Laws customs and usages of the State of Delaware and for other good causes and considerations me therein moving, have Manumitted liberated and set free, and by these presents do manumitt liberate and set free from slavery the said David Williams aforesaid from and after he shall arrive to the age of thirty years which will happen on the first day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty five, and I do for my self my heirs Executors Administrators or assigns hereby quit all claim to the service of the said David Williams aforesaid and from the claims of all and every person or persons whomsoever, I do declare the said David Williams absolutely free to all intents and purposes after the expiration of the said term of twenty years from the first day of March last past
 In testimony of which I have hereunto set my hand and Seal this first day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifteen 1815

Signed Sealed - &
 & Delivered in presence of
 Geo. Peirce
 Margaret Peirce
 & the County of & County Peirce Esq one of the Justices of the Little Sutton

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

➡ April 2, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1 day 2 of 4 M / Peter Hoxie at Breakfast – At meeting he was concern'd In testimony, twice in the Morning & in the Afternoon in testimony & supplication. –Jonathon Dennis Dined with us – I have today for the first time since my appointment, entered a little on the duties of an Overseer & was pretty well satisfied with my labor tho' the result was not quite to my wishes. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ April 5, Wednesday: In Indonesia, 13,000-foot Mount Tambora (Gunung) on the north coast of Sumbawa Island blew 4,000 feet of its peak into the air, causing a tidal wave and a rain of rock fragments that killed 12,000 people on nearby islands. Before the explosion the mountain had been some 13,000 feet high, more or less, and afterward it has been measured at 9,350 feet. Some 40 cubic miles of tephra material had been blown into the skies of this planet.¹⁶² This eventually caused a drop in temperature as the dust spread through the upper atmosphere of the planet, amounting to some 7 degrees in New England in the year 1816. The result would be crop-destroying frosts, and ice floes on the Thames River as it passed through London.¹⁶³ Because of the explosion of this Mount Tambora, of which they were unaware, Americans would come to refer to their year 1816 as “eighteen hundred and froze to death.”¹⁶⁴

“Beware the lo heres, and the lo theres.”

VOLCANIC EXPLOSIVITY INDEX (Logarithmic)

Timing	Volcanic Event	Logarithmic Explosivity Index
640,000 years ago	Yellowstone, Wyoming	VEI-8
74,000 years ago	Toba, Sumatra (the largest caldera in the world)	VEI-8
5,600 BCE	Mazama (forming Crater Lake)	VEI-7
1,620 BCE	Thera	VEI-7
79 CE	Vesuvius	VEI-5
April 10, 1815	Tambora, Indonesia	VEI-7
January 20, 1835	Cosigüfa, Nicaragua	Very large

162. The explosion of Krakatoa in Indonesia in 1883, by way of contrast, would put 18 cubic miles of tephra material into the atmosphere, and would thus result in a lesser global weather excursion, although because of the topography of the lowlands of Sumatra and Java nearby some 36,000 people would be drowned as its tsunamis reached the other side of the narrow strait.

163. In 2004 scientists would uncover the remains of a native village under some 10 feet of ash, and the bodies of two adults. A remarkable similarity would be noted between the Tambora remains and those associated with the 79CE eruption of Mount Vesuvius.

164. This isn't Krakatoa, the volcano you've probably heard about. Krakatoa exploded in 1883.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

VOLCANIC EXPLOSIVITY INDEX (Logarithmic)

Timing	Volcanic Event	Logarithmic Explosivity Index
August 26, 1883	Krakatau	VEI-6
July 15, 1888	Bandaisan, Japan	Apparently not that much of an explosion
May 10, 1902	Mt. Pelée, Martinique	Apparently not that much of an explosion
January 30, 1911	Taal, Philippines	Apparently not that much of an explosion
June 6-8, 1912	Novarupta (near Mt. Katmai), Alaska	VEI-6
1919	Kelud, Java	Apparently not that much of an explosion
1932	Quizapú, Chile	Apparently not that much of an explosion
1947-1948	Hekla, Iceland	Apparently not that much of an explosion
1956	Bezmianny, Kamchatka	Apparently not that much of an explosion
June 15, 1991	Pinatubo, Philippines	VEI-6
May 18, 1980	Mount Saint Helens, USA	VEI-5
March 20-October 2010	Eyjafjallajökull	VEI-4

VEI5 = Event of a size to be expected about once per decade

VEI6 = Event of a size to be expected about once per century

VEI7 = Event of a size to be expected every other millennium or so

VEI8 = Event of a size to be expected every 10,000 years or so

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 5th of 4 M / We took tea at Aunt A Carpenter in company with My Mother, Br Isaac & wife

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 6, Thursday: The Allies mobilized vs. Napoléon Bonaparte.

The British guards discovered a small hole cut in an interior wall between two sectors of the prison complex on the Devonshire moor near Plymouth, England, and for some reason suddenly all began to fire indiscriminately down from the perimeter wall at the American sailors being held there as they exercised in the yard. In this turkey shoot, seven were killed outright or died soon of their wounds, and 31 were wounded but survived. Two of the dead and four of the wounded sailors were black, one of these but 14 years of age.

CRIMPING

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

5th day 6th of 4 M / Our Meetg was pretty well attended and silent A dwarfish time to me - but this Afternoon much exercised on acct of an Appointment I stand under to treat with D C Jr & wife -Oh the importance of right & caucious steppings

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 9, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th M 9 1st day / [note dating error] In the forenoon [illegible] In the Afternoon poor silent Meeting

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 11, Tuesday: Field Marshal Arthur Wellesley, Duke of Wellington arrived in Brussels from the Congress of Vienna to organize the defense of Europe against the international outlaw Napoléon Bonaparte.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 11th of 4th M 1815 / Rode to Rich Mitchells this morning to Meet the committee in case of D Chase Jr Staid there till dinner, & had the disagreeable feelings which the absense of four of the committee occasioned & returned home - found the absense of D W & his wife was occasioned by a misunderstanding A R was indisposed

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 13, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 13 of 4 M / Abel Collins was at Meeting & preached his advice was good & I believe his concern was sincere for the wellfare of the rising generation whom he chiefly addressed. - Meeting was pretty well attended - I dont know when I have seen the high seats so well filled with women. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 14, Friday: John Warren died of an inflammation of the lungs leading to heart failure.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 14th of 4 M / Rode with Abigail Robinson this forenoon to Ruth Mitchells - there dined. after dinner the committee met & went to visit Daniel Chase Jr & his Wife. The latter we found in a very unfavorable state of mind & they both persisted in denying what was alleged against them tho' we had Suffcient proof of their being very cruel to the child, that was placed under their care. -This opportunity was a very exercising one to the mind of all the committee, particularly in that we were

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

unable to discover any sense of thier misconduct or signs of repentance - we returned to R Mitchells & took tea & then returned home -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 16, Sunday: Austrian forces recaptured Bologna from the revolutionaries. Gioachino Rossini, composer of Inno dell'Indipendenza, would come to have a police record.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 16 of 4 M / Our forenoon meeting large & solid - D Buffum declared the truth with Power - Father Rodman was concerned to rehearse the warning "Set thine House in order &c" H Dennis appeard in a few words - Silent in the Afternoon

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 19, Wednesday: Prince Lobkowitz agreed that as Ludwig van Beethoven had demanded, his share of the composer's annual stipend would be paid at the new rate.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 19th of 4th M 1815 / My mind has been for a considerable time very destitute & barran of good & I am ready to cry out My leaness My leaness. - last eveng was a little renew'd by the reading of the acct of Hans Nelsen Hought a Norwegian who had of late been much persecuted & imprisoned in that country on acct of his religion - his sentiments appear similar to Friends & he appears to have come forth much in the same manner as G Fox did in England. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 20, Thursday: Switzerland closed its border with France.

Bostonians Gottlieb Graupner, Asa Peabody, and Thomas Webb led a group of amateur singers to ratify a formal constitution called The Boston Handel and Haydn Society. This was the first such group in the United States.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 20th of 4 M / Our Meeting well attended & favor'd in silence - In the last (Preparative) while answering the Queries our fr Saml Thurston offer'd some weighty remarks particularly in reading the scriptures. - In the Afternoon met at the Meeting house with the committee in case of D Chase Jr & agreed on reports respecting him & his Wife Sorrowful Case -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

April 23, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 23 of 4th M / Meetings both silent - dull seasons to me - 5th day 27th of 3rd M [not error] / Rode to Portsmouth to attend the Moy [Monthly] Meeting stoped a little while on the way at Uncle S Thurstons - Our first meeting was silent & in the last we had much buisness & we sat five hours & the longest Monthly Meeting I ever recollect - The first buisness was to receive Wm Potter into membership. - Various other concerns came before us The most exercising of which was the cases of Daniel Chases Jr & Hannah his wife -They were both disowned - We dined at Uncle Thurstons. In riding home my H observed they had on the womens side of the House a very trying Meeting, but that they were greatly [?] assisted by the labor & service of Abigail Robinson who exerted herself Yesterday & went [illegible] there to day -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 30, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 30th of 4 M 1815 / This mornng just as we had done breakfast - Our friend John Heald came in with his companion James Boulton from the State of Ohio came in escorted by W Knowles -They were at Jamestown Meeting yesterday & came across the ferry this morning - At meeting in the forenoon John had a hard time but preached a little - They dined at Father Rodmans -In the Afternoon John was nearly silent a few words at the close of the meeting -they returned with us took tea & lodged & in the evening we had a number of friends call in to see them which made a pleasant social circle.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 1, Monday: Luigi Cherbini conducted the premiere of his Symphony in D with the Royal Philharmonic Society in London.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 1 of 5 M 1815 / We find our friends J Heald & J Boulton to be solid deep friends John a solid minister & James an Elder -having a meeting appointed at Portsmouth today I accompanied them thither & on the way stoped at S Thurstons - At Meeting John was quite shut up & at the close told us that he had endeavored to attend to duty as closely as he was capable of but had not seen a moment when it was Safe for him to communicate one word in the ministry - We dined & took tea at Uncle Richd Mitchells, rode to town & stoped at D Williams & set the eveng & returned to our house to lodge - Their company maky - a little more more [illegible] H but she is glad to accompany [illegible] sympathy -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

May 2, Tuesday: At Tolentino east of Perugia, under attack by Austrians, the Neapolitan army under Joachim Murat disintegrated. His army gone, the King of Naples would sail for France to help Napoléon Bonaparte.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 2nd 5th M 1815 / Our friend J Heald & J Boutlon left town for the Quarterly Meeting at Greenwich they went in the Boat with those who went from this Moy [Monthly] Meeting - I went down & saw them on board, & felt them a strong inclination to be with them, indeed my desires have been seldom stronger. but so it is, it seems to be improper for me to leave home at present - - They have to all appearance had a fine passage up, & I desire divine favor may attend them & us who stay -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 3, Wednesday: The victorious powers agree to divide the Duchy of Warsaw at the meeting point of Prussia, Russia, and Austria in such manner as to create a Free, Independent, and Strictly Neutral City of Kraków (Cracow).

In the presence of assembled allied diplomats, a series of letters from Napoléon Bonaparte were opened by Prince Metternich and their contents inspected. They promised peace with Austria if it would break with the allies, and Metternich assured the group that no such deal was ever going to go down.

There was a report in the Allgemeine musikalische Zeitung that the problem of brass concert horns such as the French Horn, that despite the player moving his hand inside the bell and also adjusting the length of a slide, it was impossible to equally well render all the notes of the scale, had been fully resolved by a local chamber musician, Heinrich Stölzel, through the incorporation of two spring-loaded cylindrical piston valves:

Heinrich Stölzel, the chamber musician from Pless in Upper Silesia, in order to perfect the Waldhorn, has succeeded in attaching a simple mechanism to the instrument, thanks to which he has obtained all the notes of the chromatic scale in a range of almost three octaves, with a good, strong and pure tone.

All the artificial notes - which, as is well known, were previously produced by stopping the bell with the right hand, and can now be produced merely with two levers, controlled by two fingers of the right hand - are identical in sound to the natural notes and thus preserve the character of the Waldhorn. Any Waldhorn-player will, with practice, be able to play on it.

This would lead to the development of the concert trumpet, the coronet, the valve trombone, the tuba, and the euphonium. "Tommy Dorsey, got something here we'd like to show you."

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 3rd of 5th M / The General Election of state Officers took place in town today which has made a considerable parade - I for the first time in my life saw the Solemnity of organizing the Upper house, ie - The Governoer & Senate proclaimed & take

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

their several engagements. – Governor Jones is a Noble Stately & reverant Man, whose charracter both as a private citizen & Governor of the State I very highly esteem - I consider he has been a great Blessing to the state since his election by his wise forbearing in every respect prudent conduct during the late War The day was wet & cold which I fear will prove dangerous to the health of many children. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 4, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 4th of 5 M / Our Meeting was Silent & rather Striped on the Upper seats the usual occupants being at Quarterly Meeting

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 5, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 5 of 5 M / Our Friends returned from Qrtl Meeting they had pleasant Passages up & down - & had a pretty good meeting & say that Old Neal Casey a crazy black that has been long in John Caseys family deceased about 2 M ago - he was a great trial to John & a comfortable release in his Death. – John Heald James Boulton & [illegible] Dined with us & after Dinner [illegible lines] & lodged – Sister R set the Afternoon & evening

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

May 6, Saturday: Nicolò Paganini was arrested and imprisoned in Genoa on the charge of abducting and “abusing the innocence” of 17-year-old Angiolina Cavanna, daughter of Ferdinando Cavanna, a poor tailor (they had gone together from Genoa to Parma during the previous October but he had abandoned her during December because of her pregnancy).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*7th day 6th 5 M 1815 / Rote two letters to Little Compton announcing Meetings there on 2nd day [Monday] next - Acoaxet on 3rd day & at Center [Westport?] on 4th day - Our friends J
Heald & J Boutlon will be at Portsmouth & at Tiverton tomorrow
The former is the mornng & the latter in the afternoon*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 7, Sunday: William Dickes was born in Beechencliff, near Bath.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 7 of 5 M / In the forenoon meeting a Short communication

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

In the Afternoon Silent. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 8, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 8 of 5 M / My Mother & Elizabeth Huntington set the afternoon with us.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 9, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 9 of 5 M / Recd a letter from my friend & old acquaintance Rowse Taylor in Ohio, it contained two sheets, its first date was 1st M 28th 1814 & the last 4 M [April] 12 1815 besides several that were included - In the eveng Brothers David & John & Sister Ruth came to hear it read - its contents is very interesting Rowse was a Brother much beloved when here among us -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 11, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 11th of 5 M / Our meeting was pretty well attended, Silent & rather a dull time. - In the eveng went over to Thos Robinson to shew them the letter I had recd from Rowse Taylor which dear Abigail read with much interest & her father & mother heard it with an equal share[?]

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 13, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 13 of 5 M / I had calculated to go to Portsmouth this Afternoon to visit My Cousins Zacheus Chase & family, but such is the uncertainty of things - my wife is much engaged in cleaning house [illegible] can not spare me, my attention being requisite to John, besides the sky is overcast & the air raw, which renders the walk less desirable & two of Brother Isaacs children & two of Br Davids are quite sick probably coming down with the Measils & it is likely John may have the [next three lines illegible]

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

May 14, Sunday: Nicolò Paganini signed to pay damages to Ferdinando Cavanna, father of pregnant 17-year-old Angiolina Cavanna.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 14 of 5 M 1815 / Our forenoon Meeting large & silent.
In the Afternoon small & a few words deliverd - Walked with Br
D Rodman up to J Dennis & took tea & read to them the letters I lately recd from Rowse Taylor. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 15, Monday: Having signed to pay damages to Ferdinando Cavanna, father of pregnant 17-year-old Angiolina Cavanna, Nicolò Paganini was released from the tower in Genoa after a confinement of 8 days (he would abrogate the agreement, submitting a counter-charge of extortion).

King Friedrich Wilhelm III of Prussia created the Grand Duchy of Posen out of the Polish lands under his control.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 15 of 5 M / Recd this mornng a letter from Uncle Stanton containing a pressing invitation to go & pay them a visit in NY to which has brought me to c conclusion to go directly after our Yearly Meeting if nothing urgent seems to present - This eveng called to see Wm Lee [?] & his family soon after his wife had expired [?] found them in much affliction but alas such was the leaness of my mind that I was not [illegible] to enter into those feeling which would do them good much less to communicate words - I proffered such assistance as was in my power & left them. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 16, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 16th of 5th M / Called again to see Wm Lee & experienced a little more favor in my own particular, but far short of what I wanted to feel I have been much occupied thro the Day in While Washing & cleaning my shop. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 17, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*4th day 17th 5 m / Pretty much occupied in cleaning up the Shop
&c My mind has this Afternoon been favord with the Arisings of life & desires raised yea aspirations have assended for help, for releaf from - the barranness & emptiness of [?] which hath*

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

for some time been my portion

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 18, Sunday: Saxony signed a treaty of peace with Prussia, Russia, and Austria. Most of Saxon territory was ceded to Prussia.

King Ferdinando IV of Sicily was restored to his throne as Ferdinando I, King of the Two Sicilies.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 18th of 5 M / At meeting D Buffum was concerned in a living & feeling testimony on the subject of Affliction which seemed like a brook by the way - In the Afternoon attended the funeral of Lydia Lee Wife of Wm Lee D Buffum & Hannah Dennis was concernd [illegible] & pertinent testimony [last four lines nearly illegible]

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 20, Tuesday: Nicolò Paganini sued Ferdinando Cavanna, father of pregnant 17-year-old Angiolina Cavanna, for extortion.

Stephen Decatur sailed from New-York for the Mediterranean with a fleet of 10 ships, to deal with the Barbary pirates.

Sir Ralph Milbanke obtained authorization from the Prince-Regent to take the name and arms of Noel.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th [sic] day 20th of 5 M 1815 / Disappointments are often the lor of all - I cannot help feeling one of Minor importance in a considerable degree I had calculated on going this Afternoon to Portsmouth to visit my beloved Relations Zacheus Chase & his wife, but the weather is so cool & the ground so wet that it looks like an unfavorable time. - As the probability is from the age of my afore mentioned relations - the loved & greatly beloved scenes of my youth will not long remain unbroken I am a little disappointed in not being able to go conveniently, but disappointments are frequently good for us. & Such minor ones being patiently submitted to may tend to insure the mind to greatr[?] ones

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

May 21, Sunday: Tsar Alyeksandr of Russia created the Kingdom of Poland, under his rule.

The people of Naples rose against their monarchy (the royal family, however, was being well protected by British troops).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 21 of 5 M / In the forenoon D Buffum & Father Rodman were concerned in testimony both lively & pertinent – In the Afternoon Father again appeared to my satisfaction & in some degree Awakening.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 22, Monday: United States forces peacefully reoccupied Fort Niagara, very much the worse for wear, as British forces retired once again to their old position at Fort George, which had become nothing but a ruin, and to a new post, Fort Mississauga, that they had in 1814 begun at the mouth of the Niagara River.

Prince Leopoldo di Bordone of Salerno, younger brother of King Ferdinando IV of Naples, entered Naples accompanied by Austrian generals, and the king was restored to the throne.

Austrian troops captured Rome.

King Friedrich Wilhelm ordered that a commission be empaneled to draw up a constitution for Prussia.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 22 of 5 M / Our kind & dear young friend Mary Briggs spent the day with us assisting my H in her sewing preparatory to our Yearly Meeting

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 24, Wednesday: The Allgemeine musikalische Zeitung reported that Antonio Salieri had recovered from a “serious illness.”

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 24 of 5 M / Mary Briggs spent the day with us her Company is allways Acceptable – also Sister Mary Rodman

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

May 25, Thursday: Washington Irving embarked upon a 17-year expedition through Europe.

Prussia annexed the Duchy of Arenberg, the Principality of Rheina-Wolbeck, the Counties of Rietberg, Salm-Horstmar, and Steinfurt, the southern part of Münster, and the City of Dortmund. Essen, Paderborn, and Minden were returned to Prussia. Part of northern Münster was transferred to Hannover.

Adam Czartoryski's PRINCIPLES OF THE CONSTITUTION OF THE POLISH KINGDOM was published in Vienna. This guaranteed independence to Poland, with an independent judiciary and civil rights for peasants and Jews.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 25 of 5 M / Our first Meeting was silent & I believe a low season In the mast (Monthly Meeting) we had a low & exercising season I was so under the hatches that I scarcely opened my mouth to help the buisness forward at all - The committee report respecting the state of society was considerd but from some cause it labord so hard that no way opened to appoint a committee to labor for the help of the weak or those who needed council & the case was referd to next Moy [Monthly] Meeting -Testimony respecting Danl & H Chase were agreed on & directed to be renderd[?] - but among other of the exercising subjects [-?] pleasant nature occur'd which was a report from Susanna Sherman of Portsmouth to be admitted to Membership Wmm Mitchell from Nine Partners attended & made some few pertinent remarks - Benj Mott Peter Lawton [-illegible-] with us

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 26, Friday: Tsar Alyeksandr of Russia and King Friedrich Wilhelm of Prussia departed from Vienna for the allied military headquarters at Heilbronn.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 26th of 5 M 1815 / Saml Vinson & Wife set the Afternoon with us

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 27, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 27th of 5 M / Uncle Wm Mitchell & Sister Ruth set the Afternoon with us the good old man is pleasant & [illegible] edifying. - In the 26th of this M A man of my acquaintance by the name of Cary Congdon hanged himself - the circumstances attending the case are very remarkable - he was upwards of 30 Years old had a wife & [-] children the last time his wife was put to bed she had twins which with the depression of the times, sunk his spirits, & he had for sometime been observed to be in a strange way & to some of his intimates had expressed his design of

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

ending his own existence -but notwithstanding he had a large family in better times he had acquired a little property & had not much diminished it during the War, in the latter part of the Afternoon he went from his house to the Stable where he kept a Cow & threw down hay for the night & then with a skein of Shoe-thread hanged himself to a beam in the Stable & the Cow after he was removed was put in the stable but in the following morning it was observed that she had eaten nothing, the next night she was put in again & in the Morning she was found near the door tumbling & much agitated - the next night the attempt was made to put her into the Stable again but she refused to go & altho she was forced by a number of men they were unable to effect it she would break through them in spite of all they could do & further attempts were given over - hay on the outside of the Stable was given her which she ate with readiness - It is very remarkable that she appear'd to have eaten nothing from the time he hung himself until they offered her food out of it - there are some congectures with respect to the reasons, but all fall far short of accounting for them - She was not in the stable at the time the deed was done - an attempt was made to bleed him but as blood was obtained so that the smell of blood could not affright her- Why is it not reasonable & just to conclude that the Cow was an instrument in the hand of the Almighty to express to survivors the wickedness of the act by showing horror & a total aversion to the Spot where the act was done - It is remarkable that an half brother of Carys who lived in Wickford ended his own existence but about 3 of 4 weeks ago - This man had small family & was wealthy - how horrible & what poor frail things we are at best, but especially when we loose confidence in that Almighty Power who provides every [illegible] Sparrows & will not leave poor man when [—?—] on HIM

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 28, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 28th of 5 M 1815 / Our Meeting was to my mind a solid solemn favord season for which I feel thankful Our fr D Buffum deliverd a solemn testimony & father Rodman I thought was favord in a short testimony I am staying at home this Afternoon while my H has gone to Meeting - to take care of John who is not very well -he has held several meetings & preached several little sermons which were more innocent & quite as edifying as many that will be deliverd at the different Meeting houses in town this Afternoon

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

➡ June: Friend Paul Cuffe became involved in the New England Yearly Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends. He would be asked to help make decisions regarding the Quaker meetinghouse in Boston. According to the diary kept by Friend Stephen Wanton Gould, on the second day of the yearly meeting, in the afternoon, this man of color was among the “public laborers,” which is to say, among those who stood and doffed their hats and spoke from the silence of worship. The public laborers whom Friend Stephen heard were:

- Friend Rowland Green
- Friend Elisha Thornton
- Friend Moses Brown
- Friend Paul Cuffe

This is the first time that ever a man of colour delivered his opinion in our Yearly Meeting and I guess in any in the World.

➡ June 1, Thursday: In Paris, a massive celebration took place on the Champ de Mars, overseen by Napoléon Bonaparte. This had been advertised as a ceremony to announce the results of the plebescite on the Additional Act to the Imperial Constitution, in which 99.9993% of the votes cast by the Frenchmen had been in favor of their emperor.

Samuel Wesley was elected to full membership of the new Philharmonic Society.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5 day 1 of 6 M 1815 / Our meeting today was rather small & many of us I believe was variously [?] situated observed some who at seasons I have reason to believe are fresh & lively to [illegible] some whose countenances bespoke much langor in the inward life who were not ?? with sleep & I believe some could say at the close of the meeting they had been with Jesus & experienced his enlivening presence to do them good - It was with me a better season than common.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ June 4, Sunday: Denmark traded Pomerania and Rügen to Prussia for part of the Duchy of Lauenburg.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 4 of 6 M / Our forenoon meeting was pretty large & a season of Divine favor A Robinson was engaged in a short but very sweet testimony of encouragement to such as were under Affliction
In the Afternoon we were Silent but it appeared to most be a wakening season Isreals Shepherd being near & extending his Crook around the gathering [last two lines illegible]*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

June 7, Wednesday: Walton Felch got married with Lydia Inman. The couple would produce one child, Hiram E. Felch of Boston.

As Austrian occupation troops departed from Rome, the temporal power of Pope Pius VII was restored.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th M 7th 4th of the Week 1815 / Recd this morning an affectionate & very acceptable testimony of the continued remembrance & love of my friend Micajah Collins dated at NYork the 1st inst - It met me at a moment when my heart was tender & ready to receive the impressions that such as communication would be likely to excite from an old & long loved friend. - The NYork packet arrived this mornng brought a considerable Number of friends to attend the Yearly Meeting among whom were Edw Stabler, Isaac Bonsall, Rich'd Mott, John Murray Jr & wife & several Women. - I feel desirous they may be instruments of good

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

June 8, Thursday: This material having to do with the manumission in New Orleans, Louisiana of a mulatto Slave woman "Lucy about thirty years of age" whom William Snelling desired to take back with him to their home of Kentucky is from page 232 of Deed Book C of Bullitt County:

Be it known that this day before me John Lynd Esquire, notary Public in and for the City of New Orleans duly commissioned personally appeared William Snelling of Christian County, State of Kentucky, owner of a Mulatto slave named Lucy about thirty years of age a native of Bullitt County in said State. Now in this place in the service of this appearer and about to depart with him for Kentucky aforesaid and the said appearer declared that in order to recompense the faithful services of said slave he does by these presents emancipate and manumit her this said mulatto Lucy hereby declaring her to be from henceforth a free person and for himself and his heirs renouncing all right of ownership or other which he had of in and to said mulatto previous to the passing of this act and he further declared that neither he nor his heirs shall or will at any time hereafter call in question or oppose the verdict of this act nor ever claim the said woman as a slave before any Court of Justice.
Then done and passed at New Orleans this twenty second of March one thousand eight hundred and fourteen in presence of George Pollock / Pollock and Samuel Herman. Witnesses who hereunto sign their names with the appearer and me notary in faith Hereof I affix the impression of my Seal of office.
[signed] Wm. Snelling
John Lynch, Ntr. Public
In presence of George Pollock and Saml. Herman
I James Halbert, Clerk of the County Court of Bullitt County in the State of Kentucky do certify that on this 8th day of July 1815 the within Instrument of Writing purporting to be a Deed of Emancipation given and granted by William Snelling to a mulatto woman Lucy was produced to me in my office by the said Lucy and that --- truly recorded the same together with the testimony thereby attached as well as this Certificate given under my hand this 8th day of July 1815
James Halbert

These documents are so utterly mysterious!

The Congress of Vienna closed. Great Britain retained Malta, Heligoland, and most of its other overseas conquests. The Bourbons, Braganças, Pope Pius VII, and the Italian princes were all restored. Switzerland was declared neutral. The Netherlands, Belgium, and Luxembourg were united. The Duchy of Warsaw went to Russia. Lombardy and Venice went to Austria. Prussia obtained the Rhineland and part of Saxony. Hanover obtained East Friesland and Hildesheim. Krakow became an independent republic. The charter of the German Confederation was signed, creating a loose union of 34 sovereign states and 4 free cities with a Federal Diet in Frankfurt-am-Main under the presidency of Austria.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 8th of 6 M 1815 / Our Meeting in consequence of the strangers who attended it was larger than usual & Rich'd Mott preached very Sweetly & quite to my satisfaction - his opening

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

was the "New Name & the White Stone" which enlarged on very interestingly. father Rodman near the close deliverd a short but pertinent & to my mind Savory testimony

At the close of the Meeting John Winslow of Portland appointed a Meeting for the People of colour without previous consulting friends of this Meeting & the hour proposed 7 OC PM & the time altogether being improper & some other circumstances renderd it a very exercising case & very little information was given by friends however at the time considerable number of White & blacks collected & John preached till almost 10 OClock & I thought on the whole he was in a degree favor'd & Truth presented from re [illegible] - I had the house lighted as one of the committee for the purpose & determined to help out a trying case as well as I could

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 9, Friday: The Act of the Congress of Vienna was signed by representatives of Austria, France, Portugal, Prussia, Russia, Sweden, and the United Kingdom, in the Imperial Palace. The Spanish ambassador refused his signature because Parma had been given to Napoléon's wife (Spain would not accede to this treaty until 1817). Minor countries were invited to accede at some later date.

Announcement of publication of Piano Sonata op.90, by Ludwig van Beethoven.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6 day 9th of 6 M / Had a short [illegible from Wm Burling in my [next three lines nearly illegible]

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 10, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 10 6 M 1815 / Many friends have come to Town & we have for lodgers Our valued friend Hannah Pope formerly of Bolton now of Baltimore, & her Sister in law Ann - Daniel Johnson & Isaac Bassett, Daniel & [blank] Holder sons of our fr Thos Holder of Bolton - - - I have desired & do renewedly desire that this Yearly Meeting may prove to me a season of favor & quiet beyond what I have sometimes experienced - -& I think I have made a pretty good beginning. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 11, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould noted in his journal an entirely silent session of the Friends Yearly Meeting:

1st day Our Meeting this forenoon was large as usual & much favor'd our fr Edw Stabler of Alexandria was much favor'd in a long & excellent communication - I think I never saw the people more attentive & Still in the Yard - In the Afternoon a larger

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

concourse of people assembled than in the Morning, but to the great disappointment of the multitude there was not a single offering in the course of the Afternoon & it is the first silent Yearly Meeting I ever recollect & I believe is the only instance that has occurd in my Life - considering there was no preaching the people were as still as could be expected - between meetings our fr John Heald & his companion James Boulton arrived & took Quarters with us. -In addition to our usual family we had at tea Ezra Collins, Jonathon Chase & two Long Island young friends also Nancy Brown -

June 12, Monday: Napoléon Bonaparte left Paris heading for Soissons.

In Newport, Rhode Island Friends Yearly Meeting continued, and Stephen Wanton Gould made notes in his journal:

2nd day / The meeting met this mornng under a solemn covering the first remark was from D Buffum who expressed his thankfulness in being permitted to attend another annual solemnity & a desire that friends might abide under that influence which would rightly direct all our movements, next father Rodman subjoined a few further remarks & a little hinted at the necessity of keeping from moving out of the right spirit which causes the Ark to jostle - then Peter Hoxie & then Edw Stabler took in the whole & pointed out the order of society in a clear oint of view & the harmony & simplicity of the Truth - The meeting was moved to Action by D Buffum. Saml Rodman the former Clerk was absent & Wm Rotch Jnr as Clerk of the meeting for Sufferings according to discipline Opened the Meeting Then John Murray Jr of NYork made soe sweet & very pertinent remarks - Epistles were recd from all the Yearly Meetings in the world & the usual rotines [sic] of buisness were Gone thro' with great apparent harmony & love my name was on the committee to answer the Epistles but alas that most probably will be all, as neither my time nor tallents will admit of my being useful in that capasity - I was however thankful in being made partaker of the good things before us & may acknowledge divine favor thus far. -At 4 OClock the meeting met by appointment, the subject of the School underwent some discussion but a further deliberation right not to another sitting - that of the Meeting house in Boston was acted upon & a committee[?] appointed to investigate the case & report suitable trustees to REview & hold the porperty & what in their judgement is best to be done to building a New meeting house. The present one being so decayed as to be unsafe for use. A committee was appointed to consider of the propriety of a proposition from Salem Quarter to divide their Quarterly Meeting & report to a future sitting. - I thought in the first of the sitting a pretty good savor of life was to be felt but it diminished & according to my understanding we did not conclude so well as we began. -

HDTWHAT?INDEXFRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

June 13, Tuesday: The term “civilized” was in this year coming into currency among us civilized peoples, as an explanation of sorts for our manifest superiority over the remainder of God’s creation. We updated and generalized the invidious distinction between the inexperienced rural hicks or rubes, on the one hand, and the suave urban slickers, on the other—a distinction which had been hanging around in our cultures at least since the days of Æsop—and made it serve as a distinction between those humans who still live their lives as part of extended tribes, on the one hand, and those humans who, on the other, have lost all traces of their tribal allegiance save an allegiance to a mini-tribe known as “my family.” “Civilized” means that it’s because we live in cities, that we’re ever so much better than you, yeah.¹⁶⁵

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould made a record that now indicates to us that some Quakers must have been having, in their general white racism, difficulty accepting non-whites such as Friend Paul Cuffe as their social equals, regardless of whatever wealth and accomplishment:

3rd day / At 10 OClock the Meeting met by adjournment The Meeting entered on the State of society & after the first Queries & answers thereto was heard - we recd a visit from Jemima Shorwell which was short but very sweet, she addressed the young men very sweetly inviting them to come taste & see how good the Lord is -when she retired we resumed the state of society Many remarks were made by J Murray, R Mott, J Bonsill D Buffum, Moses Brown Wm Rotch Jr & by a large number of Minor laborers, some to the purpose & some greatly out of joint - with respect to the subject of Love & Unity. The intemperate use of spirituous liquor & our testimony against War a pretty general exercise spread over the meeting for the advancement of our concerns with respect [illegible] & the committee to prepare epistles were directed to prepare an epistle to the Quarterly Meeting expressive of the Meetings exercise & desiring individual labot for the advancement of the exercise? of Truth &c. - to give the committees opportunity to investigate the subjects committed to them - The meeting adjourned till tomorrow morning -We had at Dinner a large company - also at tea & among the rest Brother Paul Cuffee - it appeard to be a new experience to most of the company to sit down to a table & eat with a man of colour, but however I am glad to insert that none were displeased & with some it was rather gratifying to have it to say that they had had the opportunity of being with him - After tea our dear old

165. Etymologically, the Indo-European origins of “city” and “cemetery” are very entangled, entangled indeed. Isn’t it interesting that, when we obtained a term to distinguish ourselves in 1815 from all the non-white peoples who needed to die out to make room for us, we chose a positive coinage such as “civilization,” for ourselves, rather than a more accurate negative coinage such as “cemeterization,” for them?

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

friend John Casey came in & spent a little while in very pleasant & edifying conversation. after he went out our company [illegible] & in a short time we drew into silence & J Heald expressed a few words much in the sweetness & we then retired to rest¹⁶⁶

We may hope that, digesting this meal, Captain Cuffe was able to look back and feel rather gratified to say that he had had the opportunity to break bread with this assortment of oh-so-pleasant oh-so-condescending honkies.

June 14, Wednesday: The Duchy of Mecklenburg-Schwerin became a Grand Duchy. Duke Friedrich Franz I took on the title of Grand Duke.

Napoléon Bonaparte reached the border with the Low Countries at Beaumont.

Per the journal of Friend Stephen Wanton Gould, the Quakers met to consider the Yearly Meeting boarding school being proposed for Providence, Rhode Island:

4th day / The meeting met at 10 OClock The subject of the Yearly meeting school occupied the most of the sitting a large committee was appointed to digest & further investigate the subject & report to the next sitting The committee on the Epistles wer engaged from half past 2 OC till 5 OC when the meeting met & tho' the epistles were not all digested before of the committee & two of them untouched yet they were all read & passed the Meeting – there were but five of us that could attend to them Vizt Thos Howland, Abraham Sherman Jr Jas Scott & myself all new & inexpeerenced except Thos. The others of the committtee attend the School committee which met at the same time which deprived us of many experienced helpers The School committee not having fully gone to the subject, it was refer'd another year & they joined to the Meeting for Sufferings further to digest & proceed as far within the time as they may think advisable, & the meeting came to a conclusion tho' not till it was so dark that the Clerk was scarcely able to read.

“MOSES BROWN SCHOOL”

166. Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote this putting upward the bright shiny congratulatory side of this coin (“Look at what great people we are, we are actually able to overcome our disinclinations and actually able to sit down politely and actually consume food at the very same table with a person of another race!! We didn’t even need to throw up afterward!!”) but clearly this bright coin of acceptance and brotherhood had another –more unpleasant –more uncongratulatory side to it.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

June 15, Thursday: Beating back Prussian resistance, Napoléon's army crossed the Sambre River at Charleroi and Marchiennes and proceeded in the direction of Brussels, 50 kilometers to the north.

The first Burschenschaft was formed at Jena (this student organization, its motto "Honor, Liberty, Fatherland," would become the basis of the German Nationalist Movement).

French physician René-Théophile-Hyacinthe Laënnec was appointed to Necker Hospital in Paris (in that institution, during September 1816, he would create the stethoscope).

Johann Nepomuk Hummel gave the initial of a pair of very well received performances at the Deutsches Theater in Pest.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day / This mornng Our Bolton lodgers Hannah & Ann Pope left us & went in the Providence Packet homeward. The two Women felt near my best feelings, as has many others who have been with us. Our Meeting was large & our friend Edward Stabler was largely opened in Doctrine & his communication was attended with a large degree of that power which reached the heart – Richd Mott was also engaged in a short but loving & well adapted testimony At 3 OC PM our friend John Heald & James Boulton left us, & with them our house was evacuated of our Y Meeting friends they having left us before. The rest of the Afternoon, tho' free from care to what we have been has been – In the evening Wm Burling called to See us with [-blank] whose company was very pleasant - but it so happened that in the forepart of it I was out at Thos Robinsons to wait on our soucin Hazard over to lodge at my Mothers while there Richard Mott had a sitting in the family & preached with is much humility & sweetness –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 16, Friday: Despite heavy losses, the French beat back Prussian (and other German) forces at Ligny, while the British/Dutch repelled the French at Quatre-Bras. The day's fighting created more than 25,000 casualties.

11-year-old Karl II replaced Friedrich Wilhelm as Duke of Brunswick, under regency.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day Called this morning at Elizabeth Hoxies to sit a little while with Jemima Shotwell Ann Yarnall & Sarah Sutton whose company I found very sweetly interesting, - should have been glad to have had more of it & if they do not go to Providence tomorrow they engaged to sit the Afternoon with us. – This Afternoon My Mother & Cousin Hazard, with Sister Ruth set the Afternoon with us - Thos Hornsby joined us at tea also Lewis Clarke

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

June 17, Saturday: The USS Constellation defeated the Algerian flagship Mashuda off Gibraltar. Admiral Reis Hammida and 30 crew members were killed.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day / Our fr Jemima Shotwell paid us a visit of a few minutes just before she left us this morning for Providence it was very sweet & cordial to our minds – I have been (as was as my dear H) occupied most of the day in preparing for my intended visit to NYork

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

HDTWHAT?INDEXFRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

June 18, Sunday: Carl Maria von Weber arrived in München.

Into an area of just less than three square miles of fields near the village of Waterloo in northern Europe, various commanders crammed 140,000 men and 30,000 horses — and then instructed the men to kill each other.

They killed each other from 11:25AM until it was too dark and they were too tired to kill each other any more.

When the situation had become hopeless for the French forces, the English called on the commander of

HDTWHAT?INDEXSTEPHEN WANTON GOULD*FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Napoleon's famous Imperial Guard to surrender the forces still under his command. He responded "Merde."

Bonaparte himself had decided there was no point in sticking around after 8:30PM but the slaughter continued until at least 10:00PM, with at least 47,000 of the men dead or so badly wounded as not to be able to continue killing each other.¹⁶⁷

That is to say, in more conventional language, that Arthur Wellesley, Duke of Wellington and Blücher defeated the Emperor Napoléon I at Waterloo (actually, of course, these gentlemen themselves did no fighting on that

167. An entire generation of Europeans would be able to wear what they would refer to as "Waterloo teeth," yanked from the gaping mouths of the corpses of fallen young men.

(The horses also provided their teeth, and the Duke of York would have a corridor of Oaklands, his home in Surrey, lined with the teeth of horses killed during this battle. I haven't been able to obtain any statistics on how many of the horses killed each other; however, the presence of the horses was not exactly what you could call innocent, as their usefulness in war had driven up the price of horse fodder to ridiculous levels and for years had been interfering with the ability of ordinary people to move around in the world. With the warfare on the continent over, the price of fodder would plummet, and suddenly tramlines drawn by giant Shire horses would again become able to compete economically against the barges on canals.)

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

day). A boot termed the “Wellington” would become popular, named after the British general at Waterloo.

It was lighter than the “Blüchers” that had been worn by some since the turn of the century but that had become quite popular in the previous year when this Prussian general had visited London. The Wellington boot was made of soft, thin calfskin and fitted close to the leg as far as the knee so that it could be worn under long trousers that were fastened with a strap under the sole of the boot. But, whichever boot you prefer, these two generals had booted Napoleon right out of Europe.

“Thou first and last of fields, king-making victory!”—George Gordon, Lord Byron.

“[A nation is] a group of people united by a mistaken view about the past and a hatred of their neighbors.”

— E. Renan, QU’EST-CE QU’UNE NATION?

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 11, 1882

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

Go To MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

"Brilliant generalship in itself is a frightening thing – the very idea that the thought processes of a single brain of a Hannibal or a Scipio can play themselves out in the destruction of thousands of young men in an afternoon."

– Victor Davis Hanson, CARNAGE AND CULTURE:
LANDMARK BATTLES IN THE RISE OF WESTERN POWER
(NY: Doubleday, 2001)

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

England has now been blest with thirty-seven years of peace. At no other period of her history can a similarly long cessation from a state of warfare be found. It is true that our troops have had battles to fight during this interval for the protection and extension of our Indian possessions and our colonies; but these have been with distant and unimportant enemies. The danger has never been brought near our own shores, and no matter of vital importance to our empire has ever been at stake. We have not had hostilities with either France, America, or Russia; and when not at war with any of our peers, we feel ourselves to be substantially at peace. There has, indeed, throughout this long period, been no great war, like those with which the previous history of Modern Europe abounds. There have been formidable collisions between particular states; and there have been still more formidable collisions between the armed champions of the conflicting principles of absolutism and democracy; but there has been no general war, like those of the French Revolution, like the American, or the Seven Years' War, or like the War of the Spanish Succession. It would be far too much to augur from this, that no similar wars will again convulse the world; but the value of the period of peace which Europe has gained, is incalculable; even if we look on it as only a truce, and expect again to see the nations of the earth recur to what some philosophers have termed man's natural state of warfare. No equal number of years can be found, during which science, commerce, and civilization have advanced so rapidly and so extensively, as has been the case since 1815. When we trace their progress, especially in this country, it is impossible not to feel that their wondrous development has been mainly due to the land having been at peace. Their good effects cannot be obliterated, even if a series of wars were to recommence. When we reflect on this, and contrast these thirty-seven years with the period that preceded them, a period of violence, of tumult, of unrestingly destructive energy,—a period throughout which the wealth of nations was scattered like sand, and the blood of nations lavished like water,—it is impossible not to look with deep interest on the final crisis of that dark and dreadful epoch; the crisis out of which our own happier cycle of years has been evolved. The great battle which ended the twenty-three years' war of the first French Revolution, and which quelled the man whose genius and ambition had so long disturbed and desolated the world, deserves to be regarded by us, not only with peculiar pride, as one of our greatest national victories, but with peculiar gratitude for the repose which it secured for us, and for the greater part of the human race. One good test for determining the importance of Waterloo, is to ascertain what was felt by wise and prudent statesmen before that battle, respecting the return of Napoleon from Elba to the Imperial throne of France, and the probable effects of his success. For this purpose, I will quote the words, not of any of our vehement anti-Gallican politicians of the school of Pitt,

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

but of a leader of our Liberal party, of a man whose reputation as a jurist, a historian, and a far-sighted and candid statesman, was, and is, deservedly high, not only in this country, but throughout Europe. Sir James Mackintosh, in the debate in the British House of Commons, on the 20th April, 1815, spoke thus of the return from Elba:

"Was it in the power of language to describe the evil? Wars which had raged for more than twenty years throughout Europe; which had spread blood and desolation from Cadiz to Moscow, and from Naples to Copenhagen; which had wasted the means of human enjoyment, and destroyed the instruments of social improvement; which threatened to diffuse among the European nations, the dissolute and ferocious habits of a predatory soldiery, – at length, by one of those vicissitudes which bid defiance to the foresight of man, had been brought to a close, upon the whole, happy beyond all reasonable expectation, with no violent shock to national independence, with some tolerable compromise between the opinions of the age and reverence due to ancient institutions; with no too signal or mortifying triumph over the legitimate interests or avowable feelings of any numerous body of men, and, above all, without those retaliations against nations or parties, which beget new convulsions, often as horrible as those which they close, and perpetuate revenge and hatred and bloodshed, from age to age. Europe seemed to breathe after her sufferings. In the midst of this fair prospect, and of these consolatory hopes, Napoleon Bonaparte escaped from Elba; three small vessels reached the coast of Provence; our hopes are instantly dispelled; the work of our toil and fortitude is undone; the blood of Europe is spilt in vain –

HDTWHAT?INDEXSTEPHEN WANTON GOULD*FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

“Ibi omnis effusus labor!”

The Congress of Emperors, Kings, Princes, Generals, and Statesmen, who had assembled at Vienna to remodel the world after the overthrow of the mighty conqueror, and who thought that Napoleon had passed away for ever from the great drama of European politics, had not yet completed their triumphant festivities, and their diplomatic toils, when Talleyrand, on the 11th of March, 1815, rose up among them, and announced that the ex-emperor had escaped from Elba, and was Emperor of France once more. It is recorded by Sir Walter Scott, as a curious physiological fact, that, the first effect of the news of an event which threatened to neutralize all their labors, was to excite a loud burst of laughter from nearly every member of the Congress. But the jest was a bitter one: and they soon were deeply busied in anxious deliberations respecting the mode in which they should encounter their arch-enemy, who had thus started from torpor and obscurity into renovated splendor and strength:

“Qualis ubi in lucem coluber mala gramina pastus,
Frigida sub terra, tumidum quem bruma tegebat.
Nunc positus novus exuviis nitidusque juvena,

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Lubrica convolvit sublato pectore terga Arduus ad solem, et linguis micat ore trisulcis.”
— Virgil, Aen.

Napoleon sought to disunite the formidable confederacy, which he knew would be arrayed against him, by endeavoring to negotiate separately with each of the allied sovereigns. It is said that Austria and Russia were at first not unwilling to treat with him. Disputes and jealousies had been rife among several of the Allies on the subject of the division of the conquered countries; and the cordial unanimity with which they had acted during 1813 and the first months of 1814, had grown chill, during some weeks of discussions. But the active exertions of Talleyrand, who represented Louis XVIII at the Congress, and who both hated and feared Napoleon with all the intensity of which his powerful spirit was capable, prevented the secession of any member of the Congress from the new great league against their ancient enemy. Still it is highly probably that if Napoleon had triumphed in Belgium over the Prussians and the English, he would have succeeded in opening negotiations with the Austrians and Russians; and he might have thus gained advantages similar to those which he had obtained on his return from Egypt, when he induced the Czar Paul to withdraw the Russian armies from cooperating with the other enemies of France in the extremity of peril to which she seemed reduced in 1799. But fortune now had deserted him both in diplomacy and in war.

On the 13th of March, 1815, the Ministers of the seven powers, Austria, Spain, England, Portugal, Prussia, Russia, and Sweden, signed a manifesto, by which they declared Napoleon an outlaw; and this denunciation was instantly followed up by a treaty between England, Austria, Prussia, and Russia (to which other powers soon acceded), by which the rulers of those countries bound themselves to enforce that decree, and to prosecute the war until Napoleon should be driven from the throne of France, and rendered incapable of disturbing the peace of Europe. The Duke of Wellington was the representative of England at the Congress of Vienna, and he was immediately applied to for his advice on the plan of military operations against France. It was obvious that Belgium would be the first battlefield; and by the general wish of the Allies, the English Duke proceeded thither to assemble an army from the contingents of Dutch, Belgian, and Hanoverian troops, that were most speedily available, and from the English regiments which his own Government was hastening to send over from this country. A strong Prussian corps was near Aix-la-Chapelle, having remained there since the campaign of the preceding year. This was largely reinforced by other troops of the same nation; and Marshal Blucher, the favorite hero of the Prussian soldiery, and the deadliest foe of France, assumed the command of this army, which was the Lower Rhine; and which, in conjunction with Wellington's forces, was to make the van of the armaments of the Allied Powers. Meanwhile Prince Swartzenburg was to collect 130,000 Austrians, and 124,000 troops of other Germanic States, as "the Army of the Upper Rhine;" and 168,000

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Russians, under the command of Barclay de Tolly, were to form "the army of the Middle Rhine," and to repeat the march from Muscovy to that river's banks.

The exertions which the Allied Powers thus made at this crisis to grapple promptly with the French emperor have truly been termed gigantic; and never were Napoleon's genius and activity more signally displayed, than in the celerity and skill by which he brought forward all the military resources of France, which the reverses of the three preceding years, and the pacific policy of the Bourbons during the months of their first restoration, had greatly diminished and disorganized. He re-entered Paris on the 20th of March, and by the end of May, besides sending a force into La Vendee to put down the aimed risings of the royalists in that province, and besides providing troops under Massena and Suchet for the defense of the southern frontiers of France, Napoleon had an army assembled in the northeast for active operations under his own command, which amounted to between one hundred and twenty, and one hundred and thirty thousand men, with a superb park of artillery and in the highest possible state of equipment, discipline, and efficiency. The approach of the multitudinous Russian, Austrian, Bavarian, and other foes of the French Emperor to the Rhine was necessarily slow; but the two most active of the allied powers had occupied Belgium with their troops, while Napoleon was organizing his forces. Marshal Blucher was there with one hundred and sixteen thousand Prussians; and, before the end of May, the Duke of Wellington was there also with about one hundred and six thousand troops, either British or in British pay. [Wellington had but a small part of his old. Peninsular army in Belgium. The flower of it, had been sent on the expeditions against America. His troops in 1815, were chiefly second battalions, or regiments lately filled up with new recruits.] Napoleon determined to attack these enemies in Belgium. The disparity of numbers was indeed great, but delay was sure to increase the proportionate numerical superiority of his enemies over his own ranks. The French Emperor considered also that "the enemy's troops were now cantoned under the command of two generals, and composed of nations differing both in interest and in feelings." His own army was under his own sole command. It was composed exclusively of French soldiers, mostly of veterans, well acquainted with their officers and with each other, and full of enthusiastic confidence in their commander. If he could separate the Prussians from the British, so as to attack each singly, he felt sanguine of success, not only against these the most resolute of his many adversaries, but also against the other masses, that were slowly laboring up against his eastern dominions.

The triple chain of strong fortresses, which the French possessed on the Belgian frontier, formed a curtain, behind which Napoleon was able to concentrate his army, and to conceal, till the very last moment, the precise line of attack which he intended to take. On the other hand, Blucher and Wellington were obliged to canton their troops along a line of open country of considerable length, so as to watch for the outbreak of Napoleon from whichever point. of his chain of strongholds he should please to make it. Blucher, with his army, occupied the banks of the Sambre and the Meuse, from Liege on his left, to Charleroi on his right; and the Duke of Wellington covered Brussels; his cantonments being partly in front of that city and between it and the French frontier, and partly on its west; their extreme right reaching to Courtray and Tournay, while the left approached Charleroi and communicated with the Prussian right. It was upon Charleroi that Napoleon resolved to level his attack, in hopes of severing the two allied armies from each other, and then pursuing his favorite tactic of assailing each separately with a superior force on the battle-field, though the aggregate of their numbers considerably exceeded his own.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

The first French corps d'armee, commanded by Count d'Erlon, was stationed in the beginning of June in and around the city of Lille, near to the north-eastern frontier of France. The second corps, under Count Reille, was at Valenciennes, to the right of the first one. The third corps, under Count Vandamme, was at Mezieres. The fourth, under Count Gerard, had its head-quarters at Metz. The fifth corps was under Count Rappat Strasburg, and the sixth, under Count Lobau, was at Laon. Four corps of reserve cavalry, under Marshal Grouchy were also near the frontier, between the rivers Aisne and Sambre. The Imperial Guard remained in Paris until the 8th of June, when it marched towards Belgium, and reached Avesnes on the 13th; and in the course of the same and the following day, the five corps d'armee with the cavalry reserves which have been mentioned, were, in pursuance of skillfully combined orders, rapidly drawn together, and concentrated in and around the same place, on the right bank of the river Sambre. On the 14th Napoleon arrived among his troops, who were exulting at the display of their commander's skill in the celerity and precision with which they had been drawn together, and in the consciousness of their collective strength. Although Napoleon too often permitted himself to use language unworthy of his own character respecting his great English adversary, his real feelings in commencing this campaign may be judged from the last words which he spoke, as he threw himself into his traveling carriage to leave Paris for the army. "I go," he said, "to measure myself with Wellington."

The enthusiasm of the French soldiers at seeing their Emperor among them, was still more excited by the "Order of the day," in which he thus appealed to them:

HDTWHAT?INDEXSTEPHEN WANTON GOULD*FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

"Napoleon, by the Grace of God, and the Constitution of the Empire, Emperor of the French, &c., to the Grand Army.

"AT THE: IMPERIAL HEAD-QUARTERS.

"Avesnes June 14th, 1815.

"Soldiers! this day is the anniversary of Marengo and of Friedland, which twice decided the destiny of Europe. Then. as after Austerlitz, as after Wagram, we were too generous! we believed in the protestations and in the oaths of princes, whom we left on their thrones. Now, however, leagued together, they aim at the independence and the most sacred rights of France. They have commenced the most unjust of aggressions. Let us, then, march to meet them. Are they and we no longer the same men?

"Soldiers! at Jena, against these same Prussians, now so arrogant, you were one to three, and at Montmirail one to six!

"Let those among you who have been captives to the English, describe the nature of their prison-ships, and

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

the frightful miseries they endured.

"The Saxons, the Belgians, the Hanoverians, the soldiers of the Confederation of the Rhine, lament that they are compelled to use their arms in the cause of princes, the enemies of justice and of the rights of all nations. They know that this coalition is insatiable! After having devoured twelve millions of Poles, twelve millions of Italians, one million of Saxons, and six millions of Belgians, it now wishes to devour the states of the second rank in Germany.

"Madmen! one moment of prosperity has bewildered them. The oppression and the humiliation of the French people are beyond their power. If they enter France they will there find their grave.

"Soldiers! we have forced marches to make, battles to fight, dangers to encounter; but, with firmness, victory will be ours. The rights, the honor. and the happiness of the country will be recovered!

"To every Frenchman who has a heart, the moment is now arrived to conquer or to die!

"NAPOLEON."

"THE MARSHAL DUKE OF DALMATIA, Major General."

The 15th of June had scarcely dawned before the French army was in motion for the decisive campaign, and crossed the frontier in three columns, which were pointed upon Charleroi and its vicinity. The French line of advance upon Brussels, which city Napoleon resolved to occupy, thus lay right through the center of the cantonments of the Allies.

Much criticism has been expended on the supposed surprise of Wellington's army in its cantonments by Napoleon's rapid advance. These comments would hardly have been made if sufficient attention had been paid to the geography of the Waterloo campaign; and if it had been remembered that the protection of Brussels was justly considered by the allied generals a matter of primary importance, If Napoleon could, either by maneuvering or fighting, have succeeded in occupying that city, the greater part of Belgium would unquestionably have declared in his favor; and the results of such a success, gained by the Emperor at the commencement of the campaign, might have decisively influenced the whole after-current of events. A glance at the map will show the numerous roads that lead from the different fortresses on the French north-eastern frontier, and converge upon Brussels; any one of which Napoleon might have chosen for the advance of a strong force upon that city. The Duke's army was judiciously arranged, so as to enable him to concentrate troops on any one of these roads sufficiently in advance of Brussels to check an assailing enemy. The army was kept thus available for movement in any necessary direction, till certain intelligence arrived on the 15th of June that the French had crossed the frontier in large force near Thuin, that they had driven back the Prussian advanced troops under General Ziethen, and were also moving across the Sambre upon Charleroi.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Marshal Blucher now rapidly concentrated his forces, calling them in from the left upon Ligny, which is to the north-east of Charleroi. Wellington also drew his troops together, calling them in from the right. But even now, though it was certain that the French were in large force at Charleroi, it was unsafe for the English general to place his army directly between that place and Brussels, until it was certain that no corps of the enemy was marching upon Brussels by the western road through Mons and Hal. The Duke, therefore, collected his troops in Brussels and its immediate vicinity, ready to move due southward upon Quatre Bras, and cooperate with Blucher, who was taking his station at Ligny: but also ready to meet and defeat any maneuver, that the enemy might make to turn the right of the Allies, and occupy Brussels by a flanking movement. The testimony of the Prussian general, Baron Muffling, who was attached to the Duke's staff during the campaign, and who expressly states the reasons on which the English general acted, ought for ever to have silenced the "weak Inventions of the enemy" about the Duke of Wellington having been deceived and surprised by his assailant, which some writers of our own nation, as well as foreigners, have incautiously repeated.

It was about three o'clock in the afternoon of the 15th, that a Prussian officer reached Brussels, whom General Ziethen had sent to Muffling to inform him of the advance of the main French army upon Charleroi. Muffling immediately communicated this to the Duke of Wellington; and asked him whether he would concentrate his army, and what would be his point of concentration; observing that Marshal Blucher in consequence of this intelligence would certainly concentrate the Prussians at Ligny. The Duke replied, - "If all is as General Ziethen supposes, I will concentrate on my left wing, and so be in readiness to fight in conjunction with the Prussian army. Should, however, a portion of the enemy's force come by Mons, I must concentrate more towards my center. This is the reason why I must wait for positive news from Mons before I fix the rendezvous. Since however it is certain that the troops must march, though it is uncertain upon what precise spot they must march, I will order all to be in readiness, and will direct a brigade to move at once towards Quatre Bras."

Later in the same day a message from Blucher himself was delivered to Muffling, in which the Prussian Field Marshal informed the Baron that he was concentrating his men at Sombref and Ligny, and charged Muffling to give him speedy intelligence respecting the concentration of Wellington. Muffling immediately communicated this to the Duke, who expressed his satisfaction with Blucher's arrangements, but added that he could not even then resolve upon his own point of concentration before he obtained the desired intelligence from Mons. About midnight this information arrived. The Duke went to the quarters of General Muffling, and told him that he now had received his reports from Mons, and was sure that no French troops were advancing by that route, but that the mass of the enemy's force

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

was decidedly directed on Charleroi. He informed the Prussian general that he had ordered the British troops to move forward upon Quatre Bras; but with characteristic coolness and sagacity resolved not to give the appearance of alarm by hurrying on with them himself

A ball was to be given by the Duchess of Richmond at Brussels that night, and the Duke proposed to General Muffling that they should go to the ball for a. few hours, and ride forward in the morning to overtake the troops at Quatre Bras.

To hundreds, who were assembled at that memorable ball, the news that the enemy was advancing, and that the time for battle had come, must have been a fearfully exciting surprise, and the magnificent stanzas of Byron are as true as they are beautiful.

There was a sound of revelry by night,
And Belgium's capital had gather'd then
Her Beauty and her Chivalry, and bright
The lamps shone o'er fair women and brave men;
A thousand hearts beat happily; and when
Music arose with its voluptuous swell,
Soft eyes look'd love to eyes which spake again,
And all went merry as a marriage-bell;
But hush! hark! a deep sound strikes like a rising knell.
Did ye not hear it — No; 'twas but the wind,
Or the car rattling o'er the stony street;
On with the dance! let joy be unconfined;
No sleep till morn, when Youth and Pleasure meet
To chase the glowing Hours with flying feet -
But, hark — that heavy sound breaks in once more,
As if the clouds its echo would repeat;
And nearer, clearer, deadlier than before!
Arm! Arm! it is — it is — the cannon's opening roar!
Within a window'd niche of that high hall
Sate Brunswick's fated chieftain; he did hear
That sound the first amidst the festival,
And caught its tone with Death's prophetic ear;
And when they smiled because he deem'd it near,
His heart more truly knew that peal too well
Which stretch'd his father on a bloody bier,
And roused the vengeance blood alone could quell:
He rush'd into the field, and, foremost fighting, fell.
Ah! then and there was hurrying to and fro,
And gathering tears, and tremblings of distress,
And cheeks all pale, which but an hour ago
Blush'd at the praise of their own loveliness;
And there were sudden partings, such as press
The life from out young hearts, and choking sighs
Which ne'er might be repeated; who could guess
If ever more should meet those mutual eyes,
Since upon night so sweet such awful morn could rise?
And there was mounting in hot haste: the steed,
The mustering squadron, and the clattering car,
Went pouring forward with impetuous speed,
And swiftly forming in the ranks of war;
And the deep thunder peal on peal afar;
And near, the bent of the alarming drum
Roused up the soldier ere the morning star;
While throng'd the citizens with terror dumb,
Or whispering, with white lips — "The foe! They come! they come!"
And Ardennes waves above them her green loaves.
Dewy with nature's tear-drops, as they pass,

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Grieving, if aught inanimate e'er grieves.
Over the unreturning brave,—alas!
'Ere evening to be trodden like the grass
Which now beneath them, but above shall grow
In its next verdure, when this fiery mass
Of living valour, rolling on the foe
And burning with high hope, shall moulder cold and low.
Last noon beheld them full of lusty life,
Last eve in Beauty's circle proudly gay,
The midnight brought the signal-sound of strife,
The morn the marshalling in arms, — the day
Battle's magnificently-stern array!
The thunder-clouds close o'er it, which when rent,
The earth is covered thick with other clay,
Which her own clay shall cover, heap'd and pent,
Rider and horse, —friend, foe, —in one red burial blent.

But the Duke and his principal officers knew well the stern termination to that, festive scene which was approaching. One by one, and in such a way as to attract as little observation as possible, the leaders of the various corps left the ball-room, and took their stations at the head of their men, who were pressing forward through the last hours of the short summer night to the arena of anticipated slaughter.

Napoleon's operations on the 15th had been conducted with signal skill and vigor; and their results had been very advantageous for his plan of the campaign. With his army formed in three vast columns, he had struck at the center of the line of cantonments of his allied foes; and he had so far made good his blow, that he had effected the passage of the Sambre, he had beaten with his left wing the Prussian corps of General Ziethen at Thuin, and with his center he had in person advanced right through Charleroi upon Fleurus, inflicting considerable loss upon the Prussians that fell back before him. His right column had with little opposition moved forward as far as the bridge of Chatelet.

Napoleon had thus a powerful force immediately in front of the point, which Blucher had fixed for the concentration of the Prussian army, and that concentration was still incomplete. The French Emperor designed to attack the Prussians on the morrow in person, with the troops of his center and right columns, and to employ his left wing in heating back such English troops as might advance to the help of their allies, and also in aiding his own attack upon Blucher. He gave the command of this left wing to Marshal Ney. Napoleon seems not to have originally intended to employ this celebrated General in the campaign. It was only on the night of the 11th of June, that Marshal Ney received at Paris an order to join the army. Hurrying forward to the Belgian frontier he met the Emperor near Charleroi. Napoleon immediately directed him to take the command of the left wing, and to press forward with it upon Quatre Bras by the line of the road which leads from Charleroi to Brussels, through Gosselies, Frasne, Quatre Bras, Genappe, and Waterloo. Ney immediately proceeded to the post assigned him; and before ten on the night of the 15th he had occupied Gosselies and Frasne,

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

driving out without much difficulty some weak Belgian detachments which had been stationed in those villages. The lateness of the hour, and the exhausted state of the French troops, who had been marching and fighting since ten in the morning, made him pause from advancing further, to attack the much more important position of Quatre Bras. In truth, the advantages which the French gained by their almost superhuman energy and activity throughout the long day of the 15th of June, were necessarily bought at the price of more delay and inertness during the following night and morrow, than would have been observable if they had not been thus overtasked. Ney has been blamed for want of promptness in his attack upon Quatre Eras; and Napoleon has been criticized for not having fought at Ligny before the afternoon of the 16th: but their censors should remember that soldiers are but men; and that there must be necessarily some interval of time, before troops, that have been worn and weakened by twenty hours of incessant fatigue and strife, can be fed, rested, reorganized, and brought again into action with any hope of success.

Having on the night of the 15th placed the most advanced of the French under his command in position in front of Frasne, Ney rode back to Charleroi, where Napoleon also arrived about midnight, having returned from directing the operations of the center and right column of the French. The Emperor and the Marshal supped together, and remained in earnest conversation till two in the morning. An hour or two afterwards Ney rode back to Frasne, where he endeavored to collect tidings of the numbers and movements of the enemy in front of him; and also busied himself in the necessary duty of learning the amount and composition of the troops which he himself was commanding. He had been so suddenly appointed to his high station, that he did not know the strength of the several regiments under him, or even the names of their commanding officers. He now caused his aides-de-camp to prepare the requisite returns, and drew together the troops, whom he was thus learning before he used them.

Wellington remained at the Duchess of Richmond's ball at Brussels till about three o'clock in the morning of the 16th, "showing himself very cheerful," as Baron Muffling, who accompanied him, observes. At five o'clock; the Duke and the Baron were on horseback, and reached the position at Quatre Bras about eleven. As the French, who were in front of Frasne, were perfectly quiet, and the Duke was informed that a very large force under Napoleon in person was menacing Blucher, it was thought possible that only a slight detachment of the French was posted at Frasne in order to mask the English army. In that event Wellington, as he told Baron Muffling, would be able to employ his whole strength in supporting the Prussians: and he proposed to ride across from Quatre Bras to Blucher's position, in order to concert with him personally the measures which should be taken in order to bring on a decisive battle with the French. Wellington and Muffling rode accordingly towards Ligny, and found Marshal Blucher and his staff' at the windmill of Bry, near that village. The Prussian army, 50,000 strong, was drawn up chiefly along a chain of heights, with the villages of Sombref, St. Amand, and Ligny in their front.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

These villages were strongly occupied by Prussian detachments, and formed the keys of Blucher's position. The heads of the columns which Napoleon was forming for the attack, were visible in the distance. The Duke asked Blucher and General Gneisenau (who was Blucher's adviser in matters of strategy) what they wished him to do. Muffling had already explained to them in a few words the Duke's earnest desire to support the Field Marshall, and that he would do all that they wished, provided they did not ask him to divide his army, which was contrary to his principles. The Duke wished to advance with his army (as soon as it was concentrated) upon Frasné and Gosselies, and thence to move upon Napoleon's flank and rear. The Prussian leaders preferred that he should march his men from Quatre Bras by the Namur road, so as to form a reserve in rear of Blucher's army. The Duke replied, "Well, I will come if I am not attacked myself," and galloped back with Muffling to Quatre Bras, where the French attack was now actually raging.

Marshal Ney began the battle about two o'clock in the afternoon. He had at this time in hand about 16,000 infantry, nearly 2000 cavalry, and 38 guns. The force which Napoleon nominally placed at his command exceeded 40,000 men. But more than one half of these consisted of the first French corps d'armée, under Count d'Erlon; and Ney was deprived of the use of this corps at the time that he most required it, in consequence of its receiving orders to march to the aid of the Emperor at Ligny. A magnificent body of heavy cavalry under Kellerman, nearly 5000 strong, and several more battalions (if artillery were added to Ney army during the battle of Quatre Bras; but his effective infantry force never exceeded 16,000.

When the battle began, the greater part of the Duke's army was yet on its march towards Quatre Bras from Brussels and the other parts of its cantonments. The force of the Allies, actually in position there, consisted only of a Dutch and Belgian division of infantry, not quite 7000 strong, with one battalion of foot, and one of horse-artillery. The Prince of Orange commanded them. A wood, called the Bois de Bossu, stretched along the right (or western) flank of the position of Quatre Bras; a farmhouse and building, called Gemiancourt, stood on some elevated ground in its front; and to the left (or east), were the enclosures of the village of Pierremont. The Prince of Orange endeavored to secure these posts; but Ney carried Gemiancourt in the center, and Pierremont on the east, and gained occupation of the southern part of the wood of Bossu. He ranged the chief part of his artillery on the high ground of Gemiancourt, whence it played throughout the action with most destructive effect upon the Allies. He was pressing forward to further advantages, when the fifth infantry division under Sir Thomas Picton, and the Duke of Brunswick's corps, appeared upon the scene. Wellington (who had returned to Quatre Bras from his interview with Blucher shortly before the arrival of these forces) restored the fight with them; and, as fresh troops of the Allies arrived, they were brought forward to stem the fierce attacks which Ney's columns and squadrons continued to make with unabated gallantry and zeal. The only cavalry of the Anglo-allied army that reached Quatre Bras during the action, consisted of Dutch and Belgians, and a small force of Brunswickers, under their Duke, who was killed on the field. These proved wholly unable to encounter Kellerman's cuirassiers and Pire's lancers; the Dutch and Belgian infantry also gave way early in the engagement; so that the whole brunt of the battle fell on the British and German infantry. They sustained it nobly. Though repeatedly charged by the French cavalry, though exposed to the murderous fire of the French batteries, which from the heights of Gemiancourt sent shot and shell into the devoted squares whenever the French horsemen withdrew, they not only repelled their assailants, but Kempt's and Pack's brigades, led on by Picton, actually advanced against and through their charging foes, and with stern determination made good to the end of the day the ground which they had thus boldly won. Some, however, of the British regiments were during the confusion assailed by the French cavalry before they could form squares, and suffered severely. One regiment, the 92nd, was almost wholly destroyed by the cuirassiers. A French private soldier, named Lami, of the 8th regiment of cuirassiers, captured one of the English colors, and presented it to Ney. It was a solitary trophy. The arrival of the English Guards about half past six o'clock, enabled the Duke to recover the wood of Boss, which the French had almost entirely won, and the possession of which by them would have enabled Ney to operate destructively upon the Allied flank and rear. Not only was the wood of Boss recovered on the British right, but the enclosures of Pierremont were also carried on the left. When night set in the French had been driven back on all points towards Frasne; but they still held the farm of Gemiancourt in front of the Duke's center. Wellington and Muffling were unacquainted with the result of the collateral battle between Blucher and Napoleon, the cannonading of which had been distinctly audible at Quatre Bras throughout the afternoon and evening. The Duke observed to Muffling, that of course the two Allied armies would assume the offensive against the enemy on the morrow; and consequently, it would be better to capture the farm at once, instead of waiting till next morning. Muffling agreed in the Duke's views, and Gemiancourt was forthwith attacked by the English and captured with little loss to its assailants.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Meanwhile the French and the Prussians had been fighting in and round the villages of Ligny, Sombref, and St. Amand, from three in the afternoon to nine in the evening, with a savage inveteracy almost unparalleled in modern warfare. Blucher had in the field, when he began the battle, 83,417 men, and 224 guns. Bulow's corps, which was 25,000 strong, had not joined him; but the Field

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Marshal hoped to be reinforced by it, or by the English army before the end of the action. But Bulow, through some error in the transmission of orders, was far in the rear; and the Duke of Wellington was engaged, as we have seen, with Marshal Ney. Blucher received early warning from Baron Muffling that the Duke could not come to his assistance; but, as Muffling observes, Wellington rendered the Prussians the great service of occupying more than 40,000 of the enemy, who otherwise would have crushed Blucher's right flank. For, not only did the conflict at Quatre Bras detain the French troops which actually took part in it, but d'Erlon received orders from Ney to join him which hindered d'Erlon from giving effectual aid to Napoleon. Indeed, the whole of d'Erlon's corps, in consequence of conflicting directions from Ney and the Emperor, marched and countermarched, during the 16th, between Quatre Bras and Ligny without firing a shot in either battle.

Blucher had, in fact, a superiority of more than 12,000 in number over the French army that attacked him at Ligny. The numerical difference was even greater at the beginning of the battle, as Lobau's corps did not come up from Charleroi till eight o'clock. After five hours and a half of desperate and long-doubtful struggle, Napoleon succeeded in breaking the center of the Prussian line, at Ligny, and in forcing his obstinate antagonists off the field of battle. The issue was attributable to his skill, and not to any want of spirit or resolution on the part of the Prussian troops; nor did they, though defeated, abate one jot in discipline, heart, or hope. As Blucher observed, it was a battle in which his army lost the day but not its honor. The Prussians retreated during the night of the 16th, and the early part of the 17th, with perfect regularity and steadiness. The retreat was directed not towards Maestricht, where their principal depots were established, but towards Wavre, so as to be able to maintain their communication with Wellington's army, and still follow out the original plan of the campaign. The heroism with which the Prussians endured and repaired their defeat at Ligny, is more glorious than many victories.

The messenger who was sent to inform Wellington of the retreat of the Prussian army, was shot on the way; and it was not until the morning of the 17th that the Allies, at Quatre Bras, knew the result of the battle of Ligny. The Duke was ready at daybreak to take the offensive against the enemy with vigor, his whole army being by that time fully assembled. But on learning that Blucher had been defeated, a different course of action was clearly necessary. It was obvious that Napoleon's main army would now be directed against Wellington, and a retreat was inevitable. On ascertaining that the Prussian army had retired upon Wavre, that there was no hot pursuit of them by the French, and that Bulow's corps had taken no part in the action at Ligny, the Duke resolved to march his army back towards Brussels, still intending to cover that city, and to halt at a point in a line with Wavre, and there restore his communication with Blucher.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

An officer from Blucher's army reached the Duke about nine o'clock, from whom he learned the effective strength that Blucher still possessed, and how little discouraged his ally was by the yesterday's battle. Wellington sent word to the Prussian commander that he would halt in the position of Mont St. Jean, and accept a general battle with the French, if Blucher would pledge himself come to his assistance with a single corps of 25,000 men. This was readily promised; and after allowing his men ample time for rest and refreshment, Wellington retired over about half the space between Quatre Bras and Brussels. He was pursued, but little molested by the main French army, which about noon of the 17th moved laterally from Ligny, and joined Ney's forces. which had advanced through Quatre Bras when the British abandoned that position. The Earl of Uxbridge, with the British cavalry, covered the retreat of the Duke's army, with great skill and gallantry; and a heavy thunderstorm, with torrents of rain, impeded the operations of the French pursuing squadrons. The Duke still expected that the French would endeavor to turn his right, and march upon Brussels by the high road that leads through Mons and Hal. In order to counteract this anticipated maneuver, he stationed a force of 18,000 men, under Prince Frederick of the Netherlands, at Hal, with orders to maintain himself there if attacked, as long as possible. The Duke halted with the rest of his army at the position near Mont St. Jean, which, from a village in its neighborhood, has received the ever-memorable name of the field of Waterloo. Wellington was now about twelve miles distant, on a line running from west to east, from Wavre, where the Prussian army had now been completely reorganized and collected, and where it had been strengthened by the junction of Bulow's troops, which had taken no part in the battle of Ligny. Blucher sent, word from Wavre, to the Duke, that he was coming to help the English at Mont St. Jean, in the morning, not with one corps, but with his whole army. The fiery old man only stipulated that the combined armies, if not attacked by Napoleon on the 18th, should themselves attack him on the 19th. So far were Blucher and his army from being in the state of annihilation described in the boastful bulletin by which Napoleon informed the Parisians of his victory at Ligny. Indeed, the French Emperor seems himself to have been misinformed as to the extent of loss which he had inflicted on the Prussians, Had he known in what good order and with what undiminished spirit they were retiring, he would scarcely have delayed sending a large force to press them in their retreat until noon on the 17th. Such, however, was the case. It was about that time that he confided to Marshal Grouchy the duty of pursuing the defeated Prussians, and preventing them from joining Wellington. He placed for this purpose 38,000 men and 96 guns under his orders. Violent complaints and recriminations passed afterwards between the Emperor and the marshal respecting the manner in which Grouchy attempted to perform this duty, and the reasons why he failed on the 18th to arrest the lateral movement of the Prussians from Wavre to

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Waterloo. It is sufficient to remark here, that the force which Napoleon gave to Grouchy (though the utmost that the Emperor's limited means would allow) was insufficient to make head against the entire Prussian army, especially after Bulow's junction with Blucher. We shall presently have occasion to consider what opportunities were given to Grouchy during the 18th, and what he might have effected if he had been a man of original military genius.

But the failure of Grouchy was in truth mainly owing to the indomitable heroism of Blucher himself; who, though he had received severe personal injuries in the battle of Ligny, was as energetic and ready as ever in bringing his men into action again, and who had the resolution to expose a part of his army, under Thielman, to be overwhelmed by Grouchy at Wavre on the 18th, while he urged the march of the mass of his troops upon Waterloo "It is not at Wavre, but at Waterloo," said the old Field-Marshal, "that the campaign is to be decided;" and he risked a detachment, and won the campaign accordingly. Wellington and Blucher trusted each other as cordially, and cooperated as zealously, as formerly had been the case with Marlborough and Eugene.

It was in full reliance on Blucher's promise to join him, that the Duke stood his ground and fought at Waterloo; and those, who have ventured to impugn the Duke's capacity as a general, ought to have had common sense enough to perceive, that to charge the Duke with having won the battle of Waterloo by the help of the Prussians, is really to say that he won it by the very means on which he relied, and without the expectation of which the battle would not have been fought.

Napoleon himself has found fault with Wellington for not having retreated further, so as to complete a junction of his army with Blucher's, before he risked a general engagement. But as we have seen, the Duke justly considered it important to protect Brussels. He had reason to expect that his army could singly resist the French at Waterloo until the Prussians came up, and that on the Prussians joining there would be a sufficient force united under himself and Blucher, for completely overwhelming the enemy. And while Napoleon thus censures his great adversary, he involuntarily bears the highest possible testimony to the military character of the English, and proves decisively of what paramount importance was the battle to which he challenged his fearless opponent. Napoleon asks, "If the English army had been beaten at Waterloo, what would have been the use of those numerous bodies of troops, of Prussians, Austrians, Germans, and Spaniards, which were advancing to the Rhine, the Alps, and the Pyrenees?"

The strength of the army, under the Duke of Wellington at Waterloo was 49,608 infantry, 12,402 cavalry, and 5645 artillerymen with 156 guns. But of this total of 67,655 men, scarcely 24,000 were British, a circumstance of very serious importance, if Napoleon's own estimate of the relative value of troops of different nations is to be taken. In the Emperor's own words speaking of this campaign, "A French soldier would not be equal to more than one English soldier, but he would not be afraid to meet two Dutchmen, Prussians, or soldiers of the Confederation." There were about 6000 men, of the old German Legion, with the Duke; these were veteran troops, and of excellent quality. Of the rest of the army the Hanoverians and Brunswickers proved themselves deserving of confidence and praise. But the Nassauers, Dutch, and Belgians were almost worthless; and not a few of them were justly suspected of a strong wish to fight, if they fought at all, under the French eagles rather than against them. Napoleon's army at Waterloo consisted of 48,950 infantry, 15,765 cavalry, 7832 artillerymen, being a total of 71,947 men, and 246 guns. They were the flower of the national forces of France; and of all the numerous gallant armies which that martial land has poured forth, never was there one braver, or better disciplined, or better led, than the host that took up its position at Waterloo on the morning of the 18th of June 1815.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Perhaps those who have not seen the field of battle at Waterloo, or the admirable model of the ground, and of the conflicting armies, which was executed by Captain Siborne, may gain a generally accurate idea of the localities, by picturing to themselves a valley between two and three miles long, of various breadths at different points, but generally not exceeding half a mile. On each side of the valley, there is a winding chain of low hills, running somewhat parallel with each other. The declivity from each of these ranges of hills to the intervening valley is gentle but not uniform, the undulations of the ground being frequent and considerable. The English army was posted on the northern, and the French army occupied the southern ridge. The artillery of each side thundered at the other from their respective heights throughout the day, and the charges of horse and foot were made across the valley that has been described. The village of Mont St. Jean is situate a little behind the center of the northern chain of hills, and the village of La Belle Alliance is close behind the center of the southern ridge. The high road from Charleroi to Brussels (a broad paved causeway) runs through both these villages, and bisects therefore both the English and the French positions. The line of this road was the line of Napoleon's intended advance on Brussels.

There are some other local particulars connected with the situation of each army, which it is necessary to bear in mind. The strength of the British position did not consist merely in the occupation of a ridge of high ground. A village and ravine, called Merk Braine, on the Duke of Wellington's extreme right, secured his flank from being turned on that side; and on his extreme left, two little hamlets called La Haye and Papelotte, gave a similar, though a slighter, protection. Behind the whole British position is the extensive forest of Soignies. As no attempt was made by the French to turn either of the English flanks, and the battle was a day of straightforward fighting,

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

it is chiefly important to ascertain what posts there were in front of the British line of hills, of which advantage could be taken either to repel or facilitate an attack; and it will be seen that there were two, and that each was of very great importance in the action. In front of the British right, that is to say, on the northern slope of the valley towards its western end, there stood an old fashioned Flemish farm-house called Goumoat, or Hougoumont, with out-buildings and a garden, and with copse of beech trees of about two acres in extent round it. This was strongly garrisoned by the allied troops; and, while it was in their possession, it was difficult for the enemy to press on and force the British right wing. On the other hand, if the enemy could take it, it would be difficult for that wing to keep its ground on the heights, with a strong post held adversely in its immediate front, being one that would give much shelter to the enemy's marksmen, and great facilities for the sudden concentration of attacking columns. Almost immediately in front of the British center, and not so far down the slope as Hougoumont, there was another farm-house, of a smaller size, called La Haye Sainte, [Not to be confounded with the hamlet of La Haye at the extreme left of the British line.] which was also held by the British troops, and the occupation of which was found to be of very serious consequence.

With respect to the French position, the principle feature to be noticed is the village of Planchenoit, which lay a little in the rear of their right (i.e. on the eastern side), and which proved to be of great importance in aiding them to check the advance of the Prussians.

Napoleon, in his memoirs, and other French writers, have vehemently blamed the Duke for having given battle in such a position as that of Waterloo. They particularly object that the Duke fought without having the means of a retreat, if the attacks of his enemy had proved successful; and that the English army, if once broken, must have lost all its guns and materiel in its flight through the Forest of Soignies, that lay in its rear. In answer to these censures, instead of merely referring to the event of the battle as proof of the correctness of the Duke's judgment, it is to be observed that many military critics of high authority, have considered the position of Waterloo to have been admirably adapted for the Duke's purpose of protecting Brussels by a battle; and that certainly the Duke's opinion in favor of it was not lightly or hastily formed. It is a remarkable fact (mentioned in the speech of Lord Bathurst when moving the vote of thanks to the Duke in the House of Lords), that when the Duke of Wellington was passing through Belgium in the preceding summer of 1814, he particularly noticed the strength of the position of Waterloo, and made a minute of it at the time, stating to those who were with him, that if it ever should be his fate to fight a battle in that quarter for the protection of Brussels, he should endeavor to do so in that position. And with respect to the Forest of Soignies, which the French (and some few English) critics have thought calculated to prove so

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

fatal to a retreating force, the Duke on the contrary believed it to be a post that might have proved of infinite value to his army in the event of his having been obliged to give way. The Forest of Soignies has no thicket or masses of close growing trees. It consists of tall beeches, and is everywhere passable for men and horses. The artillery could have been withdrawn by the broad road which traverses it towards Brussels; and in the meanwhile a few regiments of resolute infantry could have, held the forest and kept the pursuers in check. One of the best writers on the Waterloo campaign, Captain Pringle, well observes that "every person, the least experienced in war, knows the extreme difficulty of forcing infantry from a wood which cannot be turned." The defense of the Bois de Bossu near Quatre Bras on the 16th of June had given a good proof of this; and the Duke of Wellington, when speaking in after years of the possible events that might have followed if he had been beaten back from the open field of Waterloo, pointed to the wood of Soignies as his secure rallying place, saying, "they never could have beaten us so, that we could not have held the wood against them." He was always confident that he could have made good that post until joined by the Prussians, upon whose cooperation he throughout depended.

As has been already mentioned, the Prussians, on the morning of the 18th, were at Wavre, which is about twelve miles to the east of the field of battle of Waterloo. The junction of Bulow's division had more than made up for the loss sustained at Ligny; and leaving Thielman with about seventeen thousand men to hold his ground, as he best could, against the attack which Grouchy was about to make on Wavre. Bulow and Blucher moved with the rest of the Prussians through St. Lambert upon Waterloo. It was calculated that they would be there by three o'clock: but the extremely difficult nature of the ground which they had to traverse, rendered worse by the torrents of rain that had just, fallen, delayed them long on their twelve miles' march.

An army, indeed, less animated by bitter hate against the enemy than was the Prussian, and under a less energetic chief than Blucher, would have failed altogether in effecting a passage through the swamps, into which the incessant rain had transformed the greater part of the ground through which it was necessary to move not only with columns of foot, but with cavalry and artillery. At one point of the march, on entering the defile of St. Lambert the spirits of the Prussians almost gave way. Exhausted in the attempts to extricate and drag forward the heavy guns, the men began to murmur. Blucher came to the spot, and heard cries from the ranks of - "We cannot get on." "But you must get on," was the old Field Marshal's answer. "I have pledged my word to Wellington, and you surely will not make me break it. Only exert yourselves for a few hours longer, and we are sure of victory." This appeal from old "Marshal Forwards," as the Prussian soldiers loved to call Blucher, had its wonted effect. The Prussians again moved forward, slowly, indeed, and with pain and toil; but still they moved forward.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

The French and British armies lay on the open field during the wet and stormy night of the 17th: and when the dawn of the memorable 18th of June broke, the rain was still descending heavily upon Waterloo. The rival nations rose from their dreary bivouacs, and began to form, each on the high ground which it occupied. Towards nine the weather grew clearer, and each army was able to watch the position and arrangements of the other on the opposite side of the valley.

The Duke of Wellington drew up his army in two lines; the principal one being stationed near the crest of the ridge of hills already described, and the other being arranged along the slope in the rear of his position. Commencing from the eastward, on the extreme left of the first or main line, were Vivian's and Vandeleur's brigades of light cavalry, and the fifth Hanoverian brigade of infantry, under Von Vincke.

Then came Best's fourth Hanoverian brigade. Detachments from these bodies of troops occupied the little villages of Papelotte and La Haye, down the hollow in advance of the left of the Duke's position. To the right of Best's Hanoverians, Bylandt's brigade of Dutch and Belgian infantry was drawn up on the outer slope of the heights. Behind them were the ninth brigade of British INFANTRY under Pack; and to the right of these last, but more in advance, stood the eighth brigade of English infantry under Kempt. These were close to the Charleroi road, and to the center of the entire position. These two English brigades, with the fifth Hanoverian, made up the fifth division, commanded by Sir Thomas Picton. Immediately to their right, and westward of the Charleroi road, stood the third division, commanded by General Alten, and consisting of Ompteda's brigade of the King's German legion, and Kielmansegge's Hanoverian brigade. The important post of La Haye Sainte, which it will be remembered lay in front of the Duke's center, close to the Charleroi road, was garrisoned with troops from this division. Westward, and on the right of Kielmansegge's Hanoverians, stood the fifth British brigade under Halkett; and behind, Kruse's Nassau brigade was posted. On the right of Halkett's men stood the English Guards. They were in two brigades, one commanded by Maitland, and the other by Byng. The entire division was under General Cooke. The buildings and gardens of Hougomont, which lay immediately under the height, on which stood the British Guards, were principally manned by detachments from Byng's brigade, aided by some brave Hanoverian rifle-men, and accompanied by a battalion of a Nassau regiment. On a plateau in the rear of Cooke's division of Guards, and inclining westward towards the village of Mark Braine, were Clinton's second infantry division, composed of Adams's third brigade of light infantry, Du Plat's first brigade of the king's German legion, and the third Hanoverian brigade under Colonel Halkett.

The Duke formed his second line of cavalry. This only extended behind the right and center of his first line. The largest mass was drawn up behind the brigades of infantry in the center, on either side of the Charleroi road. The brigade of household

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

cavalry under Lord Somerset was on the immediate right of the road, and on the left of it was Ponsonby's brigade, Behind these were Trip's and Ghingy's brigades of Dutch and Belgian horse. The 3rd Hussars of the King's German Legion were to the right of Somerset's brigade. To the right of these, and behind Maitland's infantry, stood the 3rd Brigade under Dornberg, consisting of the 23rd English Light Dragoons, and the regiments of Light Dragoons of the King's German Legion. The last cavalry on the right was Grant's brigade, stationed in the rear of the Foot-Guards. The corps of Brunswickers, both horse and foot, and the 10th British brigade of foot, were in reserve behind the center and right of the entire position. The artillery was distributed at convenient, intervals along the front of the whole line. Besides the generals who have been mentioned, Lord Hill, Lord Uxbridge (who had the general command of the cavalry), the Prince of Orange, and General Chasse, were present, and acting under the Duke.

Prince Frederick's force remained at Hal, and took no part in the battle of the 18th. The reason for this arrangement (which has been much cavilled at), may be best given in the words of Baron Muffling:- "The Duke had retired from Quatre Bras in three columns, by three chaises; and on the evening of the 17th, Prince Frederick of orange was at Hal, Lord Hill at Braine la Leud, and the Prince of Orange with the reserve, at Mont St. Jean. This distribution was necessary, as Napoleon could dispose of these three roads for his advance on Brussels. Napoleon on the 17th had pressed on by Genappe as far as Rossomme. On the two other roads no enemy had yet shown himself. On the 18th the offensive was taken by Napoleon on its greatest scale, but still the Nivelles road was not overstepped by his left wing These circumstances made it possible to draw Prince Frederick to the army, which would certainly have been done if entirely new circumstances had not arisen. The Duke had, twenty-four hours before, pledged himself to accept a battle at Mont St. Jean if Blucher would assist him there with one corps, of 25,000 men. This being promised, the Duke was taking his measures for defense, when he learned that, in addition to the one corps promised, Blucher was actually already on the march with his whole force, to break in by Planchenoit on Napoleon's flank and rear. If three corps of the Prussian army should penetrate by the unguarded plateau of Russomme, which was not improbable, Napoleon would be thrust from his line of retreat by Genappe, and might possibly lose even that by Nivelles. In this case Prince Frederick, with his 19,000 men (who might be accounted superfluous at Mont, St. Jean:, might have rendered the most essential service." It is also worthy of observation that Napoleon actually detached a force of 2000 cavalry to threaten Hal, though they returned to the main French camp during the night of the 17th.

On the opposite heights the French army was drawn up in two general lines, with the entire force of the Imperial Guards, cavalry as well as infantry, in rear of the center, as a reserve.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

The first line of the French army was formed of the two corps commanded by Count d'Erlon and Count Reille. D'Erlon's corps was on the right, that is, eastward of the Charleroi road, and consisted of four divisions of infantry under Generals Durette, Marcognet, Alix, and Donzelot, and of one division of light cavalry under General Jaquinot. Count Reille's corps formed the left or western wing, and was formed of Bachelu's, Foy's, and Jerome Bonaparte's divisions of infantry, and of Pire's division of cavalry. The right wing of the second general French line was formed of Milhaud's corps, consisting of two divisions of heavy cavalry. The left wing of this line was formed by Kellerman's cavalry corps, also in two divisions. Thus each of the corps of infantry that composed the first line had a corps of cavalry behind it; but the second line consisted also of Lobau's corps of infantry, and Domont and Subervie's divisions of light cavalry; these three bodies of troops being drawn up on either side of La Belie Alliance, and forming the center of the second line. The third, or reserve line, had its center composed of the infantry of the Imperial Guard. Two regiments of grenadiers and two of chasseurs, formed the foot of the Old Guard under General Friant. The Middle Guard, under Count Morand, was similarly composed; while two regiments of voltigeurs, and two of tirailleurs, under Duhesme, constituted the Young Guard. The chasseurs and lancers of the Guard were on the right of the infantry, under Lefebvre Desnouettes; and the grenadiers and dragoons of the Guards, under Guyot, were on the left. All the French corps comprised, besides their cavalry and infantry regiments, strong batteries of horse artillery; and Napoleon's numerical superiority in guns was of deep importance throughout the action.

Besides the leading generals who have been mentioned as commanding particular corps, Ney and Soult were present, and acted as the Emperor's lieutenants in the battle.

English military critics have highly eulogized the admirable arrangement which Napoleon made of his forces of each arm, so as to give him the most ample means of sustaining, by an immediate and sufficient support, any attack, from whatever point he might direct it; and of drawing promptly together a strong force, to resist any attack that might be made on himself in any part of the field. When his troops were all arrayed. he rode along the lines, receiving everywhere the enthusiastic cheers from his men, of whose entire devotion to him his assurance was now doubly sure. On the northern side of the valley the Duke's army was also drawn up and ready to meet the menaced attack.

Wellington had caused, on the preceding night, every brigade and corps to take up its station on or near the part of the ground which it was attended to hold in the coming battle. He had slept a few hours at his headquarters in the village of Waterloo; and rising on the 18th, while it was yet deep night, he wrote several letters to the Governor of Antwerp, to the English Minister at Brussels, and other official personages, in which he expressed his confidence that all would go well, but "as it was necessary to provide against serious losses should any accident occur," he gave a series of judicious orders for what should be clone in the rear of the army, in the event of the battle going against the Allies. He also, before he left the village of Waterloo, saw to the distribution of the reserves of ammunition which had been parked there, so that supplies should be readily forwarded to every part of the line of battle, where they might be required. The Duke, also, personally inspected the arrangements that had been made for receiving the wounded, and providing temporary hospitals in the houses in the rear of the army. Then, mounting a favorite charger, a small thorough-bred chestnut horse, named "Copenhagen," Wellington rode forward to the range of hills where his men were posted. Accompanied by his staff and by the Prussian general Muffling, he rode along his lines, carefully inspecting all the details of his position. Hougoumont was the object of his special attention. He rode down to the south-eastern extremity of its enclosures, and after having examined the nearest French troops, he made some changes in the disposition of his own men, who were to defend that important post.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Having given his final orders about Hougoumont the Duke galloped back to the high ground in the right center of his position; and halting there, sat watching the enemy on the opposite heights, and conversing with his staff with that cheerful serenity which was ever his characteristic in the hour of battle.

Not all brave men are thus gifted; and many a glance of anxious excitement must have been cast across the valley that separated the two hosts during the protracted pause which ensued between the completion of Napoleon's preparations for attack and the actual commencement of the contest. It was, indeed, an awful calm before the coming storm, when armed myriads stood gazing on their armed foes, scanning their number, their array, their probable powers of resistance and destruction, listening with throbbing hearts for the momentarily expected note of death; while visions of victory and glory came thronging on each soldier's high-strung brain, not unmingled with recollections of the home which his fall might soon leave desolate, nor without shrinking nature sometimes prompting the cold thought, that in a few moments he might be writhing in agony, or lie a trampled and mangled mass of clay on the grass now waving so freshly and purely before him. Such thoughts will arise in human breasts, though the brave man soon silences "the child within us that trembles before death," and nerves himself for the coming struggle by the mental preparation which Xenophon has finely called "the soldier's arraying his own soul for battle." Well, too, may we hope and believe that many a spirit sought aid from a higher and holier source; and that many a fervent though silent prayer arose on that Sabbath morn (the battle of Waterloo was fought on a Sunday) to the Lord of Sabaoth, the God of Battles, from the ranks, whence so many thousands were about to appear that day before His judgment-seat.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Not only to those who were thus present as spectators and actors in the dread drama, but to all Europe, the decisive contest then impending between the rival French and English nations, each under its chosen chief, was the object of exciting interest and deepest solicitude. "Never, indeed, had two such generals as the Duke of Wellington and the Emperor Napoleon encountered since the day when Scipio and Hannibal met at Zama."

The two great champions, who now confronted each other, were equals in years, and each had entered the military profession at the same early age. The more conspicuous stage, on which the French general's youthful genius was displayed, his heritage of the whole military power of the French Republic, the position on which for years he was elevated as sovereign head of an empire surpassing that of Charlemagne, and the dazzling results of his victories, which made and unmade kings, had given him a formidable pre-eminence in the eyes of mankind. Military men spoke with justly rapturous admiration of the brilliancy of his first Italian campaigns, when he broke through the pedantry of traditional tactics, and with a small but promptly wielded force, shattered army after army of the Austrians, conquered provinces and capitals, dictated treaties, and annihilated or created states. The iniquity of his Egyptian expedition was too often forgotten in contemplating the skill and boldness with which he destroyed the Mameluke cavalry at the Pyramids, and the Turkish infantry at Aboukir. None could forget the marvelous passage of the Alps in 1800, or the victory of Marengo, which wrested Italy back from Austria, and destroyed the fruit of twenty victories, which the enemies of France had gained over her in the absence of her favorite chief. Even higher seemed the glories of his German campaigns, the triumphs of Ulm, of Austerlitz, of Jena, of Wagram. Napoleon's disasters in Russia, in 1812, were imputed by his admirers to the elements; his reverses in Germany, in 1813, were attributed by them to treachery: and even those two calamitous years had been signalized by his victories at Borodino, at Lutzen, at Bautzen, at Dresden, and at Hanau. His last campaign, in the early months of 1814, was rightly cited as the, most splendid exhibition of his military genius, when, with a far inferior army, he long checked and frequently defeated the vast hosts that were poured upon France. His followers fondly hoped that the campaign of 1815 would open with another "week of miracles," like that which had seen his victories at Montmirail and Montereau. The laurel of Ligny was even now fresh upon his brows. Blucher had not stood before him; and who was the Adversary that now should bar the Emperor's way?

That Adversary had already overthrown the Emperor's best generals, and the Emperor's best armies; and, like Napoleon himself, had achieved a reputation in more than European wars. Wellington was illustrious as the destroyer of the Mahratta power, as the liberator of Portugal and Spain, and the successful invader of Southern France. In early youth he had held high command in India; and had displayed eminent skill in planning and combining movements, and unrivaled celerity and boldness in execution. On his return to Europe several years passed away before any fitting opportunity was accorded for the exercise of his genius. In this important respect, Wellington, as a subject, and Napoleon, as a sovereign, were far differently situated. At length his appointment to the command in the Spanish Peninsula gave him the means of showing Europe that England had a general who could revive the glories of Crecy, of Poitiers, of Agincourt, of Blenheim, and of Ramillies. At the head of forces always numerically far inferior to the armies with which Napoleon deluged the Peninsula; – thwarted by jealous and incompetent allies; – ill-supported by friends, and assailed by factious enemies at home Wellington maintained the war for seven years, unstained by any serious reverse, and marked by victory in thirteen pitched battles, at Vimiera, the Douro, Talavera, Basic, Founts donor, Salamanca., Victoria, the Pyrenees, the Bidassoa, the Nive, the Nivelle, Orthes, and Toulouse. Junot, Victor, Massena, Ney, Marmont, and Jourdain, – marshals whose names were the terrors of continental Europe – had been baffled by his skill, and smitten down by his energy, while he liberated the kingdoms of the Peninsula from them and their Imperial master. In vain did Napoleon at last dispatch Soult, the ablest of his lieutenants, to turn the tide of Wellington's success, and defend France against the English invader. Wellington met Soult's maneuvers with superior skill, and his boldness with superior vigor. When Napoleon's first abdication, in 1814, suspended hostilities, Wellington was master of the fairest districts of Southern France; and had under him a veteran army, with which (to use his own expressive phrase) "he felt he could have gone anywhere and done anything." The fortune of war had hitherto kept separate the orbits in which Napoleon and he had moved. Now, on the ever memorable 18th of June, 1815, they met at last.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

It is, indeed, remarkable that Napoleon, during his numerous campaigns in Spain as well as other countries, not only never encountered the Duke of Wellington before the day of Waterloo, but that he was never until then personally engaged with British troops, except at the siege of Toulon, in 1793. which was the very first incident of his military career. Many, however, of the French generals who were with him in 1815, knew well, by sharp experience, what English soldiers were, and what the leader was who now headed them. Ney, Foy, and other officers who had served in the Peninsula. warned Napoleon that he would find the English infantry "very devils in fight." The Emperor, however, persisted in employing the old system of attack, with which the French generals often succeeded against continental troops, but which had always failed against the English in the Peninsula. He adhered to his usual tactics of employing the order of the column; a mode of attack probably favored by him (as Sir Walter Scott remarks) on account of his faith in the extreme valor of the French officers by whom the column was headed. It is a threatening formation, well calculated to shake

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

the firmness of ordinary foes; but which, when steadily met, as the English have met it, by heavy volleys of musketry from an extended line, followed up by a resolute bayonet charge, has always resulted in disaster to the assailants.

See especially Sir W. Napier's glorious pictures of the battles of Busaco and Albuera. The theoretical advantages of the attack in column, and its peculiar fitness for a French army, are set forth in the Chevalier Folard's "Traite de la Colonne," prefixed to the first volume of his "Polybius." See also the preface to his sixth volume.

It was approaching noon before the action commenced. Napoleon, in his Memoirs, gives as the reason for this delay, the miry state of the ground through the heavy rain of the preceding night and day, which rendered it impossible for cavalry or artillery to maneuver on it till a few hours of dry weather had given it its natural consistency. It has been supposed, also, that he trusted to the effect which the sight of the imposing array of his own forces was likely to produce on the part of the allied army. The Belgian regiments had been tampered with; and Napoleon had well-founded hopes of seeing them quit the Duke of Wellington in a body, and range themselves under his own eagles. The Duke, however, who knew and did not trust them, had guarded against the risk of this, by breaking up the corps of Belgians, and distributing them in separate regiments among troops on whom he could rely.

At last, at about half-past eleven o'clock, Napoleon began the battle by directing a powerful force from his left wing under his brother, Prince Jerome, to attack Hougoumont. Column after column of the French now descended from the west of the southern heights, and assailed that post with fiery valor, which was encountered with the most determined bravery. The French won the copse round the house, but a party of the British Guards held the house itself throughout the day. The whole of Byng's brigade was required to man this hotly-contested post. Amid shell and shot, and the blazing fragments of part of the buildings, this obstinate contest was continued. But still the English were firm in Hougoumont; though the French occasionally moved forward in such numbers as enabled them to surround and mask it with part of their troops from their left wing, while others pressed onward up the slope, and assailed the British right.

The cannonade, which commenced at first between the British right and the French left, in consequence: of the attack on Hougoumont, soon became general along both lines; and, about one o'clock, Napoleon directed a grand attack to be made under Marshal Ney upon the center and left wing of the allied army. For this purpose four columns of infantry, amounting to about eighteen thousand men, were collected, supported by a strong division of cavalry under the celebrated Kellerman; and seventy-four guns were brought forward ready to be posted on the ridge of a little undulation of the ground in the interval between the two principal chains of heights, so as to bring their fire to bear on the Duke's line at a range of about seven hundred yards.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

By the combined assault of these formidable forces, led on by Ney, "the bravest of the brave," Napoleon hoped to force the left center of the British position, to take La Haye Sainte, and then pressing forward, to occupy also the farm of Mont St. Jean. He then could cut the mass of Wellington's troops off from their line of retreat upon Brussels, and from their own left, and also completely sever them from any Prussian troops that might be approaching.

The columns destined for this great and decisive operation descended majestically from the French line of hills, and gained the ridge of the intervening eminence, on which the batteries that supported them were now ranged. As the columns descended again from this eminence, the seventy-four guns opened over their heads with terrible effect upon the troops of the Allies that were stationed on the heights to the left of the Charleroi road. One of the French columns kept to the east, and attacked the extreme left of the Allies; the other three continued to move rapidly forwards upon the left center of the allied position. The front line of the Allies here was composed of Bylandt's brigade of Dutch and Belgians. As the French columns moved up the south ward slope of the height on which the Dutch and Belgians stood, and the skirmishers in advance began to open their fire, Bylandt's entire brigade turned and fled in disgraceful and disorderly panic; but there were men more worthy of the name behind.

In this part of the second line of the Allies were posted Pack and Kempt's brigades of English infantry, which had suffered severely at Quatre Bras. But Picton was here as general of division, and not even Ney himself surpassed in resolute bravery that stern and fiery spirit. Picton brought his two brigades forward, side by side, in a thin two-deep line. Thus joined together, they were not three thousand strong. With these Picton had to make head against the three victorious French columns, upwards of four times that strength, and who, encouraged by the easy rout of the Dutch and Belgians, now came confidently over the ridge of the hill. The British infantry stood firm; and as the French halted and began to deploy into line, Picton seized the critical moment. He shouted in his stentorian voice to Kempt's brigade: "A volley, and then charge!" at a distance of less than thirty yards that volley was poured upon the devoted first, sections of the nearest column; and then, with a fierce hurrah, the British dashed in with the bayonet. Picton was shot dead as he rushed forward, but his men pushed on with the cold steel. The French reeled back in confusion. Pack's infantry had checked the other two columns, and down came a whirlwind of British horse on the whole mass, sending them staggering from the crest of the hill, and cutting them down by whole battalions. Ponsonby's brigade of heavy cavalry (the Union Brigade, as it was called, from its being made up of the British Royals, the Scots Greys, and the Irish Inniskillings), did this good service. On went the horsemen amid the wrecks of the French columns, capturing two eagles, and two thousand prisoners;

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

onwards still they galloped, and sabered the artillerymen of Ney's seventy four advanced guns; then severing the traces, and cutting the throats of the artillery horses, they rendered these guns totally useless to the French throughout the remainder of the day. While thus far advanced beyond the British position and disordered by success, they were charged by a large body of French lancers, and driven back with severe loss, till Vandeleur's light horse came to their aid, and beat off the French lancers in their turn.

Equally unsuccessful with the advance of the French infantry in this grand attack, had been the efforts of the French cavalry who moved forward in support of it, along the east of the Charleroi road. Somerset's cavalry of the English Household Brigade had been launched, on the right of Picton's division, against the French horse, at the same time that the English Union Brigade of heavy horse charged the French infantry columns on the left.

Somerset's brigade was formed of the Life Guards, the Blues, and the Dragoon Guards. The hostile cavalry, which Kellerman led forward, consisted chiefly of Cuirassiers. This steel-clad mass of French horsemen rode down some companies of German infantry, near La Haye Sainte, and flushed with success, they bounded onward to the ridge of the British position. The English Household Brigade, led on by the Earl of Uxbridge in person, spurred forward to the encounter, and in an instant, the two adverse lines of strong swordsmen, on their strong steeds, dashed furiously together. A desperate and sanguinary hand-to-hand fight ensued, in which the physical superiority of the Anglo-Saxon guided by equal skill, and animated with equal valor, was made decisively manifest. Back went the chosen cavalry of France; and after them, in hot pursuit, spurred the English Guards. They went forward as far and as fiercely as their comrades of the Union Brigade; and, like them, the Household cavalry suffered severely before they regained the British position, after their magnificent charge and adventurous pursuit.

Napoleon's grand effort to break the English left center, had thus completely failed; and his right wing was seriously weakened by the heavy loss which it had sustained. Hougoumont was still being assailed, and was still successfully resisting. Troops were now beginning to appear at the edge of the horizon on Napoleon's right, which he too well knew to be Prussian, though he endeavored to persuade his followers that they were Grouchy's men coming to their aid.

Grouchy was in fact now engaged at Wavre with his whole force, against Thielman's single Prussian corps, while the other three corps of the Prussian army were moving without opposition, save from the difficulties of the ground, upon Waterloo. Grouchy believed, on the 17th, and caused Napoleon to believe, that the Prussian army was retreating by lines of march remote from Waterloo upon Namur and Maestricht Napoleon learned early on the 18th, that there were Prussians in Wavre, and felt jealous about

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

the security of his own right. He accordingly, before he attacked the English, sent Grouchy orders to engage the Prussians at Wavre without delay, and to approach the main French army, so as to unite his communication with the Emperor's. Grouchy entirely neglected this last part of his instructions; and in attacking the Prussians whom he found at Wavre, he spread his force more and more towards his right, that is to say, in the direction most remote from Napoleon. He thus knew nothing of Blucher's and Bulow's flank march upon Waterloo, till six in the evening of the 18th, when he received a note which Soult by Napoleon's orders had sent off from the field of battle at Waterloo at one o'clock, to inform Grouchy that Bulow was coming over the heights of St. Lambert, on the Emperor's right flank, and directing Grouchy to approach and join the main army instantly and crush Bulow en flagrant delit. It was then too late for Grouchy to obey; but it is remarkable that as early as noon on the 18th, and while Grouchy had not proceeded as far as Wavre, he and his suite heard the sound of heavy cannonading in the direction of Planchenoit and Mont St. Jean. General Gerard, who was with Grouchy, implored him to march towards the cannonade, and join his operations with those of Napoleon, who was evidently engaged with the English. Grouchy refused to do so, or even to detach part, of his force in that direction. He said that his instructions were to fight the Prussians at Wavre. He marched upon Wavre and fought for the rest of the day with Thielman accordingly, while Blucher and Bulow were attacking the Emperor.

[I have heard the remark made that Grouchy twice had in his hands the power of changing the destinies of Europe, and twice wanted nerve to act: first when he flinched from landing the French army at Bantry Bay in 1796 (he was second in command to Hoche whose ship was blown back by a storm). and secondly, when he failed to lend his whole force from Wavre to the scene of decisive conflict at Waterloo. But such were the arrangements of the Prussian General, that even if Grouchy had marched upon Waterloo, he would have been held in check by the nearest Prussian corps, or certainly by the two nearest ones, while the rest proceeded to join Wellington. This, however, would have diminished the Number of Prussians who appeared at Waterloo, and (what is still more important) would have kept them back to a later hour.

There are some very valuable remarks on this subject in the 70th No. of the "Quarterly," in an article on the "Life of Blucher," usually attributed to Sir Francis Head. The Prussian writer, General Clausewitz, is there cited as "expressing a positive opinion, in which every military critic but a Frenchman must concur, that, even had the whole of Grouchy's force been at Napoleon's disposal, the Duke had nothing to fear pending Blucher's arrival.

HDTWHAT?INDEXSTEPHEN WANTON GOULD*FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULDGO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

"The Duke is often talked of as having exhausted his reserves in the action. This is another gross error, which Clausewitz has thoroughly disposed of. He enumerates the tenth British brigade, the division of Chasse, and the cavalry of Collaert, as having been little or not at all engaged; and he might have also added two brigades of light cavalry.' The fact, also, that Wellington did not at any part of the day order up Prince Frederick's corps from Hal, is a conclusive proof that the Duke was not so distressed as some writers have represented. Hal is not ten miles from the field of Waterloo.]

Napoleon had witnessed with bitter disappointment the rout of his troops, - foot, horse, and artillery, - which attacked the left center of the English, and the obstinate resistance which the garrison of Hougoumont opposed to all the exertions of his left wing. He now caused the batteries along the line of high ground held by him to be strengthened, and for some time an unrelenting and most destructive cannonade raged across the valley, to the partial cessation of other conflict. But the superior fire of the French artillery, though it weakened, could not break the British line, and more close and summary measures were requisite.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

It was now about half-past three o'clock; and though Wellington's army had suffered severely by the unremitting cannonade, and in the late desperate encounter, no part of the British position had been forced. Napoleon determined therefore to try what effect he could produce on the British center and right by charges of his splendid cavalry, brought on in such force that the Duke's cavalry could not check them. Fresh troops were at the same time sent to assail La Haye Sainte and Hougoumont, the possession of these posts being the Emperor's unceasing object. Squadron after squadron of the French cuirassiers accordingly ascended the slopes on the Duke's right, and rode forward with dauntless courage against the batteries of the British artillery in that part of the field. The artillery-men were driven from their guns, and the cuirassiers cheered loudly at their supposed triumph. But the Duke had formed his infantry in squares, and the cuirassiers charged in vain against; the impenetrable hedges of bayonets, while the fire from the inner ranks of the squares told with terrible effect on their squadrons. Time after time they rode forward with invariably the same result.: and as they receded from each attack the British artillery-men rushed forward from the centers of the squares, where they had taken refuge, and plied their guns on the retiring horsemen.

On came the whirlwind—like the last
But fiercest sweep of tempest-blast-
On came the whirlwind — steel-gleams broke
Like lightning through the rolling smoke;
The war was waked anew,
Three hundred cannon-mouths roar'd loud,
And from their throats, with flash and cloud,
Their showers of iron threw.
Beneath their fire, in full career,
Rush'd on the ponderous cuirassier,
The lancer couch'd his ruthless spear,
And hurrying as to havoc near,
The cohorts' eagles flew
In one dark torrent, broad and strong,
The advancing onset roll'd along,
Forth harbinger'd by fierce acclaim,
That, from the shroud of smoke and flame,
Peal'd wildly the imperial name.
But on the British heart were lost
The terrors of the charging host;
For not an eye the storm that view'd
Changed its proud glance of fortitude,
Nor was one forward footstep staid,
As dropp'd the dying and the dead.
Fast as their ranks the thunders tear,
Fast they renew'd each serried square;
And on the wounded and the slain
Closed their diminish'd files again,
Till from their line scarce spears' lengths three Emerging from the smoke they see
Helmet, and plume, and panoply,-
Then waked their fire at once!
Each musketeer's revolving knell,

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

As fast, as regularly fell,
As when they practice to display
Their discipline on festal day.
Then down went helm and lance,
Down were the eagle banners sent,
Down reeling steeds and riders went,
Corslets were pierced, and pennons rent;
And, to augment the fray,
Wheel'd full against their staggering flanks.
The English horsemen's foaming ranks
Forced their resistless way.
Then to the musket-knell succeeds
The clash of swords—the neigh of steeds—
As plies the smith his clanging trade,
Against the cuirass rang the blade;
And while amid their close array
The well-served cannon rent their way,
And while amid their scatter'd band
Raged the fierce rider's bloody brand,
Recoil'd in common rout and fear,
Lancer and guard and cuirassier,
Horsemen and foot,—a mingled host,
Their leaders fall'n, their standards lost. — Scott.

Nearly the whole of Napoleon's magnificent body of heavy cavalry was destroyed in these fruitless attempts upon the British right. But in another part of the field fortune favored him for a time. Two French columns of infantry from Donzelot's division took La Haye Sainte between six and seven o'clock, and the means were now given for organizing another formidable attack on the center of the Allies.

There was no time to be lost—Blucher and Bulow were beginning to press hard upon the French right. As early as five o'clock, Napoleon had been obliged to detach Lobau's infantry and Domont's horse to check these new enemies. They succeeded in doing so for a time; but as larger numbers of the Prussians came on the field, they turned Lobau's right flank, and sent a strong force to seize the village of Planchenoit, which, it will be remembered, lay in the rear of the French right.

The design of the Allies was not merely to prevent Napoleon from advancing upon Brussels, but to cut off his line of retreat and utterly destroy his army. The defense of Planchenoit therefore became absolutely essential for the safety of the French, and Napoleon was obliged to send his Young Guard to occupy that village, which was accordingly held by them with great gallantry against the reiterated assaults of the Prussian left, under Bulow. Three times did the Prussians fight their way into Planchenoit, and as often did the French drive them out: the contest was maintained with the fiercest desperation on both sides, such being the animosity between the two nations that quarter was seldom given or even asked. Other Prussian forces were now appearing on the field nearer to the English left; whom also Napoleon kept in check, by troops detached for that purpose. Thus a large part of the French army was now thrown back on a line at right angles with the line of that portion which still confronted and assailed the English position. But this portion was now numerically inferior to the force under the Duke of Wellington, which Napoleon had been assailing throughout the day, without gaining any other advantage than the capture of La Haye Sainte. It is true that, owing to the gross misconduct of the greater part of the Dutch and Belgian troops, the Duke was obliged to rely exclusively on his English and German soldiers, and the ranks of these had been fearfully thinned; but the survivors stood their ground heroically, and opposed a resolute front to every forward movement of their enemies.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

On no point of the British line was the pressure more severe than on Halkett's brigade in the right center, which was composed of battalions of the 30th, the 33rd, the 69th, and the 73rd British regiments. We fortunately can quote from the journal of a brave officer of the 30th, a narrative of what took place in this part of the field. The late Major Macready served at Waterloo in the light company of the 30th. The extent of the peril and the carnage which Halkett's brigade had to encounter, may be judged of by the fact that this light company marched into the field three officers and fifty-one men, and that at the end of the battle they stood one officer and ten men. Major Macready's blunt soldierly account of what he actually saw and felt, gives a far better idea of the terrific scene, than can be gained from the polished generalizations which the conventional style of history requires, or even from the glowing stanzas of the poet. During the earlier part of the day Macready and his light company were thrown forward as skirmishers in front of the brigade; but when the French cavalry commenced their attacks on the British right center, he and his comrades were ordered back. The brave soldier thus himself describes what passed:

"Before the commencement of this attack our company and the Grenadiers of the 73rd were skirmishing briskly in the low ground, covering our guns, and annoying those of the enemy. The line of tirailleurs opposed to us was not stronger than our own, but on a sudden they were reinforced by numerous bodies, and several guns began playing on us with canister. Our poor fellows dropped very fast, and Colonel Vigoureux, Rumley, and Pratt, were carried off badly wounded in about two minutes. I was now commander of our company. We stood under this hurricane of small shot till Halkett sent to order us in, and I brought away about a third of the light bobs; the rest were killed or wounded, and I really wonder how one of them escaped. As our bugler was killed, I shouted and made signals to move by the left, in order to avoid the fire of our guns, and to put as good a face upon the business as possible.

"When I reached Lloyd's abandoned guns, I stood near them for about a minute to contemplate the scene: it was grand beyond description. Hougomont and its wood sent up a broad flame through the dark masses of smoke that overhung the field; beneath this cloud the French were

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

indistinctly visible. Here a waving mass of long red feathers could be seen; there, gleams as from a sheet of steel showed that the cuirassiers were moving; 400 cannon were belching forth fire and death on every side; the roaring and shouting were indistinguishably commixed—together they gave me an idea of a laboring volcano. Bodies of infantry and cavalry were pouring down on us, and it was time to leave contemplation, so I moved towards our columns, which were standing up in square. Our regiment and 73rd formed one, and 33rd and 69th another; to our right beyond them were the Guards, and on our left the Hanoverians and German legion of our division. As I entered the rear face of our square I had to step over a body, and, looking down, recognized Harry Beere, an officer of our Grenadiers, who about an hour before shook hands with me, laughing, as I left the columns. I was on the usual terms of military intimacy with poor Harry — that is to say, if either of us had died a natural death, the other would have pitied him as a good fellow, and smiled at his neighbor as he congratulated him on the step; but seeing his Herculean frame and animated countenance thus suddenly stiff and motionless before me (I know not whence the feeling could originate, for I had just seen my dearest friend drop, almost with indifference), the tears started in my eyes as I sighed out, 'Poor Harry!' The tear was not dry on my cheek when poor Harry was no longer thought of. In a few minutes after, the enemy's cavalry galloped up and crowned the crest of our position. Our guns were abandoned, and they formed between the two brigades, about a hundred paces in our front. Their first charge was magnificent. As soon as they quickened their trot into a gallop, the cuirassiers bent their heads, so that the peaks of their helmets looked like visors, and they seemed cased in armor from the plume to the saddle. Not a shot was fired till they were within thirty yards, when the word was given, and our men fired away at them. The effect was magical. Through the smoke we could see helmets falling, cavaliers starting from their seats with convulsive springs as they received our balls, horses plunging and rearing in the agonies of fright and pain, and crowds of the soldiery dismounted, part of the squadron in retreat, but the more daring remainder backing their horses to force them on our bayonets. Our fire soon disposed of these gentlemen. The main body re-formed in our front, and rapidly and gallantly repeated their attacks. In fact, from this time (about four o'clock) till near six, we had a constant repetition of these brave but unavailing charges. There was no difficulty in repulsing them, but our ammunition decreased alarmingly. At length an artillery wagon galloped up, emptied two or three casks of cartridges

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

into the square, and we were all comfortable.

"The best cavalry is contemptible to a steady and well supplied infantry regiment; even our men saw this, and began to pity the useless perseverance of their assailants, and, as they advanced, would growl out, 'Here come these fools again!' One of their superior officers tried a ruse de guerre, by advancing and dropping his sword, as though he surrendered; some of us were deceived by him, but Halkett ordered the men to fire, and he coolly retired, saluting us. Their devotion was invincible. One officer whom we had taken prisoner was asked what force Napoleon might have in the field, and replied with a smile of mingled derision and threatening, 'Vous verrez bientôt sa force, messieurs.' A private cuirassier was wounded and dragged into the square; his only cry was, 'Tuez donc, tuez, tuez moi, soldats!' and as one of our men dropped dead close to him, he seized his bayonet, and forced it into his own neck; but this not dispatching him, he raised up his cuirass, and plunging the bayonet into his stomach, kept working it about till he ceased to breathe.

"Though we constantly thrashed our steel-clad opponents, we found more troublesome customers in the round shot and grape, which all this time played on us with terrible effect, and fully avenged the cuirassiers. Often as the volleys created openings in our square would the cavalry dash on, but they were uniformly unsuccessful. A regiment on our right seemed sadly disconcerted, and at one moment was in considerable confusion. Halkett rode out to them, and seizing their color, waved it over his head, and restored them to something like order, though not before his horse was shot under him. at the height of their unsteadiness we got the order to 'right face' to move to their assistance; some of the men mistook it for 'right about face,' and faced accordingly, when old Major M'Laine, 73rd, called out, 'No, my boys, it's "right face;" you'll never hear the right about as long as a French. bayonet is in front of you!' In a few moments he was mortally wounded. A regiment of light Dragoons, by their facings either the 16th or 23rd, came up to our left and charged the cuirassiers. We cheered each other as they passed us; they did all they could, but were obliged to retire after a few minutes at the saber. A body of Belgian cavalry advanced for the same purpose, but, on passing our square, they stopped short. Our noble Halkett rode out to them and offered to charge at their head; it was of no use; the Prince of Orange came up and exhorted them to do their duty, but in vain. They hesitated till a few shots whizzed through them, when they turned about, and galloped like fury, or, rather, like fear. As they passed the right face of our

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

square the men, irritated by their rascally conduct, unanimously took up their pieces and fired a volley into them, and many a good fellow was destroyed so cowardly.' "The enemy's cavalry were by this time nearly disposed of, and as they had discovered the inutility of their charges, they commenced annoying us by a spirited and well-directed carbine fire. While we were employed in this manner it was impossible to see farther than the columns on our right and left, but I imagine most of the army was similarly situated: all the British and Germans were doing their duty. About six o'clock I perceived some artillery trotting up our hill, which I knew by their caps to belong to the Imperial Guard. I had hardly mentioned this to a brother officer when two guns unlimbered within seventy paces of us, and, by their first discharge of grape, blew seven men into the center of the square. They immediately reloaded, and kept up a constant and destructive fire. It was noble to see our fellows fill up the gaps after every discharge. I was much distressed at this moment; having ordered up three of my light bobs, they had hardly taken their station when two of them fell horribly lacerated. One of them looked up in my face and uttered a sort of reproachful groan, and I involuntarily exclaimed, 'I couldn't help it.' We would willingly have charged these guns, but, had we deployed, the cavalry that flanked them would have made an example of us.

"The 'vivida vis animi' – the glow which fires one upon entering into action – had ceased; it was now to be seen which side had most bottom, and would stand killing longest. The Duke visited us frequently at this momentous period; he was coolness personified. As he crossed the rear face of our square a shell fell amongst our grenadiers, and he checked his horse to see its effect. Some men were blown to pieces by the explosion, and he merely stirred the rein of his charger, apparently as little concerned at their fate as at his own danger. No leader ever possessed so fully the confidence of his soldiery – wherever he appeared, a murmur of 'silence – stand to your front – here's the Duke,' was heard through the column, and then all was steady as on a parade. His aides-de-camp, Colonels Canning and Gordon, fell near our square, and the former died within it. As he came near us late in the evening, Halkett rode out to him and represented our weak state, begging his Grace to afford us a little support. 'It's impossible, Halkett,' said he. And our general replied, 'If so, sir, you may depend on the brigade to a man!'

All accounts of the battle show that the Duke was ever present at each spot where danger seemed the most pressing; inspiriting his men by a few homely and good humored words; and restraining their impatience to be

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

led forward to attack in their turn. – "Hard pounding this, gentlemen: we will try who can pound the longest;" was his remark to a battalion, on which the storm from the French guns was pouring with peculiar fury. Riding up to one of the squares, which had been dreadfully weakened, and against which a fresh attack of French cavalry was coming, he called to them: "Stand firm, my lads; what will they say of this in England?" As he rode along another part of the line where the men had for some time been falling fast beneath the enemy's cannonade, without having any close fighting, a murmur reached his ear of natural eagerness to advance and do something more than stand still to be shot at. The Duke called to them: "Wait a little longer, my lads, and you shall have your wish." The men were instantly satisfied and steady. It was, indeed, indispensable for the Duke to bide his time. The premature movement of a single corps down from the British line of heights, would have endangered the whole position, and have probably made Waterloo a second Hastings.

But the Duke inspired all under him with his own spirit of patient firmness. When other generals besides Halkett sent to him, begging for reinforcements, or for leave to withdraw corps which were reduced to skeletons the answer was the same: "It is impossible; you must hold your ground to the last man, and all will be well." He gave a similar reply to some of his staff, who asked instructions from him, so that, in the event of his falling, his successor might follow out his plan. He answered, "My plan is simply to stand my ground here to the last, man." His personal danger was indeed imminent throughout the day; and though he escaped without injury to himself or horse, one only of his numerous staff was equally fortunate.

"As far as the French accounts would lead us to infer, it appears that the losses among Napoleon's staff were comparatively trifling. On this subject, perhaps the marked contrast afforded by the following anecdotes, which have been related to me on excellent authority, may tend to throw some light. At one period of the battle, when the Duke was surrounded by several of his staff, it was very evident that the group had become the object of the fire of a French battery. The shot fell fast about them, generally striking and turning up the ground on which they stood. Their horses became restive, and 'Copenhagen' himself so fidgety, that the Duke, getting impatient, and having reasons for remaining on the spot, said to those about him, 'Gentlemen, we are rather too close together-better to divide a little.' subsequently. at another point of the line, an officer of artillery came up to the Duke, and stated that he had a distinct view of Napoleon, attended by his staff; that he had the guns of his battery well pointed in that direction, and was prepared to fire. His Grace instantly and emphatically exclaimed, 'No! no! I'll not allow it. It is not the business of commanders to be firing upon each other.'" -Siberne, vol. ii. p. 363.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

How different is this from Napoleon's conduct at the battle of Dresden, when he personally directed the fire of the battery, which, as he thought, killed the Emperor Alexander, and actually killed Moreau.

Napoleon had stationed himself during the battle on a little hillock near La Belle Alliance, in the center of the French position. Here he was seated, with a large table from the neighboring farm-house before him, on which maps and plans were spread; and thence with his telescope he surveyed the various points of the field. Soult watched his orders close at his left hand, and his staff was grouped on horseback a few paces in the rear. [Ouvrard, who attended Napoleon as chief commissary of the French army on that occasion told me that Napoleon was suffering from a complaint which made it very painful for him to ride.] Here he remained till near the close of the day, preserving the appearance at least of calmness, except some expressions of irritation which escaped him, when Ney's attack on the British left center was defeated. But now that the crisis of the battle was evidently approaching, he mounted a white Persian charger, which he rode in action because the troops easily recognized him by the horse's color. He had still the means of effecting a retreat. His Old Guard had yet taken no part in the action. Under cover of it, he might have withdrawn his shattered forces and retired upon the French frontier. But this would only have given the English and Prussians the opportunity of completing their junction; and he knew that other armies were fast coming up to aid them in a march upon Paris, if he should succeed in avoiding an encounter with them, and retreating upon the capital. A victory at Waterloo was his only alternative from utter ruin, and he determined to employ his Guard in one bold stroke more to make that victory- his own.

Between seven and eight o'clock, the infantry of the Old Guard was formed into two columns, on the declivity near La Belle Alliance. Ney was placed at their head. Napoleon himself rode forward to a spot by which his veterans were to pass; and, as they approached, he raised his arm, and pointed to the position of the Allies, as if to tell them that their path lay there. 'they answered with loud cries of "Vive l'Empereur!" and descended the hill from their own side, into that "valley of the shadow of death," while the batteries thundered with redoubled vigor over their heads upon the British line. The line of march of the columns of the Guard was directed between Hougomont and La Haye Sainte, against the British right center; and at the same time the French under Donzelot, who had possession of La Haye Sainte, commenced a fierce attack upon the British center, a little more to its left. This part of the battle has drawn less attention than the celebrated attack of the Old Guard; but

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

it formed the most perilous crisis for the allied army; and if the Young Guard had been there to support Donzelot, instead of being engaged with the Prussians at Planchenoit, the consequences to the Allies in that part of the field must have been most serious. The French tirailleurs, who were posted in clouds in La Haye Sainte, and the sheltered spots near it, picked off the artillerymen of the English batteries near them: and, taking advantage of the disabled state of the English guns, the French brought some field-pieces up to La Haye Sainte, and commenced firing grape from them on the infantry of the Allies, at a distance of not more than a hundred paces. The allied infantry here consisted of some German brigades, who were formed in squares, as it was believed that Donzelot had cavalry ready behind La Haye Sainte to charge them with, if they left that order of formation. In this state the Germans remained for some time with heroic fortitude, though the grapeshot was tearing gaps in their ranks, and the side of one square was literally blown away by one tremendous volley which the French gunners poured into it. The Prince of Orange in vain endeavored to lead some Nassau troops to the aid of the brave Germans. The Nassauers would not or could not face the French; and some battalions of Brunswickers, whom the Duke of Wellington had ordered up as a reinforcement, at first fell back, until the Duke in person rallied them, and led them on. Having thus barred the farther advance of Donzelot, the Duke galloped off to the right to head his men who were exposed to the attack of the Imperial Guard. He had saved one part of his center from being routed; but the French had gained ground and kept it; and the pressure on the Allied line in front of La Haye Sainte, was fearfully severe, until it; was relieved by the decisive success which the British in the right center achieved over the columns of the Guard. The British troops on the crest of that part of the position, which the first column of Napoleon's Guards assailed, were Maitland's brigade of British Guards, having Adam's brigade (which had been brought forward during the action) on their right. Maitland's men were lying down, in order to avoid as far as possible the destructive effect of the French artillery, which kept up an unrelenting fire from the opposite heights, until the first column of the Imperial Guard had advanced so far up the slope towards the British position, that any further firing of the French artillerymen would have endangered their own comrades. Meanwhile the British guns were not idle; but shot and shell ploughed fast through the ranks of the stately array of veterans that still moved imposingly on. Several of the French superior officers were at its head. Ney's horse was shot under him, but he still led the way on foot, sword in hand. The front of the massive column now was on the ridge of the hill. To their surprise they saw no troops before them. All they could discern through the smoke was a small band of mounted officers. One of them was the Duke himself. The French advanced to about fifty yards from where the British Guards were lying down, when the voice of one of the group of British officers was heard calling, as if to the ground before him, "Up, Guards, and at them!" It was the Duke who gave the order; and at the words, as if by magic, up started before them a line of the British Guards four deep, and in the most compact and perfect order. They poured an instantaneous volley upon the head of the French column, by which no less than three hundred of those chosen veterans are said to have fallen. The French officers rushed forwards; and, conspicuous in front of their men, attempted to deploy them into a more extended line, so as to enable them to reply with effect to the British fire. But Maitland's brigade kept showering in volley after volley with deadly rapidity. The decimated column grew disordered in its vain efforts to expand itself into a more efficient formation. The right word was given at the right moment to the British for the bayonet-charge, and the brigade sprang forward with a loud cheer against their dismayed antagonists. In an instant the compact mass of the French spread out into a rabble, and they fled back down the hill, pursued by Maitland's men, who, however, returned to their position in time to take part in the repulse of the second column of the Imperial Guard.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

This column also advanced with great spirit and firmness under the cannonade which was opened on it; and passing by the eastern wall of Hougoumont, diverged slightly to the right as it moved up the slope towards the British position, so as to approach nearly the same spot where the first column had surmounted the height, and been defeated. This enabled the British regiments of Adam's brigade to form a line parallel to the left flank of the French column; so that while the front of this column of French Guards had to encounter the cannonade of the British batteries, and the musketry of Maitland's Guards, its left flank was assailed with a destructive fire by a four-deep body of British infantry, extending all along it. In such a position all the bravery and skill of the French veterans were vain. The second column, like its predecessor, broke and fled taking at first a lateral direction along the front of the British line towards the rear of La Haye Sainte, and so becoming blended with the divisions of French infantry, which under Donzelot had been assailing the Allies so formidably in that quarter. The sight of the Old Guard broken and in flight checked the ardor which Donzelot's troops had hitherto displayed. They, too, began to waver. Adam's victorious brigade was pressing after the flying Guard, and now cleared away the assailants of the allied center. But the battle was not yet won Napoleon had still some battalions in reserve near La Belle Alliance. He was rapidly rallying the remains of the first column of his Guards, and he had collected into one body the remnants of the various corps of cavalry, which had suffered so severely in the earlier part of the day. The Duke instantly formed the bold resolution of now himself becoming the assailant, and leading his successful though enfeebled army forward, while the disheartening effect of the repulse of the Imperial Guard on the rest of the French army was still strong, and before Napoleon and Ney could rally the beaten

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

veterans themselves for another and a fiercer charge. As the close approach of the Prussians now completely protected the Duke's left, he had drawn some reserves of horse from that quarter, and he had a brigade of Hussars under Vivian fresh and ready at hand. Without a moment's hesitation he launched these against the cavalry near La Belie Alliance. The charge was as successful as it was daring: and as there was now no hostile cavalry to check the British infantry in a forward movement, the Duke gave the long-wished-for command for a general advance of the army along the whole line upon the foe. It was now past eight o'clock, and for nearly nine deadly hours had the British and German regiments stood unflinching under the fire of artillery, the charge of cavalry, and every variety of assault, which the compact columns or the scattered tirailleurs of the enemy's infantry could inflict. As they joyously sprang forward against the discomfited masses of the French, the setting sun broke through the clouds which had obscured the sky during the greater part of the day, and glittered on the bayonets of the Allies, while they poured down into the valley and towards the heights that were held by the foe. The Duke himself was among the foremost in the advance, and personally directed the movements against each body of the French that essayed resistance. He rode in front of Adam's brigade, cheering it forward, and even galloped among the most advanced of the British skirmishers, speaking joyously to the men, and receiving their hearty shouts of congratulation. The bullets of both friends and foes were whistling fast round him; and one of the few survivors of his staff remonstrated with him for thus exposing a life of such value. "Never mind," was the Duke's answer; - "Never mind, let them fire away; the battle's won, and my life is of no consequence now." And, indeed, almost the whole of the French host was now in irreparable confusion. The Prussian army was coming more and more rapidly forwards on their right; and the Young Guard, which had held Planchenoit so bravely, was at last compelled to give way. Some regiments of the Old Guard in vain endeavored to form in squares and stem the current. They were swept away, and wrecked among the waves of the flyers. Napoleon had placed himself in one of these squares: Marshal Soult, Generals Bertrand, Drouot, Corbineau, De Flahaut, and Gourgaud, were with him. The Emperor spoke of dying on the field, but Soult seized his bridle and turned his charger round, exclaiming, "Sire, are not the enemy already lucky enough?" [The Colonel states that he heard these details from General Gourgaud himself. The English reader will be reminded of Charles I's retreat from Naseby.] With the greatest difficulty, and only by the utmost exertion of the devoted officers round him, Napoleon cleared the throng of fugitives, and escaped from the scene of the battle and the war, which he and France had lost past all recovery. Meanwhile the Duke of Wellington still rode forward with the van of his victorious troops, until he reined up on the elevated ground near Rossormne. The daylight was now entirely gone; but the young moon had risen, and the light which it cast,

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

aided by the glare from the burning houses and other buildings in the line of the flying French and pursuing Prussians, enabled the Duke to assure himself that his victory was complete. He then rode back along the Charleroi road toward Waterloo: and near La Belie Alliance he met Marshal Blucher. Warm were the congratulations that were exchanged between the Allied Chiefs. It was arranged that the Prussians should follow up the pursuit and give the French no chance of rallying. Accordingly the British army, exhausted by its toils and suffering during that dreadful day, did not advance beyond the heights which the enemy had occupied. But the Prussians drove the fugitives before them in merciless chase throughout the night. Cannon, baggage, and all the materiel of the army were abandoned by the French and many thousands of the infantry threw away their arms to facilitate their escape. The ground was strewn for miles with the wrecks of their host. There was no rear-guard; nor was even the semblance of order attempted. An attempt at resistance was made at the bridge and village of Genappe, the first narrow pass through which the bulk of the French retired. The situation was favorable; and a few resolute battalions if ably commanded, might have held their pursuers at bay there for some considerable time. But despair and panic were now universal in the beaten army. At the first sound of the Prussian drums and bugles, Genappe was abandoned; and nothing thought of but headlong flight. The Prussians, under General Gneisenau, still followed and still slew; nor even when the Prussian infantry stopped in sheer exhaustion, was the pursuit given up. Gneisenau still pushed on with the cavalry; and by an ingenious stratagem, made the French believe that his infantry were still close on them, and scared them from every spot where they attempted to pause and rest. He mounted one of his drummers on a horse which had been taken from the captured carriage of Napoleon, and made him ride along with the pursuing cavalry, and beat the drum whenever they came on any large number of the French. The French thus fled, and the Prussians pursued through Quatre Bras, and even over the heights of Frasne; and when at length Gneisenau drew bridle, and halted a little beyond Frasne with the scanty remnant of keen hunters who had kept up the chase with him to the last, the French were scattered through Gosselies, Marchiennes, and Charleroi; and were striving to regain the left bank of the river Sambre, which they had crossed in such pomp and pride not a hundred hours before.

Part of the French left wing endeavored to escape from the field without blending with the main body of the fugitives who thronged the Genappe causeway. A French officer, who was among those who thus retreated across the country westward of the high-road, has vividly described what he witnessed and what he suffered. Colonel Lemonnier Delafosse served in the campaign of 1815 in General Foy's staff; and was consequently in that part of the French army at Waterloo, which acted against Hougoumont and the British right wing. When the column of the Imperial Guard made their great charge at the end of the day, the troops of

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Foy's division advanced in support of them, and Colonel Lemonnier Delafosse describes the confident hopes of victory and promotion with which he marched to that attack, and the fearful carnage and confusion of the assailants, amid which he was helplessly hurried back by his flying comrades. He then narrates the closing scene:

"Near one of the hedges of Hougoumont farm without even a drummer to beat the rappel, we succeeded in rallying under the enemy's fire 300 men: the were nearly all that remained of our splendid division. Thither came together a band of generals. There was Reille, whose horse had been shot under him; there we D'Erlon, Bachelu, Foy, Jamin, and others. All we gloomy and sorrowful, like vanquished men. The words were, – 'Here is all that is left of my corps, my division, of my brigade. I, myself.' We had seen the fall of Duhesme, of Pelet-de-Morvan, of Michel – generals who had found a glorious death. My General Foy, had his shoulder pierced through by a musket-ball and out of his whole staff two officers only were left to him, Cahour Duhay and I. Fate had spared me in the midst of so many dangers, though the first charger I rode had been shot and had fallen on me.

"The enemy's horse were coming down on us, and our little group was obliged to retreat. What had happened to our division of the left wing had taken place all along the line. The movement of the hostile cavalry which inundated the whole plain, had demoralized our soldiers, who seeing all regular retreat of the army cut off, strove each man to effect one for himself. At each instant the road became more encumbered. Infantry, cavalry, and artillery, were pressing along pell-mell jammed together like a solid mass. Figure to yourself 40,000 men struggling and thrusting themselves along a single causeway. We could not take that way without destruction; so the generals who had collected together near the Hougoumont hedge dispersed across the fields. General Foy alone remained with the 300, men whom he had gleaned from the field of battle, and marched at their head. Our anxiety was to withdraw from the scene of action without being confounded with the fugitives. Our general wished to retreat like a true soldier. Seeing three lights in the southern horizon, like beacons, General Foy asked me what I thought of the position of each. I answered 'The first to the left is Genappe, the second is at Bois-de-Bossu, near the farm of Quatre Bras; the third is at Gosselies.' 'Let us march on tire second one, then,' replied Foy, 'and let no obstacle stop us – take the head of the column, and do not lose sight of the guiding light.' Such was his order, and I strove to obey.

"After all the agitation and the incessant din of a long day of battle, how imposing was the stillness of that night! We proceeded on our sad and lonely march. We were a prey to the most cruel reflections, we: were humiliated, we were hopeless; but not a word of complaint was heard. We walked silently as a troop of mourners, and it might have been said that we were attending the funeral of our country's glory. Suddenly that stillness was broken by a challenge, – 'Qui vive?' 'France!'

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

'Kellerman!' 'Foy!' 'Is it you, General? come nearer to us.' At that moment we were passing over a little hillock, at the foot of which was a hut, in which Kellerman and some of his officers had halted. They came out to join us. Foy said to me, 'Kellerman knows the country: he has been along here before with his cavalry; we had better follow him.' But we found that the direction which Kellerman chose was towards the first light, towards Genappe. That led to the causeway which our general rightly wished to avoid. I went to the left to reconnoiter, and was soon convinced that such was the case. It was then that I was able to form a full idea of the disorder of a routed army. What a hideous spectacle! The mountain torrent, that uproots and whirls along with it every momentary obstacle, is a feeble image of that heap of men, of horses, of equipages, rushing one upon another; gathering before the least obstacle which dams up their way for a few seconds, only to form a mass which overthrows everything in the path which it forces for itself. Woe to him whose footing failed him in that deluge! He was crushed, trampled to death! I returned and told my general what I had seen, and he instantly abandoned Kellerman, and resumed his original line of march.

"Keeping straight across the country over fields and the rough thickets, we at last arrived at the Bois-de-Bossu, where we halted. My General said to me, 'Go to the farm of Quatre Bras and announce that we are here. The Emperor or Soult must be there. Ask for orders, and recollect that I am waiting here for you. The lives of these men depend on your exactness.' To reach the farm I was obliged to cross the high road: I was on horseback, but nevertheless was borne away by the crowd that fled along the road, and it was long ere I could extricate myself and reach the farmhouse. General Lobau was there with his staff, resting in fancied security. They thought that their troops had halted there; but, though a halt had been attempted, the men had soon fled forwards, like their comrades of the rest of the army. The shots of the approaching Prussians were now heard; and I believe that General Lobau was taken prisoner in that farmhouse. I left him to rejoin my general, which I did with difficulty. I found him alone. His men, as they came near the current of flight, were infected with the general panic, and fled also.

"What was to be done? Follow that crowd of run aways General Foy would not hear of it. There were five of us still with him, all officers. He had been wounded at about five in the afternoon, and the wound had not been dressed. He suffered severely; but his moral courage was unbroken. 'Let us keep,' he said, 'a line parallel to the high road, and work our way hence as we best can.' A foot-track was before us, and we followed it.

"The moon shone out brightly, and revealed the full wretchedness of the tableau which met our eyes. A brigadier and four cavalry soldiers, whom we met with, formed our escort. We marched on; and, as the noise grew more distant, I thought that we were losing the parallel of the high way. Finding that we had the moon more and more on the left, I felt sure of this, and

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

mentioned it to the General. Absorbed in thought, he made me no reply. We came in front of a windmill, and endeavored to procure some information; but we could not gain an entrance, or make any one answer, and we continued our nocturnal march. At last we entered a village, but found every door closed against us, and were obliged to use threats in order to gain admission into a single house. The poor woman to whom it belonged, more dead than alive, received us as if we had been enemies. Before asking where we were, 'Food, give us some food!' was our cry. Bread and butter and beer were brought, and soon disappeared before men who had fasted for twenty-four hours. A little revived, we ask, 'Where are we? What is the name of this village?' 'Vieville.'

"On looking at the map, I saw that in coming to that village we had leaned too much to the right, and that we were in the direction of Mons. In order to reach the Sambre at the bridge of Marchiennes, we had four leagues to traverse; and there was scarcely time to march the distance before daybreak. I made a villager act as our guide, and bound him by his arm to my stirrup. He led us through Roux to Marchiennes. The poor fellow ran alongside of my horse the whole way. It was cruel, but necessary to compel him, for we had not an instant to spare. At six in the morning we entered Marchiennes.

"Marshal Ney was there. Our general went to see him, and to ask what orders he had to give. Ney was asleep; and, rather than rob him of the first repose he had had for four days, our General returned to us without seeing him. And, indeed, what orders could Marshal Ney have given? The whole army was crossing the Sambre, each man where and how he chose; some at Charleroi, some at Marchiennes. We were about to do the same thing. When once beyond the Sambre we might safely halt; and both men and horses were in extreme need of rest. We passed through Thuin; and finding a little copse near the road, we gladly sought its shelter. While our horses grazed, we lay down and slept. How sweet was that sleep after the fatigues of the long day of battle, and after the night of retreat more painful still! We rested in the little copse till noon, and sat there watching the wrecks of our army defile along the road before us. It was a soul-harrowing sight! Yet the different arms of the service had resumed a certain degree of order amid their disorder; and our General, feeling his strength revive, resolved to follow a strong column of cavalry which was taking the direction of Beaumont, about four leagues off: We drew near Beaumont, when suddenly a regiment of horse was seen debauching from a wood on our left. The column that we followed shouted out, 'The Prussians! The Prussians!' and galloped off in utter disorder. The troops that thus alarmed them were not a tenth part of their number, and were in reality our own 8th Hussars, who wore green uniforms. But the panic had been brought even thus far from the battle-field, and the disorganized column galloped into Beaumont, which was already crowded with our infantry. We were obliged to follow that debacle. On entering Beaumont we chose a house of superior appearance, and demanded of the mistress of it refreshments for the General. 'Alas!' said the lady, 'this is the tenth General who has been to this house since this morning. I have nothing left, Search, if you please, and see. Though unable to find food for the General, I persuaded him to take his coat off and let me examine his wound. The bullet had gone through the twists of the left epaulette, and penetrating the skin had run round the shoulder without injuring the bone. The lady of the house made some lint for me; and without any great degree of surgical skill I succeeded in dressing the wound.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

"Being still anxious to procure some food for the General and ourselves, if it were but a loaf of ammunition bread, I left the house and rode out into the town. I saw pillage going on in every direction: open caissons, stripped and half-broken, blocked up the streets. The pavement was covered with plundered and torn baggage. Pillagers and runaways, such were all the comrades I met with. Disgusted at them, I strove, sword in hand, to stop one of the plunderers; but, more active than I, he gave me a bayonet stab in my left arm, in which I fortunately caught his thrust, which had been aimed full at my body. He disappeared among the crowd, through which I could not force my horse. My spirit of discipline had made me forget that in such circumstances the soldier is a mere wild beast. But to be wounded by a fellow-countryman after having passed unharmed through all the perils of Quatre Bras and Waterloo! – this did seem hard, indeed. I was trying to return to General Foy, when another horde of flyers burst into Beaumont, swept me into the current of their flight, and hurried me out of the town with them. Until I received my wound I had preserved my moral courage in full force; but now, worn out with fatigue, covered with blood and suffering severe pain from the wound, I own that I gave way to the general demoralization, and let myself be inertly borne along with the rushing mass. At last I reached Landrecies, though I know not how or when. But I found there our Colonel Hurday, who had been left behind there in consequence of an accidental injury from a carriage. He took me with him to Paris, where I retired amid my family, and got cured of my wound, knowing nothing of the rest of political and military events that were taking place."

No returns ever were made of the amount of the French loss in the battle of Waterloo; but it must have been immense, and may be partially judged of by the amount of killed and wounded in the armies of the conquerors. On this subject both the Prussian and British official evidence is unquestionably full and authentic. The figures are terribly emphatic.

Of the army that fought under the Duke of Wellington nearly 15,000 men were killed and wounded on this single day of battle. Seven thousand Prussians also fell at Waterloo. At such a fearful price was the deliverance of Europe purchased.

By none was the severity of that loss more keenly felt than by our great deliverer himself. As may be seen in Major Macready's narrative, the Duke, while the battle was raging, betrayed no sign of emotion at the most ghastly casualties; but, when all

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

was over, the sight of the carnage with which the field was covered, anti still more, the sickening spectacle of the agonies of the wounded men who lay moaning in their misery by thousands and tens of thousands, weighed heavily on the spirit of the victor, as he rode back across the scene of strife. On reaching his head-quarters in the village of Waterloo, the Duke inquired anxiously after the numerous friends who had been round him in the morning, and to whom he was warmly attached. Many he was told were dead; others were lying alive, but mangled and suffering, in the houses round him. It is in our hero's own words alone that his feelings can be adequately told. In a letter written by him almost immediately after his return from the field, he thus expressed himself: – "My heart is broken by the terrible loss I have sustained in my old friends and companions, and my poor soldiers. Believe me, nothing except a battle lost, can be half so melancholy as a battle won, the bravery of my troops has hitherto saved me from the greater evil; but to -win such a battle as this of Waterloo, at the expense of so many gallant friends, could only be termed a heavy misfortune but for the result to the public."

It is not often that a successful General in modern warfare is called on, like the victorious commander of the ancient Greek armies, to award a prize of superior valor to one of his soldiers. Such was to some extent. the case with respect to the battle of Waterloo. In the August of 1818, an English clergyman offered to confer a small annuity on some Waterloo soldier, to be named by the Duke. The Duke requested Sir John Byng to choose a man from the 2nd Brigade of Guards, which had so highly distinguished itself in the defense of Hougoumont. There were many gallant candidates, but the election fell on Sergeant James Graham, of the light company of the Coldstream. This brave man had signalized himself, throughout the day, in the defense of that important post, and especially in the critical struggle that took place at. the period when the French, who had gained the wood, the orchard, and detached garden, succeeded in bursting open a gate of the courtyard of the chateau itself, and rushed in in large masses, confident of carrying all before them. A hand-to-hand fight, of the most desperate character, was kept up between them and the Guards for a few minutes; but at last the British bayonets prevailed, Nearly all the Frenchmen who had forced their way in were killed on the spot; and, as the few survivors ran back, five of the Guards, Colonel Macdonnell, Captain Wyndham, Ensign Gooch, Ensign Hervey, and Sergeant Graham, by sheer strength, closed the gate again, in spite of the efforts of the French from without, and effectually barricaded it against further assaults. Over and through the loopholed wall of the courtyard, the English garrison now kept up a deadly fire of musketry, which was fiercely answered by the French, who swarmed round the curtilage like ravening wolves. Shells, too, from their batteries, were falling fast into the besieged place, one of which set part of the mansion and some of the out-buildings on fire. Graham, who was at this time

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

standing near Colonel Macdonnell at the wall, and who had shown the most perfect steadiness and courage, now asked permission of his commanding officer to retire for a moment. Macdonnell replied, "By all means, Graham; but I wonder you should ask leave now." Graham answered, "I would not, sir, only my brother is wounded, and he is in that out-building there, which has just caught fire." Laying down his musket, Graham ran to the blazing spot, lifted up his brother, and laid him in a ditch. Then he was back at his post, and was plying his musket against the French again, before his absence was noticed, except by his colonel.

Many anecdotes of individual prowess have been preserved: but of all the brave men who were in the British army on that eventful day, none deserve more honor for courage and indomitable resolution than Sir Thomas Picton, who, as has been mentioned, fell in repulsing the great attack of the French upon the British left center. It was not until the dead body was examined after the battle, that the full heroism of Picton was discerned. He had been wounded on the 16th, at Quatre Bras, by a musket-ball, which had broken two of his ribs, and caused also severe internal injuries; but he had concealed the circumstance, evidently in expectation that another and greater battle would be fought in a short time, and desirous to avoid being solicited to absent himself from the field. His body was blackened and swollen by the wound, which must have caused severe and incessant pain; and it was marvelous how his spirit had borne him up, and enabled him to take part in the fatigues and duties of the field. The bullet which, on the 18th, killed the renowned leader of "the Fighting Division" of the Peninsula, entered the head near the left temple, and passed through the brain; so that Picton's death must have been instantaneous.

One of the most interesting narratives of personal adventure at Waterloo, is that of Colonel Frederick Ponsonby, of the 12th Light Dragoons, who was severely wounded when Vandeleur's brigade, to which he belonged, attacked the French lancers, in order to bring off the Union Brigade, which was retiring from its memorable charge. The 12th, like those whom they rescued, advanced much further against the French position than prudence warranted. Ponsonby, with many others, was speared by a reserve of Polish lancers, and left for dead on the field. It is well to refer to the description of what he suffered (as he afterwards gave it, when almost miraculously recovered from his numerous wounds), because his fate, or worse, was the fate of thousands more; and because the narrative of the pangs of an individual, with whom we can identify ourselves, always comes more home to us than a general description of the miseries of whole masses. His tale may make us remember what are the horrors of war as well as its glories. It is to be remembered that the operations, which he refers to, took place about three o'clock in the day, and that the fighting went on for at least five hours more. After describing how he and his men charged through the French whom they first encountered, and went against other enemies, he

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

states:—

"We had no sooner passed them than we were ourselves attacked, before we could form, by about. 300 Polish lancers, who had hastened to their relief the French artillery pouring in among us a heavy fire of grape, though for one of our men they killed three of their own. "In the melee I was almost instantly disabled in both arms, losing first my sword, and then my reins, and followed by a few men, who were presently cut down, no quarter being allowed, asked, or given, I was carried along by my horse, till, receiving a blow from a saber, I fell senseless on my face to the ground.

"Recovering, I raised myself a little to look round, being at that time, I believe, in a condition to get up and run away; when a lancer passing by, cried out, 'Tu n'est pas mort, coquin!' and struck his lance through my back. My head dropped, the blood gushed into my mouth, a difficulty of breathing came on, and I thought all was over.

"Not long afterwards (it was impossible to measure time, but I must have fallen in less than ten minutes after the onset), a tirailleur stopped to plunder me, threatening my life. I directed him to a small sidepocket, in which he found three dollars, all I had; but he continued to threaten, and I said he might search me: this he did immediately, unloosing my stock and tearing open my waistcoat, and leaving me in a very uneasy posture.

"But he, was no sooner gone, than an officer bringing up some troops, to which probably the tirailleur belonged, and happening to halt where I lay, stooped down and addressed me, saying, he feared I was badly wounded; I said that I was, and expressed a wish to be removed to the rear. He said it was against their orders to remove even their own men; but that if they gained the day (and he understood that the Duke of Wellington was killed, and that some of our battalions had surrendered), every attention in his power would be shown me. I complained of thirst, and he held his brandy bottle to my lips, directing one of the soldiers to lay me straight on my side, and place a knapsack under my head. He then passed on into action — soon, perhaps, to want, though not receive, the same assistance; and I shall never know to whose generosity I was indebted, as I believe, for my life. Of what rank he was, I cannot say: he wore a great coat. By-and-by another tirailleur came up, a fine young man, full of ardor. He knelt down, and fired over me, loading and firing many times, and conversing with me all the while. "The Frenchman with strange coolness, informed Ponsonby of how he was shooting, and what he thought of the progress of the battle. "At last he ran off, exclaiming, 'You will probably not be sorry to hear that we are going to retreat. Good day, my friend.' It was dusk," Ponsonby adds, "when two squadrons of Prussian cavalry, each of them two deep, came across the valley, and passed over me in full trot, lifting me from the ground, and tumbling me about cruelly. The clatter of their approach, and the apprehensions they excited, may be imagined; a gun taking that direction must have destroyed me.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

"The battle was now at an end, or removed to a distance. The shouts, the imprecations, the outcries of 'Vive l'Empereur!' the discharge of musketry and cannon, were over; and the groans of the wounded all around me, became every moment more and more audible. I thought the night would never end.

Much about this time I found a soldier of the Royals lying across my legs: he had probably crawled thither in his agony; and his weight, his convulsive motions, and the air issuing through a wound in his side, distressed me greatly; the last circumstance most of all, as I had a wound of the same nature myself.

"It was not a dark night, and the Prussians were wandering about to plunder; the scene in Ferdinand Count Fathom came into my mind, though no women appeared. Several stragglers looked at me, as they passed by, one after another, and at last one of them stopped to examine me. I told him as well as I could, for I spoke German very imperfectly, that I was a British officer, and had been plundered already; he did not desist, however, and pulled me about roughly.

"An hour before midnight I saw a man in an English uniform walking towards me. He was, I suspect, on the same errand, and he came and looked in my face. I spoke instantly, telling him who I was, and assuring him of a reward if he would remain by me. He said he belonged to the 40th, and had missed his regiment: he released me from the dying soldier, and being unarmed, took up a sword from the ground, and stood over me, pacing backwards and forwards.

"Day broke; and at six o'clock in the morning some English were seen at a distance, and he ran to them. A messenger being sent off to Hervey, a cart came for me, and I was placed in it, and carried to the village of Waterloo, a mile and a half off, and laid in the bed from which, as I understood afterwards, Gordon had been just carried out. I had received seven wounds: a surgeon slept in my room, and I was saved by excessive bleeding."

Major Macready, in the journal already cited, justly praises the deep devotion to their Emperor which marked the French at Waterloo. Never, indeed, had the national bravery of the French people been more nobly shown. One soldier in the French ranks was seen, when his arm was shattered by a cannon-ball, to wrench it off with the other; and throwing it up in the air, he exclaimed to his comrades, "Vive l'Empereur jusqu'à la mort!" Colonel Lemonnier Delafosse mentions in his Memoirs, that at the beginning of the action, a French soldier who had had both legs carried off by a cannon-ball, was borne past the front of Foy's division, and called out to them, "Ce n'est rien, camarades; Vive l'Empereur! Gloire à la France!" The same officer, at the end of the battle, when all hope was lost, tells us that he saw a French grenadier, blackened with powder, and with his clothes torn and stained, leaning on his musket, and immovable as a statue. The colonel called to him to join his comrades and retreat; but the grenadier showed him his musket and his hands; and said "These hands have with this musket used to-day more than twenty packets of cartridges: it was more than my share: I supplied myself with ammunition from the dead. Leave me to die here on the held of battle. It is not courage that fails me, but strength." Then, as Colonel Delafosse left him, the soldier stretched himself on the ground to meet his fate, exclaiming, "Tout est perdu! Pauvre France!" The gallantry of the French officers at least equaled that of their men. Ney, in particular, set the example of the most daring courage. Here, as in every French army in which he ever served or commanded, he was "le brave des braves." Throughout the day he was in the front of the battle; and was one of the very last Frenchmen who quitted the field. His horse was killed under him in the last attack made on the English position; but he was seen on foot, his clothes torn with bullets, his face smirched with powder, striving, sword in hand, first to urge his men forward, and at last to check their flight.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

There was another brave general of the French army, whose velour and good conduct on that day of disaster to his nation, should never be unnoticed, when the story of Waterloo is recounted. This was General Pelet, who, about seven in the evening, led the first battalion of the 2nd regiment of the Chasseurs of the Guard to the defense of Planchenoit; and on whom Napoleon personally urged the deep importance of maintaining possession of that village. Pelet and his men took their post in the central part of the village, and occupied the church and churchyard in great strength. There they repelled every assault of the Prussians, who in rapidly increasing numbers rushed forward with infuriated pertinacity. They held their post till the utter rout of the main army of their comrades was apparent, and the victorious allies were thronging around Planchenoit. Then Pelet and his brave chasseurs quitted the churchyard, and retired with steady march, though they suffered fearfully from the moment they left their shelter, and Prussian cavalry as well as infantry dashed fiercely after them. Pelet kept together a little knot of 250 veterans, and had the eagle covered over, and borne along in the midst of them. At one time the inequality of the ground caused his ranks to open a little; and in an instant, the Prussian horsemen were on them, and striving to capture the eagle. Captain Siborne relates the conduct of Pelet with the admiration worthy of one brave soldier for another:—

"Pelet, taking advantage of a spot of ground which afforded them some degree of cover against the fire of grape by which they were constantly assailed, halted the standard-bearer, and called out, "A moi, chasseurs! Sauvons l'aigle ou mourons autour d'elle!" The chasseurs immediately pressed around him, forming what is usually termed the rallying square, and, lowering their bayonets, succeeded in repulsing the charge of cavalry. Some guns were then brought to bear upon them, and subsequently a brisk fire of musketry; but notwithstanding the awful sacrifice which was thus offered up in defense of their precious charge, they succeeded in reaching the main line of retreat, favored by the universal confusion, as also by the general obscurity which now prevailed; and thus saved alike the eagle and the honor of the regiment."

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

French writers do injustice to their own army and general, when they revive malignant calumnies against Wellington, and speak of his having blundered into victory. No blunderer could have successfully encountered such troops as those of Napoleon, and under such a leader. It is superfluous to cite against these cavils the testimony which other continental critics have borne to the high military genius of our illustrious chief. I refer to one only, which is of peculiar value, on account of the quarter whence it comes. It is that of the great German writer, Niebuhr, whose accurate acquaintance with every important scene of modern as well as ancient history was unparalleled: and who was no mere pedant, but a man practically versed in active life, and had been personally acquainted with most of the leading men in the great events of the early part of this century. Niebuhr, in the passage which I allude to, after referring to the military "blunders" of Mithridates, Frederick the Great, Napoleon, Pyrrhus, and Hannibal, uses these remarkable words, "The Duke of Wellington is, I believe, the: only general in whose conduct of war we cannot discover any important mistake." Not that it is to be supposed that the Duke's merits were simply of a negative order, or that he was merely a cautious, phlegmatic general, fit only for defensive warfare, as some recent French historians have described him. Or the contrary, he was bold, even to audacity, when boldness was required.

"The intrepid advance and fight at Assaye, the crossing of the Douro, and the movement on Talavera in 1809, the advance to Madrid and Burgos in 1812, the actions before Bayonne in 1813, and the desperate stand made at Waterloo itself, when more tamely-prudent generals would have retreated beyond Brussels, place this beyond a doubt."

The overthrow of the French military power at Waterloo was so complete, that the subsequent events of the brief campaign have little interest. Lamartine truly says: "This defeat left nothing undecided in future events, for victory had given judgment. The war began and ended in a single battle." Napoleon himself recognized instantly and fully the deadly nature of the blow which had been dealt to his empire. In his flight from the battle-field he first halted at Charleroi, but the approach of the pursuing Prussians drove him thence before he had rested there an hour. With difficulty getting clear of the wrecks of his own army, he reached Philippeville, where he remained a few hours, and sent orders to the French generals in the various extremities of France, to converge with their troops upon Paris. He ordered Soult to collect the fugitives of his own force, and lead them to Laon. He then hurried forward to Paris, and reached

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

his capital before the news of his own defeat. But the stern truth soon transpired. At the demand of the Chambers of Peers and Representatives he abandoned the throne by a second and final abdication on the 22nd of June. On the 29th of June he left the neighborhood of Paris, and proceeded to Rochefort in the hope of escaping to America. But the coast was strictly watched, and on the 15th of July the ex-emperor surrendered himself on board of the English man-of-war the Bellerophon.

Meanwhile the allied armies had advanced steadily upon Paris driving before them Grouchy's corps, and the scanty force which Soult had succeeded in rallying at Laon. Cambray, Peronne and other fortresses were speedily captured; and by the 29th of June the invaders were taking their positions in front of Paris. The Provisional Government, which acted in the French capital after the emperor's abdication, opened negotiations with the allied chiefs. Blucher, in his quenchless hatred of the French, was eager to reject all proposals for a suspension of hostilities, and to assault and storm the city. But the sager and calmer spirit of Wellington prevailed over his colleague; the entreated armistice was granted; and on the 3rd of July the capitulation of Paris terminated the War of the Battle of Waterloo.

In closing our observations on this the last of the Decisive Battles of the World, it is pleasing to contrast the year which it signalized with the year that is now [written in June 1851.] passing over our heads. We have not (and long may we be without) the stern excitement of martial strife, and we see no captive standards of our European neighbors brought in triumph to our shrines. But we behold an infinitely prouder spectacle. We see the banners of every civilized nation waving over the arena of our competition with each other, in the arts that minister to our race's support and happiness, and destruction. not to its suffering and

"Peace hath her Victories
No less renowned than War;"

and no battle-field ever witnessed a victory more noble, than that, which England, under her Sovereign Lady and her Royal Prince, is now teaching the peoples of the earth to achieve over selfish prejudices and international feuds, in the great cause of the general promotion of the industry and welfare of mankind.

"A victory described in detail is indistinguishable from a defeat."

— Jean-Paul Sartre

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 18th of 6 M 1815 / Our morning meeting was large & I

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

thought favor'd - Hannah Dennis appeared rather larger than usual for her & quite as sweet then D Buffum added by way of supplant - In the Afternoon we were silent & to my feelings a solid & in a very good degree a devotional opportunity. I believe some minds were refreshed, & many who were not in membership wore countenances that bespoke reverence. - We took tea at Father Rodmans with Wm S Burling - & while we were there we heard that Wm Wright & his wife son of Isaac Wright of N York had arrived & knowing them to be acquainted to Uncle & Aunt Stanton We went with Wm Burling to their lodgings & found them pleasant & agreeable friends. We invited them to tea with us tomorrow if I did not sail for NYork which I expect to do - I do a little regret the prospect of so soon leaving town on their account -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 19, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 19th of 6th M / Wm Wright & wife came ?? as we expected - tomorrow perhaps may bring it ?? / I have been ready all day that when called upon by the packet master but there has been but little wind which was pre ahead - Our fr Jemima Shotwell & company returned this Afternoon from Providence & we shall probably be fellow passengers to NYork [this entry is in a very different hand, very small, and as tho' he wrote with his left hand?]

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 20, Tuesday: Pursuant to the decision of the Congress of Vienna, a Polish kingdom, in personal union with Russia, was proclaimed in Warsaw.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 20th of 6 M 1815 / At 1 / 2 past 9 OClock this mornig went on board the B D Jones Capt Cahoon for NYork intending a visit to my Uncle & Aunt Stanton of that place. - At 11 OC we reached the light house - Dined at 10 Oc while off Point Judith & find our company very agreeable, some of their names follow Wm S Burling Thos Rotch Jr Caleb Mackeel Benj Smith, Jemima Shotwell, Ann Yarnall, Sarah Sutton & several other members who do not seem to mingle much with us. Tea at 7 OC & at sunset not quite up to Watch Hill. J Shotwell & Sarah Sutton very sea Sick, & I find myself a little threatened with it, the deck agrees better with my head than the Cabin & I keep mostly upon it. This has been a day of new experiences to me, tho' the surrounding scenes delight the eye & the company on board are very agreeable conversattion runing on subjects various & mostly inteesting, yet my dear Hannah & our little son have occupied much of my thoughts. - late in the eveng retired to my Birth -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

June 21, Wednesday: The loser Napoléon Bonaparte arrived in Paris. The Chambers detached themselves from the Emperor and called for his abdication.

News of the outcome of the battle at Waterloo reached London.

Quedlinburg was reintegrated into Prussia. The Counties of Stolberg-Rossla and Stolberg-Wernigerode were annexed by Prussia.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 21 of 6 M 1815 / Rose this morning at 3 OClock & went on deck & saw several Lights yet Burning This is the first night I have ever spent on the Water & considering all circumstances it was much more comfortable than I expected - The Capt says we have gained but about 20 Miles all night, the wind still light & the current against us. A little After sun rise & found ourselves at the west end of Plumb Island those who were sick Yesterday seem very cheerful this morning - At 8 OC Breakfast - At 10 OC off the horse & Lyon which they say is half way to NYork- At One OC we dined & while sitting at the table the wind left us & what little we have had thro' the day has been against us our progress consequently very slow, but our vessel outsails all we meet

After dinner finding my head complaining took a refreshing nap - rose & found the wind breesing up - enter'd into pleasant conversation with several of the passengers in the Cabin - Was called on deck to see a large school of Porpoises playing round the vessel. This sight amused us for some time & to the women was quite a novelty. They appearing to take an interest in the scene Sarah Sutton particularly -

The whole of the afternoon has been spent in pleasant conversation, mostly of an interesting nature but I am afraid some of us have indulged in lightness rather further than is best - I feel the Satisfaction of having kept a weight in the scale against it - nothing however has occurd which leaves much uneasiness, only a little apprehensiion of what might or maybe - The evening also was spent pleasantly, & several on board exercised their poetic talents -- At 9 OC of Huntington Light, at 10 OC retired to rest -5th day 22 of 6 M 1815 / At Sunrise off Hempstead Harbor on L I - Rose this mong under a sense of favor which I experienced most of yesterday. how pleasant to feel the heart tender & an evidence that Divine goodness is still near.

At 10 OC of Lands Light - of this place Benj Smith made an handsome sketch with his pencil which pleased our women Passengers, he took also sketches of several other places & gave them as mementos of our Passage - Settled with the Capt & paid him $9 for my Passage - At 10 OC of White stone ferry on L Island we was in so near as to see a carriage land from the boat with a number of Friends; there appeared to be an old friendly[?] man

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

& several plain women, who when the carriage was tackled [harnessed to the horses] jumped in very sprightly & rode up the road a quick pace through a very pleasant tract of country

—
While I view the rich & costly houses & pleasant situations around my mind is forcibly impressed with a sense that "Here is not the place of our rest" tho' we may be permitted to partake a little of the Pleasant things of this life as we pass along through it yet those which are unfading should be held & ever remembered as the Primary pursuit of our lives -- At 12 OC we passed Hurl Gate, [Hell Gate] about this place & up to NYork nature & art combined, have rendered the scenery picturesque & beautiful -- were I to attempt it my discriptive powers would fall far short of justice, several places of which I have heard much spoken, were pointed out, particularly the late Doctor Baker about a mile beyond the Gate we looked & saw a small sloop get nearly upset in or near the pot, this discomposed our nerves for a few minutes, but when we saw her lower her sails & danger somewhat cease - our sensibility soon left us in great measure & turned our attention to surrounding scenes which with the thoughts of soon being in NYork, already coming in sight, awakened new feelings, quite new feelings --At 1/2 past 10C we touched at the Wharf where I parted with my fellow Passengers, in a considerable degree of tender feeling - Wm B[?] conducted me directly to Uncle Stantons, where I found them just dining & Jonas Minturn at the table with them -- On going in & finding myself actually in their company, which I have felt, even till the very moment of my going into the house almost as a Dream which I could scarcely believe that I should ever realise -- my feelings were so overcome that it was with some difficulty that I could support the Man, [he could scarcely stand] & Answer the few questions which occur'd for the moment, -- but after a little cooling drink, & some dinner, I found that big thing in my throat, which seemed to Large to swallow & bring up, gradually to settle away, & soon became easy cheerful -- Uncle & Aunt received me with great cordiality & heartfelt affection which I believe they must have been so [?] since from my situation at meeting them was reciprocal on my part

After dinner & when I began to realize that I was in the City & with my dear relatives, I finished a letter which I had begun in board the Packet to my dear H & carried it down & put it on board Capt Bliss -- in this walk Uncle took me on board the New Haven steam Boat which is indeed the great curiosity of the boat Kind I was ever on board of -- for power & complication of machinery is only exceeded by the Steam Frigate Fulton the first which we sailed by as we came up the River & had a view of as she lay at the Wharf Any attempt to describe This boat, or hardly any thing besides that I have seen in the City, would only expose the weakness of my descriptive facultys -- I have heard much tell of this place, but of the bustle & noise & the ponderous piles of buildings which I have seen only this Afternoon I had but remote Idea of, & I can say with a Queen formerly "The half has not been told" In this rout [route] we called on Saml Wood, found in his shop - he seemed very cordial & asked me to call again, which I promised him I would after delivering him a letter which I was the bearer of - we left him & went up to Chamber Street & visited Niobe a little while who was very Affectionate & Kind & I was very glad to see her. - returned with Uncle Stanton to tea where I set the remainder of the evening - Wm S Burling called in wishing me to go with him & set a little while with Jemima Shotwell, but the evening being far spent, & I much fatigued with the labors of the day - gave up going with him tho' my inclination was much in favor of it &c -

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 23, Friday: The new French government sent emissaries to the allies asking for an immediate armistice. They also asked that the Bourbon family not be returned to the throne and that Napoléon Bonaparte's son Napoléon-François-Charles-Joseph Bonaparte be recognized as the new monarch (this would be refused).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 23 of 6 M 1815 / After a comfortable nights rest, rose early this morning, & brought up my journal which falls far short of recording all I have seen or felt. - After breakfast walked with Uncle round the Battery & some other parts of the City, saw Wanton Engs Stopped at Isaac Wrights Store - went thro' Foly[?] Market & in it was introduced to Francis Thompson - & spoke with Benj Minturn - The fame of Foley market had reached Newport long ago but nearly it exceeds my expectations, every thing almost that can be named, the produce of our own land is sold in it, & lays in the Greatest profusion on their Stalls & benches. In The stores on the left side going down may be bought all Kinds of West India produce & the people are so thick that it is with some difficulty one can crowd thro' the multitude stoped at Demilts Watchmakers shop & took a look at his goods - went to the Post Office & returned home but how I went or how I came I know not, for every scene was new & the bustle of City confusing, to a mind used to no other than Newport - As I passed along the street the Story which D Buffum tells of an old friend in his country who had a mind to go to a new light meeting held in the neighborhood, often crossed my thoughts - as he returned from the meeting riding along nursing on what had passed, a person behind him heard him exclaim "It does not signify it is confusion upon confusion" & surely I believe, was this old man loving & to walk the streets of NYork, when he saw the ponderous piles of buildings, the runing & rattling of the drays & the hurry of the people he would again exclaim "Confusion upon Confusion." however as yet I have been pretty collected - Between 11 & 12 OC took a walk into several streets with Aunt Patty called at several Stores & to see Penelope Minturn While Aunt Patty had gone to look up the family I had a pretty good opportunity to reflect & endeavored to attend to my own feelings being alone in the room some time - when she came in my

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

sensations were about what I had anticipated - She seemed glad to see me & inquired after some of her old friends in Newport - returned to Dinner

After dinner retired to my chamber to rest a little but was soon called down to see Wm Burling - in going down my feet slipped on a cross stair & I went down my whole force more than half the distance on my back & elbow which was so hard a shock that after getting up & going into the room, I sat down & fainted quite away I soon came too & in about an hour recovered, so as to walk out into some parts of the City where I had never been - After tea went to the Steam boat & crossed in her to Brooklin & went up to the other ferry & returned in the horse boat which made a pleasing variety The Steam Boat in this ferry is inferior to the ones which run to N Haven & in the North River, as the river is narrow the accommodations discovered in the others, are not here needed -

The Horse boat goes by the Power of 9 Horses & get changed [illegible] a day - the ferrage at such place is 4 cents for a single passage & they told me they made upon average, 65 trips in a day, & often have 2 / 6 passengers at a time - they cross in 7 Minutes & often in 5; the boatman ways he had taken $300 Dollars in a day. - I had no conception of number of People that are continually passing from the City to L Island by these ferrys, nor indeed I had not of scarcely any thing I see the horses go round as in a bake mill & form a ring standing as close to each other as then can - they appear to work hard tho' they look fat & hardy - Brooklin is a pleasant village, & I should suppose was as quiet as it is a ready retreat from the City - We set the evening with neighbor Hurst & while there, the City was under an Alarm of fire, which was soon over. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 24, Saturday: A dead child was removed from the womb of 17-year-old Angiolina Cavanna. It is said that "medical evidence" indicated that Nicolò Paganini had not fathered this child (I personally have no idea what that "medical evidence," in this year 1815, might have amounted to, since this was a long, long lifetime prior to the discovery of blood typing by Karl Landsteiner).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 14th of 6 M 1815 / Considering the jar of yesterday I feel remarkably well this mornng with the exception of my elbow which was scraped considerably & felt little or nothing of the excrcise while Walking which I took immediately -?- it produced a profusion of perspiration & I believe carried off the other bad effects - Our again after breakfast, walked thro' many streets stoped at Isaac Wrights store. At Wanton Engs & bought 26 Dollars worth of Coffee for D Buffum - went through Foly Market again & called at Caleb Coggeshalls Store. Caleb I believe was very glad to see me, asked many questions about his friend at R I & urged my taking tea with him - Called at many other stores & took a turn down Courtland Street & went on board

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Albany Steam boat viewed the machinery & the Cabins at each end - which for elegance exceed any Parlour I have seen in this place Visited & inspected the Patens Bakery where the fire is kept in the oven the whole time & yet the buiscuit are baking as fast as they can be out in at one end & brown out at the other, This walk was rather extensive, the heat & the distance overcame me & in Courtland street I felt faint, expressed a Wish to return which we did & after a little refreshing drink, returned to my chamber, rested & am now writing - I omitted to insert that this mornng [illegible] visited in neighboring Chocolate Mill, which is a curious operation carried by two horses, the Coacoa is first broken then the shells sifted out, then ground fine put into pans - the horses move a great wheel at least 15 feet in diameter, this wheel communicates force to Smaller ones by which at one time the Coacoa is sifted & ground After dinner took leave of Wm S Burling who dined with us, he intending for Albany this Afternoon in the Steam Boat - Then walked our towards the Bowery & all round that part of the Town -Made an agreeable call on Ann Freeborn who lives in Elizabeth Street This part of the City looks more like Newport than any I have seen - visited at Thos Collins but saw only the child - he was at the store. - While in this part of the City we went to the new Roman Catholic Church this building is a curiosity it is of Gothic structure & the Arched Walls is supported[?] must be in the plan of the whispering Gallery in London the least sound of the voice echos, & re echos astonishingly - & to stamp on the floor sounds like Throngs [?] The painting on the Walls & arches have a beautiful appearance - After tea Uncle took me to the Museum where I saw many curiosities natural & artificial among which was the [last three lines illegible] [?] several kinds of Deer, Monkeys Snakes * numerous species of Birds - all look very natural the [?] of industry is a curiosity all kinds of Work & play are going on at once by means of machinery In the upper story we saw various Wax figures, some [-?] are exceedingly natural - the representation of Samuel, Saul & the Withch of Endor is not [-?] Indian Chiefs are said to be striking likeness but alal that struck me the most forcilby & as the best worh seeing, was the wman sitting in a bower with twins [?] one on each Knee, beautifully sufused with every aimiable countenances To appearance about 6 months, on the right of her was wamon reposing in sleep in bed with the most speaking little countenance sitting up by her side that I ever saw It [illegible] it seemed as if the little [- -?] ready leap from its unconscious Mothers arms to those who stood by -there was also a representation of numerous Daniel Lamberts, the Goddess of Liberty &c &c From the Museum we went to Benj Marshalls where Aunt Patty had previously gone to set the evening & about 1 {?} OC returned home - & I must not omit to mention that when arrived I found a letter had been left for me from my dear H which was much like a brook by the Way notwithstanding [-] the great variety I have seem thro' [—] I have often hear say there was an indescribable pleasure in receigving letters when abroad from

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

friends at home but I never before so fully realized it

June 25, Sunday: Augusta returned to Six Mile Bottom.

GEORGE GORDON, LORD BYRON

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 25 of 6 M 1815 / Attended Liberty Street Meeting In the forenoon Stephen Grellett bor an excellent testimony his opening was "The whole need not a Physician but the Sick" his communication was edifying instructive & Powerful, very encouraging to see as [illegible] themselves under sickness & discouragement of mind, to apply to the Physician who heals all malady's of the mind, binds up the broken hearted &c – In the Afternoon he was again concerned "Watch & pray continually" from which he took occasion to recommend the necessity of keeping our spirits under subjection so that while we were engaged in our outward concerns [three lines illegible]

This testimony seemed to me to be as – ???it being a subject I have ruminated much on since I have been here – The people seem in such an hurry of spirits passing the streets about their business on week days that I can scarcely believe they can in stopping out of their business into meeting, enjoy that abstraction of mind which is desirable & to which they must attain to perform comfortable worship [very faint and scarcely legible] Just before the close Mary Hinsdale wife of Henry delivered a short but pretty savory testimony – Ann Swinbine & Eliza the young woman who lives with her dined with us also Thos Casey. Thos is at present a steady & hopeful young man.

June 26, Monday: For two days royalists, goaded on by the Catholic Church, had been running wild in the streets of Marseille, killing 200 Bonapartists and Protestants.

Baden joined the German Confederation.

Johann Nepomuk Hummel provided the 2d of a couple of very well received performances at the Deutsches Theater of Pest.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 26 of 6 M 1815 / A Rainy Day – After breakfast called on Saml Wood who treated me with much cordial attention He just took me to the Lancastrian friend school for children of colour where 300 of them may be accommodated but the school this morning was small owing to the weather – The Master exhibited specimens of their performance in writing Arithmetic o& drawing both of Maps & Landscape in colours wherein some traits of rare genius for children of their colour & opportunity were displayed The

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

cyphering Book, a specimen of writing & a map of the world by one of the boys which appeared to be about 14 Years of age quite astonished me - I examined his countenance which I thought was heavy & I could not discern in it traits of that lively imagination which were displayed in his performances - He also gave me an account of the Class of Merit, who though under him are a body by themselves, composed of those who have made the greatest proficiency - The Class chooses President, Judge & under officers, who are appointed to watch the conduct of the others, & when any misbehavior is observed, they are complained of to the proper Officer who presents him to the Courts, where he is tried & if he makes satisfaction, is acquitted, but if not the Judge pronounces sentence of dismissal from the Class An instance the Master told me took place a few days ago & one of them being according to order presented to the Courts what ruined him with great solemnity - The Judge after hearing witnesses in the case found him guilty reported him for his [???] exhorted him to atonement [?] illegible had the desired effect, he looked as the Judge addressed him like a little criminal at the Bar & at length burst into tears & very penitently asked forgiveness of the Class, promised amendment & was acquitted on good behaviour. - This Class keep a record of all their proceedings, a part of which I read & thought the method & states of the minutes would have done credit to some of our Monthly Meeting Clerks. - From this we went to the Lancastrian School for white boys where 500 may be accommodated the room is 137 feet by 44 - Being Rainy all the scholars were not present, but the scene was very interesting - I thought however the boys had not made as great improvement nor in so good order as in the school for boys of colour - The Master whose name was Wm Smith presented me with an acct of the School & a report of the Trustees for the present Year

We then went into a room below in the same building where a School for Girls is kept at the expense of a female Association in the City - upwards of 300 usually attend but not all present this morning - The mistress was absent & one of the head Scholars presented their proceedings, all which did them great Credit There were many good looking children present & their deportment bespoke the attention of a careful & prudent Mistress. - From these Schools we went to the Manhattan Water Works which were not in operation, the reservoirs being full. - The works tho' not in motion, for extent & strength were admirable & well worth looking at - from these works we went & took a look at a neighbouring foundry we saw them making Moulds for various Iron machines, but the furnace was not in blast which they regretted, as I have long wanted to see their mode of casting in these extensive Foundries - From there we went to the New York Hospital, of which Samuel Woods son Isaac is one of the attending Surgeons - in Isaacs room we sat & rested a while & entered into some pleasant & interesting conversation took a drink of Beer & he then conducted us to the Theatre where the Surgical operations

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

are performed - this is an half round room with a table in the Middle, on which the patients are placed for operation it turns round on a pivot - around the table are circular seats, rising above each other like the high seats in our meeting houses - on these seats three or four rows of students & strangers sit as spectators while the performances are going on in what may be called the Pit - from this room of horror he took us into the Cupola where I had a view of this great & vastly extended City, The scene was much obstructed in consequence of the Weather - we then visited the rooms of the diseased patients where we saw some sad spectacles, but all of them were clean & appeared to be well attended - the Kitchen is a neat room with a marble floor - We then went into the Library, in this room the Governors meet - here we saw a vast number of Books - Isaac shewed us some beautiful work on Ornithology by Willson, which contains the most striking likenesses of Birds &c that I ever saw short of real life - in this room he presented me with an acct of the Hospital which contains a handsome view of the Building, in this room Sam Wood introduced me to the celebrated Doctor Mitchell who shook me by the hand very cordially, & after a little familiar conversation, observed that he would offer some attention, but at the present moment he was much occupied in preparing a work for the press, & as I was in the best of hands there was no need of it - Saml & his Son being all sufficient - From the Hospital Isaac conducted us to the Assylum for deranged people but it was not the hours for admission of company & we were deprived of any more than a range of the great oratory [oratory?] where we saw some of the Patients in various stages of delirium - Returned to dinner - After dinner called on Wm Thurston & his wife, set 2 hours with them her sister in company This [illegible, three lines too faint and blurred] with my fr Saml Wood & his amiable family here I met Edmond Prior who took tea with us - if the friend & his misfortune s I have heard [?] much spoken he was once {--} of much note in society & great in [--] profession [?] but by imprudent kindness in lending he lost both his property & his standing as an Elder - he seemed very tender & humble of his situation claims my sympathy & I believe notwithstanding what has happened to him Life remains in him & I hope that his gray hair may not [--] hopeless to the grave -- In Saml Shop I saw Sarah Sutton & took leave of her they intending to set out for home tomorrow - she mentioned that Jemima Shotwell regretted not seeing me before she left the City & I dare say she does not regret it more than I do. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 27, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day [sic] 27 of 6 M 1815 / This mornng after Breakfast my [] - & very affectionate Uncle took me in a Chaise through [three or four lines illegible] seats pleasant situations & rode by the great Military Arsenal of the United States - returned

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

thro' Greenwich & visited the States Prison - It created a variety of feelings in passing thro' this great block of buildings [-line illegible] It was affecting to pass thro' this great concourse of men & women & [-----] countenances with "the brand of in- [illegible to the end of the page, three lines.]

View of Strangers - I look'd in every face we passed & in the weavers room particularly the countenances of the prisoners were depraved with scarcely a single exception - but in some of the other rooms where the men were younger their faces were more prepossessing the number however was small - In the Womens apartment I was peculiarly struck they were the worst looking set of beings I ever beheld all looked wicked all looked depraved. -But in passing thro' this great place I could but feel glad yea thankful that so noble an institution was formed to prevent the many executions that would otherwise take place in the course of the year This place affords an opportunity for reflection, repentance & amendment of life, & it was pleasant to me to reflect that the convicts have in some instance after their imprisonment has expired, become good & useful citizens - IN going thro' the prison & ascending & descending the high flights of stairs my head became so affected with dizziness & with that & previous fatigue in the hot sun, I could not take the satisfaction in the visit which I desired - We went from the Prison to Noah Browns Ship Yard where I saw a Monstrous house in which Ships of 900 tons burden are built - one of that dimension was launched out of it the day I arrived here this house is 50 feet wide & 190 feet long & 40 feet [?] it is all in one room & I believe is the largest house I have ever seen, but not the most costly - from this place we rode home much fatigued & dined on Quahogs friend in Butter which relished well -After resting a little took a walk into Wall Street & visited Ruth Winteringham [-] her a letter from J Sherman - Then went down Courtland Street where the Steam Boat lay looked round a while & returned thro' Broad way & visited that surprising pearl of Painting & machinery called the Panorama - then returned & [-] took tea at Isaac Wrights -- 4th day 6th M 28th 1815 / Kept at home all [three or four lines too faded} In the Preparatory Meeting their Queries were Answer'd. I thought pertinently Thos Harcourt made a few well adapted remarks which evinced to my understanding that he was a concerned [-] member of the Body There were two requests for membership & some other business - Wager Hull [-] clerk & I thought the three small [-] if right [two line illegible] - This was the first Preparative Meeting I have ever attended excepting the one to which I belong - We had the company of Ann Siverbone & only -- to dine with us Took tea at Benj Marshalls in company with Penelope Minturn & her daughter Niobe Henry & Mary Post Fanny Hunt Uncle & Aunt Stanton & a Capt Taylor This was the most stylish tea drink that I ever undertook, but considering all things I got along much to my satisfaction & Niobe made the way very easy - She feels very near & I love her much -Polly Port also was brought well on my

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

book this opportunity seem'd like a renewal of an old acquaintance which commenced in childhood & has existed from that period much by Proxy tho' reality as we have seldom seen each other for 25 Years past. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 29, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 29th of 6 M 1815 / Set the mornng the cool -unwilling to fatigue myself before Meeting – Went to Liberty Street -Mary Slocum appeared in a short but good testimony Then Sarah Collins something more lengthy & much to the purpose then S Grellett expressed the sweetness of feeling the cords of heavenly love to draw the heart one towards another & dwelt on the good effects of it – he encouraged all to labor to dwell under its sweetening influence – In the last (Preparative) the Quaeries were Answered – Saml Hopkins made a few pertinent & seasonable remarks on the subject of planess – Dined at Benj Marshalls [–last three lines illegible] came up & took me over to Hoboken (pronounced Hobuck) on the Jersey side – this is a pleasant Country village where an abundance of people resort from the City for a clead air during the hot season, after taking a dish of poor tea at a Dutch Tavern & rambeling round a little we came home – the boat we sailed in was propelled by the force of 20 Horses, that is 10 pair, walking round as in a bark Mill – I counted 60 Passengers on board – In walking from B Marshalls to the borse boat we stoped & viewed the great floating Bath – this is the greatest accompl??? ???I ever saw for Swimming – Men or Women may bathe as privately as they can wish.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

June 30, Friday: On this day and on July 3d, a treaty of peace was entered into by the United States of America and Algeria.

READ THE FULL TEXT

The Peacock, in the Straits of Funda, captured an armed British vessel. The next day the vessel was given up. The number of British vessels captured on the sea and the lakes by privateers and national vessels was said to be 1750. The official account of American vessels captured or destroyed by the royal navy was 42 national vessels, 233 privateers, and 1437 merchant ships, making a total of 1683. The British privateers did not make many captures.

CRIMPING

The British had been greatly embarrassed by the incident of April 6th, in which guards had suddenly and indiscriminately opened fire, down from the perimeter wall, at captive American sailors as they exercised. Their response was to attempt to close out this sad history, and by this point only some 900 prisoners remained, about half of whom were black. America's black sailors were, it appears, proving reluctant to board any ship bound for a Southern port, out of a very sensible fear that when they reached their destination they would suddenly find themselves seized and sold into slavery.

HDTWHAT?INDEXSTEPHEN WANTON GOULD*FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6 day 30 of 6 M 1815 / After breakfast this mornng went to Demilt Shop & purchased a few more ?? in my line, but found the weather so very hot that it was improper for me to walk much about After dinneer set at home till 4 OC then to Demilts again -After tea wallked to Stephen Grellets with S Wood - here I saw ?? Collins & Penelope Hull Stephen seemed glad of the call which tho' short

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

was pleasing to me – when ————?

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 1, Saturday: The new French government resolved to surrender to the allies.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st [sic] day 1st of 7 M 1815 / I find that NYork begins to look natural this forenoon too a walk our alone thro' Broad way & called at many stores & asked for many things which I did not want nor expect the had for a pretext to view their Stores, & see a little of their manner of doing buisness returne'd down Wall Street thro' Wm Street home & found I had walked as much in the sun as I could bear – Aftebr resting a little went to Saml Woods Store looked round among his Books &c Just before dinner Sally Howland & Thos R Williams called I let me know they were to Sail for home at 1 / 2 past 2 OC I regretted not being in readiness to go with them – as at 1 / 2 an hours warning I could not pack up my things & make a few calls which I should deem necessary – In the Afternoon went to Crane Wharf & engaged a passage in Sloop Alonzo Capt Westcoat – returned & after resting a little went up & took a more thorough view of the City Hall – We went into the room where the Governors & Council meet when in NYokr, here we saw some elegant paintings aamong them was the likeness of the present Govr Tompkins & of Dweit Clinton – In the room where the Mayor & Council sit we saw the likeness of John Jay which from the great esteem I bear for his Character was more interesting than any likeness I saw among them all – The Mayor & Councils Room is said exceeds in elegance an room that is occupied by the Crowned heads of Europe – Called to see Benj & Niobe & returned to tea – Called on Wm Thurston & set the eveng with him & his wife very agreeably – on my way to Williams met Stephen Grellett in the Street who seemd very loving & sent his love to my Dear H

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 2, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 2nd of 7 M 1815 / When I returned home last evening found Aunt Patty quite poorly with her old complaint the Cholic, but got a little releaved & I retired to rest but find that she had a poor night, is however bettebr this morning – Attended Liberty Street Meeting, in the mornng there was an appearance by one Sam Mott, as Stark Naught as any thing I ever heard – S Grellett near the close, spoke in an awakening manner, in the necessity of a preparation for Death; for the shadows of the eveng were stretching over some who were not far advanced in life – he said he did not wish to stamp his testimony, as if some sudden Death would occurhe wished to excite the inquiry "Is it I Is it I" in

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

every mind - it would hurt more to make a critical examination of their state & condition &c. - Between Meetings J Bower Lewis Rous ma nier ? & Capt Wood called to see us. R Island folks company was pleasant & the more so as they brought letters from home which mentioned the wellfare of all I left - The leeter from my H enclosed one from our little John which she had guided his little hand & mind to write, I recd on also from Br David - they were no small releaf to my mind as I was getting veebry anxious to be at home -

In the Afternoon Willet Hicks preached well, after meeting closed at the door I met Wm Wright who had returned to NYork as he did in Newport went with him to his fathers & took tea, & set the latter part of the eveng with Daniel Minturn -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 3, Monday: On June 30 and on this day, a Treaty of Peace with the Bey of Algiers.

READ THE FULL TEXT

The Bey agreed to cease exacting tribute, and to release all prisoners of war.

Also, our commissioners at Ghent made a commercial convention with Great Britain, to last four years, and stipulation, for absolute reciprocity by abolishing, in direct trade, all discriminations.

READ THE FULL TEXT

Napoléon Bonaparte arrived at the Atlantic port of Rochefort north of Bordeaux, hoping to escape to the United States of America. Meanwhile the French government prepared 18 articles known as the Convention of Paris.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 3rd 7M 1815 / Buisy all the forenoon preparing for a passage home, but in the Afternoon found to my disappointment that the Capt had defer'd Sailing till tomorrow - My mind is now quite anxious to be getting home - & tho' I receive every attention & much more than I deserve, & my frs still desirous of a protracted stay, yet time begins to hang heavy - The purpose for which I came is answerd, & even more than answerd - I feel thankful for this opportunity of being with my friends, & above all for the newe'd evidence of the continuance of divine regard which has been mercifully vouchsafed - My heart has been fraught with gratitude, tenderness & love to my friends here, & greatly indeed has my love been excited for my dear H & our dear little boy at home - they now begin to claim my thoughts & occasion some anxiety --Toward night called a little while on Ruth Winteringham - In the evening went up with Aunt to set a little while with Benj & Wife & found they had set out to see us -- we returned & found them setting in the front Room -- I must not close the account of this day without inserting, that After tea

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

I walked up to Collumbia [sic] College -which is most beautifully situated at the foot of Park Place, before it is a fine green plat & a flowring grove of Trees - two of them which are Button Wood are the largest I have ever seen. Park Place was formerly called Robinson Street & is one of the Widest, most airy & fine built that I have observed in the City. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Our national birthday, Tuesday the 4th of July: Nathaniel Hawthorne's, or Hathorne's, 11th birthday.

The cornerstone for Baltimore's Washington Monument was set.

Richard Bland Lee read the Declaration of Independence in the Hall of the House of Representatives at the Capitol.

In New-York, officers from the French frigate Hermione sat in the reviewing stands in front of City Hall as American troops paraded before them. Although "patriotic tars" attempted to "haul down the British colors," the group was dispersed by the police. In the harbor a "steam vessel of war," complete with cannon, was being tested — and was passing its tests.

CELEBRATING OUR B-DAY

French Minister of War Louis Davout carried the Convention of Paris to the allies at the Neuilly bridge, where it was signed by all parties.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 4th of 7 M 1815 / This morning took a Walk round fly Market from thence to Washington Market which I think the handsomest I have seen in the City - To a Newporter the Provisions exhibited & sold at these public Stands are almost incredible - At Washington I bought some dry'd Peaches & Cherrys, the latter I hope will keep till I get home, being desirous to treat my H & our little boy with some of them - While walking round great stir begun to take place in the City in commemoration of Independence - The noise & Bustle became unpleasant - I hastened home & in the course of the forenoon called on Saml Wood & took leave of him - employed my time till Dinner time in making a few Memorandums, & writing a short address to Uncle & Aunt wherein I more freely express my feeling at parting with them than I could at the Moment by word of Mouth -

Dined at 1 / 2 OClock & parted with my dear & affectionate relatives which proved quite as much as my Manhood could encounter, & as it was articulation became difficult - when we got to the Wharf the Packet had hauled some distance in the River but at five minutes before 2 O'clock we were on board her & at 1 / 2 past 5 OC we passed safely thro' Hurl Gate we saw a schooner on shore that went thro' just before us - At 1 / 2 past 8 O'clock off Sands Point Light - a little before which we took tea - The Capt Says we are under fine way & a good Prospect before us - We have on board Jacob Bunting a young fr from Philads - who seems to be quite companionable - There is also with us a Presbyterian Minister from Portland whose name is Elijah Kellog he appears to be remarkably liberal in his conversation, & is well acquainted with most of our friends of that Place & speaks well of them - at tea table he took the Liberty to make a Prayer which I did not savor so well as his conversation - There are many other Passengers, & many of them I have not yet ascertained their names - those of Newport are Jonathon Bowen, Robt Robinson, & Robt Stevens Jr - At the table we found the want of a Woman to do the honors of the table -

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 5, Wednesday: John Thoreau, Jr.'s 1st birthday.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 5th of 7 M 1815 / On Board the Alonzo Capt Westcot Rose this Mornng just as the sun was rising in a clear horizon from the Water - I have several times rose early & gone on the Hill to see this sight but never before had the opportunity, it was truly beautiful - We find ourselves off Crane Neck on L Island & only about 60 Miles from NYork - a poor run last night, which I hope will be compensated by a good breeze & favorable tide today tho the prospect before us is Dull - I slept comfortably & had to sympathize with several who lay on the Cabin floor -

At 11 OC of Oldmans harbor on L Island in a flat Calm At 2 OC while at dinner the Wind Breezed up finely - I find we have on board Doctor John Waterhouse of Philadelphia son of Benj Waterhouse - & Ray Clarke of Greenwich who is one of my old school fellows -a renewal of acquaintance with him is very pleasant - At Sunsett of Oyster Pond with a good breese - At 1 / 2 past 9 OC a little past Gull light with a good breese - The Air is very clear & we have the very singular sight of five Light Houses all in view at once Vizt Gull, Saybrook, Montaugue, New London & Watch Hill

In the course of the eveng I have discovered that there was a man on board by the name of Saml G Adams of Richmond Virginia, by whom I enquired after & sent my love to Thos Ladd - at several times engaged in agreeable conversation with Parson Kellog. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

July 6: The Duke of Wellington and Marshall Blücher entered Paris at the head of their allied army. Blücher made a demand of the city leaders, for 100,000,000 francs plus new uniforms for all of his 110,000 troops. British Foreign Secretary Viscount Castlereagh reached Paris to negotiate a 2d Peace of Paris.

John Wedderburn Halkett remarried, with Lady Katherine Douglas.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 6th of 7th 1815 / Found ourselves this mornng under Block Island & not far from Point Judith in a flat Calm & came to Anchor where we lay till near 11 OC when the Wind & tide favoring we made some headway - Amused ourselves with the Spy Glass in looking at Block Island & scenes around in Charleston - which with a little conversation with the Passengers & the prospect of being home tonight made the time not very tedious - In the course of this day made some acquaintance with Saml Dana of Cambridge & Echabod Goodwin of Berwick - At 2 OC Dined & at 1 / 4 before 3 OC turned Point Judith - At 3 OC by the Assistance of the Glass Saw the Steeples of Newport which soon became in full view - at the sight of which my heart LEAPS - At 1 / 2 Past 4 OC Turned Beaver tail light at 6 OC Arrived Banisters Wharf & in a few minutes to my home where I found my beloved H & our little John both well & very glad to see me. - This with my safe return to them is cause of gratitude - In taking a retrospect of my visit this evening, it all looks pleasant & I feel thankful, that I have been - it may prove beneficial to me many ways - I have had but few advantages in seeing the World, this little jant may tend & I think has already tended to enlarge my view of men & things - There is an increasing body of Friends in NYork, & some considerable number of well concerned Members -but alas for the spirit of the World - which appears to me, must be very prevalent among them -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 7, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 7 of 7 M / It takes sometime to get settled after a voyage my head still feels the motion of the vessel & my mind the many scenes of NYork - Sister Ruth & Mary set the evening with us to whom I endeavor'd to relate some of the occurences of my visit

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

July 8, Saturday: King Louis XVIII returned to the Tuilleries from Ghent to reestablish a government for the Kingdom of France.

The name of the Académie Impériale de Musique (Paris Opéra) was changed to the Académie Royale de Musique.

In the port of Rochefort, Napoléon Bonaparte boarded the French ship La Saale to be transported to the United States of America (the vessel would be unable to proceed because of the presence of HMS Bellerophon).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 8 of 7 M / Resumed the usual rounds of Trade &c, a number of my friends have called to see me wo seem pleased with my return

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 9, Sunday: Charles Maurice de Talleyrand-Périgord, prince de Bénévent replaced Joseph, comte Fouché, duc d'Otrante as Prime Minister of France.

After nine years, Frankfurt-am-Main was reconstituted as a free city.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 9 of 7 M / Our Meetings (I believe) were seasons of heaviness to most present – In the mornng a few words spoken

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 11, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 11 of 7 M / A tea table Sister Ruth mentioned the decease Henry Russel of Providence – This was the first I have heard that tho' he has been Sick some weeks & dead some days –My mind was forcibly impressed with the Language "Be ye also ready, for in the day & hour & ye Know not" – I put up at his house when at the Quarterly Meeting in the Winter of 1814 was kindly entertained, & he & his wife felt much as a Bother & Sister. – I also heard this Afternoon of the decease of my friend James Denson Ladd of Virginia & his wife who Arrived but a Short time after him –James was here in the Summer of 1809 for his health when I became acquainted with him, & since have recd one letter from him & written him two – Thus our friends are passing away –& soon very soon must we follow them – Oh the vast necessity of apreparation for the change – this I forcibly feel as I write it –4th day 12th of 7 M 1815 / Richard Mott & his companion John Clapp arrived in town last eveng – I called at his lodging this morning & spent a little time with him very agreeably, & he agreed to dine with us tomorrow

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

July 13, Thursday: Napoléon Bonaparte handed his sword to a British officer. Sez he:

I come like Themistocles to throw myself upon the hospitality of the British people.

The British discovered a nude statue of Napoleon in the basement of the Louvre and carried it off: it would grace the home of Arthur Wellesley, Duke of Wellington.¹⁶⁸ From this point forward it would cost the British people over £400,000 per year to guard their “Themistocles,” but the man was history. When he died they would mutilate his corpse, and his penis, tagged “Little Piece of Human Flesh,” happens to be still in circulation in England, being passed from hand to hand at various classy big-city auctions.

(The wars of the 1800-1815 period had cost France alone about 1/60th of its male population, or about 500,000 young men. But Britain also had lost little pieces of human flesh here and there.)

With the defeat of Napoleon Bonaparte, Mme. Jeanne-Françoise-Julie-Adélaïde “Juliette” Récamier (Madame Récamier) was able to return to Paris and restart her famous salon, at which she received guests frequently while semi-reclining upon a piece of furniture, a backless daybed or couch, which would become known as a récamier in her honor:

“And Amy, what is she going to do?” asked Mrs. March, well pleased at Laurie’s decision and the energy with which he spoke.

“After doing the civil all round, and airing our best bonnet, we shall astonish you by the elegant hospitalities of our mansion, the brilliant society we shall draw about us, and the beneficial influence we shall exert over the world at large. That’s about it, isn’t it, ‘Madame Récamier’?” asked Laurie with a quizzical look at Amy.

“Time will show. Come away, Impertinence, and don’t shock my family by calling me names before their faces,” answered Amy, resolving that there should be a home with a good wife in it before she set up a salon as a queen of society.

168. This statue stands all of fifteen feet tall, exclusive of its pedestal. Well, but it must weigh a bit more than the Little General did even at the most corpulent stage of his old age, as well.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

At her salon, which for a long period of time was held in her separate rented suite in an old Paris convent at the Abbaye-aux-Bois, one of the featured guests was her associate François-Auguste-René, vicomte de Chateaubriand. A painting by Jacques-Louis David hanging in the Louvre depicts Mme. Récamier semi-reclining on her récamier as a younger woman,¹⁶⁹ as of 1800 before she had been exiled from Paris by

169. I've checked it out, and M. Chateaubriand does not appear in his own portrait eating one of the double-thick center cut of beef tenderloin, stuffed and braised, the dish named in his honor. Nor is he reclining on a récamier (the illustrated piece of furniture, named in her honor), or upon Mme. Récamier herself for that matter — he's just relaxing in a comfortable pair of pants with mussy hair:

HDTWHAT?INDEXFRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Napoleon for her quasi-Royalist sentiments.

With the defeat of Bonaparte, a portion of the reform in Switzerland was cancelled, and patricians regained decisive positions in Lucerne's politics.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 13 of 7 M / Rich Mott this mornng appointed a Meeting for the inhabitants of the Town this Afternoon at 5 OC – He attended our Meeting in the course & delivered a short but Sound pertinent & very lively testimony – at the close his afternoon meeting was mentioned by D Buffum & general informations requested – He with his companion dined with us, their company was pleasant & gratifying – At the hour appointed a large number of people

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

collected, several of the most respectable of inhabitants attended - among who were Wm Ellery Snr Wm Ellery Junr, Doct Mann. Christopher G Camplin, Benj Hazard, Doct Hazard Wm Hunter & Nath Hazard -

Richard was much favored in his testimony his opening was "The Kingdom of God consisteth not in Meats or Drinks, but in Righteousness, peace & Joy in the Holy Ghost - this subject he handled well & his communication was attended with a remarkable degree of Life & Power, which drew the attention of people who sat very solidly & it appeared to me that Truth Reigned & the savor thereof spread over most minds present - he concluded in A very solemn & reverend supplication - All this was cause of rejoicing to many minds present. & it appears the Audience were well satisfied. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 14, Friday: The USS Epervier, an 18-gun sloop of war with approximately 128 men on board, was somehow lost at sea sometime after this date. No trace has ever been found.

LOST AT SEA

TIMELINE OF ACCIDENTS

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6 day 14 of 7 M / The people speak much in favor of our Meeting Yesterday, & from the feeling manner in which some who may be denominated the World people speak of it - I am ready [to] hope it was a season wherein Truth was Triumphant & that some lasting benefit may result to some minds, which however may not be seen in many Days

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 July 16, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 16 of 7 M / Excepting a few words spoken in the Afternoon our Meetings were both silent – both dull seasons to me Set up last night with Thos Hornsby who was exceedingly ill from the effects of an over dose of Camphor –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 July 20, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 20th of 7th M / Silent Meeting – In the last (Preparative) Wm Mitchell Preposed publishing his intentions of Marriage with Mary Wilcox – Charles Smith & his wife of Philadelphia were at Meeting & in the Afternoon I met him in Br D Rs Shop & invited him to give us a call, he accordingly came up & set about an hour with us & was agreeable in conversation. They take tea at father Rodmans.
–*

Sister Rebecca & Betsy Peckham set the Afternoon Br John Joined us at tea – 6th day 21 of 7 M / Cousin Thos Gould arrivd in town last eveng from Albany & gave us a call this forenoon – We took tea with our old neighbors Sam Vernon & his Wife – – the old man in his place at table returned thanks for his interview with his friends, & craved that it might be render'd a season of instruction to us. – & I dont know but his desire was answered for among all the visits we hade made them I do not recollect one quite so agreeable – In mentioning this to my H as we returned I found her sentiment was the same. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 July 22, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 22 of 7 M 1815 / This Afternoon took my H & John & went to Connanicut to Cousin Molly Howland. The object of this visit was to see Cousin Abigail Casey, the old Lady seem'd very glad to see us as was cousin Howland & told us many little accounts in conversing on some old Buckthorn trees Which stood near the house. They told us that they were the same trees which our old Great Great Grandfather Moury planted & must now be much over 100 Years old – on all the land on which she lived & owned she planted Buckthorn & Flagroot, being a doctress she made great use of these Articles – The house in which cousin Howland lives stands on the same spot on which my great Grandfather Saml Clarke did & some of the vestages of his beautiful garden still remain, it is a beautiful spot & calculated to afford every comfort & pleasure which can ebe enjoyed this side of the grave – in walking round my mind an Idea visited the ancient residents who I hope are now in a better Mansion – In going over the wind blew hard & being but myself & one more man on board I was not a little affraid of the consequences – we returned & got home

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

little after sunset & had a very pleasant Visit as was the excursions in general — This is the first time John was [last two lines nearly illegible]

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 23, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 23 of 7 M 1815 / In the forenoon [first six line nearly illegible]

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 30, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 30th of 7 M / In the forenoon Father Rodman appeard much to my satisfaction - Also Cousin Anne Greene - In the Afternoon Father again in a few words - After tea took a walk round the Hill with Br D Rodman - Returned & found J Sherman & Sister Eiza sitting with my H

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 1: Richard Henry Dana, Jr. was born in Cambridge, Massachusetts, second of four children of Richard Henry Dana, Sr. and Ruth Charlotte Smith Dana. The other children of this marriage:

- Ruth Charlotte Dana (1814-1901)
- Edmund "Ned" Trowbridge Dana (1818-1869)
- Susan Dana (1820-1822)

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 1st of 8th M 1815 / This morning recd information from NYork Caty Wickham that Niobe had been sick two days & an half when she left their & her situation considered dangerous - this information has affected my mind with much seriousness having felt forebodings while I was there that when she came to be sick her case would be hard, & the increased nearness which is felt toward her at that time creates no small anxiety on her acct.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 3 of 8th M / Rode to Portsmouth to attend the Quarterly Meeting & in order to give Hannah & John (who went with me) a longer ride we took a new rout over the Beach to Purgatory & went thro' the roads tha way & came into the Main road our by Peleg Sandfords This made a pleasing variety, besides which we went away from home at the early hour of 6 OClock which made it very cool & pleasant riding - we got to Uncle Thurstons at 8
OClock & there took breakfast where we met with Wm Rotch Jr Thos Arnold & several other interesting friends - At meeting the first in testimony was James Greene, more lengthy than I ever heard him -sound & pertinent & according to my sense attended*

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

with a good degree of Gospel Power next Father Rodman & then my old friend & former Correspondent Thomas Anthony & next Obadiah Davis, lengthy & sound, clear & powerful & Divine favor seem'd evidently extended thro' the whole sitting – In the last buisness went on with remarkable unanimity O Davis & others made frequent [?] remarks as did R Greene & others which I thought {last three lines too faded } [top of next page] dined at Uncle Thurstons where I met Sarah Greene had a little intersting conversation with her on the subject of her intended journey as companion to Betsy Purinton on a religious visit to Some meetings in & on the way to Baltimore Yearly Meeting – I found Sarahs ideas & mine corresponded well & she felt nearer to me than she ever did before – tho' I have known her a long time yet I never had much intimate acquaintance with her

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 5, Saturday: The new 44-gun frigate USS Java (so named after a British vessel defeated by the Americans) got underway from the shipyard of Flannigan & Parsons at Baltimore, Maryland. Captain Oliver Hazard Perry would pick up spare rigging at Hampton Roads and New York before sailing the new vessel to Newport, Rhode Island to recruit its crew. The frigate would stand out from Newport in the face of a bitter gale on January 22, 1816 on the way to the Mediterranean but a mast would snap with 10 men aloft, killing 5. During April the vessel would be off Algiers as Captain Perry attempted under flag of truce to persuade the Dey of Algiers to honor a treaty he had signed. It would sail to Tripoli with the USS Constellation, the USS Ontario, and the USS Erie in a display of the new strength of the United States of America. After visiting the ports of Syracuse, Messina, Palermo, Tunis, Gibraltar, and Naples, the frigate would return to Newport early in 1817 and be taken in for restoration at the naval yards of Boston.

Austria demanded the return of all art works taken by Napoléon Bonaparte from its lands (including from northern Italy).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 5th of 8 M 1815 / The Audit met at father Rodmans to settle inventory [?] of the Meeting at the past year – Benj Mott was with him [two illegible lines] to Portsmouth with I accordingly [--] stepped into his Chaise & rode with him to Cousin Zacheus Chases where I found them as comfortable as old folks [the last half of this page too faint to read]

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 8, Tuesday: Napoléon Bonaparte became a prisoner headed for the island of St. Helena.

Of course, the defeat at Waterloo, and the events that had followed, had brought an end to the Italian judicial career of Giacomo Costantino Beltrami.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 8 of 8 M 1815 / This afternoon I witnessed a solemn scene – I called in the latter part of the Afternoon to see Matthew

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Barker who has been a long time very low & in great distress & apparantly Dieing for several Days, about 20 Minutes after I went into the room the scene closed, his distress continuing till near the close — When he breathed his last my sensations exceeded any thing I ever felt on seeing any person depart from time, my whole frame was shaken — every day brings us all nearer to the like Awful period & every scene like this is a solemn warning to us. to have our minds prepared for the event. — for some time he has not been entirely rational — & when I saw him this mornng & at the final close he was past sensing much for any thing but his distress — I staid & assisted in laying him out

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 9, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4 day 9 of 8 M / We had a pleasant call from Mary Morton Attended the funeral of Matthew Barker a few words deliverd by a friend at the house — Sarah Earl & Dorcas Wharton set the Afternoon & Jacob Clarke took tea with us —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 13, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 13th of 8 M / My mind for some time has been on desolate places & our Morng meeting a silent barran time to me but in the Afternoon life spring up much to my consolation & comfort -there was [—] was sweet & precious [—] Eunice Earl Set the evening & took tea with us

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 17, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 17th of 8th M 1815 / I was thankful under a sense of favor in meeting today it seemed to be generally a good time — but I have been humbly to acknowledge, in the language I heard Joseph Martin this morning, in speaking of himself he said "I am a poor needy creature in spiritual things." This is just my case, & tho' there was a sense of favor in meeting this forenoon & generally thro' the course of the day yet while in meeting I could not keep the ballance the whole time, unprofitable thoughts sometimes Krept in, but it was not so hard to get rid of them as I have sometimes found it. — Near the close of the meeting by a Friend his sentence was expressed "Abel offered a Sacrifice which was not acceptable, because it was not offered in sincerity of heart & purity of intention [—] Martha

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

& Hannah Gould set the Afternoon & took tea with us –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 20, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 20 of 8 M / Took John before breakfast over to the Point & went into the Water with him. The dear little fellow seemed very reluctant at being soused under Water but he has seemed very smart & lively all day after it – In the mornng meeting father Rodman deliver'd a short testimony – In the Afternoon Mary Morton in a [?] of encouragement also Hannah Dennis - The afternoon was a season of some favor to me for which I desire to be thankful -After tea took a pleasant walk on the point with my dear H & Polly Macclish - John & Caleb [?] company, the little fellows seemd highly pleased –

Newport 8th M 20th 1815

Stephen Gould [surrounded with a flourish]

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 24, Thursday: Two numbers for a farce called Der traversirte Aeneas by Carl Maria von Weber, Mein Weib ist capores J.183 and Frau Lieserl, juhe! J.184, were performed for the initial time, in Prague.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 24th of 8th M 1815 / At meeting my mind was brought to look back & commemorate the mercys & tender dealings of my heavenly Father from early time to the present day - Several of my early associates were brought fresh to my mind who begun well & went on so for a season, but finally lost sight of the days of their espousals & alass, at last, their right in society - My mind was humbled & tendered in a remarkable degree under their considerations, & in reflecting that notwithstanding all my sins & transgressions & short comings in many respects, I am still kept alive still at seasons favor'd with the evidence that divine love is Yet extended, gratitude was raised in my heart to the Author of all mercies in a degree which I seldom experience, & desires raised that the present time might prove as a renewal of covenant – while I was thus ruminating - a short testimony was deliver'd by a friend & succeeded by other short ones by Mary Morton & Hannah Dennis, -the two last were Sweet as marrow to my feelings, it Seemed as if they both had been diped into my feelings in a manner which was remarkable, & may be memorable to me & some others present –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 August 25, Friday: Franz Schubert applied for the position of director of the elementary school attached to the monastery of the Scottish Order in Vienna (this would not happen).

It being the birthday of King Louis XVIII, Choeur et couplets pour la St. Louis and Vive le roi! for solo voice and piano to words of Desaugiers by Luigi Cherubini were performed for the initial time, in Paris.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 25 of 8 M 1815 / This Afternoon Our dear Sister Ruth returned from her visit to None Partners where she hath been with Uncle Wmm Mitchell and passed some weeks very agreeably. Uncle Wm has reurned to consumate his intended marriage with Mary Willcox. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 August 26, Saturday: In München, Clarinet Quintet J.182 by Carl Maria von Weber was performed for the initial time.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 26 of 8 m / Have been much occupied today in removing Lydia Tucker to board with Avis Knowles - She has now passed 85 Years & has become so infirm as to be unable to take care of herself - Sister Ruth Set part of the Afternoon & took tea with us & gave a very intersting account of her late Journey. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 August 27, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 27th of 8 M / Our mornng meeting was silent except a few words toward the close of it by father R - In the Afternoon towards the close D Buffum expressed his humble gratitude for the present favor, considering it to have been a season wherein divine good had been extended, he exhorted us to "ask & if we rightly asked we should receive" to our consolation & Ruth Weaver then expressed the text "Seek first the Kingdom of Heaven &c & the meeting closed - In the evening with my H called at the Widow Eastons to See William Thurston & his wife who arrived last eveng from N York. This call was agreeable. Wm & his wife were very open & friendly when I saw them at their home & I feel a disposition to do as well by them at mine, as they did by me at theirs.
The sorrowful tidings reached town this Afternoon that John Gardiner a young man of this town was drown'd last evening coming from N York - he went into the boat in the Stern of the Packet which slid over & turned him into the Water, every possible effort was made to save him but in vain, he was son of John*

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Gardiner formerly of this town a late Vendue Master –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 28, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 28th of 7th M 1815 / My H set the Afternoon at her fathers, I went up & took tea with her

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 29, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 29th of 8 M / My Mother, wife & son after tea went over to Thos Robinsons & set till nearly dusk, their visit they said was very agreeable. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 30, Wednesday: George Gordon, Lord Byron would be visiting Augusta, at Six Mile Bottom, until September 4th.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*4th day 30th of 8th M / Set the Afternoon & took tea at Br J Rodmans
It is a season of great dullness in buisness, my trade affords but little pecuniary Assistance, yet I am far from feelings as discouraged as I have sometimes when things of an outward nature have been low, for which I do feel thankful. –Our visit at Br Johns was very pleasant & while setting with them I could but say in my mind, "Behold how good & how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in love" –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 31, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th 31 of 8 M / A Stormy morning pretty high wind & rain - I feel much dicouraged with the prospect of Portsmouth Notwithstanding it looked like a difficult undertaking to go to Portsmouth, yet as several who usualy go were like to be detained at home, my H & I took Chaise & went - The wind blew a violent gale at N E & it rained hard & I got wet, thro' on my arms - but by means of a camblet Cloak Hannah got wet not at all, & neither of us was very little incommoded by the undertaking -In the first meeting Anne Almy appeard in a Sweet & fervant Supplication - then Hannah Dennis in testimony, the Mary Morton in fervant supplication again, & to me it was a good Meeting as I have no doubt it was to many others present whose hearts rejoiced in a fresh evidence of renew'd life in themselves & felt it extended to others - In the last meeting we had but little buisness - Wm Mitchell was permitted to marry Mary Willcox next 2nd day [Monday] in the Afternoon - A subscription was enter'd into for the purpose of raising $200 & a part of the money was subscribed in Meeting - We dined at R Mitchells. - Ths storm has been considered to be greater by the Aged people today than any that has happened since the Church Steeple was blown down many years ago - many people went to the Beach in the course of the day & evening to See the breakers which run astonishingly high A vessel was said to be cast away in the Afternoon near Beaver tail light house -

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 1, Friday: A council was held at Detroit, and the hatchet buried by the tribes represented. These were the Seneca, Delaware, Shawnee, Wyandot, Pottawatomie of Lake Michigan, Ottawa, and Chippeway, with the Ho-Chunk (Winnebago), and Sauk. Other treaties were made with the Pottawatomies of the Illinois, the Piankeshaw, Osago, Iowa, Kansa, Fox, Kickapoo, and bands of the Dakota (Sioux). The posts of Prairie du Chien (at the conflux of the Wisconsin River with the Mississippi River) and Michilimackinac (at the Michigan Strait in the Great Lakes) were reoccupied.

Württemberg joined the German Confederation.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 1st of 9 M 1815 / My H & John spent the Afternoon at D Buffum Junrs. Sister Rith & I joined them at tea & spent the evening with them - this is the first visit I have ever paid David & Susan since they were house keepers

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 2, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 2nd of 9th M / I have had the teeth Ach & the head ach all Day & this Afternoon, I find the difficulty increased - Anne & Nancy Almy gave us a short call this forenoon which was pleasant. - I see by the Newspaper of this day that John Benson son of the late Martin Benson, has within a week or two been drowned at Sea, he was a distant relation of mine on the Wanton side, - he was a steady young man, & remarkably afable in his deportment & having known him intimately from his boyhood felt an attachment to him -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 September 3, Sunday: The Reverend Timothy Flint and Mrs. Abigail Hubbard Flint were dismissed from the membership of the Congregational Church in the Lunenburg portion of Fitchburg, to the First Church in Salem, Massachusetts.¹⁷⁰

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 3rd of 9th M 1815 / I have staid at home all Day with the Tooth Ach & Ague in my face - My H & John attended Meeting & said in the forenoon Father Rodman & Mary Morton preached & in the Afternoon Father, D Buffum & Ruth Weaver.—

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 4, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 4th of 9th M / My Ague & Tooth Ach hangs on very hard I had little or no sound sleep last night & it has not been sufficiently easy thro' the day to admit of my taking a nap - This circumstance prevents my attending the Meeting Appointed this Afternoon for Uncle Wm Mitchell & Mary Willcox to Solemnize their marriage - My H, John & Polly Mclish went & say there was no preaching, but that the Meeting was large & well conducted - & that the old couple performed their cerimony with propriety -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 5, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 5th of 9 M / The Ague in my face was somewhat better this morn'g tho' more swollen than Yesterday. this Afternoon it seems to be very painful again, but got easy just before I went to bed. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 6, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 6th of 9 M / Soon After I got into bed last night my face began to ach & as fast as I got easy in one position my head & neck would be so tired that it proved an inducement to try another. So it went on for a long time & I thought I could sympathise with some I have seen on a Sick bed who could find no comfortable place to lay their "Aching head & weary limbs" - however I caught short naps thro' the night & feel if any thing rather better than yesterday morning - Tho' appearances were favorable in the morning, yet I have had much hard pain thro' the Day, also In the eveng I suffered considerable but on the ¹⁷⁰. There doesn't seem to be any evidence that this was anything more than a polite fiction. There's no record to show, for instance, that any of the members of this immediate family (as opposed to the extended group of Flint relatives) actually resided in Salem or ever became involved with that First Church in Salem.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*Average I think I have been better than yesterday -
Father & Mother Rodman took tea with us - Cousin Hannah Gardiner
& my Mother set the eveng - Uncle Earl Job Sherman & B & D Dorman called a little while -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 7, Thursday: Carl Maria von Weber arrived back in Prague intent on ending his relationship with the Estates Theater.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 7th of 9 M 1815 / Last eveing Elisha Thornton came [teacher and educator] to Town & was at our Meeting today & one appointed by him at 5 OC for the inhabitants of the Town - In the forenoon My H told me he had much to communicate both in Testimony & Supplication & again in Testimony & supplication this Afternoon - I am so unwell that I thought best not to go out - tho' I did this mornng, while the sun shone warm, go as far as father R's to carry John to school - The Ague in my face is not quite as tedious as yesterday but I have more fever upon me.
-*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 8, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 8th of 9th M / Elisha Thornton has an appointed meeting at Portsmouth this forenoon. - I have been better on the whole but far from well May H, John & I took tea this Afternoon with Cousin Borden & Mary Tillinghast

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 9, Saturday: John Singleton Copley died in London at the age of 77.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 9th of 9 M / Last night took a portion of Jalap & Calomel which I think must be beneficial from the effect produced but my face continues to Ach considerably yet - Rather a hard time with my face this eveng, tho' it has been pretty comfortable some parts of the Day -- Elishas Thornton, in town toaday & expects to be at Meeting tomorrow

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

September 10, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 10th of 9th M / Though my face was not in very good condition I attended Meetings - Elisha in the forenoon was large & much favor'd in testimony - In the Afternoon he again was much favor'd in testimony tho' life was several times low in the course of it yet it rose again & I believe his services was greatly owned - in Supplication he was great indeed - Some thought they never heard any thing equal to it - Hannah & I with John, took tea with him at father Rodmans, & we were gratified with an opportunity in his company.-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 11, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 11th of 9th M 1815 / Elisha Thornton left Town this Mornng for home. - I am now pretty much restored to my usual health - a little fever however hangs about me & my face is a little swollen - I feel thankful for the favor - pain of body, is heard [hard] to bear, but a little now & then may teach us how to apprise health when we have it

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 12 Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 12 of 9 M / Wm Thurston & his Wife of N York & Sally Easton Set the Afternoon & eveng with us - & Sister Ruth joined us at tea. - Their visit was very pleasant.-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

September 13, Wednesday: Newspapers were announcing the successful “conclusion” of a treaty with the Dey of Algiers:

TREATY WITH ALGIERS.
WASHINGTON CITY, SEPT. 5.
We understand that despatches have been received from Com. Decatur, announcing the pleasing intelligence of his having, on the part of the United States, concluded a treaty of peace with the Dey of Algiers. With the conditions of the treaty of course we are unacquainted; but we learn generally that they are such as Com. Decatur thought proper to dictate.

Copy of a letter from Com. Decatur to the Secretary of the Navy, dated U. S. ship Guerriere, off Cape Palos,
June 20, 1815.

SIR—I have the honour to inform you, that on the 19th inst. off Cape Palos, the squadron under my command captured an Algerine brig of twenty-two guns and one hundred and eighty men. After a chase of three hours, she ran into shoal water, where I did not think it advisable to follow with our large ships, but despatched the Epervier, Spark and Spitfire, to whom she surrendered after a short resistance. Twenty-three men were found dead on board. We received from her eighty prisoners, the residue of her crew having left her in boats. Many of them must have been killed by the fire of our vessels, and one of the boats was sunk. None of our vessels, sustained any damage, nor was there a

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 13 of 9 M / This morn'g between 9 & 10 OC My dear & very affectionate Mother Sail'd in the Sloop Express Capt Bliss for N York with a fine fresh wind a little to the eastward of North. —She expects to be gone some weeks & tho I do not live in the house with her Yet seeing her every day shall miss her much —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 September 14, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 14th of 9 M / Our Meeting was mostly silent - there were divers present whose faces seem'd to bespeak devotion, & for a Season It Seem'd as if my mind was favor'd, but dicoragement prevailed Subjects that were unprofitable intruded on the mind
& the savor of the early part of the meeting was hreatly impaired
Tho' I trust not wholly lost*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 15, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 15 of 9 M / Took tea with my H at Thos Peckhams - In the eveng took a walk with Sister Mary to the lower end of the town & stoped a while at the Widow Avis Carpenters

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 16, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 16 of 9 M / Heard today of a dirty case on Nantucket, which is a warning to all, to look well to their standing. The tempter is allways at work & I believe few, very few if any have attained to that State which renders them secure from his attacks. - I have humbly to confess that at no time in my life have I felt a greater necessity to crave the blessing of preservation than of late, & especially within a few Days -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 17, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 17 of 9 M 1815 / Our meetings were both Silent excepting in the Afternoon a short but very sweet & encoraging testimony from Mary Morton - In the eveng went over to her fathers & set a while in their interesting company

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 21, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 21 of 9 M / Our meeting was a comfortable season -Daniel Clapp from Pomfret expressed a few words signifying that he felt that among us which united in perfect brotherhood -Sister Eliza set the Afternoon, & Sally Brown joined us in the evening. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 22, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

HDTWHAT?INDEXSTEPHEN WANTON GOULD*FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

6th day 22 of 9 M / We took tea with Aunt A Carpenter – A wet & rather dreary day within & without. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 23, Saturday: Unable to persuade his king Louis XVIII to appeal to the allies to rescind or modify their ultimatum, Charles Maurice de Talleyrand-Périgord, prince de Bénévent resigned as Prime Minister of France.

During the 18th Century there had been some 15 violent storms sweeping across New England, but none of them approached the fury of the hurricane that hit the southern New England coastline at 9AM on this day, known as the “Great September Gale of 1815.” The eye of the hurricane came ashore at Old Lyme in Connecticut and the greatest destruction was done along the path of the storm’s “eastern quarter,” such as in Providence.

1815. The glad tidings of Peace were announced here February 12, and our streets were thronged with delighted men and women, and resounded with acclamations of joy. The town was brilliantly illuminated in the evening, and although it was intensely cold, the streets were thronged to a late hour by persons of both sexes and of all ages, and the sound of mirth resounded from almost every dwelling. Many, however, who had been carried along by this tide of rejoicing, had cause to mourn when the excitement

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

had subsided, and the "sober second thought" of reflection had returned. They had speculated largely, when prices were high, and vast amounts were invested in merchandise, the value of which, on restoration of peace, "fell, like Lucifer, never to rise again." Many failures were the consequence; but to people at large, peace came as a blessing.

This year was signalized by the Great Storm and high tide. The storm commenced Sept. 22, and the wind was violent, and increasing through the night and the succeeding morning, many houses were unroofed, and other blown down. The tide on the 23d, rose to an extraordinary height, the gale from the South-East was of unparalleled severity, both combined, they drove the principal part of the shipping in the harbor from its moorings up the river against Weybosset bridge, which in short time gave way, and the whole was driven up and landed on the northern shore of the cove. A large sloop was left a considerable distance North of Great Point, now the site of the State Prison, and between that point and the upper part of the Canal basin, were upwards of thirty sail, of a burthen from 500 tons downwards. The water entirely filled the lower stories of the buildings in Market-street, west of the bridge, and a portion of the brick wall of the Washington Insurance building, in the third story, was broken in by the bowsprit of the ship Ganges, as she was driven rapidly by in the foaming current. A sloop of some 50 or 60 tons was driven across Weybosset-street, into Pleasant-street, where she grounded. The Baptist meeting-house, built for Rev. Mr. Cornell, near Muddy Dock, now Dorrance-street, was entirely destroyed. Many houses, stores and barns were swept from the wharves in South Water, Weybosset and some other streets, into the cove, where many of them were crushed to pieces. The water at the junction of Westminster and Orange-streets was at least six feet in depth. Two human beings only here lost their lives in this storm, which was matter of great wonder, when so many were perilled. No measures were taken to ascertain the damage done by the storm, but it was estimated at about a million of dollars.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

A large trunk of the public papers of former Rhode Island governor Stephen Hopkins were swept out of the house in which they were stored, and lost (Hopkins's house, which now stands adjacent to Benefit Street, at that time stood adjacent to what is now Main Street, within reach of the waters). By noon the storm had passed up into the wildernesses of the north and was breaking up, but the high winds had stalled the ebbing of the high tide, and then over these high waters came rushing the additional waters driven by the storm, pushing up Narragansett Bay and concentrating at the docks of Providence. First there had been the fury of the wind and then came the fury of the water:

Wind:

The vessels there were driven from their moorings in the stream and fastenings at the wharves, with terrible impetuosity, toward the great bridge that connected the two parts of the town. The gigantic structure was swept away without giving a moment's check to the vessel's progress, and they passed to the head of the basin, not halting until they were high up on the bank....

Water:

Stores, dwelling houses, were seen to reel and totter for a few moments, and then plunge into the deluge. A moment later their fragments were blended with the wrecks of vessels, some of which were on their sides, that passed with great rapidity and irresistible impetuosity on the current to the head of the cove, to join the wrecks already on the land.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Some 500 buildings were destroyed in this city. The Indiaman Ganges was forced all the way up Westminster Street to Eddy Street, where its bowsprit pierced the 3rd story of the city's Market House.¹⁷¹

In Providence, Rhode Island, Friend Moses Brown would be making a detailed tabulation of the various trees that had toppled in his yard. The salt spray was carried from the ocean 40 or 50 miles inland. Apples and other fruit were blown off the trees, the corn was injured, and fences and trees were prostrated. In particular the 171. Some 4-foot-long metal tubes jammed into the marshy soil and sediment layers at Succotash Marsh in East Matunuck, Rhode Island (at the west side of the ocean entrance of the Narragansett Bay) by Tom Webb of the Geological Sciences Department of Brown University, have revealed that there has been a series of overwash fans created by storm tidal surges, indicating that seven category-three hurricanes have struck Narragansett lowlands in about the past millennium. The 1st such overwash fan that has been revealed dated to the period 1295-1407CE, the 2nd to the period of roughly the first half of the 15th Century, the 3rd to approximately 1520CE (give or take a few decades), and the 4th to the historic storm of the 14th and 15th of August, 1635. The 5th such overwash fan obviously dates specifically to this historic storm of September 23, 1815.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

original apple tree near Woburn MA of the Loammi Baldwin apple got knocked over:

At the time Captain Paul Cuffe's ship was fortunately out of harm's way in New-York and Philadelphia.

In Newport, Stephen Wanton Gould recorded in his journal that:

7th day 23 of 9 M / This forenoon we had the most severe Gale that Newport ever experienced - it commenced before day break to Rain Thunder & lighten, continued to increase gradually till a little before 9 OC when it suddenly increased & the tide rose with surprising velocity such as was never seen before - The wind & tide making such devastation of Vessels houses Stores & even lives as appalled all Skill to save. The destruction of houses was chiefly on the Long Wharf & on the Point - Andrew Allens wife, three children & a girl that lived with them were all in the house when it went off into the cove & they were all drowned - Over the Beach John Irish in attempting to save his boat was drowned - & two men who lived with Godfrey Hazard in trying to save their Sheep were also drowned. - Shocking was the Scene I have no powers to describe it, tho' at a more lesure

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Moment I intend to attempt a more full description Our cellar was full of Water, but we lost nothing of consequence. - We were humbly thankful it was no worse

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Many boats were destroyed at Boston wharves:

I recollect being engaged near my father's saw-mill handling lumber with my brothers [Adin Ballou was 12 years old

The tempest, which began about 7 o'clock in the morning, reached its height at noon, when it was little else than a hurricane. Multitudes of people were filled with terror and consternation. I confess that I was, and hastening to my chamber, obtained what relief and composure I could from the unseen world by earnest supplication. I gained something of trust and calmness, but hardly enough to overcome all my fearful apprehensions, for there seemed to be no place of refuge from impending danger and my faith was not of the surest type.

When the storm subsided, the inhabitants of southern New England looked with amazement on the devastations it had caused. Inland the noblest timber lots were covered with prostrate trees and upturned earth, the finest orchards were laid waste, rail-fences, wood, and lumber were scattered far and wide, roads were rendered impassable by accumulated debris, and incalculable damage had been done to buildings on every hand, many of the lighter ones being wholly destroyed. In seaport towns and along the shore, still greater havoc, if possible had been wrought. The ocean rolled in upon the coast its mountainous waves, which, in thickly settled localities, inundated the wharves, streets, and exposed places of business, filled the cellars and lower stories of dwellings and warehouses near the water line, causing the occupants to flee for their lives, and destroying immense amounts of property that chanced to be within reach. The wind drove before it all sorts of sea-craft, even the largest vessels, sinking some, wrecking others, and landing many high on the beach, far away from tide-water. The remains of sloops and schooners, gradually dismantled and abandoned, appeared on the sand banks and along the coast for years, victims of the Storm-King's insatiate power. Such was the "great gale" of 1815, the like whereof has never been seen by New Englanders since the Pilgrims landed on Plymouth Rock.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Many of the trees on the Boston Common were blown down.

When, in A WEEK ON THE CONCORD AND MERRIMACK RIVERS, Henry David Thoreau would argue for the liberty to travel unnecessarily on the Sabbath, he was arguing against one of the pet projects of the very most prominent citizen of his town, Squire Samuel Hoar. For a story had it that when the great hurricane of 1815 had devastated the woodlands around Concord, one old farmer exclaimed:

I wish the wind'd come on Sunday! -Sam Hoar would've stopped it.

A WEEK: History has remembered thee; especially that meek and humble petition of thy old planters, like the wailing of the Lord's own people, "To the gentlemen, the selectmen" of Concord, praying to be erected into a separate parish. We can hardly credit that so plaintive a psalm resounded but little more than a century ago along these Babylonish waters. "In the extreme difficult seasons of heat and cold," said they, "we were ready to say of the Sabbath, Behold what a weariness is it." – "Gentlemen, if our seeking to draw off proceed from any disaffection to our present Reverend Pastor, or the Christian Society with whom we have taken such sweet counsel together, and walked unto the house of God in company, then hear us not this day, but we greatly desire, if God please, to be eased of our burden on the Sabbath, the travel and fatigue thereof, that the word of God may be nigh to us, near to our houses and in our hearts, that we and our little ones may serve the Lord. We hope that God, who stirred up the spirit of Cyrus to set forward temple work, has stirred us up to ask, and will stir you up to grant, the prayer of our petition; so shall your humble petitioners ever pray, as in duty bound –" And so the temple work went forward here to a happy conclusion. Yonder in Carlisle the building of the temple was many wearisome years delayed, not that there was wanting of Shittim wood, or the gold of Ophir, but a site therefor convenient to all the worshippers; whether on "Buttrick's Plain," or rather on "Poplar Hill."

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Many of the local historians of Concord, and many Thoreauvian scholars, have made this sort of connection. It is the sort of connection in which they deal, between one prominent citizen of Concord MA with prominent attitudes and another prominent citizen of Concord MA with prominent attitudes. It is, I might say, an easy association. But how many such historians and scholars know that when Thoreau would grow up in Concord in the following generation, and would take such attitudes, he was seconding the attitudes of the great Quaker preacher, Elias Hicks? For Hicks had pronounced in opposition to the so-called Blue Laws, laws which for instance entitled the Quakers of Philadelphia to stretch chains across the public street during their First Day silent worship in order to prevent the noise of the passage of carriages. For Hicks, First Day was just another day, of no greater or lesser holiness than any other weekday. He would come in from the fields, change his clothing, put on his gloves, and go off to Meeting for Worship on First Day just as he would come in from the fields, change his clothing, put on his gloves, and go off to Meeting for Worship on Fourth Day (Wednesday). But this was not merely a matter of preference for Friend Elias, any more than it was a matter of preference for Squire Hoar: it was a principle. Blue laws were laws, and laws were enacted by governments, and therefore such laws were infringements upon religion, sponsored by the state apparatus which should be allowed have no connection whatever with religion. In this direction lay a great danger, sponsored by the Squires of this world who would like nothing better than to be able to legislate the religious convictions of other people. Thus, when the Governor of New York issued a Thanksgiving Proclamation, Friend Elias was greatly alarmed, that he *“has by recommending a religious act united the civil and ecclesiastical authorities, and broken the line of partition between them,

so wisely established by our enlightened Constitution, which in the most positive terms forbids any alliance between church and state, and is the only barrier
for the support of our liberty and independence.*

*For if that is broken down all is lost and we become the vassals of priestcraft, and designing men,
who are reaching after power
by subtle contrivance to domineer over the consciences of their fellow citizens.”*

ELIAS HICKS

The terminology and the cadence was not Thoreauvian, but Thoreau's attitudes as proclaimed in A WEEK ON THE CONCORD AND MERRIMACK RIVERS would be identical with this.

SEPARATION OF CHURCH AND STATE

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Subsequent to this historic gale, and in consequence of it, John Farrar, Hollis Professor of Mathematics and Natural Philosophy at Harvard College, who had since 1807 been maintaining and analyzing weather records in Cambridge, would be able to elaborate upon the insights of Benjamin Franklin into the nature of the “nor’easter” weather phenomenon by conceptualizing such hurricanes as “a moving vortex and not the rushing forward of a great body of the atmosphere” (he had noted not only the lagging times of arrival of the winds at Boston versus New-York and the wind’s opposite directionality, as had Franklin, but had also been able to analyze mathematically the veering of the wind as a fluid phenomenon).

September 24, Sunday: Armand Emmanuel du Plessis, Duc de Richelieu replaced Charles Maurice de Talleyrand-Périgord, prince de Bénévvent as prime minister of France.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 24th of 9 M 1815 / Was this forenoon called out as a member of Engine Company N 5 to clear the Streets so that in case of fire the Engine might pass - we worked hard and effected our purpose, & it was shocking to behold the poor sufferers looking round among the ruins to look for the few things which remained of theirs - many of them had their all blown away - In the Afternoon, I went to Meeting & after tea we saw the funeral of poor Allens wife & three Children which was as long, & I believe the longest, I ever saw. The young woman who lived with them was buried from the Point - on the edge of the evening My H Sister R & Polly Macklish took a walk on the point to view the Ruins - a sad & sorrowful Sight

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 25, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2 day 25 of 9 M / Went this Afternoon to carry a bequest of some old cloaths from Uncle Stanton to old Jonathon Walker who told me he was born in April 1728 - his sister Sarah is totally blind & they live together - I dont know as I eversaw (on every count) two more wretched looking beings - Our Alms house is cleaner, their beds look as if they were worn out, & what remains of them exceeding dirty - It was affecting to see them, & it afforded some little releaf to think I had the means of helping them a little

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 September 28, Thursday: Nicolò Paganini's lawyer submitted abundant testimony and evidence as to the low moral character of Angiolina Cavanna to a Genoa court, in support of his claim that he had been the victim of an extortion plot by her father Ferdinando Cavanna, a poor tailor. The father would reduce his accusation of "abusing the innocence" of 17-year-old Angiolina to "breach of promise."

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 28 of 9 M / In the first meeting Hannah Dennis Prayed & Father Rodman preached – in the last (Monthly) buisness went on pretty well considering– J Dennis served as clerk in the absense of D Williams – I thought life was low – At dinner we had Sarah Fowler, Elizabeth Lawton & wife & Geo Dennis

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 October 1, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 1st of 10 M 1815 / Our meeting this forenoon was a comfortable season to many present – D Buffum was (for him) large in testimony. Then John Weaver read the London Epistle for last year – then Mary Morton appeard in a Sweet testimony – In the Afternoon we were Silent but I believe it was a season of favor –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 October 5, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 5 of 10 M / Our Meeting was Silent – Life low in my mind, tho' I trust others were refreshed by the incomes of it

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 October 6, Friday: Great Britain annexed Ascension Island in the South Atlantic.

The Genesee Packet arrived at Fort Niagara, New York.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 6 of 10 M ? / This forenoon went over to Avis Knowles to carry Lydia Tucker a few things sent by Aunt A Carptner for her comfort – found Lydia low & wearing out fast. – as I was returning in Washington street I met with Our old neighbor Saml Vinson who asked me to walk with him further up as he had a mind to view the ravages of the late Storm & visit the place where he served his time which is now The Goddards shop, in walking round it, he related many Anecdotes of his youth with his usual pleasantry – we then took a turn as far up as the North Battery & home thro' the street that lead by the Alms house & parted on the parade. Some of his conversation was edifying. he spoke particularly as we passed our Meeting house of his feelings in it when he was a lad & once of latter years on hearing John Casey

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

preach - he said when he reflected now far John had deviated from morality in his Youth & how firmly established & fervent he was now in the Cause of Truth, the consideration was humbling & affecting to his mind

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 7, Saturday: Joachim Murat, brother-in-law of Napoléon Bonaparte, landed at Pizzo with a force of 250 from Corsica, in an attempt to win back the throne of Naples.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 7 of 10 M / My H, & Sister R Set the evening at Thos Robinsons. I joined them the latter part of it very agreeably, as my visits there always prove - Mary Morton expects to leave them in a few days & most probable the Old folks will fell doubly striped when she has left them - They appear to bear their late privation of property by the Storm with firmness, christian firmness. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 8, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 8th of 10 M 1815 / Our forenoon meeting was very small owing to the rain. M Morton was concerned in a short but very lively testimony - In the Afternoon the meeting was larger & silent -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 12, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 12 of 10 M / Our meeting was pretty well attended. Anne Greene was concerned in a lively & engaging testimony addressed to the Youth - Then D Buffum in a lively & pertinent communication recommended & enforced the "necessity of Self examination." The meeting I thought a favor'd one - Rebecca Waterhouse & Abigail Grelea, also Sister Mary took tea with us & Set the evening -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 15, Sunday: Napoléon Bonaparte reached St. Helena and his final exile. Who?

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 15 of 10 M / Yesterday & today I have been quite Sick with a great Cold which has prevented my attending Meeting My H went this Afternoon & said Anne Greene & Hannah Hosier bore testimony to the Truth - In the course of the day I have read most of James Goughs Journal, many parts of it has proved

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

edifying to my mind

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 October 18, Wednesday: Two numbers for a play celebrating the Battle of Leipzig by Carl Maria von Weber, Wer stets hinter'n ofen kroch J.186 and Wie wir voll Glut J.187, were performed for the initial time, in Prague.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 18 of 10 M / My Cold is getting better today My H & John are taken with it & both seem to be pretty strongly affected

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 October 19, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 19 of 10 M / A Silent meeting & to me a pretty good one -My H & John are still quite poorly with the influenza-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 October 22, Sunday: Helen Louisa Thoreau's 3d birthday.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 22 of 10 M 1815 / In the forenoon meeting our friend D Buffum was engaged in a lively testimony. - In the Afternoon our frd Joseph Taber & Stephen Carpenter from Vermont were at meeting & Joseph proved himself to be a deep Baptizing Minister tho' apparantly a young man - they came upon us quite unexpectedly -we heard nothing of their being in this country till it was mentioned at the close of the morning meeting, but their coming was somewhat like the coming of Titus to the brethren formerly -it had Seemed like a low time among us for some times, & I trust the preaching of Joseph was a comfort to many present - his supplication was living & powerful.-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 October 26, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 26 of 10 M / Rode with B Hadwen to Portsmouth to sttend the Moy [Monthly] Meeting - My H having a hoarse & severe cold which rendered her unable to go & attend to the Services of the day as Clerk - We stoped a few minutes at Saml Thurstons before meeting - The first meeting was Silent & the last heavy & so much of a certain disposition prevaling that as respects myself -, I doubt whether I gained much benefit by it. when money is to be raised the wheels are always cloged, & while there are individuals who do not do their proportion of the expence of Society - there must always be trials which without great care & christian forbearance, will create disunity - We dined at

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Cousin Zacheus Chases, found the old man comfortable to what I expected, & the family whom I have long loved, enjoying themselves in good degree as in former times but I think Cousin Chase & his wife are verging fast to the final close tho' they may yet live to see many go before them who are much younger –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 29, Sunday: Dan Emmett was born in Mount Vernon, Ohio.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 29th of 10th M 1815 / Our Morning meeting was silent. In the Afternoon our Frd D Buffum was very lively in a short Testimony "If thou does well shall it not be well with thee, but if thou doest not well Sin layeth at the Door - he observed that before the law, under the law & now in the Christian dispensation, peace was & is the result of doing well & illustrated the subject with much life, which I doubt not reached many minds present as well as my own - In the evening I called a little while at D Williams on buisness, & passed a little while in pleasant conversation - & set the residue at Home

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 30, Monday: Andrew Jackson Downing was born in Newburgh, New York. His parents Samuel Downing and Susanna Brown Downing were natives of Lexington, Massachusetts who had removed to upstate New York upon their marriage.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 30 of 10 M / This morning my mind was favor'd with the arisings of life & tenderness & has continued most of the Day in a degree beyond what is usual. I desire to be thankful for the favor. a little relief from the dry destitute & barran condition which I have suffered for several days is refreshing.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 31, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 31 of 10 M / Neighbor Eddy was in the Shop this Morning & in conversation an anecdote of an Indian preacher I thought instructing - he said that an Indian preaching remarked that he compared a white man to an Onion there were many skins to take off before we come to the heart - When the Power of God took hold of a whiteman there were many things to obstruct its progress to the heart - but when the Power of God took hold of the poor Indian he had nothing but his Blanket to be striped of & without it he is naked & bare. -whether the remark is correct with respect to the Indian I leave but certain I think the

HDTWHAT?INDEXSTEPHEN WANTON GOULD*FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULDGO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

comparison is instructive as respects the white man Aunt Patty Gould & Sister Mary Set the Afternoon with us & the latter the evening - John has staid from school today being quite sick with a Cold attended with a hard cough & some considerable fever

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 2, Thursday: George Boole, who would create Boolean logic, was born.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 2nd of 11th M 1815 / A considerable number of friends being absent at the Quarterly Meeting now sitting at Swansea -
Our meeting was quite small, but I trust there were minds present who were favor'd with devotion*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 4, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

7th day 4 of 11 M / Friends who have returned from the Quarterly Meeting give a favorable account - they say Christopher Healy Benjamin Taber & Mary Allen were there & concerned very largely in Public testimony - The first meeting held nearly three hours - & it was late before the last meeting ended - It proved a season of favor, to many minds - I was glad to hear that friends were comforted together & should have been glad to have assembled with them but it did not seem best to leave home at the time for various reasons

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 5, Sunday: Great Britain declared a protectorate over the Ionian Islands.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 5th of 11 M / In the morning our frd D Buffum was concerned in a lively testimony, he said that while he had been sitting the saying of an Ancient Minister whom he had heard in early life had reviewed with considerable force & interest in his mind the saying was "Honesty is the best Policy" this he said he frequently repeated in his public communications & David considered it very important & set forth the necessity of being honest to men, honest to ourselves & honest to God, on the subjects he enlarged to the quickening of some minds present In a manner which I hope will not be forgotten - Hannah Dennis then deliverd a short but lively testimony encouraging us to work in the vineyards of our own hearts for the life was low &c - In the Afternoon father Rodman delivered a short testimony, the first time he has appeard in six weeks -After meeting Attended the funeral of George Hall Aged 83 years -Set the eveng at home

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 9, Thursday: A missionary needs a wife. The Reverend William Ellis got married with Mary Mercy Moor. The couple would be posted by the London Missionary Society to the South Sea Islands.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 9th of 11th M 1815 / Our Meeting was small silent & short, & I believe generally a dull season. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

November 12, Sunday: Elizabeth Cady was born in Johnstown, New York NEW YORK.

ELIZABETH CADY STANTON

With Friend Lucretia Mott she would organize in 1848 the first US women's rights convention, and from 1852 she and Susan B. Anthony would lead the women's movement. She would be the editor of Revolution, a militant women's rights magazine, from 1868 to 1870, and would be president of the National Woman Suffrage Association from 1869 to 1890.

Elizabeth Cady Stanton

FEMINISM

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 12 of 11 M / Our mornng Meeting was silent & I thought solid. - In the Afternoon Anne Greene appear'd in testimony & warned us of the dangers of the "broad road" pointed out the happy consequences of waling in that which is straight & narrow & reminded us that "short running makes long friends" - Father Rodman appear'd in a short communication "Thus saith the Lord of Hosts consider your ways" & improved upon the passage with propriety & I thought his testimony was savory - At this Meeting General Jacob Brown attended, he has made a considerable conspicuous figure on the Military Theatre during the last War -he was formerly a member of our Society & is said to have kept a school in N York, but first departed from us by marrying out, & then became a Military character - he sat in meeting as if he was no stranger to Friends Meetings yet I thought his countenance looked as if he soared above the Witness for Truth in his mind.-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 16, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 17th[sic] of 11th M / Our meeting was small & Silent but I believe was a solid favor'd opportunity - to me it was peculiarly so, untill bodily infirmity prevailed so as to render the mind incapable to enjoy it - And this Afternoon I feel my

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

mind cover'd with the covering that is sweet & precious - but alass my Frailtys how they predominate & hinder my progress -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 19, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 19th of 11th M 1815 / The day was rainy & both meetings were small & silent. three women only in the Afternoon namely Hannah Dennis Ruth Rodman & Aunt Wait Lawton who was in town on a visit. - Set the eveng at home & my H & I read alternately

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 21, Tuesday: Milos Obrenovic I became Prince of Serbia.

“Col. Stephen Pearl, one of the most striking characters among the early settlers of Burlington [Vermont] died, at his home, where for many years distinguished strangers ‘from within or without the state’ and the poor and friendless alike had been received with generous hospitality. Col. Pearl was a captain at Bunker Hill, a colonel of the Rutland county militia and present at the ‘Rutland Shay’s Rebellion,’ also town clerk of Burlington and sheriff of the county.”¹⁷²

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 21 of 11 M / This morning between 8 & 9 OClock Mother & Uncle Stanton arroved in the Packett Express from N York. Mother has been gone.... Weeks & her return is a very pleasant circumstance.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 28, Tuesday: Ludwig van Beethoven petitioned the Imperial and Royal Landrechte of Lower Austria (court for the nobility and clergy of Lower Austria) to take full guardianship of his 9-year-old nephew Karl van Beethoven.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 28th of 11th M 1815 / This morning John Weaver & his family sailed for Troy in N York State where they expect to settle, thus poor Rhode Island is striped of its active & useful members, & where we shall get or to what state we shall be reduced to is hard to be foreseen, tho' at present I can hardly think the Monthly Meeting is weak, yet I think our streangth is weakening & with the removal or demise of a few more of the Standards, the weighty part will be gone & there does not appear to be any that will be likely to Succeed them with equal usefulness - Sister Mary Spent the day & evening with us. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 November 30, Thursday: Meyer Beer (Giacomo Meyerbeer), his brother, and a servant departed from Paris for a trip to London.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 30 of 11th M / Our Monthly Meeting this day held in Town was well attended, a short testimony in the first meeting by father Rodman – In the last our discussions were of no great moment, & there was evidently but little life among us – Uncle Saml Thurston & J Lawton & Job Weedon dined with us – Eunice Earl & Sister Elizabeth set the evening & took tea with us. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 December 1, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 1st of 12 M 1815 / Rode This morning to Portsmouth with Brother Isaac to attend the funeral of Phebe Chase wife of my cousin Isaac Chase who departed this life quietly about 6 OClock in the evening last 3rd day. We got to the house about 1 / 2 an hour after the funeral had moved & the air being very cool & we suffering with the cold concluded to go in & set a little while in Silent Sympathy with cousin Isaac & his family & found him & one of his Sons So much unwell as to be unable to leave the room – the funeral was At 10 OClock Am & at 12 at the meeting house. The latter circumstance we were not acquainted with or as cold as it was we should have rode on & endeavored to have overtaken the funeral. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 December 3, Sunday: Meyer Beer (Giacomo Meyerbeer) crossed the English Channel from Calais to Dover. This required 8 hours.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 3rd of 12th M 1815 / In the morning the meeting was pretty well attended, quiet & solid. A Greene preached towards the close – In the Afternoon silent & solid but discouragement greatly my lot – In the evening set a little while at D Williams –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 December 7, Thursday: Elizabeth Hussey Whittier was born. (It is necessary to disambiguate between two persons of this name, one having been the sister of John Greenleaf Whittier and the other his niece, called “Lizzie.” This is the sister.)

Marshal Michel Ney was executed by firing squad in a Paris street (he would be the only one of Napoléon Bonaparte’s marshals to be put to death).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

5th day 7th of 12 M / Our meeting was Small on the womens side of the house in consequence of the Rain - I thought it a season of favor, tho' "Jacob was very small" Yet a current of life appear'd to flow. - Hannah Dennis was very lively her opening was "Is there no balm in Gilead & is there not a Physician there." In the forepart of the meeting Jonathon Dennis requested that we set more compact which was repeated by father Rodman - Friends have heretofore been in the habit of Sitting scattering, Some near the door, whose age and standing would render a forward seat more appropriate. -
Last eveng about 10 OClock Died at Portsmouth Ruth Bringhurst widow of James Bringhurst late of Philadelphia -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 9, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day [sic] 9 of 12 M / After dinner walked out to John Weedens & with him rode to W Shermans to visit his son Jacob in the capacity of overseers. we staid there some time & labor'd with him in the ability afforded, which was as much to my own satisfaction as I could expect but whether we left any favorable impression on him is uncertain. John carried me round by Richard Mitchells where we stoped & warmed - I then walked to cousin Chases & staid all night, found the Old man recruiting a little after a Severe attack of the influenzy which with his other complaints proves almost to much for his constitution - 1st day forenoon being cold & unpleasant I staid with cousin Chase till after dinner then walked home in Season to attend Our Afternoon Meeting Afternoon Henry Sherburns wife was buried - Also Francis Amie Alias Friend, the poor man was in [sic]

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 14, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 14 of 12 M 1815 / Attended meeting & tho' my mind has been pretty closely occupied in worldly concerns for the present Week, the opportunity was such as made me glad to be present -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 17, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day [sic] 17 of 12 M / Meetings both Silent - In the Afternoon my feelings were excited towards a young woman a member of Society & relation of mine who has lately married out of the good & correct order of Society (M E) whether the concern will amount to sufficient to pay her a visit I cannot Yet tell, - but the predominating desire of my mind is that she may not forsake the religion of her fathers & tho' she may be disowned I hope it may rouse her to a Sense of the value of her birth right & be the means of coming into society with usefulness, to

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

us & benefit to herself-

Between meetings Benjamin Stanton Son of Benjamin Stanton of St Johns called to see us. he is second cousin to me & a branch of relationship which my father set much by - he came in for harbor for his Vessel Bound for N York & goes away again this Afternoon

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 21, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 21st of 12 M 1815 / I desire not to complain but do what I can in my day & generation, but certainly considering my outward circumstances my time is more occupied in the concerns of Society than I can afford - by ten OC this forenoon I was at the meeting house to fix the stove pipe - In the first meeting which was silent & well attended & the last which was preparative I set, then directly met with a committee to consider the State of the poor -we did not get thro' till almost 4 OC in the Afternoon, this consumed about 6 hours of my time today & put me behind hand in my work -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 22, Friday: In Prague, a cantata that Carl Maria von Weber had composed after the Battle of Waterloo, "Kampf und Sieg," was performed for the initial time. Although due to a storm and due to the Christmas season, the audience was a small one, applause was vigorous.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 22 of 12 M 1815 / On 4th day last the 20th inst Died after an illness of a few minutes in Little Compton that Aged friend & Patriarch Jeremiah Austin Senr Aged about 83 years - There are few men who have gone from works to reward that have left a Savor of christian Deportment so Sweet behind them "Behold an Israelite indeed in whom there is no Guile" I never had much acquaintance with him, as he came but seldom to Town & I went but seldom where he was, but I have sought all possible, or at least convenient opportunities to be in his company & have never failed to be much interested, either by his looks, which were Sweet & innocent, or by his conversation - he had lived long & was a very Active member in Society, faithful to the testimony in every respect, & a good example in plainness - his anecdotes of the trials he passed thro' when he was a member of one of the Meeting at or near the Long Plains - in the time of the Recoluntary War, when a number of friends fell off & Advocated War, was very teaching to a young mind. he sat one day some Years ago in my shop & related much of those days to me - his services in the Church for many years were great & certainly I believe no Star in the brightest constellation of heaven shone brighter in its orb, than did this heavenly minded man in his. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

December 24, Sunday: The initial concert of the Boston Handel and Haydn Society took place at King's Chapel, Boston. Excerpts from the works of the two namesakes were performed by about 100 men and women singers, with organ and 12 other instruments.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 24 of 12 M / The Mornng Meeting was a season of favor for which I desire to be thankful - In the Afternoon a groveling time -both meetings were silent - the morning was small in the womens side of the house in consequence of a little Rain & bad walking -Better attended in the Afternoon - This Afternoon Henry Sherburns wife was buried - Also Francis Amie Alias Friend. The poor man was in my shop in the Morning of the 20th inst. went home & after a little while went upstairs & lay down & when they went to call him to dinner, behold he was no More. - Tho' this poor man had been long unwell Yet the Sudden & unexpected call from time to Eternity is a solemn warning to Survivors.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 25, Monday: Meeresstille und glückliche Fahrt, a cantata by Ludwig van Beethoven to words of Johann Wolfgang von Goethe, was performed for the initial time, in the großen Redoutensaal, Vienna along with the premiere of his overture Namensfeier.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 25 of 12 M 1815 / This has been a very pleasant day for the Time called Christmas. The forepart of it was a clear sky & fine wholesome Air - The Afternoon was some cloudy as was the evening & the Air more raw - it is a great favor to the Poor of the Town that Winter thus keeps off - we have had no snow yet, & wood is plenty tho' at the great price of $8 P Cord -- My H set the Afternoon at Br Davids - Rebecca Sessions set the evening with us -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 28, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 28th of 12 M / Rode with Sister Ruth to Portsmouth to attend the Monthly Meeting - found ourselves very cold by the time we got to Uncle S Thurstons where we stoped & warmed, then rode to meeting. - In the first H Dennis prayed - In the last we had but little buisness, but life was apparently so low that it took us a considerable time to transact it -After meeting we dined at Uncle Thurstons & rode home - Mt H had concluded to go to Portsmouth last night, but her own & Johns indisposition prevented this morning -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

December 30, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*7th day 30 of 12 M 1815 / This day completed the 34th Year of my Age - to have lived 34 years & to be no better is real cause for Alarm - The Year rolls round but I feel Sensibly that it has gone, forever gone from me, & the reflection naturally arises that I am one Year nearer the Grave
John has been better to day for which I feel a degree of thankfulness -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 31, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 31 of 12 M 1815 / Our meetings were very small owing to the very sloppy walking but few women attended - In the morning father Rodman delivered a short testimony - My own condition was truly poor, tho' I labor'd to get my mind fixed on serious subjects yet turn which way I would unprofitable & unsuitable matter for the occasion would work in - Thus I was renewedly confirmed that times & seasons are not at our command.
-
John has not been quite so well as yesterday, I believe Worms are his greatest difficulty.*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

“NARRATIVE HISTORY” IS FABULATION, HISTORY IS CHRONOLOGY

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1816

January 1, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 1st of 1st M 1816 / Behold another Year has come & I have nearly finished another Day of it & am now about to retire to rest for the night - Nothing very remarkable has taken place -the day has passed rather pleasantly & this eveng Br David called & set a little while with us, & I read to him Job Scotts poetical letter to M Leadbeater & her reply. - John has been apparently a little better today —¹⁷³

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 2, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 2 of 1 M / Our old neighbor Mary Donally Departed this life about Noon - she was a truly christian character in whose company both my wife & I have passed a considerable time much to our instruction. She was a Presbyterian, but modes of faith amounts to but little

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

173. Stephen Wanton Gould Diary, 1815-1823: The Gould family papers are stored under control number 2033 at the Division of Rare and Manuscript Collections of Cornell University Library, Box 7 Folder 12 for August 24, 1815-September 25, 1823; also on microfilm, see Series 7

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

January 3, Wednesday: The Recorder appeared in Boston, Massachusetts. This was the second religious newspaper published. From the different claims which have been made for its establishment, it appears that Nathaniel Willis 1st conceived the idea of such a paper, and printed the Recorder, of which Sidney Edwards Morse was the 1st editor.

Meyer Beer (Giacomo Meyerbeer) arrived back in Paris from London.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 3 of 1st M 1816 / In the morning of Yesterday John seem'd more comfortable but drooped toward night & had a very feverish night & this morning Dr Hazard thinks he has a Settled fever - He has been very poorly thro' the day, his fever exceedingly high & his throat very sore, it is with diffiucly that he swallows Drinks - he however ate a mouthful or two of buckwheat Cake & drank Some tea & was quite bright for an hour afterward, but drooped again before he went to bed - his feet were put in warm Water & rye poultices apply'd to them. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 4, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 4th of 1st M / John slept well last night & is surprisingly better today. - Soon after I took my seat in meeting my mind became quickened & I had for the first Meeting in this Year a very good one, which I hope may prove an Omen for the Succeeding part of it - David Buffum was concerned in a lively testimony "Better is a dinner of herbs where love is, that a Stalled ox & hatred therewith" This Afternoon attended the funeral of Our much esteemed old neighbor Mary Donally - her remains were carried to the Presbyterian Meeting house where I heard a Sermon delivered on the occasion by Hitchcock, the present Minister. - While we lived on the Hill she was our next door neighbor & we contracted an intimacy which has subsisted ever since. She was a pleasant companion, cheerful & innocent in conversation & tho' our religious opinions were different it was no bar to social intercourse - The last time I called to see her, she seemed very glad to see me & told several anecdotes of her Youth that were interesting & entertaining In short but few that I have been acquainted with of any denomination posessed a more Christian disposition - She was 83 Years of Age -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 5, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 5th of 1st M 1816 / Sister Mary Spent the day with us & the Afternoon & evening being stormy she staid all night - John continues better, his situation a few days past gave us great anxiety, - it now appears as if he may be continued longer to us & I desire it may prove a blessing - he now seems to be a

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

promising child & remarkably forward for his Age - Nothing can give me more pleasure (short of reality) to anticipater him a religious & useful member of Society -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Nathan Bond died at the age of 64. His remains would at his request be interred at the side of his mother in Concord.

NATHAN BOND of [Concord], son of Abijah Bond, was born March 31, 1752, and graduated at [Harvard College] in 1772. He was a merchant in Boston, and died there January 5, 1816, aged 64. His remains were interred, at his request, by the side of his mother in Concord.¹⁷⁴

January 7, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 7 of 1st M 1816 / In our morning meeting Anne Greene declared the Truth, in the simplicity of the Truth, & with a good degree of power - In the Afternoon we were silent & to me both were good Meetings - Yesterday John seemed to be pretty smart but today has more fever & is quite drooping we have put his feet in warm water & put burdocks to his feet which with his medecine I hope will procure for the poor little fellow a comfortable night - Sister mary spent the time with us from sixth day morning till this evening, which has been very agreeable to us. - Br Isaac's little Susan Ann I think quite ill this evening with complaint Similar to Johns. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

174. Lemuel Shattuck's 1835 A HISTORY OF THE TOWN OF CONCORD;... Boston MA: Russell, Odiorne, and Company; Concord MA: John Stacy, 1835
(On or about November 11, 1837 Henry David Thoreau would indicate a familiarity with the contents of at least pages 2-3 and 6-9 of this historical study. On July 16, 1859 he would correct a date mistake buried in the body of the text.)

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

January 9, Tuesday: Thomas Jefferson wrote to Charles Thomson that

I am a real Christian, that is to say, a disciple of the doctrine of Jesus, very different from the Platonists, who call me infidel and themselves Christians and preachers of the Gospel, while they draw all their characteristic dogmas from what its author never said nor saw. They have compounded from the heathen mysteries a system beyond the comprehension of man, of which the great reformer of the vicious ethics and deism of the Jews, were he to return to earth, would not recognize one feature.

Sir Humphrey Davy's safety lamp for miners was successfully tested.

Wilhelm replaced Friedrich Wilhelm as Prince and co-ruler of Nassau.

Ludwig van Beethoven won custody of his nephew Karl van Beethoven, in opposition to the lad's mother.

At some point in early January, the head and torso of the statue known then as "younger Memnon" was removed from the complex of ruins in ancient Thebes known as the "Memnonium" (it would appear from the condition of the piece that someone had once attempted to detach the head and torso from the base of the statue by the use of explosives).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 9 of 1st N 1816 / John has been very smart today & yesterday.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 11, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 11th of 1 M / Our meeting was pretty well attended - Father Rodman in a short testimony - to me a season of favor - Sister Ruth set the eveng with us - John seems better but his health not yet established - he is feeble & critical

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 13, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 13th of 1 M / John seems now to be pretty well excepting that his throat is a little sore & he Some weak & tender

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 14, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1st day 14 of 1 M / Our meetings both Silent & both rather Small to me seasons of but little life - Sister Eliza spent the day with us

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 16, Tuesday: Lady Byron arrived at Krikby Mallory. She took with her not only Ada but also a clutch of stories of incest and sodomy that Lord Byron had told to her, that she would tell her parents — that her parents would tell to everyone in Britain.

GEORGE GORDON, LORD BYRON

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 16 of 1 M 1816 / My Mother set the Afternoon & took tea with us - Having the Ague in my teeth this eveng & sat at home & wrote to my fr Hannah Pope in Answer to hers of 10 M last. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 18, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 18th of 1st M / Our meeting was silent - In the last which was Preparative the usual queries were Answered - the committee appointed at last Meeting reported that they had been unable to get any friend to Serve as Clerk, the present one declining another appintment - This seems like a discouraging prospect as indeed it really is, but I am in hopes by another Month some friend will be willing to submit to the service.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 21, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 21 of 1st M / In our forenoon Meeting D Buffum was concern'd in one of the best testimonys I ever heard from him.
"The christians life is a continual warfare" from which he enlarged & pointed out the necessity of guarding against the subtilty of the serpent, the unwiried Adversary of mans happiness &c &c in the Afternoon we were Silent & to me a season of but little benefit my mind being much unsettled most of the meeting - My H has gone this evening to watch with Br Davids little daughter Abby who is very ill -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 January 22, Monday: Captain Oliver Hazard Perry took his new 44-gun frigate USS Java out from the harbor of Newport, Rhode Island on its way to the Mediterranean in the face of a bitter gale (a mast would snap with 10 men aloft, killing 5).

Nathaniel Glover Allen was born to Mary Morrill Allen and the Reverend Wilkes Allen in Chelmsford, Massachusetts.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 22nd of 1st M 1816 / This Afternoon in company with the womens committee as volunteer I visited Mary Goddard (late Gould) in consequence of her having lately Married out of the order of society. Our minds were accompanied with much poverty but we endeavor'd to discharge what Seemed to be our duty, which she seemed to take kind - My mind has for sometimes been drawn toward her & I feel a little legacy of love due as a friend & relation which I now feel glad I Submitted to pay. - It has been my practice ever since the decease of My late Dear Father, to commemorate The Day he left time, by reading a letter which I wrote on the occasion to Uncle & Aunt Stanton giving an extract of my journal at the time - Yesterday was the day, four Years ago that he was taken (I trust) to a better World, & it entirely escaped my mind till this evening- Somedays previous the subject was before me when I read the letter alluded to, & recorded his Death in Mothers Bible. - My H watched last night with Br Davids little Abby who is very ill but better today -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 25, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 25 of 1st M / Our Moy [Monthly] Meeting this day held in Town -In the first, one small offering, of the merit of which I do not judge - to me it was a good Meeting - In the last we had but little buisness. The case of poor D Chase was again before us which was exercising & after Some observations was finally refer'd at the request of a friend - A Anthony dined with us.-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 26, Friday: Pedro Cevallos Guerra replaced Juan Esteban Lozano de Torres as First Secretary of State of Spain.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 26 of 1 M / My beloved Aunt Patty Gould spent the day with us - She committed to John a copper Coin of Portugal of AD 1732 which she has long worn as a pocket peace in token of remembrance of her fr Anne Davis. This peace when I was a child

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

she often gave me to play with as a favor & I hope John will keep it in remembrance of her – this inclusion may seem weak, but I feel an interest in it –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 28, Sunday: In Vienna, the Septet op.74 for piano, flute, oboe, horn, viola, cello and bass by Johann Nepomuk Hummel was performed for the initial time.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 28th of 1st M 1816 / Our Meeting this forenoon was pretty well attended & there was a small offering – in the Afternoon Silent & both to me were Seasons as void of life as any I have been in for some time, but not as painfully depressing as some – In the eveng made several calls the one of the most length was on cousin Anne Greene –

Not allowing for the difference of Old Still it is now just about 100 Years – the 26th of this M since our old predicesor DANIEL GOULD departed this life & doubtless went to Heaven, he was a man zealous for the Truth in his day & a seed of his spirit has remained in the family & in society even since his day – but it is remarkable that none of his decendants ever equaled him in religious eminence & but one of them that I have learned ever became a preacher of the Godpel & She in the female line Vizt Anne Greene who I have visited this evening -- who will, & whether any body will commemorate the nest 100 Years of his death, no one knows I however know that it will not be me, & perhaps it is no matter whether it is or not it is not probable his zeal in the cause of Truth in that time will be forgotten being mentioned in Several historys extant. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 29, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 29th of 1st M / Just had a little conversation with a Young man an acquaintance of mine JS who seems to be just entering on matrimony – I offered him a few observations, grounded in experience in the choice &c which coroborated with his views. I also expressed my Ideas in Several respects which resulted in a pleasant interchange of Sentiment on subjects relative to a christians life & on the whole I considered it a proffitable opportunity

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 31, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 31st of 1st M / Sister Eliza set the evening with us,

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

our conversation turned on Several interesting subjects which I believe were discussed to some proffit - My mind has been much with friends who are at Providence Attending the Quarterly Meeting there - Should be glad to be with them but thought best not to leave home -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 1, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 1st of 2nd M 1816 / A small silent but comfortable Meeting - Several who usually attend were absent at the Quarterly Meeting - & some others staid behind in consequence of the Walking which was very wet Thoughts run much on Quarterly Meeting. I hope they may have a comfortable & profitable Season - Night before last I dreamed of seeing my friend Micajah Collins & last night of seeing Rowland Green it is probable that had I been at Providence today that the vision might have been realized. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 2, Friday: George Gordon, Lord Byron was informed by a letter from Sir Ralph Milbanke that Lady Byron sought to be separated from him.

Karl van Beethoven was officially under the guardianship of his uncle Ludwig van Beethoven, who knew what was best. Taken from his mother, he was entered in the private boarding school of Cajeten Giannatasio del Rio.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 2 of 2 M / Our friends have returned from Quarterly Meeting bringing with them a good report - Micajah & several of our Lynn frs were there - Aslo Tristram Russel a Punlic Fr from York State -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 4, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 4 of 2 M / Our friends A Greene & A Robinson were concerned in testimony in the forenoon Meeting with life, & matter suiting the States (I have no doubt) of many present. In the Afternoon Silent, to me a good meeting - after it attended the funeral of Eloeza Sisson a girl who lived with Capt Luther & a dilligent attender of our first day Meetings tho not a member --. Sister Ruth took tea & set the evening - I called alittle [sic] while at Br D R -- This seems to be the account of the occurrences of the day - & I may add that It has been a day of favor to me for which I desire to be thankful - I have taken a pleasant retrospective view of many things which have passed & felt a desire to press forward after holiness, but Alass my steps are halting -I however esteem it a favor & evidence of the continued extension of divine regard that I am Kept alive so as

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

to Know at Seasons from whence good comes. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 6, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 6 of 2 M 1816 / Attended the funeral of Elizabeth Allen at 10 OC In the forenoon, - her remains were carried to Middletown & there interd in the family burying ground She was a respectable friend - The setting at the house was short but solid & D Buffum had a few words to communicate which I thought was weighty & left a good savor over the gathering. - Last night about 12 OClock a fire broke out in Allens Bake House which for a time was very Alarming, but was soon got under -The inside of the Bake H. was much burned, & fire poured from the top of the chimney - Wind was very light & about N & E which was favorable. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 7, Wednesday: George Gordon, Lord Byron's "The Siege of Corinth" and "Parsinia" were published together.

The Congress of New Granada invested Simón Bolívar with political and military control of the invasion of Venezuela from Haiti.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 7 of 2 M / This forenoon the remains of Elisha Brown were carried to Tiverton to be buried, he died yesterday in a fit on Sherburns Wharf – A solemn warning to survivors - My mind has been this day in a serious mood I hop profitably so. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 8, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 8th of 2 M / Silent meeting, & I thought a good degree of Solemnity covered the gathering - My mind not very Rich – The last day of the last Year I began the Bible & with the exception of one or two, have read a portion every evening since & this evening I have finished the first book of Samuel - The Account given of Sauls forsaken & forlorn condition when he was reduced to the sad alternative of consulting the witch of Endor, was alarming & instructing - Such was his disobedience that he had no open vision from the Lord being forsakewn of him, & his recourse to measures which in better days he had known were evil, served but still deeper to afflict him, as Saml confirmed to him that the Kingdom was rent from him & given to another for his disobedience -& finally, his tragical end on Gilboa, all instructs & humbles the heart or ought to humble the heart of

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

vain Man –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 10, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 10th of 2nd M 1816 / Another day spent with the financing Committee, to but little purpose - B Freeborn, B Mott & P Lawton dined with us. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 11, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 11th of 2 M / Meetings were Silent except a short but savory communication in the Afternoon by C R – to me both were Seasons of exercise, the exercise was of a nature unprofitable-
In the Afternoon a Spaniard was at meeting whose contenance was more interesting than any I ever saw of his Nation Set the evening with My H at Uncle Earls while Sister Mary kept house for us she is spending a few days with us (on our part very agreeably) while she is undergoing The operation of the Kine Pock which she is having finely*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 14, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 14th of 2 M / One Year ago early this morning it was, that our hearts were revived & gladned [sic] with the news of PEACE with England - it was a Happy Day to poor Newport Such enthusiastic Joy was never before witnessed & I hope there never will be the occasion for such again – Since that time there has been many changes, many who Hailed to News of Peace have since paid Natures Debt, & some of them I have no doubt have enter'd that state of existence where "Peace flows like a River" beyond the reach of all sublinary things - We Who yet remain have much to encounter both spiritually & temporally - As respects my temporal concerns they are no better than a year ago but not quite so dubious a prospect in view - And as to my spiritual concerns, I know that I go halting on, but my heart is often humbled under a Sense of the extendings of divine favor still continued & tho' since the present Year has commenced, leanness & Poverty thro' disobedience has often been my lot, yet with in the same space of time, I have seldom in my life witnessed more of Divine good to flow in my Heart –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

February 15, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 15th of 2nd M 1816 / The day very cold & but few women attended Meeting. however & believe it was a season of favor to some Minds -- C R appear'd in a short but lively testimony

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 17, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 17th of 2 M / The mind serious thoughtful on subjects of importance, & my heart raised in Mortal supplication for help. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 18, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 18th of 2nd M / Both Meetings silent & in consequence of Rain & wet walking were Small only seven Women ventured out in the Afternoon & on my own part I was satisfied with that number -I am satisfied that in very stormy weather it is excusable & that none should risk their health who are not sound in that respect.

It seemed as if good was near but there was something between me & it which obstructed the free circulation. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 19, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 19th of 2 M / My H spent the Afternoon at her Fathers & the evening at Br Johns - This evening Sister Mary went home, having spent twelve Days with us (I believe) Mutually Agreeably

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 22, Thursday: Adam Ferguson died at St. Andrews.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 22nd of 2nd M 1816 / Last evening my dear H inform'd me that one of her breasts was Swollen & painful - This concern has like Aarons sepent swallowed all the rest what it will prove to be remains for time to prove, at any rate it has greatly distressed my feelings this Day

At Meeting all silent. - In the Preparative The Overseers reported Jacob Sherman who has married out of the order of Society.—

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

February 23, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 23rd of 2 M / My mind almost constantly depressed with fearful forebodings of my dear Wifes Situation with respect to her breast She says it has been but very little painful today – It would greatly releive me if she could say she had none & that there appeard to be no swelling about it. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 24, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 24th if 2 M / This Afternoon in company with Br overseers R M & J W had an opportunity with a Young man a member of society who is in the habit of Drinking to excess with a young growing family– This is a painful case, his family respectable & himself plenty of property, & with all an excellent natural disposition, & withall this, a great prospect of his being lost to society & the community at large without a sudden change in his habits Oh deplorable Oh Lamentable – we labor'd with all out ability for his help & he promised to try to amend but I fear his resolutions will prove weak, & Brandy prove his utter ruin.–

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 25, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 25th of 2 M / Our forenoon meeting was Silent -Afternoon Anne Greene appear'd in a short but lively & sweet testimony – Took Tea with D Buffum who has been sometime confin'd with the Rheumatism – his conversation was interesting, on the State of society he said that notwithstanding the present low state of the Church in many places that he believed Our society would rise & is rising in the Agregate, & will finally go before all others in the World – The expression from a man of his Age & experience was comfortable to my feeling especially at this time, it having been my prospect that we were losing ground & a fear possessed my mind that we should finally be outstriped in Spiritually by those who now seem feeding upon husks. – He related a story when speaking of our friend Comfort Collins who was formerly Comfort Hoag & has lately left time at the very advanced Age of 105 Years & 3 M he said many years ago she was at lower Smithfield Meeting & that a man came to the meeting who was a stranger to friends, who remarked that when she first stood up, he thought her the most Ordinary woman he ever saw, but before she had half done he thought her the handsomest he ever saw – Comfort was very ordinary in appearance, but a very great preacher – a great orator, & with all & over all & on atop" (as G Fox said) her ministry was attended with uncommon life & power.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 29, Thursday: Friend Elias Hicks the traveling Quaker minister appeared at the meetinghouse in Little Compton, Rhode Island:

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 29th of 2nd M 1816 / Rode this Morning with my H to Portsmouth to Attend the Moy [Monthly] Meeting stoped at Uncle Thurstons & left John who we took along with us – from thence to the meeting house where we found the gathering larger than usual a large number expecting to meet Elias Hicks but were disappointed he being today at L Compton – May Hicks appeared in supplication & H Dennis in testimony very lively & pertinent. – In the last meeting we had considerable buisness - the case of poor D C again refere'd Daniel Cobb of Gorham (Mane) & Ruth Almy Daughter of the late Peleg Almy published their intentions of marriage & the meeting was adjourned to the 19th of Next M for them to receive their answer – We dined & Uncle Thurstons & in consequence of the very hevvy travelling -left Hannah & John there & roder home alone–

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 1, Friday: The US Congress passed an act limiting importation by foreign vessels to the produce of their respective countries. Its provisions were to apply to only such nations as had placed a similar obstruction upon commerce. The coasting trade was also limited to American built vessels owned by Americans. All coasting and fishing vessels were required, under penalties, to have 3/4ths of their crews Americans.

The US Congress repealed all such parts of existing laws imposing duties as were inconsistent with the provisions of a treaty prepared by a convention held in London, England, on the third of the previous July. At this convention it was agreed to equalize the duties on tonnage and imports. The treaty was reciprocal with regard to the British territories in Europe and the East Indies, but did not secure for the United States equal privileges in British possessions in America (this treaty would be renewed on October 20, 1818 for ten years, and on August 6, 1827 indefinitely).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 1st of 3rd M 1816 / Without my H & John I have been pretty lonely thro' the Day but have made out quite as well as could be expected. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 2, Saturday: The King of Kandy (Sri Lanka) was deposed.

Friend Elias Hicks the traveling Quaker minister arrived in Newport, Rhode Island. Friend Stephen Wanton Gould was lonesome for his wife and child, who were visiting in nearby Portsmouth:

ELIAS HICKS

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*7th day 2nd of 3rd M / Elias Hicks & his companion Isaac Hicks arrived in Town the Afternoon. -
What a poor lonely creature man is ? without a Wife ! Tho' I get along comfortably & Sister Ruth came down & swept out the rooms &c for me this afternoon, yet I begin very much to miss my dear H & little John - should have gone to Portsmouth after them this*

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Afternoon had it not been very Rainy

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 7, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 7th of 3rd M / Rather to much earnestness in conversation before meeting - which hurt my condition when there. - A few words in testimony was offered by a man friend -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 10, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 10th of 3rd M / Our Morning Meeting was Silent - In the Afternoon A Greene was concerned in Supplication, for those who were poor & low in spirit, hide in secret corners from the view of the World - then in testimony - recommended all to the School of Christ, & particularly a state which she apprehended was called dedication in the Lords Cause - My H & I after tea walked out to D Buffums & set the evening very agreeably - we found Jos Wilbour there & soon after we got there David Jr & Susan came down & Joined us. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 12, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 12 of 3rd M 1816 / Attended the funeral of Catherine Trevett formerly Easton. Job Chaloner was there & (very unexpectedly) Amos Peasly & Olney Thompson his companion also came - Amos was concerned in a short testimony to the usefulness of quiet at such opportunities to give time for Serious reflection, & said he had craved that we might experience the Prophets language when he exclaimed "Oh that my people were wise that they understood this, that they would consider their latter end" &c

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 14, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 14th of 3rd M / This day we had the company of AMOS PEASLEE at Meeting he was engaged in testimony with much simplicity & power of Truth. And I believe all who heard him was satisfied with him as a true Gospel minister – Owing to the very wet walking the gathering was not so large as could have been wished

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 16, Saturday: Augusta left Piccadilly Terrace after four months, and moved into rooms at St. James Palace.

GEORGE GORDON, LORD BYRON

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 16th of 3rd M / Sister Ruth & Mary spent the Afternoon, also ten children Johns school Mates & cousins – they spent the Afternoon very pleasantly in childrens play – It brought to my mind very forceably the days of my childhood. – This Afternoon Arrived in town from Portsmouth Our friend Rachael Barnard & her companion Eliza Pennock attended by Caleb Swayne of Jersey on a religious visit to friends in these parts

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 17, Sunday: George Gordon, Lord Byron accepted the principle of a mutual separation from his spouse.

Lieutenant Francis Hall arrived at the Canadian border.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 17th of 3rd M / Our friends Rachael Barnard & Elizabeth Pennock attended both meetings, & in both Rachael was very sweetly engaged in testimony, much to the satisfaction of Friends & I believe all who heard her – Rachael & Elizabeth appear to be women rather short of middle Age – tall & thin in stature Caleb is tall & not a full habit I should say about 60 Years if Age & has a good countenance. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 19, Tuesday: Lieutenant Francis Hall arrived at Montréal, Canada (from there he would head toward the falls of Montmorenci).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 19th of 3rd M / Our Monthly Meeting was adjourned to the 10th hour this forenoon in order to give D Cobb & R Almy their Answer in order to marriage, but it was so exceeding Stormy in the forenoon that I hardly believe the Meeting met at the hour

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Appointed, or that Elizabeth Freeborn was buried whose funeral was to have been at 11 OC AM

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 21, Thursday: The Principality of Isenburg-Birstein was annexed by Hesse-Darmstadt.

In the Jerusalemkirche of Berlin, four children of Abraham and Lea Mendelssohn –Fanny, Felix, Rebecka, and Paul– were secretly baptized into the Lutheran faith. Felix was given the added names Jakob Ludwig. Fanny was baptized as Cäcilie.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 21st of 3rd M 1816 / Understood this morning that the adjournment of the M Meeting on third day was attended by a number sufficient to answer the purposes of the meeting & that Elizabeth Freeborn was buried at the time appointed & that Yesterday Daniel Cobb & Ruth Almy was married at Portsmouth Meeting House. –

Meeting pretty well attended considering the sloppy Walking in the first a short testimony In the last (Preparative) Daniel Gould was reported for having married out of the order of Society – & David Buffum Jr was appointed Clerk in the place of Br D Rodman having resigned - In the Womens Meeting Mary Williams Jr was appointed Clerk in place of Sister Ruth resigned, having found her new appointment in the Moy [Monthly] Meeting a sufficient charge.

This Afternoon rec'd a letter from Aunt M Stanton. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 22, Friday: Edward Jesse was promoted from 5th-ranking commissioner of hackney coaches at Windsor Palace, to 4th.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 22 of 3rd M / Rote to Uncle Stanton – In the evening My H paid a visit to Nancy Sessions. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 24, Sunday: Upon the death of Friedrich August, Duke of Nassau, the co-rulership of Nassau was unified in Wilhelm (who would be styled Duke of Nassau).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 24th of 3rd M / Our forenoon meeting was pretty well attended Our friend D Buffum was present After a confinement of several weeks with the Rheumatism & was very lively in Testimony "Mind your calling brethren", he endeavor'd from those words to

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

excite us to particular attention to the various testimonys which we have as a society to bear to the world, which he believed had been of Singular use in the World by breaking in upon many practices repugnant to the Truth & difusing Light - which has in divers instances been the means of great good - he was Singularly impressive on this subject endeavoring to incourage his brethren to a faithful discharge of Duty - Hannah Dennis was also well engaged to the same import - In the Afternoon the Meeting was Silent -Called in at Aunt Martha Gould found her quite unwell, in the evening carried her some medicine - Eunice Earl set the evening with us -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 25, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 25th of 3rd M / Father & Mother Rodman took tea with us

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 26, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 26th of 3rd M 1816 / Attended the funeral of Catherine Weaver Wife of Perry Weaver, the setting a Solid one, but I thought rather to short - At the Grave after a short but solid pause as we were lowering down the Corpse down a distressing & mortifying accident hapened - those who had hold of the rope at the head lowered before the stick was removed from the feet & the Coffin sliped from off the ropes head foremost which made a noise & distressed some of the relations exceedingly, fortunately the coffins was whole except a little peace on the side of the lid -being one of the bearers myself I feel sensibly oppressed & distressed in consequence of occurrence.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 27, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 27th of 3rd M / Br John & Sister Rebecca took tea with us Tho' I have not mentioned for some time the situation of My H being disposed to wait & see what would be disclosed by time, I may now add that her breast is still painful at times, & what it is, or will come to, remains to be uncertain. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 28, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

5th day 28th of 3rd M / Our first meeting was silent excepting a few words of solemn import - & to me a Solid season - In the last which was Monthly Meeting -Daniel Chase was disowned for not settling a debt with Mary Tillinghast - & Jacob Sherman for marrying out of the order of Society - In transacting the affairs of society towards to last of the meeting we got to critcising on words, which created some that I believe was unproffitable, & I feel as if I had done some hurt, by one or two unadvised expressions

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 31, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 31 of 3rd M / Our Meetings were both Silent & considering that it was pretty good walking & not much rain falling - both were very small gatherings - to me they were seasons of much worth - In the evening John Weaver who has returned from Troy N Y on buisness called to see us & gave a good account of that country - Nancy Gould & Job Sherman also came in which made the evening pass pleasantly to us. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 1, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 1st of 4th M 1816 / Finished a letter which I began some days ago to John Heald of Fairfax Columbianna County Ohio, & put the same in the Post Office. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 2, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 2nd of 4th M / I have lately been reading the "Pictures of Philadelphia" by James Mease published in 1811 & have this day finished the perusal - It gives an account of many things in that great City both of Nature & Art - Untill I visited NYork last summer I could form no Idea of so large a place - to see men, who are insignificant in height, to the many proud structures which are reared of masive Stone & Marble moving round among them & performing wonders by their Art, must arrest the attention of reflecting minds & introduce the thought - how contemptable is Man & all his Works when compared with his Supreme Author & the Maker of the World - how light are all the Structures of man, before his Almighty power, who by the earthquake, the Wind & storms drive them whither he pleaseth - we often see the work of Ages in a short time mar'd, reduced, & brought to nothing - how important then it is for man to make the glory of God his chief Aim in all he does, for without his blessing we are nothing, & can do nothing in this life, that will redound to his honor, or that will stand as an anchor to

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

the soul when things here shall pass Away. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 April 4, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 4th of 4th M / Our meeting was pretty well attended,
Silent & to me a dry time. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 April 5, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 5th of 4th M / Aunt Patty Gould called in to see us a little while, every time I see her, I can but impressively feel that the time of separation draws near, she has been a Dear Aunt to me & I love her much -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 April 6, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*7th day 6th of 4th M / With my H & John took tea with Br J Rodman-
This was a pleasant Visit- "How good & how pleasant for brethren to Dwell together in Unity" -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 April 7, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 7th of 4th M 1816 / Our meetings were remarkably striped of high seat folks, no men set in the upper seat all day, there was however a pretty large gathering both morning & Afternoon &
I thought seasons of some favor. -
Toward night Br D Rodman & I walked down to see Isaac Mitchell & his wife who have lately moved to town*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 April 8, Monday: There was a reception at Lady Jersey's. Among the guests were George Gordon, Lord Byron, Augusta, Miss Mercer Elphinstone, the Comte de Flahault, Benjamin Constant, Mrs. George Lamb, Lord Brougham, et. al.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 8 of 4 M / Rec'd a letter from Aunt Stanton - This Mornng Br Isaac saild in the Packet Express for N York -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

April 11, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 11th of 4th M / Attended Meeting which was rather small & silent. In the Afternoon met at the meeting House with the overseers to make out the general Answers for the Year - & was comforted to find that certain difficulties had been settled & the Answers respecting Love & unity could go pretty clear

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 14, Easter Sunday: Augusta paid a farewell visit to George Gordon, Lord Byron.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 14th of 4 M / Our Morning Meeting was pretty well attended & Our fr D Buffum was very lively in Testimony on the subject of a speedy preparation for a future state - he took occasion to mention the Solemn warning of King Hezekiah "Set thine house in order for thou shalt Die & not live. he also enforced the necessity for belief in the fundamental doctrines of religion & hinted a little at what they were, & how the spirit of Truth operates in the heart converting the Soul &c In the Afternoon Meeting was small - this was a meeting to be remembered by me - tho' a labor was witnessed to gain a settled state of mind, yet I could not attain to what I desired & When meeting was nearly done I perceived it would fall to my lot with another friend (J D) who sat near me to conclude the sitting - this brought serious reflections. The time of separation drew nigh & a consciousness of falling short pressed upon me, & brought me to reflect on the Awfulness of the separation of body & soul, unprepared. This reflection made me tremble, & on my part meeting broke in much fear - My old mistress Mary Williams came home with us, took tea & set the evening -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 18, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 18th of 4th M 1816 / Our Meeting silent & I trust in a good degree favor'd - to individuals at least - as respects my own particular an engagement was witnessed but so much overcoming was not attained & I desirest - In the Preparative meeting our new Clerk D Buffum Jr performed well - The Answers to the queries got along pretty well -- The Womens meeting had a new Clerk Mary Williams Jr who they say also performed well-- We took tea at father R's where my feelings were not a little afflicted on hearing that a young woman formerly a member of the MOY Meeting now removed to Smithfield had there forsaken our meetings & attends with the Methodists, & dresses gay. This young woman has some years ago, made considerable profession

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

Go To MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

among us & at one time conceived it to be her duty to dress Singularly plain -thus to depart is afflicting - Unstable as Water thou shall never excell -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 21, Sunday: Charlotte Brontë was born in Thornton, Yorkshire. Her father, an Irish-born Anglican clergyman, would move with his wife and six children to become the rector of a curacy in Haworth in 1820 and change his name from Brontë to its more common form, Brunty. Soon Charlotte's mother and two older sisters would die and the surviving children would be raised with the help of Elizabeth Branswell, an aunt.

George Gordon, Lord Byron signed the deed of separation from Lady Byron.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 21 of 4th M / Our Meetings were both silent - Seasons of weakness to me, but a good degree of life witnessed towards the close in the Afternoon, So that I thought "The End Crowned All" for this little quickening I desire to be thankful. -
This morning Br Isaac arrived from N York in health himself & brot the grattifying news of the health & prosperity of our friends & kinsfolk there. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 23, Tuesday: Cut by London society over the separation scandal, and with financial difficulties worsening, George Gordon, Lord Byron left England forever, going to Dover and a channel crossing with Hobhouse and Scrope Davies.

In Concord, Massachusetts, Daniel Shattuck got married with Sarah Edwards of nearby Ashby.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 23rd of 4 M / This Afternoon I pulled out my front tooth next my Eye tooth, on the left side - this Tooth has been long troublesome. The gum located above it has been as many as 12 Years decaying round it & about 5 or 6 Years ago I had a gum boil on it which never healed. Since which the tooth has been gradually growing loose & all that I could apply would neither heal the gum or fasten the tooth which grew looser & looser till it worked quite half way out of the socket - This in addition to grey hairs which are already increasing fast - will frequently remind me that Old age is creeping on & my days fast

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

spending. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 24, Wednesday: Le nozze di Teti, e di Peleo, a cantata by Gioachino Rossini to words of Ricci, was performed for the initial time, in Naples for the wedding of Carolina Ferdinanda Luigia, daughter of the Hereditary Prince of the Two Sicilies, and Charles-Ferdinand, Duc de Berry, 2d son of future King Charles X of France. The work was performed in the Teatro del Fondo because a couple months earlier the Teatro San Carlo had burned down.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 24th of 4th M / These are dull & hard times in every sense of the Word. In looking at the prospect of things this evening I feel almost discouraged –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 25, Thursday: The Reverend Abiel Holmes's NOTE ON AN ANCIENT MANUSCRIPT: ASCERTAINED TO BE A PART OF GOVERNOUR WINTHROP'S JOURNAL, COMMUNICATED TO THE HISTORICAL SOCIETY, 25 APRIL, 1816 (analysis of a part of Governor John Winthrop's JOURNAL).

JOHN WINTHROP JOURNAL

The US Congress appropriated $1,000,000 annually to the increase of the Navy.

George Gordon, Lord Byron saw the white cliffs of the English shore for the final time.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 25th of 4th M / Rode to Portsmouth with Sister Ruth to attend the Moy [Monthly] Meeting – first meeting silent – the last we had considerable buisness which was transacted in harmony – We dined at Sam Thurstons – & rode home before sunset – My H & son passed the day at father Rodmans in my absence –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 April 28, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 28th of 4 M / Our forenoon meeting was well attended both by Members & those who are common attenders D Buffum was very lively in testimony - "No man can redeem his brother or give to God a ransom for his soul." - In the Afternoon Silent & I believe a dull time to most present - In the evening called a little while at Br Davids. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 April 29, Monday: Inno alla primavera, a cantata for four solo voices and orchestra by Luigi Cherubini to words of Vestri, was performed for the initial time, in London. This was the last of Vestri's commissions from the Royal Philharmonic Society and had been intended for previous year while the composer had still been in London.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 29th of 4 M / We are all nearly sick with colds - John was very restless last night, cough & high fever but seems better today tho' evidently under the influence of a very heavy cold. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 May 1, Wednesday: The Duchy of Salzburg was returned to Austria.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 1st of 5 M 1816 / This morning about 3 OC departed this life in the 94th Year of her Age Widow Lydia Dennis

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 May 2, Thursday: At Carlton House, Princess Charlotte Augusta Hanover of Wales, daughter of Prince Regent George of Great Britain and Caroline Amelia of Brunswick-Wolfenbüttel, Princess of Wales, heir presumptive to the throne of Great Britain, got married with Prince Leopold George Christian Frederick of Saxe-Coburg-Saalfeld, afterwards King of the Belgians. They would reside at Claremont, a wedding gift from the nation (their wedded bliss would be temporary).

Persuaded by Clare Clairmont that George Gordon, Lord Byron would be delighted to have their company, Percy Bysshe Shelley, Mary Godwin Wollstonecraft, and Claire went toward Dover to leave England to visit Byron in Geneva (they would arrive in mid-May and would remain near him till August 29th).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 2 of 5 M Meeting rather small - A short testimony from C R. - My Mother, Cousins Patty & Mary Ann Gardiner & Josiah Lawton & Wife set the Afternoon with us.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

May 3, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*6th day 3rd of 5 M / Friends returned from the Quarterly Meeting at Greenwich, had a blustering time down & most of their women Sick they Say it was a pretty a pretty cleaver time divers friends appear'd in the ministry, among whom Our Aged By J Casey very sweet & lively
In the Afternoon attended the funeral of the Widow Lydia Dennis In the 94th Year of her Age – the funeral was large & the setting a solid opportunity – D Buffum & H Dennis appeard in short testimonys. –
My H & John attended, this was the first funeral he was ever at*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 9, Thursday: Jacob Baker got married with Lavina Minott of Concord.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 9th of 5 M / Our meeting was pretty well attended, silent & a season of wrestling to me & a degree of favor witnessed. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 12, Sunday: Johann Nepomuk Hummel gave a 2d performance in Leipzig (both this and the performance of five days earlier were extraordinarily successful).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 12 of 5 M / Our morning meeting was small & silent, the weather being tolerably pleasant in the afternoon the gathering was larger than usual for the after part of the Day. a Short testimony borne Sister Ruth gave us her pleasant company at tea & the evening. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 26, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 26 of 5 M / In both Meetings we had a short testimony from father Rodman which seemed to me lively & well adapted – In the forenoon it was to me a favor'd Season – in the Afternoon rather more dull, –
Towards night took a pleasant Walk with my H & Polly Maclish – John went with us. –
Sister Eliza set the evening, she returned this afternoon from Portsmouth where she has been about a week on a visit. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

May 27, Monday: The British forced a humiliating treaty on the Raja of Nagpur.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 27 of 5 M / Sister Eliza lent us a letter this morning, that she had rec'd from Saml Phillbrick dated Lynn 16th Inst - The perusal of which was pleasant & excited precious feelings in my mind, he seems to be travelling the very path which I have in religious experience & I hope by the way may advance & become a Strong Man in Christ which by patience & dedication, under & to the turnings of the Lords hand, I have no doubt he may. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 28, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 28th of 5 M / This morning Aunt Martha Stanton arrived from N York after a Passage of six days of Rainy & blustering weather. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 30, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 30th of 5 M / Our first meeting was nearly Silent, to me a good favor'd season - the last (Monthly) was a pretty good meeting, the buisness conducted in tolerable order & harmony - Our Fr Wm Rotch Junr & John Elam nephew of the late Sam'l were present Williams solid countenance & pertinent remarks I believe were of use to the Meeting Richd Mitchell & wife Benj Mott & Geo Dennis dined with us. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 2, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 2nd of 6 M 1816 / Our forenoon meeting was large & solid Our Fr D Buffum was concern'd in testimony - his opening on this wise - "Once I was Young & now I am Old I have lived what may be considered a long life & I suppose my friends will acknowledge an active life both in civil & religious Society & have this morning had to take a retrospective view of my pilgrimage from early life to the present day, & I have endeavor'd to be very impartial in the review as I wish not to be deceived in my own State & condition expecting ere long to render an account of the deeds done in the body & I have to acknowledge for your information, that no part of my conduct in life has afforded any satisfaction, any solid satisfaction, except that which has been under the influence of divine Grace." he here endeavor'd to stimulate us to persue the things which made for our everlasting peace, with a warmth of expression which is peculiar to him &

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

spoke of the View which he had also had of the Apostles State when near the close of life when he declared that he "had fought the good fight of faith & that there was led up for him a crown of Glory" &c. -

In the Afternoon a short testimony & pretty good meeting. - Set the evening at home. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 5, Wednesday: Giovanni Paisiello died at his home in Naples of hepatitis and meterorism (which is gaseous distention of the stomach or intestine), at the age of 76.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 5th of 6th M 1816 / Took tea this Afternoon with Phebe Carpenter with My H - Mother Aunt Stanton & Henry Bulls wife - this was a visit on the score of relationship & I must confess I felt a little of the family blood to circulate while sitting with them. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 6, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 6 of 6 M / Our Meeting pretty well attended. Silent - This Afternoon arrived in York Packet Gerrard T Hopkins & wife from Baltimore in company with Several others, to attend the Y meeting They expect to go to Providence between now & that time.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 9, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 9th of 6th M 1816 / This mornng Jos Mitchell & wife came to Town, also Anthony Lawton & His sister Mariah, children of Uncle David Lawton of Nine Partners. - Our first meeting was large & silent - In the Afternoon well attended & a few words in Testimony by a friend Towards eveng took a walk round the hill to observe the Moon rise eclipsed but the horizon being hazy - total Darkness came on before she rose sufficiently high to be Seen at 9 OClock it begun to go off & resembled at first the Moon soon after the change & continued to grow brighter by degree till the eclipse went entirely off

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 12, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 12th of 6th M / This Mornng arrived Saml Wood of NYork & his Daughter Sarah in company with Hugh Judge & took quarters

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

at Aunt Nancy several others came with them in the Packet who went to Dorcas Earl's their names I have not yet learned. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 14, Friday/15, Saturday: Having been stuck inside for several days due to stormy weather, George Gordon, Lord Byron and his guests passed the time by reading ghost stories to each other. At one point Byron challenged everyone to write their own story. Clare and Percy both lost interest fairly soon and apparently wrote nothing. Byron outlined a vampyre story that he would never finish. "Poor Polidori," in the words of Mary, "had a terrible idea about a skull headed lady." Mary Godwin Wollstonecraft dreamt the idea that would become Frankenstein.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 15 of 6 M / Friends have begun to come in pretty fast to the Yearly Meeting - Our lodgers tonight are only Isaac Stevens from Falmouth Calvin Straight took tea with us. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 16, Sunday: Celebrations took place in Vienna honoring the 50th anniversary of Antonio Salieri's arrival in the city. He received a gold medal from the Lord Chamberlain in the name of the Emperor. During a celebration of the High Mass Salieri conducted his own music. In the evening, a concert by his pupils took place in his Vienna home, wherein Beitrag zur fünfzigjährigen Jubelfeier des Herrn Salieri D.441 for solo voices and piano by Franz Schubert was performed for the initial time.

That night Percy Bysshe Shelley and his 18-year-old bride Mary Godwin Wollstonecraft were holed up at the Villa Diodati near Geneva, with Dr. John Polidori and George Gordon, Lord Byron, because during this particularly violent storm of that strangely rainy summer, they simply would not have been able to make their way back comfortably to where they had been staying at Chapuis. Evidently due to the bad weather the group was unable to get a good cable connection for their TV (or something), and so they decided to amuse themselves by reading aloud a collection of German ghost stories, THE FANTASMAGORIANA, in one of which a group of travelers were trying to amuse one another with their respective supernatural experiences. Byron proposed the agenda that they were each to invent a story such as found in this volume, for one another's entertainment. Shelley wrote a piece which was entirely forgettable, Byron dashed off a fragment, and Polidori began what would become the "The Vampyre," the first modern vampire tale, the main character of which, Lord Ruthven, could well have been based upon Byron (for some time it would be presumed that Byron himself had invented the story). Mary herself did not at this point put anything on paper.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

In every month during this year there was a severe frost. January and February were comparatively mild, though there were a few cold days. The greater part of March was as might be expected, cold and boisterous. April opened warm, again, as might be expected, but then grew colder, ending in snow and ice and wintry cold. In May ice formed half an inch thick. Opening buds and flowers were killed and the corn froze. Frost, ice, and snow occurred throughout June. On Inauguration Day, in June, there was four inches of snow on the level ground in Warner, New Hampshire, while across the border in Maine there was ten inches. Almost every green thing was killed. There would be no fruit this year. Then there was frost and ice even in July. On July 5th, ice covered the ponds of New England and New York state like window glass. In August this ice thickened to half an inch. The wind was from the north, and cold, nearly all summer. About all that could be done with the corn this year was cut it and dry it for fodder. Farmers would be obliged to pay $4 and even $5 a bushel for corn from the 1815 harvest, in order to get seed for the next spring's planting. Then the first two weeks of September were mild but the remainder of the month was cold, with frost, and ice again formed, a quarter of an inch thick. October was more than usually cold, with frost and ice. November was cold and blustering, with snow enough

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

for good sleighing, but then December proved to be quite mild and comfortable.

Cold weather was persisting through the summer in much of the world's temperate zones. Crops were being killed by frost and snow would be occurring in June and July in the United States. The weather this summer was so dreadful for farming, that during the following traveling season, the summer of 1817, a number of families would pack up and leave for points west. (This population migration phenomenon caused by the cold summer of 1816 would come to be known as "Ohio fever.")

Why was this summer of 1816 in the Northern Hemisphere exhibiting such strange weather? Well, it wasn't just the sunspots, which were extraordinarily prominent and which people were observing through smoked glass during that May and June, and also, it wasn't just the "ice king" Frederic Tudor of Boston who was cooling off the hot spots of this planet! For in fact dust, circling the earth from the explosion of Mount Tambora in Indonesia in 1815, in this season was reaching the northern latitudes.¹⁷⁵ Crop-damaging summer frosts caused some of the hard-won farmlands of New England to be abandoned — fields upon which cultivation has not since been attempted. Indiana experienced an unprecedented surge of some 42,000 settlers in this year, many of them fleeing the cold weather back in New England. The drop in mean temperature was amounting to some 7 degrees in New England¹⁷⁶ and the price of hay was rocketing from like $30.⁰⁰ per ton to like $180.⁰⁰ per ton. People were praying "God, please do not inflict on us another year without a summer." Of course, in Switzerland that summer, Mary was huddling indoors to stay out of the cold and damp, and her story FRANKENSTEIN; OR, THE MODERN PROMETHEUS, if you go back and look into it, or the last half of it, is a story with what would have appeared to be a wholly gratuitous amount of guess what, snow and ice and coldness.

SUNSPOTS

175. Soufrière on St. Vincent had blown in 1812, Mayon in the Philippines had blown in 1814, but these became almost as pop-tarts popping up in a toaster when Tambora in Indonesia blew, as this was by far the most powerful volcanic blast of the past 10,000 years. All but 26 of the 12,000 Sumbawa islanders had lost their lives. We would have a mild taste of this volcano weather, in our own lives, in the series of cool summers after 1991 when Mount Pinatubo in the Philippines blew its top.

176. What happened in New England, what happened for instance to the denizens of Thoreau's "Easterbrooks Country," of course doesn't compare at all with what was happening on the islands immediately around this Indonesian volcano, for some 80,000 people were starving to death in huts staring out at the barren, buried fields that had been their entire livelihood. (That's them and we're us, I suppose.)

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Because of this explosion of which they were unaware, Americans would come to refer to their year 1816 as “eighteen-hundred-and-froze-to-death.”

Samuel Griswold Goodrich, the children’s author, would write the best-known contemporary account of this strange year. The season appears to have been a repeat of the growing season of the year 1454 in the Northern Hemisphere, when the Chinese wheat crop was destroyed by frosts after a winter in which the Yellow Sea had frozen, along the coast, to as much as a dozen miles out from the shoreline.

To bring this home to Concord, Massachusetts, please note that per John Hanson Mitchell:

Departures are not necessarily well documented, but there is good evidence that 1816 might have broken the back of Estabrook [Thoreau’s “Easterbrooks Country”]. In 1815 the great volcano Tambora in Indonesia blew its top, and ... here in New England the effects were especially troublesome, since the soils were wearing out and the hardscrabble hilltop farms and marginal areas such as Estabrook were already hard-pressed.... The Estabrooks, the Kibbes, the Clarks, the Browns, and other “outlivers,” as they were called, who inhabited the poor farms in the tract that would come to be known as Estabrook Woods, were not immune to this pattern of settlement, and one by one, for varying reasons, the families pulled up stakes and went west ... and by Thoreau’s time Estabrook was a haunted land, the farms deserted, the families departed, and only a wind blowing.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day / Our afternoon meeting was not quite as large as usual but proved a quiet favor’d opportunity - James Greene opened the meeting in a rather short testimony which savor’d well to me Then Gerrard F Hopkins in a large & excellent testimony, wherein the power of Truth was remarkably conspicuous - Margaret Judge concluded in a living prayer

In the Afternoon James Greene again, & as usual when present opened the Service then David Harkness, then Calvin Straight, then Christopher Healy & then Calvin Straight a second time - all the appearances, I thought were in the life - & The meeting as quiet as so large & mixed a gathering could be - in addition to our lodgers, we have tonight Isaac Thorne & wife of Nine Partners & Robert Pary & wife of Pennsylvania -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

HDTWHAT?INDEXFRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

June 17, Monday night: George Gordon, Lord Byron, Percy Bysshe Shelley, Mary Godwin Wollstonecraft and Dr. John Polidori continued their evening activities at the Villa Diodadi and Lord Byron wrote “A Fragment of a Novel (1816).” At midnight he recited Samuel Taylor Coleridge’s “Christabel” and, becoming overwrought and declaring Mary to be the villainess of this poem, Percy Bysshe ran from the room. Apparently his behavior got the group rather worried — especially Mary. What the hell was going on in the mind of this high-strung hubby?

READ “CHRISTABEL”

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day / Our meeting this morning opened under solemn covering - Jas Green opened then Hugh Judge, then C Rodman, then Isaac Thorn in solemn Supplication - at the instance of D Buffum seconded by E Thornton the meeting proceeded to business. The usual Service of this forenoon was persued, & some lively sensations excited by Several Epistles particularly the London & Virginia, pertinent remarks made several times by Hugh Judge.

—
In the Afternoon we entered into the State of Societys, Some deficiencies appeared, but I thought on the whole thngs were as comfortable as at any time. (that is) in the general - Many remarks were with much feeling, weight & life. Hugh Judge tho' deaf, sought out the cause which he knew not speaking very pertinently to divers cases while the Answers were under consideration tho' he could not hear a single voice - Isaac Thorn

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Christopher Healy, James Hallack, G F Hopkins, D Harness, C Straight labord abundantly for our good, & many remarks were added by several of our own members -. The meeting concluded under a remarkably solom covering & adjourned to the 3rd hour tomorrow Afternoon - In the eveng we had a large company of pleasant & interesting friends. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 18, Tuesday: Charles de France ou Amour et Gloire, an opéra comique by Adrien Boieldieu and Louis Joseph Ferdinand Hérold to words of Théaulon de Lambert, d'Artois de Bournonville and de Rancé, was performed for the initial time, in the Théâtre Feydeau, Paris.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day Many friends called to see us in the course of the forenoon & at dinner our house was filled almost - In the Afternoon the meeting met as adjourned - divers lively testimonies were delivered in the course of it & the precious life spread & continued thro' the setting - The Minutes of the Meeting for Suffering & a few other matters of minor importance was all that occupied the Attention of the meeting - & adjourned to 9 OClock tomorrow morning -
In the evening about 30 men & women collected in the room & we had a percious opportunity we had - Anne Thorn soon broke silence in the language of encouragement - Then Micajah Collins, long & very lively - then Sally Parry. & then Anne Thorn in Supplication -Then Isaac Thorn felt his mind bound to acknowledge that by the present Opportunity he had been encouraged & strengthened & proposed under the present feelings that we should close, on which several who had other lodgings left the room, but The Quiet in good measure remaining & Micajah feeling his mind drawn further towards some of the interesting young women, addressed them to considerable length. it proved a Season of great tenderness, divers states being very sweetly Spoken too, & on my own part I felt thankful on the occasion -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 19, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day This morning Several of the Epistles were read but as there was no probability of the meetings closing at this Sitting, it adjourned to 1 / 2 past 3 OC in the Afternoon - All the Epistles were finished & excellent ones they were. many testimonies were delivered greatly in the life & on the whole it is acknowledged that a greater season of favor has rarely if ever been witnessed

Hugh Judge bid us affectionately farewell & after an excellent

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

& pertinent minute was read, the meeting closed under a very solemn covering. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 20, Thursday: An Aria per mezzosoprano by Giacomo Meyerbeer was performed for the initial time, in Naples.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day Last evening & this morning some of our lodgers left us for their homes I trust with the language in their hearts "It has been good for me that I have been here" – At meeting Isaac Thorn first preached very excellently. Then Gerrard T Hopkins in a very popular & expansive testimony to a numerous & interesting audience, & thus the whole closed with many of us feeling our hearts fraught with humble gratitude for the renewed extending of heavenly regard extended to us as in days past, in the days of the ancients of our society – After tea our friend Isaac & Anne Thor, Robert & Sally Parry being about to leave us we were gathered into silence for a parting opportunity – Isaac Thorn appeared in a Testimony which may not soon be forgotten by us, by me in particular as I was the principal subject of his address – then Sally Parry in a few more general remarks – then Hugh Judge in a lively & sweet testimony to those present who were yoked to the Gospel, encouraging them to faithfulness, "tho weeping cometh in the nights yet Joy cometh in the Morning" &c & lastly addressed Martha Aleman a young woman who was assisting in our family during the Y Meeting time –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 21, Friday: Les dieux rivaux, ou Les fêtes de Cythère, an opéra-ballet by Gaspare Spontini to words of Dieulafoy and Brifaut, was performed for the initial time, at the Paris Opéra.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day Our friend Hugh Judge took tea with us as did Uncle Wm Mitchell & wife, while we were in quite round the table Robert Parry & his wife came in, having returned from the Meeting appointed on Connaicut this Day – Sally does not feel clear of Newport & proposes a meeting on the Fort with the Soldiers tomorrow which friends are going to make way for if they can – James Halleck & several others set the evening with us & Robert & Sally Parry lodged with us. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

HDTWHAT?INDEXSTEPHEN WANTON GOULD*FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

June 22, Saturday: Britain ended its 13-year occupation of St. Pierre and Miquelon as these islands reverted to being a colony of France.

That night, George Gordon, Lord Byron and Percy Bysshe Shelley having plans for a boat trip around Lake Geneva on the next day, they abandoned their efforts to compete in the story contest, but Mary Godwin Wollstonecraft, after her late start, was persisting. The friends discussed a subject from Madame de Staël's DE L'ALLEMAGNE: "whether the principle of life could be discovered and whether scientists could galvanize a corpse of manufactured humanoid."¹⁷⁷

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day Early this morning Several friends went to fort Walcot & procured liberty to meet with the Soldiers at 11 O'clock, they went in the Custom House boat kindly accomodated by John

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Stevens. The company from abroad were James Halleck, John Hull - - - -Robert Parry, Sally Parry, Dorothy Holding, Alice Abbot of our own towns folks was father Rodman, Jonathon Dennis, John Slocum, Benja Hadwen Hannah Dennis, Ruth & Eliza Rodman. They first went to Fort Walcot where they had good service & truth was maintained, then to fort Adams where Truth also bore the Palm, & the good cause preserved -This meeting was of great weight on my Spirits & since I find it succeeded well, I feel rejoiced with those who went having travailed with them as deeply as my capacity would admit. - I was fully persuaded it was best for me not to go, but to stay & promote the meeting appointed for people of colour at 5 OC this afternoon -While our aforementioned friends were on the fort Hugh Judge, Gerrard T Hopkins & company were called to go on Board the Packet for NYork 0- which rendered my presence necessary to pay their passages as one of the committee for that purpose Robert & Sally Parry & Sister Ruth dined with us. - The black meeting this Afternoon was not largely attended, but succeeded pretty well John Hallock, Dorothy Golding twice, James Halleck twice were concerned in testimony - Robert & Sally lodged at Jonathon Dennis's to night & expect to be at Portsmouth tomorrow from thence to Providence homeward bound. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

177. The term “scientist” in this translation is of course an anachronism, as this term would not begin to be used until 1830. In regard to the scientific currency of Mary Shelley’s galvanic mechanism for bringing life to Dr. Victor Frankenstein’s monster: In 1809 in ELEMENTS OF PHYSIOPHILOSOPHY, no less a credited figure than Lorenz Oken had declared that “Galvanism is the principle of life. There is no other vital force than the galvanic polarity.”

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

June 23, Sunday morning: Mary Godwin Wollstonecraft had had a “waking” nightmare:

I saw the pale student of unhallowed arts kneeling beside the thing he had put together. I saw the hideous phantasm of a man stretched out, then, on the working of some powerful engine, show signs of life ... His success would terrify the artist; he would rush away ... hope that ... this thing ... would subside into dead matter ... he opens his eyes; behold the horrid thing stands at his bedside, opening his curtains ...

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

She scribbled a promising 1st draft of some lines:

It was on a dreary night of November that I beheld the accomplishment of my toils. With an anxiety that almost amounted to agony, I collected the instruments of life around me, that I might infuse a spark of being into the lifeless thing that lay at my feet. It was already one in the morning; the rain pattered dismally against the panes, and my candle was nearly burnt out, when, by the glimmer of the half-extinguished light, I saw the dull yellow eye of the creature open; it breathed hard, and a convulsive motion agitated its limbs. How can I describe my emotions at this catastrophe, or how delineate the wretch whom with such infinite pains and care I had endeavoured to form? His limbs were in proportion, and I had selected his features as beautiful. Beautiful! Great God! His yellow skin scarcely covered the work of muscles and arteries beneath; his hair was of a lustrous black, and flowing; his teeth of a pearly whiteness; but these luxuriances only formed a more horrid contrast with his watery eyes, that seemed almost of the same colour as the dun-white sockets in which they were set, his shrivelled complexion and straight black lips. The different accidents of life are not so changeable as the feelings of human nature. I had worked hard for nearly two years, for the sole purpose of infusing life into an inanimate body. For this I had deprived myself of rest and health. I had desired it with an ardour that far exceeded moderation; but now that I had finished, the beauty of the dream vanished, and breathless horror and disgust filled my heart. Unable to endure the aspect of the being I had created, I rushed out of the room....

She would originate a story about a monster created out of dead bodies and Dr. Erasmus Darwin's life fluid of electricity, by a fictitious Dr. Victor Frankenstein. The lines scribbled this morning would become what now

HDTWHAT?INDEXSTEPHEN WANTON GOULD*FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

opens Chapter IV of FRANKENSTEIN; OR, THE MODERN PROMETHEUS.¹⁷⁸

George Gordon, Lord Byron and Percy Bysshe Shelley began a boat tour of the lake.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal

*1st day 23rd of 6th M 1816 / In our forenoon meeting James Halleck was largely & pertinently concerned in testimony -
Dorothy Golding was short & pretty clever. - In the Afternoon*

178. Laura Dassow Walls has inquired rhetorically, “Is it necessary to remark that Mary Shelly’s FRANKENSTEIN is still the paradigmatic myth of romantic science, right down to ‘Dr. Strangelove,’ Michael Crichton’s JURASSIC PARK, and the dystopias of cyberpunk?” — but as we shall see, this misappreciates our 20th-Century horror movies to have been accurate renditions of the Shelley romance, something which they simply are not. Shelley’s tale was not at all similar to the popular “Jurassic Park” with its focus upon hubristic science and the wrongfulness of others, but to the contrary was very similar to the unpopular “Elephant Man” with its focus upon our personal, instinctual, and very very wrong revulsion at the sight of human deformity.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

John Halleck was long & I thought his testimony was pretty sound & attended with a degree of life – I believe him to be an honest friend. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

(In this year Erasmus Darwin's grandson Charles Robert Darwin had reached at the age of seven years — and his portrait was painted.)

June 24, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*2nd 24 of 6th M / My wife's cousins Anthony & Mariah Lawton from None Partners dined with us. – This Afternoon D Buffum called in & set in the House with us an hour & an half, his conversation was very interesting & his visit as pleasing as from any friend
I have seen this Yearly Meeting time – And after all my own friends at home are nearer my heart than Strangers & I am thankful that I love them – it is comfortable to see friends from abroad & feel that they are concerned to support the law of testimony & coming up in faithfulness in their day & generation, but this must have an end for the expence occasioned at such times could not be long supported. – My Mother Aunt Stanton & Br Isaac & Sally set the Afternoon at Aunt Carpenters*

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

& we took tea with them. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 27, Thursday: Christopher Albert Greene was born at East Greenwich, Rhode Island. His father was the sea captain Nathaniel Green (1789-1841), and his mother was Abby Sophia Casey (1794-1838).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 27th of 6th M 1816 / Our Moy [Monthly] Meeting is this days held at Portsmouth & I dont know as I feel much amiss in not going there is one subject that impresses my mind a little, but I dont see that it does with sufficient weight to move in it, was I there —

The situtation of friends on the Island of Connanicut, & indeed of the inhabitants generally has a place in my feelings, but what is to be done for them I do not see at present, there is something very unpleasant, in a whole Town's being without any meeting for Public Worship, which now the case, they have a convenient meeting house & might have a meeting occasionally & pretty Steady. There are two Men members & four Women One of which is a minister & one an Elder but being somewhat Advanced in life are unable to get out constantly, the other two women one is feeble & the other a young Woman with children - If any thing could be done to encourage these to keep a meeting on acct of the inhabitance generally it seems to me that I should be willing to unite in it occasionally — There are Some there who seem very friendly & pretty steadily go to meeting on first Day These considerations have occupied my feelings for some time, but the state of things is so low among us, that, as respects myself I feel but little resolution to move the subject — Those of our friends who went to Portsmouth to attend Moy [Monthly] Meeting hove returned, they Say the first meeting was nearly silent - & in the last the buisness went on pretty well —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 29, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 29th of 6th M / Early this morning departed this life at Portsmouth Preserved Fish about 68 Years, he was a respectable friend - & his funeral we understand is to be on 2nd day [Monday] next.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 30, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 30th of 6th M / Both our meetings today were silent & to me very good ones Cousin Alice Almy dined with us & Eunice Earl took tea —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 July 1, Monday: In Portsmouth, Rhode Island, the body of Preserved Fish was buried.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 1st of 7th M 1816 / My Mother Aunt Patty Stanton & my Wife & I took tea at Thos Robinsons - a very pleasant Afternoon to us indeed -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 July 2, Tuesday: The frigate La Méduse, flagship of a convoy which was taking 400 French soldiers and settlers to Senegal, was wrecked off the coast of Mauritania. There were not enough lifeboats for everyone, so the Captain and the higher ranks commandeered seats aboard them and had the lower orders abandon ship to a 65x28-foot raft. There were 250 aboard the lifeboats and 150 aboard the raft. The lifeboats were unable to tow the raft, or unwilling to tow the raft, and made for shore.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 2nd of 7th M / Our Cousins Benjamin Stanton & his two sones are here from St JOhns. George & James Gould are their names - James was called after my father for the respect which Cousin Benjamin had for him - They seem to be kind relations & attached to their relations here, & they are very Rich - but Alass what is Riches without innocence - they have been deeply concerned in privateering the last War & appear to justify their conduct I have Said in my heart what a blessing to have our Eyes anointed with the Eye Salve of the Gospel, & to have them opened to see the beauty of it, & above all to feel its power & to obey its calls

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 July 8, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 8th of 7th M 1816 / With My H & Sister Ruth took a very pleasant walk this evening to the Beach & across it to the Creek This walk I may remember if I should live for many Years, it afforded pensive reflections on the past present and to come

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 July 10, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 10th of 7th M 1816 / The weather is remarkably cold for the Season, & the earth is dry - Vegetation is extremely backward. Indian Corn & grass promises very small crops, we have however to acknowledge & be grateful for the prospect of pretty good crops of Barley Rye & Potatoes - There is Something very remarkable in the weather, there has not been a day or at least but very few days in Six Months past, in which the sun has not been obscured some part of it - and the air cool as Autumn Morning & evenings, & when the sun shines it is not clear, but most of the time hazy & today & yesterday looks white as it does in cold days in the Winter. -of late it has frequently looked red as it is common in very warm & dry weather - Whether to attribute the present extraordinary state of the weather to the Spote which have been observed on the sun for several weeks past or what to say about it puzzles philosophers & Divines - The News Papers of the Day contains frequent remarks on the subject, but all fall far short of Satisfactory explanation - At any rate this I believe - we are in the hands of the Almighty & that we are bound to acknowledge him the governor of the Universe & that with him are hid the treasure of wisdom & knowledge.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 11, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 11th of 7th M / Our meeting was pretty well attended particularly on the Womens side. Father Rodman was concerned in testimony, he adverted to the present prospect of calamity as respects the season & pointed to the Source from whence all favor is experienced, exhorting to a firm relyance on God in every trying dispensation &c The forepart of the meeting was a Season of favor to me but the life grew low towards the Close I suppose the occasion of it was weakness of body which I labor under. This Afternoon went to Middletown & met J Dennis at Cousin Daniel Goulds & had an opportunity with him in consequence of his case being referd at last Moy [Monthly] Meeting on Jonathons account - We were favor'd to discharge our feeling towards him to our own satisfaction & were favor'd with a large degree of tenderness & I trust feelings were excited in him, which will not soon be forgotten - as respects my self, I was much humbled under a sense of Divine favor in the little I had to communicate, & after tea as we were coming away, a few words which I felt towards Daniels Wife I hope left no bad savor on her mind - We walked out to the old cellar where the house stood in which The Goulds of this Island had their origin, & in which Daniel Gould Died a little over one 100 Years ago - on That spot he doubtless often breathed in Prayer to God for Mankind, that the knowledge of him might spread far & wide. There he knew many an heart felt exercise & passed many a sleepless night as well as many days of comfort & satisfaction resulting from time spent in his Blessed masters cause, in which he was much engaged having traveled seven times into Virginia as appears from a manuscript Journal of his now in my Possession, besides much fervant labor in the Church here away as appears by his name being frequently mentioned on our Monthly Meeting Records - & from several friends Journals of his Suffering in Boston - In visiting the space on which he lived these reflections occur'd to my mind - Some might say there was a little Idolatry in it but I say not,

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

as respects myself. I feel nothing sacred in the ground, no very far from it, & yet I like to know the spot where good folks once lived & hope more may be raised up on the Same.

Towards night took a pleasant walk home & on the way stoped a little while at Elijah Anthonys where I found several of my cousins who I love

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 14, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 14th of 7th M 1816 / In our morning Meeting - C R was first concerned in Testimony & then D Buffum - In the Afternoon Meeting first C R then Anne Greene - which made four sermons today - to me they were pretty good Meetings - Rode home with David Buffum & took tea with him & wife - while there Wm Peckham & wife came to lodge there. - On my Way home stoped at Williams & set a while, & at H Goulds & saw his kilm Burning

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 16, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 16 of 7 M 1816 / This evening I heard Wm Langley relate the following Anecdote of his life Vizt / When he was quite a lad, his father was quite reduced in his temporal circumstances & so straightened they were, that they hardly knew where each Succeeding Meal was to come from. one day while they were in this Situation a poor Woman called at the door to ask charity & stated her case as very hard, having neither meal nor candle, & a sick daughter to take care of - this mother reply'd that they were nearly in the same situation, their meal was almost out & they had but a candle or two in the houses - Wm said he heard the story with some emotion & recollected a nine pence somebody had given him some time before - he reflected that their case was not quite so bad as the poor womans & perhaps he could assist his father in work & get some more - upon which he ran & got his money, & unbeknown to his parents went to the gate & handed the poor woman in question, & felt quite satisfied with the Act from a strong faith that in the end he should be no loss - The next day as he was walking one of the streets he found a quarter of a Dollar - he then began to consider that his benevolence had proved a blessing to him & determined to give that to the Poor, - accordingly in a few days he met with a poor object on whom he bestowed his quarter of a Dollar - "Well" he adds "it did not end there, for in a few days more he found a half a Dollar" he did not remember of giving that away, but he said the recollection of the circumstance had often proved a Stimulus to impart more freely than he otherwise should have done, on many occasions thro' life. - This story brought to my recollection another which I believe I have somewhere before inserted in my journal. When I was a boy

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

I used on Seventh days to work in my fathers garden which was just above the Seventh day Baptist Meeting house, one seventh day as I was going to the garden I stoped at the door to hear Old Parson Bliss preach, while I was there he related the following annecdote probably to excite his hearers to a liberal disposition - he Said there was once a poor Sailor landed at some place I think he said London, with no prospect of bed or board, & his cloaths in a worn condition & with but half a Crown in his pocket - he had not gone far before a poor forlorn looking old woman met him & asked charity, he told her his Situation & if I remember correctly he said the Sailor passed on, reflecting in this manner, that, he was Young & able to work, the poor old woman was unable to obtain any thing by manual labor & perhaps his case was better than hers - on this he steps back & hands her his half Crown, & goes on again reflecting on his destitute situation, but he had not proceeded far before he picked up a Dollar -

I think these storys are worth preserving, & it is probable no one now living recollects the story of Parson Bliss, but me. circumstances of that kind when heard young, before the mind becomes crowdod with cares, takes deep hold & remains with us longer circumstances quite as interesting, related in more advanced life

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 18, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 18th of 7th M 1816 / Went to meeting with a tender mind & set about half an hour enjoying a pretty good condition, but was called out by a lad sent by my bro. Isaac to inform me that his father Hanmet had breathed his last & that they wanted me to assist in putting on his grave cloathes - I repaired to the house & found him gone, performed with the assistance of others the trying task, but unpleasant as such offices are they must be performed & we know not how soon Some kind friend must do the Same for us.-

I regretted to loose the remainder of the meeting particularly as it was preparative meeting & I felt my mind engaged to attend to Some buisness before it, the answers to the queries &c -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 19, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 19th of 7th M 1816 / Attended the funeral of Nathan Hammet & with my H, & Aunt Stanton walked round the common burying ground & saw the graves of many with whom we were acquainted, which solemnly reminded us of the time when we Shall be numbered with them, & suggested the great necessity of a

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*preparation for the great event. –
We took tea with Mother – Aunt Patty Gould was there also – Isaac & Sally at the house of mourning –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 20, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*7th day 20th of 7th M / My H & John spend the day at Jonathon Dennis's with Sister Joanna – it being inconvenient for Br David & me to out there – I took dinner with him –
I often feel thankful, but today & several days of late my heart has been fraught with gratitude, for continued evidences of divine regard, often, as I am sitting alone & as often when I am in the midst of company my heart is tendered with the touches of heavenly good – this I consider a favor for which I know not how to be sufficiently thankful –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 21, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 21st of 7 M / Our Meeting this forenoon was well attended & divers were present whose countenances looked interesting – An Appearance In the ministry & in Supplication, judgement of which I leave. --
In the Afternoon we were Silent – After tea, took John & walked to the Beach. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 22, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 22nd of 7 M / Ewd W Lawton & Wife & Sister Mary took tea with us, very agreeable & interesting visitors

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 23, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 23rd of 7 M / After tea with Polly Mclish & Sister Ruth took a pleasant walk to D Buffum Jr to see his wife a little while being confined with a slow fever. My H not being very well could not go with us. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 28, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1st day 28th of 7 M / In consequence of Rain our Meetings were not quite as large as usual - Anne Greene in the forenoon was concerned in a lively testimony in the Afternoon Silent - Towards night I went down on the Wharf to see a Baptising by Neighbor Eddy, twelve were plunged, & while Standing a silent spectator, my heart I trust was divested of all prejudice & I was led to examine the practice, & not withstanding it was a practice of Some of the primitive christians, I could but feel inward admiration that any should consider it concience to be thus led into the Water & diped under on a religious account. I thought, but to see it was sufficient to teach all the inefficacy of it as a clenser of the soul from sins, & for what other purpose should be the bent of our actions in life, but to reedeem our souls, & if it is admitted (which I think it must be) that there is nothing in it which affects, this inward purification, of what use can it be? I know many urge it as a Sign of dedication in joining the Church -Christ himself said that it was the wicked & adulterous who seeks for a sign, & it is time in this our day that all outward Signs & ordenances be put away & the Solid Substance, the living truth as it is Jesus Christ, be embraced & abode under in full purpose of heart, by & thro' the inward baptising of his spirit, by being crusified with him & partaking of his flesh & blood we become clensed from our sins & made [?] fit subjects for his rest in the world to come -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 1, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 1st of 8th M 1816 / Rode with my H & John to Portsmouth to attend the Quarterly Meeting - Stopped before meeting & visited my old & long loved friend Zacheus Chase & found him very feeble but so as to be about house - At meeting the first that broke Silence was James Greene, then Anne Thorn in a long & excellent testimony chiefly addressed to the Youth. Then James Hallack, short & very pertinent in a few words of encouragement to Several classes present the meeting concluded in a supplication by Hannah Dennis & a few short words supplimentary by J Hallack & a favor'd one it was. - In the last meeting we had but little buisness - a few lively & pertinent remarks were made on the subject of sleeping in meetings by Wm Almy Several excellent communications by J Hallack, in one of which he attempted to encourage us to Keep to Sound doctrine as inculcated by our Ancient friends & the Scriptures & said any thing different from this was not to be believed tho' it might come from the Angel Gabriel. - We dined at Uncle Peter Lawtons, & on our way stopped at Anne Anthony's. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

August 15, Thursday: PRAY FOR THE JEWS! A SERMON PREACHED AT THE THURSDAY LECTURE IN BOSTON, AUGUST 15, 1816 BY THADDEUS MASON HARRIS (Boston: John Eliot, 1816).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 15th of 8th M / Our meeting was comfortably attended, I believe there were but few of our members who are in a situation to attend who were absent - my feelings were on the low key & so continue thro' the Afternoon - Father R was concerned in a short restimony. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 17, Saturday: George Gordon, Lord Byron and Hobhouse toured the Alps, until the 29th of the month. Lord Byron began writing MANFRED.

Publication of the Septet op.74 for piano, flute, oboe, horn, viola, cello and bass by Johann Nepomuk Hummel was announced in the Wiener Zeitung.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7 day 17 of 8 M / Rose early this morning & with John went up to Dyres shore & took a sea bathing but in the course of the forenoon found myself much unwell with an oppression at my breast & my head disorderd, inclining to a fever - took a dose of salts & find myself more comfortable this evening -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 18, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 18th of 8 M / Our Meeting was well attended & to me a good time, tho' my mind experienced a little of an unsettled state at times - We Sat in Silence - In the Afternoon Silent again. -- J F [?] Mitchell & wife took tea with us & set the evening -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 19, Monday: The British authorities in Batavia (Djakarta) handed the Dutch East Indies back to the Netherlands.

Carl Maria von Weber accepted the terms of Count Heinrich Vitzthum von Eckstädt and would be appointed Kapellmeister in Dresden. His primary duties would be to direct the German opera but would also include church music at court, and the Italian opera.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 19 of 8 M / Hannah & John took a ride this forenoon with Joseph Mitchell & wife over to Sacawest Beech & thro' by the way of Greenend home, this is the first time Hannah has seen

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Purgatory

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 August 20, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 20th of 8th M 1816 / John Gould of N York took tea with us. - Had a short call from D Buffum who gave us some account of his late visit to Lynn & Salem & of his visit to Noah Worcester The Author of "Friend of Peace" & to a man who has lately borne testimony to friends principles by refusing to take or tender the Oath. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 August 22, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 22nd of 8th / Tho' my feelings were favorable before I went to meeting, yet when I got there I was very destitute & fell into leanness which I could not or did not recover - a short testimony by a man friend - no buisness in the Preparative meeting. In the Afternoon took a walk with Joseph Mitchell & wife to the Library - My H went with us - on our way back we went into the Church & looked round that awhile. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 August 23, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 23rd of 8th M / Aunt Patty Gould has been for some days quite unwell, her stomach rejects food & I think Her Strength is failing & without she gets better soon She will soon be taken to rest. - Res'd a letter from Uncle Wm Mitchell

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 August 27, Tuesday: Ten Royal Navy and Dutch ships battled the shore defenses of Algiers for eight hours. One British ship was damaged but the shore batteries were silenced and more than 5,000 Algerians killed.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 27th of 8th M 1816 / This morning Cousin Joseph Mitchell & his wife left Aunt Nancy Carpenters about a quarter before eight OClock on their way home to DeRuyter in N York State. They expected to reach Providence today. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 August 28, Wednesday: Despondent over the death of a child and unable to work, Samuel Wesley wrote to his brother and sister pleading for a loan secured against his inheritance.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 28 of 8 M / My H spent the Afternoon & evening at Dorcas Whartons & Sister Mary Kept house for her in her Absence

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 August 29, Thursday: Percy Bysshe Shelley, Mary Godwin Wollstonecraft, and Clare Clairmont left Geneva to return to England.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 29th of 8th M / Rode to Portsmouth with Sister Mary & John in the Chaise & attended the Moy [Monthly] Meeting, - stoped on the way thither at Uncle Thurstons - At Meeting D Buffum preached very lively - & a pretty good meeting to me - In the last we had considerable buisness some of which labor'd & occasioned some pretty smart remarks, particularly a communication from So Kingston Moy [Monthly] Meeting respecting a matter between R Hazard & T R Williams -- Daniel Gould was restored to membership & I hope he may prove more useful to society than he has hither to been We dined at Anne Anthonys after which we rode to the new Cotton factory in Motts Gulley after taking a View of it we return'd to tea & then rode home by a little after sun set -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 August 30, Friday: Frances Jane Hallett Prichard was born, daughter of Moses Prichard and Jane Tompson Hallet Prichard of Concord.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 30th of 8 M / Had conversation with Silas Gardiner, who seems to be a religious young man & if he keeps to the Faith as Secretly manifested to him bids fair to receive further light - as he related some of his experiences to me I could but exclaim with the Apostle "Ye need not that any man teach you" &c - he appears to have been fully convinced of the impropriety of War without the aid of any book but the Scripture & suffered for his testimony against it in Savannah Georgia & also from the secret impulses of his own mind has reounced some of the forms which are much set by among some professing christians - I felt my mind disposed to tell him that that which discover'd those things to him was the Spirit by which the Scriptures were written & as he took heed to it he would experience greater dicoveries of Light -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

September 1, Sunday: Faust, an opera by Louis Spohr to words of Bernhard, was performed for the initial time, in Prague, conducted by Carl Maria von Weber.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 1st of 9th M 1816 / In writing this date I feel that the year has got to its further half, the summer is past & the winter approaches, to many as did the last, it may prove a final change of the Season, & if I be one of that number Oh may I be prepared to meet it –

Our forenoon meeting was pretty large & silent - in the Afternoon we had the acceptable company of our frd Wm Almy who preached sweetly & to my edification, may I not say comfort, as well also a number of others present –

Sister Ruth dined with us – Sister Eliza at tea & set the evening –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 3, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 3 of 9 M / Spent the Afternoon with Silas Gardiner at David Buffums - where we met with Wm Almy whose conversation with D.B on religious subjects were very interesting to Silas, tho it did not turn on points which seemed to be the object of the visit - After tea we walked home

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 5, Thursday: Urged on by his liberal advisors, King Louis XVIII of France dissolved the conservative Chamber of Deputies and called new elections.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 5 of 9 M / To me a favor'd meeting tho' some part of it was a little trying on some accounts – After sitting a little while I felt the quickening spirit run thro' me in a remarkable lively manner which raised a thankfulness to the great giver of all good things & drew the silent tears from mine eyes – This little rejoicing is quite in humility for such is the discouraged State of my mind with respect to myself & Society, that I hardly know at seasons what to do or Say – Mary Tillinghast & cousin Borden & My Mother & sister Sally spent the Afternoon

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 6, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

6th day 6th of 9th / Ruth Freeborn a cousin of my H spent the Afternoon with us.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 7, Saturday: Franz Schubert learned that his application to be music master in Laibach (Ljubljana) had been rejected.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 7th of 9th M 1816 / In consequence of some buisness - rode this Afternoon to Portsmouth with Uncle S Thurston & lodged there -next morning (1st day [Sunday]) on my way to meeting stoped at the Widow Almys - At meeting soon after I took my seat, my mind was brought into a sweet state of feeling in which I believe I was enabled to perform Worship - Anne Almy was engaged in testimmny & Supplication by which I thought Truth evidently rose into dominion, & to me (& I have no doubt many others) it was a very good Meeting. - I may say that I felt a degree of rejoicing to find the Gospel power to flow so sweetly thro' her & hope she may ever continue on the humble ground she now seems to occupy. - After Meeting Dined with cousin John Chase & after dinner went with him to vist his Mother & sisters whom I found as comfortable as could be expected in their striped and lonely situtation, the removal of cousin Zacheus Chase from his family makes a casm in it, which cannnot be filled again - with them I took tea, & cousin Shadrack brought me about 2 1/2 Miles on my way home the rest of the distance I walked & found my H & son well. - While walking from Cousin John Chases House with him to the Mansion of his late dear Father he pointed out the spot to me where he took his flight to heaven, it was on some of the highest land on his farm, & a most beautiful situation for prospect, overlooking an extensive range of land, the River & Islands adjacent, near a large Rock I have played upon & around many times when I was a boy, there it was his spirit took its flight & left his lifeless body in the Chaise & I have no doubt he is now in heaven. - While standing & viewing the spot I had some feeling which I hope to retain & some Ideas which I know not how to express. - I trust the spot will be memorable to me as long as I live -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 26, Thursday: Gioachino Rossini's dramma La gazzetta to words of Palomba after Goldoni was performed for the initial time, in Teatro dei Fiorentini, Naples. It bombed.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 26th of 9 M / This forenoon a little after 11 OClock My Dear Mother & Br Isaac sailed in Sloop Express for Newyork with

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*the Wind a little to the eastward of North & a prospect of a fine expeditious passage Parting with my dear mother excites Serious sensations, considering her advanced age, her infirmity of body & the prospect of her protracted stay till spring, excites a fear that I may never see her more, but the event must be left & we have this consolation that should she be removed or sick in N York Ample care will be extended for her comfort every way – I parted with her in the street as we were going to Meeting to attend our Moy [Monthly] Meeting held this day. – In the first Meeting Anne Greene was concerned in lively testimony & Hannah Dennis in a few words
In the last we had a long exercising time Hannah Dennis proposed visiting Nantucket Meetings & some of the families on that Island which was fully united with – A proposition was made by S Thurston to appoint a committe to visit Tiverton Meeting & some of the families there this was an exercising case & was referred –Overseer appointed &c &c*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 29, Sunday: Carl Maria von Weber conducts his final opera performance in Prague.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 30th [sic] of 9 M 1816 / Silent Meeting in the forenoon, in the Afternoon a short testimony by father Rodman. – Sarah Earl & sister Eliza set the evening with us. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 3, Thursday: Perchè muni tiranni, a rondo for soprano, chorus, and orchestra by Giacomo Meyerbeer was performed for the initial time, in Genoa.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 10th M 3rd 1816 / Our meeting was small & silent – Just before I left home I rec'd a letter from John Heald, & had time enough to read it before I went to meeting, & I really believe I had a better meeting for it
My H spent the Afternoon & evening at Her father*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 6, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 6th of 10th M / In our mornng Meeting (which was pretty large) Our frd D Buffum was engaged in a lively testimony on the sunject of Johns Baptism which he handled judiciously & pointed out the true baptism which is effectual & exhorted to faithfulness to the manifestation of light - father R was also

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*concerned to the efficacy of light & I thought it a favor'd meeting –
In the Afternoon my mind experienced a labor to keep close & was enabled in good measure to keep out unprofitable intrusions on the mind – Father R appeared in a few words
I never saw an instance of a young child's being brot to a meeting in this town before, a woman from Dartmouth came this Afternoon & brot a suckling child which was a novelty here, it made a little noise but the little innocent creature did not disturb the meeting near as much as I should have thought. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 10, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 10th of 10 M / Our meeting was about as large as usual, to me it was a Season of favor, in that I was enabled to labor for help & did experience the strong man to be weakened in me so that life & tenderness & even supplication arose in my spirit –Father Rodman appeared in a short but I thought lively testimony

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 13, Sunday: Carl Maria von Weber and Caroline Brandt arrived in Berlin from Prague.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 13 of 10 M / In both our Meetings we had Short testimonys, as respects the state of the meetings I was hardly in a state to judge in my own particular was concious of roving of mind but a degree of favor

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

15th day of 10th month; October 15, Tuesday: Friend Michael Wainer, a Newstockbridge nephew of Friend Stephen Wanton Gould of Newport, Rhode Island, wrote to his uncle about the failure of his crop due to the unusual weather, and of his desire in consequence to pull up stakes and try again as a farmer in the region of the Ohio River. Help, such as a loan of $200, would be appreciated.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Newstockbridge 10th mo 15 Day 1816

Der uncle I take this oppotunity to in form you that we are all ingoying good helth at this present time and hoping that those few lines will find you and your famaley well.
and I wish you would assist in Selling and Curlecing of my property for I want to by me a farm in Ohio next Sumer the Land thair is from 2 to 4 Dollers per Acer the Land is good heare but thay ask from $10 to 15 per Acer and it is vary frostey heare So that great meney of the people is Seling out and going on to the Ohio.
the frost here has Cut of all our Corn and thaire is bin frost here every month this year but not to hav aney affect untill a

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

bout 4 weeks ago then it killed all the Corn peretatoes Beens
+c gradeel of the Corn was yust in the milk. and on to the Ohio thaire is graite Cropes of Corn it is a bout 300 miles from here but Whaire I want to go is 400 miles I want to get sum money this winter to be redy after wheat harvest to Start for Ohio If Joseph Auker Dont Cum up I Shall Cum Down this winter and if he is Cuming I wish you would lend me 200 Dollers for I Can git Land of ther Staite by paying 1/8 this is the Way that the people general Does is to pay 1/8 Don and take a Bond for a Deed and then thay will hav a plase to go to when thay move thaire famalaye

I wish you Would write to me what my Land will fetch and what you think is best for me I Lik farming and I think I Could Do well if I had a farm of my owne and if you will be So kind as to write to me whether Joseph Auker is a Cumin or knot I would be Glad etc from Yoar well wishing Coasin

Michael Wainer

If the pleases to write to me in Newstockbridge Madison County Peterborough post office

October 17, Thursday: Manlius Stimson Clarke was born in Norton, Massachusetts to Mary Jones Stimson Clarke (March 24, 1785-May 1, 1866) and the Reverend Pitt Clarke (January 15, 1763-February 13, 1835) of the 1st Congregational Church there. He would be educated initially at the Bristol Academy in Taunton of which his father was a member of the Board of Trustees. (The father not only farmed and ministered to this church in Norton, but also "it was his habit for many years ... to fit young men for college, and to instruct and discipline those who were suspended from Harvard University, for misdemeanors, or for neglect of study.")

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 17 of 10 M 1816 / Meeting small but I believe favord to divers prewent - I am Thankful in experiencing in my own particular a fresh visitation of tenderness & love to flow in my heart -Father Rodman was concerned in short Testimony "Watch & be Sober"

This After noon rec'd a letter from my Mother now in NYork

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 19, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 19th of 10 M / A low discouraged state seems at present to be mine

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 20, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 20th of 10th M / Being quite indisposed this morning I staid from home & had a vein opened which has in measure relieved my head of the distress which I have suffered in it for some

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

time past. –

In the Afternoon Attended Meeting Father Rodman short in testimony. – Obadiah Brown & Wife from Providence were down & at Meetings today

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 24, Thursday: Adolphus Frederick, Duke of Cambridge, the youngest son of King George III, became governor-general and viceroy of Hanover.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 24 of 10 M / Silent Meeting & remarkable dry time to me. I know not when I have experienced less favor when I have strove so hard to obtain it – The preparative Meeting was like namely —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 27, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 27 of 10 M / In meeting this forenoon Our fr D Buffum was very lively in testimony he was concerned to retell an occurrence of his youth. He said when he was quite a Youth he lived in a neighborhood where there were meetings frequently held by people not in persuasion with us which he often attended & once one was appointed which he went to but the person that was to hold forth as preacher came not, & they all went away without sitting down solidly together. – This put him on serious reflection on the subject to discover what they went for & led him to believe that there was great danger of their worshipping the preacher more than their creator, he took occasion to illustrate the subject of true worship & pointed our minds to the source from which it arises & to whom it is due &c – A few words by father R in the Afternoon – In the evening made several calls, one at the widow Birds, found the old Lady quite feeble I think coming to a conclusion very fast – a little while at Aunt Polly Goulds –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 30, Wednesday: King Friedrich I of Württemberg died and was succeeded by his son, Wilhelm I.

José García de León y Pizarro replaced Pedro Cevallos Guerra as First Secretary of State of Spain.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 30th of 10 M 1816 / A day of weakness & discouragement my mind frequently turned towards Portsmouth tomorrow but it seems as if I shall be hardly likely to get there

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

October 31, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 31st 10 M / It is a rainy morning & I at home, a convenient opportunity offered to go to Portsmouth to attend the Moy [Monthly] Meeting but Having previously relinquished the prospect & feeling as if I should be of no use there, I did not embrace it. It may not be wholly justifiable, but so it is, & I must abide the consequences I trust I have been careful to attend meetings, as often as almost any member, with a good degree of concern for myself & others & frequently experienced the benefit of the small dedication & hope the concern may continue.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 2, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 11th M 2nd 1816 / Rec'd a letter dated 26 ult from Hannah Pope of Baltimore containing intersting interesting information This Afternoon attended the funeral of Benj Hammond who died very suddenly last first day -- he went to his field after breakfast in the morning to repair a break made by the cattel between his neighbour & himself. when his neighbour arrived at the spot, he found him laying on his face & on examination he proved to be No More -- his family were not satisfied that he was dead & have kept him six days & such was his situation yesterday & today as removed all doubt. -- The case was very singular for several days his limbs were pliable & his flesh soft tho' cold, but at length evident marks of decay took place both in appearance & smell & this day his remains were committed to their mother earth.

I consider the precaution of keeping him till signs of decay had taken place a very prudent one both on his acct & that of his family - there has been doubtless cases of peoples being buried alive who have apparently died suddenly, & I hope all such cases will always be fully prved. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 3, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 3rd of 11th M 1816 / Our Meetings were both large, - short communications in both of them. -- To me they were seasons of favor, for which I desire to be thankful. --

This evening Henry Ridgeway Jr a young man lately from Ireland came & set with us -- I have had some previous acquaintance with him having called several times at the Shop & once of an evening before - he appears to be a very intelligent & considerably interesting young man, a member of society & from what I can

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

discover in good standing at home

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 10, Sunday: Piano Sonata J.199 by Carl Maria von Weber was performed for the initial time, in a private home in Berlin, by the composer.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 12 [sic] of 11 M / No preaching, except a few words in the Afternoon Sarah Earl set the evening with us. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 16, Thursday: La journée aux aventures, an opéra comique by Etienne-Nicholas Méhul to words of Chapelle and Mézières-Miot, was performed for the initial time, in the Théâtre Feydeau, Paris.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

11th M 16 5th day 1816 / A Silent meeting, & to me a rather dry time - Have this eveng been brought into deep seriousness - My heart heavy with a load of discouraging prospects from within & without

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 17, Sunday: William White Cooper was born in Holt, Wiltshire.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 11 M 17 1816 / In the forenoon Meeting Hannah Dennis was concerned in a lively Testimony - In the Afternoon father Rodman a few words. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 21, Thursday: The head and torso of the statue known then as “younger Memnon” was loaded on a flat-bottomed Nile barge.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 21 of 11 M / Silent Meeting but pretty well attended In the preparative Meeting I was again proposed to serve as one of the overseers of the Poor in which capacity I have been five years lacking about one Month - this is a task which involves much care & responsibility, & is peculiarly arduous when we have not money to defray expenses & relieve necessities which are pressing, This is frequently the case & so at the present time

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

November 24, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 24 of 11 M / The forenoon meeting was Silent in the Afternoon a few words by Father Rodman. – Yesterday Morning Elizabeth Gould departed this life after a very suffering illness of many Months, of a Cancer - which she bore with great fortitude & Christian patience. – Last Night the Widow Hannah Bird Left time In the 86th Year of her Age. I called in with my H & Polly Mclish who watched with her & looked on her while she lay near the conclusion It was an instructing lesson to me, & brought many things to my recollection. I recollected that she was with my Grandmother Wanton in her last Illness, & now many years Afterwards, I am called to witness her conclusion thus we go one generation after another, & soon it will be my turn

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 25, Monday (another source says November 29th): A bank of savings was formed in New-York at a public meeting held by the Society for the Prevention of Pauperism. (Boston would during the following month establish the 1st one in the US. This New York savings bank would incorporate during March 1819.)

Having divorced himself from the London Philharmonic Society, Muzio Clementi departed London for Paris.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 25th of 11 M 1816 / Attended the funeral of cousin Elizabeth Gould - She was carried to Middletown & inter'd in the family burying Ground - Rode with My H & after the Corpse was inter'd we went to George Goulds & took tea -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 26, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 26 of 11 M / Attended the funeral of the Widow Bird. The Aged must die, & the Young may die, those who are young if they live long enough to be aged will see many Afflictions & even youth are not exempt from them, so that in what ever state or condition we are the safest resolution is that of good old Joshua as for me & my House we will serve The Lord. – The widow Bird both in youth & advanced life partook of large drafts mingled with Wormwood & Gall & tho' She did not experience religion as Some do, Yet I have no doubt of her having gone to rest, she was a firm believer in the truths of Christianity & I believe a practical & in some degree an experimental Christian. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 28, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

5th day 28th of 11 M / Monthly Meeting - the first was silent & well attended. The last was long & closely exercising, the subject of appointing a committee to visit Tiverton Meeting & friends there, was brought up & finally referred another Month - Isaac Chase Jr & Ruth Dennis daughter of Robt Dennis published their intentions of Marriage.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 1, Sunday: Charles Davies resigned from the US Army in order to accept a position teaching mathematics at the West Point Military Academy. In addition to mathematics he would teach Natural and Experimental Philosophy. (Over the course of his long academic career the professor would author a total of 49 different treatises.)

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 1st of 12 M 1816 / Our meeting this forenoon was to me a season of favor D Buffum Father Rodman & Hannah Dennis was concerned in Public Testimony & particularly D Buffum was very precious to my feelings - Silent & comfortable to me in the Afternoon
Sister Ruth set the evening with us. - I do feel rejoiced in this Days favor. Oh! that I may Watch & pray that I be not left without religious life & hope. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 5, Thursday: The Reverend Robert Finley, an activist in the American Colonization Society, wrote to Captain Paul Cuffe about how unhappy the free Negroes of America were going to remain, "as long as they continue among the whites." This white man somehow knew that these black man were going to be unhappy. So how could they be made happy, he asked? -Well, he suggested, we could "place them perhaps in Africa."¹⁷⁹

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 5th of 12 M 1816 / Meeting was attended as well as usual.
silent & to me rather a barren season. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 8, Sunday: The Kingdom of Naples and the Kingdom of Sicily formally united as, guess what, the "Kingdom of the Two Sicilies" (don't ask, because I don't know).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 8th of 12 M / Two testimoniys in the forenoon (C R & H D) both attended with life to my feelings. - In the Afternoon Silent & to me a season of some favor -

179. So explain this relative unhappiness to me, please, as there seem to be three possibilities: is the black man somewhat unhappier than the white man, that the black man is in America? -Or are the white man and the black man approximately equally unhappy, that the black man is in America? -Or is the black man slightly less unhappy than the white man, that the black man is in America? Inquiring minds want to know. Is it the black man who is going to be happier, when the black man is back in Africa where he belongs, or is it the white man who is going to be happier, when the black man is back in Africa where he belongs, or, perchance, are they both going to be equally happy once the white man is alone in America and the black man alone in Africa?

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

In the evening with my H & Sister R - visited my cousins Anne & Mary Gould who we found comfortable (as could be expected after their recent affliction, as well as our Aged Cousin Bathseba

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 12, Thursday: At a General Meeting of the London Philharmonic Society, a replacement was named for Muzio Clementi as treasurer. It was decided to allow his name to remain on the list of directors.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 12 of 12 M / Our meeting was silent tho' pretty well attended

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 13, Friday: The Provident Institution for Savings, a company being chartered in Boston for the benefit of the “frugal poor,” would prosper “beyond the expectations of its founders” because it would prove unexpectedly popular as a haven for the surplus funds of an entirely different class of our society. Within the next five years its deposits would reach $600,000 and its surplus would reach $6,200 while the rate of interest it paid on deposits would reach 1% quarterly due to the availability of surplus funds in the ranks of the salaried middle class — the class which would be purchasing “life insurance policies” as soon as that new form of investment would become socially acceptable. Another such savings bank would open in Baltimore in the next year, and three would open in the year after that in Boston, in New-York, and in Portland (a savings bank would be opened in Concord, Massachusetts in 1835).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 13 of 12 M / We have discovered that Aunt Molly Wanton is in a more critical situation as to health than she has been for some time past - She has been exceedingly lame for some months in consequence of a fall, which in addition to her distracted state of mind has rendered her exceedingly troublesome - but now her feet & legs are much swollen which indicates Dropsy. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 15, Sunday: The head and torso of the statue known then as “younger Memnon” arrived in Cairo.

On the eve of his 46th birthday Ludwig van Beethoven suffered the death of one of his most important patrons, Prince Franz Joseph Lobkowitz.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 15 of 12 M / Our forenoon meeting was pretty well attended
In the Afternoon a few words from father. - Jeremiah took tea & set part of the evening with us*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

December 16, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 16th of 12 M / My H rec'd a letter from Aunt Stanton which mentioned that mother was in health – Sister Mary took tea & set the evening with us. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 17, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 17 of 12 M / Oh that I may labor, & labor hard to subject my evil propensities. I have felt a renew'd concern this morning to effect a thorough overcoming. I am often tried & have of late been more guarded than at time heretofore. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 19, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 19th of 12 M / Our meeting was as large as usual & to me a season of some favor for which I desire to be thankful in this season of almost spiritual famine. – Father Rodman was concerned in testimony, much to my comfort – a word in season Preparative meeting short & no business. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 22, Sunday: William Cooper Nell was born at 64 Kendall Street on Beacon Hill in Boston.

On this day and the following one, a Treaty of Peace and Amity was being signed between the United States of America and Algeria.

READ THE FULL TEXT

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 22nd of 12th M 1816 / Our Meetings were both well attended, in the Afternoon I thought it was larger than common – both were silent – rather lifeless seasons to me, tho' I trust to some others were more favored. – Joseph Wilbour took tea & set the evening with us.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 26, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 26th of 12 M / Took My H & John to Portsmouth to attend the Moy [Monthly] Meeting. This side of Slate Hill the through Brace broke & by the help of friends we so fixed it that Br David

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

& I rode in it to meeting, Hannah got in with Ruth & Isaac Mitchell took John. -At meeting Cynthia Coggeshall appeared in a few words & was followed by Hannah Dennis & D Buffum, all which testimonys were pleasant to me, & I trust in some measure was beneficial. -The subject of appointing a committee to visit Tiverton meeting was revived, & after a long time of exercise it was concluded to appoint a committee to visit such parts of the Monthly Meeting as way should open. Saml Thurston, Richd Mitchell & Benjn Freeborn were nominated & appointed. - After Meeting we Dined at Jethro T Mitchells & rode home without further accident

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 29, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 12 M 29th 1816 / Our meetings were both well attended, father Rodman was concerned in testimony in both. Sarah Fowler took tea with us.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

December 30, Monday: Some three weeks after Percy Bysshe Shelley's abandoned wife's drowned body had been discovered in the Serpentine, he as the absconding father of two legitimate orphaned children and his mistress Mary Godwin Wollstonecraft felt constrained to wed — presumably to enhance Percy's chances at his pending hearing to obtain custody of his children by Harriet Westbrook Shelley, Janthe Shelley (age 3½) and Charles Shelley (age 2).

WILLIAM GODWIN'S LIFE

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 30 of 12 M / I feel this day that another space in the wheel of Time has sunk beneath the pinion - Alas with me another Year has gone I am this evening 35 Years of Age - When I awoke this morning my mind was forceably impressed with my deficiencies in every respect & a labor has been witnessed thro' the day for a revival of religious Sensibility but as an aged

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

man has remarked of himself in my presence this evening, "I can feel how I want to feel, but do not feel as I ought to feel" Yet thro' divine mercy I have experienced some evidence of the continuance of Divine favor. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 31, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 31 of 12 M / This day ends the Year. – Oh! that when my final year comes I may be prepared – I acknowledge my short comings & my disposition to rebel against the light & have only hopes in Jesus Christ – I am every day reminded that the religion of Jesus is the only true Religion – My H Spent that Afternoon & took tea at her fathers. John & I also there –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

“NARRATIVE HISTORY” IS FABULATION, HISTORY IS CHRONOLOGY

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1817

January 1, Wednesday: The Reverend John White of Dedham got married with Delia Jane Holcomb Dwight, daughter of Seth Dwight of Utica, New York.

The lawyer brothers Harry and Robert Sedgwick, recent immigrants to New-York from Massachusetts, spent New Year's Day making social calls. Harry would describe his round of social calls in a letter to his fiancée Jane Minot in Boston, dated January 1, 3, and 4, 1817, that is now in the Sedgwick Family V Papers at the Massachusetts Historical Society:

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 1st of 1st M D 1817 / The day has been very fine & pleasant, & nothing in any respect has occurred to obstruct a considerable degree of enjoyment, saving a want of life, but of that, a degree has been vouchsafed, tho' unmerited. I have many things to be thankful, among which I have procured some provision today, sufficient to last sometime & tho my means are small, yet thy [they] are not such as to render my circumstances difficult -& I have abundant cause to TRUST in the Lord who hath thus far evidently cared for me & many time opened ways where there hath none appeared & may these favors be acknowledged by increased dedication & faithful obedience. - Sally Easton spent the evening with us¹⁸⁰

After church which is out at half past twelve and before dinner at three, you are expected to call on all your friends and everywhere to get a glass of wine and a cookie (small cake). You cannot stay at any one place more than three minutes. It is as

180. Stephen Wanton Gould Diary, 1815-1823: The Gould family papers are stored under control number 2033 at the Division of Rare and Manuscript Collections of Cornell University Library, Box 7 Folder 12 for August 24, 1815-September 25, 1823; also on microfilm, see Series 7

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

if all the town gave wedding parties.... The custom I think is a very excellent and delightful one, though somewhat fatiguing. Everybody is delighted to see you, and kind feelings are everywhere promoted. We finished our rounds or rather exhausted our time at a quarter past three having made more than thirty visits in every part of the city. There were still several omissions which [Robert] very much regretted.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 2, Thursday: The initial issue of the Vienna Allgemeine Musik Zeitung.

George Gordon, Lord Byron wrote amusingly to John Murray describing the sexual morals of the Mediterranean clime — if a woman limits herself to her husband plus one lover, she is considered virtuous; if she takes two, three, or more lovers, she might be considered a little wild; only when she becomes indiscriminately profuse, or forms “a low connexion, such as the Princess of Wales with her courier,” will she be considered to have overstepping the modesty of marriage.

Maintaining the Princess-of-Wales Tradition

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 2 of 1 M / Meeting pretty well attended, -a short offering - leanness was my companion. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

January 3, Friday: Publication of the Adagio, Variations and Rondo on “The Pretty Polly” op.75 for piano by Johann Nepomuk Hummel was announced in the Wiener Zeitung.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*6th day 3 of 1 M / Some days ago Sister Ruth turned her Ankle & hurt it exceedingly. Dr Sweet has this day examined it & pronounced one bone broken & one cracked - The poor thing suffered exceedingly in the operation of setting, but it now appears to be streight & by a few days confinement in bed, I am in hopes she will be more comfortable but she has a long suffering time of lameness to look forward to - She has my sympathy & pitty to the very heart -
This Afternoon David Buffum Rec'd a letter from Wm Rotch Jr Which mentioned the Decease of our friend Ed ELISHA THORNTON in New Bedford last 3rd day*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 5, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 5th of 1st M / Our Morning meeting was well attended & father Rodman, D Buffum & H Dennis were engaged in lively testimonys. - father again appeared in the Afternoon. - Set the evening at home. - It has been but a poor Day with me. leaness my companion.
Wrote to my Mother. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 9, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 9th of 1st M 1817 / Owing to an engagement I was under I was not at Meeting today. - My H has a severe Cough upon her & was also absent. - John has also had a hard Cough & Cold, which he had had upon him for about two weeks he is better today than Yesterda but his case give me some uneasiness. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

➡ January 12, Sunday: Allegra, Claire Clairmont's illegitimate daughter by George Gordon, Lord Byron, was born at Bath (at first her mother called her "Alba").

In Naples the Real Teatro di San Carlo was reopened 11 months after having burned to the ground. The inaugural work was the premiere of Simon Mayr's melodramma allegorico Il sogno di Partenope to words of Lampredi, composed for the birthday of King Ferdinando I.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 12 of 1 M / A few words spoken in the Life at meeting in the forenoon - Silent in the Afternoon & to me a Season of a little favor - Attended the funeral of two men the Capt & Mate of a vessel who were brought in from sea Dead - They were four days ago Killed by lightnening - none of the other hands hurt - a very remarkable circumstance, while I stood by the graves & saw them deposited I thought while their friends at home were in anguish at their sudden privation it must yeald them Some consolation that they were decently committed to the earth & not consigned to a Watery grave. The consideration of their very sudden removal in full strength & vigor of life affected me almost to weeping. - Cousin Henry Gould & wife set the evening with us. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ January 14, Tuesday: The head and torso of the statue known then as "younger Memnon" was unloaded in Alexandria port.

Pierre-Alexandre Monsigny died in Paris at the age of 87.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 14th of 1st M / Sister Ruth has this day had the Bandage removed from her foot & a plaster put on it appears to be doing

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

well & I am in hopes she will in the course of a few weeks be able to resume her school. - Rec'd letters this eveng from Mother & Aunt Stanton which gave an Acct. of their welfare. This was a pleasing circumstance as there has lately been a fire near them & they narrowly escaped being burned out. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 19, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 19th of 1st M 1817 / Our morning meeting was not very large but a solid & to some present a favor'd season David Buffum & Father Rodman were very lively in communication - In the Afternoon H Dennis & father were concerned, & to me it was a day of favor.
John & my H have not sufficiently recovered from their Colds & were not out at meeting. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 20, Monday: Boston chimney-sweep Daniel D. Britton was put in jail for having stolen chickens.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 20 of 1st M / Rec'd letters this evening from Mother & Aunt Stanton which gave me account of their usual health - Sister Eliza spent the day & evening with us -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 23, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 23rd of 1st M / Our meeting pretty well attended a few words deliverd in the first - In the last (Preparative) Seth Kelley of Mendon preposed his intention of Marriage with Eunice Earl & Stephen Chase of Swansey proposed his intentions of Marriage with Mary Bowen. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 26, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 26 of 1 M / Our meetings were both rather small, the weather being a little unfavorable. A short testimony in the morning - silent in the Afternoon. - Hannah & John both out, the first time in several weeks

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 January 30, Thursday: Carl Maria von Weber opened the German Opera in Dresden with Etienne-Nicholas Méhul's Joseph. This was a great success, particularly with the king.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 30 of 1st M / Our friend David Harkness from Peru Vermont attended Meeting & was largely poerfully & very acceptably in testimony, & supplication. – In the last (Monthly) Seth Kelley & Eunice Earl, & Stephen Chase & Mary Bowen published their intentions of Marriage – At the close of the meeting David Harkness was again very powerfully engaged in testimony & particularly addressed the Youth. –
E Dennis B Pearce & P Hale dined with us. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 February 2, Sunday: Heinrich Alois, Count Reigersberg replaced Maximilian Joseph, Count Montgelas as President of the Council of Ministers of Bavaria.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 2nd of 2 M / In the forenoon Meeting father Rodman was largely concerned in Testimony & D Williams read the London Epistle for the past Year-- Silent in the Afternoon -- James Rogers formerly of Pembroke Massachusetts now of Peru Vermont took tea with us, also Eunice Earl – This evening wrote a letter to my fr D Smith of Bolton to go by Ja Rogers who expects to return bome by the way of Bolton. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 February 6, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 6th of 2nd M 1817 / Our Meeting was small & silent I know not when I have had a more completely lifeless meeting – the Tiller was gone & my mind drove to & fro as the natural inclination was drawn – I labor'd a little to overcome but was not able to get on the spot I wished. –
Those who are abesent at the Quarterly Meeting have a fine time. – the weather is Cold but is Clear & wholesome–*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 February 9, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 9th of 2 M / In the mornng a few words at meeting – In the Afternoon Silent – To me seasons of but little proffit. –
The day was stormy – Set the evening at home. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 February 16, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1st day 16th of 2 M / Mornng Meeting silent - In the Afternoon a few words to me season of reflection, serious reflection & I trust proffitable. - eveng at home. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 20, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 20th of 2 M 1817 / Meeting rather small, but pretty well considering the Walking. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 23, Sunday: Percy Bysshe Shelley, Mary Godwin Wollstonecraft Shelley, William Shelley, and Claire Clairmont traveled to Marlow.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 23rd of 2 M / Meetings both small - walking very bad - a few words in the Afternoon - Set the eveng at home employed in writing to my Beloved Micajah Collins

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 12, Wednesday: While on their way from Rome to Milan, Gioachino Rossini and his friend Marchese Francesco Sampieri stopped off in Spoleto and caught a performance of L'Italiana in Algeri. They sat in the orchestra, Sampieri playing harpsichord and Rossini bass.

A South American army under José de San Martín defeated Spanish and loyalist forces at Chacabuco north of Santiago, Chile.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 12th of 2 M / This evening met with a considerable number of men at the Church School House & form'd ourselves into a Society for the Relief of the Poor & entitled ourselves the Relief Society we chose Edw Brinley President, Thos H Mumford Secretary & appointed a committee of eight, of which number I was one, to superintend the affairs of society for the present Year & hope thro' the Benevolence of the Public to be enabled to do some good among the poor. a considerable number of very respectable inhabitants seem to be well engaged in the subject & some of them of the wealthy class. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 13, Thursday: As the revolutionary army arrived in Santiago, the royal government of Chile was boarding ship at Valparaiso.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 13 of 2 M / Our Meeting in course today was silent but

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

to me a season of some favor - after it was the adjournment of the Moy [Monthly] Meeting, at which Seth Kelley & Eunice Earl & Stephen Chase & Mary Bowen received their answer & a meeting appointed at 3 OC This Afternoon for them to accomplish their marriage - The Meeting this afternoon was very large & Our fr D Buffum was engaged in a lively testimony, then the couples were married & both performed well

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 26, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 26 of 2 M / This Afternoon rode with cousin Shadrack Chase to Portsmouth & spent the Afternoon & evening with his Mother & Sisters - found them comfortable but alas - never did I so fully realise the meaning of the word miss - tho' I have lost near & dear friends yet it seemed to me that I never missed one so much as I did from his place, as my late much loved Cousin Z Chase - I missed him from his seat at The Corner of the fireplace, when the door opened, his smiling countenance did not appear with it, & in the evening his conversation was lacking to make the visit, as my visits have been to that house my whole life long. - he has gone & I doubt not is in a better world, & it remains for us who survive to prepare for the Great change which he has passed thro'. - Next Morning cousin Shadrack & wife took me to meeting in the Sleigh it was a severe Snow Storm & we suffered considerably before we got to the Meeting house, but there was a considerable of a gathering - the first sitting was silent - in the last we had but little buisness - Rode home with Richard Mitchell & dined. Then walked home. The walking was sliper, which with a cold Rain falling, made it quite tedious. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 2, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 2nd of 3 M / At Both Meetings we had the company of Jesse Hains & his Companion Nathan Sharpless from Pennsylvania,. They had been from home near a Year, have visited Canada & the eastern Quarters of the Yearly Meeting - They came very unexpectedly to all we had not heard of their being in this neighborhood till we found them at meeting. Jesse is apparantly one of the true Ministers of the day. sound deep & clear, very searching, & with all attended with that power in an eminent degree which shook the minds of the opposers & luke warm, thro' the preaching of George Fox & some of his cotemporaries [sic] - Meetings were as well attended as could be expected considering the Walking which was very slipery & wet. - Set the evening at home & employed it in writing to my friend Hannah Pope of Baltimore

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 3, Monday: The eastern part of the Mississippi Territory was split off to form the Alabama Territory, with its capital at St. Stephens near Mobile, Alabama.

Congress appointed John Quincy Adams as commissioner to examine and report on the subject of Weights and measures in the United States, and also as to the desirableness of adopting the French system, or some similar one. During the years 1819 and 1820, Adams had the standards employed in the various custom-houses examined, and, in a table accompanying his report, presented in 1821, showed the discrepancies that existed in the different states. He reported unfavorably to the French system, and recommended a more exact conformity with the English system.

President James Madison vetoed a permanent fund for roads and canals.

POEMS was John Keats's initial publication.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 3 of 3 M 1817 / This Afternoon finished & put in the Office a letter which I begun several weeks ago to my frd Hannah Pope - & rec'd one from My dear Mother & Aunt Stanton dated 25 ult.-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 6, Thursday: According to BIRTHS, MARRIAGES AND DEATHS OF THE TOWN OF CONCORD, MASSACHUSETTS (Groton, 1894), William Ward of Groton and Rebecca Barrett of Concord got married before the Reverend Ezra Ripley.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 6 of 3 M / Last evening news came of the decease of Mary L Almy daughter of Chrsto & Lydia Almy. She was at Gloucester on a visit to her relations there was taken sick & died in a short time he afflicted parents have returned to town. - The particulars of her conclusion I have not understood. - At meeting a few words were spoken, tho' my mind was tossed about a degree of favor experienced. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 7, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*6th day 7 of 3 M / My mind has for a number of days been remarkably shut out from good - tho' I have both when I first awoke in the morning & at our pause at meals as well as many other times endeavored to raise a sigh in prayer for help, yet all was hard & good was not at my command, however having often experienced such seasons, & sometimes found them the precursor of better times, even so in measure it proves now - This morning I have felt a revival, my heart tendered, & enabled to ask for help
This eveng visited the house of mourning Christo & Lydia Almy have buried their daughter Mary, she was absent at Gloucester*

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

where she was taken ill with the Thypus fever & died They got to her about 17 hours before she left time - they found her in the use of her reason with which she was favor'd to the last - Their acct was interesting & deeply instructing to my mind. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 8, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 8th of 3rd M 1817 / This Afternoon Our frd Philip Dunham & Warren Gifford, accompanied by Henry Knowles from Narragansett came to our house took tea & set the evening & staid all night with the exception of Henry who went to J Mitchells -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 9, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day [Quarterly Meeting?] / At meeting in the morning Philip was concerned in testimony & felt out the condition of divers present - They all dined with us. - In the Afternoon Warren was twice on his feet, was powerful & searching. - their testimonies were comforting to me & I can truly say I was thankful for the visit - They took tea with father Rodman & Went to Richd Mitchells to lodge expecting to go home tomorrow. - I have been long acquainted with Philip & as long has been a brother beloved. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 13, Thursday: When Henry Phillips, who had murdered Gaspard Denegri near Roebuck Tavern, was hanged on Boston Neck, he was allowed to hold a handkerchief with the agreement that he would drop it when he was ready for the trap to be sprung.

After the cap was drawn over his eyes, he sang a song of three verses, dropped the handkerchief, and was launched into eternity.¹⁸¹

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 13th of 3 M / Very unexpectedly at meeting today we had the Company of Obadiah Davis & Ruth his wife - Ruth first appeared in a long & solemn testimony to parents & Youth & related the circumstances of the death of a young woman in their neighborhood who left time a few days ago in a sweet frame of mind, who expressed that many times when her parents restrained her from the ways of the World, she thought them hard. but she was then fully sensible they were right & that it was their Duty so to do - Obadiah followed her in very impressive terms to a

181. Edward H. Savage's POLICE RECORDS AND RECOLLECTIONS OR BOSTON BY DAYLIGHT AND GASLIGHT FOR TWO HUNDRED AND FORTY YEARS, issued in 1873.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

considerable length - Ruth then appeared in solemn supplication & Obadiah wound up in a few words, excellently - It was a close searching time & I have no hesitation in saying that the Lords mighty power was felt among us & some minds were shaken by it. -My state was remarkably spoken & I have no doubt many others were 6th day 14th of 3rd M 1817 / This day John is five years old -he is a smart little fellow & I devoutly hope he may make a GOOD Man - I have no greater desire for him, even tho' he should be blessed with great riches without RELIGION, they are nothing.- This Afternoon Sister Ruth came down to see us & will stay all night. The first time she has been out since she broke her leg - I can but feel a degree of thanksgiving that she has thus comfortably got along. - My Spirit has been (particularly this Afternoon) feelingly touched & prayers begotten that I may increase in dedication

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 15, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 15 of 3 M / Geo Engs & Wife & Edw W Lawton & wife took tea & set the evening with us

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 16, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 16 of 3 M / Our Morning meeting was a precious season to me, soon after I took my seat my mind became solemnized & secret aspirations arose for help which was vouchsafed - a few words were expressed by father R - I felt again a revival in the Afternoon, but not as fresh as in the morning. father again concerned in a few Words. - We took tea at Aunt Nancys & my H & Sister R set the evening there. I walked out & called at C Almays & D Williams & there set most of the evening -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 17, Monday: After five days during which mourners filed by the casket to pay their respects, "a vast multitude" followed the remains of John Cashman to the cemetery of Stepney Churchyard.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 17 of 3 M / This morning Sister Ruth went home having past 3 night & 2 day [Monday]'s very acceptably with us, & we are thankful she is so far restored as to be able to get about again

4th day 19th of 3rd M / My mind has of late been favord to witness the solemnizing influence of the spirit of Life flow thro' it, & desires raised that the clensing opperation may be thoroughly

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

preformed. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 20, Thursday: Johann Simon Mayr was elected to the Ateneo of Bergamo.

Eliza Ann Melvin was born in Concord to Charles Melvin (1) and Betsy Farrar Melvin. In 1844 she would get married with William W. Gage. She would relocate from Concord to Woburn MA. In about 1849 her sister Maria Melvin would come to Woburn to visit and find work, and would meet there and get married with

THE MELVINS OF CONCORD

George Kimball.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 20 of 3rd M / Our meeting was silent & if my feelings were correct there was a remarkable solemn covering over us - to me it was a good time tho' it might have been better - This evening my mind has been raised & this language has prevailed
"Evermore give me this bread"
Rec'd a letter from Jos Mitchell. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 21, Friday: Charles Henry Shattuck was born in Concord, Massachusetts, 1st child of Daniel Shattuck and Betsey Miles Shattuck.

Rochesterville, New York was incorporated (including the village of Frankfort, which it annexed, its population was 700 — eventually this would all become Rochester). Francis Brown was elected the 1st mayor. A mill was being built on Water Street. This spring, floods would damage the business section. In this year Elisha Johnson and Orson Seymour would lay out a subdivision on the east bank of the Genesee River. Austin Steward, a freed black man, was opening a meat market on West Main Street (local white competitors would deface his business signs with black paint, but eventually this would cease).

Edward Scrantom, a white abolitionist who had helped the freed Austin Steward with his belated education, would later comment upon this incident:

...the outrage and indignity offered you in Rochester, by white competitors on no other ground than that of color.¹⁸² I saw your bitter tears, and recollect assuring you — what afterwards proved true — that justice would overtake the offenders, and that you would live to see these enemies bite the dust!

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd M 21 1817 6th day / I have been favor'd with the precious incomes of love & life this morning, much to my consolation. — How precious it is to feel the Streams to flow after a season of dearth in the mind, it excites gratitude, & oh that it may continue. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

182. The indignity spoken of was this: Mr. Steward had established a grocery and provision store on Buffalo Street, in a part of Abner Wakelee's building, opposite the Eagle Hotel. He put up his sign, a very plain and proper one, and at night, some competitors, whom he knew, as well as he could know anything which he could not prove, smeared his sign with black paint, utterly destroying it! But the misguided men who stooped to such an act — the victims of sensuality and excess — have years ago ended their journey, and passed to the bar of a higher adjudication.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 23, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 3 M 23rd / In our forenoon Our frd D Buffum was concerned in a lively & excellent testimony, beginning with the Steward & pointed out his duty particularly impressed the necessity of the improvement of the talents whether 5.2 or one after dwelling in a lively & instructive manner on the subject he made a general application to the whole Audience – Father had a short testimony & the meeting ended – In the Afternoon our friend Valentine Meader & his companion Jos Battey were with us having taken Portsmouth Meeting in the morning – Valentine was favord in testimony which seemed to me like a simple pure brooke by the way. – Our meetings today were both the best I have witnessed in some months. Soon after taking my seat in the morning I felt the pure life & solemnity to rise & spread over the meeting. – In the Afternoon I experienced rather more of a labor but was enabled to get near to good at Last – for all this I desire to be thankful. – Set the evening at home.–

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 25, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 23 [sic] of 3 M / My Aged friend D Buffum called to see me this forenoon (as he frequently does) The conversation turned on religious subjects & was to me an interesting opportunity. I believe that both of us felt divine good to be near. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 26, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 26th of 3 M / My condition was sometimes past indeed on the Barran mountains & desolate hills, but of late I have had a renew'd visitation of heavenly regard & been enabled to lift up my head a little – I have this day At Several times & particularly this evening been favor'd with Sweet feelings & oh that they may continue with me. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 27, Thursday: Chancery Court denied to Percy Bysshe Shelley custody of his children by Harriet Westbrook Shelley, Ianthe Shelley (age 3^{1/2}) and Charles Shelley (age 2).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 27 of 3 M / Monthly Meeting in Town. – In the first meeting we had two testimonys Viz D B & C R – it was a Season of labor to me –In the last we had no buisness of much importance

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

- No one came home to Dine with us tho' I asked an unusual number, all previously engaged

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 30, Sunday: Lieutenant Francis Hall sighted the welcome hills of his own country.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 30 of 3 M 1817 / Silent meetings both of them hard times to me & I believe some others - I called in the eveng at Br D Rodmans & set a little while with Sister E who is keeping House for Joanna, she being out of Town on a visit - also called at father Rs where I met Jonathon Swain from Nantucket - he has been about town several days & seems like a clearer friend

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 2, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 2nd of 4th M 1817 / For some days past I have had a severe conflict with the enemy - during which the expressions of Jesus Christ to Peter was forcibly revived in my remembrance to my consolation & help - "Satan hath desired to have thee to sift thee as Wheat - but I have prayed for thee that thy faith fail not"- The importance of a mediator with God was never more fully in my view & the recollection tendered my heart. -

*5th day 3 of 4 M / Our meeting was pretty well attended & I have no doubt was a comfortable season to some present - The forepart of it was to me, but dwindled before the close
One communication which I thought sound -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 6, Easter Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 6th of 4th M / Meetings were pretty well attended - in the morning a short testimony by father Rodman - in the Afternoon Silent

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 10, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 10 of 4th M / Before meeting I had an interesting visit from my frd D Buffum who related some of the exercises of his Youth - while he was here Cousin Ann Greene came in from Connanicut who has come over to attend Meeting, being seven Months since she was over & feelingly regretts being unable to get to meetings - I hope that way will open for friends to hold a meeting on that Island the ensuing summer. -
At meeting father Rodman appeared in a short but impressive*

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

testimony & to me it was a good Meeting tho' not all the time as much abstracted from the World as I could wish Rec'd this morning a letter from mother which mentions that her health is about as usual -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 11, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 11th of 4 M 1817 / Called this forenoon to see the Widow Dorcas Potter as I have done Several times of late. found her very weak & feeble but sitting up an end on the bed conversed with a strong voice & wished me to point to her the passage of Scripture where Christ healed the sick woman who had been bowed down for 18 Years with infermity, & also a passage which she said Doctor Wales used often to repeat - where it was said "Simon Simon Satan hath desired to have you to sift you as wheat - but I have prayed for thee that thy faith fail not, neither of which passages I could readily turn to tho I had read them both within a week or two - I expressed the comfort I had felt on a late reading of the latter passage that Christ had prayed for us that our faith fail not - after conversing a little while with her I came away with an evidence of sweetness attending my mind. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 12, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 12 of 4 M / This morning about half after 8 OClock the nurse sent for me to come up to the Widow Potters & when I got there found she had left time about a quarter of an hour before I got there, which surprised me much. - She had rested as well as usual last night but was more unwell this morning & left time quietly & without much apparent struggle. - As executor to her will I have been very buisy in preparing for the funreal[funeral] &c.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 13, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 13 of 4 M / Our meetings were both Silent & very well attended. - Aftermeeting [sic] In the Afternoon with D Rodman & J Weeded went down to J Dennis & after tea we made out Answers for the next Moy [Monthly] Meeting -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

April 14, Monday: Samuel Taylor Coleridge's "Remorse" was again staged.

At the Hoftheater of Dresden, Incidental music to Müllner's play König Yngard by Carl Maria von Weber was performed for the initial time.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*2nd day 14th of 4th M 1817 / With my H attended the funeral of Dorcas Potter, when I went into the room & found no friend there & a considerable many of other societies among whom were Wm Patten & a number of his society, I felt no small degree of weight to fall upon me, for I believed it right to give them an example of Silence - for sometime after taking my seat I felt some emotion but was favor'd to get quiet & experience a degree of favor, & the gathering was very quiet which I concluded to a good degree of Satisfaction as respected myself - -after the corpse was inter'd in the common burying ground I returned to the house & took tea after which father Rodman came in & read the Will of the deceased. -
While we were absent at the funeral Henry Ridgeway of Waterford (Ireland) called to see us & left his name with Dr Hazard. on inquiry This evening, I found he left town immediately for Providence which I regret - having had some acquaintance with him last fall & felt an esteem for him*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 17, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 17 of 4 M / At meeting Anne Greene appeared in a Living Prayer - In the forepart of the meeting my mind was exceedingly incumbered with things of the world & while sitting & perceiving that the World was "on top" & that I was unable of my self to effect a change of mind tho' I labord for it - I felt a lamentation over my condition. The concerns of the Widow Potters Estate had so occupied my attention for several days past that they here stuck fast to me. - but tho' [through] Divine help when cousin Anne knelt in Supplication I experienced my mind raised above those cumbering things & life rose to my comfort & was favor'd with an uncommonly degree of solidity in the preparative meeting. - The queries were answered & a lamentable case of intemperate use of spirituous liquor was adverted to but in which labor has been bestowed. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 20, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 20 of 4 M 1817 / At Meeting this forenoon Our fr D Buffum was concern'd in a lively sound & pertinent testimony & I have no doubt that Some were lead to reflect on the importance of christianity, who at some time in their lives were not in the

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

habit of it. – In the Afternoon we were Silent. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 26, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 26 of 4 M 1817 / Exceedingly occupied in disposing of the household furniture of Dorca Potter at Vendue

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 27, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 27 of 4 M / Both our meetings silent & pretty well attended – John Williams son of Obadiah arrived in Town Several are very Sick at Portsmouth, the throat Distemper is prevalent. Isaac Chases Daughter Mary is very low with it – Isaac Almy son of Holder is also very low with a fever. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 29, Tuesday: George Gordon, Lord Byron began to travel toward Rome (he would arrive on May 26th).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 29 of 4 M / At half past 11 OClock this mornng took passage with the friends to Greenwich Quarterly Meeting we were six hours & three quarters on the Water but the time passed pleasantly when we got to our old friends John Caseys we found him very glad to see us & we lodged there – 4th day mornng I took Chaise & went to the fulling mill factory with Sister Mary & Susan Proud which was a pleasant little excursion for Mary as she was never from home so far before. – Called at Cousin Wanton Caseys – Dined at John Caseys. – took tea at Wanton Caseys & Mary with me where I lodged 2nd day [Monday] after breakfast called to J Casey where I saw several old friends – then at James Greenes after taking a dish of tea with him – we went to meeting – James & Peter Hoxie were several times on foot. no other preachers – In the last meeting After the Queries were Answer'd – Peter Hoxies concern was considered to visit some parts of New York Yearly Meeting – which after much weighty deliberation was refer'd to next Quarterly Meeting. – Thomas Anthony was Brought forward as a minister from Greenwich Monthly Meeting the case united with & forwarded to the Yearly Meeting, which was the chief buisness that concerned us. Dined at John Caseys – took tea with father Rodman & lodged at Wanton Caseys. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 2, Friday: At the Scuola Musicale of Bergamo, Arianna e Bacco, a cantata for solo voices, chorus and orchestra by Johann Simon Mayr, was performed for the initial time.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

6th day This morning after taking leave of my Aged cousin Abigail Casey, cousin Wanton & his wife & amiable children - we went to John Caseys where we pretty much all collected that were going to Newport & at half past 8 OC were all on Packet Board & had a pleasant passage (tho' a head Wind) of 4 hours & an half - I found our friends well - my H & John were glad of our return & had a comfortable dinner provided of which Abby Anthony & Benjamin Mott partook. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 3, Saturday: Greatly depressed and highly agitated, Samuel Wesley went to stay with his mother. He so worried his sister Sarah that she hired a person to watch him.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 3rd of 5 M 1817 / We learn this morning that Isaac Almy son of the late Holder Almy departed this life at Portsmouth about 7 OC last evening. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 4, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 4th of 5 M / About 1 OClock this morning my dear & much loved Cousin ALICE CHASE departed this life at her residence in Portsmouth her disorder was the Throat Distemper or Canker Rash, which terminated very quick. She was taken while I was absent at Quarterly Meeting. - with the removal of her dear father the chain of happiness as respects myself was broken in that family & now another link is gone, Alass! we shall all soon be gone - I have loved her from childhood & I believe our love was reciprocal - & on my part will be remembered while I live Our morning meeting was silent & rather small Several gone to Portsmouth to attend I Almays funeral & some to Connannicut on the committee to open the Meeting.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 6, Tuesday: Deluding himself into supposing that he was being chased by creditors sent by his ex-wife, Samuel Wesley seriously injured himself by leaping from an upper window of his mother's house.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 6th of 5 M 1817 / Sylvester Weeks & Benjamin Mott dined with us, they with Benja Freeborn are waiting in town as arbitrators in a difficulty between Rowland Hazard & Thos R Williams. - the evidence got over about Dinner time & they are setting on the case at the Meeting House this Afternoon. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

May 8, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 8 of 5 M / Our meeting was small & silent & our quietude somewhat disturbed in consequence of the noise of Drums &c about town - Yesterday was Election Day but the Governor was not declared till this morning a circumstance which has not occurred before in many years.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 9, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 9 of 5 M / The Arbitrators in the case of R H & T R W this morning produced their award, the T should pay R $300 dollars in six months - which I hope will terminate controversy between them.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 11, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 11 of 5 M / The remains of Hannah Brayton aged 95 Years widow of Francis Brayton & Mother of Robert Brayton were carried to our forenoon Meeting & after meeting were inter'd in the Upper Burying ground in the Meadow field - She was not a member of our Society, but was carried to meeting by request of her son who with his mother were friendly people & attenders of meetings - Father Rodman & David Buffum both preached In the Afternoon we were Silent - Mother Rodman is quite Sick with the throat Distemper.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 12, Monday: William John Broderip joined the bar at Lincoln's Inn. His practice would be on the western circuit. Soon he and Peregrine Bingham would begin reporting in the court of common pleas. (These reports would appear in three volumes from 1820 to 1822.)

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 12 of 5 M / Mother Rodman is Better today her disorder assumes a favorable appearance & we hope her confinement will not be very long. - Went this evening with my H to see her. - her throat has been considerable sore & some fever hanging about her system. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 May 15, Thursday: The 1st private mental hospital in the United States, the Asylum for the Relief of Persons Deprived of the Use of Their Reason, began to admit patients in Philadelphia. During this initial year 19 persons would be admitted. Isaac Bonsall was the hospital's 1st superintendent. The facility's name has since become "Friends Hospital."¹⁸³

PSYCHOLOGY

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 15 of 5 M 1817 / A few words were spoken at Meeting wich I thought rather smaller than usual. There is considerable sickness about which prevents some. – Mother Rodman is better but Sister Eliza & Mary are confind with the throat Distemper – Several Sent for the Doctor from Middletown this Morning. –Br. Isaac daughter Susan is very ill of a fever & her case doubtful.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 May 18, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 18 of 5 M / D Buffum was concerned in a lively testimony in the forenoon meeting in the Afternoon silent. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 May 19, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 19 of 5 M / Our friends David Buffum & Jonathon Dennis sailed this morning for New York to attend the approaching Yearly Meeting. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 May 22, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 22 of 5 M / Our meeting was well attended & I believe a comfortable time. – my mind was tossd about but an evidence of good felt. – No buisness on importance in the Preparative except to reappoint David Buffum Jr as Clerk for the Year ensuing –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 May 23, Friday: Having been stabilized after his delusional leap, Samuel Wesley was taken from his mother's house to a temporary abode in Chapel Street, London to continue his therapy.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

6th day 23 of 5 M / My dear & Affectionate mother arrived this Morning about 10 OClock from New York after an absence from home of Seven Months & 23 day [Tuesday]s - & Aunt Stanton came with her. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 25, Sunday: Ralph Waldo Emerson's 14th birthday.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 25 of 5 M / At 8 OClock this morning went to the ferry with Richard Mitchell to go to Connannicut to attend the Meeting there before we set off we discovered a rope in the rigging was Stranded which occasioned some detention to splice it which was a favorable circumstance as before we got ready to set off Abigail Robinson came down to go over not knowing of our going - At Meeting Anne Greene & Abigail were concerned in lively testimonies, returned & Dined at Greenes, & came over the ferry again in good Season to attend our Afternoon Meeting which was silent Sister Eliza took tea with us & set the evening. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 28, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 28th of 5 M 1817 / Rode with Dr. Hazard to Cousin Chases this forenoon, got there as they were eating dinner, found cousin Elizabeth quite poorly & her mother feeble but about the house & pretty comfortable, Henry Chase & Lydia Cory rather poorly with the remains of the throat distemper - Allass how lonesome & changed did all things there appear to me. Since I was last there Cousin Alice removed to her long home, who was then in good health & bid fair for long life & almost the only prop to her aged mother. - I spent a little while in sympathy with these beloved cousins & then with the Doctor returned home & on our way called to see Rhoda Anthony who is quite poorly & probably in a declining state of health.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 29, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 29 of 5 M / Our first meeting was silent the buisness

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

of the last (Moy [Monthly] Meeting) was pretty well conducted, a trying occurrence was expected but was averted - the overseers of Portsmouth Preparative Meeting were again proposed & reappointed by the Moy [Monthly] Meeting. - Uncle Saml Thurston & wife. Eliza Freeborn Ann[?] Anthony Aunt Sarah Almy & Go Dennis Dined with us. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 1, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 1 of 6 M 1817 / Our morning meeting was Silent & pretty well attended. In the Afternoon Betsy Purinton & her companion were at meeting having attended Portsmouth in the morning, Rebecca appeared in a few words - Betsy in testimony & supplication. - They went to father Rodmans to tea & to lodge & in the evening called with my H & John to set a little while with them -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 4, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 4 of 6th M / This afternoon we took tea with our neighbour & friend Thos Hornsbey, in company with our old neighbours Saml Towle & his wife - This was a pleasant interview & one which I suppose will be long remembered. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 6, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 6th of 6th M 1817 / When I went out to open my shop this morning I saw our friend David Buffum coming up town having just landed from the Packet from New York - I was glad to see him & told him that as soon as I awoke & pretty much all the times I was dressing I was thinking of him. J Dennis had gone along before him to send in his Chaises for him & he came in & gave me a little account of the Yearly Meeting & of friends in the City of NewYork.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 8, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 8 of 6 M / Went this morning to Connannicut with Jethro Mitchell to attend the Meeting there, he & myself being added to the committee for that purpose at last Moy [Monthly] Meeting - The gathering was small, & I thought the promise was experienced by us there "Where two or three are gathered in my name there am I in the midst of you".- to me it was a comfortable

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

season - After meeting we came immediately across the ferry & I got home just as my H was rising from the dinner table & found she had Kindly Saved a piece of Mackerell for me. - Our Afternoon meeting at home, was silent & to me a good one. Aunt Stanton took tea with us & Mother Rodman added to the company in the evening

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 12, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 12 of 6 M / Benjamin Anthony an aged man & cripple was at meeting & preached a little - he is here from Cornwall state of N York on a visit to his relation he walks with 2 Crotches & is so lame that a chair was set in the Alley for him, his limbs are much drawn with The rheumatism - when he preached he Spoke sitting, & such was his helpless appearance as a man & Such the love & tenderness of expression that he excited sympathy by his appearance & raised life in my mind by his communication - it was to me a good meeting throughout. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 13, Friday: Timothy Leonard, the hermit of Hermit Pond in New Marlborough, Massachusetts, died alone in about his 70th year (New Marlborough is about 20 miles from Lenox).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th 13th of 6th M 1817 / This may be considered the beginning of Yearly Meeting. - A number of Friends have come - this Afternoon Jesse Kersey & several others came with a letter from OBrown to me requesting my attention to them - by previous arrangement I conducted Jessey & his companion to David Buffums & a young man from Philada to D Williams. - We have heard much tell of Jessey Kersey as a great preacher & good man. & I ma acknowledge that his looks are prepossessing -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 14, Saturday: John Foster Williams Lane, who would be one of David Henry Thoreau's classmates at Harvard College, was born in Boston, the son of Frederick and Eliza (Bonner) Lane (the parents named their infant in honor of Revolutionary hero Captain John Foster Williams of Boston).

Cécile-Jules-Basile Gérard was born at Pignans, inland from the Mediterranean coast between Nice and Marseilles. The Hotel de Ville (town hall) there, dating to 1682, was the residence of the family, and their child would become the inspiration for the Alphonse Daudet character "Tartarin de Tarascon."

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 14 of 6th M / Friends have come in but rather thinly our only lodgers to night are Luke & David Aldrich

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

June 15, Sunday: President James Monroe would be outraged during his visit to the West Point Military Academy over the following several days, when he would discover through interviews with its faculty that its acting superintendent, Captain Alden Partridge of the Corps of Engineers, had been arbitrarily graduating the cadets without any examinations and without reference either to academic standing or to military ability. The President would replace the acting superintendent with Sylvanus Thayer and arrange a court martial, after which Captain Partridge would be resigning his commission.¹⁸⁴

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day Our Meeting this forenoon owing to the very hevy rain that was falling & high wind blowing was not as large as common Jas Green delivered a sound zealous testimony & Jesse Kersey a very sound & very uncommonly highly finished testimony on the efficacy of divine light on the mind. - We forget from time to time but I believe I must pronounce it as the one of the most clear communications I ever heard Mary Nafftal concluded in supplication In the Afternoon Hannah Evans a woman from Philadelphia appeared in testimony then Jas Greene Jesse again on the subject of educating children &c. Our meetings were good ones. the Afternoon a little more unsettled than the morning. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 16, Monday: Edward Jesse was promoted from 3d-ranking commissioner of hackney coaches at Windsor Palace, to 2d.¹⁸⁵

MANFRED by George Gordon, Lord Byron was published in London.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day In the forenoon the usual buisness was enterd upon. Epistles from all the Yearly Meetings were rec'd & read & in the Acct from Falmouth Quarter was observed a proposal to remove the Yearly Meeting - & a very good testimony from Westport Moy [Monthly] Meeting was read concerning our aged & truly honorable friend Jeremiah Austin - Many testimonies were delivered by our foreign brethren, particularly S Grellet I Thornm Jr Jesse Kersey &c &c In the Afternoon The answers to the Queries were attended to, under a solemn covering, which with the other subjects drew many observations from several friends from other Yearly Meetings. - The state of the African race & a right education of children were the principal subjects tho many of minor importance were touched upon & I was gratified to observe the life which rose & shone in our Aged brother Moses Brown as well Wm Rotch Jr Wm Almy Obadiah Davis & others of this Yearly Meeting. -

184. Partridge would never get over this. He would author, among other diatribes, pseudonomously in 1830 in Washington DC, a 28-page pamphlet entitled THE MILITARY ACADEMY, AT WEST POINT, UNMASKED: OR, CORRUPTION AND MILITARY DESPOTISM EXPOSED. BY AMERICANUS.

185. This office had been created in 1694 and would be abolished on January 5, 1832.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

We have had much company today & have been favor'd to get along with rather more satisfaction at the close of the Day than common. –

Isaac Thorn & Ruben House are our lodgers with several others in addition to last night. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 17, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day But one sitting today & that this Afternoon A testimony concerning Elisha Thornton rec'd was read from Smithfield Mo Meeting. The subject of education & the minutes of the Meeting for Sufferings were brought up & engaged the attention of the Meeting. – Many excellent testimonies were excited & divine good felt to be near. – The subject of removing The Yearly Meeting being called up a committee was appointed to consider of the subject & report to a future sitting. – a committee was also appointed to promote Subscriptions for the School. – We had about 25 at tea - & Mary Allen & Lydia Hadwin came in & had an opportunity of silence in which she preached sweetly

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 18, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day Many communications were made this morning by our foreign friends, but the meeting was chiefly occupied on the subject of a proposition from Philadelphia Yearly Meeting to appoint delegates from all the Yearly Meetings to report a uniform discipline. This was more a subject of debate than any that has occur'd in the course of the Meeting & my opinion, the debate was not unprofitable. – The subject of the removal of the Yearly Meeting was reverted & the committee appointed was continued & others added to report their judgement next Yearly Meeting. –

In The Afternoon Epistles were presented to the Yearly Meetings with which we correspond & passed without much amendment – & the committee to raise Money for the Yearly Meeting reported that they had rec'd subscriptions for 3700 Dollars which with 3500 Dollars that was conditionally subscribed by two friends made 7200 Dollars the sum proposed to be raised by the meeting for Sufferings. – after the concluding minute was read – at the request of Mary Nafftal the shutters were raised & She had a solid testimony to bear. – Jesse Kersey Prayed & Mary took her leave of us. –

At tea we had Hannah Fisher & her children Wm Wharton & wife – Isaac Thorn & others to the number of about 30. – In the evening we had a setting Micajah Collins & Thomas Anthony – Isaac Thorn prayed fervantly for us all. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

June 19, Thursday: In Bergamo, Concertino in G for english horn and orchestra by Gaetano Donizetti was performed for the initial time.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day Our Meeting today was large, attended by many of the great folks of the town, Mary Nafftal & Hannah Evans preached & Jesse Kersey was favor'd in testimony, much to the satisfaction of many if not all present - The gathering was very large. -Mary Evans concluded in supplication - Mary Nafftal, Mary Lewis & Stephen Grellet, with Isaac Thorn & Ruben House Set the latter part of the Afternoon & took tea with us - M Nafftal seems to be a goodly old Woman, & Stephen a deeply concerned friend & related many interesting Anecdotes of his own travels in France Hayti, & Canada, with several of other peoples exercises which rendered this little visit useful to us as well as very gratifying to have their company. - After dinner & in the course of the forenoon all our family left us except Isaac & Ruben, we have had the company of interesting company - some in one way & some in another, & to me Luke Aldridge & his sister Sarah were not a little so. they both came in by convincement. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 20, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day Isaac Thorn & R. House left us for Tiverton where they expect to be at meeting this day -I went down to the Packet at Banisters Wharf with Jesse Kersey & Ritchard Hartshorn where they found the Packet about going off, they took passage & saild about 9 OClock. - In concluding this little (for it is but a little) account of the occurences of the Yearly Meeting - I feel thankful in acknowledging, that not withstanding we have had much company & our appartments small to accomadate them in, yet my mind has in the midst of all been refreshed with fresh manifestations that good was near-. no grateing occurence has taken place & we moved on in our family with order, my dear H being well quallified to take the lead. & our Help viz. Mary Macomber & Martha Aleman were also of the best Kind, capable of getting the Meals in season & in the best manner this was a favor to my H as She was not confind so as to make her late at meeting or obliged to work so as to be fatigued when there. My Mother Aunt Stanton & Cousin Martha Hazard set the Afternoon & took tea with us. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 22, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1st day 21st [sic] of 6th M 1817 / Hannah Evans & Hannah Shinn were at Meeting at Portsmouth today. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 23, Monday: In Brazil João Paulo Bezerra replaced António de Araújo de Azevedo, conde da Barca as Secretary of State (prime minister) of Portugal.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day of 6 M / The above mentioned friends are at Connanicut Meeting today & expect tomorrow to be at S Kingston Moy [Monthly] Meeting. -

Our meeting in town was large & D Buffum was favor'd in a short but appropriate testimony - Afternoon Silent & pretty well attended

After tea took a walk with John up to David Williamss

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 26, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 26th of 6th M 1817 / Moy [Monthly] Meeting at Portsmouth - my mind was exercised in the morning about going & seem'd to turn on going tho' much doubt remaining, yet made arrangements to go, but on going up stairs to put on some cloaths - My H mentioned that she was quite unwell, which determined me not to go - seldom has my feelings been more between the two drifts of going & not going - I knew that ELder Griffin was to be there & Hannah G Fields -yet I could find no particular concern that was to come before the meeting that clamed[sic] my Thought particularly - & as that was the case & feeling in no small matter to leave home when my buisness was behind hand, & pay $1.50 cents for chaise hire when I was in posssession of so little money, were circumstances that weighed heavily against it. - Yet to leave a meeting meerly under such circumstances was trying. After my H said she was unwell the point turned & I felt easy to stay at home, for I remembered the Moy [Monthly] Meeting of the 8th M 1810 when I went & when I returned found our son Caleb had died in my Absence - perhaps this & some other circumstances when I have left home & I returned & not found thigs as I felt them operated rather too much - but I have not felt any uneasiness at giving up the inclination I felt to go. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 27, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 27 of 6th M / The President of the United States was expected in Town this day & the people have experienced much disappointment - having made much parade without answering their end. -

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Sister Mary spent the day with us. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 28, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal that he had sighted President James Monroe:

7th day 28th of 6th M 1817 / The approach of the President was announced at about 25 Minutes before 12 OClock by the ringing of Bells & beating of Drums & as much running of Men women & children as on any Public Day - At 3 OC he landed & after going to his lodgings - was soon out again to visit the forts as he walked up to go to Fort Green I had a tolerable good view of him. – Toward night he went out to Tammany Hill & to Marlbones Garden - was introduced to David Buffum who walked in the Garden with him – The President is a pretty good looking Man & I hoped is as good as he looks. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 29, Sunday: New President James Monroe, on a northern tour during the summer, was the lion of the day at Newport, Rhode Island.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 29th of 6th M / The President went to the Episcopal Church in the forenoon & to Pattens meeting in the Afternoon. – Our forenoon meeting was Silent but I thought solid & comfortable. – Sister Eliza took tea & set the evening.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 June 30, Monday: New President James Monroe, on a northern tour during the summer celebrating the “Era of Good-feeling,” went from Newport to Fall River. From there he would take a revenue cutter to Bristol, Rhode Island, to be entertained in a manner befitting his position at the magnificent homestead “Linden Place” of General George DeWolf.

The President would depart for Providence aboard the Narragansett Bay Firefly, an ugly little thing that needed a huge square sail to supplement its engine — but the initial steamboat to enter Bristol’s harbor. At Providence,

His arrival had been anticipated, and the citizens had appointed a Committee to receive and welcome him, which Committee consisted of the Town Council and ten other gentlemen. He was received amidst the ringing of bells, the discharge of cannon, and other demonstrations of joy, and was escorted from his place of landing from the steam-boat, by a civic and military procession, to the Golden Ball Inn (now Mansion House) where the Committee made him a very respectful address, to which he made a suitable response. On the following day he passed through the principal streets, on horseback, and at 11 o’clock left the town, under escort of the Light Dragoons.

READ EDWARD FIELD TEXT

Ebenezer Wiley was born to Keturah Green Wiley and Benjamin Brown Wiley.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 30 of 6M / This morning Went with Rowland Hazard to visit the President - We were introduced by OH Perry - He received us very civilly. - my inducement for going was to shew a Simple testimony of respect & from a thought that it might be of use

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

in some future day to be known to the president. we know not in what situation Our society may be placed, & a little knowledge of some of us may have some useful tendency in some way that we cannot now foresee. – While at the House I was also introduced to the Governor of the State (N R Knight) & to General Swift On turning to come away I forcibly felt the expression to arise "Better O Lord is an hour in thy Presence than a thousand elsewhere." –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 2, Wednesday: Ralph Waldo Emerson stood for three hours with other members of the graduating class of the Boston Public Latin School on the Boston Common, dressed in white breeches and blue coats with red-and-blue artificial roses in their left lapels, waiting for the new President of the United States of America – “J. Munroe” in a letter Emerson wrote at that time– to arrive from Rhode Island, bow, and receive Massachusetts’s 18-gun salute.

BOSTON

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

4th day 2nd of 7th M 1817 / My Mother & Aunt Stanton spent this Afternoon at the Widow Champlins - went with my H & joined them in the evening - found her still very affable tho' very thick of hearing. – This Afternoon attended the funeral of Widow Sarah Easton -She was interred in the family burying place near the beach, & being one of the bearers felt much fatigued after the Walk.

July 3, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 3rd of 7 M / Our meeting rather Small & silent but to me a comfortable time excepting at the close as overseer had to stop with a poor brother who has been delinquent in paying his debts. this occasioned some close remarks which I conceived was my duty to make. This evening my old friend & neighbour WILLIAM LANGLEY departed this life - he has now passed thro' what he has lived in dread off [sic] for tho' he was a good moral man & in the latter part of his life was religiously disposed. yet he often spoke of the fear of death. - he was taken in a fit about two weeks ago & has most of that time lain in a Stupor, he has however had - a few lucid intervals in which he manifested a sense of his situation & a calmness of mind that was hopeful & comfortable

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Our national birthday, Friday the 4th of July: Nathaniel Hawthorne's, or Hathorne's, 13th birthday.

The state of New York began to compete with the Cumberland Road by starting work at Rome NY upon a massive engineering project, a canal toward Lake Erie. It was on this day full of national symbolism that Governor DeWitt Clinton removed the first symbolic shovelful of dirt, at Rome, from the ditch that was to connect the Great Lakes to the Atlantic Ocean by a route through the rivers of the United States, to be termed "the Erie Canal." Benjamin Wright would be chief engineer of the Middle Section. This project to dig a long canal 40 feet wide and 4 feet deep was projected to cost the nation M$5, would actually cost the nation M$7 (in money that would now be the equivalent of M$700), and would be for a great stretch of our national existence our nation's single largest project — until, that is, we outdid ourselves by embarking on a scheme to construct an "atomic" bomb.¹⁸⁶

CELEBRATING OUR B-DAY

CANALS

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 4 of 7 M / This day has been, ever since my remembrance a noisy one & of great anxiety to parents & those who have the care of children. I feel it more & more so, tho' we have but one to care for, yet with his advance in life we feel care to increase on his account - It has passed away without accident for which I desire to thankful. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 6, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 6th of 7th M 1817 / Our Meetings were both silent. -At the close of the Afternoon Meeting was the funeral of WILLIAM LANGLEY which I attended tho' it had begun to move before our meeting closed - There was an abundance of people attended it, the procession was nearly from the parade to Liberty Tree. many was anxous to testify their respect for so worthy & useful man in the Town - In addition to his own family it is probable there are many poor widows & helpless familys that will feel the Loss of him the ensuing Winter. - Thus we have repeated demonstration of the change that all things here are subject to. The Ancient standards are often removed, & soon very soon those who are rising in Life will follow after them on seeing my Aged friend placed in his grave this afternoon, the reflections solely arises that I myself am hastening to the Same condition, as are the numerous by standers of every age, & How great indeed is the necessity for a preparation

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 9, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

186. The Erie Canal was a very good bargain despite its cost, and would already have returned its investment, by fees obtained while being only partially open, even before its official completion. The project can be said to be coextensive with Thoreau's life, in that it started in 1817 and came to its far end in 1862.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

4th day 9th of 7 M / The day has now closed & it is nearly time to retire to bed. - I feel my Mind drawn seriously to reflect on the swift & Silent wing with which time is Passing. - every day brings me nearer the solemn close - & I know not how soon it may come. Oh that I may be prepared to render my account

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 10, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 10 of 7 M / Rowland Greene & Anne Almy are visiting family at Portsmouth. They came to town & were at meeting with us today - Anne preached sweetly - After meeting had a conference with Uncle Wm Mitchell on the subject of his letters to me, not to satisfaction, this is matter of deep regret to my feelings - D Buffum & R Mitchell were present & I have the satisfaction of their Approbation. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 13, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 13th of 7th M 1817 / In our forenoon Meeting (which I thought rather more thinly attended than usual) D Buffum was concerned in a very lively & pertinent testimony on the necessity of Watchfulness - In the Afternoon we were Silent - An unpleasant subject exercised my mind in both Meetings. - After tea took a pleasant walk with John round the Hill to Clifton Burying ground - & stoped at severl places on my way home. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 15, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 15th of 7 M / We had quite a sicial agreeable company to set the Afternoon & take tea with us Vizt Aunt Martha Gould Cousin Abigail Casey, My Mother Aunt Stanton, Father & Mother Rodman & Br Isaac & wife. - This opportunity was interesting on acct of the Ages of some of them. Aunt Martha is over 80 Years & cousin Casey wants but a few weeks of 80 -. & it is probably the last time she will ever be in Newport - She is own cousin to my Mother & great love subsists in the family.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 16, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 16th 7 m / Cousin Casey, My Mother & Aunt Stanton, Hannah & myself took tea this Afternoon at father Rodmans.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

July 17, Thursday: Negotiations for a French Constitution.

James Duncan Graham graduated from the United States Military Academy at West Point and was promoted to 3d Lieutenant in the Corps of Artillery.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 17 of 7 M / Our meeting was rather small – A Short testimony from father R. – a season of some instruction to me.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 20, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 20th of 7 M / In the forenoon D Buffum was concer'd in a lively testimony & a pretty good meeting – In the Afternoon father Rodman delivered a short but savory testimony to my feelings. – In the evening called so see my old friend Mary Tillinghast –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 21, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 21 of 7 M / Walked this Afternoon to Middletown to attend the funeral Mary Weeden Gould daughter of my cousin Gorge Gould – I was glad I was there for the sitting the silent proved to me a Season of favor. Life & Love being sweetly renewed in my mind. I was carried back to reflect on many sweet seasons I had experienced in the room where we sat when several were tenants of it, whose spirits have now doubtless found a more permanent & happy abode in heaven with the Spirits of the just, & desires were raised that we who remain a little longer in this mutable state may so employ the remnant of our time, as in the end to furnish survivors with a hope similar to that which we now have of those who have gone years before us. – Things in this life is certainly very changeable & our minds are more or less involuntarily affected by outward things – mine was peculiarly so the Afternoon, on looking round the house of my cousin & observing, the decay & removal of several things – particularly an ancient mulberry tree that is now nearly lifeless, but in my childhood was flourishing, & afforded a delicious repast to my palate, after a warm but not unpleasant walk to visit my cousins. – recollection, "busy medling memory" will often retrace these scenes, but it is quite beyond my powers of description to write or in any way convey what I now feel, & I am thankful, that I still retain a disposition & a qualification to enjoy not only the recollection, but the passing events of life. – as yet I have had but few bitter cups to what many have & I earnestly hope that what ever may be my lot all may result for my good & the Glory of my Father who Seeth in Secret – I drank tea with my cousin Elijah Anthony – Walking home picked some Elderflowers, & fell in with Caty Weaver & her Sister who

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

had also walked out to the funeral & bore them company home - 5th day 24th of 7 M 1817 / Our meeting was small & silent it was a season of labor to me & experienced some difficulty to get settled but was in good degree favored. - In the Preparative The Clerk forgot to bring the queries & there was no Answers made out. I had to set to the table to make essays of Answers & were dependant on The Women for a book of discipline. - [Was Stephen Recording Clerk?]

My mother & Aunt Stanton took tea with Aunt Nancy Carpenter & Hannah & I with them - After tea I took a ride to Middletown with Doctr. Hazard to see Rhode Anthony. She was so low that I did not get into her room. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 25, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 25 of 7 M / Took tea this Afternoon at Cousin Nancy Goulds with My H., my Mother Aunt Stanton, & Br Isaac & Sr Sally. - While sitting with them I said in my Heart "How good & How pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in Love" & I should have expressed it had it not have been for certain circumstances that have passed & gone. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 27, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 27 of 7 M / In the forenoon Meeting our fr D Buffum was engaged in a lively wise & well adapted Testimony on the subject of Brotherly love on which subjects he labored much & I hope to good effects. - father R also had a few words to communicate. - In the Afternoon Attended the funeral of Mary Perry - at the head of the town D Rodman & I took a Chaise & proceeded to Portsmouth as bearers where the corpse was interred on the farm late the Property of Aaron Chase Dscs. after the funeral David & I returned home by the way of Sesauwest Beach which made a pleasant Ride.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 31, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 31st of 7 M 1817 / Our first Meeting was to me a season of but little life in my own mind but I have no doubt but others were favor'd - Hannah Dennis, Anne Greene & D Buffum were all engaged in lively testimonies & David particularly was very fresh on the subject of love. In the last we had but little buisness & what we had not very important. A certificate in favor of Humphrey Willcox was rec'd from Dartmouth Moy [Monthly] Meeting, which as we have not been in the habit of adding much to our numbers of late, was a pleasant circumstance & will be rendered much more so should he

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

prove a useful member. – Uncle Peter Pawton & G Anthony Dined with us. – 6thday 1st of 8 M 1817 / This day about 1 / 2 past 12 O'clock at noon Our much valued friend Sarah Robinson departed this life in The 85th Year of her Age – It may be Said in Truth that this day has fallen "A great Woman & a princess" few that has been raised in this town or indeed any other that has left a brighter character few possessed so great an assemblage of useful qualifications. – in Society she has spent a long life of activity for the promotion of its various concerns & has always been remarkable for her Wisdom & discession in every department of life.

This Afternoon about sunset Aunt Stanton Sailed for New York in Sloop Express. –

This Afternoon A long interview with Uncle Wm Mitchell & things seem to be settled in a tolerably good footing & I hope well continue so. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 3, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 3rd of 8 M 1817 / Our forenoon Meeting was silent & the Afternoon nearly so, & to me both pretty good times

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 4, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 4th of 8 M / Attended the funeral of my relation & beloved friend SARAH ROBINSON. it was large, many of the people of rank in Town were present. the gathering was quiet & solemn. David Buffum was concerned in a lively & pertinent testimony which I doubt was not as extensive as it might have been had the meeting been held at the meeting house, but as it was I believe it will not be extravagant to say the Lords power & presence was felt to cover the minds of many present. The lower part of the house was so crowded that I went into the Chamber. The solemnity I believe filled the houses for admitting the countenances of the people to be an index of their minds all appeared to be under the impression of the solemnity of the occasion "That this day had fallen a princes[s] & a great woman in Israel" When the funeral was put in motions I went down & looked at The corpse with which I was much struck for tho' it had been kept beyond the common time at this season of the Year, it retained its natural appearance in a remarkable manner, was very pleasant & the countenance expressive & looked axactly as I have often observed her when gathering up her mind to speak in conversation on some interesting subject. The solemnity continued in the procession to the grave, most of us walking without breaking silence. – when arrived at the grave, the coffin was placed over it while her aged husband & afflicted daughter Abigail got out of the carriage & walked up to it whre we continued the solemn

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

stillness something short of a quarter of an hour, when the precious remains was decently committed to the dust from whence they were taken, & the grave closed during the whole time her husband whose Aged 87 Years, whose tottering limbs is but just able to support him on ordinary occasions, Stood supported by christian philosophy & saw the whole. - She has been a woman who had long been an ornament in our Society & tho' her gifts were not in the Ministry, Yet they were such as render'd her truly conspicuous in the church as an active disciplinarian, & in all the social walks of life, but few have possessed the general influence in the World which she has, for wherever her name was known, it shone with brightness - but she has gone, & we have none left equal to her. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 5, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 5 of 8 M 1817 / This Afternoon Benj, Doyen a young man about 25 years of age came to my shop & stated himself to be from Temple in the District of Mane 7 a member of our society, on his way to Philadelphia, now in distressed circumstances having left home with sufficient money in his porcket to bear his expenses, but was taken sick in Boston where his money was expended. after examining him as cloely as I was capapble of I refer'd him to David Buffum where he went & friend Obadiah Brown who lent him five Dollars & David gave him one [?] - This with what little else he will get will help him along - he states himself to have belonged to society but about three Months, that he was formerly freewill Baptist, but became convinced of friends principles about three years ago, & tho' he has no certificate mentions a number of friends whom we know, & has pretty good marks of being a true man. - [S G has drawn a pointing finger: This man since preoves a gross imposter]

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 7, Thursday: The Lyceum, or English Opera House, for the 1st time illuminated its stage by gas light.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 7th of 8th M 1817 / Rode to Portsmouth with my H & John to attend the Quarterly Meeting - stoped at Saml Thurstons. At meeting Thos Antony opened the service in a livey & Very impressive testimony & from the near love I have long borne for my dear friend & brother Thos I felt a degree of humble rejoicing on his account - Isaac Thorn was then concerned in a lively long & pertinent testimony after which the meeting ended. In the last considerable time was occupied in the various concerns that were before us. - Peter Hoxie was liberated to pay a religious visit to friends in some parts of N York State. - S Kingston Moy [Monthly] Meeting recommend Henry Knowles as a minister which was refered to next Quarterly Meeting. - We dined at Anne

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Anthony's. & rode home. –

This morning John Gould Lawton son of Isaac Lawton departed this life at Portsmouth in the 16th Year of his Age –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 8, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 8 of 8 M / Isaac Thorn came to town this morning – After dinner, I went to Portsmouth with him to attend the funeral of my cousin John Gould Lawton, son of Isaac Lawton, where Isaac had much to communicate to the people in a very lively & satisfactory manner. – after the funeral was over, we rode to David Buffums & took tea, left the horses, walked home & found Sister Ruth & Mary. – Job Sherman came in, we soon fell into silence & Isaac addressed Job in a feeling & discerning manner, which proved an affecting Season to Job & some others present. – Isaac Lodged with us, & we felt glad to have his company

3rd day 8 M 19 1817 [garbled date of posting of letter?] / This afternoon rec'd a letter from Ann Yarnell of Philadelphia respecting Benjn Doyen by which I entertain some suspicions of his being a true man, it appears that he has given her a different account from that which he gave us – but a little time [? must] elapse before a correct judgement can be formed.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 9, Saturday: Leopold IV replaced Leopold III as Duke of Anhalt-Dessau.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 9th of 8th M / Isaac Thorn went to Connannicut & had a Meeting there, father Rodman went with him. he took tea with father, set the eveng & lodged with us. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 10, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 10th of 8th M / At meeting this forenoon I Thorn was largely concerned in testimony to good satisfaction. – he dined with aunt Nancy & had a setting in the family Father Rodman Sister Ruth with Hannah & myself were present. The opportunity will doubtless be memoreble to Several of us who he has particularly addressed –After which he set out for Warren accompanied by Benjm Hadwen on his way to Bolton Quarterly Meeting. – Our Afternoon Meeting was nearly silent.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

August 12, Tuesday, 13, Wednesday, and 14, Thursday: Solomon Allen III observed, about 150 yards away, “a strange marine animal, that I believe to be a serpent, in the harbor in ... Gloucester. I should judge him to be between eighty and ninety feet in length, and about the size of a half barrel.... His head formed something like the head of a rattlesnake, but nearly as large as the head of a horse. When he moved on the surface of the water, his motion was slow, at times playing about in circles, and sometimes moving nearly straight forward. When he disappeared, he sunk apparently down.”

SEA SERPENT SIGHTINGS

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 14th of 8 M / Silent Meeting, to me a hard time & if all faired as I did there was indeed neither dew rain or fields of offering. – I labor'd but was unable to get to the Source from whence much help is to be derived –But After I came out, life revived, & I was not without hope that tho' barraness was my portion, Yet the labor that I experienced was not without its use. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 15, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*6th day 15th of 8 M / Thos Casey lodged with us last night & took breakfast with us this morning. –
Thos left town this Afternoon with his sister Vioza*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

8mth 16, Saturday: From Westport, Paul Cuffe wrote of failing health to his “Estem'd friend Stephen Gould”:

I am in a low State of health, as thou Proposed of a physician from theare I think now to except of thy offer If thee can make it Conveanant to Come with him thy Company would be very agreable. For further information inquire of Captain Philipps. I am thy ashured friend. Paul Cuffe.

The letter would be sent by way of one of his coastwise vessels to the Gould watch-repair shop near Long Wharf in Newport, Rhode Island and presumably would be delivered by a member of the all-black crew. Captain Phillips was Cuffe's son-in-law. When this letter would arrive, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould would make a record that:

The foregoing rec'd from my friend Paul Cuffe was probably the last time he ever set pen to Paper. I went to Westport to see him and carried Doctor Hazard with me, but medical aids was in vain. He died in about two Weeks Afterwards.

Stephen, 36 years of age, would hasten to Westport, a day's journey by horseback away, taking with him a Dr. Hazard of Newport, and would spend a night there in Westport while these two Quakers, white and non-white, had comforting discussions. The sick man would die two weeks later at the age of 59.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 16th 8m 1817 / This Afternoon took Chaise & with My H &

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

John rode to Portsmouth, lodged with my aged Cousin Elizabeth Chase whom I love & feel a tender concern for – FIRST DAY morning are breakfast these & before meeting stoped at Uncle Peter Lawtons – At Meeting David Buffum preached in a very lively manner. He is on his way to Salem Quarterly Meeting We dined at Uncle Peters & spent the Afternoon & Set out to come home but it began to rain & thunder before we got far, which induced us to turn back so we lodged there, & early this Morning (2nd Day) we rode home. – This has been a pleasant visit to us all. – my mind has however been much affected with divers considerations – particularly with the necessity of our living in love & becomeing wean'd from the World, & the love & cares of it, as we advance in life. Some instances that I am acquainted with has much affected my mind of those who are, as with one foot in the grave & the other on its Brink, being too too much fastened to earth & its perplexing cares, where there is no necessity for it. This excites in my mind a lively concern, yea an anxious desire that as I grow older, I may be more & more concern'd to live in the life of Religion. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 19, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 19th of 8th M 1818 / This Afternoon took Chaise & with Aunt Stanton Rode out the Green End Rode to Portsmouth, viewed several places which she has some idea of purchasing & stoped at Isaac Chases – after resting a little while rode on & went to visit our old cousin Elizabeth Chase & took tea then returned home, while at cousin Chases my mind was forceably struck with the loss of cousin Alice in particular, whom I loved much & recollected some very plreasnt times that I have spent with her but "the places which have known us shall know us no more" & soon this will be the case with us all & Oh that we may be prepared for the final change –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 20, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 20th of 8 M / Our Meeting was silent but to me a pretty good one. – In the last which was preparative, we had no buisness but to appoint representatives. – John Casey son of Wanton & his little Brother Edwin, came down from Greenwich by the way of Connanicut & called to see us before the meeting, they dined at Br Isaacs & returned to Connanicut – This Afternoon Cousin Charles Gould son of Thos called with his Uncle Henry to see us I was particularly pleased to see him as I am all my relations in general. – it is good to foster a loving disposition towards all, for I am disposed to believe that Love in the true sense of it is Divine, & the more we witness or experience of Divine things certainly I think the nearer we must

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

be to the Kingdom of Heaven

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 21, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 21 of 8 M / My mind has been under pressure much of this day from various causes & I desire every dispensation may prove useful to me –

Father Rodman has been absent at Greenwich for several days as a witness at Court there - he returned this Afternoon & gives a good account of the welfare of the brethren there –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 21, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 8 M 21 / Our meeting was silent but I doubt whether it ought to have been – Things are very low among us & our numbers few, & tho' there may a querie arise "By whom shall Jacob arise for he is small" yet I believe there are those among us who if they are faithful to the Word nigh in the heart, will, in time, find that it will be put into their mouth, & they will be brought forward to the honor of the Church & the Glory of the Lords name, this however is all on the ground of obedience. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

8th 23, Saturday: William Kingston met for 5 hours with his friend Samuel Wesley at Blacklands House, the lunatic asylum in Blacklands Terrace, Chelsea. Wesley indicated that he did not consider that his delusional leap of earlier this year warranted his being treated as a lunatic.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould, 36 years of age, had hastened from Newport, Rhode Island to Westport, Massachusetts, a day's journey by horseback, taking with him a Dr. Hazard, and would spend the night there while the two Quakers, Stephen and Paul, white and non-white, would have comforting discussions. The sick man would die two weeks later at the age of 59.

7th day 23rd of 8 M / In consequence of a letter which I rec'd from my friend Paul Cuffee dated 16th inst - I set out early this morning with Doctor Hazard for Westport. we stoped at Thos Barkers to see Stephen Huntington who is very weak & low, after eating some breakfast with them we persued our journey & stoped at the four corners to sate our horse, then went on & reached Pauls house about 3 OClock where we found him very low & so much weakened by his complaint that articulation had become difficult - when I went into the room, I told him I had come to see him, & by his request brought Dr Hazard with me he replied "It is too late" but after a little conversation he agreed to take some medicine which appeared to set well on his stomach - Dr Handy the attending Physician soon came & after they had consulted together a course of medicine was agreed on. The family gave us

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

some dinner & some tea & being Full of lodgers we went to a neighbors of theirs (Daniel Tripp) to sleep where we found comfortable accommodations - we rose early in the Morning & went to Pauls to breakfast & found him no worse & on the whole some favorable symptoms I found in the course of the forenoon that he was a little revived in streangth & could communicate a little more freely but much speaking in his situation was improper I therefore requested him to spare conversation on my account but told him if there was any special buisness that he wanted me to do for him that I would write to any of his friends respecting it - he told me there was & gave me to understand what it was of which I made a minute to communicate to Wm Rotch Jr -He told me he had made a Will to his mind & that those had agree'd to execute it in whom he had confidence. - While sitting by him I observed to him that We both knew that consolation was not to be derived from many words, but if favor'd with a degree of that feeling which has no fellow it was sufficient & that I trusted while sitting by his bed side I had been thus favor'd & was thankful in the evidence that things were well with him, let the event of the present illness turn as it Might, either to live or die. I observed that I had seldom set by any one in Similar circumstances, where there seemed to be more peace, but on account of his low condition of body I had not expressed it before, & that I was particularly comforted in observing the very affectionate attention of his family & solicitude to do everything that could be done for his comfort, & to prolong his days, particularly his neice & two daughters who were very affectionate & assiduous in their attentions - he replied "It is very sweet."- before I left him I told him that if nothing happened to me & he continued in his present state I thought I should come to see him again before long - he replied "How glad I shall be to see thee if I am living" After dinner we took an affectionate leave of him & his family & set off for home we stoped at Thos Barkers again & ate some supper & the Dr went into the room to Stephen who is very low & apparantly near the final change - we then Set out for home & reached it about 10 OClock in the evening. our journey was protracted in consequence of the horse's being nearly worn down. - I should have been glad to have gone to Westport Meeting, but could not, as we were anxous to get home. - I am glad I went & have no doubt the visit will be memorable as long as I live, as well as to Paul & his family - if nothing more it has been a fresh evidence to my mind that the colour of the skin does not effect a man in the kingdom of heaven

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 27, Wednesday: In Westport, Paul Cuffe was so obviously failing, that his family and friends were summoned for a group farewell.

Early in 1817, Cuffe's health began to fail. By July, it became obvious to himself and to his family that he was dying. Late in

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

August, Cuffe called his family and "shaking hands with all, showing fellowship and friendship, bid us farewell." Paul Cuffe died at the age of 58 in the early morning hours of September 7, 1817,¹⁸⁷ "sensible to the last moments," saying to his nurse: "let me pass quietly away."

August 28, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

8 M 28 1817 / It is 5th day & our Moy [Monthly] Meeting at Portsmouth My mind is humbled this morning under the consideration that I am not going - My H is quite unwell & hardly fit to leave alone And besides I have been So much absent from my buisness of late that it seems hardly prudent on that account - Feel thankful this morning under a fresh evidence of divine regard - from a renewal of life in my heart & breathings of spirit raised for help - The same was extended Yesterday Afternoon, when I had to take a view of my own condition & that of Society alass for the low state of both - I say again "by whom shall Jacob arise for he is small."

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 31, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 8 M 31st 1817 / Being unwell & under the operation of Physic I was unable to attend meeting this forenoon & occupied the time in Answering a letter from my frd John Heald of Ohio - In the Afternoon went to meeting & had a pretty good time tho' life was low - Father Rodman concerned in a short testimony

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 1, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 9 M 1817 / Took tea this Afternoon with my H & John, at the house of my cousins Anne & Mary Gould - This was a pleasant visit, a revival of old times when I used so frequently to visit them at their Mansion in Middletown - - found Cousin Bathsheba much as she always has been, except older, she has now attained the age of 80 Years, seems very loving & affectionate & yet loves to speak of our Aged & Honorable Grand father Danl Gould from whom we all originated, & relates anecdotes of him which are interesting to her & me In giving her an invitation to come & see us I told her that I might for once to have it in my Power to insert in my journal that she had been to see us once, but from her age she thought she could not give me my incouragement.

—

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

187. Some sources say he died on August 27th, some on September 7th, some on September 9th, and some on September 17th. —But then, my paper edition of the Britannica isn't even aware he existed.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

September 3, Wednesday: In Westborough, Massachusetts, Lowell Mason got married with Abigail Gregory, daughter of an innkeeper.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 3 of 9 M / This morning at breakfast table experienced the arisings of life sweetly to refresh my mind.

5th day 4th of 9 M / A favord meeting & indeed a favord Day to me. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 6, Saturday: The Drury Lane Theater in London opened, with its stage illuminated by gas light.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 6th of 9 M / Uncle David Lawton of Nine Partners & Uncle Stephen Lawton from Hudson took tea & set the evening with us - Uncle David is a man I love & esteem for his noble disposition Called this Afternoon to see Benjn Barker who has been confined some weeks & is apparantly drawing to a close – found him very tender, he expressed his entire resignation to what ever might be the issue of his Illness & observed he had many precious meetings since he had been Sick

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 7, Sunday: In Westport, Paul Cuffe died.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 7 of 9th M 1817 / Our Meeting this forenoon was large & to me a good one - Our frd David Buffum was very lively in testimony on the subject of FAITH & father Rodman was short to the same effect Silent in the Afternoon & to me a Season of favor
Sister Ruth took tea with us –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 8, Monday: The Covent Garden Theater in London opened, with its stage illuminated by gas light.

At the Westport meetinghouse of the Religious Society of Friends, a silent worship funeral service was held for Paul Cuffe after the manner of Friends. (His and his wife's graves at the meetinghouse he had helped to construct are a hundred feet from the graves of the white Quakers of the Friends Cemetery, near the gray stone wall that borders the corner of the churchyard, entirely isolated. Later on, Friends' histories would prevaricate. Does any of this surprise you?)¹⁸⁸

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

2nd day 8 of 9 M / Heard this morning of the Decease of PAUL CUFFEE he left time Yesterday Morning & is to be interr'd this afternoon, to meet at 2 OC at Westport Meeting house this news has affected my mind, for tho' his complexion was darker than mine, I can emphatically say "I loved him" & his loss is great to our Society & the community at large – had time permitted I should have tryed to have got to his funeral, but it was rather to short for me to get there with convenience & I regret it, as in the event of his decease, I have, for several weeks felt an inclination to be at the performance of the last solemn duties, but alass, it is otherwise & disappointments is the lot of Mortals & to which we must submit. –

September 9, Tuesday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 9 of 9 M / I have yesterday & today spent considerable time in reading Rhode Island Monthly Meetings Records from 1707/ 8 to 1739¹⁸⁹ – in which my mind has been led to reflect much on the Ancient Standard bearers, to behold their Godly care & jealousy in the honor of Truth & the promotion of its cause in this part of the VineYard has affected my mind at Several different times almost to tears – & deeply humbling it was to see the departure of some, with whom they had to bestow "labor reiterated labor" – & now & then to find an ancient Standard in the church leaving time & bequeathing a few Pounds in their Wills to the Moy [Monthly] Meeting as a testimony of their love for friends Truth. – Alass but few in This day are concerned in that Way. –

September 10, Wednesday: Paul Cuffe's brother John Cuffe wrote to his sister Freelove Cuffe in New-York:

Here is some accounts of the dueings of our dear and much beloved brother Captain Paul Cuffe the 27th of the 8th month of 1817. Between the hours of 8 and 9 in the morning then he took a fond leave of his family wife and children grandchildren Brothers and sisters and others, shaking hands with all in fellowship and friendship bid all farewell. It was as broken a time as was not even known amongst us and he seamed to long to go with angels and with the souls of just men and women in the heavens above to receive the reward of the Righteous [A friend came and evidently asked him about Heaven. Paul replied saying] that my works are gone to judgement afore hand that I due know when he said [the friend] not many days hence you shall see the glory

188. I don't presently know of any case anywhere in America, in which a Friends meeting actually had accepted into membership any person who had the slightest taint of non-white ancestry — even if as in this case the petitioner were an adult male. Such requests seem to have been always everywhere stonewalled. The best we were capable of was this sort of "just-as-if-they-were-like-us" treatment. (This sheds an interesting light upon the limitations of a descriptor such as "not racist.") Five years later, for instance, when another New Bedford man of color, Nathan Johnson, would apply for membership in this very Quaker monthly meeting, he also would be stonewalled. This raises the interesting question of whether even a well-to-do person of color will ever be more than merely tolerated by the "real," that is, the white, American Quakers.

189. Records for 1676-1707 in Box 10 at Cornell Library Special Collections: Quaker meeting records from Rhode Island, copied by Stephen Wanton Gould from old meeting records.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

of god. 6 oclock in the evening he said feed my lambs. He said much more but being week and spoke so low I could not understand so as to take the tru meaning and he also asked us all not to hang on unto him but to give up and let him go. I [John Cuffe] had layen very close with many prayers to go and his christ that he might be brought to health again [They all pray together with Paul] the will of the lord be done. He still kept failing from day to day some days took no nourishment at al in nor medesian Escept cold water until first morning at 2 oclock in the morning the 7 day of this 9th month 1817 then Brother Cuffe departed this life. This is news that will not soon be forgotten with Soarrow not from the teeth outward but from the heart. I may say that I wept much. He died in the 59th year of his age after three months of sickness. He bore his illness with patience and through the whole and was awake to the last moments. [...] and as he close drew near and said to the nuse that he was But little more than a dade man Let me go Quietly away ofering his hand to his atendance that would have to tend him. So he fell asleep in death and is gone home to glory. He was a loving husband and a tender father and a cind neighbor and a faithful friend. The time appointed and all met together under a great on the second say of the week the second hour in the afternoon and after waiting in great silence testimonies then being born by friends he was borne to the grave and decently buried. A large crowd of people of all societyes. I do not remember as I have been before at so large a gathering of people at anny funeral before. He was buried at friends burying ground at the fourth meeting house where we meet together. At his death he was 57 and months and 21 days old.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 10th of 9 M 1817 / Set an hour this evening at Thos Robinsons the old man is feeble & takes but little part in conversation. - the visit however was very interesting being favor'd with precious feelings in conversations with Abigail, & Mary Morton, on various subjects which all of us seemed alive to. I went over to wait on Sister Ruth home, who had set the evening with them. - The little time I passed with them was so pleasant that I regretd that I did not go over early. -

The historian Rosalind Cobb Wiggins struggled with the fact that, once the body of his friend Paul Cuffe had been interred (near, but not in, the local burial ground for white Quakers), Friend Stephen Wanton Gould seemed to fall away from his previous concern for the welfare of American people of color, and the fact that this personal failure on the part of Friend Stephen has been typical of a falling away by white American Quakers in general. She asked Quakers now, to act to forever cleanse “this stain of evasion” from their otherwise splendid human rights record:

Following Cuffe's death Stephen seems to only have occasionally spoken out in Meeting about slavery or the slave trade. Only two or three times did he cordially greet black men and women who had known of Paul and his vision. His concerns gradually changed

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

as his responsibilities within his Meeting and the Yearly Meeting expanded.... Ten years before his own death it was suggested that he and Hannah become Assistant Caretakers, or house parents, at the Yearly Meeting Boarding School (now known as Moses Brown School) in Providence. They accepted and lived in an apartment in the school building for the next six years before returning to Newport to take charge of family property. The years in Providence involved him even more in Yearly Meeting affairs, and of course with the students at the school, which he enjoyed. Yet, it is surprising that his focus uncoupled so abruptly from the plight of men and women such as Paul Cuffe and turned to the spiritual health of the Society of Friends. An excerpt from the 1830s illustrates his growing conservatism: "3rd day 8th of 6th M, 1830: Today Stephen Wilson & Hannah his wife from Goose Creek in Virginia called at the Institution [the school] – they are Hixites [Hicksites] & Hannah as a Preacher has come here to impose [her views] on Friends. She was formerly ... an old acquaintance of ours.... We treated her civilly but cool & felt grieved that one who had once been esteemed & no doubt in good measure religious should be attached to wrong principles." Three months later he wrote: "In the Street [in Providence] I met Wm Rotch & noded to him, & he to me – but he did not look nor feel to me as Wm Rotch once looked & felt – I deplore his departure from Society but nothing can be done – he must remain as he is." William Rotch Jr. had been a faithful Nantucket Quaker and staunch supporter of Paul Cuffe's.... What made him stand back from those very few Friends who were publicly protesting Slavery, such as Elias Hicks and later the Grimké sisters Friend [Sarah Moore Grimké and Angelina Emily Grimké]? There were many Quakers like him who were distraught by slavery and its trade yet they weren't heard in the public arena. ...after Cuffe's death Stephen scarcely mentioned slavery or the Trade, although it was covertly growing. He did note that he approved a letter protesting slavery to Congress by the Providence Abolition Society. Yet in 1838 he also approved a motion by the Yearly Meeting barring abolition societys' use of Friends Meeting houses for their gatherings.... Stephen's was a confined life and once Paul's strong, supportive presence was gone there was little to keep the fires of outrage alive. His life was well insulated even from such occurrences as the Snowtown and Hardscrabble race riots in Providence that erupted in 1826 and 1830 not far from the School. In January 1838 he went to Salem for a Quarterly Meeting and noted with dismay the anti-slavery discussions: "Their heated zeal injuring a good and right cause ... reminded me of the Spirit which I saw among the Hixites [followers of Friend Elias Hicks] in New York in 1827." His social and business contacts were confined to the area within "the walls of Zion," the all-white Quaker Close.... To answer the first question: Why didn't the unusual friendship and Paul's project have more lasting effect among Friends? It seems that Cuffe's untimely death cut off Stephen's emotional support and the visible presence that he needed in order to speak

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

out. The ongoing rigid class differentiation that the two had ignored together closed in on Stephen following Paul's death. He became increasingly preoccupied with Quaker affairs. Concerns for African Americans are scarcely mentioned after Cuffe's death. The reason Cuffe's works have been so little known until now, even among Friends, is that his papers were not kept in the New England Yearly Meeting Archives. However, there were a number of biographers who had found them in the archives of the New Bedford Free Public Library and the Dartmouth Whaling Museum Library. The authors were not Quakers. Those books were published beginning in the 1970s but even these were not included in the Library of the New England Yearly Meeting Archives. His papers were not fully transcribed and published until 1996; these reveal to Friends who are so familiar with Quaker concepts how Paul led his life in accordance with the precepts of non-violence and seeking "that of God" in all those with whom he came in contact, even in the world of successful merchantmen. Now that the papers are available it is hoped Paul will become known as "a pattern and an example." In this country Friends Meetings remain almost entirely white perhaps because of the lack of historical understanding of the works of such men as Cuffe and because of class divisions that have been bonded to race as though with superglue. Is the only solution in individual self revelation, in individual efforts to reach into all communities, black and white? There is a crying need to remove this stain of evasion from Quakers' splendid human rights record.

September 11, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 11th 9 M / To me a precious silent meeting. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 14, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 14th of 9th M / In the forenoon meeting which was large & solid Father Rodman was concerned in a short testimony by way of encouragement to the mourners of Zion - Then Mary Morton in a lively sweet testimony endeavoured to encourage those that were still favord with renew'd visitations from on high to close in with them while they lasted, & observed if some were faithful who were present & past the meridian of life, they might yet experience their sun to go down with brightness & as rejoicing on the banks of deliverance. — at this an aged man (not a member) who sat by my side was much affected. -- In the Afternoon Father Rodman was concerned with in a Short testimony which I believe was attended with life. - I know it was to my feelings. - Went out & set the evening with our frd D Buffum who is in poor

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

health & been confin'd at home for a week - his company was as it always is, very interesting

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 15, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 15th of 9th M / We took tea with brother J Rodman & wife - Br David & wife was also there which made an agreeable & "social" circle - Ah - tis very pleasant for brethren to dwell together in Unity. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 18, Thursday: In the Dresden Hoftheater, Incidental music by Carl Maria von Weber for Die Ahnfrau, a play by Grillparzer, was performed for the initial time.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 18th of 9th M 1817 / Our meeting was small particularly on the womens side of the House, - to me it was a favor'd season tho' not quite as much abstracted from the World as sometimes Father Rodman delivered a short & to my feelings sweet testimony In the last (Preparative) the overseers had the painful duty to report David Bowen as in the practice of drinking Spiritous Liquor, to his own hurt & the reproach of society - which information was forwarded to the Moy [Monthly] Meeting -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 21, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 21 of 9 M / Our meeting this forenoon was large - tho' the high seat was thin no one being on the upper one but David Buffum - Mary Morton delivered a sweet & very precious testimony - to me it was a very favor'd Meeting - I was occupied with the subject of the Multitude's being fed with a few Barley loaves & a few Fishes - & it weightily ocured that there was no necessity for that outward miracle to be performed in this day to Substantiate the reality of christianity, but that every one might experience it within themselves, by faithful obedience to the manifestations of truth when in times of poverty & even distress, our minds may be quickened by a small appearance of light & life & in keeping to it will increase in ourselves & flow Sweetly from vessel to vessel untill all may acknowledge they are filled & satisfied - This I feel thankful in being made in good measure in experimental witness of this day - In the Afternoon Silent. The upper high Seat vacant & nobody but James Fay on the lower, who with myself broke the meeting-this occasioned no small exercise in my mind - however it was a good

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

Go To MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*meeting to me - between meeting rec'd a letter from Aunt Stanton
- In the evening with my H & Sister Mary walked out to David Buffums -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 25, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 25th of 9th M 1817 / Our meeting was pretty well attended this first was silent - In the last Monthly we had considerable buisnesss to me it was a low depressed Season & tho' I was a little active, there was not much Spirit in me -Uncle P Lawton & Uncle B Freeborn & daughter dined with us

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 26, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*6th day 26th 9 M / My H & John spent the day at Jonathon Dennis's
-*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 28, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 28 of 9 M / Our meetings were both silent & both to me rather dull seasons, excepting a little while in the forenoon meeting life rose in my mind - David Buffum & father Rodman both unwell & absent which makes our high seats thin & wanting in weight to what they would be were they there. - Ellenor Lawton & sister Eliza took tea & set the evening with us -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 31, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*3rd day 31 of 9 M / This forenoon dear Mary Morton called to see us - after a little free & friendly conversation we dropped for a moment into Silence when she observed that soon after she took her seat in the room, the case of Obedidam [Obed-Edom in whose house David deposited the Ark after the death of Uzzah, where it stayed for three months, bringing a blessing by its presence] occured to her mind & she believed it safest for her to express it, that the Ark of the testimony was deposited in his house & that he believed we were called to Stand among them in the place who were to bear the Ark of the testimony & encouraged us to hold fast & she believed that we like him should be blessed -
This was Somewhat encouraging & did a little revive my drooping propsect with respect to the low state of things in this Town & Moy [Monthly] Meeting - many times when I have survey'd the poverty which awaits us both in purse & spirit, it has seemed as if I could say with the Queen of Sheba, tho' in a reversed*

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

occasion "There is no more spirit in me", yet hope again revives & we are encouraged to look for better times –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 1, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 1st of 10th M 1817 / Meeting reather small & to me a lean time but not quite so hard as at some times - Silence prevailed –
D Buffum Jr & wife & Sister Mary took tea with us & in the evening were joined by Sister Ruth. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 2, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 2nd of 10th M / Have just returned from the Jail where I went to see Adam Anthony who was committed yesterday for refusing to pay a Military fine, he is not a Member of our society but it appears that he is so far convinced of Peace Principles as to refuse to bear Arms - he told me that he had no bed to lay on last night, but made no complaint of his situation. My mind was led into Sympathy with him & desires raised that he may keep on christian ground while standing & conversing with him, I remembered with feeling the sufferings & imprisonments of our Dear Ancient brethren on account of divers testimonies given them to bear. –

Adam Anthony the Young man above mentioned was let out of Jail in the course of the day by his Brother who came to town & paid his fine – Adams conduct was such as gave satisfaction & evinced the consistent man - Tho' a number of us offered to be bound for his liberty of the house & yard & saw no impropriety in his having it, yet he declined the offer & seemd desirous of experiencing the ground fully for himself before he did any thing about it, & while the subject was deliberating upon - his Br came in & discharged him-

THE QUAKER PEACE TESTIMONY

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 5, Sunday: In Charlottesville, President James Monroe laid the cornerstone of the University of Virginia.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 5 of 10 M / Our forenoon Meeting was large & attended by a number such as perhaps are called "Gentry" in Ancient friends journals –David Buffum was large for him on the subject of the operation of the Spirit - Father Rodman a few words &
Mary Morton set her seal to the whole very sweetly.-
In the Afternoon took Sister Ruth to Portsmouth in Chaise my H being almost sick with a old, & rode to Portsmouth to attend the*

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

funeral of our goodly Ancient friend Isaac Sherman, where we found a very great assemblage of People, who conducted in a very solid manner. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 9, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 9th of 10 M 1817 / Being unwell with a pain in my side & shoulder thro' my stomach, I was not at Meeting, but I almost doubt whether this was a sufficient excuse, being better than I was a few days past but I was affraid of taking cold

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 12, Sunday: David Henry Thoreau was christened, by his parents John Thoreau and Cynthia Dunbar Thoreau in recognition of his paternal uncle David Orrok, son of Friend David Orrok, Sr. and Friend Sarah Tillet Orrok, who had died in August.¹⁹⁰

October 12: "I was baptized in old M[eeeting] H[ouse] by Dr. [Ezra] Ripley, when I was three months, and did not cry."

190. Professor William E. Cain, in the frontmatter to A HISTORICAL GUIDE TO HENRY DAVID THOREAU (NY, Oxford: Oxford UP, 2000) writes that this uncle David "died in Concord in July." We wonder from whence Professor Cain has derived this information that David had died in Concord, and from whence he has derived this information that David had died in July. He may well be correct. He was asked, by email, whether he has perchance investigated, and discovered the grave of David in what has now become the old section of Sleepy Hollow Cemetery, or whether he has perchance managed to obtain a Concord documentary record of this death, but has not yet responded.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Nobody knows where the family came up with the name “Henry,” but such untraditional naming was quite common among Huguenot transplant families of this period as they gradually assimilated to their new context and removed the “markers” by which they could be discriminated. There are some things to be said about Huguenots naming conventions from this period, that inform us of why little David Henry was not named Barzillai or Ralph or Stephen or whatever. American descendants of Huguenot refugees tended to favor names which existed in some form in French, such as Henry (Henri) and John (Jean). They also favored Old Testament names over the names of New Testament saints, whom were to them tainted with Catholicism. Hence “David” after King David of the Old Testament and the same as in French — satisfying both naming conventions at once. The ten most favored names were Abraham, Isaac, Daniel, David, Jacob, Salomon, and Samuel.¹⁹¹

3d Lieutenant of the Corps of Artillery James Duncan Graham, freshly minted, began to serve at the United States Military Academy, West Point as Adjutant.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 12 of 10 M / Soon after taking my seat I felt life to arise & circulate among us, & my spirit was comforted with the prospect. — Lydia Almy for the first time in several years appeared in testimony, I thought very sweetly — & Abigail Robinson for a great rarity appeared in a testimony of some length — The meeting was large & attended by a considerable number of other societies, as they have been in the forenoon, for some time — In the Afternoon the meeting was again pretty well attended but silent & to me rather a poor time, but not accompanied by that distressing hardness as at sometimes. —After tea took a little walk round the hill with my H set the evening with my Mother. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 15, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 15th of 10 M / This Morning Dear Mary Morton called to see & take leave of us as she went down to the Packet to leave Newport for Philadelphia. She took a very affectionate farewell of us & expressed her desire for our well fare & said she felt for us & friends of our standing & situation in this Monthly Meeting, & in this Town particular beyond what she had any powers

191. In the late 16th Century in Rouen, France, for purposes of illustration of these naming traditions, the ten most popular names for Huguenot boys had been, in order of popularity from most popular down, Jean, Pierre, Jacques, Abraham, Isaac, Daniel, David, Jacob, Salomon, and Samuel, whereas the ten most popular names for Catholic boys had been, in the same order, Jean, Guillaume, Pierre, Nicolas, Jacques, Robert, François, Charles, Richard, and Abraham. We may note that only the name Abraham appears on both lists. The influence of tradition presents itself in the fact that there is a 70% match between the list of names from Rouen and the list of names from the US despite the passage of four full generations. Now, it might be objected that the name “David” was assigned on the basis of an uncle named David Orrok who lay dying at the time, but there is of course a reason why that uncle was named “David,” and besides, it was at least as conventional among Huguenots to perpetuate or recycle names used in previous generations of the family as it was among other ethnic groups. From the 17th through the middle of the 19th centuries, over 60% of the families in Hingham assigned the name of the Huguenot father to a son (as, John Thoreau the father and little John the first son), and over 70% assigned the name of the Huguenot mother to a daughter (in America the Huguenots if you remember tended to outmarry, so Cynthia Dunbar Thoreau was, of course, not Huguenot, so the Thoreau daughters became Helen and Sophia rather than, perhaps, little Cynthia and, then, perhaps, Naomi). Thus, and this sums up my comment, the very fact that little David Henry was named David Henry speaks to the fact that their Huguenot heritage was a matter of importance in this family.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

to express. her husband also came up to the door & bid us an hearty farewell, which I have no doubt was deeply felt by them, as it was by us. – John is now about 78 Years of age & tho' he looks as fresh & healthy as he did 10 years ago, his limbs begin to fail & it is very doubtful whether he will ever come here again, so that as respects him I consider it as more than probably it was a final leave. – Sister Joanne & her sister Anne took tea with us & Anne set the evening. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 16, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 16th of 10th M 1817 / Silent meeting but a pretty good one to me. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 19, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 19th of 10 M / Our meetings both silent & both rather dull times to me. – In the evening call to see several friends

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 23, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 23rd of 10 M / Silent Meeting & to me a good one – Our Old decriped [sic] friend Benjamin Anthony from New Cornwall in N York state was at meeting with us – his body & limbs are much drawn with the Rheumatism & he is unable to sit on seats & brings a chair with him & has it placed in the Alley – he frequently preaches & speaks sitting. –

This evening rec'd a very acceptable letter from my friend John Heald dated the 6th inst. (Fairfield Ohio) –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 26, Sunday: Heinrich August Marschner got married with Emilie von Cerva, daughter of a businessman and city council member, in Pressburg (Bratislava).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 26 of 10 M / Our Meetings were both Silent & Small the weather being wet & several friends confind with colds, our high seats were quite thin – The forenoon meeting was to me pretty well favor'd & a measure of it experienced in the Afternoon but a roving time at best –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 30, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

5th day 30th of 10 M / My H not being well - took Sister Ruth & rode to Portsmouth to attend our Moy [Monthly] Meeting, on the way stoped & warmed ourselves at Uncle Thurstons - At the first meeting it was a poor time to me, tho' I believe others were favord with bread Jonathon Dennis delivered a short testimony which was followed by another from his wife - then David Buffum, not lengthy but very lively & impressive & it appeared to me that the condition of the meeting was betterd after it - In the last meeting was had considerable buisness with which we got along with harmony & I trust love. - Tho' under an humbling sense of my own deficiencis, yet it seemed right to me to engage a little in the concerns that came before us, which has not occasioned uneasiness but rather afforded the reflection of having endeavored to be doing a "little of that my hands find to do, in my day in society. - Dined at Uncle Thurstons & rode home -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 2, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 2nd of 11th M 1817 / In the forenoon a Silent meeting & to me a good time - In the Afternoon Hannah Dennis was concern'd in a short encouraging testimony - both meetings were Small in consequence of Rain & stromy weather.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 6, Thursday: Milosh Obrenovic became Prince of Serbia, replacing George Petrovic who had died on July 25th.

Princess Charlotte Augusta Hanover of Wales, the daughter of Prince Regent George who had been destined since her birth to become eventually the Queen of Great Britain, instead died at the age of 21 at Claremont House, Esher, in Surrey, of post-partum hemorrhage and shock early in the morning, after having been delivered the previous day of a stillborn male infant. This funeral would of course be promoted as a national tragedy or media event — even the undertakers would get drunk. The mother Caroline was not duly informed of her daughter's death, nor invited to the funeral. When she would find out about it courtesy of a traveler, she would faint. The proto-queen's body would be interred in St. George's Chapel of Windsor with her stillborn male infant at her feet. Percy Bysshe Shelley immediately began "Address to the People on the Death of the Princess Charlotte" somewhat in the manner in which Elton John would in this century celebrate the untimely death of the Princess Diana in a Paris auto accident, adding of course a few rough touches in the mode

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

of Diana's brother's funeral declarations about the social context of her demise:

We cannot truly grieve for every one who dies beyond the circle of those especially dear to us; yet in the extinction of the objects of public love and admiration, and gratitude, there is something, if we enjoy a liberal mind, which has departed from within that circle.... But this appeal to the feelings of men should not be made lightly, or in any manner that tends to waste, on inadequate objects, those fertilizing streams of sympathy, which a public mourning should be the occasion of pouring forth. This solemnity should be used only to express a wide and intelligible calamity, and one which is felt to be such by those who feel for their country and for mankind; its character ought to be universal, not particular.

Shelley would compare and contrast this express "private grief" to the lack of affect being displayed by the public and by the press in regard to the hangings, drawings, and quarterings being carried out at virtually the same time of three laborers, Jeremiah Brandreth, Isaac Ludlam, and William Turner, who had been detected in Luddite activities (that is, had been incited to lead the Pentrich Rising):

Let us follow the corpse of British Liberty slowly and reverently to its tomb: and if some glorious Phantom should appear, and make its throne of broken swords and sceptres and royal crowns trampled in the dust, let us say that the Spirit of Liberty has arisen from its grave and left all that was dross and mortal there, and kneel down and worship it as our Queen.

The Princess Charlotte's obstetrician, Sir Richard Croft, who had correctly diagnosed a transverse lie of the baby during labour but had somehow failed to resort to forceps as would have been the standard procedure during that era, would three months later commit suicide. For the details as to Princess Charlotte Augusta in the early 19th Century, refer to Stephen C. Behrendt's ROYAL MOURNING AND REGENCY CULTURE, Macmillan / St. Martin's Press, 1997. Public exercises in mourning were great and widespread, a huge number of poems, sermons, and other literary and quasi-literary texts appeared almost immediately, commemorative ceramic objects, textiles, coins, sculptures, and music followed. That princess had been widely regarded as an attractive domestic alternative to the Prince Regent, her widely unpopular father, as well as to his largely disgraced estranged wife Caroline of Brunswick, and this untimely death was therefore a most grievous blow to those who had invested this princess with the symbolic significance of “England’s Hope.” Much as Elton John has reinvented Diana as “England’s Rose,” Charlotte would be apostrophized in that period as “Albion’s Rose.” Anna Laetitia Aikin Barbauld’s COLLECTED WORKS published in 1825 would have a poem for Princess Charlotte which is very much in the mode of sensibility and emphasizes the universal mourning the death occasioned except in the case of the mad George III who no longer has the capacity for grief. Charlotte’s funeral resembled Diana’s laying in state in Westminster Abbey. The parallels are rich because Charlotte was fashioned in the public mind as a sort of precursor to the “domestic virtues” we later associate with the Victorian era — and indeed, it was her death, at the stillbirth of her only child, that would ensure that, 20 years later, a princess named Victoria would ascend the throne of England.

HDTWHAT?INDEXFRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

ON THE DEATH OF THE PRINCESS CHARLOTTE.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Yes, Britain mourns, as with electric touch,
For youth, for love, for happiness destroyed,
Her universal population melts
In grief spontaneous, and hard hearts are moved,
And rough unpolished natures learn to feel
For those they envied, leveled in the dust
By Fate's impartial stroke ; and pulpits sound
With vanity and woe to earthly goods,
And urge and dry the tear. — Yet one there is
Who midst this general burst of grief remains
In strange tranquillity ; whom not the stir
And long-drawn murmurs of the gathering crowd,
That by his very windows trail the pomp
Of hearse, and blazoned arms, and long array
Of sad funereal rites, nor the loud groans
And deep-felt anguish of a husband's heart,
Can move to mingle with this flood one tear :
In careless apathy, perhaps in mirth,
He wears the day. Yet is he near in blood,
The very stem on which this blossom grew,
And at his knees she fondled in the charm
And grace spontaneous which along belongs
To untaught infancy : — Yet O forbear !
Nor deem him hard of heart ; for awful, struck
By Heaven's severest visitation, sad,
Like a scathed oak amidst the forest trees,
Lonely he stands ; — leaves bud, and shoot, and fall ;
He holds no sympathy with living nature
Or time's incessant change. Then in this hour,
While pensive thought is busy with the woes
And restless change of poor humanity,
Think then, O think of him, and breathe one prayer,
Form the full tide of sorrow spare one tear,
For him who does not weep !

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 6th of 11 M / Silent Meeting. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 8, Saturday: French Guiana, occupied by Portugal since 1809, was returned to France.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 8 of 11 M This day was inter'd the remains of Benjamin Barker (shoemaker) he has been thro' life a Man innocent in life & conversation & in his last illness which has been for several Months, he enjoyed a Sweet tender frame of Spirit, patient & resigned to the change, he expressed when one day I called in to set with him a little while that he had enjoyed many blessed Meetings since his sickness & was endeavoring to wait patiently the time of his departure - his funeral was attended by a large number of friends & others

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

HDT

WHAT?

INDEX

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

November 9, Sunday: Percy Bysshe Shelley in The Examiner:

On the 7th November, Brandreth, Turner and Ludlam ascended the scaffold. We feel for Brandreth the less, because it seems he killed a man. But recollect who instigated him to the proceedings which led to murder. On the word of a dying man, Brandreth tells us, that "Oliver brought him to this" - that, "but for Oliver, he would not have been there." See, too, Ludlam and Turner, with their sons and brothers, and sisters, how they kneel together in this dreadful agony of prayer. With that dreadful penalty before their eyes - with that tremendous sanction for the truth of all he spoke, Turner exclaimed loudly and distinctly, while the executioner was putting the rope round his neck, "This is all Oliver and the government." What more he might have said we know not, because the chaplain prevented any further observations. Troops of horse, with keen and glittering swords, hemmed in the multitudes collected to witness this abominable exhibition. "When the stroke of the axe was heard, there was a burst of horror from the crowd. The instant the head was exhibited, there was a tremendous shriek set up, and the multitude ran violently in all directions, as if under the impulse of sudden frenzy. Those who resumed their stations, groaned and hooted."

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 9 of 11 M / Our meeting was pretty full & tho' to me it was a season of much dryness Yet I trust there were those present who were more favor'd - Father Rodman concerned in a short testimony - Sister Eliza dined with us & has just come in & wanted to know if I was writing in my journal & wished to see it but I declined as there is nothing here worth seeing. She concluded she should see it when I am gone, but as I chiefly write for my own satisfaction it is probable that should she survive me but a small portion of what I have written will be found but that is a subject I leave as we know what may happen - This Afternoon Meeting was Silent

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

November 12, Wednesday: Baha'Ullah (Mirza Husayn Ali), who would found the Baha'i faith, was born.

Within a month of his arrival in Lexington, Kentucky, Anton Philipp Heinrich directed a concert of music by notable composers including Mozart, Haydn, and Ludwig van Beethoven. Heinrich also performed solo music for violin.

In Newport, Rhode Island, a Quaker died who had in 1756 at the age of 26 been half owner of a negrero (the sloop Dolphin) that was trading slaves to Barbados. A considerable number of the town's black citizens attended this funeral to make manifest their respect for this man –Thomas Robinson– who had for so many years been attempting to atone for this error of his youth. Here is the record made by Friend Stephen Wanton Gould:

4th day 12th of 11th M 1817 / This Afternoon attended the funeral Of our Ancient friend Thomas Robinson he Died about 3 OC on 2nd day [Monday] morning the 10th inst In the 87 Year of his Age He has long been a very useful man to the community at large & also in our society - His venreable appearance in his walks in life inspired respect from those who were his enemies, & of those he had many particularly from the zealous & active part which he took in the Abolition of the slave trade & against men concerned in the Slave trade he took a decided & active part so far as they were concerned in that trade, by doing all in his power to relive [relieve] the Suffering of the African race, he was for many Years the strong friend of the Negro a considerable number of whom manifested their respect by attending his funeral He was also a useful & active member of our society as the minutes of the Monthly Meeting for a long number of Years will testify his natural talents were such as renderd his services peculiarly necessary in difficult & intricate cases -

I remember once while I was an apprentice, being at his house on an errand, he particularly noticed me & addressed me in a feeling manner with much good & pertinent advice, which I have many times recur'd to & have no doubt it has been a means of preservation - he was a man of midling height with a quick & penetrating eye, his habit very thin being often reduced with the Ashma [asthma] - I have his appearance as he walked the Street full in my minds eye tho' for a number of Years he has been confind to home by age & infirmity, he wore a old brown Wig, walked slow, & with a measured Step with a cane in his hand. - his house was for Years the principle lodging of most of the Public friends who happened here & at the Yearly Meeting no friend in town entertained more than he did, & tho' he has been out of circulation for some years past he continued to do acts of Benevolence as long as he lived both in a pecuniary way & by skilfull advice to such as were in difficult circumstances - I have often seen his venerable countenance Strike an Awe on such as were [pert?] & irreverant both in private companies & some public Assemblies.

INTERNATIONAL SLAVE TRADE

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 13, Thursday: Henry Pool of Gloucester, 20-year-old son of John Pool & Anna Davis Pool, was drowned off Thatcher's Island.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 13th of 11 M 1817 / Silent meeting& to me a rather dull season. This Afternoon favord with a little life

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 16, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 16th of 11 M / Both meetings silent – Took tea with D Buffum Jr & After tea Henry Gould came out & we walked over to see John Weeden who has been some weeks confin'd with a fever, where we Set a little while & then came home. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 20, Thursday: The 1st US war against the Black Seminoles living in the swamps of the Gulf coast officially commenced with an attack upon Fowl Town, the home of Headman Neamathla.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

"...the merciless Indian Savages, whose known rule of warfare, is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes and conditions."

— Declaration of Independence

"...The conflicts of Europeans with American-Indians, Maoris and other aborigines in temperate regions ... if we judge by the results we cannot regret that such wars have taken place ... the process by which the American continent has been acquired for European civilization [was entirely justified because] there is a very great and undeniable difference between the civilization of the colonizers and that of the dispossessed natives...."

— Bertrand Russell,
THE ETHICS OF WAR, January 1915

Bertrand Russell

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 20 of 11 M / A pretty good meeting & I believe nearly all them members present - Father Rodman appeared in a Short but to me very satisfactory testimony. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 22, Saturday: The Duchy of Lucca was created, under Duchess Maria Luisa.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 22 of 11 M / Went this Afternoon to Connanicut. After Attending to a little buisness which I had with Several persons -went to Cousin Joseph Greens & drank tea & lodged - 1st day [Sunday] Attended Meeting on Connanicut it fell to my lot to sit at The head of the Meeting & to break it. - certainly I have been in meetings where I felt better Authority to give the concluding sign & token of Unity for me it was a season of some dearth & poverty - There are between 20 & 30 persons who usually attend that meeting & some of them pretty solid - but there are so few members, say two Men & two Women & they (except Job

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Weeden) on the Wane of life & many time unable to get out that I hardly see how they can have the meeting continued thro' the Winter & it is tedious & expensive for a committee to attend it. – I dined at J Greenes & came home in season to be at the Afternoon Meeting.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 27, Thursday: Governor Stephen Decatur Miller informed the South Carolina legislature that “Slavery is not a national evil; on the contrary, it is a national benefit.”

Nagpuri forces were defeated by the British at Sitabalsi.

The British Prince-Regent edicted that no British subject was to participate in any war between Spain and its American colonies (this edict would be widely ignored).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 27 of 11th M / Our Moy [Monthly] Meeting this day held in Town was well attended. The first was larger than common as a number came in who were not members being what is denominated Thanksgiving Day Anne Almy & Ruth Davis were present in addition to our other ministers, but all were silent – In the last meeting we had considerable buisness & all concluded pretty well tho' there was some pretty trying occurences, yet I believe love prevailed. – Uncle Thurston only dined with us. Sister Eliza set the evening with us.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 30, Sunday: Native Americans attacked a boat on the Appalachicola River that was carrying supplies to Fort Scott on the Flint River, a boat containing about 40 men and a number of women and children, and killed all except six men and a woman. They were retaliating for an attack that had been made by General Gaines upon the Indian village of Fowltown, a few miles below Fort Scott, in order to force the natives to surrender some murderers who had found refuge with them. When this frontier news would arrive, Andrew Jackson would be sent to take command in person, and given authority to call on the militia from Tennessee.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his diary:

1st day 30th of 11th M 1817 / At Meeting this forenoon we had the company of Obadiah Davis & Ruth his wife, who were both acceptably engaged in testimony & endeavord to awaken our minds to a sense of duty They went out of town After meeting – In the Afternoon we had a silent meeting & to me it was a season of activity as respects the creature; I wrestled a little, but alass could not boast of much overcoming. – Set the evening with my H at the late residence of our friend Thos Robinson – I missed the dear old folks from their corners by the sides of the fireplace & their very interesting conversation with which I have been many times entertained,

HDTWHAT?INDEXFRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

instructed & edified, but Alass they are Gone to their rest, after long lives of usefulness in the World, & may we who remain endeavor to fill their stations with equal propriety in our several sphears, then when the Awful separation which they have recently passed thro', of Soul & body, comes to us, survivors may trust with equal confidence that our heads are laid in rest & our spirits joined with those that are blessed. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 3, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 3rd of 12th M 1817 / We had this Afternoon to take a dish of tea with us & set a social evening with us Geo Engs & Wife, ? W Lawton & Wife, Sarah Earl & Mary Burling, Sister Ruth & Betsy Slocum, & Benjm Hadwen joined us in the evening it is pleasant to have our friends with us. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 4, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 4th of 12th M 1817 / Silent Meeting, & but little life to me -- A number of the pillars absent at the Quarterly Meeting at New Bedford. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 7, Sunday: William Bligh, captain of HMS Bounty, died.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 7th of 12 M / Our forenoon meeting was as large as usual Lydia Almy appeard in a short but lively testimony exhorting us to faithfulness, laboring to rebuild the Walls of Jerusalem working with one hand, holding the sword in the other against the enemy of Peace
In the Afternoon well attended & - father Rodman concerned in a*

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

short but lively testimony. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 11, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 11th of 12th M / Our dear loving friend Daniel Howland of East Greenwich attended Meeting & was sweetly & largely engaged in testimony & concluded in fervant supplication. To me it was a precious meeting tho' my mind was under the presure of some temporal concerns, yet life arose. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 14, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 14th of 12 M / Our Meetings were both Small & silent, in inclement Weather friends like other people do not turn out & "Wisdom dwells with prudence" for I believe it is not necessary (very often for women especially) to run risques of their health, tho' a becoming zeal to keep up our meetings well forever be evinced

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 18, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 18th of 12 M / Yesterday had a very disagreeable & exercising concern in the overseers department - I endeavored to labor faithfully & tho' I was compelled to say close things, yet was able to settle the storm at least for the present. – Our meeting was attended as well as usual & to me a pretty good season being favord to feel a degree of sweetness for Yesterdays labor – In the last, (Preparative) we had no buisness. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 21, Sunday: British forces defeated the Marathas at Mahidpur, sealing the fate of the Maratha Confederacy.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 21 of 12 M / It was a severe Snow Storm, both Meeting were small & silent four women turned out in the Morning & five in the Afternoon. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Christmas Day: On the previous evening two officers at Fort Independence on Castle Island had been playing cards, and one had accused the other of cheating. On this day the two officers fought a duel and one of them, Lieutenant Robert Massie, was killed — whereupon that lieutenant's friends are said to have taken the survivor down into the bowels of the fortification and shackled him to the floor of a tiny chamber which they then walled up.¹⁹²

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 25 of 12 M 1817 / My H being unwell with a pain in her side & distress on her lungs - I rode to Portsmouth with Sister Ruth & Attended our Moy [Monthly] Meeting - In the first - A Sherman H Dennis & D Buffum appear'd in testimony - In the last we had but little buisness. - We dined at R Mitchell & rode home - & a very muddy ride it was

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

192. "Edgar A. Perry" would, as an 18-year old enlistee, serve in Battery H of the 1st Artillery on this island and, in later life as Edgar Allan Poe, although making the setting of his famous short story "The Cask of Amontillado" the catacombs of a European nobleman, may well have been basing the story on this grisly American incident of retribution. The incident seems to be factual, or at any rate, in 1905 when some workmen were renovating the fort they are said to have knocked down a wall and to have discovered behind it a skeleton in the remnants of an archaic military uniform.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

December 28, Sunday: William Wordsworth and John Keats met for the first time, at the home of Benjamin Robert Haydon in St. John's Wood near London.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 28 of 12 M / Since Moy [Monthly] Meeting I have had the Ague in my face & teeth & tho' relieved by the operation of a dose of Jalap & Calomel last night - am unfit to attend meeting today. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 30, Tuesday: The 1st coffee trees were planted in the Sandwich Islands, on the Kona coast.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 30 of 12 M / This is a day which I commemorate annually with this day my 36th Year is completed & tho' compared with many I am young in life, yet know not how soon the thread may be cut, & I numbered with the dead I have felt the subject as Awful & weighty, & crys have been raised to the father of Mercies in secret while my body has been otherwise engaged, that he would not leave nor forsake me, but mercifully help & preserve me to the end, be the days of my years to come, few or many Our neighbor Michael Eddy called in & took a dish of tea with us & set the evening very sociably with us. Tho' he is a minister of another persuasion from myself, yet we converse pleasantly on religious subjects & I rejoice, in observing distinctions as to religious names to be much doing away, & in the belief that the time is coming when christians shall see eye to eye & the

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

knowledge of the Lord cover the earth as the Waters Do the Sea

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

“NARRATIVE HISTORY” IS FABULATION, HISTORY IS CHRONOLOGY

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1818

January 1, Thursday: Forces of the Peshwa were defeated by British at Koregaon.

The Black Ball Lines began regular packet service between Britain and the United States as the Courier departed from Liverpool for New-York.

The town of Ipswich dealt with the need of its paupers for an alms-house: "Voted that the Town Treasurer hire 10,500 dollars to purchase a farm for the paupers."

The visitors to the President's home in Washington DC, which had recently been refurbished and painted a glowing white after being burned by the British army in 1814, were referring to it as Washington's "white house" (since back on the plantation in Virginia, where the President resided for the remainder of the year with his slaves, the main plantation house was also known as the White House).

Charles Wilkes received an appointment as a midshipman in the US Navy.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 1 of 1st M 1818 / I have been thankful in beginning the New Year under a precious sense of favor, but have to regret the loss of Meeting. I was in expectation of going but had a little buisness to attend to which I could not avoid & it took about 20 minutes more than the time & being unwilling to go in late & set the example concluded it was best not to go - My H attended & said Hannah Dennis preached - Our cousins George Gould & Lydia his wife set the Afternoon with us & took tea. - This was a pleasant visit, there is something pleasant & comfortable in brethren's dwelling in harmony

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Rec'd a Letter from Uncle Stanton¹⁹³

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 2, Friday: In Venice, George Gordon, Lord Byron completed “Childe Harold’s Pilgrimage” (4th canto).

*To John Hobhouse, Esq. A.M., F.R.S.
etc. etc. etc.*

My Dear Hobhouse,

After an interval of eight years between the composition of the first and last cantos of Childe Harold, the conclusion of the poem is about to be submitted to the public. In parting with so old a friend it is not extraordinary that I should recur to one still older and better, - to one who has beheld the birth and death of the other, and to whom I am far more indebted for the social advantages of an enlightened friendship, than - though not ungrateful - I can, or could be, to Childe Harold, for any public favour reflected through the poem on the poet, - to one, whom I have known long, and accompanied far, whom I have found wakeful over my sickness and kind in my sorrow, glad in my prosperity and firm in my adversity, true in counsel and trusty in peril - to a friend often tried and never found wanting; - to yourself. In so doing, I recur from fiction to truth, and in dedicating to you in its complete, or at least concluded state, a poetical work which is the longest, the most thoughtful and comprehensive of my compositions, I wish to do honour to myself by the record of many years intimacy with a man of learning, of talent, of steadiness, and of honour. It is not for minds like ours to give or to receive flattery; yet the praises of sincerity have ever been permitted to the voice of friendship; and it is not for

193. Stephen Wanton Gould Diary, 1815-1823: The Gould family papers are stored under control number 2033 at the Division of Rare and Manuscript Collections of Cornell University Library, Box 7 Folder 12 for August 24, 1815-September 25, 1823; also on microfilm, see Series 7

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

you, nor even for others, but to relieve a heart which has not elsewhere, or lately, been so much accustomed to the encounter of good-will as to withstand the shock firmly, that I thus attempt to commemorate your good qualities, or rather the advantages which I have derived from their exertion. Even the recurrence of the date of this letter, the anniversary of the most unfortunate day of my past existence, but which cannot poison my future while I retain the resource of your friendship, and of my own faculties, will henceforth have a more agreeable recollection for both, inasmuch as it will remind us of this my attempt to thank you for an indefatigable regard, such as few men have experienced, and no one could experience without thinking better of his species and of himself.

It has been our fortune to traverse together, at various periods, the countries of chivalry, history, and fable – Spain, Greece, Asia Minor, and Italy; and what Athens and Constantinople were to us a few years ago, Venice and Rome have been more recently. The poem also, or the pilgrim, or both, have accompanied me from first to last; and perhaps it may be a pardonable vanity which induces me to reflect with complacency on a composition which in some degree connects me with the spot where it was produced, and the objects it would fain describe; and however unworthy it may be deemed of those magical and memorable abodes, however short it may fall of our distant conceptions and immediate impressions, yet as a mark of respect for what is venerable, and of feeling for what is glorious, it has been to me a source of pleasure in the production, and I part with it with a kind of regret, which I hardly suspected that events could have left me for imaginary objects.

With regard to the conduct of the last canto, there will be found less of the pilgrim than in any of the preceding, and that little slightly, if at all, separated from the author speaking in his own person. The fact is, that I had become weary of drawing a line which every one seemed determined not to perceive: like the Chinese in Goldsmith's "Citizen of the World", whom nobody would believe to be a Chinese, it was in vain that I asserted, and imagined, that I had drawn a distinction between the author and the pilgrim; and the very anxiety to preserve this difference, and disappointment at finding it unavailing, so far crushed my efforts in the composition, that I determined to abandon it altogether – and have done so. The opinions which have been, or may be, formed on that subject, are now a matter of indifference; the work is to depend on itself, and not on the writer; and the author, who has no resources in his own mind beyond the reputation, transient or permanent, which is to arise from his literary efforts, deserves the fate of authors.

In the course of the following Canto it was my intention, either in the text or in the notes, to have touched upon the present state of Italian literature, and perhaps of manners. But the text, within the limits I proposed, I soon found hardly sufficient for the labyrinth of external objects and the consequent reflections; and for the whole of the notes,

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

excepting a few of the shortest, I am indebted to yourself, and these were necessarily limited to the elucidation of the text. It is also a delicate, and no very grateful task, to dissert upon the literature and manners of a nation so dissimilar; and requires an attention and impartiality which would induce us, – though perhaps no inattentive observers, nor ignorant of the language or customs of the people amongst whom we have recently abode, – to distrust, or at least defer our judgment, and more narrowly examine our information. The state of literary party runs as high or higher than even on the question of Romantic or Classical as they call it, so that for a stranger to steer impartially between them is next to impossible. It may be enough then, at least for my purpose, to quote from their own beautiful language – “Mi pare che in un paese tutto poetico, che vanta la lingua la più nobile ed insieme la più dolce, tutte le vie diverse si possono tentare, e che sinche la patria di Alfieri e di Monti non ha perduto l’antico valore, in tutte essa dovrebbe essere la prima.” Italy has great names still – Canova, Monti, Ugo Foscolo, Pindemonti, Visconti, Morelli, Cicognara, Albrizzi, Mezzophanti, Mai, Mustoxidi, Aglietti, and Vacca, will secure to the present generation an honourable place in most of the departments of Art, Science, and Belles Lettres; and in some the very highest – Europe – the World – has but one Canova. It has been somewhere said by Alfieri, that “La pianta uomo nasce più robusta in Italia che in qualunque altra terra – e che gli stessi atroci delitti che vi si commettono ne sono una prova.” Without subscribing to the latter part of his proposition, a dangerous doctrine, the truth of which may be disputed on better grounds, namely, that the Italians are in no respect more ferocious than their neighbours, that man must be wilfully blind, or ignorantly heedless, who is not struck with the extraordinary capacity of this people, or, if such a word be admissible, their capabilities, the facility of their acquisitions, the rapidity of their conceptions, the fire of their genius, their sense of beauty, and amidst all the disadvantages of repeated revolutions, the desolation of battles and the despair of ages, their still unquenched “longing after immortality”, – the immortality of independence. And when we ourselves, in riding round the walls of Rome, heard the simple lament of the labourers’ chorus, “Roma! Roma! Roma! Roma non è più come era prima”, it was difficult not to contrast this melancholy dirge with the bacchanal roar of the songs of exultation still yelled from the London taverns, over the carnage of Mont St Jean, and the betrayal of Genoa, of Italy, of France, and of the world, by men whose conduct you yourself have exposed in a work worthy of the better days of our history. For me,

Non movero mai corda

Ove la turba di sue ciance assorda.

What Italy has gained by the late transfer of nations, it were useless for Englishmen to enquire, till it becomes ascertained that England has acquired something more than a permanent army

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

and a suspended Habeas Corpus: it is enough for them to look at home. For what they have done abroad, and especially in the South, "Verily they will have their reward", and at no very distant period.

Wishing you, my dear Hobhouse, a safe and agreeable return to that country whose real welfare can be dearer to none than to yourself, I dedicate to you this poem in its completed state; and repeat once more how truly I am ever

*Your obliged
And affectionate friend, Byron.*

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 2 of 1st M / Aunt Molly Gould Set the Afternoon with us, also Martha Aleman. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 4, Sunday: James Henry Leigh Hunt's poem "To Horace Smith, Esq." appeared in the newspaper he and his brothers John and Robert facilitated, The Examiner.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 4th of 1st M / In the Morning Meeting Lydia Almy appeared in a short lively & impressive testimony - In the afternoon we were silent - In the evening with my H set with Br David Rodman & wife -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

January 8, Thursday: The architect Charles Bulfinch, who had designed Harvard College's University Hall and the Massachusetts Statehouse, was appointed by President James Monroe and the Commissioner of Public Buildings of Washington DC to replace Benjamin Henry Latrobe (who had resigned) and continue the restoration of the two wings of the Capitol building damaged by fires set by the British in 1814 — which would be reopened in 1819.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 8th of 1st M / Meeting was silent & tho' I went to it in a very empty frame of mind yet Thro' divine condescension it was a season of favor for which I desire to be thankful.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 11, Sunday: Publication, in The Examiner, of Percy Bysshe Shelley's "Ozymandias":

I met a Traveler from an antique land,
Who said, "Two vast and trunkless legs of stone
Stand in the desert. Near them, on the sand,
Half sunk, a shattered visage lies, whose frown,
And wrinkled lip, and sneer of cold command,
Tell that its sculptor well those passions read,
Which yet survive, stamped on these lifeless things,
The hand that mocked them and the heart that fed:
And on the pedestal these words appear:
"My name is OZYMANDIAS, King of Kings."
Look on my works ye Mighty, and despair!
No thing beside remains. Round the decay
Of that Colossal Wreck, boundless and bare,

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

The lone and level sands stretch far away.

(This had been inspired by Book I, Chapter 47 of Diodorus Siculus Διόδωρος Σικελιώτης's BIBLIOTHECA HISTORICA, dealing with the history and culture of ancient Egypt. He and his friend Horace Smith, who was helping him manage his finances, had agreed to stage a friendly poetry competition, and Smith's submission, decidedly reminiscent of the final scene in the movie "Planet of the Apes," would appear in a subsequent edition of the magazine.)

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 11 of 1 M / Our forenoon Meeting was Silent - In the Afternoon father Rodman delivered a short sympathetic testimony with a tried state which he apprehended present - Set the evening at home chiefly -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 15, Thursday: John Collier of Frocester in Gloucestershire obtained a patent for improvements on a machine for purpose of cropping or shearing woollen cloths of every description.

John Lewis, Clothier, William Lewis, Dyer, and William Davies, Engineer, all of Brimscomb in Gloucestershire, obtained a patent for improvements on shearing machines for shearing or cropping woollen and other cloths, that may require such process, the same being further improvements on a patent obtained by John Lewis, for an improved shearing machine, dated the 27th July, 1815.

Philip Taylor, operative chemist of Bromley in Middlesex, obtained a patent for a method of applying heat in certain processes to which the same method had not hitherto been applied: likewise for improvements in refrigerators.

William Mault of Bedford Square in Middlesex obtained a patent for improvements in steam engines.

John Holworthy Palmer of Regent Street, St. John's, Westminster, Gentleman, obtained a patent for a mode of purifying certain descriptions of gasses.

John Theodore Koster, a merchant of Lancaster, obtained a patent for a method of building or constructing wheel carriages, and also for making wheels for carriages.

James Fraser, Engineer and Coppersmith of Long Acre, St. Martin in the Fields, Middlesex, obtained a patent for a cooking machine, for more simple and effectual decomposition of salt water, and to render the said salt water more useful to the general purposes of ships' crews, &c. at sea, without any extra apparatus, except the said cooking machine; or, in other words, its structure will answer the end of worm or condenser, and worm tub, &c. &c.

Charles Brightly, Printer of Bungay in Suffolk, and Bryan Donkin, Engineer of Grange Road, Bermondsey in Surrey, obtained a patent for a machine or printing press, for printing from types, plates, or blocks.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 15th of 1st M 1818 / Our Meeting was silent & to me a pretty good time. The World obtruded a little, but was favord

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

to contest the ground. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 17, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 17 of 1 M / My H set the eveng at Aunt Earls I joined her about & spent an hour very plearsantly

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Friend Morris Birkbeck (1764-1825), who had been the first farmer in England to raise merino sheep, wrote back to England from the prairie south of Olney, Illinois (the town in which if you run over a squirrel you now need to pay a fine of $500, but only if the squirrel was white):

*MY DEAR SIR,
Jan. 17, 1818.*

I WROTE to you early in September, since which I hope you have received a copy of my journal. Thus having made you of our party on the journey, and introduced you to some acquaintance with our Princeton affairs, I am now going to take you to the prairies, to shew you the very beginning of our settlement. Having fixed on the north-western portion of our prairie for our future residence and farm, the first act was building a cabin, about two hundred yards from the spot where the house is to stand. This cabin is built of round straight logs, about a foot in diameter, lying upon each other, and notched in at the corners, forming a room eighteen feet long by sixteen; the intervals between the logs "chuncked," that is, filled in with slips of wood; and "mudded," that is, daubed with a plaister of mud: a spacious chimney, built also of logs, stands like a bastion at one end: the roof is well covered with four hundred "clap boards" of cleft oak, very much like the pales used in England for fencing parks. A hole is cut through the side, called, very properly, the "door, (the through,)" for which there is a "shutter," made also of cleft oak, and hung on wooden hinges. All this has been executed by contract, and well executed, for twenty dollars. I have since added ten dollars to the cost, for the luxury of a floor and ceiling of sawn boards, and it is now a comfortable habitation.

To this cabin you must accompany me, a young English friend, and my boy Gillard, whom you may recollect at Wanborough. We arrived in the evening, our horses heavily laden with our guns, and provisions, and cooking utensils, and blankets, not forgetting the all-important axe. This was immediately put in requisition, and we soon kindled a famous fire, before which we spread our pallets, and, after a hearty supper, soon forgot that besides ourselves, our horses and our dogs, the wild animals of the forest were the only inhabitants of our wide domain. Our cabin stands at the edge of the prairie, just within the wood, so as to be concealed from the view until you are at the very door. Thirty paces to the east the prospect opens from a commanding eminence over the prairie, which extends four miles to the south and south-east, and over the woods beyond to a great distance;

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

whilst the high timber behind, and on each side, to the west, north, and east, forms a sheltered cove about five hundred yards in width. It is about the middle of this cove, two hundred and fifty yards from the wood each way, but open to the south, that we propose building our house.

Well, having thus established myself as a resident proprietor, in the morning my boy and I (our friend having left us) sallied forth in quest of neighbours, having heard of two new settlements at no great distance. Our first visit was to Mr. Emberson, who had just established himself in a cabin similar to our own, at the edge of a small prairie two miles north-west of us. We found him a respectable young man, more farmer than hunter, surrounded by a numerous family, and making the most of a rainy day by mending the shoes of his household. We then proceeded to Mr. Woodland's, about the same distance southwest: he is an inhabitant of longer standing, for he arrived in April, Mr. E. in August. He has since built for us a second cabin, connected with the first by a covered roof or porch, which is very convenient, forming together a commodious dwelling.

In our walk we saw no game but partridges, and a squirrel. We found plenty of grapes, which I thought delicious. The soil seemed to improve in fertility on closer inspection, and the country appeared more pleasant: in fact, my mind was at ease, and this spreads a charm over external objects. Our township is a square of six miles each side, or thirty-six square miles; and what may properly be called our neighbourhood, extends about six miles round this township in every direction. Six miles to the north is the boundary of surveyed lands. Six miles to the east is the Bonpas, a stream which joins the Big Wabash about six miles south of us, where the latter river makes a bold bend to the west, approaching within six miles of the Little Wabash: this river forms our western boundary, at about the same distance up to the northern line of survey above-mentioned. The centre of this tract is our prairie, containing about 4,000 acres.

There are many other prairies, or natural meadows, of various dimensions and qualities, scattered over this surface, which consists of about two hundred square miles, containing perhaps twelve human habitations, all erected, I believe, within one year of our first visit -- most of them within three months. At or near the mouth of the Bonpas, where it falls into the Big Wabash, we project a shipping port: a ridge of high land, without any intervening creek, will afford an easy communication with the river at that place.

The Wabash, as you know, is a noble stream, navigable several hundred miles from its junction with the Ohio, and receiving other navigable rivers in its course: White River in particular, opening a communication with the most fertile region of Indiana, will at a future day hold a distinguished rank among rivers. The country above, both on the Wabash and White River, is peopling rapidly; and there is, through the Ohio, a great natural channel of intercourse between this vast country and the ocean. Steam-

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

boats already navigate the Wabash: a vessel of that description has this winter made its way up from New Orleans to within a few miles of our settlement. They are about building one at Harmony, twenty miles below, as a regular trader, to carry off the surplus produce, and bring back coffee, sugar, and other groceries, as well as European manufactures.

There are no very good mill-seats on the streams in our neighbourhood, but our prairie affords a most eligible site for a windmill; we are therefore going to erect one immediately: the materials are in great forwardness, and we hope to have it in order to grind the fruits of the ensuing harvest.

Two brothers, and the wife of one of them, started from the village of Puttenham, close to our old Wanborough, and have made their way out to us: they are carpenters, and are now very usefully employed in preparing the scantlings for the mill, and other purposes. You may suppose how cordially we received these good people. They landed at Philadelphia, not knowing where on this vast continent they should find us: from thence they were directed to Pittsburg, a wearisome journey over the mountains of more than 300 miles; at Pittsburgh they bought a little boat for six or seven dollars, and came gently down the Ohio, 1,200 miles, to Shawnee-town; from thence they proceeded on foot till they found us. On their way they had many flattering offers; but true to their purpose, though uninvited and unlooked for, they held out to the end, and I believe they are well satisfied with their reception and prospects.

By the first of March I hope to have two ploughs at work, and may possibly put in 100 acres of corn this spring. Early in May, I think, we shall be all settled in a convenient temporary dwelling, formed of a range of cabins of ten rooms, until we can accomplish our purpose of building a more substantial house. My young folks desire to be most kindly remembered to you: they are full of life and spirits; not one of them, I believe, having felt a symptom of repentance from the commencement of our undertaking.

I remain, dear Sir, ever yours.¹⁹⁴

January 18, Sunday: Since the admission of the Vermont/Kentucky pair of states in 1794 the US national flag had sported 15 pairs of white and red stripes. With at this point the number of states in the union having risen to 20, the federal Congress voted that the national flag “should contain 13 alternate red and white stripes representing the original 13 states.”

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 18 of 1 M / In the forenoon a Silent Meeting in the Afternoon father R delivered a short testimony

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

194. NOTES ON A JOURNEY IN AMERICA, FROM THE COAST OF VIRGINIA TO THE TERRITORY OF ILLINOIS [IN 1817] (London: Severn & Co., 1818). This region of Illinois now boasts more pig farms per square mile than anywhere else in the United States of America.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 January 22, Thursday: Leise weht es, a romanze for voice and guitar by Carl Maria von Weber was performed for the initial time, as part of Das Nachtlager von Granada, a play by Kind, in the Dresden Hoftheater.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 22 of 1 M / At Meeting father R was concerned in testimony In the last (Preparative) the overseers of the Poor for the past Year was proposed to fill the station for the Year ensuing.

In the Afternoon Attended the funeral of Henry Vinson.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 25, Sunday: Birth of Benjamin Morgan Palmer, who would come to be considered the pastor of the Confederate States of America. The whiteness of his righteousness would overcome all fear.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 25th of 1st M / Our Aged sister in the Church Dorcas Easton Died the 22nd inst & this Morning her remains were taken to the Meeting house & after Meeting were decently inter'd in the Upper burying ground in the Meadow field - [The handwriting changes in character at this point, from slanting to upright] Our friend D Buffum was concerned in a lively testimony at two Different standings - father Rodman & Hannah Dennis was also engaged in lively testimonies - & I thought truth was in dominion among us which was cause of a degree of rejoicing to some present - Dorcas was a woman of a remarkably meek & quiet disposition & speaking in the language of Ancient friends "was a lover of Truth & Friends" remarkably careful thro' life that no part of her conduct should bring reproach on the profession which she made - She died in the 74 Year of her Age & was the last remaining branch of an Ancient & very respectable family in this Moy [Monthly] Meeting - Our Afternoon Meeting was silent & smaller than usual owing to there being much Snow on the ground -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 January 29, Thursday: His Royal Highness William Henry, Duke of Gloucester & Edinburgh, who was President of England's African Institution and was also known as "Cheese" and as "Silly Billy," wrote to Bushrod Washington, who was President of the American Colonization Society and who owned and sold black slaves. (If you are sufficiently interested, which I doubt, this letter may be inspected in the 2D ANNUAL REPORT OF THE AMERICAN SOCIETY FOR COLONIZING THE FREE PEOPLE OF COLOUR OF THE UNITED STATES, issued in Washington DC by the American Colonization Society in 1819.)

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 29th of 1st M 1818 / Our first Meeting was silent. - In the last (Moy [Monthly] Meeting) we had considerable buisness, & some of it of a trying nature, it seemd to be my lot to take part in the concerns before us - & was deputed to

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*attend the insuing Quarterly Meeting at Providence
Darius Lawton only dined with us - - -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 30, Friday: John Keats wrote to his friend John Hamilton Reynolds, including with his letter a new sonnet:

When I have fears that I may cease to be
Before my pen has glean'd my teeming brain,
Before high-piled books, in characterly,
Hold like rich garnerers the full ripen'd grain;
When I behold, upon the night's starr'd face,
Huge cloudy symbols of a high romance,
And think that I may never live to trace
Their shadows, with the magic hand of chance;
And when I feel, fair creature of an hour,
That I shall never look upon thee more,
Never have relish in the faery power
Of unreflecting love;— then on the shore
Of the wide world I stand alone, and think
Till love and fame to nothingness do sink.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 30 of 1 M / Yesterday Afternoon SUSANNA DAVENPORT departed this life aged about 79 years. She has long been a fast & long proven friend in our family

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 1, Sunday: Horace Smith, a friend of Percy Bysshe Shelley, was helping him manage his finances. The two had decided to stage a friendly poetry competition, to appear in the pages of The Examiner. Their competing sonnets were stipulated to be based somehow upon a reading of Book I, Chapter 47, of Diodorus Siculus Διόδωρος Σικελιώτης's BIBLIOTHECA HISTORICA, dealing with the history and culture of ancient Egypt. Shelly's "Ozymandias" had already been printed. On this day Smith's submission was printed (later it would feature in his volume AMARYNTHUS under the title "On A Stupendous Leg of Granite, Discovered Standing by Itself in the Deserts of Egypt, with the Inscription Inserted Below").

In Egypt's sandy silence, all alone,
Stands a gigantic Leg, which far off throws
The only shadow that the Desart knows:—
"I am great OZYMANDIAS," saith the stone,
"The King of Kings; this mighty City shows
"The wonders of my hand."— The City's gone,— Nought but the Leg remaining to disclose
The site of this forgotten Babylon.

We wonder, —and some Hunter may express Wonder like ours, when thro' the wilderness
Where London stood, holding the Wolf in chace,

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

He meets some fragment huge, and stops to guess
What powerful but unrecorded race
Once dwelt in that annihilated place.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 1st of 2 M 1818 / Our Meetings were both silent, & to me Seasons of barrenness as I have no doubt they were to most present. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 3, Tuesday: Very early on this day, the lower Ohio Valley experienced the harshest winter storm since white settlement had begun in 1788. Dr. Sam Hildreth of Marietta reported a blanket of snow fully 26 inches in depth, undrifted. Severe cold was to follow throughout eastern Ohio, with the Fahrenheit thermometer displaying 20 degrees below 0.

John Keats wondered, in regard to the work product of William Wordsworth (whom he had recently met), whether we should allow ourselves to be “bullied into a certain philosophy engendered in the whims of an egotist”?

It may be said that we ought to read our Contemporaries, that Wordsworth &c should have their due from us. but for the sake of a few fine imaginative or domestic passages, are we to be bullied into a certain Philosophy engendered in the whims of an Egotist– Every man has his speculations, but every man does not brood and peacock over them till he makes a false coinage and deceives himself – Many a man can travel to the very bourne of Heaven, and yet want confidence to put down his half seeing.... Poetry should be great & unobtrusive, a thing which enters into one's soul, and does not startle it or amaze it with itself but with its subject. – How beautiful are the retired flowers! how would they lose their beauty were they to throng into the highway crying out, admire me I am a violet! dote upon me I am a primrose! Modern poets differ from the Elizabethans in this.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 3rd of 2nd M 1818 / Set out this morning in a Sleigh in company with Isaac Mitchell Richard Mitchell & their sister Anne & Sister Eliza Rodman for Providence Quarterly Meeting – We reached Warren by dinner time, & dined at Cobs Tavern while there it began to Snow, & we rode in an increasing Storm of Wind Rain & Snow – sister E & myself Stopped at O Browns where were were soon joined by our dear Acquaintance from Lynn vizt Daniel Johnson Ezra Collins Isaac Bassett & wife & Mary Newhall & Saml Rodman from New Bedford & several others from this Q[uarternly] Meeting we passed a very pleasant evening after a pretty suffering ride & lodged

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

February 4, Wednesday: Message of President James Monroe about the condition of amendments to the Constitution.

Augustus Goddard Peabody was born in Boston, the initial child of Augustus Peabody and Miranda Goddard Peabody. The father was a member of the Suffolk bar. The son would be fitted for college at the Public Latin School in Boston, and matriculate at Harvard College in 1833 (Class of 1837, same as Henry Thoreau).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day / After attending to a little buisness which I had with several people in Providence, I took a horse & sleigh & rode out to Daniel Lyman's to visit an old relation vizt Mary Wanton widow of John Wanton late of this Town who now wants but a Month or two of being 90 Years of Age - I spent a little time very agreeably she retains her powers of mind, but is now so lame as to be unable to Walk - She recollects all the Ancients of this Town particularly Gov[ernor] John Wanton who died in this place in the Year 1740. I inquired about him, of whom & several others she related several Anecdotes- I staid & dined with them who seemed to welcome me as a relation in a respectable branch of the Wanton family. After gowing [sic] to Lyman's factory & examining the curious machinery there rode to Providence again & took tea with Joseph Anthony whose wife was a Gould & a relation of Mine & there I lodged, but in the evening set a little while at O Browns, where was Avis Keene & Betsy Purinton with her companion R Dean having just returned from a religious visit to the Westward Job Hanes of Jersey accompanied them thus far homeward

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 5, Thursday: King Carl XIII of Sweden died, succeeded by his adopted son Jean Baptiste Sebastien Bernadotte who would rule as Carl XIV, founder of the Bernadotte dynasty.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day / The Meeting was large & before the silence was broke it felt to me a good degree of that solemnity was felt among us which was expereinced by the four & twenty elders which we heard of & I was remarakbly struck with this thought - Daniel Howland first appeared in a lively & solemn testimony -Then James Keene & I believe was scarcely exceeded by the Apostle Paul for life & Power, then Peter Hoxie appeared in a short but lively & pertinent testimony then Mary Newhall in a lively & well connected communication - Daniel Howland concluded in Solemn supplication. -
In the last meeting we had much buisness & all went on well - Ann Anthony wife of Thos was appointed an elder - Henry Knowles was recommended as a Minister & Daniel Howland liberated to attend the approaching Yearly Meetings of Philadelphia & N York & pay a religious visit to some meetings thereabouts. - I dined with Jos Anthony - & had the company of several of my friends*

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

and old acquaintances particularly Thos Anthony - James Greene & Daniel Howland - Set most of the evening at O Browns with a pleasant & instructing circle - lodged at J Anthonys

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 6, Friday: Milton K. Barlow was born in Kentucky. In 1844 he would sell a planetarium mechanism created in his silversmith shop to the Girard College observatory, presumably for $2,000. In 1851 he would exhibit such a mechanism at the New York World's Fair.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day / left the company I went with to return tomorrow & set out for home with David Buffum Jr. found the sleighing poor, but we got to Bristol with tolerable convenience & from thence I took the Stage to Town. - found my H & John well & I have thankfully to acknowledge it has been a season of favor to me for which I desire to be thankful -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 8, Sunday: A sermon was delivered at Woodstock, Vermont by the Reverend Leland Howard, pastor of the 1st Baptist Society in Windsor, Vermont, prior to the hanging on February 13th of Samuel E. Godfrey (1782-1818) of Chatham on Cape Cod for the grudge murder in 1814 of Thomas Hewlet (as keeper of the Vermont State Prison where Godfrey was serving a prison sentence, Hewlet had punished him for a rule infraction; there had been in this case three successive trials and three successive orders of execution over a period of four years).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 8th of 2nd M 1818 / Our morning Meeting was an uncommonly favord season, early in the sitting a good degree of solemnity was felt to arise & D Buffum was soon engaged in a lively testimony attended with life & Power - then father Rodman, then Lydia Almy, then Hannah Dennis who rose a second time & with much feeling addressed the Youth.- In the Afternoon we were silent but a solid covering was witnessed -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 12, Thursday: On the 1st anniversary of the Battle of Chacabuco, Chile formally proclaimed its independence from Spain.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 12th of 2nd M / Our Meeting was pretty well attended father Rodman was concerned in a short testimony Set the evening with Father R at my cousins Anne & Mary Goulds conversed on some temporal concerns which concerned them. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

February 15, Sunday: The Reverend Joshua Bates, A.M. delivered a discourse on the text “Finally, brethren, farewell” (2 Corinthians 13:11) on the Sabbath preceding the dissolution of his 15-year pastoral relation with the First Church in Dedham, Massachusetts. He had been separated, to labor in other regions, and become a witness of the truth to other people. His happiness in departing would have been increased, if he could have seen all the members of his flock walking in the truth, and rejoicing in the Lord. This discourse would in the course of the year be printed as a pamphlet at the Dedham firm of Abel D. Alleyne.

To those, who have neglected, or abused the means of grace, with which they have been indulged, and continued in impenitence and unbelief – to those who have disregarded both the warnings and exhortations, which have been given from this desk – to those, who have braved the terrors of the Lord, and turned a deaf ear to the invitations of the gospel, – to you, who are yet in your sins, I can only add another solemn admonition. – Remember that except ye repent, ye must perish.¹⁹⁵

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 15th of 2 M / In our mornng meeting which was well attended Our Fr D Buffum was very lively in testimony & to my mind a favorable season, before any thing was said I felt life to spring up in my mind very sweetly. –
At two OClock Attended the funeral of Alice Wyatt an aged friend in the 89 Year of her Age – The funeral went to meeting which was larger than in the morning & D Buffum was again very lively in testimony also father Rodman. – The Corpse were deposited after Meeting in the upper burying ground
In the evening several friends called & set with us*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 19, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 19 of 2 M / Our first meeting was a dull season to me –Hannah Dennis was very sweetly engaged in testimony I have no doubt that to many minds it was a favor'd season. The meeting was well attended – In the last (Preparative) we had no buisness – Stopt after meeting with the committee to confer in Jnt Weavers case & concluded to recommend to the meeting to forward a course of communication to Troy Meeting respecting him.–

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

John Keats had an idea:

I have an idea that a Man might pass a very pleasant life in this manner – let him on any certain day read a certain Page of full Poesy or distilled Prose and let him wander with it, and muse upon it, and reflect from it, and bring home to it, and 195. The Reverend Bates would pass on to become the 3d president of Middlebury College in Vermont, becoming a fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences in 1834, until 1839 when he would be appointed as Chaplain of the US House of Representatives for the 26th Congress. With the close of this session of the federal legislature, he would remove to Dudley, Massachusetts and become a pastor there, until his death at the age of 77. In 1848 he, Edward Everett, and Josiah Quincy, would convince the General Court of Massachusetts to establish the first free public library in America, the Boston Public Library.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

prophesy upon it, and dream upon it – untill it becomes stale – but when will it do so? Never – When Man has arrived at a certain ripeness in intellect any one grand and spiritual passage serves him as a starting post towards all "the two-and thirty Pallaces" How happy is such a "voyage of conception," what delicious diligent Indolence! A doze upon a Sofa does not hinder it, and a nap upon Clover engenders the ethereal fingerpointings – the prattle of a child gives it wings, and the converse of middle age a strength to beat them – a strain of musick conducts to "an odd angler of the Isle" and when the leaves whisper it puts a "girdle round the earth." Nor will this sparing touch of noble Books be any irreverence to their Writers – for perhaps the honors paid by Man to Man are trifles in comparison to the Benefit done by great Works to the "Spirit and pulse of good" by their mere passive existence. Memory should not be called knowledge – Many have original Minds who do not think it – they are led away by Custom – Now it appears to me that almost any Man may like the Spider spin from his own inwards his own airy Citadel – the points of leaves and twigs on which the Spider begins her work are few and she fills the Air with a beautiful circuiting: man should be content with as few points to tip with the fine Webb of his Soul and weave a tapestry empyrean – full of Symbols for his spiritual eye, of softness for his spiritual touch, of space for his wandering of distinctness for his Luxury – But the Minds of Mortals are so different and bent on such diverse Journeys that it may at first appear impossible for any common taste and fellowship to exist between two or three under these suppositions – It is however quite the contrary – Minds would leave each other in contrary directions, traverse each other in Numberless points, and [at] last greet each other at the Journeys end – A old Man and a child would talk together and the old Man be led on his Path, and the child left thinking – Man should not dispute or assert but whisper results to his neighbour, and thus by every germ of Spirit sucking the Sap from mould ethereal every human might become great, and Humanity instead of being a wide heath of Furse and Briars with here and there a remote Oak or Pine, would become a grand democracy of Forest Trees. It has been an old Comparison for our urging on – the Bee hive – however it seems to me that we should rather be the flower than the Bee – for it is a false notion that more is gained by receiving than giving – no the receiver and the giver are equal in their benefits – The f[l]ower I doubt not receives a fair guerdon from the Bee – its leaves blush deeper in the next spring – and who shall say between Man and Woman which is the most delighted? Now it is more noble to sit like Jove [than] to fly like Mercury – let us not therefore go hurrying about and collecting honey-bee like, buzzing here and there impatiently from a knowledge of what is to be arrived at: but let us open our leaves like a flower and be passive and receptive – budding patiently under the eye of Apollo and taking hints from every noble insect that favors us with a visit – sap will be given us for Meat and dew for drink – I was led into these thoughts, my

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

dear Reynolds, by the beauty of the morning operating on a sense of Idleness – I have no read any Books – the Morning said I was right – I had no Idea but of the Morning and the Thrush said I was right – seeming to say–

"O thou whose face hath felt the Winter's wind;
Whose eye has seen the Snow clouds hung in Mist
And the black-elm tops 'mong the freezing Stars
To thee the Spring will be a harvest-time–
O thou whose only book has been the light
Of supreme darkness which thou feddest on Night after night, when Phoebus was away
To thee the Spring shall be a tripple morn–
O fret not after knowledge – I have none
And yet my song comes native with the warmth
O fret not after knowledge – I have none
And yet the Evening listens – He who saddens
At thought of Idleness cannot be idle,
And he's awake who thinks himself asleep."

Now I am sensible all this is a mere sophistication, however it may neighbour to any truths, to excuse my indolence – so I will not deceive myself that Man should be equal with jove – but think himself very well off as a sort of scullion-Mercury or even a humble Bee – It is [no] matter whether I am right or wrong either one way or another, if there is sufficient to lift a little time from your Shoulders.

February 20, Friday: Forces of the Peshwa were defeated by the British at Ashti.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 20th of 2nd M 1818 / My mind has been under good feeling much of the time thro' the course of the day - & this afternoon engaged in a religious communicatin with my neighbour Geo Engs which resulted satisfactorily & I dont know but somewhat proffitably -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 22, Sunday: Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine published an letter from the James Hogg the "Ettrick Shepherd" recounting an extraordinary feat by Sirrah, his mostly black sheepdog.

I was a shepherd for ten years on the same farm, where I had always about 700 lambs put under my charge every year at weaning-time. As they were of the ... blackfaced breed, the breaking of them was a very ticklish and difficult task. I was obliged to watch them night and day for the first four days, during which I had always a person to assist me. It happened one year, that just about midnight the lambs broke and came up the moor upon us, making a noise with their running louder than thunder. We got up and waved our plaids, and shouted, in hopes to turn them, but we only made matters worse ... and by our exertions

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*we cut them into three divisions.
I called out "Sirrah, my man, they're away" ... but owing to the darkness of the night, and the blackness of the moor, I never saw him at all.... I ran here and there, not knowing what to do, but always at intervals, gave a loud whistle to Sirrah, to let him know that I was depending on him.... [T]he lad who was assisting me ... likewise had lost all traces of the lambs.... We both concluded, that whatever way the lambs ran at first, they would finally land at the fold where they left their mothers, and without delay we bent our course towards that; but when we came there, we found nothing of them.
My companion then bent his course towards the farm of Glen on the north, and I ran away westward for several miles, along the wild track where the lambs had grazed while following their dams. We met after it was day, far up a place called the Black Cleuch, but neither of us had been able to discover our lambs, nor any traces of them.... We had nothing for it but to return to our master, and inform him that we had lost his whole flock of lambs.
On our way home, however, we discovered a body of lambs at the bottom of a deep ravine, called the Flesh Sleuch, and the indefatigable Sirrah standing in front of them, looking all around for some relief, but still standing true to his charge. The sun was then up; and when we first came in view of them, we concluded that it was one of the divisions of the lambs.... But what was our astonishment, when we discovered that not one lamb of the whole flock was wanting! How had he got all the divisions collected in the dark is beyond my comprehension. The charge was left entirely to himself from midnight until the rising of the sun; and if all the shepherds in the Forest had been there to have assisted him, they could not have effected it with greater propriety.*

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 22 of 2nd M / Our Meetings were both silent & to me pretty good ones - Set the evening at home -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 26, Thursday: This was Queen Charlotte's 74th birthday and, as she was in poor health, it was expected correctly to be her last. A drawing room event was arranged at her Majesty's Palace, and the event would be duly reported by The Times on the following day (copied here). Proper cushions were provided, on which her Majesty could stand or lean to enable her to go through the fatigue of a crowded court. At one o'clock there was a salute of artillery in the Park and the Tower; and that no inappropriate sight might interfere with the rejoicings usual to a birthday fete, all those persons who were in family mourning, put it off for that day and glittered in colors more suitable for the occasion. The guards, on horse and foot, under the superintendence of the police, were distributed through all the usual stations, and maintained the most perfect order. An immense multitude of spectators were collected together in spite of the rain and cold. The court visitors were also very numerous; they began to arrive at one o'clock, and continued setting down till past three. At half past three the Prince Regent arrived with his usual suite of attendants and was followed by the

HDT

WHAT?

INDEX

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

AT EVENING FALL, IN LONESOME DALE,
HE KEPT STRANGE CONVERSE WITH THE GALE;
HELD WORLDLY POMP IN HIGH DERISION, AND WANDERED IN A WORLD OF VISION.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

usual train of life-guards. His Royal Highness was, of course, received with all the ceremonies due to the Sovereign. The Duke and Duchess of York, the Duke and Duchess of Gloucester, and the Princess Sophia of Gloucester went in State, escorted by parties of life-guards. The Duke of Sussex went in private. The Prince of Hesse-Homberg went in one of the Regent's carriages, was escorted by Life Guards, and was received with the same military honours as the Royal Family. The Speaker of the House of Commons, the Master of the Rolls and the Vice-Chancellor, went in state and were presented on their late appointments. The Austrian Ambassador, the Spanish Ambassador, accompanied by his lady, and the American Plenipotentiary with his lady, severally went in state. Mrs. Rush, the wife of the American Minister, was presented to the Queen by Lady Castlereagh. Mr. Smith and Mr. Taylor, attached to the embassy were presented by his Excellency. The Prince of Hesse-Homberg was presented to the Queen by Lord Stewart, our Ambassador to Vienna, but who is now at home on leave. There were present, the Lord Chancellor and the Regent's cabinet ministers, the Great Officers of State, the Lord Mayor and Lady Mayoress of London, Mr. Sheriff Desagne, Mr. Sheriff Alderson, the Attorney General, the Solicitor General, the Dean of Windsor, the Dean of Westminster, the Provost of Eton, the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Archbishop of York, the Lord Primate of Ireland, &c.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 26th of 2nd M / It is Moy [Monthly] Meeting at Portsmouth, taking every thing into consideration I concluded to stay at Home but I do not know that it was a right conclusion. Yet on feeling over the subject this evening do not see or find condemnation

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 1, Sunday: The 1st public performance of Franz Schubert's Overture in the Italian Style takes place in the Gasthof "zum römischen Kaiser" of Vienna. It was the 1st instrumental work by Schubert to be presented in public.

Sam Houston resigned his commission in the US Army over false accusations concerning involvement in slave trading.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 1 of 3 M / Daniel Quinby from Purchase N York state is with us & attended Meetings today - In the forenoon he preached very largely to good satisfaction in the Afternoon silent - he appears to be a bold espouser of the Gospel & his communications are attended with life & Power & I hope his labors may be blessed

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

among us – he commences families this evening

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 2, Monday: George Long of Lancashire was admitted sizar at St. John's in Cambridge.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 2 of 3 M / D Quinby is still engaged in town & it fell to my lot to give information to the families that he has visited yesterday as well as today. several times in passing about my mind was led to look back & reflect how much shorter time it now takes to visit the families in this place than it did say 60 years ago & even less time, this was the great seat of friends in New England, & in passing round I could see houses, several together, where were families of repute of weight, but now either deserted or inhabited by others, not a vestage of Ancient greatness remaining, but the bare House itself. - Well tho' that generation has passed away I trust there is yet Salt remaining, & that if the present generation walk faithfully in the paths made known to us by the influence of the holy spirit, we shall yet Know an increase in good & that we shall dignify our profession as did those of ancient days. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 5, Thursday: Franz Schubert applied for membership as an accompanist in the Gesellschaft der Musikfreunde. He would be rejected because he was not an amateur.

Mosè in Egitto, an azione tragico-sacra by Gioachino Rossini to words of Tottola after Ringhieri, was performed for the initial time, in Teatro San Carlo, Naples. It was an immediate success.

Julia Thuillier Savage Landon gave birth to an infant that would be christened Arnold Savage Landon in honor of one of the earliest speakers in the House of Commons, Sir Arnold Savage (actually, they had no idea whether this famous personage had or had not been one of their family's ancestors).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 5 of 3rd M / Our friend Daniel Quinby was at Meeting & appeared in a short but sound & powerful testimony - his opening was from Nehemiah 2 Chapt 17 verse "ye see the distress that we are in, how Jerusalem lieth waste, & the gates thereof are burned with fire: come let us build up the Walls of Jerusalem that we be no more a reproach" he very forcibly impressed the necessity of our living up to our profession & rebuilding the walls & waste places of Zion, & that we steadily persue the purpose, notwithstanding the Sanballats & Tobiahs that might arise & dispise the work as a vain thing & too much to be attempted - he labord to strengthen the feeble laborers & to warn the rebellious among us & concluded in a living powerful Prayer which reached the hearts of some present. -

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 8, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 8 of 3rd M / Our Morning meeting was remarkably full the London Epistle for last Year was read - In the Afternoon we were silent - to me they were both poor Seasons. - the fault my own - Set the evening at home & read Barclays Apology

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 12, Thursday: Overture in the Italian Style for two pianos, eight hands by Franz Schubert was performed for the initial time, in the Gasthof "zum römischen Kaiser" of Vienna.

After having spent some time in London, Percy Bysshe Shelley and Mary Godwin Wollstonecraft Shelley departed for the Continent accompanied by Claire Clairmont, three children, and two servants — Amelia (Milly) Shields and Louise (Elise) Duvillard.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 12th of 3rd M 1818 / Our meeting was small & silent & to me a very comfortable Season - a considerable many of our members were absent to attend the funeral of our friend Ruth Sherman which was at 2 OClock at the Meeting house, which I understood was a favord time Ruth Davis appeared in supplication & H Dennis & Obadiah Davis in Testimony & Obadiah was also engaged in a few words at the grave She is the last of the old Standards that used to set on the high Seat when I was a boy She died last second day evening at her house in Portsmouth Aged about 77 Years. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 19, Thursday: Royalist forces routed Chilean revolutionaries at Cancha Rayada, northeast of Talca.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 19 of 3 M / Our meeting was silent, in the last (Preparative) we had no buisness. - The subject of being appointed an Elder has of late been proposed to me, & has claimed my very serious consideration. I have endeavoured to weigh it in all its bearings, which has produced much humbling exercise, & tho' my own infermities & many discouraging prospects await me, yet I see no way to feel satisfied but to submit to the disposal of my friends. Time is short, & I sensibly feel that I am advancing fast & shall soon be on the down hill, & what I do must be done quickly

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 21, Saturday: The Middlesex County Gazette reported that a bill had been taken up again “and discussed with much earnestness,” without it having been possible to reach agreement. What this discussion had been in regard to was, the law which permitted slavemasters to “reclaim” those “slaves” who were “fugitive” from them.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd M 21st 7th day 1818 / Aunt Molly Wanton who has been about nine Years in a derainged State of Mind, has for some weeks been declining in health & come out in great sores on various parts of her body & has appear'd within a few days to be fast declining. -This morning she seems to be more feeble that I ever saw her & from present appearances will not continue but a short time.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 22, Easter Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 22nd of 3rd M / Yesterday Afternoon the minds of friends generally were affected with the news of the decease of JOSEPH BARKER of Tiverton, he died about 1 / 2 past nine OC in the morning he had not been sick long & but the day before sent for Dr Hazard but he had expired before the Doctor reached him His loss is great to the meeting & neighborhood where he lived & to his family in particular. -
Our meeting this forenoon was in good measure favord & father Rodman was concerned in a short & feeling testamony. -
In the Afternoon Hannah Dennis preached & Lydia Almy prayed & before I left it I was sensible that divine favor was extended to us. About a quarter of an hour after we were settled Abraham Thurston came & called out John Slocum, & about a quarter afterwards he came in & called me out this excited some feeling in the meeting - after we were out Abraham informed me that a Challenge had been sent from Capt Heath to Comodore Perry to fight a DUEL & that the barer of it was in town & he & some others wanted some of the society of friends to enter a complaint against the cond[?] he wished us to interfere as friends of Peace & men of influence. This streightened me very much & I told him that I would return to meeting & after it concluded consult some of my friends on the subject but he said it must be done immedeatly & if I would not go with him he would go in & call out some other man & rather than have the meeting further disturbed, I concluded to go & see what was wanting to be done & how far I could consistently act in it, on the So side of Washington Square I found a number of the inhabitants assembled with anxous countenences - we went to Thos Townsend Junr where further consultation was had & I became convinced that something ought to be promptly done to prevent if possible so desolating a stroke to the family of Com. Perry & the community in general & if the Devil could not be stoped to wipe as far as Possible the stain from the State by using all the means & all the vigor of our laws against it - still my mind was embarrassed & much*

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

exercised as to moving in it myself not seeing exactly to the end of it - John Slocum consented to sign a complaint & by this time meeting was broke & I sent for Benj Hadwen, who I took out of the room & explained to him my reasons for an unwillingness to engage in the affair, & he readily consented, being used to the law & understood it much better than myself - A court was soon convened & a warrant made out & the man in question apprehended & soon committed to Prison for further examination & messengers were also sent to Providence to Apprehend Capt Heath. & I greatly desire a stop may be put to so abhorant an affair

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 26, Thursday: The 1st savings bank to operate in New-York opened in a basement room — eventually it would erect a magnificent building at the corner of 4th Avenue and 22d Street which in the 1980s would be repurposed as a grocery store (lo how the mighty have fallen).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 26th of 3rd M 1818 / In the first Meeting (Monthly— Ruth Davis appeared in supplication —

In the last I experienced a Memorable exercise in which my mind was humbled - My name was proposed & the Meeting Appointed me to the important & responsible station of an Elder, since the subject was proposed my mind has been under the weight to submit my neck to the Yoak, great as the work is, I see no other way than to enter into it according to my capacity, & have been favor'd with a renew'd evidence that divine help is still near, & will thro' faithful obedience to the Word of life; qualify for all that is required at my hand, but Alas my frailty is such as causes trembling, lest I fall by the way - I see the necessity the great necessity of constant Watchfulness to prayer lest I yeald to temptations & bring reproach on the Truth, but may I be favor'd & know & increase in Spirituality & continue firm to the end.

Uncle R Mitchel dined with us & while we were at Meeting Aunt Stanton arrived after a Short passage from N York. her coming will be a comfort & help to Mother in Aunt Molly's present situation. [Did Aunt Molly have Alzheimer's?]

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 29, Sunday: Alexandre Sabès "Papa Bon-Cœur" Pétion, President for Life of the Republic of Haiti, died of yellow fever and was succeeded by Jean-Pierre Boyer.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 29 of 3 M / Anne Greene was concern'd in testimony in our morning meeting - in the Afternoon Silent - rather low times to me - In the forepart of the evening went up to see my Aged cousin Bathsheba Gould. I had written a will for her which she

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

executed & had a sweet visit found her very lively in spirit & tho' she has attained the eightieth Year of her Age enjoys good health - She presented me with a truly Apostolick Epistle from Saml Fothergil to friends in Tortola transcribed in her own hand writing which I shall lay by as a memento of her Set the remainder evening with my H at my Mothers in company with Aunt Stanton -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 April 2, Thursday: In the will of Elizabeth Galbraith Kelso of Pennsylvania, made on this date, we find that she gave and bequeathed to "the colored girl 'Hannah,' who served her time and now lives with me all my common wearing apparel, the small bed made of feathers and flocks with the bedding, thereto, and Fifty Dollars in cash to be paid by said executors."

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 2nd of 4th M 1818 / A rather small meeting father Rodman concerned in a few words, & to some a pretty good time -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 April 5, Sunday: South American forces under José de San Martín defeated Spanish and Loyalist troops on the Plain of Maipú, just south of Santiago, Chile within earshot of the capital. The victory ensured Chilean independence.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 5th of 4 M / Very rainy & a small meeting - father R short & lively - Obadiah Brown & his wife from Providence were down & at Meeting -
In the Afternoon Silent & the meeting small in consequence of the weather -
In the evening set agreeably at Dorcas Earls in company with O Brown & wife -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 April 9, Thursday: On Grand Isle, Vermont, a site adjacent to the Quaker burying ground was sold by Warren Corbin and Seth Griffith to Silas Macomber for $10, for the purpose of erecting a Friends meetinghouse.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th 9 of 4th M / Weather wet, our meeting was Small - Lydia Almy was concerned in Testimony also father Rodman. -
In the Afternoon met with a committee to consider the present debt of the Moy [Monthly] Meeting, & the most eligible mode of paying it. many remarks were made & the subject generally opened, but all of the committee not being present nothing was resulted. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

April 12, Sunday: In an attack on the camp of the Red Stick leader Peter McQueen, the forces of General Andrew Jackson and their allies succeeded in killing many native Americans.

"...the merciless Indian Savages, whose known rule of warfare, is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes and conditions."

— Declaration of Independence

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 12th of 4th M / Our Meeting this forenoon was quite full - D Buffum engaged in a lively testimony & Jonathon Dennis, Spoke a little in a religious way with his hat on towards the close. - In the Afternoon father Rodman was engaged in a short but lively testimony

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 16, Thursday: The Rush/Bagot treaty between the United States of America and Britain demilitarizing the Great Lakes and Lake Champlain was formally ratified by the Senate.

READ THE FULL TEXT

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 16th of 4 M / Very rainy Day & a very small meeting to me it was a season of but little life. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 18, Saturday: It was established that the US flag was to acquire a star for each state added to its Union. (This convention of course would create a curious form of symbolic confusion during the our civil war.)

Jever was ceded to Oldenburg.

Friend William Bartram made an entry in his garden diary, about his beloved nephew James: "NB. died this morning Dr. James Bartram of Kingsess, grandson of the celebrated John Bartram the Botanist & naturalist." (No other human death had ever been or would ever be recorded by William among his garden notes.)

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

7th day 18th of 4 M / This Afternoon my beloved friend Thos Anthony came down from Greenwich to attend our Meeting tomorrow we were very glad of his company & He took tea & Lodged with us. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 19, Sunday: Antonio Salieri's chorus Do re mi fa was performed for the initial time, in Vienna.

Publication of the Adagio, Variations and Rondo on "Schöne Minka" op.78 for piano by Johann Nepomuk Hummel was announced in the Wiener Zeitung.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 19th of 4th M 1818 / Our Morning meeting was large & our beloved Brother Thos Anthony was concerned in a very lively testimony & it proved a season of uncommon favor - In the Afternoon Thos was again engaged in testimony - & solemn supplication much to our edification & comfort & some of our hearts were rejoiced on his account & desires raised that he may stand firm in the Truth to the end for at present he appears to have a good gift in the ministry & exercises it with Skill & power. - I went in the evening with him to See Abigail Robinson After setting awhile with her very agreeably we returned & he again lodged with us. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 20, Monday: The US federal Congress enacted sharply increased protectionist tariffs.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 20 of 4 M / Thos Anthony returned about noon in the Greenwich Packet. I have no doubt with the precious reward of Peace. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

United States Statute: "An Act in addition to 'An act to prohibit the introduction of slaves into any port or place within the jurisdiction of the United States, from and after the first day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eight,' and to repeal certain parts of the same."

STATUTES AT LARGE, III. 450. For proceedings in Congress, see SENATE JOURNAL, 15th Congress, 1st session, pages 243, 304, 315, 333, 338, 340, 348, 377, 386, 388, 391, 403, 406; HOUSE JOURNAL, 15th Congress, 1st session, pages 450, 452, 456, 468, 479, 484, 492, 505.

INTERNATIONAL SLAVE TRADE

W.E. Burghardt Du Bois: To remedy the obvious defects of the Act of 1807 two courses were possible: one, to minimize the crime of transportation, and, by encouraging informers, to concentrate

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

efforts against the buying of smuggled slaves; the other, to make the crime of transportation so great that no slaves would be imported. The Act of 1818 tried the first method; that of 1819, the second.¹⁹⁶ The latter was obviously the more upright and logical, and the only method deserving thought even in 1807; but the Act of 1818 was the natural descendant of that series of compromises which began in the Constitutional Convention, and which, instead of postponing the settlement of critical questions to more favorable times, rather aggravated and complicated them.

The immediate cause of the Act of 1818 was the Amelia Island scandal.¹⁹⁷ Committees in both Houses reported bills, but that of the Senate finally passed. There does not appear to have been very much debate.¹⁹⁸ The sale of Africans for the benefit of the informer and of the United States was strongly urged "as the only means of executing the laws against the slave trade as experience had fully demonstrated since the origin of the prohibition."¹⁹⁹ This proposition was naturally opposed as "inconsistent with the principles of our Government, and calculated to throw as wide open the door to the importation of slaves as it was before the existing prohibition."²⁰⁰ The act, which became a law April 20, 1818,²⁰¹ was a poorly constructed compromise, which virtually acknowledged the failure of efforts to control the trade, and sought to remedy defects by pitting cupidity against cupidity, informer against thief. One-half of all forfeitures and fines were to go to the informer, and penalties for violation were changed as follows: —

For equipping a slaver, instead of a fine of $20,000, a fine of $1000 to $5000 and imprisonment from 3 to 7 years.

For transporting Negroes, instead of a fine of $5000 and forfeiture of ship and Negroes, a fine of $1000 to $5000 and imprisonment from 3 to 7 years.

For actual importation, instead of a fine of $1000 to $10,000 and imprisonment from 5 to 10 years, a fine of $1000 to $10,000, and imprisonment from 3 to 7 years.

For knowingly buying illegally imported Negroes, instead of a fine of $800 for each Negro and forfeiture, a fine of $1000 for 196. The first method, represented by the Act of 1818, was favored by the South, the Senate, and the Democrats; the second method, represented by the Act of 1819, by the North, the House, and by the as yet undeveloped but growing Whig party.

197. Committees on the slave-trade were appointed by the House in 1810 and 1813; the committee of 1813 recommended a revision of the laws, but nothing was done: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 11 Congress 3 session, page 387; 12th Congress 2d session, pages 1074, 1090. The presidential message of 1816 led to committees on the trade in both Houses. The committee of the House of Representatives reported a joint resolution on abolishing the traffic and colonizing the Negroes, also looking toward international action. This never came to a vote: SENATE JOURNAL, 14th Congress 2d session, pages 46, 179, 180; HOUSE JOURNAL, 14th Congress 2d session, pages 25, 27, 380; HOUSE DOCUMENT, 14th Congress 2d session, II. No. 77. Finally, the presidential message of 1817 (HOUSE JOURNAL, 15th Congress 1st session, page 11), announcing the issuance of orders to suppress the Amelia Island establishment, led to two other committees in both Houses. The House committee under Middleton made a report with a bill (AMERICAN STATE PAPERS, MISCELLANEOUS, II. No. 441), and the Senate committee also reported a bill.

198. The Senate debates were entirely unreported, and the report of the House debates is very meagre. For the proceedings, see SENATE JOURNAL, 15th Congress 1st session, pages 243, 304, 315, 333, 338, 340, 348, 377, 386, 388, 391, 403, 406; HOUSE JOURNAL, 15th Congress 1st session, pages 19, 20, 29, 51, 92, 131, 362, 410, 450, 452, 456, 468, 479, 484, 492, 505.

199. Simkins of South Carolina, Edwards of North Carolina, and Pindall: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 15th Congress 1st session, page 1740.

200. Hugh Nelson of Virginia: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 15th Congress 1st session, page 1740.

201. STATUTES AT LARGE, III. 450. By this act the first six sections of the Act of 1807 were repealed.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

each Negro.

The burden of proof was laid on the defendant, to the extent that he must prove that the slave in question had been imported at least five years before the prosecution. The slaves were still left to the disposal of the States.

This statute was, of course, a failure from the start,²⁰² and at the very next session Congress took steps to revise it. A bill was reported in the House, January 13, 1819, but it was not discussed till March.²⁰³ It finally passed, after "much debate."²⁰⁴ The Senate dropped its own bill, and, after striking out the provision for the death penalty, passed the bill as it came from the House.²⁰⁵ The House acquiesced, and the bill became a law, March 3, 1819,²⁰⁶ in the midst of the Missouri trouble. This act directed the President to use armed cruisers on the coasts of the United States and Africa to suppress the slave-trade; one-half the proceeds of the condemned ship were to go to the captors as bounty, provided the Africans were safely lodged with a United States marshal and the crew with the civil authorities. These provisions were seriously marred by a proviso which Butler of Louisiana, had inserted, with a "due regard for the interests of the State which he represented," viz., that a captured slaver must always be returned to the port whence she sailed.²⁰⁷ This, of course, secured decided advantages to Southern slave-traders. The most radical provision of the act was that which directed the President to "make such regulations and arrangements as he may deem expedient for the safe keeping, support, and removal beyond the limits of the United States, of all such negroes, mulattoes, or persons of colour, as may be so delivered and brought within their jurisdiction;" and to appoint an agent in Africa to receive such Negroes.²⁰⁸ Finally, an appropriation of $100,000 was made to enforce the act.²⁰⁹ This act was in some measure due to the new colonization movement; and the return of Africans recaptured was a distinct recognition of its efforts, and the real foundation of Liberia.

To render this straightforward act effective, it was necessary to add but one measure, and that was a penalty commensurate with the crime of slave stealing. This was accomplished by the Act of May 15, 1820,²¹⁰ a law which may be regarded as the last of

202. Or, more accurately speaking, every one realized, in view of the increased activity of the trade, that it would be a failure.

203. Nov. 18, 1818, the part of the presidential message referring to the slave-trade was given to a committee of the House, and this committee also took in hand the House bill of the previous session which the Senate bill had replaced: HOUSE JOURNAL, 15th Congress 2d session, pages 9-19, 42, 150, 179, 330, 334, 341, 343, 352.

204. Of which little was reported: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 15th Congress 2d session, pages 1430-31. Strother opposed, "for various reasons of expediency," the bounties for captors. Nelson of Virginia advocated the death penalty, and, aided by Pindall, had it inserted. The vote on the bill was 57 to 45.

205. The Senate had also had a committee at work on a bill which was reported Feb. 8, and finally postponed: SENATE JOURNAL, 15th Congress 2d session, pages 234, 244, 311-2, 347. The House bill was taken up March 2: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 15th Congress 2d session, page 280.

206. STATUTES AT LARGE, III. 532.

207. ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 15th Congress 2d session, page 1430. This insured the trial of slave-traders in a sympathetic slave State, and resulted in the "disappearance" of many captured Negroes.

208. STATUTES AT LARGE, III. 533.

209. The first of a long series of appropriations extending to 1869, of which a list is given on the next page. The totals are only approximately correct. Some statutes may have escaped me, and in the reports of moneys the surpluses of previous years are not always clearly distinguishable.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

the Missouri Compromise measures. The act originated from the various bills on piracy which were introduced early in the sixteenth Congress. The House bill, in spite of opposition, was amended so as to include slave-trading under piracy, and passed. The Senate agreed without a division. This law provided that direct participation in the slave-trade should be piracy, punishable with death.²¹¹

STATUTES AT LARGE

VOLUME	PAGE	DATE	AMOUNT APPROPRIATED
III.	533-4	March 3, 1819	$100,000
III.	764	March 3, 1823	50,000
IIV.	141	March 14, 1826	32,000
IIV.	208	March 2, 1827	36,710 20,000
IIV.	302	May 24, 1828	30,000
IIV.	354	March 2, 1829	16,000
IIV.	462	March 2, 1831	16,000
IIV.	615	February 20, 1833	5,000
IIV.	67	January 24, 1834	5,000
IV.	157-8	March 3, 1837	11,413 .57
IV.	501	August 4, 1842	10,543 .42
IV.	615	March 3, 1843	5,000
IIX.	96	August 10, 1846	25,000
IXI.	90	August 18, 1856	8,000
IXI.	227	March 3, 1857	8,000
IXI.	404	March 3, 1859	75,000
IXII.	21	May 26, 1860	40,000
IXII.	132	February 19, 1861	900,000
IXII.	219	March 2, 1861	900,000
IXII.	639	February 4, 1863	17,000

210. In the first session of the sixteenth Congress, two bills on piracy were introduced into the Senate, one of which passed, April 26. In the House there was a bill on piracy, and a slave-trade committee reported recommending that the slave-trade be piracy. The Senate bill and this bill were considered in Committee of the Whole, May 11, and a bill was finally passed declaring, among other things, the traffic piracy. In the Senate there was "some discussion, rather on the form than the substance of these amendments," and "they were agreed to without a division": SENATE JOURNAL, 16th Congress 1st session, pages 238, 241, 268, 287, 314, 331, 346, 350, 409, 412, 417, 420, 422, 424, 425; HOUSE JOURNAL, 16th Congress 1st session, pages 113, 280, 453, 454, 494, 518, 520, 522, 537; ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 16th Congress 1st session, pages 693-4, 2231, 2236-7, etc. The debates were not reported.

211. STATUTES AT LARGE, III. 600-1. This act was in reality a continuation of the piracy Act of 1819, and was only temporary. The provision was, however, continued by several acts, and finally made perpetual by the Act of Jan. 30, 1823: STATUTES AT LARGE, III. 510-4, 721. On March 3, 1823, it was slightly amended so as to give district courts jurisdiction.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

IXIII.	424	January 24, 1865	17,000
IXIV.	226	July 25, 1866	17,000
IXIV.	415	February 28, 1867	17,000
IXV.	58	March 30, 1868	12,500
IXV.	321	March 3, 1869	12,500

Total, 50 years	$ 2,386,666.99
Minus surpluses re-appropriated (approximate)	48,666.99?
	$ 2,338,000.00
Cost of squadron, 1843-58, @ $384,500 per year (HOUSE EXECUTIVE DOCUMENT, 31st Cong., 1st sess., IX. No. 73)	5,767,500
Returning slaves on "Wildfire" (STATUTES AT LARGE, XII. 41)	250,000
Approximate cost of squadron, 1858-66, probably not less than $500,000 per year	(?) 4,000,000
Approximate money cost of suppressing the slave-trade	(?) $ 12,355,500

Cf. Kendall's Report: SENATE DOCUMENT, 21st Congress 2d session, I. No. 1, pages 211-8; AMERICAN STATE PAPERS, NAVAL, III. No. 429 E.; also Reports of the Secretaries of the Navy from 1819 to 1860.

April 21, Tuesday: Franz Seraphicus Grillparzer's "Sappho" premiered in Vienna.

Henry Wheeler Shaw ("Josh Billings") was born.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 21st of 4 M / This forenoon took Chaise with Aunt Stanton & rode to Portsmouth to look at a small place which she has had some thoughts of Purchasing - We dined with cousin Isaac Chase - where I felt thankful my lot was cast when I arrived there I was informed of a disagreeable circumstance between one of his sons & a woman who lives in the family. - After dinner my mind was impressed with the necessity of taking a solid opportunity with him on the subject which tho' much in the cross I submitted to & laid before him the consequences of such a connection with the ability then afforded. he received my communication very kindly & if it does not tend to break it up I have the satisfaction of doing what [I] could in season, & feel the reward of peace for this little dedication in the cause of Truth & to support The testimonies of Society - We then rode to Abner Cundels saw his farm & returned home. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

April 22, Wednesday: Percy Bysshe Shelley wrote again to George Gordon, Lord Byron, urging in the strongest possible moral terms that he involve himself again with the mother, Claire Clairmont, of his illegitimate daughter. Taking Allegra away from her mother was simply wrong, wicked, evil. Byron remained entirely unmoved: he wanted his daughter but would have nothing further to do with its mother. She'd been an OK fuck, and that was about it.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 22nd of 4 M 1818 / This morning Aunt Stanton sailed for N York – Yesterday we had the news of the sudden departure from time of our cousin Dorcas Gardiner & this morning soon after Aunt Stanton left us - Word was brought over from Narragansett that Peleg Gardiner father of Dorcas Died twelve hours after her -this is an afflicting stroke to the family, to have two corpses laying in one house at one time is no common circumstance. & from the near friendship which existed between My mother & cousin Peleg I see nothing but that I must go over to Narragansett to the funeral, tho' much against my interest, being behind hand in my buisness already On mature consideration this Afternoon of Aunt Molly Wantons situation &c I concluded not to go to Narragansett

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 23, Thursday: James Anthony Froude was born at Dartington in Devon, the last of 8 children of Archdeacon R.H. Froude.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 23rd of 4 M / At Meeting Abigail Sherman delivered a short testimony – also Father Rodman. – to me it was a Dull time. – we had a considerable buisness in the preparative Meeting which held till 1 / 2 past One OClock – Aunt Mary Wanton today is exceedingly feeble & it would not be surprising Should she depart this life in a very short time.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

On the obverse of this carte de visite of James Anthony Froude is penned the remark "Emerson said he had the happy facility of seeing wholes and seeing particulars."

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

April 24, Friday: The vessel Caroline departed from Philadelphia under master James Serrill for New Orleans, transporting a slave cargo of 2 women, 3 boys, a girl and a female infant:

Milly	Female	45 years	5'2"	Crogham, owner — Louisiana
Rhodea	Female	32 years	5'3"	Washington Jackson, owner — Philadelphia
Humphrey	Male	14 years	5'2"	Crogham, owner — Louisiana
Dillie	Female	12 years	4'6"
William	Boy	5 years
James	Boy	4 years
Lucy	Female	1 year

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*6th day 24th of 4th M / Aunt M Wanton remains much as Yesterday
- a poor suffering mortal both in body & mind. - & how long she will remain is uncertain tho' from all human probability it cannot be long ere the Scene of life must close*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 26, Sunday: Major General Andrew Jackson issued a written general order at his headquarters in Fort St. Marks, Florida directing “a special court martial, to meet at 12 o’clock, A.M., for the purpose of investigating charges exhibited against A. Arbuthnot, R.C. Ambrister, and such others, who are similarly situated, as may be brought before it.” (This order is of special interest in our current national situation under the Homeland Defense Act, because the Obama Administration has been arguing that whether or not General Jackson’s actions were hasty, poorly considered, immoral, and/or indecent, nevertheless they do constitute one of the valid legal precedents for the Bush Administration’s still-open prison at Guantánamo and for our current actions against persons whom the current administration chooses to characterize as “extremists,” and as such may be fairly offered in argument in court. Nevertheless, the Pentagon’s top lawyer, Jeh Johnson, has sent to the Seminole Tribe of Florida what amounts to an apology for having likened al Qaida as of 2012 to their tribe as of 1818!)

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 26th 4 M 1818 / The forenoon meeting was silent in the Afternoon Lydia Almy & Abigail Sherman was concerned in short testimonys. - to me they were remarkably dull meetings. --After tea took a walk with father Rodman to see Isaac Mitchell & wife & spent a little time very pleasantly with them -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

April 27, Monday: Irish and British mercenaries in two ships supporting Chilean independence defeated two Spanish warships that had been blocking the harbor of Valparaiso.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 27 of 4 M / Aunt Mary Wanton is very low today, it seems as if a period is fast approaching to her sufferings, & tho' her life for a long time past has neither been comfortable to herself or friends, yet we who remember her in better days, can but feel the cords of affection nearly & closely touched at the prospect of a separation. - I set with her for some time towards night & endeavoured to center my mind in the quiet & was favor'd with the precious evidence of divine favor, which I believe was felt by her, for several times she spoke affectionately, & put our her hand which on my taking it She Squeezed it several times. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 30, Thursday: Chauncey R. Watson secured US Patent #203,226 for an improvement in the doors of grain cars (it would later be determined by the US Supreme Court that this patent should not have been issued, and was null and void, because although Watson's improvement may well have been novel and may well have proven useful, it had not arisen from "the exercise of the inventive faculty" — you can get off the train now, Chauncey).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 30th of 4 M / Finding Aunt M Wanton to lay about as she has done for several days past - Took Sister Ruth in a Chaise (my H being quite unwell) & went to Portsmouth to attend the Moy [Monthly] Meeting - the forepart of the first meeting was to me a season of favor & I thought of general solemnity - H Dennis & A Sherman offered short testimonys - In the last we had considerable buisness. - which succeeded considering all things as well as could be expected - Ebenezer Metcalf & Phebe Almy published their intentions of marriage - We dined at Richard Mitchells - then rode home found Aunt M Wanton much as we left her surprising instance of suffering humanity -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 4, Monday: For purposes of suppression of the international slave trade, the Netherlands granted to the warships of Great Britain permission to board and inspect its commercial shipping on the high seas, and of course vice versa (BRITISH AND FOREIGN STATE PAPERS, 1817-18, pages 125-43).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

2nd day 4rd of 5th M 1818 / My dear Aunt MARY WANTON quietly drew he last breath this fornoon at 30 minutes past 11 OClock, she was evidently changeing for some hours & about two hours before she left us was very desirous to be got in her easy chair which was done & she seemed easier & drew her breath shorter &

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

shorter till she died & left us without any struggle which we esteem a favor, she appeared to know all around her till she sunk below observation. – For nine years or there about she has suffered mental derangement & for about three Months her bodily health has been sinking. – She has many times within a few weeks expressed her willingness to depart & been favor'd with reason at intervals.

May 5, Tuesday: Karl Heinrich Marx was born in Trier, Prussia, to Heinrich Marx, a lawyer descended from a line of Sephardic Jewish rabbis. The family would convert to Protestantism. Karl would be given a classical education, and would study jurisprudence at Bonn and later in Berlin — where, however, his preoccupation with philosophy would, according to Friedrich Engels, lure him away from the law.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 5th of 5 M / This morning friends have set out for Greenwich Quartlerly Meeting - as some of them went from hour [sic] down to the Packet I felt the Prayer sensibly to rise in my spirit "Go with them that Go – Stay with them that stay" AUNT MARY WANTON was interd this Afternoon in the Clifton burying ground, the funeral was large & respectably attended, she was in the 68th Year of her Age. Was thro' life a woman much esteemed & loved by her acquaintances, but the state of her nerveas system has been such for 9 years past as to have rendered her incapable of enjoying & being enjoyed by company – Mother will miss her much who has had the chief care of her during her confinement.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 6, Wednesday: This was the day on which the chickens came home to roost. Mordecai Manuel Noah, a Jewish American who had never pretended to be anything other than a Jewish American, had been appointed by our federal government as its consul to the Kingdom of Tunis (you can read about how he rescued American citizens kept as slaves by Moroccan masters in his TRAVELS IN ENGLAND, FRANCE, SPAIN AND THE BARBARY STATES IN THE YEARS 1813-14 AND 15, printed in New-York in 1819). When local Moslems found out that they were being asked to deal respectfully with an American consul who was nothing but a contemptible Jew, there had been outrage and protests whereupon our federal government had obligingly recalled this consul. We were so sorry that we had so unsuspectingly transgressed against their sense of decency! On this day Mr. Noah wrote to President James Madison, in effect inquiring as to how it could be legitimate for his government to have damaged his reputation by firing him, not on the basis of anything he had said or done as consul but merely on account of his objectionable religion or ethnicity. (Hooh! — Do I never want to get a letter like that!)

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 6th of 5th M 1818 / This is Election Day & as usual much noise & stir about the streets, but what added to the difficulty & depressed of my mind very much was an Alarm of Fire at 11 OClock which proved to be the chimney of J Cook Hotel & caught the roof – a black man in endeavoring to extinguish the fire fell from the roof & hurt himself exceedingly I saw the poor

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

fellow in his agony which was not a little trying to my feelings Notwithstanding all I went on board the Packet at about half after 4 OC PM & sailed to Greenwich before dark, in company with several other friends – I stoped at J Caseys & took a dish of tea then went to cousin Wanton Caseys & Lodged –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 7, Thursday: Jan Antonín (Leopold) Kozeluch died in Vienna at the age of 70.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day this morning after breakfast called at J Caseys & saw several friends – then at the Public House where were Wm Rotch Jr, Saml Rodman, O Brown, Thos Arnold, & Moses Brown. I found myself in a very interesting circle, they were engaged in recounting the exercises they had passed thro' in supporting the various testimonys of Society, particularly their labors together when on a committee from the Y Meeting Some years ago to Congress on behalf of the oppressed Africans – Then called at James Greens & took a dish of tea before meeting – At Meeting
Jas Green appeard in lively testimony then Micajah Collins, then Thos Anthony & then Wm Almy – The last meeting was memorable to me, being before it under consideration as an Elder – James Greens remarks on the subject will long be remembered. – After meeting which was a season of favor – Our company got dinner & went on board the Packet & so prosperous was the gale that at we got home before it was quite dark which made me at about 28 hours from home.*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

HDTWHAT?INDEXFRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULDSTEPHEN WANTON GOULDGO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

May 10: Paul Revere died at the age of 83.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 10th of 5th M 1818 / Our Morning Meeting was large & Silent, & remarkably unsettled in consequence of many not being informd that it began at 10 OC, one hour earlier than usual & so to continue thro' the summer. in the Afternoon it was larger than usual for the Afternoon Meeting – Father Rodman was engaged in a short testimonny as was Lydia Almy. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

HDTWHAT?INDEX

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

May 11, Monday: During a 12-day march from Fort Gadsden on the lower Apalachicola River to the Escambia River, the army of Major General Andrew Jackson crossed the Natural Bridge over the Chipola River, in what has by now become the Florida Caverns State Park.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 11th of 5 M / My mind is brought into a state of feeling this evening which is a precious evidence of divine favor. - I expect thro' the remainder of my life many Baptisms & hope I may be found worthy of them, & that they may wash away all that is impure, but Alas be fore that can be effected how deep the dippins in Jordon & how hot the furnace must be made I know not, but have no doubt if I can abide under them & become faithful to the Manifestation of truth that they will work out my Salvation & Secure my peace here & hereafter -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 14, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 14th of 5th M / Silent Meeting & to me a dull time, was much unwell & set the meeting in some pain in my back the effects

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

of a cold taken by standing on the damp ground

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 17, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 17 of 5 M / Our Meetings were Small, but to my mind seasons of some life. – the day was very rainy – Sister Ruth staid with us last night & spent this day. – my mother is quite unwell. & I have for a number of days been very poorly myself with a pain in my back. which the usual medicines dont seem fully to relieve

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 21, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 21st of 5th M 1818 / My mother remains poorly, but I think a little better – My Back is also better, but still some pain My H is quite unwell but keep about her ancle that was burt is yet very weak & her oppression at the chest continues tho' we have done several things to help it – so we are subject to infirmities, & tho' we have yet to only what may be called about middleage, yet it will soon be over with us as to this world, & if we are prepared it is of but little consequence to us how soon. – Silent meeting & no buisness in the last (Preparative). –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

May 25, Monday: Ralph Waldo Emerson's 15th birthday.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 25th of 5 M / L Almy & father Rodman concerned in short testimonys in the forenoon – Silent in the Afternoon My H was at meeting & took tea at her fathers it is the first time she has been out since she sprained her Ankle. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 28, Thursday: The Tariff Reform Act abolished internal duties in Prussia and created uniform tariffs throughout the kingdom.

In Concord, Deacon White's house took fire, but the fire was extinguished.²¹²

*Provision Against Fire. – The Fire Society was organized May 5, 1794, and holds its annual meetings on the 2d Monday in January.
The Presidents have been, Jonathan Fay, Esq., Dr. Joseph Hunt*

212. Although we know that during this year the Concord Fire Society obtained a new fire engine to replace or supplement the one it had had since 1794, we do not know whether that new engine was in place prior to this fire and contributed to its extinguishment, or whether, on the other hand, the fires of this year prompted the purchase of the new equipment.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Tilly Merrick, Esq., Dr. Isaac Hurd, Deacon Francis Jarvis, Hon. Samuel Hoar, and Joseph Barrett, Esq. The Engine Company was formed, and the first engine procured, in 1794. A new engine was obtained in 1818.

A Volunteer Engine Company was organized in 1827, who procured by subscription a new engine in 1831.²¹³

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 28th 5 M / Our Moy [Monthly] Meeting this day held in Town - the first meeting was silent & solid & to me a pretty good time -in the last we progressed in buisness (I thought) rather better than common -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Thomas Jefferson wrote to Rabbi Mordecai M. Noah in regard to religious tolerance:

Your sect, by its sufferings, has furnished a remarkable proof of the universal spirit of religious intolerance inherent in every sect, disclaimed by all while feeble, and practiced by all when in power. Our laws have applied the only antidote to the vice, protecting our religious as they do our civil rights, by putting all men on an equal footing.

SEPARATION OF CHURCH AND STATE

May 29, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 29th of 5 M / We have this day pretty much finished cleaning house & are on that account ready for Yearly Meeting - There is talk that the Yearly Meeting will be removed some place further eastward. The committeee to consider of the subject will report this Year - I, with many others would miss it greatly, but such is the care & great responsibility that is attatched to it, that when I am anticipating of it, my mind is ready to sink under the weight of it, & am nearly willing to Surrender all the advantage & let others take the burden. I believe that what ever may be the result, my mind may be resigned to it. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 31, Sunday: John Albion Andrew was born in Windham, Maine. He would practice law in Boston until the antislavery movement would draw him into politics.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 31st of 5 M 1818 / Our Meetings were rather small the

213. Lemuel Shattuck's 1835 A HISTORY OF THE TOWN OF CONCORD;.... Boston MA: Russell, Odiorne, and Company; Concord MA: John Stacy, 1835

(On or about November 11, 1837 Henry Thoreau would indicate a familiarity with the contents of at least pages 2-3 and 6-9 of this historical study. On July 16, 1859 he would correct a date mistake buried in the body of the text.)

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

weather being rainy - In the forenoon silent & in the Afternoon father Rodman was engaged in a short testimony - rather dull seasons to me tho' at times in the course of the Day favord with Sensibility. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

→ June: The New England Yearly Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends at Portsmouth was informed by its Meeting for Sufferings committee that the construction of Yearly Meeting School was so far completed that the building in Providence, Rhode Island might be made us of during the following winter. The hiring of staff was authorized. Friends Stephen Wanton Gould and Lydia Gould of Newport would be serving as Assistant Superintendents.

→ June 1, Monday: In the House of Commons in London, a Motion for Parliamentary Reform (which is to say, universal suffrage and annual parliaments) went down in defeat.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 1st of 6th M 1818 / My mind has been much under the pressure of sympathy with Elisfull Jernagan a woman of my acquaintance who has this forenoon had a Cancer cut from her Breast weighing about 10 ounces. We must all have something to afflict us in this life, & if it does not come in one way, it commonly does in another - & perhaps it is all right & necessary, to wean our affections from things in this world & fix them on more substantial bliss in that which is to come. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

→ June 3, Wednesday: The execution in occupied Florida of the British subjects Alexander Arbuthnot and Robert Ambrister was beginning to cause a reaction against the exploits of this out-of-control general Andrew Jackson both in London and in Washington DC, a reaction which would need to be managed very careful by Jackson's privy supporter, Secretary of State John Quincy Adams — until finally Britain blinked and Foreign Secretary Castlereigh was persuaded to save face by declaring that by their actions or something, these two royal subjects had somehow chosen to place themselves “outside of the royal protection.” In other words, “Face facts guys, you're already dead and nobody's going to try to prove anything by going to war over a couple of cold cadavers.”)

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 3rd of 6th M / This Afternoon was called on by Jonathon Biegelow a student at Andover Seminary, he wished to be informd of the Number of members that belong to this Moy [Monthly] Meeting as he was travelling for the purpose of Assertaining the number of professors of religion in New England - from minutes which I had by me I could pretty readily give him the Number in this Preparative Meeting which I made about 222 - while looking over the Members my feelings were forceably struck with the necessity I was under of including some in the number who were

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

barely professors, & from appearance (at least) were very small possessors of those requisites which constitute the real christian. I made this remark to him, & observed that there were many who stood within the pale of no Church, that were much nigher the Kingdom than some who did.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 4, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 4th 6th M 1818 / Silent meeting excepting a disturbance from V Flagg a black woman who undertook to preach

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 5, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 5th of 6 M / Isaac Mitchell was this Morning taken extremely ill of the bilious cholic - In the Afternoon they sent for me to come & set with him I found him in great distress & I left him so this evening tho' with some prospect of being better from the operation of the Medicine- While sitting with him I could but reflect, what [poor creatures we are & how liable we are to be taken suddenly from this to another state of existence & how necessary for us to be in a state of preparation

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 7, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 7th of 6th M / This morning took boat & with Lydia Almy crossed to Connanicut & attended the Meeting there a company of about 30 assembled & there were some solid countenanced young women among the number, but the prospect is low & was it not for the few solid people that are not members who attends I should not think there was sufficient encouragement to keep up the meeting - Lydia was concerned in a short testimony to satisfaction We dined at Joseph Greenes & came across the ferry in good season to attend our Afternoon Meeting which was silent After which Attended the funeral of the Widow Stoddard Aged 93 & 3 days, she the mother of Walter Nichols's Wife.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 8, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 8th of 6 M / This forenoon Br Isaac returned from N York & Brought accounts of the welfare of our relations & friends

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

there. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 10, Wednesday: The newly rebuilt opera house in Pesaro was opened with a performance of La gazza ladra by Gioachino Rossini in his birthplace.

Construction began on the Champlain Canal, to the Erie Canal near Cohoes, New York with Lake Champlain.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 10th of 6 M / Saw in the Boston Papers this evening, the notice of the Death of "Wm Brown of Salem an estimable member & minister of the Society of Friends aged 30" he was an acquaintance of mine & a hopeful man, he has gone, he has passed into the Valley of the Shadow of death in scarcely the meridian [of] life - may this be to all a solemn Warning to be prepared to meet the final change - I feel it so to me & hope the impressons may be lasting -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 11, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 11th of 6th M 1818 / Our meeting was rather small as it generally is the fifth day previous to the Yearly Meeting - there was a short testimony in the forepart of the Meeting & was on the Whole a solid season - In the Last (Preparative) the extracts of the last Yearly Meeting Minutes was read & were truly edifying, & tho' they have been nearly twelve Months in getting down to the lesser meetings, have lost none of the excellent savor under which they were penned. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 12, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 12th of 6 M / Several friends have arrived to attend the Yearly Meeting who I hope will add weight by their presence. - My feelings have been quite on the low key today & if I do not feel better tomorrow Dont know that it will be best for me to go to Portsmouth tomorrow. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 13, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 13th of 6 M / This morning took our Aged & very intersting friend John Casey in a chaise & went to Portsmouth

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

to attend our SELECT YEARLY Meeting which is the first I was ever at - It was remarkably solid & to me an instructing season We dined at Saml Thurstons - In the Afternoon I went back to the Meeting house & carried J Casey to the meeting for sufferings & then rode down to Benj. Freeborns to see his daughter Ruth who has been long confined with consumptive symptoms (at least) here I saw & had an opportunity of conversing with our friend John Heald & his companion Thos Wickersham of Ohio who accepted an invitation to lodge with us, we rode home thro' the west road & stoped & took a dish of tea with Hannah Gould - Our lodgers were Luke & Sarah Aldrich & Hannah Holder -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 14, Sunday: The first loaded boat passed through the newly completed locks of the Seneca and Cayuga Canal at Seneca Falls, New York (paying a toll of 50 cents).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 14th of 6 M 1818 / Our Morning meeting was not quite as large as usual owing to the Rain. Daniel Howland was concerned in a solemnizing testimony followed by James Greene in a corresponding sound & pertinent communication - Then Jerard T Hopkins in a most benevolent & charratable testimony embracing among all the religious denominations of the true Church & thro' him the standard of truth was exalted. I have seldom been in a meeting to more general satisfaction The people were quiet & solid in their deportment-

In the Afternoon the Meeting was very large - Elizabeth Coggeshall was concerned in testimony - Then Jerard T Hopkins much favord & truth again reigned among us which kept the multitude much more quiet than usual in the Afternoon of the Yearly Meeting -

In addition to our former lodgers we had Olive Cobb daughter of Edwd. - a number took tea with us.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 15, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day Our meeting was opened this Morning at the usual hour under a solemn covering, after short testimonies from D Howland H Post & J T Hopkins After accounts were read from the different quarters one of them containing the dismissal of Stephen Buffington from the Select Meeting, he rose & made considerable disturbance, but friends succeeded in quieting the poor man & the meeting resumed the general course of buisness & solemnity was restored. The epistles from the different Y Meetings were read & some of them were peculiarly interesting -The committee appointed last Year to consider the subject of removing the Yearly Meeting reported that they considered it inexpedient at this time -. Thos Anthony & several others bore short testimonies & to me it was a precious season for which I desire to be thankful -

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

At 4 OC this Afternoon the meeting again met It appeard that an individual who had appealed from the judgement of the Moy [Monthly] & Quarterly Meeting had taken his seat in meeting this occasioned some difficulty but was soon got over & the meeting went into the state of society which in the general was found to be as well as usual - but it apprear'd that some who had served as soldiers in the late revolutionary War & since that time joined our Society, had entered their names as applicants for the pension lately granted to revolutionary Soldiers - they live in the eastern Quarters far down & the advice of the Yearly Meeting was requested. This occasioned considerable debate & resulted in the Appointment of a committee to deliberate on the Sunject.-

We had a pretty large company at tea & in the evening a family sitting in which Daniel Howland was largely engaged in testimony & a few words by Edw Cobb. - In addition to our lodgers we had John Heald & his Companion Thos Wickersham. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 17, Wednesday: Charles François Gounod was born in Paris, 2d and final child born to François-Louis Gounod, official artist to the Duc de Berry and drawing master to the pages of the King's Chamber, with Victoire Lemachois, daughter of a lawyer.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal about the proceedings of the New England Yearly Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends at Portsmouth:

4th day - The Meeting begun at 10 OClock - Various concerns came before us - that which excited the most interest was a communication brought in by a committee appointed Yesterday, to the different quarterly meetings respecting the applications of several friends in low circumstances to the general government for pentions for their services in the revolutionary War - a general Unity was expressed discouraging all such applications & advising to the contrary, & encouraging all meetings where such applicants may reside to extend to them a liberal hand of help. - Henry Post at the opening of the meeting appeared in fervant supplication. -

The Meeting met this evening at 4 OC - the first buisness entered on was Jeremiah Austins Appeal which was confirmed -After expressing a few words, - which were reply'd to in a most feeling & pertinent manner by Moses Brown - he retired from the meeting having the heart felt sorrow of many friends - -Epistles were prepared to the usual meetings with which we correspond & most of them were attended with a good savor of life & also a communication was prepared to the different Monthly & Quarterly Meetings, written with much animation so that some of us said in our hearts "the best wine has come last" - The Meeting concluded under a solemn covering - & I have no doubt many may

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

say with emphasis "It is good for me to be here"

June 18, Thursday: Carl Maria von Weber and his wife moved into a cottage in the village of Hosterwitz, upstream from Dresden. He was worried about was deteriorating health.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day - This morning most of our Company left us after breakfast with whom we have been associated in a family way thro' the course of this Yearly Meeting - my friends have never felt nearer to me than at this time, & an increase of love I think must be a good sign & if follow'd by an increase of obedience to the divine law in the heart may terminate in redemption from evil, which at seasons (at least) is my hearts desire. - Our meeting this day was large quiet & much favor'd J T Hopkins John Heald, Lydia Dean, Mary Allen & Avis Keene were engaged in testimony & E Coggeshal in supplication. - In the Afternoon Our friend John Heald & his Companion Thos Wickersham left us for Portsmouth it was unpleasant to find on going for Thomas's horse that he had been Kicked so as to render him quite useless & we were obliged to furnish him with another which will occasion him another journey back in a few days. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 21, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 21st of 6th M 1818 / Our morning meeting was large & silent - at the close of it information was given that Jerrard T Hopkins expected to be at meeting this Afternoon & general information was requested to be given & the meeting was defer'd to 5 O'clock. - in the forenoon he was at the meeting in Portsmouth

In the Afternoon we had a very large meeting of different persuasions in religion & Jerrard was much favord in Gospel communication, much to the satisfaction of friends & others. - I rejoice that Truth has borne the victory, not only thro' the Sittings of the Yearly Meeting but in the several public meetings since, so that no loss has been sustained that I am aware of, & on my own part I desire to be thankful in a belief that to me it has been a season of enlargement of experience in the truth, which perhaps may never be forgotten. - the circumstances of my being initiated into the Select Meeting is humbling, & for a day or two so much so that I have almost trembled under the weight of the responsibility of the Station of Elder. Oh! how much care caution & circumspect conduct is necessary to dignify the appointment, & above all a deeply religious life.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 June 22, Monday: Sarah Anna Chace (Sarah Chace Greene) was born in Providence, Rhode Island to William Chace and Lydia Bowen Drowne Chace.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 22nd of 6 M / This mornng J T Hopkins & companion, accompanied by J D Williams took the Packet & went to Providence My H spent the Afternoon at her fathers & I took tea with them - This evening Thos Wickersham returned for his horse & found him much better. he lodge with us.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 June 23, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 23rd of 6 M / This morning Thos Wickersham rose before any of us was up, took his horse & went on his way to join his companion J Heald at Smithfield -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 June 24, Wednesday: DISCOURSE DELIVERED AT STOUGHTON, BEFORE THE RISING STAR LODGE, AT THE FESTIVAL OF ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST, JUNE 24, A.D. 1818. BY THADDEUS MASON HARRIS, D.D., PAST GRAND CHAPLAIN TO THE GRAND LODGE OF MASSACHUSETTS (Boston: Printed by John Eliot).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 24 of 6 M / James Spencer Gould son of my cousin Job Gould called at my Shop to see me this forenoon - My H set the Afternoon at George Engs - I took tea & set the evening with them. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 June 25, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 25th of 6th M 1818 / I am going this morning to Portsmouth to attend the Moy [Monthly] Meeting with my H & John - The prospect of spending a day from home looks very discouraging, so soon after Yearly Meeting when my concerns demand my attention in my shop, but I have looked at it & see no way to omit it at this time. We stoped a little while before meeting at Uncle Thurstons. - At meeting A Sherman & H Dennis appeard in testimony but to me it was a dull time & in the last the little buisness that came before us was not conducted quite as well as common. - The serpent was evidently at Work in one individul at least, who as usual when opportunity offers manifests a malignity against a few who are coming forward in society & indeed there are but a few who he esteems among the Active part of the Moy [Monthly] Meeting - it is afflicting to see & feel such a disposition among us, but there are many & indeed almost all see to the bottom of

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

him

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 June 26, Friday: Sarah Wesley reported that after almost a year in the lunatic asylum of Blacklands House her brother Samuel Wesley had been thought well enough to have been released.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 26th of 6th M / We have had the company of John Earl & Wife. Geo Engs & wife Phebe Carpenter - B Hadwen & Sister Ruth to take tea with us. - This was a pleasant social circle & to be number'd among our many privileges. - how often is the chain of love & friendship strengthened & brightened by these circles that are made among those who consider them Selves in high life

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 June 28, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 28 of 6 M / Silent meeting in the morning - A few words in the Afternoon & thro' the day a very barran time to me —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 June 29, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 29th of 6th M 1818 / This day has been exceedingly Warm & particularly this Afternoon I have suffered much with the heat—

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 June 30, Tuesday: Le petit chaperon rouge, an opéra comique by Adrien Boieldieu to words of Théaulon de Lambert after Perrault, was performed for the initial time, at the Théâtre Feydeau, Paris.

George Anson Byron III, son of Captain George Anson Byron and Elizabeth Mary Chandos-Pole, was born. (This infant would grow up to become the 8th Baron Byron.)

GEORGE GORDON, LORD BYRON

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 30 of 6 M / Rose early this morning (as I have done several running) & went over to the Point & took a sea bathing, which was very refreshing.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 July 2, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

5th day 2nd of 7 M 1818 / Our meeting was rather small, but I thought a good degree of solemnity was witnessed. father Rodman was concerned in a short testimony.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Our national birthday, the 4th of July, Saturday: Nathaniel Hawthorne's, or Hathorne's, 14th birthday.

In Paris, the 4th was celebrated by a banquet at the Restaurant Bancelin for guests of honor including the former Senator James Brown of Louisiana, the American Minister to Paris, and General Lafayette.

In Washington DC, for $5 one might purchase a facsimile of the Declaration of Independence that had been created for the occasion by the printer Benjamin O. Tyler.

At the shipyard of Flannigan and Beachem in Fell's Point of Baltimore, the steamship United States was launched.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal about the patriotic celebration:

CELEBRATING OUR B-DAY

7th day 4th of 7 M / This as usual has been a day of noise, but no accident has occurred that I have heard of. -

July 5, Sunday: John Thoreau, Jr.'s 4th birthday.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 5th of 7 M / Our Meeting this forenoon was to me a season of dullness as to life, tho' I tryed to rouse my mind to feelings that I desired yet was unable Father Rodman was concerned in a short but lively testimony - In the Afternoon father had a short lively testimony - but to me it was an almost lifeless time - After tea took John & walked round the Hill & went into the Clifton burying ground - This repository of the dead has many times afforded me very serious reflections. - as I believe I have before inserted many of my relations are there inter'd, & also many who in their day were conspicuous in our society as members zealous & active for the promotion of Truth & righteousness on the earth, their spirits I trust are now in Heaven where I hope many who are now endeavouring to promote the same good cause, will join them, when their services here are at an end. -

My dear H has not been able to go to meeting, her ancle is very lame & she has suffered much with it, but I am in hopes, if she

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

can cease to use it for a short time it will be better, but while she keeps using it as much as she does there is but little amendment to be expected. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 9, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5 day 9th of 7th M 1818 / I rose by 4 OC this morning took a pleasant Walk to the North Battery & took a Sea bathing, last evening a Brig belonging to Bristol came in & this morning I saw her with all her Canvass Spread to a small but fair breeze & favoring tide making her way home. The sight was animating to my feelings. I love commerce & hope she will again rise in this pleasant town. —

Our Meeting was rather small, & I believe not a season of much life. it was silent. —

(We can trust that Friend Stephen knew a hawk from a handsaw and that therefore this “Brig belonging to Bristol” that Friend Stephen was having warm feelings toward could not have been one of the DeWolf family’s Bristol-based negreros bound for the proslavery Bristol US Customs Office because in that shed it was still being ignored and evaded that engaging in the international slave trade had been transformed years before, by the US Congress, into a capitol felony.)

NEGREROS

SLAVERY

July 12, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 12 of 7 M / In our Morning Meeting Mary Morton was engaged in a sweet & lively testimony -- In the Afternoon she was again concerned in a few words & also father Rodman noth lively communications. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

July 13, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 13 of 7 M / Attended the funeral of Susanna Fowler [Towles?] a woman who requested to be buried in a plain way after the manner of friends & it is remarkable that there were three other funerals in the street at the same time Vizt a daughter of Mumford Peckham & Henry Gradiners wife - & all three in the common burying ground at one time. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 15, Wednesday: In England, Abraham Thornton had been tried and found not guilty of having raped and murdered Mary Ashford, and released. On this date he was reconfined due to his having been challenged to an "Appeal of Murder," that is to say, Trial by Combat, by Mary Ashford's heir-at-law, her 10-year-old brother Henry Stout, acting through his mother. Thornton was used to working with his hands in the building trades and while not large would surely have been able to overpower Mary's kid brother. The defendant's lawyers could be fairly confident that the boy would not actually attempt to fight. When Thornton was asked to plead, he said that he was not guilty and was prepared to defend it with his body, he then pulled off some woollen gauntlets made for the occasion and threw them down in the approved fashion.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 15 of 7 M / This Afternoon in the Boston Stage arrived Saml Wood & his daughter Anne of New York. They are on their way home from a long journey of buisness & pleasure, which they have extended as far as Quebeck - Saml is a friend we love & are always glad to see him -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 18, Saturday: Heil dir, Sappho!, for chorus, winds and percussion by Carl Maria von Weber was performed for the initial time, as part of Sappho, a play by Grillparzer, in the Dresden Hoftheater.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 18th of 7 M 1818 / Attended the Monthly meeting for ministers & Elders which was the first I have set in of that kind & will be memorable - my mind was on a low key & the queries suggested the necessity of living near to the truth, & much nearer than I fear I shall be able to attain. All I can say or look forward to is to endeavor to live as near the Truth as I can, but alass how frail I am. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 19, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 19th of 7 M / Being Rainy both meetings were small & both were silent - in the morning it was rather poor in the Afternoon my mind was sweetly favor'd with divine life for which

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

I desire to be thankful

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 23, Thursday: The individual who had been disinterring bodies from a local graveyard of Ipswich for anatomical purposes having been fined a large sum of money, the Reverend Crowell preached, at the request of his parishioners, a sermon from JOHN 20:13.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 23d of 7 M / Our Meeting this day was an excellent one to me soon after I took my seat I felt a sweetness to arise that was precious for which I desire to be thankful. – Lydia ALmy father Rodman & Hannah Dennis were engaged in short testimonys This Afternoon Aunt Stanton arrived from New York. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 25, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 25 of 7 M Aunt Stanton & Br Isaac went this Afternoon to Narragansett to see Mother who has been there some weeks. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 26, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 26th of 7 M / Our forenoon meeting was well attended, a verry [sic] considerable number as usual that were present were not members, whose countenances were pleasant & I have no doubt were Strengthening to those who had the weight of the meeting upon them – Jonathon Dennis & his wife & father Rodman were concerned in public testimony & to me it was a very good time, for which my thankfulness was renew'd to HIM who was the Author of that & every favor –
The Meeting was Silent in the Afternoon & to me good one –Sister Mary spent the Afternoon with us. – Attended the funeral of a man by the name of J Rivers who died at Thos Townsends – a stranger from the Southward –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 30, Thursday: Emily Jane Brontë was born in Thorton, Yorkshire, England.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 30th of 7th M 1818 / Our first meeting was silent excepting a short offering from Anna Dennis which was her first public appearance & was only the text "My people shall be a willing people in the day of my Power saith the Lord" this seemed

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

to me like a sweet little sacrifice, & I believe it will not be too much for me to say that a Prayer arose in my heart that she might dwell in the littleness in the sympathy, & be preserved within her depth. –

Our last being Monthly Meeting – was to me a precious Meeting & as far as I apprehended it my place to take a part in the concerns of Society which came before us – feel satisfied with my offerings (as well perhaps) as at any Moy [Monthly] Meeting that I now recollect – & the savor which remains is very pleasant. – My Aunt Martha Stanton sent in to the Meeting a request to be reinstated to her right of membership, she was disowned by minute more than twenty two years ago for marrying out of the order of society & is now concerned to be restored to the fellowship of the body & to me as well as some others it is a very consoling circumstance that she is like to die a member of the society of which she was a member. – her Ancestors on fathers & mothers side from the first settlement of society in New England were of the Quaker faith & for that same faith she has ever felt a love & in good measure lived in & I hope will now close her life in with increasing brightness.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 1, Saturday: Maria Mitchell was born, the third child of Friend William Mitchell and Friend Lydia Mitchell, a Quaker family that would produce a total of ten children.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 1st of 8th M 1818 / Rose this morning early, went over to the Point & at Dyres shore took a sea Bathing, this with the walk, has been very serviceable this Very Warm Summer. – A walk in the morning is pleasant, being cool, the air sweet & as few are moving retirement may be enjoyed to reflect on pleasant Scenes around – when I got to the Mansion of our late friend Thos Robinsons I found carpenters at work building a new fence around the garden & John Morton looking on it was very agreeable to see any improvement in the looks of our town which I think has been Smarted up a little this Summer

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 2, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 2nd of 8th M 1818 / Our Morning Meeting was a favor'd one our friend Mary Morton was engaged in a living testimony which accorded with the engagement of my mind before any thing was expressed – Then Hannah Dennis was engaged to address the Youth inviting them to the godly resolution of Joshua "Let others do as they may as for me & my house we will serve the Lord". –

In the Afternoon Father Rodman & Anne Greene were concerned in

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

testimony - both meetings were large & to my feelings were owned by the extending of divine goodness

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 3, Monday: Natur und Liebe, a cantata for mixed voices and piano by Carl Maria von Weber to words of Kind, was performed for the initial time, in Dresden, for the nameday of the King of Saxony.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 3 of 8 M / We had the very pleasant Company of Avis C Howland, Abby Lee & Sister Mary to set the Afternoon & evening with us

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 4, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 4th of 8 M / This forenoon was called on my PRINCE SANDERS a man of colour originally from Boston, but now engaged in the Dominions of Christophe on the Islands of Hayti as superintendent or President of the National Schools, he appears to be a man of consequence with the King of Hayti, & is to preach before the Africans of this Town at Hitchcocks Meeting this evening - I was glad to have an opportunity of an acquaintance with him, he appears to be a very sensible & intelligent man, modest afable, - my mind was interested on his account & concerned to express some things which impressed it on a religious account was glad to find he received it kindly -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 5, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*4th day 5 of 8th M / Rose this morning at half past 3 OClock & with Father Rodman took the Boston Stage & rote [rode] to Portsmouth stoped at Uncle Saml Thurstons & took breakfast then walked to Asa Shermans & rested & then to the Meeting House &
Attended the Select Meeting - Anne Thorn was engaged reverently & fervantly to Supplicate the Throne of Grace for our help & support returning thanks for our many favors &c Remarks were made by D Buffum & several others weighty & pertinent to our condition - After meeting We dined at Asa Shermans - As friends were gathering to the Meeting for Sufferings I went to the meeting House & borrowed D Buffums chase & rode down to Benjamin Freeborns & spent a little time - then returned to the Meeting House & walked to Uncle P Lawtons & took tea then to Cousin Elizabeth Chases & lodged here I found Rowland Greenss wife which was the first time I ever saw her, in the evening Jos Harris & Rowland Greene joined us which made a very agreeable*

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

circle

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 6, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day This morning cousin Shadrack sent his son Jacob with me in a chaise to the Head of the Mill lane & from thence I walked to Asa Shermans & from there to the Meeting House - James Greene was the first in public appearance & then Anne Thorn in a most lively pertinent fluent & well connected testimony, - followed by Henry Post & Mary Allen - it was a season of favor to a very larger Audience. - In the last - the buisness was conducted with propriety & solemnity & closed a little before 3 OClock - After meeting found my Dear H had come out with Lewis L Clarke - he got into another vacant chaise with father Rodman - & I took her in the one they rode out in, & went to Anne Anthonys & dined. Isaac P Hazard in company - After tea we rode Home & found my Mother Aunt STanton & Aunt Patty Gould spending the Afternoon with Aunt Nancy Carpenter. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 7, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*6th day 7th of 8th M 1818 / Engaged this forenoon - The Arbitrators in The case of Avis Knowles set & George Hazard. I was obliged to be with them, which was exercising to my mind particularly as I have been two days out of my buisness, but saw no other way than to submit
The Arbitrators decided the case & both parties agreed to abide the Award which is no small release to my mind.
In the Afternoon Wm Almy & several others called to see me, which took up much of my time - The concerns of other people & of Society at times are very incumbering to me - Oh that I may be what I ought to be Oh that I may experience Holy help, for I greatly need it. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 8, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 8th of 8 M / On some accounts this has been a day of close exercise of mind - Tho' friends in this day are exempt from many trials which the first founders of our society were exposed to yet there are many things which occur that if abode under will tend to humble the creature & drive it to the center from whence all right qualification is derived - I am desirous to dwell under every refining dispensation & thale[take] all which is intended to drive out the old man with his deeds may have its perfect Work - The new appointment of Elder already

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

involves me in some concerns which are not a little trying & renews the conviction that my qualifications for usefulness in it are yet small & will probably remain so – I am convinced that Elders must not only be golden Snuffers, but the Same divine light must illuminate them as stand in the golden candlesticks & must shine bright both to the World in general & before those who they are placed as the more immediate care takers

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 9, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 9th of 8 th M 1818 / Our meetings were well attended & favord seasons - In the morning Father Rodman was first engaged in testimony, then Mary Morton & then Hannah Dennis – In the Afternoon A short testimony from father R. – My Mother & Aunt Stanton took tea & set the evening with us. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 10, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*2nd day 10th of 8th M / The weather continues warm & considerably dry, but there is a prospect of abundant harvest particularly of Indian Corn, for which Gratitude is due to the Great Giver of every good thing
It is a season of exercise to me, a number of things before me which require Sight to determine with prudence. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

August 13, Thursday: Mrs. Stone gave birth to an infant. When the mother learned that her baby was female, she exclaimed "Oh dear! I am sorry it is a girl. A woman's life is so hard!" Refer to [Lucy Stone.]

Lucy Stone

FEMINISM

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 13th of 8th M / Our Meeting was rather small & to me a Season of much dullness. - a few words were delivered by Father R. - -

This Afternoon The committee consisting of Hannah Dennis & Mary Williams David Buffum & Jonathon Dennis met at our House & took an opportunity with Aunt Stanton in consequence of her request to be reinstated to membership & I believe it was a solid time. - Hannah & Jonathon Staid & took tea with us. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 14, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 14 of 8th M / Aunt Martha & Mary Gould spent the Afternoon with us, every time Aunt Mary comes I think may be the last. I was glad to see them & believe I should be thankful if it was in my power to administer to their necessities much more than I do. - Aunt Martha is now aged being turned 80 Years, & will doubtless soon be taken to rest having performed well her part thro' life, of duties social & religious, & was to me an affectionate caretaker when I was a child of the age & size of John, which calls forth my gratitude & love -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 16, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 16th of 8 M 1818 / Our Meeting this morning was quite large. Father Rodman was concerned in a short testimony & Mary

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Morton was large & much favor'd, her public appearances this summer has been much more frequent than usual & I greatly desire may tend to stir up the minds of many, particularly the youth for whom she seems to be much engaged – Our frined Wm Almy of Providence attended the Afternoon Meeting & a general invitation given to the inhabitants of the town in consequence of which it was held at 5 OClock – the meeting was large & Wm engaged largely in Doctrinal testimony, & to pretty good Staisfaction – Truth & the power of Truth did not rise as I have known it in many meetings, but I have no doubt some good was done. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 18, Tuesday: Incidental music for Klinger's play Die Zwillinge, by Carl Maria von Weber was performed for the initial time, in the Dresden Hoftheater.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 18 of 8 M / I have this morning had a little renewal of some old conflicts which I had so abundantly to pass thro' in my Youth, & which I had thought would never be renew'd in the same way – I desire to be faithful in the attendance of meetings & devote as much of my mind to the concerns of society as seen consistently – I well know that in days that are past in so doing peace has been the reward of such devotedness, & have been enabled to hold on my way thro' many bitter conflicts which are know[n] to but very few but myself & to none fully but myself – I desire ever to extend all the encouragement to others that I can to come up with Friends in a concern for the prosperity of Truth. I hope the Youth will take a deep interest in Society & that all their movements may be to help forward & support that precious cause which our Ancestors suffered much for.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 19, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 19th of 8th M 1818 / This Afternoon took Chaise & with Aunt Stanton Rode out the Green End Rode to Portsmouth, viewed several places which she has some idea of purchasing & stoped at Isaac Chases – after resting a little while rode on & went to visit our old cousin Elizabeth Chase & took tea then returned home, while at cousin Chases my mind was forceably struck with the loss of cousin Alice in particular, whom I loved much & recollected some very plreasnt times that I have spent with her but "the places which have known us shall know us no more" & soon this will be the case with us all & Oh that we may be prepared for the final change –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 August 22, Saturday: Warren Hastings died in Daylesford, Worcestershire.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 22d of 8th M 1818 / Mother & Aunt Stanton dined with us & in the Afternoon we all went to father Rodmans & took tea & set the evening -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 August 23, Sunday: The Walk-in-the-Water became the first steamboat to ply the waters of the Great Lakes per a regular schedule, by departing on this day from Black Rock near Buffalo, New York in the direction of Dunkirk, and then by continuing on to Cleveland, Ohio and Detroit, Michigan. (This boat would be lost in a storm in 1821.)

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 23rd of 8th M / Our Meeting this Morning was Silent large & I thought a solid opportunity. - In the afternoon it was again well attended Father Rodman & Mary Morton was engaged in short but sweet testimonies - Elliphal Jernagan was at Meeting being the first time she has been out since she had a Cancer extracted from her breast the 1st of 6th M last. I thought M Mortons testimony must have been peculiarly comfortable to her. - After tea took a walk round the hill with John & went into the Clifton burying ground.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 August 24, Monday: In St. Louis, the Quapaw tribe ceded all but 1,500,000 acres in southeastern Arkansas to the US federal government. Peace in our time.

Refreshing soda water was for sale to the denizens of New-York: "The Patentee, encouraged by the success of the patent Liquid Magnesia in Philadelphia and els where [sic], respectively informs the inhabitants of New York and vicinity, that he has formed an establishment for its sale at No. 235 Broadway, within two doors of Park Place, where he also manufactures Soda Water of a superior quality."

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 24 of 8 M / Br David & Joanna Br John & Rebecca with Mary Lawton & her Sister Eliza Collins set the Afternoon & took tea with us - a very pleasant visit Thus we are passing along thro' time, enjoying a little of the sweets of Social society, & occasionally partaking of the bitter portions allotted - & it will be soon all over, & we numbered with all those who have gone before us, & if we can leave as sweet a favor behind us as some have done, there will be a well grounded hope that it will be well with us beyond the grave -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 August 27, Thursday: The day after arriving in Venice, Percy Bysshe Shelley visited George Gordon, Lord Byron and sent off a letter summoning Mary Godwin Wollstonecraft Shelley and the children (with Milly and a new servant named Paolo Foggi).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 27th of 8th M / Rode with my H & John to Portsmouth to attended the Moy [Monthly] Meeting - went out by the way of Green End & took the lower rode & came out by Elams & Isaac Chases - This is a part of the Island which Hannah had never before seen, we stoped at Uncle S Thurstons.

At meeting (which was silent) my mind was favord with quiet - In the last we had an exercising case some pleasant ones, & on the whole a pretty good meeting - we dined at Uncle Thurstons & took tea at Uncle Richd Mitchells. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 August 30, Sunday: A "Wild Man of the Woods" was reported near Ellisburgh, New York, close to the Canadian border — he was described as covered in hair and as bending forward while running, and the footprints he left had a narrow heel with spreading toes. The sighting would be reported in the Exeter Watchman. An extensive search turned up nothing.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 30th of 8th M 1818 / Our Morning meeting was large & solid. D Buffum delivered a short lively testimony In the Afternoon again well attended, & silent & to me a more lively time than in the morning - After tea took a walk with John down to Jos Williams. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 1, Tuesday: Samples were taken from the ocean floor, for the 1st time ever at a depth of 1,000 fathoms, in Baffin Bay by English explorer Sir John Ross aboard HMS Isabella.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 1st of 9th M 1818 / We have need of fasting & prayer, & I trust that I understand what I say, feeling the necessity of it for myself. Oh! that I may deepen in religion for there is indeed need of it. -

This Afternoon attended the funeral of Wm Freeborns child which was interd in the Medow field - Mary Morton was engaged in a very lively & impressive testimony, & my heart rejoiced to hear her speak to the people -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 2, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

4th day 2nd of 9th M / My beloved Aunt Martha Stanton sailed this Morning for New York, her visit to us at this time has been peculiarly pleasant. She evinced a solidity & reverence of deportment, which shews a religious frame of mind in which I rejoice, & greatly desire her enlargement in the truth, & hope that her being restored to membership in society will have a tendency to further her in the good work— her health is but poor & if this should be the last time she should ever visit Newport or the last time I should ever see her it will not be unexpected to either of us

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 3, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 3rd of 9th M / Our meeting was nearly silent, a few words by father R. — To me it was not the worst of times, tho' I could not feel life to arise as I do sometimes. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 4, Friday: Moses Barnard Prichard was born, son of Moses Prichard and Jane Tompson Hallet Prichard of Concord.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 4th of 9th M / Took tea this Afternoon with Aunt A Carpenter with Br John Rodman & wife — Called this evening to see Aunt Martha Gould found she had gone up to uncle Benjamins to see Cousin Thomas's wife who is here from Albany with a sick child. before I came away she returned & tho' fatigued was much more than common, pleased with her visit to her Aged Brother & cousins, being about 12 Months since she was there before. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 6, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 6th of 9th M 1818 / Our Morning Meeting was large, Daniel Howland & Greenwich was there & lively in testimony & Mary Morton was also sweetly engaged in testimony & I thought truth was exalted among us — In the Afternoon D Howland was again very lively in testimony & the meeting a good one — After tea went up to Henry Goulds to see Dorcas Gould wife of Cousin Thomas Gould of Albany who appears to be a solid woman.—

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

September 7, Monday: On this day and the following one there was a great music festival in Hamburg in which Handel's Messiah and Mozart's Requiem were performed. The participating choruses were prepared by Louise Reichardt.

In Concord, John Potter of Concord got married with Sybil Gay Flagg of Littleton.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2d day 7th of 9th M / The mind under some exercise, & desires prevalent that I may experience more of the quickening power of Truth to operate & renew unto good works but alas how poor I am How weak I am!

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 10, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 10th of 9 M / This Morning Geo. & Stephen Anthony set out on a journey into the western States. - My desires are for their welfare being young men of good deportment Our Meeting was rather small, but pretty good time - father R was concerned in a short testimony

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 13, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 13th of 9th M / We very unexpectedly found Anne Thorn & her companion at meeting this forenoon & Anne was engaged in a short but very sweet & lively testimony on the subject of silent waiting. - In the afternoon Anne was again concerned in testimony which was both animating and strengthening to the faith of some present, in that it furnished a renewed evidence of Holy help vouchsafed both in individuals & the Church - I have experienced the like many times before & I feel willing now to insert that her exercise corresponded with my own, as the very states subjects which she spoke to were presented to my mind in the silent part of the meeting.

My mother & cousin Hannah Gardiner has set the eveing with us. cousin Gardiner has within a few Months experienced much affliction & appears to be improving under the dispensation & I desire she may not stop short but progress in the knowledge of the Truth till the work of Righteousness is fulfilled in her heart.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 14, Monday: Carlos Fernando Martínez de Irujo y Tacón, marqués de Casa-Irujo, duque de Sotomayor replaced José García de León y Pizarro as First Secretary of State of Spain.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

2d day 14th of 9th M 1818 / Anne Thorn has been engaged today in visiting those of our society & some who were not in membership with us who are aged & confined & sick. this is a work I rejoice in, from a belief that much good may be done & that she is an instrument well quallified for the service. She with her companions Phebe Howes & Matthew Comstock, & father Rodman who has been with them thro' the day, took tea with us. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

September 15, Tuesday: Elijah Hinsdale Burritt copyrighted his LOGARITHMICK ARITHMETICK CONTAINING A NEW AND CORRECT TABLE OF LOGARITHMS OF THE NATURAL NUMBERS FROM 1 TO 10,000, EXTENDED TO SEVEN PLACES BESIDES THE INDEX; AND SO CONTRIVED, THAT THE LOGARITHM MAY BE EASILY FOUND TO ANY NUMBER BETWEEN 1 AND 10,000,000. ALSO, AN EASY METHOD OF CONSTRUCTING A TABLE OF LOGARITHMS, TOGETHER WITH THEIR NUMEROUS AND IMPORTANT USES IN THE MORE DIFFICULT PARTS OF ARITHMETICK. TO WHICH ARE ADDED A NUMBER OF ASTROLOGICAL TABLES, BY WHICH THE DIFFERENT PHASES OF THE MOON, — THE TIMES OF HER OPPOSITION AND CONJUNCTION, MAY BE COMPUTED WITH THE GREATEST EASE AND EXACTNESS: AND AN EASY METHOD OF CALCULATING SOLAR AND LUNAR ECLIPSES; ILLUSTRATED WITH GEOMETRICAL PROJECTIONS: DESIGNED FOR THE INSTRUCTION OF YOUTH IN THE SCHOOLS AND ACADEMIES OF NEW ENGLAND, BY ELIJAH HINSDALE BURRITT (Williamsburgh: Printed by Ephraim Whitman, 1818). The author of this LOGARITHMICK ARITHMETICK was a 24-year-old college student and its preface was dated “Williams College, October, 1818.” The table of logarithms takes up merely 44 of the book’s 252 pages — its initial half amounts to a textbook on arithmetic and the final almost half is made up of a treatise on astronomy, with many astronomical tables.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3d day 15 of 9 M / A Thorn has been again engaged today in visiting some families in the forenoon Job Sherman was with her & this Afternoon I took his place we went first to John Rodmans, next to Perry Weavers [?], then to Aunt Martha Goulds, then to Abigail Barkers, then at Comstocks to see his deaf & dumb son but was dissappointed as he was not at home. then to Thos Townsends where we had (as well as at all the other places) a favor'd time. Anne made full proof of her ministry, & this little opportunity has been a fresh evidence to my mind of the love & goodness of our heavenly father, in that he still visits & revisits the hearts of his children by his holy Spirit & qualifies instruments with the same authority that he did the Apostles to preach the everlasting gospel - This little visit of hers has been perculiarly pleasant as she has seen a number who are dilligent attenders of our meetings, but not members, & of tender visited minds. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 16, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 16th of 9th M 1818 / Anne Thorn attends Portsmouth meeting today.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 17, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 17th of 9 M / Our Meeting this day was indeed as an heavenly place the silent part of it was favor'd with a precious covering, under which Anne Thorn rose & deliverd a very copious testimony & reached the states & conditions of many present - to the afflicted, her testimony was like oil whom she was engaged to address particularly In the course of her exercise I could but acknowledge afresh in my heart that there is no "God like our God" he quallifies poor dust & ashes to proclaim his Word with the same Power with which he cloathed the Apostles & is still condescending in his adorable goodness to raise up those who are willing to stand on his holy Mount to receive his command, to the people & sanctifies their labors, his witness in many minds was reached this day, & may the bread cast on the Waters soon return. - It was a season of refreshment to me, for which I desire to be thankful. She dined at D Buffums & expects to go to Tiverton tonight from thence to Providence on her way home.-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

September 18, Friday: The Austrian Landrechte refused Johanna van Beethoven's request to remove her son Karl from the guardianship of her brother-in-law Ludwig van Beethoven.

The Theatre Royal in Edinburgh made itself the initial theater in Great Britain to be lit by gas.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 18 of 9 M / Last evening about 1 / 2 past nine OClock cousin Elizabeth Anthony died at the House of cousin Mary Gould in Middletown aged 91 Years & about 5 months. her Mother was sister to my Grandfather Gould, & she was much noticed by my father as a relation & always visited in the family from my earliest recollection.-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 19, Saturday: The gray house on Virginia Road was sold at public auction.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 19 of 9 M / Cousin E Anthony was buried this Afternoon in the Gould burying ground in Middletown, but it was so rainy that I could not attend, which was my intention, & which I should have been glad to have done.-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 20, Sunday: Two works by Carl Maria von Weber were performed for the initial time, in celebration of the 50th anniversary of the accession of King Friedrich August of Saxony, in Dresden: Jubel-Cantate to words of Kind, and Jubel-Ouverture.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 20th of 9th M 1818 / Our meeting this forenoon was pretty well attended & a solid favord season Hannah Dennis first appeard in supplication, then father Rodman in testimmony, then Lydia Almy & then Hannah Dennis - near the close of the meeting father emphatically repeated this Scripture "Great is the Lord & greatly to be feared for his wonderful works to the children of men"
In the Afternoon Father Rodman again in testimony Also David Buffum was very lively - After meeting attended the funeral of Capt James Phillips in the neck & in the evening set a little while at father Rodmans. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 21, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2d day 21st of 9th M / We had quite a family visit Cousin Dorcas Gould & her son Benjamin from Albany Cousin Henry & wife -

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

My Mother & sister Sally, & after tea Martha David & Susan Ann came in which with ourselves made twelve Goulds all in the room at once - this circumstance may never hapen exactly so again

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 22, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3d day 22nd of 9th M / Took tea with my H Br David & Sister Joanna at Jonathon Dennis's -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 23, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 23 of 9 M / Our Cousins Anne & Mary Greene are over from Connanicut to attend the Moy [Monthly] Meeting tomorrow They Set the Afternoon with us very pleasantly -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 24, Thursday: Clara Shelley, a little more than a year old, died.

MARY GODWIN WOLLSTONECRAFT SHELLEY

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 24th of 9th M / Our first meeting was rather a low time to me but Hannah Dennis & Anne Greene were favor'd in lively testimonys
In the last, life, (I believe) was rather as a low ebb with most present, but the few concerns that came before us were pretty well conducted - Asa Sherman & Adam Anthony dined with us. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 26, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 26th of 9th M 1818 / Yesterday & today I have been very unwell with a cold in my whole system, & unfits me for almost any thing -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 27, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 27 of 9th M / Last night I took a heavy sweat which has cleared my head a little but my throat is more sore & I dont know but I have as much fever as Yesterday - My H & John went

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

to meeting this forenoon & say Mary Morton preached twice & Anna Dennis once said a few words – John only went in the Afternoon & said Grandfather preached – I am a little better this evening, but poorly still –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 28, Monday: Le premier venu, ou Six lieus de chemin, an opéra comique by Ferdinand Hérold to words of Vial and de Planard, was performed for the initial time, in the Théâtre Feydeau, Paris.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*2d day 28th of 9 M / Throat still sore & fever hangs on, but I think I am some better than yesterday. –
Sister mary set the Afternoon with us. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 30, Wednesday: Tired of having to fight for the money he believed was his due, and the attacks on his honor, Johann Nepomuk Hummel wrote to King Wilhelm I of Württemberg asking to be released from his contract (the monarch would refuse).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 30th of 9 M / Yesterday tho' some better, far from well, & today under the operation of Jalap & Calomel which I hope will clear my system of fever & sore throat

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 1, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 1st of 10th M 1818 / I feel better this morning, but am not quite smart enough to sit in meeting & attend a committee which meets at the breaking up of it to investigate the pecuniary concerns of society. – While meeting was sitting had a very interesting call from Thomas Paull a man of colour from Boston, a preacher among the Baptists & also an intimate friend of our late friend & brother Paul Cuffee, he appears to be a religious man & desirous of doing good to all mankind & in particular to the people of his colour. – After dinner went up to set a little while with the committee at the meeting house. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 2, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

10th M 2nd 1818 / I have been this morning humbled under a sense of my own nothingness & short comings, & a of the goodness of God still extended to me, aspirations has been raised for the blessing of preservation to the Father of Mercies. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

October 3, Saturday: The Austrian Landrechte refused Johanna van Beethoven's petition that her son Karl, presently being instructed by a private tutor in the home of Ludwig van Beethoven, be placed in a public school.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 3rd of 10 M 1818 / My Health is better but I do not feel quite well & strong. I desire, & trust I do, feel thankful, that I have been no worse.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 4, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 4th of 10 M / I feel a degree of depression on my mind this morning, which in measure arises from my health which is not very smart. —
In the forenoon Meeting we were Silent — In the Afternoon I thought the meeting was remarkably well attended & M Morton much favor'd in testimony*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 5, Monday: Nancy Hanks Lincoln (Abraham Lincoln's mother) died of a "milk sickness."

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 5th of 10 M / This Afternoon about One OClock set out for Providence to carry sister Ruth to attend the Meeting of the Yearly Meeting school committee, & by riding in the evening a little while we reached Moses Brown's in time to spend a good peace with him before bed time. —

October 6, Tuesday: Rufus Wyman, superintendent of the Charlestown branch of Massachusetts General Hospital (later to be renamed as the McLean Asylum for the Insane), admitted as his 1st patient a person who was possessed by a devil — or so this young man's father was alleging. This early facility for people with mental illness would establish one of the 1st American laboratories of experimental psychology and would support an active research program.²¹⁴

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day Morning after breakfast we went into Providence, stoped at O Browns from whence Ruth went to the meeting House & I took a walk about the town. I dined at O Browns spent the evening & lodged, in the evening in addition to the very interesting conversation of Moses I had the gratification of seeing many of

214. Street, W.R. A CHRONOLOGY OF NOTEWORTHY EVENTS IN AMERICAN PSYCHOLOGY. Washington DC: American Psychological Association, 1994

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

his curiosities both Ancient & modern, particularly some old Manuscripts & some old printed books published by friends, some of which I had not seen or heard of. –

October 7, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day Morning returned to Providence. the committee met at 9 OClock & set till 2 OC PM - during which time I went to Almy & Browns store & wrote a letter to Sarah Aldrich of Mendon - dined at O Browns, after which went with sister Ruth to the School House & went into every part of it & believe it to be a very commondious House, built with great durability & will probably stand good when the present generation shall be no More we arrived at Moses Browns about 5 OC which was too late to think of coming home, so we staid & passed another night under the hospitable roof of this venerable & very interesting old man now turned of 80 Years of age. he still brought forth from his treasury things new & old, & shewed me an original epistle in the hand writing of our Ancient friend George Fox, which I read pretty currently, & from what I had heard of his handwriting was quite surprised to find it so intelligible. –

October 8, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day Morning after taking breakfast at the house of our above mentioned friend, we rode home & the day being pleasant it was a pleasant ride of about 6 hours. – found my H & John well with all our friends – This has been a very pleasant visit & rendered doubly so, from the opportunity I have had of visiting my firend Moses Brown, whose company it is probably I shall see but a few times more for if my life should be prolonged it is likely his will not to much greater length. –

October 10, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7 day 10th of 10th M 1818 / This morning was called to a melancholy Scene at The house of Aaron Dyre, whose son James departed this life a few minutes before I got into the house, he had been ill of a fever a few days & was suddenly & unexpectedly to the family, Snached from them at the age of about 19 Years, the poor family were in great affliction. – I immediately called assistance & before I returned several came in, which precluded the necessity of my staying, so I returned home being fatigued with a walk into the Neck after T Hornsby who was at the house of the late Jas Phillips. – The deceased was a very steady & promising young man & to all human appearance

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

is a loss to the community

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 11, Sunday: Heinrich August Marschner's Overture über ungarische Nationalweisen was performed for the initial time, in Stuhlweissenburg. It was composed for the opening of a new theater and, on hearing the national themes, the Hungarian audience was wildly enthusiastic.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 11th of 10th M 1818 / John Wilbour from Hopkinton attended our meetings & in the forenoon deliver'd a weighty & very acceptable testimony – In the Afternoon father Rodman was short, but I thought very sweet in communication – After meeting attended the funeral of James Dyre, he was a young man much beloved & there was as many people followed him to the grave as I almost ever saw at any funeral the procession reached from the Granary beyond Liberty tree. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 15, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 15 of 10M / Our meeting was attended by most of our members, & was to me a season of but little life Father Rodman was concerned in a short testimony on the necessity of Watchfulness. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 17, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 17th of 10th M / Attended Select Meeting, to me it was a season of some favor, for which I desire to be thankful, every season wherein we can feel the arisings of divine life & in degree to spread over the mind is to be Prised, it being an evidence that we are not forsaken. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 18, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 18th of 10th M / In our morning meeting, Mary Morton was first engaged in a very sweet lively & encouraging testimony to such as were heavy & their hands hanging down with fear & at a second standing, gave a solemn & affecting warning to those who were rejecting the invitations they were receiving from the Most High. – Father Rodman followed her second appearance in a few words, according with her last communication. – In the Afternoon we Sat in silence. – after which, with Br & D R visited the Work

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

& Arms House – Cousin Henry Gould Set the eveing with us –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 20, Tuesday: Great Britain and the United States of America signed a convention according to which American fishermen were to be allowed use of the submerged seamounts off the coast of Newfoundland, rich in fish. The 49th parallel of latitude was accepted as the boundary between the two nations from Lake of the Woods all the way to the divide in the continental watershed at the crest of the Rocky Mountain chain (the Oregon Territory was not included). Astoria, which had been renamed Fort George when the British had purchased it for their North West Company from Astor in 1813, fell again under US control. Ownership of the Oregon territories was left unresolved.

READ THE FULL TEXT

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3d 20th of 10th M / Wrote a letter to Uncle Stanton. – John has been quite unwell for Several days with a cold & fever, but I think him better this Afternoon –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 21, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 21 of 10 M / I have been much engaged in very disagreeable buisness, nothing short of trying to settle a difference between a man & his wife - A critical undertaking, & has only resulted in a hope that some good has been done, which time will only manifest. – it is a truly sorrowful case disgraceful to the individuals & to society, & deeply afflicting to their family & connections – May it be a solemn Warning to all men & their wives, to suffer no difference to arise between them, but to check in the very buddings all strife for mastery or preeminence, to avoid all pointed & counter expressions, & labor to cultivate harmony & love as most comfortable to themselves, here & here after & be the best & most Salutory example to their children.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 October 22, Thursday: Helen Louisa Thoreau's 6th birthday.

On his 7th birthday, Franz Liszt accompanied his father Adam Liszt on a business trip to visit a merchant named Ruben Hirschler in Lackenbach. Adam asked Hirschler's daughter to play something for Franz on her new piano. Franz was so overcome by the music that he began to cry and flew into his father's arms. Hirschler was so taken by the scene that he gave the piano to the boy.

Commander David Buchan brought the Dorothea and the Trent back to port in England, having been prevented by ice off Spitsbergen from getting very far at all toward their intended eventual destination of the Bering Strait. The only success of this expedition was the setting of a new northern latitude record, of 82° 34' N.

THE FROZEN NORTH

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day [sic] 22d of 10th M / Our Meetings was rather small, was silent and to me a season of but little life, tho' no small activity of mind. — In the last which was preparative Osborn Mowry published his intentions of marriage with Eliza Ann Southwick, daughter of Amasa Southwick Set part of the evening with Abigail Robinson & Mary Morton Where I went to wait on Sister Ruth home D & M Williams was also there.
—*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 October 24, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 24 of 10th M 1818 / This morning about sunrise Daniel D Tompkins the Vice President of the United States arrived in Town

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 October 25, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 25th of 10 M / Our meeting was large this morning & favored with the extended wing of Ancient goodness — Mary Morton was engaged in an humble reverend intercession to the Throne of Grace, that the Almighty would be pleased to visit the hearts of the children of disobedience, support the Elders & aged of this place & enable them, to bear the standard with faithfulness & finally go down to the grave in peace, that he would visit the youth in this place & draw them to the true fold & raise from among them judges as at the first & counsellors as at the beginning, to follow the foot steps of our Worthy & honorable predecessors. —this supplication was very reaching to many present & I hope may be answered particularly with respect to the Youth. —
In the Afternoon we were favored with a short but lively testimony from D Buffum —*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 October 27, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 27 of 10th M / Set most of this evening at the Mansion of our Late friend Thos Robinson with Sister Eliza - Abigail was very feeble, but conversant & dear Mary Morton very sweet in spirit & converse. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 October 29, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 29th of 10th M / I feel no small regret at not going this morning to Portsmouth to attend the Monthly Meeting, but there are certain reasons well known to myself that prevent perhaps they ought not to exist, but as they do, I must act according to present circumstances. - There will be several cases before the meeting in which I should like to have a voice, from the present exercise of my mind, but best wisdom will doubtless be near those assembled & it is doubtful whether my presence would add much or any weight

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 November 1, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 1st of 11th M 1818 / Our meetings were both Silent & to me very dull seasons, as I believe thy were to most present. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

HDTWHAT?INDEXSTEPHEN WANTON GOULD*FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULDGO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

November 3, Tuesday: The Exchange Coffee House, which had been considered when it was constructed in downtown Boston in 1808  to be the world's largest possessing 210 rooms (at seven stories the tallest building in the USA), the 1st hotel in the nation and at a construction cost of $600,000 the world's most expensive (modeled upon Lloyd's Coffee House of London), burned at night, making a light that was wondered at as far away as Amherst and Saco.²¹⁵

COFFEE

In Concord, Thomas H. Davis of Concord got married with Maria Barns of Marlboro.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 3 11th M / Spent this evening with my H at Abigail Robinsons & were not a little disappointed that Mary Morton had gone out to D Buffums to spend the Afternoon & evening. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 5, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

215. Sic transit cafe mundi.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

5th day 5 of 11 M / My mind is much with those who have gone to attend the Quarterly Meeting this day held at Swansea. The day is very fine as it has been several days past & favorable for travelling. I can acknowledge with thankfulness that the Prayer of my spirit has been this morning that the same precious influence Also attend those who stay. I have been much on the barren mountains for several days past so that I could but just look over & see the good land without being permitted to enter in, to enjoy the sweets which it affords, but I rejoice this morning under a fresh evidence of that holy help is near & may I dwell in that state of mind which will preserve to the end. – Our meeting at home was silent & rather small, but a pretty favord season to me

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 8, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day [sic] 8 of 11th M / Our morning meeting pretty well attended [to] me a season of poverty, but Mary Morton was sweetly engaged in testimony – In the Afternoon we sat in the little meeting house for the first time M Morton again very sweet in testimony also Father Rodman & H Dennis. Called this evening to see Hannah Hull who is confined with a sore foot. – we sat in the chamber where Govn John Wanton used to entertain his company at election time & the [same] place in which he met the overseers after he signed the commissions which involved him & society in so much affliction Ah many has been the time, that my spirit has mourned on account of that affair, tho' it happened not far from 84 Years ago

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 9, Monday: Ivan Turgenev was born.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 9 of 11th M 1818 / This morning Mary Morton & John Early & Wife sailed for N York. – They have a high wind & not very fare. Mary we part with reluctantly as She has been very usefully among us this summer. – John has also spent sometime very agreeably in town & has evinced a concern for the truth in which we desire his growth & should be glad if he could find some buisness here that would enable him to settle again in this his native town, as there might be expected a considerable religious usefulness from him. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

November 10, Tuesday: John Thoreau, Senior rented the Spaulding store in Chelmsford MA. It was customary in those heavy-drinking times for a storekeeper to pour a glass for a favored customer, so he solicited his former pastor, the Reverend Ezra Ripley, for the letter of recommendation which he needed in order to be able to provide this hard liquor. On the blank back of a piece of pious meditation, the Reverend would write out the following “to whom it may concern” variety of commendation letter:

Understanding that Mr. John Thoreau, now of Chelmsford, is going into business at that place, and is about to apply for license to retail ardent spirits, I hereby certify that I have been long acquainted with him, that he has sustained a good character, and now view him as a man of integrity, accustomed to storekeeping, and of correct morals.

THOREAU RESIDENCES

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 10th of 11th M / There were two funerals in the Neighbourhood this Afternoon, Capt Engs Wife & Benj Watsons wife, the former of a Dropsy the latter of a Consumption. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

➡ November 12, Thursday: Johann Nepomuk Hummel informed the Stuttgart management that he considered himself absolved from his contract. The court responded that he was dismissed.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 12th of 11 M / Our meeting was silent & rather small but I thought attended the chief of our members in ability to get abroad. – Cousin Mary Gould set the Afternoon & evening with us. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ November 15, Sunday: Simeon Marshall of Gloucester, 22 years of age, drowned at sea.

John Thoreau, Senior's Chelmsford MA grocery store opened its doors for business. The plan was that while Cynthia Dunbar Thoreau waited counter, John would be painting signs on commission.

THOREAU RESIDENCES

John in later years

Cynthia in later years

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 15 of 11th M / Our Morning Meeting was silent & to me a season of but little life. – In the Afternoon soon after taking my seat was favor'd with a quickening of life which continued in a good degree thro' the meeting. father Rodman was concerned in a short lively testimony

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ November 19, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 19th of 11th M / Ruth Davis & Mary Caid attended our Meeting today – Ruth was close & searching in testimony & they intend to spent a little time in this Moy [Monthly] Meeting visiting a few familys. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ November 22, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 22nd of 11th M / Our friend John Comly from Pennsylvania

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

attended our meeting - he is indeed a well quallified instrument in the hand of the great Master. his testimony this morning was a wonderfully convincing one, clear in Argument & Powerful in Words.— In the Afternoon his communication was chiefly to Parents & children & I hope his labors may be blessed among us. — In the evening I met him at father Rodmans & in walking down had stoped at our house, & took a lantern & I waited on him to see Abigail Robinsons. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 23, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 23rd of 11th M 1818 / I Watched last night with Isaac Mitchell who the 14th inst was caught by the spindle of his Wind Mill, by the Sertout [a "surtout" was a man's long overcoat] which twisted him round many times & tore all his cloaths from his body except his stockings & the wristbands of his shirt & left him naked, so great were his bruises, that his life has been dispaired of till within two days, he rested as comfortable as a person in his brused condition could last night, & there is now hopes that he may again be restored to usefulness.— John Comly had a meeting on Connanicut today which I understand was large & very satisfactory

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

TIMELINE OF ACCIDENTS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

November 24, Tuesday: With construction of the Quaker Yearly Meeting School on his farm nearly complete, Friend Moses Brown wrote to Sophronia N.J. Forster of Weare, New Hampshire, expressing interest in her coming to teach at his new school in Providence, Rhode Island.

This sketch was added to the face of a clock made by John Bailey, in the building's sitting-room

November 26, Thursday: Saidar und Zulima oder Liebe und Grossmut, by Heinrich August Marschner to words of Hornbostel, was performed for the initial time, in Pressburg (Bratislava) Schauspielhaus.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

26 of 11 M / In the first meeting Mary Caide first appeared in testimony, next Abigail Sherman, then Ruth Davis & the D Buffum followed in an impressive testimony & it was a very favor'd meeting. --

In the last Moy [Monthly] Meeting we had an exercising time occasioned by a contentious Man who opposed the appointment of an overseer from Portsmouth Preparative Meeting We had to Dine B Freeborn Darius lawton, Sarah Fowler & Elizabeth

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Lawton. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 29, Sunday: William Ellery Channing II was born.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 29th of 11th M / Our meetings were both silent, the morning was to me a season of but little satisfaction, the Afternoon was more solid & a season of some favor. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

December 3, Thursday: Karl van Beethoven, young nephew and ward of Ludwig van Beethoven, ran away from his uncle and back to his mother. When the composer went to his sister-in-law's house, she asked to keep him until that evening so Ludwig, being Ludwig, summoned the police and had them extract Karl by force. He then returned the lad to the Del Rio boarding school he had pulled him out of on the previous January 24th.

Giaocchino Rossini's drama Ricciardo e Zoraide to words of Berio di Salsa after Forteguerra was performed for the initial time, in the Teatro San Carlo of Naples. It was very successful.

A southern portion of the Illinois Territory was admitted to our federal union as its 21st state, with the balance of this territory being joined into the Michigan Territory to extend it to the west of the Mississippi River divide. (The capital of the new state of Illinois was declared to be Kaskaskia on the Mississippi River. This capital would be transferred to Vandalia as of 1820.)

Like Ohio, Indiana, and Oregon, the new state would incorporate a racist anti-immigration clause into its state constitution. Nobody of color, like the recently deceased "Father of Chicago," Jean-Baptiste Pointe du Sable, was ever again to be permitted to come here.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 3d of 12th M 1818 / Our Meeting was very crowded with people of various denominations from two causes the first was Osborn Mowry & Eliza Ann Southwick were Married & the second one it is what is denominated Thanksgiving Day which afforded many a lesure opportunity to attend - considering the mixed multitude

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

present it was very solid & quiet David Buffum was largely engaged in testimony to good satisfaction & Anne Dennis appeared in a few words. -

5th day 6th [sic] of 12th M / Last 5th day & today I took my seat in Meeting among the Elders - seemed[?] much like being made a spectacle of Men & Angels, tho' under indifferent circumstances from Paul, for he fought with beasts at Ephesus & overcame, but I, tho' a spectacle & brought into a conspicuous standing in society have yet to overcome many spiritual enemies that are comparable to beasts, & may my spirit be made willing to endure the conflict & become worthy of my station. - Meetings were low seasons to me tho' attended with favor, for I consider, to be able to feel low & dependant is a signal in itself of favor. I could but reflect how inferior my state of mind was to the four & twenty Elders we read of. Oh the washing the burning & purification of every kind that I must undergo before I shall be able to cry as they did, "Worthy is the Lord." - In the forenoon father Rodman delivered a short lively testimony - Afternoon Silent.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 10, Thursday: String Quartet op.104 by Ludwig van Beethoven, an arrangement of his Piano Trio op.1 no.3, was performed for the initial time, in Vienna.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 10th of 12th M 1818 / Our meeting was silent & to me rather a dull time - several committees meet this afternoon on some very exercising concerns. I sympathise with them but see no way to be useful. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 12, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 12 of 12 M / This Afternoon crossed the ferry to Connanicut went up to the Widow Mercy Weedens & cleaned her Clock & there lodged. - FIRST DAY attended meeting there we all made 12 in number including 3 Women. The Situation of the very few friends on that Island claims the feeling of friends, there are but two men members & about 4 women & they in Winter Seldom able to get out, very different from what it used to be when I first knew the meeting & till within ten or fifteen Years, when there was a respectable meeting both of weight & numbers. -The probability is that at next Moy [Monthly] Meeting it must be closed for the winter Dined at cousin Joseph Greenes & in the Afternoon crossed the ferry home. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

December 17, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 17th of 12th M / Our meeting tho' small, I believe was not wholly destitute of life, we had a short but weighty communication from father R. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 19, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 19th of 12 M / I feel, on looking over certain cases which exist in this Moy [Monthly] Meeting, no small degree of depression, not knowing to what they may arise. May my mind be centered in that wisdom that directeth aright. May Meekness patience & long suffering be the trait of my character, & may my brethren who have to suffer, be also favord to keep their ranks in righteousness.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Georgia increased the reward it offered for information leading to the interception of attempts to bring new Africans into its domain. When the illegally imported people were auctioned off by the state government, the informer would receive a tithe of whatever was left after deduction of all government expenses.

"Whereas numbers of African slaves have been illegally introduced into the State, in direct violation of the laws of the United States and of this State, Be it therefore enacted," etc. Informers are to receive one-tenth of the net proceeds from the sale of illegally imported Africans, "Provided, nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to extend farther back than the year 1817." Prince, DIGEST, page 798.

We notice immediately, of course, that these victims were being treated as disposable people. As soon as they were rescued, they were sold right back into slavery with the proceeds being divided among the white people. We notice, immediately, that the law against the slave trade had not been enacted for their benefit, but for the benefit of the USers who were being oppressed by the presence of these black victims.

W.E. Burghardt Du Bois: The dozen or more propositions on the question of the disposal of illegally imported Africans may be divided into two chief heads, representing two radically opposed parties: 1. That illegally imported Africans be free, although they might be indentured for a term of years or removed from the country. 2. That such Africans be sold as slaves.²¹⁶ The arguments on these two propositions, which were many and far-reaching, may be roughly divided into three classes, political, constitutional, and moral.

The political argument, reduced to its lowest terms, ran thus: those wishing to free the Negroes illegally imported declared that to enslave them would be to perpetrate the very evil which the law was designed to stop. "By the same law," they said, "we condemn the man-stealer and become the receivers of his stolen goods. We punish the criminal, and then step into his place, and complete the crime."²¹⁷ They said that the objection to free

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Negroes was no valid excuse; for if the Southern people really feared this class, they would consent to the imposing of such penalties on illicit traffic as would stop the importation of a single slave.²¹⁸ Moreover, "forfeiture" and sale of the Negroes implied a property right in them which did not exist.²¹⁹ Waiving this technical point, and allowing them to be "forfeited" to the government, then the government should either immediately set them free, or, at the most, indenture them for a term of years; otherwise, the law would be an encouragement to violators. "It certainly will be," said they, "if the importer can find means to evade the penalty of the act; for there he has all the advantage of a market enhanced by our ineffectual attempt to prohibit."²²⁰ They claimed that even the indenturing of the ignorant barbarian for life was better than slavery; and Sloan declared that the Northern States would receive the freed Negroes willingly rather than have them enslaved.²²¹

The argument of those who insisted that the Negroes should be sold was tersely put by Macon: "In adopting our measures on this subject, we must pass such a law as can be executed."²²² Early expanded this: "It is a principle in legislation, as correct as any which has ever prevailed, that to give effect to laws you must not make them repugnant to the passions and wishes of the people among whom they are to operate. How then, in this instance, stands the fact? Do not gentlemen from every quarter of the Union prove, on the discussion of every question that has ever arisen in the House, having the most remote bearing on the

216. There were at least twelve distinct propositions as to the disposal of the Africans imported: —

1. That they be forfeited and sold by the United States at auction (Early's bill, reported Dec. 15: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, pages 167-8).
 2. That they be forfeited and left to the disposal of the States (proposed by Bidwell and Early: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, pages 181, 221, 477. This was the final settlement.)
 3. That they be forfeited and sold, and that the proceeds go to charities, education, or internal improvements (Early, Holland, and Masters: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, page 273).
 4. That they be forfeited and indentured for life (Alston and Bidwell: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, pages 170-1).
 5. That they be forfeited and indentured for 7, 8, or 10 years (Pitkin: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, page 186).
 6. That they be forfeited and given into the custody of the President, and by him indentured in free States for a term of years (bill reported from the Senate Jan. 28: HOUSE JOURNAL (reprinted 1826), 9th Congress 2d session, V. 575; ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, page 477. Cf. also ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, page 272).
 7. That the Secretary of the Treasury dispose of them, at his discretion, in service (Quincy: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, page 183).
 8. That those imported into slave States be returned to Africa or bound out in free States (Sloan: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, page 254).
 9. That all be sent back to Africa (Smilie: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, page 176).
 10. That those imported into free States be free, those imported into slave States be returned to Africa or indentured (Sloan: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, page 226).
 11. That they be forfeited but not sold (Sloan and others: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, page 270).
 12. That they be free (Sloan: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, page 168; Bidwell: HOUSE JOURNAL (reprinted 1826), 9th Congress 2d session, V. 515).
217. Bidwell, Cook, and others: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, page 201.
218. Bidwell: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, page 172.
219. Fisk: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, pages 224-5; Bidwell: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, page 221.
220. Quincy: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, page 184.
221. ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, page 478; Bidwell: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, page 171.
222. ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, page 172.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

giving freedom to the Africans in the bosom of our country, that it has excited the deepest sensibility in the breasts of those where slavery exists? And why is this so? It is, because those who, from experience, know the extent of the evil, believe that the most formidable aspect in which it can present itself, is by making these people free among them. Yes, sir, though slavery is an evil, regretted by every man in the country, to have among us in any considerable quantity persons of this description, is an evil far greater than slavery itself. Does any gentleman want proof of this? I answer that all proof is useless; no fact can be more notorious. With this belief on the minds of the people where slavery exists, and where the importation will take place, if at all, we are about to turn loose in a state of freedom all persons brought in after the passage of this law. I ask gentlemen to reflect and say whether such a law, opposed to the ideas, the passions, the views, and the affections of the people of the Southern States, can be executed? I tell them, no; it is impossible – why? Because no man will inform – why? Because to inform will be to lead to an evil which will be deemed greater than the offence of which information is given, because it will be opposed to the principle of self-preservation, and to the love of family. No, no man will be disposed to jeopard his life, and the lives of his countrymen. And if no one dare inform, the whole authority of the Government cannot carry the law into effect. The whole people will rise up against it. Why? Because to enforce it would be to turn loose, in the bosom of the country, firebrands that would consume them.”²²³

This was the more tragic form of the argument; it also had a mercenary side, which was presented with equal emphasis. It was repeatedly said that the only way to enforce the law was to play off individual interests against each other. The profit from the sale of illegally imported Negroes was declared to be the only sufficient “inducement to give information of their importation.”²²⁴ “Give up the idea of forfeiture, and I challenge the gentleman to invent fines, penalties, or punishments of any sort, sufficient to restrain the slave trade.”²²⁵ If such Negroes be freed, “I tell you that slaves will continue to be imported as heretofore.... You cannot get hold of the ships employed in this traffic. Besides, slaves will be brought into Georgia from East Florida. They will be brought into the Mississippi Territory from the bay of Mobile. You cannot inflict any other penalty, or devise any other adequate means of prevention, than a forfeiture of the Africans in whose possession they may be found after importation.”²²⁶ Then, too, when foreigners smuggled in Negroes, “who then ... could be operated on, but the purchasers? There was the rub – it was their interest alone which, by being operated on, would produce a check. Snap their purse-strings, break open their strong box, deprive them of their slaves, and by destroying the temptation to buy, you put

223. ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, pages 173-4.

224. Alston: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, page 170.

225. D.R. Williams: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, page 183.

226. Early: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, pages 184-5.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

an end to the trade, ... nothing short of a forfeiture of the slave would afford an effectual remedy."²²⁷ Again, it was argued that it was impossible to prevent imported Negroes from becoming slaves, or, what was just as bad, from being sold as vagabonds or indentured for life.²²⁸ Even our own laws, it was said, recognize the title of the African slave factor in the transported Negroes; and if the importer have no title, why do we legislate? Why not let the African immigrant alone to get on as he may, just as we do the Irish immigrant?²²⁹ If he should be returned to Africa, his home could not be found, and he would in all probability be sold into slavery again.²³⁰

The constitutional argument was not urged as seriously as the foregoing; but it had a considerable place. On the one hand, it was urged that if the Negroes were forfeited, they were forfeited to the United States government, which could dispose of them as it saw fit;²³¹ on the other hand, it was said that the United States, as owner, was subject to State laws, and could not free the Negroes contrary to such laws.²³² Some alleged that the freeing of such Negroes struck at the title to all slave property;²³³ others thought that, as property in slaves was not recognized in the Constitution, it could not be in a statute.²³⁴ The question also arose as to the source of the power of Congress over the slave-trade. Southern men derived it from the clause on commerce, and declared that it exceeded the power of Congress to declare Negroes imported into a slave State, free, against the laws of that State; that Congress could not determine what should or should not be property in a State.²³⁵ Northern men replied that, according to this principle, forfeiture and sale in Massachusetts would be illegal; that the power of Congress over the trade was derived from the restraining clause, as a non-existent power could not be restrained; and that the United States could act under her general powers as executor of the Law of Nations.²³⁶

The moral argument as to the disposal of illegally imported Negroes was interlarded with all the others. On the one side, it began with the "Rights of Man," and descended to a stickling for the decent appearance of the statute-book; on the other side, it began with the uplifting of the heathen, and descended to a denial of the applicability of moral principles to the question. Said Holland of North Carolina: "It is admitted that

227. Lloyd, Early, and others: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, page 203.

228. Alston: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, page 170.

229. Quincy: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, page 222; Macon: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, page 225.

230. Macon: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, page 177.

231. Barker: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, page 171; Bidwell: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, page 172.

232. Clay, Alston, and Early: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, page 266.

233. Clay, Alston, and Early: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, page 266.

234. Bidwell: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, page 221.

235. Sloan and others: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, page 271; Early and Alston: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, pages 168, 171.

236. Ely, Bidwell, and others: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, pages 179, 181, 271; Smilie and Findley: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, pages 225, 226.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

the condition of the slaves in the Southern States is much superior to that of those in Africa. Who, then, will say that the trade is immoral?"²³⁷ But, in fact, "morality has nothing to do with this traffic,"²³⁸ for, as Joseph Clay declared, "it must appear to every man of common sense, that the question could be considered in a commercial point of view only."²³⁹ The other side declared that, "by the laws of God and man," these captured Negroes are "entitled to their freedom as clearly and absolutely as we are;"²⁴⁰ nevertheless, some were willing to leave them to the tender mercies of the slave States, so long as the statute-book was disgraced by no explicit recognition of slavery.²⁴¹ Such arguments brought some sharp sarcasm on those who seemed anxious "to legislate for the honor and glory of the statute book;"²⁴² some desired "to know what honor you will derive from a law that will be broken every day of your lives."²⁴³ They would rather boldly sell the Negroes and turn the proceeds over to charity. The final settlement of the question was as follows: -

"SECTION 4.... And neither the importer, nor any person or persons claiming from or under him, shall hold any right or title whatsoever to any negro, mulatto, or person of color, nor to the service or labor thereof, who may be imported or brought within the United States, or territories thereof, in violation of this law, but the same shall remain subject to any regulations not contravening the provisions of this act, which the Legislatures of the several States or Territories at any time hereafter may make, for disposing of any such negro, mulatto, or person of color."²⁴⁴

December 20, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 20th of 12th M 1818 / In the forenoon Meeting D Buffum was engaged in a lively testimony & in the Afternoon father Rodman was also engaged in a lively encouraging communication. In the Afternoon I enjoyed a pretty good state, but the morning was a hard time. - In the forpart of the evening with James Taylor & D Rodman, visited Judge Nicholas Taylor who has been confined a number of weeks with a painful indisposition, but seems now to be recovering. We found him cheerful, & related an anecdote which interested me very much. - he said that His father whose name was Robert, served his apprenticeship with old Joseph Wanton of Tiverton, & while he was an apprentice, there came a man on buisness With Joseph, who became very terbulent &

237. ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, page 240. Cf. Lloyd: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, page 236.

238. Holland: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, page 241.

239. ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, page 227; Macon: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, page 225.

240. Bidwell, Cook, and others: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, page 201.

241. Bidwell: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, page 221. Cf. ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, page 202.

242. Early: ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, page 239.

243. ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session

244. ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 9th Congress 2d session, page 1267.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

abusive, so much so that Robert thought he was going to strike his master & feeling his temper excited at the abuse offered his master raised his fist & Knocked him down to the ground. "Poh! Robert what did thee strike the man for, he did nothing but talk." Tho' the occurrence must have happened 70 or 80 Years ago, as Joseph Wanton has been dead about 64 Years, I feel a freedom to rescue it from oblivion, that it may be found as an instructive lesson to others. I hope it may rest on my mind, that should I be assailed with abuse, remember to keep my temper & not fall into the same spirit of the opposer, & frequently recur to the words of good old Joseph when he said "he did nothing but talk".- I have often heard my mother & others who remember him, say that he was a man remarkable for his mildness of disposition, a man very useful in society & a solid preacher, tho' not an extensive gift.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 24, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 24th of 12th M / Meeting was a season of exercise to me.
- Father Rodman was concerned in an instructive testimony, & if attended to may be beneficial to some present -- In the last, (Preparative) the epistle from the last Yearly Meeting was read.
-*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 27, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 27th of 12th M 1818 / Our Meetings were both silent & pretty well attended, but to me Seasons of not much richness -- Wrote this evening to Wm Hunter Senator & John L Boss Jr Representative in Congress, inclosing a Memorial to Congress respecting the Slave Trade, which was pretty largely & respectably signed by a number of the inhabitants of this Town.
- Also Wrote a letter to Obadiah Brown of Providence. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 28, Monday: Jean Joseph Paul Augustin, Marquis Dessolles replaced Armand Emmanuel du Plessis, Duc de Richelieu as prime minister of France.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 28th of 12th M / I find the officers of society must be content to go through good report & evil report, particularly in the discharge of the duty's of overseers of the Poor - I have been censured & considered hard, only for an honest discharge of duty towards an individual who wishes assistance, but who in my judgement & in the judgement of many others, is yet able to minister in good measure to her own necessities. - where I have been convinced there was real necessity, I can truly say my hand

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

& heart has been open to Extend liberal help, but the circumstances of the Meeting are streightened & require prudence, & the Officers of society must necessarily be careful to spend no more than pressing needs may require. I feel for the future prospects of this Moy [Monthly] Meeting & fear the time is approaching when its condition as to wealth & more substantial weight, will be Still diminished, according to my gift I Mourn in Zion, & crave a better day, but alas it is but little I can do. my weaknesses are many – yet at times my faith is strengthened & a willingness is wrought to press forward thro' all, that In the end I may attain the pearl of price, the crown & glory, which faideth not away.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 30, Wednesday: At a trial in Mayor's Court at the New-York City Hall, James Maurice v Samuel Judd, the dispute was over nonpayment of a fee for inspection of "fish oil," but the decision revolved around the question of whether this would include the oil from whales, and thus whether or not whales are fish. Linnaeus had separated whales from fish in 1758 because whales have lungs rather than gills and breathe air through a blowhole, have four chambers in the heart, have eyelids that move, and have flipper bones that match those in the hands and arms of humans and apes, but the current dictionaries defined fish merely as animals that live exclusively in water. Thus oysters, crabs (except for beach crabs), and whales definitely are fish. The jury would decide that the fee should be paid, which would cause the state legislature promptly to exempt whale oil from the category of fish oil (refer to D. Graham Burnett's TRYING LEVIATHAN, put out in 2007 by Princeton UP).

In Edinburgh, Scotland, executioner John Simpson made a number of tries before he was able to hang Robert Johnston for the robbery of a candlemaker. When the trap dropped on his initial try, the criminal was able to remain standing on the platform and the crowd drove the authorities away with stones, cut the offender down, removed his hood, and carried him off toward High Street. They heaved the boards of the waiting coffin through the windows of Tolbooth Church. When the police and military retrieved the 22-year-old robber, a surgeon bled him until he was sufficiently weak to be unable to resist. However, when the executioner made his 2d attempt he used too long a rope, and they needed to lift their victim while they wound the rope again and again around the hook on the scaffold beam. Then it took the man like forever to strangle.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*30th of 12th M 1818 / I awoke this Morning with the recollection that this day completed my 37th year, & it has been a day of much seriousness
Thousands who were alive this day, thirty seven Years ago have since paid the debt of nature, & it has been my lot to witness the exit of some of them, both in my own immediate family & some oF my aged friends. – I have grown from youth to manhood & have now arrived at what may be termed the Meridian of life & must soon expect to be looking on the Down Hill side & perhaps within a very short time be numbered with the Silent dead. – Man knoweth not his time, & I am thankful that I do not know the end of mine. – but this one thing I do know, that it is necessary for me to [be] prepared to change worlds, & I do also know that "the* effect of Righteousness is PEACE."

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 31, Thursday: On the previous day in Edinburgh, Scotland, executioner John Simpson had sadly botched the job of hanging robber Robert Johnston for the robbery of a candlemaker. On this day the city magistrates fired both the executioner and the master of works who had been responsible for the structure of the gallows. Although a 50-guinea reward was offered for the identification of the persons who had rescued the robber after he was able to remain standing on the platform when the trap fell, this reward would never be paid.

Arriving at the "Elmwood" mansion of Friend Moses Brown outside Providence, Rhode Island, after a boat trip and a stage ride, were two assistant teachers for the girls' department, Friends Mary Mitchell and Dorcas Gardner, a Quaker girl scholar from New Hampshire, and three Quaker girl scholars from Nantucket.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

12th M 31st 5 of ye Week 1818 / This Morning took Chaise & with Br D Rodman went to Portsmouth to attend the Moy [Monthly] Meeting – a little this side of Wm Baileys gate the Axle tree of the Chaise broke short off which brought us down & tho' in the fall I lost the reins, the horse stoped & stood perfectly still, which I count a special favor & for which my heart is truly thankful to the Lord, the great ruler of events – we set the Chaise on the side of the road & went to Wm Baileys who very kindly lent us a small Waggon which safely carried us the rest of the way to the Meeting House –The first Meeting was silent, the last was a deeply exercising one. Some cases before us was deeply distressing & afforded ample scope for the exercise of christian patience & prudence. I have thought I had known some hard meetings before, but it seemed as if this was the hardest – I believe that my concern has been a right one for the welfare of society & Oh saith my soul may I hold on; & may my concern increase, – We dined at Saml Thurstons – & rode Home.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

“NARRATIVE HISTORY” IS FABULATION, HISTORY IS CHRONOLOGY

HDTWHAT?INDEXFRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM*1819

January 1, Friday: With construction complete on the central part of their building (the part between the wings, now referred to as “Middle House”) New England Yearly Meeting’s boarding school for Quaker youth went into operation in Providence, Rhode Island on the farmland that had been donated in 1814 by Friend Moses Brown. (Of course, there would be a Boys School and a Girls School, held distinct not only in reports and catalogues but also by means of gender segregation of classrooms, and gender segregation of walks, and gender segregation of groves and playgrounds and dining areas.)

This sketch was added to the face of a clock made by John Bailey, in the building’s sitting-room

Present at that point were the Quaker who had been hired to be a teacher in the boys’ department, Friend Benjamin Rodman, two assistant teachers for the girls’ department, Friends Mary Mitchell and Dorcas Gardner, Friend Maria Augusta Fuller from Lynn, Massachusetts, age 12, Friend Comfort Allen, age 22, a Quaker young woman from Richmond, New Hampshire, and three Quaker girls from Nantucket, Friends Elizabeth Brayton, age 15, Anna Fitch, age 14, and Hepsabeth Mitchell, age 14. (It has been noted, as an attempt at humor, that at this point, with two superintendents, one teacher, two assistant teachers, and five girl scholars on site, the teacher/student ratio had become exactly the ideal ratio of one on one!)

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

When the Hicksite/Orthodox split would occur in the Religious Society of Friends, this school would remain with the Orthodox or Quietist or segregationist branch and would prosper, enrolling on an average a student body of more than 150 white students during the decade of the 1830s.

During this year, also, Friend Moses would fund the purchase of a lot in Providence on which the colored people might erect a meetinghouse and school:

The colored people called a meeting in 1819 to take measures, to build a meetinghouse, with a basement for a school room. After appointing their Committee to carry out their wishes, they sent a special committee to Mr. Moses Brown, to inform him of their intentions and see what he would do toward aiding them, knowing he belonged to the Society of Friends and was a very benevolent man, besides some of the members of the committee had been in his service. Mr. Brown, after hearing their statements, highly commended their movement, and said, "I always had it in my heart to help the colored people, whenever I saw they were ready to receive. Now go and select you out a lot, suitable for your purpose, and I will pay for it."

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould of Newport wrote in his journal about the opening of this school (at which eventually he would teach):

6th day 1st of 1st M 1819 / My mind under much depression, particularly from yesterdays occurrences at Portsmouth. — It is a comfortable reflection that the Truth remains to be unchangeable & that those who abide in it have nothing to fear. — I have thought much of the Yearly Meeting School which is opened this day at Providence, the day has been very clear & remarkably mild for the season, may it prove an omen of the future usefulness of the institution to coming generations.²⁴⁵

245. Stephen Wanton Gould Diary, 1815-1823: The Gould family papers are stored under control number 2033 at the Division of Rare and Manuscript Collections of Cornell University Library, Box 7 Folder 12 for August 24, 1815-September 25, 1823; also on microfilm, see Series 7

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

January 2, Saturday: At the new Quaker Yearly Meeting School outside Providence, Rhode Island, another girl scholar arrived, Friend Milly Paine, age 15, of Cumberland, and the very first boy scholar, Friend Philip A. Southwick, age 10, of Danvers, Massachusetts.

At some point in early January, the head and torso of the statue known then as “younger Memnon” was installed on its pedestal in the Egyptian Sculpture Room of the Townley Galleries of the British Museum.

January 3, Sunday: At 10:30AM a meeting for worship was held in one of the four large square rooms on the first floor of the new building of the Yearly Meeting School of the Religious Society of Friends on top of the hill in Providence, Rhode Island. Present, among others, with the young scholars and the school staff, was Friend Moses Brown and his wife Dorcas Brown, with his son Friend Obadiah M. Brown. The room at the time had been furnished with a large stove and a few chairs. As what was apparently the only vocal ministry, Friend Betsy Purinton “knelt in supplication.”

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould of Newport wrote in his journal:

1st day 3rd of 1st M 1819 / In our Morning meeting Anne Dennis appeared in a Short testimony then Hannah Dennis & then Jonathon Dennis. Thus daughter Mother & father in succession had the vocal service of the Day.

In the Afternoon we were Silent & the meeting was largely attended for afternoon & to me it was a good Meeting. –

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

January 4, Monday: Martin Van Buren had William Thompson nominated as speaker of the New York Senate.

First day of school. The first boarding student to arrive at the newly constructed Yearly Meeting School, several days before, had been Friend Maria Augusta Fuller from Lynn, Massachusetts, twelve years of age, who had arrived under the care of Friends Matthew Purinton and Betsy Purinton of Salem, Massachusetts, hired to superintend the business and home-life of the institution, but by this first day of instruction, a total of eleven scholars were present, Friends Daniel Bicknell, age 11, having arrived from North Providence, Dorcas Hadwin, age 11, from Providence, Charles Congdon, age 11, from Providence, and Charles Metcalf, age 15, from Cumberland.

Superintendents.

1819-1824.	Purinton, Matthew and Betsy.
1824-1835.	Breed, Enoch and Lydia.
1829-1835.	Gould, Stephen Wanton and Gould, Hannah , Asst. Supts.
1835-1836.	Davis, Seth and Mary.
1837.	Breed, Enoch and Lydia.
1838-1839.	Rathbun, Rowland and Alice.
1840-1844.	Wing, Allen and Olive.
1845-1846.	Thompson, Olney and Lydia.
1847.	Congdon, Jarvia and Lydia.
1847-1852.	Cornell, Silas and Sarah M.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 4th of 1st M / My mind often depressed with the state of things in our Society, but notwithstanding all our failings I am comforted in a renewed confirmation that we are yet the first religious society, in that we believe in the Truth as it is in Jesus & that many of our members have attained to a higher state of religious experience than any other - we find most of professing christendom very outward in their views. while they profess a belief in spiritual things, they know but little more of the Spiritual work than if they were strangers to the Scriptures or the name of Christ, for the plain reason, that they overlook, the thing in the first setting out.- having no Idea that, the intimations which they feel early in life, as for instance condemnation for doing wrong, & justification for doing right, is nothing short than the divinity of Christ moving in

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

our hearts, could they rightly see this, I believe, there would be less controversy on points of Doctrine - & were but the members of our Society more fully to live up to that which they believe in, - our Zion would Shine as in the days of her Ancient splendor, the Tents of Cushan would not be in affliction, neither would the Curtains of Middian tremble. -

January 6, Wednesday: Formal inauguration, by a group of gentlemen, at the Carolina Coffee House at the corner of Tradd Street and Bedon's Alley in Charleston, of the New England Society of Charleston, South Carolina. Members would meet regularly on Forefathers' Day for the purpose of recalling anew in pledges of steaming punch, the virile virtues of their ancestors who on a dark and freezing day in December first landed on Plymouth Rock after their long journey to the promised land of religious freedom, for good-fellowship, and to render aid to their less fortunate brothers. The original roster of membership lists 47 names.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*4th day 6th of 1st M / I have felt my mind solemnized this evening & raised in secret prayer for preservation, to the father of Mercy
It is sometimes my allotment while in the midst of a social circle, to feel my mind abstracted from the passing observations, & centered in seriousness. -*

January 7, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 7th 1st M 1819 / Our Meeting was large in consequence of the Marriage of Abraham Barker & Margaret Buffum which was solemnized in a very becoming manner - after the certificate was signed - Jonathon Dennis appeared in a short testimony & the meeting closed under as good a covering as I ever witnessed on such an occasion. - David Rodman & myself being overseers of the Marriage we went to the House of our friend D Buffum to attend the wedding, which was a season of instruction to me, there was no levity but Solid conversation adorned the gathering, thro' the Afternoon, & in the evening we involuntarily fell into Silence, & heavenly good was near, which I have no doubt was more or less experienced by all present - Hannah Dennis was twice engaged in short communications, then David Buffum, & then Jonathon Dennis, twice spoke a few words & Hannah closed in solemn reverend supplication, after which we separated for our homes & I may acknowledge that it has been to me a day of memorable experience

This date was evidently significant in regard to some ongoing shenanigans and apparent graft (gaming the system), having to do with the disposition of seized negrero slave vessels, and with the disposition of their cargos of slaves, and with the distribution of this as loot by US court systems (the entire social apparatus apparently having been converted over by this time from the purpose of suppressing the international slave trade, to the purpose of enriching the various white participants to the process):

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

W.E. Burghardt Du Bois: At this date (January 7, 1819), however, certain cases were stated to be pending.... In 1818 three American schooners sailed from the United States to Havana; on June 2 they started back with cargoes aggregating one hundred and seven slaves. The schooner "Constitution" was captured by one of Andrew Jackson's officers under the guns of Fort Barancas. The "Louisa" and "Marino" were captured by Lieutenant McKeever of the United States Navy. The three vessels were duly proceeded against at Mobile, and the case began slowly to drag along. The slaves, instead of being put under the care of the zealous marshal of the district, were placed in the hands of three bondsmen, friends of the judge. The marshal notified the government of this irregularity, but apparently received no answer. In 1822 the three vessels were condemned as forfeited, but the court "reserved" for future order the distribution of the slaves. Nothing whatever either then or later was done to the slave-traders themselves. The owners of the ships promptly appealed to the Supreme Court of the United States, and that tribunal, in 1824, condemned the three vessels and the slaves on two of them.²⁴⁶ These slaves, considerably reduced in number "from various causes," were sold at auction for the benefit of the State, in spite of the Act of 1819. Meantime, before the decision of the Supreme Court, the judge of the Supreme Court of West Florida had awarded to certain alleged Spanish claimants of the slaves indemnity for nearly the whole number seized, at the price of $650 per head, and the Secretary of the Treasury had actually paid the claim.²⁴⁷ In 1826 Lieutenant McKeever urgently petitions Congress for his prize-money of $4,415.15, which he has not yet received.²⁴⁸ The "Constitution" was for some inexplicable reason released from bond, and the whole case fades in a very thick cloud of official mist. In 1831 Congress sought to inquire into the final disposition of the slaves. The information given was never printed; but as late as 1836 a certain Calvin Mickle petitions Congress for reimbursement for the slaves sold, for their hire, for their natural increase, for expenses incurred, and for damages.²⁴⁹

246. The slaves on the "Constitution" were not condemned, for the technical reason that she was not captured by a commissioned officer of the United States navy.

247. These proceedings are very obscure, and little was said about them. The Spanish claimants were, it was alleged with much probability, but representatives of Americans. The claim was paid under the provisions of the Treaty of Florida, and included slaves whom the court afterward declared forfeited.

248. An act to relieve him was finally passed, Feb. 8, 1827, nine years after the capture. See STATUTES AT LARGE, VI. 357.

249. It is difficult to get at the exact facts in this complicated case. The above statement is, I think, much milder than the real facts would warrant, if thoroughly known. Cf. HOUSE REPORTS, 19th Congress 1st session, II. No. 231; 21st Congress 1st session, III. No. 348, pages 62-3, etc.; 24th Congress 1st session, I. No. 209; AMERICAN STATE PAPERS, NAVAL, II. No. 308.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

January 10, Sunday: Benjamin Henry Latrobe arrived in New Orleans, where he would design the central tower of the St. Louis Cathedral.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 10th of 1st M 1819 / In the morning meeting, there was a short testimony which felt to me to be about right - In the Afternoon we were silent, both to me were rather dull seasons.

January 14, Thursday: Grand Duke Carl August of Saxe-Weimar-Eisenach approved the contract appointing Johann Nepomuk Hummel as his Kapellmeister.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 14th of 1st M / My mind has for several days past been under pressure when reflecting on an existing case in our Moy [Monthly] Meeting & I have desired that all my [may] terminate for good. - Had a good meeting, was favord with solid quiet for which I desire to be thankful. - Anne Dennis & Abigail Sherman appeared in short testimonys -

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

January 16, Saturday: Godert baron van der de Capellen became the Governor of the Dutch-Indies.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 16th of 1st M / Attended our Select Meeting for Ministers & Elders In the forepart of it my mind was favor'd with The extendings of heavenly good, which drew the silent tear, but as the meeting advanced this preciuos feeling subsided, tho' on the whole it was a memorable Season to me. my name was made use of as a representative to the next Quarterly Meeting, but I hardly see how I can get there.

January 17, Sunday: Simón Bolívar proclaimed Columbia to be a republic.

Former President Thomas Jefferson notified one of the overseers of his slaves, Joel Yancey, that the soap Dick²⁵⁰ produced this year weighed merely 38 pounds whereas in the previous year it had weighed 45 (elsewhere we find a notation that hard soap was to be made by boiling 3 pounds of grease in 3 gallons of water with a box of Babbitt concentrated lye for 3 hours, pouring it into a tub and letting it remain 2 days, cutting it into bars, and putting it to dry).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 17th of 1st M 1819 / In our Morning meeting J Dennis & Abigail Sherman appeard in short testimonys & D Buffum concluded in a very lively & pathetic communication. – In the Afternoon we were both Silent – both meetings were good favord Seasons to me. – In the evening Set the evening with my H at Abigail Robinsons. –

250. Dick was a son of Will Smith and Abby, born in 1781 (Jefferson had also at one time had a pet northern mockingbird Mimus polyglottos, one of perhaps four he had owned and kept about the house, that he called “Dick”).

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

January 21, Thursday: Documentation of the international slave trade, per W.E.Burghardt Du Bois: “Letter from the Secretary of the Treasury ... in relation to Ships engaged in the Slave Trade, which have been Seized and Condemned, and the Disposition which has been made of the Negroes, by the several State Governments, under whose Jurisdiction they have fallen.” –HOUSE DOCUMENT, 15 Cong. 2 sess. VI. No. 107.

Frederick Marryat got married with Catherine Shairp in St Pancras Old Church, London. The couple would produce four sons and seven daughters, including the novelist Florence Marryat.

Lemuel Capen, late minister of Sterling, Massachusetts, delivered a farewell address. This would be printed in Boston by J.T. Buckingham, as a pamphlet accompanied by documents containing the reasons of his

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

dismission.

(The Reverend Mr. Capen had been or would be replaced in the pulpit at Sterling by the Reverend Peter Osgood. Mr. Capen would pass on, to Brook Farm.)

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 21st of 1st M / Our Meeting was pretty well attended, considering the cloudy weather & muddy walking. – Father Rodman was engaged in a short but solemn testimony on the necessity of Pure offerings & the danger of Strange fire. – the D Buffum on the necessity of love, that we closely examine ourselves to see if we are harbouring any thing counter to the Gospel dispensation on that Subject & if we are he impressed the necessity of setting about to do it away. In the last Osborn Mowry requested a certificate of removal within the limits of Richmond Moy [Monthly] Meeting – so, our numbers seems to be bounded. I was in hopes that he would have settled down with us, & have contributed to the Streangth of this Moy [Monthly]

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Meeting. –

January 24, Sunday: Former President Thomas Jefferson wrote from Monticello to Richard Duke that “The duties of a Proctor for the Central college are of two characters so distinct, that it is difficult to find them associated in the same person. the one part of these duties is to make contracts with workmen, superintend their execution, see that they are according to the plan, performed faithfully and in a workman like manner; settle their accounts, and pay them off. the other part is to hire common laborers, overlook them, provide subsistence, and do whatever also is necessary for the institution. for this latter part mr Barksdale is fully qualified: but the other part we have thought would be better done by a person more accustomed to that sort of business, and mr Garrett has given me a hope you would undertake this part. if you could devote two days in the week to it, it would be quite sufficient, but if this is incompatible with your other business, one day in the week would do. whatever agreement as to these particulars, or as to compensation, shall be arranged between mr Garrett and yourself, will be confirmed, and we should wish your entrance on your branch of the office as soon as we learn that the bill for the establishment of the University at the site of the Central College has passed both houses of legislature.”

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 24th 1st M / In the Mornng meeting Abigail Sherman appeared in a short testimony – In the Afternoon H Dennis was also short. – I was favord with a degree of life in both meetings but they were rather dull times on the whole. – Set the evening at home a little unwell with a pain in my side. –

January 28, Thursday: Sir Thomas Stamford Raffles, having come from India to set up a British trading station, put ashore at a tiny cluster of islands strategically located at the tip of the Malay Peninsula and began to negotiate with the local sultan for the creation of a “lion city,” Singapore. Catching a whiff of the memorable “carrion in custard” odor of the local delicious durian fruit, he held his nose and ran in the opposite direction (we can be certain that this is something which HDT never had a chance to sample: “Impact! Impact!”²⁵¹).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 28th of 1st M / Our first Meeting was silent. – In the last we had considerable buisness. – The case of overseers from Portsmouth reported in the 11th M last & The committee appointed reported that the objection of the individual was insufficient & they were all apponted, tho’ not without no small exercise, here is an instance which proves the necessity of Friends, keeping up their Authority in the Truth, & I am glad to be able to record the Truth gained the assendency over a loose spirit this day. –Uncle Peter Lawton & wife & George Anthony Dined with us –

February 1, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

251. Even today it is “the smell from hell with the taste from heaven,” to quote a popular idiom. Retailing at some $4.⁰⁰ a pound and up, the fruit is nevertheless banned from transportation in any taxi, bus, ferry, or subway; on the flights of Singapore Airlines it is the forbidden fruit. Restaurants which want to be able to serve dishes containing durian must by law be equipped with a special “once-through” air conditioning system. Personally, I find the odor quite sweet and fragrant – but then I’m weird, and also experience the odor of manure on the fields in the spring in Vermont as quite sweet and fragrant.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

2nd day 1st of 2nd M 1819 / A little after 12 OC this day went on board the Packet with my Wife & David Buffum for Providence, it was a very mild pleasant Day & we arrived there about 7 OC in the evening, we went immediately to Obadiah Browns were[where] we were rec'd in a very Hospitable manner & lodged –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 2, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day. This morning Obadiah took us in his carriage & we rode out to the Yearly Meeting school which we visited in its various departments – found the children in good order in the School, the Masters & Mistresses apparantly good examples & the other branches all well regulated, affording a comfortable prospect of future usefulness to the rising generation, & society in general – here we were joined by our aged father in Israel, Moses Brown who tho' having enter'd the 81st Year of his age, is as bright in his faculties (to all appearances) as at any time in his life, with him we went home to dine & under his friendly roof we lodged, after spending the Afternoon & evening in interesting conversation with him & D Buffum. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 3, Wednesday: Semiramide riconosciuta, a dramma per musica by Giacomo Meyerbeer to words of Rossi after Metastasio, was performed for the initial time, in Teatro Regio, Turin before the King and Queen of Piedmont.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day – Came to Town an attended our Select Quarterly meeting, in my mind, life was low, but our friend D Buffum was engaged in a lively testimony. in the opening of it & at the close Rowland Greene was also engaged in testimony. – I dined at Wm Almays, made a few calls in town & in the Afternoon joined my H at M Browns, where I d left her in the morning. Set the remainder of the Afternoon there & amused ourselves in looking over his Library. he has at present the greatest collection of Friends books, both Ancient & Modern of any friend in New England. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

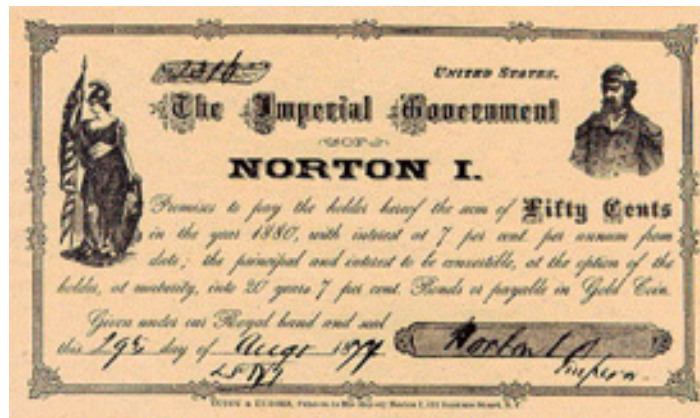

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

February 4, Thursday: Just outside of London, Joshua Abraham Norton, who would one day proclaim himself the Emperor of the United States, was born.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day – My H had an opportunity to ride to town & I walked in to Meeting, there were public appearances from James Greene, D Howland, Thos Anthony, Susanna Bateman & Betsy Purinton, & Henry Chase in Supplication – The weight of the service fell on Thos Anthony who was much favored to hold up the Standard of Truth in the view of a very large assembly
In the last meeting, there was some labor, but we had some pleasant circumstances & tho' the Passover was eaten with bitter herbs, we were favored to make an escape. –
Hannah dined at O Browns, but being Detained at the meeting House on a committee after both meetings rise – I went to Joseph Anthonys, where I met my old friend James Greene & was glad to see him as well as a number of others who were there – In the evening returned to O Browns & lodged.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 5, Friday: Hannah Hoes Van Buren had been married to Martin Van Buren for ten years, after being childhood sweethearts. At the age of 35 she died of tuberculosis. The widower, who always called her “Jannetje,” would not remarry.

Nicolò Paganini gave his 1st concert in Rome (it was so successful, he would go on to give two more).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day – morning at 10 OC went on board the Packet with a number of Friends & fellow Passengers & had a very pleasant Passage home of about three hours & an half. – on board was a Presbyterian minister by the name of Oliver Brown with whom we had much religious discourse, & D Buffum in particular was

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

favord to open some parts of our doctrine to him in a way he had never understood it before, & indeed he Seemed very ignorant of Friends & their principles. –

On our arrival home we found John well & had been So since our absence, having staid at his grandfather Rodmans under the care of his Aunt Ruth & been a good boy, which I record to his credit & perhaps encouragement in a future day, his [this] being the first time his mother has left him even for a single night since he was born. –

Many agreeable circumstances are unnoticed some disagreeable ones which occured in this visit, tho' as respects ourselves, nothing unpleasant took place & I do feel thankful for it. – Life was pretty uniformly low in my mind but on the whole it was a Season of improvement

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 7, Sunday: Sir Thomas Stamford Bingley Raffles left Singapore under the care of Commandant William Farquhar, an employee of the East India Company.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 7th of 2nd M 1819 / D Buffum & father Rodman were engaged in short public testimonies in the Morning Meeting, & in the Afternoon Anne Dennis offred a few words. – To me life was low in both meetings, tho' my feelings are not a criterian to judge the whole, having often found when it was well with me it was not so with others & vise versa.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 11, Thursday: Secretary of War John Caldwell Calhoun, the same realistic dude who declared of the truism that all men are born free and equal that it was “utterly untrue,” wrote to the Cherokee Delegation that they had a choice before them and the choice was stark. They could become indistinguishable from white people or perish! Make up your minds, people. “You are now becoming like the white people; you can no longer live by hunting, but must work for your subsistence. In your new condition, far less land is necessary for you. Your great object ought to be to hold your land separate among yourselves, as you white neighbors; and so live and bring up your children in the same way as they do, and gradually to adopt their laws and manners. It is thus only that you can be prosperous and happy. Without this, you will find you will have to emigrate, or become extinct as a people. You see that the Great Spirit has made our form of society stronger than yours, and you must submit to adopt ours, if you wish to be happy by pleasing him.” Did I mention that you need to hurry up and make up your minds which it is going to be?

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 11th of 2nd M / Our meeting was silent, to me a season of poverty & stupor. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

February 14, Sunday: Christopher Latham Sholes, who would invent the first practical typewriter and the QWERTY keyboard, was born in Morresburg, Pennsylvania. He would assist in the abolition of the death penalty in Wisconsin.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 14th of 2 M / In the mornng Meeting Hannah Dennis appeared in testimony. – Silent in the Afternoon. –
Our John has been unwell for several days, & is subject to frequent turns of hevy fever & head Achs which seems at times threatening of fixed disorder, he seems better this Afternoon & evening, but his frequent attacks excites anxiety on his account. –5th day 18th of 2 M / At meeting J Dennis expressed a few words which was otherwise silent. – my mind was occupied in the awful execution of four pirates which takes place this day in Boston. –Oh may they have so repented as to experience forgiveness for their many fold crimes –
No buisness in the Preparative meeting –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 21, Sunday: In Northampton, Massachusetts, Miriam Warner died at the age of 11.

A “PIOUS CHILD” TRACT

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 21st of 2nd M / In the forenoon Meeting D Buffum was engaged in a very lively testimony – In the Afternoon – Anne Dennis appeard in a few words & Hannah was concerned in a lively appearance. –
To me it was a season of poverty, tho’ a little life sprung up towards the close in the Afternoon*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 25, Thursday: A Quaker monthly meeting was established in Rochesterville, New York.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 25th of 2 M / Did not attend our Moy [Monthly] Meeting this day held at Portsmouth, with which I am not fully satisfied. I have been thro’ the day very destitute of life. – Those who attended Said it was a season of some favor but not as flowing as at sometimes the buisness was conducted with decorum & some long & tedious cases brought to a close. – Set part of the evening with my H at Sally Eastons –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

February 28, Sunday: Former President Thomas Jefferson presided over the foundation of the University of Virginia at Charlottesville. (He had designed the first buildings of the campus. The first classes would not begin until 1825.)

Percy Bysshe Shelley and Mary Godwin Wollstonecraft Shelley left Naples.

At Vienna's Redoutensaal, Die Huldigung, a cantata by Johann Baptist Schenk to words of Höltz, was performed for the initial time.

Schäfers Klagelied D.121 to words of Johann Wolfgang von Goethe, the first of Franz Schubert's lieder to be presented in public, was performed for the initial time, in the Gasthof "zum römischen Kaiser."

A total of 66 students were registered at the Yearly Meeting School of the Religious Society of Friends in Providence, Rhode Island.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 28th of 2nd M 1819 / Our morning Meeting was silent & rather smaller than usual owing to a number of friends & attenders of our meeting having gone to Portsmouth to attend the funeral of Mary Mott daughter of our late friend Jacob Mott who departed this life the 26th inst at the old Mansion house, her remains were carried to friends Meeting house & after Meeting interd
In the Afternoon father Rodman deliverd a few words very appropriate & to me savory. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 4, Thursday: J.W. Pastorf (1767-1838) of Drossen, Germany began to make drawings of the solar disk including sketches of sunspot groups (he would continually generate these sketches until November 4, 1833; the drawings are now in the archives of the Royal Astronomical Society Library).

SUNSPOTS

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 4th of 3rd M 1819 / Our meeting was Silent & tho' a part of it was solemn & a good covering experienced in my mind, yet a very considerable part of it was very barran & unsettled. -
The fault was doubtless my own, which is no consolation*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 7, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 7th of 3rd M / Our meeting in the morning was pretty well attended considering the weather. D Buffum bore a lively & acceptable testimony. - In the Afternoon we were Silent. -
In the evening set a little while at Isaac Mitchells. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 9, Tuesday: In Providence, Rhode Island, the chain of events leading to the establishment of the African Union Meeting and Schoolhouse and eventually to the organization and construction of the Congdon Street Baptist Church began in the vestry of the 1st Baptist Meeting House with a meeting called at the request of a group of African Americans, for the establishment of a place for people of color to worship God and provide secular education for their children. In addition to persons of color, this planning meeting was attended by influential, sympathetic whites. A 12-person committee would select a lot at the corner of Meeting Street (which then ran all the way up the hill) and Congdon Street, Friend Moses Brown would purchase it, construction of a schoolhouse would begin, and during June 1820 the structure would open for divine worship. The large room would be fitted with pews, and the building would be completed and dedicated in 1821 (this would come to be referred to as the African Union Meeting House; in a later timeframe, hostile white neighbors would cause the structure to be torn down, and in an even later timeframe, there would be erected the Congdon Street Baptist Church).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 9th of 3rd M / While sitting with my mother this evening she related the following Anecdote, which interested me, much. I thought it very instructing. – She said, when she was a little girl there was one of her young associates was to have a Ball on her birth day evening to which she was invited & set her heart much on going but her father & mother was opposed to it, of which she thought exceedingly hard & could not be reconciled, her father reasoned the case & told her that her grand father & grandmother Clarke would be exceedingly hurt at her going to a Ball & that aside from his own objections that he could not consent to it on their account – well she told her father, she would make a Bargain with him, which was that if he would furnish her with as many bugle Beads & Ribbons as she wanted to wear, that she would give up the Ball. to this he consented with readiness, in a short time gave her the money for the purpose, but she began to reflect on his kindness & that as he had consented against his own judgement, she would not but any ribonds that was very gay, but keep as much in the moderation as the nature of the case would admit. – The Beads & Ribbons were bought & fancifully wrought into various shapes for a head dress &c. & the time soon came when she was to pay a visit to her cousins who were of the Church of England & what were called fashionable folks, here she expected to be greatly respected & caressed for her beautiful & fine appearance, it so happened that there were some others of her acquaintances there of the Brenton family who soon began to look at her, & then at one another, & wink & sneer, at this she soon became suspicious that some of her ribonds were out of order. She then began to feel on her head to see if all was right, & up her hand would go to her head to ascertain, at this sight her friends would become more diverted, till at length she was laughed at, which was so great a source of mortification that before night she was ready to put her head any where to get it out of sight, at night when she went home, her head dress was taken off & never resumed. – This story goes to prove a Sentiment in which I have been long

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

confirmed, vizt that a Quaker has nothing to expect from the esteem of the world by conforming to its fashions maxims & c. but on the contrary the finger of scorn is pointed at every departure from "the good order & regulations of our Society. – At another time she says her mother gave her a handsome plain silk handkerchief with which she was dissatisfied & sold it for a green gause one & wore it to meeting - at the dinner table her father asked why there was no meeting at Vinals meeting & she replied to him that there was. his reply was "Why what presbiterian girl was that I saw at meeting with a green gause handkerchief" this also was a source of mortification & pretty much broke up her desire for finery. That a very considerable experience & observation fully confirms me that our young friends never appear to better advantage or are more respected by the world than when they come up nobly in the line of the Predicessors

March 11, Thursday: A temporary rise in the level of the Cumberland River enabled the steamboat General Jackson, unloaded of all its supplies, to pass over the Harpeth Shoals below Nashville, and make itself the initial commercial steamer to arrive at that settlement (this vessel would sink in 1821 during another attempt to negotiate these shoals, but nothing would be done to improve the river channel for a decade).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 11th of 3rd M / At meeting our frd D Buffum was very lively & pertinent in a short testimony, wherein he pointed out tha good effect of righteousness & the bad effect of disobedience

It was a season of some favor to my mind for which I desire to be thankful. –Jonathon Dennis & wife set the Afternoon & took tea with us, just before they left us they expressed a few words in a short setting whereby we may probably improve, if a right application is made.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 14, Sunday: Overture in E by Franz Schubert was performed for the initial time, in the Josef Müllerscher Kunstsaal am Rothen Thurm of Vienna.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 14th of 3rd M / Our Meetings were both Silent, & I believe generally barran Season. – Tho' a considerable number met with us I feared there was but little bread dispenced to the multitude which was doubtless owing to our want of Faith in that Ancient power that has ever fed those who have trusted in it – May our Faith be Strengthened, may we apply our hearts to that quickening Spirit which raises the Dead & casts out devils, So that our minds may rise superior to the hindering & beclouding things of time & sense, that when we present our bodys before

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

the most high, we may be enabled to offer an acceptable offering, an oblation of Sweet incense, to his honor & praise. – Being called to sit in the front of our public Meetings as an ensign to the people, What need there is for me often to Wash in the Lava of regnereation, that the weight of my spirit may be felt in our assemblys, but alas how poor I am. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 15, Monday: John Hosmer made out a deed to Abel Hosmer for some property “in the west part of Concord.”

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 15 of 3rd M / We had to sit the evening with us Wm Lee his daughters, Mary & Abby. Avis Mumford & Sister Mary this was a pleasant visit to us

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 18, Thursday: In Dresden, Carl Maria von Weber was in bed with a fever and his wife refrained from letting him be aware that her 3-month-old infant also was ill (later in the month the infant would die).

In South Reading (now Wakefield), Massachusetts, Frederick Slocumb Wiley was born to Keturah Green Wiley and Benjamin Brown Wiley. He would be prepared for college at South Reading Academy, and his graduation oration would be on the subject of “Reason and Faith” in the light of a passage in LOCKE ON THE UNDERSTANDING.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 18th of 3rd M 1819 / Henry Knowles accompanied by Andrew Nichols Jr have been engaged in visiting families in the Moy [Monthly] Meeting for several days, they commenced in town Yesterday attended by Jonathon Dennis & I went with them to one place in the evening, & to two this morning before meeting - At Meeting Henry was Silent but Andrew had a short acceptable testimony, -Jonathon joined Henry this Afternoon to proceed, as Andrew felt it necessary to go home on acct of his family. -but before they had proceeded far -Henry seemed to give up the Prospect, & concluded to return to his father Anthonys at Portsmouth. –

The importance of the Appointment of An Elder was never so hevy on me before, Oh the need of Wisdom, of religious depth, that we may rightly discover between thing & thing.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 21, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 21st of 3rd M / Our Meetings were both pretty well attended considering the wet Walking - father Rodman bore short

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

testimonys in each, & each were seasons of some favor to me

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 22, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 22 of 3 M / I have felt this day a renwal of life, & can say with Some formerly, "has not my heart burned within me"

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Hannah Bocking, who had poisoned Jane Grant at Wardlow Miers in Derbyshire, was only 16 when hanged, which was a female record (execution of persons under 16 would remain a possibility in England until the Children's Act of 1908).

OTHER WOMEN HANGED IN ENGLAND DURING 1819

Date	Name	Age	Place of execution	Crime
08/03	Sarah Huntingford	61	Winchester (Gallows Hill)	Murder of husband
12/03	Sarah Hurst		Aylesbury	Murder of husband
22/03	Mary Woodman	30	Exeter	Murder of husband
29/03	Mary McGarry		Downpatrick	Child Murder
23/04	Mary Bissaker	56	Warwick	Coining

March 25, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 25 of 3rd M / It is 5th day morning, very rainy & a prospect of a Small Moy [Monthly] Meeting. – Yet I feel a hope there will be enough assemble to transact the buisness with a degree of propriety sufficient at least to preserve the Great cause from dishonor

The Travelling was exceedingly bad, & all the morning a drenching rain so that our meeting was very small, Abraham Barker was the only friend from Portsmouth Preparative Meeting. – no buisness of importance was entered upon, but refer'd to next Moy [Monthly] Meeting

This is the first time I ever knew a Moy [Monthly] Meeting held in Newport when there was no friend present from Portsmouth & only one from that Preparative Meeting & he from Tiverton.

Lewis L Clarke was over & dined with us. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 28, Sunday: That morning the ocean-going steamboat Savannah departed from the Fly Market Wharf on Manhattan Island under Captain Moses Rogers and mate Stephen Rogers to heading toward the port of Savannah, whence she would proceed to Liverpool and St. Petersburg. Hundreds watched from the Battery as she passed Governor's Island, entered the Narrows, and gradually went hull down on the horizon. After an uneventful 9-day voyage she would arrive at that port, and hundreds of citizens would stand on the bank of the Savannah River to cheer and wave their hats and handkerchiefs.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 28th of 3rd M 1819 / Our Meeting was as large as usual excepting of those who usually occupy the rising seats D Buffum confined by indisposition, Father Rodman by lameness & R Mitchell & J Dennis at Portsmouth. I alone was left which produced no small exercise & caused searching of heart. - Oh the responsibility of going in & out before the people. - In the Afternoon we were in a similar Situation & the weight of the Meeting again fell on me. - both sittings were silent & I thought were favor'd. - Took tea with D Buffum found him comfortable & if nothing more unfavorable takes place, think it probable he may be our again in a few days. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 31, Wednesday: At the fee level that had been decided, which was $100 per scholar per school year, registration at the new Yearly Meeting School of the Religious Society of Friends on the Moses Brown farm in Providence, Rhode Island had risen to 81 Quaker children. These scholars ranged in age from 7 and 8 to 27 and 28.

Nicolò Paganini gave his 1st concert in Naples, at the Teatro del Fondo.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 31st of 3 M / This Afternoon walked over to the Point & from a degree of curiosity called to see the widow Dolly Thurston a woman about 94 Years of age, found her quite intelligible in conversation, free & pleasant and apparantly possessing a very innocent mind, & I thought evinced more quietness than some who has made a higher profession of religion & perhaps really had more experience after sitting with her for a little time, asking her questions & attending to her replys & remarks - I observed that while sitting by her I had felt a good evidence of the peacefully quiet state of her mind, & that I had no doubt it would continue with her while she staid here & go with her beyond the grave. she said she had seen many changes thro' life, but had much to be thankful for & tho' low in circumstances, was much better than many. - After a few remarks in that way we parted & my mind was favord with a covering which well paid for the visit. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 April 1, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 1st of 4th M / Our meeting I thought was rather Smaller than usual. - & tho' my mind was a part of the time under a degree of favor, Yet it was a poor time to me

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 April 4, Sunday: Zemire und Azor, an opera by Louis Spohr to words of Ihlee after Marmontel, was performed for the initial time, in Frankfurt-am-Main, on the eve of the composer's 35th birthday.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 4th of 4th M 1819 / Our morning meeting was pretty well attended D Buffum was engaged in a lively testimony & of greater length than is usual for him - he was followed by short communications from Anne Hannah & Jonathon Dennis The Afternoon Meeting was Silent & well attended - to me both were suffering seasons - being afflicted with a head Ach, was unable to enter into feeling as I was desirous of doing. - My dear mother seems very unwell with a cold. perhaps it is nothing more than the common cold which goes about & is now very prevalent, particularly among children, but her lungs seem much affected with soreness & phlegmatic oppression, which at her advanced age & amaciated frame, excites some concern at her situation.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 April 5, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 5 of 4 M / Mother continues poorly & has today in addition to her other complaints some pain in the side & under her Arm. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 April 6, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 6 of 4 M / I think I never saw mother so Sick as she is today considering every circumstance, perhaps the effects of medicine may occasion her weakness in some degree, she has set up some in the course of the day, but there is an appearance in her eyes & countenance generally, which excites some alarm in my mind for her situation. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 April 7, Wednesday: The New York legislature established a Board of Agriculture, to oversee appropriations for agriculture, and appropriated $10,000 for each of the next two years.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

4th day 7 of 4 M / Mother seems better today having slept more last night, but the oppression continues

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 8, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 8 of 4 M / Our meeting was small but a good degree of favor - silent - Sister E Rodman returned from Providence where She has been for two Months assisting in the Yearly Meeting School

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 10, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 10th of 4 M / Mother still labors under her disorder, but seems Cheerful -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 11, Easter Sunday: James and William Smith of Gloucester, 14 and 16 years of age, drowned while fishing.

Samuel Taylor Coleridge met John Keats.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 11th of 4th M 1819 / Our meeting was indeed a favored one to me this morning, being enable to experience that true quiet which giveth strength under trying dispensations Yesterday & this morning has been seasons of large experience to me, & had to sympathise with one in affliction which had better not be explained here. - Father Rodman was favored in a short testimony & D Buffum twice engaged livingly & powerfully -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 14, Wednesday: Mary Heyward Melvin was born in Concord to Charles Melvin (1) and Betsy Farrar Melvin.

THE MELVINS OF CONCORD

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 14th of 4th M / I have never seen a greater need for all to resign themselves into the hands of a wise & Merciful Creator & Redeemer, casting our confidence on Him & striving to cleave to him as the Munition of Rocks, than for a few days past. May I never loose my confidence in his Power to Save, Oh what Balm

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

it is to the Soul in affliction to feel the Lord as a sure Hiding place - tho' as respects my own particular I have at present no uncommon depression of mind, yet having had to be Baptized with those who are, can speak from experience

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 15, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 15th of 4th M / Our Meeting was silent - a few words expressed by a friend. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 17, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*7th day 17 of 4 M / Our Select meeting was held this day. - The forepart of it was a season of favor, but ended under some exercise
R Mitchell Dined with us. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 18, Sunday: Carlos Manuel de Céspedes was born in Bayamo, Cuba.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 18th of 4 M / Our morning meeting appeared to be a season of favor. Anne Greene H Dennis & D Buffum in succession were very lively in testimony. The Afternoon Meeting was su[?] of which & hardly of the morning I was hardly in a state to judge, being very unwell & suffering very considerable constant pain of body thro' the day - A Greene & Sarah Fowler took tea with us. - In the evening I called on several friends, but soon returned Home & passed the evening quietly & pleasantly with my

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

H & Sister Mary, who has been with us several

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 22, Thursday: The 5th Frontier War between the Xhosa, on the one hand, and the English and the Boers, on the other, began when Xhosa chief Ndlamba and prophet Makanda Nxele directed a force of 6,000 in a daylight attack on Grahamstown. The British garrison of 350 was reinforced by a group of Khoikhoi led by Jan Boesak. The British bullets did not turn to water as had been forecast by the prophet. The attackers fled, and the prophet surrendered and would be placed on Robben Island, which is virtually isolated due to a pounding Atlantic surf (he would drown during an escape attempt on December 25th).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 22 of 4th M 1819 / Our third day morning I strained my back & have ever since been scarcely able to move & with the greatest difficulty to raise myself in bed. In consequence of which I am unable to go to meeting, & am sorry for it particularly as it is Preparative Meeting day. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 25, Sunday: Frederic Hudson was born in Quincy MA to Barzillai Hudson and Rebecca Eaton Hudson. Although he would be raised and educated primarily in Boston, he would spend a couple of years at school in Concord as the culmination of his formal education before heading to New-York to seek his fortune at the age of 17.

(In New-York, he would work first at Hudson's News Room, his brother Edward's news-gathering agency, where he would come to the attention of James Gordon Bennett, who had been publishing the New-York Herald for about a year. Hudson would become a reporter for the Herald — the paper's 3rd employee counting Bennett himself. While working for his brother, Hudson went to the docks for information about incoming vessels. At the Herald, Concord historian Leslie Perrin Wilson would proclaim, this aggressive so-called "Father of American Journalism" eventually would be sending boats out to meet ships on their way into port — Wilson supposing there to be something new or novel about this centuries-old practice.)

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 25 of 4th M / I am still so lame in my back & hips as to be unable to Sit in meeting. — This I particularly regret to day as it is pleasant & a pretty large gathering of others who are not members. & D Buffum gone to Connanicut to be at the opening of the Meeting there for the Season — & Jonathon Dennis & Wife on a visit to their relations in Berklay - This left the high seat with only father Rodman & R Mitchell, & in the Afternoon father alone.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 28, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 28th of 4 M / Yesterday was a very Sick day with me my back & loins were in much pain from which I was much reduced by

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

night by the operation of a Dose of Senna Armiseed liquors Salts & manna – but the pain continues some today, tho' I am comfortable to yesterday, for which I believe I can say of a truth "I am thankful"

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 29, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 29 of 4th M / This is our Moy [Monthly] Meeting day at Portsmouth -my back so lame & I am otherwise so unwell that I am unable to attend. it is consolation that when I have been well, that exercions have been made to get to meetings & that I have seldom missed one from worldly concerns, but on the contrary, many sacrifices have been made to keep up that part of duty, & tho' there have been many seasons when it has seemd as if there was but little benefit resulted from sitting in meeting, yet it has always in the end produced a measure of satisfaction. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 2, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 2nd of 5th M 1819 / Again at home unable to attend Meeting it is the first time I ever missed six meetings in succession on any account that I recollect. – Sister E dined with us & Sister R took tea. Their company helped to pass the time more agreeably. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 6, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 6th of 5th M 1819 / Our meeting considering many friends are absent at Greenwich Quarterly Meeting, was pretty well attended. Silent I to me rather a lean time, it is the first time I have attended since I have been unwell, – Our friends who went to the queaterly Meeting on third day, had a fine time up & pleasant weather since they have been gone

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 7, Friday: Johann Baptist Schenk's cantata Der Mai for solo voices, chorus and orchestra was performed for the initial time, in the Vienna Redoutensaal.

As an example of the distress being caused by the Panic of 1819, on this day J. Joseph Henry II wrote to William Henry III observing that their rifle business was down "in consequence of the Cotton business being so very bad to the southern, that it will make out rifles business decline too."

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 7th of 5 M / Ourt friends have returned from the

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Quarterly Meeting. they say several Ministering friends were present from other parts of the Yearly Meeting among them were John Bailey, Micajah Collins, Experience Sherman & Avis Keene, also Mary Allen & that several of them with Several of our own Ministers were engaged to declare the Truth in the Power of it. – There was but little buisness to transact. – After the Quarterly Meeting was over – The funeral of Thos Anthonys Wife was held at the Meeting house & Several lively & pertinent testimonys borne. – She was a Woman in rather Younger life say not to exceed 37 Years, but had attained very good Standing & much beloved both in society & among her neighbours & by both much lamented. She promised pretty extensive usefulness in Society, being an Elder & had, sometimes appeared in public testimony. – I sympathise with her Consort, being an early friend of my youth

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 9, Sunday: Gioachino Rossini's cantata 9 maggio 1819 to words of Genoino was performed for the initial time, in the Teatro San Carlo of Naples, during the visit of Emperor Franz I.

President James Monroe, in Savannah, Georgia to inspect the new steamship Savannah about to depart on its transatlantic voyage, attended the dedication of the new Independent Presbyterian Church. The musical portions of the ceremony were conducted by the church's choir director Lowell Mason (unfortunately, the new organ for the church was not yet playable).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 9th of 5th M / In our morning meeting Hannah Dennis was twice lively in testimony & D Buffum was once very sweet & lively. – In the Afternoon we were Silent.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 13, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 13th of 5th M / Our Meeting was small, being stormy. – to me it was a rather dull time. – there was no preaching but I thought divine favor was felt among us. – My feelings were particularly strengthened with the company of some of the Younger branches of Society who set with us –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 14, Friday: A Sunday School was organized at the First Parish Unitarian Church in Kennebunk, the 1st in Maine:

To all who regard the sanctity of the Lord's day, and the importance of instructing youth in the principles of the blessed religion of Jesus Christ, –
You are invited to send your children to the Meeting House in this Parish, to receive instruction in the Scriptures of truth,

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

in a manner best suited to their ages, circumstances, and capacities. Those who are able are desired to bring a Bible, or testament and primer, or any book containing the Assembly's Catechism, and any other Christian catechisms on hand. Books will be provided for those unable to procure them, and for such this instruction is more specially designed.

– Kennebunk Gazette, May 14, 1819.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 14th of 5th M 1819 / A sense of depression at the state of things which are dull both in temporal & spirituals. – may we proffit by every dispensation, it is my desire to, & that the disposition to "give thanks in all things" may be cultivated. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 16, Sunday: At the Royal Chapel on the island of Pape'ete, three ministers sent out by the London Missionary Society, the Reverends Henry Bicknell, William Henry, and Charles Wilson, preached and then the Reverend Bicknell stood on the steps of the pulpit, took water from a basin held by the Reverend Henry, and poured it on the head of King Tū Tū-nui-'ē'a-i-te-atua Pōmare II, baptizing him as a Christian (the monarch was fearful that he had lost favor with the god 'Oro; in 1821 he would die due to excessive drinking and be succeeded by his son as Pōmare III).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 16th of 5th M 1819 / Our Morning Meeting was silent & a pretty solid time – In the Afternoon Father Rodman was concerned in a short but lively testimony of encouragement to virtue & a reliance on the sufficiency of Providence to support in every dispensation Set most of the evening with Br Rodman –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

May 19, Wednesday: A large meeting was held in Cape Town, to express the indignation of the whole colony of the Cape of Good Hope against the attempt of the Colonial-office to make the Cape a penal colony. (This and subsequent meetings and acts would induce Earl Grey to forego his purpose.)

The initial steamboat to make it up the Missouri River, a 50-ton craft named the Independence, Captain John Nelson, carrying whiskey, flour, sugar, and iron castings, arrived at St. Charles after a journey of 150 miles (leaving St. Louis on May 6th and arriving on May 19th after seven days of actual river steaming time, which is slightly better than 21 miles per day).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 19th of 5th M / My dear & very Affectionate Mother spent this Afternoon with us She has for Several weeks been confined with Severe indisposition & a part of the time I had little or no hopes of ever seeing her out again. – This is the first time she has been out & seems as smart as for some time past, has resumed her usual cheerfulness, tho' through the whole she never entirely lost it.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 20, Thursday: The SS Savanah set out on her transatlantic voyage.

Kamehameha II (Kalaninui 'Iolani Liholiho) became king of the Hawaiian Islands.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 20 of 5 M / Our meeting was silent & to me a season of

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

some favor – committees were in town. attending to several appointments from the Moy [Monthly] meeting –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ May 23, Sunday: Lieutenant John Franklin led an overland expedition to explore the north coast of America from the mouth of the Coppermine River to Repulse Bay. Midshipman George Back set out with Sir John for York Factory on the Hudson's Bay Company ship Prince of Wales. The expedition would pass its first winter at Cumberland House and its second at a base camp they had built by Winter Lake, "Fort Enterprise" between Great Slave Lake and the Coppermine River.

CARTOGRAPHY

THE FROZEN NORTH

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 23rd of 5 M / Our morning meeting was well attended D Buffum was very lively in testimony & Hannah Dennis appeared twoce & I believe it was a solemn time to some minds present. – Between meetings wrote to Uncle & Aunt Stanton - informing them that Sister Sally was put to bed this morning about 6 OC with a fine healthy daughter. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ May 24, Monday: At a performance of La Gazza ladra in Gioachino Rossini's home town of Pesaro, followers of Caroline of Brunswick, Duchess of Wales did everything they could to disrupt the proceedings. She and her lover were hoping to repay a perceived snub he had given them during the previous year's performance. Most citizens hoped to make his return a gala occasion but the toughs forced the town fathers to smuggle him in the stage door. They carried out whistling and disruptions from all sides of the theater. Rossini would never set foot in Pesaro again.

Alexandrina Victoria, who would in 1837 become Queen Victoria, was born in Kensington Palace in London, the 1st and only child of Edward, Duke of Kent (allegedly) and Princess Victoria Maria Louisa of Saxe-Coburg-Saalfeld — and hemophilia became a fact of life in the English and eventually the Russian royal families. As there is only one chance in 50,000, genetically, that indolent Edward had been biologically her father and that that gene for hemophilia had been introduced into the royal family at this point by a chance mutation, it seems likely that from this point forward all the Brit troubles with their royals have been utterly unnecessary. If Victoria was a bastard, then it should be the socialite Ernst, Prince of Hanover on the throne right now, not Elizabeth II — and Chuckie "I want to be your tampon" Stuart would have been being the mere socialite.²⁵²

Two women reigned during Thoreau's florut. There were many similarities:

Dynasty	Period	Person	Florut
Windsor	1837-present	Queen Victoria	1837-1901
Ch'ing 清	1644-1911	The Empress Dowager Tz'u-hsi 慈禧	1861-1908

252. Hey, let's dig her up the way the Empress Dowager was dug up. Maybe we can shuck the lot of them. What price news copy?

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Two women reigned during Thoreau's florut. There were many similarities:

Dynasty	Period	Person	Florut
Windsor	1837-present	Queen Victoria	1837-1901
Ch'ing 清	1644-1911	The Empress Dowager Tz'u-hsi 慈禧	1861-1908

It was the Duke and Duchess of Kent who selected the name Victoria, but her uncle George IV, who had a certain sort of rank in the family, insisted that she be named Alexandrina after her godfather Tsar Alexander I of Russia.

Victoria's putative or official daddy would die when she was but eight months old and her mama the Duchess of Kent would then (:-) develop a close relationship with Sir John Conroy, an ambitious Irish officer. Conroy, nice man that he was, would act as if (:-) Victoria were his own daughter and would have a major influence over her as a child:

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 24th of 5 M / Went this morning to Connanicut with our fr D Buffum to attend the funeral of Robert Watsons daughter. -

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

D was concerned in a very lively & pertinent testimony which I hope may tend to the instruction & edification of some present -we returned & dined at J L Greenes & then crossed the ferry & got home before 5 OC PM

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 27, Thursday: Julia Ward (Julia Ward Howe) was born in New-York, into a strict and well-to-do Episcopalian Calvinist family. She was a descendant of two colonial Rhode Island governors, Richard Ward and Samuel Ward. Her mother would die while she was still young, and she would be raised by an aunt. When her banker father would die, she would become the ward of a more liberal-minded uncle.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 27th of 5th M 1819 / Our Moy [Monthly] Meeting this day held in Town was pretty well attended - in the first meeting which was a solid favor'd season - father Rodman was engaged in a Solid weighty testimony. - In the last we had considerable buisness, as is usual in this Month preparatory to the Yearly Meeting. -
Benjamin Freeborn Isaac Lawton Zacheus Chase Amos Collins, Elizabeth Lawton Jane Lawton & Hannah Gould dined with us.*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 1, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 1st of 6th M 1819 / It has been exceedingly unpleasant to me to engage in party contest of any kind, believing that under the influence of it, we are very subject to do & say things which unfit the mind for the reception of good.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 3, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

5th day 3rd of 6 M / Our meeting was pretty well attended, Silent & to me a season of Warfare & but little overcoming -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 6, Sunday: The North American Review mentioned that “a whole race of people has become nearly extinct,” an “unfortunate people, whose fate it has been, like the morning dew, insensibly and mysteriously to disappear, before the lights of civilization and christianity.” “That they should become extinct is inevitable,” the journal explained but “this cannot excuse us for pressing upon them with indecent haste. If they must perish, let them die a natural, and not a violent death.”²⁵³

Hawkins Wheeler saw a sea serpent, and reported that it “was entirely black; the head, which perfectly resembled a snake’s, was elevated from four to seven feet above the surface of the water, and his back appeared to be composed of bunches or humps, apparently about as large as, or a little larger than, a half barrel; I think I saw as many as ten or twelve.... I considered them to be caused by the undulatory motion of the animal — the tail was not visible, but from the head to the last hump that could be seen, was, I should judge, 50 feet.”

SEA SERPENT SIGHTINGS

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 6th of 6th M / Our Meeting this morning was large & tho’ to me a season of some barraness, yet others no doubt were favord with life. - Jonathon Dennis - D Buffum & Hannah Dennis were in succession engaged to bear testimony. - In the Afternoon we were silent
With Br D Rodman took tea at Jona Dennis.*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 7, Monday: Death of William Shelley at the age of 3½; Mary Godwin Wollstonecraft Shelley, in a depression, began writing an incest novella, MATHILDA (which would see publication during May 1820).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 7th of 6 M / I have been engaged much of today, as well as sixth & seventh days in tending on Carpenters at work in the Meeting House Yard, at puting the fence in order & fixing the Meeting House for Yearly Meeting, this is buisness which many of the brethren have had to do, whose Mortal remains are in the adj burying ground & thier spirits I trust in Heven, where I do mine nisty[?] be in the Lords time. - Set a little while this evening at Br John Rodmans very pleasantly. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

253. Unsigned review of the Reverend Heckewelder’s AN ACCOUNT OF THE HISTORY, MANNERS AND CUSTOMS OF THE INDIANS NATIONS WHO ONCE INHABITED PENNSYLVANIA..., in North American Review, 6 (June 1819) 156, 170.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

June 10, Thursday: The Shelleys fled to Livorno, where Mary Godwin Wollstonecraft Shelley would remain in depression during the summer while Percy Bysshe Shelley was writing THE Cenci (printed in Italy, this would be sent to England for publication in 1820).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 10th of 6th M 1819 / Our meeting was silent, & in the last, which was Preparative, we had no buisness, but to appoint representatives. - I have remarked that the 5th day meeting previous to yearly Meeting is generally a dull time. Friends are generally so occupied in preparing for the latter that their minds is too unsettled to experience the arisings of life as at some other times. Were we all as good as we ought to be a little more incumberance at times than common would not so obstruct the circulation of the Sap of life in the heart
This Afternoon Wm Rickman of England & Sam Wood of N York arrived & took quarters for the yearly Meeting at Aunt Nancy Carpenters.- Wm was here about 46 years ago companion to Saml Emlen & the year before that to [blank] Oxley he was then about 27 & is now 73 Years of Age*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 11, Friday: Barnett Sparling of Gloucester died abroad (the family would receive notice of the death on July 11th).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 11th of 6th M / Wm Rickman Saml Wood & Father Rodman went to Connanicut this morning to attend a meeting appointed there by Elizabeth Walker, - which they say was well attended by the inhabitants & a season of favor. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 12, Saturday: Manuel González Salmón y Gómez de Torres replaced Carlos Fernando Martínez de Irujo y Tacón, marqués de Casa-Irujo, duque de Sotomayor as First Secretary of State of Spain.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 12th of 6th M / This day our Yearly commenced at Portsmouth, whither I went in a Chaise with our Ancient friend & Brother John Casey to attend the Select Meeting, which was a season of precious favor - Wm Rickman appeared in Supplication. Ruth Halleck in a short & Daniel Quimby in a lengthy testimony. - We dined at Uncle Saml Thurstons & John intended to return to the Meeting House to Sit in the Meeting for Sufferings, but at the time it set in to Rain so hard that he felt discouraged from that & the circumstances of his Age & infermities so we returned home by 4 OClock. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

June 13, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day Our Meeting this morning was large. A few words in the opening by Elizabeth Walker, followed by a very lively testimony by Margaret Judge A Supplication by Mary Newhall & the meeting closed after a short communication by Elizabeth Walker. – directly after dinner Father Rodman & I were called on to meet E Walker to consult on a meeting for Sailors this Afternoon at 7 OC the time proposed was very streightening, being very short to give general notice, but after sitting down with her & hearing her open the concern in a very solid manner & feeling the weight of it measurably to arise in my mind I dare not take the responsibility of a refference for a single day - so forth I went & made proclamation on the Wharves & at the public Houses that a meeting was appointed at our Meeting House at 7 OClock this evening at which "Sea fairing Men were particularly invited" assistance was also rendered by several young men who were very active. --At 4 OC the Meeting was again very large Elizabeth opened in a short address, & Daniel Quimby Was engaged in a good sound, plain & Honest testimony – at the conclusion Elizabeth's meeting was given out. – At 7 OC the Meeting gathered again & many Sailors in their trowsers & red shirts appeared with a very great concourse of other people, so that the House was as full as I ever saw it. – Elizabeth Stood nearly or quite two Hours in a very remarkable testimony, so full of Gospel power, so clear concerned & fraught with good sense delivered in so much engaging simplicity that I thought I never heard the like, & the people were perfectly still so much so that we seldom see the like even in much smaller meetings but after she sat Down, the bell having rung some time before for 9 OC, & the house being dark, tho' some candles were brought in, the meeting broke without the usual sign of shaking hands, which was the only unpleasant circumstance which occured. –The people were highly pleased, & I hope much good sees was sown in the minds of many. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 14, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day Our Meeting began at the usual hour it was opened by a short but living testimony, from Wm Rickman, Benjamin Mitchell & Prayer by Daniel Quimby – & just before the opening of the meeting a few very pertinent remarks by D Buffum The Usual buisness of reading the minutes of the last Year & the various Epistles from the different Yearly Meetings & the appointment of committees occupied the time of the Meeting. – At the 4th hour the meeting again met & the State of Society was entered into – Some of the Answers excited much feeling & many pertinent remarks, but none was more striking to my feelings than those from our Aged brother Moses Brown on the subject of plainness of Apparal, he observed that plainness of dress had ever been a testimony of Society, which he desired may be kept

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

too, & that friends encourage it in their children for he who had had to suffer much in times past in stripping himself of some things which he deemed Superfluous, could bear testimony that the cross borne in that respect had Yealded peace & being an old man, not expecting to see many of them again, he recommended to society & individuals that care be taken to keep themselves & their children in plainness. This evening we had a pleasant Silent opportunity in the family, Ruth Hallack Avis Keene & Thos Jones bore short but pleasant & encouraging testimonies

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 15, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day The Select meeting concluded this morning under a most solemn covering, testimonies from Wm Rickman Elizabeth Walker & a prayer by Margaret Judge. – In our Meeting this Afternoon held at 3 OClock, the doings of the meeting Sufferings were read, & their report as School committee was also read which was of a very encouraging nature, & friends begin to look forward to usefulness from the institution

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 16, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day The meeting this morning had but little buisness before it, several short testimonies, & one of some length & of some Power from D Quimby, & several weighty remarks from Wm Rickman. -- At 5 OC this afternoon the meeting met & went thro' the buisness & would have closed under a solemn covering, but for the interruptions of Micah Ruggles who frequently spoke & every time disquieted the Meeting especially towards the close of it. he is a new member & nearly in a religious Phrenzy

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 17, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day Our Public Meeting was very large & a very respectable audience - many of the heads of the town were present, but the meeting was sadly disturbed by Micah Ruggles, who early rose & stood a long time declaring what many believe to be the Words of his imagination but for which he claimed the highest Authority. -When caution was administered by Wm Rickman & Elizabeth Walker. a few words by Manassah Robins & a long testimony by D Quimby, but Truth did not rise into that dominion as at some seasons. Our Meeting in the Afternoon at 4 OC Appointed by Elizabeth Walker & Margaret Judge for the People of colour, was pretty

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

well attended by that peoples & an Abundance of others. – Margaret was first in testimony followed by Elizabeth Walker in a long testimony of great gospel Authority & the meeting concluded in Solemn supplication by Margaret & rose to general satisfaction.

Our Lodgers at this Yearly Meeting time were Ruth Hallock & her companion Sarah Hull & attendant Richard Halstead – Thos Jones, Edward Cobb, John Read, Sarah & Susan Collins, Eunice Jones, Lydia Purinton & Olive Cobb, which made an agreeable family. – All in the course of this day have left us, excepting Ruth Hallock & her companions.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 18, Friday: Vincenzo Bellini arrives in Naples from Catania to matriculate at the Real College de musica di San Sebastiano.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day This morning Elizabeth Walker & Margaret Judge & their companions came in & took breakfast with us, of which we were glad, their company being very pleasant. After breakfast being joined by Wm Rickman & D Quimby, we fell into silence. Wm Rickman & Ruth Hallock in addition to a few words SPOken in the life by E Walker, delivered short testimonies. – After which they began to separate. Ruth went to Connanicut on her way homeward & Wm Rickman & D Quimby to Portsmouth, but before dinner Richard Halstead returned from Connanicut with the Carriage Wheels Sadly broken. & Ruth & Sarah went immediately on to Narragansett accompanied by Isaac P Hazard & his Mother. –

This Yearly meeting has been a season of favor, & particularly so to us, as we have all been well, our buisness in the House all gone on Successfully, our company agreeable, but as to my own particular state of religious sensibility, I have not enjoyed so high a condition, as at times past or as at seasons when less cumbered, however there has been seasons in the course of it, when Israels Sheperd has been near, for which renew'd evidence of divine help I desire to be thankful. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 19, Saturday: The legislature of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts granted an act of incorporation to the Philoharmonic Society, its purpose being “extending and enlarging and improving the style of performance of vocal and instrumental music.”

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day This has been also a day not free from care of concerns realtive to Yearly Meeting. – The repairs of the Carriage of our febr R Hallock was completed this Afternoon & would have gone over to them, but for a thunder gust towards night. – towards the close of the Afternoon Our fr D Quimby returned from

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Portsmouth where he had been to attend a Meeting appointed there by Wm Rickman, - he took tea with us & afterwards called in to see my dear Mother. -we Set in Sister Sallys room where he bore a Sweet encouraging testimony to both young & old that were present & was very acceptable to Sally as she has been confined thro' the Year.y Meeting & not seen as much of friends as Common. - After all prospect of going over the ferrys were over Daniel with R Halstead returned to our House & lodged. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 20, Sunday: At 3AM Jacob (Jacques) Offenbach was born in Cologne (Köln), 7th of 12 children born to Isaac Juda Eberst "Der Offenbacher" (from Offenbach-am-Main), bookbinder, music teacher, composer and cantor, and Mariane Rindskupf, daughter of a money-changer and lottery-office keeper in Deutz.

A steam-assisted sailing packet of 300 tons, the SS Savannah, arrived at Liverpool port in England out of Savannah, Georgia in a mere 26 days despite having been able to utilize her onboard steam engine for only 80 hours before exhaustion of the coal supply. This had been the 1st time steam power had assisted a crossing of the Atlantic Ocean.

Sabine Remanofsky (who has been one of Professor William Rossi's students) has pointed out that during Waldo Emerson's sophomore and senior years at Harvard College, he belonged to various debating societies, and in particular to the "Pythologian Club," which, according to Emerson's own description, gathered the "smartest boys from the two sophomore and Junior classes" (in a letter written on this day). The purpose of the club was to develop the art of impromptu discussion amongst its members. This may in part explain

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Waldo's charisma and lecturing abilities: he trained from a very early age. Also, interestingly, some of the topics for the Harvard debating societies are roughly the same as the ones taken up by the Hedge/Transcendental Club later on (especially, why American culture hadn't produced "anything first rate" yet), which again highlights Emerson's early concern over the necessity of creating not only a national culture for America, but also the basis and sine qua non conditions for such a culture to develop, hence the need for an intellectual field with a variety of networks for the intellectuals (links with newspapers, publishers, bookshops, lyceums, etc.). She doesn't make the claim, of course, that young Waldo was fully aware, by 1821, that there was a need for an intellectual field — but she definitely is pointing out that this sort of concern was, so to speak, part of the zeitgeist.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day / This morning we rose early crossed both ferrys by 8 OC in good season for Daniel to get to S Kingston Meeting & for me to return to Connanicut Meeting, which was silent but I believe a sweet opportunity to some present. -- After dinner Jos Greene & C Weaver rowed me across the ferry, home in season to attend our Afternoon Meeting in which as well as in the forenoon M Judge was sweetly engaged in public testimony

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

June 21, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 21st of 6 M 1819 / A little settled from the stir of Y Meeting & beginning to look round to see what is necessary to do in my lawful calling. — My Mother spent a part of the Afternoon & took tea with us. — Our friend E Walker has gone to Providence, but expects to be in town on 4th day to attend a public meeting for the inhabitants of the Town at 4 OC in the Afternoon

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

According to a report in the Bibliothèque Ophthalmologique, that summer in the midst of the dreadful fears of the sailors of the French slaver Le Rodeur, lest the solitary crew member whose sight remained unaffected and who was steering them should also be seized with the malady, they had come upon a Spanish slaver, the Leon. Every member of that crew had, it turned out, also been blinded by the ailment; unable to assist each other, the vessels had been parted and the Leon not again be heard of. The Le Rodeur reached the port of Guadeloupe on this date and the only crewman who had escaped the disease, and had thus been enabled to steer the ship into port, three days later would exhibit its symptoms. In 1834, Friend John Greenleaf Whittier would compose the following poem:

THE SLAVE-SHIPS.

“That fatal, that perfidious bark,
Built i’ the eclipse, and rigged with curses dark.”
— MILTON’S Lycidas.

“ALL ready?” cried the captain;
“Ay, ay!” the seamen said;
“Heave up the worthless lubbers, —
The dying and the dead.”
Up from the slave-ship’s prison
Fierce, bearded heads were thrust
“Now let the sharks look to it, —
Toss up the dead ones first!”

Corpse after corpse came up, —
Death had been busy there;
Where every blow is mercy,
Why should the spoiler spare?
Corpse after corpse they cast
Sullenly from the ship,
Yet bloody with the traces
Of fetter-link and whip.

Gloomily stood the captain,
With his arms upon his breast,
With his cold brow sternly knotted,
And his iron lip compressed.

“Are all the dead dogs over?”
Growled through that matted lip;
“The blind ones are no better,
Let’s lighten the good ship.”

Hark! from the ship’s dark bosom,
The very sounds of hell!
The ringing clank of iron,
The maniac’s short, sharp yell!
The hoarse, low curse, throat-stifled;

HDT

WHAT?

INDEX

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

The starving infant's moan,
The horror of a breaking heart
Poured through a mother's groan.

Up from that loathsome prison
The stricken blind ones came:
Below, had all been darkness,
Above, was still the same.
Yet the holy breath of heaven
Was sweetly breathing there,
And the heated brow of fever
Cooled in the soft sea air.

"Overboard with them, shipmates!"
Cutlass and dirk were plied;
Fettered and blind, one after one,
Plunged down the vessel's side.
The sabre smote above,
Beneath, the lean shark lay,
Waiting with wide and bloody jaw
His quick and human prey.

God of the earth! what cries
Rang upward unto thee?

Voices of agony and blood,
From ship-deck and from sea.
The last dull plunge was heard,
The last wave caught its stain,
And the unsated shark looked up
For human hearts in vain.

Red glowed the western waters,
The setting sun was there,
Scattering alike on wave and cloud
His fiery mesh of hair.
Amidst a group in blindness,
A solitary eye
Gazed, from the burdened slaver's deck,
Into that burning sky.

"A storm," spoke out the gazer,
"Is gathering and at hand;
Curse on't, I'd give my other eye
For one firm rood of land."
And then he laughed, but only
His echoed laugh replied,
For the blinded and the suffering
Alone were at his side.

Night settled on the waters,
And on a stormy heaven,
While fiercely on that lone ship's track
The thunder-gust was driven.
"A sail! — thank God, a sail!"
And as the helmsman spoke,
Up through the stormy murmur
A shout of gladness broke.

Down came the stranger vessel,
Unheeding on her way,
So near that on the slaver's deck
Fell off her driven spray.
"Ho! for the love of mercy,

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

We're perishing and blind!"
A wail of utter agony
Came back upon the wind:

"Help us! for we are stricken
With blindness every one;
Ten days we've floated fearfully,
Unnoting star or sun.
Our ship's the slaver Leon, —
We're but a score on board;
Our slaves are all gone over, —
Help, for the love of God!"

On livid brows of agony
The broad red lightning shone;
But the roar of wind and thunder
Stifled the answering groan;
Wailed from the broken waters
A last despairing cry,
As, kindling in the stormy light,
The stranger ship went by.

In the sunny Guadeloupe
A dark-hulled vessel lay,
With a crew who noted never
The nightfall or the day.
The blossom of the orange
Was white by every stream,

And tropic leaf, and flower, and bird
Were in the warm sunbeam.

And the sky was bright as ever,
And the moonlight slept as well,
On the palm-trees by the hillside,
And the streamlet of the dell:
And the glances of the Creole
Were still as archly deep,
And her smiles as full as ever
Of passion and of sleep.

But vain were bird and blossom,
The green earth and the sky,
And the smile of human faces,
To the slaver's darkened eye;
At the breaking of the morning,
At the star-lit evening time,
O'er a world of light and beauty
Fell the blackness of his crime.

June 22, Tuesday: Karl van Beethoven, nephew of Ludwig van Beethoven, was admitted to a residential school directed by Joseph Blöchlinger.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 22nd of 6 M / This morning Our friend D Buffum, came to my Shop & requested me to go to the Court House with him, my reply was, my compliance depends on what the buisness is that we are going upon, on which he informed me, that Elizabeth Walker requested that the Govorner, Senate & House of Representatives be invited to attend her meeting tomorrow, & that the ground of

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

her concern was to see them at meeting. – This involved my feelings in no small measure of weight, but on being a little retired in my mind, & the first shock going off, I felt unity with the prospect & a willingness to go with David to the Court House, he having previously obtained the liberty of the Govoner & Speaker. – on going into the upper House we were invited to take chairs, but We introduced our buisness, in a few words, which appeard to be properly noticed & a seeming willingness manifested to attend. –We then went into the House of representatives, where we were also noticed by the speaker & invited to seats. after setting a moment D Buffum communicated Elizabeths message & there also, a willingness was manifested to attend, particularly by some of the Members, who said they should attend the meeting whether the House would adjourn or not. –

This undertaking was one of no small magnitude to my feelings, but by a biding under the weight of it I found myself qualified with strength & had occasion required could have spoken myself, before the House

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 23, Wednesday: Under the pseudonym Geoffrey Crayon, Washington Irving put out the 1st American installment of his THE SKETCH BOOK, including “The Legend of Sleepy Hollow.”²⁵⁴ In this text this racist author (the same racist author who announced that a Negro was “an abomination”) regurgitated our “Philip of Pokanoket” legend dating to “King Phillip’s War”, titillating us yet again with our very precious memory of a dead Indian chief.

READ THE FULL TEXT

At Concord, John D. Folsom of Concord got married with Betsy W. Dakin of Concord.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 23rd of 6th M 1819 / Our Meeting this Afternoon was a very triumphant one. Truth rose into dominion in a very remarkable manner. The meeting was as large as it ever is on

254. There is in Nathaniel Hawthorne’s THE SCARLET LETTER a literary reference to Irving’s headless horseman figure:

THE SCARLET LETTER: Meanwhile, the press had taken up my affair, and kept me for a week or two careering through the public prints, in my decapitated state, like Irving’s Headless Horseman, ghastly and grim, and longing to be buried, as a political dead man ought. So much for my figurative self. The real human being all this time, with his head safely on his shoulders, had brought himself to the comfortable conclusion that everything was for the best; and making an investment in ink, paper, and steel pens, had opened his long-disused writing desk, and was again a literary man.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

first day at Yearly Meeting time, & more quiet than usual at that time. The Govoner of this state with both Houses of the Legislature attended & sat in a body. – Elizabeth first appeared in humble prayer, chiefly on behalf of those placed in Authority over us. Then in a very pertinent address to the members of the Legislature on the subject of intemperance & War. Then the current of testimony run chiefly to the female part of the Audience & lastly to an hardened, rebellious state which she felt to be present. & the latter part of her testimony in particular came with such living power & gospel Authority that it seemed to me, that had she preached before the Apostle Paul he would at least have qualified his charge, forbidding Women to "preach or to teach" &c. – The Audience was all attentive & many deeply impressed with the Power of her ministry, as was evident in many who took her by the hand at the close of the Meeting with tears in their eyes. – The Govoner observed that he never heard Such preaching before. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

The Supreme Council of the Province of Texas declared the independence of Texas from Mexico:

As all Governments were originally established by the will of the people for the benefit of society, whenever the existing Government, in any community, fails to effect the purposes for which it was instituted, it is competent to the community at large to rescind its express or tacit allegiance to the ruling power, and to organize a new constitution and form of government, more consistent with its interests, and more consonant with its feelings. In exercising this unquestionable right, an independent people have only to consult their own discretion. But, though amenable to no tribunal for its municipal acts, a free state, in claiming admission to the immunity of nations, owes of itself an exposition of the motives which have prompted it to the assertion of its rights, as well as of the principles which it assumes to vindicate. The citizens of Texas have long indulged the hope, that in the adjustment of the boundaries of the Spanish possessions in America, and of the territories of the United States, that they should be included within the limits of the latter. The claims of the United States, long and strenuously urged, encouraged the hope. An expectation so flattering prevented any effectual effort to throw off the yoke of Spanish authority, though it could not restrain some ineffectual rebellions against an odious tyranny. The recent treaty between Spain and the United States of America has dissipated an illusion too long fondly cherished, and has roused the citizens of Texas from [the] torpor to which a fancied security had lulled them. They have seen themselves, by a convention to which they were no party, literally abandoned to the dominion of the crown of Spain and left a prey not only to impositions already intolerable, but to all those exactions which Spanish rapacity is fertile in devising. The citizens of Texas would have proved themselves unworthy of the age in which they live, unworthy of their ancestry, of the kindred of the republics of the American continent, could they have hesitated in this emergency what course to pursue. Spurning the fetters of colonial vassalage, disdaining to submit to the most atrocious despotism that ever disgraced the annals of Europe, they have resolved under the blessing of God to be free. By this magnanimous resolution, the maintenance of which their lives and fortunes are pledged, they secure to themselves an elective and representative government, equal laws and the faithful administration of justice, the rights of conscience, and religious liberty, the freedom of the press, the advantage of liberal education, and unrestricted commercial intercourse with all the world. Animated by a just confidence in the goodness of their cause, and stimulated by the high object to be obtained by the contest, they have prepared themselves unshrinkingly to meet and firmly to sustain any conflict in which this declaration may involve them. Done at Nacogdoches, the 23rd day of June, in the year of our Lord 1819.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

James Long, President of the Supreme Council
Bis[en]te [sic] Tarin, Secretary

 June 24, Thursday: Sophia Elizabeth Thoreau was born in Chelmsford MA, the 4th and, surprisingly, the final child of John Thoreau, Senior and Cynthia Dunbar Thoreau.

John in later years

Cynthia in later years

DUNBAR FAMILY

HENRY'S RELATIVES

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

An intriguing factoid is that although this birth unlike David Henry's is on record in Concord's town records, it is on record not as of this date but as of September 27th:

Births

Name	Sex	Birth Date	Birth Place	Father's Name	Mother's Name
THOREAU, John		1754	Concord
THOREAU, Mary	F	1786	Concord	John
THOREAU, Sarah		1791	Concord
THOREAU, Helen L.	F	1813	Concord	John	Cynthia
THOREAU, John	M	1815	Concord	John	Cynthia
THOREAU, Sophia Elizabeth	F	Sept. 27, 1819	Chelmsford	John	Cynthia

Cynthia had her last baby at age 33 although, in the 18th Century, mothers usually had had their final pregnancy in their early 40s, presumably because, since the turn of the 19th Century, white women in New England towns had been having their final pregnancies at an earlier age in each decade, and in that way creating fewer children per family. In general, the number of children per white family increased as one traveled toward the frontier of white settlement, reaching seven or so in Illinois and Indiana; nevertheless the usual number in Massachusetts and Connecticut in the 1830s was still five or more, so the Thoreaus' four children, Helen Louisa Thoreau, then John Thoreau, Jr., then David Henry Thoreau, and then finally Sophia Elizabeth Thoreau, would have been considered to be a small family or a family that was still being eagerly worked on.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Walter Roy Harding's THE DAYS OF HENRY THOREAU: A BIOGRAPHY. NY: Alfred A. Knopf, 1966:

"A Review From Professor Ross's Seminar"

WALTER HARDING'S BIOGRAPHY

Chapter 1 (1817-1823) -Downing gives a cursory account of the Thoreau and Dunbar heritage and more fully traces the nature and movement of the Thoreau family in the first five years of Henry's life.

Thoreau's father, John Thoreau, while intellectual, "lived quietly, peacefully and contentedly in the shadow of his wife," Mrs. Cynthia Dunbar Thoreau, who was dynamic and outspoken with a strong love for nature and compassion for the downtrodden.

- 1st Helen Louisa Thoreau -quiet, retiring, eventually a teacher.
- 2d John Thoreau, Jr. -"his father turned inside out," personable, interested in ornithology, also taught.
- 3d David Henry Thoreau (born July 12,1817) -speculative but not noticeably precocious.
- 4th Sophia Elizabeth Thoreau -independent, talkative, ultimately took over father's business and edited Henry's posthumous publications.

The Thoreau's constantly struggled with debt, and in 1818 John Sr. gave up his farm outside Concord and moved into town. Later the same year he moved his family to Chelmsford MA where he opened a shop which soon failed and sent him packing to Boston to teach school.

(Robert L. Lace, January-March 1986)

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 24th of 6th M / With My H & John in a Chaise went to Portsmouth to attend the Moy [Monthly] Meeting. Stopped on the way at Uncle Saml Thurstons & were soon joined by Elizabeth Walker & Company, after a little refreshment we went to meeting, which was a favord season, Elizabeth having much to communicate in the course of the public Meeting, & I have no doubt that the living Power of Truth rose into dominion in many minds present. - In the last meeting we had but little buisness, but the little that we had was pretty well transacted. - We dined at R Mitchells & towards night rode home. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

June 27, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 27 of 6 M 1819 / In our mornng Meeting - H Dennis -Father Rodman & D Buffum were engaged in short lively testimony In the Afternoon Anne Dennis, father Rodman & Jona Dennis said a few words - on the whole pretty good meetings.-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 1, Thursday: John Keats wrote from Shanklin on the Isle of Wight to Fanny Brawne:

My dearest Lady - I am glad I had not an opportunity of sending off a Letter which I wrote for you on Tuesday night - 'twas too much like one out of Rousseau's Heloise. I am more reasonable this morning. The morning is the only proper time for me to write to a beautiful Girl whom I love so much: for at night, when the lonely day has closed, and the lonely, silent, unmusical Chamber is waiting to receive me as into a Sepulchre, then believe me my passion gets entirely the sway, then I would not have you see those Rhapsodies which I once thought it impossible I should ever give way to, and which I have often laughed at in another, for fear you should [think me] either too unhappy or perhaps a little mad.

I am now at a very pleasant Cottage window, looking onto a beautiful hilly country, with a glimpse of the sea; the morning is very fine. I do not know how elastic my spirit might be, what pleasure I might have in living here and breathing and wandering as free as a stag about this beautiful Coast if the remembrance of you did not weigh so upon me I have never known any unalloy'd Happiness for many days together: the death or sickness of some one has always spoilt my hours - and now when none such troubles oppress me, it is you must confess very hard that another sort of pain should haunt me.

Ask yourself my love whether you are not very cruel to have so entrammelled me, so destroyed my freedom. Will you confess this in the Letter you must write immediately, and do all you can to console me in it - make it rich as a draught of poppies to intoxicate me - write the softest words and kiss them that I may at least touch my lips where yours have been. For myself I know not how to express my devotion to so fair a form: I want a brighter word than bright, a fairer word than fair. I almost wish we were butterflies and liv'd but three summer days - three such days with you I could fill with more delight than fifty common years could ever contain. But however selfish I may feel, I am sure I could never act selfishly: as I told you a day or two before I left Hampstead, I will never return to London if my Fate does not turn up Pam or at least a Court-card. Though I could centre my Happiness in you, I cannot expect to engross your heart so entirely - indeed if I thought you felt as much for me as I do for you at this moment I do not think I could restrain myself from seeing you again tomorrow for the delight

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

of one embrace.

But no – I must live upon hope and Chance. In case of the worst that can happen, I shall still love you – but what hatred shall I have for another!

Some lines I read the other day are continually ringing a peal in my ears:

*To see those eyes I prize above mine own
Dart favors on another–
And those sweet lips (yielding immortal nectar)
Be gently press'd by any but myself–
Think, think Francesca, what a cursed thing
It were beyond expression!
J.*

*Do write immediately. There is no Post from this Place, so you must address Post Office, Newport, Isle of Wight. I know before night I shall curse myself for having sent you so cold a Letter; yet it is better to do it as much in my senses as possible. Be as kind as the distance will permit to your
John Keats*

Present my Compliments to your mother, my love to Margaret and best remembrances to your Brother – if you please so.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

(The letter would be posted on the 3d.)

Dissension had developed in the Jerusalem, New York sanctuary of the followers of “Universal Friend,” Jemimah Wilkinson, as she had become rather demanding of gifts and special treatment, and had come to institute various punishments for infractions of the rules of the Society of Universal Friends. Finally the community resolved its problem by erecting this two and a half story Federal-style mansion for its inspirational leader at some considerable distance from the other homes. It is now referred to as “Friend House” and is not open to the public:

After spending her last years in isolation, at the age of 67 the religious leader died (or “left time” as her followers described it), and would be interred in a temporary vault in the building’s cellar while her followers faithfully waited for her to come back into animation, and watched as signs of decay accumulated. As her will attests, she had never swerved from the pronouncement she had originally made under the oak tree in Cumberland, Rhode Island after recovering from typhoid fever, that she had died and her spirit had been replaced with “Divine Spirit.” (Her Jerusalem community would, within the following two decades, entirely disperse. At some later date the decomposing body has been removed from its temporary vault for burial at an

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

unmarked location on the property.)

Last Will and Testament:

The last Will and Testament of the person called the Universal Friend of Jerusalem, in the County of Ontario, State of New York, who in the year 1777, was called Jemima Wilkinson, and ever since that time, the Friend, a new name which the mouth of the Lord hath named.

My will is that all my just debts be paid by my executors, hereafter named.

I give, bequeath and devise unto Rachel Malin and Margaret Malin, now of said Jerusalem, all my earthly property both real and personal; and that is to say all my land lying in said Jerusalem and in Benton, or elsewhere in the County of Ontario, together with all the buildings thereon, to them the said Rachel and Margaret, and their heirs and assigns forever, to be equally and amicably be shared between them, the said Rachel and Margaret – and I do also give and bequeath to the said Rachel and Margaret, all my wearing apparel, all my household furniture, and my horses, cattle, sheep and swine, of every kind, together with all my farming utensils, and all my movable property of every nature and description whatever.

My will is, that all the present members of my family and each of them, be employed if they please, and if employed, supported during their natural life, by the said Rachel and Margaret, and whenever any of them become unable to help themselves, they are according to such inability, kindly to be taken care of by the said Rachel and Margaret. And my will also is, that all poor persons belonging to the society of the Universal Friend, shall receive from the said Rachel and Margaret such assistance, comfort and support during their natural life as they may need; and in case any or either of my family, or others elsewhere in the society shall turn away, such shall forfeit the provisions herein made for them.

I hereby ordain and appoint the above-named Rachel Malin and Margaret Malin, Executors of this my last will and testament.

In Witness whereof, I, the person called Jemina Wilkinson, but in, and ever since the year 1777, known as the Public Universal

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Friend, have hereunto affixed my name and Seal, this 25th day of the 2d Month, in the year of our Lord 1819.

The Public Universal Friend [L.S.]

In the presence of, &c.

Be it Remembered – That in order to remove all doubt of the due execution of the foregoing will and testament of the person who before the year 1777, was known and called by the name of Jemima Wilkinson, but since that time, as the Universal Friend, do make, publish and declare the within instrument to be my Last Will and Testament, as witness my hand and seal, this 17th day of the 7th month, 1819.

Jemima Wilkinson X

Her Cross or mark,

Or, Universal Friend.

[“Witness,” &c.]

That evening after sunset the comet that had passed unnoticed between the earth and the sun on or about June 26th, with its tail brushing over the earth also unnoticed, became visible low in the west. (So much for comets exerting a vast influence!)²⁵⁵

SKY EVENT

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 1st of 7th M 1819 / Our Meeting looked small in a great room, but I believe nearly all the members were present that are in ability to attend, & several that are not members. – I believe it was a comfortable season to some present, it was in good measure so to me. – Father Rodman delivered a short testimony

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

255. “GREAT COMET, (C/1819 N1=1819 II. Period of naked eye visibility spanned the month of Jul., T=1819 June 28. Also known as Comet Tralles. Spotted on July 1st in the evening sky a little to the north of the Sun, the head being of about zero magnitude. Comet crossed eastern Auriga and was visible at both dusk and dawn for several weeks. At the end of the first week of July, 1st magnitude with a 7-8 degree tail. Comet faded rapidly as it moved toward the northeast, almost pacing the Sun. At mid-month situated in Lynx, an object of 3rd magnitude with a short tail. In the last few days of July the comet’s brightness rapidly approached the naked eye threshold.”

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

→ July 3, Saturday: Dominique François Jean Arago (1786-1853) directed his newly developed polarimeter toward the comet 1819 II Tralles and observed its tail region through a doubly refracted prism. He detected that the light from the tail, unlike the light given off by stars, was slightly polarized — indicating that it was reflected rather than emitted light.

According to a list published in Boston in 1846, attributed to Professor Benjamin Peirce:

129	1818	Feb.	25.95890	70	52	58	183	12	9	112	19	11	89	43	48	1.197764			D	Encke.
130	1818	Dec.	4.09030	90	34	16	357	27	11	93	7	5	62	40	50	0.8479			R	Bessel.
E	1819	Jan.	27.10423	334	44	5	156	40	5	181	56	0	13	42	30	0.335581	0.8567675	3.588	D	Encke.
			27.24564	335	9	34	157	31	50	182	22	16	13	38	42	0.333982	0.8490883	3.293	D	Encke.
131	1819	June	27.73993	274	8	25	287	39	1	13	30	36	80	43	56	0.3420005			D	Nicolai.
132	1819	July	31.13915	114	57	18	291	6	9	176	8	51	11	16	53	0.70008	0.60353	2.346	D	Encke.
			18.90021	113	36	43	275	6	48	161	30	5	10	42	48	0.773638	0.7551903	5.618	D	Encke.

SKY EVENT

The 1st savings bank in the USA, the Bank for Savings of New-York, opened its doors for business and received a total of $2,807.⁰⁰ in deposits.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 3rd of 7th M / A little precious favor this Morning, for which I desire to be thankful. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

→ Our national birthday, Sunday the 4th of July: Nathaniel Hawthorne's, or Hathorne's, 15th birthday.

Future governor of the state of New York Reuben Eaton Fenton was born to George W. Fenton and Elsie Owen Fenton in Carroll, New York.

At Fort Adams near Newport, Rhode Island, an extra gill of rum was dispensed to each soldier in honor of Independence Day. Then Private William G. Cornell went on guard duty at 8PM and was relieved at 10PM. While he was returning as part of the relieved guard to his quarters under the direction of a corporal, carrying his musket bearing a standard load of a ball and three buckshots, Private William Kane was standing in the doorway of the quarters laughing, and after the detail had passed, stepped out and stooped down and picked up a handful of gravel, advancing forward, and pitched it without much violence at the backs of the guard detail. Private Cornell turned and fired, hitting Private Kane just above the hip and severing an artery, causing his death in only a few minutes. A jury of inquest would be summoned on Monday and the accusation made

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

that this was a wilful murder. After a confinement in the Newport County Jail on Marlborough Street, United States Supreme Court Associate Justice Joseph Story would find Cornell guilty on November 18, 1819 (at that time there were no federal judges other than the nine who sat on the Supreme Court). Justice Story would hear an appeal for a new trial on June 15, 1820 and deny the appeal. Eventually Cornell would be pardoned by President James Monroe.

At Mossy Spring in Kentucky, something very unusual and strange, for the United States of America, happened: a woman (a "Mrs. Mead") was able to deliver an Independence Day oration. –This oration was, it goes without saying, delivered to a group of women.

CELEBRATING OUR B-DAY

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 4th of 7th M / Our Morning Meeting was large, nearly all the usual attendants were there & a number, who are there but seldom & some strangers, which preety much filled the middle part of the house below stairs. David Buffum was engaged in a lively testimony & Susanna Bateman from Greenwich bore a short testimony.

In the Afternoon the Meeting was as large as usual & silent. - Abigail Robinsons was at meeting this fournoon, the first time in more than a Year, her infirmities of body being so great as to prevent her attendance I was glad to see heer seat again filled. -2nd day [Monday] 5 of 7 M / Independence has been celebrated in town today & yesterday on the Fort. - What excesses of drunkenness gluttony & vices of various Kinds does such celebrations occasion - I have seen it perhaps today as conspicuously as at any time within my recollection - I have observed many drunken men & some of them quite young - & yesterday a man was shot by a sentinel on the Fort in consequence of some affront. - This day a jury of inquest set & brought in the verdict of Willful Murder, - I feel strong desires that the observance of these days may go out of fashion or in some way surpressed, that the people may be preserved in Innocency. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

July 6, Tuesday: Realizing that the Viceregal capital of Bogota on the far side of the Andes less than 300 miles away was virtually undefended by the Spanish, Simón Bolívar had directed his 2,400 followers over the Páramo de Pisba pass and on this day the some 400 survivors of the trek arrived at the New Granadan village of Socha. Recruiting new soldiers from the population, he would set out for Bogota and on August 7th take its defenders entirely by surprise.

Above the Tivoli Gardens of Paris (where the Saint-Lazare train station is now located), Marie Madeleine-Sophie Armant Blanchard was launching fireworks from her balloon when its hydrogen ignited and craft descended (she rapidly dropping ballast) onto a rooftop of the Rue de Provence, with her become entangled in the netting that surrounded the balloon and falling to the street. She might possibly have still been alive for some ten minutes afterward. She was 41.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 6th of 7th M 1819 / The bustle of yesterday over, our streets again look dull, & how much better so than our bustling be indebted to drunken men & vain show. – The poor man committed to jail yesterday for murder, is much on my mind, reports of his conduct are much against him. I fear it must cost him his life.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 8, Thursday: John Keats wrote again to Fanny Brawne:

My Sweet Girl:

Your Letter gave me more delight than any thing in the world but yourself could do; indeed I am almost astonished that any absent one should have that luxurious power over my senses which I feel. Even when I am not thinking of you I receive your influence and a tenderer nature stealing upon me. All my thoughts, my unhappiest days and nights have I find not at all cured me of my love of Beauty, but made it so intense that I am miserable that you are not with me: or rather breathe in that dull sort of patience that cannot be called Life. I never knew before, what such a love as you have made me feel, was; I did not believe in it; my Fancy was afraid of it, lest it should burn me up. But if you will fully love me, though there may be some fire, 'twill not be more than we can bear when moistened and bedewed with pleasures. You mention "horrid people" and ask me whether it depend upon them whether I see you again. Do understand me, my love, in this. I have so much of you in my heart that I must turn mentor when I see a chance of harm befalling you. I would never see any thing but pleasure in your eyes, love on your lips, and happiness in your steps. I would wish to see you among those amusements suitable to your inclinations and spirits; so that our loves might be a delight in the midst of pleasures agreeable enough, rather than a resource from vexations and cares. But I doubt much, in case of the worst, whether I shall be philosopher enough to follow my own lessons: if I saw my resolution give you a pain I could not. Why may I not speak of your beauty, since without that I could never have lov'd you? - I cannot conceive any beginning of such love as I have for you but beauty. There may be a sort of love for which, without the least sneer at it, I have the highest respect and can admire it in others: but it has not the richness, the bloom, the full form, the enchantment of love after my own heart. So let me speak of your beauty, though to my own endangering; if you could be so cruel to me as to try elsewhere its power. You say you are afraid I shall think you do not love me - in saying this you make me ache the more to be near you. I am at the diligent use of my faculties here, I do not pass a day without sprawling some blank verse or tagging some rhymes; and here I must confess, that, (since I am on that subject) I love you the more in that I believe you have liked me for my own sake and for nothing else. I have met with women whom I really think would like to be married to a poem and to be given away by a novel. I have seen your comet, and only wish it was a sign that poor Rice would get well, whose illness makes him rather a melancholy companion: and the more so as so to conquer his feelings and hide them from me, with a forc'd pun. I kiss'd your writing over in the hope you had indulg'd me by leaving a trace of honey. What was your dream? Tell it me and I will tell you the interpretation thereof.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Ever yours, my love!

John Keats

Do not accuse me of delay - we have not here any opportunity of sending letters every day. Write speedily.

(The letter would be postmarked from Newport on the Isle of Wight on July 10th.)

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 8th of 7th M / Our meeting rather Small & silent & a degree of favor witnessed. - Attended (this afternoon) the funeral of Jos Barker son of James & Mary Barker a child about 4 years old, their relations & acquaintances being large, there was a considerable collection of people. The Sitting was remarkably solid & towards the close of it D Buffum was concerned in a short but very solid & impressive testimony. - he observed that the time had about come for us to proceed to the buisness we had assembled for & believed it best for him to express the manner in which his mind had him occupied which was on the subject of the removal of little children from one state of existence to another. - his mind had been dipt into sympathy with those who had been deprived of near connections, & while thus reflecting, a passage or two of Scripture had been brought to his remembrance which was the saying of our blessed Lord "Suffer the little children to come unto me & forbid them not for of such is the Kingdom of heaven" & another which equally seemed obligatory to review was "Unless ye become converted & as little children ye shall in no wise enter the Kingdom of heaven" from this he said much doctrine might be drawn, but he had no prospect of many words, having had

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

a desire that our minds might be stirred up, he wished us to bear in remembrance that it was from the highest Authority that "unless we become converted and as little children we shall in no wise enter the Kingdom of heaven his testimony appeared to have a solemnizing effect on the Minds of the Audience & I have no doubt it will be remembered by some when he may be no more numbered among Men

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 11, Sunday: Susan Bogert Warner, who would write under the pen name "Elizabeth Wetherell," was born into a wealthy New-York family.

Mary Minott Baker was born.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 11th of 7th M 1819 / Our Meeting this morning was largely attended by some that I never saw at it before – Our Fr D Buffum was engaged in a remarkable testimony, in which I thought the life & power rose to a degree I hardly ever felt in his communications before, it tended to illustrate the divine principle very clearly, he first observed that on the present occasion he could adopt the language of the Apostle "Thanks be to God for his unspeakable Gift" & pointed out the unspeakable gift to be the light which enlighteneth every man that cometh into the World, a measure & manifestation of Gods spirit in the heart of Man. he observed that he was sensible that the doctrine was one much exploded by many professing christians, & by them no other light admitted than that which cometh thro' the Scriptures, but they only pointed to the way & were not the way themselves. as for instance, we might have the way to a certain city very accurately laid down, but we should never get there by reading the directions, but we must Set out on the journey & by attention to the directions & perseverance on the road we should reach the place & so it was in a religious sense we must follow the directions of the spirit of Christ in the hearts, follow him where he pleases to lead us so shall we arrive at that City that hath foundations whose builder & Maker the Lord alone is. – This is but a faint skeleton of the testimony but I felt concerned to preserve as much of it as I could, from the remarkable manner in which it was delivered & the effect on the Audience. – Silent in the Afternoon but a solid time – After tea with father Rodman. Called to see Abigail Robinsons & her Brother Thomas & his wife. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 15, Thursday: George Gordon, Lord Byron's DON JUAN I-II was published anonymously and then, to Murray's distress, pirated.

On this evening John Keats wrote again from Shanklin on the Isle of Wight to Fanny Brawne:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

My love – I have been in so irritable a state of health these two or three last days, that I did not think I should be able to write this week. Not that I was so ill, but so much so as only to be capable of an unhealthy teasing letter. To night I am greatly recovered only to feel the languor I have felt after you touched with ardency.

You say you perhaps might have made me better: you would then have made me worse: now you could quite effect a cure: What fee my sweet Physician would I not give you to do so.

Do not call it folly, when I tell you I took your letter last night to bed with me. In the morning I found your name on the sealing wax obliterated. I was startled at the bad omen till I recollected that it must have happened in my dreams, and they you know fall out by contraries. You must have found out by this time I am a little given to bode ill like the raven; it is my misfortune not my fault; it has proceeded from the general tenor of the circumstances of my life, and rendered every event suspicious. However I will no more trouble either you or myself with sad prophecies; though so far I am pleased at it as it has given me opportunity to love your disinterestedness towards me. I can be a raven no more; you and pleasure take possession of me at the same moment. I am afraid you have been unwell. If through me illness have touched you (but it must be with a very gentle hand) I must be selfish enough to feel a little glad at it. Will you forgive me this?

I have been reading lately an oriental tale of a very beautiful color. It is of a city of melancholy men, all made so by this circumstance. Through a series of adventures each one of them by turns reach some gardens of Paradise where they meet with a most enchanting Lady; and just as they are going to embrace her, she bids them shut their eyes they shut them and on opening their eyes again find themselves descending to the earth in a magic basket. The remembrance of this Lady and their delights lost beyond all recovery render them melancholy ever after. How I applied this to you, my dear; how I palpitated at it; how the certainty that you were in the same world with myself, and though as beautiful, not so talismanic as that Lady; how I could not bear you should be so you must believe because I swear it by yourself.

I cannot say when I shall get a volume ready. I have three or four stories half done, but as I cannot write for the mere sake of the press, I am obliged to let them progress or lie still as my fancy chooses. By Christmas perhaps they may appear, but I am not yet sure they ever will. 'Twill be no matter, for Poems are as common as newspapers and I do not see why it is a greater crime in me than in another to let the verses of an half-fledged brain tumble into the reading-rooms and drawing-room windows. Rice has been better lately than usual: he is not suffering from any neglect of his parents who have for some years been able to appreciate him better than they did in his first youth, and are now devoted to his comfort.

Tomorrow I shall, if my health continues to improve during the

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

night, take a look fa[r]ther About the country, and spy at the parties about here who come hunting after the picturesque like beagles. It is astonishing how they raven down scenery like children do sweetmeats. The wondrous Chine here as a very great Lion: I wish I had as many guineas as there have been spy-glasses in it.

I have been, I cannot tell why, in capital spirits this last hour. What reason? When I have to take my candle and retire to a lonely room, without the thought as I fall asleep, of seeing you tomorrow morning? or the next day, or the next – it takes on the appearance of impossibility and eternity – I will say a month – I will say I will see you in a month at most, though no one but yourself should see me; if it be but for an hour. I should not like to be so near you as London without being continually with you: after having once more kissed you Sweet I would rather be here alone at my task than in the bustle and hateful literary chitchat. Meantime you must write to me as I will every week for your letters keep me alive. My sweet Girl I cannot speak my love for you.

Good night! and Ever yours

John Keats

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 15th 7th M 1819 / Our meeting today was rather thin but we had the company of several who were not members, some of whom I believe suffer loss by standing without the pale of society. may the time come when they may come forward in usefulness among us. –it was a season of some favor & Hannah Dennis was engaged in a lively & pertinent testimony.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 17, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 17th of 7 M / Our Select Meeting held this day was a season of much solemnity. Hannah Dennis was engaged in fervant supplication – Anne Green revived her prospect of visiting the families of friends in this Moy [Monthly] Meeting & Hannah Dennis expressed her prospect of accompanying her in all or a part of the visit, both concerns were freely united with & they left at liberty to proceed as way may open. –

In the Afternoon I took John & went to Connanicut to attend the Meeting there Lodged at cousin Jos Greenes

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

“Jenny’s Account” of the mutineers of the HMS Bounty and their descendants on Pitcairn Island as it appeared on this day in the Sydney Gazette:

We have heretofore inserted an account of the Mutineers of the Bounty having landed on Pitcairn’s Island, where many of their descendants, from a number of women whom they took away from Otaheite, then remained. By the last arrival from the Society Islands a Gentleman of Sydney receives the following very recent account on this regretted subject.

HDTWHAT?INDEXSTEPHEN WANTON GOULD*FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Account of the Mutineers of the Ship Bounty, and their Descendants at Pitcairn's Island-

The following account I have just received from a Taheitan woman, who was the wife of Isaac Madden, one of the mutineers. She has been apparently a good-looking woman in her time, but now begins to bear the marks of age. She is marked on the left arm AS (over) 1789 which was done by Adam Smith, to whom she attached herself at first, and sailed with him both before and after the ship was taken. She has lately arrived hither in the 'King George' from Nugahiva, at which place she was left by an American ship, the Captain of which took her from Pitcairn's Island to the Spanish main, and afterwards left her at Nugahiva. She has resided at Nugahiva about three months, and it is more than double that time since she left Pitcairn's Island.

When Fletcher Christian cut his cable and left Taheite, the following persons were on board the Bounty: Fletcher Christian, John Main, Bill McKoy, Billy Brown, Jack Williams, Neddy Young, Isaac Madden, Matt or Matthew, and Adam Smith; nine Europeans. Teirnua, Niau (a boy), & Manarii, (Taheitans). Tarara, (a Raiatean) & Oher and Titahiti (Tubuans).

The Taheitan's women were Mauatua (Christian's wife), Vahineatua (Main's wife), Teio (the wife of McKoy), who was accompanied by her little daughter Sarah, Teatuahitea (Brown's wife); Faahotu (William's wife); Teraura (Young's wife); Teehuteatuaonoa or Jenny (Madden's wife), before mentioned; Ohuarei (Adam Smith's wife); Tevarua (Matt's wife); Toofaiti (Tararo's wife); Mareva (common to the two Taheitans); and Tinafornea (common to the two Tubuans).

In their passage to Pitcairn's Island they fell in with a low lagoon island, which they call Vivini, where they got birds, eggs, and cocoa nuts. They also passed between two mountainous islands, but the wind was so strong they could not land.

When they arrived at Pitcairn's Island they ran the ship ashore. Fletcher Christian wanted to preserve the ship, but Matt said

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

'No, we shall be discovered' so they burnt her. The island is small; has but one mountain, which is not high but flat, and fit for cultivation. They put up temporary houses of the leaves of the tea, and afterwards more durable ones thatched with the palm, as at Taheiti.

They found the bread fruit there, and all were busily engaged in planting yams, taro, plantains, and aute, of which they made cloth. The account this woman gives of their proceedings in this new country is very amusing to the Taheitans. Neddy Young taught them to distil spirits from the tea root. They made small canoes, and caught many fish. They climbed the precipices of the mountain, and got birds and eggs in abundance.

In the mean time many children were born. Christian had daughter Mary; and two sons, Charley and Friday. John Main had two children, Betsey and John. Bill McKoy had Sam and Kate. Neddy Young had no children by his own wife; but by Tararo, the wife of the Raiotean, he had three sons, George, Robert and William. Matt has had five children, Matt, Jenny, Arthur, Sarah, and a young one that died when seven days old. Adam Smith has Dinah, Eliza, Hannah and George, by his wife. The Taheitans &c have left no children. Jack William's wife died of a scrophulus disease, which broke out in her neck.

The Europeans took the three women belonging to the natives, Toafaiti, Mareva, and Tinafarnea, and cast lots for them, and the lot falling upon Toafaiti, she was taken from Tararo, and given to Jack Williams. Tararo wept at parting with his wife, and was very angry. He studied revenge, but was discovered and Oher and him were shot. Titahiti was put in irons for some time, and afterwards released; when he and his wife lived with Madden, and wrought for him. Titahiti, Niau, Teimua, and Mavarii, still studied revenge; and having laid their plans when the women were gone to the mountains for birds, and the Europeans were scattered, they shot Christian, Main, Brown, Williams and Madden. Adam Smith was wounded in the hand and face, but escaped with his life. Ned Young's life was saved by his wife; and the other women, and McKoy, and Matt fled to the mountain.

Inflamed with drinking the raw new spirit they distilled, and fired with jealousy, Manarii killed Teimua by firing three shots through his body. The Europeans and women killed Manarii in return. Niau, getting a view of McKoy, shot at him. Two of the women went under the pretence of seeing if he was killed, and made friends with him. They laid their plan, and at night Niau was killed by Young. Taheiti, the only remaining native man, was dreadfully afraid of being killed, but Young took a solemn oath that he would not kill him. The women, however killed him in revenge for the deaths of their husband. Old Matt, in a drunken fit, declaring that he would kill F. Christian's children and all the English that remained, was put to death in his turn. Old McKoy, mad with drink, plunged into the sea and drowned himself. Ned Young died of a disease that broke out in his breast. Adam Smith therefore is the only survivor of the Europeans. Several of the women are also dead. Obuarei and Teverua fell from the precipices when getting birds. Teatuahitea died of the dropsy, and Vahincatua was killed, being pierced by a goat in her bowels when she was with child. The others were still alive when the women left.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

The descendents of the Europeans, for there are no descendants of the natives, are very numerous. Of Christian's family, Mary Christian remains unmarried. Charley Christian married Sarah, the daughter of Teio. She has born him Fletcher, Charley, and Sarah and was with child again. Friday Christian has got Teraura, formerly the wife of Ned Young. She has born him Joe, Charley, Polly, Peggy, and Mary. All these descendants of Christian, together with Mauatua, or old Mrs. Christian, yet survive. John Main was killed by falling from the rocks. Betsey Main is the wife of young Matt, and has born two sons, Matt and John. Sam McKoy has taken Sarah Matt, and by her Sam and McKoy. Kate McKoy is the wife of Arthur Matt, and they have children Arthur, Billy, and Joe. Dinah Smith is the wife of Edward Matt by Teraura. She has a young son.

They have hogs and fowls, and are very diligent in cultivating the ground; they dress their food like the Taheitans, having no boilers. They make cloth, and clothe themselves like the Taheitans, the man with the maro and tibuta, the women with the paren and tibuta. They have sent away their still, the fruitful cause of so much mischief, in the American (ship) that called last; and they have obtained a boat from him, which greatly adds to their comfort. The women work hard in cultivating the ground &c. This woman's hands are quite hard with work. They have a place of worship, and old Adam Smith officiates three times every Sabbath. He prays extempore, but does not read. Their ceremonies of marriage, baptism, and at funerals are very simple. It does not appear that any of the people have learned to read. The first settlers discourage the Taheitan language, and promoted the speaking English. This woman, however, can speak neither English nor Taheitan, but a jumble of both. They speak of seeing two ships one years ago, which kept in the offing, and did not come near the island, except Master Folger as they call him, and the two King's ships; they have seen no ships till the American that brought away Jenny. Jenny says they would all like to come to Taheiti or Eimao. We were thinking that they would be a great acquisition at Opunohu alongside of the sugar works, as they have been accustomed to labour, for the Taheitans will not labour for any payment.

July 18, Sunday: Part of a pencil was missing at Monticello. A search was made in the dome room. Tentatively it was hypothesized that one or another young gentleman, supposing it to be his own, might have carried it off.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

First Day Met at the meeting House with about 20 others & I believe (tho' no vocal testimony or supplication was uttered)

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

it was a season of favor to some present In first sitting down my feelings were pleasantly excited in observing some interesting countenances, but a leaness ensued which occasioned wrestling for the Blessing & in the conclusion was favor to experience an evidence of divine care which solemnized my spirit. – After tea came home in a Boat with a couple of black men. – This visit was a pleasant one to John as well as myself. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 19, Monday: At a banquet in Dublin, the “Irish Friends of South American Independence” recruited young men to volunteer into John Devereux’s Irish Legion to fight in support of General Simón Bolívar (most of these recruits would die of tropical maladies before reaching battle).

Dr. Hildreth reported finding some metal objects near a body in an ancient mound in Marietta, Ohio:

Lying immediately over or on the forehead of the body were found three large circular bosses, or ornaments for a sword-belt or buckler; they are composed of copper, overlaid with a thick plate of silver.... Near the side of the body was found a plate of silver which appears to have been the upper part of a sword scabbard; it is six inches in length and two inches in breadth, and weighs an ounce; ... Two or three broken pieces of a copper tube were also found, filled with iron rust. These pieces from their appearance, composed the lower end of the scabbard near the point of the sword. No signs of the sword itself were discovered except the appearance of the rust above mentioned.... A piece of red-ochre or paint, and a piece of iron ore, which has the appearance of having been partially vitrified, or melted, were also found. The ore is about the specific gravity of pure iron.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 19th of 7 M / This Afternoon Alice & Rhoda Cuffee daughters of my late much esteemed friend Paul Cuffee of Westport called to see me – Their visit was very pleasant they are good countenanced young women & I feel desirous they may in their lives & conversation imitate the bright example of pious father, whose skin tho’ black rended him none the less acceptable to his Maker.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

July 20, Tuesday: A broadside bearing this date:

SLAVERY

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 20th of 7th M 1819 / This forenoon about 1 / 2 past 11 OC Died Sally Cornell wife of our neighbour Job Cornell. She was sister to Nancy Warren - I was acquainted with them when I was a boy. The latter learned the Taylors trade of my father. - Yesterday afternoon rec'd a letter from our Frd Wm Rickman dated Providence, which was very sweet & Acceptable - this Afternoon I have been writing an Answer to meet him in N York -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 22, Thursday: The Reverend Elias Cornelius, who had been raising money for Indian missions and schools, became associate pastor of the Tabernacle Church in Salem, Massachusetts.

One of the early dates we have for the homophonic Christmas song “Stille Nacht! Heilige Nacht!” (“Silent Night! Holy Night!”) is July 22, 1819, the date assigned to it in a church songbook prepared by Blasius Wimmer, organist and teacher of Waidring in Tirol in about 1825.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5 day 22nd of 7 M / Our meeting was pretty well attended on the womens side of the house, but I thought the mens was rather thin it was a season of leaness to me partly occasioned by indisposition of body. - I suffer much with weakness & pain in my back which from its long continuance I begin to fear well terminate in something of a serious nature, tho' I hope for the best. - In the Preparative meeting there was no buisness occured to send forward to the Moy [Monthly] Meeting. - With my H & Sister Ruth set the eveng with Abigail Robinson

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

July 24, Saturday: At Concord, Samuel Whiting of Concord got married with Mary Ormsby of Concord.

Josiah Gilbert Holland was born in Belchertown, Massachusetts. The family was poor, although of American pedigree (the claimed ancestors John Holland and Judith Stevens Holland were supposedly members of a church that was organized before sailing from Plymouth in Devonshire, that had emigrated into the wilderness at Dorchester), and at an early age he would work in a factory. He would write the lyrics to the Methodist hymn "There's a Song in the Air," and many others.

DORCHESTER

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 24th of 7 M / It seems to be a Solemn time among us at present - Sally Reed wife of John, died this eveng which makes with Sally Cornell, two in one house in four days. which with the general state of things is depressing, but may we place our dependance on the Lord. Oh Saith my soul may I lean on him, & rely on him in all things, for hither too he has been Kind, beyond my deserts, & I have cause to bless & magnify his holy name to the end of my days

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

July 25, Sunday: On Sunday night John Keats wrote again to Fanny Brawne:

My sweet Girl – I hope you did not blame me much for not obeying your request of a Letter on Saturday: we have had four in our small room playing at cards night and morning leaving me no undisturb'd opportunity to write. Now Rice and Martin are gone I am at liberty. Brown to my sorrow confirms the account you give of your ill health. You cannot conceive how I ache to be with you: how I would die for one hour – for what is in the world? I say you cannot conceive; it is impossible you should look with such eyes upon me as I have upon you: it cannot be. Forgive me if I wander a little this evening, for I have been all day employ'd in a very abstract Poem and I am in deep love with you two things which must excuse me. I have, believe me, not been an age in letting you take possession of me; the very first week I knew you I wrote myself your vassal; but burnt the Letter as the very next time I saw you I thought you manifested some dislike to me. If you should ever feel for Man at the first sight what I did for you, I am lost. Yet I should not quarrel with you, but hate myself if such a thing were to happen – only I should burst if the thing were not as fine as a Man as you are as a Woman.

Perhaps I am too vehement, then fancy me on my knees, especially when I mention a part of your Letter which hurt me; you say speaking of Mr. Severn 'but you must be satisfied in knowing that I admired you much more than your friend.' My dear love, I cannot believe there ever was or ever could be any thing to admire in me especially as far as sight goes – I cannot be admired, I am not a thing to be admired. You are, I love you; all I can bring you is a swooning admiration of your Beauty. I hold that place among Men which snub-nos'd brunettes with meeting eyebrows do among women – they are trash to me – unless I should find one among them with a fire in her heart like the one that burns in mine.

You absorb me in spite of myself – you alone: for I look not

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

forward with any pleasure to what is called being settled in the world; I tremble at domestic cares – yet for you I would meet them, though if it would leave you the happier I would rather die than do so.

I have two luxuries to brood over in my walks, your Loveliness and the hour of my death. O that I could have possession of them both in the same minute. I hate the world: it batters too much the wings of my self-will, and would I could take a sweet poison from your lips to send me out of it. From no others would I take it. I am indeed astonish'd to find myself so careless of all charms but yours – remembering as I do the time when even a bit of ribband was a matter of interest with me.

What softer words can I find for you after this – what it is I will not read. Nor will I say more here, but in a Postscript answer any thing else you may have mentioned in your Letter in so many words – for I am distracted with a thousand thoughts. I will imagine you Venus tonight and pray, pray, pray to your star like a Heathen.

*Your's ever, fair Star,
John Keats*

My seal is mark'd like a family table cloth with my Mother's initial F for Fanny: put between my Father's initials. You will soon hear from me again. My respectful Compliments to your Mother. Tell Margaret I'll send her a reef of best rocks and tell Sam I will give him my light bay hunter if he will tie the Bishop hand and foot and pack him in a hamper and send him down for me to bathe him for his health with a Necklace of good snubby stones about his Neck.

(This letter would be postmarked on the 27th.)

A hurricane began along the gulf coast of the North American continent. It would continue for four days.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 25th of 7th M / Our Meeting this Morning was silent –In the afternoon a short pertinent & sweet testimony from Father Rodman. – Rather barran time tho' I believe a degree of Divine favor was witnessed

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 28, Wednesday: Since Sunday the 25th a hurricane had been pounding the southern coast of the continent, from Louisiana to Alabama. New Orleans had been merely on the fringe of the storm and suffered no severe damage. The full force of the storm had hit Bay St. Louis. Ships at Balize (Pilottown) had experienced 24 hours of strong gale winds but only 3 of them had gone aground. Lakes Pontchartrain and Borgne rose 5 to 6 feet. Of the crew of the schooner USS Firebrand, a 150-ton gunship lying off the west end of Cat Island, 41 had perished.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*4th day 28th of 7 M Went this eveng with Br D Rodman to See Saml
Almy who lays apparantly drawing his last breath
He died about 1/2 past 10 OC this evening –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 29, Thursday: John Duffield, age 46 or 47, Josiah Wilkes, age 52, and Thomas Earp, age 29, for the coining of counterfeit shillings, were convicted of high treason by a jury at Stafford and sentenced by the judge to be drawn on a hurdle to the place of execution and there to be hanged by the neck. Afterward the court would take mercy on Wilkes and Earp and re-sentence them to life imprisonment among the some 650 prisoners held aboard the convict hulk Leviathan in Portsmouth harbor (normally such prisoners did manual labor in guarded gangs ashore during the day).

(I don't know which of the above hulks was the Leviathan.)

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 29th of 7th M 1819 / Our meeting was a solid time to me
In the first Hannah Dennis appeard in a solid & to my feelings pertinent testimony. – In the last (Monthly) we had considerable buisness, & some of it of a weighty & important nature, which I thought was moved in with care & a good degree of circumspection.
-Uncle Peter & Aunt Wait, Anne Anthony & Jacob Mott dined with us. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

August 1, Sunday: King Friedrich Wilhelm III of Prussia and King Friedrich August I of Saxony met in reconciliation at Pillnitz.

The India Company had, on the island of St. Helena in the south Atlantic, 700 to 800 Chinese workmen. They had divided into factions and began to struggle among themselves, with the whites on the island presuming this to amount to some sort of religious dispute. They formed, near Plantation House where Napoléon Bonaparte was being kept, into three or four bands of about 150 each, and arming themselves with bamboo sticks, spears, knives, etc., “rushed upon each other with frightful ferocity ... uttering piercing cries.” The post at High Knoll despatched “some St. Helena sharp-shooters, for the most part drunk, all young lads who were impatient to finish the affair, and who, without waiting for anybody’s orders, started shooting wildly. There were some killed and a good many wounded. The commanding officers will be courtmartialed.”

Herman Melville was born as “Herman Melvill” at 6 Pearl Street on Manhattan “Island of the Hills,” in New-York, to importer Allan Melvill and Martia Gansevoort Melvill, daughter of Revolutionary War general Peter Gansevoort.²⁵⁶

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 1st of 8 M 1819 / Our Meeting was solid & D Buffum was favor'd in a lively & pertinent testimony to the efficacy of the Truth
In the Afternoon J Dennis Anne Greene & H Dennis were all engaged in short testimonies*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 4, Wednesday: A will was recorded in Brown County, Ohio that divided 1,197 acres into 31 lots and assigned them to “150 Negroes who were emancipated by the will of Samuel Gist.”²⁵⁷

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*4th day 4th of 8th M / With my H & John rode this morning to Portsmouth - left them at Uncle P Lawtons & went to the Meeting House to Attend the Select Quarterly Meeting which was a season of favor, precious favor & encouragement to the hearts of some present, under a sense that Israels Shepherd was extending help & strength to the Church, & tho' the hands of some may hang down yet holy truth was spreading in this land - We lodged at Uncle Peters & next Morning We attended the Quarterly Meeting at large. -
In the first Meeting Thos Anthony was engaged in a lively powerful testimony which I have no doubt reached the witness in many minds present Anne Almy followed in a lively & pertinent Supplication & the meeting concluded after a Short testimony from Wm Almy. - In the last Meeting our frd Thos Anthony spread a concern before us to pay a religious visit to several Quarterly Meetings in N York State which was united with - We dined at*

256. See Jay Leyda's THE MELVILLE LOG: A DOCUMENTARY LIFE OF HERMAN MELVILLE, published in 1951.

257. Samuel Gist, Esq. of Virginia and London (1717-1815) had owned a slave plantation in Hanover County, Virginia before returning to England during the Revolutionary War. In England he had done well in business. In his will the 98-year-old had freed perhaps 350 slaves and provided funds for their relocation, the building of homes, and the establishment of schools and homes. His executors would make similar purchase of land elsewhere in Ohio, for the benefit of other contingents of his manumitted slaves.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Anne Anthonys & toward night rode home

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 8, Sunday: John Fauchereau Grimké died while seeking medical treatment in Philadelphia. Alone, the only mourner, his daughter Sarah Moore Grimké would follow the coffin to the grave. During her voyage home to Charleston, the grieving girl would make the acquaintance of a Quaker family, and they would present her with a copy of the memoirs of Friend John Woolman. Back at home in South Carolina, she would find no consolation in her mother and in her family's black service staff:

Tears never moistened my eyes; to prayer I was a stranger. With Job I dared to curse the day of my birth. One day I was tempted to say something of the kind to my mother. She was greatly shocked, and reproved me seriously. I craved a hiding-place in the grave, as a rest from the distress of my feelings, thinking that no estate could be worse than the present. Sometimes, being unable to pray, unable to command one feeling of good, either natural or spiritual, I was tempted to commit some great crime, thinking I could repent and thus restore my lost sensibility. On this I often meditated, and assuredly should have fallen into this snare had not the mercy of God still followed me.

The father's will would leave $10,000 to each child, an amount that at that time was quite enough to guarantee that they would be able to live very comfortably their entire lives off a safe annual dividend of approximately $600 without ever dipping into the principal amount.²⁵⁸

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 8th of 8 M 1819 / Our Meetings were both silent & to me seasons of mental labor — In the evening called to See Edw W Lawton I wife, a visit of sympathy to them in the loss of a child this morning about 16 Months old...

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

258. Inheriting $10,000 then would be the equivalent of today becoming a millionaire by inheritance — except that today there would be federal capital-gains taxes, and state taxes, and sales taxes, whereas there were not then any such things. Therefore perhaps we should say that inheriting that sum of money would be the equivalent of having today a safe gross disposable income for the duration of one's life of some $90,000 annually, $30,000 of which would be eaten up by today's taxation and merely $60,000 being actually available for one's annual disposable income.)

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

August 10, Tuesday: Kantate zum Geburtstag des Sängers Johann Michael Vogl D.666 for mixed voices and piano by Franz Schubert to words of Stadler was performed for the initial time, at the home of Josef von Koller, in Steyr.

At Harvard College's Divinity School, Mr. Andrews Norton was inaugurated as the Dexter Professor of Sacred Literature. His full service as Dexter Lecturer and then as Dexter Professor would amount to eleven years. Before autumn of this year, at the Harvard Divinity School, no distinction of classes had existed. At this point the students were divided into a 1st-year class, a 2d-year class, and a 3d-year class.

George Gordon, Lord Byron left Ravenna for Bologna.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 10 of 8 M / Attended the funeral of Edw W Lawtons child the funeral was after the manner of Friends, & I thought the sitting was favor'd with a good degree of solemnity. - he was once a member & both he & his wife attenders of friends Meeting

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 11, Wednesday: Martin Johnson Heed (Martin Johnson Heade) was born in Bucks County, Pennsylvania. At an early age he would be placed under the instruction of a neighbor who painted coaches and signs, Friend Edward Hicks.

Thomas Nuttall and a trapper guide set out from Three Forks across the Oklahoma prairie, on horseback. The guide, Mr. Lee, said he had trapped in and about the Oklahoma wilderness for about a decade interacting extensively with the Cherokee and Osage, and had ascended the Canadian, Cimarron, and Arkansas rivers nearly to their western sources.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 11th of 8 M / Attended the funeral of John Goddards child he & his wife are attenders of our Meeting & bury in our Ground. -She was once a member & daughter of the late Daniel Gould of Middletown. - Oh that those who know the Truth may be obedient to its dictates, thereby they would know their Stakes Strengthened & cord lengthened Disobedience make a long Wilderness, but Obedience make the Work Short. - We took tea at Father Rodmans in company with a couple of young men from Wilmington Delaware

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

August 14, Saturday: Erik Acharius died.

Apparently, according to a report which appeared in the American Journal of Science, between 8PM and 9PM on the previous evening two women of Amherst, Massachusetts had observed “a brilliant white light resembling burnished silver” which they supposed to descend slowly from the sky as a ball onto their front yard. At one point this light was bright enough for them to see it reflect upon or cast a shadow against a nearby wall. The next morning, according to a report from a Professor Rufus Graves, the man of the house, an Erastus Dewey, noted that there was in his yard, some 20 feet from the doorstep, a “circular form, resembling a sauce or salad dish bottom upwards, about eight inches in diameter and one in thickness, of a bright buff color, with a fine nap upon it similar to that on milled cloth.... On removing the villous coat, a buff colored pulpy substance of the consistency of good soft soap, of an offensive, suffocating smell appeared; and on a near approach to it, or when immediately over it, the smell became almost insupportable, producing nausea and dizziness. A few minutes exposure to the atmosphere changed the buff into a livid color resembling venous blood. It was observed to attract moisture very rapidly from the air. A half-pint tumbler was nearly half filled with the substance. It soon began to liquefy and form a mucilaginous substance of the consistence, color, and feeling of starch when prepared for domestic use.” Whatever this material was, within two or three days it would evaporate, leaving only some sort of dark-colored residue upon the sides and bottom of that tumbler. It would be noted that when they then rubbed some of this dried residue between their fingers, it became a fine, odorless ash.

SKY EVENT

Samuel Cabot reported his attention to have suddenly been arrested by an object emerging from the sea about 100 to 150 yards from him, “which gave to my mind at the first glance the idea of a horse’s head.... I perceived at a short distance eight or ten regular bunches or protuberances, and at a short interval three or four more.... The Head ... was serpent shaped it was elevated about two feet from the water ... he could not be less than eighty feet long.”

SEA SERPENT SIGHTINGS

After some passage of time, Friend Moses Brown wrote again to Sophronia N.J. Forster of Weare, New Hampshire, expressing continued interest in her teaching at Yearly Meeting School.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould had a conversation with a local Jew and was reassured about the superiority of Quakerism:

7th day 14th of 8 M / Rec'd two letters from Wm Rickman in N York one of them mentioned that Wm Foster of England had obtained a Certificate from Friends there to pay a religious visit to friends in this Country & expected to embark next spring – This Afternoon my mind was struck in conversation with Moses Lopez a Jew, by a remark of his he was speaking of religion & giving some of his views on the subject & observed that was he to change his religion he should turn Quaker & remarked that there were some of our manners & customs that he approved beyond others & even some of his own – he Said he was once in New Bedford & was invited to dine at the house of Our friend Sam Rodman, who provided a good Salt Fish dinner for him & when they set down to the table he observed a profound silence which seemed very strange to him & was at an entire loss what to think or how to account for it but after a few moments, Socobility was resumed & things went on in their usual order, at tea he remarked the same pause, when, (to use his own expressions) he considered it must be some of our ceremonies, & he could but approve of it, being much more solemn in its effects than a prayer rabbled over with apparant feeling or sensibility, he remarked that it was their practice to say a short prayer after dinner, but he says I like Your mode best being more Solemn. now I have no doubt but this poor son of Israel was Struck with real religious feelings on the occasion, which from the dark state of his mind he would not fully comprehend. – This circumstance may tend to confirm Friends of the necessity of such pratices. – we know not the effects of them, if attended too with reverance they may reach the hearts of some, when we are not aware of it ourselves, & perhaps most effectivelly when nothing may be uttered

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 August 15, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 15th of 8 M 1819 / Our Morning Meeting was a season of some favor. – Father Rodman was concerned in a few lively expressions. Silent in the Afternoon & small being rainy. – After tea took a walk to the lower end of the Street, up thro' Pope Street thro' Spring street home. John was with me who united in the enjoyment of the pleasant round. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 August 19, Thursday: In Cambridge, Massachusetts, with great pomp and ceremony, the graduation ceremonies for Harvard College were taking place.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

5th day 19th of 8th M 1819 / Our meeting silent & to me a season of some favor, & I have no doubt was a solemn Season to many for the times are solemn, there is much sickness in town and an unusual number of Deaths. -The fever that prevails is very mortal & the appearance of the Town seems gloomy, however, my mind is quiet under the prospect, not knowing how soon it may be my turn to experience sickness in our own family. - Our friends Anne Greene & Hannah Dennis were at Meeting having finished their Religious visit to families in Portsmouth & Middletown & have commenced in Newport this morning. -i

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 August 20, Friday: In Toronto, Canada, the agricultural statistician Robert Fleming Gourlay was again found guilty of sedition under the Alien Act for asking too many pointy questions (he would be banished to the United States).

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 20th of 8th M / Spent this day in company with our friends Anne Greene & Hannah Dennis, in visiting familys & called at the following places Dorcas Earls - Betsy Buffum & Sisters Robert Lawton, father Rodmans Patience Frickers David Rodmans David Bowens & Jonathon Bowens, They laboured faithfully & I have no doubt the visits were Satisfactory with the Visitors & the Visited

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 August 21, Saturday: At about 6AM service commenced in the chapel at Stafford, which, with the administration of the holy sacrament, occupied the time till near 8AM, when the tolling of the bell announced the approach of the horse-drawn hurdle conveying John Duffield, who was to be hanged (such a hurdle was usually fashioned from thin interwoven branches to which the prisoner was tied). When the horse reached the foot of the ladder of the town's portable gallows structure, Duffield stated with great composure, "I am going to Heaven." Ascending the platform with steady step, he stood quietly as the executioner adjusted the rope about his neck. He was allowed to spend some five minutes in fervent prayer before the signal was given and the drop fell. The Wolverhampton Chronicle would report that "On Saturday morning, about half-past eight o'clock, John Duffield underwent the awful sentence of the law at the front of the county gaol at Stafford, for counterfeiting, at Darlaston, the coin of this realm called a shilling, of which he was convicted (with Josiah Wilkes and Thos. Earp) at our late assizes." The news account informs us that the hanged counterfeiter had left seven children.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 21 of 8 M / Father Rodman attends Anne & Hannah today they Dined with us & had a sitting in the family & when Anne Carpenter came in & joined us....

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

August 22, Sunday: At his home in Waltham, Massachusetts, the Reverend Convers Francis, Jr. delivered a sermon based upon Isaiah 40:31, "On religious perseverance."

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 22nd of 8 M / Our Morning meeting was in good measure favord - Jonathon Dennis Anne Greene & Hannah Dennis were engaged in testimony -

In the Afternoon father Rodman & David Buffum were engaged in testimony, the latter was to considerable length for him - & very lively - I have at seasons secretly rejoiced that there are left among us those who publish the gospel in the Spirit of it. - a lively ministry is a blessing to a meeting. & May there be some raised up & cloathed upon to stand as Aarons to the people. - how are they needed in this day - we who live in it can see & do Know - 5th day 26th of 8th M 1819 / Rode to Portsmouth with Sister Ruth & attended the Moy [Monthly] Meeting - In the first Hannah Dennis was concerned in a lively testimony. - In the last we Rec'd Freeborn Chase into membership. She is a young woman who has been long an attender of our Meetings & of a religious life & conversation, has for some years believed it would be right for her to join our society, but thro' weakness has defer'd it till now, when she is far gone in a consumption & not expected to remain but a short time in mutability. Friends rec'd her as with open Arms, as I hope we shall all who request on right grounds. - We dined at Anne Anthonys -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 29, Sunday: On the basis of an inscription found carved at breast level into the 20-inch base of a pine tree near the Mystic River, "J.O.R." above "AUG. 29. 1819" in Roman capitals and Arabic numerals, Superintendent Philetus W. Norris would in 1881 reasonably infer that another white men had been in the Yellowstone wilderness some 62 years before him.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 29th of 8th M / In our Morning Meeting the London general Epistle was read & D Buffum was engaged in a lively testimony. - In the Afternoon we were silent, but to me a pretty good meeting. - About 20 Minutes past one OClock Our Aged friend Robert Lawton departed this life in the 87th Year of his Age. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

August 31, Tuesday: The revenue cutters USS Alabama and USS Louisiana, while sailing the Gulf off southern Florida, sighted and gave chase to the schooner Bravo. When they came within range there was a brief gunnery duel, and then the vessel was boarded and its crew surrendered. The vessel had been sailing without a letter of marque. It was Jean La Farges, a lieutenant of Jean Lafitte. We can presume that all these pirates would hang.

“Variations on Non più mesta accanto al fuoco” was performed by Nicolò Paganini, probably for the initial time, at the Teatro dei Fiorentini of Naples.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*3rd day 31st of 8 M / This evening Sampson Sherman son of Job departed this life. I was called in & assisted in laying him out. he had entered his 16th Year - with him "The summer has past" & who will close with the Autumn, is known only to Him who giveth life & taketh it away at his Will. - May all that is alive within me bow in his presence in thankfulness for the many favors vouchsafed. -
In the Afternoon Attended the funeral of Robert Lawton which was large. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 2, Thursday: Surgeon John Stokoe of HMS Conqueror, having treated Napoléon Bonaparte three times, had formed the opinion that the prisoner was suffering from “liver disease.” Napoléon’s jailer Sir Hudson Lowe had been offering a different diagnosis, so he had ordered a court-martial by a council of war on board the Admiral’s ship. After four sessions at which the surgeon attempted to represent himself since he was denied counsel (his defense being to confess that he must have been to some degree insubordinate or impolitic but despite this had not allowed himself to become any sort of accomplice to the enemy), the panel unanimously declared him guilty of insubordination and condemned him to be dismissed but—in consideration of his former services—with a recommendation for half-pay.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 2nd of 9 M / Sampson Shermans funeral went to meeting which occasioned a pretty large gathering. Hannah & Jonathon Dennis were engaged in testimony & our friend D Buffum was very lively & pertinent. Abigail Sherman also Said a few words -After meeting the Corpse was decently interred in the upper burying Ground in the Medow field. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

September 5, Sunday morning: About 1AM, John Howard discovered that the pantry of the Phoenix, adjoining his stateroom, was on fire. When the flames reached the engine in the middle of the boat, all communication between the two ends of the boat was cut off. The starboard boat made for Providence Island in Lake Champlain, the nearest land, with 20 passengers, but the larboard boat, the larger of the two, got cut loose with only 14 passengers of the remaining 25 people aboard, leaving 11 to swim for it with any material they could find that would float. Five people would drown. Captain Richard W. Sherman would be the last to leave the burning ship and would be plucked from the water near Stave Island when sloops came out from Burlington, Vermont in the morning.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 5th of 9th M 1819 / In our morning Meeting father Rodman was concerned in a short testimony. The meeting was as large as usual & to me a hard time Silent Meeting & to me a hard time again –
After we had done tea, Prince Gifford Jr & his Wife from Falmouth C Cod having been on a visit to their son in Law in New Jersey, & on their return, met a head wind & put in to this harbour for Shelter. They came on shore & spent about an hour with us & took a little refreshment. – Their company was pleasant, they feeling like a Brother & a Sister*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 6, Monday: Thomas Blanchard patented a copying lathe for the turning of irregular forms such as gunstocks (similar to today's key-copying machine, although on a larger scale).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*2nd day 6th of 9th M / Prince Gifford & wife are still detained by the wind & dined with us. –
This Afternoon Joseph Lancaster, the celebrated lecturer on education, called to see us & set an hour his company was pleasant & tho' he has passed thro' great adulation as the founder of a new system of education & done some things which has occasioned him to be disowned from our Society in England, Yet I was glad to feel that there is Yet a little life in him. – he has the appearance of tolerably plain friend, quite portly & of a florid countenance, about 40 years of age.
This evening attended J Lancasters lecter at Elton Martens*

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

House. There was much valuable information in it, but according to my mind he does not conduct it in the best way in all aspects & if I see him again shall suggest my views to him May he preserve the good remaining in him, but how subject is poor man to be carried off the ground by flattery. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 7, Tuesday: Stephen Long's expedition up the Missouri River in the Western Engineer, the initial steamboat to navigate there, arrived at the mouth of the Platte River. Long considered the land to be "almost wholly unfit for cultivation," destined to be "the abode of perpetual desolation."

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 7 of 9 M / This morning J Lancaster called & took breakfast with us & took leave bound for Bedford. The time here he was here afforded an opportunity to Express all I thought proper to say tho' not all I felt towards him & I believe the acquaintance has been proffitable between us.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 9, Thursday: William Godwin wrote his daughter Mary Godwin Wollstonecraft Shelley after her loss of her child:

*Skinner Street,
Sep. 9, 1819.*

My dear Mary

Your letter of August 19 is very grievous to me, inasmuch as you represent me as increasing the degree of your uneasiness & depression.

You must however allow me the privilege of a father & a philosopher, in expostulating with you upon this depression. I cannot but consider it as lowering your character in a memorable degree, & putting you quite among the commonalty & mob of your sex, when I had thought I saw in you symptoms, entitling you to be ranked among those spirits that do honour to our nature. Oh, what a falling off is here! How bitterly is so inglorious a change to be deplored!

What is it you want that you have not? You have the husband of your choice, to whom you seem to be unalterably attached, a man of high intellectual endowments, ~~whatever I & some other persons may think of his morality, & the defects under this last head, if they be not (as you seem to think) imaginary, at least do not operate as towards you.~~ You have all the goods of fortune, all the means of being useful to others, & shining in your proper sphere. But you have lost a child: & all the rest of the world, all that is beautiful, & all that has a claim upon your kindness, is nothing, because a child of three years old is dead!

The human species may be divided into two great classes: those who lean on others for support: & those who are qualified to support. Of these last some have one, some five, & some ten

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

talents: some can support a husband, a child, a small but respectable circle of friends & dependents, & some can support a world, contributing by their energies to advance their whole species one or more degrees in the scale of perfectibility. The former class sit with their arms crossed, a prey to apathy & languor, of no use to any earthly creature, & ready to fall from their stools, if some kind soul, who might compassionate, but who cannot respect them, did not come from moment to moment, & endeavour to set them up again. You were formed by nature to belong to the best of these classes: but you seem to be shrinking away, & voluntarily enrolling yourself among the worst.

Above all things I intreat you, do not put the miserable delusion on yourself, to think there is something fine, & beautiful, & delicate, in giving yourself up, & agreeing to be nothing.

Remember too that, though, at first, your nearest connections may pity you in this state, yet that when they see you fixed in selfishness & ill humour, & regardless of the happiness of every one else, they will finally cease to love you, & scarcely learn to endure you....

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 9th of 9th M 1819 / Our Meeting was rather small & to me rather low, tho' I have no doubt some life was experienced among us. -- Abigail Sherman was concerned in a few words. -- This evening after a few days illness of a fever Lemuel Bailey departed this life, he was a fine boy, & promised usefulness, but alass he has made his escape from a troublesome World & I trust is at rest. Such was his uprightness promptness & faithfulness in every respect in Br D Rodmans buisness as greatly endeared him to the family, & Such his natural urbanity & Kindness to all with whom he had any concern or acquaintance, that no boy was better beloved, it may be well said that he left a good report behind him.--

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

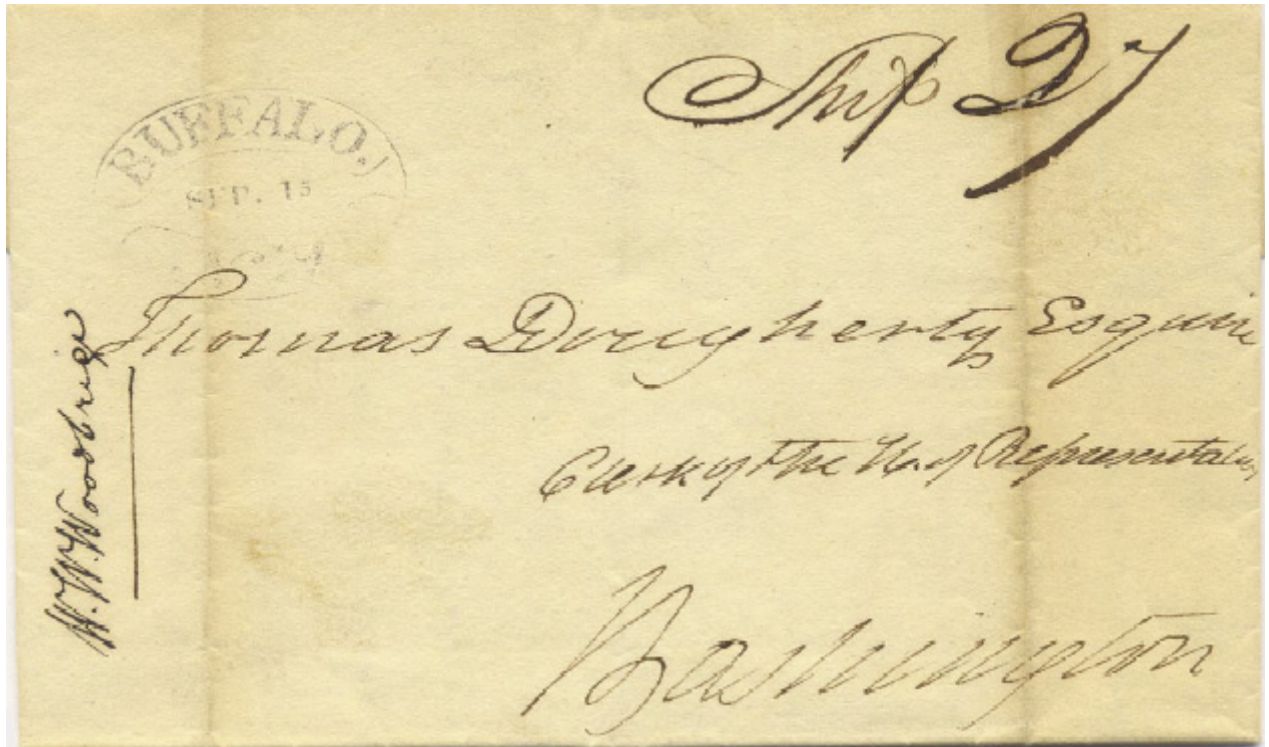

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

September 11, Saturday: A letter was posted in Detroit that would travel on Lake Erie aboard the steamboat Walk-in-the-Water by way of Buffalo, to Washington DC. The typical transit time between Detroit and Buffalo by sailing vessel was 7-9 days. As you can see from the BUFFALO postmark, the letter would be received there on September 15th — transit time only 4 days (you can also see that there was a 2-cent ship transport fee).

A Genoa court ordered seizure of the assets of Nicolò “Deep Pockets” Paganini, against the settlement he had yet to pay to the widow of Ferdinando Cavanna (plus accumulating interest).²⁵⁹

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 11th of 9th M / It is a melancholy time in Town, there are a number of people Sick with a malignant fever & two lays dead. — “When the Lords judgements are abroad in the Earth my the inhabitants thereof learn wisdom”. -we are in his hands, & may our dependance be on him alone

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 12, Sunday: Joaquín José Melgarejo y Saurín, duque de San Fernando de Quiroga replaced Manuel González Salmón y Gómez de Torres as First Secretary of State of Spain.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1 day 12th of 9th M / Our Morning meeting was large & solemn. father Rodman in his testimony adverted to the present Awful

259. You understand, this sort of continuous scandal publicity must have been performing wonders for the “gate” at the box office for the virtuoso’s solo performances: “Oh, Niccolò, make my body sob like your violin!”

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

dispensation of sickness that prevails in the Town & D Buffum was engaged in testimony towards the close of the Meeting. - Small & silent in the Afternoon. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 14, Tuesday: We know, from a report in the Nashville, Tennessee Clarion of this date, that the initial newspaper to be published in Texas, the Texas Republican, had begun to be published by Eli Harris, formerly of Franklin, Tennessee, who had originated in North Carolina. It had been issued a month earlier in Nacogdoches by General James Long and seems to have been edited by a member of his “Supreme Council,” Horatio Bigelow (no copy of it seems to have been preserved).

John Keats posted, from Lombard Street in London, a letter to Fanny Brawne that he had begun to compose on Fleet Street on the morning of the previous day:

My dear Girl - I have been hurried to town by a Letter from my brother George; it is not of the brightest intelligence. Am I mad or not? I came by the Friday night coach and have not yet been to Hampstead. Upon my soul it is not my fault. I cannot resolve to mix any pleasure with my days: they go one like another, indistinguishable. If I were to see you to-day it would destroy the half comfortable sullenness I enjoy at present into downright perplexities. I love you too much to venture to Hampstead, I feel it is not paying a visit, but venturing into a fire. Que feraije? as the French novel writers say in fun, and I in earnest: really what can I do? Knowing well that my life must be passed in fatigue and trouble, I have been endeavouring to wean myself from you: for to myself alone what can be much of a misery? As far as they regard myself I can despise all events: but I cannot cease to love you. This morning I scarcely know what I am doing. I am going to Walthamstow. I shall return to Winchester to-morrow; whence you shall hear from me in a few days. I am a Coward, I cannot bear the pain of being happy: 't is out of the question: I must admit no thought of it.

Yours ever affectionately John Keats.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 14th of 9 M / ANN McCoy a young woman from Savanna who has boarded a few weeks at Aunt Anne Carpenters, left Town for Providence. - Her conduct has been such as has endeared her all her acquaintance, & we parted with her with regret. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

September 16, Thursday: Father Miguel Hidalgo y Costilla's Grito de Dolores ignited an insurrection led by Ignacio Allende, that would produce both their deaths promptly and, after eleven years, the independence of Mexico.

Frederic Tudor wrote to Samuel Parkman, who had made his nut in real estate, that he also was beginning to consider himself a rich man. Owning four icehouses worth $40,000 (not counting the value of their extensive real estate) can do that to you! This year he had already sold $30,000 worth of ice and expected to sell $6,000 or $8,000 more.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 16th of 9th M 1819 / Our meeting was rather small J Dennis & father Rodman appeared in short testimonies, & to me it was a season of but little life, tho' I thought in the forepart of it there was a little life & perhaps closed with a little. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

September 17, Friday: William Aspinwall Tappan was born to Lewis Tappan and Susan Aspinwall Tappan.

A Vienna court accepted the resignation as guardian over Karl van Beethoven of Councillor Mathias von Tuscher and ruled that Ludwig van Beethoven's nephew be placed with his mother and a court-appointed guardian, Leopold Nussböck (a city official).

The 1st whaling ship arrived in the Hawaiian Islands.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 17th of 9th M / This morning Br Isaac with Uncle & Aunt Stanton arrived from N York. Our hearts are glad to see them & thankful we are in the enjoyment of health so as to be able to receive them, but the Hand of the Lord is upon us. There is much sickness prevailing both of fever & the Disentary, which casts a gloom over poor Newport

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 18, Saturday: George Gordon, Lord Byron and Teresa left Bologna together for La Mira, near Venice.

Jean-Bernard-Léon Foucault was born (in 1851 his pendulum would demonstrate the rotation of the earth).

Le testament et les billets-doux, a comédie mêlée de chant by Daniel François Esprit Auber to words of Planard, was performed for the initial time, at the Théâtre Feydeau, Paris.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 18th of 9 M / Uncle & Aunt Stanton with my Mother dined

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

with us. After Dinner Took Chaise with Uncle Stanton & rode to Portsmouth, set a little while at his cousin Stephen Slocum then Called at Uncle Thurstons & took tea. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 19, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 19 of 9 M / At meeting a solemn impressive testimony from D Buffum "Steward give an acct of thy Stewardship for thou may be no longer Steward." Silent in the Afternoon & with me no dew nor rain. - very barran & hard time. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 23, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 23rd of 9th M / Uncle Stanton having a mind to go to Portsmouth to visit several places with a view to make a Purchase & settlement I felt it my duty to accompany him, tho' the contest of feeling between going & Staying to attend meeting was strong, & occasioned an exercise which I could not get rid of all Day. - We went to several places in the course of the Day, but none seemed to suit except Abner Cundels & he seemed to be at present unwilling to Sell. we called to see our Aged Cousin Elizabeth Chase & at J Weedens to look at his place, & returned with but little Prospect of a Purchase

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 26, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 26 of 9th M 1819 / At Meeting this morning father Rodman appeared in a short testimony -- In the Afternoon it being a violent storm of Wind & Rian the gathering was very small & not a Woman ventured out, silent but I thought a degree of favor was witnessed. - About Eight OClock this morning Uncle Stanton sailed for NYork in the New Sloop Herald Capt Bliss. if they did not make a harbor in season, they must have had a very perilous day & evening. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 30, Thursday: Louis Spohr's resignation as Director of Opera in Frankfurt went into effect.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 30 of 9 M / Hannah Dennis, David Buffum & father Rodman bore solemn testimonys, & it was a solemn meeting. -- In the last we had considerable buisness but tho' there was considerable expression & some different views harmony & love was preserved. -Jonathon Dennis obtained liberty & a copy of a minute to accompany our friend Thomas Anthony in his religious

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

visit to Several Quarterly Meetings in N York State.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

HDTWHAT?INDEXSTEPHEN WANTON GOULDFRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULDGO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

October 2, Saturday: Percy Bysshe Shelley and Mary Godwin Wollstonecraft Shelley moved to Firenze.

Alfred Hawkins got married with a Martha Peterson or Patterson at the Anglican Cathedral of Québec. The gazette for October 13th would report: "Married, at Québec on Saturday evening 2nd instant, by the Rev. G.J. Mountain, Mr. Alfred Hawkins, wine merchant, to Miss Patterson, daughter of Mr. James Patterson, of the same place."

The nation was learning that Commodore Oliver Hazard "We Have Met The Enemy And They Are Ours" Perry, hero of the War of 1812, had in Venezuela succumbed to the yellow fever:

land whale.

BOSTON,
SATURDAY MORNING, OCT. 2, 1819.
Postscript to the last National Intelligencer.

Death of Commodore Perry.
NORFOLK, SEPT. 25.
HIGHLY IMPORTANT!
The Hero of Lake Erie, the gallant OLIVER H. PERRY, is no more!

THE United States' Corvette John Adams arrived in Hampton Roads yesterday afternoon, about two o'clock, from Port Spain, (Trinidad) from which place she sailed the last of August. From Lieut. Commandant CLAXTON, who at present commands that ship, we have received the following communication respecting the death of this distinguished officer.

[COMMUNICATED]

Died, on the 23d August, on board the U. S. schooner Nonsuch, at the moment of her arrival at Port Spain, in the island of Trinidad, Commodore OLIVER H. PERRY. He was taken with the yellow fever on his passage from the town of Angostura, and although he was attended by two able physicians, he was reduced to the greatest extremity on the fourth day of his illness. Sensible of his approaching dissolution, he called his officers together, and communicated his last wishes.

He retained his faculties to the last; was perfectly collected and resigned, and submitted to his fate with great resolution and fortitude.

His remains were interred at Port Spain, on the 24th August, with naval and military

OLIVER HAZARD PERRY

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 2nd of 10 M 1819 / This Afternoon Attended the funeral of My Cousin Ruth Marsh, she departed this life last evening about a quarter past 8 OClock. I returned to the House & took tea with the family she being the last of her generation, & to take my leave of a house where I took much pleasure & derived much benefit in my youth from the proffitable conversation of her Sister Mary & Brother Jonathon. The estate will be divided into so many divisions that it is Probable it will now soon go out of the name & the house so old that it must be Pulled down. - from the best information I can obtain the Marsh House on the east side of Thames Street was built by Walter Clarke & given to one of his daughters who married a Gould & their daughter Mary Married Jonathon Marsh the father of Ruth aforementioned & has been regularly inhabited by Friends to the present day & she is the last of our society that will probably have any claim to it. -- The fashon & all things in this World change. - while sitting in the Room at the funeral my mind was lead into a very serious train of reflection, on the many changes I had seen in that House & now it seemed as if the final change had come to it. - May I proffit by the feelings which I experienced while commemorating the past hours spent with the past inhabitants of that house, & I am Sure I felt much more that I have here conveyed.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

HDTWHAT?INDEXSTEPHEN WANTON GOULD*FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

October 3, Sunday: The common wisdom is that the bondage of the kapu system was broken in the Hawaiian Islands when white Christian missionaries cast out idolatry.

However, it was on this day, six months after the death of Kamehameha the Great and actually prior to the sailing from Boston harbor on October 23d, for its 164-day voyage to Kailua, Hawaii, of the first white Christian missionaries aboard the Thaddeus (the Reverend Asa Thurston and Mrs. Lucy Goodale Thurston, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Chamberlain and five children, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Holman, Mr. and Mrs. Loomis, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Ruggles, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Whitney, the Reverend and Mrs. Hiram Bingham I and the four young Hawaiians Thomas Hopu, William Kanui, John Honolii, and George Tamoril), that the bondage of the kapu system was broken. This day was the first kapu day announcing the coming Makahiki, the sacred days of Lono, the God of Peace. The two wives of Kamehameha the Great, Ka'ahumanu and Ke'opuolani, and their new king, Liholiho (Kamehameha II), openly broke the kapu by eating together at a formal state occasion. This sent an unmistakable message to the common people of Hawaii: the kapu system was no longer being honored either by their three highest ali'i or by their new king.

HDTWHAT?INDEXFRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

These ali'i were supported by the prime minister Kalaimoku, and by the highest kahuna Hewahewa, a direct descendant of Pa'an. The new King Kamehameha II sent out messengers to all the districts of Hawai'i having heiaus, that they immediately desecrate these sacred precincts and topple their idols. Therefore the old idols had been lying about on the ground for fully six months when the good folks aboard that missionary ship Thaddeus caught their first glimpse of looming mass of the Mauna Kea volcano on the Big Island above them in the dark on the night of March 30, 1820 (and would be granted permission by the monarch to remain at Kailua there for one year)!

A View of a Morai at O'whyhee.

Published Decr 14, 1781, by G. Robinson.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 3rd of 10th M 1819 / Our morning meeting was a season of some favor, before meeting as I was walking back & fourth in the Room my mind was turned toward our meeting & reflected on the number of respectable young people that attended, desires were raised in my mind for their furtherance & advancement in

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

the Truth & while this exercised it passed my mind that as the morning was pleasant it was probable there would be a good many present & I should feel glad if David Buffum could find it in his mind particularly to address them. The subject went from me & I hardly thought of it again till towards the close or past the middle of the meeting he rose & observed that tho' he felt but feeble both in body & mind, Yet he believed it right for him to address the Young & rising generation, when those expressions were uttered, my morning feelings were revived – he went on & delivered a testimony of much weight & life, greatly to the comfort & refreshment of my mind, affording a renew'd belief in the Truth of immediate revelation, & sympathy of feeling In the Afternoon father Rodman, was concerned in a lively testimony. – After Meeting with my H attended the funeral of the Widow Avis Carpenter aged 80 Years. She was a friendly Woman of a remarkably meek & quiet spirit & a dilligent attender of our Meetings. She was Buried in the Ancient Clifton Burying ground belonging to Friends. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 6, Wednesday: Returning to his find of February 6th, merchant captain William Smith landed on Desolation Island in the South Shetlands and planted a British flag, claiming the islands for Britain. This would mark the beginning of a massive program of seal hunting in the South Shetlands.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 10th M 6th 1819 / This evening with my H took a Walk out to D Buffums & set with him & his wife very agreeably. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

HDTWHAT?INDEXFRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

October 7, Thursday: ADDRESS, DELIVERED BEFORE THE WORCESTER AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY, OCTOBER 7, 1819: BEING THEIR FIRST ANNIVERSARY CATTLE SHOW AND EXHIBITION OF MANUFACTURES, by Levi Lincoln, Governor of Massachusetts from 1825 to 1834 (Worcester: Printed by Manning & Trumbull).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 10th M 7th / Our meeting was Silent & I have no doubt was attended with Solemnity on many minds as well as my own. – it is a Season of much depression, sickness continues among us, Several are now down & we know not whose turn it will be next. May our confidence be in the Lord alone & not in our own understanding. –I have within a few days read & thought much of the account given by Wm Edmunson in his journal in the Year 1676 when at Newport when many friends died in three or four days Sickness & but few families on the Island but lost some. – Tho' friends have yet been greatly Spared, Yet the inhabitants have

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

suffered much & who is to be brought low next is known only to HIM who knows all things & does all things right & to his righteous decision may we all bow in mercy or judgement as he sees meet

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 October 10, Sunday: Two months after Simón Bolívar and his army captured Bogotá, sparing the lives of 38 captured royalist officers, his Vice-President Francisco Santander, left in control of the city, had them all executed in front of the Cathedral.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 10 M 9 1819 / This Afternoon attended the funeral of Robert Brayton, he had descended from a family of Friends in his fathers & Mothers line. Old Susannah Freeborn was great Aunt to him. – he attended friends Meetings & was interred in our ground. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 October 12, Tuesday: The Reverend Asa Thurston got married with Lucy Goodale of Marlborough, Massachusetts (she was a cousin of a classmate — perhaps at Yale College, perhaps at the Andover Theological Seminary).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 12 of 10 M / Spent last night in watching with my intimate friend James Taylor who has been quite sick with a havy cold succeeded with fever –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 October 14, Thursday: The Spanish Inquisition had taken Maria Martinez taken into custody “for propositions” (whatever that might have amounted to). On this day they agreed that she had not erred in the matters charged, or in anything else, but nevertheless they reprimanded her, and warned that the tribunal would henceforward be keeping its eye on her.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 14th of 10 M / My H Watched last night with Mary Williams wife of David who is very low of a complaint which produces great distress for Breath & will probably soon close her life – Our meeting was small & silent & I believe generally a poor time among us. – Rec'd this Afternoon a letter from my friend John Heald of Fairfield Ohio, dated the 2nd of this M which was very acceptable.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

October 15, Friday: In the vestry of Park Street Church in Boston, a company of 7 missionaries with their wives and children (the Reverend Asa Thurston and Mrs. Lucy Goodale Thurston, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Chamberlain and five children, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Holman, Mr. and Mrs. Loomis, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Ruggles, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Whitney, and the Reverend and Mrs. Hiram Bingham I), along with three “natives of Owhyhee” (as in “Hawaiian Islands”) were “formed into a Church of Christ” to travel to the opposite side of the Northern Hemisphere of the globe and attempt to persuade the heathen into knowledge of the Truth.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 15 of 10 M / This morning I went in according to my usual practice to set a few minutes With my dear Mother She was speaking of the difficulty of the time & said that she believed there never was more difficulty to obtain lively hood since the revolutionary War, but she had a faith that she should never want, having been carried thro' many & great streights & now but a short space remains between her & the grave & observed that she had been hundreds of times greatly comforted from a recollection of her father Stephen Wantons expressions on his death bed She said it was the practice of her & her Mother to sit with him till late at night & sometimes till near morning, a night or two previous to his final close she & her mother as usual was Sitting by his side, he appeared to wake out of sleep & said to them "I am sorry you are up I have been very quiet. I have been uneasy at the thought of leaving you Knowing that I have nothing to give you, but this night I have rec'd a full Assurance that none of mine should Want bread. This declaration of his, on a dying bed she sayed, had proved deeply consoling to her in many gloomy & dark seasons, which she has had to Pass through, & sometimes when ready to repine or sink under the weight of discouragement would rush on her mind in the most consoling manner. -

She also related that the day her father died his old friend Capt Wickham called to see him who observed to him "That it was hard to die," on which grandfather Wanton reply'd "No I do not find it so. I found it much harder to live than die" & these were nearly his last words for before capt Wickham had got to the great door he was gone.

I believe I have before somewhere in my journal inserted the foregoing circumstance. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 16, Saturday: John Keats wrote from Wentworth Place to his sister Fanny Keats (not to Fanny Brawne).

At a special assembly in the Park Street Church in Boston, one of the Hawaiian Islanders, the native Hopu, addressed the assembly.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 16th of 10th M 1819 / Our Select meeting held this day

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

was to my mind a season of solemnity. I was lead secretly to pray for holy help in the discharge of the important duties which devolve on those who are brought into the more conspicuous duties of society / Oh that I may so conduct as to be found worthy of the divine presence. – Benjn Freeborn & wife Dined with us. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 17, Sunday: At Park Street Church in Boston there was a farewell sermon for the missionary families departing for the Hawaiian Islands. This was a crowd-pleaser: more than 500 people received Holy Communion.

R. Marsh wrote from Westleigh to Viscount Sidmouth, pleading for military protection for property and for persons of property in that vicinity against the depredations of starving weavers. He enclosed a petition under oath with which his own opinions perfectly coincided, “signed by most of the respectable inhabitants of the town of Leigh”:

The acerbation of temper among the weavers, or, as they style themselves, the reformers, produced by severe privations from the lowness of wages, and infuriated by seditious publications and cheap pamphlets, industriously circulated amongst them, has prepared them for the perpetration of the most atrocious crimes; and they openly declare their intention, by a simultaneous movement in the night, to seize property wherever they can find it, and destroy the possessors thereof; and it is added, that the period is not far distant.

I beg leave to state, that a single troop of horse would, in my humble opinion, be adequate to the purpose, provided it was stationary for a few months; as it would enable us to put the Watch and Ward Act in force, which, in the present state of things, I do not deem practicable.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 17th of 10th M 1819 / This morning went with Jont Dennis to Portsmouth before meeting stoped at P Lawtons – We had a pretty good meeting & A Sherman delivered a short testimony – We dined at Geo: Dennis’s & then went to see Parker Hall, the object of our visit was to inform him that he was disowned from society in consequence of his having married out of the order of society. –we requested to have the whole of his family together & after a little Seasonable & I believe well adapted counsil to his children on whose accounts our minds were deeply interested, we requested them to leave the room & we then endeavoured to Convey to him the object of our visit in the presence of his wife, & offred such other advice as seemed necessary & to me it was a season of remarkable favor & whether our visit to them was of any use or not. I am clear it was to my mind & I desire to be thankful for it. –it is often the case that we see but little a head & this was the case with me for in going I was so striped that I admired at it, being unable to *feel any good till I entered the room. –

HDTWHAT?INDEXFRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

We returned to cousin Elizabeth Chases where we took tea & lodged – & spent 2nd day [Monday] forenoon & after dinner walked home.
–I was very glad to see my aged cousin & she was to see me, it seemd like a renewal of Ancient love between us –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 21, Thursday: Captain Louis-Claude de Saulces de Freycinet christened the nearly square small islet of about 14 acres on the coral atoll known to Polynesians of Samoa as Motu o Manu, “island of seabirds,” with the name of his wife Rose, who was traveling with him aboard L’Uranie, as “Rose Atoll.”

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

21st of 10 M / A short meeting & a short but awakening testimony from father Rodman which I thought savor'd of life. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

October 24, Sunday: In New Bedford, Nathan Johnson married with the widowed Mary J. Mingo Durfee (Mary "Polly" Johnson). We do not know at what earlier point Nathan had arrived in that town.

La donna del lago, a melodramma by Gioachino Rossini to words of Tottola after Scott, was performed for the initial time, in the Teatro San Carlo of Naples.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 24th of 10th M 1819 / Attended Meeting in the forenoon & set it thro' in much pain of Body Father Rodman, Anne Dennis & Hannah Dennis weere engaged in short but lively testimmonys. Being much unwell & in pain from a disorder which rendered setting very trying, thought best to stay at home My H & John went.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 25, Monday: The Principality of Schwarzburg-Sondershausen signs a treaty with Prussia adhering to the Prussian tariff system. This was seen as the beginning of the German Zollverein.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 25 of 10 M / I am better today, but not well -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 28, Thursday: Elijah Hinsdale Burritt got married with Ann W. Watson of Milledgeville, Georgia. The couple would produce five children.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 28th of 10th M Took the stage this morning & rode to Portsmouth to attend the Moy [Monthly] Meeting. - In the first meeting, I was under considerable pain of body & could not sit as still as I desired, hence the mind could not be as quick as Was desirable there were two public appearances the first was by a member he spoke setting & I could not follow his communication tho' the Scripture he expressed was good "Unless the Lord Keepeth the City the watchman waketh but in vain" but those who undertake to preach must make their lives a model of their Doctrine. - the next towards the conclusion of the Meeting A Doctor Richardson Stood up twice & expressed a few words, he is not a member of our society tho' a dilligent attender of our meetings. his life & conversation also has not been considered a Moddle of christianity, which raised a doubt of his commission. -

In the last meeting the buisness went on pretty well. -

[] Gifford a woman who lives at Bristol ferry requested the care of friends & Peter Chase was restored to membership. -These were encouraging circumstances, evidence in my mind that the Heritage is not forsaken. -

I dined at Uncle Saml Thurstons & after dinner he brought me

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

more than half way home. – Thus I am helped along

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 31, Sunday: Ludwig van Beethoven appealed the ruling of the Vienna court of September 17th that his nephew Karl be cared for by his mother under a court-appointed guardian.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 31st of 10th M 1819 / Being unwell with a complaint which rendered sitting exceedingly painful, was unable to attend our Meetings today.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 2, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 2nd of 11th M 1819 / Several friends have set out for the Quarterly Meeting at Swansea – My mind is much with them this evening, but see no way to go, tho' I am about & may look pretty well in the face yet I am under considerable bodily weakness & am disposed to believe some complaints which I have may in time produce dissolution of the body – May I be prepared for the Solemn event – Oh May I be prepared for the Solemn event, be it sooner or later

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 4, Thursday: An Austrian magistrate denies the appeal by Ludwig van Beethoven against the order of September 17th that his nephew Karl be cared for by his mother under a court-appointed guardian.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 4th of 11th M / Father Rodman was twice engaged in testimony at Meeting, but Alas for me I sat in so much pain that I had but little enjoyment of the opportunity, tho' faoved with a little spark of life – a number of our friends are gone to attend Quarterly Meeting at Swansea & our gathering small This day Benjamin Gardiner of Middletown departed this life at the house of the late Silas Casey in Boston Neck.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 7, Sunday: The missionaries aboard the Thaddeus at Latitude 38.23 and Longitude 42.54 enjoyed a blessed Sabbath worship: “Favored again today with divine services on the quarter deck, which was conducted by Brother T. (singing and prayer, sermon, prayer, singing, blessing).”

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 7th of 11 M / Our Meeting this morning was large. Hannah Dennis, father Rodman & D Buffum were large & very lively in testimony & I believe it proved a precious opportunity.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

—In the Afternoon a small testimony by father Rodman. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 8, Monday: In an event similar to the famous “Dark Day” of May 19, 1789 on which candles had been required from noon on between Portland, Maine and New Jersey (but not in Philadelphia) on account of a huge forest fire in what has now become Algonquin Provincial Park in Canada, and similar to the high-altitude smoke that would pass over Virginia during August 1831 and would be interpreted by Nat Turner as a “black hand” across the sun, forest fires in northern Ontario and Québec again blackened midday skies between Québec City and Kingston.

Clearly this phenomenon did not reach as far south as Rhode Island, for Friend Stephen Wanton Gould did not mention such a phenomenon in his journal:

2nd day 8 of 11th M / This afternoon Our friend John Wilbour & Abel Collins appointed a Meeting at the School house in Portsmouth near Richard Mitchells. - David Buffum took me in his Chaise, no meeting was ever held there by friends before & the House was full & more than could be acommodated with Seats Abel first appeared in supplication, then John in a long doctrinal testimony, in which life rose, then David Buffum was engaged in a very lively testimony in which life rose into dominion. he was followed by a very fresh testimony by Hannah Dennis & the meeting concluded in humble supplication by J Wilbour, & on the whole it appeared to me it was a meeting wherein Truth gained ground & I was glad I was there. -We took tea with the friends at Richard Mitchells & roder home. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 11, Thursday: Three white families from Rockaway, New Jersey arrived at the Cherokee Mission at Brainerd on Chickamauga Creek, near the border between Georgia and Tennessee, to help maintain that settlement: the family of Abijah Conger, the family of John Vail, and the family of John Talmage.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 11th of 11th M 1819 / Our meeting was pretty well attended, to me a season of not so much sensibility as at some times yet no so hard as I have experienced — A few words were spoken in the ministry — the propriety of which I hardly dare judge of. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 13, Saturday: From the diary of Adlard Welby:

The journey to-day, though over high hills and tremendous rocky ways, has been one of the pleasantest drives we have experienced: the clouds were just sufficiently broken to throw as they flew, endless and varied light and shade over the most beautiful and extensive views; rocks of various forms presented their rugged surfaces amongst the thick growing Pines and Oaks

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

which, though small and stunted compared to those in the Western country, are not on that account the less picturesque; and though the land is also equally inferior, yet such scenery, healthy air, and good water, must I conceive render Maryland a desirable residence to the man of refinement and property, in preference to any part that I have seen.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 13th of 11th M This morning Uncle Stanton arrived from NYork & in the Afternoon I took him in a Chaise to Abner Cundels in Portsmouth, where we took tea, & they made a bargain together for the farm.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 14, Sunday: Caleb C. Billings (the 2d infant so named, presumably “Junior” or “IId,” the 1st such namesake born to the original wife having survived but five months back in 1815) was born to Caleb Callender Billings and his new wife, Betsey Brown Hammond Billings. He would reside in Bangor, would never marry, and would die on March 25, 1868.

From the diary of Adlard Welby:

*A day more beautiful never opened or continued throughout. The national road not being finished we had twelve miles of the old track yet to pass, over rocks and gullies.
Maryland is a country of high narrow ridges, much rock, and but little land of prime quality; the timber, chiefly pine and oak, is small, – the rock which on this route everywhere abounds, is much of it strongly impregnated with iron; there is also much of it limestone and granite. Ridge after ridge we passed, rewarded by many an extensive and beautiful view, until at length after an hour's toil up Sidling Hill we entered upon the new road and bowled along down to the small town of Hancock near the Potomac, skirting that beautiful river to Fredericktown.*

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 14th of 11th M / Our meetings were pretty well attended & excepting a few words in the morning by father Rodman were Silent Mother & Uncle Stanton Set the evening with us –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

➡ November 17, Wednesday: The Thaddeus was rounding the Horn: “Still watching for favorable winds, yet without prepining. Capt. B. tells us that in his last voyage he crossed the line in less time from Boston than we have now been out: But it is now the fourteenth night that we have been driven up and down like Paul in Adria, between the parallels of Lat. 38. 35 and 37. - We have been tossing rolling on an uncommonly rough sea, according to the account of the best seamen on board, 24 days, and yet have proceeded but 5 and a half degrees toward the equator. We cannot but conclude that He who controls the winds and the waves, and conducts all the affairs of nations is either kindly withholding us from dangers and disasters at Cape Horn or operating changes in the Sandwich Isles favorable to the introduction and success of our enterprise. He is kindly inuring us to a life of toil and hardship. He spreads our table on the face of the boisterous deep, gives us now the comfort of returning health, teaches us to sit with meekness at his feet and to trust in his all sufficient grace.”

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 17 of 11th M / After Dinner took John with Uncle Stanton & Thos Goddard & went to Coasters Harbor to see the New Asylum that the Town is building there this is the first time I was ever on the Island - It is just 180 years Since Nicholas Easton first landed on it, & gave it the Name it bow bears.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ November 18, Thursday: The Thaddeus was rounding the Horn: “We have new occasion to sing of mercies, favorable winds, safe progress, returning health to the body and thought and life to the soul demand our elevated praise.”

The Reverend Convers Francis of Watertown, Massachusetts exchanged pulpits for the day with the Reverend Ezra Ripley of Concord. His prooftext for the afternoon sermon was Matthew 9:5 and his topic was “The Gospel Preached to the Poor.”

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 18th of 11 M / Meeting pretty well attended. In the last (Preparative) no buisness excepting a request for a removal Certificate.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

From the diary of Adlard Welby:

Fredericktown stands in a good situation, having a fine view of the ridges of hills immediately west of it. The place is about half the size of Lexington (Kentucky): the inhabitants seem to be rich, having erected many good buildings both public and private, the latter very tastefully and expensively furnished. The Court-house, a handsome building, stands in a square which is yet to be gravelled; on one side we remarked a lofty shed under which were hung an enormous pair of scales, seemingly typical of the purposes to which the central building is devoted. Churches are plentiful, nine in number and some of them well built. Talbot's tavern excellent and good attendance, but charges, as they are every where on this road, very high. This is a Slave State; an institution hateful to English ears; yet I will observe again that after travelling through three slave States, I am obliged to go back to theory to raise any abhorrence of it: not once during the journey did I witness an instance of cruel treatment, nor could I discover anything to excite commiseration in the faces or gait of the people of colour – they walk, talk, and appear at least as independent as their masters; in animal spirits they have greatly the advantage: doubtless there may be instances of cruelty, but I am inclined to think that such are of rare occurrence, and this for other reasons, as before remarked, besides those of humanity. Upon the question "What is the proper place of the Black in the order of creation?" (a subject which, after so much has been said on both sides, yet remains in dispute,) the tendency of the above observations may seem to place him subordinate to the white – the next link in that chain of gradation, almost imperceptible to us, which nature exhibits throughout all her works: yet is the man of colour in general orderly in his conduct under the every-day duties of life, and also instances are not wanting of superior abilities among them, though they have not had perhaps fair-play shewn them in this respect. I may have occasion to observe more hereafter on this subject, mean-while let it console the philanthropist, that if the black is not in his proper place, yet he possesses comforts, and appears very contented.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

November 19, Friday: Das Dörfchen for male voices by Franz Schubert to words of Bürger was performed for the initial time, in the Vienna home of Ignaz von Sonnleithner.

From the diary of Adlard Welby:

On leaving Baltimore about half a mile, a large burial ground presents itself on the road side: the Americans inclose these places with little or no fence, and very frequently bury their dead with little or no ceremony; – as we passed this ground a man within it was carrying a child's coffin under his arm, which he was going to inter apparently by himself. – Mr. Birkbeck mentions the summary method in the western country of felling a tree across the spot where they inhume a body: but the tree had some-times been removed, and we frequently drove over hillocks in the wilderness under which lay the bones of the departed.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

The road now led along the western edge of the grand bay of Chesapeak, of which we caught frequent and delightful views – here indeed may America justly pride herself; her bays and rivers stretching to a great distance from the coast – surely nothing in nature can exceed for grandeur or utility. Havre de Grace at the mouth of the Susquehannah is a small place, but beautifully and healthfully situated: it was burned by us during the last war, they say upon very small provocation, which has given a blow to the little prosperity it enjoyed; and a bridge now building at a short distance up the river, by rendering the ferry useless and turning the present road, will further hurt it. One of the greatest dainties, the canvas-back duck, is here obtained in great numbers and sent to Philadelphia and Baltimore markets; though this was the season for them, we were not so fortunate as to feast upon the delicacy. The Susquehannah is navigable for large vessels to the bridge, and for small craft, I was informed, for near five hundred miles up the country. The tavern at Havre de Grace is far better than that on the opposite shore; we had good beds and attendance. The ferry, about a mile wide, is well managed; on landing, we drove on through Elkton, Christiana, and Newport to Wilmington, a large town near the Delaware, and a place of some trade: the State Bank is a good building. At night reached Chester; the first inn was quite full and the next nearly so, which appeared very unaccountable; but on enquiry learned that it is the chief retiring place for Debtors, where in about five weeks residence they get cleared of the Dun disease and come out themselves again.

November 21, Sunday: A meteor fell during the evening in Chester County, Pennsylvania. “While standing in the open air, we were surprized by a sudden flood of light sufficient to enable us to read the smallest print. We soon discovered a fireball in motion in a direction east northeast, and 50 or 60 degrees above the horizon. It passed a little to the south of our zenith, towards the opposite point of compass, and about 30 degrees above the western horizon it became invisible. This body was, perhaps, about two seconds in progression, before we saw it; from which we infer, that it first appeared about 30 degrees above the eastern horizon; hence it travelled, whilst within view, about 120 degrees in the heavens, and in a period, we believe, of not less than five nor more than ten seconds. The size of the body, when first observed, might be about half that of the full moon. The tail which projected from it was of a conical shape, well defined, and extending from the ball to the apex, about 4 or 5 degrees. No sparks were observed. The whole appeared to be a compact mass of fire, in which was combined all the redness of Mars, and the softer light of the moon. The whole appearance was sublime, beyond description. At about 30 degrees from the zenith, westward, it began rapidly to decline, and in two seconds became, to appearance, extinct; its tail, in the mean time, lengthening to 10 or 15 degrees, forming a narrow red streak of evanescent fire. About three minutes after it had disappeared, a noise was heard resembling cannon, or distant thunder, and in a westerly direction.”

SKY EVENT

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 21 of 11th M / Meeting full & D Buffum & father Rodman

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*engaged in lively testimonys. – Silent in the afternoon
Was so unwell & sitting painful that I had but little enjoyment & concluded I was but little more use in the Meeting than one of the Posts*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ November 25, Thursday: In Concord, Massachusetts, Cyrus Warren got married with Nancy Bacon of Bedford.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 25 of 11 M 1819 / Our friend Micajah Collins was at Meeting & engaged in a very lively instructive & well connected testimony. – In the last Meeting (Moy [Monthly]) The buisness was conducted pretty well. – seven of our friends dined with us

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ November 28, Sunday: “I passed a very pleasant day, & in the evening returned.” The Reverend Convers Francis of Watertown, Massachusetts exchanged pulpits for the day with the Reverend Ezra Ripley of Concord. His prooftext for the Concord morning service was Matthew 16:24 and his topic was “On Self Denial.” His prooftext for the afternoon service was Psalm 119:60 and his topic was “On Delaying Repentance.”

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 28th of 11th M / Our friend Micajah Collins attended both our meetings which was large & he much favord in testimony.
The gospel was largely & clearly preached in the power of it – to Some I believe I may say to many it was a season of rejoicing
–He with his wife Hannah Dennis & sister Ruth took tea with us & set part of the evening & then went to See Avis Mumford who has been some time confined by sickness, & had a pleasant opportunity with her in her Chamber*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

December 2, Thursday: Abraham Lincoln's father, Thomas Lincoln, married a widow, Sarah Bush Johnston, and became stepfather to her three children. Abraham would develop much more affection for his stepmother than he would ever display for either his birth father or his birth mother. Indeed, while his father lay dying, the son would refuse to visit the father, nor would he make himself available for his father's funeral. There is no published work of Lincoln in which he ever had anything favorable to say about his father or, for that matter, anything favorable to say about his birth mother, Nancy Hanks Lincoln. Such remarks as he would be willing to put on the record would be quite critical, such as that this couple had done "absolutely nothing" to incite in their offspring any "ambition for education." —But toward his stepmother Sarah Bush Johnston Lincoln at least, he would feel affectionate.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 2nd of 12th M 1819 / Our Meeting was rather larger than common, several came in to sit with us in conformity & recommendation of the General Assembly of this as a day of Thanksgiving. Father Rodman had a few words very appropriate on the occasion, which I thought seasonable & Hannah Dennis was engaged in a very lively gospel testimony & I have no doubt truth was in good measure exalted. — to me it was a season of favor

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 5, Sunday: Joseph Lane, son of Caleb Lane of Gloucester, drowned at sea.

The Reverend Thaddeus Mason Harris, D.D.'s A SERMON, PREACHED AT DORCHESTER, ON THE LORD'S DAY AFTER THE INTERMENT OF MR. NATHANIEL TOPLIFF, WHO DECEASED 4TH DECEMBER, 1819 (Boston: Printed by S. Phelps, 1820).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 5 of 12 M / In the morning a short testimony from father Rodman & in the Afternoon Silent - both meetings season of some favor to me, for which I desire to be thankful. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

December 8, Wednesday: Anne Caroline Coleman, scion of one of the wealthiest families in America, had graduated from Dickinson College in Carlisle, Pennsylvania. She and another graduate of that college, James Buchanan, had become involved.

James had set himself up as a member of the Lebanon County Bar Association, and as an Assistant Prosecutor for Lebanon County. James had an eye disorder that caused him to cock his head to the left and close an eye. He had become a frequent visitor in the Coleman home in Lebanon. He had been born in a log cabin and was a fortune seeker unacceptable to the father, Robert Coleman, who was a wealthy iron manufacturer producing such items as cannonballs and shot and had made himself Pennsylvania's first millionaire. When, over and above her father's disapproval, Anne found out that her cocky fiancée had paid a visit to the wife of a friend, she broke off their engagement.

At noon ... I met this young lady on the street, in the vigour of health, and but a few hours after her friends were mourning her death. She had been engaged to be married, and some unpleasant misunderstanding occurring, the match was broken off. This circumstance was preying on her mind. In the afternoon she was laboring under a fit of hysterics; in the evening she was so little indisposed that her sister visited the theatre. After night she was attacked with strong hysterical convulsions, which

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

induced the family to send for physicians, who thought this would soon go off, as it did; but her pulse gradually weakened until midnight, when she died. Dr. Chapman, who spoke with Dr. Physick, says it is the first instance he ever knew of hysteria producing death. To affectionate parents sixty miles off what dreadful intelligence – to a younger sister whose evening was spent in mirth and folly, what a lesson of wisdom does it teach. Beloved and admired by all who knew her, in the prime of life, with all the advantages of education, beauty, and wealth, in a moment she has been cut off.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 8th of 12th M / Rose early this morning & after breakfast Walked out to Richd Mitchells & with him rode to meeting, & After meeting in company with the rest of the committee had an opportunity with Sarah Brownell, who has requested Membership. We heard her request found ourselves involved in much exercise on the subject & after imparting to her the little we seemed quallified to say at that time we separated, concluding to have it refered for consideration. – Went back & Dined with R M & his son Richard brought me homeward as far as his Gate –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

December 9, Thursday: Anne Caroline Coleman, scion of one of the wealthiest families in America, had at the age of 23 become frantic after cutting off relations with her fiancée James Buchanan and, it seems, committed suicide by means of an overdose of laudanum.

James would be refused permission by the father Robert Coleman²⁶⁰ to attend the funeral, would keep her love letters with him during his period of service in the White House, and would instruct that they be burned upon his death.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 9th of 12 M 1819 / Our meeting to me was a season of little life - it passed in silence. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 12, Sunday: Joseph Lane, son of Joseph Lane and Elizabeth Lane of Gloucester, 17 years of age, drowned at sea.

In Concord, the jail (a stone building erected in 1788) took fire but the fire was extinguished.

Provision Against Fire. - The Fire Society was organized May 5, 1794, and holds its annual meetings on the 2d Monday in January. The Presidents have been, Jonathan Fay, Esq., Dr. Joseph Hunt Tilly Merrick, Esq., Dr. Isaac Hurd, Deacon Francis Jarvis, Hon. Samuel Hoar, and Joseph Barrett, Esq. The Engine Company was formed, and the first engine procured, in 1794. A new engine was obtained in 1818.

A Volunteer Engine Company was organized in 1827, who procured by subscription a new engine in 1831.²⁶¹

260. It would seem that this father, an inordinately wealthy man, also would produce the suicide of his other daughter, Sarah, after she fell in love with a rector at St. James Episcopal Church in Lancaster with whom the father had argued about the holding of worship services in the evening.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 12th of 12th M / Our morning meeting seemed like a season of some favor, at least it was so to me D Buffum was engaged in a lively testimony towards the conclusion of the meeting. – In the Afternoon We had three testimonys all of them short, but Oh the responsibility of Elders. – when I consider the responsibility of my standing in society, I see the necessity of deep waiding, of near living to the Truth of Holiness of life & conversation

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 16, Thursday: At Exeter College, Oxford, Charles Lyell graduated BA 2d class in Classics (although the lectures of Dr. Buckland had drawn him into the study of geology, and although he had been elected a fellow of the Linnaean and Geological Societies, he would be entering Lincoln's Inn to study for the law).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 16th of 12 M / Silent meeting excepting a few words

261. Lemuel Shattuck's 1835 A HISTORY OF THE TOWN OF CONCORD;... Boston MA: Russell, Odiorne, and Company; Concord MA: John Stacy, 1835

(On or about November 11, 1837 Henry Thoreau would indicate a familiarity with the contents of at least pages 2-3 and 6-9 of this historical study. On July 16, 1859 he would correct a date mistake buried in the body of the text.)

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

dropped by a friend. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 19, Sunday: The Requiem of Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart was performed for the initial time in Brazil, in Rio de Janeiro.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 19th of 12 M / Was so unwell that I did not think it best to attend meeting this forenoon, understood however that our fr D Buffum was largely engaged in testimony on the subject of Election & Reprobation. –
In the Afternoon I went to meeting & set in pain, but at intervals was easy & had some good sensations. –
Set the evening at home. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 23, Thursday: The legislature of Virginia received a petition from Judith Hope, who had been born in about 1803 to the slave Tenar Hope—and had therefore been born a slave— but then both she and her mother had been purchased by her father Caesar Hope, an emancipated black man who worked as a barber, and then Caesar had died leaving under Virginia law this child as the slave of its own mother. Despite the statute that an emancipated slave needed to leave the state within 12 months or their new freedom would be forfeit, she desired that there not be “a separation from every friend and natural connexion upon earth” when and if her mother and slavemaster would provide her with manumission papers. (Judith would petition the legislature four additional times and although the legislature seems never to have acted on any of these petitions, would be emancipated by her mother in 1828 and yet manage somehow to live out her life in Virginia as a free woman of color.)

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 23rd of 12 M / Our meeting was pretty well attended & to me a season of some favor & I believe most present was sensible of some solidity & reverence. – A few words towards the close were delivered by a new beginner - Richd Mitchell & wife dined with us. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 26, Sunday: Pietro il Grande zar di tutte le Russie or Il falegname di Livonia, an opera buffa by Gaetano Donizetti to words of Bevilacqua-Aldobrandini after Duval, was performed for the initial time, in Teatro San Samuele, Venice.

Gioachino Rossini's melodramma Bianca e Falliero, ossia Il consiglio dei tre to words of Romani after Arnault, was performed for the initial time, in Teatro alla Scala, Milan. It was received indifferently.

Emma Dorothy Eliza Nevitte (Emma Southworth, also known as Mrs. E.D.E.N. Southworth) was born in Washington DC.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1st day 26th of 12 M / Both meetings pretty well attended & except a few words in the Afternoon, were silent. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 December 29, Wednesday: Jedediah Morse died at Woodstock, Connecticut at the age of 93 (this must have been the grandfather rather than the father of Samuel F.B. Morse, because the father, the reverend of the same name, would not die until 1826 and is buried in New Haven).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 29th of 12 M / Attended the funeral of Anthony Dixons wife - J Dennis & Hannah Dennis both preached. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 December 30, Thursday: George Thomas Downing was born in New-York.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 30th of 12 M 1819 / I am this Day 38 Years of Age. -Took Chaise & with Sister Ruth rode to Portsmouth to attend the Moy [Monthly] Meeting, sitoped at Uncle Thurstons to warm ourselves, being exceedingly Cold – Meeting was silent excepting a short but unsavory offering. – In the last we had but little buisness, or rather we did but little – After the meeting it was a severe Snow Storm. – We Dined at R Mitchells & rode home in an increasing Snow Storm, but did not suffer so much as we did with the cold in going out. – Times & seasons are not at our command of ourselves we can not raise our hearts in prayer for help or scarcely think a good thought – for several weeks past when looking forward to this day as my Birth Day I have felt much under an humbling sense of my short comings & desired that the feelings might be renew'd, but it has been a day of leaness & Poverty & with a few short intervals of tenderness, how dry & barran. – May the circumstances prove an incentive to renew'd labor

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 December 31, Friday: The belfried wooden Town School structure on Monument Square in the Center District of Concord, that had been using for 20 years as a grammar schoolhouse,  burned to the ground. It would be replaced during the following year by the brick Masonic Hall, built in part through a contribution from the Corinthian Lodge. School would be taught on the lower level, and the Masons would meet upstairs. (In this schoolhouse Henry David Thoreau would for a brief period in 1837 teach.) Primary schoolhouses were also constructed in 1820 on sites near the New Hill Burying Ground, opposite the Emerson House, and on Sudbury Road.

Provision Against Fire. – The Fire Society was organized May 5, 1794, and holds its annual meetings on the 2d Monday in January. The Presidents have been, Jonathan Fay, Esq., Dr. Joseph Hunt Tilly Merrick, Esq., Dr. Isaac Hurd, Deacon Francis Jarvis, Hon.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Samuel Hoar, and Joseph Barrett, Esq. The Engine Company was formed, and the first engine procured, in 1794. A new engine was obtained in 1818.

A Volunteer Engine Company was organized in 1827, who procured by subscription a new engine in 1831.²⁶²

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

12 M 31 - 1819 / I close this year under an humbling sense that another has fled & that the grave is so much nearer. - May then next be better improved, & may I render unto God the humble tribute of thanksgiving for his many favors & mercys bestow in the past AMEN. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

“NARRATIVE HISTORY” IS FABULATION, HISTORY IS CHRONOLOGY

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould

“Stack of the Artist of Kouroo” Project

262. Lemuel Shattuck’s 1835 A HISTORY OF THE TOWN OF CONCORD;... Boston MA: Russell, Odiorne, and Company; Concord MA: John Stacy, 1835

(On or about November 11, 1837 Henry Thoreau would indicate a familiarity with the contents of at least pages 2-3 and 6-9 of this historical study. On July 16, 1859 he would correct a date mistake buried in the body of the text.)

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1820

January 1, Saturday: Spanish army units in Cádiz, destined for America, revolted against the Bourbon monarchy (the revolution would spread through the country so quickly that the king would be forced to summon the Spanish Parliament on March 7th and restore the constitution of 1812).

The New-York Evening Post published an interesting piece of doggerel about the sad condition of the national economy:

Old "Uncle Sam," in chasing bubbles,
Has jump'd into a peck of troubles,
Troubles, 'tis said, which sorely vex him,
and which 'tis feared will much perplex him.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 1st of 1st M 1820 / The Year begins with the end of the Week. — May this year prove to me a year of improvement May my life be renewedly increased in religion. —²⁶³

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 2, Sunday: George Gordon, Lord Byron had been married to Penelope for five years but they both realized their union had been an unhappy one:

ON MY WEDDING-DAY.

Here's a happy new year! but with reason
I beg you'll permit me to say —
Wish me many returns of the season,

263. Stephen Wanton Gould Diary, 1815-1823: The Gould family papers are stored under control number 2033 at the Division of Rare and Manuscript Collections of Cornell University Library, Box 7 Folder 12 for August 24, 1815-September 25, 1823; also on microfilm, see Series 7

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

But as few as you please of the day.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 2nd of 1st M / Our Meetings were both silent & pretty well attended. – particularly in the Morning my mind was favor'd with sweetness & religious sensibility, for which I desire to be thankful

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 6, Thursday: In the diary of Thomas Nuttall we find: “This evening we arrived at Mr. Daniel’s, an industrious farmer, and provided with a rough-looking, but comfortable winter cabin. About two miles from hence, Mr. D., who lives upon a confirmed Spanish right, had erected a grist mill. Saw-mills were also about to be built at the Cadron, and two or three other places. The establishment of a town was now contemplated also at the Little Rock, by colonel Hogan, and some others. They had not, however, sufficient capital, and no doubt expected to derive some adventitious wealth from those speculators who were viewing various parts of the newlyformed territory.”

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 6th of 1st M / Sat meeting under solemn reflections, arising from the Circumstance of the Sudden exit of Gilbert Chase who Died this morning about 2 OC after laying about 33 hours in an Apoplectic Fit. – Daniel Swinbourne also Died suddenly this morning, he had been complaining some Months, but rose & ate his breakfast as well as for some time, but in a few minutes after expired. – Last evening died at Portsmouth Phebe Barber she was a member of Society & a relation in the Mott family

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 8, Saturday: In the diary of Thomas Nuttall we find: “To-day we passed seven bends, making about 28 miles. The water at this, its lowest stage, appears to be perfectly navigable for the larger boats from the Little Rock to the Mississippi. By the cane which occurs in all the bends, and indeed by the apparent elevation, there are here great bodies of good land, free from inundation. The soil in some of the banks consists of an uncommonly rich dark Spanish brown loam.”

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 8th of 1st M / This day has been a day of seriousness, having to feel in carious subjects, which now seem to be pending. – how do I feel the force of the language “Have Salt in yourselves”

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

January 9, Sunday: Heinrich August Marschner got married for the 2d time, with Eugenie Franziska Jaeggi, an accomplished pianist, daughter of a valet, in Pressburg.

In the diary of Thomas Nuttall we find: “This forenoon we passed the fourth Pine Bluff, at the base of which we observed abundance of earthy iron ore, in flattened, contorted, and cellular masses, scattered about in profusion; much of it appeared to be pyrites, other masses more or less argillaceous and siliceous. Here, on the portions of the high bank which had sunk down by the undermining of the current, we saw the wax-myrtle of the Atlantic sea-coast.”

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 10th [?] of 1st M / At the hour appointed the funeral of Gilbert Chase met at His House & proceeded to the Meeting House, the gathering was large & D Buffum & H Dennis were engaged in solemn & impressive testimonys. – In the Afternoon Meeting Father Rodman was engaged in a rather short, but lively & to my mind pertinent testimony.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 13, Thursday: Documentation of the international slave trade, per W.E. Burghardt Du Bois: “Letter from the Secretary of the Treasury, transmitting ... Information in relation to the Illicit Introduction of Slaves into the United States, etc.” –HOUSE DOCUMENT, 16 Cong. 1 sess. III, No. 42.

In the diary of Thomas Nuttall we find: “The weather still freezing. In the evening we passed Mr. Harrington’s, a farmer in very comfortable circumstances. Betwixt Morrison’s and this place, the river makes two cuts, through two bends of about eight miles each.”

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 13th of 1st M 1820 / Our first meeting was silent but to my feelings was attended with a good degree of solemnity In the last which was our Select Meeting, so held according to a conclusion at the last, the usual buisness was transacted & to my feelings a goodly concern was manifested for the right ordering & managing the Affairs of Society in general, but perhaps less solid weight experienced than at some other times. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

January 16, Sunday: Johannes Rebmann was born at Gerlingen near Stuttgart, Germany. He would become the initial European to sight the snows of Mount Kilimanjaro — and be ridiculed.

Commodore James Barron wrote a duel challenge letter to Commodore Stephen “Our Country Right or Wrong” Decatur: “Sir: Your letter of the 29th ultimo, I have received. In it you say that you have now to inform me that you shall pay no further attention to any communications that I may make to you, other than a direct call to the field; in answer to which I have only to reply that whenever you will consent to meet me on fair and equal grounds, that is, such as two honorable men may consider just and proper, you are at liberty to view this as that call. The whole tenor of your conduct to me justifies this course of proceeding on my part. As for your charges and remarks, I regard them not, particularly your sympathy. You know no such feeling. I cannot be suspected of making the attempt to excite it.

I am, sir, yours, etc.,
James Barron.”

Two Russian vessels, the Vostok and the Mirny, Captain Mikhail Petrovich Lazarev, in expedition led by Thaddeus von Bellingshausen, reached 69° 25 minutes South and 1° 11 minutes [West?] and were halted by the Fimbul Ice Shelf. They sighted the Antarctic continent on their horizon, the 1st human beings to do so.

In the diary of Thomas Nuttall we find: “Interest, curiosity, and speculation, had drawn the attention of men of education and wealth toward this country, since its separation into a territory; we now see an additional number of lawyers, doctors, and mechanics. The retinue and friends of the governor, together with the officers of justice, added also essential importance to the...”

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 17 [?] of 1 M / The Morning meeting was silent till near the close of it when our friend D Buffum was engaged in a short & very lively testimony & the meeting closed under a good savor. — Silent in the Afternoon. — Anne Dennis came home with is & took tea & set the evening, her company was very pleasant. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 20, Thursday: At a party thrown by Lady Caroline Lamb, Lady Charlotte Bury was introduced to an artist named William Blake. She said, later, that this “eccentric little artist by name Blake” whom she had encountered had “appeared gratified” to be able to talk with “a person who comprehended his feelings.” She also commented that he had appeared “careworn.”

Friedrich VI replaced Friedrich V as Landgrave of Hesse-Homburg.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 20 of 1 M / Our meeting rather small but to me a season of some life & favor, tho' previous to going, was very lean but by turning the mind inward & humbly craving help, I experienced the cloud raised a little, for which I desire to be thankful — in the last (Preparatory) we had no buisness but the usual. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

January 23, Sunday: Edward Augustus Hanover, Duke of Kent and Strathern, 4th son of King George III of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King of Hanover and father of the princess who would become Her Majesty Victoria, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland Queen, Defender of the Faith, Empress of India, died of pneumonia in Woodbrook Cottage at Sidmouth in Devon, England. The princess would be raised by her mother.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 23rd of 1 M / Our Morning was pretty well attended by male & female considering that the ground is coverd with Snow Father Rodman & Hannah Dennis were engaged in lively testimonys. -Silent in the Afternoon, but I believe true Worship was performed.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 26, Wednesday: Percy Bysshe Shelley and Mary Godwin Wollstonecraft Shelley moved to Pisa.

New York's J.W. Taylor proposed a amendment to the Maine statehood bill, prohibiting slavery in Missouri.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 26th of 1 M / Have been much engaged this week in taking the Inventory of Gilbert Chases personal effects, & in consequence of the illness of Benjamin Hadwen I am under the necessity of receiving the Town & State Tax for him which occupies my time & my mind - but I hope to receive no hurt. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 27, Thursday: While making its 2d circumnavigation of the globe at high southern latitudes, the Russian expedition led by Thaddeus von Bellinghausen first sighted the Antarctic mainland.

Le bergère châtelaine, an opéra comique by Daniel-François-Esprit Auber to words of Planard, was performed for the initial time, in the Théâtre Feydeau, Paris.

On the island of St. Helena, Napoléon Bonaparte, who had been shooting chickens that invaded his garden, shot a goat that turned out to be Mme. Bertrand's favorite goat.

In the diary of Thomas Nuttall we find: "The whole country, generally speaking, along the river, appears uninhabited, though vast tracts of cane land occur in the bends. I am, however, informed that the cane will withstand a partial inundation. Since we left Point Chicot the river presents us with several magnificent views, some of 8, some of 12, and even 15 miles extent; but the absence of variety, even amidst objects of the utmost grandeur, soon becomes tiresome by familiarity. As above the Arkansa, the river still continues meandering. The curves, at all seasons washed by a rapid current, present crumbling banks of friable soil more or less mixed with vegetable matter. By the continued undermining and removal of the earth, the bends are at length worn through, the former tongue of land then becomes transformed into an island, and the stagnation and

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

partial filling of the old channel, now deserted, in time produces a lake. Some idea of the singular caprice of the Mississippi current may be formed, by taking for a moment into view the extraordinary extent of its alluvial valley, which below the Ohio is from 30 to 40 miles in width, through all which space it has from time to time meandered, and over which it will never cease to hold occasional possession. On the opposite side of all the bends there are what are called bars, being platforms of sand formed by the deposition of the siliceous matter washed out of the opposite banks by the force of the current. These sand flats, sometimes near a mile in width, are uniformly flanked by thick groves of willows and poplars, the only kind of trees which survive the effects of the inundation to which these bars are perpetually subject."

THOMAS NUTTALL

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 27th of 1st M 1820 / Our first meeting was silent in the last (Monthly) I served as scribe to my mortification -buisness however I thought was conducted with as much weight as usual - Several of our friends Dined with us While at meeting My old mistress Mary Williams wife of David Williams departed this life after a protracted illness of a very distressing Nature of seven or eight months continuance. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 29, Saturday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 29th of 1st M / Attended the funeral of Mary Williams, a considerable number of friends & others were there, but not as many as would have been had the weather been good - I served as a bearer. - Serious reflections, & my mind was lead to examine many subjects. - Mary Was a woman capable of great usefulness, "fitted to shine." & was useful in many respects. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Upon the 8:32PM demise of the demented King George III of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King of Hanover at Windsor Castle, George Augustus Frederick, Prince of Wales, who had been serving as Regent of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland since 1811 due to his father the king's incapacitation, became George IV, King of Hanover and of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland. Ever the fancy dresser (if you can imagine this, he had attended his first House of Lords debate in 1783 attired in a black velvet suit embroidered with gold and pink spangle, with a pink satin lining, accessorized by high-heel pink footwear), his coronation crown was to sport 12,314 diamonds. The new king, obese, was possibly addicted to laudanum. He would become seriously ill and would reign only a decade before his own demise. His coronation would need to be postponed on account of his official wife Lady Caroline Amelia of Brunswick-Wolfenbüttel, Princess of Wales, a squat lady who was refusing to bathe or to change her underwear, who would manage despite discouragements to make her way to London — and would be greeting enthusiastic crowds.

George III	1760	1820
Regency	1811	1820
George IV	1820	1830
William IV	1830	1837
Victoria	1837	1901

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

HDTWHAT?INDEXSTEPHEN WANTON GOULD*FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULDGO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

January 30, Sunday: Sent south on a private venture by Captain Shireff, R.N., Captain Edward Bransfield, in command of the British merchant ship Williams, sighted and landed on the Trinity Peninsula on the northern tip of Graham Land.

Bransfield and Smith sighted the Antarctic Peninsula to the south of the South Shetlands.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 30th of 1 M / Our Morning Meeting was hurt by too much preaching. – In the Afternoon a short offering to pretty good acceptance. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 31, Monday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 31st of 1 M / Have debated in my own mind pretty much all day about Quarterly Meeting & finally conceded this eveng to go. –it seems as if I am now able to go tho' exceedingly inconvenient & we know not how long we will be held in the way of our duty. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

In the diary of Thomas Nuttall we find: “The cliffs of Natchez appear more elevated than those of the Petit Gulf. The lands, of an inferior soil, are also remarkably broken and deeply undulated. The crumbling precipice, of about 150 feet elevation, is continually breaking, by the action of springs and rain-water, into gullies and frightful ravines; the whole visible matter which composes the hills consisting of clays, ferruginous sand, and quartz gravel. A few years ago, the undermining of the current swept down a considerable part of the bank with several houses upon it. From the irregularity in the thickness of this ancient maritime alluvion, arises the great difference of depth at which water is here obtained. In the same vicinity water has been found at 35, and then again at 110 feet from the surface.”

THOMAS NUTTALL

February 1, Tuesday: Under a plan of the economist David Ricardo the Bank of England began issuing gold ingots, for use by merchants making foreign payments (this would prove successful).

Adrien Boieldieu was named Professor of Composition at the Paris Conservatory.

Gaspare Spontini took up his position as Generalmusikdirektor in Berlin.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 1st of 2 M 1820 / Tho' it is very cold this morning the thermometer only at six above 0, I set out from [Newport] in a sleigh with Isaac Mitchell & sister E Rodman for Providence. On our arrival at Bristol ferry found several friends in weighting but the Wind so very high that there was no prospect of going over, so we set out to go round over the Stone Bridge, & got to Abraham Barkers to dinner, from thence crossed at Slaid's ferry & reached the hospitable Mansion of our venerable friend Moses Brown about 1/2 after 6 OC in eveng who very kindly received us out of the Wind & cold & administered both to the necessities of ourselves & horse, all much fatigued. – here we lodged & found several friends whose company was very agreeable. – After breakfast the next morning we rode to the Yearly Meeting school House,²⁶⁴ spent a little time & from thence to Providence

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

& attended the Select Meeting which was small in consequence of the travelling - I was the only member present from our Meeting. I dined at Obadiah Browns & spent the Afternoon & evening at Joseph Anthony's where I also lodged - in the evening we were joined by several Rhode Island friends who crossed at Bristol. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 3, Thursday: John Keats's hemorrhaging began. Trained in medicine, he recognized the blood as arterial and understood that this indicated that his disease was terminal.²⁶⁵

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day attended the Quarterly Meeting at large, in the first meeting we were burdened with several appearances from Micah Ruggles who I desire & pray may experience deeper Wisdom than he has yet known Thos Anthony was engaged in a lively testimony -there were several other appearances of which I can say but little.- -

In the last meeting there was but little buisness & the heft of the first meeting remained I dined at Moses Browns, spent the remainder of the Afternoon & evening, in a very agreeable & edifying conversation with Moses & several friends there -lodged & next morning rode again to Providence & set out for home over India Bridge - we dined at James Maxwells in Warren & proceeded to Bristol Ferry but found Ice obstructed so that it was not prudent to cross & we returned to Warren & lodged at James Maxwells who very kindly entertained us. - 7th day, This Morning

264. This new school was on what was then rural land, Friend Moses Brown's farm on Providence Neck northeast of what was then the city of Providence.

265. He would succumb at the age of 25, four months after his engagement to Fanny Brawne as depicted in the Jane Campion movie "Bright Star" — Fanny's loveletters would be placed in the coffin.

Fanny would not languish forever in grief, but would marry with Louis Lindon, Esq. and bear him three children and lead a long life.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

set out from Warren to Sleids ferry where we crossed in season to get to Abraham Barkers to dinner & got home before night. This little journey tho' attended with considerable bodily & mental suffering I trust has been a proffitable one to me – I was impressed with a belief that it was best for me to go being in health & not knowing how soon it may be otherwise with me. – time is both short & Uncertain many of my towns men & women have been removed the last year, some of whom promised a long & useful life.–1st day [Sunday] 6th of 2nd M 1820 / Our Meetings were both silent & to me seasons of labor. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Elisha Kent Kane was born in Philadelphia.

Elisha Kent Kane passed a relatively unremarkable childhood. A first-born child, his family moved several times as it grew, within the precincts of Philadelphia, finally moving to an estate named Rensselaer. According to his contemporaneous biographer, William Elder, Kane was an average student, who was accepted at the University of Virginia. In his second year of college he contracted rheumatic fever. This event, more than any other was to configure the rest of his life. The first outcome of his illness was his attraction to the world of medicine. Upon his graduation from the University of Virginia, Kane began the study of medicine in Philadelphia. By twenty-two, he had published a study of early pregnancy detection in the American Journal of Medical Sciences. More profound than this was the effect of the resulting terminal endocarditis on his world view. In the present time, of course, the existence of antibiotics would make short work of a chronic infection of the cardiac lining. In the early 19th century, however, it was a death sentence. Perhaps a couple of years would pass, perhaps a few decades, but the sentence was final. Kane set out with a vengeance to live a life that would be remembered. Joining the US Navy, he set out to discover the world. Finding himself in the South Pacific, he descended into the crater of an active volcano to retrieve water samples, much to the dismay of his companions, who fled the scene in mortal fear. Travelling to China, he practiced medicine on a hospital ship for several months before setting off to the west through India and Egypt, Athens and Paris. Two more tours of stultifying naval duty sent him to the White House to beg for a more exciting tour of duty. President Polk assigned him to an extremely dangerous mission: carry a message to the commander of American forces in Mexico during the Mexican-American War. After saving a Mexican general from being murdered by the mercenaries hired to escort him to Mexico City, Kane emerged as an important figure at the international level. Once again bored by navy duty, he wrote the Secretary of War, proposing a mission to the Arctic to rescue a missing British explorer, Sir John Franklin. Two weeks later

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

began the most incredible chapters in this man's life, as he set off to Baffin Bay, between Canada and Greenland. Three out of the next five years were spent locked in pack ice, under unendurable conditions. After the incredible feat of leading eighteen of his twenty men to safety on foot, Kane wrote the largest selling book in American history about his adventures. Although largely forgotten today, Elisha Kent Kane was a hugely popular figure in the latter half of the nineteenth century. It has been said that, if homesteaders heading west across the United States' frontier carried two books, one was certainly by Dr. Kane; the other was probably a Bible. His rescue missions to the Arctic were widely regarded as suicidal. Inasmuch as his missions were validated by the scientific goal of the discovery of the Open Polar Sea (a popular theory among scientists of the era,) his was a scientific as well as a cultural mandate. His published accounts held a nation spellbound. The efforts connected with the writing of the account of his second mission (abetted by the "dragon within" of his chronic endocarditis) eventually killed him. Upon his death in Havana at the age of thirty-seven, the Governor of Cuba personally escorted the cortege as far as New Orleans. From New Orleans to Cincinnati, the banks of Mississippi were lined with mourners, and the train trip from Cincinnati to Philadelphia took nearly four days because of the throngs on the tracks. His funeral was the largest in American history, eclipsed only by Lincoln's a decade later. Culturally, Kane was the embodiment of Patricia Limerick's "sustainable American hero," representing the ascent of American Science and Technology to the stature of the European Renaissance and Enlightenment movements of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries.

February 10, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 10th of 2 M / Meeting small but to me a season of some favor for which I desire to be thankful. - there was much Snow on the ground & travelling bad yet about 14 Woman attended Meeting & but few more men -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

On about this day John Keats wrote to Fanny Brawne:

I can do nothing say nothing think nothing of you but what has its spring in the Love which has so long been my pleasure and torment. On the night I was taken ill when so violent a rush of blood came to my Lungs that I felt nearly suffocated - I assure you I felt it possible I might not survive and at that moment though[t] of nothing but you...

HDTWHAT?INDEXFRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

February 13, Sunday, night: On the street outside the Paris Opéra, in an attempt to extinguish the Bourbon line, Louis Pierre Louvel, a saddler, an admirer of Napoléon, stabbed Charles Ferdinand d'Artois, Duc de Berry, nephew of King Louis XVIII, as he was departing with his wife at about 11PM, leaving his dagger in his right chest. The duc, who anyway had never been in the line of succession, breathed his last the following morning (subsequent to this incident, the Paris Opéra would relocate from the Salle Montansier, its home since 1794, to the Salle Favart).

While the reaction was at its height after this murder and the failure of the government of prime minister Élie, Comte de Decazes, Professor François Pierre Guillaume Guizot was deprived of his post as general director of communes and departments in the French ministry of the interior.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

The assassin would be sentenced to death on June 6th and beheaded on June 7th, and the dagger has been deposited in the National Archives. François-Auguste-René, vicomte de Chateaubriand would soon publish MÉMOIRES, LETTRES ET PIÈCES AUTHENTIQUES TOUCHANT LA VIE ET LA MORT DE S.A.R. MONSIEUR CHARLES-FERDINAND D'ARTOIS, FILS DE FRANCE, DUC DE BERRY; PAR M. LE VICOMTE DE CHATEAUBRIAND.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 13th of 2 M 1820 / Meetings silent walking very bad & but few women gathered - The Men however attended & I thought some zeal was manifested by some who were not Members - as low as things are, yet there is certainly something among us which attracts Some & induces them to attend our meetings - May Our conduct be such as to evince that we live conformable to our profession -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 17, Thursday: The US federal senate passed the Missouri Compromise.

At the Old Bailey in London, five of the six trials on this day ended with a death sentence. One of the death sentences was handed down in the case of a 9-year-old, Charles Elliott, who had stolen six handkerchiefs, worth five shillings each, from Martha Blakeman's shop on Oxford Street on February 8th. (Since we have no record of a hanging, we can presume that this sentence would have later been commuted to transportation to Australia — the youngest person we know of who was actually hanged in Britain in the 19th Century was a John Bell in 1831 who at the age of 14 committed murder.)

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 17th 1820 / The Walking exceedingly bad & our meeting was attended by but few women - R Mitchell came along & kindly took my H in his sleigh & a sufficient number got to the meeting house to Make a Preparative Meeting. - The men turned out with pretty good example. - In the first meeting we had a lively testimony from father Rodman. - & to me it was a season of favor & I believe the solemnity covered most minds present for which I desired to be thankful.
My time of late had been much occupied in buisness for the support of the body & yet I may thankfully add, I have at seasons a comfortable evidence of the continuance of divine regard & the extension of life & love in my heart - may I ever keep this object in view thro' all & over all*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 20, Sunday: A revolt began at Santa María Chiquimula in Guatemala.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 20 of 2 M / Our Meetings were again Small & silent. Some life experienced & I trust spread over the gatherings. - The walking has been a long time quite bad, but it is comfortable to observe as much care as is manifest amongst us in getting to

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

meeting. – Some who are not members appear very careful in that respect. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 24, Thursday: Arthur Thistlewood was apprehended by London police on suspicion of treason.

The New Jersey legislature enacted “An act for the gradual abolition of Slavery, and other purposes respecting Slaves,” repealing earlier slavery laws but essentially continuing the procedure for manumission then in effect (P.L. 1820, p. 74).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 24th of 2nd M 1820 / Our Moy [Monthly] Meeting was this Day held at Portsmouth, the travelling & other circumstances prevented my going. – only two went from the compact part of the town, who inform me that there was but little buisness & the Meeting short. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 27, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 27 of 2 M / Both meetings were Silent & to me seasons of some favor. – the numbers present were as large as usual at this season of the Year Set the eveing at David Williams –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

At sea, aboard the Thaddeus, the Christian missionaries were preparing themselves to confront the heathens:

*Lords Day. – This morning our little church solemnly renewed their covenant with God and with one another.
At 12, Brother Thurston preached, on deck from Ps. At 4 P.M.,*

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

after a sermon from Br. B. from Matth. 25: 26, 27, 28, on the significancy, the nature, and the tendency of that holy ordinance, the church was allowed to sit down at the Lord's table, and to commemorate his dying love in the communion of his body and blood. It was a favored season. The day was truly interesting and happy. Seldom if ever have we been invited to this supper under circumstances more truly interesting and affecting. We chose the cabin where our little church of 17 members were like the family of Christ at the institution of the supper, furnished with comfortable seats around a large semicircular table, on which the elements and covenant vessels were placed and easily passed round, while the light propitious breeze bearing us gradually onward with the unsearchable riches of Christ, the peaceful sea, and the very gentle motion of the vessel could scarcely be considered as the least inconvenience. We have reason to believe that he who thus kindly ordered every circumstance was graciously present at his table and granting us answers to the prayers of sister churches in America, and also to our unworthy petitions. A lecture on self-examination preparatory to the celebration of the supper had been given Friday evening preceeding from I Cor. 11:28, and it is believed that every member made special efforts to be in readiness and we hope it will promote our growth in piety, cement our union and increase our strength and our preparation for our work which seems now ready to employ our hands. Our next communion may be in the midst of the worshipers of Akooah. May they soon be prepared for a worthy participation.

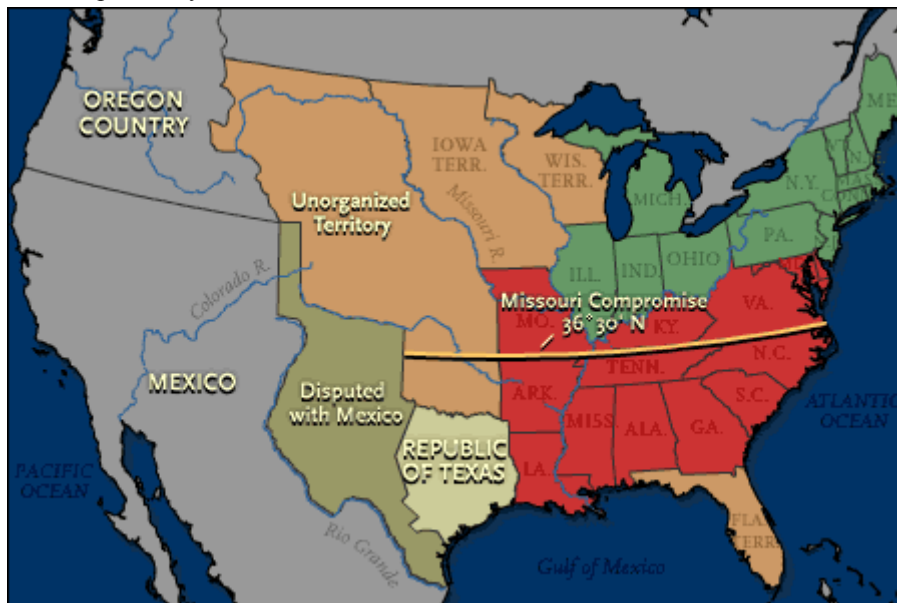

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 2, Thursday: According to the “Missouri Compromise” arrived at on this day, Maine was to enter the union as the 23rd state, a non-slave state, and balance the admission of Missouri in the following year as the 24th state, a slave state. The balance would stand at 12 slave and 12 free, providing equal numbers of votes in the US Senate. Supposedly, the deal was that slavery was to be considered to be outlawed north of latitude 36° 30' although it was left completely unresolved what was to happen when a Southern slavemaster traveled in the North accompanied by his slave retinue.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 2nd 3 M / 1820 / A Small but favord meeting – Father Rodman was concerned in a Short but I thought living testimony

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 5, Sunday: The Dutch city of Leeuwarden prescribed that its 600-700 Jews might not attend at their rebuilt synagogue on the Sacramentsstraat on Sundays.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 5 of 3 M / In the forenoon meeting our frd David Buffum was engaged twice in lively testimony & it was a Season of favor. – In the Afternoon our friends Ruth Spencer in company with her Husband, her father David Anthony & her Sister Remember Anthony attended with us & Ruth was lively in testimony. – They went out & lodged at D Buffums. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 6, Monday: Louis Spohr appeared as soloist in a concert with the Philharmonic Society Orchestra that had been delayed due to the death of King George III. He was acclaimed one of the great violinists and composers of the age.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 6th 3rd / This evening we were called on by our friend Royal Southwick from Smithfield who came to town on buisness. – he Set the evening with & his company was very pleasant & acceptable – he left at 9 OClock & lodged at his friend Thos Bush's –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 7, Tuesday: King Fernando VII of Spain accepted the Constitution of 1812 and abolished the Spanish Inquisition.

Three days after his sister Fanny, Felix Mendelssohn began writing down his compositions in his new music album.

Even at what was for him a quite early age, Nathaniel Hathorne knew something about writing to please an audience:

Oh how I wish I was again with you, with nothing to do but to go a gunning. O But the happiest days of my life are gone. Why was I not a girl that I might have been pinned all my life to my Mother apron. After I have got through college I will come down and learn O.K. Latin and Greek, I read from one subject to another at a great rate.

*I remain your affectionate and dutiful son,
and most obedient and most humble servant,
and most respectful,
and most heartily well-wisher*

Nathaniel Hathorne

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 7 of 3rd M / This day Ruth Spencer & company went to Connanicut & appointed a Meeting & her father Daniel Anthony remained in town & spent the eveing & lodged with us. - 4th day our above said friends returned & took tea with us

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 March 9, Thursday: One of Ludwig van Beethoven's most loyal patrons, Archduke Rudolf, was installed as a cardinal in Olmütz (the composer intended his Missa Solemnis for the occasion, but had not finished it).

The government of the Philippines began a campaign to purge the island chain of foreigners (the death toll would reach about 125 by the 11th of the month).

In the White House in Washington DC, President Monroe's daughter Maria had her wedding ceremony.

On the island of St. Helena, Napoléon Bonaparte was observed by the English watchers for the Plantation House to undress at 6AM in his garden and plunge himself into its stone reservoir. Count Montholon was with him, as were two servants who dried the General and assisted him in dressing.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 9th of 3 M / Ruth Spencer was at meeting & had much to communicate her father Daniel Anthony also had two short testimonys. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 March 10, Friday: Some sources indicate that Harriet Tubman was born on this date. She, and we, know only that she was born between 1820 and 1825, probably between 1820 and 1822, most likely 1821, on the plantation of Edward Brodas near Bucktown in Dorchester County, Maryland (the precise dates of slave births have almost never been recorded, and we have no particular reason to credit the sources that specify this day). Both her father and mother were slaves, and her mother's name was Harriet. She would be one of eleven children and would, until she assumed her mother's given name, be known as Aramenta.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 10 of 3 M / Attended the funeral of widow Elizabeth Willcox Anne Davis deliverd these few & savory words "Mourn not for the dead, but mourn for the living - for blessed are the dead that die in the Lord - Jonathon followed in a short testimony & Ruth Spncer in a long one all to pretty good satisfaction. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Letter to Dr. James Carmichael & Son of Fredericksburg, Virginia from Gawin Corbin of Kilmarnock House in Lancaster Ct.:

*Dr Sir
I have been confined for these three months unable to assist myself in any manner what ever, and in want of almost of everything that might contribute to my relief. I have now to request the favor of you to send me by the post 4 oz opium for such a thing cannot be procured here. In order that I may be sure of Receiving it you will direct to Mr. John Hull Kilmarnock Lancaster, and on the inside cover to me to the care of as above. I am unable to sit up longer. With the mo Sincere Respect I am*

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

DSir
Yours Mo Sincerely
Gawin Corbin
God grant I was near you

 March 12, Sunday: Alexander Mackenzie died at the age of 56 of what was then known as Bright's disease, a morbid kidney condition. The body would be placed in the old Avoch parish churchyard, on the Black Isle of the Moray Firth in Scotland.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 12 of 3 M / In our morning Meeting Our frd D Buffum was very lively in a short testimony – In the Afternoon Silent & to me a very poor meeting tho' favord with some ability to wrestle against obtrusions -
This day about One OClock departed this Life Eliphah Jernagan an old friend & acquaintance in my Mothers family – in the early part of her time she was addressed by my Mothers brother Samuel Wanton, who went to Sea & on the passage home was taken sick & died & was brought home a corpse & interd in the Clifton burying ground & near his remians it is concluded to inter Eliphah About two years ago She had a cancer extracted from her breast & has remained in a very feeble state ever since tho' She got out once & attended Meeting*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 March 15, Wednesday: Roualeyn George Gordon-Cumming was born as the 2d son, and therefore not to be entitled, of William Gordon Gordon-Cumming, 2d Baronet.

The citizens of the Maine region had been demanding separation from Massachusetts control ever since the War of 1812, and such separation had been agreed to in principle by Massachusetts in 1816. At this point a deal was struck preserving the balance between free states and slave states in the federal congress, whereby Maine was able to become the 23d state of the federal union, a free state, while Missouri was also admitted, as a slave state. (The reason why Canada is still a separate country –and I bet you don't know this– is that no such deal was ever possible, admitting its provinces as free states of the federal union while simultaneously admitting more slave states in order to preserve the balance between slave and free in our federal congress.)

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 15 of 3M / Attended the funeral of Elaphah Jernagan She was buried after the Manner of Friends in the Clifton Burying ground near the Wanton family - Abigail Sherman had a short testimony –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 16, Thursday: The final papers were signed at Jameson Tavern in Freeport, for the Maine District of Massachusetts to be split off and admitted as the 23rd state, Maine.

The ship Islington was lost near Cape Hatteras off the coast of North Carolina.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 16th of 3rd M 1829 / Our meeting was silent to me a pretty good time -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 19, Sunday: Aboard the Thaddeus:

Lord's Day. - Favored with the privilege of public worship on deck. The attentive audience listened to a discourse from Luke 23: 39-43, in which the prominent and distinguishing doctrines of grace were illustrated by Br. B. Our only hope with respect to the seed sown is in God who giveth the increase. Tamoree absented himself from public worship as he often does from our family devotions. He has, to our grief, expressed some skeptical views respecting Christianity. His intercourse with a Deist on board has been no serious advantage to him. We still hope the Lord will save him from the power of the enemy and make a blessing and not a curse to his countrymen.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 19th of 3rd M / Our Morning Meeting was large & Silent - in the Afternoon also pretty well attended & N Dennis's testimony was lively "Children have ye any meat" - this inquiry seemed peculiarly necessary for me having suffered great barrenness in both meetings 'tho I labored for life & did experience a little -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 23, Thursday: Congressman Samuel Chandler Crafts, a future governor of Vermont, wrote to Joseph Warren Scott about the outcome of the duel between Commodore Stephen "Our Country Right or Wrong" Decatur and Commodore James Barron: "A circumstance happened yesterday which has created a very great sensation here — Commodore Decatur & Commodore Barron have fought a duel in which they both fell — Decatur was shot through the body and is since dead — Barron was shot near the top of the hip and the ball is still in him — it is thought however that he will recover — Decatur has been the pride of the navy and has done more to raise it to its present high standing than any other — he was one of the navy commifisioners and his lofs is as much regreted here, as the lofs of any other man could be. Mr Randolph made a motion in congrefs this morning, that Congrefs adjourn until after the funeral, which will take place tomorrow, and wear crape during the remainder of the sefsion out of respect to his memory — but the motion was opposed, on account of the manner of his death — and was afterwards withdrawn — Randolph then motioned to adjourn (leaving out the wearing crape) which was decided against the motion by nearly 2 to 1 — we sit from five to six hours each day but after all do not make much progrefs — I think we will adjourn in about 4 weeks."

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 23rd of 3rd M / The celebrated LORENZO DOW attended Meeting with us, a very considerable number of people of other societies also came in hopes to hear him preach among us but he kept silence, & David Buffum was engaged in a short lively testimony on the subject of true faith & Ann Dennis spoke a few words & with that exception & a short disturbance from a crazy man we had a solid meeting. The circumstance of Lorenzo's being present drove[?] some of us to the center - I have no doubt he is a religious man & this Sentiment is confirmed, by a Short interview I have had with him since dinner to request him to appoint a time when he will See our friend David Buffum who has a mind to have an opportunity with him tomorrow morning about 9 OClock is agreed upon. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 24, Friday Gioachino Rossini's Messa di gloria was performed for the initial time, in San Ferdinando, Naples.

Marche funebre et De profundis for chorus and orchestra by Fromental Halévy was performed for the initial time, in the rue Sainte-Avoye synagogue, Paris. The work was part of nationwide mourning over the murder of the Duc de Berry.

Nearly 80% of the entire population of Washington DC was in attendance at the funeral of Commodore Stephen Decatur, some 10,000 persons including such personages as President James Monroe, cabinet members, Senators, Congressmen, justices of the Supreme court and just about everyone of influence in Washington (perhaps with the exception of Commodore James Barron). The pall bearers were five commodores (Rodgers, Chauncey, Tingey, Porter and Macdonough) plus two naval captains (Ballard and Cassin) supplemented by a naval lieutenant (Macpherson).

Our hero dies, and yet his name emblazoned on the naval role of fame
Shall live till yonder bright star to seamen dear
Shall cease to brighten the northern sphere
Till winds no more shall rage nor fires roar
And freedom's sun shall rise to set no more.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 24th of 3rd M / This morning according to appointment called with D Buffum to see Lorenzo Dow - The opportunity (tho' not[?] much was said) was attended with a considerable feeling on my part. I have no doubt he has known much of religion, but it is attended with a mixture with which Friends cannot fully unite. There Yet remains in him the whirlwind & the fire, & withall the Small still voice is heard in a degree. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 26, Sunday: On or about this date, on a morning of beautiful clear weather during maple-sugaring, Joseph Smith, Jr. probably had his initial vision experience of the Father and the Son. He would later explain,

I retired to a secret place in a grove and began to call upon the Lord. While fervently engaged in supplication my mind was taken away from the objects with which I was surrounded, and I was enwrapped in a heavenly vision and saw two glorious personages who exactly resembled each other in features, and likeness, surrounded with a brilliant light which eclipsed the sun at noonday. They told me that all religious denominations were believing in incorrect doctrines, and that none of them was acknowledged of God as his church and kingdom. And I was expressly commanded to "go not after them," at the same time receiving a promise that the fulness of the gospel should at some future time be made known unto me.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 26th of 3rd M 1820 / Our Morning Meeting was very full & nearly silent. towards the close father Rodman expressed a few words very pertinent & truly on the subject of silence & true worship. -

In the Afternoon we were Silent & both to me were pretty good meetings. - Attended the funeral for Richard Barker, he was once a member of our Society.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 30, Thursday: The hard-line French government of Armand du Plessis, duc de Richelieu reinstituted press censorship.

That night, the Congregationalist missionaries aboard the Thaddeus a third of the way across the wide Pacific Ocean sighted something toward the western horizon — a shadow. It was the Mauna Kea volcano of the Big Island of Hawaii, which they knew to possess “a height of nearly three miles,” looming above them in the darkness because coated in snow.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 30th of 3rd M / Our Monthly Meeting held this day in Town was large & very solid. Our friend D Buffum was engaged in a short but very lively testimony "Come brother come Sister let us go up to the mountain of the Lords house &c."

In the last we had but little business, & the meeting broke by two OClock - A committee was appointed to open a Meeting at Jamestown when way might open & to close when they think proper. This seems very desirable for tho' the members are few in Number, & mostly old & inferm yet there are some tender minds who attend

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

& it seems hard to relinquish a meeting at a place where one has been so long established. - Uncle & Aunt Thurston only dined with us. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 2, Sunday: Thomas Brown died while on a trip to London taken at the advice of his physician.

Day Two of Scotland's "Radical War": In Glasgow on this Easter Sunday, people were reading the placards and reacting to them.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 4 M 2nd 1820 / Rode with John this morning to Portsmouth, attended meeting - a very considerable number of serious & well disposed people attend that meeting & some of them of the younger class - it was solid & silent & the secret language of my mind was "Gather Home". The witness for God placed in every heart. - After meeting we dined at Uncle Thurstons, & then rode to Abner Cundels & looked round the farm & house a little, & attended to a little other buisness, then to Ruth Mitchells, took tea & came home. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 5, Wednesday: A setting of the Agnus Dei by Carl Maria von Weber was performed for the initial time, as part of Carlo, a play by von Blankensee, in Berlin.

Day Five of Scotland's "Radical War": some gunfire, some arrests.

The British officer assigned to watch Napoléon Bonaparte on St. Helena reported to London that "General Bonaparte remained out until two o'clock yesterday and finished the sod wall. The four Chinese, who have been constantly employed in the garden, got angry at the General having given a bottle of wine to each of the Chinese that are employed in the house and did not give them the same indulgence. They therefore refused doing what the General wanted them to do, which put him in a great rage, and he ordered them off instantly. General Bonaparte is hard at work this morning in the same garden. He has cut a large hole like an embrasure in the sod wall facing my side window, in which they are now fixing a large tub, half up the wall, to form a sort of cascade into the long tank in the garden."

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4 day 5 of 4 M / Rode with my H to Portsmouth on buisness went to A Cundels & showed her the Farm Uncle Stanton has Bought & dined & spent the Afternoon at Anne Anthonys -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 6, Thursday: Day Six of Scotland's "Radical War": random disturbances.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

5th day 6th of 4th M 1820 / Our Meeting was small & a season of Labor to me & for my labor I had some reward, in that I experienced some good to arise. – but in the committee which met at the close to consider of Jamestown Meeting I was very destitute of that qualification to act & judge which I really craved to feel & which I believe I have felt at seasons on the very subject in question. – In the meeting father Rodman was engaged in a short testimony.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 9, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 9th of 4th M / Our Morning Meeting was large solid & quiet Our friend D Buffum was engaged in a very lively & pertinent testimony. Jonathon & Hannah Dennis a few words acceptably. – In the Afternoon we were Silent – After meeting attended the funeral of the Widow Phebe Stanton Aged about 89 Years.–

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 13, Thursday: Former President Thomas Jefferson was hard at work revising the Gospels. He wrote to William Short –his secretary and protégé– about Jesus Christ, that:

Among the sayings and discourses imputed to him by his biographers, I find many passages of fine imagination, correct morality, and of the most lovely benevolence; and others, again, of so much ignorance, so much absurdity, so much untruth, charlatanism and imposture, as to pronounce it impossible that such contradictions should have proceeded from the same being.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

5th day 13th of 4th M 1820 / Our first meeting was silent & to me a pretty good season. – At the close of it was held our Select Meeting for Ministers & Elders, which was to me a Solemn time, especially towards the close, when some feeling & pertinent remarks were made on the State of Society by our friends D Buffum & Hannan Dennis - Our friend Abigail Robinson attended the first meeting but was unable from her delicate state of health to sit in the last & this is the first time she has been out to meeting since last summer. – Susannah Hathaway dined with us

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 15, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 15th of 4th M / Went After dinner with the committee to Connannicut to visit the few friends there to consult with them on the Subject of having a Meeting opened there this Summer, found them all willing to do what they can, but being only six in Number, & three of them from Age & other circumstances seldom able to attend, make the prospect a little trying –we spent about an hour & an half with them collected a ? Joseph Greens - & returned to tea. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 16, Sunday: According to the British officer assigned to guard Napoléon Bonaparte on St. Helena, Captain E. Lutyens of the 20th Regiment, “About seven o’clock last night General Bonaparte was walking in the gardens with Count Montholon, when he discovered some cattle belonging to the farm in the outer garden. He immediately ordered his two fowling-pieces to be brought, loaded with ball, both of which he fired, and killed one of the oxen. I believe there is another slightly wounded in the leg. Count Montholon mentioned to me that he saw the cattle come in at the outer garden gate. The gates are the only way the cattle could enter, the fence being perfectly secure; and the gate must have been left open by some of the establishment, for they never think of closing them when they pass in or out. Count Montholon said the General was determined to adopt the same plan if he again saw the cattle in the garden. I told him that it was very dangerous firing ball in the garden, and that General Bonaparte might have killed one of the sentries; upon which he said the General took the precaution of going round, and firing toward the house. Which must have been the case, from the way the animal was wounded and fell. It lays upon its right side, at the foot of the little mound that is surrounded with a myrtle hedge.”²⁶⁶

In Concord, Zilpah White died. A former slave, a regular church lady, she had been considered by white Concordians a loony. During the War of 1812 while some captured English soldiers were residing in Concord “on parole,” they had for a prank torched her home in Walden Woods.

266. The officer added, in a footnote, that killing such an animal in such a manner was a very serious offense on this island, and that anyone other than the general would have been prosecuted. He instanced, as an example of this, that he personally had had a Newfoundland dog that killed a sheep — and that for this the Magistrate at St. James had condemned his dog to death and had it executed.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

WALDEN: Here, by the very corner of my field, still nearer to town, Zilpha, a colored woman, held her little house, where she spun linen for townsfolk, making the Walden Woods ring with her shrill singing, for she had a loud and notable voice. At length, in the war of 1812, her dwelling was set on fire by English soldiers, prisoners on parole, when she was away, and her cat and dog and hens were all burned up together. She led a hard life, and somewhat inhumane. One old frequenter of these woods remembers, that as he passed her house one noon he heard her muttering to herself over her gurgling pot, -"Ye are all bones, bones!" I have seen bricks amid the oak copse there.

PEOPLE OF WALDEN

ZILPAH WHITE

The Concord Female Charitable Society had been providing "tobacco for Zilpah."²⁶⁷

"In those parts of the Union in which the negroes are no longer slaves, they have in no wise drawn nearer to the whites. On the contrary, the prejudice of the race appears to be stronger in the States which have abolished slavery ... and nowhere is it so intolerant as in those States where servitude has never been known."

— Alexis de Tocqueville

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 16th of 4th M / This morning being under the necessity of attending Portsmouth Meeting took my H in a Chaise & went thither.

The Meeting was silent but a remarkably Solid, quiet season & I have no doubt divine favor was extended to many minds present.

— After meeting with the others of the committee had an opportunity with Sarah Brownell on the subject of her request to be admitted a member of Society - it was a season of much feeling, but way did not open either to go forward or to dismiss the subject, & we concluded to ask to have it continued for three months longer --

We dined & spent the remainder of the Afternoon with Uncle Peter Lawton & family, where we had an opportunity of being in company with several Portsmouth folks but little known to us. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 20, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 20th of 4th M 1820 / Our Meeting was Silent but to me a solid time in the last (Preparative) being before the Quarter

267. To what extent would such a reputation have been carefully cultivated in such an environment, as needed cover?

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

previous to the Yearly meeting, all the Queries were answered & a considerable scrutiny took place, I hope in the minds of individuals, as well as by those who were engaged in making the remarks. – After both meetings the committee on Jamestown Meeting met, & conversed on the subject, but came to no conclusion, but agreed to meet again at the close of the next first day Meeting.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 22, Saturday: The obituary of former Concord slave Zilpah White appeared in the Middlesex Gazette.

WALDEN: Here, by the very corner of my field, still nearer to town, Zilpha, a colored woman, held her little house, where she spun linen for townsfolk, making the Walden Woods ring with her shrill singing, for she had a loud and notable voice. At length, in the war of 1812, her dwelling was set on fire by English soldiers, prisoners on parole, when she was away, and her cat and dog and hens were all burned up together. She led a hard life, and somewhat inhumane. One old frequenter of these woods remembers, that as he passed her house one noon he heard her muttering to herself over her gurgling pot, – "Ye are all bones, bones!" I have seen bricks amid the oak copse there.

PEOPLE OF WALDEN

ZILPAH WHITE

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 22 of 4th M / Favor'd this morning with precious sensations for which I desire to be Thankful

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Former President Thomas Jefferson wrote about the Missouri Compromise, without calling it that, and the Negro Problem, without calling it that:

I thank you, dear Sir, for the copy you have been so kind as to send me of the letter to your constituents on the Missouri question. It is a perfect justification to them. I had for a long time ceased to read newspapers, or pay any attention to public affairs, confident they were in good hands, and content to be a passenger in our bark to the shore from which I am not distant. But this momentous question, like a fire bell in the night, awakened and filled me with terror. I considered it at once as the knell of the Union. It is hushed, indeed, for the moment. But this is a reprieve only, not a final sentence. A geographical line, coinciding with a marked principle, moral and political, once conceived and held up to the angry passions of men, will never be obliterated; and every new irritation will mark it deeper and deeper. I can say, with conscious truth, that there is not a man on earth who would sacrifice more than I would to relieve us from this heavy reproach, in any practicable way.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

The cession of that kind of property, for so it is misnamed, is a bagatelle which would not cost me a second thought, if, in that way, a general emancipation and expatriation could be effected; and gradually, and with due sacrifices, I think it might be. But as it is, we have the wolf by the ears, and we can neither hold him, nor safely let him go. Justice is in one scale, and self-preservation in the other. Of one thing I am certain, that as the passage of slaves from one State to another, would not make a slave of a single human being who would not be so without it, so their diffusion over a greater surface would make them individually happier, and proportionally facilitate the accomplishment of their emancipation, by dividing the burthen on a greater number of coadjutors. An abstinence too, from this act of power, would remove the jealousy excited by the undertaking of Congress to regulate the condition of the different descriptions of men composing a State. This certainly is the exclusive right of every State, which nothing in the constitution has taken from them and given to the General Government. Could Congress, for example, say, that the non-freemen of Connecticut shall be freemen, or that they shall not emigrate into any other State?

I regret that I am now to die in the belief, that the useless sacrifice of themselves by the generation of 1776, to acquire self-government and happiness to their country, is to be thrown away by the unwise and unworthy passions of their sons, and that my only consolation is to be, that I live not to weep over it. If they would but dispassionately weigh the blessings they will throw away, against an abstract principle more likely to be effected by union than by scission, they would pause before they would perpetrate this act of suicide on themselves, and of treason against the hopes of the world. To yourself, as the faithful advocate of the Union, I tender the offering of my high esteem and respect.

April 23, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 23rd of 4th M / Our meetings were pretty well attended, silent & to me seasons of but little life –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 25, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 25 of 4 M / Aunt Patty Gould spent this Afternoon with us, Aged almost 84 years. She is quite current in her understanding pleasant & agreeable in her manners. This evening had the information of the decease of my Cousin THOMAS GOULD of Albany aged 50 years, he has been some months declining in a consumption, was a man very useful in the City in which he lived & had acquired considerable wealth. It is said the Aged must & the young may die & here is an instance Aunt Patty still living at a very advanced age, while her nephew

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Thomas in the prime of age is taken away. The lesson is affecting to my mind. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 27, Thursday: Herbert Spencer was born in Derby, Derbyshire, England. In the beginning he didn't have one idea in his head. (Later on in life, more's the pity, he would get one idea into his head — and not be able to get it out.)

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 27 of 4 M / Our Moy [Monthly] Meeting is held at Portsmouth & looking towards Greenwich quarter next week, thought it most proper to be at home today to prepare for a longer absence - Find a hevvy cold on me this evening.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 28, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 28 of 4 M 1820 / Find my cold attended with some fever & oppression at the chest - the prospect of Greenwich looks dull -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 30, Sunday: King George IV, noting that the national mourning that had gone on during part of 1818 and all of 1819 after the deaths of the Duke of Kent and King George III had been having an adverse effect on the clothing trade, had decreed that it would conclude with this day. Party hardy!

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 30th of 4 M / In our forenoon meeting Jonathon Dennis & Hannah Dennis & Daniel Buffum were engaged in public testimony & it was a season of favor for which I desire to be thankful. - In the Afternoon we were silent.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 2, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 2nd of 5th M 1820 / This morning tho' quite unwell with a cold I went on board the Packet with Friends & took John along with me to Greenwich we had a pleasant passage up & went to cousin Wanton Caseys & found them at dinner & very glad to see us - After sitting with them awhile left John & Sister Ruth & walked out to David Howlands where Moses Brown & several other friends came we passed the evening in interesting conversation & lodged - After breakfast the next morning I walked to town & went to the Select Meeting which was a Solid & solemn season not soon to be forgotten. - Dined at John Caseys & here for reasons which I shudder to name, my heart was Awfully appalled & the meal here taken was a repast indeed of bitter herbs. - Lodged

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

at W Caseys. - 5th day went to Meeting - the part of it for worship was a season wherein truth was triumphant a blessed meeting. - a few words were first spoken by a young woman - then Thos Anthony, then Royal Southwick in a most remarkable & long to be remembered testimony Attended with life & power - Then John Bailey in a testimony explanitory of our principles & The Meeting concluded -The buisness was conducted in a weighty manner & two female Elders were appointed Took tea cousin Abby Greens & lodged at W Caseys - on 6 day [Friday] Morning came home, a passage of 5 hours.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 4, Thursday: The Dawning of Music in Kentucky, or The Pleasures of Harmony in the Solitudes of Nature, Opera Prima, was copyrighted by its author Anton Philipp Heinrich.

Birth, in England, of Joseph Whitaker, who would found WHITAKER'S ALMANACK.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 6th of 5th M 1820 / This has been a most Awfully melancholly Afternoon as perhaps Newport has known in years if ever - Lewis Rousmaniere, a man of my acquaintance from early youth & a little younger than myself, about One Oclock ended his existence, by his own hand, which with other circumstances attending, fills every heart with dismay. - Oh that mankind may learn to be content with Small things, not make haste to be rich, & place confidence in God.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 7, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 7th of 5 M / At Meeting this forenoon our friend D. Buffum was engaged in a most lively & pertinent testimony "How shall a young man cleanse his ways? by taking heed thereto according to my Word" - This was the Scripture with which he opened & from it he pointed out the way in a very striking manner & recommended SILENCE in preference to the whirlwind, the earthquake & the fire, all of which must pass by before the Small still voice can be distinctly heard. - Meeting was well attended in the Afternoon & but for the disturbance of a man in a deranged State of mind who Several times spoke, was a very solid comfortable season. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 14, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 14th of 5t M 1820 / My Wife & I being under the appointment in care of Jamestown Meeting it became our turn to

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

attend today we accordingly yesterday afternoon went over & took tea at cousin Daniel Howlands & Lodged at cousin Joseph Greens -At meeting about 28 Met together & was pretty comfortable meeting. tho' some Left was experienced - After dinner at J Greenes we came over the ferry in season to attend our Afternoon meeting at home. -5th day 18 of 5th M / In our first meeting Jonathon & Hannah Dennis were both engaged in public testimony & to me it was a season of some favor. - In the last Preparative no buisness1st day [Sunday] 21 of 5 M Our meeting this morning rather thin, the weather was rainy which in part occasions it - it was a season of some favor tho' I failed of that lively sensible frame which I sometimes enjoy - Simeon Brewer a young man & member of Providence was present & appeard in a few words of public testimony. -

The times in which we have fallen, are singular times, both in the Political, Mercantile and Religious State of things, all which, conspire to render it necessary for us to dwell deep & near the principle of truth - out of it, the mind is indeed as a Ship in a storm, having lost the rudder, subject to be driven too and fro in the mighty waves, uncontrollable by the mariner, but what a comfortable & heart consoling reflection, that God remains to be a strong God, & by his holy spirit [crossed out?], thro' Jesus Christ, will Sustain all who flee unto him & Sincerely ask help of him, he has in no age of the world deserted these, & I believe never will - May I be renewdly engaged to put my trust in Him, Oh that the light of his countenance may be daily sought after by all, whose lot it is, to Stand in the fore ranks of our Society, & if this is the case, I have no doubt but the cloud will be removed & Israel will journey safely on. At Meeting in the Afternoon father Rodman was concerned in a short testimony - Capt Starbuck & Simeon Brewer took tea & set the eveng with us

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 23, Thursday: Publication of Muzio Clementi's Piano Sonata op.46 was entered at Stationer's Hall, London.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 25th of 5 M 1820 / Lorenzo Dow & his new wife came to our first Meeting - Father Rodman David Buffum & Hannah Dennis were both engaged in public testimony & TRUTH was advanced. to me it was a good meeting
In the last (Moy [Monthly]) buisness was conducted pretty well tho' there was but little to do - The Clerk being absent it fell to my lot to do the Writing. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 28, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 28th of 5 M / A great many folks came to Meeting & some

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

that I never observed there before, but it was silent & on the whole to me a hard time Afternoon silent & tho' I labored was unable to get as much victory &[as] I desired & on the whole a rather hard day –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 1, Thursday: Dr. Josiah Bartlett, son of Dr. Josiah Bartlett of Charlestown, came to Concord to begin the practice of medicine. He had been born November 20, 1796, and graduated from Harvard College in 1816, and at the Harvard Medical School in 1819.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 1st of 6 M 1820 / Our meeting was silent, & a season of dearth to me. – This is the state I have been in a long time & Oh that I may be delivered from it – Poverty & weakness is mine
Yet I have a little faith left. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

June 4, Sunday: Queen Caroline of Great Britain met with Henry Brougham and Lord Hutchinson at St. Omer, France. They implored her not to return to any domain of the British Empire and offered her £50,000 per year if she would agree to stay away permanently. She had been accused of carrying on an affair with her Italian chamberlain, Bartolommeo Pergami. The Queen refused the offer and proceeded to Calais.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 4th of 6th M 1820 / Our meeting this morning was an uncommonly favored one. Solemnity & Life was remarkably prevalent before a word was spoken, about the middle of meeting Jona Dennis delivered a short testimony & soon Hannah Dennis follow'd him at two different standings & to close the whole Abigail Robinson was engaged in a short but very lively & Sweet testimony, & the Meeting closed under a precious covering. - Jonathon & Hannah came home with us & dined. In the afternoon the meeting gathered under a good degree of the same Solemnity as in the morning, but in my own mind did not rise so high, -

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

but Hannah Dennis was twice engaged in lively testimonys.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 8, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

8th of 6 M / I am going to meeting & may it prove the precursor of a good time thro' the Yearly Meeting. Friends in this town are buisily engaged in preparing for the next Week a work which had been done ever since Friends were established, & many very many of the gooly [godly - goodly?] men and women whose hearts have annually leap'd for joy at the prospect of meeting their friends whom they have loved in the Lord, are doubtless in Heaven, & may we who are now on the stage of Action when we leave this world join them in The endless ages of eternity. Our meeting was small, but a good gegree [degree] of precious life was witnessed. - This Afternoon rec'd a sweet letter from our aged Fr Wm Rickman in N York expecting to embark for England next first day -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 9, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th M 9 1820 6th day / Our Friends from Greenwich & S Kingston have begun to come, to attend the Yearly Meeting which commences for Ministers & Elders at Portsmouth tomorrow My dear friends Daniel Howland & Thomas Anthony took tea with us, & went on their way towards meeting tomorrow. - My hearts desire & prayer to God, has been, and still is, that Truth may stand in dominion & reign over all and in all our movements, & redound to the honor of his Great Name.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 10, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th Day Rode to Portsmouth to attend the Select Meeting, which was a Solemn time, Jerusalem being searched as with lighted candles. A prayer by Daniel Haviland & testimony from Caleb Macomber Nicholas Brown, Charles Osborn - dined at Uncle B Freeborn then Carried father Rodman to the Meeting for Sufferings & went down to Uncle Stantons place from thence to Saml Thurstons, took tea & then to Rich Mitchells where I found father & brought him Home. - found my H had taken in some agreeable Guests Vizt Hannah Johnson, Hannah Holder Anne Greene of Greenwich, Lydia Brown

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

June 11, Sunday: Sarah Allen was born to Mary Morrill Allen and the Reverend Wilkes Allen in Chelmsford, Massachusetts. Sarah would die in infancy.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day Our Morning Meeting was not quite so large as I have sometimes observed but proved a season of blessed triumph to the Truth, it was remarkably quiet the first testimony was short from Geo Dean & of the merits I must suspend judgement Then followed Caleb Macomber in a long testimony which began on a low key but he rose in the life & held the attention of the people in a remarkable manner - he was favord to close with it, when a few words was spoken by a young man in my judgement out of the life of Authority, but Solemnity was soon restored & the Meeting broke. -

In the Afternoon the Meeting was very large Daniel Haviland — Haverland & Mary Allen were the public laborers & tho Truth did not rise into dominion as it did in the Morning yet I believe no loss was Sustained. -

In the eveng the company at our House fell into silence & Thos Anthony was engaged in testimony very pertinently to some states present.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 12, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd The Meeting this morning opened under a solemn covering. Daniel Haviland, Nicholas Brown, & Daniel Haviland in testimony & Nicholas Brown in a most approach to the throne of Grace, [was Nicolas still in the slave trade at this time?] after which the buisness of the meeting progressed for sometime when it was observed that a person was present who was not a member an old applicant (J Austin) [was this the J Austin he had known when he was a young man with whom he had talked at length in his shop, and was deeply distressed about him?] who was invited to retire, but declined & made considerable difficulty, after a while our Aged fr. Moses Brown went to him with our another Fr & invited him to retire with them which he did, & tho' there was another circumstance or two which caused some pain. yet it was evident the Everlasting Truth did prevail & it is the prayer of my heart that it may prevail & stand over the heads of all gainsayers to the honor of the great CAUSE

In the Afternoon the Meeting opened again under a most solemn covering of life, lively testimony from Charles Osborn & Caleb Macomber, after which the State of Society was enterd into as represented by the answers to the Queries Jerusalem was again searched closely in living & powerful testimonys from Caleb Macomber, Charles Osborn, Rowland Greene & several others, which took up so much time that the Meeting adjourned before the Queries were gone thro with - After the Meeting had proceeded in the buisness sometime, the individual who disturbed us in the

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Morning, again came in which occasions some jostling for a few minutes, but he yealded to the solicitations of Moses Brown & went out.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 17, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th With our frds above mentioned attended an Appointed meeting on Connanicut. The Meeting house was full or nearly so & a blessed season it was many hearts were deeply affected by the living power of Truth thro' the preaching of Charles. The meeting concluded in Solemn supplication - We dined at Caleb Weavers & returned home in the evening Charles & James took tea with Father Rodman & returned to lodge with us. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

M. Benjamin Constant orated in the French Chamber of Deputies:

The French ship Le Rodeur, with a crew of twenty-two men, and with one hundred and sixty negro slaves, sailed from Bonny, in Africa, April, 1819. On approaching the line, a terrible malady broke out, - an obstinate disease of the eyes, - contagious, and altogether beyond the resources of medicine. It was aggravated by the scarcity of water among the slaves (only half a wineglass per day being allowed to an individual), and by the extreme impurity of the air in which they breathed. By the advice of the physician, they were brought upon deck occasionally; but some of the poor wretches, locking themselves in each other's arms, leaped overboard, in the hope, which so universally prevails among them, of being swiftly transported to their own homes in Africa. To check this, the captain ordered several who were stopped in the attempt to be shot, or hanged, before their companions. The disease extended to the crew; and one after another were smitten with it, until only one remained unaffected. Yet even this dreadful condition did not preclude calculation: to save the expense of supporting slaves rendered unsalable, and to obtain grounds for a claim against the underwriters, thirty-six of the negroes, having become blind, were thrown into the sea and drowned!

June 18, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 18th of 6 M 1820 / Our Morning meeting was large but did not prove so open a time as could be wished tho our frd Charles Osborn labord faithfully in the ability afforded - In the Afternoon as the other Meeting broke, many people flocked in, which happened just as Charles rose & it proved a season of good openness wherein he discharged himself to the comfort of friends & the satisfaction of others. -

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

They took tea with us & after tea we took leave at which time Charles was concerned to impart a few words of Sweet encouragement very precious & consoling to our feelings - They rode to Rich Mitchells to lodge, intending from thence to Tiverton Little Compton, Westport & on to New Bedford wishing to be at Nantucket on first Day next.

I have to Acknowledge (I trust) under an humble sense of the Lords goodness that this Yearly Meeting has been to me a season of favor, tenderness & love, for which I desire to offer thanksgiving & praise where it is alone due. - before the meeting commenced it was a season of much fear & dread among us, least [lest] from some existing causes, the Truth would suffer, but the Lord made bare his holy Arm for the help of his people, & the good cause gained ground, to the consolation of the honest sincere hearted traveller, who travel for the prosperity of Zion & the right enlargement of her Borders.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 22, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 22nd of 6 M 1820 / Our Meeting was about of its usual size, Silent, but favor'd with a degree of life. - Our friends having all gone, we feel a little lonesome, after so much stir, we however enjoy the quiet, our one frined seems to us doubly near. - Thos Anthony came down this forenoon on buisness but not in season to get to meeting which was his desire to Do - he called & set with us a little while this Afternoon. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 23, Friday: THE WESTERN MINSTREL was copyrighted by its author, Anton Philipp Heinrich.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 23 of 6 M / This Afternoon REFINE WEEKS a friend of Ferrisburg Moy [Monthly] Meeting in Vermont called to see me, he is travelling to get subscribers for a book of Poems which he has been writing, in a plain simple Stile - He appears to be an honest Sincere man & has a certificate from the meeting he belongs too & letters of recommendation to several friends whom we know. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 25, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 25th of 6 M / In the forenoon Meeting, D Buffum & Hannah Dennis were engaged in lively & pertinent testimonys. I believe a number of minds were affected. -

In the Afternoon Our fr Caleb Mai Comber attended The meeting was defer'd to 4 OClock on his account & people of Colour invited, he was engaged in a lively testimony & pertinent to the

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

State of things among [? begins with w, but is cut off in the fold] but so lean & destitute were my feelings that I was not capable of feeling but very little it seemed to me my sight was left but my feelings taken away, for I thought I could plainly see that he was right & in the life by feeling was incapable of participating in it

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 29, Thursday: The negrero Antelope was captured by the US Revenue-Marine cutter Dallas. The first mate of the Dallas took inventory of the vessel's cargo: 283 Africans a couple of whom had deceased.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 29 of 6th M 1820 / With my H rode to Portsmouth to attend the Moy [Monthly] Meeting, before meeting stoped at Uncle Peter Lawtons & refreshed a little - At the first Meeting D Buffum was engaged in a lively testimony on the subject of "Love as the foundation of Religion" - J Dennis was also engaged in a few words. - In the last we had but little buisness & the meeting soon ended, but I thought the little that was done was conducted with weight & to me it was a good meeting for which I may ascribe thanksgiving where it is alone Due- We dined at Uncle Peters & staid there the remainder of the Afternoon - Rode Home. I may acknowdlege this evening that it has been a good day, a day of some encouragement, to press forward in the discharge of duty. Oh may the Ancient spirit of Power, which was with out dear worthy predecessors, be more conspicuous among us in this day, may the Lord arise for the help of Zion & the englargement of her borders -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 2, Sunday: John Brown of Concord got married with Clarissa Harmon.

Two junior officers, members of the Order of the Carbonari, led their troops on Naples in an attempt to force King Ferdinando to grant a constitution (other army units would soon join them).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 2nd of 7th M 1820 / Our morning meeting was not a very lively time but better than some others. J Dennis bore a short testimony - In the Afternoon Father Rodman & D Buffum were lively in testimony - Went in the evening down to Wm Lees & set with them very pleasantly. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 6, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 6th of 7 M 1820 / Our Meeting was silent & a season of

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

but little life. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 9, Sunday: General Guglielmo Pepe, leader of the Neapolitan revolt, enters the city at the head of his rebel troops.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 9th of 7 M 1820 / In the forenoon meeting Jonathon & Hannah both preached a little, in the Afternoon father Rodman said a little & I think both the preaching & the life & all, was by the little I desire however to be thankful for an evidence in my own mind of being favord to partake of a degree of the little life among us. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 10, Monday: Mikhail Ivanovich Glinka played a piano concerto at the graduation ceremonies of the Boarding School of the Nobility, St. Petersburg.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 10th of 7 M / Favor'd with the precious arisings of the sap of life. Oh that my heart & soul may bow in humble gratitude for every favor & my [may] I labor daily for the renewal of life

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 13, Thursday: A committee in Concord, Massachusetts resolved to create for the town a Social Library absorbing the membership and the collection of an earlier Charitable Library Society.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 13th of 7th M 1820 / Our Meeting was a season of some favor to my mind – Anne Greene & Hannah Dennis both bore encouraging testimonys. – After which was our Select Meeting held, which to me was a season of quickening & favor for which I desire to be thankful –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

July 16, Sunday: In Cambridge, Oliver Merriam, a farmer of Concord, got married with Mehitable Preble Cook.

In Paris, Abraham Mendelssohn wrote to his daughter Fanny, “Music will perhaps become his (Felix Mendelssohn)’s profession, while for you it can and must be only an ornament, never the root of your being and doing.”

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 16th of 7 M / In the morning Meeting We had a short

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

testimony from D Buffum - In the Afternoon a short one from J Dennis & to me both were Dull seasons but I was glad to find by comparing notes with a Friend After meeting that all had not fared as I had. - My Mother Aunt Stanton & Sister Ruth took tea with us. 5th day 10th of 7 M / Our meetings was silent & to me a season of Some life tho' tried with some roving - No buisness in the Preparative but to Answer the Queries & appoint Representatives Aunt Stanton saild this mornig for NYork & has had to all appearance a fine Wind. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 July 21, Friday: Hans Christian Ørsted published his findings of April 21st in the Annales de Chimie et de Physique, Paris.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 21st of 7th M / Rode to Portsmouth this mornig on buisness of society. took Uncle Stantons horse & Waggon & carried with me Elizabeth & Mary - Dined & took tea At Uncle Peter Lawtons, & went to several other places - the Chief buisness that I went on was to see Susanna Brownell who was absent at Bristol.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 July 23, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 23 of 7 M / Last evening went to Connanicut to attend Meeting there today which to me was a good season for which I desire to be thankful lodged & ate at Jos Greenes - The little meeting there is near to my best feelings. - May they increase in right things. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 July 27, Thursday: Giacomo Meyerbeer was elected a member of the Accademia Filarmonica in Bologna.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 27th of 7th M 1820 / In our first meeting a few words was spoken by a friend while sitting, not to satisfaction & J Dennis was engaged in a short testimony to pretty good satisfaction & the meeting ended pretty well. -
In the last the buisness was conducted in a brotherly manner & harmony prevailed with the exception of the friend alluded to in the first meeting, who made some personal reflections & offered some abuse to an aged friend which I hope the Overseers will attend too & the poor deluded man brought to a right sense of his State & condition. - Joseph Greene, Geo Dennis & Asa Sherman Dined with us. -*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

August 2, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 2nd of 8th M / This Morning rode to Portsmouth to Attend The Select Quarterly Meeting with Father Rodman. – it was a season of favor, tho' much deep waiding was exsperienced on account of the State of things among us, but unity & love prevailed to the consolation of some who are at times ready to faint. – Dined at Uncle Peter Lawtons & came home. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 3, Thursday: Simon Mayr read his study of Franchinus Gaffurius to the Ateneo, Bergamo. This was the initial portion of a projected book on various people. He would be prevented from completing the work by illness and death.

President James Monroe instructed that the Africans of the negrero Antelope were to be held in Savannah by US Marshal John H. Morel until the white people could come to agreement on their destiny.

INTERNATIONAL SLAVE TRADE

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day Again went to Portsmouth to attend the Quarterly Meeting at Large, the first appearance was from a young Woman from Lynn in supplication much to dissatisfaction – Then a short lively testimony from Thos Anthony, the rest of the service fell chiefly to our dear friend & Brother Charles Osborn. he had much also to communicate in the last meeting & visited the womens meeting – We dined at Uncle Peters after which Sister Ruth & Eleanor Lawton & myself went on towards Providence in the Waggon & reached James maxwells in Warren before night. Sister Ruth & I with the view of attending the School committee & Eleanor to enter as Nurse in the Yearly Meeting school

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 4, Friday: At Stirling in Scotland a judge of the "Radical War" treason delivered himself of the remark "To you Andrew Hardie and John Baird I can hold out little or no hope of mercy" because "as you were the leaders, I am afraid that example must be given by you."

HANGING

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day proceeded to Providence & reached the School House about 10 OClock, after landing the Young Women, I rode into town on a little buisness with Natl. Watson of Salem & returned to Moses Browns & dined where I found G Osborn & several other friends whom I loved, their company was very pleasant. – After dinner we went up to the School House & attended to the concerns that came before us in the capacity of School Committee, much weight

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

was manifest among us & right concern for the wellfare of the institution. – Ruth & I returned to Moses Browns & lodged. –next morning being 7th day we returned to the school House to attend to some unfinished buisness of yesterday, staid to dinner & dined with the Schollars after which we left them & rode home & got to Newport before 9 OClock in the evening. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 6, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 6th of 8 M / Our morning Meeting was pretty well attended Father Rodman was concerned in Testimony – Jeremiah Austin as is now not a member of Society was present & undertook to preach to us – We heard The Bell, but alas where is the pomgranate, which tastes & smells pleasantly. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 10, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 10th of 8th M 1820 / Our Meeting was silent & to me a season of leaness, arising perhaps chiefly from a want of timely care on my part, tho' I labor'd to get my mind settled. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 13, Sunday: Field Marshall William Carr Beresford, Duke of Elvas, administrator of Portugal, sailed for Brazil to visit Dom João, the absent king.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 13 of 8 M / This morning as I went into the meeting House Yard I found a number of Men & boys standing round our frd David Buffum in a manner which induced me to believe that something had happened to him on going up I found his horse as he was taking him out of the carriage in Kicking off the flies had hit his leg & it was bleeding most profusely. They had put a handkerchief round it & soon his son David came up & carried him home. The heat of the Weather & his time of life excites no Small concern for his wellfare – Our Meeting was Silent & a season of thoughtfulness to me tho' not so much of the Life as I desired Afternoon meeting rather small people seem to dislike very warm as well as very cold weather to turn out to meeting in –father Rodman & Aunt A Carpenter out to see D Buffum, found his leg severely hurt but it appears to be a flesh wound & with proper care may do well, tho' so severe a hurt is always dangerous at the age of 76. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

HDTWHAT?INDEXSTEPHEN WANTON GOULD*FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

August 17, Thursday: The trial to prove the infidelities of Lady Caroline Amelia of Brunswick-Wolfenbützel, Princess of Wales, so that King George IV might divorce her, began with her riding in triumph to the House of Lords in a state carriage through cheering throngs, graciously waving to all and sundry. Among the 258 peers assembled there were two (at least) with whom she had had intimate relations. The issue of her name being in the weekly liturgy of the Anglican Church was a major complication. The husband could not bring proceedings in the Ecclesiastical Court because he did not have the required “clean hands.” He attempted to secure a Bill of Pains and Penalties but the queen was virtually acquitted by the House of Lords because the bill passed only by a slender majority. As far as many of the peers were concerned, the issue was not who was dirty but who was dirtiest:

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 17 of 8 M / At Meeting J Dennis was concerned in a short testimony —

Our fr D Buffum remains confined with a sore leg which does not get much better, tho' it is supposed it is doing as well as can be expected

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

August 20, Sunday: Charles DeWolf (3) died.

(What a pleasant smile he had on his face when he sat for this painting. He was perhaps whiling away the time by making a mental calculation of how much he might be able to get for your great-great-great-great-grandmother on the open market.)

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 20th of 8th M 1820 / In the Mornng Meeting J Dennis was concerned in testimony – In the Afternoon silent. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 24, Thursday: A Constitutionalist insurrection against the Bragança dynasty began among liberal army officers in Oporto, Portugal. A rebel junta was set up in the city led by Brigadier António da Silveira Pinto da Fonseca.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 24 of 8 M / Silent Meeting, the forepart of it was a season of solid quiet to my mind, but got disturbed with some rovinings & towards the close was favord to feel a solemn covering restored. – No buisness in the preparative meeting but to approve Representatives
Aunt Stanton arrived from NYork this Afternoon*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 25, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 25th of 8 M 1820 / This Afternoon With J L Taylor rode over the Beeches to the late residence of Benjamin Gardiner after his Clock to repair, on our way thither we Stopped at the Marked Rocks about which Storys (& storys they are) is told of the Devil beheading a Squaw &c here many people have cut their names with the Date of the Year. I remarked some as far Back as the Year 1740 & many of a later date, among them is the Name of

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Thos Rotch as far back as 1785 when he was probably on a visit to this Island, he is yet living but many are gone hence to be seen of men no more. -These Rocks & the names cut on them gave rise to many reflections. They have been visited by many for pleasure who have since seen great trouble & paid the debt of Nature & now only their names remain, perchance to revive them in the recollection of some of their friends who may hapen to visit them & remember that they once knew them. I once when a boy, was at these rocks before, & cut my name, but it is not now to be found, it was cut shallow & time has effaced it - After the buisness was done we went upon - we took a Walk on the east ridge of the hanging rocks, they are a great curiosity, & my mind in the course of my walk exclaimed "GREAT & MARVELOUS ARE THY WORKS", & on observing some of the clefts that were once probably attatched to the Mass, but fallen off by some great convulsion of nature, well may we ADD "Thy ways are past finding out - On the farm of the late Benj Gardiner is an old family burying Ground, in which are laid the family of Smiths to whom the land once belonged. I noticed a very large & thick Tomb Stone which covers Phillip Smith & his Wife Mary - he Died in 1700 aged 67 Years & she 1709 aged 57 Years We then rode home by the way of Green End & had a pleasant Afternoon. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 27, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 27th of 8th M 1820 / In the Mornng Meeting, father Rodman had a few words by way of testimony & it was a pretty solid time - In the Afternoon we were silent

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 29, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 29 of 8 M / This Afternoon carried Aunt Stanton & Nancy Warren in the Waggon to Portsmouth. went to Clarke Chases & walked round to view the Farm Some Apples & Pears rearly ripe & the appearance of a considerable quantity. The went to Uncle Thurstons & took tea. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

August 31, Thursday: Radical leader Major Rafael de Riego made a triumphal entry into Madrid in support of the 1812 constitution.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 31 of 8 M / This mornng took the Waggon & carried father Rodman & Sister Eliza & John to Portsmouth to attend the Moy [Monthly] Meeting. In the first meeting J Dennis said a few words but with me life was low. The buisness of the last, was pretty well conducted & in my feelings life rose in a very pleasant &

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*comfortable degree for which continued evidence of Divine favor
I desire to be thankful - We dined at Rich Mitchells*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 3, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 3rd of 9th M 1820 / Our Morning Meeting was well Attended & a favor'd season Hannah Dennis was very lively & sweet in testimony & father Rodman appeared in a few words. -In the Afternoon Silent, & pretty Solid. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 4, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 9th of 9 M / This Afternoon took the Waggon & with My H, John & Aunt Stanton rode to Portsmouth & took tea with our Aged Cousin Elizabeth Chase. The Afternoon was pleasant & the time was spent pleasantly, but my mind was occupied much in retrospection, on my past visits at the House when the family were all alive & together, but now how changed? Soon we shall all be changed, soon all consigned to the Silent grave & may we so live while here, as to be received into happiness in the World to come. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

A news item relating to the development of ELECTRIC WALDEN technology:

- François Arago presented the findings of the Danish physicist Hans Christian Ørsted to the French Academy in Paris.

"If you wish to make an apple pie from scratch, you must first invent the universe."

- Carl Sagan

September 7, Thursday: During a Lake Erie storm two lake vessels were forced to tie up at the new pier being built by Samuel Wilkeson at Buffalo Creek, New York (later the Buffalo River). The pier would hold.

The Attorney-General of England rested His Majesty's case against Lady Caroline Amelia of Brunswick-Wolfenbüttel, Princess of Wales in the House of Lords. She responded by sailing down the Thames in her state barge. An estimated 200,000 people viewed the procession.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 7th of 9th M / Father Rodman delivered a short testimony at Meeting. - To me it was a season of great poverty. I know not when I have passed a meeting so destitute of good

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Joseph Sansom of Philadelphia was at Meeting he is a great traveller & published several works. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

When the wooden Concord Town School had burned down the previous December 31st,  the Corinthian Lodge of local Freemasons had volunteered to pay $400 toward the cost of replacing it, on condition that a private staircase would be provided to an upper floor that would be reserved for their activities. The new building, of brick, dedicated on this day by the Reverend Ezra Ripley, sported a bell cupola (two other, outlying, new schoolhouses were also being dedicated on this day).

I wish you to realize that it is your indispensable duty to govern your children.... I do not say you must be severe. There will be no need of severity, if you begin discipline seasonably and pursue it with wisdom and prudence. But they must be made to obey you. If you do not know how to govern your children, and to command their fear and love, it is high time you should learn. And I would there were schools for this purpose. I believe they would be highly beneficial.

Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons

The ground floor of this building would house the town school preparing local students for college until,

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

in 1851,  it would be moved across the square into the new Town Hall.

The classroom was constructed like an amphitheater. The ceiling was ten feet high and, in the center, running from the door to the master's desk at the opposite end, was an aisle. On either side the floor rose toward the wall on an inclined plane, on which were four rows of benches, ten seats to a row, so that the master was surrounded by students on three sides. The northwest half was the girls' side and the boys sat on the southeast, forty students on each side. The scholars used wooden desks of the classic schoolroom type – lidded, bolted to the floor, and attached to the seat in front. The master's desk stood on a platform sixteen inches high, facing the students. Near this, on the floor, was an old heating stove. The room was lit with oil lamps.

 September 10, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 10th of 9 M / In the morning Meeting Father Rodman was concerned in a short well connected & pretty lively testimony In the Afternoon Hannah Dennis was twice on her feet engaged in a lively pertinent testimony in which Gospel Authority was demonstrated & both to me were good Meetings. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 13, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

 4th day 13th of 9 M / This Afternoon took John & with Mother & Aunt Stanton went to Connanicut & took tea with Cousin Mary Howland, Cousin Abigail Casey was there & a pleasant Afternoon it was - After tea John & I came home & left Mother & Aunt Stanton to stay a few Days –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 14, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 14th of 9th M 1820 / Silent Meeting. our frd D Buffum attended, the first time since his leg was hurt. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 September 17, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 17 of 9th M / In the Morning Meeting Hannah Dennis was large in testimony, Jonathon was also engaged in testimony & D Buffum closed the Service with his usual lively manner, it seemed as if there was much concern manifested, for the Churches Wellfare & Oh that it may increase among us. -- In the Afternoon Silent but the Meeting closed under a good degree of life to my feelings. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

September 20, Wednesday: Red-haired but nearly bald Colonel Josiah “The Prairie Chicken” Snelling laid the cornerstone of a massive new fort, to be called “Fort St. Anthony,” at the confluence of the Mississippi River and the St. Peter’s River overlooking Pike Island in what eventually would become Minnesota. Construction would require six years.

Rochesterville, New York’s Methodist Episcopal Church opened and Abelard Reynolds was named 1st trustee.

Two hundred and forty-one additional deaths from yellow fever were recorded in Savannah.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 21 of 9 M / Our meeting today was small & silent to me a season of some oppression. –
John remains very poorly. I hardly know what to think of his*

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

case. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 19, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 19th of 9th M / On first day night John seemed quite unwell, Yesterday had quite a fever & today seems to be no better, we are administering medicine under the Doctors direction & must wait the results

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 22, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 22 of 9 M / John Still remains very poorly, but in The aggregate I dont know but he had had a better day than yesterday

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 23, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 23 of 9 M / John seems Better today, his case has excited much anxiety in our minds

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 24, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 24th of 9 M / John Seeming yet better. Went this morning to Connanicut to attend that Meeting as a committee Member It was an hard season but after All my struggle was favord at last with the precious incomes of life. Dined with Jos Greenes, then went up & set a little while with cousin's Howland & Casey - & came across the ferry home

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

September 28, Thursday: Birth of Friedrich Engels.

Thomas Whiting died at the age of 72.

Thomas Whiting of [Concord], grandson of the Rev. John Whiting by his son Thomas Whiting, Esq., was born October 3, 1748, and graduated at [Harvard College] in 1775. He taught the grammar-school in Concord several years, and was afterwards a merchant here [in Concord]. He died September 28, 1820, aged 72.²⁶⁸

268. Lemuel Shattuck's 1835 A HISTORY OF THE TOWN OF CONCORD;... Boston MA: Russell, Odiorne, and Company; Concord MA: John Stacy, 1835
(On or about November 11, 1837 Henry David Thoreau would indicate a familiarity with the contents of at least pages 2-3 and 6-9 of this historical study. On July 16, 1859 he would correct a date mistake buried in the body of the text.)

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Widerschein D.639, a song by Franz Schubert to words of Schlechta, was published in the Taschenbuch zum geselligen Vergnügen, Leipzig.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

9 M 28 1820 5th day / Our Monthly Meeting this Day held in town was a season of favor. – In this first meeting father Rodman & J Dennis were concerned in short testimonials & in the last the business was conducted in love & condescension – We had a number of our Portsmouth friends to dine with us. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 1, Sunday: A member of the Harris family drowned at Pigeon Cove, Rockport, Gloucester.

The 1st constitutional parliament for Naples met.

Fanny and Felix Mendelssohn entered the Berlin Singakademie as altos.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 1st of 10th M 1820 / In our Mornng Meeting D Buffum & father Rodman were both engaged in testimony – In the Afternoon father was twice engaged. – both to me were seasons of favor for which I desire to be thankful. – With Lewis L C Clarke went out to David Buffums, took tea & spent the evening with him–

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 4, Wednesday: Carl Maria von Weber performed before the King and Queen of Denmark at Fredriksborg.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 4th of 10 M / Rode to Portsmouth with Sister Mary to attend meeting – Wm T Potter & Mary Anthony were married it was a Silent Solemn Meeting & the Marriage was as orderly Solemnized as any I ever attended. – it is now over 32 years since I have seen a marriage in Portsmouth Meeting House when Isaac Chase was married to his first wife I was about 7 years old & well remember going to meeting with Aunt Patty Gould & Sitting with her, recollect of seeing them Stand up & when the certificate was signing She went up, signed it herself & asked cousin John to write my name on it. I also recollect that Elizabeth Mott preached, & of going home with them & being at the Wedding. -- Ah! many changes since that day, many have since sunk to the Silent grave & gone hence to be seen & scarcely to be remembered by men any more & many also, have since been married myself among the number & been called into the field of action to fill up my allotment in civil & religious activity & soon also shall I be

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

among those numbered with the Dead. May the change be happy

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 5, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 5th of 10th M 1820 / Our Meeting was silent & a pretty good one to me. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 7, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 7th of 10th M / "In the midst of life we are in Death" those words involuntarily & spontaneously rushed on my mind this evening as I heard of the decease of Ann McCoy at Savannah Georgia at the age of 17 Years. She spent a few weeks at board with Aunt Nancy Carpenter in the summer of 1819. we became acquainted with her & from the apparant Amiableness of her disposition & engaging deportment with the honesty of her heart really endeared her to our feelings we parted with regret & feelings of brotherly & sisterly affection. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 8, Sunday: General Jean-Pierre Boyer, who in 1818 had taken control over the southern part of Haiti, was able to take over the whole of that black and creole nation when Henri Christophe, King Henry I, semi-paralyzed and losing control over the Creole forces, shot himself with a silver bullet in order to avoid an approaching army of Congos.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 8th of 10th M / Our meetings were both Silent & to me seasons of Some life. - with my H & John spent the evening at Wm Lee's. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

➡ October 12, Thursday: Theodora Goujand DeWolf was born in Bristol, Rhode Island to General George DeWolf and Charlotte Patten DeWolf (a volume of her poems, STRAY FANCIES, would privately circulate).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 12 of 10th M / Our meeting was Silent but a season of favor – The Select Meeting held at the close of the first was small, several of the members are sick & the family of several others. – in Addition to which the Wind was high which prevented the two who live on Connanicut from coming over. it however was a time in which the cementing love of Christ was renewedly extended in the hearts of the brethren The Queries answers with their usual clearness

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ October 15, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 15 of 10 M / Our forenoon was a quiet sweet & very solid one too towards the close D Buffum & H Dennis were engaged in very lively & precious testimonys, & I have no doubt had a solemnizing affect on many minds -- In the Afternoon it was very rainy meeting was very small but to me a season of some favor

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ October 16, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 16th of 10 M 1820 / This Afternoon rode to Portsmouth with My H & attended the funeral of her Aunt Sarah Almy & widow of Job Almy & daughter of our late worthy friend & Gospel Minister Isaac Lawton. The setting (excepting a few words spoken by an individual which were not very savory to me) was silent & solemn. -We took tea at Uncle P Lawtons & came home –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ October 19, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 19th of 10th M / Our Meeting was small but a sweet

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*refreshing time to some, for which we ought to be duly thankful
-Hannah Dennis was engaged in prescious testimony -
No buisness in the last (Preparative) but the Answers to the Queries*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 October 22, Sunday: Helen Louisa Thoreau's 8th birthday.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 22nd of 10 M / Our Mornng Meeting was well attended & a solemn covering was witnessed soon after it was settled.
Hannah Dennis was largely & solemnly engaged in testimony.
Father Rodman & Jonathon were also concerned in short communications & it proved a season of uncommon favor. - In the Afternoon we were silent but a season of solemnity & favor for which I desire to be thankful - Oh that Zions banks may be enlarged & her Stakes Strengthened.*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 October 24, Tuesday: John Milton Cheney submitted his response to a problem in Analytic Geometry, on a sheet of paper 21 x 29 ³/₄ inches, in partial fulfilment of the requirements for a Harvard College A.B. degree to be issued in 1821.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 24th of 10 M / Rode to Portsmouth this morning to Carry the Masons to work on Uncle Stantons farm-house. The ride was very pleasant, but gave me a hard head Ach thro' the remainder of the Day. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 October 25, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 25 of 10 M / This Morning Aunt Anna Carpenter was taken in Ague fits which were succeeded by a heavy fever & she remains very poorly this evening. I fear every Attack will be her last -& should she be removed her loss will be great to many & very particularly to the poor to whom she is a Kind benefactor

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 October 26, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 26th 10th M 1820 / This morning with my H & Sister Mary Rode to Portsmouth to attend our Moy [Monthly] Meeting, in the first Hannah Dennis was concerned in a lively sweet testimony -
In the last the buisness was conducted in a good degree of brotherly love & harmony - We Dine at Uncle Thurstons. -
At this meeting a legacy of One Hundred Dollars left by Mary*

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Tillinghast was accepted & the appointment of her Trustees confirmed, the interest of which is to be applied to the keeping up the graves in becoming decent order &c in the Upper burying ground in friends meadow field where her remains are laid. David Buffum Jr David Rodman & myself were appointed to the trust & I am in hopes to be able to see that ground in more reputable order that it has ever been

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 29, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 29th of 10th M / How uncertain are all things here, & how necessary for us to be prepared for disappointments, a fresh & striking instance of this occurred last evening - In the Afternoon Br Isaac took the Horse & rode to Portsmouth to give some directions to the masons that were at Work on Uncle Stanton's farm & [word in fold] returned about dark. The Horse having performed [?with] his usual alacrity & in apparent good health, but as soon as he was released from the Waggon he manifested signs of distress, laid down & rolled [?] continued in increasing agony for about two hours & an half when he Died. - This occurrence to me is afflicting having been in the habit of feeding & taking care of him since Uncle Stanton bought him, that I became much attached to him & he [next two pages repeat on microfilm] to me, the exercise of waiting on him & riding him in the Waggon was very useful & I believe has contributed to my health this summer & to have the poor dumb Animal snatched so suddenly away feels distressing, the poor children both Isaacs & mine all seem afflicted, but so it is, he is gone & we have the loss, & may it teach us Wisdom, may it teach me not to place my dependance on terrestrial things, & learn me to bear Greater disappointments. -
Our meetings to me were seasons of mixture, tho some favor was witnessed, both were silent.*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

October 31, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 31 of 10th M 1820 / I expect to set out this Afternoon for Somerset with my H & Sister Elizabeth to Attend the Quarterly Meeting which commences there tomorrow. I go under depression, I wish not to dwell on outward circumstances, but leave the past & press forward to do the best I can. The prayer of my spirit is Oh Lord help us. go with them that go; & stay with them that stay. -We lodged at Uncle Peter Lawtons in Portsmouth & in the evening was favored with a comfortable degree of resignation & the prospect a head quite Brightened. - rose early on the 4th day morning & set out about day light our horse being rather weak did not reach Somerset till about 10 O'clock stopped at Wm Reads & procured quarters for Hannah & Elizabeth & went to the meeting house unharnessed the horse &

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

went into a neighboring house & rested a few minutes, then to meeting which was a favor'd season & very comforting to my drooping mind. it was a time of remarkable solemnity & the love of the brotherhood was very conspicuous --

I returned & dined at Wm Reads who are very kind & hospitable to friends thho' not members, & offeredd to Keep us thro' the Meeting. This was a comfort as were were much of Strangers in Somersett, after dinner walked with L Clarke up to Daniel Braytons where I had a little of the company of Moses Brown & several of our dear Brothers & sisters, among whom was Anne Almy & Sarah Greene. - returned to Wm Reads took tea & lodged. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 2, Thursday: Succession of the deacons of Lincoln.²⁶⁹

Names.	Chosen.	Died.	Age.
Benjamin Brown	Aug. 20, 1747.	April —, 1753.	—.
Joshua Brooks	April 18, 1749.	June 26, 1768.	80.
John Gove	April 18, 1749; was in office about 40 years.
Samuel Farrar	Dec. 28, 1763.	April 18, 1783.	75.
Joshua Brooks, Jr.	Dec. 28, 1763.	March 8, 1790.	70.
Edmund Wheeler	May 6, 1784.	June 1, 1805.	74.
Samuel Farrar	May 6, 1784.	Sept. 19, 1829.	93.
Eleazer Brooks	Nov. 6, 1794.	Nov. 9, 1806.	80.
John Hartwell	April 9, 1804.	Nov. 2, 1820.	73.
Thomas Wheeler	Sept. 2, 1805.
James Farrar	April 27, 1812.
Eleazer Brooks	April 27, 1812.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day Went to meeting, the first was a season of remarkable favor Thos Anthony Obadiah Davis, Anne Almy & Hannah Dennis were concerned in testimony in which Divine Authority was evidently

269. Lemuel Shattuck's 1835 A HISTORY OF THE TOWN OF CONCORD;... Boston MA: Russell, Odiorne, and Company; Concord MA: John Stacy, 1835

(On or about November 11, 1837 Henry Thoreau would indicate a familiarity with the contents of at least pages 2-3 and 6-9 of this historical study. On July 16, 1859 he would correct a date mistake buried in the body of the text.)

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

manifest & if there were any opposers TRUTH went over their heads to the rejoicing the heart of many present - Ruth Davis concluded in supplications. -- The Authority & dignity of the first was remarkably preserved in the last meeting & the buisness was transacted in much harmony tho' in one instance there was a Small appearance of that which was not quite right. - Othniel Foster from S Kingstown Moy [Monthly] Meeting was appointed to the Station of an Elder & an excellent general Epistle from London Yearly Meeting for the present Year was read to the satisfaction & comfort of Friends - Dined & Wm Reads, much exercised about going to Providence to attend the School committee to be held there on Sixth day but after a while the prospect of home rather brightened & we set out for the ferry intending to cross over, but the boat having gone & our turn not likely to be the next, several being in waiting we concluded to unharness & stay with Wm Slaid & his wife who Kindly invited us so to do, we were soon joined by Jonathon & Hannah Dennis & spent the evening very pleasantly, my mind now & then adverting to Providence. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 3, Friday: Cuenca, Ecuador declared its independence.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day Morning after breakfast was again much exercised about Providence & I was almost ready to turn about & set my face thitherward, but after again weighing the subject, the prospect a little Went off, but Jonathon & Hannah Dennis having a mind to go back about a quarter of a mile to pay a religious visit to Nathan Slaid, a young man lately disowned My H & I concluded to go with them after which I still felt more easy to come home - we accordingly crossed the ferry, stoped at Fall River & oated our horse, view'd the Fall of Water & went into one of the Factorys & afterward set a clock a going for a man who was desirous of it, we proceeded on our journey & got to Uncle Saml Thurstons by 2 OClock, - refreshed ourselves & horse & got home before sunset, & found all things as well as we left them. My Mother& friends well & above all the testimony, that John & had been a good & obedient boy to his Aunt Ruth in whose care he was left.

This visit has been a Season of much instruction to my feelings, & I trust of some religious improvement & enlargement, for which I desire to be thankful

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

November 4, Saturday: Daniel Boone's death was being reported:

Savannah. The fever continues to rage in this city with unabated fury. It is conjectured that only 2000 or 2500 persons remain in it. The amount of those who have left it on account of the sickness, is estimated at 6000.

Col. Daniel Boone. The decease of this celebrated man was erroneously announced some years ago—but the latest St. Louis papers state that he died at Charette village, on the Missouri, on the 26th of Sept. in the ninetieth year of his age.—When his death was made known to the general assembly of the new state, it was resolved that the members should wear crape on the left arm for the space of 20 days, and to adjourn for that day, in respect to his memory.

We have already, in the 4th vol. of the WEEKLY REGISTER, page 33, given a long account of col. Boone, and shall no doubt be furnished with some additional particulars to complete his biography.—He was the first settler of Kentucky, a great state now containing from 6 to 700,000 inhabitants—he penetrated its wildernesses in 1775; and in 1799 removed to and settled upon the Missouri. He soon after discovered the country now known by the name of “Boon’s Lick,” which is perhaps the most prosperous part of the new state. Until the last two years of his life he enjoyed much health; when more than eighty years old, he was a keen huntsman, and made many extensive excursions in pursuit of game, in places far distant from the usual tread of white men.

Carl Maria von Weber and his wife Caroline Brandt returned to Dresden after a successful concert tour of Germany.

November 5, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 5 of 10 M [date error] 1820 Our meetings both forenoon & Afternoon were pretty well attended & in the mornng Father Rodman was engaged in a short testimony - seasons of some favor to me -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 7, Tuesday: President James Monroe was re-elected. The “era of good feeling” would continue.

HDTWHAT?INDEXFRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*STEPHEN WANTON GOULD*GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

November 10, Friday: After a “trial” requiring more than two months, a vote was taken upon the 3d reading of the bill against Lady Caroline Amelia of Brunswick-Wolfenbüttel, Princess of Wales in the House of Lords. The bill was approved 108-99, a margin so small that the government would not dare to introduce it in the House of Commons. The court lawyers needed to abandon the petition of King George IV to prevent his wife from becoming queen consort of England by divorcing her — against her fitness her husband the monarch-designate had sought to submit mere court gossip, chatter that under the law amounted only to the flimsiest of hearsay evidences and turned out to be in its entirety inadmissible. British street crowds greeted the news with cheers and there would follow three days of nationwide spontaneous celebration.²⁷⁰

The Reverend Barnard Hanbury and George Waddington arrived at Wady Halfa, above the 2d cataract of the Nile River, and were provided by the Turkish army with five dromedary camels, one too few for their party of six. They were advised, however, that it would be an easy and pleasant 8-day hike to Dôngola.

HENRY WOULD READ ABOUT IT

November 11, Saturday: The Reverend Barnard Hanbury and George Waddington set off from Wady Halfa in the direction of Dôngola, in search for the ruins of Meroe. In their party were a young Irishman named James Curtin, a man from Malta named Giovanni Fiamingo, his teenage cousin Giuseppe Fiamingo, and a black slave.

HENRY WOULD READ ABOUT IT

Caroline Amelia of Brunswick-Wolfenbüttel, Princess of Wales was acquitted. The Manchester Observer would comment that “The Queen owes her deliverance ... solely to the IMTERPOSITION OF THE PEOPLE. She remains Queen of England by the choice of the people ... the people have overawed the parliament, and have preserved the rights of the Queen inviolate by the menace of their vengeance.” The people celebrated that night, smashing windows and firing pistols into the air, and Cobbett estimated that across the nation some 50,000 guns must have been discharged in celebration. Churches were invaded and clergy insulted. The police and military found it necessary to read the Riot act in more than a dozen towns.

270. She would fall ill after being barred from her husband’s coronation at Westminster Abbey and would die on August 7, 1821, so, you might say, the royal’s little problem eventually solved itself.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 November 12, Sunday: William Hayley died at Felpham. He left no children.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 12th of 11th M 1820 / Our Meeting was very small being a severe Storm of Snow & Rain & the walking nearly over shoes in snow & water A few words were spoken by J Dennis - Three Women were all that gathered & one of them not a Member. -- In the Afternoon eight men were all that met & two of them not members, we were silent but I trust the promise was in degree fulfilled, "Where two or three are met in my name there am I" -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 November 16, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 16th of 11th M / Our Meeting was silent some life was experienced in my mind, & it was comfortable, have also been favored thro' the day, for which I desire to be thankful. - Rec'd this Afternoon an interesting letter from my fr John Heald of Ohio -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 November 18, Saturday: Land was sighted south of the South Shetlands, by the sailors of the sloop Hero under 21-year-old Captain Nathaniel B. Palmer of Stonington, Connecticut. (This sloop was part of a sealing expedition organized by Captain Benjamin Pendleton. After a period this land would be recognized as the Antarctic Peninsula.)

Liverpool was unable to send the bill against Caroline Amelia of Brunswick-Wolfenbüttel, Princess of Wales on to the Commons because "it would have been perilous to persevere in passing it in the present state of public feelings."

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 18th of 11th M / Our venerable friends David Buffum & Wife spent the Afternoon & took tea with us with Aunt A Carpenter & Mary Chase. - I intended to have gone to Connanicut this Afternoon So as to have been at meeting there tomorrow, but as our above said frds DB & wife never made us but one Afternoon visit before & considering it may be that they will never together make us another I felt most easy to omit crossing the ferrys this Afternoon & run the risk of a Passage tomorrow morning

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 November 19, Sunday: Austria, Prussia, and Russia issued the Protocol of Troppau. They bound themselves together against liberal revolutions, peaceful or otherwise.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1st day 19th of 11th M / Rose in season this morning & after breakfast went to the ferry to try to get a Passage to Connanicut but the wind was small & a head & no other passenger there, concluded to give up the prospect – Both our Meetings were Silent, & Seasons of some favor to me tho' of not much abounding – on the whole was satisfied with being at home as D Buffum & J Dennis were Absent, which left our Seats more vacant than was desirable.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 23, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 23rd of 11th M 1820 / Our Meeting was a season of some favor to my mind. Father Rodman & Jonathon Dennis delivered short testimonys. – In the last Preparative Overseers were agreed in & three names forwarded to the Moy [Monthly] Meeting —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 25, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 25th of 11th M / This Afternoon went to Connanicut with Jonathon Dennis & lodged at Jos Greenes –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 26, Sunday: After a successful initial performance in October in Oedenburg (Sopron), Franz Liszt appeared in a noon concert in Pressburg (Bratislava). Both concerts were arranged by Liszt's father, Adam, who timed this performance to coincide with a meeting of the Hungarian Diet, when many important notables were in the city. The mostly upper-class audience was delighted and impressed.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day attended Meeting there which was about as large as usual – a Season of some favor Jonathon had a few words, comfortable to those who were low in their minds, & of encouragement in general & I thought appropriate to the State of the meeting, at the close it was mentioned that would be the last meeting held there by the committee this season & I believe we parted in love. After dinner we crossed the ferry in season to attend our Afternoon Meeting.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

November 30, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 30th of 11th M / Our first meeting was silent with me the Life was low. – In the last we had considerable buisness & in my low estate it fell to my lot to do the writing for the day & got along tollrably to my own satisfaction – We had Uncle & Aunt Thurston & Uncle P Lawton to dine with us.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 December 3, Sunday: Maometto II, a drama by Gioachino Rossini to words of della Valle, was performed for the initial time, in Teatro San Carlo, Naples, but was not well received.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 3rd of 12 M 1820 / Several of our friends went to Portsmouth to attend the funeral of our fr Susannah Freeborn, which made the rising seats thin - The London Epistle was read in the Morning & in the Afternoon father Rodman bore a short testimony. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 December 7, Thursday: Louis Spohr and his wife arrived in Paris for the 1st time. There he would meet Cherubini and produce a new violin concerto.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 7th of 12 M / Our Meeting was pretty well attended by its numbers Tho' some were absent who I should rather have been present. It was silent, to me a season of feelings. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 December 10, Sunday: Adelaide Amelia Louisa Theresa Caroline of Saxe-Coburg Meiningen gave birth to Elizabeth Georgiana Adelaide Hanover in London (the infant would die on March 4th).

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 10th of 11 M [date error] / In the forenoon Meeting Jonathon & Hannah delivered short testimonys - Afternoon silent both seasons of some favor to me but experienced barraness also, so the exsp was mingled. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 December 14, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 14th of 12 M 1820 / I have rarely ever been Sicker in my life than from last first day night till this Afternoon when I think I am better - Was taken with cold shivers, fever & sore throat which Ulcerated on both Sides, distress in my head & all my system, but thro' favor am now better, & perhaps tomorrow may be out & about. -
Of course did not attend meeting today*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 December 17, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 17th of 12th M / I have been so little out of the house in the course of the last week, that in the present Air it looked

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

improper for me to go to meeting today - This Afternoon I was on the point of going but at last gave it up. - I desire to be thankful for my many favors. Oh! Lord quicken me heart, renewedly quicken my heart towards Thee.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 21, Thursday: The Canandigua Lake canal committee recommended a 19 1/2-mile route that would require 23 locks and cost $68,000. The Ontario Canal Company was formed. Virginia took control of the James River and Kanawha Canal.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 21 of 12 M / Silent meeting & to me a season of some favor. - I feel renewedly concerned to labor in my mind, for a renewal of life & strength. How does the times call for deep indwelling of spirit that we may be ready at all times to give an Answer of Hope that is within us. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 24, Sunday: Having inspected the peculiar Ethiopian antiquities which they had come to inspect, the Reverend Barnard Hanbury and George Waddington began to retrace their steps.

HENRY WOULD READ ABOUT IT

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 24th of 12 M / Our meetings both Small & Silent, some favor experienced, but on the whole the Spring of life was low. Oh the need for those whose lot it is to go in & out before The People, to have their minds covered with a covering of the Lords Spirit I often feel the need of This. my heart is affected with a sense of my short comings. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 28, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 28th of 12th M 1820 / I calculated to go this morning to Portsmouth attend our Monthly Meeting & got in readiness, but when the Stage Coach came along it was so late I concluded we could not get there till about half an hour past the time of Meeting & so gave out with regret, not only on account of the Duty I feel of being with The brethren, but particularly so at this time as there was some buisness to come before The Meeting in which I felt concerned. - Br David Rodman was appointed Clerk & for this peice of devotion in him, to the concerns of Society I feel thankful on his behalf & desirous that it may prove a means of his still further enlargement in usefulness to Society

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

December 30, Saturday: Bishop John England arrived in Charleston from Ireland. His diocese would consist of small groups of Catholics scattered across North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, and a portion of Florida. In the South he would, of course, offer separate Mass and Vesper services for persons of color.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*7th day 30th of 12th M / I am this day 39 Years of Age, & am sensible of it, & feel the necessity of greater dedication of heart, yet am in hopes my Spiritual account is no worse than last Year
This Afternoon recd a pleasant letter from Uncle Stanton. –
Took tea with my H & John at Br John Rodmans. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

December 31, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 31st of 12 M 1820 / Here endeth the last day of the Year.
– At Meeting this forenoon our aged friend D Buffum delivered a testimony in Gospel Authority & shone bright on the last day of the Year. The Meeting was large. – Left Meeting in the Afternoon to attend the funeral of Thos E Hazard an old acquaintance.²⁷¹
he died at his House at South Kingstown & was brought to Newport & buried in the Easton burying ground near the beach. –*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

“NARRATIVE HISTORY” IS FABULATION, HISTORY IS CHRONOLOGY

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould

“Stack of the Artist of Kouroo” Project

271. This was not the “Nailer Tom” Hazard who wrote the famous journal, but one of the other Thomas Hazards of South Kingstown.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

1821

January 1, Monday: Midshipman George Back was promoted to Lieutenant.

John James Audubon made himself a new-year's promise that he was gonna paint all of 99 birds in not more than 99 days. He hired some market hunters to bring him dead specimens of various interesting species, stiffing them back up into more or less imaginary naturalistic poses by inserting strong wires inside their flesh. The backgrounds for such naturalistic paintings his student Joseph Mason would add for him, or he would hire others to create for him in bulk.

During this year he and Joseph Mason would go to New Orleans in order to raise funds to continue to travel, and in order to send money back home to his wife Lucy, he would paint on commission and would teach students.

Portuguese troops in Belem, Brazil rebelled and set up a liberal government.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 1st of 1st M 1821 / News in Town This morning of the Death of James Burrell Senator in Congress from this State — This may be justly considered a great public loss, few so good men go to Congress, he had in this & former Sessions distinguished himself as a friend to the cause of the Abolition

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

of Slavery, & is worthy of double Honor. -²⁷²

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

1821. The Court of Common Pleas was then in session at Providence, and on Monday morning, the 1st of January, Gen. Bridgham, in behalf of the Bar, and as President of the General Bar meeting, rose and addressed the Court in the most feeling and impressive manner, on this melancholy event [the death, late in the previous year, of James Burrill, Jr. U.S. Senator from this State]. To which Chief Justice Martin responded in a brief and appropriate notice of the deceased, and in respect to his memory the Court then adjourned. At a General Bar Meeting assembled on the 3d, Resolutions expressive of grief and the highest respect to the memory of the deceased were passed, and Hon. Tristram Burges was appointed to deliver an eulogy on the 15th January - on which day, the members of the bar, and a great portion of the citizens, formed a procession, and marched to the First Congregational Church, where a most impressive and eloquent eulogy was pronounced by Mr. Burges, and solemn dirges and funeral ceremonies were performed. The auditory was bathed in tears, and the speaker himself was so strongly affected, that utterance was sometimes difficult. The newspapers at Washington, and letter writers there to papers in other places, laid their partisan feelings to rest, and spoke in the most respectful terms of his character as a man, a lawyer and a statesman. Mr. Burrill was born in this town in the year 1772; graduated at the University here in 1788; at the age of 19, was admitted to the bar, and at 25 elected Attorney General, which office held sixteen years, and resigned in 1814. In October of that year he was elected a member of the General Assembly, and was soon after chosen Speaker of that body, and continued as such while he held a seat in the House, but from which he was soon after transferred to the bench of the Supreme Judicial Court,

272. Stephen Wanton Gould Diary, 1815-1823: The Gould family papers are stored under control number 2033 at the Division of Rare and Manuscript Collections of Cornell University Library, Box 7 Folder 12 for August 24, 1815-September 25, 1823; also on microfilm, see Series 7

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

as Chief Justice. In February, 1817, he was elected Senator to Congress, and before the expiration of half his constitutional term, was carried to the silent grave. He was a fine belles lettres scholar, and eminent lawyer, and able statesman. He was remarkably domestic in his habits, home was the cynosure of his delights, and there he was beloved and honored.

January 4, Thursday: The selectmen of Concord, New Hampshire were authorized to cooperate with the selectmen of the nearby community of Boscawen to repair or rebuild the bridge across the Contoocook River near John Chandler's, with Concord paying half the expense.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 4th of 1st M / A Small but favor'd Meeting, Jonathon Dennis appeared in a short but good testimony.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 7, Sunday: Henry Gilman Prichard had very recently been born, son of Moses Prichard and Jane Tompson Hallet Prichard of Concord — but on this day this infant died.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 7th of 1 M / It was an uncommonly driving Snow Storm. Meeting in the morning was very small & no woman attended nor was it fit that any should the funeral of Benjamin Sherman which was to have gone to meeting was deferred till tomorrow — In the Afternoon only Six Men attended which (I think) is the smallest Meeting I ever attended Yet in both, to my mind a good degree of The Ancient promise to the "Two or Three" was experienced, for which I desire to be thankful.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 9, Tuesday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 9th of 1 M / This morning between 5 & 6 O'clock, I was called up to assist in performing one of the last offices for my friend & old respectable neighbour VALENTINE WIGHTMAN who left time about half an hour before, In the 88th Year of his age, he has lived about 20 years in this neighbour hood & was an intimate friend of my father's he sustained the character of an honest man & was greatly esteemed by a numerous circle of friends here & many with whom he transacted business Abroad

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 11, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 1st M 1821 / Our first meeting to me was a season of uncommon favor for which I desire to be thankful - In the last (Select) the Solemnity of the first was in good measure

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

*preserved under which Solemn covering we were favord to transact the usual buisness that comes before us. –
This Afternoon attended the funeral of our old neighbour Wightman*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 12, Friday: The New York legislature began purging Federalists from the government.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 1st M 12th / Again this morning called to the house of Mourning last evening about a quarter before 8 OClock Esther Bowen wife of Stephen Bowen departed this life. – Spent a few moments in sympathy with Stephen & her Sister who arrived a few days before her decease from Danvers – proffered my Services or advice with respect to the funeral, which was concluded to be on first day at the Meeting House in the forenoon. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 14, Sunday: Lieutenant John Franklin's party ventured in two canoes from Fort Enterprise down the Coppermine River to the sea, and then along the coast as far east as Bathurst Inlet. Running low on supplies, the party then ventured across the barren tundra in the general direction of Fort Enterprise. Lieutenant George Back went ahead to search for natives, found some, and sent them to the main group with supplies. Ten men died before the supplies arrived.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 14th of 1st M / The funeral of Esther Bowen was this forenoon & tho' the day was very stormy the Meeting was very pretty full & it proved a season of favor & Solemnity not soon to be forgotten, our frd D Buffum & Father Rodman were engaged in public testimony, I Thought with life & Authority. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 18, Thursday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 18 of 1 M / Considering the much Snow on The ground Our meeting was well attended both by Male & female & a good time it was – J Dennis & father Rodman bore short but pertinent testimonys

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 21, Sunday: New-York's North (Hudson) River froze over.

In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 21st of 1st M / Our Morning Meeting was well attended Father Rodman & Hannah Dennis had short but lively testimonys
In the Afternoon we were Silent, but as many as usual attended*

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

in the Afternoon. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 28, Sunday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 28th of 1 M / Our morning Meeting was pretty well attended, father Rodman appeared in testimony & in the Afternoon Silent meeting - both were pretty good Meetings to me -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

January 30, Tuesday: In Newport, Rhode Island, Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 30th of 1st M 1821 / Set out this morning for Providence to attend our apporaching Quarterly Meeting - We went in a Sleigh over the Stone bridge & Sleids ferry our company Isaac Mitchell, David Rodman, Elizabeth Rodman, Mary Williams & Mary Chase. - we dined at Fairfax alias Scra [? right hand margin obscured] Town & reached Moses Brown's by tea time where we were kindly received & lodged. -

At the different Meetings which I attended my mind was favord with a good degree of that life which crow[ns] our assemblys & tho' there was Some little of the "bitter herbs w?" the Passover" yet Truth gained the Victory. - In the Meeting for buisness I was appointed assistant Clerk. Th[is] Seemed to me like a Season Somewhat out of Season, ab[out] fifteen years ago I was solicited to accept the same appointment & at that time could I have given up to I believe I should have been in my place & been serviceable, I record this that whoever may read ma[y?] be willing while young to render Such service as they are thought capable of by their friends in the Season of their usefulness. This I believe is the way to become Shining lights, by thus giving up they will grow in usefulness to their own peace & comfort & the satisfaction of their friends, thereby Subservng the Cause of the great Master. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 2, Friday: A Bucktail caucus nominated Martin Van Buren for the federal Senate.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

On Sixth day I went to the School House & spent two long sittings with the School committee which proved to me a Season of exercise. but am disposed to think all will work together for good & feel encouraged that the institution is in a prosperous State - In the evening returned to Browns & the next morning Our company took the Sleigh & set it on a pair of Coach Wheels kindly lent us by Moses Brown They reached home at Noon on First day

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

but I returned on 7th day in the Mail Stage. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 4, Sunday: Frederick Goddard Tuckerman was born in Boston to Sophia May and Edward Tuckerman, a local merchant.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 4th of 2 M 1821 / In the forenoon Meeting Father Rodman was engaged in testimony - in the Afternoon Silent Meeting - to me they were seasons of Some encouragement. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 8, Thursday: Franz Schubert's song "Sehnsucht" to words of Schiller was performed for the initial time, in the Musikverein, Vienna.

Enactment of bylaws for the Social Library of Concord, Massachusetts.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

8th of 2nd M / Our meeting was a comfortable Season, Some [of? left hand margin obscured] four young females attended who are not members, whose countenances bespoke solidity & reverance - Father Rodman [in] a short testimony - In sitting down [this] evening & feeling after the Witness of Truth & life in my own mind, I have humbly to acknowledge [the?] renewings of it in my own heart, it has risen [to] my encouragement, & furnished renewed evidence [that] I am not forsaken. - Oh Blessed be the Name of the Lord, that notwithstanding the many short [com]ing & sometimes backslidings of my rebellious heart [he is] still near, & visits, he renews the touches of his love to my comfort. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 11, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 11th of 2nd M 1821 / Father Rodman & Jona Dennis were both engaged in public testimony in the mornng Meeting & in the Afternoon Silent. After the last Meeting went with J Dennis to visit James Goddard Son of Thos Goddard who lays very low in a consumption. our visit seemed to be acceptable to him & was very comfortable to us. The evident peaceful frame of his mind & the Solemnity felt on sitting down with him, warranted the belief that Holy help was near –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

February 15, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

5th day 15th of 2nd M / At Meeting a Short testimony from Jona Dennis. – it is a little remarkable that the first thing that occurred to my mind on waking this morning was the Passage of Scripture which he mentioned Vizt - "Wherewithall shall a young man cleanse his way, By taking heed thereto according to thy word."

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Mr. Meigs of the United States House of Representatives again made a proposal in regard to the evil of human enslavement and in regard to the persistence of the international slave trade:

"Whereas slavery, in the United States, is an evil, acknowledged to be of great and increasing magnitude, ... therefore,
"Resolved, That a committee be appointed to inquire into the expediency of devoting five hundred million acres of the public lands, next west of the Mississippi, as a fund for the purpose of, in the "First place; Employing a naval force, competent to the annihilation of the slave trade," etc. Question to consider decided in the affirmative, 63 to 50; laid on the table, 66 to 55. HOUSE JOURNAL, 16th Congress, 2d session, page 238; ANNALS OF CONGRESS, 16th Congress, 2d session, pages 1168-70.

February 18, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 18th of 2nd M / Father Rodman & David Buffum were both engaged in testimony in the forenoon Meeting, & in the Afternoon both were Silent. –
Rec'd this morning From my F Thos Thompsons of Liverpool [who assisted Paul Cuffe when Cuffe first arrived, friend with whom Paul Cuffe stayed in 1811, 9th month just before leaving England] a Pacquet containinng a letter from him dated the 28th of 11th M last George Bishops New England Judged and address by Thos Shillito to Friends in England & Ireland & a Manuscript Book in the hand writing of Griffeth Given entitled "A Collection of some Papers writt By DANIEL GOULD & MADE PUBLIC in order to Promote Piety & good Works By G O & T C The circumstance of this Ancient & (to me) valuable manuscript comeing into my Possession [is] quite remarkable & on this wise, many years ago when I was a lad I used to visit my much loved cousin Bathsheba Gould who lived then at Middletown in the family of her Brother Thomas Gould in my visits to her she used to amuse me & ot[her] of her young relations with Anecdotes of our venerable predecessor Daniel Gould & would read to us some of The Papers, which were his & among them two letters from Griffith Owen to him, in one of which. dated 30th of 1 M 1714 was contained information that "he & Thomas Chalkley had perused his papers, sorted & placed them with titles to each & had written a preface, & that Friends in Philadelphia being Slow & backward in Printing & their Printer not an Artist, he had concluded to send it to Great Britain to be printed & had ordered*

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

mony there to be paid for them if he approved of it. -having got them transcribed fair in a Book." This information I treasured & pondered in my mind till at length cousin Bathsheba gave me the letters & having become acquainted with Thos Thompson by letter thro' the introduction of Wm Rickaman & understanding he was an Antiquarian I copyed the whole of the foregoing letter & sent to him in quiring if he had any knowledge of the Book therin mentioned, & to my joy & Astonishment he sent me the Identical manuscript as popyed [copyed?] by Griffith Owen it appears from some cause to have been overlooked [-?] to the printing, but carfully preserved in the original Manuscript, & to me is a valuable acquisition.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 February 22, Thursday: US Marshal John H. Morel reported that he at that time held 212 Africans of the negrero Antelope (one had disappeared, one had been "judicially discharged," and 44 had died).

INTERNATIONAL SLAVE TRADE

Dr. Abiel Heywood was administered an oath in regard to the Concord Social Library.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*5th day 22nd of 2nd M 1821 / The travelling is very bad, & I felt afraid to go with any one in a Chaise & considerd it improper for me to be at The expence of one alone, so I concluded to omit going to Portsmouth to attend our Moy [Monthly] Meeting this day held there. - In the Afternoon attended the funeral of James Goddard son of Thomas on the Point
Father Rodman was engaged in testimony & it proved a pretty solid opportunity - he [James Goddard] was not member of society, but being descended from friends bury in our ground & according to our custom.*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 February 23, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 23rd of 2 M 1821 / This evening Sally Brown spent with us, & to me it was an agreeable time - Oh that she & I too were more religiously devoted. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

The "rapid consumption" mentioned by Shelley -the last stage of the tuberculosis he had caught from tending his brother Tom Keats in the previous year - resulted in John Keats's death at the age of 25 in a small room overlooking the Spanish Steps in Rome.

"Bring me the candle," he called to Brown, with whom he was staying, "and let me see this blood." He looked at the bright red spot on his pillow and then, his excitement and intoxication gone, he said calmly, "I know the colour of that blood. It's

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

arterial blood.... That blood is my death warrant."

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Famous Last Words:

"What school is more profitably instructive than the death-bed of the righteous, impressing the understanding with a convincing evidence, that they have not followed cunningly devised fables, but solid substantial truth."

— A COLLECTION OF MEMORIALS CONCERNING DIVERS DECEASED MINISTERS, Philadelphia, 1787

"The death bed scenes & observations even of the best & wisest afford but a sorry picture of our humanity. Some men endeavor to live a constrained life — to subject their whole lives to their will as he who said he might give a sign if he were conscious after his head was cut off — but he gave no sign Dwell as near as possible to the channel in which your life flows."

—Thoreau's JOURNAL, March 12, 1853

1821	John Keats	dying of TB in Rome	"Severn ... I am dying ... I shall die easy ... don't be frightened ... be firm and thank God it has come."
1825	Phebe Walker Bliss	died in Concord	"Don't call Dr. Ripley his boots squeak so, Mr. Emerson used to step so softly, his boots never squeaked."
	Emerson Ripley
1826	Thomas Jefferson	died at 12:50PM	"Is it the 4th? —Ah."
1826	John Adams	died at 5: 30PM — Jefferson actually had, in Virginia, predeceased him	"Thomas Jefferson still surv..."
1830	King George IV	early one morning in Windsor Castle	"Good God, what is this? — My boy, this is death."
1832	Sam Sharpe	being hanged after an unsuccessful slave revolt on the island of Jamaica	"I would rather die on yonder gallows than live in slavery."
... other famous last words ...

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Here is Keats's deathmask:

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

➡ March: According to a comet list published in Boston in 1846, attributed to Professor Benjamin Peirce (the fingernail in the photo belongs to Brad Dean, who rooted out this information in the Harvard stacks):

No.	Date.	Greenwich M. S. T. of Peri- helion Passage.	Longitude of Ascend- ing Node.	Longitude of Peri- helion.	Angle betw. Perihelion and Node.	Inclination.	Perihelion Distance.	Eccentric- ity.	Period of Revolution.	Directio	Name of Computer.
	A. D.	N. S.							y.
133	1819	Nov. 20.24484	77 39 54	67 44 45	350 4 51	9 1 16	0.892559	0.6867458	4.810	D	Encke.
134	1821	Mar. 21.21198	49 8 35	240 0 10	169 8 25	73 20 0	0.0922882			R	Rumker.
		Mar. 21.53656	49 5 13	239 53 42	169 11 31	73 33 7	0.0918232			R	Rosenberger.
135	1822	May 23.56388	177 1 31	193 26 47	343 34 44	53 48 36	0.502736			R	Encke.
E	1822	May 23.56388	177 1 31	193 26 47	343 34 44	53 48 36	0.502736	0.8445479	3.318	D	Encke.
136	1822	July 16.03382	98 14 50	220 17 15	237 57 35	37 43 4	0.84612			R	Heiligenstein.
137	1822	Oct. 23.99639	93 10 58	271 53 23	181 17 35	52 39 7	1.1433992	0.9914768	1550	R	Encke.
		23.80102	93 5 50	271 59 45	181 6 5	52 40 41	1.146091	0.9823022	1817	R	Rumker.
138	1823	Dec. 9.43750	303 25 25	274 55 5	98 30 20	76 12 6	0.2267453			R	Nicolai.
139	1824	July 11.511	134 40 29	60 31 12	231 2 37	54 34 19	0.591263			R	Rumker.
140	1824	Sept. 29.06645	279 37 53	4 53 15	85 15 22	54 35 32	1.049835			D	Encke.
141	1825	May 30.353	20 38 4	273 25 7	107 12 57	58 35 58	0.9020186			R	Rumker.
142	1825	Aug. 18.71105	193 17 5	10 35 21	177 18 16	89 41 47	0.8834712			D	Clausen.
143	1825	Dec. 10.68187	216 3 23	319 6 50	256 56 33	33 32 39	1.240849	0.9953690	4386	R	Hansen.
		10.77845	216 5 6	318 49 2	257 16 4	33 31 3	1.045837	0.9562464	152	R	Rumker.
B	1826	May 18.96231	251 46 6	110 11 19	218 25 13	13 33 15	0.902430	0.7470093	6.737	D	Gambert.
144	1826	Apr. 21.977	180 197 56	40 117 19	33 279 22	53 40 0	26 2.007902	1.0089597		D	Nicolai.
145	1826	Apr. 29.03904	40 48 51	36 7 51	4 41 0	5 17 2	0.1881167			D	Nicolai.
146	1826	Oct. 8.95224	44 25 42	58 7 38	13 41 56	25 57 18	0.85281			R	Cluver.
147	1826	Nov. 18.41206	235 27 10	155 3 20	80 23 50	90 37 50	0.0268914			D	Argelander.
148	1827	Feb. 4.92144	184 46 47	33 49 14	150 57 33	77 35 35	0.50652			R	Cluver.
149	1827	June 7.84112	318 29 10	297 50 24	20 38 46	43 38 45	0.808154			R	Heiligenstein.
150	1827	Sept. 11.69286	149 57 56	251 15 57	258 41 59	54 4 42	0.1378433	0.9992730	2611	R	Heiligenstein.
151	1830	April 9.30062	206 38 28	212 11 44	5 23 16	21 16 28	0.9214454			R	Cluver. [Mayer.
										D	Haedenkampff and

SKY EVENT

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 1st of 3rd M 1821 / Silent & to me a solid good meeting
The number was rather smaller than usual owing to the bad
Walking. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ March 4, Sunday: Elizabeth Georgiana Adelaide Hanover died at the age of three months.

Eusebio Bardaji y Azara replaced Joaquin Anduaga Cuenca as the Spanish 1st Secretary of State.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st 4 of 3 M / Silent meetings & to me Poverty was my Portion in both

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

➡ March 8, Thursday: In the Musikverein of Vienna, "Gruppe aus dem Tartarus," a song by Franz Schubert to words of Schiller, was performed for the initial time.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 8th of 3rd M / Oh! for a growth in Grace & knowledge of

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

the Truth, both in myself & others. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 11, Sunday: Daniel Dennis of Gloucester, 47 years of age, drowned at sea.

Sardinian liberals issued a manifesto calling for the unification of Italy.

A negrero flying the US flag, the Esencia, master Brown, on its only known Middle Passage, delivered a cargo of 113 Africans at Matanzas, Cuba.

THE MIDDLE PASSAGE

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 11th of 3rd M / Our meetings were well attended. In the forenoon D Buffum, Father Rodman & J Dennis were engaged in testimony & in the Afternoon Father again had a short communication

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 15, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 15th of 3rd M / Our meeting was a season of some comfortable feelings, but in some parts of it, it was difficult to tell whether strength or weakness predominated. -- In the Afternoon Attended the funeral of Mary Wanton widow of the late John E Wanton & a distant relation of Mine on the side of my Mother, her Age was 92 Years & about 11 Months Her maiden name was Bull & was great grand daughter of the late Governor Henry Bull She was a member of society, & has lived with her Son in Law Daniel Lyman for some Years in the Town of Johnson & their died on the 12th inst & was brought down here to be buried with her husband & Son Gideon who both lay in our burying ground. Gideon had been engaged in the [international slave trade] The sitting was a Solid time & father Rodman delivered a short testimony. —

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 16, Friday: Carlo Felice of Sardinia forced Carlo Alberto to renounce the throne.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 16th of 3rd M 1821 / This forenoon Uncle & Aunt Stanton arrived with their Baggage, intending to settle on their Farm in Portsmouth — This Afternoon I went on board the Packet (Ann Maria) that brought them & sailed round the North end of the Island thro' the Stone Bridge afterwhich we Anchored under Goulds Island & Staid all night. in the night it blowed hard at SE & I Slept but little, next Morning (7th day) after breakfast we run down to the farm & laid the sloop on shore & got all

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

things into the house early in the Afternoon. I slept there with Uncle & next morning (1 day [Sunday]) came home but not in season to get to Meeting, & in the Afternoon, I felt unwell with a cold & fatigue & staid at home

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 March 22, Thursday: The Inquisition was abolished in Portugal. The Banco de Lisboa was established.

Hector Berlioz received a Bachelier es lettres (the baccalaureate degree) at Grenoble.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 22nd of 3 M / Silent Meeting – Poverty my portion, but had some satisfaction in a labor to obtain life. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 March 23, Friday: Austrian troops entered Naples to restore King Ferdinando to absolutism, sparking widespread uprisings.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 23rd of 3rd M / Wrote this forenoon to cousin Lewis L Clarke & in the letter was favored to address Cousin Hannah & her daughters Hannah & Mary Ann much to my own satisfaction.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 March 25, Sunday: Some sources say that on this day Greece gained its independence. Other sources say that on this day sporadic, unconnected uprisings occurred in Greece against Turkish rule.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 25th of 3rd M / Our meetings were Seasons of some favor. In the Morning Father Rodman delivered a short sweet good testimony – Silent in the Afternoon. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 March 26, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 26th of 3rd M / This Morning took John in the Waggon & went out & visited Auncle & Aunt Stanton in Their new habitation, found them as comfortably settled as could be expected for the time, but they begin to miss the Society of the City, & probably will feel lonesome till the summer sets in, & time wears out those attachments which they have long had to more Social 7 buisy scenes – after tea we rode home. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

March 27, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 27th of 3rd M 1821 / Various circumstances have conspired to renew in my mind a conviction which I have been long under Vizt the Religion is the only & alone thing that can sustain the mind thro' the Losses & crosses, visissitudes & disappointments, attendant on the Passage thro' time, to what else have we to flee when the mind is reduced to any streight, it is not, situation, money or friends, for all these fail, & are naught but the Everlasting Truth is a sure basis to build on it is a sure & certain hiding place, on which all the Righteous in every Age of the World have built on & fled too, & found Safty. here the beseting things of time have no effect, for the mind knows a rest a Hope beyond them, & Oh Saith my soul may this Rest & Hope be my Portion

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

March 29, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 29 of 3 M / Our first meeting was a season of some favor D Buffum engaged in a lively testimony - The last (Monthly) we had considerable buisness, & some exercise was experienced in transacting it, but on the whole I trust it was not an unprofitable Meeting to me

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 1, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 1st of 4 M 1821 / Our Morning Meeting was large & favord, Anne Dennis deliverd a short but acceptable testimony - In the Afternoon The funeral of our Ancient friend Mary Sisson widow of Edward Sisson went to meeting which was large & attended with uncommon solemnity. D Buffum was first engaged in a very sweet & lively testimony, he was followed by Hannah Dennis, & then Jonathon & Hannah concluded in solemn reverend Supplication to the throne [at the bottom left of the page "a most us-"] of Grace for help & preservation thro' visissitudes of time - & the Meeting closed under as solemn a covering as I ever felt - The Corpse was interd in the upper ground in the Medow field by the side of her late husband - She was the daughter of old James Chase & a woman much respected by friends & others -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 4, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 4th of 4th M 1821 / I have finished transcribing the Manuscript sent me by Thos Thompson of Liverpool that was written by my great great Grandfather DANIEL GOULD, a Certificate & epistle which he rec'd from friends in Maryland, and also to write some little account of his Life & make a few extracts from his Journal. -- & if I can complete all this to

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

my Mind, I think to send it to the Meeting for Sufferings, to see if they will not think it best to publish it. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 5, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 5th of 4 M / Our meeting was silent, & to me rather a dull season, particularly so as I was laboring under an hard cold & Cough – After Meeting The committee in care of the Jamestown Meeting met & concluded to open a meeting there the insuing season. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 8, Sunday: Austrian forces defeated the Piedmontoise followers of Carlo Alberto at Novara west of Milan.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 8th of 4 M / Our Meetings were both Silent but seasons of precious favor to me. – the women's side of the house was thin, as it rained hard most of the day – My desires are that Zion may yet arise & shine in her ancient splendor, & for this has been the travel of my spirit this day together with the preservation of mine own Soul. – There are generally a goodly number attends our Meeting who sit quietly & seem to know a better feeding place than that of Words

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 12, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 12th of 4th M 1821 / Our first meeting was a solid opportunity. Abigail Sherman spoke a short testimony also Father Rodman & Hannah Dennis were engaged in short lively communications – The Select Meeting which followed was a Season of Search, & some weighty considerations proposed. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 13, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 13th of 4 M / This Afternoon Went out of Town on buisness intending to stay some days – lodged at Pardon Browns where I went to clean his Clock – Next morning finding myself unwell, finished my buisness & returned home in the Afternoon & found Uncle Stanton had sent in for my H & John to spend the Day, & stay all night, & finding the exercise of Walking had much relieved my back which was very lame, I took a Chaise & went out again, & got to Uncle Stantons fofore tea time, where we lodged. –

Next Morning being First Day we went to Portsmouth Meeting where

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

we found Sarah Tucker who appeared twice in Testimony & a few words were spoken by Anne Dennis & a precious Meeting it Was. Sarah I thought was favord to speak to the States of some present in a remarkable manner. – We returned & dined at Uncle Stantons spent the Afternoon & rode home. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 19, Thursday: In an attempt to develop a remote coal area, the British Parliament passed a bill to build a steam rail line from Darlington to Stockton-on-Tees.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 19th of 4th M / I feel this morning my mind quickened & enlivened with desires for preservation & enlargement – at last a dull meeting & so we see times & seasons are not at our command

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

April 22, Easter Sunday: James Burrill Curtis was born in Providence, Rhode Island to the newlywed couple George Curtis and Mary Elizabeth Burrill Curtis.

In response to unrest in his Romanian lands and a massacre of Turks by Greeks in the Morea, the Ottoman sultan ordered that the Ecumenical Patriarch Gregorios be hanged in front of his palace in Constantinople. The Archbishops of Adrianople, Thessalonika, and Tirnovo were also hanged. There would follow widespread massacres of Christians by Turks in Thessaly, Macedonia, and Anatolia.

In the Karntnertortheater of Vienna, Franz Schubert's male vocal quartet "Die Nachtigall" to words of Unger was performed for the initial time.

King Joao of Portugal appointed Dom Pedro as his regent in Brazil.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 22 of 4 M / Our Meetings were well attended. In the Morning D Buffum just lifted the latch for Sarah Tucker who followed in a very pertinent & well Authorised testimony at two different Standings – In The Afternoon She was again concerned in a short but lively testimony - Henry Gould & John T Nichols set the evng with us.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

April 23, Monday: A Polonaise in A_b by Fryderyk Franciszek Chopin was performed for the initial time, by the composer and his teacher, Wojciech Zywny.

Francisco de Paula Escudero replaced Eusebio Bardaji y Azara as First Secretary of State of Spain.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 23rd of 4th M 1821 / This Afternoon our fr Sarah Tucker finished her family visits in This town, but did not make a general visit in Newport her concern laying chiefly to those who had familys particularly of young children - Father Rodman accompanied her about Town - In Portsmouth & Middletown her visits were more general - & all to good satisfaction - It is cause of thankfulness that The father of Mercies is moving on the hearts of his servants to labor in the Vineyards & May this labor of love prove to his honor - may the good seed be sown, take root downward & spring upward & produce an hundred fold.-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

April 24, Tuesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 24th of 4th M / This Afternoon went with Dr Hazard to take a ride. - We went to visit my Aged cousin Elizabeth Chase Spent the time & took tea with her - during this visit my mind dwelt much on Old times a degree of pleasure & pain Attending

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Daniel Webster appealed to the Senate of Massachusetts that they not impeach his client, Judge James Prescott.²⁷³

Mr. President, the case is closed! The fate of the respondent is in your hands. It is for you now to say, whether, from the law and the facts as they have appeared before you, you will proceed to disgrace and disfranchise him. If your duty calls on you to convict him, let justice be done, and convict him; but, I adjure you, let it be a clear, undoubted case. Let it be so for his sake, for you are robbing him of that for which, with all your high powers, you can yield him no compensation; let it be so for your own sakes, for the responsibility of this day's judgment is one which you must carry with you through life. For myself, I am willing here to relinquish the character of an advocate, and to express opinions by which I am prepared to be bound as a citizen and a man. And I say upon my honor and conscience, that I see not how, with the law and constitution for your guides, you can pronounce the respondent guilty. I declare that I have seen no case of wilful and corrupt official misconduct, set forth according to the requisitions of the constitution, and proved according to the common rules of evidence. I see many things imprudent and ill-judged; many

273. Edwin P. Whipple's THE GREAT SPEECHES AND ORATIONS OF DANIEL WEBSTER WITH AN ESSAY ON DANIEL WEBSTER AS A MASTER OF ENGLISH STYLE (Boston: Little, Brown, 1879).

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

things that I could wish had been otherwise; but corruption and crime I do not see.

Sir, the prejudices of the day will soon be forgotten; the passions, if any there be, which have excited or favored this prosecution will subside; but the consequence of the judgment you are about to render will outlive both them and you. The respondent is now brought, a single, unprotected individual, to this formidable bar of judgment, to stand against the power and authority of the State. I know you can crush him, as he stands before you, and clothed as you are with the sovereignty of the State. You have the power "to change his countenance and to send him away." Nor do I remind you, that your judgment is to be rejudged by the community; and, as you have summoned him for trial to this high tribunal, that you are soon to descend yourselves from these seats of justice, and stand before the higher tribunal of the world. I would not fail so much in respect to this honorable court as to hint that it could pronounce a sentence which the community will reverse. No, Sir, it is not the world's revision which I would call on you to regard; but that of your own consciences, when years have gone by and you shall look back on the sentence you are about to render. If you send away the respondent, condemned and sentenced, from your bar, you are yet to meet him in the world on which you cast him out. You will be called to behold him a disgrace to his family, a sorrow and a shame to his children, a living fountain of grief and agony to himself.

If you shall then be able to behold him only as an unjust judge, whom vengeance has overtaken and justice has blasted, you will be able to look upon him, not without pity, but yet without remorse. But if, on the other hand, you shall see, whenever and wherever you meet him, a victim of prejudice or of passion, a sacrifice to a transient excitement; if you shall see in him a man for whose condemnation any provision of the constitution has been violated or any principle of law broken down, then will he be able, humble and low as may be his condition, then will he be able to turn the current of compassion backward, and to look with pity on those who have been his judges. If you are about to visit this respondent with a judgment which shall blast his house; if the bosoms of the innocent and the amiable are to be made to bleed under your infliction, I beseech you to be able to state clear and strong grounds for your proceeding. Prejudice and excitement are transitory, and will pass away. Political expediency, in matters of judicature, is a false and hollow principle, and will never satisfy the conscience of him who is fearful that he may have given a hasty judgment. I earnestly entreat you, for your own sakes, to possess yourselves of solid reasons, founded in truth and justice, for the judgment you pronounce, which you can carry with you till you go down into your graves; reasons which it will require no argument to revive, no sophistry, no excitement, no regard to popular favor, to render satisfactory to your consciences; reasons which you can appeal to in every crisis of your lives, and which shall be able to assure you, in your own great extremity, that you have not judged a fellow-creature without mercy.

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Sir, I have done with the case of this individual, and now leave it in your hands. But I would yet once more appeal to you as public men; as statesmen; as men of enlightened minds, capable of a large view of things, and of foreseeing the remote consequences of important transactions; and, as such, I would most earnestly implore you to consider fully of the judgment you may pronounce. You are about to give a construction to constitutional provisions which may adhere to that instrument for ages, either for good or evil. I may perhaps overrate the importance of this occasion to the public welfare; but I confess it does appear to me that, if this body give its sanction to some of the principles which have been advanced on this occasion, then there is a power in the State above the constitution and the law; a power essentially arbitrary and despotic, the exercise of which may be most dangerous. If impeachment be not under the rule of the constitution and the laws, then may we tremble, not only for those who may be impeached, but for all others. If the full benefit of every constitutional provision be not extended to the respondent, his case becomes the case of all the people of the Commonwealth. The constitution is their constitution. They have made it for their own protection, and for his among the rest. They are not eager for his conviction. They desire not his ruin. If he be condemned, without having his offences set forth in the manner which they, by their constitution, have prescribed, and in the manner which they, by their laws, have ordained, then not only is he condemned unjustly, but the rights of the whole people are disregarded. For the sake of the people themselves, therefore, I would resist all attempts to convict by straining the laws or getting over their prohibitions. I hold up before him the broad shield of the constitution; if through that he be pierced and fall, he will be but one sufferer in a common catastrophe.

April 25, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 25th of 4th M / This Afternoon Walked out to Uncle Stantons & lodged - Next Morning Rode with Aunt Patty to Meeting it being Monthly Meeting - In the first Hannah Dennis was engaged in a lively sweet testimony of encouragement & Sarah Tucker was concerned in a Truly Apostolic testimony which strengthened (I have no doubt) The hearts of Many brethren - Mine did rejoice to feel renewed spring of gospel love flow to the people & a very good meeting it Was. - The buisness of the last meeting went on well - A proposition was made from the Select Committee to add some suitable friends as Elders which after being considered, a committee was appointed to consider of The Subject & report such names as they might think suitable. - Returned & dined at Uncle Stantons sister Ruth with us - & after dinner Uncle Sent his waggon to bring us home. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

April 29, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 29 of 4th M 1821 / Yesterday Afternoon I went to Conannicut & lodged last Night at Cousin Joseph Greenes - Attended Meeting there, it being the first held there this season. it was Father Rodmans & Ruth Mitchells turn to go, but they both being unwell, I went in their stead - it was a large Meeting & a good solid one - Mary Weedon delivered a short testimony

Dined at Joseph Greenes & returned in season to attend Afternoon Meeting at home - in which Jons Dennis & Hannah Dennis bore a short testimony

It has been as day of some favor to me. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 1, Tuesday: At the Tuileries in Paris, Blanche de Provence, ou La cour de fees, an opera by Luigi Cherubini, Adrien Boeildieu and three others to words of Theaulon de Lambert and de Rance, was performed for the initial time.

Samuel Phillips Prescott Fay was appointed as Judge of Probate.

HDT

WHAT?

INDEX

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

THE 1ST TUESDAY IN MAY WAS THE ANNUAL “MUSTER DAY,” ON WHICH ALL THE ABLEBODIED
WHITE MEN OF A TOWN WERE SUPPOSEDLY REQUIRED TO FALL INTO FORMATION, WITH THEIR PERSONAL FIREARMS, TO UNDERGO THEIR ANNUAL DAY OF MILITARY TRAINING AND MILITIA
INDOCTRINATION.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day 1st of 5 M 1821 / Our friends have this forenoon gone to attend The Quarterly Meeting at Greenwich - every circumstance considered I felt most easy to Stay at home tho' I trust my concern for the good cause is not decreased yet considering that I have attended five Quarterly Meetings in Succession & thereby have expended more time & money than I can afford, I believe it was best at this time to omit going - Often at these meetings has my strength been renewed & my

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

understanding enlarged & it is my testimony that it is worth while to devote as much time to them as we can consistently the faces of our friends revive us, love is increased by an intercourse with them, & thus are helped & are helpful to others.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 2, Wednesday: Carl Maria von Weber and his spouse Caroline Brandt arrived in Berlin from Dresden for the premiere of Der Freischutz.

Les Arts rivaux, a scene lyrique by Adrien Boieldieu and Berton to words of Chazet, was performed for the initial time, at the Hotel de Ville, Paris.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day 2 of 5 M / This has been a day of bustle & some confusion being the Annual State Election, but tho' I have been necessarily exposed to some of it, yet my mind has been in good measure abstracted & feel thankful that no accident has occurred in the course of it

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 3, Thursday: Johann Nepomuk Hummel gave a concert in Berlin. While in the city, he would make the acquaintance of royal Kapellmeister Gasparo Spontini.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 3rd 5th M 1821 / Oh! the poverty of our meeting this day – while I hope & trust there were some present that enjoyed the light of life, I have to lament my own nothingness

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 4, Friday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day 4th of 5th M / Friends have returned from Greenwich & give a pretty favorable account of the Quarterly Meeting – Sister Ruth informs that a number of Friends remembered their love to us, which was comfortable – Also that Our Aged cousin Abigail Casey is very low & evidently drawing near the close of life. She sent her love to us probably for the last time. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 6, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 6th of 5 M / Our Meetings were both Silent, to me seasons of some exercise, some favor & some leanness. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 10, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

5th day 10th of 5 M / Silent Meeting - I have humbly to acknowledge that I am poor. - Oh may light & life again arise. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 13, Sunday: Issachar J. Roberts was baptized by the Reverend William Martin in Shelbyville, Tennessee.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

*1st day 13 of 5 M / In the Morning a large Solid & favord Meeting our Frd D Buffum was engaged in a weighty lively & pertinent testimony on the Subject of Silent Meetings The dear old mans shines bright & is remarkably green in old age. -Hannah Dennis followed him in a corresponding testimony, sweet lively & in Authority -
Silent in the Afternoon but a good Meeting Sister Elizabeth teek tea & spent the evening with us.*

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 14, Monday: Olympia, an opera by Gaspare Spontini to words of Dieulafoy and Briffaut, translated by Hoffmann, was performed for the initial time, in the Berlin Opera. The audience included Carl Maria von Weber, in town for the premiere of Der Freischutz. This was the German version of Olympie.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 14th of 5 M / Attended the funeral of Nancy Dennis the sitting was solid & Hannah Dennis was engaged in a lively & to my feeling pertinent testimony. -- She was once a member of our Society & was buried after our manner & in our burying place near the Meeting house by the side of her Mother Lydia Dennis Rec'd this Afternoon a letter from my unknown frd Thos Thompson of Liverpool Friend Stephen had never met him in person, but must have known of him through [Paul Cuffe] dated 31 of 3 M last wherein he acknowledges the receipt of my letter & several Books & manuscripts, sent him some time past. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 17, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 17th of 5th M 1821 / At Meeting Jona Dennis was engaged in a Shroort testimony. - it was a season of exercise to me, & I hope to some proffit. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 20, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 20th of 5th M / Proving await me. The Prayer of my Soul is for preservation. - I long to attain to that State of Christian experience wherein the things which perplex vex & grieve can have no assendency

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Our Meetings were both Silent & I thought favord - The Morning meetitng was very full, & the Afternoon larger than common, in some measure owing to their being no meetings at two of the other Meeting houses in town.-

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 24, Thursday: Piaui adhered to the liberal government of Belem, Brazil.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 24th of 5 M / Our meeting was about as usual for size, was solid & comfortable to my mind - To some present I have no [known?] it was a Season of baptism, of proffitable Baptism. - Jonathon Dennis was concerned in a short testimony. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May 27, Sunday: Charles Griffin of Gloucester, 23 years of age, died in Batavia.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 27th of 5 M / Our founnoon meeting was a season of precious favour to my mind. - Hannah Dennis was concerned in a sweet & lively testimony - on the subject of Samuels going to anoint a king from the house of Jesse, first the oldest tallest & best looking, came before him, which proved not to be the one & so in succession till it went thro' the family till it came to the youngest who was young & ruddy in countenance - this contrary to appearance & expectation proved to be the one on whom royal dignaty Was to be confered. here She drew the contrast between a Specious religion, goodly in appearance, but not of the right stamp. - & that which was meek & lowly & more likely to be overlooked but of the true kind & recommended to us to be inward in our minds that we might come to the true discernment between thing & thing - Father Rodman enlarged on her Subject shewing the liability of human judgement in matters of religion - had Samuel attended to his first impression when he exclaimed that "Surely the Lords anointed was before him." he would have erred & anointed the wrong person, thereby involving himself & the nation in much affliction &c. - Hannah concluded in Solemn supplication - In the Afternoon we were Silent, but a solid Good meeting, & as in the morning several attended who are not usual attendants of our meetings - After Meeting I took John & went out to D Buffums & took tea with him & his wife.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

May 31, Thursday: Formal dedication of the Cathedral of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, in Baltimore, the first Roman Catholic cathedral in the USA. The construction, designed by Benjamin Henry Latrobe, had begun in 1806.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th M 31st 1821 5th day / In our Moy [Monthly] Meeting this Day Anne Greene appeared in testimony with much sweetnes - there were two other short testimonys of the Authority for which I can say but little - In the last we had considerable buisness & among it was the weighty appointment of a female Elder which resulted (I trust) to her encouragement & (I hope) & believe to the satisfaction of the Meeting. - Ruth Mitchell, Adam Anthony & Doctor Wadswroth dined with us. - This evening between 7 OClock DIED JONATHON ALM, Town Clerk, Aged 76 years he had been Town Clerk about 20 years

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 2, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 2nd of 6 M 1821 / This Afternoon attended the funeral of my Old friend JONATHON ALMY, he was a pleasant companion & I loved him much & shall miss him for a long time, in his Office he was affable & kind, & having frequent reason to go to the Town Clerks office I became intimate with him - my mind was more than commonly affected at his funeral. - This Afternoon Sister Mary came down to have a tooth pulled, in which she suffered much which --tul my sympathy [word obscured by spine]

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 3, Sunday: Gigar Iyasu replaced Iyoas II Hezqeyas as Emperor of Ethiopia.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 3rd of 6th M 1821 / Our Meeting was large this morning & D Buffum was engaged in a lively & powerful testimony - In the Afternoon it was well attended & Silent. - A very considerable number meets with us who are not members, & I trust they, or many of them, come from religious motives, & I trust know how to enjoy a Silent meeting. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 4, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 4th of 6th M / Felt my self under the necessity this mornng to leave my buisness & go with Doctor Hazard, out to Uncle Stantons, he has been quite unwell for some time & required bleeding. - the operation affected him much & made him very sick

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

& faint but before we left him This Afternoon he was about & quite Smart. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 June 7, Thursday: A group of Greek landowners declared itself the government of the Peloponnesus.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 7th of 6M / I was sorry to be detained from meeting this day, but having buisness of a peculiar nature that could not be defer'd, submitted with reluctance to my situation – Those who were at meeting said it was a precious season & that short testimonys were deliverd by Father Rodman & Abigail Robinson. –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 June 9, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 9 of 6th M / Our Yearly meeting begins at Portsmouth this morning. I went out last night to Uncle Stantons & Lodged –Our Select meeting was a Season of favor Our frd Stephen Grellet was engaged in much Gospel love to point out many christian experiences & Doctrines to the consolation of many present & I supposed a few were disturbed at Some things he Said. – After Meeting I returned & dined dat Uncle Stantons & in the After Meeting rode home in the Rain & got much weter than I have been in many years –

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 June 10, Sunday: There was a major fire in Bridgetown on the island of Barbados.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 10th of 6th M 1821 / The Morning Meeting was large as usual – The first I could not approve being of J S & of a spirit that stands for condemnation. – After some time Hannah Field was engaged in a precious testimony & Stephen Grellett was very large & Truth rose over all, by his testimony, soon after which The Meeting closed. –

In the Afternoon the Meeting was interrupted in the forepart of it by two unsavory appearances, at least they were unseasonable & I believe did no good – next Hannah Field was concerned in a well Authorised & skilfull testimony then Deborah Otis in Supplication, & Mary Allen in a Baptising testimony concluded the Meeting

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 June 11, Monday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day / The Meeting opened under a very solemn covering David

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

Buffum appeared in a very reverend & impressive testimony - his opening was, where the Apostles received an injunction to tarry in Jerusalem untill they were endued with Power from on high. - Then Stephen Grellett in a solemn & very Baptising prayer, & the meeting under that covering proceeded to buisness & went thro' the usual service, in conducting which Some little Spirits Shewed themselves, but Truth rose above all & held dominion thro' all. - it is a season of deep trial & exercise in society, but I trust Zion will arise & shine & her Ancient beauty will be more & more conspicuous to people & Nations. - In the Afternoon we were again troubled as last Year with Jeremiah Austin, a disowned member from Nantucket, he came and took his seat & persisted in Sitting but After a while by persuasion went out. - After which S Grellett addressed the meeting in a very Solemn manner on the subject of Watchfulness least we also become castaways, alluding to Jeremiah who had once stood well in society - The Answers to the queries excited many remarks from many exercised friends, & tho' the wormwood was again dispenced, yet Truth bore the dominion, & there was renew'd cause to trust in Israels Shepperd, who will never forsake his humble dependant ones, not leave his Church without faithful Pillars to Support it The Meeting adjourned till 4 OClock tommorrow Afternoon

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 12, Tuesday: Egypt annexed the Sudan.

Ontario Canal Company subscriptions reached $20,000.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

3rd day / The Select Meeting was a season wherein a portion of Affliction was dispenced, but Truth was in dominion to the comfort & encouragement of Many hearts, Some of whom are in great travel [travail] for the prosperity of Zion. - The Meeting at large in the Afternoon was a memorable time - The usual buisness was transacted, & tho' a wrong spirit was manifested by J Harris. - yet "TRUTH The everlasting Truth was over all above all & as G Fox said "On atop". -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 13, Wednesday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

4th day / The meeting at large did not meet this forenoon but the Select meeting did at 8 OClock & closed about Noon under fresh evidences of the Mighty power of Truth. In the Afternoon the Meeting for the members at large gathered at the 3rd hour & concluded the buisness before it in which the same life & Authority continued, the same wrong spirits appeared, particularly when the epistles were under consideration yet they were allways promptly met & laid, no rising was Successful & in every Setting we had fresh evidences of the Mighty power of Truth, for which according to my measure I desire to ascribe Thanksgiving & praise where it is alone due.

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 14, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day / In our Public meeting (with the exception of a spurious offering in the forepart) Truth rose into dominion by the preaching of our Beloved Brother Stephen Grellett & when he sat down a most solemn covering was felt over the Meeting - after a space - Hannah Field appeared in a very lively testimony & the meeting closed soon after a short but well adapted testimony from Benjamin Fry

The Meeting was Smaller than usual in consequence of its being a very rainy day. -

After dinner we parted with nearly all our friends that have constituted our family thro' the Yearly Meeting who were - Rowland Greene & his daughter Phebe and Freelove & Son Elisha from Plainfield - Daniel Howland & Thomas Anthony, from Greenwich - Stephen Oliver, Micajah Collins Pratt, Isiah Chase, Sarah Collins from Hopkinton

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 15, Friday: The guard in the King's Mews mutinied in support of Lady Caroline Amelia of Brunswick-Wolfenbüttel, Princess of Wales.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

6th day / My Mother, Cousin Molly Howland & Cousin Hannah Gardiner Spent the Afternoon with us - we also had a call from Micajah Collins & wife who remain in Town, expecting to be here on first day. - Stephen Grellett Attends a meeting at Warren this Afternoon & expects to return to Portsmouth & attend meeting there next first Day

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

June 17, Sunday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

1st day 17th of 6th M 1821 / Our frd Micajah Collins attended both Meetings with us - in the Morning he was engaged in a lively & useful testimony, also in the Afternoon tho' the gospel key did not rise as in the forenoon yet I believe many hearts were Sensibly baptized & particularly among the Youth. -

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

FRIEND STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

STEPHEN WANTON GOULD

GO TO MASTER HISTORY OF QUAKERISM

 June 18, Monday: James Elliot Cabot was born.

At 7PM, Carl Maria von Weber's romantic opera Der Freischutz to words of Kind after Apel and Laun was performed for the initial time, at the opening of the rebuilt Berlin Schauspielhaus. In the audience was an interested 12-year-old, Felix Mendelssohn. Within the following two years, Der Freischutz would be staged in all the important theaters of Germany.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

2nd day 18th of 6th M / This morning I went with Micajah to visit -ty Carpenter & Avis Howland - & Wm Lee & his hopeful while where he had much useful matter to communicate - his wife Dined with us & set the Afternoon at A Robinsons & my [H] with them. they went to R. Mitchells to lodge

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 June 21, Thursday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

5th day 21 of 6 M 1821 / Our meeting was short & Silent, & to me a season of some poverty. - Before Meeting attended the funeral of John Dennis son of John Dennis a young man who was unfortunately drowned on 3rd day Afternoon

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 June 23, Saturday: Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

7th day 23rd of 6 M / Sally Porter has just left us to return to her home at Narragansett & from thence is to set out with her son for the State of Tennasee where She expects to Spend the residue of her days. - She is an old friend & acquaintance of my mother & aunt Stantons, her Maiden name was Johnson & is related to the family of Malbons - it was affecting, particularly to Mother & Aunt Stanton to part with her, not expecting to meet again in this life, but part we must & soon must take the solemn & final change as to all things here

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

 June 24, Sunday: South American forces under Simón Bolívar defeated Spanish and Loyalist troops at Carabobo on Lake Maracaibo, insuring the independence of Venezuela.

Sophia Elizabeth Thoreau's 2d birthday.

Friend Stephen Wanton Gould wrote in his journal:

